EXPECT MILLION ON STRIKE IN BRITAIN TONIGHT

GOOD-BYE TO OLD FRIENDS

New Ones Replace Old 70 and Prince of Wales Car on The I. C. R. Sussex Suburban

Two fixtures of the suburban service on the I. C. R. between St. John and Sussex, which have been features for the last thirty or forty years, namely old "70" the first class smoker, and "No. 29" the "Prince of Wales" car, are missing today from the train, having been replaced yesterday by new and up-to-date cars. Both of these cars have been in commission for nearly half a century. The "Prince of Wales" car was built in 1860 on the occasion of the visit of the late King Edward to this city when he was the Prince of Wales. It has been for years in use as part of the Sussex train.

New cars have been ordered on the run between Sussex and St. John. The milk traffic has greatly increased during the last two years and new milk cars, eighty feet in length, with sleeping car trucks, has been provided. This new car has twice the capacity of the other two.

Instead of running the baggage car for express there is now a combined baggage and second class car. In place of a baggage car and smoker, (a combination) there is now a combined first-class smoker and baggage. Being a long car it gives the same baggage and seating capacity. The old first class cars which have been taken off the route have been replaced by modern first-class equipment.

TO SELL RECORDS OF GRETA GREEN

London, Feb. 29.—The present operation Greeta Green is a little more than memory. It has ceased to be a record for her parents or her friends. The prudence of parents is prohibited, and therefore great interest attaches to the annual certificate of marriage at Greeta during the first part of the last century, and also a register kept by John Linton, whose house was the most popular for eloping couples. The sale will be at Sotheby's on March 29.

CONFERENCE AFTER CONFERENCE AND YET NO SOLUTION OF DIFFICULTY IS FOUND

Special Prayer Issued by Archbishops - Talk of Rush Legislation in Parliament to Arrange Minimum Wage Matter - Crisis Most Serious Since Days of Spanish Armada

(Canadian Press)

London, Feb. 29.—Upwards of three quarters of a million coal miners had laid down their tools and gone on strike at two o'clock this afternoon, when the day shift in the mines ended. The army of strikers swelled hourly throughout the morning when it became known that no settlement had been reported.

London, Feb. 29.—That all hope is not yet lost, in the best that can be said of the coal situation, which maintained an optimistic attitude when the clouds seemed gathering most thickly, last heard yesterday, when the cabinet met at the conference in Downing street, continued to follow one another without appearing to have broken down of late yesterday, and the result was a deadlock.

This does not mean that no progress was made. What Premier Asquith visited the king at Buckingham Palace in the afternoon, he was able to inform His Majesty that sixty per cent of the mine owners had accepted the principle of a minimum wage. However, the "South Wales, Scottish and Northumberland" employers refused to agree to the principle, and unless their intransigent attitude should be changed at the eleventh hour, the negotiations must come to nothing.

The miners' representatives on the other hand, rejected the government's proposals for the acceptance of the principle of a minimum wage. It was in different districts by joint commissions with government representatives upon them. The miners' representatives held out for minimum wages according to the schedule drawn up for the different districts by the miners' federation.

A further conference will be held today, when John Linton, whose house was the most popular for eloping couples, will be on strike.

The anxiety of the nation is evidenced by the fact that the government has drafted a bill to amend the law of libel and to give the owners and the miners a right to sue for libel in case of necessity.

New York, Feb. 29.—The representatives of the anthracite coal miners who have been here for several days formulating their demands in a right way, have concluded their deliberations for the present. They will return to meet the operators at a conference in this city, on March 13.

President White of the United Mine Workers, as soon as he returns to Indianapolis will arrange for a conference over the demands of the bituminous workers.

Word has been received from the miners' leaders are non-committal. "We are not looking for a strike," declared White, before leaving New York, "but we insist on our demands. The strike depends on the operators."

ROOSEVELT IS AT DESK AGAIN

Not Worried by Reports of Cool Reception in Massachusetts - No Plans for Immediate Action

New York, Feb. 29.—Apparently not in the least worried by reports that his reception in Massachusetts had been a cold one, Colonel Roosevelt arrived back in town and resumed his work in his editorial office here today. It was his first day in New York since his announcement that he was willing to accept the presidential nomination, and a large number of reporters were sent to see him. He said he had made no definite plans for the time before the republican national convention. He has received a large number of invitations to speak, but said he did not wish to make extended trips if he could avoid it. Colonel Roosevelt was asked if he would make any comment about dispatches from Washington bearing on information that nine governors had sent telegrams to the Taft headquarters there pledging themselves to support President Taft for re-nomination.

