H. S. CLEMENTS AND G. W. SULMAN FOR WEST KENT

Mr. J. M. Pike, President

The Liberal Conservatives of West Kent have got away with a new start, by putting in the local political field a team of candidates which will run the fastest pace ever set in an election contest in this county. The popular men are H. S. Clements, M. P., and George W. Sulman, the M. P. P. who is to be.

The big convention on Saturday knew what they were doing when they nominated these two men to carry the Conservative standard, and it is safe to say that it would have been hard to make a happier choice. They are both young men, thoroughly versed in politics, and the needs of this county, and above all they are men of business ability, and excellent reputation.

The popularity of Mr. Clements was plainly evidenced at the convention when his name came up for nomination. There was not one dissenting voice, and the house was fairly brought down with cheers and applause. The people are satisfied with him as their representative, and they are content to still have a man at Ottawa who is the same at all times, and who never misses an opportunity to advance the interests of the people whom he serves. Mr. Clements has been an able parliamentarian. He has made the reputation of getting what he goes after, and even his opponents, to use the words of our contemporary, recognize that he has secured many "public benefits through his appeals for various municipalities and localities." In accepting the nomination so unanimously offered him, Mr. Clements reserved the right to support every measure which he thought in the interests of the people, no matter whether it came from the Liberals or the Conservatives, and this privilege was freely given him.

"I am not at this time, going to deal with the political questions of the day," said he. "All of you who have read the Dominion politics, know how the people's money is being squandered. The revelations of the last campaign have opened the eyes of the people of this Dominion, and I feel that they are ready to resent it."

"It is my firm belief that the agricultural duty on their goods. It is not right and it is the farmers' fight. It means everything to them."

"Take the matter of hogs. I fought this question before I got the nomination, and claimed that the American hogs should not be allowed to come in here under the bonding privileges. There was not a week that I was not in the Agricultural Department fighting this case. The Minister of Agriculture was compelled to remove the bonding privileges, and for this Mr. Fisher is to be commended. It is through this act that you were able to secure the good price for your hogs that you did this year. If this principle works so admirably in one item, why will it not work on all of the items with the same desirable effect? So long as I have the honor to represent you in Parliament I will uphold this principle. I think that you know that I realize your wants, and you may be assured that I will do my best to supply them. I trust that I will culturalists of this country, especially between Toronto and Detroit, are not being fairly dealt with. They should fight for their rights and they deserve until the tariff question is settled to their advantage. I believe in a tariff equal to that of our neighbors to the south. The Liberal Government has taken up part of the tariff, but the Americans have taken advantage of the situation because they know that the present Government at Ottawa is a weak one. They brought in the McKinley Bill, adding another 60 per cent., making their tariff twice the amount limit, as the time of the convention was very valuable.

Mr. Smith (with some show of feeling)—This is a put up job.

Mr. Pike—Not at all. It is merely matter of the time in which we have to make this nomination. There are delegates who have to get away, and if the time is prolonged they may have to go away without voting on the nomination. I want to be perfectly fair with everyone.

Mr. Smith—For 35 years I have fought to the best of my ability, and I do not think that at my time of life I should be placed on the defensive by the people of my own party. Several things have been herded abroad, and I wish to deny some of them. It was said that I did not vote for James Clancy and that I did not work for him. I did not vote for Clancy because I was called away out of the country just before the day for voting. I was away looking after my bread and butter, just the same as any of you would have done, and if it were in the heat of a campaign I would do the same thing. I don't think you can blame me for that. I did work for him. Right in the Young Men's Convention.

THE CONVENTION.

There is every indication of a very bright future ahead for the Liberal-Conservatives of West Kent. The big convention on Saturday performed the mission which was expected of it, and the result is that the work of the association has, once more, been started off on a firm and re-organized basis of unity, wisdom and power.

The association is first of all to be congratulated upon the excellent judgment displayed in the selection of its officers. Much depends upon the character and ability of the leaders in the work of any party, and in this particular the West Kent Conservatives will not be found wanting during the ensuing year. Mr. J. M. Pike, the new President, is a man well known throughout the county for his sterling principles and scholastic knowledge on matters both political and professional. He has done yeoman service in past elections and has at all times been esteemed by his co-workers and respected by his fellow men. The duties of this office, therefore, could not be placed in the hands of a more deserving man. Mr. S. B. Arnold, upon whom, as Secretary, so much important work has fallen in the past, was rewarded for his excellent services by being re-elected to that position. No other man was considered for a moment, which was indeed wise in the interests of the Conservative cause. The other officers were alike, able and representative men.

The association is also to be congratulated upon the choice of the candidates. Both are young men, and energetic workers, and with them as representatives and advocates of the principles of the party in Kent, the Conservatives of this county should be able to make a most excellent showing. This was undoubtedly the feeling of the meeting on Saturday.

It was a pleasure to his friends to note the straightforward and manly way in which Mr. Clements went before the convention. He did not seek the nomination, and stated this plainly to the assembled delegates. When it was unanimously tendered to him, he expressed himself as willing to fight the battle of the farmers of Kent, but he would not be bound by strict party ties. He would feel free to support any measure—no matter whether it be advocated by Liberals or Conservatives—which he considered to be in the best interests of the people in all walks of life. Needless to say this concession was granted him. The people of both parties in this riding recognize in Mr. Clements, a man who has their best interests at heart. He is above all things industrious, and his work has been crowned with a goodly share of success. The people are satisfied with such representation, and there is no reason to doubt that so long as he sustains this excellent reputation for honorable deportment, he will see many years of service in the Dominion Parliament as the representative of the people of West Kent.

Mr. Sulman, the nominee for the Legislature, is a man who needs no introduction to the people of this county. In previous elections his valued services have always been in evidence, in connection with the work of the Conservative party. He has exceptional advantages in matters of education and business ability. He is esteemed and respected by men of both political parties, popular with all, and a born hustler. His announcement that he will go in to win was given in no uncertain tone, and to those who know his unflinching reputation for accomplishing whatever he undertakes, this means much. The confident remark of one of the delegates five minutes after the meeting was, "Till bet Sully" is working already." This was the feeling of everyone at the convention, when Mr. Sulman was nominated, and it is the spirit which wins elections. The people of any party will work with more zeal and enthusiasm when they know that they are working for a man who is himself an untiring and industrious worker. Mr. Sulman is by no means a novice in public life. He served for many years on municipal bodies and has always left an enviable and unimpeachable record behind him. Apart from this he will represent a Government which has proven itself a source of strength to the people of this Province of Ontario.

