WHISKARD'S

TWO BUSY DEPARTMENTAL STORES.

Have you heard the story, full of love and pride and glory.
How a pair of happy sweethearts made their minds up to get In the garden sat sweet Kosey, bright and gay as any Fairy, wed And beside her George was sitting, listening to the words she said.

George, Have You Heard

That Whiskard's Millinery Opening is this week, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday?
What the Thorn is to the Rose

A mighty disappointment when you get it. So an unsuitable hat is to a fine costume. You are dowdy in spite of all if your hat is wrong. You look well in anything if your hat is right. It is a pity to spoil a stylish dress with a common hat; it is a sin to risk it. You risk nothing when you get your hat at WHISKARD'S.

Ladies, call and see us. You will find without any exaggerated statements our Hats and Bonnets are right, and we know our prices will suit you. All welcome.

This is no Time For Trifling

If you've got a single dollar to spend—spend as though there wasn't another in sight.

Doing Good Work.

Annual Meeting of the Women's Christian Association.

Twenty-Two Years of Charity and Usefulness.

The Officers Re-elected—Gratifying Reports—A Tidy Cash Balance—The Conditions of the Homes.

The 22nd annual meeting of the Women's Christian Association of this city was held yesterday afternoon in the "Y" rooms, Dundas street. The president, Mrs. Robt. Reid, sen., was in the chair, and the others present were: Mesdames Carrae, Peto, Hopkins, Fraser, Ward, Burns, Hyttenrauch, Chapman, Davies, Ingram, Cox, Merchant, Meek, Perrin, Smith, Jackson, Hutchinson, Piper, Winnett and Campbell, and Misses Moore, Boyle, McKellar and Lochhead.

All the officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. They are: President, Mrs. R. Reid; first vice-president, Mrs. Carrae; second vice-president, Mrs. Peto; secretary, Mrs. Pattullo; assistant secretary, Mrs. Kennedy; treasurer, Mrs. Perrin.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The secretary, Mrs. Pattullo, in her report, reminded the association of the fact that last year they had attained their majority, and now that they had reached the mature age of 22, they ought to be doing their best work.

Looking over the records of past years they found one grand plan running throughout and progress being steadily made. Still there were corners to be filled out, defects to be remedied, and far more to be accomplished than had yet been done.

If they would only profit by the experience they might in years to come be much wiser and more able to solve some of the problems which now demanded their energies.

Meaning they felt cheered and encouraged by the evident improvement made during last year.

The report continued, "Mrs. Trotter, ever wise and faithful, has been unwavering in her care of the inmates. In the Home for incurables a change of location has taken place, a home on Dundas street having been purchased, which is more accessible than the former one. A new lady superintendent, who comes very highly recommended, has arrived to take charge of this home."

"The relief committee have as usual had abundance of work among the sick and destitute poor, especially during the winter weather of last winter. Eight hundred and thirty-five visits have been made to 97 families, among whom were 388 children, 288 of whom were 21 years of age and under."

"The thanks of the association were tributed to the many who had contributed to the comfort of the inmates in the homes, to those who assisted in conducting religious services, to the members of the medical profession for advice and attention, and to the city press. The secretary applied for the continuation of generosity and for making the Home for Incurables a firm basis, and aid in carrying it all that such an institution should be a credit to the city of London."

THE HOMES.

Mrs. J. H. Fraser reported on behalf of the visiting committee of the Aged People's Home and Home for Incurables. She stated that with regard to the former everything had gone on quietly and satisfactorily during the past year under the skillful management of Miss McCallum, who had endeared herself to all the inmates by her kindness and attention towards them.

During the summer a much needed improvement was added to the home. The building formerly used as a root house had been enlarged, and was used as a laundry. The men had worked well in the garden, and had succeeded in growing a large number of vegetables. Considering the advanced age of the majority of the inmates of this institution, their general health had been very good for the past year. Three men had died, all of them quite old. There had been twenty admissions during the year and there were at present 53 inmates—29 men and 24 women.

Four inmates had died during the past year. Six patients were admitted, three discharged, and at present there were eight inmates.

JAIL WORK.

Mrs. Chas. Hutchinson's report on jail work showed that services had been regularly held in the jail, conducted by the Ministerial Association, admitted Army and Navy Brotherhood, each taking alternate Sundays. There were fewer women prisoners than in former years, but the great hardship still existed of lunatics being confined there, and kept waiting for months before being examined. Fewer children had been in the jail for any length of time, owing to the vigilant efforts of the Children's Aid Society.

