HUMORS OF HISTORY---114.

What Tyler at Mile End. A. D. 1377.

The poll tax was the cause of a rising in Essex and Kent. Sixty thousand men roughly armed, led by Wat Tyler, marched on London. The young King met the rioters at Mile-end and granted their demands, one of which was that the rent of land should be enforced an acre; but next day the King held a conference in Smithfield with Tyler, who had 20,000 men with him. The rebel leader, happening to lay his hand on his dagger, was stabbed by Watworth, the Lord Mayor. The death of Tyler put an end to the rising, and though pardon was granted fifteen hundred rebels were gibbeted.

It was my first visit to the scene of the crime—a high, dainty, narrow-chested house, prim, formal, and solid, like the century which gave it birth.

LIQUOR LICENSE FEES SHOULD BE HIGHER

So Says Mayor Urquhart of Toronto—Would Make the Fee $1,500—Controller Spence Would Make It $2,000—A Clergyman's View.

(Toronto News.) In the opinion of many thinking temperance men, total prohibition is such a remote prospect, that an effort should be made forthwith to try a more drastic method of higher license fees.

Where Power Lies There was a time when the Municipal Council, in their discretion, could fix the amount of license fee to be paid by the license-holders of the respective municipalities.

City's Proposition The clause in the liquor license act respecting the proportion of the revenue obtained from liquor licenses is very ambiguous.

Should be Changed This method of dividing the spoils is not satisfactory to the municipal authorities.

ENGLAND'S PAUPERS

A Great Increase of Able Bred Unemployed.

(From the London Mail.) On the first day of this year 932,267 persons were in receipt of poor law relief in England and Wales.

Favors an Increase "I am certainly in favor of an increase in the license fee, so long as we have to put up with the liquor traffic," said the mayor.

Make It $2000 Controller F. S. Spence, editor of The Pioneer, the temperance weekly, is of the opinion that the license fee should be at least $2,000.

THE STOCK MARKET

There is No Haste To Sell, Because the Conditions Appear to Be Favorable For a Continued High Range of Values.

As to the future course of stock market prices, as pointed out in the Commercial Advertiser, the question of the price level, which is in fact the question of the level of the stock price, is not a question of the level of the stock price, but a question of the level of the stock price...

INVESTORS AND THE HARVEST

When the Outside Public is Influenced by a Large Grain Yield.

A rather familiar tradition undoubtedly exists, to the effect that "the public" vote habitually, before re-entering the market until the harvest is virtually assured. Whether this was the cause or not, it is certainly true that the late summer months were the period when, in good years, the investor made his appearance in force.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The week in pig iron opened with a surprising amount of business, considering the dullness during the last few days, and what is more surprising a drier feeling. HELPING THE BOYS

The government of Hamilton Fish Park, on the lower East Side, in New York, is to be turned over to the boys, who will next week elect a mayor, chief of police and street commissioner.

THE TALE OF TWO CITIES

The Times yesterday referred to the state of affairs in New York city, which, according to District Attorney Jerome, is "under the domination of a little group of men who, if they do not isolate the penal code of the State of New York, at least show that their political activity uniformly and continuously agrees with an interest in the personal wealth."

The yellow fever in New Orleans has claimed one distinguished victim in the person of Archbishop Chappelle. The archbishop had just set himself to the task of laboring with others to stamp out the fever when he was himself attacked, and after an illness lasting only since Friday, he passed away last night.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson received in Charlottetown a foretaste of what he may expect in his efforts to economize on the L. C. R. He was asked to locate a station where the additional cost would be half a million; was asked to reduce passenger rates, extend the rail along the water front, increase the train service, construct some branch lines, provide a car ferry, broaden the gauge and make some other improvements.

One firm state that they have already spent $10,000 of their own money on the waterworks extension. If in the end it is shown that they have lost heavily on their contract the city will naturally be asked to reimburse them. The aldermen say they are kindly disposed, but if any such payment is made it must not be called an "extra." The distinction, however, will not affect the dollars.

The water board may as well consider itself in continuous session. Its troubles are daily growing.

