Fullerton, K.C., that the opposition leaders were bought by the government for $50,000 before the royal commission enquiry into the parliament buildings scandal, and this sensation was noteworthy by the fact that for the first time the commission showed a disposition to limit the scope of their investigation.

Mr. Fullerton suggested the $50,000 for the opposition came from the parliament buildings contract, and the chief justice intimated that if he were in a position to prove this the charge would come within the scope of the present commission.

DE WET IS FOUND GUILTY OF TREASON

Noted Boer General Will Be Sentenced at Bloemfontein Today.

ADMITTED SEDITION

High Treason Charge Sustained on Eight Counts After Thoro Inquiry.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Union of South Africa, June 21.—Via London.—Gen. Christian De Wet, leader of the South African rebellion against the British Government, was today found guilty of treason on eight counts. Sentence was deferred until tomorrow.

Gen. De Wet headed a rebellion in the Orange Free State and western Transvaal, in October, 1914. He was captured on a farm at Waterburg, British Bechuanaland, to which place he had been pursued by a motor car brigade. Gen. De Wet was placed on trial June 16 on a charge of high treason. The indictment against him was a long one and covered alleged rebellious acts and seditious utterances. He pleaded not guilty to a charge of high treason, but guilty to a charge of sedition. Gen. De Wet was commander-in-chief of the Free State forces during the Boer war. He was minister of agriculture in the Orange River Colony for several years.

Playing the Game in Manitoba

Things took a surprising turn in Winnipeg yesterday when the boys started in to really play the game. The Conservatives admitted the guilt of the late Roblin government in connection with the parliament buildings contract, and put forward a counter-charge that the new Norris government, for a cash consideration, had agreed to a saw-off if the Roblinites gave up office to Norris, knowing at the time that the money came from Kelly and was tainted. So far this was one move.

Next, the Conservatives gave it out at Winnipeg that, inasmuch as the lieutenant-governor's name had been mentioned in the documents signed by the Conservative members, alleging a saw-off with the Roblinites, it might be necessary for the Dominion ministers to investigate the conduct of his honor and of one of the chief justices.

The next move is now a matter of conjecture. Some say that Mr. Norris will at once advise Governor Cameron to dissolve the house and appoint a day for a general election; and this might be suggested by the Liberal chiefs at Ottawa, as the proper thing to do.

It is not quite certain, however, that the Liberals will take advantage of the opportunity thus presented to get ahead of their opponents, because, if they acted in this way, the fourth move would be in order, and that might be for the Dominion Conservatives to immediately call a Dominion election, on the ground that, inasmuch as the Liberals had put Manitoba into the turmoil of a duel of the voters, they would be fully justified "to play it that way, too," and pursue the same tactics in federal affairs and line up the sides for an election just as clear across the continent.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier wants a Dominion election least of all, and he may be astute enough to advise his friends in Manitoba not to rush into a move that might beat off an attack of the Germans north of the Peche River on the positions at Reich Argonne.

On to Gondrexon. After their capture of nearly a mile of German trenches in Lorraine by a determined assault, the French advanced guards pushed on to Gondrexon and found the Germans working to the west of that place unoccupied. The Germans were then found to have Another move that could be made by the Dominion Government would be the dismissal of Governor Cameron for partisan conduct, and giving the same reason that was given in the case of Letellier by Sir John Macdonald, "that his usefulness was gone."

Altogether, "the game has got to be a very lively and rather fascinating one for the Canadian people to watch—some from a near origin of vantage, others from long distance range. It may be that the Hon. Robert Rogers, who is just back at Ottawa, is coaching Sir Robert Borden in the intricacies of this ancient test of skill, and it may also be a likely deduction that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is guiding the fingers of Mr. Borden in moving his men on the board. So, altogether, it is a very interesting emphasis of move and counter-move, of check and counter-check, of saw-off and counter-saw-off, of deal and counter-deal, after the most approved methods. But is Manitoba going to get her money back?

Rudyard Kipling Says Punishment Would Be Truly Terrible.

LONDON, June 23, 3:18 a.m.—Rudyard Kipling, in a speech last night at a recruiting meeting at Southampton, drew a lively picture of England's fate should Germany prove victorious in the war, declaring that whatever had been meted out to the Belgians and Poles would be England's punishment tenfold.

"If we fail to subdue the Germans," he said, "there are reasons in the German mind why we should be morally and mentally shamed beyond any other people."

FRENCH OCCUPY LORRAINE TOWN OF GONDREXON

Successful Advance Also Made in Alsace and on Meuse Heights.

METZERAL CAPTURED

Local Engagements Only Reported North of Arras—Fighting in Argonne.

LONDON, June 21.—Resting on their northward gains on the front line of Arras, the French war leaders today turned the energies of their offensive to the heights of the Meuse, Alsace and Lorraine, where important successes fell to their arms today, including an unimpeded advance to Gondrexon. The progress along the Peche River, in Alsace, a war office statement says tonight, was continued in the course of an uninterrupted series of engagements which first gained them Metzeral cemetery, the railway station, the village, which they captured after a hot fight. Their advance then reached the outskirts of the hamlet and was pushed 550 yards to the east beyond the outskirts of Metzeral toward Meyerhof. Some prisoners were taken in these actions, bringing the total number in two days to over 200. The French beat off an attack of the Germans north of the Peche River on the positions at Reich Argonne.

On to Gondrexon. After their capture of nearly a mile of German trenches in Lorraine by a determined assault, the French advanced guards pushed on to Gondrexon and found the Germans working to the west of that place unoccupied. The Germans were then found to have

LINER CAMERONIA NEARLY TORPEDOED

Steamer Headed for Submarine Which Made Sudden Dive.