The library had been a great source of pleasure to many of the inmates during the year. Sixty women had passed through the jail since this time last year. Services had been held regularly in the hospital, except for a period when a good deal of severe sickness in the wards prevailed, and on that account they were discontinued.

Mrs. Hopkins reported for the visiting and relief committee, and Miss M. A. Moore gave the report of the devotional committee.

The session lasted over two hours, when an adjournment was made till this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the committees will be appointed.

The French Minister of War lately offered a prize for the swiftest bird in a flight from Perigueux to Paris, 210 miles. There were 276 entries, and the winner did the distance in 7 hours and 24 minutes.

Laughing gas—Witty talk.

An Aching Back.

The kidneys cannot talk, and the only way they are of letting us know when they are sick is by making our backs ache. If it is only a little ache the kidneys are only a little sick. If it is a big peace-deceiving, nerve-racking ache the kidneys are more than a little sick. In either case it must be attended to at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys, make them strong and healthy, stop aching backs in every case. Here is a sample case. Mr. Charles M. Allen, 412 Richmond street, London, Bank of Commerce Building says:

"I have been ailing for the past eight months with kidney troubles. I had severe pain across the back and between the shoulders, neuralgic pains across my eyes, so much so that I thought something was the matter with my eyes that would compel the use of spectacles. I felt unreasonably tired and weak all the time, seemed to have no ambition, my head felt heavy and my sleep was poor; I did not rest, sometimes I could not sleep one hour all night. The urine was red-colored and unnatural in flow, and I had scarcely any appetite. I felt really miserable day in and day out.

"The one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Store, gave me immediate relief from all depressing troubles. I am now free from all of the terrible symptoms which afflicted me. I feel splendid, have vigorous health, have gained four pounds in weight, and am certain that no other remedy could have produced the effect which Doan's Kidney Pills have in my case, for I had previously tried almost every other remedy on the list."

No extravagance seems too great for modern European royalties. The Czar and Czarina of Russia went to Scotland in their new yacht, which cost $1,600,000, and requires a crew of 20 officers and 350 men to man.

The story that Hon. Mr. Chamberlain, British Colonial Secretary, was guarded by a corps of detectives while in New England, lest he might be assaulted by a bloodthirsty Yankee, should be taken with a grain of salt.

The management of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, have placed a large number of bicycle lock stalls in the church corridors for the accommodation of the wheeling portion of the congregation. It seems to be as reasonable to come to the aid of wheelmen in this way as to provide sheds for the tying up of horses.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says that if the Czar has been able to withstand the "skirling" of the Scotch bagpipers at Balmoral he is bomb-proof. If our contemporary does not have a care, the colonel who is at the head of the London St. Andrew's Society will move his forces down to the border, and declare hostilities. Our contemporary may not know that the bagpipes is the national machine for producing music among a large number of the Czar's subjects.

In marked contrast with the visit of the Russian Czar and Czarina will be that of the next noted Russian of today. "There is some possibility," says the London Echo, "that Count Tolstoy may visit England this Christmas. At any rate, he is thinking of going to Sweden some time in the autumn, and an effort will certainly be made to extend his visit to this country. Fortunately, the veteran Russian novelist and prophet, who has lately abandoned his long novel to write a semi-religious book for children, speaks English pretty fluently."

A late dispatch chronicles the fact that four persons landed from the Austrian corvette Albatross on a scientific expedition in the South Seas, were killed and six others wounded by the natives of Guadalcanar, one of the Solomon Islands. The bodies of the dead were not recovered, as the islanders are cannibals. M. Foulton, the geologist of the expedition, was one of those killed. If the cannibals could read, they might consider that they found a vindication for their hideous conduct in the recently published declarations of M. Parnant, a noted member of the Ethnological Society of France, who extols the merits of human flesh, declaring that no more nourishing food can be obtained, if it be only chosen with care. He points out that according to the unanimous testimony of explorers the natives who enjoy the most robust health and can endure physical fatigue better than any others are those who live principally on human flesh.
M. Parnant might find it a somewhat dangerous thing to establish a canibalistic fad.

Be Merciful Doctor!

Dr. Landerkin felt good, and cracked his joke as opportunity offered, even while his party sat in the cold shades of Opposition. Now that his friends are in power, the Grey doctor is, of course, not less hilarious in his temperament. But the new Opposition cannot bear his fun-making.
They desire to be left alone in the sombre shades. They are too sad to laugh, and too proud to cry. But they maintain that it is too much for their aggravated spirits to be asked to stay in Opposition, and to listen to Dr.
Landerkin's tantalizing interruptions at the same time. It is all very sad. Pray, doctor, have mercy upon the tender-hearted, disappointed ones.

