IRISH FACTIONS DECLARE TRUCE TO TALK UNION

Will Give Both Sides Opportunity To Discuss Army Unification.

CHIEFS SIGN DOCUMENT

Kilkenny Castle, Last of Nine Regular Posts in City, Surrenders.

Dublin, May 4.—A truce between the rival Irish Republican army forces has been declared, it was announced this afternoon.

The truce is operative from 4 o'clock this afternoon until 4 p.m. Monday, with a view to giving both sections of the army an immediate opportunity to discuss a basis for army unification.

That a meeting of representatives of the differing factions in the Irish Republican army had been arranged for today with the object of agreeing to a truce, was announced this morning by Commandant General McKenna of the regular army, to be held in the Mansion House.

The provisions of the truce are: Clause I.—All operations except training and ordinary army routing will cease.

Clause II.—All penetrative operations will cease.

Clause III.—Both sections will co-operate to maintain order and prevent acts of aggression against persons or property.

The document is signed by Owen O'Duffy and Rian Lynch, the chiefs of the staff of the rival forces.

Ten members of the regular Irish Republican army were wounded during the two days' operations in Kilkenny, says an official statement issued from the Beggar's Bush headquarters. There were some casualties among the irregular forces and 108 prisoners were taken.

According to the correspondent of the Irish Independent, the Marquis and Marchioness of Ormonde remained in their castle during the occupation by the irregulars and its siege and capture by the provisional government forces.

The Marquis told the correspondent that the experience "was alarming and uncomfortable," but added that "the Republican party treated us with the utmost courtesy and consideration compatible with the conditions. They did not enter any room unnecessary for military operations, and obtained their own food."

Abandon Kilkenny Castle. The statement from the regular army at Beggar's Bush headquarters on the Kilkenny fighting reads: "Kilkenny Castle, last of the nine posts held by the irregular forces in Kilkenny city, surrendered at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Early yesterday the regulars opened an assault on the castle by machine gun and rifle fire. At about 3 p.m. a small party of troops smashed the panels of the entrance gates with the butts of their rifles."

"When the soldiers rushed the entrance and called on the irregulars to surrender, machine gun fire was opened upon them, wounding two members of the party seriously, and obliging the remainder to take to the hills. The attack continued, and when toward 6 p.m. the replying fire weakened, the gate was again rushed. Three more regulars were wounded in this advance. Intermittent firing continued until 7 o'clock, when the last assault was made."

"On entering, the party of troops smashed the remaining barriers and an armored car was driven through the passage into the courtyard, from which guns were trained on the windows. Parties of troops rushed forward and covered the exits from the castle to the courtyard."

"The defending parties of irregulars then surrendered and, together with all their arms and ammunition, were taken to the military barracks. Ten regulars were wounded, and there were some casualties among the irregulars. Prisoners to the number of 108 were taken."

HUNDREDS FLEE FLOOD IN MANITOBA

CENTRAL ARMY UNDER WU LAYS SIEGE TO PEKING

Leader Brilliantly Turns Chang's Right Wing, Forcing Latter To Retreat.

RAIL TRAFFIC SUSPENDED

Chinese Capital Flooded With Propaganda in Favor of Manchu General.

Peking, May 4.—The troops of General Wu Pei-fu, the central Chinese commander, have surrounded Peking. General Chang Tso-Lin's army, in the vicinity of Peking, has been scattered.

All railroad traffic out of Peking has been suspended.

These developments followed the dispatch of eight train loads of Chang Tso-Lin's soldiers eastward, in the direction of Tien-Tsin.

General Wu, brilliantly turned the right flank of General Chang Tso-Lin's army last evening, according to today's advices from the front. Chang's troops are now in retreat towards Fengtai from Changhsien.

It is exceedingly difficult, however, to obtain authoritative news here of military activities. The city is being flooded with propaganda in favor of the Manchu leader, an example of which was yesterday's report that General Wu had been killed in action.

Even the Feng Tien-ties, as followers of General Chang are known, today admitted that the report was unconfirmed. All but a very few of the newspapers here are under control of Feng Tien-ties.

A special train mysteriously arrived here this morning and stopped between the two Tientsin stations, where an unknown occupant emerged and drove off in a motor car. The Chinese inhabitants generally believe it was General Chang Tso-Lin. The railway through Tientsin, which is on the line between Peking and the sea, is becoming more and more blocked on both sides of the city.

Acting Premier Chow Tzu-Chi has sent Hui to negotiate with General Wu Pei-fu's commander regarding their relations with the Peking government. It was announced this afternoon.

ADMONISHES USE OF U. S. STAMPS

Ottawa, May 4.—(Canadian Press).—Among the notices which have been sent out by the postmaster-general to postmasters throughout Canada is one which calls attention to the fact that "during the tourist season considerable inconvenience is caused by American tourists addressing mail to the United States prepaid with United States postage stamps."

In order to minimize this inconvenience, postmasters are encouraged to put up in conspicuous places posters pointing out that all mail posted in Canada must be prepaid with Canadian stamps.

PATIENT THROWS SELF FROM HOSPITAL WINDOW

Woman, Uninjured, Tells Officials She Tried "To Go Home."

A woman patient in ward 12 on the ground floor of Victoria Hospital threw herself from the window at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning in an endeavor, as she later said, "to go home."

As the drop was only a few feet, she suffered no injuries, and was quite content to be taken to her room again by Drs. Banghart and Cameron.

The patient made an attempt to elude her special nurse shortly after midnight, but was caught by the nurse just as she was raising the window. A close watch was kept on her, but this morning she complained of pains in her head, and asked for something to relieve them.

The nurse had no sooner turned her back than the woman rushed to the window and jumped out.

Superintendent Heard, in speaking of the matter, stated that the patient had been depressed for some time and kept saying that she wanted to go home.

"It was certainly not a case of attempted suicide," declared Mr. Heard. "The patient is quite rational now, and was able to eat a good lunch. She was simply delirious for the time being."

THE BELIEF THAT A GIRL "KNOWS HER OWN MIND" IN SUCH AN IMPORTANT MATTER IS WIDESPREAD. As a matter of fact, she very often does nothing of the sort!

Perhaps she falls in love with a Cavalier at a dance, where romance, lurking in the shadow of the mummer, beckons her. He whispers in her ear, bidding her leave the drabness of everyday life behind.

With the Cavalier whirling her farther and farther away each fleeting moment, it is to be wondered at if little Miss Bluebell answers the call?

"I love you," whispers Romance, leaning over the Cavalier's shoulder.

And "I love you," answers little Miss Bluebell, as her feet go gliding to the music.

Before another hour has passed all their friends know of "the secret." Laughing, gay congratulations spread the tale about.

It is all very nice, very delightful—until the girl is suddenly faced by the problem of "naming the day."

Then she starts thinking. She has been quite happy, blissfully so, during those days when her wedding was hazily peeping out from the future. When the great event looms large upon the horizon it looks

Downham Asks $1,500 Increase

Wars On Peking

GEN. CHANG TSO-LIN.

PEKING, May 4.—President Hsu Shih-Chang made an effort today to end the hostilities between the armies of General Chang Tso-Lin, military governor of Mukden, and General Wu Pei-fu, military leader of Central China, who are fighting for the control of Peking.

President Hsu, after a meeting of the cabinet, sent telegrams to both generals appealing to them to consider the welfare of China and end the civil war.

Dr. W. S. Downham, medical officer of health, has written the city council asking that his salary be raised from $3,500 to $5,000.

Failure on the part of the council to act, says the officer in his letter, will result in an appeal to the county judge, who, under the provisions of the public health act, would then proceed to fix the salary.

When the estimates for the present year were being considered Dr. Downham asked the board of health to increase his salary to $4,000. When the matter was before the civic commission, Mayor Cameron Wilson suggested, and Ald. Childs moved, that the increase for the M.O.H. be struck out. This was done.

Dr. Downham later stated that he would take his case to the county judge.

Dr. Downham's letter to the council leaves the door open for a compromise on the part of the council. Under the provisions of the health act he must serve notice on the council first. The act gives the council a short time to act, as it says that if the officer's application for an increase is not acted upon within ten days he may immediately appeal to the county judge. The latter would proceed to hear evidence and then set the salary of the M. O. H.

Dr. Downham has been noted for his lower salary. The M. O. H. at Hamilton not long ago sought a court ruling and similar action was taken by the health officer at Woodstock and Sudbury.

In all three cases the judge's decision resulted in a material increase in the officer's salary. It may also be noted that in these cases the increase was made retroactive to the first of the year.

The hands of the council are also tied, in that they cannot oust the officer and get a new one, who might be satisfied with the lower salary. The act stipulates that the health officer can only be dismissed with the approval of the provincial officer of health.

SHOOTS SELF IN FRONT OF TRAIN

Toronto, May 4.—Said to have been suffering from a nervous breakdown, Albert Prosser, aged 29 years, a cutter in a ladies' tailoring establishment, residing at 65 Eaton avenue, Toronto, ended his life in a most determined manner shortly before 3 o'clock this morning.

Knelling in the railway tracks in the Don Valley, Prosser placed a revolver to his forehead and fired a bullet through his brain. His body fell across the rails, and was cut to pieces by a Canadian Pacific Railway train.

Prosser leaves a wife and a 4-month-old babe. His wife stated that he had been feeling depressed, but had not given any intimation of his rash act.

British Premier's Wife and Daughter Slightly Hurt in Auto Mishap

GENOA, May 4.—Mrs. Lloyd George, wife of the British prime minister, and her daughter, Megan, were slightly bruised in an automobile accident today near Nervi, a small town, four miles southeast of Genoa. The machine in which they were riding collided with one driven by the son of Premier Brattiano of Rumania. The ability and coolness of both drivers prevented more serious consequences.

STAGE ATHLETIC EVENTS FOR BOY

Potato Race Changed To Relay Event by Kiwanians.

Secretary Houlding Lauds the Splendid Co-operation From Schools.

The boys' week athletic program will be held Thursday night, under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club, when more than 400 boys will compete in five events at the Collegiate gymnasium, the Simcoe street roller rink and the two large gymnasiums in the Y. M. C. A. The games will start at 6:30 o'clock.

"Everything is going along splendidly," said Lloyd Houlding of the Y. M. C. A. this morning. Mr. Houlding is secretary of the general committee through which the holding of a boys' week in London was made possible.

"In every case we have found that the boy is full of enthusiasm and is always ready and eager to do anything to make the week a success. And I'll tell you, the eyes of some of our citizens have been opened to the fact that youths of 'teen age are entitled to the same consideration as the grown-ups."

A letter has been sent to each school principal with instructions for school principal to make the schools in the city in which the boys are competing.

The potato race, as scheduled in the five events, has been changed by the Kiwanis Club to a relay race of the four boys from each school, and the winners of the relay race on each gymnasium floor will compete in a final relay race at Queen's Park on Saturday afternoon at 3:30.

The prizes will consist of ribbons for the individual winners and shields for the schools. Ribbons for first, second and third prizes in each school for each event. A shield will be given to the school winning the relay race and a shield will also be awarded to the school winning the highest number of aggregate points.

That means that the boys obtaining the highest scores in the four events will have their scores of the competition with the highest scores of the other schools. As to the three boys who obtain the highest number of aggregate points shields or medals will be given.

All the boys between the ages of 12 and 15 are grouped into three classes, according to their age and weight, so that every boy will have an even chance of winning.

Mr. Houlding stated this morning that it was the object of the Kiwanis Club to have 75 per cent of the boys Turn to Page 5, Column 3.

SUGGESTS TRAINING SHIP FOR RECALCITRANT BOYS

Dr. Hugh Stevenson, M. L. A., Introduces Bill Proposing New Method of Correction.

Toronto, May 4.—Dr. Stevenson, member for London in the Ontario Legislature, is anxious that when boys break the law and are to be given the option of being sent to a training ship or to Mimico. He had introduced a bill to that effect into the House. He stated today that the Dominion government had promised to make a ship available for training boys in seafaring on the great lakes, and he proposed that boys sent there be under the command of competent officers and the entire project be under the supervision of a committee of the Navy League. He pointed out that the boys should be trained for the merchant marine.

It is true that ninety-nine girls out of a hundred neither feel nor behave like this about their prospective marriage.

But the hundredth does—because not every girl who gets engaged is really in love.

She may, and probably does, think she is. But moonlight, music, the dip of water on the shore, may any one of them have had a hand in the game. Afterwards, when the moonshine, or whatever else it may be, is lacking, comes the test of that love.

And the love that will not stand the test of either the lack of moonshine or music is not the real thing.

At the eleventh hour "Miss Bluebell" grasps this fact. Then—she runs away, and the familiar announcement appears, "The marriage will not take place."

But convention is hard to defy. People expect an engaged girl to marry.

So little Miss Bluebell takes the line of least resistance—up till the very last moment. Then, utterly unable to control herself, she bolts.

FRANCE FAVORS GENOA PARLEY PACT PROPOSED

Insists It Must Not Be Interpreted To Withdraw Treaty Rights.

POLICE MAKE 3 ARRESTS

Paris Authorities Claim Organization For Espionage of French Arsenals Found.

Paris, May 4.—The French cabinet this afternoon approved the text of the proposed non-aggression pact under consideration at Genoa, with the reservation that it must not be interpreted as withdrawing from France any rights she has under treaties.

The ministers spent the entire morning session of the cabinet in studying the text of the pact originally proposed by the military occupation of German territory and brought to Paris by M. Barthou, head of the French delegation at Genoa.

It was deemed necessary to make reservations regarding the rights of France to make use of the prerogatives conferred by the Treaty of Versailles for the military occupation of German territory as a penalty for non-fulfillment of the treaty.

With this reservation the pact was unanimously approved.

The form in which the reservation will be presented at Genoa was expected to be decided upon at another meeting of the cabinet this afternoon.

Premier Poincare and M. Barthou already are engaged in negotiations with Premier Theunis as to the future attitude of the French and Belgian delegations at Genoa on Russian affairs, and an effort is being made to find a text for a reservation in the memorandum to Russia which the conference is likely to accept, and that at the same time would satisfy the Belgians. The latter are understood here to fear strongly the concessions for property in Russia originally owned by Belgium, and now nationalized by Russia, will be traded with by the soviet representatives, and that possibly the concessions will be granted other parties.

Until some way is found to satisfy the Belgian delegation the French will refuse to sign the memorandum to Russia. This means that France will hold aloof from the conference on Russian affairs unless the subcommittee which framed the memorandum decides to withdraw.

M. Barthou will leave Paris for Genoa at 11:40 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Three arrests have been made and numerous others were momentarily expected this afternoon in what the French police claim to be a vast organization for espionage of French arsenals for the benefit of the Russian soviet government.

CLAIMS BIRTHS NOT REGISTERED

Dr. McCullough Declares Action Will Be Taken Against Delinquent Doctors.

Asserts Record Must Be Filed Within 24 Hours of Event.

London doctors who fail to register births with the city clerk within 48 hours of the date of birth are to be haled into court, according to Dr. McCullough, provincial health officer, in a letter to the city clerk.

The provincial officer asks the city clerk to furnish him with the names of delinquent doctors and specific cases on which he may be able to proceed.

Ten to fifteen per cent of the births not registered, says the letter, and it proceeds to state that the conclusion has been reached that the only plan to secure proper registration is to institute legal proceedings against the physicians neglecting this duty.

The request is then made that the clerk in forwarding his monthly return shall give a list of the physicians who fail to forward the physicians' notices within 48 hours after the date of birth, at the same time giving specific instances with names, dates, etc.

The clerk has a double check on births. Parents, as well as doctors, must register births and Mr. Baker would be able to pick out the negligent ones by finding cases where the parents have registered but the physicians have not.

DENIES REPORT BUILDING NOT GOING ON IN LONDON

Inspector Piper Invites Labor Men to See for Themselves.

"Let them come in here and pick out a permit that I have issued and then go out and see if the work is going on," said Building Inspector Piper, discussing the skeptical remarks made by the Labor men Wednesday night in regard to the building figures which the inspector has been giving out.

There is a rush for building permits. Mr. Piper knows it and says he would like the rush to let up for a while until he could catch up with his work. The new policy of charging for all permits is also adding to his troubles somewhat. He cannot see why people would waste time getting a permit and paying for it if they were not going to build.

Mr. Piper, in answer to a query, showed his book for the first four days of the month. They show the following permits issued: May 1, sixteen permits; May 2, twelve permits; May 3, fourteen permits, and in a short time on Thursday morning four permits.

So far this month Mr. Piper has booked up 54 permits, several of which were received too late to appear in the April total. The value of all today is $42,835, or a little better than an average of $10,000 daily.

"Funny they cannot see building going on. I am around the city all the time and I see something doing in nearly every block," said the inspector.

Ottawa, May 4.—With the object of establishing a trade route between Canada and British South Sea Islands for the Canadian Government Merchant Marine and other shipping lines to the mutual benefit of both Canada and the islands, E. ASKS THAT BYLAW BE NOT DELAYED Advisory Vocational Committee Want Action Taken in Proposed Technical School.

Board Members Express Regret That Council Did Not Issue De-

ST. THOMAS, May 3.—The advisory vocational committee of the board of education will ask the mayor for a special meeting of the council in order that the bylaw for the proposed technical school may go to the people without delay, it is understood.

Should the bylaw receive the support of the ratepayers the construction of the building will take about twelve months, and it is thought that every effort should be made to have the school ready for occupancy at the opening of the fall term next year.

Many of the members of the board of education express regret that the council did not see fit to issue debentures to the amount of $360,000, and say that the council's attitude probably resulted from a lack of unanimity in the board.

Criticism of the deputation of trustees at the meeting of the council Tuesday night has resulted from the varying views of the speakers as to the board's willingness to confer with the council regarding the choice of a site.

QUEBEC M. P. P. PREDICTS REPRISALS AGAINST U. S.

Fordney Bill Has Cut Trade Between Countries Tremendously, Figures Show.

New York, May 4.—Henry Miles, of the provincial parliament of Quebec, said here today that there was every prospect of tariff reprisals and a breakdown of trade relations between the United States and his country if America persisted in re-specifying a tariff wall. He was speaking at the opening of the convention of the Proprietary Manufacturers' Association of the United States, and declared that the Fordney tariff bill had within the last eight months reduced exports from Canada to the United States $215,000,000, and reduced exports from the United States to Canada $27,000,000. He said Canada was "now trading where she sells her goods."

