A MERRY WAR IS ON IN NEWCASTLE

Miramichi Hotel Is Closed and Citizens Take Sides in the Fight Over Scott Act Enforcement.

The town of Newcastle is much aroused over the denunciation that has followed the attempt to rigidly enforce the Scott Act and many opinions are expressed pro and con on the subject. The Miramichi hotel closed its doors after it had stood repeated fines and a raid in which about $300 worth of liquor was seized and will be destroyed by order of the court. The manager states that in consequence of the orders he had received from the police he had stopped selling all liquor but before he had a chance to send this out of the country the hotel was raided and the goods taken. Even if he had not been selling he understood that the fines were to go on for past offences against the act and rather than suffer such heavy and from his standpoint unfair losses, he closed up the hotel after acquainting his brother who is in the west with the state of affairs and receiving a communication from him to the same effect. The house did not pay without the operation of the bar and it is a smaller loss to pay the $10 rental each day and take nothing in, than to run the house. The house is not a public property as many suppose and it can be closed or opened at the proprietor's will, though naturally the latter would not close it if he could get along in any other way. The hotel now has all its blinds down and presents a far different appearance from the normal bustle and activity that it generally shows. The yard is closed by a high gate of boards roughly nailed together and the yard which usually contains a half-dozen teams of guests and occasionally a few autos is now the sole property of the hotel's cow which provides the necessary laetral fluid for the few who remain in the house for its protection.

Speaking with some of the council who are in favor of the strict enforcement of the act the opinion seemed to be general among them that the fight would go on and the aldermen would not give in, though what steps they were taking to avoid accommodations for the public under the unusual circumstances could not be learned. The inconvenience to the travelling public is no small one and merchants are finding that the travellers who carry heavy lines of samples are unable to display their goods in the town and already some have informed the Newcastle buyers that they must come to Chatham to inspect the lines they carry. A large number of the up river citizens seem to have taken sides with the hotel management judging by their actions on last Saturday night. It is said that about ninety of them came down in the Dorothy No. 2, but that when they found they could not get a bottle or even a quencher for their thirst they refused to make their customary purchases in the stores and informed some of the shopkeepers that under the circumstances they would do their buying in both lines of wet and dry goods elsewhere.

The county court met at Newcastle yesterday and provision had to be made for the judge and some of the outside lawyers in private homes. The contest will certainly be a hot one with interest not only in Newcastle but throughout the county. Gazette.

CAMPBELLTON WILL HAVE GREAT ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION ON JULY 11

Back to New Brunswick Movement is Making Great Headway—Splendid Program of Amusements for the Day is Being Arranged

SOME OF THE COMMITTEES

Campbellton has come into line with other towns in the province for the celebration of "Old Home Week."

The Board of Trade backed by the Merchants and Manufacturers Association put the matter in good shape, and the idea of a celebration on the anniversary of the great fire has been enthusiastically taken up by all classes in the town.

A committee was appointed by the Board of Trade consisting of F. E. Blackhall chairman; W. H. Marquis Treasurer, Chas. A. Alexander Secy, L. G. Pinault M. D., and A. E. G. McKenzie who arranged the matter in business form as a celebration committee, and in further meetings getting all their committees at work. The various committees have all had meetings and much enthusiasm prevails among the members.

LIST OF COMMITTEES

Transportation—J. T. Reid, Dr. Murray, A. A. Andrew, Thos. Malcolm, H. H. Bray, and F. M. Anderson.

Advertising—A. A. Andrew, Dr. Martin, A. T. LeBlanc, J. T. Reid, J. A. Theberge, J. Glendinning, J. A. Landry, F. E. Shepherd, C. S. O. Crockett, Wm. Murray, and J. G. MacColl.

Decorations—Dr. Martin, F. F. Masheon, J. F. Gallagher, Geo. Vermette, S. A. Poirier, Thos. Ellsworth, S. W. Dimock, F. E. Shepherd, Wm. Ferguson, W. J. Christie, D. Trueman, Jas. P. Jardine, Victor Scott, M. M. Mowat, J. R. McKenzie, Dr. Lunan.

WHAT IT MEANS

July 11th 1912 will be the second anniversary of the great fire when but for the exception of a few houses Campbellton was laid desolate. On July 11th 1912, there were 850 permanent buildings, and for the year ending Dec. 31st 1911, 206 building permits representing a value of $596,000 were issued. Truly a marvelous growth.

