ENEMY PRESSES AHEAD; HAS CROSSED TAGLIAMENTO RIVER

Austro-German Drive Against Italian
Northern Wing More Powerful — Intense Activity in the Gulf of Trieste

Rome, Nov. 5.—The Germans have crossed the Tagliamento river. The war office announces this. The Austro-German pressure against the Italian northern wing has been intensified. The announcement follows: "The enemy, who has succeeded in bringing some of his forces on to the right bank of the Tagliamento, north of Pizzano, has intensified his pressure against the left wing of our line."

SAY 6,000 PRISONERS

Berlin, Nov. 5, via London.—Austro-German troops have crossed the middle Tagliamento river in northeastern Italy and taken 6,000 prisoners and some guns. The war office reports this. They are advancing toward the west.

In the Adriatic

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.) A naval bulletin last night referred to intense activity in the Gulf of Trieste. In this connection it may be pointed out that while attention is chiefly fixed on the two land fronts, in Venezia and the Trentino, yet the authorities are not overlooking the fact that the navy has a sea front on the Adriatic which many experts believe is the key to the whole situation in the Austro-Italian war theatre.

This front has undergone a sweeping change within the last few days, as the withdrawal of the Italian army to the new front west of the Tagliamento river brings the enemy into a long stretch of the upper Adriatic extending along the Gulf of Trieste from Monfalcone to the mouth of the Tagliamento.

The chief reliance of the Austrian navy is in keeping its big ships under cover. Once the Austrian fleet is destroyed, it is pointed out, Austria loses the Adriatic, and the sea front of the Italian army disappears, as the whole range of the coast, including Trieste, would be under control of the Italian and other Entente fleets.

Italian Report
Rome, Nov. 5.—"On Saturday night and Sunday our airplanes and airships effectively bombed hostile troops in the basins of Caporetto and Tolmino and along the left bank of the Tagliamento. On Saturday, in addition to the two machines mentioned yesterday, our aviators brought down three enemy airplanes. One fell in the vicinity of Caporetto and the other two near the Cellon at Gradis."

FREDERICTON SOLDIER
WOUNDED; BROTHER ALSO WAS IN CASUALTY LIST

Fredricton, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Bedford Phillips of this city this morning received official word from Ottawa to the effect that her son Clarence Edgecombe, who had been wounded and was in hospital, had been killed. He was serving with the 58th howitzer battery under Major Fisher of St. John. He was ranked as sergeant major at the time of his departure. Previous to enlistment he was attending the U. N. B. private Allison Edgecombe, who is undergoing treatment at the River Glade Sanitarium, is a brother. He also was wounded in France while with a western infantry battalion.

THE ROTARY CLUB

The Rotary Club had a varied programme today. The five Civil War Veterans who are at the Opera House were guests and favored the club with a number of musical selections. A. E. Blake, chemist at the sugar refinery, gave a most interesting talk on chemistry and the war, referring especially to dyes, and he made a number of experiments to illustrate his remarks. After the luncheon many staid to look over the chemicals and saw further information.

Private Allison Edgecombe, who is undergoing treatment at the River Glade Sanitarium, is a brother. He also was wounded in France while with a western infantry battalion.

SHELL ORDERS HERE FROM UNITED STATES

Montreal, Nov. 5.—The Gazette says it is understood that H. J. Fuller, of the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Company, is to have charge of the New York end of the new business in connection with shell orders which Canadian manufacturers expect to receive from the United States to the amount of about $50,000,000. Recent negotiations, which have taken Sir Joseph Flavelle, chairman of the Imperial Munitions Board, and some prominent manufacturers to Washington are said to have been successfully concluded, and an official announcement may be expected from Ottawa soon.

Hungary Now Threatened With Another Cabinet Crisis

Amsterdam, Nov. 5.—Another cabinet crisis is threatened in Hungary owing to the intention of Dr. Wekerle, the premier and minister of finance, to introduce in parliament new budget proposals before submitting a franchise reform measure. The parties led by Count Andrássy and Count Karolyi both oppose the premier's programme and Count Karolyi threatens to leave the government party unless Dr. Wekerle puts franchise reform first. Count Karolyi has gone to Vienna to consult Emperor Charles concerning the matter.

TO LEGISLATURE
IF THE POWER CO.
WON'T AGREE

Council To Deal With Track
Section Upkeep

RECOMMENDATION ADOPTED
Company Again to Be Asked to Assume Interest and Sinking Fund for Permanent Pavements in Track Sections — Routine Matters Discussed

Another appeal will be made by the common council to the N. B. Power Co. for co-operation in the maintenance of permanent paving in track sections in the city streets. If this fails the city will appeal to the legislature. This is declared necessary on account of the expiration of the present agreement in 1923 and the need for providing beyond that date.

This was decided on at a meeting of the common council committee this morning after consideration of a report submitted by Commissioner Fisher. Other matters dealt with were of a routine nature.

The mayor presided and all members of the council were present. Commissioner Fisher's report was as follows: "Your commissioner begs leave to submit some figures with respect to an obstacle which exists in the way of paving several of our principal heavy traffic streets. The present agreement, reported to the council in July and being a lack of co-operation by the N. B. Power Company with regard to arranging bond payments for the cost of permanent pavements laid previous to that date, the date of the expiration of the existing agreement or street maintenance and snow removal.

These figures appear to demonstrate the absolute necessity for instruction being made with the company for taking care of the payments referred to in the report applying to the legislative authority to collect the amount. (Continued on page 2, sixth column.)

PAYS $10,000 FOR A SHETLAND PONY
New York, Nov. 5.—Sale of King Larigo for $10,000, said to be the highest price ever paid for a Shetland pony, was announced here today. The purchaser, James J. Brady, of Gladstone, N. J., will enter the pony, a diminutive stallion, which holds more than 20 blue ribbons, in the national horse show here next week.

SHARP CORN ADVANCES
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Sharp advances in the corn market today resulted from government announcements virtually setting a minimum price on corn—$15.50 a hundred weight.

It was contended that such a minimum meant $1.20 a bushel for corn fed on the farm, and therefore meant a much higher level than has recently been paid for future deliveries at terminal markets. The action of the government regarding hog values and traders to ignore fresh weakness in Wall street. Opening quotations, which ranged from the same as Saturday's finish to 1-8 cents higher, with December 115 3/4 to 116 and May 110 to 111, were followed by a decided jump all around.

RAILROAD ADVANCE CASE
Washington, Nov. 5.—The reopening of the fifteen per cent. rate advance case before the interstate commerce commission today was marked by claims of counsel of eastern railroads that transportation facilities and financial stability of the roads are menaced by prevailing rates.

Attorney Patterson declared that, while gross earnings for the nine months of the present year had risen $124,780,000, a loss of $57,891,000 resulted from a corresponding advance of $168,481,000 in expenses.

TO TRY CASE TOMORROW
A case against Esther Henderson, charged with being the proprietor of a disorderly house, and an elderly man charged with being an inmate, was postponed until tomorrow morning. The two small children of Mrs. Henderson were taken care of at the police station. One of them had a bad cut on his foot and was taken to the hospital for treatment. The younger boy was taken to St. Vincent's infant home.

Huns Force Belgian Girls
And Women to War Work
Under Artillery Fire

British Front in Belgium, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Belgian women and girls are being compelled to build concrete dugouts under artillery fire. The statement that this form of slavery has actually been practised is recorded in the diary of a German soldier who was recently captured.

An illustration of the German disregard for the laws of war and humanity can be found in an incident which occurred the other night near Houtholst Forest. The British heard cries of "stretcher bearers" from No Man's Land. It naturally was assumed that a wounded man was calling for help, and Red Cross bearers rushed out through the darkness to render assistance. They were shot down by German snipers, who used this ruse to entice them into the open.

Comments on Manifesto
Of Sir Wilfrid Laurier

London, Ont., Nov. 5.—Commenting on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's policy, the Advertiser says: "Sir Wilfrid's statement is a broad policy, looking to the unity of this country in war time and dealing fearlessly with every vital issue that concerns the people as a whole. The real merit of the policy as compared with the attitude of bones of old repeated promises, is the rallying cry for a united Canada that should with renewed strength guard its heritage abroad and at home as well. This great manifesto should be digested by the people, considered as a whole, and Sir Wilfrid given the faith of the nation as to his sincerity shown by his record before and since the war began."

NEWFOUNDLAND
LIGHTS UP AGAIN
Restrictions Removed As Winter
Approach Has Removed Danger

St. Johns, Nfld., Nov. 5.—Lighting regulations which have been enforced as a war measure in Newfoundland for several months, have been abrogated. The authorities believe that the near approach of winter, with its frequent storms along the coast of the colony, makes imprudent any visit from enemy war vessels for the next six months.

Ontario's Gold Output
Toronto, Nov. 5.—The Globe despatch says: Taking into consideration the facts and figures at hand, it would appear reasonable to estimate the aggregate yield of silver and gold from the Northern Ontario this year close to $90,710,000.

Political News From Various Parts of the Dominion—Some For Union, Some Against
Toronto, Nov. 5.—Hon. G. P. Graham will contest an Ontario constituency at the forthcoming general election. Mr. Graham arrived in the city last night, and when asked if there was any foundation for the suggestion that he was to become a member of the prospective Canadian Northern management board, declared that so long as the war lasted his duty lay in another direction.