The present tariff, he said, "means the construction of an iron-clad wall to keep Canada from bringing goods into the United States. Canada might raise an equivalent iron-clad wall here, too."

PAY OFF LAST MORTGAGE ON LOBO MEMORIAL PARK

Special to London Advertiser.

ILBERTON, May 3.—The opening of the season was marked by a monster meeting of the Lobo union schools picnic committee Monday, and judging by the enthusiasm and spirit of co-operation shown, the 1922 school picnic will be the greatest yet. J. E. Campbell, retiring president, opened the meeting, A. E. McKay acting as secretary. The auditors' report was given by Morrison Sinclair, and the treasurer's report by A. D. Fletcher, showing a balance of $19,255 over all expenditures, and the treasurer created some sensation when he exhibited the last mortgage against Memorial Park paid off and cancelled. This was the first time in the history of the union that the spirit of union and co-operation shown by the people of Lobo.

The election of officers was as follows: President, George Graham (who was called to the chair); first vice-president, Wm. Barber; second vice-president, Thos. Martin; secretary, A. E. McKay (re-elected); treasurer, Morrison Sinclair.

on motion it was unanimously decided to hold the school picnic on the usual date, the second Wednesday of June.

The working committees were appointed, and the matter of providing better seating both for the amusement booth and the audience was fully discussed, and action will be taken in the matter at once.

Pupils Witness Slaying of Schoolmistress By Former Lover.

EXTEND CALL TO REV. C. E. GOSNEL

Members of Paris Baptist Church Unanimously Decide on Kingsville Pastor.

ASSESSMENT COMPLETED

Customs Receipts For the Month of April Show an Increase of $17,256.42.

Special to London Advertiser.
PARIS, May 3.—At a meeting of the members of the Paris Baptist Church, after the morning service, it was unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. C. E. Gosnel of Kingsville, to become pastor of the church. The customs receipts for the month of April show an increase of $17,256.42 over the same month last year. The receipts for April, 1922, were $29,065.33.

Mr. Geo. Tate, assessor, has completed his task for the present year. The population increased by 55 last year. There are now 4,400 people. There is a substantial increase in the assessment and income tax but a decrease in the business tax.

The large bank barn of Andrew and John McLeish, near Paris, was destroyed by fire. A number of small pigs and several calves were lost. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A small roughcast cottage near Braeside was burned to the ground. It is thought that sparks from a grass fire ignited the building. The play put on Tuesday night by the choir and young people of the Congregational Church called "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet," drew a capacity house. The parts were all well taken, and were appreciated by the large audience present.

WALLACEBURG ACT PASSED.
Toronto, May 4.—The act of the town of Wallaceburg, Kent county, through the private bills committee of the legislature with only slight changes, the most important being that the debentures to pay off an existing floating debt can only run for ten years instead of thirty years. SCOTTISH FARMERS ARRIVE IN CHATHAM

Twenty Experienced Men Arrive Under the Charge of Rev. Father McDonnell.

ALL ARE WAR VETERANS

Will Be Placed on Farms in Kent County and Surrounding Districts.

Special to London Advertiser.
CHATHAM, May 3.—Twenty experienced farmers, most of them single men, arrived in the city today from Scotland, under the charge of Rev. Father McDonnell of Charing Cross, who met them at Quebec. All the men saw service in the late war, most of them in famous Highland regiments, such as the Black Watch, Argyll and Sutherlands, Camerons and Royal Scots Fusiliers, while others saw duty in the North Sea on mine sweepers and sub chasers.

These men will be placed on farms in Kent county, while some will take a short farming instruction course at the Fallon farms near Charing Cross.

At the reorganization meeting of the social service council here last night, H. E. Grosch was elected president on recommendation of the nominating committee; other officers will be elected at the next meeting. The gathering was addressed by T. D. McCullough of London, district secretary of the social service council of Ontario.

FRANCE FAVORS PACT PROPOSED

Premier Lenine will accept, demanding simultaneously full recognition. The soviet delegates said the financial help offered by the allied memorandum was disappointing and inadequate.

They admitted, says the Exchange Telegraph correspondent, that they were considering various offers for oil concessions, which they said constituted for Russia a basis of future international policy, and they were studying a plan to divide the Baku and Gronzyfields into four or five zones, one of which the soviets would operate, granting concessions on the others to rival national groups, such as the British, Belgian, French and the United States. This, however, the soviet delegates said, would be conditional upon full recognition and adequate financial help.

REPORTS FRANCE MOBILIZING

London, May 3.—"Sketch" claims to have learned from a reliable French source that France is preparing for mobilization of the 1918 class of reserves, numbering 150,000. This is with a view to enforcing the payment of reparations after May 31, if necessary.

PARIS, May 3.—France sticks with Belgium on the policy toward the Soviet government, and M. Barthou will return to Genoa Friday having the full approval of the government. This announcement was made this afternoon at the conclusion of the cabinet meeting.

M. Barthou made a complete statement of the actions of the French delegation at the Genoa economic conference, and the ministers went over the text of the memorandum to the soviet delegates. When the discussion was ended it was discovered that the seeming divergence between Premier Poincare and M. Barthou had disappeared. This difference of opinion arose more from a misunderstanding of the method of procedure than from the principle involved.

M. Barthou has behind him the full cabinet in resisting any encroachment upon private property in Russia, and has instructions to remain solidly in harmony with the Belgian delegation.

Voices Signatures.

The decision of the cabinet council is interpreted in official circles as meaning that the provisional signature of the French delegation to the memorandum to the Soviets is null and void, and that it will be necessary for the French and Belgian delegations to agree on some modification concerning the article in question, which would be acceptable to the British and Italian delegations before the French sign.

All differences disappeared, according to the Havas Agency, when the premier acquainted M. Barthou with reaching Paris, of which M. Barthou knew nothing, reported that negotiations were in progress at Genoa with the object of transferring to British and other companies concessions exploited before the revolution by the French and Belgians.

Interests Alarmed.

The representatives of these interests became alarmed at the facilities given by the article in the memorandum for the transfer of the concessions to the detriment of the original owners.

The Belgian cabinet, under these conditions, this morning fully endorsed M. Just's attitude, and maintained the previous instructions to him not to sign the memorandum.

In view of these facts, the French cabinet was unanimous in deciding to conform to the attitude taken by the Belgians, believing that the questions of economics and social organizations must be placed in unison with Belgium.

KNEW WHAT HE WANTED.

"How this?" asked the lawyer. "You've named six bankers in your will to be the pall-bearers. Of course, it's all right, but wouldn't you rather choose from friends with whom you are on better terms?"

"No, judge; that's all right. Those fellows have carried me for so long, they might as well finish the job."

RAID GATHERING LONGSHOREMEN

Montreal, May 4.—Civic police raided a meeting of longshoremen this morning at union headquarters and placed approximately two hundred under arrest. This action was an aftermath of Tuesday's raid on the docks, during which two policemen were seriously wounded. Local longshoremen are not working because of a ten per cent reduction in their wages imposed by the shipping federation, who have employed non-union labor.

SUGGESTS IDEAL
CITY HALL SITE

Thomas Adams Lauds St.
Paul's Deanery As Location.

Town Planner Would Dispose of Federal Square Site.

"I can conceive no more ideal site," says Thomas Adams, town planning expert, in giving his reasons for recommending that London's new city hall be erected on the site of the present deanery, Queen's avenue and Clarence street.

Mr. Adams, in giving his reasons for such a recommendation, also pictures all city buildings grouped as his ultimate goal. He terms such a group, a "civic center," instead of a "square."

"The Federal Square is not the best site for a civic center. The presence of the drill hall on this site is an objection, rather than an advantage. The site is required for the extension of the retail district for reasons that are obvious. Only sufficient land should be reserved on this site for the central fire station. This should be built on the frontage of Wellington or King away from the valuable frontage on Dundas," he declared.

The proper place for the city hall is on the site of the deanery of St. Paul's at the junction of Queen's avenue and Clarence. I understand this land can be purchased. The building now on the site would make an excellent temporary city hall. It is situated on a fine lot, 170 feet on Queen's avenue and 100 feet on Clarence should be obtained. When a new building is erected on this site it will be one block from Richmond and visible from the postoffice, the new hotel, and other public buildings. It will be one block from Dundas to the line of the new part, and one block from Victoria Park. It will stand on the corner of two parkways, each 132 feet wide, and be away from the smoke and dirt of factories and railways, and the noise of street railways.

Mr. Adams suggests that the property be acquired by the city through a "Should Dispose of Land."

"Meanwhile the city should dispose of the valuable land it is holding up on the Federal Square and rebuild the present city hall in the same type of architecture as the public utilities building without any special ornamental features. This new building would provide accommodation for all the executive departments—city engineer, city treasurer, assessment commissioner, etc.—while the temporary, and later the permanent, city hall on Queen's avenue would provide for the administrative departments."

"Later on, the city should gradually acquire the land and buildings surrounding St. Paul's Cathedral on the sides fronting on Wellington. The buildings occupied by the Woodmen of the World and the Catholic Record project in an ugly way into Richmond. They should be ultimately purchased and removed, together with two dwellings at the rear, using the site, with a set-back to the line of St. Paul's tower, for a new city court house and police station. As other public buildings became necessary, and the land round the triangle between Richmond and Queen's avenue—via Dufferin and Clarence—became too valuable for residential use, the whole triangular area should be acquired," advises the civic planning expert.

The completed scheme would mean that the whole of the block occupied by the St. Paul's Church and the custom house (converted to some other use), would be the civic center. Part of the group already established would be the Loew's Theatre, with a proper facade built on its rear walls, the City Club, the Bank of Montreal, the Postoffice, the Lloyd George Hotel, and the Cathedral of St. Paul's and St. Peter's—the whole being adjacent to Victoria Park on one side and the hub of the city on the other side.

"There could be no more ideal arrangement. In case it may be thought to be an expensive proposal I quote the assessed values of the principal properties affected:

Federal Square site—Total assessed value including buildings, $212,750. This site includes land on Dundas assessed at $350 per foot front.

Deanery site on Clarence and Queen's avenue, proposed for city hall—Total assessed value of land and buildings, 170x100, $17,500.

Woodmen of the World and Catholic Record building and two houses at rear on Dufferin avenue—Total assessed value of land and buildings, $62,250.

"This city, of course, would have

London Labor Evidences Aversion To "Friends of Soviet Russia"

IT would appear from mere casual observation that labor of London, as represented by the Trades and Labor Council, has nothing in common with the "Friends of Soviet Russia."

A communication from the local branch of that organization, was submitted at Wednesday's meeting of the trades unionists, but upon the motion of Delegate William Tite, of the International Machinists' Union, was filed without being read.

Although the decision was not unanimous the minority seemed insignificant.

There are members of the city council, who prophesy Sir Adam Beck as Ontario's next premier.

This fact came out at Wednesday night's council meeting, when a discussion on matters hydro was under way, and some of the not infrequent raps were being taken at Premier Drury and his aides.

A judge, discussing the action of the government in the Chippewa probe, remarked: "It's one good way to make Sir Adam the next premier of the province."

Ald. Drake: "He will be."

HAVE RECOURSE TO TWO-THIRD VOTE

City Council Employ System To Override Own Previous Decision.

REFERS TO PUBLIC WORKS
Mayor Wilson Rules Method Necessary
For Expeditious Action.

The city council Wednesday night found it necessary to employ the two-third vote on two occasions to override its own previous decisions.

Both referred to works. The first problem was the motion to call for tenders for all works other than pavements. A list of works was presented, and authorization for the engineer to do it by day labor was asked.

Reminds Council.
Ald. Douglass reminded the council of the decision to call for tenders, and the mayor then ruled that a two-third vote was necessary.

The second turn-over came when it was decided to run a number of works by day labor through the meeting. Here the council was overriding its former decision that those liable to pay for all works should be first notified of the cost.

City Clerk Baker informed the mayor that if this was going to be done, a two-third vote would be necessary.

The works are as follows:
Cement walks—Talbot street, Regent to Huron, North Maud street, Adelaide to Josephine, William street, John to Victoria.

Curb and gutters—Tecumseh street, Nelson to Trafalgar, Burroughs Place, Dundas to Princess, Philip street, Maitland to the L. and P. S. tracks, Nelson, Colborne to Maitland, South street, Colborne to Maitland, Duchess avenue, Wortley road to Edward. In all the above cases notices were sent out after the bylaw was passed on April 18.

None of the residents have so far petitioned against the cost, although they were given 30 days to do so. The council has ordered the work to proceed at once.

Bylaws Were Passed.
The following petition bylaws were presented for the first time and put through all stages and finally passed: Walks—Emery street, Cathcart to Edward; Salisbury, Quebec to Reymond.

Curb and gutters—William street, Grosvenor to Cheapside; Emery street near High; Carrae Crescent; Orchard, Cove Road to Pipe Line; Barrington avenue, Wharncliffe to city limits.

No one petitioned against the following sewer bylaws and they were passed: Cromwell street and Maitland, near Horton street.

The residents on the following street will be notified of the cost of the following pavements: Emery street, near High; Carrae Crescent. In the latter case the width of the pavement must be first decided.

The anniversary entertainment will be the form of a lecture by Jack Miner of Kingsville, to be given in the church, Tuesday, May 16, at 4:30 o'clock for school children, and at 8 o'clock for adults.

16-YEAR-OLD BOY GIVEN
TWO MONTHS FOR THEFT

Leo Lampman Told Next Time Means Penitentiary or Reformatory.

Leo Lampman, 16 years old, who pleaded guilty a week ago to breaking in and stealing from a G. T. R. caboose, Winnet's barn on Adelaide street, and the warehouse of J. H. Harris and Sons, Chelsea Green, was sentenced to two months in the county jail on each charge, the terms to run concurrently, when he appeared before Magistrate Graydon in police court Thursday morning.

"It is the first time that this boy has been here," said the acting coroner in moving for sentence, "and I am not pressing for a severe penalty. The other boy sent to the reformatory last week may have been the leader."

"There are many complaints of this sort of offence," declared Mr. Graydon in passing sentence. "It is hard to detect this sort of thing."

"I am reluctant to send you to the reformatory, and I think that it will be sufficient to send you to the county jail. I hope this will be a warning to you, and if you are again convicted I will send you to the reformatory or the penitentiary," concluded the court.

Little Blue-Eyed Boy Strays From Home Tearfully Pleads For Parents

Howling as if his heart would break, a little blue-eyed, fair-haired boy of between three and four years of age told passers by on Dundas street, between Waterloo and Colborne street, at noon Thursday, that he had strayed from his mother and his "daddy."

Nobody seemed to know and nobody seemed to care until a kind-hearted lady, living on Colborne street, with children of her own, came along and stooping down tried to find out from the wailing youngster where he lived and who his parents were.

"I don't know, I don't know," wept the child. "I wanna find my mother and my daddy."

The lady took the boy home and after giving him a dinner, called the police station and told of finding the child.

The boy is dressed in a pair of overalls over a nice clean blue suit, and wears a red woolen cap. He was having a fine time playing with youngsters of the neighborhood when The Advertiser called the "good samaritan" on the phone Thursday afternoon.

The police state that they have yet to receive any word from the youngster's parents.

Major Murphy Denies Suggesting Longer Hours, Less Wages For Labor

Major T. J. Murphy, K.C., stoutly denies that at a recent meeting of the Historical Society he stated that "longer hours and less wages was the sure solution for the present unrest."

In his explanatory communication to the Trades and Labor Council, members of which body challenged him on this point, he stated that he had been in an informal chat, the major states: "You charge me with having made the statement that longer hours and less wages was the only cure for

CHARGES RENTS
CAUSE HIGH COSTS

Joseph Marks Denounces Exorbitant Rates in Address at London Labor Temple.

HARD FOR WORKING MAN
Urges Support For Proposed Provincial Housing Scheme.

"What is the biggest cost of production today?" questioned Joseph Marks, during his address at the Labor Temple Wednesday evening. "I'll tell you what it is—the high rent."

Mr. Marks, a former Londoner, and prominently identified with the labor movement in this city 20 years ago, will be here for a few days longer in connection with the furtherance of the Labor Educational Association of Ontario, of which he is one of the prime movers.

Referring to the situation in Toronto, where he now resides, Mr. Marks described the housing situation as being extremely acute, more particularly for the working man. One was lucky, he stated, to get a flat for $40, and if he had children he would more than likely be assessed at least $50.

Taking up the proposed housing scheme, at some length, as advocated by the labor leaders, he warned his hearers that now was the time for action. Great pressure should be brought to bear upon the Provincial Legislature to induce the members to finance the scheme, in order that at some future date the workers might be enabled to own their own homes.

Pointing out that the most important legislation ever passed for the direct benefit of labor had been secured during the last session of the house, just before the government went back to the people for re-election, the speaker urged that a strenuous effort be made to get every political party back of the project from now on as the next session would be the last.

AFTER TWO WEEKS ILLNESS

Manager of Great West Life Was a Former Globe Resident and Prominent Mason.

Death removed one of London's prominent businessmen Thursday in the person of Charles B. McLean, 120 Windsor avenue, district manager of the Great West Life Assurance Company. Mr. McLean, who was 43 years old, had only been ill about two weeks.

Mr. McLean had been a resident of London for six years, coming to the city from Glenora, where he was also connected with the Great West Life Assurance Company.

He was a man of strong integrity, and was well liked by those who came in touch with him either through business or social channels. He was a keen sportsman, and was a member of the London Rowing and Boating Club.

Mr. McLean was also prominent in Masonic circles. He was pastmaster of the Glenora Masonic Lodge, and was also a member of Temple Lodge, London, the London Lodge of Perfection, and the London Rose Croix Chapter.

Mr. McLean was a son of Allan McLean of Strathroy. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Flora Finlayson McLean.

