BOERS STILL IN CONVENTION CONCERNING PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Representatives of the Free State and Transvaal Will Likely Consult Lord Kitchener—Will Forward the Proposals
to the Imperial Government—Cabinet Council Called.

Klerksdorp, Transvaal Colony,
April 11.—The representatives of the Orange Free State and the Transvaal governments had conferences yesterday afternoon and to-day. The delegations were confined to the delegations, and no communication with outsiders was allowed.

FRESH RUMORS.
London, April 11.—Summons were issued this afternoon for a cabinet meeting to-morrow. The circumstances started a fresh crop of rumors to the effect that the government had received a despatch from Lord Kitchener on the subject of the peace negotiations after Mr. Brodrick's statement in the House of Commons this afternoon.

London, April 12.—Mr. Balfour's denial last night of the peace rumors was very emphatic. He said:—"We have no information as to the nature of things could have been."
AN EMPHATIC DENIAL.
The sudden calling of a cabinet
meeting and the fact that King Edward rather unexpectedly terminated
his cruise yesterday in order to return to London, convinced people that something important was pending, and led to the most extraordinary rumors.
Among other things, it is reported that Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, has resigned. This is quite untrue. Mr. Chamberlain was suffering from a chill yesterday, but he expects to attend the cabinet meeting to-day.

TALMAGE DYING

The Noted Washington Divine
Slowly Passing Away—An Eventful Life.

Washington, April 11.—Rev. Dr. T.
De Witt Talmage is slowly dying at his residence in this city. His physician concludes that they can now see no hope for his recovery and that he is steadily growing worse. He had been unconscious for the past forty-eight hours, and the passive congestion of the brain has developed into a very inflamed condition. After the afternoon consultation of the physicians, the following bulletin was issued:
"Dr. Talmage has grown steadily worse. His condition is extremely serious. Dr. Talmage was in poor health when he started for Mexico six weeks ago. He was suffering from influenza and serious catarrhal symptoms. He has been very ill since his return to Washington a month ago,
but some hope has been held out until yesterday."

W. O. T. U.

The W. O. T. U. meeting held in the A. O. U. W. hall Thursday was a bright and instructive one.
Papers on the different departments of W. O. T. U. work were read. Special mention of the ones on narcotics, scientific temperance as taught in schools, and missionary work among the Algonquians was in order.
Miss Baxter, the popular directress of Victoria Avenue Methodist church, and Mrs. S. C. Watson, president of the A. O. U. W., were in attendance. The meeting was a success, and the ladies were well respected. The meeting was a suc-

CANADIAN CONTINGENT GOES

IN SPITE OF PEACE RUMORS

Will Serve to Relieve War-Worn Veterans Now in the Field If Peace is Proclaimed—Officers not Announced.

Ottawa, April 11.—The rumors of peace in South Africa have not affected
the plans of the militia department for raising and equipping the fourth contingent of the force proceeded today with unabated vigor. Indeed the impression in official circles is that even should peace be proclaimed, the contingent will be despatched to South Africa as originally intended. It is believed that a fresh force of 2,000
well appointed and well-mounted men will be welcomed as substitutes for an equal number of the war-worn veterans now in the field, who will need to be returned home as soon as possible to recuperate.

The only apprehension as to the effect of the conclusion of peace is that it will dampen the enthusiasm of officers and men to enlist. The Minister of Militia was in consultation during the afternoon with Major-General

WITHOUT FOUNDATION.

In the House of Commons at midnight, Mr. A. J. Balfour, the government leader, replying to a question
asked by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman,
the Liberal leader in the House,
declared that the government had no information concerning the peace negotiations, and that there was no foundation for them.

PRENTICE'S PARDON

English Lad, Who was Convicted of Murder, but Shaped the Gallows.

Ottawa, Ont., April 11.—Arthur Prentice, a young English lad, five years ago was sentenced to be hanged
for the murder of a farmer in Western Ontario. Prentice had a quarrel with a neighboring farmer's son over a rabbit, which Prentice said belonged to him. The farmer took up the row with Prentice and the lad shot him.
The death sentence was changed to penitentiary for life, and now a pardon has been granted Prentice. There were extenuating circumstances in the first place, and a favorable report from the judges. Prentice has friends in England, and he will be released at Kingston penitentiary today and forwarded to home. The decision of the judges has been an information to give in regard to such cases, because when a man is pardoned the idea is to say as little about it as possible.

ENGLISH SYNDICATE

Petrolia, Ont., April 12.—It is reported that negotiations which have been carried on for some time past between J. D. and R. D. Noble, of this place, and a syndicate of English capitalists, have come to a successful issue. A company has been formed in London, Eng., known as the Canadian Oil Fields, Limited, which has already purchased a large quantity of oil property and will probably buy much more this summer. The company is also expected to invest a great deal of money in drilling and developing new oil property, which will prove of great benefit to the Canadian petrol-um interests.

FIGHTING IN SOUTH AFRICA

London, Saturday, April 12.—That the fighting continues in South Africa is shown by a casualty list given out yesterday, which contains the names of a few of the killed and wounded in engagements which occurred at three separate points as late as the 8th and 9th of April.
Preparations here continue for the despatch of 20,000 additional troops for the winter campaign. Roberts yesterday inspected the first draft of the Guards, which will sail for South Africa next week.

STERN MARTIAL LAW TO RULE IN BELGIUM

To be Proclaimed Unless Order is Soon Restored—Wild Scene
in Parliament—Rioting in Brussels and Elsewhere.

Brussels, April 11.—The Belgian government has decided to proclaim martial law on Monday, unless order is previously restored.

The sitting of the Chamber of Deputies to-day was characterized by violent scenes. The Premier, Count De Naeyer, referring to the deplorable events of yesterday, said:—"The appoint of the Socialists to the population proves that it is their avowed plan to continue the struggle even after Parliament has pronounced on the Revision Bill. Their aim is the disfranchisement of power and the triumph of revolution. The Government is resolved that the debate on the Revision Bill shall occur in spite of the assertion of the Monteur Socialists
as to the contrary."

