

COMMISSIONER OF FINANCE, TORONTO, ADDRESSES KIWANIS

Geo. H. Ross Urges Importance of True Spirit of Service.

Urgency and importance of the true spirit of "service," involving as it does all the other attributes to the demand today for recognition of the brotherhood of man, were the outstanding points made in an impressive address at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club at the Tecumseh House last night.

The principal speaker was Kiwanian George H. Ross, commissioner of finance for the City of Toronto and one of the leading Kiwanians in the province. Mr. Ross was to have visited London some time back, but was prevented from doing so by illness, this fact added to the warmth of his welcome by the local Kiwanians.

A number of members of the Kiwanis Club of St. Thomas, Chatham and Ingersoll were present and brought messages of good-will from their clubs to the local Kiwanians.

A Mighty Factor. Kiwanian Ross in an eloquent address, delivered in a manner that brought frequent rounds of applause from his hearers, told in graphic manner how the Kiwanis Club was first organized, the adoption of its creed, and how, through a process of evolution, it has become one of the greatest organizations on the American continent.

"The Kiwanis Club is a mighty factor in the North American continent, and although it takes time, we will be the greatest molders of public opinion of the times," declared Mr. Ross. "Our fellowship, co-operation and vision which is shared by the members and passed on through them to their friends will necessitate us being one of the biggest factors for the good and welfare of our fellow beings."

Three Solid Pillars. "The Kiwanis Club in my estimation stands on three pillars, fellowship, co-operation and service. Kiwanis is the cap stone. If everyone had the same vision as the Kiwanians there would be the many differences of opinion that one hears expressed today."

"Man was never meant to be alone. I believe and say it sincerely that the greatest thing a man can have is a friend. You know that once you become a Kiwanian you drop the handle of your name. You mingle with men of every profession, and in the Kiwanis Club you are a part of the most outstanding men of affairs are members. The members added themselves to any condition and the policy of each club is to boost its own community. By doing this we make leaders."

Blames Newspapers. That there is a certain amount of ill-feeling between the Province of Quebec and Ontario, as stated by a previous speaker, Kiwanian Ross admitted, but he denied its existence amongst Kiwanians.

"There is," he said, "most likely much the same feeling between the United States and Canada, and it is certain that the cause of the ill-feeling is the same. The newspapers in the States that are the cause of the ill-feeling are the same as the newspapers in Canada. In 1922 for the Kiwanian convention, we will cure that. We will return bringing the different provinces and countries together as one of our biggest issues."

In concluding he asked that when Kiwanians to accept the sincere regret of the Toronto members that they could not attend. He carried greetings from his fellow Kiwanians at the Queen City and stated that they were still harboring pleasant thoughts of the evening they spent at the opening banquet of the London club last year.

Kiwanian Gray of the Chatham club, in a short address, stated that when in conversation with two London Kiwanians recently, they were so enthusiastic over their club that he was forced to attend a meeting. He declared that their statements were not overestimated. He thanked the members on behalf of his fellow members for the hospitality which was accorded them.

Invited To Windsor. A message was read by Kiwanian Frank Brinkman of St. Thomas, inviting all Kiwanians to attend a special meeting of the Kiwanis Club at Windsor on Wednesday, August 31. A unique feature of the meeting will be the presence of the Detroit and Cleveland baseball teams. A vaudeville act has also been assured. The meeting will take place at the Kenilworth race track. A special M. C. R. train will leave St. Thomas next Wednesday at 11:05 o'clock.

WAR PLAY AT GRAND IS CLEVER COMEDY

"Three Live Ghosts" Provides Many Laughs and a Few Thrills.

Replete with amusing situations, of the refreshing variety, "Three Live Ghosts" was presented by a clever cast as the first road attraction of the season at the Grand Theatre Friday evening. Being a war play, to prove a success requires that this offering be different than those presented in the past.

A satisfied capacity audience proved that Frederic Isham, the author, has admirably achieved his purpose of providing a laughable comedy, with a few thrills thrown in for good measure.

The story of "Three Live Ghosts," as its title would imply, deals with the adventures of three former soldiers, all such soldiers, who are now in the war office, but in reality very much alive, having escaped from a German prison camp together. However, all three possess very good reasons why they should remain dead, and complications with the law are resulting from this.

The kleptomaniac tendencies of the Spoofy, an aristocratic member of the comedy, who provides a share of the merriment, is a laughing matter, who is also a baby. William Jones, who is also a live ghost, is much wanted in America, and for this reason does not exert himself to convince the Government of the report of his death has been much exaggerated.

Jimmy Gubbins, a real Cockney, as the title of the play suggests, keeps the other two out of trouble fairly scintillate with wit. Of course, there is a girl in the play, but in this case there are two of the fair sex, who add zest to the plot, with a stepmother and a stepdaughter.

As Mrs. Gubbins, known as "Old Sweetheart," Ruby Haller, of fame, is the "Lady of the Barge," captures premier honors in the principal female role. Her clever portrayal of the stepmother kept the house in a continuous uproar during her appearances. Her rich Cockney humor blends admirably with that of Jimmy (Vincent), both characters being a delight to the lover of clean entertainment. Miss Haller's performance was undoubtedly written for her, to bring out fully the characterization of the gin-drinking but likable old Cockney woman.

As William Jones, the American, who served in the British forces, Ben Lyon fits in excellently and with Edward Martyn in this role, is a gentle and restrained yet pathetic figure, with clever acting and introduction throughout. Briggs, the Scotland Yard detective, thoroughly emphasizes his presence in a vigorous manner, bringing forth the best of the humor of this part. Fred Bean, as the American sleuth, surprises his audience by his baseness, but his work is in keeping with the rest of the production.

Eleanor Masters as Rose Gordon proves capable, as does also Miss Alida Middlecoat as Peggy Woofers, Agnes Atherton as Lady Leicester, and J. L. Levy as Benson, make the best of the roles assigned to them.