He is also survived by two brothers, Gordon of California and David at home, and three sisters, Mrs. James Talbot, Calgary; Mrs. Lorne McColl, Stratford, and Mrs. Gordon Smith, Simcoe. In politics he was a staunch Liberal, and took an active interest in the political life of the county of Middlesex and the city of London. He was an elder of the First Presbyterian Church, London, and was closely identified with the various departments of the work of that church. He was past master of Lorne Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Glenora, and also a charter member of the Temple Lodge of this city, also a 2nd Degree Mason. He was an outstanding character in the public life of the county of Middlesex and city of London, and took an active interest in public affairs. His death is a distinct loss to the community.

After a short service at the residence, the remains will be taken on Saturday to Glenora, where a funeral service will be held in the Presbyterian Church, after which interment will be made in Oakland Cemetery. The funeral will be under Masonic auspices.

SWEARS CAR IN GARAGE AND WINS COURT ACTION

D. Patterson Declared To Be Victim Of Constable's Mistake.

D. Patterson told Magistrate Graydon Thursday morning that his motor car was in the garage at 9:50 p.m. April 29, and therefore, it was not possible for a constable to get the number of the car.

Mr. Patterson was charged with driving his car west on Dundas street, near Wellington street, with all lights out.

"I run a grocery store," explained Patterson, "and I do my own delivering. The car was not out that night after 6:30, and I can prove it by my sister who works in the store with me. We closed the store this morning to come here and give evidence."

"I had the car out that night after midnight, driving to my father's home near Glenora. I don't mind paying a fine if I'm guilty."

"The constable may have been mistaken in taking your number," replied Mr. Graydon, although a constable here two days after the case had been dismissed against him and said that he had made a mistake and paid his fine. However, the case against you is dismissed."

Plan For Better Housing Of Bird Family At Springbank Zoo

PLANS for extensions in connection with the Springbank zoo will be passed by the public utilities commission Thursday afternoon.

At an approximate cost of $500, it is proposed to construct a substantial aviary, in which to house the members of the city's bird family, the owls, the buzzards, the hawks and the pheasants.

The parks department expects also to purchase within the near future a few peacocks to add to the collection.

PLAN 2ND BRANCH OF LABOR PARTY

Preparations are practically complete for the establishment in this city of a second branch of the Canadian Labor Party. A public meeting for this purpose will be called early next week at the Labor Temple.

It is now possible for individuals to join the party irrespective of the fact that they are not members of any of the trades unions or other units now affiliated.

Officers of the local branch anticipate a successful year ahead politically, and state that they have at hand numerous applications from housewives desiring entrance to the fold directly the new branch is established.

A strong effort is being made also to have all the local unions affiliate with the political body.

WINDSOR LIONS TO HOLD PORT OUTING

Invite London Cubs To Attend
"Moonlight" At Border in Body, May 11.

The Lions Club in Windsor is making preparations to hold a month-long Lions Club picnic at Port Stanley this summer, declared Club Freeman of the Windsor Lions Club, who was a guest of the local club at their weekly dinner on Thursday.

It is the intention of the Windsor club to have the cubs from London, Wallingford, Hamilton and others Lions dens in Western Ontario take part in this big event.

Mr. Freeman told of the work that the club in Windsor was doing for the underprivileged boy of that city, and also of the preparations which were being made for the Windsor Old Boys' reunion to be held some time in August. The task of preparing for this big event has been left in the hands of the members of the Lions Club, and Mr. Freeman said that on account of the enthusiasm displayed by the members he felt that the success of the celebration was already assured.

The Windsor Lions Club is holding a "moonlight" on May 11 and has extended an invitation to the local club to attend in a body. In the event of the local club attending, it will be met at the station in the afternoon by the Windsor cubs with motor cars and will be taken on a tour around the city.

Arrangements are being made by the local cubs to attend the London-Kitchener baseball game at Tecumseh Park on Friday, in a body.

EARL FRENCH ON VISIT TO AMERICA

New York, May 4.—Field Marshal Earl French, commander-in-chief of the British armies during part of the world war, arrived today for his second visit to America—a purely personal visit, he explained, without a mission of any form. He was greeted at the pier by a group of British war veterans. With mighty cheers, they escorted him to his hotel.

Hale and spurs, despite his 70 minutes, he and other chivalrous newspapermen on the trip up the harbor from quarantine.

SEVERAL reasons were cited by the miners for calling upon the government at this time. They alleged that prices to the consumer were excessive; that reductions were essential to the public welfare; that profits in distribution and sale of the product were imperiling relations of capital and labor to fair returns. The freight rates were exorbitant and designed to handicap producers not owning railroads, that fair rates to tide water would cut $2.63 a ton from the price to the consumer; and that needless agencies for the distribution added unwarranted margins of profit to retail prices. In refusing to sign the resolution, Samuel D. Warriner, spokesman for the operators, declared they did not oppose to join the miners in a course which would "tend to confuse rather than clarify the situation." On issues "not within the jurisdiction of the joint committee of miners and operators constituted to negotiate a new contract covering wages and working conditions."

OPERATORS REFUSE TO AID
MINERS IN ASKING QUIZ

New York, May 4.—Anthracite coal operators and the joint sub-committee on wage negotiations yesterday refused to subscribe to a resolution offered by the miners, calling upon federal officials to bring about an immediate investigation of the anthracite industry from mine to consumer.

SEVEN reasons were cited by the miners for calling upon the government at this time. They alleged that prices to the consumer were excessive; that reductions were essential to the public welfare; that profits in distribution and sale of the product were imperiling relations of capital and labor to fair returns. The freight rates were exorbitant and designed to handicap producers not owning railroads, that fair rates to tide water would cut $2.63 a ton from the price to the consumer; and that needless agencies for the distribution added unwarranted margins of profit to retail prices. London Labor Members Reopen Campaign Against Immigration From British Isles.

CAN PROVE ASSERTIONS
Delegate Exhibits Old Country Newspaper Containing Advertisement For Help.

Still convinced that men and women are being brought to this country from the British Isles, as farm-labor and domestic servants, who have no training as such, and subsequent drift into other fields of endeavor or increase the ranks of the unemployed, the local labor people have reopened a campaign against such conditions and are co-operating with the Dominion Trades Congress.

At the regular session of the trades council Wednesday night, the delegates were directed to forward all evidence to this effect to Tom Moore, president of the congress, who will take on the issue against both the federal and provincial administrations.

Hon. Manning Doherty, Ontario minister of agriculture, at the last conference with the labor representatives, denied absolutely that inexperienced farmers or domestic servants could be held in Canada to flood the labor markets. As he asked for specific instances, the labor chiefs state that they have numbers of cases they can refer him to.

Mrs. K. Derry, delegate from the Boot and Shoe Workers, called attention Wednesday to an advertisement that appeared in overseas newspapers, notably the Daily Mirror, guaranteeing work in Canada for 30 "domesticated" women at substantial wages, and passage paid.

She claimed that this was decidedly misleading. The words "domesticated" did not necessarily mean that the women had to be domestics. Most any person could be termed domesticated, she said. She held that the organization responsible for this inducement received grants from the government from time to time. Therefore, she claimed, the government could be held indirectly responsible if these women did not enter household service, but went into factories or other places to work.

MEN AND COMPANY FAIL TO AGREE ON CHAIRMAN

Parties in Street Car Wage Dispute Appeal to Ottawa.

Round one of the controversy between the London Street Railway Company and its employees has been declared a draw. The London Street Railway Company failed to agree upon a selection of a chairman, representatives of the two parties who will sit on the federal board of conciliation to iron out a wage dispute, have in accordance with the provisions of the industrial disputes act, wired Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, to this effect.

The appointment will now be made by the latter, following which the board will convene here as soon as possible.

F. P. McGuigan, who will represent the company, is still in Sudbury, acting in a similar capacity. He was also a member of the recent board of conciliation, which effected a compromise between the Hamilton Street Railway and its men. Several years ago he represented the London company under similar circumstances.

Frank McKay, a prominent local labor man, is the union's delegate.

LOCATE BUILDERS OF COLLEGIATE

The Kingston Construction Company has been located. Officials of the local department of education report that the contractors who built London's new Collegiate Institute are engaged in bridge construction a few miles east of Toronto.

The latter has been duly notified that it has until May 15 to clear the grounds of the collegiate of all sports and other material. Trustees Silverwood, chairman of No. 3 committee, has already declared that the cement sidewalks will have to be removed and relaid.

PRESENT CLAIMS TO BIG FORTUNE

Western Ontario Residents May Inherit Portion of Bogardus Millions.

Distribution Held Up Due To Angry Father's Decision.

Special to London Advertiser.
PARIS, May 3.—There are in Paris two claimants to the famous Bogardus estate, located in Dutch Borneo and the Fiji Islands. This estate is valued at between $3,000,000 and $10,000,000. The estate has been tied up on account of an angry father disinheriting his daughter and her progeny until the eighth generation. The Paris claimants are direct descendants of Anneke Jantz, daughter of Wolfert Webber and Anneke Cuck, who were born in Holland in 1605, and married sometime later in Albany, N. Y.

Pimples and Eruptions

Due To Bad Blood Which Must Be Purified.

Many people, both men and women, suffer from skin troubles, such as eczema, blotches, pimples and irritations. It is a great mistake for those suffering from troubles of this kind to smear themselves with greasy ointments. Often they could not do anything worse, for the grease clogs the pores of the troubled skin and the eruption becomes actually worse. When there are pimples or eruptions, or an irritating or itching rash, a soothing boric solution may help to allay the irritation, but, of course, that does not remove the trouble. Skin complaints come from an impure condition of the blood and will continue until the blood is thoroughly purified. It is well known that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have had splendid results in many forms of skin disorders and blemishes. This is due to the fact that these pills enrich the blood and this new blood attacks the impurities that give rise to skin troubles and disperses them. Among those who have found relief through the use of this medicine is Mr. Charles Hedge, South Woodlee, Ont., who says: "I was a great sufferer from boils for almost a year. I tried several remedies but they did not help me, and I was becoming thin and looked worn out. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking five boxes the boils disappeared, and I have not been troubled with them since. In other ways, too, I feel better."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.—Advt.

Issues Warning Against "Rubbing Alcohol."

TORONTO, May 3.—A new compound known as "rubbing alcohol" now on the market is said to have a deadly kick, and the Ontario License Board has issued a friendly warning to "boozers" generally. The warning, which is sent out over the signature of W. S. Dingman, vice-chairman of the board, contains the following notice: "Boozers generally should give this rubbing alcohol a wide berth."

1605, and married sometime later in Albany, N. Y.

Against the wishes of her father, Anneke Jantz, who was then a widow, married a minister of the gospel who lived at New Amsterdam, later moving to New York. This minister's name was Everardus Bogardus. Her father had arrangements made for her to marry a prince in Holland. Her disobedience so angered him that he disinherited her and her heirs to the eighth generation.

Descendants are scattered around the world, being in Loudenville, Schenectady, Rhineback and Yonkers in the United States. Two claimants are in Plymouth, England, another is an Indian Princess.

The Canadian claimants are direct descendants of Anneke Jantz Bogardus through their mother, who was Margaret Showers, born on the Governor's road, near Paris. Their father was Michael Showers, who was born at Dundas, Ontario, his father coming to Dundas from Pennsylvania.

The Canadian claimants are as follows: Mrs. K. Heard, Paris; Mrs. M. Bringle, Paris; Mrs. Chas. Polton, Brantford; Mrs. McArthur, Princeton. Action was started by the English claimants, who are looking after the interests of the Canadian claimants. An English law firm has charge of the case.

The original will of Wolfert Webber was drawn up in the family Bible, which has been disposed of. However, a copy is in possession of the Dutch government, who will no doubt produce same when called upon to do so.

Mrs. Heard, of Paris, has a full genealogy from the original Wolfert Webber in 1605.

SUIZIRAN NOW DESOLATE CITY

Volga Town of 40,000 Bears
Heavy Air of Depression.

Store Windows Mostly Boarded Up, Markets Display Scanty Stocks.

SUIZIRAN, on the Volga, May 3.—(The Associated Press.)—Five hundred miles from Moscow and at the border of the famine belt, it becomes evident that the first year of Soviet Russia's new economic policy has made far less changes in the provinces than in Moscow, Petrograd and the other big cities.

Far removed from the seaports, connected with the manufacturing districts by a broken transport system overloaded with the shipments of food and seed grain to the worst stricken hunger regions, large provincial towns such as Suiziran have, naturally, benefited very little by the present freedom of trade.

Live Hand to Mouth.
They are not starving, as the provinces farther down the Volga, but, at this time of the year, with the next harvest some months off, they are living day to day from hand to mouth.

Markets are open, but display scanty stocks and at prices as high or higher than in Moscow, while the peasants and town dwellers have not the abundance of paper money which seems common to all in the cities. Besides, they are slower to think and spend in millions and seem reluctantly to part with the printed bits of paper which Muscovites spend freely today in the belief that they will buy less tomorrow.

In the principal street of Suiziran, which has more than 40,000 inhabitants, the correspondent counted less than 10 open stores in a mile's ride. There were three or four bakeries, displaying meagre stocks of pastries and black and white bread, a meat shop or two, and some others had in their grimy windows a few pitiful bits of feminine finery, doubtless of a pre-war vintage.

Buildings Empty.
Most of the buildings were empty, their boarded or broken windows speaking the desolation of seven years of war and revolution that shows much more plainly in the provinces than in newly resurrected Moscow.

When the Volga opens in the spring, some of Suiziran's shop windows may be filled again and if the coming harvest is normal, the town may lose its air of depression, but, as it stands today, it seems an example of the desolate provincial towns of the better class that dot Russia from Vladivostok to Petrograd and from Archangel to Odessa.

WORLD NEWS CUT SHORT

MOSCOW, May 3.—A tri-weekly air plane service has been inaugurated between Berlin and Moscow. The first airplane engaged in this service arrived here today.

LONDON, May 3.—It is announced that Sir Arthur Balfour's full new title is "Earl of Balfour and Viscount Traprain of Whittingehame."

STOCKHOLM, May 3.—The government committee for customs and treaties, after having investigated what steps should be taken to counteract destructive foreign competition, has proposed that the Swedish government adopt definite measures of protection against the dumping of foreign goods on the Swedish market. The committee proposes that a special board be appointed to examine each case. Many reservations against parts of the report were made.

The government will define its attitude toward this proposal at the earliest possible date, and will subsequently submit to the Riksdag a bill providing what steps shall be taken in this respect.

GENEVA, May 3.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, head of the International Russian Relief Organization, received a letter from Capt. Quisling, his representative in the Ukraine, asking that aid be expedited on the large possible scale. The letter said that 5,000,000 persons were without food, and that deaths from hunger reached more than 10,000 daily. Capt. Quisling said in his letter that the bodies of 256 persons, who had starved to death were collected on the streets of Odessa in the first week in April.

"Cannibalism is increasing at an alarming rate," he said, "even in villages where suffering is less acute."

BERLIN, May 3.—The bright spring sunshine in Berlin may have had something to do with the attempted escape of Marie Daschay, a young cook who had been arrested and was awaiting her trial at a Berlin police station.

Marie, who was on the third floor, tore her sheets into strips and lowered herself in the early hours of the morning into her desired freedom. Unhappily the improvised rope took her only to the next floor, and passers-by saw her hanging between heaven and earth. The alarm was given and the fire brigade summoned. The firemen ran up the escape and Marie was rescued from her perilous position and promptly re-arrested.

LONDON, May 3.—So great was the love she had for the sea that Mrs. Treweek, the wife of a St. Austell (Cornwall) tradesman, who died on Monday, expressed a dying wish to be buried in St. Austell Bay, a glimpse of which was obtainable from her garden two or three miles away.

Yesterday the coffin was taken by rowboat to Portphen, where it was placed on board a motor fishing lugger. Owing to the rough sea the mourners were compelled to make a three-mile detour of the coast to board the lugger from a more sheltered part of the bay. In pouring rain and heavy seas the lugger tossed and rolled, waves sweeping over the bows so badly that some of the party were drenched, though provided with oilskins.
Eight miles out from the coast the coffin, weighted with a 400-pound stone was sunk in 100 fathoms of water, spring flowers were strewn over the spot.

PARIS, May 3.—After having killed five bulls in rapid succession in a public bull fight in the arena of Bayonne yesterday, the well-known matador Saleri II, was severely gored.

Flushed with his continued success, and wishing to impress the excited audience with his skill, Saleri neglected to get into striking position, with the result that the enraged bull was able to rush at the powerless man and toss him into the air. The bull's horns pierced his neck, narrowly missing his throat, and the matador was carried away to hospital very gravely wounded.

LONDON, May 3.—London is to grow higher.

Six weeks ago the London County Council raised the height limit of London store buildings from 60 feet to 80 feet, and already Messrs. John Barker have had the principle approved by the L. C. C. of a building that will be 80 feet high from the ground to the under side of the ceiling of the topmost story.

Proprietors of West End stores are confident that soon 120 feet or even 150 feet will be allowed for this class of building.

Business offices of 102 feet and 110 feet are already rising from the ground. The eight floors of the offices being erected at the corner of Gracechurch street, E. C. 3, for Lloyd's Bank and the Guardian Assurance Company will reach to the height of 110 feet, and the large copper dome which is to surmount it will "top" 150 feet.

It is understood that London's fire-fighting resources are to be increased to keep pace with London's tendency to grow upwards rapidly.

SYDNEY, Australia, May 3.—The aborigines of Australia are fast vanishing from the face of the earth, and as far as New South Wales is concerned, the children of today will live to see the end of the last full-blooded black man and the last black woman. Forty years ago many of the tribes had perished altogether. At that time the remnants numbered about 7,000, and they have steadily dwindled since to scarcely more than 1,000; but while the full bloods are moving so rapidly toward extinction, the half-castes are increasing in a very marked way, as the following figures for New South Wales disclose:

	Full-bloods.	Half-castes.
1882	6,540	2,379
1892	4,458	2,615
1902	2,880	2,948
1912	1,217	5,117
1921	1,281	6,270

The blacks are, as Charles Hedley of the Australian Museum puts it, "simply withering away by the light of European contact," and it would seem that nothing can save them.

The remnants are being taken good care of by the Aborigines Protection Board. The largest collection of full-bloods, numbering only 42, is to be found at Carrowa Tank, near Mossiel, in the southwestern district. At Runnymede, near Kyogle, there are 27 full-bloods left, and at Euraba, near

PIMPLES ON FACE DIDN'T LIKE TO GO OUT

Those nasty little pimples that break out on the face and other parts of the body are simply indications that the blood is out of order and requires purifying.

