

League Baseball Season Opens in the City Today

MR. CARNEY IS HERE WITH LEAGUE LEADERS

The Calgary Team Was Tied up by the Weather Yesterday Meet Deacons Today

The Calgary baseball team, present leaders of the Western Canada league, arrived home last evening from their successful trip to Medicine Hat and Lethbridge.

By schedule the team was not due until this morning, but bad weather at Lethbridge caused the postponement of the game, and consequently robbed Carney and his bunch of another victory.

The team has done remarkably well during their trip on the road. To come back leading the league with four wins out of five games played and three of these against Billy Hamilton's champions at Medicine Hat is a creditable performance, of which the local fans should feel well pleased with. The only game lost was the first one.

Weather permitting this afternoon the season will open at Calgary and Deacon White's Equinoxes will be the visitors who will try and beat Carney in his own den.

A good program has been arranged, including the procession, with its usual pomp and glory, characteristic of such a glorious occasion. And what a time will be had on the occasion of the old time rivalry. Opening games with Edmonton always were and will be a feature of the baseball season.

Deacon Up Against It

When Deacon opens here this afternoon he will be up against the real goods, but the Equinoxes come prepared. Knowing they would need everything in their favor to win games in Calgary, the north fans sent down a contingent of rooters, who arrived in the city last evening. They are led by President Vickerman, who is well known by local fans for his rooting ability. This, however, may help the Calgary team, as it is not certain but that Vickerman may prove a hoodoo to the Equinoxes.

From the dope sheet it looks like a trimming for Deacon and his hussies. Calgary took two of three from Hamilton, while Deacon has not been able to hand out anything to the Mad Hatters. The dope sheet, however, does not always run true and Deacon might turn a trick at that.

Bill is Well Pleased

Manager Carney is well pleased with the showing made by the local players while away from home. The team is working well together, and hitting the ball all the time. They have outplayed their opponents at all stages of the game. They scored double the runs, hits and made less errors, which shows the team up to good advantage.

From the five games played the dope sheets work out as follows:

Calgary scored double the runs, hits and errors; their opponents made 11 runs, 24 hits and 24 errors.

Calgary struck double the hits and Lethbridge once themselves played two errorless games.

The pitching staff is working well, and in good shape. Gibson has only worked in one game, but in this he held the Hatters down to one safe hit, and had them fanning the air at different angles. Manning is going strong. He has control enough for anything. Lefty is as cool as a cucumber, and the same with bases full or empty. In his game at Lethbridge he got bases full twice, once with only one out, and he came back and struck the balance out. The boys say Chesty Cox has a good bunch of ball players, but they are not working right.

The locals are sure they would have won the third yesterday if the weather man had not butted in, as they had the Indian sign on the Lethbridge team. Manager Bill does not have very much to say last evening, but his smile was enough. It was a smile of satisfaction and content. He has the team working well on the inside points of the game, and in places where it spells runs. The infield are playing together like clockwork and the outfield covers all kinds of ground. All the men are clotting the ball all the time, but some of the players are lucky enough to hit into the outfielders' mitts.

The team will now play eight straight games with Edmonton, four in Calgary and the balance in Edmonton.

His ump, Longenecker, is in the city all ready for the opening game, and from all reports he is some ump, too. The boys speak well of him, and were much pleased with his work so far.

Faddock, the coast pitcher, has not yet arrived, but is expected at any time. When Faddock does turn up, Carney will have a very strong pitching staff, and one that can be depended upon at all times.

KENTUCKY DERBY WON IN VERY FAST TIME

The Record Time in Event Almost Reached by Donau.

Louisville, Ky., May 10.—Donau, the bay son of Wollastor, today captured the Kentucky Derby at a mile and a quarter in the sensational time of 1:58.2-5. Joe Morris was second and Fighting Bob third.

The race was over a fast track in the presence of the largest crowd in the history of local racing. The record for the class is 2:06.1-4, made by Lieut. Gibson in 1900. The value of the Derby to the winner is $50,000.

Pitcher Has Fractured Arm

Boston, Mass., May 10.—An X-Ray examination made tonight revealed a fractured elbow joint in the pitching arm of Babe Waddell of the St. Louis Americans. Waddell was hit by a pitched ball during the game here today and has retired from the game. He will be able to play again for two months.

EXCELLENT SCORES MADE IN LAST MATCH

Calgary Miniature Rifle Club Made Good Record in League Matches.

The last of the Canada Rifle League matches was fired on Monday evening, with the following excellent scores. The last shoot of the year will be fired Thursday, 12th May, when the Quebec medal will be fired, for each member being allowed three targets, the highest decimal score to win the coveted prize. This will wind up the season for miniature shooting, most members having joined the Calgary Rifle Club. Too much cannot be said in favor of the system which some years ago was known as the "Empire Plan," all races at the finish of the second heat if run in straight heats, but in case of split heats, heat winners alone to start in the third or final.

Under this system no race can possibly go over three heats, while outside of two contenders all starters go to the barn after the second heat. It is found to make the sport short and snappy, and the dash system which has been tried and approved the best for racing trotters and pacers.

Laying out heats, the greatest drawback to the dash system is that it is absolutely impossible, while horses can be raced at top speed yet more frequently than under the existing system.

Winners of all races will be given, according to conditions, an extra inducement, so as no horses entered in the events, will be held back that can win, resulting in speed fights to the limit. In the $2,500 the winner gets $1,500 or 60 per cent of the purse, while $300, $200, and $100 go to second, third and fourth respectively.

As a further incentive to drivers to get in front and race their mounts to their speed limit, the winner is allowed the position of advance starter, that might be distanced. The association wants no benefit from the purse.

NOTES FROM THE TURF

(By O'Neil Sevier.)

New York, May 9.—Musketeer, winner of the Futurity of 1908 and the most successful 2-year-old filly of last season, is proving the heroine of the workouts at Sheepshead Bay. Musketeer is in the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park with Hilarious, Helmet and Sweep, and Trainer James Rowe evidently intends to have her at the post ready to do her best.

With Marshall in the saddle, the big brood daughter of Disguise and Birturica stepped a mile in 1:43.2-5 easily. She did not go off very swiftly, but once on her stride, she kept steadily at work, turning the quarter in 23.