"Three Live Ghosts" proved a decided success Friday night, and deserves the wholehearted support of London theatregoers at the popular matinee and evening performances today.

JUDGE HOLDS CUSTOMS LAW NULL AND VOID

Decision Will Be Sent to the Supreme Court for Final Ruling.

[Special to The Advertiser.] DETROIT, Aug. 26.—Customs laws of the United States in so far as they relate to importation of liquor, are rendered null and void under a decision handed down late today by Judge Tuttle in the United States District Court.

Under the ruling automobiles used in smuggling liquor into the United States from Canada or elsewhere cannot be seized under the customs regulations.

Seized the Cars. While automobiles so used may be seized under the Volstead act where ever found engaged in transporting liquor, it has been the custom of local officers to act under the old customs laws which provide for confiscation of the vehicle, regardless of whether the owner had knowledge of the illegal use to which his car was put.

The Volstead act, on the other hand, provides that the owner of the car so used may recover his property if he can prove innocence.

Judge's Decision. The court opinion is expressed as follows: "The only object of the old customs laws relating to this matter was to protect the revenue. By the Volstead act the importation of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes was absolutely forbidden."

It is clear that thereafter there could be no shipment of which customs duty could be paid or of which any customs entry could be made. It follows that any statutes providing for seizure of automobiles under the old customs laws are thus rendered by the necessary implication."

Will Test Decision. Assistant District Attorney Frederic L. Eaton, who had the handling of the case, announced tonight he would request the attorney-general for authority to carry the case to the United States Supreme Court.

The judge's decision was rendered in case of "United States vs. one Hudson motor car."

In this case the car had been stolen from its owner and the latter had collected his theft insurance from the Federal Insurance Company, to whom he had assigned all his right, title and interest in the machine.

This company intervened and petitioned to have the liability set aside.

TRAIN WAS ALMOST MILE IN LENGTH

Special, With 101 Cars, One of Longest Ever Handled.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 26.—The Saginaw Valley extra, one of the longest freights on the M. & E. R., left St. Thomas for Buffalo today with 108 cars. The train was practically a mile long. It had 80 loaded cars and 28 empties. When determining the length of a switch to these big trains turn into a switch the fast trains to pass, the length of a car is placed at from 42 to 45 feet.

Several long freights, ranging from 90 to 100 cars, have been run over the section of the road during the week.

Did Not Stop His Auto. Neglecting to stop after colliding with an auto of L. Appleford on July 18, last, Roy Robinson, London, was fined, with costs, $17.45 this morning. The charge was laid under a section of Ontario motor vehicles act, which provides that when an accident happens the drivers of the autos must stop and ascertain the extent of the damage to the car and injury to the persons.

Mr. Robinson was alleged to have continued his journey without pulling up to discover the result of the collision.

A Silk Express. A silk special went over the M. C. R. this morning to St. John, New Brunswick, for export purposes. The big cargo was entirely made up of silk goods.

The gladiators who disposed of last evening were distributed today among the several institutions in the city. The churches, the hospitals, the Thomas-Williams Home were given hundreds of the little blooms.

Broke Bone of Ankle. Playing a game of football last evening, Jimmy Butler of the M. C. R. team broke the small bone of his ankle, when his foot was hoisted in a scrimmage.

Samuel W. Sutton, manager of the Sterling Bank, Port Burwell, for four years, has been transferred to Lakeville. He is succeeded by E. G. Matthews, Moncton.

ALLEGED INFERIOR MATERIALS USED IN BORDER SCHOOL

Windsor Council May Order Full Investigation Into Case.

[Special to The Advertiser.] WINDSOR, Aug. 26.—Anxious that an investigation of its building program be held, according to Harry J. Neal, chairman, the Windsor board of education at meeting earlier in the year, blocked a move by Trustees H. Guppy and H. Brumpton for a probe.

This statement was made today by Trustee Brumpton to reporters in the presence of Chairman Neal and Ald. F. Mitchell, who alleges that inferior materials were used in constructing the Giles Boulevard School.

Trustee Brumpton asserted that Trustee Guppy, at a meeting held at the Windsor board of education, was supported by himself, but was never put to a vote. Details of this meeting of the board when Trustee Brumpton voluntarily told newspaper representatives.

With delegations from the Trades and Labor Council and the newly organized Southeastern Improvement and Social Club appointed to present resolutions to the city council Monday night asking that a probe of the board's building program be requested, aldermen, it now seems certain, will change their attitude of two weeks ago when Ald. Mitchell unsuccessfully pressed for an investigation.

The southeastern club's committee, according to members, found during its inspection of the Giles School Thursday afternoon that materials inferior to specifications were built into the school.

national rights, and the violence on the part of minorities or majorities is no proof of right.

It was a fancy, not love of justice which made the supreme council refer the problem of Upper Silesia to the League of Nations. It was an open confession to the world that France and Great Britain were hoping to divide up the spoils of the war on the principle of European policy, and therefore, the supreme council itself had come to the end of its power.

In future it will no longer be able to impose its decisions on Europe, but for this is not a trivial question, but one that is most passionately regarded by the people of France, Germany, and England.

This step was enormously important, however, because of the pledge by the League of Nations to abide by the decision of the League of Nations. It is the biggest step forward yet made in the new world system, for this is not a trivial question, but one that is most passionately regarded by the people of France, Germany, and England.

It has in its settlement all the possibilities of future war or peace, not only on the frontiers of Silesia, but on the frontiers of Europe in another Armageddon, from which America would not be isolated.

Amadeo Harvey says it is purely European problem, in which the United States is not interested, but which is the greatest danger to the world, in which America became very much interested.

Upper Silesia seems remote, even from England, but if the old system of thought prevails, France and Poland may be ranged against Germany and Russia, while England and America might have to intervene to save Europe and themselves.