This celebration is to show the people of this and other provinces what we have done in the way of town building, an achievement of which we are proud, and an example worthy of copying. What are you doing to help in this?

ORANGEMEN MEET AT FREDERICTON

Sovereign Grand Lodge Completes Interesting Convention

Fredericton, May 30.—The Sovereign Grand Orange Lodge of British America, which opened its 83rd annual meeting on Wednesday, is expected to have an unusually short session here. At noon today it was said that it was not unlikely that the business would be all concluded some time tonight, so that delegates would be able to leave for their homes to-morrow morning. There is nothing of a contentious nature to come before the Grand Lodge, and with a smaller attendance than usual it is not expected that the sessions will be protracted.

This morning there was a formal civic welcome, Mayor Hooper and Ald. Guthrie visiting the Grand Lodge, and on behalf of the citizens, welcoming the delegates.

On behalf of the Grand Lodge, Grand Treasurer W. J. Parkhill, of Midland, Ont., and Mr. Fred Dane, of Toronto, replied.

Afterwards an address of welcome was read by County Master E. H. Clarkson, of Stanley, on behalf of York County Lodge.

Considerable time was taken up with the report of the committee on legislation, and this afternoon the committees on finance, correspondence, etc., are expected to make their reports.

Towards the close of this morning's session Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. Dr. Sproule, M. P., on the invitation of Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, the principal, and accompanied by Mr. O. S. Crockett, M. P., visited the Provincial Normal School. The students gathered in the Assembly Hall, and addresses of an appropriate nature were delivered by Sir Mackenzie, Hon. Dr. Sproule and Mr. Crockett. The proceedings closed with the students joining in singing O Canada, and the National Anthem.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell has a close rival in the race for the honor of being the oldest Orangeman in attendance at the Grand Lodge Sessions. Sir Mackenzie has been an Orangeman for sixty-seven years and is in his 89th year, while Howard Segee, of this city, who is in charge of the door at the Grand Lodge session, will be sixty-six years an Orangeman if he lives until this fall, and is about 86 years of age.

DALHOUSIE

On account of the inclemency of the weather on Victoria Day many plans fell to the ground. Our stores were closed but the usual picnics and fishing parties did not take place, although some of our citizens ventured into the country in a pouring rain.

The choristers were Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. LaBelle, Mrs. Susan and Mrs. Sorer.

DAVID RUSSELL SUED FOR DEFAMATION

Action Brought As a Result of Russell's Evidence in "Conspiracy Case"

Montreal, May 31.—The inscription prepared by Mr. David Russell, through his attorneys, in the case of E. R. Carrington, plaintiff, versus David Russell, defendant, was dismissed with costs, in a judgement given yesterday by Judge Laurendeau, in the practice court, and the ground is now cleared for the main case to proceed on its merits.

The judgement given yesterday, and the defendant's inscription, deal mainly with the privileges of a witness and his immunity from damage suits afterwards. In the case the plaintiff is suing defendant for defamation and he claims $25,000 damages.

In the former case Mr. David Russell had been plaintiff, and had sworn that the plaintiff had been party to a conspiracy against the present defendant in order to have him incarcerated in a lunatic asylum.

It is expected that the Convention opportunity for so doing.

Come prepared to help and helped, 1st Session is Tuesday evening Tuesday June 11th. All Sunday School throughout the two Counties are entitled to send delegates.

A good musical program is being arranged by Mr. J. G. MacColl, Organist Pres. Church.

Not only this but these as well

DON'T think that concrete can be used only for building bridges, silos, walls and walks; because if you do, you will probably overlook all the places where you can use it now.

E. L. Irving, of North Georgetown, Quebec, used concrete for 81 different purposes on his farm in 1911.

There are probably at least a dozen profitable uses for concrete on your farm at the present moment.

Perhaps you haven't thought of Concrete, except for a new barn, or a silo, or some other big improvement for which you aren't quite ready yet. That's why you should read

"What The Farmer Can Do With Concrete"

It will open your eyes to the hundreds of uses that other farmers have found for this material. In plain language, and with the aid of many photographs, it explains just what these uses are, and how they can be applied to your farm.

Concrete can not only be used for all the purposes for which wood has been applied, but also many others for which wood would never be suitable.