STORY OF PASSENGER

Many on Board Saw Periscope Appear in Irish Sea.

LONDON, June 21.—The Anchor Line steamer Cameronia, under charter to the Cunard Line, had a narrow escape from a submarine in the Irish Sea, on her voyage from New York to Liverpool, according to Peter Fletcher of New York, one of the saloon passengers. The Cameronia arrived in Liverpool Sunday.

Mr. Fletcher says that during the run thru the Irish Sea a submarine came out of the water, showing the top of her conning tower. To save the Cameronia Capt. Kinnard headed the vessel for the submarine, which dived. After passing over the spot where the underwater boat went down, without finding any evidence that the steamer had collided with it, Capt. Kinnard reversed the course of his vessel and set away safely.

Mr. Fletcher added that the passengers on the Cameronia, also many of them saw the periscope of the submarine, were cool.

The Cameronia sailed from New York June 11 for Glasgow, by way of Liverpool. She had on board about 45 first-class passengers and a large number of persons in the second cabin.

DYNAMITERS OF WINDSOR PLANT NOT YET FOUND

Authorities Are Watching Resident, But Definite Evidence is Lacking.

OTHER FIRMS ANXIOUS

Special Military Guards Asked—Outrages Stimulate Local Recruiting.

WINDSOR, June 21.—Up to a late hour tonight no arrests had been made in connection with the partial destruction of the Peabody plant at Walkerville, and the attempted blowing up of the Windsor Armouries, early this morning, although the authorities are watching a local man, who, it is said, asked an autist for a ride from Walkerville to Windsor shortly after the explosion at the Peabody factory. This individual, it is claimed, was carrying a grip at the time.

Firms working on war munitions are asking for special military guards and extra soldiers have been placed at many points. A movement has been started to force official registration of all German citizens of Windsor. Lt. Col. McCrimmon of the first division headquarters at London, sent word today that he would be here tomorrow to conduct an investigation into the bombing incident.

The outrages have served to greatly stimulate recruiting at this point, there being 20 enlistments this afternoon alone, which is a larger number than for any three successive days since the outbreak of the war.

At 3 a.m. today an explosion, believed to have been caused by a bomb placed by a German sympathizer, blew out the entire front of a three-story steel and concrete building at

RUSSIANS RETREAT FIGHTING BRAVELY

Battle in Galicia Severe Test for Valor of Czar's Soldiers.

SLAUGHTER GERMANS

Every Foot of Territory Stubbornly Contested by Unbeaten Troops.

PETROGRAD, June 21.—The battle in Galicia is an undying testimony to Russian heroism. For six weeks the Germans have been pressing with all their weight on the Russian armies. They poured upon them hundreds of thousands of every kind of shell. They have created an inferno in the country between the Carpathians and the Russian frontier and with the bodies of thousands of their own men have paved a way for the advance of their batteries.

The Russians have stood against this unexampled fire, yielded ground inch by inch, destroying one after another of the enemy's units, and have been compelled to retire gradually from point to point under the blinding, deafening shower of German explosives. By night the Germans hurriedly shot and bayonet the German infantry and recover their trenches only to repeat the same process on succeeding days.

Battle of Men vs. Machines. There are intervals of real human battles in the green cornfields and on the banks of the swift flowing rivers, but in main this is a battle between men and machines. The Russian army is not demoralized. It has suffered losses, but it is steady and is steadily and successfully pursuing its task of swelling the casualty lists of the German army, whatever sacrifices are advanced by a series of violent paroxysms succeeded by brief periods of exhaustion and recuperation. Their last paroxysm has brought them right up to the defenses of the Gallician capital.

BODY OF COL. BECHER BURIED IN FLANDERS

British War Office Forced to Decline Request of Gen. Hughes.

LONDON, June 21.—Major Gen. Hughes' effort to have a special case made for the body of Lt.-Col. Campbell Becher of this city, who was killed at the front last week, with a view to having the remains returned to Canada for burial, has been unsuccessful. The minister of militia wired relatives here this afternoon that the British war office had declined the request, in accordance with the standing regulations in that regard.

Information sent Gen. Hughes from England was to the effect that Col. Becher had been buried in Veruvre Cemetery, near Festubert, with full military honors, in the presence of Gen. Alderson, Gen. Mercer, Col. Sealy, M.P., and other officers of the Canadian division. The body was placed in a separate grave and had been duly registered.

Out of respect for the memory of their late commanding officer, the members of the Seventh Fusiliers decided tonight to equip and maintain eight beds in the Queen's Canadian Military Hospital, Thorncliffe, Eng.

BRITISH HOUSE READILY GIVES BLANK CHEQUE

New Loan May Possibly Reach Total of Five Billion Dollars.

CAN MEET ANY CRISIS

McKenna Appeals to Investors, Large and Small, to Give Support.

LONDON, June 21.—(10:10 p.m.)—The House of Commons adjourned tonight after unanimously giving a first reading to the bill providing the new chancellor of the exchequer, Reginald McKenna, with a blank cheque which may amount, at a maximum, to one thousand million pounds ($5,000,000,000).

The vote of credit for £250,000,000 ($1,250,000,000) passed last week by the house simply authorized the government to spend that much for war purposes, but did not provide for the manner in which this sum should be raised. Tonight's enactment was in the form of a resolution, which empowers the government to raise not only the £250,000,000 deemed necessary to pay the cost of the war, at the rate of £25,000,000 sterling daily, for a limited period, but as much more as may be needed.