Now, if the League of Nations arrived at a decision on the Silesia problem, and if the old system of thought prevails, France and Poland may be ranged against Germany and Russia, while England and America might have to intervene to save Europe and themselves.

CITY LOST $5,000

ATTEMPT TO HELP LOCAL UNEMPLOYED

Delay in Laying Water Mains

Caused by Too Many Men On Job.

Because of their efforts to provide work for the unemployed here last winter members of the city council caused the city to lose $5,000 on one job, according to a city official. This job was the laying of water mains from the city street pumping station to the Quebec street roundabout of the C. P. R. for the transmission of river water to supply laundry engines.

The city council agreed to lay the mains with the idea in view that revenue from the water supply, and saving of city drinking water previously used, would pay for the cost in a short time. However, to relieve the unemployment situation that last winter, they also instructed that 100 men be deputed to work on the job.

As a result, it is stated that the men digging the trenches up Clarence street, east on Queen's avenue, and along other thoroughfares, the roundabout, and the laying of water mains, had to be done with a consequent inefficiency and delay in completion of the work. In addition, men not qualified for this work were employed, which added to the inefficiency and delay, the latter causing the cost of the work (100 men on time rate) to soar above the estimates by $5,000.

It is stated that the city council, in its attempt to help the unemployed, had to pay for the work at a cost of $5,000, which was a loss to the city. The city council had to pay for the work at a cost of $5,000, which was a loss to the city.

NEW WORKER PAYS

$15 TO NEW TYPE

OF HOLD-UP MAN

Fake Officers Tax Motorist

For Exceeding "Thirty Miles an Hour."

L. H. Fellman of New York City and also of Galveston, Texas, fell victim, it is believed, to a rather unique hold-up perpetrated on Friday afternoon a short distance east of Sarnia on the Sarnia gravel road.

Mr. Fellman had purchased a new, high-priced car in Detroit and was en route to his home in New York. About 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon he was driving a short distance east of Sarnia on the provincial highway when a man suddenly emerged from a ditch and hailed him. Mr. Fellman stopped and inquired what was wanted.

"You are exceeding the speed limit by driving faster than 30 miles an hour," the man said. "You had better come back with me."

Believing the man to be an officer, Mr. Fellman complied, and when they came upon a second man, to whom the supposed officer explained the case, the second man turned the lapel of his coat and flashed a badge.

"This will cost you just $15.00," he said.

Gave Up $15.00. Not knowing the laws of the country, Mr. Fellman paid the money, although protesting that he was not exceeding 30 miles an hour.

On his arrival in London he described the incident to the officials of the London Motor Club. They surmised that the man had been a fake officer, and so they immediately got in touch with Sarnia. The officials of the Motor Club in that city are investigating the case.

It is believed that the men had lain in wait on the road for a car bearing an American license number, as the success of their plan depended entirely on their being able to convince the driver that they were provincial officers. Only provincial officers are allowed to patrol the Sarnia gravel road, which is a provincial highway. It was pointed out that the men who committed the alleged hold-up were apparently strangers as they showed an ignorance of the law when they pronounced the speed limit to be 30 miles an hour.

FIRE AT BLYTH

DOES $600 DAMAGE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Blyth, Aug. 27.—The citizens were greatly alarmed when they were aroused out of their beds on Friday at 12 o'clock midnight by the sound of the alarm. The fire was discovered to be in the stable of Max Wolsch, and before it was discovered it had such a headway that although the firemen responded very smartly, they could only keep it from spreading. The origin of the fire is unknown—in fact, it is thought to be rather mysterious. The loss will be $600, covered by insurance.

HURONS BLANKED.
 SARNIA, Aug. 26.—"Red" Collins was going right this afternoon and kept McMillan in a beautiful pitching duel in Port Huron, the Wolves ending their stay with a fifty-fifty split on the series.

The Wolves carried off the contest, 3 to 0. Collins allowing the Hurons but three widely-scattered hits, the Hurons passing up the only two scoring opportunities they had through poor team-ship with men on bases. McMillan pitched beautiful ball, holding the Wolves to four hits which were bunched in two innings, doing all the damage. Cuyler and Haley, Bay City out-ter catchers and helped a whole lot in keeping Collins in the game. Brants threw two innings, McMillan pitched superb ball, Innings: McMillan pitched superb ball, the game he turned in being good enough to win nine out of any ten ordinary ball games. The score:

BRITISHERS UP 23 SHOTS IN SIX TEST MATCHES

Rink From Each of Big Clubs of City Registered Win Against Britons and Split Was 50-50 in Games.

The Britishers were up 23 shots at the end of the test matches at the Elmwood greens yesterday morning. Although started just a little late, the last game was not in until 2 o'clock. The matches were so closely fought in most instances, however, that the big gallery that assembled with the start of the games, stuck it out to the end. Oliver Clidley's Elmwoods, of the three London rinks which were plus, had the highest margin, the final score being 24-13. Jimmie McDougall's London Rovers, who were seven up on H. C. Langford's Britishers, doing most of their damage half way through the game. A. A. Langford's Thistle outfit had a slightly closer engagement against the four skipped by J. Sandilands, being only one up on the 24th. They lay three on the last end, however, and packed up with a plus of four.

Charlie Speiran was unlucky in drawing George Wright as opposing skip and was down 31-14. On the 13th and 21st ends the Britishers had five shots nesting close in each case. Bill Hynds' Roving Club four faced Capt. Jagger. A four on the 3rd, five in the next three ends, and a six on the 8th, was the way the Britishers' total piled up. C. K. Bluet and his Thistles fared little better against G. Walker, the Irish skip, registering ten in the last six ends.

The local clubs, by a happy coincidence, each registered a win.

In The MOVIES

AT THE GRAND.