"I haven't heard anything about it and am not a prophet," he replied.

DIED IN THE WEST

Ray Ogilvie Was Well Known Here and Throughout Provinces

A telephone message last evening from his son-in-law, Warren Ogilvie, of Truro, N. S., to Mr. Scott, of Douglas street, conveyed the news of the death of his brother, Ray Ogilvie, a young man well known here and throughout the maritime provinces. He died suddenly in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, yesterday and was due to pronounce Mr. Ogilvie was on a western trip as one of the traveling staff of the Southern Hat and Cap Company of Truro, of which his brother, Warren, is manager, and he had been in Moose Jaw for several days.

On receiving word that he was ill, his brother sent Doctor Cook, of Truro, to Moose Jaw, but the illness was too severe to be aided by medical skill, and the death occurred after only a brief sickness. The doctor was with him when he died, and will bring the body home for burial to Truro. Mr. Ogilvie was about twenty-three years of age, and had a great many friends by whom he will be missed. His mother survives, as well as three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Wilson, Warren, and Roy, while the sisters are Mrs. Ross of Dartmouth, and Mrs. Thompson of Quebec, Mass. Mr. N. C. Scott left at noon today for Truro to be with her daughter during the funeral time.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKETERS CLIMB UP ON ENGLISH

London, Feb. 29.—Australia made an excellent recovery in the last innings of the first and final test cricket match with England. The bad light and rain handicapped the batsmen yesterday on the Sydney grounds, but in spite of this the Australians had an excellent chance of winning the match, requiring 300 runs to capture it. Australia scored 193 for the loss of three wickets, and now require 170 runs with seven wickets to fall.

When play ceased on Tuesday, England had scored 298 runs for nine wickets. With the resumption of the match yesterday, the final English wicket fell for 218 runs, making a total of 516 for the two innings, leaving the English side 302 runs ahead. If the wicket should go to pieces, the Australian chances of success will be less encouraging to the home club supporters.

APPOINTMENT OF A SUSSEX MAGISTRATE IN QUESTION IN COURT

An Interesting Matter Before Judge McKeown - Divorce and County Courts

Justice McKeown, in chambers this morning, delivered judgment in the case of Hiram W. Polkins vs. Ludlow Campbell, an action of debt tried before William N. Biggar, magistrate of Sussex. In October last the case was taken before Justice McKeown on review on the ground that Magistrate Biggar had no authority to try the case. Justice McKeown referred the matter to the supreme court, and it was argued on November 15.

His Honor said the supreme court were unanimous in holding that, in as much as the act incorporating the town of Sussex made no provision for the appointment of a sitting magistrate, the government council exceeded its authority in appointing Mr. Biggar. The judgment was set aside with costs. Jonas & Fowler were for the plaintiffs and Dr. L. A. Curry for the defendant.

His Honor said he would give judgment in the case of the King vs. McIntyre and Hall vs. Donaldson on March 19.

Justice McKeown held a short session of the divorce court this morning. In the case of Cook vs. Cook the evidence of John Kerr, barrister, who was commissioner for the state of Massachusetts, proving the marriage laws, in the state of Maine was taken; after which His Honor adjourned the case until March 20.

County Court. The case of Livingston vs. Walker was before Judge McKewen in the county court this morning. The action is for the balance of an account which the defendant says he settled. The plaintiff and Frederick Nason were examined. The case was adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon.

George H. V. Belyea is for the plaintiff and H. H. Pickett for the defendant. In the case of Samuel H. Seelye vs. William H. Hughes, in which the plaintiff sued for $28.50 damages for loss of his horse which broke a leg while being driven by the defendant and had to be shot, a verdict was found for the defendant in the county court yesterday. George H. V. Belyea was for the plaintiff and J. A. Barry for the defendant.

RICHESON BREAKING DOWN FAST

Condemned Murderer Cannot Sleep and Appetite Has Gone

FEARED HE IS LOSING MIND

Doubt if Slayer of Avis Lindell Will Reach Electric Chair - Never Sleeps More Than an Hour at a Time

(Canadian Press)

Boston, Feb. 29.—Clarence V. T. Richeson, condemned murderer, is rapidly becoming but a shadow of his former self, according to the officers of the Charles street jail.

