ARE the best for the preservation of the sight, and took the medal at the Centennial Exhibition.

The lenses are made of the best material, uniform in density, and of high refractive power, their perfect polish and spheroidal shape adapt them to ease and improve the sight of the wearer.

The eye being the most delicate organ great care should be exercised in selecting spectacles; it is not enough that the lenses must be perfectly centered and in many cases perfect relief is only given by having each eye fitted separately. To effect this the lenses are made interchangeable, and having an Optometer to measure the sight, a perfect fit is guaranteed.

FREDERICTON JULY 3, 1880.

THE CROWN LANDS SETTLEMENT.

The Surveyor General has now made a tour of his settlements, and though he is authorized to expend only $8,000, his settlers are satisfied that he has done the very best he can, and that in making grants and distributions he has treated all fairly. Last year's Crown Land Report told a hopeful story of our Crown Settlements; this year though the grant has been less, the official accounts promise to be equally as encouraging.

There is a great deal in having "the right man in the right place," in having a public officer who is not afraid that he will wet his boots and soil his gloves, but who will personally visit the people under his keeping, and from themselves learn what their requirements are. Official reports, and commissioner's accounts are all very well in their way, but in our opinion the proper method is for the responsible head to see for himself. This Mr. Adams has done, penetrating tangled woods, and walking over swampy roads, and from what he has seen himself, regulating his expenditures. It is encouraging, too, if nothing else, to the poor creature, buried in the woods and seldom hearing a sound from civilization, to be visited once a year by the head of the Crown land department, and to him to tell his grievances and his hopes, and to be encouraged on the work he has begun.

The city is that more can not be expended on those who have gone into the wilderness to carve out their homes; instead of wasting it on useless enterprises. We don't think the Government extravagant at all, but we do think neither the Government nor the Legislature give half attention enough to the settlement of our ungranted lands, and the improvement of our new-formed colonies. In days gone by when no other Province set itself up as a rival for European immigration, it was different from now, and so much exertion was not needed by our Government; but now the shiftless thousands are attracted to the fertile and boundless north-west while only now and again a straggler settles down in our uncouth forests. The Government of this Province should seek to stimulate the best interests of the Province—to make their lands as attractive and their terms as accommodating as it is possible for them to do, else in a few years poor New Brunswick will be sadly in the background. We may say, that all which is possible for the Surveyor General as an officer to do in this regard, he has done and is doing.

DOMINION DAY IN THE SUPREME COURT.

On Thursday last the Supreme Court sat and heard cases and delivered judgments. Thursday was Dominion Day; and it was kept sacred to the memory of the Legislature which consolidated the Provinces into one Dominion. That is, it was kept holy by those who believed in Confederation; but was treated with indifference by those who opposed Confederation. Judge Allen, whose name calls up to us everything that is honest, manly and unprejudiced, was in politics when the questions

Confederation or no Confederation were raised. Our present worthy chief then opposed Confederation, so too did the then Mr. Weldon, so too did the then Mr. Duff. They said they would never have any moral respect for Confederation, and they have kept their word. When last Thursday came they sat upon the Bench in judicial harness, and Mr. Thompson labored like a Hercules before them, and Mr. C. Weldon who is to be judge when the Government goes out perspired freely. Judge Fisher had stated his conscientious objections to sitting on Dominion Day, had argued the immoral tendency of sitting in judgment while the nation was on holiday, but finally agreed with his anti-confederate brethren that he would sit and give judgment at any rate. Then he the said Judge Fisher chose a substitute, which he sent to St. John to sit at the synod; but shortly afterwards began to repent him of his acts, and made up his mind that as a confederate Judge he oughtn't to sit on the Bench on Thursday; so he went by the morning's train to St. John, and entered the synod as a delegate; but his substitute was there before him and the Judge was rejected. Judge Wetmore, another confederate Justice, adjourned his Nisi Prius Sittings, and turned out with the people to cry out Vive la Dominion! No man whether he sits upon the bench or pleads at the bar should ever forget his early principles, or fail to give them the preference when the opportunity offers. Judges Weldon, Allen and Duff were loth to exchange the Union Jack for the Canadian Beaver; they were loth therefore to keep holiday when they were not legally obliged to, though the Marquis of Lorne proclaimed the day idle. Judge Wetmore, however, put his foot down on the nisi prius business, and sauntered out upon the river bank, dreaming over olden times, and again fancifully wielding his sword of sarcasm, while his brothers split legal hairs and expressed judicial disapproval of Confederation.