Ballot, the Suburban winner of 1908, who was declared from the Metropolitan several weeks ago, gallops a mile in 1:58. Ballot is getting ready for his engagements at Sheepshead Bay. He is training soundly and will probably bear the spotted jacket in another Suburban, perhaps against the doughty Fitz-Herbert, winner of the Suburban last year.

Sweep, another Metropolitan candidate, is doing a mile in 1:45.1-5. This has been Sweep's fastest gallop in some time. Sweep has several valuable engagements at Belmont Park. He is in the Withers stake in which he probably has to meet Waldo and the Turk, and he is in the Belmont in which August Belmont's Starbuck seems to be the most formidable of his prospective opponents.

The work watchers at the Bay expect to see Hilarious at the post in the Metropolitan, but Mr. Rowe did not ask much of the light footed filly. Leach Cross will meet Matty Baldwin before the National Athletic Club in New York City on the night of May 13th. In private life Cross is an East Side dentist and his real money is in Dr. Louis C. Wallace. He is a Jew.

This is supposed to be the hardest month for Jeffries. He is supposed to reach the game of good condition in May. Jeffries is a hardy fellow, but the coming battle and this is shared by Mrs. Jeffries, who says she "knows her Jim will win."

Gunboat Smith is the latest acquisition of the Johnson training camp. The new recruit has a fine stage and Johnson has been dickered with a Frisco negro quartette to join him and furnish music every night. With plenty of gasoline and music, Jack ought to go into shape in no time.

Jack Johnson has been spending practically all his time in his automobile. It is not true, as was reported in the world, who likes automobile riding so well as Johnson. Johnson's ambition, he says, is to be the best chauffeur in America. Winning the heavyweight belt is a side issue with him.

Boxing is again in vogue in Cleveland, Ohio, after an idleness of several years. Three clubs—the Tuxedo, Eagles and Elms—are running weekly shows, which are for members only and are meeting with success. Jimmy Dunn's stable of boxers, numbering five, seem to have the call. Among them are Harry Greb, Dan King, Danny Dunn, Johnny Kilbane, Paul Kohler and Lou Reddy.

Stanley Ketchell will be 23 years old next September and there many believe he will be a champion. He has been a professional pugilist in 1904 and has been defeated twice; once by Billy Papke and again by Jack Johnson.

With his usual softness Freddy Walsh is now trying to attract his box with Paaky McFarland in England on May 30 by arranging a fight with Ad. Wolgast to be pulled off on the coast in June or July. Walsh recently showed which are for members only and are meeting with success. Jimmy Dunn's stable of boxers, numbering five, seem to have the call. BOU WAS FIXED BETWEEN LANGFORD AND KETCHEL

That is the Rumor That is Now Being Circulated

Northboro, Mass., May 9.—Sam Langford, the husky middleweight, who will meet Al. Kuback of Michigan before the Fairmont A.C. in New York city on the night of May 17, has gone into training here, this place being his old home.

At his round out his condition at Atlantic City, and Sam believes that such training as the Michigander does at the sporty resort will not help him any.

Langford is 30 years old in February. He stands 5 feet 8 inches, and is as ugly as sin, judging by Caucasian standards. His normal weight is 160 pounds. In fighting style he is a reproduction of Joe Wolcott, the old time welter weight. Sam has been in the ring since 1901 and is familiarly known as "The Boston Tar Baby." Since Sam got out of the amateur class, he has taken part in 90 battles. Jack Johnson has been his opponent in fifteen bouts, seven years ago he knocked out Willie Lewis, Larry Temple, Jeff Thorne, Tiger Smith, Jim Barry, Jim Flynn and many of lesser note. Last year when he put Jim Hague, the English heavy, down in the fourth round, he was hailed as the champion of the world by the National Sporting Club of London. That was after Johnson had refused to take the title, saying he did not care to win it by default. Langford was the favorite in his recent fight with Moran, but he was convinced that the Philadelphia battle was fixed.

WITH THE BATTLERS

A court decision has been rendered in Milwaukee allowing boxing contests such as are now held in New York, Pittsburgh, Memphis, New Orleans and other cities.

THE Mexican's Crime

and OXFORD-CAMBRIDGE BOAT RACE

Britt seems to have fallen in love with British theatricals.

Attell has figured out a system for himself by which he hopes to stay in the ring for a good many years to come. He is working to make himself as little as possible. Always a very clever boxer he now asks always for short bouts and allows his antagonist to do all the work. Abe skips and ducks and stalls while his opponent wears himself out with smashing the empty air. Then as the battle draws near to the end, Attell cuts loose with a few wallops and gets the decision.

Attell believes that by saving his energy in this way he will last for a long time yet. His fight with Moran will be the hardest he has had for a long time and he cannot help but do a lot of hard work in that. His friends believe, however, that he will easily outpoint and win from the Briton.

The English lad has a lot of supporters in America however, and he will be heavily backed when he jumps the ropes.

Tom Sharkey Calls Jeff By Thomas Sharkey

(James J. Jeffries admits that Sharkey is the gamest man that ever went up against him, and Sharkey claims that he will challenge the winner of July 4th next.)

That fight is going to be all Jeff from the moment the gong rings until the referee counts ten over Johnson's body. I know Jeffries; I have fought him and I am able to size him up better than the dopsters, who guess at things. In my opinion Jeffries ought to win within 15 rounds, maybe 10.

I look to see Jeff start the fight with a rush. He will carry it into Johnson's corner although this has not been his style in the past. Jeffries always planned his battles in advance and I'll bet right now he knows what he is going to do in the ring. I dare say he will start walloping Johnson the minute they get together, and by the end of 10 rounds the champion won't have any more fight left in him. It will be Jeff's game to hurry things as much as possible and keep at the negro with those hard right and left swings, so that he can put all his strength in the blows that get in early.

Take it from me that the bout won't go over 15 rounds. Johnson is a fine boxer, but that won't help him in the boiler maker. Remember I'm not saying that Johnson is a shine fighter. I never fought him but I know he is pretty clever with his fists. He is a lively customer all right, but he can't be ranked with Jeffries. The Jeffries of six years ago far outclassed Johnson at his best and it would have been a criminal to put them up against each other in the ring at that time. Or

Use your own legs more, and you will acquire a new sense of direction.

Get into the sun and wind, and keep a little in the open—without, however, a fever to go by—you will learn how to become the master, rather than the slave, of the machine.

It is worth trying in politics.