The Telegraphers' Strike.

It is earnestly to be hoped that the telegraphers' strike on the Canadian Pacific Railway may soon be amicably settled.

So far the rupture has caused loss to the men and loss to the company as well.

It is in the interests of both parties to the dispute, as well as in that of the general public, whose servants railway companies are, that the dispute should be brought to a close as speedily as possible.

If the parties could once get together, and by mediation see as nearly eye to eye as is possible, it would be much more easy to settle matters.

The trouble about strikes is that, like warfare generally, the longer they continue the wider the breach becomes, and difficulties that at the start might have been comparatively easily adjusted are widened in their scope, until it is next to impossible to arrive at an amicable settlement.

Get together!

Costly Talk.

The Toronto Weekly Sun says that the new Government is not to blame for the extension of the present session of Parliament. "The protraction," remarks our contemporary, "has been caused mainly by the impatience of the Opposition, which would have done better in its own interest by remaining quiet and passing the estimates, which were its own, and reserving its combative force for the regular session."

There certainly has been much unnecessary talk. Mr. Davin's motion to throw off the tax on imported coal oil and other articles is the latest illustration.

'Making' Voters.

The Chicago Tribune publishes the following statement of a scene in a registration court, which shows how voters are made in the Windy City:

An Italian, who was unable to read or write in any language, and whose vocabulary in the English language was restricted to one word, appeared to be naturalized.

"What is your name?" asked his honour.

"McKinley," replied the Italian.

Judge Burke smiled, while another Italian furnished the desired information.

"Can you read or write the English language?" asked the court.

"McKinley," answered the Italian.

"If you can neither read nor write, how do you expect to vote?" persisted the court, while everyone present laughed.

"McKinley," replied the Italian, with a decisive shake of his head.

He was given his papers.

This does not seem to be a very fit subject for laughter. It was a sorrowful spectacle to see a judge placing in the power of a man who could not speak the English language, or comprehend the nature of his duty as a citizen, the right to kill an intelligent man's vote. We will no doubt hear a good deal about the law that allows such a transaction. Our law is all right, but the judge who interpreted it is all wrong. The revised statutes of the United States provide that a man shall not be naturalized unless it be made to "appear to the satisfaction of the court" that "he is attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same." How could this applicant be so regarded?

To Be Avoided.

A New York paper printed a picture of Lord Russell and his wife sitting in a box listening to the speech delivered in that city by Mr. Black, the Republican candidate for the Governorship of New York. Lord Russell was not there, neither was his wife.
The public were misled. This is one disadvantage which newspapers that deem pictures a necessity to convey the meaning of their news labors under. Their artists prepare their pictures ahead, taking chances as to whether or not they are correct representations of what actually takes place, and though no one may suffer by their guilting of the public, they nevertheless are an injury to legiti-mate journalism. What the public desires is correct statements of what is taking place locally and throughout the world, and at the earliest possible moment. To that demand, The Advertiser endeavors to faithfully respond.

Those Sudden Changes.

The Tory papers do not like it to be asserted that Sir Charles Tupper suddenly changed his views as to free trade and protection in 1878. They say he has denied the story. But what about the sudden change in Sir John Macdonald's views about the "National Policy" period? His famous telegram to a certain gentleman in New Brunswick is still extant. — Ottawa Free Press.

Here is the telegram sent in refu-tation of a statement alleged to have been made in this city by the then Conservative leader:

"Toronto, July 19, 1878.

"To John Boyd, St. John:

"It is an absurd falsehood; neither at London, nor elsewhere have I gone beyond my motion in Parliament, and have never proposed an increase, but only a readjustment of tariff.

"JOHN A. MACDONALD."

The Business Outlook

Dun & Co.'s Weekly Statement of Trade in Canada.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—Dun & Co.'s report says: The week shows no special increase in the volume of trade distribution at Montreal. The movement of merchandise countrywards is moderate, but healthy, merchants not purchasing beyond their immediate needs.
Collections, as a whole, are rather poor, and applications for renewals frequent. The low price of produce generally may probably account for the apparent scarcity of money in the country. In drygoods sorting business is hardly very brisk as yet.
With the country and city retailers are also light buyers. The stiffness in all lines of dried fruits is the feature in groceries, and further advances are called in Sultana, raisins and French Imperial plums. No large transactions are reported in metals and hardware, but there is a better distribution in moderate lots. Business in leather is not much brisker, but more inquiry is noted. Wool continues quiet on spot, though a better business is reported in New York and Boston.
Cheese shipments are moderate. The market rules a point or so firmer, but butter also shows a little advance. In the money market there has been no recent change, the general asking rate for all loans being 4-1/2 per cent.