There is only one way to get rid of this obnoxious skin trouble, and that is by giving the blood a thorough cleansing which can best be done by that old reliable blood medicine

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS, and when the blood is purified the pimples will vanish and you will have a clear, healthy complexion.

Miss Mary E. Flanagan, R. R. No. 2, Stella, Ont., writes: "I suffered for about two years with pimples and blotches breaking out on my face. The doctor said it was caused by bad blood. My face was so bad I didn't like to go out among a crowd of people. One day I was talking to a friend, and she advised me to get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and try it. I just took three bottles, and there was not a blotch or pimple of any kind left. Some of my friends asked me what I had used and I said: 'Burdock Blood Bitters chased them.'"

Perfection at Last—

WHEN Westinghouse engineers designed this range they thought of every cooking convenience a woman could wish for—and the result was the perfect range, the range so simple even a child can operate. Mechanically this range is superior to any other. The oven lining is porcelain enamel; every single part is removable, which means it can be kept permanently sweet, spotless and rustless. The fuses are mounted on the front of the range and can easily be changed. Every heating unit plugs in and can be detached by hand.

The Westinghouse Range has so many exclusive features, you'll want to see it demonstrated before you buy. Ask the dealer to tell you about it, or write us for booklet.

PROTEST ACTION OF GOVERNMENT

Aldermen Resent Overriding of City's Railway and Gas Agreements.

Record Opposition Also To Lloyd Harris Acting in Chippawa Probe.

What the council did:

Passed a number of bylaws approving of walks, curbs and gutters, and authorized the city engineer to proceed with the work at once.

Received Ald. Ashplant's notice of motion to cancel the street railway agreement.

Received notice from Ald. Cunningham of a motion calling for all city employees to live in the city.

Approved the Clatworthy application to start a lumber yard on C. P. R. property at St. George street.

Discussed the annex tax question once again, but took no action.

Passed a resolution protesting to Premier Drury against the action of the private bills committee in overriding the street railway and gas agreements with the city in fixing rates for these services.

Referred the request of the board of education for a debenture issue to the civic commission.

Passed a resolution protesting the appointment of Lloyd Harris to the commission to probe Chippawa cost.

An effort was staged at Wednesday night's council meeting to review the whole city hall salary cut fiasco, but it was nipped by Mayor Wilson, who ruled a motion, bringing up the question, out of order.

Aldermen Ashton and Holmes presented a motion that the wage reduction of the garbage collectors and outside workers of the city be replaced until such time as all city departments were cut, but under the mayor's ruling the motion will lay over until the next council meeting.

It was not a heavy meeting from a business standpoint, but it was heavy from the ludicrous, the meeting at several times assuming the proportions of a burlesque rather than a serious transaction of business.

Vote Ten To One.
The aldermen, by a vote of ten to one, passed a resolution opposing Lloyd Harris as one of the probes of the Chippawa Canal question, also protesting against the appointment of the commission without first consulting the municipalities. Ald. Cunningham was the only alderman to oppose the opposition to Mr. Harris, contending that the council was putting motives to him that it did not know he harbored or had not shown as yet.

About the same time the council adopted a resolution of protest to go to Premier Drury, protesting the action of the private bills committee in interfering with the agreements which the city had with corporations, the street railway and the City Gas Company.

A resolution was also presented, asking Messrs. Brackin and McCrea of the private bills committee to come to London and discuss the two agreements at a public meeting of the citizens. It was thought, however, that this motion would make the city more or less of a joke, and it was withdrawn.

Ald. Ashton declared when his motion on the salary cut came up, that he could not see where the salary committee could get any further. It has been going two months now, and he could not see what could be done. Not one of the departments except the outside services had their salaries cut.

Left To Departments.
Mayor Wilson said that the outside men were not involved in the general cut, which led Ald. Ashton to declare that their cut then was so much the worse. He could not see why these men, handling the dirtiest jobs in the city, should be reduced and

Is Afraid Hydro Probe Will Look Like Private "Peek" For Its Friends

"Is hydro afraid to have its books examined?" was the question asked by Ald. O. L. Cunningham, a Conservative and hydro booster, at the council meeting Wednesday night in discussing the motion to protest against the appointment of Lloyd Harris to the probe commission. The alderman added: "I don't think so, but if we are only going to show them to the friends of hydro, that impression will be taken up."

Mayor Wilson wanted to know if the city wanted the same deal as was secured from the Riddell-Latchford commissions.

Some of the aldermen criticized the members of the two Middlesex ridings who represent a portion of the city in not being present to fight against the interference with the no others. The mayor stated that the committee left this matter to the dissent heads.

Ald. Ashton said that it was thoroughly understood that their wages would not be cut until the others were similarly treated.

Mayor Wilson denied a statement by Ald. Ashplant, who said it had been reported to him that the mayor gave the engineer orders to cut the outside men.

The wages motion follows: "That whereas it was understood by the members of the council that the proposed reduction in salaries of 10 per cent should be conditional upon all department salaries being reduced."

"And whereas the garbage employees and other outside regular city employees were reduced 10 per cent, and it is expedient that they should receive the same wage as heretofore: "Be it resolved that City Engineer Brazier be, and he is, hereby instructed to restore the rate of wages to the garbage men and other outside regular city employees to the rate paid prior to the recent reduction until a general reduction is made."

Lumber Yard Brings Debate.
The Clatworthy application to have the fire limit bylaw changed that they might locate a lumber yard on the C. P. R. west of St. George street brought out a petition signed by 23 residents of the vicinity protesting against the yard. Despite this fact, however, the council by a 4-5 vote decided to amend the bylaw.

The debate on the matter waxed warm at times and quite a merry battle is in the offing when the amended bylaw is presented for ratification. This is necessary before a permit for the lumber yard can be issued.

An interesting sidelight on the debate was the fact that, though the council a few minutes before had been criticizing members of the Legislature for going over the head of the member of this constituency and pushing the street railway and city gas bill, Ald. Cunningham, representing London South, pushed the hardest to have the bylaw changed, while the aldermen representing the ward in which the yard is to be located strenuously opposed it. Ald. Cunningham said that the area in question was growing rapidly into an industrial area and losing its position as a residential section.

Ald. Douglass and Ald. Judd both attacked the proposal to place the yard on the present site. The former alderman declared that the petitioners felt that their property would be depreciated. He also said that the presence of the chemical plant next to the lumber yard, in which there had been a couple of serious fires, added danger to the situation.

Ald. Judd strenuously demanded that the council not over-ride the request of the petitioners without giving them a chance to present their side of the case. They were all property-owners and taxpayers, while the applicant was not a resident of the city at all.

Inspector Piper and Chief Aitken said that the proposed site was within the fire limits, otherwise they did not think it objectionable as a site for a yard and would not increase the fire danger.

Wanted It Sent Back.
Some of the aldermen wanted the matter sent back to No. 2 committee, but Assistant Crown Attorney Douglas, representing the applicant city's agreements with the street railway and gas company. They should explain their position to their constituents.

Ald. Drake was particularly angry as he had worked so hard to elect one of the members in question.

Mayor Wilson contended that in breaking the agreements the legislative committee established a precedent that any agreement between two corporations can be broken, and put $500,000 in the pockets of the street railway, for which the citizens of London get nothing. He also declared that the gas charge of $1.25 had been extended for the life of the franchise. The gas company claims this is perpetual, which means that the city will pay this rate for all time to come.

pressed for a decision, and finally got one.

"You'll get us into trouble yet, Harry," said the mayor to Ald. Ashplant when the latter presented his notice of motion to terminate the street railway agreement.

Ald. Ashplant: "You'll get yourselves into trouble. If you would do as I say you would keep out of trouble."

Ald. Judd: "Some people just hate themselves."

Carfrae Crescent residents want a pavement, but do not want a 30-foot pavement, which the engineer says should be put down on that street, as it accesses to become a thoroughfare. The residents told the council they were willing to pay for 26 feet, and thought that if the council insisted on a 30-foot pavement the city as a whole should pay for the extra four feet. The matter was sent back to the board of works.

Ald. Ashplant had a number of questions. He has usually asked the same ones about this time of the year on each occasion that he has sat on the council, in regard to the city auditors. He attacked their efficiency, while Mayor Wilson expressed the opinion that the auditors were efficient. He finally declared they were efficient enough for him and were carrying out their work to his satisfaction.

Denies Report.
Ald. Douglass, referring to a report in a city paper which credited City Clerk Baker with the statement that the solicitor's opinion had already been secured on his annex income tax proposal, asked if it was true that such an opinion had been secured.

City Clerk Baker said that the paper did not get the information from him, and Mayor Wilson stated that the opinion of the solicitor on the matter had not been secured as yet.

Ald. Ashplant brought his annex tax problem up all dressed up in new clothes. He did not get anywhere. When the discussion started, Mayor Wilson slipped out of the chair and put Ald. Ashton in. There was a long discussion before it was contended that the whole proposal was opened up to a question already disposed of by the council. Ald. Ashton had to rule that a motion for reconsideration was necessary. Previous to this Ald. Ashplant had presented his motion, duly seconded.

When the reconsideration ruling of the chairman was made, City Clerk Baker informed the aldermen that there was no motion before the council. Some of the aldermen saw the point and quickly moved adjournment.

However, Ald. Ashplant got in one of his usual asures of the council. He said that if the council did not do its duty it would be made to do it. It was beneath the dignity of such a body to act as it was doing. It was not the worthiest kind of action from the representatives of the people. He said they could play the moral coward's part of failing to support what they believed was legally right if they wanted to.

There was a long argument as to Mr. Meredith's opinion on the matter, and when his opinion of 1916 was finally read there was another long argument. The matter stands "as is."

"My Mirror Told Me"

THE excitement of business emergencies kept me so busy that I did not notice that I was losing out physically, until one day, when looking in a mirror, I suddenly realized my condition. I could see that I was rapidly approaching a nervous breakdown.

"About that time a friend of mine told me about what a large proportion of life insurance applications were being turned down because of physical disabilities resulting from the tense nervous strain of recent years.

"What was I to do?

"Well, my wife had noticed me being nervous and worried, and had been at me for some time to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so I decided to give it a try-out.

"During the first week I could not see much improvement, and was getting rather discouraged. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Everything worried me so that I was continually nervous and irritable. But my wife saw to it that I did not miss my regular dose of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and by the second week I began to sleep better and to feel more cheerful.

"From that time on this restorative treatment seemed to build me right up, and I know now that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food saved me from a nervous breakdown.

"There must be many thousands of men and women in this country who are in just such a serious condition as I was, and who can benefit by my experience."

NORTHCLIFFE OPPOSES CUT IN WAGES PLANNED

Resigns From Newspaper Proprietors' Body, Whose Methods He Opposes.

London, England, May 4. (Canadian Press Cable)—Lord Northcliffe, in resigning from the London Newspaper Proprietors' Association, declares that the association was of great value during the war in fighting the press bureau and newspaper control, "but the situation now is quite different."

Lord Northcliffe says: "Capitalists have come into Fleet street who have made fortunes in other industries, with no experience of newspapers at all, and it is unreasonable that they should take part in dictating conditions and wages of printers to those who have been associated with newspapers and printers all their lives."

Lord Northcliffe strongly objects to certain proposed wage reductions and he feels that the companies he is interested in ought to have full liberty to deal with these matters themselves.

In his letter of resignation he adds that his colleagues can still rely on his full support in the event of lightning striking them, "for any foreign method of extremists in the labor world."

That Drill Vote.

NOT IN some months has there been so much talk around Ottawa as has been and is taking place on militia estimates. The item on which the battle centres is a sum of $1,400,000 for annual drill, the opponents of that vote claiming such an expenditure is not justified this season.

The house is divided strangely on the matter, and had a vote been forced at the time of discussion party fences would have been conspicuous by the way in which they were smashed to pieces. Conservatives, for the most part, would have voted for the full amount, and a number of Liberal members would have supported it also. Against would have been many Quebec Liberals, practically all of the Progressives, and perhaps a few of the Ontario Liberals.

The matter must come up again before a decision can be recorded. The feeling seems to be that there is not the need right now for such an outlay on an annual camp. The amount of drill that can be given at an annual camp is not very great, and those opposed to the vote hold that the country is not going to get value for the amount so voted. Then there is the undoubted pressing need for economy, and it has got to take root and grow some place. It is not sufficient that all the talk of reducing the burden on the people should be in talk. Opponents of the vote hold that right here is where a stand should be made, as there are so many places where it seems impossible to go in and make the desired savings.

There might be more attention to positive facts in the next debate. The question of loyalty or of the devotion of one part of the country being greater than the other will not take the place of hard fact. By all means let the department advance every technical reason why the vote should not be cut. On the face of it, it does look as though there should be some saving effected right here.

That Renfrew Case.

THERE HAS been a vacancy in the postoffice at Renfrew for some time now, and apparently no definite move has yet been made to have it filled.

It is to be filled by the civil service commission, or on the recommendation of the member for the riding, or how?

The Renfrew Mercury, discussing the workings of the civil service commission at some length, says:

"In the case of the vacancy at the local postoffice, for instance, everything that the civil service commission has done or is doing, could be done equally well by the officials of the postmaster-general's department, and in all probability they will have to be consulted as it is. What the people want in a postmaster, and what they have every right to expect, is service. The position of postmaster is one of the most important in the community. Practically every person gets mail in a greater or lesser quantity, and the postmaster himself or his deputies has to serve them. Courtesy and efficiency should be two of the outstanding characteristics of a postmaster, and the people of a town are far better able to judge a man in regard to these qualities than three or four perfect strangers at the capital city."

There is not the least doubt but that Mr. Thomas Low could suggest a man for the position of postmaster at Renfrew who would fill the position acceptably and to the satisfaction of all concerned. But as it stands at present we have a machine that costs us some quarter of a million a year to operate, and its function is to tell the people of Renfrew who shall be their next postmaster.

It does look, when the thing is applied to concrete cases, that we have had built up for us a big, expensive way of doing things, entirely out of all proportion to our ability to pay for the elaborate service. In the academic effort to get away from patronage the late Conservative government swung a financial mallet around the neck of the country.

DEALING WITH the subject of the civil service commission, the Kingston Whig charges that it is hardly possible to have a person removed from the service except by death, and that the policy has been laid down and followed that no person shall suffer a cut in wages, even though the position held is reclassified under a lower scale.

The Whig continues: "There seems no reason, however, why inefficient and superfluous employees of the government should be immune from the disabilities which automatically attach themselves to such individuals in ordinary walks of life. Any private concern, finding itself tremendously overstaffed—and particularly overstaffed with inefficient employees—would be considered unfit to do business if it did not immediately take the obvious course, and reduce the number on its payroll to its requirements, weeding out the inefficient. That such a course would be unpopular with the civil service goes without saying; but it is a course which presents itself to Mr. FIELDING, searching for ways and means of rehabilitating the country's finances, after a ten-years' absence from the post of finance minister. In those ten years the number of employees in the service has almost doubled.

"Buildings all over Ottawa are bursting with them.

"Recently an official list was issued of the boards, commissions, etc., created by the government. They numbered forty-five, all but eight having been created since 1911. Some of them, such as the Canadian trade mission in London, are no longer functioning; but the majority still exist, all involving more or less expense. A few are of value, and will no doubt be continued; but many are purely ornamental, and could easily be dispensed with.

"It is no exaggeration to state that if a determined effort were made close on $25,000,000 a year could be saved to the nation by cleaning out all the dead-wood of one sort and another now being paid for at Ottawa.

"The action would be drastic, it would be unpopular at Ottawa, but it would be just; and—something not without importance to the politician—it would not involve any very serious consequences from a political standpoint as, outside of the two Ottawa representatives in Parliament, it would be generally applauded.

The statements of the Whig are sweeping and drastic, and it would be interesting to have the grounds from which it draws its conclusions. There are departments at Ottawa, and many of them, where there are capable employees, always ready to give all the information they can. It is not fair to include these in the list of those who are bulging the buildings.

Against this capable class there are undoubtedly the drones and the supernumeraries. And the late Conservative government put the civil service commission in charge to see that none of them should be disturbed.

The Unemployed.

DURING a recent debate in the Commons, W. F. CARROLL, of Cape Breton South and Richmond, referred to the unemployment that was prevalent—and still is—in the city of Sydney, N. S. At that place there are steel mills, but these have been closed for some time, and the representative of that district told the house that 2,000 men were out of work as a result. He took occasion to point out that they could not go fishing, as the equipment would cost some $200, which was beyond their means, and there was very little work for them to do on the farms.

Mr. CARROLL's suggestion was that the government should go ahead now and place an order for a large tonnage of steel rails, which they would probably use at some future date when there was a call for them for construction work on the National lines.

In a general way the suggestion sounds reasonable. If relief must be extended to these people, then why should the party extending that relief not have something in return, and the workers in Sydney have wages instead of charity?

It is possible, though, that once such a precedent were created, the Dominion government would be in for an interesting time. Once this principle was recognized what would hinder London, for instance, going to Ottawa and pointing out the employment situation here is very different, and that families are not able to provide the necessities of life because the breadwinner could find nothing to do? They would suggest that the government place a large order in some of the local factories for some line it would probably require at a later date. There would be nothing to prevent other municipalities doing the same thing, and the result would be that the government would very soon find itself in an impossible position.

It is a very difficult matter to deal with fairly. Mr. CARROLL is entitled to every credit for making the suggestion he has made to the house. He is representing a lot of people who are hard up, because their main industry is suffering from a depression that is common to the steel business the country over, and it is only by bringing up such suggestions with some point to them, rather than discussing the thing in an academic way, that any solution will ever be found.

The action to be taken in connection with the Queen's jubilee was left to a committee composed of Rev. J. H. Moorehouse, Frank Robinson, A. E. Welch and J. E. Thompson.

Asking Questions.

DO YOU ever run into any question that you could not answer? Have you ever tagged along on the thin edge of a conversation in a party where several people were taking part, wishing all the time you knew something more definite about the subject under conversation?

One young chap in Washington recognized that a lot of people want to know things, so he started a bureau to answer questions, and right now with his staff he is turning out replies to a thousand questions a day.

