ADVERTISE IN THE PLANET

THE WALL IS FALLING AWAY

Engineer Jones Will Have Considerable Trouble Repairing Bridge

WORK MAY COST $3,000

This morning City Engineer A. E. Jones commenced the repairing of the Third street bridge.

An investigation showed that this bridge is in very bad shape and the repairs to it will cost in the neighborhood of about $3,000. In speaking to a Planet reporter Mr. Jones said:

"The retaining wall on the south approach is all falling away towards the river and has carried the south truss forward about three inches already. This prevents anyone from swinging the bridge and we had to cut off considerable of it before we could get the bridge open. The iron blocks on the first pier were almost tipped completely over and it will cause considerable trouble in straightening them up."

"The old retaining wall is falling to pieces and it will be necessary to build an entirely new wall. What I purpose doing is to jack back the whole structure to the old retaining wall, build a new wall outside the old one, and anchor it back much the same as was done at the William street bridge."

"This will have to be done right away. The reason for the wall coming to pieces was, I suppose, the jarring of the ground when the spiles were being driven during the erection of the powerhouse. It is lucky we noticed it when we did, for if it had gone on much longer it would cost considerable more to repair it."

ANSWER TO MINERS

Operators May Agree to Arbitration But On Different Plan.

New York, April 9.—With President Mitchell and the scale committee awaiting the reply of the operators to the proposition to arbitrate their differences all is quiet in the anthracite coal strike situation.

No information was obtainable yesterday accurately to indicate what stand the operators will take to-day. It is known they have carefully gone over the arbitration plan proposed by Mr. Mitchell, and it is said, they have decided to accept arbitration, but in a radically different form from that offered by the miners.

Figures from the anthracite coal districts yesterday showed that in the five days they have been idle, so far, the miners have lost about $1,778,419, less the amount paid to the pumpmen. The operators have not sustained nearly so great a loss. They have sold, it is estimated, 1,250,000 tons, the normal demand for the week, and at a price fifty cents higher than they would have received had the normal conditions of April prevailed.

In the Western Pennsylvania bituminous districts reports indicate that 28,000, or over 95 per cent, of the miners will be at work to-day.

STRIKE IS ENDED

Care Are Moving Again—Result of Mediators' Efforts.

Winnipeg, April 9.—The street railway strike is settled, and the cars were all started with the former employees in charge at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Sparling and Principal Patrick made the announcement after an hour's session with the men at Friendship Hall.

As the two mediators left the hall they were loudly cheered by the men. They went immediately to the Street Railway Co.'s offices to communicate the decision that the men had accepted the terms offered.

The wages are advanced one cent an hour all round, while there is to be no discrimination against union men. The arbitration clause, though, is left out. All former employees are taken back by the company except those who exercised violence toward the company's property. There is a clause in the agreement that the company will be willing at all times to treat with its men, or any committee employed by them, on any subject in the interests of the company, or employees.

There was a general feeling of relief over the termination of the strike, and as cars went out at 4 o'clock they were heartily cheered by thousands on the street.

Don't depend upon other people to do your kicking for you.

Like a farmer, every chicken is interested in its own crop.

WHO GETS THE ESTATE OF THE LATE MR. JONES?

Some Interesting Revelations are Made in The Passing of Accounts of the Estate of a Deceased Ridgetown Man

HE WAS MARRIED TWICE AND HAS TWO FAMILIES

A very interesting but complicated case has recently come to light in Ridgetown where two alleged widows claim the right to the estate of one deceased man.

Walter Mills, a prominent lawyer that place, was called upon to pass the accounts in the estate of the late A. E. Jones. The woman, whom he and the world recognized as his wife, lives in Detroit with a number of his small children. Letters of administration were taken out in the name of his wife, Mary Jones, and the solicitor advertised for creditors. When the accounts were being passed Julia McKay, daughter of Dan McKay, who lives near Ridgetown, appeared with her son and claimed to be the lawful wife of the late Mr. Jones, and her son the lawful heir.

It turns out that 31 years ago Jones married Julia McKay, and a month afterwards the son was born.

THE FAULT OF DEPARTMENT

Members of the Commons so Describe Collapse of Laurier Tower

H. S. CLEMENTS SPEAKS

Ottawa, April 6.—The week in the Commons ended in a carnival of eloquence to-day. The downfall of the Laurier Tower was the cause of one of the liveliest and most exciting debates of the session. A personal inspection of the ruins had convinced many members that the binding agent stipulated for, whether mortar or cement, had not been supplied. It was, according to their belief, nothing but sand. Several Opposition members referred to this, and criticized the Department of Public Works for not having had the work properly inspected. This opened up the question of whether the departments were subject to improper influences.

Mr. Armstrong, East Lambton, said he had accompanied Mr. Broder and other members to the roof of the building and had examined the wrecked tower. He was astounded at the quality of the material that had been permitted to go into the walls. Mr. Clements, West Kent, joined with his brother members in expressing surprise.

His remarks were corroborated by Mr. Chisholm, Conservative, East Huron, Mr. Wright, Conservative, Muskoka, and Mr. Jackson, Conservative, Elgin, who urged that a complete investigation should be made, and it should extend to all new public buildings.

Mr. Avery, Conservative, Frontenac, said he did not think there was a binding stone in the whole building.

Dr. Sproule, Conservative, East Grey, hoped the calamity would not be lost on the country. It was only in cases of great or peculiar catastrophes that the public could be awakened from lethargy. It was the duty of the Government to employ proper officers, and the Minister of Public Works would be held responsible for the accident, however little he might like it.

SHE WANTS A HUSBAND

IS AFTER CHATHAM MAN

The Planet is often in receipt of odd communications in which requests of the most varied and eccentric order are made. Some of these are published, but more often they are not, the letters frequently containing matters of a private nature which would be of little interest to the general public. This order of things is common in almost every newspaper office, but it is not often that a city daily is asked to act as a matrimonial bureau, through its news columns.

Marine City, Mich., April 3, '06.
The Planet,

Chatham, Ont.:
Dear Mr. Editor,—There is a gentleman in Chatham, who is well fixed, and who has a good home, and I understand that he wants a good wife. A neighbor of his was here to Marine City a short time ago, and told me of him.

Now if this be the case, I wish he would write and let me know, or come personally to see me at once, as I am at home now, and would be pleased to meet him at any time. I wish he would furnish me with his correct name, which I understand is ————, though I am not sure. Please put this in your paper so this gentleman may read it, and oblige,

MRS. ————
Marine City, Mich.
Care of Mrs. ————
P. O. Box 395.

The above is about the text of the letter, though a few corrections have been made in the construction of the epistle, in order to make it readable. The names in each case are not published for obvious reasons, but should the wife-seeking gentleman read this and understand what is meant, by calling at The Planet editorial rooms, he may have a confidential interview with the Horse Editor, who has been hurriedly enrolled as Matrimonial Editor for the occasion. This gentleman will be pleased to furnish the lonely one with names, addresses and full particulars. The Planet would wish it understood that it does not pose as a matrimonial bureau, but on this occasion an exception to the rule will be made, and if by putting these two lonely hearts in closer contact we can help Cupid on his way, we will be pleased for once to be the agent of bliss, happiness, true love and anything else there may be in it for the lonely twain.