Ottawa Journal Criticisms
Ottawa, Nov. 5.—This morning's Journal urges that "a little more caution should be exercised by some Liberal members of the cabinet in speaking of the past conduct of the war by their Conservative colleagues. Particular reference is made by the Journal to speeches of Hon. F. B. Carroll, and General Newburn at the Hamilton convention. Referring to Mr. Carroll's statement that he "never went after a man unless he deserved attention," the Journal says: "This kind of talk is a poor service to union. It is poor service to union because it has a tendency to revive party prejudice and memories that are antagonistic to unity, because it is offensive to many Conservatives and it provides arguments and aids those elements who are working openly and secretly for the downfall of all that union stands for."

For West Kootenay
Nelson, B. C., Nov. 5.—R. F. Green, for years M. P. for Kootenay, has been nominated as a unionist government candidate for West Kootenay.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 5.—Rev. D. A. McEae of Cloverdale has been nominated by the Liberals of New Westminster for the House of Commons. The convention declined to declare themselves in support of either of the candidates. There are three candidates in the field, namely, Mr. McEae and T. Patterson, two straight Liberals, and J. B. Bardine, a unionist.

Will Not Accept Liberal
Windsor, Ont., Nov. 5.—There will be an election in North Essex, as Conservatives, meeting here on Saturday, declared they could not accept William Kennedy, the independent Liberal, as a fusion candidate. They called a convention for November 10 to select a candidate.

In Favor of Conventions
Regina, Sask., Nov. 5.—J. B. Musselman yesterday gave out a statement to the effect that the full board of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association at a meeting on Saturday, expressed unanimously its sympathy with the union government and pledged its support, but objected to the old-time political parties dividing the province so far as representation is concerned. Nominating conventions should have been opened, in the opinion of the board, for the people to choose whom they wished, regardless of their political affiliations.

Brantford Liberals
Brantford, Ont., Nov. 5.—Lloyd Harris, president of the Russell Motor Company, Toronto, was the unanimous choice of Brantford Liberals at a convention on Saturday. He will accept if the parties do not agree upon a fusion candidate. Mr. Harris was on Friday appointed to represent the imperial munitions board at Washington.

TRYING HARD FOR PEACE
Germany and Austria Helping In Berne Pacifist Conference

Washington, Nov. 5.—Germany and Austria are making strenuous efforts to further a pacifist conference to be held in Berne on November 12, to discuss a basis for an honorable peace, according to an official cablegram received here yesterday from Zurich, Switzerland.

Even the Swiss, the message said, regard this solicitude of the Central Powers for peace as in strange contrast to their recent declarations that they were entirely satisfied with their military status.

GERMANS USE ENDLESS CHAIN TO CLOG MAILS
New York, Nov. 5.—A German plot, apparently to clog the mails, both domestic and financial, is under investigation. The scheme calls for flooding the mails with millions of letters, each a link in one of a dozen or more chains. It is said to have originated in Boston.

GUY FAWKES DAY
Today, Nov. 5, is memorable in the annals of English history as Guy Fawkes Day, the felling of a plot to blow up the British house of parliament being the occasion of annual celebrations in the old country, and to a certain extent, throughout the empire. In St. John the occasion will be recognized by a gathering in the Orange hall.

Western Front Now Stretches From North Sea To The Adriatic
Washington, Nov. 5.—Great Britain, France and Italy stand firmly united in the Italian sector, says the war department's weekly review of military operations. The statement suggests that the Teutons probably thought Italy would be left to her fate or that the allies would be unable to dispatch the necessary forces in time, but declares that Great Britain and France already have sent large reinforcements and the western front today stretches from the North Sea to the Adriatic.

STEAMER'S FESTIVITIES STOPPED BY TORPEDO

'Veritania,' With Mary Pickford Aboard, a Wild Scene When Explosion Occurred

A marvelous achievement in stagecraft was accomplished in picturing the interior effect of a torpedo attack on an ocean liner in the Lasky-Paramount triumph, 'The Little American,' being shown at the Imperial tonight and Tuesday.

The set was built in an immense water tank measuring 50 x 100 feet and showed the wonderful ballroom of the 'Veritania' with all its lavish furnishings and crowded with fashionable people in evening dress.

Through it all Director De Mille kept a cool head. He seemed to be everywhere and to know just what would happen during every minute of the scene. Above the din his quick commands were given at close hand to those for whom they were intended.

COMMENTS ON MANIFESTO OF SIR WILFRID LAURIER (Continued from page 1) Toronto, Nov. 5.—The World says: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has a lot to say and some of it is worth saying, but he ignores the great fact that the balance of power in Canada is passing from Quebec to the new Canadian west, and it will soon be the controlling power in the west. Quebec is not in line either with Ontario or the west on the supreme issue that ever came to Canada; that is, shall we fight in this great war for liberty and civilization for our very limit, even if it entails force?"

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 5.—The Brantford Expressor (Liberal): "Sir Wilfrid Laurier's manifesto is but a disingenuous and subtle appeal intended to reach the disaffected voters of whatever class."

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The Journal Press says: "If Sir Wilfrid Laurier triumphs in the coming election, he will promptly suspend the operation of conscription, and no matter how great may be the need, no forces will be sent to the front under the military service act, until, in some undefined date in the future, the country is given back to the people upon its way of a referendum."

Edmonton, Nov. 5.—The Bulletin, Hon. Frank Oliver's proprietor, says: "To simplify the argument of the manifesto, the need for conscription has often been broadly stated to be the failure of voluntary enlistment in Quebec. From present indications, it is not likely to give very much more satisfactory returns than the voluntary system did."

NO SICK STOMACH, INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" is the Quickest and Surest Stomach Relief

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest or you get sick, eructate sour, indigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, heartburn, sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes.

"Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless! It tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a hearty appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

Dr. Hedden Becomes New Hospital Superintendent

Dr. H. Hedden has been appointed superintendent of the General Public Hospital at a salary of $2,000 per year.

Dr. Hedden went on duty on Thursday last. Dr. A. E. Macaulay, who has been acting as superintendent, for some time past, has withdrawn altogether from that position to give his whole time to his private practice.

Dr. Hedden has been connected with the General Public Hospital since December of last year. Previous to coming to St. John to accept a position on the hospital staff, he had just graduated from Queen's University at Kingston (Ont.) He is a native of Dunville (Ont.) Since joining the hospital staff, Dr. Hedden has given general satisfaction to the commissioners and public alike and his appointment is said to be a popular one. He has also been of great assistance in the military medical work, and as a member of the examining boards under the M. S. A. act.

M. H. C. HEADQUARTERS MOVED. The headquarters of "K" unit, of the Military Hospital Commission command has been removed from this city and is now located in Fredericton.

The removal was made on Saturday and from now on the headquarters will be at Fredericton with the military army hospital here on of the branch convalescent homes. The new headquarters were opened on Saturday by Major W. J. Osborne and the staff of about twenty officers and non-commissioned officers went to Fredericton from St. John on Saturday. The Dunbar building, in the capital, situated in Queen street, which was leased some few weeks ago, has been vacated by its previous occupants and is being made ready for the M. H. C.

WHITE SLAVER CONFESSES

Prosecutor to Scatter Gangs Which Robbed Out-of-Town Men in New York

New York, Nov. 5.—By the arrest and confession of an alleged leader of a group of white slave operators in Broadway, who was indicted by a grand jury under the name of Morris Wallack, Assistant District Attorney J. E. Smith said he had obtained information which would enable him to round up the leaders of men and women who have for many months carried on systematic robberies of out-of-town business men registered at uptown hotels. Evidence has been obtained, it is said, which indicates that bands of men and women bandits who patrolled certain portions of the white light districts, and frequented the hotels made use of knock-out drops and even blackjacks to get money and jewelry from their victims, under circumstances which generally induced their victims to withhold complaints to the authorities.

After an investigation extending over four months, according to the district attorney's office, it was learned that the different white slave leaders had marked out the white light districts in "zones" in which each operated without interference from the others. Wallack, who lived in an expensive suite in an upper Broadway apartment, and says his weekly income was $500, shared with one other white slave operator the Broadway zone from Thirty-fourth to Fifty-second street.

An account book kept by one of the Wallack's gang is included among the evidence in possession of the district attorney. It is said that twenty-five men and 150 women are concerned in this particular case. Detectives from the staff of the district attorney have the names of some of these suspects, and their arrests are to follow immediately. It was learned from Wallack, who has offered to turn state's evidence, that a central headquarters was maintained in an upper Broadway restaurant, but meetings were frequently held at hotels.

Put a layer of cooked tomatoes in a baker, sprinkle over with bread crumbs, then with a layer of grated cheese. Then repeat and put enough bread crumbs to cover the cheese. Add a little salt and cayenne pepper. Put in the oven and heat until the cheese is melted.

Stewed Cranberry pudding:
1/2 cup sugar (or to taste); 1 cup sugar; 1 egg; 3 cups flour or 2 cups flour and 1 cup dried bread crumbs; 4 teaspoons baking powder; 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 cups cranberries. Beat the egg and add to milk. Mix dry ingredients, add sugar, milk and egg. Stir in cranberries in a greased mold, and steam three hours.

Pastor Warns Women

A Message to Women in War Time was the subject on which Rev. S. S. Poole preached in German street Baptist church last evening and he based his sermon on the Bible scene when Jesus had been condemned to be crucified and the women wept for Him.

"In this scene," said Mr. Poole, "can be discerned the characteristics of women of these days, and they are the characteristics of women today. First it shows them to have been as they are today, the moral sentinels of society. Women are so constituted as to be more morally acute than men are. The charges placed against Jesus meant nothing to these women when He had been condemned. They saw past all these things that a wrong was being done in the crucifixion of Jesus. 'Women are today ever the moral sentinels of society. But if they intend to remain so they must keep away from that frivolous social circle which is undermining the heart and the moral sense of the fashionable women of today. By this circle I do not mean those who like to have mirth and jollity but I do mean those who spend their afternoons at teas and their evenings in dancing, who talk of clothes and of money, who never even over the closed door of heaven but do give over the closed door of a social circle. A woman who is so constituted as to lose her lofty moral position and obtains an empty head and a hungry heart."