A vast number of questions relating to current or historical events come from teachers and members of debating societies. Others are from people who wish to settle wagers. One woman in a western town regularly asks several questions each week, and she frankly admits that she uses them as an aid to dinner table conversation. The lady deftly steers the talk to some subject that interests her, and keeps it there until someone asks her a question. Then she usually answers it with the air of never having thought of it before.

Men, it may surprise one to know, ask more questions than do women, and as a rule more questions are received in winter than in summer. The great influx of queries came one week last August—in holidays people have more leisure to ask questions.

Unusual weather stimulates queries. A blizzard or a cold wave or excessive rains or scorching weather brings a flood of questions. Apparently few persons know the date of the Johnstown flood. An epidemic always stirs up questions. Let the doctors in town start a propaganda

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE.

CONCRETE ARTERIES

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP. ARE you remodeling your artery walls and turning them into concrete? Of course not, you will instantly rejoice, perhaps a little indignantly. But if you are a modern businessman, always in a hurry, bolting your meals, neglecting exercise, regular habits, and worrying a great deal, then ten to one you are gradually hardening your arteries, turning them into stone, so to speak. You can easily tell whether you are acquiring hardening of the arteries by having your blood pressure taken. The average blood pressure for the healthy person is 120-130. A blood pressure which continues to run between 150 and 200 needs attention. Have it looked into.

A man is never old as long as his arteries keep young, but to keep them young requires daily attention to good hygiene.

To prevent high blood pressure—and ultimately, hardening of the arteries—eat slowly and select food free from or low in protein or nitrogen content. This means, go easy on milk, eggs, meat, fish and cheese, and confine yourself largely to fresh vegetables and fruits.

Find some form of exercise out of doors that will also serve as recreation. Get at least 8 hours of undisturbed sleep every night. Moderation in daily living is the keynote preventing hardening of the arteries.

READ YOUR CHARACTER

By Digby Phillips.

NO. 205—SELLING THE HARD CUSTOMER.

By the "hard" person the characterologist means the person whose flesh is hard and unyielding. How to recognize this type, and an explanation of some of the characteristics of such people, has been explained in another article. There are, however, some very definite rules for dealing with people of this class which must be added.

In business life you look for the "hard" man in some such line as bricks, metal, stone, hardwood and the like. It may seem far-fetched, but it is none the less true that the man with hard flesh has a liking for hard substances. They appeal to him.

If you are trying to sell him something remember that he is a rigid disciplinarian. You won't get far by making free and easy with his office rules, particularly in interrupting the work of his employees. Waste no time appealing to his sympathies. If he has any he locks them up during business hours. Instead, it is well to open up an appeal to his judgment on some minor matter. He's a hard man to influence, and the line of least resistance is to let him feel that he is having his own way and dominating the situation. Present your proposition in such a way that, if he accepts it, he can do so with the feeling that he is doing something economical, conventional, simple and useful to himself, and he is doing something from which the beneficial results will last a long time, or buying something that is in itself sturdy, hard and durable.

TODAY'S word is INTRANSIGENT. It's pronounced—in-tran-sig-ent, with accent on the second syllable.

It means—refusing compromise, being used especially in connection with political matters.

It comes from—"in," an inseparable prefix meaning "not," and Latin "transigere," to come to an agreement.

It's used like this—"De Valera and his followers have adopted an intransigent attitude relative to the Irish situation."

The BOOKSHELF

EDITED BY CARR

CARAVANS BY NIGHT. By Harry Hervey. The Century Company, Publishers, New York. $1.90.

THE mystery and romance of ancient lands, lands whose scents and sounds, colors and customs are strange and full of magic to us here in Western Ontario, glows richly through this new and very interesting romance, "Caravans by Night."

It is a tale of India, and it carries the reader from the shop of a Mohammedan jewel dealer in Indore to the wonders of Delhi, and then to a native village north of Gaya. In this village we first become acquainted with Major Arnold Trent, a physician, an officer and a very gallant gentleman, who is the hero of the book. But even before he appears upon the scene we have met lovely, brown-eyed Dana, Charities of Bayou Latouche, come to stay with her brother Alan, who "held a post with the Inspector of Police at Rangoon," and had at least one encounter with the strange and beautiful woman, Sarojini Nanjee, who was "half white, quarter Rajput, and the rest devil," who called herself the "Swaying Cobra," and told Sir Francis Duncraig, director of Central Intelligence, that she could do what the entire secret service would certainly fail to accomplish.

Even Euan Kerth, the wonderful Euan Kerth, pride of the department would, she insisted, fail were it not for the Swaying Cobra, would pledge herself to succeed—if she could have at her command Major Arnold Trent, who did not belong to the secret service at all.

Her offer was accepted. For there was trouble afoot, and a very great deal of it. On the night of June 14 the treasures of a number of native rulers had been looted, and their finest jewels, jewels worth millions of pounds, had been stolen. The Maharajah Tukaji Rao of Indore, for instance, had lost his peacock turban and his pearl scarf, a marvelous network of pearls interwoven with magnificent diamonds; and this was only one item of many. It was only a few nights later that Dicky Manlove, Trent's dearest friend, was found murdered in the ruins of an old temple not far from the bungalow where the two men shared.

Apparently there was no smallest connection between the thefts and the murder; but clasp in Manlove's dead hand Trent found a piece of red coral, oval shaped and overlaid with silver in an intricate design. When more closely examined it proved to be the image of a hideous three-eyed god. And Trent knew that ornaments of coral overlaid with silver were made in Tibet. But he did not dream then of the real meaning of the ornament, nor of the remarkable political movement which was back of it all.

Mystery follows mystery, and intrigue is interwoven with intrigue in an extremely complicated plot. Except for a very little while at the beginning, we see it all through the eyes of Arnold Trent, knowing only what he knows, and being puzzled where he is puzzled. But it might deprive the prospective reader of several hours' keen enjoyment were we to reveal any of the many turns and twists, the surprises and thrilling moments, of Mr. Hervey's exciting, improbable romance.

He has manipulated his threads cleverly, and by the device of having the more marvelous exploits performed by someone other than the hero, and by not attempting to explain everything in the end, he has given an air of plausibility to the story. A trifle overwrought at times, it nevertheless manages to convey much of the glamor of the east, and its climax in the strange city "Beyond the Moon," in unexplored Tibet, is admirably conceived and set forth. A first novel, the book shows plenty of imagination and an ability to reproduce scent and color, to convey the thrill of romance and of mystery, which promises well for its author's future.

BATTLE OPENS NEAR MACHANG

Rival Chinese Leaders Reinforcing Armies in That District.

Troops of Chang Tso-Lin Have Recaptured Kuan.

PEKING, May 3.—General Wu Pei-fu, commander of the Chi Li forces, was reported this evening to have arrived near Machang, on the railroad south of Tien Tsin, to take personal command of the operations against the troops of Chang Tso-Lin on that section of the battlefield.

Late reports are to the effect that Chang Tso-Lin is heavily reinforcing his troops in that region with men of all arms, and the indications are that fighting will be the center of operations. Artillery duels already have commenced over a wide front. General Fu, if he actually takes command there, will have facing him the 25-year-old son of Chang Tso-Lin. Foreign military observers with the Chi Li forces report that Wu Pei-fu recently has been directing the operations at Chang Sin Tien, pending the arrival of General Feng Yut Siang's forces, which began to reach Pao Ting Fu, on the railway south of Peking, Tuesday. The reports are to the effect that Wu Pei-fu's own troops have not participated in the fighting at Chang Sin Tien. The heavy bombardment that has been in progress at various points has depleted the stores of big-gun ammunition.

94-Year-Old Pioneer of Mitchell Relates Experiences of Early Days

Special to London Advertiser. MITCHELL, May 3.—The oldest man in Mitchell is Mr. Lawrence Gollnitz, father of Public School Trustee John Gollnitz.

He was born in Germany nearly 94 years ago, and still enjoys fairly good health.

When he arrived in Mitchell there were only three buildings here. While clearing up the dense forest and assisting in making roads, he passed through many hardships, and tells of carrying flour on his back from Tavistock to Mitchell, a distance of fifteen miles.

munition, and the fighting is now mainly with machine guns and rifles. At some places there has been a lull in the battle.

On the middle of the front the troops of Chang Tso-Lin have recaptured Kuan. Wounded men from that region say that the fighting was heavy during the last few days, often at close quarters. The tide of battle was continually changing until the turned the scales.

A dispatch received here from Tien Tsin says reinforcements for Chang's army near Machang and Machang and marched southward toward the Hun River, where fighting took place on the western bank of the stream.

FIRST CONTINGENT LARGELY TRAINED

OTTAWA, May 3.—(By Canadian Press)—Approximately 92 per cent of the first Canadian contingent which went overseas in 1914 had received previous military training.

SARNIA MAY GET STEEL INDUSTRY

Trades and Labor Council Supports Concessions Asked by Steel Corporation.

VOTE ON BYLAW MONDAY

Chamber of Commerce Is Carrying Out Thorough Publicity Campaign.

Special to London Advertiser.

SARNIA, May 3.—With the announcement made today that the trades and labor council will support the bylaw granting the concessions asked by the Dominion Alloy Steel Corporation, which will be voted on Monday next, it becomes increasingly apparent that the residents of Sarnia appreciate the value to the city and district of the projected steel position.

A heavy majority at the polls on Monday is expected. The Sarnia Chamber of Commerce is carrying out a thorough publicity campaign in order that at least one-third of the voters, as required by the city act, register their vote at the polls.

Friday night a public meeting will be held at the city hall, when George A. Simpson of Hamilton, one of the directors of the company, will address the voters on the plans of the company. Motion picture films, depicting operations of well-known steel plants are being exhibited in the city.

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF PARIS DIES IN 73RD YEAR

William Tennant, Prominent in Farming Circles, Passes Away at Bradford Hospital.

Special to London Advertiser.

PARIS, May 3.—The death took place in Bradford General Hospital of William Tennant, an old and highly-respected citizen of Paris, in his 73rd year.

The deceased was a native of Bradford County, being born in Bradford Township, near Paris, where he lived until four years ago.

The late Mr. Tennant was well known in farming circles, and always took a deep interest in municipal affairs.

He leaves a widow and three sons. Interment was made in Paris Cemetery Wednesday, May 3.

PARTY WORKERS CLAIM POSITION

Many U. F. O. Members Anxious To Fill Oxford County Registrarship.

May Prompt Government To Promote Deputy As Easiest Solution.

WOODSTOCK, May 3.—With representatives from the U. F. O. in both North and South Oxford after the position of registrar of the county, which position is vacant through the death of G. R. Pattullo, it is not likely that the government will be in any hurry in making the appointment.

This is the information handed out by those in a position to know. It is further stated that if the aspirants in the fight for the position stir up much party strife the government may step in and appoint the present deputy registrar to the position.

Many Seek Position.

Among those who are said to be after the position are John Lillico, the defeated U. F. O. candidate in the last federal election in North Oxford; Matthew Kneale, South Oxford; Mr. Rodwell, U. F. O. director, South Oxford; and Mr. Stauffer, Blenheim, pioneer worker in the U. F. O. party.

The grading of hogs, which, it is announced, will come into force on June 1, does not meet with the approval of the shippers and hog-raisers of Oxford. They are of the opinion that too much work will be required to operate the scheme, and that there is bound to be much dissatisfaction among the farmers.

Expect Dissatisfaction. That the grading, no matter who is appointed to do it, will not be satisfactory is almost assured, for no doubt every hog-raiser will be of the opinion that his hogs are the best and most suitable for bacon purposes and entitled to the premium offered.

It is the general belief that the scheme should be held over for another year at least, so as to give the producers time to get fully acquainted with the type of hogs required, which in many cases may mean that the farmer would be called upon to replace his breed of hogs.

REDUCE WAGES OF PHONE OPERATORS

WINNIPEG, May 3.—A general reduction in wages throughout the telephone department has been agreed to, it is stated today.

The reduction is for operators, two and one-half cents an hour; linemen and outside employees three and one-half cents an hour; clerical staff, $5 per month.

An annual saving of $40,000 is estimated.

SIDE LIGHTS AT OTTAWA

BY RANDOLPH J. CHURCHILL, Staff Correspondent The London Advertiser.

SENATOR Archie McCoig put at rest today all rumors and reports circulated recently that he had suffered a change of heart regarding senate reforms since he had taken a seat in that venerable house.

Soon after his appointment to the senate, Senator McCoig announced at a meeting in Dutton that he would do all within his power to bring about changes in that body, to make it more useful to the country as a whole. Because he has maintained a silence on the subject since coming to Ottawa it was intimated recently by a certain paper that he had perhaps changed his mind.

Senator McCoig stated today that he has not changed his attitude. He has merely waited an opportunity to broach the subject in the senate. If a better opportunity does not present itself in the very near future he claims that he will speak on reforms during the debate on the budget.

IN the interest of fishermen working out of Bayfield on Lake Huron, William Black, member for South Huron, is seeking an appropriation for breakwater repairs at that point.

He has been in communication with residents of that district regarding the matter for some time, and on Sunday last he made a long journey to make personal observations of the harbor. Mr. Black stated that he found seven fishing boats which operate out of Bayfield in rather bad way because the lake wall section of the breakwater had disappeared. If the damage was not repaired in the near future he feared that the mouth of the harbor would become blocked with sand washed up from the lake.

Monday he took the matter up with the minister of public works. The matter will probably be investigated further.

THIRTY-SIX thousand dollars was voted by the House of Commons today to meet expenditures made in giving relief to unemployed returned soldiers in London military district, during the last nine months of 1921. According to the parliamentary report assistance was given to 596 persons.

BECAUSE they desire to hold themselves in reserve for the debate on the budget, which will be brought down in the very near future, several members from Western Ontario are refraining from speaking in the House of Commons on any subject this week. This was admitted by both Progressive and Liberal members, who, although they ordinarily bear considerable weight in the form his contemplated speech will House, have maintained a conspicuous silence during the past few days.

ALTHOUGH there has been rumors that a deputation from Port Stanley would wait upon the minister of public works to secure a larger appropriation for harbor repairs and improvements at that point, John L. Stansell, member for East Elgin, stated today that he has had no intimation that a protest was to be registered. He had been led to believe by the silence of the residents of the Port that they were perfectly satisfied with the appropriation of $10,000 contained in the minister's estimates.

FIRE DAMAGES STORE.

SEAFORTH, May 2.—Fire broke out about two o'clock this morning in the basement of Marshall Stewart's grocery and feed store. The fire brigade was quickly on the scene and the blaze was promptly extinguished. The fire is thought to have been caused by a defective wire.

MAKE IT MEMORIAL TO MISS STANLEY

Victoria Alumnae Names Children's Hospital Cot After Late Superintendent.

PLANS JUNE OUTING

Pledges Share to Ontario Association's Fund For National Nurses' Memorial.

Victoria Hospital Nurses' Alumnae Association has decided to name the cot which is being endowed in the War Memorial Children's Hospital after the former beloved and revered lady superintendent of Victoria Hospital, the late Miss Margaret Stanley. This decision was reached at the May meeting of the alumnae, held this week. It was further decided that the association should go ahead at once with plans for raising money towards the memorial for nurses of the Dominion who gave their lives in the war, to be erected at Ottawa. Ontario's share, decided upon at the convention of the Ontario Provincial Association, is to be $24,000, and Victoria Alumnae members are deeply interested in carrying their full share of the responsibility.

Miss Della Foster, delegate, gave an interesting report of the provincial convention in Brantford, referring in closing to the high positions occupied by Victoria Hospital graduates, as heads of institutions and in other posts. In passing reference was made to honor conferred on two members of the alumnae, in the election of the president, Miss Agnes Malloch, to the board of the Provincial Graduate Nurses' Association, and making Mrs. A. C. Joseph first vice-president.

Miss Essex, a graduate of Victoria Hospital of some years ago, who has been engaged in her profession in the States, received a warm welcome back to London. Arrangement were made for the annual picnic, to take place at Springbank on the first Saturday in June, and Misses Walker and Rowe appointed a committee to make arrangements.

Members of the alumnae were urged to enroll in the London Red Cross emergency corps.

Sell Like Midsummer Ice Cream For Y. W. C. A. Gym Closing.

When it was first suggested that the closing exercises of the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium classes should be held this year in the armories, some people looked askance. How in the world would it be possible to get enough people to go to prevent the place from looking empty and lonely? Those people didn't know Miss Edith Wynne-Price, the physical director, the members of the physical training committee, and the people, big and little, who have made up this year's classes. The prospects are that there will not be a seat left in the vast auditorium, of all the thousands placed, when the curtain rises up on the grand, spectacular entertainment on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The seven oblongs of pasteboard, which modestly read, "Y. W. C. A. Gymnasium Exhibition," have literally gone like hot cakes in a melting July day. While the program will give a practical demonstration of the work done, it will also prove a revelation of grace, charm and beauty, according to those who have been afforded a peek at rehearsals, particularly the preparations for "Earth's Awakening," which constitutes the second part of the program.

Wedding Bells Ring At Gospel Hall; Missionary Marries London Girl

An interesting wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Hamilton Road Gospel Hall, when Jean Torrens of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Torrens of Ireland, was married to John Edwin Bodaly, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bodaly of Vancouver. Mr. Bodaly is a returned missionary, who has spent five years in missionary work in Africa, and is returning there the end of this month to resume his work, taking his bride with him.

Rev. A. E. Ainslie performed the ceremony in the presence of over 200 guests. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. John Torrens, looked charming in her wedding gown of white hand-embroidered voile, with a hand-embroidered veil, a heirloom in the family, which was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Meeting Tuesday evening, the Ladies' Guild of the Church of St. John the Evangelist made final arrangements for a rummage sale to be held Friday at 629 Dundas street, opening at 9 o'clock. It was stated that, thanks to housecleaning time sifting, many useful and valuable articles have been collected to offer for sale. Mrs. A. E. Boug, president of the guild, is convener of the event, which will be in aid of the guild fund.

COLBORNE STREET M. C.

The Mission Circle of Colborne Street Methodist Church held their last meeting of the year at the home of Miss A. McArthur, Thornton avenue. After the election of officers for the coming year a dainty supper was served.