WESTON'S MESSAGE

Had to Exaggerate to Arrive in Attention of Manhood

(From the New York American)

The children were wild to see him. Thousands of men crowded for a glimpse through all the structures of Broadway, and women smiled and waved their handkerchiefs.

For here was old Edward Weston, the apostle of primary education, coming on his two year tour, through the City of the Great Machines.

Weston is a hero of course—because heroism consists, and always has consisted, in proving to the multitude that they have natural powers that they have not ventured to use.

And in an age of traction and motor power it is a great thing to make known the utility of legs.

The old man was, naturally enough, a little stiff in the joints, and his rhythm suggestive of the mechanical devices that he holds in such contempt. But his lean figure was erect, and his white mustache, upturned against the red cheeks, was full of the triumph of his cause.

He had kept the faith and finished his long course.

In the sight of more than three generations of Americans Weston had practiced his gospel of his own life. And the thought of him is an inspiration and consolation to all who are haunted by longings for an untroubled life.

Like all great prophets, Weston had to exaggerate—in order to attract the listless attention of mankind. Doubtless he would be the first to confess that he is not to be taken too literally. It is not necessary for a prophet to walk across the continent, or to walk across the continent, or to walk across the continent.

Use your own legs more, and you will acquire a new sense of direction.

Get into the sun and wind, and keep a little in the open—without, however, a fever to go by—you will learn how to become the master, rather than the slave, of the machine.

It is worth trying in politics.

THE QUESTION

The Lethbridge University question position somewhat the establishment in Calgary, though to be quite so certain the entire affair is to steal the university Strathcona, which the Lethbridge Herald is a site for the province, which was placed in

THE PARKS BYLAW

The Parks Bylaw was defeated yesterday, which is to be regretted. The movement for a more beautiful Calgary will be much retarded by the action of the ratepayers who voted against the bylaw.

The bylaw, the Albertan believes, was defeated because of the details. It is possible that had it been split up into four bylaws as it should have been, that all four, or probably three would have been adopted. Practically every person was in favor of certain improvements in the cemetery, and in beautifying certain of the parks. But the ratepayer objected to one detail after another to another, and each in expressing opposition, had to vote against the entire bylaw, and the result was that the union of the opposition defeated the bylaw.

THE CENSUS

In United States, the city of Los Angeles is insisting upon counting the tourists visiting there. Whether or not that is to be allowed or not, is another question.

And that brings us to Alberta and Western Canada. For the year round the hotels of Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge and the other cities and towns in Alberta are full of visitors. The visitors of today move on, but their places are taken by the visitors of tomorrow, and though it is a shifting population that number of people are always present.

THE QUESTION OF UNIVERSITIES

The Lethbridge Herald returns to the university question, and makes its position somewhat clearer. It repeats the establishment of a university in Calgary, though it does not seem to be quite so certain as it was, that its entire affair is a bluff to attempt to steal the university away from St. Michaels, which seemed to alarm the Lethbridge paper somewhat.

The Lethbridge favored Strathcona as a site for the provincial university when it was placed there, but now it goes a bit further and opposes any assistance being granted to a Calgary institution, least it should interfere with the success of the Strathcona institution and says it presents the opinions of the people of Southern Alberta when it argues that the entire proposition should be strangled.

The Lethbridge Herald opposes the establishment of a Calgary university at all. It believes that there is no place for such an institution and that it will hurt the provincial university. The same arguments were used for years in Ontario, but it did not prevent Queen's University from doing a very excellent work. The existence of Queen's University not only accomplished a worthy mission, but it had a very good influence upon the provincial institution, Toronto University.

The Ontario government has recognized that fact by contributing liberally to the support of Queen's University, as well as to the provincial institution.

The Lethbridge Herald is horrified that Calgary has the nerve to go to Edmonton to ask for assistance to maintain a university which will weaken the Strathcona institution. It is interested in assisting universities of higher education first of all, and it should matter but little to the province what institution is doing the work. Calgary, despite the Lethbridge Herald, is still upon the map. If a Calgary university is doing a good work, it has a right to ask for support from the province.

The Lethbridge Herald complains that one university can do all the work well enough, and can accommodate all the students. It might go further and say that one Canadian university would be ample. It is certain it could accommodate the students of the Dominion. Why then have a university in Alberta at all?

There is a very apparent field for a university in Calgary. The Herald is wrong in believing that the result will be that a certain number of students will be divided between the two institutions. Calgary will attract from this city and this district a large number of students who would not attend the Alberta University or any other institution. The organization of the Calgary University will not affect Alberta University or any other to any great extent. But it will provide higher education for a large number

EDITORIAL NOTES

It is difficult to see just how we are to have parks and a beautiful city without paying for them.

From what transpired in Norway, it seems evident that Mr. T. Roosevelt is carrying the big stick with him.

If the city wouldn't put so many things in one bylaw it is more than probable that a number of them would carry.

The get rich quick scheme is a poor imitation when we sit back and look at this $100,000 an hour snow storm at the beginning of May.

Nothing much came out of the evidence of Mr. Hawes in Toronto, but it was some comfort to find that the wandering commission had not got lost.

It is possible that there is people living right near the English channel who wouldn't make a murmur if T. Roosevelt unlimbered the big stick and used it with despatch upon the Kaiser.

Mr. Hawes maintains that Mr. Cornwall was king maker or king something in Alberta, while there are other people who say that in this affair he was another face card entirely, but according to the evidence produced Mr. Hawes didn't prove it very conclusively.

Naval Gun Power (A. S. Hurd, in Casser's Magazine) There is a tendency to judge the power of a ship by the amount of metal which can be thrown if all the guns were fired simultaneously and without regard to whether they could be brought to bear upon an enemy or could be fired as fast in war as they can be fired in theory—on paper.

THE TICKLEMOUSE

—and his Sleepyland Adventures with Davy and Dorfy By Roy Rubenford Bailey

A Call From Mowgli The animals stirred uneasily, grew to many times their pictured size and moved about the bedroom.

When the Ticklemouse awakened Davy and Dorfy last night they heard the patter of raindrops on the window-sill.

They were disappointed, for the Mouse had promised them another trip to India, in the hope of again seeing the Jungle Book.

"No," he squeaked, solemnly, "my chillions are not going out in the rain, Mowgli, the Man Cub."

"But," he went on, drawing one eyelid down in a comical way, "perhaps we can have just as much fun 'tother way about. You may have heard the saying: 'If the mountain won't come to Mahomet, Mahomet will go to the mountain.'"