DEATH'S CALL

An aged and highly respected resident passed away Saturday morning in the death of Mrs. Martha Moore at her home on Pine street. The deceased had been ailing for three years, and was at death 63 years of age. Her husband, Mr. Francis Moore, survives her, but she leaves no children. She was a member of Christ Church congregation and she and her husband had been residents of Chatham for the past 25 years. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at Maple Leaf cemetery, Rev. Mr. McCosh officiating.

When Opportunity has grown tired of knocking, Capacity then feels a sense of loneliness.

A VISIT TO SCOTLAND

Mr. Cummings, Kent Bridge Describes a Pleasant Trip

HE SEES HIS BIRTHPLACE

A short time ago The Planet published a very interesting letter from Chas. J. Cummings, of Kent Bridge, on his trip to the Old Country. The following is also contributed as an account of his visit to his birthplace in Scotland:

In Scotland we proceed to the countryside where I spent my boyhood days, and a great change exists. Clydebank and Dalmuir, the former town the largest on the lower Clyde, is not to be found on maps of 25 years ago. It owes its origin to Messrs. J. & G. Thomson. When that firm set up their shipbuilding works here they had to employ the steamer Vulcan to convey their workmen to and from Glasgow. They were followed by Messrs. Singer, who transferred their great sewing machine works from Bridgeton, and they are the proud possessors of the largest clock in the world. On a fine day the naked eye can tell the time two miles away. Around Clydebank lie many spots of interest. Garscadden House remains famous for the hard-drinking laird who died at his cups. Drumschely has its Roman bridge. Dalmuir, no prettier country place could have been found in Dumfriesshire sixteen years ago, but the shipbuilding yards and factories and workmen's houses have completely swallowed up the village and made it a very busy town, and a suburb of Glasgow. The electric cars have made great progress in this section of the country, it being only a forty minute ride to Glasgow.

Old Kilpatrick, still further away, has its well of St. Patrick and its tradition of the great Saint's birth. We take the car back to Cowcaddens passing the new and old normal schools or training colleges for teachers, and the Zoo. It is a fine walk along New City Road, past St. George's Cross. For some distance the route runs parallel with the North and South Glasgow streets, side of which lies Ruchill House, public park and hospital. Further out, on the left, rise the Maryhill or Garnloch Barracks, the quarters of the Glasgow garrison, removed from Gallowgate some thirty years ago. To the right, in Wyndford, Lochburn Road leads past the Girls' Industrial School and the Magdalen Institution, to Possie Loch and the Western Necropolis, with its chapel and furnace for the reverent burning of the dead. The Glasgow University is now in sight. This building is the work of Sir G. Gilbert Scott. Its foundation stone was laid by the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII., in October, 1868, and two years later professors and students moved into their new quarters.

A hurried trip to Paisley places us in the greatest town of thread industry in the world to-day. It was started about 1730, by Christian Shaw, daughter of the Laird of Bannockburn, who, when a girl, feigning bewitchment, brought five persons to the gallows, and twenty more to mortal risk. Paisley is rich with the gifts of the great thread makers, town halls, churches and public gardens. It has a fine museum and memories of Tannahill, whose house stands in Castle street, Christopher North, Alexander Wilson, poet and ornithologist, and many more. The Broom of Gleniffer, above the town, have been immortalized by many a bard.

WHITNEY DOES SOMETHING.

The people love the leader who, or the Government which, does something. The Government that hesitates, waits for the time to "ripen," and never does anything until it is compelled to do so by public clamor, is not the Government the people want.

The Hamilton Spectator thinks that some remarkable evidence of the truth of that statement is found in the present attitude of the Toronto Globe toward the Whitney Government. A little while ago, when business was being made ready, and there was, comparatively speaking, "nothing to do" in the Legislature, the Globe filled its valuable editorial space with whines about the "spoils system." Wednesday last the Globe broke out into a song of praise to Whitney, because the Premier had announced that the Government would develop the mineral deposits of the Gilkes limit, and to-day the Globe continues its song, inspired by the Government's announcement of a new railway from Cobalt to Sudbury.

When the chief organ of the Opposition is thus carried away by a "Government that does things," it is pretty good evidence that that sort of Government pleases the people.

THE RUSSIAN ELECTIONS.

For the past few weeks one of the strangest and most pitiful elections the world has ever seen has been going on in Russia. An Imperial Ukase, it will be remembered, went forth long since with the order that a National Assembly—the first in the history of oligarchic Russia—is to be held on the 10th of next May, and the assumption was to be inferred that therefore Russia would be oligarchic no longer. The Assembly, as thus defined, is to consist of two Houses, the Duma and the Council of the Empire, corresponding rather closely, as drafted, with the British "Commons" and "Lords." In the latter House it was provided that half of the members should be elected by the people and half appointed by the Czar, the former eligible for nine years, while a third of the number is to be re-elected every three years. Each Zemstvo (Elective Provincial Assembly) is empowered to elect one representative to the Council, six being elected by each of the following: Synod of the Church, the Universities and Academy of Science, and the landed proprietors of Poland.

With all this, it seems that all might fall at last upon the troubled waters of Russia. But not so. It now appears, either that the present Government is interfering with the elections, or that the people are suspecting them of doing so, and in some districts not one per cent. of the population is voting. The whole elections, in fact, so far, seems to be but a farce, and where the peasants are taking part at all it is to elect delegates whose instructions are to vote for expropriation of lands belonging to the Czar, the Nobility and the State, and their division among the peasantry—a radical proceeding scarce likely to induce the upper classes to look favorably on the National Assembly. In the end, it is safe to say, the present movement must crystallize for the good of the country. In the meantime, serious fears are entertained that an outbreak, more bloody than any that have yet taken place, may occur about the middle of April, and it may be said, with all reverence "God help Russia."

BLACK PATTI TROUBADOURS.

An eminent New York dramatic critic writes as follows after seeing this season's Greater Black Patti Troubadours: "One of the largest audiences in the history of the house welcomed Black Patti Troubadours to the Star Theatre last night, and was rewarded by hearing a splendid singing organization. 'Looney Dreamland' is the title given to the one act extravaganza that serves as a medium for the performers, and while even the faintest semblance of a plot is lacking, the lines are replete with wit of the highest order. It is a toss-up between the comedians and the singers, but the honors of the performance go to Black Patti, who appeared during the action of the second act and sang several melodies with great sweetness. Her range in bordering on the wonderful, and her high notes especially are clear and sweet to an exceptional degree. The large crowd present last evening welcomed her with an ovation of applause, and she was compelled to reply to the encores until, from sheer weariness, she made her excuse. John Rucker was heard in comic ditties which he sang in a manner that carried the immense audience by storm. The most artistic feature of the entire production was the singing of the 'Dixie Chorus,' forty of the best trained negro voices in the world in the 'Southland Scenes' and 'Pinafore Review,' and the several specialties in the 'Looney Dreamland' skit. The production is mounted in a gorgeous and expensive manner, manner, equal to the highest Broadway Theatre New York Standard." This company play Chatham to-night.