Reasons Withheld. The chancellor of the exchequer made a long explanation of the proposed loan, and, in closing, said that on the technical questions as to the limit of the loan it would be dangerous to disclose the necessity for not fixing any definite sum, and he added that the only figure he could put in the bill was a maximum which would cover all requirements of the new loan, including provisions enabling the subscribers to previous war loans

BRITISH OFFICERS SUFFER SEVERELY

More Than Eleven Thousand Casualties Up to June Month.

DEATH RATE IS HIGH

Australians' Losses Heavier Than Canadians' in Past Two Weeks.

LONDON, June 21.—The British army casualty lists ending June 9 show that since the beginning of the war 3872 officers have been killed, 6657 wounded and 1045 put down as missing, making a total of 11,672. From May 19 to June 9, 708 officers were killed, 1407 wounded and 150 reported missing, or 2265 in all.

These figures bring out the fact that the proportion of killed to wounded runs one to two, which is probably due as much to the fact that the line officers of the lower grades are the first to leave the trenches in making attacks as to the use of high explosives.

Canadian Losses.

During the fortnight ended June 9 the Canadian contingent lost 40 officers killed and 130 wounded, the Australians 107 killed and 175 wounded, and the Indian troops 43 killed and 117 wounded, who, being officers, were in large part English. The Royal Field Artillery lost 39 officers killed and 62 wounded. In many regiments more officers were killed than wounded. The Leicesters had 18 killed to 14 wounded, while in the Dublin Fusiliers the proportion stood 17 to 7. In the Welsh Fusiliers 11 to 5, and in the Surrey 15 to 12.

With each casualty list a certain number of officers and men are transferred from the missing to the killed, owing to the finding of their bodies. The number of dead is also constantly increased by those succumbing to wounds.

The British casualty lists issued Monday night contain the names of 53 officers and 3500 men. The week-end list, issued Sunday, was 4000.

The soft ball team of the office staffs of the Dominion Power and Transmission Company and Steel Company of Canada met in combat at Woodland Park last evening, which after a spirited encounter resulted in a win for the "Electric Boys" by 14 runs to 11. WINDSOR MAN IS UNDER SUSPICION

No Arrests Yet Made and Firms Ask for Military Guards.

RECRUITING BOOMED

Outrages Have Created Deep Sensation—Germans From Detroit Suspected.

The corner of Sandwick street and Victoria road. The damage is estimated at $100.

The company had been working on a $1,000,000 order of uniforms for the British army, and today Mr. O. Lennox, general manager, said he had feared for some time that an attempt would be made to wreck the plant because of its acceptance of British war orders. No direct threat had come to the company, he said, but there had been rumors that unless the company ceased turning out uniforms for the British the plant would be destroyed.

The police at Walkerville believe the explosion was caused by German sympathizers from Detroit and that they fled back across the river as soon as they had done their work. Three foreigners, acting suspiciously, were arrested near the scene within half an hour after the explosion, but were soon released.

Attempt on Armories.
Twenty-seven sticks of dynamite attached to the rear of a Cadillac were set for 3:15 a.m. were found in the rear of the Windsor armories this morning. The fuse cap attached to the dynamite had exploded, blowing off the top of the grip in which it was concealed. The main charge, however, failed to explode. To this fact several men stationed in the armory at night probably owe their lives.

The charge was heavy enough to wreck the whole building. It was at 3:15 a.m. that Pte. Panton, guard at the armory, heard what he believed to be a pistol shot a short distance away. With several other guards he found nothing.

Found Dynamite.
Later in the morning he discovered the grip, 10 feet from where he had been standing when he heard the report. The bag had been concealed beneath the wall, muffling the sound, and making it difficult to trace it. Police and military authorities worked together in the investigation.

The force of the explosion was so terrific that the upper section of the American side, Detroit police, fearing another black-hand bomb outrage, such as occurred last week, rushed to the Sicilian district. The residents of this portion of the city were also under the impression that the explosion was near them.

Despite efforts of military authorities and police, they are practically without clue.

Members of the armories guard who patrol the streets around the building reported no suspicious characters, carrying a suit case such as was found, were seen loitering in the neighborhood after dark, but did not appear to be a foreigner.

Plot Well Organized.
Twelve men were sleeping in the armories at the time of the discovery. It is believed that the attempt to blow up the armories was the culmination of a well-laid plot, having its origin in New York, and in all probabilities approved by the German embassy and the United States who are manufacturing munitions for the allies. People here believe the plot also involved other factories and public buildings.

In many cases they are cut into the rock, and the artillery is well concealed. At other points well entrenched and positioned to receive their antagonists have been constructed by the Austrians.

Fairbank Merchant Says It Has Many Advantages Over Others Proposed.

The World also hears that the Metropolitan refuses to make any suggestion in the way of a compromise because any proposal it has ever made before has been turned down. If therefore, so the World is told, will do nothing and will take what is coming.

But all this makes a situation. Traffic will be impeded; people from away up Yonge street from the north will be unable to get down Yonge street to the crossing unless they come by Jitney and that will mean another fare.

For some days now The World has been looking into the situation, examining franchises, interviewing county councillors, citizens and suburbanites with a view of finding a solution. The substance of these interviews is contained in the proposals given below, but these proposals are subject to improvement or to still better suggestions from anybody who is able to make them; and we intend to throw our columns open to the local traffic experts and franchise doctors of the city and see if it is not possible to find a way out of what promises to be a serious situation.

Of course the best way would be for the city at once to buy out the Metropolitan clear up to the north limit of the city and for the city then to put down a double track on Yonge street and run it as a municipal line north of the crossing, in some way by the Toronto Railway Company if a single fare could be arranged. But pending this rather large readjustment, The World proposes is on a much more moderate scale and is as follows:

TOWNSHIP AND CITY AGREED ON SEWERS

Settlement Reached on Cost of Construction in Many Districts.