Four picture stars appearing in their most successful features will be the attractions at the Grand Opera House for the week commencing with the matinee on Monday.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Owen Moore comes in his six-reel feature, "A Divorce of Convenience." This new picture is an hilarious comedy concoction, in which Moore plays the part of a young man so deeply in love of a woman he is practically blind, and he acts as if his common judgment and his brain are practically scrambled from start to finish, and in it the favorite star has the support of such talented screen artists as Katherine Perry, the famous Ziegfeld polka beauty, and charming Nita Naldi.

Coupled with the Owen Moore feature comes that ace of screen funsters, Larry Semon, as a big added attraction. This time Larry is starred in "The Hook," a picture which is a part of his last big hit, "The Sportman." As a country lad, Larry has a part that fits him like a glove, and his guarantee of a laugh a second while he is on the screen is more than fulfilled.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Elaine Hammerstein is the star in her latest New York success, "The Miracle of Manhattan." This is a story of New York high lights and shadows cleaving sharply through the strata of life in the vicinity of the Great White Way, in which one of the greatest pictures in the history of the screen has ever appeared, and it is sure to be a prime favorite with the discerning picture fans who patronize the Grand.

There will be the usual big support to the minute topics and news review, with a special musical program by the Grand concert orchestra at every matinee and evening performance for the entire week, making the greatest week of high-class pictures the Grand has ever offered. The pre-war prices will prevail at all performances. Daily matinees at 2:15, with two evening performances at 7 and 9.

AT ALLEN'S.

"PROXIES," WITH SUPER CAST, FEATURE ATTRACTION AT THE ALLEN MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

Unusual, novel, and appealing is "Proxies," which is an adaptation of the popular story which appeared a short time ago in the Cosmopolitan Magazine. The picture is the work of the pen of Frank R. Adams, and it will be shown at the Allen the first three days of next week. The story has to do with a former crook, who

CHARLES JOLLEY, popular Canadian actor, who will entertain Allen patrons all next week.

CHECK YOUR BOWEL TROUBLES BY USING DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

When you are troubled with diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera, cholera morbus, summer complaint, bloody flux, or any looseness of the bowels be sure and obtain a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" and see how quickly it gives you relief. This wonderful remedy has been on the market for the past 76 years, and we wish to warn you against accepting a substitute which may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. Samuel Buckler, Tatamagouche, N. S., writes: "While visiting in Western Canada I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. After trying many proprietary medicines I got no relief, but kept getting worse. I was advised to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I lost no time in doing so. I cannot describe in recommending it most highly, for when I had not yet taken half the bottle I was relieved. I must say that if 'Dr. Fowler's' is given a fair trial it will show its good qualities."

is determined to live straight, but who finds it hard to do so, and who actually commits a hold-up and risks imprisonment to save his benefactor from falling victim to the wily schemes of another man to simultaneously make a fortune and to break into society. There are many thrills throughout the action which takes place in a palatial home in which Peter, the butler, is hero. In the same house lives his sweetheart, Claire, a maid who also has a past, but who holds herself subject to Peter's commands. Peter is recognized by a former companion of the prison where he was confined, and his identity is revealed. But the employer decides to give Peter a chance to make good. The former warden seeks to embroil Peter's employer in a fraudulent scheme to defraud the stockholders of a company in which they both are interested and when the ex-warden obtains a proxy which gives him the balance of power, Peter contrives a general attack of the guests of a party at which the former warden is present. The only person who loses proxy is stolen. Peter turns this over to his employer, and when his motive in staging the supposed hold-up is revealed his future is assured. The picture is filled with thrills and there is much reliable comedy. The story is one of dramatic strength and its heart one of irresistible interest. Among the added attractions will be shown "Shub" Pollard, in "Teaching the Teacher," Allen Educational, Charles Jolley, the popular Canadian actor, will render a selection of solos each performance.

BRYANT WASHBURN, IN HIS NEW, BEST COMEDY, "A FULL HOUSE," AT ALLEN'S LAST HALF OF NEXT WEEK.

Bryant Washburn has in "A Full House," a new Paramount comedy drama, another of those delightfully conceived comedy roles which have brought him such a high measure of success. "A Full House" was scenario by Alice Eytan from the famous Fred Jackson stage farce. It will be presented at the Allen Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week. The production Bryant Washburn appears as George Howell, a young attorney, who gets into most amazing difficulties when he leaves his bride for a journey on a business trip. This journey has a most amusing maze of complications, involving another man's love letters, stolen jewelry, policemen and thieves. Bryant Washburn's impersonation is a finely-drawn characterization that brings a continuous stream of laughs. Nine-tenths of the action takes place within five rooms of a single home. Opposite the comedian is Lois Wilson, the pretty and popular leading woman. It has been some time since Miss Wilson has appeared in a Washburn picture. Hundreds of her admirers will welcome her back to the company. Other well-known players in the cast include Guy Milham, Hazel Howell, Vera Lewis, Catherine Wallace, Lottie Williams and many other famous film favorites. In addition to "The Full House" will be shown another of the ever-popular Booth Tarkington comedies, "The Hope Diamond Mystery," ninth episode "The Evil Eye," Mr. Charles Jolley, the famous Canadian actor, will offer an entire new program of solos for the last half of the week.

The Allen management is pleased to announce to London theatregoers that they have secured the services of Chas. Jolley, the famous Canadian actor, for a special engagement all of next week. Mr. Jolley will offer a selection of solos at every performance next week. This popular songster has made a continent-wide reputation and possesses a silver-toned voice of rare quality.

A few of the number he will offer are: "One Fleeting Hour," "Till Build a World in the Heart of a Rose," "Sunrise and You," "Tumble Down Shack," "Old Pal."

BIG SPEED CLASSIC SHOWN IN WALLACE REID'S RACE PICTURE. Automobile race enthusiasts will see some of the high spots of the big speed classic which was held at the famous Beverly Hills speedway near Los Angeles on February 27, 1921, when they see Wallace Reid's Paramount picture, "Too Much Speed," which will be shown at Loew's Theatre for three days beginning next Monday.