Practically all of the guards who come into contact with him, are convinced that he is steadily losing his mind. They describe his condition as the worst form of melancholy. Though every possible precaution is being taken by Sheriff Quinn against physical or mental disability of his charge, the officers are beginning to doubt if Richeson will live to see the electric chair. His longest period of rest in sleep is seldom an hour and he has very few of these. Richeson started in, as a great eater, but has now reached the point where the "chicken" dishes barely tempt him to break his fast.

The constant pacing to and fro in the cell, that characterizes the first part of the day by day, is giving place to a morose about from chair to bed and bed to chair, never staying in either place for more than a few minutes at a time.

NATIONALISTS THREATENED

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—(Special)—It is said the meaning that the vote of the nationalist members who threatened to bolt the Manitoba legislature, has been given to the Ontario government and in an article published in the issue of Feb. 27, makes a pathetic appeal to the actual ruler of Canada for the sake of peace and good-will.

The New Brunswick government will have to decide what they will do about it. Ottawa, Feb. 29.—The Ontario government has granted a right of way through Manitoba territory to a port on Hudson Bay. Senator Dewar of Truro, N. S., has proposed to put a question on the order paper of the senate in the form of a resolution that the government should desire the insertion of a clause guaranteeing the right of the minority in regard to separate schools.

CHAPTER VII. The Third Victim. Something had happened. I awoke the next morning with a start and sat up in bed listening to the strange confusion in the hotel. Instinctively I recognized that the sensation of the curtain that so affected me was something more than the feeling every one experiences on suddenly awaking for the first time in a strange place.

"Who's the matter?" I asked. "Haven't you heard about it?" she asked in wonder. "Heard about what?" "The suicide in the hotel—in the room right under yours. It was discovered this morning. The coroner just came and is getting ready to hold the inquest."

"Who is he?" I asked. I was thinking it might be Hugh Crandall, dead in some accident, but the woman's answer quickly dispelled the thought. "It wasn't he. It's a woman."

"She was sitting there crying," she said. "A sentence of the maid's testimony suddenly thrust itself forward from my subconsciousness as if demanding my attention and I listened intently to what she was saying. That was the way it happened that I didn't make up the room the day before. When I went in to do it she was sitting there crying and tearing a letter to bits."

"What was her name?" "She was registered here in the hotel. The name's on the book. You can see it for yourself. I don't know if it was his real name or not."

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"My friend," said Mrs. Louise Noble, "you and I and Fred, young, heedless cry, living in the wicked town of New York, may laugh sometimes at old things like the law and religion when they say 'thou shalt not.' We may think that phrase was written for old times. And our days are not 'thou shalt not' any more. But my friend, there comes to all of us sometimes the knowledge that the law and religion are right. WHAT THEY SAY WE SHALL NOT DO—THAT WE CANNOT DO WITHOUT OUR SUPERSTITION. I have learned that. Also I have learned that the wages of sin is death. It's worse than death—it's a Hell on earth."

Louise Snydman was the wife of Walter Lapenard Snydman, a New York millionaire. After eight years of marriage she decided that she was misnamed and eloped with Frederick Noble, a plumber. Mr. Snydman divorced her and she married Mr. Noble. After living together less than six months, less than three weeks after their marriage, these two unhappy people committed suicide. And the reason for this was that they had found that the love (?) which caused them to defy conventions and morality, which they looked upon as an eternal affinity decreed by God and nature, and not to be denied, no longer existed. The monotony and common-places of ordinary married life had killed this love, which was so great that they were willing to sacrifice everything to it, in less than three weeks.

Probably you know most of these facts. They were chronicled widely enough. I am merely relating them for those who did not chance to read them, and recalling them for those who did. In the words I have quoted, I think Louise Snydman preached as powerful a sermon as any minister ever gave. For the minister tells us the wages of sin is death, because that is what he believes and she knows. She had received that wages, and more than that—a Hell on earth. In an ordinary married life, where the marriage is between two people who love each other dearly, where there is a reasonable degree of property, where there are many friends and many interests and activities to add to the happiness of both parties, there is, nevertheless, much. Now tell me, if there is all this there is something that is everything for favor happiness, what will there be in that union, which, by defying conventions, has thrown away standing and friends and the joys of a lawful respected domestic hearth with happy children about it, and very likely material prosperity to boot?