It is not only a building material; it's a "handy" material, something that you'll grow to depend upon more and more, as you learn its possibilities.

So write for this book. You'll find it isn't a catalogue, nor an argument for you to buy or cement. Every one of its 160 pages is devoted to telling you what farmers have done and can do with concrete.

IT'S FREE FOR THE ASKING. Your name on a postal, or in a letter, will bring the book to you by return mail. Or use the coupon.

ALGONQUIN NATIONAL PARK

The Grand Trunk Railway, in view of the very large increased number of winter tourists this season at Highland Inn, in the National Algonquin Park, are making extensive improvements to their Inn.

These improvements will be completed about the 1st of June, and consist of a 165ft. extension to the west wing, which will include some 50 rooms for guests; a music room 30 x 80; tea room, 30 x 30; billiard room, 30 x 30; and a store outfitting department, 30 x 32. This Store Dept. is unique, as it contains everything from a needle to camp equipment. Tourists desiring to make trips through the park, can be supplied with tents, boats, canoes, fishing equipment, supplies and guide the price not exorbitant.

The rotunda is largely increased, also the dining room, necessitating new kitchens, serving-rooms, etc. An additional room for the use of children and nurses, will be built and the guides are to have a separate establishment. With a new ice house, cold storage, enlarged dancing hall, and other alterations referred to will make this Inn one of the most complete and perfect in the lake and mountain parts of Ontario. A large toboggan slide will also be constructed during the summer. During the winter, tourists from all over Canada have made use of the hotel, and the daily average guests from 18 to 25, and it is pleasing to note that most of these guests are from our own and other Canadian Cities.

LIGHTNING'S FRANK

A strange phenomena occurred at Bon Del's during the heavy electrical storm which passed over the Island of Montreal during the afternoon of the 24th. The hotel of Mr. J. E. Bureau was struck by lightning. When those in the building had recovered from the shock and put out the slight fire which resulted they found a strange black coating over the walls. It proved to be a sort of soot. Upon examination it was found that the walls, ceiling and furniture of every room in the house was thickly covered with the same substance.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts freely at each application. For sale by all dealers.

THINGS TO KNOW

To poach an egg so that the water does not touch it, put a piece of butter at the bottom of an old teacup, then break in the egg, place the cup in a small saucepan of boiling water, and in about five minutes the egg will be set. Pass a knife round the sides and slip out on to the toast—this prevents the toast getting damp.

For Watery Potatoes. When potatoes are likely to be watery, cook in the following way: Score the skin with a sharp knife—not too deeply—then boil in salted water. The incisions made let out the water in the potato, and renders it dry and floury when cooked.

Try Grating Your Apples. Line a plate with paste, and then grate in the apples instead of slicing them. This will ensure the fruit being cooked when the paste is done, and it also takes less quantity of apples. Tried with great success.

Snow-White Tables and Boards. If a kitchen table becomes dirty looking, cut a lemon in two and rub it all over the table. Then rinse well with pure, clean water, and the result will be a smooth and snow-white top. Pasteboards may be treated in the same way.

Lemon Roly-Poly. Take three-quarters of a pound of flour, six ounces of lard, the juice of one lemon, one teaspoonful of sugar, and one extra teaspoonful of flour. Mix the flour and lard into a smooth paste, and roll it out to the thickness of about half an inch. Squeeze the lemon-juice (strained) into a cup. Stir the teaspoonful of flour and sugar into the juice to make a stiff paste. Spread this mixture over the paste and roll it up. Then tie the pudding into a floured cloth. Boil for two hours.

Stewed Chicken. Take a chicken, cut into joints; put into a stewpan two large onions (chopped fine), four tomatoes, some parsley, a little sage, a few bits of bacon cut small, and salt a couple of good stock. Stew gently for two hours. Just before dishing up, add a wineglassful of sherry.

Barley Pudding. Take half a pound of pearl barley, well washed; add one quart of new milk, half a pound of refined sugar, and half a nutmeg, grated; then bake it in a deep dish. Remove it from the oven when half-cooked, heat up three eggs, mix well together, pour it into a well-buttered dish, and bake again for nearly an hour.