There was only one lamentable incident to mar the proceedings of the day. It arose in reference to the candidature of Mr. T. A. Smith for the Provincial nomination. Mr. Smith, who is one of the strong men of the Conservative ranks, and who is esteemed and respected by the men of his party, was nominated against Mr. Sulman. When the ballot was declared and Mr. Sulman was announced the fortunate man, it was moved by the president that the nomination be made unanimous. This was carried by the delegates, from the rural districts, but four or five of Mr. Smith's supporters from the city refused to join in this resolution. Their action was undoubtedly due to over-enthusiasm for their man, and was excusable under the circumstances. It is hoped that these dissenting ones will see the wisdom of falling in with the majority, and cast in their lot with the man who was given such spontaneous support from such a large majority of the delegates. Mr. Smith himself has been an untiring worker in the Conservative ranks and is deserving of honor from the members of his party. It was felt, however, that Mr. Sulman was the man to carry the riding, and there is no doubt that Mr. Smith himself understands that after all this is the important consideration, and he will be game enough to accept the ruling of the majority. The applause he received showed that he has innumerable friends who appreciate the splendid work he has always accomplished.

Mr. Smith is at fault if he thinks that the nomination was turned on the petty, slanderous stories which apparently have been circulated concerning him. Anyone who knows "T. A." knows that they are without foundation, and if they were circulated, they have not in the least respect injured his reputation with the Conservative party. Those who know Mr. Smith will look for him among the most enthusiastic Conservative workers when the next Provincial election campaign rolls around.

Those who anticipated a storm at this convention were doomed to disappointment. The nearest approach to it was the repeated "storms" of applause which greeted every speaker. Mr. Pike conducted the business of the meeting in a fair and most impartial manner. The Conservatives are now out for honest and conscientious voting, and if this is properly carried out, there will be no fears for the results, no matter when the election may come.

STOMACH'S IMPORTANCE

How To Strengthen It So That It Will Act As It Should.

The stomach is the principal organ concerned in the digestion of food. If it is weak, inactive or out of order and unable to properly digest the food, the body will soon be in a state of semi-starvation.

Then, too, when the stomach is weak, the food is not properly digested and lies in it for hours, decomposing, fermenting and forming poisonous gases and ptomaines that are absorbed into the blood, poisoning the system and impoverishing the blood.

To enjoy good health, it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and digestive organs should be strong, and no other remedy equals Mi-o-na in strengthening and giving tone to the whole digestive system.

Belief from the use of Mi-o-na is permanent and lasting. Use Mi-o-na for a few days, and the digestion will be good, the appetite keen, and there will be no nausea or distress after eating, no sleeplessness, no nervousness, and the headache, backache, and disturbed heart action that are the direct result of a weakened stomach will soon be overcome.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents.

tive Club, while the men there were subscribing their 25 cents I went down for $5. The statement that I did not speak to him is also false. I went to him several times. Is the man in the audience who was with me when I went to Mr. Clancy?

E. J. MacIntyre (rising in the audience)—I am the man.

Mr. Smith—Did I speak to Mr. Clancy?

Mr. MacIntyre—You did.

Mr. Smith—Thank you.

Mr. Smith (continuing)—Some one said that I was a drinking man.

Now that also is false. I never wronged a human being in all my life, and I do not think it right for people to make these statements about me. Someone also said that I did not vote for Herb Clements.

I ask him now if I did not go to Fletcher to hold a meeting for him when I was a sick man, and disobeyed the orders of my physician in so doing.

Mr. Clements—That's right.

Mr. Smith—Yes. I got out of a sick bed to go to the polls and vote for Clements, and I went home afterwards and fainted on the floor.

Mr. Smith (continuing)—There is another, and if this story is true, I am not deserving of the name of a man. I should be in an insane asylum.

Someone said that I went to John McCoig and said that I wanted to see A. B. McCoig, because I had a scheme to beat Clements.

Here Geo. G. Martin rose in the audience, and when he was addressed from the chair he said that he wanted to corroborate Mr. Smith.

The chairman thought that Mr. Smith should be allowed to complete what he had to say, and Mr. Martin's time for speaking should come afterwards.

Mr. Martin—This is a put up job.

Mr. Smith—Surely when a man arises to corroborate me he should be allowed to speak. My honor is at stake.

Mr. Martin was allowed to speak, and he said that a man had come to him with the yarn that Mr. Smith spoke of, and he (Martin) said that if it was true, Mr. Smith must be a lunatic. He (Martin) was sure that Smith did not say it. The man then said to Martin, "Well, let us circulate it anyway."

Mr. Smith then concluded with the remark that he did not say half what he wanted to say.

It was, however, unnecessary for him to say more. There was no man in the audience who put any faith in the yarns that may have been circulated about Mr. Smith. He is looked upon as a man of honor in the party, as his excellent vote showed, and his support is appreciated and sought by any Conservative candidate, no matter who he is. It is safe to say that no one would accuse him of doing or saying anything which he did not believe to be in the best interests of the party to which he pins his faith.

The vote was then taken, Messrs. M. J. Wilson, Geo. S. Heyward, Neil Watson and Wm. Potter acting as scrutineers. The ballot showed 75 for Mr. Sulman and 48 for Mr. Smith.

President Pike in announcing the vote moved that it be made unanimous. This was done with the exception of four or five Smith supporters from the city who stood near the door, and who refused to fall in line with the other delegates at the convention. This was no doubt due to their heated enthusiasm for their candidate, and on this ground it was perhaps pardonable for the moment. With the exception of this half-dozen men, who will no doubt see their indiscretion to-day, the nomination was made unanimous and the general feeling was that a winner had been picked.

Mr. Sulman received the applause of the convention when he rose to extend his thanks for the spontaneous nomination.

"I thank you for the confidence you have placed in me," said he, "and in thanking you, I wish to say that there is only one way in which the election will be won, and that is by every Conservative in the riding doing his part. Do not hesitate to call on me for any work you wish done. From this out I will never cease to work. No road will be too long and no night too dark for me to go on in my power to win your fight."