One of the big features of this picture is the race in which Wallace Reid, in the role of Dusty Rhodes, is supposed to participate, and the big speed match referred to was used as a background for the story.

Some of the big race were filmed and will appear among the scenes of the picture. Dusty Rhodes, a racing driver, gives up the game to wed Virginia, daughter of Pat MacMurrin, Pakro manufacturer. Just before the wedding is to take place, however, Dusty acquires an open road challenge, and he is riding and father cuts off the match. After an unsuccessful attempt to slope with the girl, Dusty secretly buys Pat's discarded Pakro speed car, enters the race, wins the speed match and a contract from a foreign buyer for Pakro cars, and thus renews old Pat's consent for his marriage to Virginia.

JACK LONDON PICTURE IS SCREEN EVENT.

The coming of a Jack London picture is always an event far out of the ordinary, which is why the announcement that "The Little Fool" is coming to Loew's Theatre on Thursday for a run of three days gives pleasant anticipation.

"The Little Fool" is a screen adaptation from Jack London's "The Little Lady of the Big House." The story deals with Paula, a fascinating creature who attracts all the men invited to the palatial home of her husband, "Dick" Forrest. The husband knows of her weakness for moonshine, but pays little attention to it. Then enters the third party, Evan Graham, an old chum, falls desperately in love, and is loved in return. Dick gives his wife the choice of leaving him. A limousine speeds down the driveway, and the husband surrenders himself to despair. The working out of the situation is masterly.

PAINFUL NEURALGIA, TORTURING SCIATICA

Both Come From the Same Cause—Thin, Watery Blood.

Most people think of neuralgia as a pain in the head or face, but neuralgia may affect any nerve in the body. Different names are given to it when it affects certain nerves. Thus neuralgia of the sciatic nerve is called sciatica, but the character of the pain and the nature of the disease are the same. The pain in neuralgia is caused by starved nerves. The blood which carries nourishment to the nerves has become thin and impure and no longer does so, and the pain you feel is the cry of the nerves for their natural food. You may ease the pains of neuralgia with hot applications, but real relief from the trouble comes by enriching and purifying the blood. For this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are strongly recommended. These pills make new, rich blood and thus act as a most effective nerve tonic. If you are suffering from neuralgia, or any other form of nerve trouble, give these pills a fair trial, and note the ease and comfort that follows their use.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

SETTLERS can co-operate by exercising more care in setting out fire on their own property.

LUMBER FIRMS can help by impressing on all foremen the need for carefulness. River drivers in dry seasons should be specially warned. Gangs of men going in and out to the camps need special attention, because of the danger along the slash-lined trails from the inevitable cigarette.

LIBERALS TO MAKE NORTH OXFORD FIGHT HOT AS POSSIBLE

Resent Action of Premier
Drury in Regard to Seat.

TORONTO, Aug. 26.—Liberal members of the Legislature met today in the offices of the Liberal leader, H. H. Dewar, and decided to make the fight in the North Oxford by-election as hot as possible. It is understood that the Liberals harbor a feeling of resentment that a Liberal was not permitted by Premier Drury to finish out the unexpired term, in succession to the late J. A. Calder, who was a Liberal.

The Conservatives in North Oxford, they point out, recognize the fact that when the riding closes Mr. Calder chose him for the full term of the legislature and that, since death had intervened, the Liberal successor was permitted to be given the seat without opposition. The Drury Government, having had friendly support from the Liberal benches for two sessions, the premier would have been only returning the compliment by generously conceding the seat for the remainder of the legislative term.

"But, since the Government wants a fight, we will give it to them," said one member. "We will go into it with all the energy we have, and Mr. Drury may be sorry he provoked it."

It is said that the majority of the Liberal members of the House would like to see a farmer nominated. On the other hand, one or two figures that with no Conservative in the field, a candidate from the urban part of the riding would run up a big vote in Woodstock and have an even chance in the country districts.

breach of the truce, asserting that equal activity has prevailed in the military barracks and that machine gun practice awakens the Dublin citizens every morning.

The general impression in Sinn Fein and other circles here today was that the exchanges between Mr. De Valera and Mr. Lloyd George constituted only a new stage in the prolonged negotiations.

Valera Chosen Leader.
After today's public session of the Dail Eireann, at which Eamonn De Valera was unanimously elected leader of the Irish republicans with the title of president of the Irish Republic, and Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, was chosen vice-president, a secret session of the "parliament" was held. According to the official report, only ordinary business was transacted, Mr. De Valera, in accepting re-election, said he had been credited with doing things that had been done by his colleagues, mentioning Mr. Griffith, Michael Collins and others. He added that there never had been differences between himself and his colleagues, and that while the British arrested him at Black Rock they found on him a document signed by the ministry which proved his assertion.

During the session of Parliament to loan an internal loan of £200,000 in the United States of $20,000,000 was sanctioned. Both Mr. De Valera and Michael Collins declined the loan. Mr. De Valera pointed out that the average amount of the loans did not equal what Great Britain had "extracted" from Ireland in two months in the form of taxes. Nothing was said during the debate about the rate of interest the loans would carry, but it was assumed that it would be 6 per cent.

Three Arrests.
The Irish Bulletin tonight records the arrest last week of three alleged Government spies, who were charged with watching members of the Dail Eireann outside Mansion House. The men were released by Dublin Castle, where it was said the men were on leave of absence.

Today Sinn Fein made three additional arrests of similar alleged offenders. One of these was inside Mansion House, where the Parliament sits. Sinn Fein leaders assert that despite assurances from Dublin Castle, many men in plain clothes are shadowing deputies.

Deputies Staying.
The deputies of the parliament had made arrangements to return to their homes Saturday, but tonight they are waiting to hear what the Government has to say about the situation. It is expected that the situation will be settled by the negotiations to be continued, however, their presence will not be required as the cabinet has plenty of power to negotiate.