CUSTOMS RETURN.

The Customs return for the port of Fredericton for the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1880, shows $35,943.10. For the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1879, the return showed $49,830.18, or an increase of revenue for 1879 over 1880 of $13,887.08. This increase of duties collected for last year over this year is easily explained. When a National Policy was spoken of as the policy of the new Government, our merchants imported more largely than usual to be safe before the new tariff came into effect, and consequently an increase of duties for 1879 resulted. But Fredericton has again resumed something like its old-time activity. The past few months of the present year have showed a marked increase of receipts in the Custom House, over those of corresponding months for last year. For the month just ended the receipts have been $2,513.04; for June of 1879 the receipts were $2,469.17, or an increase in June of this year over that of last year of $43.87. This is not much, 'tis true, but it is an evidence of better times.

COOPER & PINDER, Oct. 18th, 1879.—1 yr

owing to a buck having mistaken an animal he had killed. It would seem as if the dead carcass had "a tongue in every wound" that cried, "Pass me not by; you killed!" The squaws are natural butchers. There is not a single cut made in removing the robe, nor is one particle of the animal left for the kyotes that can be possibly utilized by these people. From the sinews lying along the back bone (from which the bow strings are made) to the horny hoofs (for which is dissolved a kind of gluten for the preparation of the robes) nothing is wasted. No wonder that it exasperates these provident people to come across the carcasses of hundreds of thousands of buffalo, killed yearly by the white hunters for the hides alone. Not even a tongue gone, nor a slice taken from the favorite lump! There they lie and rot; the food God had provided for them feeding only the kyotes and vultures, the bones standing as a monument to progressive civilization, and as a reminder that the white men are not allowed on the territory.

GRAND FALLS

OF THE UPPER SAINT JOHN

SPORTSMAN AND TOURIST

THIS Book just published at the "Reporter" office will be found useful not only to those to whom it is especially dedicated, but to all persons who are not acquainted with the Upper St. John, and who are interested in the features of scenery and progress of that interesting country. The Book, whilst being a work in which it is considered that many of the places to which the author has devoted his most graphic pen, which he has clothed in waving verdure and coarse by merry laughing rivulets, were inspected in mid-winter, when two feet of snow covered the ground, and when the smooth-voiced waters were bound in fetters of ice.

The Book will be for sale at all Book-stores at 15 Cents a Copy.

Wholesale rates can be ascertained at "Reporter" office. F'ron, June 26. "SMALL PICA."

Odd Fellow's Fair.

The climax of preparations was reached on Wednesday afternoon: the Bazaar... The band passed through the street enveloped in a cloud of dust playing its music...

Another picture showed the winter of discontent, and another an Alpine night, where slumbered stormy heavens... That picture hanging there...

"A gaily summer morn, Where, with puffed cheek, the belted hunter blew... His wreathed horn horn."

The writer did not go very near the chronos, because he remembered reading that Mark Twain said, "Chronos are not supposed to be snail of."

The next object of attraction to be met was the work table upon which delicate art lay in heaps, and around which and about which beauty had gathered en bloc.

At safe distance from this table was the doll department representing all kinds of dolls, from the nursemaid to the highly finished Caucasian.

There was also a magic lake, up and down and through and round which went a little boat, unceasingly conveying its domestic ship in the waters of Cape Horn.

The afternoon Club Band gave out the music on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday. The leading members of the band were...

THURSDAY. On Thursday which happened to be Dominion Day to all but some of the shopkeepers...

Noting is gained by the gratification of the fanatics, whose honest feelings in the matter at first changed into an attitude of hostile personal feeling...

After a time the principles are forgotten and the question is, Who is to be the best in the city whom you could get to say the law oughtn't to be on the books...

Newcastle Notes.

Beautiful weather at present. Call still runs a boat to Chatham on Sunday. The proprietor of the "Slaughter House" is on a fishing bend.