MEXICANA.

From Hamilton Herald, April 6: Louise Harrison, Christie Macdonald, Joseph Herbert, Caro Roma, Edward Martindell and Edmund Stanley are the imposing array of clever principals in Schubert's spectacular production of the topical comic opera, Mexicana, which will be played at the Grand next Thursday night.

A BUNCH OF KEYS.

From Hamilton Herald, April 6: Manager Bothner's merry company of comedians will be at the Grand on Tuesday night. The farce has been rejuvenated this season. An entire new company has been engaged and care and effort have been expended in the preparation of a new program of specialties, dances, songs, jokes and clever bits of comedy business. Seats will be on sale on Saturday.

Date for Chatham is Thursday, April 12.

Keeps Up With Times

New Remedy For Stomach Troubles That Will Cure.

In keeping with their custom of always ordering a supply of new remedies as soon as their value has been established, our leading druggists, have obtained a supply of Mi-o-na, a remedy for stomach troubles that absolutely cures and restores lost functions of the digestive organs.

Until recently it was thought that pepsin was valuable in the treatment of stomach troubles, but it is now known that while pepsin aids in digesting meats, it has no effect upon starches, such as potatoes, rice, bread, corn meal, etc. As the majority of stomach troubles comes from indigestion and starch foods, this makes pepsin absolutely useless in most cases.

On the other hand, Mi-o-na contains no pepsin, acts directly upon the gastric glands, restores the lost functions of the digestive organs, revives flagging nutrition, aids in assimilation of food, and, in fact, so strengthens the whole digestive system that you can eat anything at any time without fear of indigestion.

Weakness, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, pain and distress after eating, and debility are the result of a weak and faulty digestion. Use Mi-o-na, and all these symptoms will be overcome, and you will have perfect health.

Get a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na Tablets to-day.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Booth Company, Ithaca, N. Y.

It makes most people hot to be greeted with an icy stare.

BILL WAS TALKED OUT

Cattle Embargo Discussed in the British Commons

THE PREMIER'S POSITION

London, April 7.—(C. A. P.)—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Thomas Cairns (Liberal), in moving the second reading of the diseases of animals act amendment bill, sketched the history of the act of 1896 and the continued hostility that had been shown it by reason of the fact that under its provisions foreign, and especially Canadian, cattle could not be landed alive at our home ports. This bill, he said, did not affect Ireland, yet the Nationalists had announced their intention of opposing it. It was eminently desirable to remove the embargo on Canadian cattle, the Canadian Government habitually complained of the restriction, inasmuch as Canada was free from disease. If there was any risk he would be the last to express himself in favor of the measure. During the last ten years 1,200,000 Canadian cattle were landed here, not one suffering from foot-and-mouth disease or anthrax. For every one of Canadian cattle killed for suffering from tuberculosis there were 11 home cattle destroyed. He argued that the sooner we had these healthy animals among our herds the better.

Quality Had Deteriorated.
Mr. Price, seconding the motion, said the quality of stock had gone down under the operation of the act of 1896. It was not suggested that any risk of disease should be taken. Canada was free from the disease.

Messrs. Courtney warned and C. Watson moved and seconded the rejection of the bill, and denied that it would benefit the farmer, the laborer or the consumer. Mr. Watson said he protested against the recent despatch of Hon. Sydney Fisher, which represented the action of the British Government as unfriendly to the Dominion. That was an unavailing statement.

Sir Gilbert Parker asked that Speaker if such an expression was permitted, and Mr. Watson said he would substitute the expression that the despatch was liable to misconception.

Mr. Hamar Greenwood supported the bill.

Mr. W. O'Brien said if the bill passed 200,000 holdings in Ireland would be rendered unprofitable.

Government is Neutral.

The Premier said that personally he preferred the old system by which matters of this kind were left to the discretion of the responsible Ministers. If the embargo were suddenly removed it might cause nervousness in many parts of the country. As to the policy of admission of Canadian cattle, he thought the House should be left to determine these matters without interference of the Government. He had no desire to exercise any influence, and would leave this an open question.

Several members continued the discussion on both sides, while many others vainly tried to get the Speaker's eye. Finally the bill was talked out without a division, the Speaker refusing the closure.

Mr. Cairns afterwards said the bill would be put down in the usual way on Monday, but had not much chance of being reached. The impression among the members is that the bill is dead.

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food, yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases. There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Ont.

GEO. McDONALD, Clerk.

Ghosts would frighten many people who are not afraid of germs. Yet the germ is a real danger. If this microscopic animalism could be magnified to a size in proportion to its deadliness, it would show like a giant python, or fire-breathing dragon. The one fact to remember is that the germ is powerless to harm the body when the blood is pure. It is far easier to keep the germ out than to drive it out after it obtains a hold in the system. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the most powerful and perfect of blood-purifying medicines. It increases the quantity as well as the quality of the blood, and enables the body to resist disease, or to throw it off if some weak organ. Whenever the digestion is impaired, the nutrition of the body is diminished, for the blood is made from the food which is eaten, and half-digested food cannot supply the body with blood in quantity and quality adequate to its needs. For this condition there is no remedy equal to "Golden Medical Discovery." It cures ninety-eight out of every hundred persons who give it a fair trial. When there is constipation, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will promptly relieve and permanently cure.

Love never joins in the chorus when malice sings.

Worthy A Good Word.

We seldom recommend any remedy. But because a great many people tell us Bu-Ju, the Gentle Kidney Pill, gives astonishing relief from Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism, we make an exception.

Bu-Ju seems unusually worthy. We know the formula. It is most beneficial and could not possibly produce a "drug habit."

If you have the slightest mistrust of your kidneys, the experience of others warrants your trying Bu-Ju.

Money will be refunded to anyone not satisfied.

Mark Twain's Indecision.
Mark Twain in his earlier days did not enjoy the prosperity which came later in his career. In a conversation with William Dean Howells on one occasion, the subject of literary vicissitudes was broached by the humorist. "My difficulties taught me some thing," he observed. "But I never knew whether it was wiser to spend my last nickel for a cigar to smoke or for an apple to devour."
"I am astounded," observed Mr. Howells, "that a person of so little worldly success."
Mark Twain nodded very gravely. "Indecision about spending money," he said, "is worthy of cultivation. When I couldn't decide what to buy with my last nickel, I kept it, and so became rich."