Premier Talks Plainly.
LONDON, Aug. 26.—Mr. Lloyd George today sent a prompt rejoinder to the offer of Eamonn De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," who rejected the British Government's terms for peace in Ireland.

The premier's note constituted a firm reiteration of the Government's former standpoint that Ireland could not be permitted to withdraw from the Empire. He said he thought he had made it clear in conversations and previous communications that the Government "can discuss no settlement which involves a refusal on the part of Ireland to accept a free, equal and loyal partnership in the British commonwealth under the sovereign."

Door Still Open.
Mr. Lloyd George in concluding his note, still held open the door to further negotiations with Mr. De Valera and his colleagues if they are prepared to examine how far the Government's consideration "can be reconciled with the aspirations you present." He declared, however, that the Government could not prolong a mere exchange of notes.

In his communication Mr. Lloyd George preserved the same friendly tone that characterized his former letter to Mr. De Valera. Today he but stressed the Government's standpoint by the quotation of phrases from Irish speeches and Abraham Lincoln. He warned Mr. De Valera that a needless prolongation of the negotiations would serve to play into the hands of the extremists, who, he declared, were only anxious to wreck the negotiations and terminate the truce.

A hopeful aspect of the situation as it is viewed in London political circles, is that neither Mr. De Valera, in his latest communication, nor Mr. Lloyd George, has yet closed the door on the negotiations.

The Premier's Reply.
The text of the reply of Premier Lloyd George to Eamonn De Valera is as follows:

"Sir,—The British Government is profoundly disappointed by your letter of August 24. You write of the conditions of the meeting between us, though no meeting had ever taken place."

"I must remind you, therefore, that when I asked you to meet me two weeks ago I made no preliminary conditions of any sort. You came to London on that invitation and exchanged views with me at three meetings of considerable length. The proposals I made to you after these meetings were based upon full and sympathetic consideration of the views which you expressed."

"They were not made in any haggard spirit. On the contrary, my colleagues and I went to the very limit of our powers in endeavoring to accept of your proposals in Irish interests. Our proposals have gone far beyond all precedent, and have been approved, as I said, by the whole of the civilized world, even in quarters which had shown sympathy with the most extreme of the Irish claims they were regarded as the utmost which the empire can reasonably offer or Ireland reasonably expect."

The Only Criticism.
The only criticism of them I have yet heard outside Ireland is from those who maintain that our proposals have overstepped both warrant and wisdom in their liberality. Your letter shows no recognition of this, and further negotiations must be made to secure some definite progress is made towards acceptance of a basis.

You declare that the surrender of Ireland's whole national tradition and reduce her to subservience. What are the facts? Under the settlement we outlined Ireland would control every nerve and fibre of her national existence. She would speak her own language and make her own religious life; she would have complete power over taxation, finance, subject to an agreement for keeping trade and transport as free as possible between herself and Great Britain, her best market.

She Offers Wide Powers.
"She would have uncontrolled authority over education and all the moral and spiritual interests of her race; she would have it also over law and order, over land and agriculture, over the relations of labor and industry, over the health and homes of her people, and over her own defence."

"She would, in fact, within the shores of Ireland, be free in every respect of national activity, national prestige and national development. The pressure and national development of the United States, international, foreign though they be, enjoy no such range of right."

"Our proposals go even further, for they invite Ireland to take her place as a partner in the great commonwealth of free nations, united by allegiance to the king."

Generous Proposals.
"We consider these proposals completely fulfill your wish that the principle of government by consent of the people should be the broad guiding principle of the settlement which your plenipotentiaries are to negotiate. That principle was first developed in England, and is the mainspring of the representative institutions which she was first to create. It was spread by Ireland and has since been developed throughout the world, and is now the very life of the British commonwealth."

"We could not have invited the Irish people to take their place in that commonwealth on any other principle, and we are convinced that through we can heal old understandings and achieve an enduring partnership as peaceably as Ireland and the other nations of which the commonwealth consists."

Cannot Be Accepted.
"But we cannot accept the relations of Ireland with the British Empire are comparable in principle to those of a province with a central Government. Ireland, with the German Empire, I find it necessary to repeat once more that these are premises which the British Government, whatever its complexion, can never accept."

"In demanding that Ireland should be treated as a separate sovereign power, with no allegiance to the crown and no loyalty to the sister nations of the commonwealth, you are advancing claims which the most famous Nationalist leaders in Irish history, from Daniel O'Connell, most eloquent perhaps of the Irish cause, and Edward, have explicitly disowned."

"Grattan, in a famous phrase, declared that the Irish people should separate, and the sea against union. Daniel O'Connell, most eloquent perhaps of the Irish cause, and Edward, have explicitly disowned."

Quoted Letter.
The premier then quoted a letter written in 1845 to the Duke of Wellington by Thomas Davis, a man of the ideals of young Ireland, in which he advocated the retention of the Imperial Parliament, and the selection by the people; the right of leaving customs and excise and other taxes; the right of crossing railways, canals and bridges; encouraging manufactures, commerce, agriculture and fishing, and the right of the Irish people to their own laws, franchises, and franchises."

"The British Government," the text of the reply of Mr. Lloyd George continues, "offered Ireland all that O'Connell and Thomas Davis asked, and more. It offered her a free, equal and loyal partnership in the British commonwealth. It is playing with phrases to suggest that the principle of government by consent of the governed compels recognition of that demand on our part, or that in putting it in a strange geographical and historical considerations to justify claim to ascendancy over the Irish race."

Limitations Necessary.
"There is no political principle, however clear, that can be applied without regard to limitations imposed by physical facts."

cal and historical facts. These limitations are as necessary as the very principle itself to the structure of every free nation; to deny them would involve the dissolution of all democratic states. It was on these elementary grounds that we called attention to the governing force of the geographical propinquity of these two islands and their long and historic association, despite the great difference of character of the races inhabiting them."