In every married life, the lovers live, in which passion is a prime element, must gradually change. The love may become affection, which, while it opens for anyone with whom he lives. It may cool into something little more than mutual sufficiency. It may degenerate into actual dislike, it may develop into sweat and enduring friendship and tenderness, which to me is the most beautiful love on earth. What chance is there for this happy outcome in a marriage like that of Louise Snydman and her affianced?

"Affinity," Earle couldn't live with his first wife because he decided they weren't made. He broke up his home and made his little child fatherless to go to his "affinity," Julia Kattner, whom he said was his true love. In about ten years she appeared in the divorce courts, testifying that her soul mate choked and beat her. "My friend," says Louise Noble, here comes to all of us sometimes the knowledge that the law and religion are right. WHAT THEY SAY WE SHALL NOT DO—THAT WE CANNOT DO WITHOUT SUPERSTITION. I have learned that. Also I have learned that the wages of sin is death. It's worse than death—it's a Hell on earth."

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY Young Lord Paquet Will Be Third Husband of Olive May—A Peasage Paid for—More Than One Father of Country

One of the other young lords asked questions, prompted plainly more by curiosity than by intelligent effort to ascertain the facts, but it is plain that Mr. Williams had revealed all that he knew, and he was dismissed. Doctor Allen, who had been sent for as soon as the suicide was discovered, gave it as his opinion that the woman had hung herself early in the evening before, as nearly as he could judge about five o'clock. "Who was it found the body?" the coroner asked. "Mary Evans, the chambermaid," she constable volunteered. "Here she is, right?"

Wrigley's makes it easier for them to care for their teeth than not to care.

If your children chew it every day, the friction and the mint leaf juice preserve their teeth indefinitely.

While they chew it they also help digestion. Most children don't chew food properly—don't create enough saliva. Chewing this dainty helps digest the "gulgings."

And all this applies to you—Mr. or Mrs. or Miss!

Buy it by the Box of any dealer. It costs less. Pass it around after meals. Look for the spear. Wrigley's Spearmint Pepsin Gum. The flavor lasts.

Fearful Tale of Cannibalism Crime From Persia—40,000 Starving

Washington, Feb. 29.—Startling allegations of cannibalism among starving Persians are contained in letters from Tehran to the Persian American Educational Society here from Dr. Susan not Moody, formerly of Chicago. She declares fathers are eating their children and children are eating each other in northwestern Persia where famine has followed the sacking of twenty-five towns and villages by the rebel troops of Salar 2d Dowlat, brother of the deposed Shah. Forty thousand people are starving, it is declared, and the society has started a relief fund.

Was Burns a Curier? Though it is impossible to say with certainty that the Scottish national poet was a curier, these lines from "Tam Samson's Plaid" will cover an inquiry, as Burns was an admirer of the game and thoroughly familiar with it:—

"When Winter wuffles up his cloak, And binds the mire like a rock; And to the lochs in winter dock, Wh' glessemee speed, What will Tam stann at the cock? Tam Samson's d'ed!"

In this connection an amusing mistake was made by the author of a book entitled "The Port's Birds," published in 1883, in which Burns' lines on curiers were reproduced. A Scotch critic, curious to know how the lines quoted had any relation with the subject of the book, ventured to make an inquiry, and was surprised and amused to learn that the author thought a curier to be a species of curlew.

Drinking Habits in Britain Improving From a recent report issued by the commissioner of customs and excise it would appear that the family use of alcoholic beverages is steadily declining in the United Kingdom. This report for the year ending March 31 shows that there has been a steady decrease in the quantity of home-made spirits distilled in the United Kingdom, amounting to more than 14,000,000 gallons in ten years, almost one-fourth of the total production. Coincidentally there has been a marked decrease in the quantity of home-made beer retained for consumption, amounting to about 2,500,000 standard barrels, with a decline in the use per head of the population from 30.00 standard gallons to 22.11.