At this point of the Premier's speech violent altercation, which nearly led to blows, arose between the Deputies of the opposing parties. Liberals and Socialists engaged in a sharp discussion concerning the agreement concluded between them for the defence of universal suffrage, and M. Debon,
a Socialist, shouted, "We are betrayed."
At the close of the sitting, Socialist Deputies shouting "Jesus Christ," stormed the President's tribune. Orders were then summoned to preserve order, and a violent scene ensued, in which blows were freely exchanged.
The Chamber was closed when members of the Left party and Socialists proceeded to the Maison du Peuple with the intention of persuading the people to cease their demonstration until next week. The Maison was surrounded by the civil guard, but a meeting was permitted to be held inside. M. Vandervelder and other speakers at the meeting advocated that the people remain calm and have recourse to a general strike next week
if the Government used force.
As the persons who attended the meeting were dispersing, and in spite of the precaution of permitting only a few of them to leave at one time, conflicts with the police occurred. Mounted gendarmes cleared the streets, and many of the demonstrators fired their revolvers. During the course of the evening there were several other outbreaks in the city. The police charged the rioters, and about 25 persons were wounded. Many others were arrested.
All those arrested were armed with revolvers.
Demonstrations and encounters also occurred at Liege, Ghent and elsewhere, the most serious being at Hou-den-Georges, in the coal district. During the collision between the police and strikers at that place, a latter used brickbats and firearms.
The police fired upon the rioters, killing a coal miner and a young girl.
Fifteen persons were wounded, including two policemen. Mounted infantry finally dispersed the mob.
Troops are being moved to the various provincial points where there are disorders. The debate on the Revision Bill before next Tuesday, the day
fixed for the discussion of the universal suffrage. The civil guard is again under arms to-night, and the police posts have been doubled.

SUDDEN CYCLONE

It Struck Chatham Yesterday
Afternoon and did Damage
While it Lasted.

A fierce cyclone, that lasted for about 15 minutes, struck this city yesterday afternoon. The wind storm was worst just across the Fifth street bridge. A load of hay was standing in front of Quinn & Patterson's barn.
The load was blown 20 yards down
the road, the horses attached being powerless to stop the wagon.
The awning of John Aniel, the candy man, was carried away and whipped into ribbons. A huge door was carried on to the roof of Tom Slate's stable. The sign in front of Joe Houli's blacksmith shop was blown down and Dunn's awning was only saved by the clerks.
The storm was fierce but short, hay,
paper and dust obscured everything
for a few minutes.

WILL SIFTON BE BAILED OUT?

London, April 12.—The matter of appealing for bail for Gerald Sifton, is in the hands of the leading counsel for the defense, Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, K.
C. No decision has yet been reached.
The prisoner is said to be very hopeful that he will be given temporary liberty.

The plea for bail, should it be made,
will be based upon the fact of Sifton's long confinement. He will soon have served two years within the dreary walls of the county jail, and this has been doubly hard upon him, young and accustomed as he was to the freedom of the country. The defense will set up that the trial of their client
has now been four times postponed,
on three of which occasions the crown
was not ready, they say.

Civil service promotion examinations
will be held in Toronto, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Montreal, St. John and Halifax, commencing May 13.

MURDERER MILLER COLLAPSES AND CONFESSES HIS CRIME

To Cover his Misdeed he Lured her to a Lonely Spot and Struck her on the Head With a Hatchet Miller's Poer-
Record in Woodstock—Married Girl There in Jailor's House.

Detroit, April 11.—Professor Joseph
M. Miller at 12 o'clock to-day confessed to murdering Carrie M. Jennett.
After being in the "sweet box" an hour and twenty minutes, Miller broke down and confessed to the crime. Assistant Prosecutor Morran, three officers and the official stenographer of the police department were present.
Miller said that he had illicit relations with the girl, and was responsible for her condition. He said he offered to send Miss Jennett to a lying-in hospital, but she refused to go, insisting that he leave his family and go to some other city with her. This he would not do. Wednesday night, when he started from home for the lodge meeting, he had an engagement with the girl, and intended to kill her. He took the hatchet that was found by the officers yesterday in his kitchen with him. He secreted this on 17th street, on his way to the meeting.
When he left the lodge rooms he secreted the hatchet again, and proceeded to the corner of 14th street and Warren avenue, where he met Miss Jennett. They walked over to 13th street and out to where the killing was done. Miller says they sat down on the sidewalk and talked for a while, the girl urging him to abandon his family and leave the city with her.
He then whipped out the hatchet and struck her in the head. Miller said he had no recollection of anything after the first blow until he found himself wiping the blood off his hatchet
on the grass in the vacant lot.
MILLER'S WOODSTOCK RECORD.
Woodstock, Ont., April 11.—Joseph Miller, the man under arrest at Detroit for the murder of Miss Jennett, was about 23 years ago a resident of Woodstock. In 1879 he was confined in Woodstock jail on a charge of attempting to perform an abortion. He was afterwards released on agreeing to marry the young woman affected.
Miller was married at the home of Jailer Cameron here. When in jail here he was 22 years of age, and at the time was living at Norwich. He is remembered here as a reckless young man, but a skilled musician.
His father died about 25 years ago in Woodstock, and his mother, who was married again to Mr. McNeill of this city, died about five years later. For the past five years Miller's relatives
in these parts have heard nothing concerning him.

WHITNEY AND FOY

Address a Big Meeting of East
Northumberland Electors
at Hastings.