"I am sorry that there are a few members dissatisfied with the proceeding of to-day. I hope they will have the good grace to abide by the decision of the majority, as I would have done if I had been defeated. I will not at this time discuss politics. The Whitney Government needs no word of praise from me. It is satisfying everyone, and even the strongest reformers eulogize Mr. Whitney, and well they may. I thank you all, and promise that I will see you all, many, many times before the election."

Mr. Pike then closed the convention with an enthusiastic speech, and the enthusiasm expressed by the newly elected President was felt by everyone in the house. "Herb" and "Sully" are recognized as the winning pair.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Eaden, Premier Whitney, H. S. Clements, M. P., Mr. Sulman and President Pike.

Pictures made from postage stamps as described and illustrated in the November number of the Quiver, is a decidedly new pastime.

From Essex to Manitoba is a sketch of the work being done by the Church Army in assisting worthy laborers to emigrate to this country.

The Things of the Kingdom is from the pen of The Dean of Peterborough, who is one of the ablest writers of the day.

"The Woman of Babylon" is concluded in this number, and with December, which will be the beginning of another year for this popular Sunday magazine, a new serial story from the pen of Katharine Tynan will be commenced.

We are told in the editorial of the November number of Watson's magazine that the Hon. Thomas Watson has severed his connection with the magazine, but that the owners have formed a new company and will continue it along the same lines as formerly, but will show more tolerance for those who differ from them in politics.

This course will be one which should make the magazine much more popular, for although Mr. Watson is one of the strongest writers of the day, he does not appear to be broadminded. We wish the publishers of Watson's magazine success under the new management.

Besides two complete stories and the continuation of the three serial stories which have been running during 1906, the current number of The Girls' Own Paper contains articles on lace work, embroidery, nursing, voice production, in addition to the usual department devoted to art and music. There are also many short articles that will make interesting reading for girls.

The American edition of The Girls' Own Paper is published by Warwick Bros. and Butler, Toronto.

With three continued stories, several short stories that tell of trips, adventures, etc., and various articles describing places and things that are dear to a boy's heart, the current number of The Boys' Own Paper is as full of interest as ever. This would be a good month to subscribe, as another volume will be commenced in the next number, and The Boys' Own Paper ought to be in every house where there is a boy. Warwick Bros. and Butler, Toronto, publishers.

"Venice Bride of the Sea," with which the November number of "Everyday Housekeeping" opens, is a concise description of this romantic city, the numerous illustrations show many of its beauties. "The Return to Domesticity" is a timely article on the housework question, which is such a knotty problem for all households.

"Thanksgiving Old and New" not only describes an old time Thanksgiving, but gives menus for modern Thanksgiving dinners, ranging from one which should be elaborate enough to suit the most fastidious epicure, to a plain dinner than an intelligent child could prepare. The recipes for each dish are minutely given. "Sweet Sixteen" gives candy recipes that can be enjoyed by all either in the making or eating.

These are only a few of the many interesting articles of this bright practical home magazine, which is published by the Clark-Clark Publishing Co., of Boston, Mass.

Being an American publication, and November being the month when the Americans always hold their Thanksgiving, naturally What To Eat devotes many pages of the November number to Thanksgiving dainties and novel ways of serving. But even with Thanksgiving as the foremost thought the publishers do not lose sight of their chief aim, viz., advocating Pure Foods. The opening paper deals with the campaign in Chicago of the raids that have been made against short weight. In answers to correspondents there are a few reasonable suggestions for serving luncheons. Just one more note. They tell us that brown sugar is to take the place of white under the Pure Food rulings, and already the grocers are charging more for it than for white.

Published by The Pierce Publishing Company, Chicago.

"The Little Fifer" with which the November number of Little Folks opens, is a Thanksgiving story of the sort which will delight the older children. Princess Wiska's Necktie is a continued story which commences in this number. There are many little poems that are suitable for children of all ages.

Little Folks is published by The S. E. Cassino Co., Salem, Mass.

In the November Canadian Magazine, "In the Haunts of the Rail," by Bonnycaste Dale, is a study which will delight the students of nature. To photograph this bird and its nest must have been a work of patience as well as love, for there is nothing more shy than the rail in the whole bird world. "The Port of Western Canada," is the title of an illustrated sketch of Fort William, where much of the wheat pouring out of the West is transhipped to the coast.

"The Linking of Montreal and Toronto" recalls the opening of the first railway between the two cities just fifty years ago. A full-page illustration shows a characteristic scene in the Toronto railway station of 1857. A Nova Scotia writer recalls the career of a rector, the reader will glean that the number is by no means weak in its appeal.

The frontispiece of the November number of the Canadian Pictorial is a beautiful woodland scene entitled "Canadian Woods After the First Snow."

The photographs of the late Archbishop Bond, and his successor to the Bishopric of Montreal, the Right Rev. Dr. James Carmichael, are excellent.

One of the most interesting places in New York to study human nature is at a counter in a photographer's shop where the customers come to get amateur photographs they have had developed and printed. The anxiety they display to get the products of their "shots" would seem to be out of all proportion to the results, when you catch a glimpse of them, and their disappointment if the prints are not ready as almost as soon as they are ready.

Some important business transactions had fallen through. And when they do get the prints their faces are even more interesting. The satisfaction of these amateur photographers over a set of fairly good pictures is absolutely idiotic, and their dismay at a lot of failures is tragic. The frankness of these exhibitions is not the least interesting phase of the whole thing.

STORY OF EX-CLERK

Asked to Do Things Which Might Have Caused Run on the Bank

WHY J. W. LANGDON LEFT

Toronto, Nov. 10.—The somewhat startling declaration was made in the Police Court yesterday morning that it was not unusual for bank managers to buy stock on margin.

Mr. A. E. Ames, who was the only witness called in the McGill enquete, and whose examination consumed the entire morning, made the statement.

Thereat Magistrate Denison picked up his ears and sought for additional information. But Mr. Ames qualified his position by adding that under exceptional conditions a manager might be justified in so doing. He left it to be inferred that the practice was not so widespread as he had at first intimated.

A Telling Tabular Statement. Figures were produced by Crown Attorney Corley indicating just how Mr. McGill's alleged speculations occurred. The tabular statement showed each of the so-called investments and the investments and the amount swallowed up in each.

Mr. Ames again made it clear that on Aug. 10, when the $136,000 his firm was supposed to owe McGill was written off, his firm was under no such obligation, although he refused to affirm in precise terms the magistrate's view that McGill knew his statement in this connection to be false. At the date mentioned McGill owed the firm $27,861.91.