The new officers are as follows: Hon. president, Mrs. A. K. Reynolds; president, Miss Pearl Cann; vice-president, Mrs. Albright; second vice-president, Miss E. Foy; treasurer, Miss E. McKelvey; secretary, Miss G. Walker; corresponding secretary, Miss I. Elliott.

FIFTEEN IN CLASS.

The final examinations in St. Joseph's Hospital Nurses' Training School will be over on May 10, and the graduates, who have been working towards graduation honors will know if they are to receive their diplomas at the closing exercises to take place in the Catholic Club auditorium the end of May, probably on the 30th or 31. In connection with the closing this year—the first always a most colorful and interesting event—the Alumnae Association is planning a banquet and theatre party for the members of the graduating class.

RIDOUT STREET M. C.

Miss Donna Johnston, Windsor alumnae, entertained the Ridout Street Methodist Mission Circle May meeting at her home on Tuesday evening, when the order of business included the annual reports. The circle, it was stated, has raised in the neighborhood of $115 for missionary purposes in the past year, all by voluntary offerings. Miss Sadie Scott presided. Miss May Richmond giving an interesting talk on mission work that is being done in Ontario.

A letter was read from Miss Isabel Govenlock, missionary in Japan. Miss Norine Floyd played a piano solo. The circle will be represented at the branch meeting in Windsor the end of the month by Miss May Richmond. During the social half-hour which followed the program the hostess served refreshments.

STUDY MARIE CHAPDELAIN.

Turning attention to things literary Wednesday evening, the members of the Girls' Canadian Club, at their fortnightly meeting, held at "Lenmore," the King street residence of the Y. W. C. A., made a study of the much-talked-of book of the hour, "Marie Chapdelaine." Mrs. Freida Stephens gave a concise and illuminating synopsis of the book, managing to retain its spirit while presenting the outline. Excerpts were also read. Miss F. Hendra followed with a criticism of the book, after which the subject was thrown open for discussion and questions.

A number of the members of the club met for tea at "Lenmore" previous to the business and program.

CONSIDER VOCATIONS.

A program of exceptional interest is promised for the meeting of Thursday evening of the Federation of Girls' Clubs of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Freida Stephens, vice-president of the Girls' Canadian Club, will introduce the subject for the evening, "Vocations Open to Women," dealing with the call of the hour for a united womanhood. Following this several young women will speak for their own professions or callings, or those they propose to enter, telling of the opportunities for advancement and service offered therein. It is expected a Normal girl will speak for the teaching profession, a university girl for openings for the college-trained woman, an industrial girl of factory work as a vocation, a business girl of the way to success in living through business activities, and a house worker of the avenue offered for self expression and ad-

Miss Emily Torrens was her sister's bridesmaid, wearing a pretty gown of hand-colored taffeta, with hat to match, and carrying flowers, and Mr. Frank Read was the best man. John Forrester and Ernest Ainslie acted as ushers. Mrs. W. G. Perkins played the wedding march, and during the signing of the register Miss Marian Peel sang.

The hall was effectively decorated with spring flowers, and following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement. Mrs. John Torrens and Mrs. A. E. Ainslie received with the young couple. A dainty supper was served by the Missionary Study class. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Bodaly will leave for New York, and will sail from there to England, going on to Portugal before proceeding to Rio de Janeiro, West Central Africa, where they will take up their missionary work.

GRATEFUL FOR REQUESTS.

Gratitude was expressed by the Women's Christian Association at the May meeting, held at the Wellington street residence of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday afternoon, over bequests from the estates of the late Dr. R. Campbell and the late Thomas P. McCormick. The major part of the bequest from Dr. Campbell has been paid in $5,550, the remainder to be received when the estate is finally settled. The bequest is a memorial to the mother of the late Dr. Campbell, the late Mrs. Carrie Campbell. Progress was reported with regard to the sale of lots belonging to the association, though the deals have not yet been closed. Members of the visiting committee had warm praise for all conditions in connection with the Victoria Home and Aged People's Homes, making appreciative reference to the work of the staffs. Mrs. Joseph Marshall invited the association to hold the June meeting at her home, "Cedar Terrace," London Township.

SERVE REFRESHMENTS AT BOYS' WEEK SPORTS

Overseas Chapter Opening Booth at Queen's Park—Sifts Membership Roll.

An authentic membership roll, including only the names of those who have paid their fees and manifest their interests by attending meetings, is the aim of the Overseas Chapter, I. O. D. E., in resorting to somewhat drastic "combing" measures. With the Provincial Chapter constitution as authority, it was decided at the May meeting of the Overseas Chapter, held Wednesday afternoon at "Lenmore," the King street residence of the Y. W. C. A., to go over the list and send notices to all who have not paid their fees or attended meetings for a length of time, asking them either to notify of their intentions of keeping up connection with the chapter or to return their pins.

The meeting was exceptionally well attended, enthusiastic and most encouraging in every respect. One of the first decisions reached was to open a booth during boys' week field day at Queen's Park Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of selling refreshments. Mesdames Harrison, Link, Harry Hooper and Elsie McQueen to take charge.

The treasurer reported that the proceeds of each of the chapters, the Overseas and Campbell Becher, in the informal charity dance held in the Winter Gardens April 21, amounted to $135, the share of the Overseas Chapter to go to its War Memorial Children's Hospital fund. The sum of $55 was realized from a recent rummage sale, this to go to the same object. In addition, each member is pledging herself to raise $5 for the hospital during the summer months. The regent, Mrs. A. H. Clinger, gave a bright and illuminating report of the provincial convention held in Hamilton last week. The chapter decided to ask Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, Municipal Chapter delegate, to represent them also at the national annual meeting in Vancouver, to be held the close of the meeting Mrs. George Fitchet and Mrs. Leigh acted as tea hostesses.

Personals

Col. Dyne-Evans is spending a few days in Toronto.

Mrs. C. E. Beltz, of Weston, Ont., formerly of this city, is visiting her mother this week.

Mrs. G. A. Gordon, Chico, Cal., is a guest in town, visiting the Misses Mills and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Burdick, 297 Talbot street.

Jack Russell, Queen's University, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Russell, Windsor avenue, has returned home after the close of college.

Miss Grace Westlake, Woodstock, has returned home after a week-end visit in town, the guest of Miss Donna Johnston, Windsor avenue.

In connection with the open meeting to be addressed by Miss Annie Warne, general secretary for the Dominion of the Grenfell Mission, during her visit in London the end of May, the local auxiliary will entertain at tea in her honor. Mrs. Sherwood Fox, convener; Mrs. Ernest Yeates, Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, and Miss Marjorie Reid will look after the tea arrangements.

A Centralia correspondent writes: Mr. and Mrs. Hanlan and family, who left this week for their new home in London, were very pleasantly surprised on Monday evening, when a number of their friends from St. Peter's parish called at their home here to bid them good-bye. Mrs. Hanlan was presented with a beautiful mahogany floor lamp, and Mr. Hanlan with a gold-headed walking stick. After the presentation the evening was enjoyed by the friends of the family who were greatly missed by their many friends here, who wish them every happiness in their new home.

A very successful event was the musicale given recently by the Colborne Street Methodist Church Mission Circle at the home of Miss D. Liddicott, St. James street. Little Miss Anne Walden, prettily gowned in pink, was kept busy answering the door, and the hostess and Miss McCArthur, past president, and Miss Cann, and welcomed them to the parlor, where a very interesting program was presented, consisting of solos, quartets, readings and violin and piano selections. Those taking part were Miss Allan, Miss Fitchett, Miss Van, Miss Jones, Mrs. Tremere, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Webster and Miss Powell.

Mrs. Jackson Kelly and Mrs. Walden presided at the tea table, decorated with red and white tulips. A number of the girls helped serve.

Mrs. Henry Arvida Smith, formerly Vera McDougall, received for the first time since her marriage Wednesday afternoon, at her pretty home in the St. George Apartments. Mrs. Smith, wearing a smart frock of blue taffeta, shot with silver, and a corsage of sweet peas, was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. J. S. McDougall, and Mrs. W. H. Smith. Mrs. McDougall was gowned in navy chambray, with touches of grey, with a black hat and a corsage of sweet peas, and Mrs. Smith wore a gown of black chambray, and a black hat. The rooms were doubly attractive, decorated with spring flowers. Pink tulips and daffodils were used in the living rooms, while mauve sweet peas, gracefully arranged in tiny vases, and mauve candles in crystal holders decked the tea table. Mrs. E. H. Nelles ushered the many guests to the tea room, where Mrs. Redmond Meredith and Mrs. Ross Johnson presided. Tea room assistants included Miss Mary McDougall, sister of the hostess, wearing a pretty frock of orchid organza; Miss Kathleen Smith, Mrs. Roy Atkinson and Miss Beatrice Taylor. In the evening Mrs. Smith entertained at a supper party in honor of her assistants.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

SARDONYX OFFERS HELP.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again. Although I have not written to the Mail-Box for some time I always read the letters. Would you please send me the address of Mother of Three, also of A. Needy One. I think her pen-name was that, although I don't know for sure? Inclosed find a self-addressed envelope for same. Truly Needy, if you will write to the Mail-Box and tell us if you are still in need of clothing, I will send you a few things for your wardrobe. SARDONYX.

Am mailing you Mother of Three's address, also The Needy One's, and thank you for offering to help them. Won't you write soon again, Sardonyx, as it is a long time since we last heard from you?

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in the Mail-Box where Bluebell No. 3 has some dahlia bulbs for the benefit of the Sick Children's Hospital. Would you please send me her address, as I would like to get some bulbs, and I will send the money to you for the kiddies. Inclosed find mite. I see so many wanting help. My, what a lot of hardship and suffering there is in the world that one knows nothing about. My heart aches for them all, and would like to help, but alas I have all I can do to help along here at home. There are ten in the family, so when one outgrows anything it will do for some of the rest, I guess.

A LOVER OF THE MAIL-BOX.

The address you asked for has been forwarded to you. Lover of the Mail-Box. Thank you for the hospital mite. You have your hands full with ten to take care of, haven't you? We will be pleased to hear from you soon again, and as you are a new member of the Mail-Box we welcome you.

AWAKEYIN' FOR LETTERS.

Dear Miss Grey,—It's quite a time since I wrote you last. I hope you are enjoying this lovely weather; also everyone else in the mail box. I am wearying for a letter from "March Wind." She must have blown to another climate. Would you please send me some cucumber seeds (not wild) and watermelon, and a few Hubbard squash and cosmos, for which I mail inclosed stamps. Will send more change in a week's time. Faithful ever, SAN DUSKIE.

ENJOYS PAGE.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where Jenny Wren has forwarded some flower seeds to Mail-Box friends. I inclose 25 cents for same, to be used for S. C. H.

I enjoy your page very much indeed, and it has also done good work in helping the needy ones. I have been so busy lately that I can't carry on your good works. "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these little ones, ye did it unto me." Good wishes, from CHICKY BUDDY.

The seeds you asked for have been forwarded. Chicky Buddy, and thank you for the hospital mite, also for the kind wishes.

LITTLE GIRL OBTAINS HOME.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have had so many letters in answer to my offer of a home and how I wish I could have them all, but I have such a nice little girl staying with me, am sorry to disappoint the other little girls. Inclosed find a mite for the hospital fund.

I am glad that some little girl is benefiting by your kind offer. Thank you for the hospital mite. I am sending the seeds you asked for.

"OH, TO BE IN ENGLAND."

Dear Cynthia and Everybody,—I think it is warm enough today for a buttercup to peek through into the Mail-Box. It is just about a year now since I last wrote you, but I have not missed reading the letters each day. Such a lot of nice letters in today's paper!

Can any of the Boxites tell me why it is so many duck eggs do not hatch when they are set in the incubator? Last year I filled by machine twice, and only one-half hatched, although there was a duck in every egg. I am expecting some out by the end of next week, as I have 50 eggs set. Also expect some little goslings. I have 160 baby chicks running around, four different ages, and they certainly keep me busy. The weather has been pretty hard on the wee things.

Have a root of English violets. Please send her address, Miss Grey. The violets and primroses will be peeking out of the ground now in dear, old England. Can any of the Boxites tell me how to get a root of mint? I will send a mite to the fund if I get a root. Did you taste any maple sugar this year, Miss Grey? I had a great big cake sent to me from Clematis. Many thanks, Clematis, where are you? I looked for a letter in the mail every day during March, but I did not see one. I do hope you have not had sickness in your home. I hear about you sometimes from Faded Lily. I often thought of writing to you, but never yet got to it. Well, Cynthia will think I want the whole page, so will run away to my work.

ENGLISH BUTTERCUP.

It is little old times to hear from you, English Buttercup, and what kept you away from the Mail-Box for such a long time. I am mailing you Esme's address, and I am sure if she has any roots she will be pleased to send them to you. You seem to keep in touch with a lot of the old Boxites. I cannot imagine what has happened

Three Weeks More Till Bale Packed

Just three weeks more till the bale is packed! This was the announcement made at the meeting of the London Auxiliary to the Grenfell Mission with regard to this year's bale for "The Labrador," which it is hoped to make the biggest, best and most valuable ever sent by the local society.

Any contributions of clothing, it is stated, may be sent direct to Cronyn Hall, distinctly marked "For Grenfell Mission." Several donations were acknowledged, including $3 from Mrs. F. S. Wood; $3, Mrs. A. E. Cooper; $2, Mrs. R. G. Fisher; $2, Mrs. Gillespie; pair of socks, Miss Nellie Macklin; wool and stockings, Lord Elgin Chapter, I. O. D. E.; muff, seal cap, gauntlets, Mrs. Blackwell; coat, skirt, two flannel gowns, Miss Jennie Steele. Arrangements were made for a rummage sale in aid of auxiliary funds, to be held May 13. Donations for this will be welcome, and information regarding it may be obtained from Mrs. W. A. Bluthner, phone 155. Plans were also made for an open meeting to be held the end of May in honor of the visit of the general secretary, Miss Annie Warne of Ottawa.

To March Wind. I was sure she would write some time during her month. Maybe some of our farmettes will be able to give you the information re your duck eggs.

IS STILL IN NEED.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am replying to your letter, and am sorry I did not answer it before this, but I am not in good health. You asked me to let you know if I still needed help, which I am trying to get for myself and children. I need clothes very badly for my two girls, two and a half years old, dresses, petticoats, drawers and stockings. For myself I need a dress, black, size 36, as I am in mourning for my dear dad, who has gone to God. I would not trouble you, but I am unable to go any place in person to apply for clothing.

I thank you for applying to the Campbell Becher Chapter, I. O. D. E., for baby clothes, and also thank the chapter for sending me such a lovely layette. We are trying to pay a big debt which we got into when my husband was out of work in the winter. I hope to repay you for your kindness. Sincerely, YOUNG MOTHER NO. 2

It was splendid the way the Campbell Becher Chapter responded to your appeal, wasn't it, Young Mother? I hope that you receive some clothing for your little ones, as it must be hard for you to manage when you are in such poor health. We would be pleased to hear from you again, and let us know from time to time how you are getting along.

SEEMS LIKE A BIG FAMILY.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you let a newcomer join your happy circle? Have read your column for some time and find it very interesting and helpful. I think if all the Boxites were to gather together it would seem like one big family, as they try to make each other happy and forget their troubles.

Noticed where several asked for correspondents. Miss Grey, if you would send me the addresses of any one about the age of 17 or 18 I should be very pleased to write to them, as I think it is real nice to hear persons whom you have never seen.

Am glad to see so many letters again, and hope they still continue.

Inclosing mite for S. C. H. fund. Wishing you and the Boxites every success, BETTY.

I have placed your name and address on file, Betty, and any one wanting to write to you may have it or send their addresses into the Mail-Box for you. Thank you for remembering our hospital fund with a mite.

Linda Lee Inc.

by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

"MRS. BELLAMY BRUCE! Rather a mouthful, that." "Is that why you make a face over it?" "Didn't expect me to relish it, did you, Linda?" "I'm afraid I wasn't thinking of you at all, Dobbie, when I took it." "Meaning, if you had been, you might have thought twice before taking?" "No fear; I was too madly in love with Bel!" "What?" "Dobbie!" "It seemed a long time to me Cinda—five years since these eyes were last made glad by the sight of you." "At least, time hasn't impaired your knack at pretty speeches." "Nor your power to inspire them." "I'm not so sure. To myself I seem ever so much older." Lucinda turned full face to the man on her left, anxiety fanned or real puckering the delicately penciled brows. "Doesn't it show at all, Dobbie, the ruthless march of advancing years?" "The man narrowed critically his eyes and withheld his verdict as if in doubt; but a corner of his mouth was twitching." "You are lovelier today than ever, lovelier even than the memories of you that have quickened my dreams—" "Truly, Dobbie, you've lost nothing of your ancient eloquence. That last speech quite carried me back across the bridge of time to the days when, more than once, you all but talked me off my feet and into your arms." "Pity I ever stopped talking." "How direct and persistent you are. It's only fair to tell you I'm still in love with my husband." For a moment Richard Daubeney was silent, staring at his plate. Then he roused with a light-hearted shrug and smile. "It's like you, Dobbie, to start making love to me all over again, in the first minutes of our first meeting in five years, without offering to tell me a single thing about yourself." "Nothing much to tell. Everybody knows, when you engaged yourself to marry Bruce, I rode off to the wars." "We heard you'd later taken up ranching in the Argentine, and made a tidy fortune." "I didn't do badly, that's a fact. But what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" "To understand you lost your soul in the Argentine?" "I realized down there my soul was in a fair way to prove a total loss. So I sold out and shipped for home." "Hoping to find me unhappy with Bel?" "That's unworthy of you, Cinda. No; simply to be in the same world with you." After a little Mrs. Bellamy Bruce said severely: "Dobbie, if you keep on that tack, you will make me cross with you. How does the world look at an exile of long standing? Much changed?" "Oh, I don't know. Skirts and morals a bit higher; prohibition just what one expected, society even more loosely constituted—a vast influx of new people. Astonishing lot of pretty girls seem to have sprung up since my time. Who's the raving beauty on Bill Sedley's right?" "Amelia Severn. Amelia Cleves." "DON'T THROW YOUR OLD CARETS AWAY!" ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS A QUEER KING

[By Olive Roberts Barton.]

"I'm King Verdo."