Hastings, Ont., April 11.—The first shot in the Provincial campaign was fired in the Conservative interests here to-night. A mass meeting was held in the town hall and addressed by J. P. Whitney, and J. J. Foy, also by Dr. Willoughby, candidate of the Liberal Conservative party in East Northumberland, and by Dr. Ford, standard bearer in East Peterboro'.
The chair was occupied by ex-Reeve
F. W. Fowles. In spite of very disagreeable weather, the hall was filled to the doors with a very representative gathering, many being present
from different parts of the riding.
The candidates were well received and delivered short addresses. The floor was taken by Mr. Foy, and Mr.
Whitney, who discussed principal questions at some length. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

PAN CAKE SOCIAL

The pan-cake social given by the Ladies Aid of the Victoria Avenue
Methodist church last evening was a magnificent success. James Brackin made a good and genial chairman.
The program was given in the church,
after which the pan-cakes and maple syrup were served in the Sunday school hall. The program was as follows:
1. Vocal solo—Miss Baxter.
2. Vocal solo—Willie Hoar.
3. Recitation—Miss Hicklin.
4. Vocal duet—Miss Baxter and
Wm. Whitley.
5. Recitation—Miss Hicklin.
6. Vocal solo—Miss Gerlie Somerville.
7. Vocal solo—Miss Baxter.

AMERICAN OFFICER ANSWERS

CHARGES OF WAR BRUTALITY

He Claims Worse Atrocities Than His Have Been Committed in Other Armies—Natives Revel in Blood.

Manila, April 11.—Major Waller, of the marine corps, who is being tried by court-martial on the charge of executing Samar natives without trial,
addressed the crowded court to-day.
The major said he was either right or wrong in his actions, and added that he desired to cite five precedents which came under the head of his own case. He alluded to the naval battle at Santiago, and the humanity he had shown the Spaniards who were captured, and said he had many letters from Spaniards thanking him
for the kindness he had shown them.
Continuing, the major said that in 1893 he was with the British forces in Egypt, where Arabs captured picnics of Bengal Cavalry, decapitated
the prisoners and placed their heads on poles. Afterwards all the Arabs who were caught were shot without trial. During the campaign in China

the Chinese mutilated the dead, and tortured the wounded to death. Consequently when a Boer or a Hun-tarian was captured, he was executed immediately without any reference. This was true in the case of the troops of every nation in China. It was true in the case of the Boers, who were the three weeks he commanded the American, but the same thing occurred later when he was no longer in command. No protest was made and he had every right to believe that his acts were approved, so far as the American forces were concerned. He knew they were approved by those of other nations. "It is impossible to decide such treachery as that of the natives of Samar," said the major.
"They revel in blood and have an appetite for human sacrifices of the human body. These fiends stole Capt.
Connell's eagle ring, filled the soldiers lodges with jam and jelly, and attempted to murder my command. I shot them; I honestly thought that I was right and believe so now.
Neither my people nor the world will believe me to be a murderer."

THWARTED

The City Baffled in Their Purchase of the Cross-Queen St. Library Site.

"There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip."

This is a very old saying, but the truth expressed in it is being endorsed every day. The latest example of it has come to light in connection with the selection of a library site by the Public Library Board. It was thought after the last meeting of the board, when the Cross and Queen street property was unanimously chosen for the building, that the matter was practically disposed of, but now matters have assumed a far different aspect and a slight hitch has occurred, which may cause considerable trouble.

The property chosen belongs to the Roman Catholic Church, and part of it has been leased for the last 12 years by Mr. Williamson, grocer. The lease is renewed every year and the present one will not run out until some time next November. A house is situated on the property and at the present time is occupied.

As the lease is still in existence, the owners of the property, will not be able to give the city a title for the property until the lease expires, unless the lease is purchased from Mr. Williamson.

It is rumored that Mr. Williamson will not sell his lease, and the house on the property at anything but a very high figure. It is thought that his offer of selling will not be accepted and as a result the Board will probably be delayed in building the library until such time as the lease runs out, which will be near the end of this year.

J. W. Humphrey, a member of the Library Board, said this afternoon: "I don't think we will have much trouble over the lease. If the price asked for it is too high we don't have to buy it. We can go ahead and commence building our library on the part of the property which is not leased. Of course, if Mr. Williamson will not come down a little in his price it will cause a little delay in building, but I don't think it will make any material difference."

CONCEALING THINGS

The Big Briscoe Benefit will be the success of the season. Everybody is in accord with the scheme to present the local manager of the Grand Opera House with a grand house on the corner of his benefit, so that all can in some degree show their appreciation of the good work Mr. Briscoe has done for the past season. The program will be held Monday. They will be unique in design and well worth preserving as souvenirs.

Director of Ceremonies, Mr. C. Philip says that for success the "Old Boys' Reunion" won't be in it with the Big Briscoe Benefit. The only time that Mr. Philip gets real enthusiastic, however, is when he talks about Herr Hoffman, the famous cellist from Detroit. Mr. Philip says that there is a certain appealing sadness about the music of that instrument at any time, but when it is played with the feeling and expression which Mr. Hoffman puts into his instrument, the effect is marvellous and indescribable. You have heard the wind whistling mournfully through the leafless trees, when the nights are black and rainy, and even the darkness seems to hold something mournful. Well, Mr. Hoffman's isn't at all like that. It is wonderful and amazing, withal sad and sweet. Harry C. Philip says that he has heard Herr Hoffman and can prove what he says.

Capt. Mowbray has suggested—and the suggestion is meeting with favor—that "C" Company all attend the Opera House in their uniforms. Fred Briscoe, for whom the Big Briscoe Benefit is being presented, is a Corporal in "C" Company. It is thought that only attired in red coats can the Corporal's fellow soldiers stand Briscoe's speech at the Big Briscoe Benefit.

Geo. Perrin, the specialty artist, will put on a vaudeville sketch in an act between the acts. Mr. Perrin is a comedian and improvisator and is expected to make a hit. His friends assure him he will make a home run if he ever ventures on the stage. There are several other things, which the Big Briscoe Benefit which the organizers are keeping up their sleeve and intend to spring on the audience on the night of the show.