"It's worth remembering, my dears. What say, shall we have Mowgli come to us?"

"The big tiger skin rug, which the Mouse had been carefully tickling with his tail tip, raised its wicked head and growled softly.

"The Ticklemouse turned to the excited twins, "Is it up here or down in the library?"

"Is what?" asked Davy and Dorfy, leaning on the table only the other night.

"Dorfy got the book and the Mouse began tickling the pictures, crooning a weird song.

"Jungle, jungle, far away, Wake, and till the break of day Fling thy mantle 'er us!

Tiger, cobra, Old Baloo, Bear-cub, wolf-cub, man-cub, too— Come to life, and plant for me A jungle in the nursery!

At the last word he rested his paw on the picture of Mowgli, and began picking the paper; then he took hold of the loosened edge and pulled slowly. Out came the picture, leaving an empty space on the white paper.

The Mouse began on the next picture, that of the old brown bear, Baloo. Soon all the people of the jungle lay side by side on the floor.

The Mouse chanted again the last lines of his song.

"Who are ye?" he cried sharply. "What do ye in the jungle?"

"I'm the jungle!" said Davy, stoutly. "It's our bedroom!"

Mowgli threw back his shaggy head and laughed in scorn. "Listen to the man-child—crabbed by the jungle heat! Yellow hair and face white as milk! Man-child, can you fight?"

"Sure I can!" and Davy rolled up his sleeve. The Ticklemouse stepped between the boys and said a few words in the native tongue.

"Go ahead, laddie. Dorfy and I will stay and teach the animals their A B C's."

The python, Kan, a monstrous diamond-headed snake, with scales all the colors of the rainbow, joined Mowgli and Davy in the pool. Before he frolicked about, carrying them on his back while he dived through the water, diving when the boys least expected it and tumbling them suddenly off on the grassy bank after their ducking.

While they were getting their breath the old Baloo, the brown bear, deserted the A B C class and shamingly good-naturedly, he said, as he patted them with his soft, furry paw.

And Why Not Now, Buy Wall Papers

WHEN THEY ARE SELLING LESS THAN THE ACTUAL COST OF PRODUCTION.

MANY people this week were more than surprised at the remarkable bargains they picked up at this sensational sale of wall papers. As a matter of fact the bargains offered were really stronger than we had represented them in our announcements.

The sale still continues, with some thirty thousand rolls to choose from. Just as fast as a large extra staff can bundle them up the piles are reducing and wagons are busy delivering them to their new owners. And it is only natural, for never before in the history of this, or any other house in Calgary, have wall papers of equal merit been sold so low.

Merchants have remarked that we are losing on such a sale, and that such prices are away below market value. Certainly they are. If it were not for the fact that the management have decided to discontinue the wall paper business on account of insufficient space (at least for the present), and also that they do not intend wall papers to appear on the inventory sheets, you may be sure prices could never be so ridiculously low. Imagine getting sufficient wall paper of splendid quality and newest design to cover a room, say 10 by 12, for Seventy-five cents. Wall paper that would cost in the usual way from $3.00 to $5.00. And one dollar for a bundle sufficient to do rooms 12 by 14 feet, and worth ordinarily from $4.00 to $9.00 the bundle. Moreover, the bundles we are offering for rooms 14 by 16 at one-fifty the bundle contain from seven-fifty to fifteen dollars' worth of the best papers procurable. Do you wonder then at the busy days we have already had.

An extra special during this remarkable wall paper sale is an offer of about 2,000 or more varnished papers in a variety of the most suitable designs and patterns for kitchens, bathrooms, etc., regular 50c roll.

KEEPING THE SCRIP WITHIN DUE BOUNDS

Various Attempts to Widen the Privilege Which Were Not Accepted by Mr. Oliver

(Special Correspondence). Ottawa, May 9.—The government measure of Minister of the Interior Frank Oliver, to extend the life of South African volunteer bounty land scrip was provocative of considerable interesting discussion, an outstanding aspect of which has been to reveal a disposition on the part of the opposition, to make some political capital by insinuating that the bill was designed to benefit speculators in the scrip while those who had most pronouncedly in expressing indignation over such procedure were first and fought strenuously to open the act which the bill proposed to amend, so as to extend the benefits of its provisions to sundry persons, even to the Halifax garrison whom it was never even proposed to take to South Africa.

When the bill came up in committee of the whole, Mr. Turill offered an amendment to provide that a person who had made a location and wished to change it, might abandon the first location and make one re-location. Then came an assault from various opposition members on the government for permitting speculators to enjoy the same right of extension of time as actual locators, and Mr. Doherty offered an amendment to exclude persons who had acquired scrip for speculative purposes from benefiting by the extension.

To Loosen the Claims Mr. Barker (Conservative) proposed an amendment to permit locators to satisfy settlement duties by hiring another person to perform them. Mr. Hughes offered an amendment to provide that a person who served in South Africa, but who was not enlisted, might enjoy the rights of the act. Mr. Sharpe proposed to extend the benefits of the act to civil surgeons who served in the field, and to the heirs of volunteers who died en route to South Africa.

Mr. Herron wanted the act to extend to volunteers who were not in the field because of injuries sustained while on duty. Owing to the number of proposals to amend, the minister asked that the bill lay over until he could take them into consideration and presented his reasons for rejecting all of them.

Answering Mr. Turill's proposal, the minister said volunteer scrip should not be treated different from half breed scrip. He could not accept it for this reason and the further reasons that it would in effect be granting six months further extension to the speculative holder and that it would be unfair to the ordinary settler taking part in a land rush. Purchasers of scrip did not need to care whether the holder made a good selection, and it was in all interests desirable that rushes be minimized.

Answering the amendment to exclude speculators from the benefits of the extension of time, the minister said that the foundation principle of the act in first passed, and to the substitute or buyer of scrip on an equal footing with the original holder in order that the original holder might benefit by getting the highest value for his scrip. Purchasers bought in the belief that this principle having been affirmed by parliament, would be adhered to and this belief was further warranted by the action of parliament in dealing with the scrip of 1885, which had been given several extensions of time.

The Oxford-Cambridge Boat Race Pictures will be put on as an "Extra" (by special request) at the Starland Theater today

And if he, why not the man who was ready and willing to go as in the case of the Halifax garrison which had been assigned by Mr. Crozier, but not offered as an amendment.