Symmetry of the Horse.
An experiment station says that the closer a draft horse is to the ground the better both for service and endurance. This is generally true probably, but it is possible for a horse to be too close to the ground, comments National Stockman. Very few of them are, and many are too far from it. The question of breeding draft horses with short legs is not the one the breeder needs to consider. His ideal should be a symmetrical horse, and if he keeps this in mind the horse will have height enough and not too much. A symmetrical horse is a well balanced horse, doing his work with greater ease than one too far from or too close to the ground. The best specimens of draft horses to-day are about right in this particular and with either shorter or longer legs would be less useful than they are.

Lung Rest

Your lungs have all they can do. They work night and day, and are faithful to the end. Then use them well. If they are rasping and tearing themselves by hard coughing, come to their relief. Give them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It heals, soothes, quiets. Your doctor will explain its action to you. Ask him all about it.

AUNT MARY'S HOME-MADE BREAD
You have heard of Aunt Mary's Bread; I will tell you how it is made. Of course her biscuits are rather large. On account of her growing trade.
Aunt Mary need not roll up her sleeves or soil her hands with yeast and flour. For machinery does that work. And an engine gives the power.
Then as the dough gets ripe and older she slides it on to the moulder. And feeds it in as fast as she can. And it comes out leaves ready to pan.

Twenty Minutes Time Enough?

To Cure the Worst Headache From Any Cause—New Reduction Method.

Most headaches and pains yield instantly to the new Reduction Method—Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure. The cause for these pains is congestion—a rushing of blood to the nerve centers—which distends the veins to nearly the bursting point. Swollen and enlarged, these veins and capillaries exert an irritating pressure on the myriads of nerve branches and fibres. Then, there is a pain, and finally that excruciating, ceaseless, less ache. This new Reduction Method disperses the blood, distributes the nerve centers from all pressure and the pain and ache disappear because the nerve centers are moved. You may try this new Reduction Method. It is simple and sure. The only way to find out is to try it. The effect of Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure is prompt and sure. It will be successful in every case. It is the only method that must embody the Reduction Method. Medicine has thus found a way—simple and sure, yet the only way to find out is to try it. STOLE THE HORSE NO COAL FAMINE

A Man Near Bothwell Goes to Church and Loses a Valuable Animal

Early this morning Chief of Police Holmes received a telephone message from Thamesville, notifying him to be on the lookout for a black mare and road-cart, which were stolen from a church near Bothwell last evening.

A man went to church with his horse and cart and tied the horse up to the fence. When he came out the animal was gone and no trace of it can be found. It is thought that the thief is making his way towards Chatham. The mare is 14 hands high and is a valuable animal. It is suspected that the thief will try to trade it off or sell it.

Chief Holmes visited all of the livery stables this morning but could get no trace of the missing animal.

L. E. Tillson Says There Will be no Local Trouble Over Anthracite Supply

In reference to the item which appeared in The Planet on Saturday pointing out the difficulties experienced by local coal dealers, L. E. Tillson, of the firm of Tillson & Fleming, gave the following interview to The Planet:

"As you say, hard coal generally drops April 1st, but so far it has remained at the winter price. We have had no trouble, however, in getting what we want. As to soft coal, Chatham is well favored, as the coal manufacturers have contracts with the Lake Erie Coal Co., and we have renewed contracts for 1906, and are supplying their needs as wanted. We have had no trouble so far in getting all the other lines, such as domestic, lump, cannel, smokeless, etc."

TO THE GRAVE

The death occurred in Wyandotte on Saturday morning of James Handysides, an old and respected resident, known in this city. The deceased was 70 years of age and left a wife and five children to mourn his loss.

The remains were conveyed to this city this afternoon and were laid to rest in Maple Leaf Cemetery.

RUNAWAY

A runaway occurred on Murray street about 10.30 this morning. A delivery cart belonging to a local butcher was standing at the William street end of Murray street, when the horse took fright and bolted. The boy who was in the cart at the time hung on to the lines and finally stopped the frightened animal, not, however, before the vehicle was badly damaged.

BATES WON OUT

The shooting match between Bates and Youngblood, which was held at Windsor on Saturday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the former by 182 birds to 177.

The match was one of the biggest ever held in Canada for live bird shooting and was for a prize of $200. The number of live birds shot at was 290 and the contest was very even and most exciting. In the first 100 Youngblood secured the lead by 49-38, but in the second half of the match Bates drew ahead and won by five birds. A big crowd was in attendance at the Windsor Driving Park, at which the contest was held.

BOARD HIT HIM

Thomas Martin, a prominent local contractor, met with a nasty accident on Saturday while putting in some drains in Mr. Jeffrey's new house on Lucero street. The workmen were engaged on the roof and one of them yelled out "Look out below." Mr. Martin made a quick move from under and when he looked up he found that he was the subject of a cruel joke. Pretty soon the cry came again and Tom, thinking he was "twice," remained where he was. This time, however, it was a real alarm and a large board came tumbling down and landed on Tom's head, inflicting a nasty bruise. Mr. Martin will not be able to work for a few days.

WILL SOON BE OPERATING

Mr. R. J. Gardiner, one of the heaviest local shareholders of the new, Chatham Automobile Works, has returned from Toronto, where he has been purchasing much of the machinery for the new factory.

Mr. Gardiner says that some of the machinery will arrive next week, and will be immediately installed just as rapidly as possible. Already a large number of engines, to be used in the construction of the automobiles, are being manufactured at the Defiance Iron Works.

The new company are already in receipt of a large order for auto parts from some of the big repair houses.

JUST A LITTLE BIT OFF THE TOP

That oil strike in Tilbury has naturally made a hit.

It really seems as though the coal dealers do not know whether to be affected by the coal strike or not.

If some Temperance people had their way, they would have river water boycotted if it ran past a barley field.

A PALPABLE MISSTATEMENT.

The scientists inform us still that water never runs up hill.

Why do the fountains gaily spout?

And pour their merry floodlets out? This question is a peach for sure. And all these scientists should cure of telling whoppers all the time. Which is undoubtedly a crime.—Toronto News.

LETTERS

THAT FISHING QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—I think that there is a time that your paper should cut out all correspondence relating to fish in the Thames, as every one, from butchers down to the farmers, have had a whack at the subject and a chance to air what they know about fish. I know a little about fish myself and don't want to get into the controversy. The people are getting tired, so I would suggest that you cut out all fish letters and use your valuable space for something that will be of more importance. Let the Government do what they see fit in this case.

C. A. WILLIAMS.

LETTER FROM AN OLD-TIMER.

Dear Sir,—A visit again from an old Chatham boy. It is remarkable how I hold my age. I can tell you what Chatham was in 1847, and I can tell you what Chatham was when I laid on a plank and caught fish at what was then the Rankin dock, and how I played on board the old Stern steamboat. I can recall the old steamboat the Two Brothers, whose engine was the father of Mr. Roberts, our esteemed and enterprising citizen. I have visited this city frequently since, at intervals of five and ten years, but this last visit, I must say, proved to me that Chatham has been a place of progress and improvement. I have never seen in the city, I have a large collection of relics, and what I do not know about books and travelling, you have to find someone else to tell you. I have visited all the large cities in the United States, and can go blindfolded through them, just as I can go through Chatham. I am an encyclopedia to talk to, and am now on a visit to old friends in this city. Yours, etc., JAMES HARRIS.