IMPROVE EAST END

Humber School Section Will Issue Debentures to Purchase Site.

Many matters more or less important were dealt with at yesterday's meeting of the York Township Council, the time of the members being largely occupied with routine affairs. The preliminary stage relative to the putting down of sidewalks and sewers on the local improvement plan indicated a steady growth in the districts immediately surrounding the city, and in several cases amicable arrangements have been arrived at between the township and city as to the cost of connection.

W. F. Maclean, M.P., in a communication to council, referred to a number of suggested improvements, notably on Milne's sideroad, where a cement culvert is required, and which Commissioner Snider will inspect and report on. Mr. Maclean also pointed out the need for better lighting on Leslie street at the Don Mills road, the latter, however, being under the jurisdiction of the highways commission. Several minor improvements were suggested by Mr. Maclean in the east and northern parts of the district, and on which a report will later be submitted by Mr. Snider.

School section No. 32 asked for and obtained permission to issue debentures for the sum of $12,000, subject to the customary legal requirements for the purchase of a school site. The section is in the Humber Valley district, and includes a large part of the Home Smith area.

A letter was read from the city authorities, giving permission to the township to proceed with the building of a sewer on Earls Court avenue to Teighow avenue, at an annual rental of 10 cents per foot.

In the Hubbard area, where a young lad was smothered in a sand pit on township property, the solicitors reported that while the damages against the city had been placed at $800 no further amount was likely to be found against the municipality.

The question of a roadway thru Prospect Cemetery, giving free access east and west to the people in that district, had not progressed, and on motion of Reeve Griffiths the township clerk will try and arrange a meeting between the cemetery authorities and the township.

Council will likely take part in the festivities in connection with the opening of the Port Stanley Electric Railway, an invitation having been received.

The plan of campaign to be adopted regarding the Wednesday half-holiday in the district will be fully discussed and definite action decided upon at the next meeting of the branch, on Thursday, July 1. President Mrs. J. Burroughs occupied the chair.

The funeral of Mrs. Robinson, wife of Deputy Chief Robinson of Perth avenue fire station, took place yesterday afternoon at Prospect Cemetery. She was survived by two sons, Harvie and Allie, both of West Toronto, and a daughter, Mrs. Ravell of Sherbourne street. Service was conducted at the Home Smith graveside by Rev. D. T. L. McKerrill.

PLEASED WITH COUNCIL

"The West Fairbank Ratepayers' Association thoroughly appreciate the effort to be put forward by the York Township Council of late, in putting down sidewalks in the district," said Mr. Munroe of Fairbank last evening. "They are also putting up the street name plates, cutting away a portion of the hill, and making other necessary improvements."

"Their efforts seem to have stimulated the building trade in this district, as houses are being erected on all sides."

WEST FAIRBANK RATEPAYERS HELD SOCIAL AND DANCE.

In the unavoidable absence of the mayor, Reeve Gardhouse presided over the greater part of last night's session of the Weston Town Council, at which routine matters alone engaged attention.

There was some criticism of the action of Manager Royce of the Weston Suburban Street Railway, in refusing to grant free transportation on the railway to firemen. It was stated by Mr. Gray, solicitor for the town, that Mr. Royce had on three occasions promised the men free transportation, but the promise had never been fulfilled. Legal opinion will be secured as to the town's position in the matter.

Want More Money.
The application of the Weston Lads Club for a reconsideration of the grant of $25 to the club, and a request for more money, was not finally dealt with, being referred back.

The application of Lorne Fraser for safe custody of the stand of rifles granted to the Weston Home Guards was dealt with, and at the request of the reeve immediate action will be taken to secure the Home Guards' rifles.

Reeve Gardhouse was expressed by Mr. Gray, solicitor for the town, that the application for arms there were no volunteers and the whole matter has fallen thru.

The Roman Catholic Picnic scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the Weston exhibition park, is under the direction of Rev. J. J. Mincham, a big program of athletic events is planned.

Weston Presbyterian Church holds its annual general party on Wednesday.

NEWMARKET COUNCIL MEET.

The Newmarket Town Council held a long session last night in the informal discussion of matters pertaining to the future of the town, many of them of a non-committal nature. One thing they did was to grant the Newmarket Home Guards the use of the skating rink for a shooting gallery, and agreed to provide all lighting facilities. Interest in the Home Guards continues to increase, already more than 150 men having volunteered. Accounts totaling more than $1000 were passed.

DEBT OF BUILDING REDUCED.

WHAT AN ACRE WILL GROW. Surprising Results From Scientific Intensive Cultivation of the Soil.

A few years ago there originated a catch-phrase "Three Acres and Liberty." To the person unfamiliar with the returns obtained from scientific cultivation of the soil, the phrase may seem an exaggerated epigram, but an examination of actual results will prove surprising.

For oats the average is 36 bushels, as against a possible 91 bushels to the acre. Similar increases are possible in almost all products of the soil.

Information as to the returns from various crops in the different provinces of Canada, and authoritative scientific instruction in the best methods of growing different crops, varieties best suited to each locality, and a thousand other points of interest and value, may be found in the large, handsomely illustrated agricultural book "Making Money From The Soil."

Pte. G. Lowther of the 3rd Battalion, first Canadian Expeditionary Force, has written an interesting letter to his former chief, W. H. Randall of the waterworks branch. The letter is written from a hospital in Beckett's Park, Yorkshire. He says: "We were fighting around Langemarck, and were under most terrific shell and machine gun fire; it was raining shrapnel. We were exposed to the enemy's fire as it is all open country, but we still kept advancing. It was like hell let loose. No pen can write what we went thru."

CANADIAN CONTINGENT OFF TO DARDANELLES?

Speculation Busy in London as to Destination of Force.

