GENTLEMEN,—I have been much struck with the fidelity and spirit of Mr. SIMPSON'S Sketches in the Crimea, and I am decidedly of opinion that their acquisition by the nation as a memorial of the great struggle in which we have been engaged, would be highly desirable. I shall have much pleasure in giving every assistance in my power to Lord Elcho in carrying out his views on the subject.—Your obedient, AUSTIN HENRY LAYARD.

MY DEAR MR. COLNAGHI.—I have very sincere pleasure in offering my testimony to the great merit and artistic ability displayed in the Collection of Drawings made by Mr. SIMPSON, illustrative of the late War in the Crimea. The stamp of truth is on every one of them, and the details are wonderfully rendered.—C. STANFIELD.

MY DEAR COLNAGHI.—You are well aware how frequently I have expressed to you my admiration of your Series of Drawings, by Mr. SIMPSON, showing the progress of the War in the Crimea. And whether taken in regard to their artistic merits, the variety of combination in the treatment of the various subjects, or the peculiar circumstances with which the artist had to contend, and the obstacles he had to surmount during their production, all render them unique in their way, and most valuable as a Pictorial History of the War in the Crimea. It is therefore most gratifying to me to learn that there is a probability of their being kept together as a whole by H.M. Government; and what must render them ever valuable as a collection is the rare combination of artistic excellence with fidelity.—DAVID ROBERTS.