ABOUT THIS CASE

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cure a Young Man Who Had Reached a Very Critical Stage of Kidney Disease.

His Case Was More Serious Than He Thought, But Thanks To Dodd's Kidney Pills He Is Well and Strong Now.

St. Leon, Glo. Co., N. B., April 8.—(Special.) Mr. Patrick Downing, of this place, is a young man only twenty years of age, but some time ago kidney disease had him firmly in its grasp and had it not been for Dodd's Kidney Pills he would probably not have been alive to-day.

"I think the cause of my trouble was over work," says Mr. Downing, "any way it began with a heavy dragging pain in my back and across my loins. Then I was subject to headache, cramp in the muscles, dizzy spells and weakness till I felt fit for nothing. But the worst symptom of my case was when I noticed my urine was streaked with blood, then I knew that my kidneys were affected. Bearing of Dodd's Kidney Pills I sent for some and I am pleased to say the pains have all gone since using them and I am well and strong as ever I was."

Successful Stock Show.

Clinton, April 6.—The first show under the auspices of the directors of Huron County Stock Exhibition, was held yesterday, and was a success in every particular.

Every class was well filled, 75 entries in heavy class, 60 in roadsters and 87 of cattle. Fully five thousand people were in attendance.

STRAINED BACK AND SIDE. "While working in a saw mill," writes C. E. Kenney, from Ottawa, "I strained my back and side so severely I had to go to bed. Every movement caused me tortures. I tried different oils and liniments, but was not helped till I used Nerviline. Even the slightest application gave considerable relief. In three days I was at work again. Other men in the mill use Nerviline with tremendous benefit. It is an honest record of nearly fifty years has established the value of Polson's Nerviline."

Ye Professional Humorist.

It's not much fun to scribble rhymes and make humor out of things. When one is wholly at a loss for things to write about.

And how many years has had this sort of thing to do, it's very hard to find a theme that's new.

So sometimes as my weary brain I rummage o'er and thrash in vain attempt to find a thought that's true.

I'm tempted more to cease to quip, to give up joke and quirk, And grab a shovel or a pick and really go to work.

—Minneapolis Tribune.

YOU ARE AILING.

Not quite sick—but robbed of ambition to work—find it hard to think of doing, but bad enough for life to be pretty dull. There is a remedy.

Ferrozone—that quickly lifts that half dead feeling. Gracious, but Ferrozone makes you feel good; it brightens the dulllest appetite, makes it keen as a razor.

BLOOD? Ferrozone makes lots of it, the rich, nourishing kind that vitalizes the whole body. You'll be wonderfully quickened, immensely strengthened, feel hearty and vigorous after using Ferrozone. Envyant health, surplus vigor and reserve energy all come from this great restorative. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

Better Goods.

"Well, Plunger has completely lost his reputation," observed Clubsky.

"It's a good thing," said his friend. "It was the most objectionable thing about him."—Detroit Free Press.

Better.

"Do you believe in trusts?" "Well," answered Senator Sorghum, "with thoughtful deliberation, 'they never deceived me.'"—Washington Star.

THROW MEDICINES TO THE DOGS.

At best they are unpleasant, often useless. You have some disease of the nose, throat or lungs. Doctors would call it bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. The common root of these diseases is germ or microbe irritation—Catarrhazone not only destroys disease germs, it does more, it heals diseased and inflamed tissue. The disease is not only cured, but its return is forever prevented by using Catarrhazone, which is splendid also for colds, coughs or irritable throat. Remember, you inhale Catarrhazone—Nature's own cure—use no other but Catarrhazone—it's the best catarrh cure made.

Nothing can constitute good breeding that has not good nature for its foundation.

CURE FOR SNAKE BITE.

Permanganate of Potash Said to Be An Infallible Remedy.

The Indian cobra has been since time immemorial the terror of India because its bite has been universally attended with fatal results. Tradition has it that natives commit suicide rather than endure the agony of the inevitable death and that the only man who ever survived an encounter with the hooded reptile thrust his whole arm into a blazing fire. Science comes now with a remedy for even this snake bite—simple permanganate of potassium, discovered by Dr. Leonard Rogers and reported by Consul Masterson of Aden. The paper "reports twelve cases of snake bite in which this new remedy was put into practice. In two cases it failed, but these were the cases in which the longest interval had elapsed before the remedy was applied. The persons were bitten during the night and were not treated till the following day, the interval in one case amounting to eleven hours and in the other to nine hours. In seven of the successful cases the snake was killed and identified. In five cases it was a cobra and in the other two it was a viper.

"Of the two fatal cases one was bitten by a cobra, the other by a snake that was identified. Two of the successful cases were treated by Europeans without any medical training. In three of the successful cases treatment was begun at once, in the remaining seven the interval varied from half an hour to four hours. These results show that even when all the doubtful elements have been excluded or allowed for this method promises to be most efficacious, and a very satisfactory feature is that it is so simple anybody can apply it and so cheap that it is within the reach of the poorest.

"When a person has been bitten by a snake the first thing to do is to apply a ligature above the wound to prevent the rapid absorption of the venom. Then an incision is to be made over the snake bite with any sharp cutting instrument that is perfectly clean and free from rust. Permanganate of potassium is a cheap drug, obtainable from any druggist. It keeps indefinitely, and a pound would suffice at the rate of ten grains for each case for between 700 and 800 people."—Indian Medical Journal.

No Shadow After Death.

In the course of a lecture before the Psycho-therapeutic Society of London Dr. Ward announced that Prof. Elmer Gates of Washington, D. C., who has been experimenting with light rays, has found about five octaves above violet a form of waves similar to X-rays.

Under these rays living objects throw a shadow which exists only as long as there is life in the object. A live rat was placed in a hermetically sealed tube and held in the path of the rays in front of a sensitized screen. So long as the rat was alive it threw a shadow. When it was killed it became suddenly transparent.

"I," said the lecturer, "there was a strange phenomenon. At the very instant the rat became transparent a shadow of exactly the same shape was noticed to pass, as it were, out of and beyond the glass tube and vanished as it passed upward on the sensitized screen."

Happily Illustrated.

Lord Odo Russell while calling on Prince Bismarck during the sitting of the Berlin conference asked him how he managed to rid himself of that class of importunate visitors whom he could not well refuse to see, but whose room he found preferable to their company. "Oh," replied the Chancellor, "I have a very simple method. My wife knows them pretty well, and when she sees they are with me she generally contrives to come in and call me away upon some pretext or other."

He had scarcely finished speaking when the princess put her head in at the door and said:

"My dear, you must come and take your medicine. You ought to have had it an hour ago."

New Spelling "Tuf on the Tung."