Cleaned Up $49,000; Lost $19,000. The Ontario Bank, in its own name, entered into a large syndicate in 1905 for the purchase of Twin City Rapid Transit Co., cleaning up $49,000. The bank also worked in a syndicate in Consolidated Lake Superior, losing $19,000.

Transfer Clerk Chenoweth stated he had been instructed, on Sept. 10 last, to mark off as a loss $125,000 entered as a purchase of Long Island Railway bonds, which, Mr. Ames says, are of "substantial value."

McGill also gave instructions to wipe off $229,000, invested in United States Railway bonds, and $15,000 in Minnesota bonds and St. Louis, which, up to Sept. 10, had been carried as good assets.

Mr. Langton Suspicious. "I don't know how much or how little the directors know. I had my own suspicions."

It was J. W. Langton, former accountant in the Ontario Bank, who delivered himself as above at the afternoon proceedings.

Mr. Langton entered the service of the Ontario Bank in 1889, and continued in it for some years under the McGill regime. He was aware of the margin stock speculations of the manager, but kept his own counsel on this, as on other disturbing matters, up to the hour of his appearing on the stand yesterday.

As accountant he had a share in the preparation of the Government reports from month to month. Like Chenoweth he acted under instructions from McGill in the transfer of large amounts to the current loans column. He did so with growing uneasiness, for he suspected that he was being made a party to cover up that which the world did not know and which might have caused a run on the bank.

Refused to Obey. In May of 1903 he was called upon by McGill to shift an amount of $597,000 from the railway debentures account to current loans. He knew the transfer was a piece of juggling, but McGill undertook to assume the responsibility if the occasion arose. Then came the last straw a little later, in the form of a request from McGill for Langton's signature to a transfer of funds to a New York stock-broking firm. He declined, and his resignation soon followed.

Dalton Gladman, receiving teller, and M. J. Quigley, paying teller, at the Yonge street branch of the Ontario Bank, told of requests for $2,500, $1,500 and $1,000, drawn by A. E. Ames & Co., having been cashed by McGill.

Bad Wreck on the C. P. R. Winnipeg, Nov. 10.—Just east of Meadow on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway a bad freight train wreck occurred yesterday morning. Altogether ten cars were totally put out of business and four others were off the track. The passengers on the Imperial Limited, bound for points so far west as Brandon, were transferred to the Brandon local, while those who were bound for points farther west came back to Winnipeg. The Transcontinental will proceed west by the southern line.

DOZEN WORKMEN CRUSHED.

Hotel Bixby of Long Beach, California, Falls Into the Ocean.

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 10.—The huge Bixby Hotel, in course of construction here, collapsed yesterday, supposedly because of faulty construction.

Between twelve and fifteen workmen were killed, and more than a score of others were seriously hurt. Several of the injured may die. Fifteen others are believed to be still buried in the debris.

The building was of reinforced concrete, and the men were crushed to death beneath tons of mortar and iron. The total cost of the building was estimated at $750,000. It was being built on the beach, facing the ocean, and was out 200 feet distant from the shore.

STANDARD OIL RAISES WAGES.

900 Employees Get Increase of From Five to Ten Per Cent.

Lima, Ohio, Nov. 10.—An advance of from five to ten per cent. in the wages of 900 employees of the refining branch of the Standard Oil Co. was announced here yesterday.

No notice of like advance has been received by the pipe line department, but rumor has it that the voluntary advance will extend to every branch of the company.

Miners Get Advance. Bisbee, Arizona, Nov. 10.—All miners employed by mining companies at Bisbee and Tombstone have received notice of an advance of 25 cents a day in wages, to date from Nov. 1.

H. B. COWAN TO RETIRE.

J. Lockie Wilson to Become Superintendent of Fall Fairs.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—It is stated that H. B. Cowan, who has for some years been in charge of the Fall Fair associations and kindred interests in the provincial agricultural department, is about to retire, and that J. Lockie Wilson, well known in farming circles, will replace him.

No official statement is forthcoming, but it is said that the change will be made during the current month.

Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this matter has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the more intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Becoming this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which the popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are now or know of poisons. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs.

At the residence of the eminent Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrhs in all its various forms wherever located.

How The Nations Will Judge Time Of Huge Armaments

PERIOD OF BARBARISM

London, Nov. 10.—Sir William Trevelyan, of office as Lord Mayor of London was inaugurated yesterday with the time-honored pageant, but the usual symbolical care was eliminated from the procession, which was representative of the civic history of London for the past seven centuries, each century being represented by a figure depicting the most famous lord mayor of the period, surrounded by his retinue, garbed in the dress of the period.

Britain's Defence Force. At the lord mayor's banquet last night in the Guild Hall, responding to the toast, "The Imperial Services," War Secretary Haldane said that he and the first lord of the admiralty, Lord Tweedmouth, realized it was a solemn duty on their part not to diminish the country's fighting force by one whit.

It was the duty of a Christian people, the speaker continued, to set an example by reducing the expenditures for armaments, but unless they had a response from other nations, this was impossible.

The speaker hoped the time would come when nations would look back upon these days as a period of barbarism, and wonder why they had spent millions in this manner.

Great Britain's Duty. But until that time arrived, it was in the interest of peace itself that no nation let down its strength, and it was the duty of Great Britain to maintain its fighting efficiency.

The Marquis of Ripon, replied to the toast, "His Majesty's Ministers." He expressed the Government's satisfaction that it had been able to continue the foreign policy of Lord Lansdowne, and said he was glad to be able to declare, after consultation with Sir Edward Grey, that at the present, all indications pointed toward peace.

"We wish to be, and we believe we are," said the Marquis of Ripon, "on friendly terms with all nations."

TEXAS RANGERS AMBUSHED.

Body of Armed Mexicans Attacking Come to Grief Thersby.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 10.—A despatch from Laredo, Texas, says: Four Texas Rangers sent to Rio Grande City to quiet turbulent political conditions there and investigate the assassination of District Judge Welch, which occurred the night before the election, were ambushed by a body of armed Mexicans between Fordyce and Rio Grande City late Thursday night.

The Rangers were asleep in camp when awakened by a volley of shots from the darkness. A pitched battle ensued and four of the attacking party were killed, one fatally wounded and two captured. The Rangers escaped unscathed.

There are reports here of continued rioting at Rio Grande City, the extent of which is not now known.