RECENT WEDDINGS

Ritchie-Jones.
Woodstock, Nov. 3.—A wedding of such interest was solemnized at the residence of George Lutz, Lieutenant Wm. Jones this afternoon, when his eldest daughter, Mrs. Gertrude R. Wetmore, was united in marriage to Lieutenant Harold H. Ritchie, of the 89th Battery, C.F.A., formerly of Newcastle. The ceremony took place in the drawing room, which was decorated with flowers, ferns and palms. Rev. A. S. Hazel, rector of St. Luke's church, officiated. The bride, who looked lovely in a gown of tulle, broadcloth, with black fox fur, a purple velvet hat and carried a shower bouquet of roses, was brought in and given in marriage by her father. Only the immediate relatives of the family and Major Evans, Major B. M. Hay, Lieutenant George Lutz, Lieutenant Wm. A. Ross, Lieutenant McKennie, Lieutenant Tingley were present.

Lieutenant Ritchie and Mrs. Ritchie left on the evening express for a short trip. Lieutenant Ritchie is leaving for overseas very shortly. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended to the bride and groom.

Lore-Gaynor.
A quiet wedding, with a touch of military air about it, took place at St. David's Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon, when Lieut. Kenneth H. Lore, of the A. M. S. C., Fredericton, son of Rev. Dr. Lore, of Quebec, was united in marriage to Miss Joy N. Gaynor, daughter of Ald. T. M. Gaynor, of Chatham, and niece of the late Rev. C. A. Gaynor, of this city.

Rev. J. A. McKellan, pastor of St. David's church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was given in marriage by Major Meserieu, was attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor Gaynor, while Lieut. McKellan supported the bridegroom. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride party had dinner at the Clifton House, after which they took the afternoon train for Quebec, Montreal and other upper province cities, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Y. M. C. A. FIRESIDE TALKS.

The first of the fireside talks for this season was held in the Y. M. C. A. last evening and about forty boys were present. The speaker for the evening was A. M. Gregg, the local boys' secretary, and he gave the boys a very interesting talk. Four Bible study groups were formed in the Y. M. C. A. Saturday, and the leaders are: Basil Robertson, Gordon Smith, Sewell Coster and Cecil Morris. The first Sunday morning meeting to be held this season was held in the institution yesterday and W. C. Cross, chairman of the boys' work committee, was the speaker. Mr. Cross made a very appropriate opening address and presented Bible study diplomas to thirty-four boys who had won them last year. The season's work of the Y. M. C. A. is now well under way, and it is expected that big things will be done there this year in the development of the boys, both physically and spiritually.

Further Accounts of Gallantry of Canadians

Won Over Germans by Sheer Resolution and Daring in Face of Great Difficulties — A Heart-to-Heart Talk by General Currie—Incidents of the Battle

Special Cable to Times by F. A. McKenzie. Copyright.

With the Canadians in the field, via London, Nov. 4.—Each hour brings fresh accounts showing the splendid gallantry and endurance of our men during Tuesday's great attack. Fighting under most appalling difficulties, faced by positions of tremendous strength, their rear swept by a heavy flanking artillery fire, they won through sheer resolution and daring. A few days ago I attended a review of the brigade by General Currie. After passing through the lines he had the troops gathered around him and spoke directly and frankly. He told them that the commander-in-chief had brought them north to a difficult job. "I promise you that I will never call upon you to advance until full preparation has been made, until the artillery work has been thoroughly carried out, enemy wire destroyed and everything possible done to clear the way. Then it falls on you."

There were murmurs of approval along the ranks which even the strict discipline could not wholly suppress. These men, who had been almost continuously fighting for considerable more than eighteen months, regarded the fresh task as a fresh opportunity for glory. When the word was given they cheered their famous leader as though they would drown the sound of the shell fire in front and the aerial machine gun sputter.

In this spirit they entered the battle. Forty men creeping and crawling through mud holes past the wire entanglements took up an important point on the sun-line after a stiff fight. The Germans soon launched a counter-attack. Our boys allowed the Germans to approach

BELIEF THAT THE MONEY CAME FROM ZIMMERMANN

Something Added To The Mass of Material In Connection With Paris Journal Case

Paris, Nov. 5.—To the mass of material brought out in connection with the investigation into the circumstances surrounding the purchase of Le Journal, originating with the Bolo Pashal, correspondent of the Matin at Schaffhausen, Switzerland, makes a contribution today.

That the sum of ten million francs which Arthur Scholler, of a Zurich textile firm, is alleged to have advanced to Pierre Lenoir as former employee of the censorship bureau and now under arrest charged with trading with the enemy, for the purpose of buying Le Journal, came neither from the personal fortune nor the business of Scholler the correspondent says he is able to certify. He declared that neither Scholler's personal or business accounts show a trace of such a disbursement.

It is the belief in Zurich, the despatch adds, that Scholler was an intermediary for Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, then German under-secretary for foreign affairs, as Dr. Zimmermann is a personal friend of the Scholler family. Previous newspaper despatches from Zurich had represented Scholler as admitting that the money he advanced to Lenoir was of German origin, and intended to forward German economic interests for the after-the-war campaign.

PRESENTATION TO E. C. GIRVAN

Clarence E. Girvan of the staff of Waterbury & Rising, Ltd., was made the recipient of a testimonial by the employees of the King street store on Saturday. Mr. Girvan has accepted the position as manager of the footwear department of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company. He will enter upon his new duties today.

GRAND VIZIER LORDLY IN TONE

Proposes That Turkey Shall Be Independent of All, Including Her Present Allies

Copenhagen, Nov. 5.—Talat Bey, the Turkish grand vizier, declared that Turkey's aim in the world war was to secure independence from all the great powers, including her present allies, according to an interview granted the Constantinople correspondent of the Berlin Voessische Zeitung.

He said Turkey could not make peace without regaining all her lost territory, either by force of arms or by negotiations. The Sultan, he added, might probably accept Emperor William's invitation to visit Berlin.

JAPAN NOT TO SEND TROOPS TO EUROPE

A Pacific Post, Nov. 5.—Baron Tanenaro Megata, head of the Japanese financial commission that has arrived here, said it was impossible for Japan to send an army to aid the allies on the European battlefield.

"If in the face of physical impossibility Japan should be foolishly enough to make a superhuman effort to send troops, and if she speedily became exhausted," he asked, "who would then protect the Orient if Germany remained undefeated?"

"Though we have sent no troops to Europe," he said, "we have helped in other ways. Our navy is serving the allied cause in the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean, and our merchant marine is largely at the disposal of the allies. Japanese ships do practically all the carrying between Asia and Europe."

Baron Megata said that the great distance and the condition of the Trans-Siberian railroad stood in the way of sending troops to Russia, for once sent there they could not be supplied.

SAYS VATICAN EFFORTS FOR PEACE LIKELY TO BE ABANDONED UNDER THE NEW CONDITIONS

Rome, Nov. 5.—The gravity of the situation and the fusion of all parties into one national entity determined at all odds to drive the enemy from the mother soil, apparently, according to high officials, has reached even the Vatican, where it is realized it is advisable to abandon any efforts towards peace, for the present at least.

The leaders in the Catholic party have made declarations of their support to united Italy in the supreme crisis and it is said in official quarters that the Vatican has been informed that for the moment any attitude which might be considered to run counter to the national aspirations would be most unwelcome.

Battle of The Old Style Won Victory For General Maude

London, Oct. 12.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—General Maude's victory at Ramadiah in Mesopotamia was the result of a battle of the old picturesque style, before the "war of inaction" swept the spectacular element out of modern warfare.

The movement which determined the whole action was the sudden swinging around of the British right until it became the left, and the encircling movement of the cavalry, which robbed the Turkish garrison of its last free line of retreat. The idea was admirably executed, but even the staff strategists of the British army scarcely anticipated the surrender of the whole Turkish force, without a blow by the waiting cavalry.

The British "eye-witness," writing from Ramadiah, says in his account of the battle:

"We captured Ramadiah today, and with it the whole Turkish garrison, including its commander, Ahmed Bey, and some field guns, pom-poms, machine-guns and rifles.

"Our force moved in two columns on the night of September 27, from an advanced camp on the Euphrates, west of Feleja, one column on the right, the other on the left, and at dawn they attacked Mughd Ridge, a low line of dunes running north and south from the Euphrates to the Habaniyah Canal. To clear the ridge and cross the canal was our first objective. The first knolls were quickly occupied. At dawn we bombarded the main crest of the ridge, but the Turks had evacuated it. "We then changed our line of attack. The right column was withdrawn and swinging round west behind the left column became the left wing of the force. Our front, three and a half miles in breadth, now lay between the Habaniyah Canal on the right and Aziziyah Canal on the left, at a point nine miles from the Euphrates.

"Our cavalry made a wide sweeping movement across the desert north the right flank of the Turks and occupied a line five miles west of Ramadiah. By this move the Turks were cornered. Their only chance was to drive in determined counter-attacks and to break through before we drew the ring in closer.

"The expected attack began after three o'clock the next morning when the Turks tried to break through between the cavalry and the river. The action continued for two hours till dawn, when it degenerated into casual sniping. The nearest Turkish dead were found within fifty yards of the cavalry trenches.