At the convention of the department of superintendence of the National Educational Association, recently held in Louisville, Ky., on motion of Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews of the University of Nebraska a resolution was adopted recommending that the department of superintendence request the National Educational Association to order that the following twelve phonetic words be used hereafter in all its publications, says a Louisville dispatch: Business for business, enuf for enough, rather for feather, measure for measure, pleasure for pleasure, red for read, ruf for rough, trauf for trough, tung for through, tung for tough, tung for tongue, yung for young.

Masterpieces on Asylum Walls.

There was a man named Dadd, some of whose pictures I expect will be exhibited in a short time in London. He showed extraordinary power, and if he had not become insane he would have rivaled, if not out-distanced, Watts. He only recently died at the Criminal Lunatic Asylum at Broadmoor. He painted many pictures, a number of which were sold, but it was thought by the Government that it was improper that these pictures should be sold in open market, and the superintendent of Broadmoor therefore allowed him to paint the walls, which he continued to do in an elaborate way. From Guy's Hospital Record, London.

"His Ears Were Frozen."

One frosty morning a Gorman man called to his son to go and harness the donkey. It so happened that night, the donkey being left open, a young bullock had strayed into the stable and driven the donkey out. Johnnie, in his hurry, took no notice with him to provide a light, and could not see the difference. Being a long time away, his father came after him to see what he was about, saying: "Johnnie, what are you doing?" Johnnie replied: "I can't get the colts over his head. His ears be froze."—Birmingham (England) Post.

A "Pass" That Failed.

"Till pass the butt," said he while trying to pass the browning goat.

"Till butt the passer," said the goat as he helped him over the fence.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made, in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D.C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"You will remember my condition when I first wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."

Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Sts., Washington, D.C.

How only it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life.

Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers aiding women helpful advice.

A Stingy Man.

Mrs. Naggs—Why, John, they cost only two for five cents.—New York Press.

An Unusual Event.

"Yes, I sent my uncle a telegram on Wednesday to say I was coming. I wonder if he received it."

"I reckon he didn't, cos I seen him this mornin', an' he didn't brag about no telegram."—Brooklyn Life.

PURGATIVES ARE DANGEROUS.

They gripe, cause burning pains and make constipated condition even worse. Physicians say the ideal laxative is Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Mandrakes and Butterbur; they are exceedingly mild, composed only of health-giving vegetable extracts.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills restore regular movement of the bowels, strengthen the stomach and purify the blood. For constipation, sick headache, biliousness and disordered digestion no medicine on earth makes such reliable cures as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Try a 25c. box yourself.

Problematical.

"Miss Kookoo, if I should call some evening next week might I hope to find you at home?"

"Why, that would—would depend on whether or not I knew what evening you were coming, Mr. Thikull."—Chicago Tribune.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE BEST AND MOST POPULAR.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs, and elderly people buy it for a gripe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands."

There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all druggists.

Often the Case.

Stella—Did you have a good time at Mrs. Chatterton's party?

Maude—No; Mrs. Chatterton worked so hard trying to make her guests feel at ease that she made everybody uncomfortable.—Chicago News.

RHEUMATIC PAINS QUICKLY RELIEVED.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

THE PLANET JUPITER.

There Are Practically No Seasons In This Distant World.

Taking the earth's mean distance from the sun at 92,796,950 miles, the mean distance of Jupiter from the sun will be 482,803,970 miles. The eccentricity of its elliptical orbit being .04825, its distance from the sun at perihelion is 459,507,760 miles and at aphelion 506,100,180 miles. Between its greatest and least distances, therefore, there is a difference of 46,592,420 miles, or about one-half the earth's mean distance from the sun. The inclination of Jupiter's orbit to the plane of the ecliptic being only 1 degree 18 minutes 41 seconds; or less than that of any of the other large planets with the exception of Uranus, the planet never departs much from the ecliptic, and hence it was called by the ancients the "ecliptic planet." Its period of revolution round the sun is 11 years 314.8 days.

The inclination of its axis of rotation being nearly at right angles to the plane of its orbit, there are practically no seasons in this distant world, and at any point on its surface would be that due to the comparatively small variation in its distance from the sun referred to above. Its mean distance from the sun being 5.2025 times the earth's mean distance from the sun, it follows that the heat and light received by Jupiter are 27 times (5.2 squared) less than the earth receives. The amount of heat received from the sun by this planet is very small, and were it constituted like the earth its surface should be perpetually covered by frost and snow. Far from this being the case, the telescope shows its atmosphere to be in a state of constant and wonderful change.

These extraordinary changes cannot possibly be due to the solar heat, and they have suggested the idea that the planet may perhaps be in a red-hot state, a miniature sun—in fact, glowing with inherent heat. The great brilliancy of its surface, the "albedo," as it is called, and its small density—less than that of the sun—are facts in favor of this hypothesis. As the attraction of Jupiter's enormous mass would render the materials near its center of much greater density than those near its surface, the latter must be considerably lighter than water and may possibly be in the gaseous state.

TO PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Let the child choose his ideals from the many that are presented to him. Boys and girls saturated with low literature form low ideas, which cling to them through life.

To teach concentration should be the end and aim of all school instruction.—New York World.

Study the child, find out what his capabilities are and show him that you take an interest in him.

Let the children see how ugly low ideals are and then encourage them to study the lives of great men.

The whole life and future usefulness of a child depend largely on the way his mind is trained at school.

Many a child's life is ruined by having parents or teachers who do not take the trouble to understand his capability.

It is more important for the mother to superintend her son's reading than to see that he wears the latest thing in collars.

The character depends upon the ideals, and the ideals are the standard which the parent or teacher sets before the child.

The Miner's Inch.

In California the miner's inch is the flow of about 3,796 gallons of water per minute. Fifty miner's inches are equivalent to one cubic foot per second. The most common measurement is under a mean pressure of four inches, through an aperture two inches high and two inches above the bottom of the box, the plank being one and a quarter inches thick and the height of water above the aperture three inches, giving a mean pressure of four inches.

Each square inch of the aperture represents one miner's inch, or about 1.2 cubic feet per minute.—Maxwell's Talsman.

Popes and Their Beards.

If we are to believe the old proverb, prophets have always had beards for the faithful to swear by. Not so with the pope. From the time of St. Peter down to the year 1153 the popes all wore full beards, but for the next four centuries they were cleanly shaven. Then came a period of two centuries in which they again wore the beard, but from the year 1700 until the present time the smooth face alone has been seen in the papal line.

Starving, but Not For Bread.

A beggar who informed a gentleman well known for his philanthropy that he was dying of starvation was presented by the worthy man with a loaf of bread. The would be benefactor was considerably startled, however, at the indignation of the emaciated one. "I'm not bread hungry!" said that individual haughtily.—London Globe.

His Head Saved.

In the House of Commons no incident is greater with more hearty laughter than that of a member who, after an eloquent oration, plumps down on his silk hat on the bench behind him. A young member who had just made his maiden speech sat upon a new silk hat. There were roars of laughter. An Irish member immediately arose and gravely said: "Mr. Speaker, permit me to congratulate the honorable gentleman upon the happy circumstance that when he sat on his hat his head was not in it!" This remark upset the dignity of the House, and the Speaker called "Order, Order," amid roars of laughter.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A Magnificent Stock of Dress Fabrics

Which without the shadow of a doubt surpasses its predecessors in point of value, style and variety of weaves.