SAN TOY COMING

"San Toy" hardly requires a word said about it. Its name and music are known to every theatre-goer in the country, and its appearance here on Aug. 16, 17 and 18 will be welcome news. There is hardly any doubt but that this attraction will be one of the most important to appear here this season. The company numbers more than fifty people, which besides the well known principals comprises a chorus of pretty girls, who have been chosen as much for their voices as for their beauty, and who dance and sing like hours in a Turk's dream of paradise. There are 24 musical numbers, which have the ring of originality. "San Toy" is amusing to the highest degree, and its humor is of the kind that will make people uncheck their risibles without fear of bruising their dignity. The story is bright as to lines and with an aggregate indelicacy.

of more than $10,000,000, with more than $12,000,000 of corporate property to show for it, there are heavy interest charges to be met from a ratable valuation of about $2,000,000. If the tax rate has not exceeded 8 mills, it is because the three principal municipal industries—tramways, water and gas—yield an annual profit of $96,108 for the relief of local taxation after ample provision has been made for deterioration of plant, interest charges and payments to sinking funds. The most remunerative of these is the electric tramway service, which in the last year has contributed a net surplus of $32,000 to the rates. This has been done with an average penny fare from more than 90,000,000 passengers for the year, and with expenditures to the mileage by new constructions and additions to the electrical equipment. The town corporation owns the electric works and manages the tramways; and apart from providing cheap and rapid transit and from connecting the suburbs and improving the outlying area in a symmetrical way, it has converted the service into a considerable source of revenue, with the prospect of gradually enlarging it as the interest charges are lowered by the operation of sinking funds. The gas and water supplies are also remunerative services of increasing value. Electric lighting does not yet yield a surplus for the relief of the rates, but will probably do so in the course of a few years, being already self-sustaining. "The feature of municipal administration which invariably impresses me when I am in the cities of the Midlands, Yorkshire or Lancashire, is the conservative way of carrying out radical, progressive policies. The municipalities have made daring experiments in collectivism, but so deliberate and cautious have been the processes that the results seem practical and businesslike rather than socialistic. The unsalaried counsils, with their methodical habits and disinterested labors, impart their own character to municipal trading and operations, and especially in reducing surpluses by writing off large amounts for depreciation of plant, as these municipal councilmen. Ordinary directors are anxious to increase dividends and to make a good showing as possible in their annual or quarterly reports. The municipal managers are satisfied with moderate contributions to the rates and are always on the safe side in their exhibits of the results of local enterprises."

Compared with the government of such cities as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and others that have lately been under the lime light, this picture of the conditions in English centres is in remarkable contrast. Manifestly, the United States has still something to learn from the old country.

The yellow fever in New Orleans has claimed one distinguished victim in the person of Archbishop Chappelle. The archbishop had just set himself to the task of laboring with others to stamp out the fever when he was himself attacked, and after an illness lasting only since Friday, he passed away last night. The situation generally has not improved, and there is an increase in the number of deaths as well as of cases. But the fact that the federal authorities have assumed control, while it indicates the seriousness of the conditions, is also a guarantee that the most effective methods will be adopted to check the ravages of the disease.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson received in Charlottetown a foretaste of what he may expect in his efforts to economize on the L. C. R. He was asked to locate a station where the additional cost would be half a million; was asked to reduce passenger rates, extend the rail along the water front, increase the train service, construct some branch lines, provide a car ferry, broaden the gauge and make some other improvements. The minister's troubles have had a break beginning.

One firm state that they have already spent $10,000 of their own money on the waterworks extension. If in the end it is shown that they have lost heavily on their contract the city will naturally be asked to reimburse them. The aldermen say they are kindly disposed, but if any such payment is made it must not be called an "extra." The distinction, however, will not affect the dollars.

FR. O'BRYAN CHOSEN

Rev. Father Gregory O'Bryan, S.M., a learned priest and powerful preacher, has been appointed as the head of affairs at Loyola College, Montreal, in succession to Father Turgeon, S. J., who goes out of office to engage in missionary work in the Northwest. Father O'Bryan was one of the small band who gave the first formation to the college and he is fortunate in having on the teaching staff one of his original associates—the Rev. Father L. Cotter, S. J., who is a favorite with the students of the college and a most successful teacher.

Father O'Bryan is a son of the late Captain O'Bryan, of Halifax, N. S., and brother-in-law of Judge Wallace of that city. He received his early education in the excellent schools of his native city. He has long been known as an eloquent preacher and well-informed scholar.—Moncton Star.