"Soon after daybreak the infantry column took up the attack again, and carried the last outlying defence of the Turks on our left. An intense bombardment was opened on the Turkish trenches.

"Our line of cavalry, far away west, soon saw the dark masses of the enemy approaching, an apparently prepared for bloody battle. The Turkish guns were silent, and white flags went up all along the line. It was a general surrender. Ahmed Bey, the Turkish commander, who has been on the Euphrates all through the campaign from the Battle of Shaiba, in March 1915, and whose troops confronted us at Nasr-avah all last summer and autumn, came out and surrendered with his whole force."

U-BOAT WIT WINS FAME

Known Only as 'Kelly,' He Plays Pranks on Allied Patrol
Base American Flotilla in British Waters, Oct. 16—There is a German submarine commander who is known throughout the American flotilla as 'Kelly.' His real name is something quite different but the Americans are so promptly dubbed him 'Kelly of the Emerald Isle,' and the name will stick in the songs and stories of the navy as long as the great war is talked about. 'Kelly' earned his Irish name by his display on various occasions of a rich vein of humor and German humor. He has become the hero of the numberless stories told in forecabin and on quarterdeck. Not all of these stories are true, and probably most of them have grown in the telling. All that The Associated Press can vouch for is that 'Kelly' is a real individual and that there is some foundation for the remarkable tales of his exploits. 'Kelly' commands a mine-laying U-boat, which pays frequent visits to the district patrolled by the American destroyers. When he has finished his appointed task of distributing his mines where they will do most harm, he generally devotes a few minutes to a prank of some kind. Sometimes he contents himself with leaving a note flying from a buoy, scribbled in schoolboy English, and addressed to his American enemy. On other occasions he picks out a deserted bit of coast line at night, and goes ashore with a squad of his men for a saunter on the beach, leaving behind a placard or a bit of German bunting as a reminder of his presence. His most audacious exploit, however, if the legends of the flotilla are to be believed—was a trip which he made several months ago to Dublin, where he stayed two days at a leading hotel, afterward rejoining his U-boat somewhere on the west coast. He is said to have informed the British of his exploit by leaving his receipted hotel bill attached to one of his buoys. Still another of 'Kelly's' more recent stunts was to plant the German flag on a rising on the coastline. It was the first time that the British and Americans knew just where he and his men had set foot, and they shared the excitement of the village folk who awoke one morning to find a new kind of flag flying from their native soil. At first they couldn't make out just what it was. But when they made sure that it was the German colors they were furious, for it so happened, so the story goes, that the fishermen along this particular strip of coast had suffered much from submarine raids. U-boats had shelled their boats, Germans had stolen their fish—their only means of livelihood—and left them empty handed after a week's hard catch of mackerel. These poor fishermen were in no mood for this latest display of German humor, so they, according to report, promptly burned the flag and set a watch for 'Kelly.'

SUIT DISCLOSES STAR'S CONTRACT

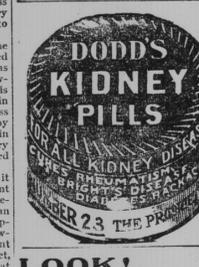

Pubic Learns Anita Stewart's Guaranteed Salary is $127,000 a Year—Five Years Ago it Was $1,200
(From the Billboards)
New York, Oct. 27.—So much is said about the salaries of motion picture actors and actresses that the revelations made during the recent session of the Vitagraph Company of America against Anita Stewart are secondary in importance only to the result of the suit itself. These revelations show that Miss Stewart, under the terms of her contract with the Vitagraph Company, is one of the highest paid individuals in the world, her guaranteed salary for a year being $127,000. In the original bill of complaint, Vitagraph told the history of Miss Stewart's connection with the company, and Louis B. Mayer is specifically enjoined from advertising or announcing that Miss Stewart is to work for any other company or individual, and that she is to be restrained from advertising or announcing that she is to be employed by the plaintiff, and is further enjoined from employing her. This decision is one of the most important ever handed down in the motion picture industry, and, in reality, marks the first successful effort of a manufacturer to hold a big star to a contract when the latter sought to get away. Justice Whitaker's decision was handed down after both sides had presented voluminous affidavits and complete arguments in court, a significant feature being that the court did not make a written decision.

HAMMERED DOWN

Some Fall to Lowest Quotations in Their History on New York Market

New York, Nov. 5.—(Wall street)—Free liquidation of high class stocks, especially rails, was resumed today. Within the first half hour of active trading, Pacifics, Grangers and leading coal carriers were down two to four points. Some of these issues established the lowest quotations in their history. Industrials gave way under the strain; United States Steel making an extreme decline of two and three-quarter points to 92 1/2, its minimum of the year. Coppers and the general list of equipments and specialties yielded to a like extent, offerings increasing on successive lines of twelves and occupied gains, but immediately reacted one to three points.

New York, Nov. 5.—(Noon)—Leaders suffered additional severe depreciation during this morning. United States Steel closed at $71.50, down 91, and other industrials and equipments registered further recessions of two to three points. Rails were weaker, Transcontinentals showing gross reversals of two to five points. St. Paul made a new low for more than twenty years at 38, and Reading recorded its minimum of a decade at 61. Coppers, shippings, tobacco, oils and specialties broke three to seven points. Trading quieted after the first hour, but extreme weakness prevailed at noon. Liberty's sold at par, and the 8 1/2's at 99.48 to 99.74.

MORE CONFIDENT IN LONDON.

London, Nov. 5.—The European stock exchange today found dealers in a more confident mood and with the execution of fair investment orders, the markets were generally firmer, notably Argentine rails and shipping and allied stocks. Speculative issues remained dull and undecided.

Money was in good demand and there was a fair supply available. Discount rates were quiet.

BERLIN'S PROPOSALS

FOR CONSTITUTION OF NEW POLISH STATE

Catholic Religion Official One But Full Freedom For All—King Must Not Marry Without Consent of Diet

Berlin, Nov. 4.—(Via London, Nov. 5)—The constitution of the new Polish state is a document containing nine paragraphs and 151 articles. Professor Cylbowski of Warsaw, who was commissioned to make the draft, which was approved by a former state council, says that the charter contains the following provisions:

Poland to be an independent constitutional state.

In view of the fact that an overwhelming percentage of the population is of the Catholic faith it is ordered that the ruling house be of the same faith.

Catholicism is proscribed as being the official religion to be recognized in connection with state functions and official ceremonies. Beyond that full freedom of religious belief is vouchsafed.

The state is to be a hereditary monarchy, the diet to elect the ruler and control the dynasty's affairs and succession.

If the king marries without the consent of the diet he forfeits his crown. This provision is intended to preclude the possibility of a feminine member of an unfriendly power attaining the throne.

The king is obliged to reside constantly at home, and is not permitted to be represented through a substitute elected, or to be sovereign of another state at the same time.

This disposes of the rumor that Emperor Karl will be proclaimed King of Poland.

Parliament will consist of two chambers, the lower house to be elected on the basis of a general secret direct ballot of one deputy to every 60,000 inhabitants. Half of the senate will be elected by the electors to be appointed by the king. Deputies will serve five years and senators ten.

FURTHER PROGRESS UP THE RIVER TIGRIS

British Defeat Turks in Engagement Fought With Great Dash

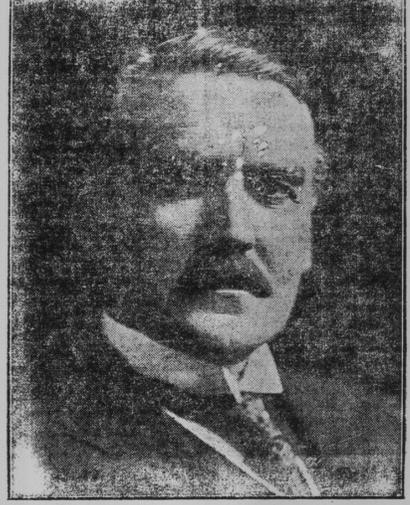

London, Nov. 5.—The following official statement dealing with the operations in Mesopotamia and showing that the British forces have made further progress up the Tigris river northwest of Baghdad, was made public by the war office last evening.

"Early Friday morning one of our reconnoitering columns, moving up the Tigris, engaged the Turks holding a position on the right bank of the river opposite Duz, about twenty miles north of Samarra.

"The enemy hastily withdrew toward Tehr, under the cover of a strong rear guard. Our troops drove the latter from successive lines of trenches and occupied the whole position. Meanwhile our cavalry harassed the retreating enemy.

"Eighty-nine prisoners and a quantity of ammunition were captured. Our shells, fired into his assembly areas, inflicted even heavier losses on his supporting

ONE OF BITTEREST FIGHTS CANADIANS HAVE YET BEEN IN

Continued Engagement Before Passchendaele on Saturday and Sunday

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Nov. 4.—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent of the Canadian Press.)—The struggle before Passchendaele has developed into one of the bitterest battles in the whole history of the Canadian forces.

The story of today, as of yesterday, is one of a continuous engagement, in which the salient has known no rest. Just as the enemy was moving to the attack on Saturday morning our artillery caught him on the advance, inflicting heavy losses, while on our left our infantry struggled forward to the advanced enemy strong post, where we drove the Bosche out, after a hand-to-hand struggle, resulting then to the trench positions before the enemy general counter-attack, which was launched at 5 a.m. along the whole Canadian front.