"HERE we are," said the dove, fluttering to the top of the gate that led into King Verdo's palace. "I may not go any further with you. You will have to finish your errand alone." "But will you wait to guide us back again over the seven valleys?" asked Nick. "I shall wait, but you will need no guiding," answered the dove. "You will need to go back over the seven valleys—not even the seven mountains. It was only necessary for you to make the trip once on foot. Returning, you may wish yourselves there in your magic Green Shoes. I shall fly with you, for I wish to see who is to marry Princess Therna. She is my mistress, you know, and I love her dearly." "What's all this talking about?" asked a new voice suddenly. "Here I was, enjoying a nice game of croquet by myself in my flower garden, and having everything peaceful and quiet, when I am disturbed by two tunes had been fused by her marriage with Bellamy. In the library she lingered a long minute, purposelessly searching the rich glooms, her mind coddled by the feeling of ownership which this her home inspired. Twenty-six, mistress of riches, she had never needed to compute, idle but for an ordered round of stale diversions, not yet a mother. She went slowly up to her rooms. Persistently giving herself into the hands of her maid, she stood opposite a long mirror. A shade of concern tinged the regard she bent upon that charming counterfeit. Where were the signs of age, of fading charm? Her heart, too, she searched. But there was nothing wanting there that the most exacting husband could require. BELLAMY BRUCE began the day frugally with grapefruit, the headlines of the Herald, and coffee. As a man of strong principles, he made it a rule never to drink before six in the evening. His graver concern this morning was with the tone of his complexion and the look of his eyes. To his relief the one proved to be

And Gay Gems Decorate Their Handles

FEATHERS ARE THE NEWEST SUMMER FAN MEDIUM.

BY MARIAN HALE. THE newest thing that has come from Paris is the mandarin fan, called the summer fan, made of and with entirely in feathers! Nothing but feathers—ostrich, coque and fancy plumage in a variety of combinations and color tones that are stunning. Gone is the old-time paper or straw matted fan! Gone is the day of the huge bamboo-handled, elephant-car fan! Paris has spoken in terms of bright-hued feathers put together in artistic ways. And the woman of fashion harkens to Paris. The new feather accessory for midday is useful, as well as beautiful. Hidden in the plumage is a little spring. Presto! Midday has her dressing case right at hand! There is a tiny mirror in an unseen pocket and a place for a diminutive powder puff. Handles of some of the new fans are jeweled. We have had feathers in combs, feathers in purses. Now we have feathers in fans and—whisper it—occasionally, in the necessary department which pride themselves on their smartness—are found midday's

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN FISH SAUCE

AIN broiled or boiled fish served with a special sauce makes an acceptable change from fish baked and stuffed or a made fish dish. Certain sauces usually accompany certain fish. An egg sauce is served with broiled fish, mustard sauce with broiled herring, parsley sauce with salmon, spinach sauce with broiled cod steaks, and drawn butter sauce with any broiled or boiled fish.

Egg Sauce.

One cup water, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 2 hard-boiled eggs. Melt butter, stir in flour and cook two minutes, stirring constantly. The water may be hot when added to first mixture. Add slowly, stirring constantly. Bring to the boiling point and add salt and pepper and lemon juice. Have the whites of the eggs cut in small dice and add to sauce. Make very hot and pour over fish. Rub yolks through a fine sieve over top of sauce and serve.

Spinach Sauce.

Two cups spinach, 1 tablespoon cream, 1 dessertspoon lemon juice, 2 eggs (yolks), salt and pepper. Wash and pick over spinach. There should be two cups after cleaning. Pound this spinach with a wooden potato masher and rub through a fine sieve. Put this spinach with the cream, lemon juice, salt and pepper and yolks of eggs in a smooth saucepan. Whisk briskly over the fire till light and frothy. Serve at once.

Another green sauce is made with spinach and served cold.

Parsley Sauce.

One cup water, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper. Melt butter, stir in flour and cook for two minutes. Add water slowly and cook until mixture boils. Boil gently for five minutes, season with salt and pepper and add parsley. Do not let sauce boil after parsley is added.

Mustard Sauce.

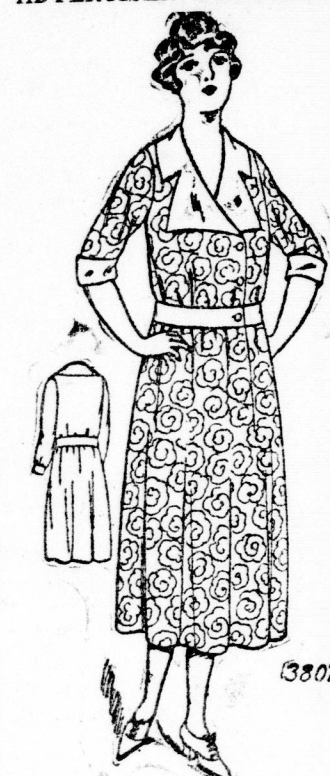

One teaspoon mustard, 1 dessertspoon flour, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon vinegar. Mix flour and mustard and rub to a smooth paste with butter. Stir in the boiling water and boil for five minutes, stirring constantly. Add vinegar and serve.

Cold Spinach Sauce.

Two cups spinach, 1/4 cup cream, 1/4 cup mayonnaise. Prepare spinach as in preceding recipe, whip cream stiff and add to mayonnaise with spinach. Fold the cream very lightly into the mayonnaise. Hollandaise sauce is always delicious with fish. An easy way to make it is with white sauce as the foundation. Yolks of eggs and lemon juice are added slowly with more butter. Do not let the sauce boil while adding the ingredients to the white sauce. (Copyright, 1922.)

Radio Radiations

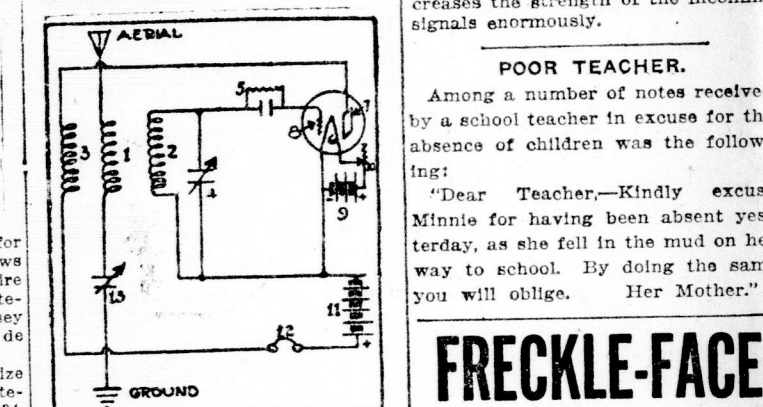

Amateurs are requested to make their queries as brief as possible to facilitate the publication and answering of the questions. Address your communications to the Radio Editor, The London Advertiser.

BY THE RADIO EDITOR. "LISTENING IN" on broadcasting is one thing, picking up long-wave transmission in Western Ontario is another. Many stations operate on wave lengths up to 20,000 meters. But the amateur may copy them all on the same set—if he uses honeycomb or duo-lateral coils. There is a special mounting for these coils which allows them to be changed at will. The coils are rated according to the number of turns of their wire. A coil marked L-75 has 75 turns, etc. The arrangement is simple. Due to the small cost of the coils, they are for any kind of reception regardless of the wave length. Although one can receive signals by just using the primary and secondary coils, it should be borne in mind that the tickler, which furnishes the regeneration of the set, increases the strength of the incoming signals enormously.

3 FOREIGNERS HOLD UP INDIAN

Bind Ohsweken Man and Force Wife To Give Up $4.50.

County Constable Delays Action Because Medina Braves Attacked Police.

received news of a hold-up on the Indian Reserve at Ohsweken. It appears that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry of the reserve, were sitting in their house when three foreigners made their appearance at the house, seized Mr. Henry, and after tying him up, ransacked the home, making Mrs. Henry give up all the money which they had, totalling about $4.50.

Constable Undecided.

Constable Kerr is quite undecided as to what action he should take in the matter. He states that he is not prepared to go to the reserve until the fringes of two weeks ago is settled, and Gordon Vyse, an Indian "squatter," is ejected from the place where he is now residing, and according to the constable, the federal and provincial police are trying to come to some agreement as to which body will officiate in seizing the property. Constable Kerr is marking time. The officers found themselves greatly outnumbered and their reception was exceedingly hostile.

Constable Kerr stated today that a proportion of the reserve residents were openly defying crown authority, taking the stand that they are allies, not subjects of King George. He believes that they have been receiving the advice of a German-speaking lawyer in New York.

It is a matter of conjecture just at present whether the federal or provincial assistance will be accorded Brant county police in their efforts to maintain law and order in the Indian Reserve, following the row which occurred at Medina recently. On that occasion police and auxiliaries were engaged in a sort of Donnybrook rough-and-tumble by friends of Vyse against whom the county police hold a warrant of eviction off the farm of an Indian named Hill.

Efforts to get Vyse off the land were met on that occasion with stubborn resistance from about two dozen braves, and in the melee the police had to use batons to defend themselves from missiles thrown by the Indians.

NORWICH TO VISIT INGERSOLL LODGE

Orangemen of Oxford County Decide to Spend July 12, 1923, in Town.

NATIVE OF PUTNAM DIES

Mrs. Richard Atkins, 75 Years Old, Left Birthplace Only 18 Years Ago.

Special to London Advertiser. INGERSOLL, May 3.—Soon after they decided to celebrate the 12th of Orangemen last night proceeded to Norwich to extend an invitation to July next year in Ingersoll, local the county lodge which was in session there. The invitation was readily accepted, and a big celebration is being planned. This year the local lodge, together with other lodges of the county, will celebrate the 12th at St. Thomas.

Death has claimed an old resident of this town and district, in the person of Mrs. Atkins, wife of Richard Atkins, who died at the family residence, Albert street. She was in her 75th year and was born at Putnam, where she resided up to coming here eighteen years ago. Besides her husband she is survived by five daughters and three sons.

With a view to developing commercial interests to a greater degree, plans of an outstanding nature are being considered by the Retail Merchants' Association. In the event of action being taken, it is expected that a greater number of visitors will be brought to town. Details are being considered by a committee appointed by the association.

CUSTOMS MEN CONVENE

Officers Still Hope to Gain $120 Increase.

OTTAWA, May 3.—Customs men, representing most of the large ports of the country, met here today and will continue in session until Friday, in the annual meeting of the Dominion Customs and Excise Officers' Association. On Friday they will interview the government, the civil service commission and their department on the bonus, salaries and other vital questions.

Robert Colvin, of Hamilton, presided at the opening meeting and in his report stated the executive was sparing no opportunity to secure the annual increase of $120 instead of $60.

T. H. Burns, secretary, reported a year of activity. He stated that satisfaction over the classification had been materially lessened by the denial of the $120 increase.

PROPOSE ENVOY TO WASHINGTON

Members of Canadian Government Discuss Appointment of Representative.

E. M. MacDonald, Liberal, From Pictou, Raises Issue in Commons.

OTTAWA, May 3.—(By Canadian Press).—Appointment of a Canadian representative at Washington is now receiving consideration at the hands of the Dominion government. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, prime minister, stated in the House of Commons today.

The prime minister's statement was made in reply to urgent pleas by E. M. MacDonald, Liberal member for Pictou, N.S., that a Canadian minister should be appointed to Washington.

Mr. MacDonald brought up the question on a motion for production of documents "relative to the petition of the Eastern L. Have Transportation Company and others to the secretary of state for external af-

Predicts Wireless Talks Will Be Established With Planets

SYDNEY, N. S., May 2.—"If there be intelligent life on Mars, Venus or any of the planets, I believe communication will be established between the earth and the people of these outer worlds through the medium of wireless telephony within the next decade," was the prediction of a Marconi expert today.

"Don't think I am drawing the long bow in making this prophecy, as I feel firmly convinced that provided there are people in the tenements of the sky with a civilization approaching ours, radio wireless will span the void that stretches between the earth and the planets and carry a spoken message to those with ears to hear."

fairs," and replies thereto from the United States government.

The case at issue, said Mr. MacDonald, was that of a Nova Scotia vessel sunk by an American vessel off Rhode Island. The fault lay with the American vessel, but the Canadian owners, according to United States law, could not sue through the courts; they had to act through the secretary of state for external affairs.

There should be a more direct method of communication between the Canadian and United States governments than the present one of going through the British Embassy at Washington, Mr. MacDonald declared. There were continually matters arising between the two countries and it was absolutely necessary that there should be a Canadian minister or other official at Washington who would be able to take these matters up direct.

There were thousands of things in the United States in the matter of new laws, etc., in which Canada was interested and an official of this sort would be able to keep his government informed as to developments.

BARES MOSCOW IN ALL UGLINESS

Shielding Blanket of Snow Disappears, Leaving Mud and Slush.

Ancient Autos Carrying Red Officials Cough Bad Gasoline On Streets.

MOSCOW, May 1.—The shielding blanket of snow has left Moscow and revealed a city of mud and slush, and unrepentant, cratered pavements, like a battlefield pockmarked by shell holes; and the city stands out in all its revolution-torn ugliness.

Droshkies, or Russian cabs, drawn by disconsolate-looking horses, career from melting ice hillock to slush crater, joggling their passengers like a bumping device in an amusement park. Here and there a sleigh, a hopeless relic of the more charitable days of winter, drags painfully from bare pavement to slush oasis with a load of wood.

Automobiles, which seem recklessly driven by hard-faced chauffeurs, splutter, chug and whir past, throwing muddy water over pedestrian and droshky passenger alike.

To the stranger Moscow seems to be the place designed as the Hades where all bad automobiles go when they die. There are a few good new models, but, for the most part, the touring cars, runabouts and lorries, which speed through Moscow's streets, generally laden with roughly-dressed Soviet officials or Red Army officers, are of a pre-1914 vintage, one-lunged ghosts from the scrapheap, coughing bad gasoline and pouring out smoke barrages of oil fumes.

The sanitary condition of the city is almost unimaginable to western strangers. A report from the Moscow Soviet recently said there were millions of barrels of refuse and sewage in the dump yards, unable to be moved because of the transport shortage.

Less than 30 per cent of Moscow's houses have complete sewage and running water facilities, and many drain pipes are so blocked with the refuse of years that they are useless.

Some efforts are to be made this coming summer toward sewage repair, and here and there the city's dinginess is being relieved by a bit of paint as private shopkeepers touch up their new establishments.

DENIES RESPONSIBILITY FOR MONTREAL RIOTING

Secretary of Longshoremen's Union Promises Searching Inquiry.

MONTREAL, May 3.—A searching inquiry into the causes of the rioting by striking dock workers last night was promised this afternoon by Charles Bujold, secretary of the Longshoremen's Union. Mr. Bujold emphatically denied that the raid had been decided upon at the meeting of the union which immediately preceded it.

Union executives, he declared, had made frequent trips to the harbor to request the idle men not to stand about in the vicinity of the docks. He regretted more than he could say last night's forcible demonstration of hostility.

If the inquiry was successful in unearthing the men responsible for the attack they would be expelled from the union and severely punished, Mr. Bujold said.

WILL TAKE PART IN HYDRO INQUIRY

TORONTO, May 3.—A. C. Kingston of St. Catharines was chosen today by the Ontario Municipal Electric Association as its representative on the commission recently appointed by the Ontario Government to inquire into the costs of the Chippawa Canal development scheme in connection with the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission's system.

Premier Drury suggested to a deputation representing hydro municipalities which waited on him a few days ago with a request that a representative of the municipalities should be added to the commission, that they submit half a dozen names from which the Government could choose one, but the association decided to send only one name to the premier.

INDIAN WORKERS FACE STARVATION

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Thousands of Indian laborers in the Fiji Islands are starving, and total loss of the sugar and coconut crops is threatened as a result of the strike of 60,000 workers protesting against a cut of 20 cents a day in wages, according to an account of conditions given yesterday by B. Vankalapak Raja, head of the British mission sent from India to investigate the situation.

Mr. Vankalapak arrived here yesterday on the steamer Talita.

President E. W. Beatty Hopes Country Will Adopt More Constructive Immigration Policy.

REGRET EATON'S DEATH

Shareholders Pass Resolution of Sympathy at Passing of Late Director.

MONTREAL, May 3.—The annual meeting of shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway was held at the head office of the company here at noon today. Proceedings were of a purely formal nature. The usual large number of shareholders were present and displayed much interest in the address of President E. W. Beatty.

The president's address was of an optimistic nature, and after laying down his belief in the adoption by the country of a more constructive immigration policy, he referred to the general recovery which was taking place at present in both industry and business, and expressing his confidence in the future prosperity of the Dominion and the readiness of the Canadian Pacific Railway to enter wholeheartedly into this development with the best of its ability.

Three directors of the company completed their four-year term of office with the last fiscal year, in the persons of Lord Shaughnessy, J. K. L. Ross and Sir Thomas Skinner, and these stood for re-election. Upon the casting of the vote they were returned to office for a further term.

A resolution of regret was moved by E. W. Beatty over the death of Sir John Eaton, formerly a director of the company.

A new bylaw was carried for the approval of the meeting, providing that holders of certificates for debenture stock carrying interest, may, if the directors so determine, surrender their certificates in bearer form and be entitled to receive in return a certificate registered in the holder's name bearing the same date and payable at the same time.

Similarly, holders of such bearer certificates may at any time surrender same in exchange for coupon-bearing certificates.

VANCOUVER JUDGE PASSES SUDDENLY

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 3.—Justice Clement of the supreme court of British Columbia, died suddenly here this morning. He sat in court yesterday.

Some years ago Mr. Justice Clement suffered a paralytic stroke and a second one came this morning while he was dressing to attend court. It was accompanied by a hemorrhage of the brain, and death was almost instantaneous.

Born at Vienna, Ont., in 1858, he graduated from the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall.

WEAK HEART NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy, is bound by the shackles of ill-health. Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system.

In

MILBURN'S

HEART AND NERVE PILLS

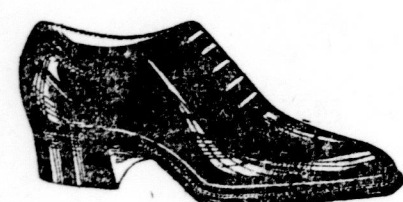

they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system.

Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 14 Seaton street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I was left with a weak heart and in a run-down condition from the flu. My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."

Edmonton Girls Invade London For Canadian Cage Title

Floyd Wheeler, who was sold by London to Pittsburgh last year, has been sent back to the Rochester International on optional agreement. Pinto, who was sold to the Cardinals, says Wheeler is still sticking. The wheelers master or came by the wheelers name. The wheelers name is a name of weight he had behind every delivery, and if Pinto gets it, they'll be umpire for and to stand on.

Williams, the new home run slugger, might as well be named Smilin, for Babe Ruth, with his titles of Clout, Sultan of Swat and Prince of Wholes has already been dubbed the most distant of titles.

Just as soon as Harry Williams says he's through a couple ceremonies at the stadium, he'll be in the way, they'll know he's in the rear earnest.

SHIP LIQUOR FROM CANADA

BRIDGEBURG, May 3.—The Buffalo Export Company here will immediately commence to export liquor over the Niagara River from Canada, officials said today. This announcement was made today, when Herbert T. Guest, head of the company, received official notice that he had won his appeal before County Judge

Gault at Hamilton. The firm appealed the decision of Magistrate Jelfs, in which he recently fined the company $500 and confiscated 60 cases of liquor in transit to the border. The fine will be remitted and the liquor returned. According to President Guest, Judge Gault found no violation of the Ontario law in the company's activities. Asked about the danger of American patrols, Guest said that was the firm's lookout.

DEFER ACTION ON BILL TO CHANGE ELECTION DATE

Legislators Decide To Await Disposal of McAlpine's Measure.

MAGEAU'S MOTION STANDS

Pinard's Amendment To the School Act Passes Second Reading.

TORONTO, May 3.—Qualifications of registered nurses, liability of property for the debenture debts of a school board, and the advisability of municipalities fixing the date of their elections on the first Monday in December, furnished the most interest in a rather drabgy afternoon in the Ontario Legislature. A number of minor bills were disposed of.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson called the attention of the house to a statement in Wellington Hay's speech yesterday, which was interpreted by the Conservative leader as suggesting that civil servants were running to him with information.

Mr. Ferguson said he wished to contradict this, that as far as he knew the civil service was absolutely loyal to the ministry as they should be. He took particular care not to discuss matters with civil servants without first asking permission of the head of the department.

Mr. Hay replied that his suggestions were based on the questions which Mr. Ferguson put to the order paper, which seemed to indicate an unusually close knowledge of what was going on in the various departments.

Mageau's Bill Stands.

Mr. Mageau of Sturgeon Falls agreed to allow his bill, amending the separate school act, to be held over until the law regarding the liability of property to school debenture debt can be ascertained. He explained that the question had been raised in Sturgeon Falls, and a letter had been received from a prominent law firm of Toronto stating that when a property was assessed for public school purposes all debentures issued while it was so assessed were a charge against the property until these debentures were paid off. It meant that even if the property were purchased in the meantime by a separate school supporter, the latter would have to go on paying on the public school debenture debt, in addition to his separate school taxes.

Mr. Mageau's bill is designed to render property liable for only one school debt, either public or separate.

The department of education gave Mr. Mageau an interpretation of the law as meaning that a property was at present liable only for the debenture rates of the system (public or separate), to which it was assessed. In order to get the opinion of the legal department the second reading was not pressed today.

The question of the advisability of municipalities fixing their civic election date for the first Monday in December was brought in when the special bill for the city of St. Catharines to make this change came up. The clause was held over in view of a bill now before the Legislature introduced by D. McAlpine, of Brockville, giving any municipality the right to change from the holiday season to an earlier date, by the council passing a bylaw. Earlier election dates mean earlier financial statements if the electors are to know the situation of their municipalities before casting their votes.

Passes Second Reading.

This in turn leads to a check-board situation as regards the financial years of various municipalities, and where they are linked up in a general financial scheme, such as hydro, it was thought there was a danger of electors not receiving comprehensive annual statements.

The bill of J. A. Pinard (East Ottawa), to amend the separate school act, to make it correspond with the public school act in regard to reducing the number of trustees, passed second reading. The government's registration of nurses' act passed through committee of the House after a long discussion on the test a nurse should undergo to qualify for the right to place "R. N." after her name. The act is designed to enable nurses from small hospitals to qualify, as well as those of larger institutions, and brought out an interesting discussion as to whether the small or the large hospitals turned out the best nurses, with the supporters about evenly divided.

Provincial Secretary Nixon agreed to alterations so that eventually a standard form of training will be necessary for qualification as registered nurse.

750,000 ENGINEERING WORKERS LOCKED OUT
Few Union Members Break Ranks to Accept Terms of Employers.

LONDON, Eng., May 3.—Three-quarters of a million workers in England's engineering industry are now locked out, some six hundred thousand being affected by today's lock-out caused by the dispute largely on the question of the rights of management in workshops.

In accordance with a recent announcement, the employers opened their shops for the employment of men wishing to resume work on the employers' terms, but reports today showed that very few had availed themselves of this opportunity. Meanwhile the official inquiry into the trouble was opened today by Sir William Mackenzie, president of the industrial court. The court was appealed to the employers assembled there to lift the lockout pending the outcome of the inquiry, but Sir Allen Smith, chairman of the management committee of the engineering employers' federation, replied that the court had no jurisdiction in the matter.

AIMS TO RESTORE PENSION RIGHTS

Government Negotiating With G.T.R. Employees Who Forfeited Status in 1910.

BOYS WITHDRAWS MOTION

South Simcoe Conservative Accepts Premier King's Explanation As Satisfactory.

OTTAWA, May 3.—(By Canadian Press).—W. A. Boys (Conservative, Simcoe South) moved in the House of Commons today that "immediate steps should be taken by the government to restore the pension rights and status of all employees and ex-employees of the Grand Trunk Railway who were deprived thereof owing to participation in a strike on the system in the year 1910, to the end that all such may secure their just rights pursuant to the terms and true intent of the settlement made between the parties."

Mr. Boys said that since placing his resolution on the order paper he had read the statement made by the prime minister on April 10, in which Mr. King had said that the government was already taking action to secure restitution of these rights by negotiations. If negotiations failed, the prime minister had promised that legislative action would be taken to bring about the desired effect.

Mr. Boys said he was deeply interested in this matter, and he was quite satisfied with the statement made by the prime minister. In view of that he would not press his resolution to a vote at this time.

However, if negotiations failed and there was no legislation forthcoming, he wished to reserve the right to bring the matter up again. For the present he would move adjournment on the debate on the resolution.

The prime minister said that should negotiations fail which were now under way he would prefer that Mr. Boys again bring up his resolution and press it to a vote in the house.

A Remarkable Table of Dividends

NEXT to growing the grain, flour milling is the most natural of all Canadian industries. Yet strangely enough this industry has not had the growth in Canada that its merits deserve, or that the amazing profits in it should have stimulated. For example: The following is a table of the Dividends paid by the various Canadian Milling Companies in the past few years. These Dividends in most cases were only paid after setting aside substantial reserves out of earnings.

ASKS GRADING OF POTATOESHon. W. R. Motherwell's Motion Is Under Consideration Now.Regulations Will Effect All Other Root Vegetables
As Well.

Special to London Advertiser.
Ottawa, May 3.—Further regulations on the sale of potatoes and other vegetables in Canada, contained in a resolution brought in by Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, are under consideration by the House of Commons, and in all probability will be made law in the near future.

It is the desire of the minister that all potatoes offered for sale, whether in bags, barrels or bulk, should be graded with the quality defined and marked. This rule, however, will not apply to new potatoes shipped between June 1 and September 15, seed potatoes and imported roots or if such marking would interfere with the shipment of potatoes to other countries.

Under the regulations no one shall be allowed to sell potatoes in containers that are marked falsely, or where ten per cent of the potatoes are substantially smaller than those indicated by the marking. The contents of each bag or barrel must in every case be fit for consumption.

All potato barrels manufactured in Canada must contain as nearly as practical 7,056 cubic inches, and must comply with such regulations passed by the governor-in-council respecting quality, size and form. No person will be permitted to sell, offer for sale or export for sale potatoes in barrels unless the containers are well and properly filled.

Inspectors will be given permission to enter any premises to examine packages and potatoes offered for sale, and he may if he so wishes, hold up shipments in transit for examination purposes. If potatoes are found diseased he may seize and destroy them. If they are classified wrongly, he will be given power to change the markings.

Provisions are contained in the act for the marking of onions offered for sale in crate, bag or package, except green onions, or onions imported for exportation. Similar regulations as to false marking, diseased onions, and as to seizure and examination of shipment will apply to onions as to potatoes.

All potatoes, onions, artichokes,
beets, carrots, parsnips and turnips must be sold by the pound avoirdupois under the new act.

STATESMEN VOICE VIEWS ON INFLUENCE OF PRESS

Sir L. Gouin and Rt. Hon. A. Mc-Gill, address gathering of Canadian Daily Newspapers' Association.
Montreal, May 4.—Two leading statesmen, Sir Lomer Gouin, minister of justice, and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, voiced their views on the powers and responsibilities of the press at the convention banquet of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association, held at the Windsor Hotel last night.

Sir Lomer urged upon his hearers the importance and duty of brushing away interpersonal and internecine bickerings and jealousy, which Mr. Meighen said was the most serious problem of the world to solve the immense problem of the day.

A telegram of regret at inability to attend was read from the prime minister.
J. H. Woods of Calgary, responding to the toast of present-day problems, said that Canada could handle all her material problems, but the most important were national and among them
the world to solve the immense problem of the day.

More work is planned, but when it will start depends upon the finance committee. Mr. Perley said, he refused to disclose the nature of the work contemplated by the officials of the corporation.

The vice-president stated that a little work has been going on at the Ojibway plant, and that he hoped activities there would increase in the near future.

Unemployed Women Raid City Relief Office In Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., May 4.—
The daily demonstration promised by Vancouver's unemployed in their campaign for civic relief today took the form of a raid of the city relief office by thirty unemployed women.

They occupied the main room of the building and steadily refused to leave unless relief was given to them. The police were called out and the women were herded out of the building.

They did not attempt any violence, but one of them leaped into the patrol wagon, which had brought the police forcibly ejected from it. Unemployed men did not participate.

STUDY TOUR FOR BOYS.
About the best thing a father can do for his boys is to encourage them to travel and see something of the world before they become too keenly engrossed in commercial life. Travel is a great educator—it enriches the mind and fits the youth to better fill his place in life. A normal boy is observant—he assimilates and retains knowledge. Travel gives him his opportunity—it fits him for every phase in life.
A tour of Europe is at present being organized under the personal supervision of Mr. T. H. Matthews, M.A. (Oxon), assistant professor of mathematics, McGill University, and late instructor-Lieutenant, royal navy.
In addition, local guides will be selected to conduct excursions and give lectures on the artistic, historic, literary and economic significance of the sights seen and the places visited.
A most carefully planned and interesting itinerary has been arranged, including visits to Montreal, Liverpool, Chester, Stratford-on-Avon, Oxford, London, Paris, Versailles, Pontainebleau, Rheims, Lyons, Marseilles, Cannes, Nice, Monaco, Mentone, Genoa, Pisa, Rome, Naples, Sorrento, Capri, Pompeii, Vesuvius, Florence, Venice, Trent, Innsbruck, Munich, the Passion Play at T. Oberammergau, Nuremberg, Mayence, the Rhine, Co-logne, Brussels, Louvain and Ostend, returning through London and Liverpool.
This exceptional tour starts from Montreal on Saturday, June 24, calling at Quebec, by the splendid White Star Line steamship Canopic (12,100 tons). A period of approximately two months will be occupied by the tour, as by the itinerary the return trip is made from Liverpool by the fine steamship Regina (16,500 tons), arriving at Montreal on Aug. 26.
The arrangements for this tour are most complete, and the charge, which is a minimum one, covers everything in the way of transportation, hotel accommodation with three meals a day, transfers, sight-seeing fees, in brief, all necessary traveling expenses for the entire tour.

National Railways for further particulars.

LABOR OBJECTS TO SHUTTING UP OF 2 FIRE HALLS
Union Workers Claim Plan Is One of Misplaced Economy.
PROTEST TO COUNCIL
Question of Retiring Certain Firemen Discussed At Meeting.
Holding that the present is an in-opportune time to curtail two fire halls, and questioning, incidentally, the advisability of such action from a viewpoint of public safety, the trades and labor council will make formal protest to this effect to the city council.
In regular session Wednesday night the trades union delegates considered this question at considerable length and from several angles, finally directing their committee to present their views to the aldermen.
It was also decided to invite representatives of the firemen's union to attend a committee meeting Friday, when the question of the proposed reduction of the fire department staff will be considered.
Tite Introduces Motion.
Delegate William Tite introduced the motion, protesting that although the closing of the fire halls was intended as a measure of economy, the citizens would not gain by such action. He stated that insurance agents were going from house to house seeking increased insurance upon the plea that there would now be less fire protection. He questioned also the advisability of retiring men at a time like the present.
He urged that the matter be taken up by labor's representative, Ald.
Asphlang.
Delegate Ingles, supporting Delegate Tite, held that the fire halls were built because they were needed.
If such were not the case, he pointed out, someone then stood ready for condemnation for reckless expenditures. If they were needed, then it was lessening the service in the outlying districts.
The delegates also approved of a motion to ask the city council to take such action as would prevent, if possible, too great publicity being given to the number of building permits issued by Building Inspector Piper.
Delegate Tite claimed that scores of men were coming into the city, attracted by press reports inferring a building boom and general prosperity.
Marks Addresses Delegates.
Several of the delegates were of a like opinion, and a committee was directed to ascertain in what manner the building inspector arrived at his estimate. While not wishing to cast any reflections upon the city hall officials, Delegates Hessel and Ingles explained that, while they read about "millions of dollars worth of permits issued," they failed to see "millions of dollars worth of building" in progress throughout the city.
Delegate Ingles voiced the opinion that if it was a fact that the proposed hotel was included every month, the total might not appear so unreasonable. Delegate Murphy suggested that possibly there were many of the citizens enlarging their cellars that such undertakings would not be so noticeable to casual observers.
Joseph Marks, one-time local labor man, but now a resident of Toronto and a representative of the Ontario Labor Educational Association, spoke at considerable length upon various questions of interest to labor.

KITCHENER CHIEF ISSUES WARNING
Says Number of Garages Have Been Erected Contrary to Fire Bylaw.
w

WILL BUILD ORPHANAGE
F. W. Field, Trade Commissioner, Addresses Kitchener and Waterloo Manufacturers.
Special to London Advertiser.
KITCHENER, May 3.—Fire Chief Guerin, after an inspection of the city today, issued a warning that a number of garages had been put up contrary to the bylaw, and a number of roofs that have been shingled without a permit will have to be torn down and done over again to conform with the regulations. He stated that any future violations of the buildings and fire bylaws will be prosecuted.
Announcement was made here today that the K-W. Orphanage Board intends to go ahead with the building of a big orphan's home at the Natchez road, on the outskirts of the city. The plans have been submitted to the government, and as soon as they are approved the architect will be asked to prepare the specifications for tender. A subscription drive to raise funds for the financing of the project will be started at once. An appeal is being issued to all of the businessmen and manufacturers of the city for cooperation.
F. W. Field, Canadian trade commissioner, was in the city today and met the principal manufacturers of Kitchener and Waterloo. In a short interview he stated that he was quite

FOUR INTERESTING CASES TO COME UP AT WOODSTOCK
Non-Jury Sessions of the Supreme Court Opens Before Hon. Latchford Monday.
Special to London Advertiser.
WOODSTOCK, May 3.—At the non-jury sessions of the supreme court which opens here Monday next before Hon. F. R. Latchford, four cases of more than ordinary interest compose the docket. R. Baxter of Blenheim has taken action against his nephew, Alfred Hall, to have him removed as executor of the will of Edward H. Hall, defendant's brother, and the will set aside in so far as it is in favor of Alfred Hall.
M. and W. Schell vs. Robert Bery & Co. of Toronto is an action for alleged breach of contract on a lumber deal.
Plaintiffs claim damages amounting to $4,999, while defendants make counter-claims amounting to $7,200. Maud Buehl, East Zorra, is suing her husband, Edwin C. Buehl, for alimony. The fourth case is that of Alfred Hall of Toronto vs. R. H. Hall, crown attorney of Oxford, and the Law Society of Canada. The plaintiff claims conspiracy to wreck his life and career, and deprive him of his livelihood as a lawyer. This has to do with the cancellation of Hall's certificate to practice in Ontario.

"LILY LOVE" TURNS INTO "LOTUS LOVE"
SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Juanita Miller's "lily love" bathes, and in performing his ablutions every morning at 7 o'clock, making "terrible noises as he bathes," has brought back to the earthly plane the perfect love which had been lifted up and carried away by the "cosmic urge."
All of which means that the daughter of Joaquin Miller, famous poet of the Sierras, is getting ready to file a divorces in July against John Reid, her red-haired photographer husband.
This is the second of Juanita's
"cosmic loves." After July — well, "one's soul always can journey again," says Juanita. But more of the "lotus love."
Juanita gave her second "Juan" the new name when he began to lie on his back, refuse to pay bills, refuse to work, and the bath was the last straw.
"He floated on the surface of our love just as the lotus flower floats on the surface of the water," says Juanita. "He was always tired—too tired to love."
And floating, he splashed, lacking the silent floating power of a certain soap, and it was disturbing at 7 a.m., just as one's soul should be waiting through the fields of Elysium, breathing the scent of immortal flowers, dancing to the music of trilling flutes and crashing cymbals.
"I begged him to love me as he used to," said Juanita, "but, no—he said he was too tired. My honeymoon was ended, just because my
"lily love" had turned into a "lotus love."

PROTEST CUBICAL ASSESSMENT IDEA
Special to London Advertiser.
ST. THOMAS, May 3.—The new system of assessing property in the city, according to the cubical contents of the dwellings, is not receiving entire approval of the citizens.
While the new method appears to many to satisfy all requirements theoretically, some ratepayers object that their assessments have been corresponded in a way that does not increase in the way that value of their property.
Objections to an increased assessment of $1,000 are said to have been made recently by one of the chief