Heaviness at Pit of the Stomach

A Feeling of Uneasiness Before and After Meals is Quickly Cured With Nerviline.

Nearly everyone gets an occasional attack of indigestion and knows just what that heavy feeling means in the stomach. It was subject to stomach troubles and my health was seriously hampered on this account. After meals I belched gas, had a weighty sensation in my stomach and got my left side. The first relief I got was from Nerviline—I used it three times a day and was cured. I continue to use Nerviline occasionally, and find it is a wonderful relief to the stomach and digestive organs.

NERVILINE RESTORES WEAK STOMACHS

The above letter comes from Mrs. P. R. Stetson, with an important merchant in Brockton, and still further proof of the exceptional power of Nerviline is furnished by E. Rossman, the well-known upholsterer of Chelsea, who writes: "Let everyone with a bad stomach use Nerviline, and I am sure there will be few sufferers left. I used it to relieve my stomach, and it cured me of my stomach and severe fits of indigestion. Nerviline was the only remedy that gave me relief, and I found it so entirely satisfactory that I would like to have my letter of recommendation published broadcast in order that others may profit by my experience."

THE OLD-FASHIONED GIRL "Modest Violet" Type is Being Revived by Dressmakers' Skill

A melodious whisper, indescribably sweet, exquisite as the breathing of an angel's song, falls through the bright air of spring to the effect that there is to be a revival of an old-fashioned high-waisted, long-skirted type to be cultivated again! The cowboy and the roustabout manners are to be declassified, the over-the-fence and up-the-tree types are to pass with the buzzsaw and the saw of women make it impossible for women to sprawl on chairs or march with an Amazonian stride and yet retain any simulation of grace or refinement.

Lyric Theatre. The last performance of "The Marked Ball" will be given tonight by the Eckhardt company at the Lyric theatre. The piece has proven a source of much amusement to theatre-going folks who like farce comedy. Commencing Thursday night and continuing Friday, Saturday matinee and night the farce comedy "Are You an Old Fellow?" will be given a clever production.

Starland. A startling and thrilling western drama, one of the greatest yet and woolly west pictures ever shown at Starland, has been included in the change of program for today, which is made up of brand new pictures, with the exception of the famous Oxford vs. Cambridge 1910 boat race, which will be exhibited by request again. This time as an extra and in addition to the regular program. The song, "Things On My Fingers and Bells On My Toes" was so much liked that Mr. Graham has decided to keep the catchy attraction for another day or two. Despite the sudden change in the weather, quite a number of people turned out to see the extra matinee pictures, which are proving quite a success.

THE PASSING OF THE RANGE IN SOUTHERN ALBERTA. Another Big Ranch Property Being Divided Into Farm Property. Howell Harris, manager of the Circle ranch, was in the city yesterday on his return to Lethbridge from a visit to the ranch. Mr. Harris moved most of the company's stock last fall from the range at Queenstown, south of Calgary, to its new range on Red Deer, north of Brooks, and will move the balance next month.

The Queenstown range will then be subdivided and disposed of for farming lands. Most of it is well adapted for grain raising, and Mr. Harris says that last year he threshed 90 bushels of first class oats per acre from land that had been cropped continuously to oats for the past 21 years. In that time there was only one crop failure.

The cattle came through the winter in excellent condition, and are in fine shape for putting on flesh during the summer months.

CROPS NOT SUFFERING YET FOR WANT OF RAIN. Mr. Hornby Has Been Making a Trip Out Carstairs' Way. James A. Hornby returned last night from a trip through the country for 35 miles west of Carstairs. To the Alberta, Mr. Hornby stated last night that the crops in the country through which he passed were looking fine and as yet are not suffering from lack of moisture, although a good warm rain would bring them along more rapidly. Most of the spring sown grain is up and looks green and fresh. Fall wheat looks well and gives every appearance of being a good average crop.

ONTARIO CROP REPORTS ARE VERY FAVORABLE

Prices for all kinds of Live Stock Are Very High

LESS DAMAGE THAN IN FORMER YEARS

Should Ordinary Fair Conditions Prevail Province Will Have Good Crop This Year

Toronto, Ont., May 10.—The Ontario department of agriculture has issued the following statement regarding agricultural conditions at the beginning of May:

Fall Wheat—This crop entered into May well forward, and presenting a good appearance on the whole, more especially where it had been sown in early. Some late sown fields looked rather thin, owing to the dry fall, on low lying places there were bare spots, caused by ice forming during the winter. Barley or other spring grain was sown on the patchy places in preference to replowing; loss of the latter being a tendency to thin many fields, but injury to the crop from frost was practically nil; in fact, the usual spring month of March was, if anything, better than the growing period.

The rainy weather of the latter half of April gave the crop a fresh start, and although some had fear of "drowning out" in low places, it was quite vigorous looking at last accounts. The injury from insect-pests is less than usual, there being but scattering of locusts in Ontario, by wire worm and white grub.

Winter Rye—The acreage of this crop is small, but where grown it is reported to be in good condition generally.

Clover—Like fall wheat, clover wintered well, and the spring was also favorable, there being practically no loss of clover in the province. The crop suffered more from last season's growth than from anything else. This year, however, the growing period was especially in the case of new meadows, and clover is expected to be very vigorous with the promise of a good yield should ordinary fair conditions prevail.

Live Stock—All classes of live stock are at present in good condition. Prices are high and firm, attributed by some to the great demand from the western provinces. Their general health is good, except for a form of strangles.

Cattle have been remarkably free from disease, but are rather thin in flesh, owing to what is called "close feeding." Fat cattle are very scarce, and stockers are harder to procure than in former years, while in consequence a good deal of inferior beef has been disposed of at good prices.

Sheep are doing well, lambs now coming strong and plentiful in proportion to the number of rams. High prices exist for good quality, but swine are not as plentiful as in former years, as they have been rushed to market at prices characterized by one correspondent as "sky high."

In fact, there are complaints of too hasty marketing.

LETHBRIDGE VERY ACTIVE AND EVERYTHING BOOMING. Prospects for a Busy and Prosperous Season Were Never Better.

Norman T. MacLeod, of Lethbridge, spent yesterday in Calgary on a business visit. Mr. MacLeod reported that business in Lethbridge is very brisk at present and real estate is active and property is changing hands rapidly at good prices. The carpenters' strike this spring, which lasted for about a month, delayed building operations somewhat, but the difficulty has been amicably settled and building operations have proceeded with renewed activity. The prospects for a very busy and prosperous year in Lethbridge, he said, were never brighter in the history of the city.