Our patrols had discovered the enemy assembling before he launched his intense two minute barrage. Our batteries, heavy and light, from the forward areas two miles behind the line, poured every shell into his assembly areas, inflicting even heavier losses on his supporting

STARVATION IN JERUSALEM

Bread Eleven Times as High as at the War's Beginning

London, Oct. 12.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Sufferings of the poor in Palestine, particularly in Jerusalem, are set forth in letters from the Hebrew teachers in that section which have been received here by leaders of the Zionist movement. Hunger and the extortionate prices charged for food are the chief causes of distress. The price of bread has advanced eleven-fold since the beginning of the war. Petroleum costs thirty times as much as in 1914, and milk five times the ante-war price.

Concerning the situation in Jerusalem one teacher writes: "The money evil has become intolerable. In Constantinople paper money circulates freely, here you must pay in coin or fourfold the price in paper. The misery of the poor is unspeakable. The roads are lined with starving persons, who lie about begging for a mouthful of bread. The poor Jews sell all their belongings—clothes, lin enbed covers—to the soldiers to get a few pence for food. Epidemics have somewhat abated, but most of the patients die, because, owing to the lack of nourishment they cannot resist disease."

The headmaster of the Hebrew Boys' School in Jerusalem thus reports: "The condition of the Jewish exiles who have been driven by Djemal Pasha out of Jaffa and the neighboring districts, is very much worse than that of other sections of the populace. In spite of the reports to the contrary launched by the Turkish authorities, none of these thousands of hapless refugees has been allowed to return to his home, and whatever preparations have been made for transporting, housing, feeding, educating and giving employment to them have had to be made by the private charity of the local Jews and their brethren in other countries."

THREE LOST WHEN SCHOONER SANK OFF RICHIBUCTO

Rexton, N. B., Nov. 4.—The schooner Ralph, 52 tons register, owned by Captain Allie Wry, of Buctouche, bound from Buctouche to Newcastle, was wrecked off Point Bonaparte, near Richibucto Cape, about 9 o'clock this morning.

Time Is Short For Registering

Only a Week Left for 15,000 Men in This Province to Comply With the Law

The last week in which the men of the first call under the Military Service Act have to register is now on its way. There are yet in the vicinity of 15,000 men of the first call who have so far ignored the proclamation and there now remains but a week during which comparatively short time well over 14,000 men between the ages of twenty and thirty-four will have to come forth at the registration centers or else be classed as deserters and lose their right to claim exemption.

Are you doing your full share in winning the war?

BETWEEN you and your conscience the answer to that question must be made. No one but you can answer it. Every day you see the men who have done their share—you see the empty sleeve, the tucked up trouser leg—and the cheery smile.

AND more than thirty thousand Canadian soldiers sleep beneath wooden crosses in France.

What have those men fought and sacrificed and died for? Have their sacrifices been worth while? Are you—we worth their sacrifices? What are you—each of us—doing to prove our worth?

WE cannot all go into the trenches. But there is a share, a duty, that each one, every one of us must do in winning the war.

Are you doing your full share in winning the war?

BETWEEN you and your conscience the answer to that question must be made. No one but you can answer it. Every day you see the men who have done their share—you see the empty sleeve, the tucked up trouser leg—and the cheery smile.

AND more than thirty thousand Canadian soldiers sleep beneath wooden crosses in France.

What have those men fought and sacrificed and died for? Have their sacrifices been worth while? Are you—we worth their sacrifices? What are you—each of us—doing to prove our worth?

WE cannot all go into the trenches. But there is a share, a duty, that each one, every one of us must do in winning the war.

Laurier Issues Government to the Canadian People

War Policy Includes Referendum on Military Service Act; Urges Tariff Reform, Food Control and Unity of Action—Asks Nominations in Every Constituency

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has issued his manifesto. In a document addressed "to the Canadian people," the opposition leader declares his policy and outlines his aims.

On the all-important question of participation in the war, Sir Wilfrid claims that "a fundamental objection to the government's policy of conscription is that it conscripts human life only and does not attempt to conscript wealth, resources or the services of any persons other than those who come within the age limit prescribed by the military service act."

The first duty of a Laurier administration would be "to find the men, money and resources necessary to ensure the fullest measure of support to our heroic soldiers at the front and to enable Canada to continue to the very end to do her splendid part to win the war."

STILL ADHERES TO REFERENDUM

To this Sir Wilfrid adds: "As to the present military service act, my policy will be not to proceed further with its provisions until the people have an opportunity to pronounce upon it by way of a referendum. I pledged myself forthwith to submit the act to the people and with my followers to carry out the wishes of the majority of the nation as thus expressed."

As remedies for an economic situation, "which is admittedly critical," Sir Wilfrid promises: "Tariff reform. Control of food supplies and prices. Stop to profiteering."

The two increases in the tariff made since the beginning of the war, he would remove. These are: 7 1/2 per cent. on all commodities coming into Canada from outside Great Britain and five per cent. on goods coming from Great Britain. He also "would immediately remove the duties on agricultural implements and other essentials, as demanded by the western farmers."

STOP TO PROFITEERING ON WAR SUPPLIES

The manifesto of the most important contributions towards the war is to put a stop to profiteering on war supplies. The government has deliberately encouraged profiteering for the benefit of its partisan followers. A first duty of my administration will be to ensure to the country, which pays for war supplies, the excess of exorbitant profits being realized by profiteers. "If necessary," Sir Wilfrid continues, "we will not hesitate to take control of the factories engaged in the supply of war materials."

Suitable government ships also, Sir Wilfrid believes, should be turned to the production of war materials at cost prices.

Sir Wilfrid passes in review some of the legislation of the late government and the programme of the present. He finds no trace in the manifesto of the union government that its Liberal members have influenced their colleagues to the adoption of measures they deemed essential. He refers to "most of the articles" in that manifesto as "stale common-places . . . passed in last session, that it is a blot upon every instinct of justice" and holds the view that the Canadian Northern Railroad purchase should be adjudicated upon by the new parliament.

Full Text of Manifesto.

A consultation of the people at short and regular periods is the right of a free people. The constitution provides for a general election every five years. It is undeniable that there has existed a strong desire in the community to avoid an election during the war.

An impression prevails that I have accepted the invitation of the prime minister to join his government as a new election would have been possible. This impression is absolutely erroneous, the fact being that the invitation extended to me was couched in the stipulation that the coalition government would pass a conscription measure and then appeal to the country, thus making an election unavoidable.

The government has recently constructed, the union government so-called, is now appealing to the country for support. Six members of the Liberal party, some of them close personal friends, have consented to become members of the administration. The programme which they intend to follow has already been placed before the public, but in this programme no mention is made that the Liberal members of the administration have succeeded in influencing their colleagues to the adoption of measures which they deemed essential, not only to win the war but for the welfare of the country at all times.

Most of the articles in the government's manifesto are simply stale common-places extracted from the Conservative programme of 1911, forgotten terms, resurrected for a new election. Such is the promise of economy of public expenditure, and such the promise of civil service reform—two terms which the opposition would have been happy to support in the last parliament, if the government had afforded them the opportunity.

Matter of Immigration.

One particular item is deserving of attention. "A strong and progressive policy of immigration" is promised. This will be, perhaps, the most important question after the war.

The burdens which are now being accumulated, and which will have to be assumed and borne by the Canadian people, can be faced if the enormous resources of the country are developed. But development demands a rapid increase in the population. Hence the necessity of a strong and progressive immigration policy. It is manifest that the promised strong and progressive policy has been seriously weakened by the breach of faith with naturalized Canadian citizens involved in the withdrawal of the political franchise from them. This is a serious blow to immigration, especially when the conduct of the Canadian government is contrasted with that of the United States, where no such indignity has been placed upon naturalized citizens.

An article of the programme of the government speaks of the development of transportation facilities, but in vague terms rather than in definite terms. No mention is made of the acquisition of the Canadian Northern Railway; yet this subject was not exhausted by the legislation of last session, and it will be one of the most important duties of the next parliament again to review it.

The fact that the government becomes the owner of the stock of the company, of the value of $60,000,000, is not a new matter. It was a stock paid in that stock. The experts employed by the government to appraise the value of the whole enterprise, men of acknowledged ability and experience, themselves have reported that the stock of the company has a value of $60,000,000.

Yet the government has taken authority to appoint a board of arbitrators to give a value to that property, while the experts have declared absolutely without value.

The opposition asked that the report of the arbitrators, whatever it might be, should be laid before parliament for approval. Though this motion was rejected, the right of the people to be declared that the case should not have been finally closed by the action of a moribund parliament, but that the matter should be reported to, and adjudicated upon by, the new parliament.

It was natural to expect that the report of the arbitrators would be laid before the attention of the country, which is admitted to be the value of $60,000,000, except the vague promise of "effective measures to prevent excessive profits, to prohibit hoardings and to prevent continuation for the increase of prices and thus reduce the high cost of living." The economic problems have to be grappled with at once, in no such vague general terms, but in vigorous and concrete proposals.

The prices of all commodities have been steadily rising since the beginning of the war. The daily provisioning of the family table is from day to day becoming a more and more alarming problem for all classes of wage-earners and for all people of small and even moderate income. It is not to be said that this is the natural consequence of the war. When it is considered that the price of bread and bacon is higher here in Canada than in the United Kingdom, this is itself proof sufficient that the matter here is not inflated by methods which are in no way connected with the war, unless the war is taken advantage of for the very purpose of inflation. Indeed, the principal causes of these soaring prices are none other than those described in the government's manifesto as "excessive profits," "hoardings" and "combinations for the increase of prices."

Since the government knows where the evil lies, what prevents the government from striking the evil and striking it hard? The remedies are at hand, and at once set down the policy.