MONTREAL, June 21.—The London correspondent of The Gazette cables under date of yesterday:

The destination of the second contingent is a matter of much speculation. It is generally believed that no move will be made for months. It is hinted in circles where the truth should be known, that the second division of Canadians may join other overseas forces in the Dardanelles, but probably this will depend upon the progress made in that region some weeks hence.

At the present moment the second contingent is complete. The reserve battalions are at very low strength, as even with their present numbers, which are low—they are largely composed of invalided men. A group of 45 officers has crossed the channel.

LIEUT. KELLY WOUNDED.

Lieut. Kelly, son of F. F. Kelly, 75 Avenue road, was reported slightly wounded in yesterday's casualty list. Three days before the official notice arrived from Ottawa he sent a cable stating that he was slightly wounded and another followed stating "everything fine." Lieut. Kelly enlisted at the outbreak of the war with St. John 4th Battery. While in St. John he was representative of the Royal Trust Company.

BRITISH TOMMIES ADMIRE CANADIANS

Dubbed "White Canucks" After Engagement With the Enemy.

In a letter dated June 3 Lieut. Douglas Adams of the 14th Battalion states that the Canadian troops are highly admired by the British Tommies. In part of his letter the following extracts appear: "We started off on a 1500 yard constitutional, and we had no sooner got over the parapet when the enemy opened fire on us with shrapnel. We passed through several lines of British troops, and since the engagement the Canadians have been known as the 'White Canucks.' The last half of the trip we got rifle bullets as well as shrapnel, and I cannot understand to this day why I only lost 23 men."

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist. As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Fermentation irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full, bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 90 per cent. of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bisulphate of magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrector known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisulphate of magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in the peculiarly valuable properties—F. J. G.

and the holders of consols to participate. This maximum would not fall far short of a thousand million pounds sterling.

The new loan, which, as now provided for, is of an indefinite amount, will be issued at par, will bear interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent., and will be redeemed at the option of the government between 1925 and 1945.

To Meet All Exigencies. The chancellor of the exchequer is to receive a blank cheque for £1,000,000,000, he explained in his speech that he did not say he was asking for this sum, and if he did not get it the loan would not be a failure, as he really did not expect to get that amount, nor did he really want it.

He deemed it advisable, however, to fix upon a sum to meet adequately the necessities of the situation. The chancellor said he wished to appeal to the patriotism of the country "to use its gigantic resources to meet the needs of the hour for ourselves and our allies."

"I want the public to lend the money for the way which will not oblige us to repay during the war."

City is Pleasid. Although the stock exchange had closed before Mr. McKenna's statement was published, the proposed new loan is said to have met with a favorable reception in the city.

VISITING IN TORONTO

Munitions and Men Gladly Contributed for Empire's Cause.

The Hon. John Watson, ex-Premier of Australia, arrived in Toronto yesterday after a tour in Europe. In regard to home affairs he said the Australian government had commenced to make heavier guns and increased supplies of ammunition before the war broke out.

While in Cairo, Egypt, he saw the Australian troops returning from the front. At one stage he visited the Turks. The only railway in the district was crippled owing to shell fire. In regard to compulsory military training in Australia, the minister said it differs materially from the system as understood in Europe.

The fact that it has increased the number of officers is of material consideration in the training of men. In time of peace the percentage of officers is much greater than during a period of hostilities. The compulsory system of training has been in force for three years, and is universal in respect to males between the ages of 18 and 26, although there are a few exempted districts.

The first contingent to leave Australia was made up mostly of townsmen, as the people in the rural districts were usually occupied in shearing and the sugar industry, but the later contingents contained many men from the country. The commonwealth has sent 70,000 men to Europe, and will continue to answer the call as the necessity arises.

"The best of feeling towards the empire prevails both in New Zealand and Australia," said the Hon. Mr. Watson. "We are much in favor of the imperial conference to make the ties of empire even more binding." From 1894 to 1901 he was the Labor representative from Sydney, and in 1901 became the federal prime minister and treasurer. He will be in Toronto for a few days before leaving for the States. He sails from Vancouver to his home in Sydney in July.

Charges Respecting Sinking Of U-29 May Affect Berlin's Reply.

PARIS, June 21.—(11.05 p.m.)—That the manufacture of arms and ammunition in France is progressing satisfactorily was made known in an official communication issued tonight concerning a tour of the factories where the work is in progress made by Minister of War Millerand Sunday. The statement says: "The minister of war went Sunday on a tour of the factories in the interior of France, and returned to Paris this morning. In all the factories he visited, those privately owned, as well as those belonging to the state, the minister witnessed very great activity. He has satisfied himself personally that, thanks to the great and progressive efforts shown up to the present, the expected results will everywhere be realized, and, in a good many factories, probably exceeded."

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, D. C. June 20.—Berlin's charge that the German submarine U29 was rammed by a British tank steamer, alleged to be carrying the Swedish flag, has aroused considerable apprehension here. While high officials continue optimistic as to the tone of the German answer, there is an undercurrent of feeling, nevertheless, that the alleged ramming of the German submarine will give the war party of Germany ammunition with which to fight a conciliatory answer to this country.

According to unofficial reports by the German embassy, received here, the U29 was sunk while investigating the character of the British vessel. That the charge will be seized upon by Admiral von Tirpitz and his fellow militarists in Germany, to enforce their demands for an abrupt note to this country is believed here.

Some Officials say the loss of the U29 will drive home a most potent argument of President Wilson in his note of May 18, which was that it is impossible for submarines to comply with the rules of international law regarding the right of visit and search and, therefore, their use should be discontinued. In some circles it is asserted that Germany may cite the sinking of the U29 as an argument in favor of the continuance of this method of warfare. The British admiralty statement is that the U29 was sunk by one of his majesty's ships.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 22.