Winnipeg Markets. Winnipeg, Man., May 10.—Local markets opened higher in sympathy with Minneapolis, which opened 1-4 cent above yesterday, but values declined 1-2 to 3-4 cent on receipt of lower cables, which forced shorts to cover, and values steadily declined. Cables opened weak on pressure at heavy offerings, causing a sag in both American and local markets.

Very little trading was done and there was little demand for either cash grades or options.

All American markets closed one cent below yesterday, local markets closing 1-4 to 1-2 below yesterday's close.

Cash oats were in little demand, and closed 1-4 cent lower.

Cash and July flax went up two cents.

Liverpool, May 10.—Droomhall: Wheat opened weak under pressure of heavy offerings and profit taking, stimulated by lower American cables and bearish construction placed upon the government report in America. Following the opening, prices further declined 1-4 to 1-2, with a very poor enquiry for parcels and weakness in spot markets.

Just before midday a steeper under-tone developed and prices reacted from the extreme decline. Support at this time was due to fears of over-selling owing to less favorable weather and heavy decrease in European visible. At midday the market was weak, 1-8 to 1-4 higher than the low, and 1-4 to 1-2 lower than yesterday.

Corn futures: European visible wheat decreased $380,000, and amounts to $8,144,000, against $9,224,000 last week. Last week there was a decrease of $4,000, and a year ago a decrease of $3,000,000, when the total amounted to $2,800,000.

PUPILS TO ATTEND GENERAL SERVICE

Director Sisco was appointed to see the city commissioners to ascertain if school caretakers could not be given permission to "sprinkle" school premises between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. during which time no one is supposed to be in the school.

It was asserted that caretakers have no opportunity to sprinkle during the prescribed hours.

Superintendent Scott read the following report:

The statistical report for the month of April shows that there were 2,777 pupils in the schools of the city during the month, 2,999 in the public schools and 1,918 in the high school. One of the striking peculiarities of the school attendance in Calgary is, very well illustrated by the record for the month of April; 155 new pupils were admitted to the public schools and the total attendance was 77 more than in March.

Montreal, May 10.—Droomhall: Wheat opened weak under pressure of heavy offerings and profit taking, stimulated by lower American cables and bearish construction placed upon the government report in America. Following the opening, prices further declined 1-4 to 1-2, with a very poor enquiry for parcels and weakness in spot markets.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING FEW HANDFULS OF HAY

Complaints Have Been Made That Loads Decrease During Night

Arrested for stealing a few handfuls of hay is the rather pathetic plight in which George Evans, a young married man with a large family, found himself last night.

Evans, who lives near the hay market, had been out gathering up loose hay on the market grounds and stuffing it into a sack. He passed a lead of hay and helped himself to two or three handfuls, when an officer approached and placed him under arrest.

For some time complaints have been made that loads of hay, weighed late in the evening on the city scales, and left standing in the market over night, decreased considerably in weight through various residents of that portion of the city helping themselves to small quantities.

Evans is, in rather destitute circumstances, the youngest of his family being only two weeks old. He has been keeping a horse to help him earn bread for his family and could not afford to buy feed, depending on what he could gather up of the scattered hay.

He will be given a hearing before the magistrat's this morning.

HYDE MAKES DENIAL MOST DRAMATICALLY

Kansas City Doctor Explains Many of the Suspicious Incidents Connected With the Killings.

Kansas City, Mo., May 10.—In concluding his testimony in his own behalf, Dr. Hyde, who has been on trial several weeks charged with poisoning Colonel J. H. Swope, today dramatically denied that he had ever killed anyone.

"Asked about cyanide, to which poison the death of Colonel Swope was attributed, Dr. Hyde admitted he bought it of a local druggist.

"What were you going to do with the cyanide?" asked his lawyer.

"I was going to use it to kill vermin. The soiled towels in my office attracted roaches and bugs—and as I took the towels home every Saturday night, I wanted them free from insects as possible. I also used the dry cyanide to sprinkle on towels when they were spotted with blood, and in cleaning nitrate of silver stains. The reason I had the drug in capsules was because it is a volatile poison and this was a convenient form in which to have it put up to keep it from wasting."

"Was any of this cyanide ever given to any human being?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever give Margaret, Colonel or Christian Swope any poison, except for medical purposes?"

"I never gave poison to anyone for any other than medical purposes."

"Did you throw away capsules of any kind in a street in Independence on last December 18?"

"I did not."

DEVICE THAT WILL AID HELMSMEN

Invention Will Record At All Times How Ship's Course is Being Kept

London, May 10.—When the skipper of a steamship, be it either a common tramp or a swifter liner, happens to look astern of his ship and sees that a "drunken" course is being steered, he, of course, wants to know the cause of the error. At the wheel, "what he means by writing his name on the ocean," if the steering is lax when the "old man" is on the bridge, what, one might say, must be when that monarch is taking his afternoon siesta in his bunk? If the steering is bad on a long voyage, the chief engineer also wants to know all about it, for the reason that his allotted tons of coal are running alarmingly short.

Good steering, even with the skipper in his bunk, should now be assured even in the poorest manned tramp, from what one hears regarding the joint invention of two New Zealanders, both of whom were at one time steamship officers.

One of them, Mr. Risel, is reported to have already experimented with a rough and ready contrivance, mounted on board ship with marked success, so much so that when the vessel was in her dock and as the officer of the deck was making his rounds, a gangway, a quartermaster unctiously asked:

"Are you coming with us next trip, sir?"

"No," was the answer.

"Thank the Lord!" said the quartermaster, fervently.

The quartermaster's steering had been automatically recorded and gave him little credit for his prowess.

By this invention the fact of a vessel deviating from the true set course is recorded, and an alarm bell rings when such deviation exceeds a certain pre-arranged limit. Should the vessel be held off her course for such period of time as the master may consider dangerous or expensive, or should the vessel, by repeated deviations, eventually reach this limit, not only will the deviation be recorded, but the alarm bell will ring, and if the skipper is asleep it will wake him up and bring him to the bridge to "say a few words."

Before he goes below the captain can set the instrument to alarm him at whatever deviation he likes. He can set it fairly wide or narrow, and if the limit is not reached he had only to look at the indicator to see by the way the pen has travelled how the steering has been in his absence.