FREDERICTON PROPERTY. In Fredericton as well as in St. John preparations are being made for expansion and subdivisions are being laid out in building lots. HIS FIX EXACTLY

An Episcopal clergyman who was passing his vacation in a remote country district met an old farmer who declared that he was a "Discipal". "To what parish do you belong?" asked the clergyman. "I was the answer. "Who confirmed you, then?" was the next question. "Nobody," answered the farmer. "Then how are you an Episcopalian?" asked the clergyman. "Well," was the reply, "you see it's this way: Last winter I went down to Philadelphia a-visiting, an' while I was there I went to church, an' it was called 'Discipal,' an' I heard them say the they left undone the things what they'd ought or done, an' they'd done some things what they oughtn't to do, an' I saw to my self says I: 'That'd my fix exactly,' and ever since then I've been a 'Discipalian'."

TO PENETRATE BORNEO

Smithsonian Expedition Will go Into Unknown Wilds—Seek Data of Animals

A Smithsonian expedition, directed by H. C. Raven, will start in a few days for Borneo, where a collection of vertebrates and ethnological material will be made for the United States National Museum.

The field work will be carried on in eastern Borneo, the natural history of which practically unknown. Nothing relating to it has been published, and there are no collections from this region in the United States, although the National Museum has some from the west and south coasts of Borneo. A friend of the expedition is Mr. Raven, who will carry out the field work, is a young and enthusiastic naturalist with considerable experience. He hopes to procure a quantity of interesting material, including the characteristic mammal of the country, such as orang-utan, wild pig, squirrel and smaller rodents, and possibly rhinoceros and tapir.

It is his intention to secure passage on the next steamer for Singapore, from which port he will sail directly to Sabah, Java, where he will confer with the Dutch authorities and the American consul in regard to his credentials, etc., and then sail to Samarinda, Borneo.

At Samarinda he hopes to secure a native hunter and be joined by one of the small trading slavers which follow the streams for nearly 20 miles. Arriving at the end of the course, he will start down in the bush, stopping wherever and when he deems it desirable to make his collection. The trip probably will take up the greater part of a year, and if successful will provide much valuable scientific information and many extremely interesting specimens for the national museum.

The following names have been selected from the list of persons who have made application for Borneo licenses in Lawrence County, Pa.:—Mary Stein, Margaret Boon, Anthony Sidor, William Beyer, Michael Skout, N. G. Barral, John Drowosky, Fred Steiner, Anton Weiss, Edward Pickles, Charles Korns, John Firsiack, John Stays, John Sator, William Abraham, Fred Lager, Sylvester Martine.

NEW BRUSH FACTORY ADDS TO BOOM FEELING IN CITY

The list of new or enlarged industries which are on the programme of this city for the coming spring is enough in itself to encourage those who are looking for a big expansion here quite apart from the immense expenditure which will be made by the government and the railway in providing terminal facilities at Courtenay Bay. Already there is the definite announcement of a new brush factory, an explosive factory, a piano factory, a paper mill, to say nothing of the dry dock and ship repair plant.

In addition to these another brush factory, a brass foundry and the pulp mill are completing preparations to double their capacity. There are also rumors of several other concerns which are considering the advisability of establishing works here. Other manufacturing and wholesale houses are planning to erect warehouses to make this their distributing centre. These are a few of the indications that the advantages of St. John for industrial and commercial purposes are being recognized and the city is started on a new period of expansion and development.

A former St. John man, who has been in Montreal for some years, said yesterday that he had heard of several English houses planning to establish branches here and that he had also heard of a brush factory to be started in St. John. He predicted that St. John would, in future years, take the place of Montreal as the chief distributing centre for the Canadian W. Pederson of W. & K. Pederson has purchased for people he represents, forty acres of David Penock's farm on the Sandy Point road.

An information has been given that plans for a new city hall, for the centralization of the chief distributing centre.

DENTAL SCIENCE TO AID OF CHILDREN IN THE MONTREAL SCHOOLS

Big Percentage Found Afflicted With Unsound Teeth, But Conditions Are Being Improved

(Montreal Witness.)

Of the 19,883 children, medically examined in the public schools last year 27,348 were found unhealthy, and 23,227 were found in good health. Of those returned in poor health 19,883 are recorded as having decayed teeth.