Death has again visited our village and taken away three of our best citizens on Tuesday the 19th. Mrs. Francis Mitchell was laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery, New Carlisle, amid a large circle of relatives and friends. She leaves at home, two sons Fred and Walter, one grand son and grand daughter and the aged husband who at present is very frail and is about the age of 40 years. Mrs. Mitchell was in her 74th year. She was a very kind and loving mother and was faithful and true. It leaves a great blank in the home. Much sympathy is felt for those at home and also those who are away.

Also Mr. John Caldwell and Miss Mary Caldwell. The former passed away the day of Mrs. Mitchell's funeral at 2 o'clock and Miss Mary who has been suffering for a number of years from rheumatism also passed away the same afternoon at about 5 o'clock. There was a double funeral from the Rev. Caldwell's residence to the Presbyterian church and cemetery. Rev. Mr. Taitie conducted the three services. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Caldwell as she is now left alone, less than a year ago her only son Herli, was taken and now her husband and sister but she is a brave woman and commands wonderful courage through all her troubles. May the Good of all comfort be with her.

We are sorry also to announce that Mrs. Robert Caldwell of this place is seriously ill and the doctor does not give much hope of her recovery.

We are glad to announce that Mrs. Corbet is improving very favorably.

Mrs. J. Wilson has returned from Montreal much improved in health.

Mr. Bray's remarks were along the line of rescue work in the cities, he was also asking aid for this work and met with very good response to his appeal in this place.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darin Downey, of Newberg Junction, N. LIVED UNDER SIX SOVEREIGNS

A link with the past has been broken by the death in Montreal at the age of 92 of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson Miles, widow of the late Dr. Henry H. Miles, the well known Canadian historian who was formerly vice-principal of Bishop's College and later superintendent of Protestant education in the province. Mrs. Miles was born at Ripon, Yorkshire, England, in 1819, the year of Queen Victoria's birth and has lived under six sovereigns, namely George III, George IV, William IV, Victoria Edward VII and George V.

WHISKEY HOLDS ITS VICTIMS

Until Released by Wonderful Samaria Prescription

Liquor sets up inflammation and irritation of the stomach and weakens the nerves. The steady or periodical (spree) drinker is often forced to drink even against his will by his unnatural physical condition.

Samaria Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteless and odorless, and can be given with or without the knowledge of the patient.

Thousands of Canadian homes have been saved from misery and disgrace by some devoted wife, mother or daughter through this wonderful Canadian remedy. The money formerly wasted in drink has restored happiness, home comforts, education and respect to the families formerly in want and despair.

Read the following, one of the numerous unsolicited testimonials, received—
"I can never repay you for your remedy. It is worth more than life to me. My husband has been offered liquor several times but would not touch it.
He said it had no charm for him now, May God's choice blessings ever rest on you and yours, are my prayers ever. No one knows it but those who have tried it. As soon as I can I will see others that I know would give anything to stop their husbands from drink. I will give them your address.
Mrs. K., Dewinton, Alta.

Now if you know of any family needing this remedy, tell them about it. If you have any friend or relative who has formed or is forming the drink habit help him to release himself from its awful clutches. Samaria Prescription is used by Physicians and Hospitals.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samaria Prescription with booklet giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc. will be sent absolutely free and postpaid in plain sealed package to anyone asking for it and mentioning this paper. Correspondence strictly confidential. Write, today. The Samaria Remedy Co., Dept. 77 49 Colborne Street, Toronto, Canada. Also for sale by Thos. Wran, Druggist, Campbellton, N. B.

To stop falling hair you must kill the germs. SALVIA is guaranteed to kill dandruff germs, banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp or money back. If your hair is thinning out SALVIA will promote a new growth. Clever women use it because it makes the hair brilliant and beautiful, and is not sticky or greasy. Sold by the White Drug Co.

HAIL STONES

LARGE AS EGGS
Hailstones as large as eggs knocked down flimsily built barns; lightning struck the Roman Catholic Church at St. John's Que. and several other buildings throughout the district, and a terrific cloudburst washed out three big sections on the Boston and Maine Railway Line last week, during the most spectacular storm of recent years.

A bolt of lightning struck St. John's Church, 140 feet up the steeple, and flames broke out a few minutes later. The heroic priest of the church, Rev. Father Berteau, and a soldier, were the first to go up into the steeple with 'babcocks and after a line of hose was brought up by firemen, led the fight against the flames. At Henryville, hail as large as eggs fell. About forty windows in the convent were completely broken.