No measure to reduce the cost of living can be effective unless and until the tariff is reformed, and its pressure removed from those commodities in which there are "excessive profits," "hoardings" and "combinations for the increase of prices." Of this obvious, fundamental reform there is not a word in the government manifesto. Indeed, members of the present government have announced that all questions of tariff legislation must be relegated to after the war.

Believing that excessive food production is one of Canada's best contributions towards winning the war, I would propose, if sanctioned by the administration of the country, to immediately relieve agriculture from its disabilities in this regard.

In the month of July, 1916, such an important paper as the Toronto Globe deprecated the very idea of conscription. Hereby, what is said, in a carefully reasoned editorial:

"The Globe in its editorial columns, has consistently pointed out that in a country such as Canada, conscription is an impossibility and that no responsible statesman of either party, capable of forming or leading a Canadian ministry, would propose compulsory service. Nor has the Globe unduly criticized the nature of the Borden government to do more than it has done to assist voluntary recruiting. The criticisms of the Globe and of most of the papers have exceeded in mildness when compared with the vitriolic denunciations of the Toronto Telegram, the Winnipeg Telegram, the Montreal Daily Mail and other journals that have absolutely no sympathy with the Liberal party."

It is not until Dec. 27, 1916, that the Globe repeated its warnings against any effort to force Canadians into the ranks and summed up public opinion thus: "The Montreal Daily Mail and other journals that have absolutely no sympathy with the Liberal party."

No less emphatic had been the language of the government.

At the beginning of the session of 1916, in answering to my inquiry whether the promise recently made by the prime minister of calling 500,000 men into military service, he answered in these words:

"My right honorable friends are already in a position to call up 500,000 men into military service. In speaking in the first two or three months of the session of 1916, I did not propose conscription. I repeat that announcement with equal emphasis and unqualified by my own declarations on the subject."

The Unholy Alliance.

Throughout the whole campaign of 1916, I have never recalled that the Nationalist-Conservative alliance, which opposed the naval policy of the Liberal government, that time, asserted that such a policy meant conscription. Meeting these assertions, I gave the public frequent assurance that under no circumstances would conscription follow the adoption of our policy. Again and again, after the outbreak of the present war, I have pointed out that conscription would not be introduced in Canada. Such was my position when the government required the military service act. I introduced the military service act. To force such a drastic measure upon a people thus unprepared and against the wishes of the majority of the people, neither wise nor prudent, or effective.

It may bring men to the ranks but it will not bring them to the front. It will not bring the spirit of enthusiasm and determination that is more than half the battle. It will create and intensify the feeling of defeatism which is essential.

I am only too well aware that the views which I have here expressed have not been met with universal acceptance, even in the party to which I belong, but even yet I hold that to continue when persuasion has not been attempted is not sound policy and in this I appeal to the impartial judgment of all Canadians.

In concluding this conscription article, I would like to say that a measure of this nature should not be enforced until the consent of the majority of the people is obtained. I supported a referendum for the reason that the referendum is the most advanced and the most democratic method of settling a question without the complications inseparable from a general election. A referendum is a measure which the people should have been and still should be brought all classes of the community to the vote. The introduction of conscription at this juncture and in the manner above described, was a grave error, if it is not a crime. The government should have been and still should be brought all classes of the community to the vote. The introduction of conscription at this juncture and in the manner above described, was a grave error, if it is not a crime.

Conscription of Wealth.

A fundamental objection to the government's policy of conscription is that it conscripts human life only and does not attempt to conscript wealth, resources or the services of any persons other than those who come within the age limit prescribed by the military service act. This is manifestly unjust. The man who is prepared to volunteer his services and to risk his life in the service of his country is entitled to first consideration. Those dependent upon him and who spare him from their midst are the next most deserving of the state's solicitude and care. A policy which will accord first place to the soldier and the sailor in the conscription of the state will, I believe, bring forth all the men necessary to fight its battles, without the need of recourse to conscription. If returned to power, I should adopt such a policy. No man of duty will be to seek out the ablest men of the country, men of organizing capacity as well as men representative of all classes in the community and invite them, irrespective of what it may involve in the way of sacrifice of their personal interests, to join with me in the formation of a cabinet whose first object will be to find the men, money and resources necessary to ensure the fullest measure of support to our heroic soldiers at the front, and to enable Canada to continue to the very end to do her splendid part to win the war.

As to the present Military Service Act, my policy will be not to proceed further under its provisions until the people have an opportunity to pronounce upon it by way of a referendum. I pledge myself to forthwith to submit the act to the people and with my followers to carry out the wishes of the majority of the nation as thus expressed.

I would at the same time organize and carry out a strong appeal for voluntary recruiting. It is a fact that conscription in Quebec, did not get a fair trial and a fair trial would receive from a general election a ready response which would bring men to the ranks, with good will and enthusiasm and which would eliminate from the ranks one of its most harrowing problems, as no loyal Canadian can view without the gravest apprehension a dispirited Canada at this critical hour of our history.

Australia's Experience.

To these views it is no answer to say, as is now often said, that we must have conscription or "quit." This statement is falsified by a recent and conclusive example. Australia rejected conscription and Australia did not "quit." Australia is still in the fight and her military strength in the present war has increased largely as a result of her voluntary recruiting, the nation, in order that, so far as possible, the resources and population of Canada in their entirety may be made of service in the successful prosecution of the war. Today, under the exhaustion the war has caused in the Old World, Great Britain and her allies are appealing as never before for good, more ships and more coal. No country has vaster resources than Canada to supply these imperative requirements. What is needed is vigorous efforts to further an unlimited production. To meet this existing need, I am prepared in addition to the measures already outlined, to take what further steps may be necessary to increase, double and quadruple the output of all that is necessary for marching and fighting armies.

Mr. Crothers, minister of labor, speaking recently at St. John, N. B., said that if Quebec had done her duty, as the other provinces, we should never have required the Military Service Act. Upon whom but the Borden government, whose Quebec members openly, strenuously and persistently preached the doctrine of conscription, can the blame for Canada in imperial wars outside her own territory?

The doctrine, first put forth in the riding of Drummond-Arthabaska in the autumn of 1910 by the now Nationalist body, including the late Conservative ministers, won the election for them. In the general elections of 1911 reciprocity in Quebec was not a matter of debate. It was the new policy of the late administration, which was bitterly assailed by the same men on the doctrine of "imperial wars outside her territory." And such doctrine, taught on the hustings, resulted in the Conservative organization, had a powerful influence in educating the public against the participation by Canada in imperial wars outside her territory. The first result was that the Liberals won thirty-eight seats and the Conservatives-Nationalist alliance won twenty-seven. The popular vote being even more evenly divided, the Liberals, with 164,281 votes and the Conservatives-Nationalist alliance 159,289. The second result was that when the war broke out, and a call was made for men to go to the front, the Liberals, who had been elected, they respined what they had said. They had educated to reject such an appeal.

For Returned Soldiers.

The greatest service that can be rendered the brave men, who have first claim upon our gratitude and sympathy is to replace them in the life of the community. It is to be calculated that the ablest men to be found in the vast number of cases re-education and technical training will be necessary. In these cases, patience and generosity on the part of the state, combined with the experience and scientific knowledge on the part of those whose state will call in aid its efforts, will go a long way towards helping the returned soldier to overcome the handicaps of war. If we but set ourselves resolutely to this task, the government will be hastened by the hearty co-operation of every man who has been on service overseas.

But there is another duty devolving upon us, the discharge of which should precede that above-mentioned. The measures now in force for the maintenance, care and comfort of the soldiers' dependents and families are not adequate or equitable. In an effort to rectify this state of affairs and to emphasize its policy that the nation's obligations to the soldiers and their dependents must be discharged by the nation and not through the medium of public benevolence or charity. Mr. Cope, member for Westmorland, at the last session of parliament, during the consideration of the Military Service bill, made this thoughtful resolution:

"That the further consideration of this bill be deferred until such adequate provision has been made for the dependents of soldiers enlisted for overseas war by public subscription for their support."

The resolution was opposed by the government and the motion for its adoption was defeated. But the necessity for action still exists and prompt action must be taken to put the soldiers and their dependents under public subscriptions have ceased and the glamour and excitement of the war have worn away.

In order to be effective, to satisfy the public conscience and to secure that acquiescence in a vehicle which would give the last word on all questions submitted to the people, a general election

Should I be called upon to form a government I would hope to include in it representatives of business, of labor, and of agriculture, of the men whose sole object in dealing with the affairs of the country will be to devote the whole of their wealth and energy of the country to the winning of the war. It can only be done by honest agreement amongst all the different elements and interests of the country, and it should have a government representative of the masses of the people, the common people whose guiding principle should be to defend them against organized privilege, which has heretofore had far too much control over the government of the country. In this election it is my desire that the common people should have opportunity to express themselves in a free and untrammelled manner at the polls, so that their views may obtain in the new parliament, and I trust that in every constituency, candidates, representative of this policy, may be nominated so that the people can vote for them.

These considerations I now place before my fellow countrymen of all creeds and of all origins for their appreciation and judgment. I have deemed it my duty more than ever, perhaps, in the course of my life, to give to the people, frankly and unequivocally upon the problems that now confront us. The obtaining of a view of avoiding and again looming up dangerous and threatening, to resolutely face the economic situation with a view of avoiding and lessening privations and sufferings, which should not exist in a country so richly endowed by nature as this.

Whatever may be the verdict at the polls, I accept it, neither elated by victory nor downhearted by defeat.