"We do not believe a permanent reconciliation between Great Britain and Ireland can ever be attained without recognition of their physical and historical inter-dependence, which makes complete political and economic separation impracticable for both."

Quotes Lincoln.
"I cannot better express the British standpoint in this respect than in the words used in the Northern and Southern States by Abraham Lincoln in his first inaugural address. They were spoken by him on the brink of the American Civil War, which he was striving to avert."

"Physically speaking," he said, "we cannot separate. We cannot remove our respective sections from each other and build an impassable wall between them. A x x x it is impossible then to make that intercourse more advantageous or more satisfactory after separation than before. x x x Suppose you go to war; you cannot fight always; and when after much loss on both sides and no gain for either, you cease fighting, the identical old questions as to terms of intercourse again are upon you."

"I do not think it can reasonably be denied that the relations between Great Britain and Ireland are in any different case."

Up To Ireland.
"I thought I had made it clear both in my conversations with you and in my two subsequent communications, that we can discuss no settlement which involves a refusal on the part of Ireland to accept our invitation to a free, equal and loyal partnership in the British commonwealth under one sovereign."

"I am reluctant to precipitate this issue, but just point out that a prolongation of the present state of affairs is dangerous. Action is being taken in various directions, while the Government would reduce the truce, and must ultimately lead to its termination. This would indeed be deplorable."

Barring Progress.
"While therefore prepared to make every allowance as to time which will advance the cause of peace, we cannot prolong a mere exchange of notes. It is essential that some definite and immediate progress should be made towards a basis upon which further negotiations can usefully proceed. Your letter seems to us, unfortunately, to show no such progress."

"In this and my previous letters I have set forth the considerations which must govern the attitude of His Majesty's Government in any negotiations which they undertake. If you are prepared to examine how far these considerations can be reconciled with the aspirations you present I shall be happy to meet you and your colleagues." (Signed) "LOYD GEORGE."

ALLEGED CHARTERS
OTTAWA, Aug. 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Further investigations by the department of the secretary of state fail to show that federal charters have been granted to companies alleged to have been proposed by Charles W. French. A dispatch from Chicago gives the names of three companies with headquarters at Chicago which, it is stated, were organized by French.

WATER DEPARTMENT READY FOR EMERGENCY
ST. THOMAS, Aug. 26.—That the waterworks department may be ready for any emergency in the demand for household or other supply of water, electric pumps have been installed and they worked so efficiently last evening that the pressure was evenly and satisfactorily distributed throughout the entire corporation. The works are also supplied with gasoline pumps, and the big water tower, which has a 24-hour supply in store, in case of an accident at the department, and the equipment at the works as efficient as any in the smaller provincial centres.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 26.—Roy Benson, foreman at the M. C. R. shops, had an inconvenient and exciting adventure yesterday, when on a holiday trip to friends at Niles, Ind. Mr. Benson secured a berth in St. Thomas, and on awakening at Niles next morning and shedding his nightrobe, found that some person had stolen his trousers and waistcoat, and, with them, about $50 in money, his K. P. pin and several valuable papers. The robbery was reported to the conductor, but no trace of the thief was discovered. As there was nothing to wear by Mr. Benson but his coat, he declined to leave the coach in his September morning attire. The train was held until a kindly-disposed preacher, a passenger, loaned Mr. Benson a pair of pants of extra dimensions, and with these he was enabled to reach his friends at Niles.

Charge Dismissed.
The charge of theft preferred against a railwayman of the city, who was alleged to have purchased some accessories of an automobile, which had been stolen, was dismissed today by Judge Ernstrom.

The goods were taken from the car of Harry G. Joffe, South Dorchester, when it was standing outside Grace Methodist Church, St. Thomas, on November 18 last. The articles were afterwards found on the premises of the accused by Detective McCully on June 2, and consisted of an auto tire, inner tube and motor robe.

The evidence adduced pointed to the innocence of the accused.

OWNERS TELL HOW THEIR CARS INCREASE EARNING CAPACITY AND ENLARGE OPPORTUNITIES

The Great Contest has been decided. Seventy-five letters on "What My Car Means To Me" have been selected, telling how the automobile has vastly improved living in city and hamlet.

UNANIMOUS TRIBUTE TO UTILITY OF MOTOR CAR

In the words of Sir John Willison, one of the judges:—

"No one could read the host of letters received in the Overland Essay competition without being impressed with the practical value of the automobile in commercial affairs."

"In letter after letter, there is authentic evidence of increased earning capacity, improved health, more leisure and greater comfort. In case after case, the motor has increased individual opportunities for advancement while improving living conditions. The women's letters are no less striking in their appreciation of the motor and its value in relieving household cares, in solving the difficulties of children's schooling in sparsely settled or remote districts, in stimulating social activities, and in creating social opportunities."

LITTLE HOPE NOW FOR HAZELWOOD'S RECOVERY

Richard Hazelwood, an inmate of Westminster Hospital, who sustained a broken back when he fell from a tree on Thursday, is in a very critical condition. Little hope is now held for his recovery.

CHARGED WITH DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED

INGERSOLL, Aug. 26.—Charged with being intoxicated while in charge of an automobile, W. E. Crandall, a local man, appeared in the police court this afternoon. He was remanded until Monday afternoon and was committed to Woodstock jail, bail being refused. Crandall, it is alleged, while driving east into Beachville last night, collided with the rail of a bridge and the car hung suspended several feet above the stream.

MACHINE GUNS DISPERSED MOB

Platoon of Leinster Troops Was Attacked in India.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—(By Canadian Press).—An official statement says the military operations in India in connection with the Malabar disturbances are progressing satisfactorily. It transpires that a mob of 2,000 attacked the police at Tirunagudi, and later attacked the Leinster platoon, but were dispersed with machine guns. Lieutenants Rowley and Johnston got separated from the troops, and their bodies were subsequently recovered terribly mutilated.