This Dress Goods stock is not only large but it is correct if measured by the fabrics shown in the exclusive and popular metropolitan stores.

It is not an uncommon thing for this store to show a color or a fabric at least six months prior to the popular demand. It is our business to keep abreast what is shown in London, Paris and New York, and every shade or weave that is strong there—provided it is not freakish and suitable for this community—will be found here in goodly numbers. For instance, Grey, Helio and Old Rose are correct in the above-named centres, but of the three shades grey is the most wearable, and while we are showing helio and rose we are making a showing of greys which tourists say is as select as any showing they have seen in the larger centres, and our patrons claim that a more beautiful showing was never made in Chatham. You are welcome to our time and knowledge and we cordially invite you to inspect this large and well selected stock. No need to buy simply because you look.

U. S. Trade With Canada and Cuba.

Washington, April 9.—The total trade of the United States with the principal countries of America in the fiscal year 1906 was: With Canada, $203,000,000; with Cuba, $125,000,000; with Brazil, $111,000,000; with Mexico, $32,000,000, and with Argentine $39,000,000.

Both Feet Cut Off.

Port Hope, April 9.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while attempting to board a westbound freight train half a mile east of the Grand Trunk station, Leo Walker, 14 years old, son of James Walker of this town, had both his feet cut off just above the ankle.

THERE are many kinds of flour sold. Some are made from spring wheat and some from winter wheat.

What you ought to know is which wheat makes the best flour, and why.

Winter wheat is put into the ground in the fall, grows a few inches, then gives up to the snow. When the snow melts it grows again, ripening in July. It matures slowly, is soft and very starchy.

Spring wheat is sown in late April or early May, and ripens in August. It matures rapidly and is therefore strong. It's a flinty, translucent wheat, rich in gluten and containing nearly twice as much real nutriment as the winter wheat.

Royal Household Flour

is made entirely from the hard, nutritious spring wheat, carefully selected from all the wheat of this kind grown in Canada.

Royal Household is fine, light and pure—milled by the most improved methods—in a mill as cleanly as your own kitchen.

Ask your grocer for Ogilvie's Royal Household—just enough to try. He may charge you a few cents more than you are used to paying, but you will forget that when you see the results in your bread and pastry.

SIGNED AT ALGECIRAS

Work of Delegates to the Conference at Las [Ended]

WAS SIGNED SATURDAY

Paris, April 8.—The Moroccan convention was signed Saturday afternoon at Algeciras and the conference adjourned sine die.

The Foreign Office Saturday gave out the text of the convention for Moroccan reforms agreed upon.

It is a formidable document of sixteen columns, seven chapters, and 123 articles. The most interesting chapter relates to the Moroccan police. It consists of twelve articles and provides for natives as rank and file, Caidas as commanders, French and Spanish instructors and a Swiss inspector-general. The force will consist of 2,500 officers and men.

Last Duties Performed.

Herr Von Radewitz, of the German delegation, supported by M. Revell of the French embassy, asked Duke Almodovar to communicate with the Swiss Government on the subject of an Inspector of police. The Marquis Visconti Venosta, head of the Italian delegation, thanked the president of the conference and the Spanish Government and asked the president to transmit to King Alfonso the compliments of all.

After a short response by Duke Almodovar, the delegates signed the written copy of the protocol, which will be preserved in the archives at Madrid. A printed copy, certified to and signed by the president, will be given to each delegation.

U. S. Signs Under Reserve.

Henry White, head of the American delegation, made a statement that the United States Government did not accept the obligation of responsibility with regard to the measures necessary to carry out the provisions of the protocol. The signatures of the American delegates were preceded by the words "Under reserve, this declaration, made at a plenary sitting of the conference, April 7, 1906." The Swedish delegates made the same reservation.

Duke Almodovar gave a luncheon, which was attended by all the delegates.

ANOTHER DOG POISONED

The dog poisoner is still at work. Yesterday another valuable and offensive house dog died from the effects of poison, presumably administered by the hand of some malicious person or persons.

This time the poisoning again occurred on Lorvor gave, where the residents appear to be peculiarly unfortunate with their dogs. The dog was a fox terrier, and was the property of Art. Wanless. It was highly prized. Mr. Wanless, in speaking to The Planet about the matter, said that he would not have parted with the dog for a very large sum, and that it was a harmless and very affectionate little animal.

This cruel slaughter of harmless dogs is arousing much indignation, and if the about the matter, said that he would not have parted with the dog for a very large sum, and that it was a harmless and very affectionate little animal.

No trace remains of Boscotrecase, the commune on the southern declivity of the mountain, where up to 48 hours ago ten thousand persons lived; and Torre Annunziata, on the shores of the Gulf of Naples, one mile to the southward, is almost surrounded by the invading lava and has been evacuated by its 30,000 inhabitants. The people were brought to Naples by train, street cars, military escorts and steamships. Transportation facilities have been sent to Torre Del Greco, to take away the people. The police and carabinieri are guarding the abandoned houses and several members of the Government are also there.

Terror Stricken. A telegram received from the mayor of Schiaviano, a village near the observatory on the northwest declivity of Vesuvius, says the lava is approaching rapidly and that the people are terror-stricken. They have been for nights without sleep, he says, are destitute and beg that assistance be given them.

The observatory has been destroyed and Signor Matteucci, the director and the employees had narrow escapes. The restaurant of the Funicular R. R. too has been obliterated.

The work of suitor is hampered owing to the railway service, which is interrupted by red hot stones thrown to a height of 3,000 feet falling on the tracks.

As yet it is impossible to count the craters that have opened and from which streams of lava have flooded the beautiful, prosperous and happy land lying on the southeast shores of the Gulf of Naples.

With the danger and horror of the situation, aside, Vesuvius presents one of the most splendid sights imaginable.

Infant Murder. Quebec, April 9.—With the little back broken and bearing marks of having met with a brutal death, the body of a new-born infant lies in the morgue, while a young woman of St. Malo and her mother and brother are under arrest. It is said the young woman, who is unmarried, was the mother of the child.

Bambata Escapes. Durban, Natal, April 9.—Chief Bambata has escaped in Zululand with a body guard of 70 warriors. Col. Leuchar of the colonial punitive force is in pursuit. Two battalions of the Umoti militia reserves have arrived to reinforce the column.

Bribery Extraditable. London, April 9.—The Lord Chancellor, Sir Robert Thesley Reid, introduced a bill in the House of Lords Saturday making bribery and bankruptcy extraditable offences in accordance with the Anglo-American convention.