"To glad your ear and please your eye"—Pericles.

Few features of the social season have been so chastely elaborate or so uniformly delightful as was entertainment accorded some three hundred invited guests by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Montheith, of the local United States consulate, last evening.

The function was not the first to which the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Montheith are indebted. Since establishing their residence in the Maple City in '97 their own artistic tendencies, with the accomplishments of their talented son, have proved a decided impetus and valued acquisition to higher musical development, which was evidenced in the delightful and brilliant complimentary musical tendered by them in the Grand Opera House two seasons since.

Within the spacious corridors and apartments of the Hotel Garner last evening's guests were royally entertained. The large dining hall was deftly fitted up as the concert room. It was richly decorated with magnificent palms. At the further end a dias had been erected for the orchestra and for those who contributed to the musical program.

Mr. and Mrs. Montheith welcomed their guests at the brightly lighted and attractive concert room. Mrs. Montheith was exquisitely attired in a gown of pearl grey crepe de chene, trimmed with panne velvet, overlaid with cream applique. The dress was the work of a Detroit modiste.

The musical program was a veritable artistic gem. Each separate selection—vocal, instrumental and orchestral—deservedly elicited warm praise from the appreciative audience. An exceedingly pleasing thought was evidenced in the presentation of exquisite bouquets to the ladies who took part. In addition to the excellence of the contributions, run local artists, the presentation was enhanced by the splendid renditions of Messrs. Claire Montheith, baritone, New York; Henry R. McCaw, violinist, Windsor; and Harry Corey, baritone soloist, Petrolia.

An added and unexpected treat was the recitation given by "Tein Blevins" in her own peculiarly sweet style. Mr. O. L. Lewis presided over the concert numbers, which were as follows:

PART FIRST.

1. "The Strollers"—Raglan.

2. Vocal—"The Swallows"—Cowan.

Mrs. John Cooper.

PART SECOND.

1. "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden"—Stuart.

2. Vocal—"A Woodpecker"—Novin.

3. Piano—"Singing Song"—Raff.

4. Vocal—"O, Dry Those Tears"—Raff.

5. Vocal—"Selected"—Raff.

6. Violin—"N'ature"—Raff.

7. Vocal—"Die Joesente Dio D'Amor"—Gounod.

Mr. and Mrs. Montheith.

At the conclusion of the program the seats were graciously removed, as by invisible hands, and space and opportunity accorded for a "Grand March" around the room.

Very bright and charming was the scene—the beautiful ladies, handsomely and fashionably gowned, in the glow of life, spirit and enjoyment; the gentlemen, all looking their best. Then came the dancing—to the soft, sonorous strains, the rhythm and realism of the popular Zeckel's orchestra, of Detroit; and the Terpsichorean devotees paid joyous tribute thereto until "the night was gone."

During the entire evening a sumptuous luncheon was served. Harry Webb and staff of Toronto, were the caterers and every detail was so perfectly managed that each guest seemed to receive special attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Montheith have demonstrated perfection in the art of entertaining and their generous goodness to their guests will furnish very many pleasant memories to all.

In addition to some three hundred guests from this city there were present:

St. Thomas, Ont., April 11.—Orlando Pfeffer, a well-known resident of Yarmouth township, died this morning at the Amos Wood Hospital, aged 60 years. Deceased a few weeks ago lay out all night in a swamp near Sparta and his feet and hands were severely frozen. Mr. Pfeffer was born in Yarmouth, where he resided all his life. He died some years ago. The funeral takes place on Sunday at 2 o'clock, to the Seminary burying ground, near Sparta.

TO ENFORCE COERCION.

London, April 12.—A despatch to the Postmaster-General from Dublin says that ten battalions of English and Scotch militia are to be embodied and sent to Ireland within a month, in pursuance of the British Government's determination to apply the Coercion Act.

The correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette, understanding that Lord Londonderry, the Postmaster-General, threatened to resign from the Cabinet unless active measures were taken to circumvent the United Irish League.

VETERAN DEAD.

Brantford, Ont., April 11.—Major Lemmon, J. P., one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Brantford, and a pioneer of journalism in Canada, died shortly before 9 o'clock yesterday morning in his 82nd year. He came out from Cork with his parents in 1824, and shortly after entered the office of the Sentinel, which later became the Courier, and was owned by the father of deceased. The son succeeded him in control of the paper, retiring in 1890. He occupied several municipal offices, and was always regarded as a public-spirited citizen. He was a staunch Conservative, and a personal friend of the late Sir John A. Macdonald. He was once census commissioner.

FIGS...

We are going to sell all of our fine table figs at a greatly reduced price rather than carry them over the summer. The trouble is, we bought too heavily last fall, and in order to clear them out with a rush, we will make the price Eleven (11c) cents per pound. Our price was 15c a pound, and as we considered them such good value at 15c, we refused at different times to sell them two pounds for 35c. So that we think you can make no mistake if you pay 11c for them.

DR. PITCHER CURES A TORONTO TOBACCONIST

Mr. C. F. Helmkey, the Proprietor of the "New Century Cigar Store" 94 Queen St. East, Cured of Acute Kidney Trouble.

He is Strong in His Endorsement of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets

There are not a few people in the eastern portion of Toronto who know Mr. C. F. Helmkey, who keeps the New Century Cigar Store at 94 Queen Street East. Hundreds who do not know him personally are at least acquainted with his place of business. For some time past Mr. Helmkey has been a victim of kidney complaint in its most acute form, and every remedy he tried seemed to be of no avail to cure him.

MR. C. F. HELMKEY.

He read that Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets were curing cases of severe kidney complaint that other remedies seemed unable to cure, and in consequence he decided to try them. The results were simply marvelous. A few bottles of Dr. Pitcher's Tablets soon removed every trace of the distressing kidney trouble and made Mr. Helmkey feel like a new man. When interviewed about the following particulars:

"Yes," said he, "I suffered from kidney trouble in the most acute and tedious form, and can never be thankful enough for what Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets did for me."