The "Mallard" has been floated and is now undergoing extensive repairs. The stranded bark "Thule" is advertised for sale as she now lies at Douglas-town.

The merchants agreed to close their places of business so as to enable the workers to attend the freemen's picnic. Bob Call and Whitney are awful mad at your correspondent. Well, let them, I'll call on the Governor and get a few more local hits.

Fishermen say that the salmon were never so scarce as they are this season. The Governor lost a day last week, but didn't bring home a scale.

Wat's new vessel "Richard Hutchison" will be fully rigged to-morrow and will sail on Friday. It seems as if Charley is tempting Providence.

Coroner Smith held an inquest on the body of a sailor who was found drowned last week. He makes a good looking, presiding officer, yet he doesn't mind the Bible.

Early on Sunday morning it was discovered that the tug-boat "Gladiator" lying at her wharf in Chatham was on fire. By the aid of the steam fire engine it was extinguished, though damage was done.

The Turkish Minister has presented to the Italian Emperor a note protesting against the decisions of the Berlin Conference. Accounts received from various districts of Ireland show that the famine fever is widely increasing.

A treaty has been concluded between Russia and Japan for coal and other stores. The rinderpest is raging in forty-three districts on the shores of the Black Sea, and is spreading rapidly.

A great fire is raging in Rezan, Russia; sixty houses have been destroyed, and the flames are spreading rapidly. The Standard states that the Home Rulers have instructed Parnell to press for the second reading of his Irish Relief Bill, unless the Chief Secretary for Ireland undertakes to give a large grant of money in addition to sums voted in Government Relief Bills.

LONDON, July 2.—After the Bradlaugh affair was settled in the Commons last night, the debate on Parnell's Irish Relief Bill was resumed. Hon. E. Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, announced he could not accept the measures. Parnell moved that further debate on the bill be fixed for Saturday, but Forster objected and Parnell's motion was negatived.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 2.—It is reported orders have been given for the mobilization of the second army corps. It is believed here that the Porte has determined to resist the decision of the Powers.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY. The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chamberburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our Susie to say, "A blessing on Mrs Winslow" for helping her to survive the gripping, colicking and teething sieges.

Brown's Household Panacea. Is the most effective Pain Destroyer to other remedies. It not only cures the blood, whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly RELIEVE PAIN, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator...

THE ORIGIN OF "DARK HORSE." The origin of the term "Dark Horse" is explained in a matter-of-fact way by the Cincinnati Enquirer. Once upon a time there lived down in Tennessee an old chap named Samuel Flynn, who traded in horses and always contrived to have a speedy gallop of his own, which he used for racing purposes whenever he could pick up a good "best match" during his travels.

MUCH SICKNESS. Undoubtedly with children, attributed to other causes, in occasional cases, it is simply Worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child.

Telegraphic News.

LONDON, July 2.—In the House of Commons, A. M. Sullivan moved an amendment making the resolution moved by Gladstone prospective instead of retrospective. It was rejected, 234 to 236. The resolution agreed to by the Government and moved by Gladstone admitting all elected members to affirm who may claim to do so, instead of the Government was then proposed without division, and on a subsequent motion by Gladstone that resolution be a standing order was also agreed to without a division.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lim and soda will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that Scott's Emulsion is being used with better results and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrophula, Anæmia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See What Physicians and the People Say About It.

Messrs. Scott & Downe: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, September 2, 1875.
GENTS,—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrophulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious.

Messrs. Scott & Downe:—Gentlemen,—Within the last year, I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrophulous cases.
Oct. 12, 1875. Yours respectfully, A. H. SEXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

Messrs. Scott & Downe:—Gentlemen,—Within the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly agreeable and elegant form.
December 10th, 1875. Yours truly, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

Messrs. Scott & Downe:—Gentlemen,—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats and short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I afterwards bought a dozen bottles, with the following results: Coughs subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 125 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, "What cured you?" and I answer, "Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, etc." I have a friend who has not spoken aloud for 15 months, and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle and he bought two more, then got a cough, and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago, but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.
January 20th, 1879. H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. Scott & Downe:—Gentlemen,—I have used your Emulsion and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live longer than a few weeks at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk, and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am sure I shall entirely recover.
I am gratefully yours, R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.