SEA BOTTOM TO BE PROBED

New Scientific Expedition to Search in North America

London, May 9.—Curious tales of the sea were related at a dinner given by the Atlantic Union over which Lord Kinnaird presided. The guests of the evening were Sir John Murray and a number of officers who have left Plymouth in the Michael Sars on a scientific expedition to the North Atlantic.

In speaking about the marvels of oceanography, Sir John mentioned, for example, the fact that an enormous number of creatures at the bottom of the sea have the power of producing their own light.

When some of these are hauled up and placed on deck their displays of phosphorescence are something wonderful. This, Sir John said, was one of the problems which scientists had yet to solve.

KING IS BUSINESS MAN

His Majesty of Sweden Pays Close Attention to Royal Duties

Copenhagen, May 9.—The recent illness of the king of Sweden has served to direct attention to a monarch who remains singularly in the background. He does this by his own desire, since he has a horror of anything approaching publicity and shuns it whenever possible.

For this reason the Swedish court is often described—somehow incorrectly, however—as the dulliest in Europe. At the time that the present crown prince of Sweden was married to Princess Margaret of Connaught, it was with the greatest difficulty that King Gustavus could be induced to visit England at all, and then he sought to slip into St. George's chapel unobserved, and without attendance. This, however, much to his dismay, was found could not be permitted, and he has often declared that that day was the most miserable he has ever spent.

King Gustavus is, however, a very good man of business, and is always introducing new ideas for simplifying his work and enabling him to devote more time to forwarding the interests of his country. His rooms in the old royal palace of Stockholm are more like the offices of a successful business man than the home of a reigning sovereign, and he spends most of his time in these rooms, dealing with matters of detail that most monarchs are content to leave to their subordinates.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Mr. M. Williams's Rheumatism.

He took the terrible disease in time and a single box made him a well man.

South Ingonish, Cape Breton, May 10.—(Special)—How easily and quickly Dodd's Kidney Pills banish Rheumatism and other symptoms of Kidney Disease is well known in the case of Michael C. Williams, a fisherman living in this place.

"My Kidney disease started from a strain," Mr. Williams says, "and I suffered from it for about three months. I had backache, stiffness in the joints and Rheumatism. When I got up in the morning, I had a bad taste in my mouth; I perspired freely with the least exertion, and I was always tired and nervous."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me and I believe they will cure others who are suffering from Kidney Disease."

"I have had any two of the symptoms mentioned by Mr. Williams, and I am sure of two things. One is that your kidneys are sick, and the other that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure you."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have proved in thousands of cases all over Canada that they never fail to cure Kidney Disease of any kind or stage.

MOODS DEPENDING MUCH ON COLOR OF GOWN

Leader of Latest "Ism" in the United States Exounds Her Novel Theories

New York, May 10.—Is your mind a triangle, a double triangle, a square, a circle, or a key to the infinite? If you don't know the answer, only Mrs. Adele Morse Rique can tell you, for the tall and stately person who answers to that very Gallic cognomen—pronounced in two syllables, like a very American drink—is the counsel and speculator of the latest thing in outfits or occults—the temple of universal freedom, if you are a triangle, you think only of three things—food, clothing and shelter. If a double triangle, you have aspirations for higher things, but they cross your more primitive instincts, instead of being harmonious with them, as in the case of human squares and circles.

The high priestess of the new "ism" to attract public attention thinks that a law of attraction and repulsion is merely one of smelling.

"So many women," she observed, while expounding her novel theory, "are puzzled because while they like certain men when they are around, they forget all about them when they are away. Others on the other hand will say, 'When I'm with him he separates me, but when I am away I care for him.' These are cases where mental and personal attraction are not properly balanced. The real test of attraction," she added solemnly, "is smell."

"But clean people don't smell," was suggested.

"Oh, yes, they do," affirmed the exponent of odorology. "Each individual has a personal odor, which is strongest in moments of great happiness or great danger. At these times the 800,000,000 air cells of the body are thrown wide open, and the personal exhalation is most manifest."

"Every human being has not only a personal smell, but also should select a personal perfume, a personal color and a personal flower."

"Certain people should require certain colors," continued the odorologist, earnestly, "and you can bring about certain moods in yourself or drive others away by changing your gown to one of another shade."

Troubled With Backache For Years.

Now Completely Cured by the Use of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Thousands of women suffer untold misery every day with aching backs that really have no business to ache.

Backache is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way they have cured thousands of others, and they cure to stay cured.

Mrs. W. C. Doan, 13 Brighton St., London, Ont., writes:—"It is with pleasure that I thank you for the good your Doan's Kidney Pills have done me. I have been troubled with backache for years. Nothing helped me until a friend brought me a box of your Kidney Pills. I began to take them and took four boxes, and am glad to say that I am cured entirely and can do all my own work and feel as good as I used to before taken sick. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all you claim them to be, and advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial."

Owners of Bridgeland Lots PLEASE TAKE NOTICE

(1) That a few owners are offering Bridgeland lots at a price around $900.00, which is altogether too low. Any Bridgeland lot that is 4 1/2 feet wide is worth $1,900. Any owner selling below this is giving property away.

(2) Eighteen blocks of sewer and water go into Bridgeland this year. This will begin in two weeks. Now look! Lots twenty-five feet wide, with sewer and water, high and dry like Bridgeland lots in all other directions are selling at $800 each, that is $24.00 per foot, and at that price 4 1/2 feet are worth $1,065.

(3) Remember, 4 1/2 feet is just five and one-half feet short of two twenty-foot lots. The average person simply thinks of Bridgeland lots as being like most others, viz: twenty-five feet wide, but building lots inside the mile circle are getting very scarce now and soon every one will learn to count the real value of every foot in these big lots. See that you get money for each foot. Bridgeland lots will bring $1,000 each very soon.

(4) Hold your Bridgeland lots. Don't compare them at all with the speculative property from two to five miles out. You can get a loan any time on Bridgeland property. Hold on and get your price. You are absolutely safe to hold the property, because every lot will be needed for someone's house soon.

(5) There is still a very good chance that certain railroad development will double the price of every foot in Bridgeland. Better hold and get the benefit of this good chance.