"What were the symptoms of your complaint?"

"Well, I had a terrible pain across the small of my back, an irritable condition of the bladder that caused much suffering. My appetite was poor, and when I ate anything it gave me great distress."

"Had you been troubled that way for any length of time?"

"Yes, for some considerable time. Of course I took all sorts of remedies, hoping to be cured, but kept getting worse all the time."

"Then you say it was Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets that cured you?"

"Most certainly do. I think Dr. Pitcher's Tablets are the only remedy in the world for kidney troubles. This statement may seem extravagant, but I have gone the rounds of all the advertised kidney mania, and Dr. Pitcher's was the only one that touched the spot and cured me."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are prepared from the formula of Zina Pitcher, M.D., formerly Professor of Materia Medica and Genito-Urinary Diseases, Michigan College of Medicine, Detroit, Mich. They are the most effective, scientific treatment for backache, lame or weak back, puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, dizziness, mist before the eyes, bleeding, gravel, stone in the bladder, high colored urine, sediment, scalding or smarting, irritability of the bladder, frequent calls during the day or night, rheumatism, pains in the joints or muscles, uric acid in the blood, kidney troubles of women, bedwetting of children, and all forms of kidney, bladder, or urinary troubles of young or old.

There is no other remedy so good as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They are chocolate coated, small in size, and easy to take, and every dose helps the cure.

Price 50 cents a bottle, or three bottles for $1.35; at all druggists, or sent by mail by addressing the Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

He Got His Tip.

He was a tiny little fellow, surely not more than five years old, and as he called for his afternoon papers at the corner of Twelfth and Market streets many people gazed at him with mingled amusement and pity. He had long brown curls, wet with the drenching rain, and his shrill little voice had a baby lisp. A very stout, elderly woman, apparently weighing close to 200 pounds, paused at the south side of Market street and looked askance at the miniature river of water and at the passing procession of wagons and trolley cars.

The little newsboy was quick to size up the situation. Running up to her, he exclaimed: "Don't be afraid, lady. I'll help you across." Reaching up his tiny little hand, he clutched her by the arm, and together the ridiculous pair threaded their way to the opposite curb. Then the stout woman opened her purse, gravely handed the little fellow a coin and disappeared into the Reading terminal.

RISTORI AS A DIPLOMAT.

How the Great Actress Won Gortchakof to Her Cause.

Ristori was charged with the mission of bringing round Prince Gortchakof to the side of Italian unity when she went in 1890 to a play at St. Petersburg. As the court was in mourning she was commanded to come and recite "Maria Stuarda" at the Winter palace. Mme. Ristori recited her great part and electrified the court. The czar shed tears.

After she retired from the room where the imperial party was to a salon filled with courtiers, the czar's wife brought up Prince Gortchakof and presented him. He had something to say about the emotional character of Ristori's recitation. He wondered how she could have been so deeply stirred by the sufferings of one who had perished so many centuries ago.

"I was not thinking of her," cried Ristori. "I was thinking of a living and disowned martyr, supposed to be dead, but living. I was thinking of my beloved Italy. I wanted, under the image of Maria Stuarda, to represent to the minds of their imperial majesties the cause of Italian independence in unity, and I think they vibrated in sympathy with my patriotic efforts. I now want to convert you, prince, for I am afraid you think Italy must not be resuscitated, though she has risen as if from the dead and is full of life, energy, hope."

Gortchakof answered in diplomatic commonplace. At length he appeared moved by Ristori's eloquence and said: "I promise to refer the matter to my imperial majesty. You have not pleaded in vain."

Ralph Waldo Emerson's Speech.

There is an old tradition that tells how Ralph Waldo Emerson, the Sage of Concord, once went on a wild, reckless spree. Wary of Marcus Aurelius, Alcott and the serene heights of Concord, he resolved to make a plunge into the vortex of crime and folly in a great city to see vice and the vicious at close range and thus learn by experience of the underworld.

He went straight to the saloon of one Brigham in Boston, in those days famed among Harvard students as the aboriginal inventor of more "fancy drinks" than any one since the days of Elyzer Bacchus. Bewildered by the festive scene and the endless list of beverages he had never heard of, he asked Brigham which one of the whole blubbery catalogue would be relied on to impart the largest sum total of pleasure in the shortest possible time, to which Brigham replied: "Oh, I guess a glass of lemonade would be the right thing for you!"

Supplied the Want.

A certain writer while in San Francisco visited the new house of an old friend, a gentleman of Irish extraction. The hostess evidently took great pride in the house, the furnishings of which were new and beautiful and gave every evidence of taste and refinement. The writer, who has an eye for the beautiful, gave unstinted praise to everything he saw.

"But," he said, "I am sorry to see that your house, beautiful as it is, lacks one ornament which no Irish house should be without."

"What is that?" she asked unhesitatingly.

"A pig," replied the writer, with a satisfied chuckle.

The hostess eyes sparkled.

"It did," she said indignantly, "but you have supplied the want."

English Names For Towns.

Many names of towns in England have been appropriated for a similar use in this country. These names frequently indicate in themselves the origin of the towns. For instance, names ending in "chester," or "caster" or "caster," such as Dorchester, Worcester and Lancaster, undoubtedly apply to sites of old military settlements or camps, and the termination is derived from "castra," the Latin word for camp.

Like Lincoln, then it too, is of Roman origin, because the Latin word for color is colonia. When the syllable "by" ends the word, like Rugby, we then know that the Danes are responsible for the name, for the Danish word for town is by.

Judicial Differentiation.

Dipper (at wayside tavern)—That was Judge Case, who just took a solitary at the bar; know him, I suppose.

Tipper—Oh, fairly well.

Dipper—Extracting fellow. I owed him a small bill at one time, and, being tied up at the time, I went to him for a little indulgence, and he wouldn't even give me thirty days.