Mr. White's Opportunity

Canada is not getting her share of the war orders. The reason why and remedy therefor we will discuss hereafter. In the meantime it is evident that the United States is reaping a rich harvest. Lead, zinc, copper and other metals have reached record-breaking prices, and there is a marked improvement in iron and steel products. The car companies report big orders from the French and Russian governments for railway construction and equipment. On the other hand, wheat has dropped 30 cents during the past two or three months. Let us keep that in mind, for it is important.

We say that we are not getting all we could do in the way of the war munition business, or to put it in another way, the allies are not able to give us as much business as they would like. They cannot pay spot cash in gold, and must resort to various expedients to pay with something else, or get accommodation. The French bankers are advising their government to try and induce private holders of American securities to exchange these for French Government bonds that can be used to establish a line of credit in New York. The British Government may sell treasury bills in the New York market. The Russian Government has sold short-term securities, bearing a comparatively high rate of interest, to establish a strong reserve with their agents, J. P. Morgan & Company.

The American banks have behind them the American Government. They can rediscount gilt-edged paper and get national currency. Our banks, until last August, had no such advantage, and we can scarcely expect them to impair their reserves and replet their liquid strength by discounting even short-time gilt-edged paper of the allies to the extent of fifty or one hundred million dollars. The belligerents cannot pay spot cash in gold, but the farmer and the wage-earner do not demand gold, and will be quite satisfied with bank notes or national currency.

But the banks cannot double their outstanding circulation. It is up to the Dominion Government to solve the situation by an issue of national currency, say to the extent of $100,000,000. The belligerents have the securities to put up to the government will take no risk, and we will be able to finance the war orders.

And just a word about wheat. The allies can pick and choose this fall, for wheat may be almost a drug on the European market. They will not ship gold over here to pay spot cash for our wheat. They probably will want to send back a lot of our securities, but how are they to be liquidated? The farmer will want the money when he gets to the elevator. The banks, we hope, will handle this end of the situation, but they should be glad to meet the strong arm of the national government behind them.

Mr. White has admirably stated our trouble. Will he prescribe the remedy? Last fall he dealt with a desperate situation with courage and address; let him not lose faith in this present hour of even greater emergency. Let him again unite the rock of national credit and a living stream will gush forth to refresh and invigorate the business of the country. It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us. We must extend credit abroad while providing currency for our needs at home. Only the government, it appears to us, can adequately deal with the situation.

For Mr. White, it is a great opportunity.

Mr. Darling's Gold Medal

A signal honor was conferred upon Mr. Frank Darling last night by the Royal Institute of British Architects in London when he was admitted an honorary fellow of the institute, a favor only conferred upon three other persons, and also presented with the gold medal of the institute, a distinction dating from 1848, and founded by Queen Victoria. These honors were accepted by Hon. Mr. Ferley, the Canadian high commissioner, on behalf of Mr. Darling.

While Mr. Darling would doubtless assert that the honor was conferred more upon Canada than upon himself personally, such modesty will not prevent the full recognition among his fellows in the profession he has adorned, of his eminence among them, of his gifts, and of the splendid achievements of his art. The Royal Gold Medal has never before come to one of the great British dominions, and Canada is so far honored thru a native master builder. The whole world competes for this brilliant decoration. Last year it went to a member of the French Institute. It has only twice before crossed the Atlantic. The recipients were Richard Morris Hunt and Charles Follen McKim, the latter the dean of American architecture, the Boston public library being a well-known example of his work. Not always to a practicing architect is the gold medal awarded, men like Laurence Alpa Tadmora having received it, while the Earl of Plymouth is one of the four honorary fellows, the latest of whom is Mr. Darling.

Mr. Darling's work is chiefly commercial, and he has done much to tend distinction to Canadian building, every city in the Dominion practically having some of his designs in their streets. From St. John's, Newfoundland, in the east, to Nanaimo in the west, there are to be found, in Montreal the imposing Bank of Commerce and the splendid Sun Life building, now nearing completion in Windsor Square, may be mentioned; in Winnipeg the Bank of Nova Scotia, the Imperial Bank, and the Bank of Commerce; in Vancouver the Bank of Commerce, and in Toronto the Dominion Bank, the C.P.R. building, the Standard Bank, the Bank of Nova Scotia, and the Union Bank. In Kingston, Jamaica, the Bank of Nova Scotia is another example of his art.

Mr. Darling is said to prefer among his various creations the head office of the Ontario Mutual Life Association at Waterloo. It lies half way between Waterloo and Berlin, in a tract of ten and a half acres, and is designed after the traditional old English country house. Innovations of this kind in business are becoming popular, and as far as the transaction of business is concerned there are many businesses and industries which could be carried on quite as well in the fresh air and beautiful surroundings of the open country as in the crowded streets, and there would be more money to be spent on the building and less on land. The Ontario Mutual is laid out with green lawns and tennis courts and other charming features.

Mr. Darling has not done much in residential or domestic architecture, but the Flavells and Christie houses in Queen's Park are notable examples. He is architect of the university, and is responsible for the Convocation Hall and the new library, and he has also prepared the designs for the new Trinity College on Hoskin avenue. Those who have seen these expect the new building to become pre-eminent among the many beautiful structures that have recently been added to our collegiate precincts. The new college reproduces in some degree the facade of the old building on Queen street, but only as a reminiscence and a reminder. The fine tower that dominates the two quadrangles, and the exquisite chapel and other features recall the glorious cloisters of Oxford and Cambridge, and may last as long as the oldest of them and grow gray with the history of Canada.

