Technical and Bibliographic Notes / Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Haight tells us of the life lived by the Upper Canadians half a century ago, a life in which, though young, he had a share—a share, too, that implied memories of a foregoing time, handed down faithfully from sire to son. The events that he recalls take us back, therefore, to years far beyond the limit set by his title. He gives, briefly indeed, but with the guarantee of accuracy, the whole story of the settlement of the province by the Loyalists of the Revolution, thus antedating his own recollections by forty-six years.—The Gazette, Montreal.

The book is redolent of our bracing Canadian atmosphere from end to end. The pages are eminently calculated to kindle many a glowing memory in the hearts of those who are not too old or too busy to have forgotten the days of their youth.—Toronto Globe.

Reminiscences of Canadian life in early days are both interesting and valuable. When these are graphically told they are charming. Mr. Haight gives a vivid and realistic picture of the struggles and successes incident to early settlement in this country. His descriptions are true to life, and afford delightful reading.—Canada Presbyterian, Toronto.

This volume is one of surpassing interest. The author has drawn a vivid pen picture of life in the Canadian country, which brings us into the closest relation with the people of half a century ago. The book is enlivened by anecdotes, and presented in a style of such felicity that there is not a dull page from cover to cover. At the same time it abounds with priceless information on innumerable subjects. The author tells us of the early schools, newspapers, and churches; of banks, insurance, and telegraph companies; and of the progress of roads, stages and steamboats. The work is well illustrated, and a fine portrait of the author forms the frontispiece.—Magazine of American History.

It brings up hoarded memories of a time which in many ways was a contrast to the present. Mr. Haight sees the events and the people, the manners and the morals, through "the golden haze of recollection." He has probably forgotten much that was unpleasant, while he has wisely held fast by what was worthy of praise in Canadian life in the "thirties." They were beyond question a solid, simple, kindly folk, these early settlers of Ontario, well equipped in mind and body to be the pioneers of a great and powerful nation. He lets us see them as they were—in their homes and in their fields.—The Scotsman, Edinburgh, Scotland.

LETTERS.

From the Right Honorable Sir John A. McDonald, G. C. B., Premier of the Dominion of Canada.

I have to thank you very much for the very acceptable gift of your book. I shall read it with great interest, and the Bay of Quinte scenes, as described by you, will serve to recall my youthful days.

From the Marquis of Lorne, Late Governor-General of Canada;

Pray accept my thanks for your welcome gift. The book brings Canadian life vividly before the reader, and no subject gives me so much pleasure.

From J. G. Whittier, the Quaker Poet:

Owing to illness, I have delayed acknowledging the very welcome gift of "Country Life in Canada." I have read it with interest and enjoyment. It is a pleasant picture of the old days, in many respects like that of the early settler in New England two years ago. I have not found a dull page in the book; and I heartily thank thee for sending it.