Hardcase (interposing)—Excuse me, gentlemen, but I had a little different experience. I didn't owe him anything, and he gave me seven years.

Fertilizer of the Opium-sm.

The American opium-sm is one of the most curious animals living in the United States. It is the only one that carries its young in a pouch like the kangaroo. It is the only animal that can feign death perfectly. It is remarkable for hanging by its tail like a monkey. It has hands resembling those of a human being. Its snout is like a hog's, while its mouth is liberally furnished with teeth. Its eyes are like a rat's, and it hisses like a snake.

Too Attractive.

"Now, here," said the salesman, "is a very fine umbrella. The handle, you will observe, is especially attractive."

"That's just what I want to avoid. Every umbrella I ever owned has been entirely too attractive."—San Francisco Post.

Mrs. L. A. Harris, a Prominent Member of the Chicago Woman's Political Club, tells how Ovarian Troubles may be Cured without a Surgical Operation. She says:

"Doctors have a perfect craze for operations. The minute there is any trouble, nothing but an operation will do them; one hundred dollars and costs, and included in the costs are pain, and agony, and often death."

"I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles; spent hundreds of dollars for relief, until two doctors agreed that an operation was my only chance of life. My sister had been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles, and been cured, and she strongly urged me to let the doctors go and try the Compound. I did so as a last resort; used it faithfully with the Sana-tive Wash for five months, and was rejoiced to find that my troubles were over and my health restored. If women would only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first, fewer surgical operations would occur."

—Mrs. L. A. HARRIS, 278 East 31st St., Chicago, Ill.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, at once removes such troubles.

AN OLD GARDEN.

The Joy It Gives Even Though the Plot Be a Small One.

Perhaps no word of six letters conveys so much human satisfaction as the word "garden." Not accidentally indeed did the inspired writer make paradise a garden, and still today, when a man has found all the rest of the world empty, he turns to his garden. What a joy it is to have a word to express in rich and poignant symbol his sense of accumulated beauty and blessedness, his first thought is of a garden. The saint speaks of "the garden of God." "A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse, the tower of the garden, and the garden in her face," he sings, and the soldier's stern dream is of a "garden of swords." The word "heaven" itself is hardly more universally expressive of human happiness than the word "garden."

And you have only to possess even quite a small garden to know why—a small garden. So long as it is old it hardly matters how small it is, but old it must be, for a new garden is only a garden at all. And most keenly to relish the joy which an old garden can give you should perhaps have been born in a city and dreamed all your life of some day owning a garden. No form of good fortune can give you a deeper thrill of joy than ownership of a garden with which one thus city bred at last enters into possession of an old garden.

A Distressed Dream.

This story told by a man from Hamilton. He dreamed one night that there was concealed about the flat in which he lived a quantity of silver. The next night he dreamed the same dream and told it to his wife.

After a consultation they decided to relish the joy which an old garden can give you should perhaps have been born in a city and dreamed all your life of some day owning a garden. No form of good fortune can give you a deeper thrill of joy than ownership of a garden with which one thus city bred at last enters into possession of an old garden.

Stuttering and Stammering.

Stuttering and stammering are terms that are confounded. They are not synonymous by any means. Stammering is an inability to properly enunciate certain elementary speech words, stuttering is a vicious utterance, manifested by frequent repetitions of initial or other elementary sounds. Both are caused by improperly acting muscles of the vocal chords, soft palate, tongue, lips, etc.

Some of these muscles are under easy control of the will. Over the muscles of the pharynx, the soft palate and at the base of the tongue, which move its root upward and downward, our power is not so complete, and this causes the affliction.

SALVATION ARMY

Captain Lacey, an earnest worker in Hamilton, Ont., endured awful pain—His patience is rewarded at last.

The life of an officer in the Salvation Army is never a bed of roses. No man or woman has a place in this wonderful organization who is not prepared for hard work.

And you have only to possess even quite a small garden to know why—a small garden. So long as it is old it hardly matters how small it is, but old it must be, for a new garden is only a garden at all. And most keenly to relish the joy which an old garden can give you should perhaps have been born in a city and dreamed all your life of some day owning a garden. No form of good fortune can give you a deeper thrill of joy than ownership of a garden with which one thus city bred at last enters into possession of an old garden.

PERFUMES AND HEALTH.

How Flower Scents May Be Obtained in Three Ways.

Pure violet essence is said to be especially suitable to nervous people, but themselves, not from the chemical imitations. Chemically derived perfumes are irritant, poisonous even, to persons of especially sensitive constitution.

True flower scents are obtained in three ways—first, by spreading fresh blossoms upon glass thickly smeared with pure grease, letting them stand in the sun and as they wilt replacing them until the grease is as fragrant as the flowers; second, by repeatedly infusing fresh petals in oil, and, third, by infusing them in ether, which is then distilled to a dry solid.

As this solid sells for about $250 an ounce it is easy to understand why the ether process, though far and away the best, is not commonly used. But the scented grease used for the essence made by steeping it in pure spirit are never cheap. After all the scent possible has been extracted from the grease it is still fragrant enough to make the very finest perfumed soap.

All the citrine scents, bergamot, neroli, orange flower water, are refreshing and in a degree stimulating if properly prepared. To make a lasting perfume some animal base is essential—musk, civet or ambergris.

Getting Into Moral Debt.

Philip D. Armour, millionaire and philanthropist, continually warned young men against getting into debt. He loved free men and despised slaves. When asked if he admitted a certain brilliant orator, he said: "He may have a superb voice and fine presence, but can't you hear the rattle of his chain? That man is not free. He is under moral obligations that demoralize him. He is not speaking the deepest thing in his soul, and I haven't time to hear any slave talk. I want a man to be just as free as I am."