These figures are contained in the annual report of the health department on medical inspection in the common schools of Montreal, which has just been prepared for presentation to the board of control. It is explained that the large number given in the return as unhealthy means that they were not seriously afflicted with disease. The vast proportion merely have teeth troubles. In view of this the efforts of the medical inspectors will be devoted to the improvement of the pupils' teeth and dental science will be introduced in their treatment. Dr. J. E. Laberge, chief of the contagious disease department, said that tuberculosis, indigestion, and diseases of the alimentary canal frequently originate in decayed teeth. More nurses will also be required to perform their work properly. They are sent to the homes of children found ailing and instruct the mothers on the care of their infants.

Dr. Laberge highly praised the achievements of the nurses in this branch of their duties, and he showed by several examples the good that was accomplished by them.

Some of the details of the disease found reveal the fact that 2,946 cases of various ailments were found. Other troubles are as follows: Nasal obstruction, 1,962; headache, 1,222; deafness, 888; defects in hearing, 12; defects in vertical column, 45; defective legs, 7; heart diseases, 17; sore throats, 68; ear diseases, 165; skin diseases, 307; sore eyes, 933; wounds, 229; coughs, 418; diphtheria, 6; ringworm, 288; scabies, 84; contagious skin diseases, 51; mumps, 174; measles, 225; scarlet fever, 53.

Those found not vaccinated numbered 2,140; there were 2,616 vaccinated, 18,772 had their vaccinations certified. All the children now in the schools are vaccinated. Dr. Laberge said that the foregoing statistics showed great improvement over all preceding years. One year 20,000 children were sent home, afflicted with contagious diseases alone.

BATTLE WITH SNAKES HOURS IN OLD WELL

Cowboy Terribly Bitten in a Fifteen Hour Contest

Galveston, Feb. 28.—Fifteen hours battling with a dozen or more snakes fought below ground in an abandoned well was the experience of Charles Wolbourne, a cowboy of Valence county. When the snakes, eight dead snakes measuring in length from two to four feet were taken out, but the details of his experience will not be known until he recovers, and his condition is said to be serious.

Wolbourne was riding back and his horse returned to the little ranch alone. A search was begun and the man's screams led the searchers to the well on the side of an old ranch. With ropes he was pulled out. His hands were swollen to twice their normal size, but his heavy riding boots and leather breeches saved his life.

TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION IN NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 28.—The Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance is in annual session in this city. The chief business is the consideration of amendments which will be sought to the Nova Scotia Temperance Act. These are chiefly in the direction of making the law more easily enforced. It is a prohibitory law except in towns and villages where the Scott Act is in force, and in Halifax where the old license system is allowed under last year's act to continue till a plebiscite is taken to determine whether Halifax also shall come under the prohibitory law.

An important amendment the temperance people propose is one to remove the necessity of the plebiscite, but to bring in prohibition for Halifax without its next year.

Another proposal is the prohibition of the publication of liquor advertisements in the press of this province.

A deputation from the alliance will wait on Premier Murray tomorrow at noon.

Learn why PURITY FLOUR is unlike any other brand

PURITY FLOUR is unlike any other brand of flour. No two milling companies follow exactly the same process of milling. In fact, no two different brands of flour in the world are exactly alike in quality.

And here is another fact worth knowing: Every wheat berry contains both high-grade and low-grade portions.

The process of milling PURITY flour costs more than to mill ordinary flour. The low-grade portions are separated and excluded. PURITY is an ALL HIGH-GRADE, hard wheat flour. It has higher strength, greater absorption and greater expansion. It is a thirstier, more elastic flour. It drinks more water and expands into more loaves.

Use PURITY FLOUR for your next batch of bread. Count the loaves. You'll find you have made "MORE BREAD AND BETTER BREAD" from PURITY than when you used an equal weight of weaker and cheaper flour.

PURITY FLOUR

"More bread and better bread"

IMAGINE, if you can, how much whiter, and more toothsome, and more nutritious, the bread made from such a HIGH-GRADE flour must be.

And can you imagine yourself enjoying the flaky pie-crust and the light, delicate cake?—your reward for using PURITY flour?

When making pastry, please remember to add more shortening than required with ordinary flour—for an account of its extra strength, PURITY FLOUR requires more shortening for best pastry-results.

Yes, PURITY FLOUR costs slightly more than ordinary flour. But use it once and you'll say it's worth more—much more—than the difference.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE BARTY

A. A.: I know just how you feel, but unless you discard powder and use a plain spumax lotion, you cannot expect to overcome the oily, "sandy" condition of the skin. Get four ounces spumax and dissolve in one-half pint hot water, then add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. This makes an ideal lotion and will clear the skin of pimples, blackheads and other impurities. The spumax lotion is invisible when on and does not rub or blow off. Using it gives the complexion a velvety smoothness and exquisite tint.