These are great achievements for Toronto, and Canada has reason to be proud of one who was born 11 miles away in Scarborough Village, and grew up in the shadow of Trinity itself. Not Mr. Darling only may rejoice in the award of the Royal Gold Medal of the Royal Institute of British Architects.

The Call For Gold

During the piping times of peace and year after year the so-called balance of trade was against the United Kingdom—in 1913 the value of its imports exceeded that of its exports by roughly $1,200,000,000. This, however, was not a loss but a gain, the excess representing the toll levied by the British Isles all over the world in the shape of interest on their vast empire and foreign loans, freight and charges earned by their merchant fleets and profits gained on their external enterprises and undertakings. Under normal circumstances London is the international clearing house and the controller of international exchange.

The war has dislocated the intricate mechanism that enables the trade of the world to be conducted on a comparatively small reserve of gold. Millions of men have been withdrawn from European workshops, and those who are still retained are occupied mainly in the production of guns, munitions and necessary supplies required for the armies in the field and under training. Not only this but the belligerent nations are feverishly buying what they still need from neutral countries, among which the United States is the only one of real importance. They cannot pay by exports, they will not reduce their reserves of gold, and in order to discharge their obligations they must either raise loans in New York or obtain securities that can be sold on this side or used as collateral to secure bank advances.

The British Empire supplies about 60 per cent. of the world's annual production of gold, and there never

LIBERALS AGREED FOR BIG SUM TO DROP ELECTION PROTESTS AND PROBE BY COMMISSION

Sensational Charges Made Before Winnipeg Graft Investigation by Conservative Members of Old and New Governments.

Special to The Toronto World. WINNIPEG, June 21.—F. C. Fullerton, K.C. of Winnipeg, laid charges before the royal commission of investigation into political corruption in Manitoba that the two political parties of the province had made an agreement for the government to pay $50,000 to the opposition for the dropping of all election petitions. Mr. Fullerton said that he represented 14 members of the legislature, and he further charged that earlier this year the old government and certain members of the present government had agreed to drop the investigation and to institute civil action against Thomas Kelly and Sons.

Mr. Fullerton presented his charges in the form of a petition from 14 members of the Conservative party. He referred to the rumors of collusion between the old and the new cabinet, and said that as the people of the province were concerned to know whether there was any truth in these rumors he appeared to present evidence which would establish that the rumor was well founded. He was prepared to prove the following facts: 1. That some months prior to the last session of the legislature the $50,000 agreement was signed.

was a time when the international medium of exchange was so urgently required for imperial purposes. It is the bounden duty of every one of the British states with gold deposits that can be worked at a profit to increase its production and aid in extending the industry. Nowhere should that duty be more strongly undertaken and discharged than here in Ontario. The Porcupine field today is one of the most promising in the world, its production last year totaling in value $5,203,223. As there is every warrant for the belief that the whole district is highly mineralized, it is well worth systematic exploration.

As gold is rising in commodity value on this side with prospect of further and holding increases, a more vigorous policy of industrial expansion in this direction would be well rewarded.

Manitoba

We need not condone any misconduct, if misconduct there has been, on the part of Sir Rodmond Roblin and his associates. Neither are we called upon to ignore any improper conduct, if improper conduct there has been, on the part of Premier Norris and his associates. All we want is to have the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

If politicians of both parties are unworthy of confidence, let the people of Manitoba put in a clean, honest government on national rather than party lines—a government strong enough to live without corporate deals or crooked contractors.

ALSACE AND LORRAINE.

Lost French Provinces Will Return Under Tricolor.

Steadily pushing a strong salient deeper into the one-time French Province of Lorraine, the French troops have forced the Germans from all unfortified positions and are equipping to engage the defenses of the largest cities in this part of the German Empire, where they are hailed with the highest enthusiasm by the populace, whom the Germans have never succeeded in transmitting into Germany since its occupation in 1870.

South Albany, where he is apparently expecting to return and on more to be a part of the lands under the tricolor when the terms of surrender have been dictated at Berlin by the allies.

The French love of their fatherland and their flag is marked by the same devotion as the Canadian love of home, and the Union Jack and French flags long under the ban in Lorraine, are breaking forth from the windows of the homes of the loyal quite as the Union Jack is seen flying from almost every patriotic home in this city.

The Union Jacks one sees everywhere are being supplied to readers of The World, as set forth on another page of today's issue on practically gift terms. The issue is of high grade bunting, fast-colored, equipped with brass-ferrule jointed pole, ball and halcyon, and window socket, all ready to put up with but a moment's effort. Turn to another page and read how easy it is to secure a flag for your home today, at 40 West Richmond street, Toronto, or 15 East Main street, Hamilton, and get yours.

2. That early in May the agreement was made for the old government to resign on condition that the new government should elect by the terms of resignation, that the royal commission should be dropped, that the $25,000 due on the agreement for calling for the election protests should be paid on dissolution of the commission, and that the members of the government should resign from the house and their places be taken by the new government.

The government resigned, its letter of resignation was dictated by a prominent member of the present government, and the royal commission was to wind up the enquiry, but public opinion forced it to go on.

Mr. Fullerton said that he had witnessed the agreement and that the members of the government should be equally corrupt in buying their way out. The former government is clearly and absolutely repudiated. The petitioners unanimously demand a floor cleanup of the political field in Manitoba.

Members Decided on Probe. Mr. Fullerton was engaged as counsel at a meeting of Conservative members last Friday and instructed to act on the evidence placed at his disposal. It is practically charged that the Conservative party in Manitoba was sold out by its leaders and that the present government was equally corrupt in buying their way out.

The former government is clearly and absolutely repudiated. The petitioners unanimously demand a floor cleanup of the political field in Manitoba.