2,000 IN PANIC.

Five Fires in New York Which Were Very Disastrous.

New York, Nov. 10.—One woman is dead, a man is in a hospital suffering from severe burns, 2,000 fled from their homes in panic and thousands more passed a sleepless night as a result of a series of incendiary fires in the two blocks bounded by Sixtieth and Sixty-first streets and Columbus and West End avenues early yesterday.

Scores of persons whose lives were endangered by flames or choking smoke were rescued by firemen. Many of the rescues were of a highly sensational character.

In all there were five fires, every one of them incendiary, between midnight and 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss was about $20,000.

Jail Governor Relieved.

Sandwich, Nov. 10.—William Sparks, governor of the county jail, has been notified by Sheriff Her of his removal from office to take effect Nov. 30. Governor Sparks' dismissal is the direct result of the suicide in the jail of Chris Spindelman, who was awaiting examination for murdering his wife last July. Spindelman strangled himself in his cell with his shoe laces. John Harmon, of Windsor, is the man selected to succeed Governor Sparks.

Boy Accidentally Shot.

Belleville, Nov. 10.—A boy, 11 years of age, son of John Lake, Township of Murray, Thursday afternoon met with an accident that may cause death. The boy was handling a gun, which was loaded, when it exploded and he received the full force of the charge in his breast, which was literally torn away. His chances for recovery are rather slim.

Young Farmer Killed.

Thamesford, Nov. 10.—Robert Knox, a young retired farmer, yesterday morning was leading a horse, which bolted, dragging him off his feet and through the orchard. When found he was unconscious, having received severe wounds about the head, only regaining consciousness a short time before death.

Not Till Enquiry Ends.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—It was said here yesterday that if Hon. Charles Tynan resigns his seat for London, it is possible, it will be immediately after the conclusion of the enquiry now going on at Toronto.

Ashore in St. Lawrence.

Montreal, Nov. 10.—The Donaldson liner Athens, with passengers and general cargo, went ashore yesterday morning 23 miles west of Quebec. She was floated and sailed later in the day.

STOP, WOMAN

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private ills to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For eighteen years I have suffered something terrible every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Sts., Washington, D.C.

Second letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Sts., Washington, D.C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "It do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

Roy Brisco Had A Number Of Exciting Adventures While In Wabigoon

HE PURCHASED A CLAIM

Roy Brisco has returned from Wabigoon, New Ontario, where he spent the past two weeks, hunting and prospecting. He thinks the Wabigoon country is rich in mineral wealth, and will prove a bonanza after it is once opened up. Roy has purchased 157 acres in claims, close to the Laurentian mines, where a number of rich strikes in gold and platinum ore have been struck.

"It is free gold," said he in a chat with a Planet reporter this morning, "and it is mined in huge blocks. I was leaning up against one of these blocks, when I casually asked one of the miners what the whole block would be worth. He told me there would be about $50,000 worth of ore in the one block. The platinum is mixed with the gold."

Mr. Brisco brought back several samples of the ore, which are on exhibition at E. I. Bro.'s store.

"I had a couple of rather exciting adventures while away," continued Mr. Brisco. "One evening when I was returning from my claim with a half-breed guide, we were followed by a huge black bear—a rough, hungry looking fellow. The guide cautioned me to leave quickly, though it was a great temptation to take a shot at him. By and by, however, the bear got bolder and came closer, and I resolved to teach him a lesson. As soon as the guide saw me kneel to shoot he climbed up a tree—he had evidently been there before. The bear was about thirty yards from me when I let him have the benefit of the contents of two shells from my rifle. But the bullets didn't appear to fix on him. He came at me in a frenzy, and, thinking discretion the better part of valor in this case, I dropped my gun and climbed up a small tree nearby. I wasn't a minute too soon for the benefit of my own health. The bear made a savage dash at the tree, but it was too small for him to climb.

"When I looked over at the tree in which my guide was ensconced, I saw that he was leaning over one of the branches with his knife between his teeth. If the bear caught me he evidently intended to come to my rescue, even at his own peril. After clawing at the tree, and tearing away considerable of the bark, Bruin gave it up as a bad job, and ambled off. I was quite relieved to see him take his departure. I got lost in the woods while out evening, and I had to sleep in a tree all night. It was the most weird night I ever put in. All night long I could hear the cries of the timber wolves, but fortunately none of them came my way in quest of supper. Deer caribou and small game are quite plentiful, and I succeeded in bagging some pretty fine specimens. Ducks are so plentiful up there that it seems a shame to shoot them."

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

Halifax Crew O. Eight Ficked Up By Norwegian Steamer

73 HOURS IN OPEN BOAT

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 12.—The Norwegian steamer Farmand of Bergen, Capt. J. Corneliussen, bound from New York to Miramichi, put into port Saturday to land a shipwrecked crew of eight men of the barkentine Marion C. of Halifax, abandoned at sea.

The barkentine was from Bridge-water, N. S., lumber laden, bound to New York, and was in a hurricane shortly after leaving port. Then the vessel sprung a leak, and after a day and a half at the pumps the captain and crew in a ship's boat went in search of assistance.

After 73 hours hardships in the open boat the crew were picked up 100 miles off Sable Island and brought to Halifax. Two of the men had to be removed to the hospital.

Cat Only Living Thing.

Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 12.—The wrecked barque Adeona was reached by life-savers Saturday. There was nothing of life on board but a cat. No doubt is felt about the fate of the eleven men who comprised the crew. They were all in a boat which left the ship on Monday last. Everything about the deck and cabin was found in good condition. Why the crew left the vessel and risked their lives in the terrible sea and breakers must always remain a mystery.

THE KENSINGTON ASHORE.

540 Steerage and 75 Cabin Passengers Safe on Caspian.

Quebec, Nov. 12.—The steamer Kensington of the Dominion Line, which was en route from Liverpool for Quebec and Montreal, went aground during a snowstorm about 5 o'clock yesterday morning at Matane, 208 miles below Quebec.

She is reported to be badly damaged and making water very fast.

She had on board 540 steerage passengers and 75 cabin and a general cargo for Quebec and Montreal. All the passengers are safe.

They were taken on board the steamer Caspian at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and will arrive here to-day at noon.