MIDSUMMER COMFORT

Those who have found the summer vacation problem a difficult one, from the standpoint of economy, will find some practical suggestions in the chapter on "Cooperative Housekeeping at the Seaside" by Isabel Gordon Curtis, in the August Delicieux. The matter is gone into in detail, and facts and figures demonstrate the advantage of the scheme. Other features of the magazine, which appear particularly during the hot weather, are "Cold Tit-Bits for Hot Days," pictured recipes in cookery under the title, "A Dozen Fresh Fruit Pies," "Tartlets and Food Delicieux." Summer fashions and reading complete the number, which is unusually interesting and attractive.

WATER FAMINE THREATENED Supt. Murdoch Says That Unless the Water in the Reservoir Is Raised the City Will Run Short--Interesting Meeting of Water and Sewerage Board.

The water and sewerage board discovered yesterday that unless steps are at once taken to raise the water in the reservoir the city will be without a supply in a few days. This condition is due to the water in Lake Latimer not having been drawn upon as usual, as the stream would flood the work of the contractors. Mr. Barbour and the city officials now have the matter in hand with power to act. Communications from the contractors in reply to Mr. Barbour's report were considered, and after a long discussion they were left to the engineer to answer at a further meeting on Friday. The mayor occupied the chair and Ald. Lewis, Tilley, Holder, Bullock, Sprout, McArthur, Hamlin, Frink, Christie, MacRae, Vanwart, Baxter, McGoldrick and Pickett were present with Engineers Barbour and Hunter, the superintendent, the directors, the common clerk and the contractors. The board discussed in private certain questions relating to payments to H. Crawford, the contractor. Superintendent Murdoch asked for instructions as to the rate of wages to be paid the men previously employed by J. A. Weston on the contract for laying pipes on Cranston avenue. Mr. Murdoch resigned his contract and is now employed as foreman by the city. Mr. Murdoch said the rate paid by the city is $1.40 per day which was less than Mr. Weston had been paying. The rate was fixed at the time of the laborers' strike and had been since achieved. Ald. Tilley thought it was impossible to get men for that class of work at less than $1.30 or $1.25. Ald. Christie believed any amount of labor could be obtained at the lower rate. He referred to the recent shutting down of the mills, and said he knew numbers of men in the North End who were idle at the present time. The matter was left in the hands of the superintendent and director. The chairman after calling attention to the special object of the meeting, asked the common clerk to read the communications from the contractor. The statement of B. Mooney & Sons, contractors on sections 3 and 4, referred to the unforeseen obstacles which had arisen, and to the extra machinery and pumps which the firm had obtained before the engineer's report. Mention was made of the necessity of lowering Lake Latimer to complete the tunnel, and the extra expense which would be incurred if accomplished by Aug. 15. More men were to be employed on section 4 and a concrete mixer had been purchased. The contract was greater the firm would complete their work within contract time. Mr. Barbour replied that the contract on section 3 could be completed without lowering the lake, but the cost would be doubled. It would be necessary to construct a coffer dam. He wished the board to understand that no guarantee was given. Mooney thought the lake would be lowered, but in the contract with Messrs. McArthur and McVey it was stated that the lake should be lowered by Aug. 15. Ald. Frink asked if it would not be possible to drain the lake from the southern side down Edmund's Brook. Mr. Hunter said the matter had been considered, but the expense would be very great, at least $200,000. Mr. Murdoch estimated the distance at a quarter of a mile. Considering the cost of the work, he said he would draw the board's attention to a very important matter; if the water is not released from Lake Latimer this week the city will run short. Ald. Frink—"If the city is going short of water, the lake must be lowered, how was it this not anticipated when the contract was drawn. Has the sluice way been destroyed?" Mr. McVey—"It has been cut but can be repaired." Ald. McGoldrick moved that the reports should go to a committee of three or five with the mayor to report back. With reference to the borings brought in by gentlemen who made them should be held responsible. They evidently had no idea of the cost of the borings. Ald. Christie—"I am opposed to a committee on a big work such as this when every alderman is responsible." On an amendment of the report of Messrs. Mooney was filed. The statement of Messrs. McArthur & McVey on sections 1 and 2 was to the effect that on No. 1 section the substitution of California red wood for Douglas fir had caused a delay in delivery of 30 days, and in consequence even had section 2 been completed section 1 would not now be ready. It had also been necessary at the start to open up a mile of trench on section 2 to get gravel. Speaking of the different formations which had been found, they claimed that instead of mud and gravel they had found ledge which had been a great drawback. An estimate of 200 cubic yards of rock had been given them, but they had stripped nearly 4,000 cubic yards. Four steam drills had been at work and two more had arrived, but they had been handicapped for want of competent men. As regards the strictures of the engineer that 500 feet of sheeting from Ellersley Brook was unnecessary, they claimed it was required to keep up the sides of the trench which would have fallen in after the four days' rain which they experienced. There were two feet of snow on the ground when the contractors went out over the line with the engineer. He pointed out the location of mud and gravel but made no mention of rock. The delay was due to the large amount of ledge met with. This had called for large purchases of lumber, steam pumps and drills besides a great expense for coal. They had now ordered more men and machinery. They wished that the matter should be left to the mayor and a small committee with the engineer. Mr. Barbour being asked to reply, said there was no question different material had been met with, the greater portion of which was rock. Between Lake Latimer and near the edge of the dry lake no test pits were shown on the plan and it was pointed out to the contractors that test pits only applied to the spot where they were sunk. Continuing, Mr. Barbour said while there was more ledge than estimated, contractors accustomed to that class of work would have recognized that it was necessary to charge more than usual. He did not think the contractors had suffered any damage from meeting rock. The work would be slow but it was better than soft material. Ald. Christie—"Is it your habit to point out water and rock?" Mr. Barbour—"Just as far as we can." Ald. Christie—"Was the site of the dam changed?" Mr. Barbour—"No sir." Ald. Christie—"Did you have the plans sent to Boston to make any change?" Mr. Barbour—"No sir."