Hon. William Pugsley The Next Lieutenant-Governor

Member of Parliament for St. John, Former Minister of Public Works and Provincial Premier

Ottawa, Nov. 4.—Hon. William Pugsley, former M. P. for St. John city, has accepted the invitation of the government to become Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick in succession to the late Hon. G. W. Ganong.

This is the first Liberal appointment made by the new union government. Hon. Dr. Pugsley was formerly premier of New Brunswick and also held the position of minister of public works in the late Laurier government. It had been expected that Hon. Dr. Pugsley would run as union candidate in St. John though he was always one of the foremost fighters in the Laurier ranks.

There will be two new representatives from St. John in the new house as Hon. J. D. Hazen has also retired from the field and will not run again. Mr. Hazen will go to Washington as Canada's high commissioner.

The rumor that Hon. Mr. Pugsley is to be sworn in this morning as Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick was current about the streets of St. John last evening. While it was not known for sure that the rumor was correct it was assumed that the official announcement would be made today. Dr. Pugsley's appointment will no doubt give as great satisfaction to the people in all sections of the province as in the city he has so ably represented in the house of commons.

Hon. William Pugsley, K.C., D.C.L., was born at Sussex, Kings county, September 27, 1850, and was educated at the common schools there. He read law and took his degree from the University of New Brunswick in 1868. He was a gold medalist in his junior year and during his course took several scholarships. He stood second in the Glendon scholarship competition in 1868. He was married on January 6, 1876 to Fannie, daughter of the late Thomas Fairs Macdonald, of St. John, in 1915.

He was called to the bar of New Brunswick on June 27, 1872, and was reported in the supreme court for ten years. In 1891 he was appointed a Q. C. by the dominion government. He was first sent to the legislature of New Brunswick in July, 1885, on the death of the sitting member for Kings, Dr. Vall and he was re-elected and returned at the general elections of 1896 and 1900. He was speaker of the house from March 3, 1887, to May, 1889, when he was sworn in as a member of the executive council and appointed solicitor-general. He resigned in 1892. At the federal election of 1896 he was an unsuccessful candidate for the house of commons in the city of St. John. He was again elected to the legislature in 1899, and accepted the office of attorney-general in the Tweedie ministry on September 1, 1900. He was re-elected in Kings, September 27, 1900, by a majority of 829 and was again returned in 1903. On the appointment of Hon. L. J. Tweedie to the office of Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick in February, 1907, he succeeded to the prime ministry. After the close of the legislative session he resigned the premiership and retired from the government to contest a vacant seat for the city and county of St. John in the house of commons, rendered vacant by the death of Dr. Stockton, the sitting member, having received the unanimous nomination of the Liberal party. On August 23, 1907, he was sworn in as a member of the privy council of Canada and assumed the portfolio of minister of public works, in succession to the Hon. Chas. Hyman, resigned. He retained the office until the general election of 1911 having been returned for his present seat.

Should I be called upon to form a government I would hope to include in it representatives of business, of labor, and of agriculture, of the men whose sole object in dealing with the affairs of the country will be to devote the whole of their wealth and energy of the country to the winning of the war. I have deemed it my duty more than ever, perhaps, in the course of my life, to give to the people, frankly and unequivocally upon the problems that now confront us. The obtaining of a view of avoiding and again looming up dangerous and threatening, to resolutely face the economic situation with a view of avoiding and lessening privations and sufferings, which should not exist in a country so richly endowed by nature as this.

Whatever may be the verdict at the polls, I accept it, neither elated by victory nor downhearted by defeat.

Should I be called upon to form a government I would hope to include in it representatives of business, of labor, and of agriculture, of the men whose sole object in dealing with the affairs of the country will be to devote the whole of their wealth and energy of the country to the winning of the war. It can only be done by honest agreement amongst all the different elements and interests of the country, and it should have a government representative of the masses of the people, the common people whose guiding principle should be to defend them against organized privilege, which has heretofore had far too much control over the government of the country. In this election it is my desire that the common people should have opportunity to express themselves in a free and untrammelled manner at the polls, so that their views may obtain in the new parliament, and I trust that in every constituency, candidates, representative of this policy, may be nominated so that the people can vote for them.

These considerations I now place before my fellow countrymen of all creeds and of all origins for their appreciation and judgment. I have deemed it my duty more than ever, perhaps, in the course of my life, to give to the people, frankly and unequivocally upon the problems that now confront us. SUFFERED WITH NERVES COULD NOT KEEP QUIET

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected.

Many women become run down and worn out by household duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with their nerves shattered, and the heart action weakened.

On the first sign of any weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy, or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will at once quiet the shaking nerves, strengthen the weak heart and build up the entire system.

Mrs. F. Bailey, 221 East Street, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I was suffering very much with my nerves, so much so that I could not keep myself quiet at all. I was recommended to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I bought three boxes, and I must say I have derived much benefit from them, so much so that my friends here all noticed the change in me."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box at all dealers, or subject to direct receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BREAK A CHILD'S COULD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and expelled food will gently flow out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs," to evacuate the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters; sold here Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Hard to Drop Meat? All depends on what you eat as a substitute. It is a good time to study "food value." You may be eating the wrong foods, the foods that cost most and give the least nutriment. Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains more real, body-building nutriment, pound for pound, than meat, eggs or potatoes and costs much less. Two of these Biscuits with milk and a little fruit make a nourishing meal at a cost of a few cents. Make Shredded Wheat your "meat." A satisfying breakfast on which to start the day's work. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. Made in Canada.

IT IS HUMMING WITH INDUSTRY

Amherst a Busy Town—The Improved Germans Enjoy Life—Schools and Library—A Sewer Contract

A newspaper man visiting Amherst last week found the town humming with industry, as fresh orders for munitions had been received, and there was talk of three eight hour shifts in one large plant. An effort is also being made to have Amherst recognized as a centre for the training of soldiers.

time the boss had finished the cook had donned his coat. "You can cook for this camp," he said. The boss hastily explained that he was not finding fault, but the cook remarked that if he took charge of a cook-house he took charge, and that was all there was about it.

REMARKABLE FOR LOW HIT GAMES

During the Season Major Leagues Tied the No Hit Game Record; Many Games With Few Hits

The season of 1917 was a remarkable one for low hit games, particularly games in which the New York Yankees without a hit, writes "Shortstop" in the New York Times. In the American league there were seventy-five games in which pitchers held teams to three hits or less, and sixty-nine such games in the national league.

During the season the major leagues tied the no hit game record of 1908, when six hitless games were turned in. For a while it seemed certain that a new record for no hit games would be hung up in 1917, as all six of the no hit games were played by June 28.

By a freak coincidence all five no hit games in the American league occurred either the present world's champion White Sox or the former world's champion Red Sox, which wore the mantle last season. Cioetti, Chicago's crack hurler, pitched the first no hit game of the year when he pitched for the St. Louis Browns.

off him during the remainder of the afternoon. On April 24 Mogridge selected the Red Sox as his no hit victims, and on June 29 Ernie Shore, the big Boston right hander, defeated Washington without a hit.

BRITISH IN PALESTINE London, Nov. 4.—The British army in Palestine captured fifteen guns in the recent attack which resulted in the taking of Beersheba, it was officially announced today. The statement says:

"Fifteen guns were captured at Beersheba. Prisoners to the number of 444, including 26 officers, were captured at Gaza." In Mesopotamia the British troops operating against the Turks have driven a sharp salient into the Ottoman line northwest of Bagdad, having forced the enemy to withdraw along the Tigris about twenty miles from Due to the town of Teherit. The new drive places the apex of the British line approximately one hundred miles up the Tigris from Bagdad.

SMALLPOX WARNING

Dr. R. H. McGrath, secretary of the provincial board of health, officially announced last night that the smallpox situation in the up-river counties—Victoria, Carleton and York, is alarming. Fifteen cases are in quarantine in these three counties and one in Newcastle, Northumberland county. Contagion is widespread from original infection and contact in northern Aroostook county, and in Maine towns. Advice is given to commercial men and travellers generally to avoid travelling in infected districts and to submit immediately to successful vaccination, and avoid all public gatherings, telephone booths, drinking tanks and cup, and hotels in places where cases of smallpox are known to exist.

HOCKEY
Quebec Team Shake-Up
Quebec, Nov. 4.—That there is every indication of a general shake-up in the Quebec hockey team this season, was made evident yesterday when "Mike" Quinn, who has managed the Bulldogs since 1910, turned in his resignation and told the club executive that there was no possibility of altering his decision. No one seems anxious to take up Quinn's position and there will be an important meeting of the directors of the club on Wednesday evening when definite plans for the season will be outlined.

RING
Dillon Knocks Out Stanley
Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Jack Dillon, Indianapolis light heavyweight boxer, on Saturday night knocked out Joe Stanley of Chicago, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout. Dillon weighed 167 pounds and Stanley 159.

BASEBALL
Want Slier to Manage Browns.
New York, Nov. 5.—St. Louis critics, who are panning Fielder Jones because the Browns finished in the American League cellar, have nominated George Slier for the management of the team. Slier is one of the greatest players in baseball. He has made wonderful progress at the bat and in covering first base. He is a University of Michigan graduate, and is extremely popular with players and fans.

Murray's Low Record.
Jack Murray, who has been fired and retired three times by the Giants in the last three years, pretty nearly made a world's record for himself last season. Jack took part in twenty-two games, but at bat twenty-two times, during which time he made just one (1) hit, for a batting average of .045 for twenty-two games, but Murray is perhaps the first player calling himself an outfielder who finished the season with such a lowly average.