IS IT ALL OVER?
A few weeks ago a mass meeting of citizens was held in the Opera House at which a resolution of protest was passed against the Doherty verdict and forwarded to the Attorney General. Beyond the bare acknowledgement of receipt nothing has yet been heard from the Hon. Mr. Grimmer or his department and we just want to jog his memory a bit and ask what he is going to do about it.

In the famous or infamous Doherty trial a verdict was brought in which two of the jurymen publicly stated in the press was not the verdict arrived at in the jury room. The counsel for the defence is amazed, the prisoner himself does not know whether he stands on his head or feet, and the common people all wonder at the return of such a verdict.
If a verdict is returned which is directly contrary to the evidence, and in contradiction to the judges' charges to the jury, has the crown authorities no power to step in and investigate the conduct of the trial. If a jury returns a verdict which is not in accordance with the charge of the judge can it be called a legal verdict. We may be wrong but we are of opinion it is not. According to the evidence of two of the jurymen we are informed that "Not guilty of the charge of murder" was the correct verdict arrived at leaving the crown free (as they were informed) to prosecute on the charge of manslaughter. Now Mr Attorney we only want you to investigate this matter in a plain and orderly manner. This is not to be made a political matter unless it is desired and we really think that the unanimous request of a town like Campbellton should be attended to.

CLEAN UP
Now that we have committed ourselves to have a day to ourselves during "Old Home Week" it behoves us to get a hustle on and make some shape at cleaning up.
Many who have recently built and are building have not had much chance to get their properties cleaned up as they would like, but many others have not that excuse.
Could nothing be done with the property at the head of Water Street next to the crossing? It is more like a dumping ground than anything else, and as the advertising committee will likely be erecting a banner at this point, the owner might endeavour to do a little to it and make it at least look respectable by throwing a few loads of excavated material over it and making it level. Then some complaints are heard regarding the play grounds at the school and we know a word to the Board is all that is necessary and the work will be done. Come now and let us do our best. Every little helps and its all for the good of the town. Don't let us be ashamed of our home on July 11th 1912.

L. C. R. SUNDAY TRAINS
The objection to a Sunday through train on the Intercolonial Railway does not seem to be any more reasonable than the old time protests against Sunday street cars. It is only a few years since the latter were tolerated in the city of Toronto but communities as they grow larger are apt to take a broader and more liberal view of what ought and what ought not to be done on the Sabbath. Indeed, the necessities of the time compel them to do so. If the public by acquiescence has agreed to the operation of Sunday passenger trains on the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railways, there surely can not be much objection to the Intercolonial meeting the competition of these lines by running the Ocean Limited on Sundays as well as week days. It has formerly been the practice to hold this train over in Montreal on Saturdays and have it depart on Sundays from Montreal, so as to avoid Sunday operation in New Brunswick and in Nova Scotia. In order to reach its destination the train must run somewhere part of Sunday, and we cannot see that the Sabbath is violated any the less by the railway in Quebec than in the other provinces. If the Intercolonial is to be a success it must meet the wishes of the public, and it is unfair to try and handicap it because it is a government railway.—Globe.

THE MARRIAGE LAW ARGUMENT AT OTTAWA

Counsel Explains Position in Quebec
Ottawa, May, 29.—What is considered to be the crucial point in the argument of counsel opposing the right of the Dominion parliament to enact the Lancaster Marriage Bill was reached in the Supreme Court Tuesday afternoon when P. B. Migneault K. C., of Montreal, asserted that the general public misunderstood, and many legal lights seemingly deliberately misconstrued the marriage law of Quebec. "Marriage may be prevented by means of the opposition of the father, mother, tutor or prior consort of one of the parties," he said. "In this event there must be some officer, priest or minister who by legislation is charged with the solemnization. Take the city of Montreal for instance. There are about fifty Catholic parishes in that city and about three times as many other demonstrations. The law requires that to stay a marriage, notice must be served on some officer. It is set forth in the act that the articles of marriage must say there is no opposition. This shows the status of the parties. My contention is that there must be some one party with special qualifications to solemnize marriage."
Justice Idington—"In the case of a priest, must it be a priest in charge of a church?"
Mr. Migneault—"It must be the parish priest."
Justice Idington—"Suppose a man does not belong to any parish?"
Mr. Migneault explained that in the Catholic church a man without a fixed place of residence was held to be a member of the parish in which he had been baptized.
Justice Idington—"Supposing a man of no church and a woman of no church were married and lived together for some years, what would be their status under the Quebec laws?"
Mr. Migneault—"The marriage would be null. I should say there never had been a marriage."
Justice Idington—"Then the children would be illegitimate?"
Mr. Migneault—"Not under our laws in Quebec. Article 63 clearly says that if the marriage is contracted in good faith in this way, but through ignorance of the parties as to the law, the children are protected. The point is absolutely misconceived and misconstrued by people who are responsible for the agitation. It is not the law of the province of Quebec and never was."
Justice Idington—"Can he (meaning the husband) marry again?"
Mr. Migneault—"As there is no marriage he is free to do so."
Justice Idington—"You contend that parliament has no power to declare the status thus brought about."
Mr. Migneault—"The solemnization is left to the provinces, and the dominion cannot interfere in a putative marriage, such as you refer to."
Argument against the right of Parliament to pass a marriage law was continued before the Supreme Court this morning by Migneault, K. C. He declared that in the province of Quebec at present there was no need for such legislation, as all marriages before authorized persons were recognized.