There is no perceptible change in the volume of wholesale trade at Toronto this week. The great sales of the week have been in the line of cattle and sheep, and the demand for farm products have had a great deal to do with this change in sentiment for the better, and beneficial results are expected. Wheat has risen 8 cents a bushel at country points in Ontario within a fortnight; flour is up, and also rye. There is a further advance of 1-1/2 cent in hides, and some improvement in the market for leather trade in consequence. The hog packing industry has about commenced, and farmers anticipate an advance soon. Cattle and hogs are low.
The money markets are unchanged. Call loans on choice stock collateral can be obtained at 5 per cent, and prime commercial accounts are 6 to 6 1/2 per cent. Stocks on the Toronto Exchange were quiet during the week, and some improvement in Cable and Banks of Montreal and Commerce.

The failures for the week are 46, as against 41 for same week last year.

Our Own Dominion.

The Bishop of Niagara, preaching in Holy Trinity, Winnipeg, during the meeting of the General Synod of the Church of England, referred to the church's missionary operations in the foreign field, among the heathen, the ancient civilization of India, China and Japan, and then dealt with the colonies, and finally with the Dominion of Canada. The bishop said: "It is only when we may journey from east to west that we at all begin to realize the inheritance that is ours in this great country. We need another Moses to stand and say to the Canadian people: 'Ye shall bless the Lord your God for the good land he hath given you.' The greatest railway in the world opens up the full extent of this land, carries us from ocean to ocean, from coast to coast, through the most in-jestic, the most astounding scenery on earth; over the inland seas that we call lakes, the boundless prairies, the measureless plains, the rolling mountains, awful gorges, appalling precipices, rolling floods, yawning chasms, broad, rolling rivers, writhing with the ever-boring, the ever-rolling through the rocks, jumping round them, playing with the curves, flying over the canyons, crossing the awful depths, shooting out of the most impossible, battling with the opposing forces that nature through bygone centuries piled up, marvelous engineering feats and continuously eluding, overcoming, beating them down, making all subservient to man's will, till at last we come face to face with the great Pacific. All of this is accomplished with a luxury so great, such an abundant provision for eating and drinking, for rest and enjoyment, easy-going sleepers, superb dining cars, beautiful hotels, nesting among the eternal mountains, and standing out in the coast cities, and undoubtedly constitutes the trip, one of the most enjoyable that it is possible to make, and the great railway and its management throughout all its details, the wonder and admiration of the traveling world, and, incidentally, the mightiest undertaking ever accomplished for the exploration, exposition and development of Canada."—Mani-

Another Triumph for MANLEY'S CE-Mrs. M. Wallace, of 112 Berkeley street, Toronto, writes as follows: I write this to let you know I have used Manley's Celery Nerve Compound for salt rheum and poor blood. I did not know what to take. My daughter advised me to get Manley's Celery Nerve Compound as she knew of a lady who was taking it and it had done her good. I said I would try it; took one bottle and it helped me greatly, my feet got perfectly well, and my complexion became better on account of the improved condition of my blood.

The Strike.

Local Developments in the C. P. R. Telegraphers' Trouble.

Proceedings at a Meeting of Other Railway Men in London.

The Company Says the Strike is Practically Over.

But the Employees Hint at a Tie-Up if a Settlement is Not Effected.

The latest development in the C. P. R. telegraphers' strike at this point is the posting of the following notice: "Employees and all others are hereby notified that any wrongful interference with railway wires, instruments or signals is an indictable offense under the criminal laws of Canada, and punishable by fine and imprisonment, and the company hereby offers the reward of $1,000 for sufficient evidence to detect and convict anyone guilty of such an offense."

MEETING OF RAILWAY MEN.

A meeting of representatives of the Order of Railroad Conductors, Order of Railroad Trainmen, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the striking Order of Railroad Telegraphers was held in the city last night to discuss the situation. They were unanimous in a man in favor of standing by the Order of Telegraphers and aiding them to secure a victory for their grievances. The meeting was attended by 11 who found it possible to get there.

Similar meetings were held at Havellock, Smith's Falls and Toronto Junction, and telegrams were received at the meeting, stating that the men at these points were all of the one opinion, and would all work hand in hand with the operators.