On another occasion he said: "Don't get into debt—I mean moral debt. It is bad enough to get into debt financially. There goes a young man who is mortgaged. That young man is legging it along with a debt, and it will take twice as much power to get him along as the man without a debt. There are other debts and obligations that are embarrassing in their entanglements. Don't get into debt morally, my boy; don't get into debt so that you may not exercise your freedom to its limits."

The Sun is Seldom on Time.

The sun does not keep good time. He is almost always too fast or too slow. Once about the middle of April he is just on time, then not again before the middle of June. At the beginning of September he joins the clock a third time, and lastly once more late in December. Now, it would seem as if he were started at the way he had neglected us. In February he had made up for his neglect of the month of March. By the beginning of March he had made up five minutes of his loss, and before the month is over he will have caught up to within five minutes of the schedule. Meanwhile the days have been growing longer very rapidly. We begin March with our nights longer than our days. We end it with our days longer than our nights. In the one month we have added to the length of our day an hour and twenty minutes, a bigger gain than any other month can show.—Professor S. C. Schumaker in Ladies' Home Journal.

The Going to Theater Foe.

Will some one please explain the "going to the theater foe" of the average New Yorker? The question is suggested by a long experience in lobbies while the auditors are passing into the houses for the evening performances. The writer stood for nearly an hour engaged in the seemingly hopeless task of discovering "the cheerful theater-goer." But in they poured, men and women, each and every one with firm set jaw, frowny brow and the look of despair. Perhaps it is because the long distances traveled on crowded cars and the thought of an equally uncomfortable homing make a night at the theater seem just a bit like work to the residents of this narrow island.

A WORD TO WOMEN.

Any sick woman is invited to consult by letter with Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. In an active practice of more than thirty years, assisted by a staff of nearly a score of associate physicians, Dr. Pierce has treated and cured over half a million women. All diseases peculiar to women are treated with success. This consultation by letter is absolutely free. Every letter is treated as strictly private and answered confidentially. Answers are mailed promptly, giving the best of medical advice. All answers are sent in plain envelopes bearing on them no printing of any kind. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Enjoy present pleasures in such a way as not to injure future ones.

Memoirs. C. C. Richards & Co.

Gentlemen—After suffering for seven years with inflammatory rheumatism, so bad that I was eleven months confined to my room, and for two years could not dress myself without help. Your agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT in May '97, and asked me to try it, which I did, and was so well pleased with the results I procured more. Five bottles completely cured me and I have had no return of the pain for eighteen months.

The above facts are well known to everybody in this village and neighborhood.

Yours gratefully, A. DAIRY.

Cures Weak Men Free

INSURES LOVE AND A HAPPY HOME

L. W. KNAPP M. D.

How many a man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and eat, large, small, weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., 1710, Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send the free receipt with full directions as to what any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer, and the following extracts taken from their daily mail, show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the selling, and they were every man to have it.

Ladies' Fine Shoes

Everyone can't be a judge of leather and shoemaking. Women may be deceived by shoes without a reputation. Many shoes are fair to look upon, but when they're put to service their flimsiness shows forth. The one sure way to have shoes that are right is to buy those with the maker's name on every pair. We can show you the J. D. King Ladies' Fine Shoes at $2.50 and $3.00, known to all to be wearers and leaders in style.

Is C. C. I. Board any relation to XX lumber?

Wasn't it a shame to leave that little baby out in the rain?

The city telephone number of the C. C. I. Board should be 301.

Evidently that 201 Board should have three more city members.

Several of us are glad that baby wasn't left on our door step.

We all of us have our limitations and some of us have nothing else.

I was told that (Dr.) C stood for (Dr.) Childish.

The Tennis Club ought to get lots of recruits from among the Ping-Pong players.

I rather think we will all be willing to call it a misdeal and give the weatherman another opportunity to shuffle.

Queer things those telephones. When you have a kick coming you have to call a man up to call him down.

In the matter of the C. C. I. Board it isn't 2-naught-1, at all. It should be 6-not-3 as far as the city is concerned.

As soon as the Boers learned that two more Canadian contingents were coming, they jumped at Britain's peace terms.

I don't care whether Rogers swiped that buck-saw or not, but I would like to know what need a lawyer has for a wood cutter.

The lights went out at the drill shed last night and one stalwart soldier with a thrust suggested that a supply of fire-water be secured.

Getting into the clutches of some money lenders is worse than the bucket shop. There isn't so much of the leech about the bucket shop.

I see by the papers that the British soldiers in South Africa are getting ready for big drives. Wonder if they are going to play golf with the Boers for the balls.

A friend of mine told me that King Edward was a D. P. and, lest my profane associates might lead me astray, explaining that D. stood for Defender of the Faith.

I heard a member of Capt. Mowbray's company bragging that "C" company stood for crack company.

I would suggest that the Banner-News change the title of its youthful, yet doubtless ambitious and promising Little about Everything column to "A Little About the Satellite."

Those pills are what the column is made up of.

A lady is visiting in this city. She had been here two days yesterday when she was introduced to a leading citizen. The lady had only been acquainted with the man about two seconds when he told her she would have to have a bath before she left Chatham.

The lady knew nothing about the mineral baths but the man did, he was a stockholder and only meant to advertise the baths. He tried to explain but the lady visitor left him with a bad impression of Maple City manners as displayed by leading citizens.

"Some time ago the City Council had quite a little trouble getting those 'Don't spit on Sidewalk' signs," remarked Archie Skirving, chief detective on the Lake Erie R. R.

"I would like to know what has become of those signs and how many people were prosecuted because of them. I would also like to wonder why the steam roller is never brought down the front street. A beautiful bed of concrete was laid beneath that King street pavement. The roller runners are surely not afraid of the pavement."

A WARNING.

Mister Boer, those Canadians will catch you if you don't watch out.

OUR CASE DIAGNOSED.

The Satellite is a sort of fungus at the root of the journalistic tree—Banner-News.

I always was under the impression that I got at the root of all matters.

THE BANNER'S EULOGY.