PRINCE OF WALES NEAR HIS MAJORITY
Will Legally Come of Age on June 23rd Next
The Prince of Wales will reach his legal majority on June 23rd, when he will have his own special household and large suites suitably appointed and set apart at Buckingham and Windsor Palaces. Queen Mary will personally superintend the furnishing and decoration of these palaces. The King will continue to supervise the occupations and pursuits of the boy, but the Prince will have a governor and comptroller of the household, an equerry, and two staff secretaries, as well as a large staff of servants at special wages, and coachmen and grooms.
The Prince of Wales will not sever himself from his affectionate family life, but will be able to entertain his friends at luncheons and dinners in his own apartments. He will receive his invitations direct, and not through the King. The regency of the Queen is created in the event of the prolonged absence or dire misfortune to the King. This would be the situation on June 23rd, when the Prince of Wales would legally be able to take the King's position in an emergency.
The King's fourth son, Prince George, went to his first school last week. He accompanied his brother, Prince Henry, to the private school at Broadstairs, where the latter has been for nearly three years, greatly to the benefit of his health, which, combined with his highly nervous temperament, caused a good deal of anxiety to his parents some time ago.
The Princess Mary, following the example of her aunt, Princess Victoria, keeps copy of a diary. She has been observed making entries in a blue-covered volume at the Royal Academy, especially before the Royal pictures.

The man of to-day is pretty fussy as to what kind of underwear he wears in hot weather. Some prefer a "CASHMERE" or a "LIGHT WOOL". This we show at prices ranging from $1.15 to $3.00 the suit.
Again a great many wear the "LIGHT BALBRIGGAN". We have this in the "Two Thread" and in the "Elastic Ribbed" which is just a little heavier. This is shown in different colors, White, Blue and Black, 50c the garment.

M'DRIDE PLEADS FOR NAVAL SUPREMACY

"The time has come for Canada to show to the empire and the whole world what she can do, and what she intends to do, to help the mother country, which as done so much for her children while they were growing up," declared Hon. Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, as he landed on Saturday, from the Empress of Britain, which brought him from England where he had conferred with Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty on Canadian naval matters. It is the duty of Canada to co-operate in the maintenance of British naval supremacy.

"Something serious should be done said Mr. McBride, "and this should be done quickly. As for British Columbia, no real policy founded on up-to-date and substantial lines will be too much."

The body of another of the Titanic disaster victims, James McGrady of Belfast, Ireland a fireman, has been recovered by the steamer Algerine, a sealer, which is under charter by the White Star Line. Word to this effect was sent by wireless to Cape Race the Algerine at the time being within forty miles of that station.

Immediately after sending this information the Algerine set out on a ten days' cruise to further search the seas in the vicinity of the scene of the disaster in the hope of securing more bodies. The Canadian steamer, which also has been prosecuting the search for bodies, was spoken by the Algerine several days ago.

Fortunes in Tea Cups

Did you ever learn to tell fortunes in teacups? Some of you say: "There's nothing in it. It's just foolishness." But that is a mistake. There is any amount of fun wrapped up in the weird, uncanny-looking tea leaves, and now that the long cold days have come and the tea hour seems the coolest in the day your popularity will be established by enlightening your little tea-parties by telling your friends' fortunes.