Nellie: You cannot avoid the pain and expense attending the use of the electric needle, if you get an original open-necked age of dactone, and with a little of the powder mix enough water to form a paste. Apply to hairy surface and in two or three minutes scrape off and the hairs come with it. This wash the skin and you will find it smooth and white. You will have to pay a dollar an ounce for the tonic. It is a trifling sum if it never fails.

A. B.: The shampoo you mention contains "free" alkali, and it is no doubt that causes your hair to grow coarse and brittle and fall out. A cleansing and very beneficial shampoo can be made by dissolving a teaspoonful of castor oil in a cup of hot water. This labors freely and loosens every particle of dirt and dandruff. Rinsing leaves the scalp immaculately clean and the hair dries quickly and evenly, while it takes on a lustre and softness truly charming.

Freda: From what you say, your condition is serious, and I would suggest taking a blood-cleanser. You will find that plain karoese, found in any drug store, is splendid for ridding the system of impurities and rebuilding waste tissue. This acts gently and gradually stimulates every organ in the body. You can make your own tonic by dissolving one-half cupful sugar in a half-pint alcohol, then adding one ounce karoese and hot water to make a day, and you will soon be well and strong and be able to enjoy a good night's rest.

Mrs. E.: The cold winds are very trying on any complexion. However, if you make up and use this greasiness cream, your skin will soon become soft, clear and velvety and wrinkles and other complexion troubles will be a thing of the past. Into a half-pint cold water add two teaspoonfuls glycerine and one ounce alcohol. Let remain several hours before using. Apply freely after cleansing and drying the skin, massaging gently until it disappears. A few such treatments will banish pimples, blackheads and other impurities and give a pink and white complexion to an old or faded complexion.

CAUGHT A BAD COLD.

DEVELOPED BRONCHITIS. SHE COULD HARDLY SPEAK.

Bronchitis began with a tightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing, hoarseness, and there is a dry, harsh, croupy cough.

After a few days mucus begins to be raised. This is at first white, but later of a greenish or yellow color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

Cure the first symptoms of bronchitis by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thus prevent it becoming chronic and perhaps turning to consumption.

Mrs. Edward Travers Campbellton, N.B., writes:—"I thought it my duty to write and let you know what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I caught a very bad cold which developed into bronchitis. I was so choked up I could hardly breathe. I tried many medicines but they did me no good, and I had almost given up in despair, when a friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle and felt much better, and by the time I had taken four I was completely cured, and I can assure you I cannot say too much in its praise, as it is all I claim for it, and more."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Millbarn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MOULDER'S WIFE GETS NEARLY TWO MILLIONS

Will of Wealthy Uncle in Far West a Surprise to Mrs. Gregory

New York, Feb. 28.—Mrs. John D. Gregory of Watertown, learned this week that she had become heir to the greater part of $2,000,000 left by an uncle in the far west. The uncle was Arthur Randall, a wealthy steel manufacturer, who died in the west recently. He was seventy-five years old.

Mrs. Gregory is the wife of John D. Gregory, an iron moulder.

Mrs. Randall, who left the fortune, was made from being engaged in the manufacture of steel, an owner of every mine, all of which will fall into the hands of Mrs. Gregory. This fact was made known to her by her uncle's lawyers. She also will get a large portion of real estate after everything is cleared up.

"The news of the fortune left me by my uncle was a surprise to me," said Mrs. Gregory today. "It was totally unexpected. I am making preparations to go west with my husband at the earliest possible moment. My plans for the future

FERRY ENGINEERS WANT INCREASE TO $90 A MONTH

Request Laid Before Committee In Letter This Afternoon

The engineers of the city ferry department are asking for an increase in salary in accordance with a new scale adopted by the National Association of Marine Engineers. Their request is contained in the following letter submitted to the ferry committee at the monthly meeting this afternoon:

St. John, N. B., Feb. 29, 1912.

Superintendent of Ferries:

Dear Sir:—At a recent meeting of the National Association of Marine Engineers a resolution was unanimously passed to fix a new schedule of wages for engineers holding second and third-class licenses, as follows:—

For boats requiring 2nd class engineers as chief, $90 a month.