Chief Justice Mathers said that the commission as constituted should take no action on the charge and it would be necessary either to have a new commission appointed, or to have the powers of the present commission enlarged.

The Specific Charges. The specific charges follow: "1. Some months prior to the last sitting of the house an agreement was made between the late government and the then opposition whereby in consideration of the payment by the late government to the then opposition of the sum of $50,000 all election protests were to be withdrawn.

2. Early in May, 1915, an agreement was made between members of the late government and certain gentlemen who occupy cabinet positions in the present government and certain parties interested in the present inquiry that the late government should resign and hand over the reins of office to the present government on the following conditions:

(A)—That the parties to the contract representing the Liberal party should be permitted to dictate the form of letter of resignation of the premier.

(B)—That proceedings before the royal commission should be stopped and a civil action brought against Kelly.

(C)—That the balance of $25,000 due under the agreement for calling off the election petitions should be paid over upon dissolution of the commission.

(D)—That the members of the late government should resign and their places be taken by Liberal members who should be returned unopposed.

Hudson Denies Charges. Hon. A. B. Hudson, attorney-general, promptly denied the charges of the new government corruptly agreeing with the old government as presented by Mr. Fullerton. He said that there never was any agreement entered into by members of the late government and members of the present one so far as he knew. There was no understanding as to the stopping of the enquiry by the royal commission against Kelly was promised; no money was mentioned when the present government discussed the procedure to be followed. The charge about the $50,000 transaction, he said, was an absolute falsehood.

RUSSIANS IN NEED OF WAR SUPPLIES

Correspondent Says They Lack Ammunition, Artillery, Rifles, Powder. GERMAN SPIES ACTIVE

Number of Magazine and Ammunition Depots Blown Up by Enemy.

NEW YORK, June 20.—John F. Bass, an American war correspondent who has been with the Russian army in the east since last August, returned today on the American liner New York on his way back to Chicago.

"The Russian army," said Mr. Bass, "is short of ammunition, artillery, rifles and powder, which is chiefly due to a number of their magazines and ammunition depots in Russia having been blown up by German spies. One of the largest depots was at Petrograd. The Germans have a regular system of espionage in Russia, and some of the spies are officers in the Russian army, who are of German descent or German born. One of these spies was hanged at Warsaw while I was there. There was also a great deal of German influence in the Russian court, thru which the spies obtained information of the movements of the army.

Can Lick Austrians. "If the Russian army can obtain plenty of ammunition, artillery and rifles, it can hold the Germans and lick the Austrians. I have seen a small army of 8,000 men drawn up in the rear of a battle line waiting to take the weapons and ammunition of those who were either killed or put out of action."

CAMERONIA LANDED MUNITIONS SUPPLIES

Cunard Liner Ran Gauntlet of German Submarines in Safety.

LONDON, June 21.—The Cunard liner Cameronia arrived safely at Liverpool yesterday and docked. The Cameronia carried large supplies of war munitions. Because of the renewed activities of German submarines, it was feared a serious attempt would be made to send her to the bottom.

ENGLISHMAN SLAIN BY YAQUI INDIANS. U. S. Bluejackets and Marines May Land on Mexican Coast.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—John Jamieson, Britisher, was killed by Yaqui Indians, at Mochis, west coast of Mexico, and Gen. Masterson's first troop train was attacked and destroyed by the Indians with the loss of 40 Yaqui soldiers in dead, wounded, and missing, according to state department advices this afternoon.

The Englishman fell during a general attack on Mochis, which was sacked later. It was believed the death of a foreigner would mean orders by the navy department to Admiral Howard to land bluejackets and marines.

RAWA RUSKA IN GERMANS' HANDS?

Berlin Announces Town Thirty-Two Miles From Lemberg Taken. KAISER SAW BATTLE

Drive on Lemberg Being Apparently Staged for His Benefit.

BERLIN, June 21, via London.—Emperor William, it was officially announced by the German war department today, was present at the battle of Beskid for possession of the Grodek line. These Russian positions are to the west of Lemberg, the Galician capital.

A further success in the Austro-German drive at the Galician capital of Lemberg was announced today by the war office. The statement says that the town of Rawa Ruska, 32 miles northwest of Lemberg, has been captured from the Russians.

The capture of Rawa Ruska by the Austro-Germans cut the most important line of communication leading from Lemberg into Poland, and is another step in Gen. Mackensen's effort to encircle the Galician capital.

To See Lemberg's Fall. Lemberg is expected to fall before the eyes of the Kaiser. The Russians are preparing to evacuate the city.

A despatch from Peremyshl early today stated that Austrian regiments are storming the last line of Russian defenses on a ridge eleven miles from the city and that Austrian shells are falling in the western suburb of the Galician capital.

JAPANESE LINER HIT BY A ZEPPELIN BOMB

Damage Also Done at Gravesend and Tilbury in Recent Raid.

LONDON, June 21.—The Zeppelin raiders who visited the east coast of England on the night of June 6, causing the death of five persons and the injury of 40 others, were turned back at Woodford, eight miles from the heart of London. On their homeward journey they did considerable damage to the Town of Gravesend and to shipping in Tilbury. An explosive bomb struck the Japanese liner Yawaka Maru, and the stern and rear superstructure were damaged severely. None of the crew was injured by the bomb. The liner was not due sail for two weeks and only a few of the sailors were on board.

A number of small craft anchored near the liner were struck by pellets from the bomb but were not badly damaged.

It is hard to realize it, but this is the sort of thing our own men have taken part in. The Grens, the Queen's Own, the Highlanders, the Body Guard—have gone through scenes like these. Come and see it if you would appreciate their valor and their sacrifice.