Here is the way to do it. Brew the tea in a teapot without a strainer, or put a spoonful of tea in the cup itself and pour the hot water directly upon it. The tea must all be drunk except a few drops, which serve to keep the leaves in circulation. The cup must be whirled around three times, then turned on the saucer three times. Then begins the fortune-reading.

A lover (either man or woman, because sometimes you have "pink" tea parties) is represented by a number of dots in which one figure stands separate.

Two dots side by side mean an engagement.

An offer of marriage is shown by a figure kneeling in the cup.

A group of dots, three in a row, means that the offer will be accepted. Without them the lover has no chance.

Three large dots in the shape of a parallelogram will bear watching. These mean illness, sad news, or loss of money.

Three large dots in triangular shape mean just the contrary—good news, good fortune and good health.

A clear ring within the cup, the following signs will tell you just what to expect: Four dots in a square tell of an important letter. A dot within the square, or just outside it, means there is something in the letter which you will be glad to hear or something you want to receive, as money, a check, books, etc., amounting to a letter. The square or near it indicates bad news in the epistle.

A long journey is indicated by a long line of dots extending half way around the cup. A group of dots near the terminus of the journey denotes that you will be greeted by a large circle of friends upon your arrival.

If you wish for something very much, indeed, three small dots in a triangular shape bid you hope the wish is about to come true.

Very large dots in a line warn you that many trials are in store for you. If these are mixed with fine dots, you will encounter disagreeable people.

Tears to be shed for one cause or another are represented by drops of tea in the bottom of the cup.

A clear rim to the cup means a quiet, happy, and prosperous existence.

Look out for the leaf that folds over the rim! This means that you are likely to have a stroke of good luck very soon.

The different shapes of the leaves indicate respectively, men, women, and clothes. A long hard leaf shows a man. Small leaves, or even points upon this long leaf, take the form of his silk hat, cane, boots, etc. A woman is shown by a broader leaf or paler shade. She is often distinguished by her wide skirts, her bonnet, parasol, etc.

To ascertain whether or not the man and woman are friends or enemies examine the space about them. If it is filled with tiny dots thickly set, they are enemies. If the space be clear and no dots appear about them they are good friends.

A cross in the teacup means the news of a death. A group of dots separately means that your wish will come true.

And as you become more expert new ideas will come to you. Try it, girls.

To make headscrubbers quickly, cut the soft part from a stale loaf, put it into a clean muslin bag, tie the bag at the top, and gently rub it with the hands for a few minutes. The crumbs will then be fine enough for anything.

A PROMISING COLT

Graham Bellini Recently Purchased by R. J. Mackenzie

At a bid of $3,500, the Illinois trainer, Charley Dean, got the Bellini colt, he acting, it is said, for R. J. Mackenzie, the Winnipeg turfman, for whom Harry James trains. Graham Bellini, excepting in one respect, is one of the best-looking young trotters in the country. He has that peculiar cut-out formation under the knees. Mr. Dickerman stated, however, that the colt was foaled that way, and a close examination shows that the peculiar formation is not in any way an indication of unsoundness. Robert J. 2011, it will be remembered, was characterized by this same conformation, only in a more pronounced degree, and no one ever had occasion to say that it was any drawback to his racing powers. From his looks Graham Bellini, appears to be a colt that will race over about any kind of a track. He is very strongly built, has, with the exception noted, a fine set of legs, and his head indicates the possession of the kind of brains that go with good manners on the race track. Of his speed there can be no question, for on the half-mile tracks of Kansas and Oklahoma, last season as a two-year-old he did what few trotters of that age have done. If all goes well with him he will be a factor in some of the fortunes of 1912.

COULD NOT RAISE MY RIGHT ARM

OLD BRIDGEPORT, C. B.

"For the past 41 years, I have been suffering with Rheumatism. When I read in the papers that GIN PILLS would positively cure rheumatism, I wrote you for a free sample to try. I could not raise my right arm because of the awful pain in my shoulder—was not able to drink. After taking a few GIN PILLS, I was able to lift my hand and put it on the top of my head."

I went to the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon and met an old fisherman named La Pape. His limbs were stiff from Rheumatism and I gave him some GIN PILLS. I met him again in a few days and he told me he could lift his arms, which he had not been able to do for ten years. ADOLPHE E. MAHER, 50c. a box—6 for $2.50—money back if not satisfied.