The meeting looked at the strike in every possible way, and the opinion prevailed that the strikers should be recognized and that the fight was one of self-preservation.

The leading railway men were seen this morning. They take this position: The complaint of the telegraphers is one that extends all over the system, and affects every man. There are similar grievances among other employees, and they must be settled by the general management. The rule as to referring grievances to the divisional superintendent is all right, but in the case of the telegraphers they complied with the rules. They got no redress, and then went to the assistant general manager, Mr. Tait. Mr. Tait's only answer to the committee was that "the telegraphers do not require a set of rules."

He said that the grievances should have gone to the assistant superintendent, and at the same time acknowledged that the assistant superintendent had no power to deal with them. If this rule applies to telegraphers, it will be made general in a short time. We must protect ourselves, and that is the reason we will stand by the operators and help them by every means in our power.

The strikers were notified yesterday afternoon that W. V. Powell, chief of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, had left for Montreal, and will take personal direction of operations today.

THE COMPANY'S VIEW.

Mr. Houston was seen this morning and asked if there was anything new in the situation. He replied in the negative. "There is," he said, "no more trouble on the road today than there was a week ago. Our trains are all running, and not a station is vacant between here and Toronto, and only one between here and Windsor—Melrose—and that doesn't amount to much."

"Do you anticipate any trouble?" he was asked.

"Oh, I can't say. I don't see what there can be trouble about."

"Why has the company issued the poster?"

"Well," he said, "there is no denying there is a strike on, but our stations are all filled and everything is moving lovely. All our eastern freight is in. Our Montreal freight came in this morning. By some means the report has got around that there will be trouble about the shipping of freight, but here is a message from General Freight Agent Tiffin, Toronto: 'We do not anticipate any further trouble in handling traffic over any division of our line, newspaper reports notwithstanding.'"

"Is it likely that the company will meet the demands of the men?"

"I am not in a position to say," he replied.

A TELEGRAM.

The following telegram was read to him by the reporter, and asked if it was authentic: "Toronto, Oct. 1.—The members of the operators' committee now in Montreal claim that they were away on leave of absence when the strike occurred, and, therefore, did not quit work as the others did. The company cannot accept these excuses, as the committee were primarily responsible for the blunder. (Signed.)"

"Yes, it is right," "LEONARD," "but where did you get it?"

"From what I considered to be a reliable source," said the reporter, "but I want to know what it means."

"Well, you place whatever construction you please upon it. The company know their business."

"The men say the document is a bluff."

Mr. Houston said it was not, and that the company didn't anticipate any further trouble.

TO BE PAID EXTRA.

Word was received from Toronto this morning that engineers and train crews who are delayed at terminal points in consequence of the disjointed condition of affairs will receive half time, and that train crews called out and delayed will be paid full detention time.

A TIE-UP THREATENED.

Several of the men were seen this morning, and one of them remarked that the company would have to come down off its high horse. If it didn't he said the whole system would be tied up. He said they were giving them ample time, and that because the places of the men were being filled by no means an evidence that the strike is about at an end.

The whole of the railway organizations will be involved if the strike is not settled. Letters have been sent to all the grand masters of the different organizations that the men are in full accord with the telegraph operators, and asking instructions, which are hourly expected to arrive informing the brotherhood men in every department to quit work.

AN OFFER.

The operators along the line west of Toronto received the following message this morning:

"Employees who are out, and whose places have not already been filled, and who have not been guilty of criminal acts, will be permitted to resume work without delay if they report to their superintendents before 2 o'clock this afternoon."

"J. W. LEONARD."

No word has yet been received from the deputation representing the different orders which conferred with the superintendent at Toronto this morning. The outcome of the meeting is anxiously awaited by the local men, who will then know just where they stand and know just what to do.

"THREE GUARDSMEN" TONIGHT.

—The "Three Guardsmen" will have a stage treatment at the Grand Opera House tonight and Saturday evening, with a special matinee Saturday.

The version procured by the distinguished French actor, Charles Fechter, and which has been used in succession by Frank Mayo and Alexander Salvini, is the one that will be utilized to introduce to the local public the young, romantic actor, Paul Cazeneuve. The interpretation of the difficult role of D'Yvigny, the new star, was said to differ materially from those of either Mayo or Salvini, this young portrayer giving it a light comedy treatment, that is said to be more in keeping with the entrancing romance.

The supporting company is said to give a support that aids much in making the presentation an ideal one. The scenic, costume and set decorations will be the same as was used at the Chicago run of the production, and which was admitted to be superior to any seen with a like attraction.