HUMPHREY IS SORE

Man Who Battled for Life With the Reversible Falls Still Feels the Effects. Harding Humphrey, who so narrowly escaped drowning in the Falls Tuesday evening, was in bed and very weak last evening. He says he is sore all over. His limbs are greatly swollen and he complains of his lungs being in a weak state. "I was almost torn apart," he said, "and it is a wonder that I really lived when taken out of the water." Mr. Humphrey says that a deal struck him with grief in the stomach, and he feels the effects of the blow. "Why I went down three or four times while I had the car," he continued, "and the only reason I got out of the water is that I handled the car. As I felt myself going down feet foremost, I would have been carried between my legs, then as I went backwards I banged the car to the back of my neck, and when going head foremost I placed the car under my chin." Mr. Humphrey thinks it will be some days before he will be able to get about.

HEART INTEREST IN PLAYS

Although the great rural drama "Quincy Adams Sawyer" is generally spoken of by the press and public as a play of some, adrepting humor, it is not to this pleasing characteristic that its tremendous popular success can be ascribed, there have been many plays before, but they did not crowd the biggest throngs of the country for weeks, seasons at a time. Beneath the joviality and mirth of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" lies what playwrights and theatrical managers are accustomed to characterize rather bluntly as "heart interest."

CHARLOTTETOWN'S RAILWAY STATION

Hon. H. R. Emmerson Examines the Sites Proposed For It, and Will Consider.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 9.—(Special)—Several years ago an amount of $30,000 was placed in the dominion estimate for a new railway station at Charlottetown. Owing to disagreement of the people as to the site the station has not been built, as the railway people were not willing to expend an amount of a certain central site demanded, at the foot of Great George street.

The visit of the minister of railways, who personally examined today the various sites in question, will result in a site being definitely determined. A meeting of the board of directors of the P. E. I. Railway was held this morning at which the whole matter was thrashed out.

Other facilities were asked for at the meeting such as rearrangement of railway yard, another train to Summerside, a branch line from Parnace to Tormentine, a cat ferry across the Straits to Cape Traverse and broadening of the gauge from three to four feet. The minister made no definite promise in the matter of any of which will be referred to the proper officials.

HOW BOOK PLAYS DIFFER

Some of the Recent Failures in Them Contrasted With a Success.

At there are good pens and bad, so are there book plays that merit and receive success to which others are not entitled. The failure of "Lady Rose's Daughter," Mrs. Humphrey Ward's famous novel, to bloom satisfactorily when transplanted to the stage, is a case in point.

THE ORURO TOWED OFF

She Is Apparently None the Worse for Her Rest on the Mussel Beds. The steamer Oruro was towed off the mussel beds near the foul ground today at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the tug Lord Kitchener and Lord Wolsey, and was berthed at the Corporation pier, where she is now discharging. Captain Seely stated to the Times this morning that the vessel will proceed to Halifax as soon as she discharges her St. John freight, where she will be put on the dry dock for examination. The vessel is perfectly tight, and the only probable damage is that one blade of her propeller is thought to be broken off. No diver's examination will be made here. Captain Seely thinks that the hull of the vessel is all right because there is no apparent leakage.