A FIRST CLASS SHOW

"The best show of the season" was the popular verdict of the people who attended Charley's Aunt at the Brisco Opera House on Saturday evening. There was a good house. The galleries were packed and the seats down stairs were well filled. It was a mistake that the management was not compelled to sell standing room, as the show was certainly worth it. This show has been preceded with excellent press notices, but they were not strong enough to describe the excellence of the production. It may safely be stated that should Charley's Aunt return to Chatham, the house would not be large enough to accommodate the crowds which would seek admission. It is aptly described as a succession of laughs, and the comedy is clean and plentiful. The company is a perfect one. Every character is splendidly portrayed, and every member is a star. The show pleased, and everyone enjoyed the entertainment provided during the evening.

"CHRISTMAS IN NEW YORK."

The Lackawanna Railroad will run another of their popular fifteen (15) day excursions to New York on December 14th, Round trip from Buffalo $9.00.

McQUEEN—TOULOUSE

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place this morning at St. Joseph's church, Rev. Fr. James officiating, when Mr. William H. McQueen, a valued employee of the Gordon dry goods store, and a son of the late Timothy McQueen, J. E., was united in marriage to Miss Annie Toulouse, daughter of Mr. Peter Toulouse, of the Park House.

The bride and groom are both very popular young people. They left this afternoon for Detroit, Toledo and other points. On their return they will take up their residence in this city.

There were five cases at the Police Court this morning, and every one of them were cases of drunk and disorderly.

Geo. McGregor came up this afternoon, charged with stealing a cigar case from the Grand Central Hotel. He was remanded for a week.

Last week Mr. Winterstein lost a wheel and notified the police. The next day Officer Dodson located the stolen property and returned it to the owner. Naturally, Mr. Winterstein is grateful for the efficient work of the police.

ANY DAY AND EVERY DAY AND SEE THE SPECIAL SHOWING AND SELLING OF DISTINCTIVE NEW FALL SUITS AND OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS

There's much in clothes-making to which the ordinary tailor fails to respond—for with the ordinary tailor the necessary skill and talent are lacking to reach the fullest possibilities. With the masters of the craft it is different. Skill and talent are guided by intelligence.

Our Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats owe their distinctiveness to the manner in which they are "Worked Out" by a carefully selected organization of the best talent the tailor-craft affords. The garments for which they stand sponsors are exponents of the best in clothes-craft. They mirror the new fall and winter fashions as the best dressed men would have them. The all important features are "Concave" shoulder and "close fitting" collar and a concave gives to them our "Concave" and "close fitting" collar and a concave gives to them our Suits and Overcoats, superiority of Austin & Co. Clothes is evident in no mind more than in our line of moving pictures given at the Salvanight, the 12th. These pictures are new and most interesting, and have created the greatest sensation where-ever shown. For clearness and effect they have been highly commented upon by experts. Each figure looks like real life, in fact, the service is promised to be the very best that has ever been given in this part. The pictures have been shown in most of the towns in Ontario, and have always delighted the people. The great immigration work of

DEATH'S CALL

The death occurred on Saturday, at this home on Princess street, of Levi Anderson, at the advanced age of 72 years, six months and five days.
The deceased was one of the most prosperous and respected colored residents of the city.

He was born in Nash County, North Carolina, May 5, 1834, and came to Canada in 1861, first settling in Pike Creek. One year later he came to Chatham, where he has resided ever since.

The late Mr. Anderson was a cooper by trade, conducting a business on the market for a number of years, and he had by thrift and industry become the owner of considerable valuable property in this city.

He is survived by a wife and a growing family. The children are Marcellus, Chatham; Mrs. M. Robinson, Chatham; Mrs. Samuel Smith,
Woodstock, and Arabella at home.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock to the B. M. church, and thence to Maple Leaf Cemetery.

Wanted to assist in office work, an active young man not under 17 years of age. Good chance for advancement. Must furnish references.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE.

Condemns Earl Grey For Preparing on Sunday for Hunting.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—The conduct of His Excellency Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, in his disregard of the Sabbath in preparing on Sunday for a shooting expedition, met with censure at the annual meeting of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance yesterday afternoon when the committee on resolutions reported that an expression of loyal and regard should be expressed towards His Excellency in recognition of the fact that yesterday was the King's Birthday.

The reading of the resolution brought forth a protest from Rev. Mr. Scott, who stated that he had read in the newspapers a report of hunting expeditions that the Governor-General had planned for on a Sunday. He was sure that he was correct and in view of this fact thought it would be ridiculous to have such a resolution go on the records of the association.

Other dissenting voices were heard, and upon the suggestion of J. K. Macdonald, president of the association, it was decided to leave the name of Lord Grey out of the resolution.

A resolution of loyalty to King Edward was carried and the dozen or so delegates present sang "God Save the King."

Election of Officers.
The election of officers in the afternoon resulted:
President, J. K. Macdonald.
Vice-presidents, Rev. A. Carman, Rev. W. L. Mills, Rev. S. D. Chown, Rev. L. N. Tucker, Hon. S. C. Biggs, Chancellor, A. C. MacKay, Rev. A. D. Rutherford.

Secretary, Rev. T. Albert Moore; assistant secretary, Rev. J. G. Shearer; treasurer, Charles J. Copp, M. D.; auditors, Robert Rae, A. J. Crombie.
A number of resolutions were adopted.

PAY TRIBUTE TO MINNES.

His Yukon Administration Satisfactory to All Parties.

Dawson, Y. T., Nov. 10.—W. B. McInnes, Governor of the Yukon, left Thursday for Ottawa. He was tendered a mammoth banquet in the Arctic Brotherhood Hall. The members of all political parties gathered and paid a harmonious tribute to the splendid administration by Mr. McInnes of Yukon affairs during the last two years.

Justice MacAulay presided.

Representatives of the commercial, mining, press and other interests all contributed complimentary addresses to the actions of Mr. McInnes, and painted a glowing picture of the future of the Yukon. Many predicted it will become one of the most populous districts of Canada, when the mineral resources, which the outside world is seeking, become fully exploited.

There has been a new era in the prosperity of the Yukon since Governor McInnes came here two years ago. The banquet was the biggest in the history of the Yukon.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—The Toronto District Trades and Labor Council was represented by a deputation before Hon. W. J. Hanna yesterday.

They requested the Government to introduce an amendment to the Liquor License Law providing that no persons under 21 years of age shall be permitted to engage in the manufacture, distribution or sale of malt or spirituous liquors.