The railway station and postoffice at Parapanagudi have been sacked and the line cut. The situation now is as follows: A detachment of troops at Malapuram is isolated, but all are well. The line is cut to Kuttippalam, while the road is blocked and bridges broken. A number of Government offices have been gutted and two British soldiers, one European and fifteen police and local officials of Tirunagudi have been taken prisoner. The warship Canopus arrived at Calicut today. The situation is quiet, but looting and murder of Hindus are rife at Walluvanad and Ponnani. Fanatics from Calicut entered a Pullen-gode estate and beheaded an European. It is also reported that Readman, another European, was murdered and his body thrown into the river. Looting continues.

INGERSOLL RUMOR IS NEWS TO DRURY

INGERSOLL, Aug. 26.—Rumors of a change in route of the provincial highway, to the exclusion of Ingersoll, caused an agitation here a few days ago and yesterday prompted a deputation from the council to wait upon Premier Drury at Embro. The deputation was composed of Mayor Henderson and Councillors Sutherland and Ferguson. Premier Drury stated that if any change had been decided upon, he knew nothing of it. A. T. Walker, M.P. for South Oxford, was also questioned and stated that he knew of no change in the original course, which included Ingersoll.

DRURY LIKENS GAS ROW TO IRISH PROBLEM

Will Be Glad to Give People What They Want, Says Premier.

[By Staff Reporter.]

RONDEAU, Aug. 26.—Hon. E. C. Drury, premier of Ontario; Hon. Manning Doherty, provincial minister of agriculture, and Dr. Hugh Stevenson, M.P. for London, were the speakers at the Howard Township farmers' and Kent U. F. O. picnic at the Government Park this afternoon. Attendance was roughly estimated at well over 10,000. Although the accommodation for the speeches was not of the best, the speeches were given with the greatest of ease. The premier, who was the center of attention throughout, and all three speakers were warmly applauded from time to time. The premier aroused considerable enthusiasm over his comment upon his hydro-railway policy. It was quite evident that the great mass of the people were behind him in his determination not to guarantee bonds of municipalities asking radical extension.

Like Irish Problem.
Dwelling the greater part of his time upon the natural gas question, however, which has been the cause of the controversy of four years' standing, the premier likened it to the Irish problem. Outlining the entire development of the natural gas question, he declared that if the people so wished the Government would step out of the controversy tomorrow. If the townships desired to settle the dispute themselves in the courts, there would be no opposition from his party. Referring to the question, he had been asked to reopen the question, and the decision to do so or not rests entirely with him. The matter of rates, he added, had yet to be settled.

Opinion Divided.
He explained that his Government had been quite willing to put the question back to the state it was originally in before the appointment of the referee, but at a recent conference of the consumers only 20 were in favor of the repeal of all the gas laws to enable the municipalities to fight it out for themselves, while 40 of them favored a continuation of the present government control.

What was the same as the gas issue, he remarked. He stated that the Government would do all in its power to protect the interests of the consumers, and he himself stated that his services would ever be at the disposal of the users of natural gas. He also referred briefly to the dairy industry, and explained the plans he holds for the improvement of this great branch of the agriculture industry.

Mr. McElroy was the chairman of the afternoon and presided over the program, which was opened by a number of Scotch dances. A program of sports was also pulled off during the afternoon, including a baseball match, races and other athletic events.

among yourselves you must never come to us and say, 'Prevent these fellows from shutting the gas off.' I want to assure you that the Government has no interest in the natural gas producing companies. We want you to get fair treatment. We want both sides to be reasonable, and a settlement arrived at which will be satisfactory all around, having regard to all arguments."

Dr. Stevenson, the Labor member from London, devoted several minutes to a bitter attack on the old-line parties of the Federal House on their railway policy. "From 1914 to 1918," he asserted, "the railroadman did not receive one red cent of an increase, and while people in other walks of life were leaving their regular occupations to get the benefit of the big wages in munition plants, etc., they remained loyal on their job of taking care of the country's transportation. Yet they blame the high freight rates to the big wages, while the authorities know full well that their wages remained stationary until the Macdougall award was made on the American side."

In conclusion, the London member named as a malicious lie the story circulated that Labor and Farmers had split in the Drury administration. He urged the farmers to support the present Government through thick and thin in order to get their just deserts as the real producers of the nation.

Denies Charges.
Hon. Manning Doherty followed with a vigorous speech, one of the warmest portions being his reference to criticism of his action with relation to the cutting of trees in Rondeau Park. He stoutly maintained that he had not been guilty of any wrongdoing in connection with the entire affair.

In referring to the beautiful Government reserve at Rondeau, upon which the picnic was held, he stated that he was pleased that the premier was present, so that he would see for himself the importance of preserving the park in all of its pristine beauty, as a source of education and inspiration for future generations. He stated that this would be one of the greatest aims of the Government in the administration of public lands.

Considerable of the minister's time was taken up with the explanation of the rural credits scheme, which he has fostered, and which he promised would be in operation in the very near future, with rural banks springing up over the countryside.

Would Hold Stock.
He also advised the farmers to hold on to their breeding stock. He held out the hope that the market would be improved in a short time, and it would be a mistake to kill off the breeding animals when their preservation would mean so much to the farmers later on.

In referring to the natural gas problem, which is one of the liveliest subjects in this district at the present time, the minister stated that the Government would do all in its power to protect the interests of the consumers, and he himself stated that his services would ever be at the disposal of the users of natural gas.

He also referred briefly to the dairy industry, and explained the plans he holds for the improvement of this great branch of the agriculture industry.

Mr. McElroy was the chairman of the afternoon and presided over the program, which was opened by a number of Scotch dances. A program of sports was also pulled off during the afternoon, including a baseball match, races and other athletic events.