Under the heading "just" the Banner overlooked from our exclusive the Banner-dash-News prints one of the Satellite's alleged jokes. The alleged joke originated with us but we are not proud of it, we have made better, but all the city exchanges favored the witticism and copied it. This is the pretended joke, "One swallow may not make a summer, but a grasshopper can make a spring.

BRILLIANT!

No, Anxious Enquirer, the Satellite is not an insect. He is a vegetable—Banner-News.

THE GRIT BARL AGAIN.

Irish Jack is looked on by the Grits as a good candidate. They think if it's possible to win, his barl do it.

A "COO-COO" FROM THE CRADLE.

"Which it is not my cradle. To produce needless pain By statements that rile, Or that go 'gin the grudge."

—Bret Harje.

A budding literary genius of the Country Crossroads school of journalism has striven to lift himself from meretricious obscurity by unprovoked attacks on one who had dignified him by recognition.

"This Satellite, or Satanite, accuses a representative of this paper of having played the fool. If, inadvertently, a member of this staff temporarily usurped what appears to be the Satellite's sole earthly function, humble apologies are in order. Naturally, and by cultivation, the Satellite is eminently fitted for such a part and should continue to wear the cap and bells."

"The Satellite has mistaken his field. Such senseless belligerency in accordance with civilized customs, and would be more kindly appreciated in Tombstone, Ariz. But the Satellite was in Tombstone, Ariz. he would not be belligerent."

SPRING DEPRESSION

PEOPLE FEEL WEAK, EASILY TIRED AND OUT OF SORTS.

You Must Assist Nature in Overcoming This Feeling Before the Hot Weather Months arrive.

It is important that you should be healthy in the spring. The hot summer is coming on and you need strength, vigor and vitality to resist a good deal through the winter months, haven't taken the usual amount of exercise perhaps, your blood is sluggish and impure and you need a thorough course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you try them you will be surprised to note how the vigor you begin to feel, how the dull lassitude disappears, your step becomes elastic, the eyes brighter and a feeling of new strength takes possession of all previous feelings. Thousands have proved the truth of these words and found renewed health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. One of the many is Miss Cassie Way, of Pictou, Ont., who says: "A few years ago I was cured of a very severe and protracted case of the larger pieces of beef than ordinary, with the result that it lodged in his throat. When it was noticed that he was choking he was carried out of the dining room and Dr. Cassenden and Cassenden were speedily summoned. With much difficulty the obstruction was removed, but not long after a moment or two the man would have been beyond recovery."

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Vapo-Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

HOME SPUN IDEAS

OF AN

IDLE FELLOW

Three or four men with a little money and the interest of Chatham in their hearts might even do themselves a very fair turn by securing a small pleasure boat, say to carry 100 to 150 people, to run between here and the lake and the near-by fishing resorts, or even up the river for picnics, etc. Such boats, for instance, as are so conspicuous as small ferries below Niagara. This would be a good excursion and be a jolly outing for lodges and select society parties. It could be made pay.

This would be an opportune time to call together those interested in aquatic sports and organize a club which would undoubtedly be a great success. It is a happy idea and will do us all good. But don't let's become old boys before it is accomplished. It can be if those in charge have a few who are not strangers but who are not good at finding their way out of the crystal maze of this city streets, but the placings of signs on the corners to assist them.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Archie Johnston, well known in Dutton and vicinity, had a narrow escape from being choked to death on Monday evening. He was partaking of his supper at the McIntyre House, when he attempted to swallow a large piece of beef than ordinary, with the result that it lodged in his throat. When it was noticed that he was choking he was carried out of the dining room and Dr. Cassenden and Cassenden were speedily summoned. With much difficulty the obstruction was removed, but not long after a moment or two the man would have been beyond recovery."

International Bible Lesson for Tuesday—Peter, James and John—Acts 12, 32-43.

On an apostolic visitation amongst Jewish believers—the Gentiles had not yet been visited—Peter finds his way to Lydia, where lay a well-known bed-ridden paralytic. Peter directs him to Jesus Christ, who makes him whole, and his complete restoration is used of God to bring about a great revival at Lydia and Sharon. At Joppa, near by, they hear of this work of God and send for Peter, expecting to have their loved sister, Dorcas, who had just died, either buried or restored.

The Lord Jesus restores her. His servant Peter being used here also and many believed in the Lord, seeing His power over disease and death. Might not many now be turned to the Lord by the same means? If our faith and love were but more simple, would He not use and honor human instrumentality more than at present, and the name of the Lord Jesus be glorified? No wonder that Peter felt quite at home amidst such surroundings, and that he tarried many days in Joppa with his friend Simon, the tanner.

Well and Stylish Clothed at All Times.

Thousands of women in Canada with limited means have discovered the secret of dressing well and stylishly in their homes and for the street.

These fortunate women have found out that, by spending ten cents for a package of one of the fashionable colors of Diamond Dyes, they can re-color any old, faded and dingy dress as to make it appear a new production.

A lady recently affirmed that she had not purchased new materials for dresses for two years. This same lady is always neatly and prettily dressed, because she uses Diamond Dyes.

Dyes each one twice a year, and produce as good colors with the Diamond Dyes as can be found in new bought goods. It is a wonderful indeed, the goods. It is a wonderful indeed, the goods. It is a wonderful indeed, the goods.

By a judicious use of the celebrated Diamond Dyes. Would you like to dye your old wool or cotton rag? Send post card with your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 300 Mountain Street, Montreal, P. Q.

and you will receive all the new designs to make choice from.

RESPONSIBILITY!!

It is said that the reason the Anglo-Saxon race leads the world is because they are willing to shoulder responsibility.

Sit to us for your portrait and your responsibility ceases—until time for payment comes. We will take all responsibility. If we do not produce thoroughly first-class work, payable never comes, for we will not accept money for poor work.

All we ask is a chance to show you what we have already shown others—that we CAN and WILL do good work—if you let us!