MT. VESUVIUS BURIES VILLAGE

Residents of Boscotrecase Are Forced to Flee for Their Lives

MOLTEN STREAM OF LAVA

Naples, April 9.—Mount Vesuvius is a colossal trader and the town of Boscotrecase, on its southern declivity, has been transformed into a gray island of ruin by the lava and ashes from the crater of the volcano. Torrents of liquid fire, resembling in the distance serpents with glittering yellow and black scales are coursing in all directions, amid rumblings, detonations and earth-tremblings, while a pall of sulphurous smoke that hovers over all makes breathing difficult.

The inhabitants abandoned it on Saturday in time to save their lives. They had lingered in the hope of saving their belongings, but the destroying stream advanced on them so fast that they finally fled, leaving their possessions behind.

Besides the lava, huge blocks of rock are emitted. The upper part of the Funicular Railway has been destroyed.

Pitiful Scenes. Everywhere in the vicinity of the volcano pitiful scenes are witnessed—women tearing their hair in grief and older men trying aloud at the loss of their beloved homes. In the distance, in striking contrast, lie the sapphire-colored Mediterranean, the violet-hued mountains of the Sorrento peninsula, and the island of Capri in the tranquil sea.

Artillery carts have been sent to the assistance of the fleeing peasants, and the Duke of Aosta, Cardinal Joseph Frisco and all the authorities despite the danger went into the portions of the mountain most threatened in order to succor or comfort the people.

Considerable apprehension is felt because of the earthquake shocks, which are growing stronger and are felt even in the city of Naples. Each shock is accompanied by deep and prolonged detonations.

Town Threatened. Ottajano, at the northeast foot of the mountain, is threatened by a stream of lava and the people are beginning to desert the town. The populace of Torre Annunziata, at the south foot, have requested that night trains be run to the town. This request has been granted and trains are now ready to proceed thither in case of need.

It is estimated that 4,000 acres of land under cultivation has been destroyed by the eruption. Signor Matteucci, director of the observatory at Vesuvius, still continues to occupy a most dangerous position.

New craters have opened at different points on the mountain, but it is impossible to ascertain their number or where they are situated.

There has been no fatalities at Boscotrecase or elsewhere as a result of the eruption.

Panic at Naples. The panic has spread to Naples. Two strong earthquake shocks shattered window panes and cracked the walls of buildings yesterday. The entire population rushed to the streets in terror, shouting and crying, "The Madonna has forsaken us; the end of the world has come."

No trace remains of Boscotrecase, the commune on the southern declivity of the mountain, where up to 48 hours ago ten thousand persons lived; and Torre Annunziata, on the shores of the Gulf of Naples, one mile to the southward, is almost surrounded by the invading lava and has been evacuated by its 30,000 inhabitants.

The people were brought to Naples by train, street cars, military escorts and steamships. Transportation facilities have been sent to Torre Del Greco, to take away the people. The police and carabinieri are guarding the abandoned houses and several members of the Government are also there.

Terror Stricken. BOMB KILLS THE GOVERNOR

Blown to Pieces in the Principal Street of his Town

COACHMAN WAS INJURED

Province of Tver, Russia, April 9.—While the Governor of Tver, M. Sleptzoff, was passing through the principal street of the town Saturday he was killed by the explosion of a bomb.

Governor Sleptzoff was regarded as a very reactionary official, and was held responsible for the beatings administered to the intelligentsia by the "Black Hundreds" last fall.

The governor was in his carriage when he was assassinated. His body was terribly mutilated and his coachman was seriously injured. The bomb exploded with terrible force. All the windows in the neighborhood were broken. The assassin, who is a very young man, was arrested.

PANIC AMONG AUTOCRATS.

Radicals Will Control House and Czar Must Yield to Witte.

St. Petersburg, April 9.—A panic has been created in Government circles by the surprising strength developed by the Constitutional Democrats in the elections, which may have immediate and dramatic consequences. The issue between reaction and reform which has been hanging in the balance, has been unexpectedly precipitated by Premier Witte. The elections have greatly strengthened the Premier's hand in his fight against the reactionaries, and he now feels strong enough to challenge Gen. Trepot and Minister of Interior Durmovo and the entire reactionary cabinet.

Would Be Fatal Blunder. Less than a fortnight ago the Premier was decidedly pessimistic, and believed that the majority in the lower House of Parliament would be Conservative, and that the entire program for reform might be overturned. The results of the elections, however, convinced him that the radicals will control the House, and that an attempt to thwart the popular will, as expressed by the ballot-box, would be a fatal blunder on the part of the Government.

It was learned from an unimpeachable source Saturday night that the Premier journeyed to Tsarskoe Selo on Thursday to lay this view before the Emperor, and made another trip to Tsarskoe Selo Friday night, and was closeted with His Majesty until after midnight.

The impression is abroad that the success of the Constitutional Democrats' bill will insure the success of the big foreign loan of which the Government is in such urgent need.

Russian Election Results. St. Petersburg, April 9.—The electoral colleges in 50 out of the 51 provinces in European Russia yesterday elected 178 members to the National Parliament—about one-third of its entire membership—and returns received up to midnight indicate that the wildest hopes of the Liberals have been realized, the Constitutional Democrats and other progressivists practically everywhere having gained a tremendous victory over the Conservatives and other conservative parties. As far as is ascertainable not a single reactionary candidate pulled through.

Smuggling On Increase. St. John, N.B., April 9.—Smuggling on the winter port steamers has now reached such a magnitude that customs officials are taking every precaution. So far three ships of different lines have been fined $400 each. Cigs and tobacco are sold to different liquor stores in the city at fair profit by a member of the crew, who handles the goods. Smuggling is apparently increasing.

Liberal Majority Reduced. London, April 9.—The bye-election Friday in the Eye division of Suffolk in consequence of the resignation of F. S. Stevenson, resulted in the election of H. Pearson, Liberal, a son of Sir Westman Pearson, by a majority of 197 over the Marquess of Graham, Conservative, eldest son of the Duke of Montrose. In the last contested election in Eye, held in 1900, the Liberal majority was 1,517.

Why Lloyd Was Set Free. Belleville, April 9.—It is alleged in this city that the last has not yet been heard of the Lloyd murder case. The jury, it is freely stated, did not find Adam Lloyd guilty because they thought somebody else knew much more about the matter than he did. The case is still the talk of this city and district, and another arrest shortly would surprise nobody.

Field Marshal Oyama Retires. Tokio, April 9.—Field Marshal Oyama, chief of the general staff is retiring at his own request, and General Baron Kodama, Governor-General of the island of Formosa, will be appointed chief of the general staff. Lieutenant General Sakuma will succeed General Kodama as Governor-General of Formosa.

Runaway Boy Drowned. Peterboro, April 9.—The body of Louis Bell, the 12-year-old son of Alex. Bell, was found in the Trent Canal yesterday morning near his parents' residence. The boy left home in December last and it was rumored that he had gone to New York.

Neighbors Saved Him. Stratford, April 9.—P. O'Brien, Logan Township, had a narrow escape from being burned to death in his home. Fire broke out and neighbors found O'Brien asleep in his shed. They awakened and saved him from a horrible death.