For boats requiring 3rd class engineers as chief, $70 a month.

We would respectfully call your attention to the fact that at the present time engineers on tug boats in St. John are getting $90 a month and found, and $15 a month extra for board when boat is laid up for repairs. We who have charge of far, more costly plants and much larger responsibilities are getting only $70 a month and find ourselves.

We therefore, sir, feel justified in asking you to recommend to the aldermen of the council that the wages of the engineers on the ferry be $90 a month from April 1.

(Signed)
T. B. W. HELPLEY
W. A. CUNNINGHAM,
WM. T. WARKS.

The ferry superintendent reports that the total cost of maintenance to date has been $16,112.97. During the last month he has commenced repairing and renewing the piling and fitting beamlock planking on the north side of the boats to keep out floating debris.

For the last ten years Mr. Maher had been district foreman of the Western Union lines in the town of Miramichi and New Sydney, giving special attention to the cable circuits between these points. He has had the confidence and respect of his employers, and was universally liked and esteemed by those working under him. He was a true man in every sense of the word, and was well known among many of the higher officials of the company in New York, and was held in the highest esteem by them all. PETERSON IS FREED

Police Court Case Ends—Must Shun Bar Rooms and Report to Magistrate

On condition that he keep away from bar-rooms and report to Magistrate Ritchie monthly while he remains in the city, William Peterson, who was yesterday allowed out on suspended sentence of ten years in Dorchester by Judge Forbes, on one charge, was released from custody in the police court this morning by Magistrate Ritchie on another. Peterson was on trial in the police court on charge of breaking and entering the Church of England Institute rooms in Germain street.

"In looking over the evidence in this case," said His Honor, "I find that there is but little to convict you. Nothing was stolen from the building and the only piece of evidence against you was the finding of a steel pinch bar, similar to one which was made for you by William Scott, a blacksmith, in the store. However, since they have given you another chance in the County Court, I also feel disposed to do so.

"I have received information from different sources that you have been doing fairly well this last few years, and are trying to lead a better life. When arrested you were charged with drunkenness. You will be fined $8 or two months in jail on this charge, but I will also allow this to stand against you."

Peterson promised faithfully to do better in the future and was allowed to go. An additional charge of stealing a turkey for the defence informed the court that restitution had been made.

Gerald Carten and Frederick Wilson, two young lads charged with fighting together in Charlotte street, were each fined $20. The fine was allowed to stand. The lads said that the whole matter arose over a pair of rubbers. Both are employed as bell boys in a King street hotel and one contended that the other had taken his rubbers. His Honor warned them to be careful in the future.

Three prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $4 each.

TO FLY FROM GLACE BAY TO IRELAND

Brooklyn Man to Try it—Wants Canada and the United States to Police Ocean During Trial

(Sydney Post).

John E. Sloane, a wealthy young engineer of Brooklyn, N. Y., is building a hydroplane in which he will attempt to fly across the Atlantic the latter part of this spring. The machine, which will be of unusual size, will carry two aviators. The start will be made at Glace Bay from a strip of beach which already has been leased.

The course is to lie northeast by east Newfoundland, which is ninety miles away. Here the craft will make a stop. The next stage of the journey, which is dead away for the Irish coast, will be the most difficult. It comprises 2,700 miles.

Sloane has many applications from well-known aviators to be enrolled for the voyage.

In order to protect them while they are flying over the ocean Sloane has applied to the Canadian government and to the secretary of the navy of the United States. He is anxious that the course be patrolled by at least eight swift war vessels. To this end he has secured the tentative consent from both the Canadian and United States governments to provide the necessary marine policing.

WRONG MAN ARRESTED

Now There is Likelihood of An Action for Damages

An interesting situation arose in the city court this morning. A man named Currie was suing Stanley Brown for a month's rent, which amounted to $6. Constable Stilwell informed the court that the man had been arrested by him on Tuesday afternoon for the debt. The constable was told to go into jail and get the man. When he appeared with the prisoner, the complainant in the case said that the prisoner was not the man wanted. The name of the man arrested is Henry Brown and he knew nothing whatever of the matter. He was therefore released from custody.

It is altogether likely that a suit will be brought against the constable for false arrest as the man has been in jail since Tuesday afternoon. He was represented in court this morning by J. A. Barry. Interesting developments may follow soon.