Special stress was laid upon the bottling industry, in which it was considered inadvisable to allow minors to engage. Consideration was promised.

The robbery occurred at 9 p. m., while the train was changing engines.

CITY SHOULD TAKE IT OVER.

How Many in Hamilton Would End Street Railway Strike.

Hamilton, Nov. 10.—The excitement over the street railwaymen's strike is apparently dying out. This was the sixth day of the strike, and was by far the quietest. The usual crowds that have filled the streets every night this week were missing. The company will not make an attempt until Monday to operate its street railway system, and trouble is looked for then.

Mayor Biggar has arranged for a meeting with Col. Gibson and Mr. Hawkins Saturday morning. At a meeting of citizens in the Arcade Hall last evening, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"That we, as citizens of Hamilton, express our strongest disapproval of the way the Hamilton Street Railway has acted, in failing to live up to its agreement with its employees, and we extend to the men, who are fighting only for their rights, our heartfelt sympathy, and promise to help them in every legitimate way to carry the campaign to a successful issue."

Many of the speakers contended that the city should take over the railway.

THOUGHT COLD WOULD

READ HOW DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 26th, 1906

The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs: As I am one of the thousands that have been benefited by your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I thought it my duty to give you a description of my case. I am 19 years of age and was always in the best of health until last spring when I caught a severe cold by going about with wet feet. I settled in my chest and all the remedies I tried would not cure it. My friends began to fear it had turned to consumption and were advising me to go east and see a specialist. One day my father brought home a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I laughed at the idea of its being any good and refused to take it, only as a last resource would I. When I had finished one bottle I had only a slight cold left and before I had taken a quarter of the next I was as well as ever. I was, in fact, better, so you can see what a God-send this medicine was to me. I never fail to recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to my friends and they all use it. To show my appreciation of this remedy I will gladly answer any letters of reference to it. Believe me, Sincerely yours,

Miss Winnifred D. Smith.

The tough Dr. Hamilton's Pills, the skin grows rosy and clear, activity of the body and mind increases, and bounding health is established. Sold everywhere.

Peary would make another attempt to reach the pole, but thought he would. She believes the Roosevelt has been badly damaged.

GLASGOW'S CIVIC SPIRIT.

Glasgow Flourishes by Exercise of High Standard of Citizenship—"My City 'Tis of Thee."

Much nonsense has been spoken about the municipal government of the city. The assertion that the citizens pay no taxes, there is no extreme poverty, and everything is free because owned by the city, is as fabulous as foolish. But municipal ownership exists in a large measure, its responsibilities are met most creditably, and the beneficial results are fully shared and appreciated by the citizens. The expenses of city government and the taxes therefor are reduced to a minimum; and are much lower than such are in any city which owns much less in America. The general tax is about $7 per $1,000 on the assessed property valuation, which approximates as near as possible to the real value of the property. Gas costs consumers forty-eight cents per 1,000 cubic feet. Water costs the consumer ten cents per $5 rental and owner two cents per $5 on assessed valuation of property. What strikes an American most in investigating municipal affairs in the city of Glasgow is the strong civic spirit which pervades everyone and everything connected with it from the Lord Provost to the plebeian in the new plant of the drainage department. They do not sing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." But the atmosphere seems to breathe the words "My city, 'tis for thee."

Without Salary.

"Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of the word," is the city's motto. And let Glasgow flourish by the exercise of a high standard of citizenship, is the practice of the city corporation. There are 72 councilmen elected by the various wards of the city, and with the Lord Provost these form the city government, magistrates and minor justices of the city. They are all men of high intelligence, many of them university men, most of them holding high positions in the commercial world and in the church; but in all work without any salary from the city. Even the representatives of labor on the council do not expect any emolument for services rendered to the city, but all esteem it a high privilege and great honor to serve the people without pecuniary reward. The civic spirit is the finest example of Christian socialism, as it is free from modern socialistic vagaries.

The writer asked the Lord Provost, Sir John Ure Primrose, "How many days per week and how many hours daily do you give to the service of the city?" His reply was, "Ten hours daily, and six days a week." Moreover, one may travel and make inquiries as I did among the critics of the Government, but he would not hear a suspicion of dishonesty against any members of it. They all seem to be, though serving without remuneration, like Caesar's wife, "above suspicion."

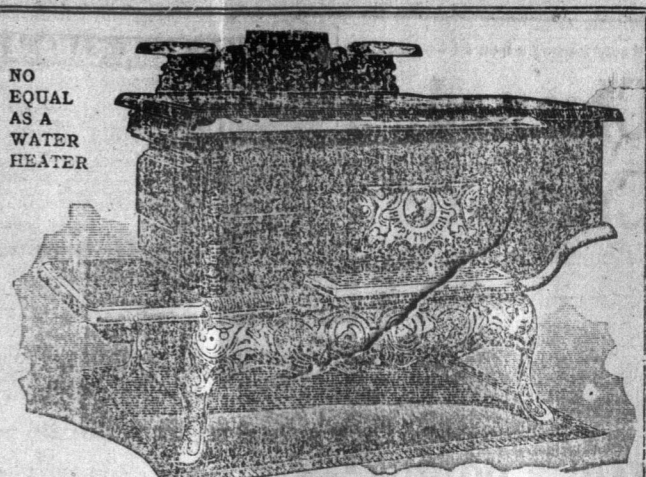

Model Lodging-Houses.

This high civic spirit is the secret of the success of municipal ownership in the city. It simply means, we shall do our best for our city because it is ours; we shall give of our time and talents freely, and teach others so to do, for the welfare of our fellow-citizens. And it is remarkable that this spirit is doing for all the citizens, but especially for the poor in the city. Interest in the man with the dinner-pail, as his family is in evidence everywhere. The city owns property which it either remodels or built into 2,000 laborers' dwellings. This in itself has had far-reaching influences upon better housing at reasonable rents for the working man. It also constructed and equipped seven model lodging-houses, which naturally destroyed the success of many common lodging-houses conducted by private enterprise, which were hotbeds of vice and crime, and also centres for propagating disease. The seven houses give accommodation nightly to 2,430 persons. Each house is provided with a common dining-room, a kitchen with a large range, and a provision store is attached to each house, excepting one, where uncooked food can be purchased at market prices. A large recreation room and ample bathing conveniences are also provided, and each lodger has a separate bed, with spring, mattress, pillow, sheets, blanket and bed mat, at a charge varying from seven cents to twelve cents per night. And what seems strange is, the enterprise is successful from a financial viewpoint.