Still Panning Zimmerman.
Poor Heinie Zim. The sport writers in the United States, particularly those who write the "small time stuff" in which humor plays a more important part than true facts, are giving Zimmerman the most unhappy publicity campaign any ball player has ever been subjected to. The other day one of them said that no mention of a match race between Zimmerman and Omar Khayyam had been reported.

SUN—"treat that promises to win the favor that bestowed a long run for "Fog o' My Heart."
TRIBUNE—"The play must be set down as a distinct credit to the author. It was enthusiastically received.—Heywood Brown.
GLOBE—"If all plays with a message were like "The Brat" I would hug the propagandist drama to my lean and hungry bosom with enthusiasm. It is the most convincing play I have seen this season.

Harness Racing Season Review

Boston, Oct. 31.—The turf history of 1917, so far as the trotters and pacers is concerned, has been made. Back in the days when Palo Alto was the leading speed producing farm, championship miles were stepped off over California tracks as late in the year as November. Now the curtain falls on major performances when the Grand Circuit ends. The first year's racing under war conditions has been even more pleasing than the optimistic predicted, and has greatly surprised the men who last spring could see only a lean season. All along the line, on both mile and half-mile tracks, the sport has enjoyed one of its best years. Crowds everywhere have been large, and where there has been speculation the amount of business has touched the figures of the red letter meetings. The racing itself has also been of a very high order. On the half-mile tracks it has taken a better horse than ever before to win, and lucky indeed has been the owner who has not found keen competition. The sort of sport that the Grand Circuit horses have provided is well told by the way the money has been split up. Among the trotters there is not a winner above $25,000, something that has not happened before in more than ten years, while few pacers have drawn down more than $5,000. Last year the 2-year-old futurities were swept by the Real Lady and the 3-year-olds by Volga. This year the older divisions were evenly split between the Real Lady, Miss Bertha Dillon and Harvest Gale, while the 2-year-old money was divided among Nella Dillon, Peter June and Ruth Mainheist. The Cox stable gathered in more than $80,000, nearly $18,000 more than the second best, that of Murphy. McDonald was third with $12,000. Geers fourth with $23,000 and Serrill fifth with a few hundred less. Not a horse went through the campaign unbeaten and the money was widely scattered. The major records were not approached. St. Frisco's 2:01 3/4 being the nearest to Uiban's 1:58, while Miss Harris M., although entering the two-minute list, is more than four seconds away from the best mile by a pacer. The colt records were bettered in two instances. The Real Lady's 2:03 being the best ever for a 3-year-old trotter and Direct the Work's 2:08 3/4 that for 2-year-old pacers.

VETERANS OF CIVIL WAR ARE RECEIVED HEARTILY IN ACT
Large Audiences Enjoy New Opera House Programme of Diversified Character
The Five Veteran Boys in Blue, in a musical offering, forms the headliner in a bill of merit being presented at the Opera House this week. They give tuneful airs on violins and a guitar in addition to singing songs, which were sung by these men about the camp fires of the soldiers of the north during the great Civil War. The act is intersected with a little comedy, which makes it doubly pleasing. During the four performances on Saturday they made a decided hit with large and appreciative audiences and they received prolonged and hearty applause. To those who like good dancing an act by Rowley and Tainton would be sure to meet with their approval. Costumed in very pretty dresses the female member gave an exhibition of toe dancing, which was difficult yet cleverly executed. The man was an exceptionally good dancer and had some new steps which evoked hearty applause.

Nathan Bryson, an employe of George McKean & Co., Ltd., lumber merchants, was painfully injured on Saturday afternoon while loading a saw at the foot of Indian town. He was carrying a deal when he slipped and the heavy stick struck him in the side fracturing two of his ribs. Dr. Dalton attended the injured man, after which he was driven to his home in Elm street.

THE HORSES FOUND
Through the good work of Detectives Duncan and Briggs, two horses stolen from John E. Kelly were found near Spruce Lake on Saturday afternoon. It is supposed that they were taken by two soldiers who broke out of the hands of the police at Fairville Saturday after being charged with breaking into the house of Mr. Duncan. The police are still searching for the men in khaki, who apparently made a clean getaway. Nothing has as yet been seen of them.

ON THE RIVER
In another week or ten days it is expected that some of the river steamers will end their sailings for the season and go into winter quarters. The freighters are still holding out pretty well. Last year the May Queen went off the Grand Lake route on November 14, the Hampton tied up the next day and was followed by the Champlain on the 19th, the D. J. Purdy on the 20th and the Oconee on the 22nd. The Majestic was the last river boat to run coming down river from Burton's wharf on December 4.

F. Cogan. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

He was a native of Sweden, and came to this country more than thirty years ago. For the last few years he had been employed with the fertilizer company at East St. John. He was seventy-six years old, and leaves four sons, Thomas, of Little River; Sergt. Neil Petersen, of the Home Guard, and Carl and George, of this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

DECISIVE VICTORY OR THE RESULT NOT KNOWN FOR WEEKS

Voting Tomorrow in New York's Mayoralty Election—Votes For Women Question

New York, Nov. 5.—Political observers think that unless the successful candidates at the mayoralty election here tomorrow receive large pluralities in the city, the results may not actually be known for some weeks on account of the delay in counting the votes of thousands of soldiers and sailors.

While the majority has attracted chief interest in a campaign that has been one of the bitterest ever waged here, the fight of the suffragists for an amendment to the state constitution giving them the right to vote has aroused widespread interest. Suffrage leaders today predict victory for their cause.

BRAZIL'S NOTE TO KING GEORGE DECLARES FOR UNION WITH ALLIES

HALLOWEEN PRANK RECOUNTED IN COURT

Assault Charge by Woman Grows Out of it—Neighbors in Disagreement—Liquor Cases

Apparently Halloween pranks are not entirely confined to juveniles. Just then police court this morning it came to light that four staid married women were making merry with a sloven belonging to a neighbor on the night of the 31st. A charge was brought by one woman against the owner of the sloven for assault. It appears that the four women took the sloven from the yard of one in Elm street, where it was and ran it into the middle of the street. Just then the owner came along and ordered them to put the wagon back. They did this. He then told one woman by both shoulders and used some abusive language to her. She said she had had nothing to do with the joke and laid information against the man.

The sloven owner was then sworn in and he had heard that evening that he saw the complainant with several women were going to place his wagon on the railway track. He said that he saw the complainant with hands on the shafts of the wagon and the woman put up her hands. To protect himself he caught her arms.

The magistrate spoke of the good old times on Halloween when everybody went around masked and playing practical jokes. He said the jokes were not so innocent nowadays. The whole case was postponed until tomorrow morning.

A man in khaki was charged with drunkenness. He was sent below.

The case of Rawleigh Myers, charged with assaulting J. Boyd Coggins, was brought up but did not receive complete hearing as there were several witnesses for the prosecution. Mr. Coggins told of a long series of disputes between Myers family and himself who were neighbors in Cranston avenue. He said they had built up fences in front of his windows and had strewn the yard, which belonged to both of them, with glass in the night. He said that he obtained orders from the landlord for Myers to remove the fences, but did not do so and on November 1 he drove the car into one, breaking it down. Young Rawleigh Coggins, who thereupon rushed downstairs and into the yard, cursing and threatening Coggins. Coggins said he did not come out of the house until Rawleigh had gone upstairs again. Then he went out and was talking with a neighbor for some time when Rawleigh came down again and came at him as if to hit him. Coggins said he backed away and finally Rawleigh struck him twice. According to the testimony there was a general fight after that. The case was postponed until tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock.

A special effort has been made of late by Liquor Inspector Crawford and sub-inspector Barrett to round up the boot-leggers. Edward Burke was brought to court this morning. Another suspect, John Porter, made a getaway from the police authorities after he had been secured by the inspectors. The chief witness against Burke was Mrs. Esther Henderson, herself arrested on charge of keeping a disorderly house in Sheriff street. She swore that on October 27 she bought a bottle of gin for $2 from him and on November 2 a bottle of whiskey for $2. The case was postponed until tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

QUARTERS READY IN A FEW DAYS NOW

By January 1 Expected That Men Drafted Will be in Agricultural Hall Armory

It was learned this morning that the agricultural hall in the exhibition grounds, the old quarters of the 118th Battalion, now being remodelled for the occupation of the men drafted under the military service act in New Brunswick, will be ready within the next few days. The hall has been thoroughly renovated and painted throughout and new banks replace old ones which were in anyway damaged.

It was intimated that it was possible that by January 1, the first lot of men liable under the military service act would go into barracks.

An effort was being put forth to have the 28th Kiltie Battalion Band brought to this city to be attached to the New Brunswick Depot Battalion. There is yet nothing new in the matter, but hopes are entertained by the local military authorities that it will be possible to have the scheme carried out.

ONLY A CENT TO GET IN BUT THEY MADE $35.70

On Saturday afternoon girls from Fairville school, Grades 7 and 8, held a bazaar in the hall of the church of the Good Shepherd in aid of the Junior branch of the Lancaster Red Cross Society and the large sum of $35.70 was realized. The admission was only a cent and the enthusiastic children had been busy selling during the past ten days so quite a fair gathering of people attended.

The tables were well patronized. The following children were in charge: Candy table—Marjell Stears, Edith Estey, Jennie Seeger, Helen Scott. Fancy table—Westlene Dennison, Minnie Reid, Lucy Black. Ice cream—Ethel Rose, Dorothy Armstrong, Gertrude Masson. Gift bag—Luella McGill. Home cooking—Amy French, Evelyn Stears.

Guessing, beans in bottle and name of Teddy Bear—Georgina Mattson. Considering the unfavorable weather the endeavors of the girls were regarded as most successful.