Family Home.

The city also owns and operates a "Family Home," conducted on what is commonly known as the self-supporting and social settlement plan. It was originally designed and equipped for the use of widows or widowers, belonging to the deserving working classes, who had children with no one to properly care for them. The "Home" contains 160 bedrooms plainly but comfortably furnished, each capable of accommodating one adult and three children. The rest of a bedroom, including light, heat, water, hot and cold, with the use of recreation room, dining-room and kitchen, is $1.25 per week, and a bed for each additional child is found in another room at 16 cents per week. Regular meals are supplied at the lowest possible charges, which may be guessed when we mention that each child is boarded at an average cost of 36 cents per week. Fifteen thousand people are thus helped daily to live independent, clean, healthful lives, who otherwise would be crowded to the wall in life's race, and trampled into absolute poverty, misery and worse than death. There are also men to the city, money, morals and men.

The city also provides excellent hospital accommodation and treatment, free of charge, to all its citizens who desire to avail themselves of it. The beds available in hospitals for infectious diseases alone number 1,265, and all are equipped with the latest modern appliances, and managed on the most approved methods and principles. Fourteen public parks, comprising 1,031.1-2 acres, are also owned by the city, some of which contain beautiful flower gardens and others bowling greens, where games may be played at the low cost of four cents per hour. In one, the Queen's Park—there is a nursery and conservatory of flowers which would grace a millionaire's estate; and how justly proud the common people feel as they walk through it and say, "We own this."

TO DRAW DIVIDING LINE

Negotiations Which May Result In Doubling Size
Of Province

BOUNDARY OF ONTARIO

Toronto, Nov. 12.—Premier Whitney is to-day at Ottawa with the assistance of Hon. J. J. Foy and Hon. A. J. Matheson engaged in negotiations which, it is hoped, may result in nearly doubling the size of Ontario. The province is now 260,862 square miles in extent. Should the extension of boundaries, which is hoped for, be acceded to by the Dominion Government, Ontario will outstrip British Columbia with its 372,620 square miles.

The present conference has been adjourned from the gathering of Provincial Premiers a month ago, when the boundary question was left over to be dealt with by those immediately concerned. These were Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Quebec wants to have her boundaries extended to Hudson Bay.

Ontario has ancient claims to a seaport on the big bay, which James Bay does not afford.

Manitoba has been notoriously restricted ever since Confederation, and has claims to a liberal allotment of the north country.

Saskatchewan wants a seaport also, looking forward to the day when population will have swarmed up to the sixtieth parallel and dotted the country over with towns and villages like old Ontario, and when Hudson Bay will be as frequented by shipping as the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

The official memorandum submitted by the Province of Ontario was given to the press by Premier Whitney before he left for Ottawa on Saturday. In part, it is as follows:

1. That in their opinion the boundaries of Manitoba should be extended northward so as to take in Fort Churchill.

2. That they do not care to discuss any question of the alteration of the boundaries of Saskatchewan.

3. That in order to carry out the suggestion in paragraph 1 the eastern boundary of Manitoba should be produced northward until it strikes the Churchill River; that the middle of the channel of the said river should then become the boundary until the river debouches into Hudson Bay.

4. That the remainder of the territory of Keewatin lying to the eastward of such boundary line be allotted to the Province of Ontario.

(Sgd.) J. P. Whitney,
J. J. Foy,
A. J. Matheson.
Toronto, 9th November, 1906.

A long recital of the facts and arguments in favor of the above is made by the three signatories in the official memorandum.

THE BANNER WAS THERE

Newspaper Men Of All Shades Were Allowed in at Conservative Rally

AN UNTRUTHFUL REPORT

The glaring announcement in the Banner on Saturday, to the effect that their reporter was excluded from the Liberal-Conservative convention on Saturday, only serves as another disgraceful example of the depths to which the local Liberal organ will stoop in order to vent its spleen on anything Conservative. It is unnecessary to state that their reporter was not excluded—in fact he was present throughout the whole proceedings, taking notes and no doubt twisting them around so that his copy would be worthy of insertion in his h-d-bound party paper. It is hoped that he does not succumb to his chronic habit of a "remarkable lapse of memory" for which he apologized to his readers the other day in connection with a School Board report when he credited a speech to a trustee who was not present at the meeting at all. Readers of the Banner should not be surprised to read to-night of the execution of a "remarkable" feat of memory by A. B. McCoig. Of course Mr. McCoig was not present at the meeting, but that "lapse of memory" has to be considered in all Banner reports.

In some unknown manner, the Banner scribe became absorbed with the hallucination that he would not be allowed in. Maybe it was the voice of what would in any other person be called conscience, prodding him for the manner in which he had advertised the convention with a wild statement about "storming." He was sitting on the street, asking them to "take him up, but no one seemed to want to undertake the responsible task of guiding the footsteps of such an ill-mannered and important moulder of public opinion.

A bright idea struck him. It was coming and had to strike someone, and no one else was around. But no! Such a scheme would be too daring and crafty! Yes! He would do it. It might cost him his life, probably his hitherto honorable reputation, but his unscrupulous editor demanded the story. Talk about life on the swift New York and Chicago dailies! He felt like the editorial writer on Hearst's famous yellow journal.

A short time later, an evidently disguised individual—he was trying to look bright—knocked at the door of the auditorium and wanted to get in. He handed in a telegram and the doorkeeper read it aloud. "Associated Press. Ye gods, he had done it. Now was the critical moment. He had taken off his glasses so that they would not be broken when he made the expected exit down the cruel and dangerously steep stairway, and he awaited with shaking knees and trembling lip for the words which were soon to pronounce his sudden doom.

Imagine his surprise when the doorkeeper finally ended the suspense.

"Why yes! Come in. You are certainly welcome here." Then turning to the other man on the door, "I wonder where the Banner is? They ought to be here. Surely they will send a man to report the meeting! We want all the newspaper men we can get. There is nothing to hush up in a Conservative convention."

The Associated Press man, alias the Banner, was seen crushing the telegram into a secret pocket, and tried to bury his thoughts in a flustered attempt at taking notes. He was present throughout the whole meeting, and took notes of all the proceedings. The doorkeeper will no doubt wonder where the Banner got its report. Maybe it was an Associated Press despatch.