(6) The City Engineer has definitely recommended two street railway lines to be laid practically all through and all around Bridgeland this year. Calgary does not have to wait for electric power for this. It has power now for the Bridgeland extension. Bridgeland cars will be first. Bridgeland lots are good to buy and good to hold. Don't sell till you get your price.

NEW SOVEREIGN, BUT SAME CONDITIONS

The Battle Against the Lords Will Proceed Despite the New Sovereign On the Throne.

London, May 10.—King George has been proclaimed and flags fly once again full mast high. Politicians are commencing the next steps in the constitutional crisis.

The Daily News, speaking as a Ministerial paper, assumes that the position is unalterable by the change of sovereigns, but opposition journals, like the Morning Post, declare it is impossible to believe that ministers or ex-ministers will tolerate subjection of the new King on the threshold of his reign to worries inseparable from the constitutional struggle which clouded the last weeks of King Edward's life. Hence the suggestion, which many leading men on both sides support, for an armistice on the constitutional question for the present year, and devolution of the remainder of the session to the budget of 1910 and settlement of the civil list.

Seeing the intimate daily confidences between King Edward and his son on public affairs, King George is expected to use his influence, as his father would have done, to secure a compromise on the veto, by which the lords would accept the abolition of their financial veto after the general election or referendum, and accept the limitation of the terms of parliament to five years.

The present mood of the public is certainly opposed to subject the business interest of the people to another early general election or unnecessary prolongation of the political crisis.

Mr. Roosevelt in Germany.

Barlin, May 10.—Col. Roosevelt arrived in this city this afternoon from Sweden. He was met at the railroad station by the secretary of foreign affairs on behalf of the Emperor, the staff of the American Embassy, and many members of the American colony.

The Greatest Subdivision--Many Reasons Why

1. This subdivision is located closest to the proposed junction of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern Railroads.
2. This sub-division overlooks and is within two minutes walk of the C. P. R. Industrial Sub-division.
3. This sub-division is the closest of all additions to where the proposed railroad shops will be built.
4. Harvetta Heights lots are as level as a board, only one small ravine in the entire addition, and through this ravine runs a street, so that we can say there is not one lot which is not desirable to the purchaser.

5. The proposed Chestermere Lake car line will either pass this subdivision or within a very short distance of it.
6. The proposed bridge over the Bow River will place Harvetta Heights within 2 miles of the heart of the city.
7. The wonderful view from Harvetta Heights cannot be equalled in the City of Calgary. You can overlook the entire city in addition to having a beautiful view of the mountains.
8. HARVETTA HEIGHTS, being high and dry, makes it a very healthy place in which to live.

The way to get things coming your way is never wait until the other fellow takes advantage of your opportunity. Success will come to you if you go after things others are waiting for. Now, in offering you Harvetta Heights lots there is just one point we cannot impress upon you too strongly, and that is, the advantage of securing one or more of these beautiful lots NOW. Here are the reasons why you should buy in Harvetta Heights, and we know you will say our enthusiasm is justified when you see this beautiful addition, where there is a combination of advantages and facilities that are unequalled by any other addition offered the investing public. Harvetta Heights is view property, the best and most desirable kind. It is high and dry, offering a splendid view of the city and the beauties of the surrounding country. The Chestermere Lake car line will add to the value of the property. The proposed railroad junction, car shops and the C.P.R. Industrial Subdivision, make this property at the present time worth twice what we ask for it.

Harvetta Heights

Just now during this special sale veritable bargains are going in this exclusively high-grade real estate. Only $25 down and $10 a month secures you a lot in Harvetta Heights. The East Side is "Due." You who have speculated understand what "Due" means. There will be something doing in the way of profits. There is a good reason for this. All other parts of Calgary have been booming, and prices pushed up notch by notch. The East side has not been notched up yet. It will be, not by booming, but by natural growth. You are invited to participate in a profitable notching up process. Of course it is the pleasure of every agent to show real estate, but think what satisfaction there is in exhibiting this rare and wonderful beauty spot, marvellously situated, lavishly adorned by nature's own handiwork, and embellished for practical use by the human agency of industry and money. Come let us show you Harvetta Heights, a place to live. Come and see whether we have been "over telling it." Most people say we have been quite too modest in our presentation.

Invest in this property as an investment or a home, either way you will make money. You don't have to live in Calgary to take advantage of this opportunity, and there may be people who would not live here if they were made a present of the city. At least, they talk that way. If one is not used to the hurry, crushing money mad throngs they will prefer to live elsewhere. However, there are thirty-five or forty thousand people who live here, either by choice or because of the opportunity offered them for making money. You can live where you like and invest your money in Calgary, where every reason teaches will not only prove a safe investment, but will increase in value by leaps and bounds within the next few years. More money can be made in Calgary, and especially in Harvetta Heights, than can be made elsewhere. Think this over carefully and you will be convinced in your own mind that what has been said is true and the only thing for you to do is ACT. Remember the lots we offer you are in East Calgary, the part of your city which is advancing most rapidly. The prices are right, our terms are easy. Take advantage of the many opportunities we offer.

We have talked a lot about Harvetta Heights, about its beauty, about the wonderful view, and about the chances to make money in this Subdivision. If we can induce you to give us one hour of your time we will take you over the entire Subdivision and leave it to you as to whether we have the best proposition to offer in the city of Calgary. We know you will feel just as we do about it and we have every reason to be enthusiastic from many points of view. Money in the Bank at three per cent. is a sure proposition, first mortgages at eight per cent. are a good proposition, but money in Harvetta Heights at one hundred per cent. is sure and safe, and the best proposition. We have shown many people Harvetta Heights, and they are now waiting anxiously until the sale of lots opens, so that they may have a chance to invest in a sure money-making subdivision. Opportunity knocks once at every man's door. It is now knocking at yours. Open the door and you are on the road to success. "Nuf said." We will be glad to see you at our office or on Harvetta Heights grounds.

RAPID GROWTH OF TOWN OF CARLSTADT

Natural Gas
A natural gas well was sunk about fifteen years ago adjoining the present townsite of Carlstadt and an abundant supply was struck at a depth of 500 feet. Gas has been coming out of this hole ever since. For a considerable time the gas was allowed to burn but as it was close to the railway track, the light was confusing to trainmen being mistaken for the headlights of an approaching engine and it was extinguished. The citizens expect to procure a supply of gas from this well for lighting and heating purposes and if the railway company refuse to supply them, another well will be sunk by the town.

Although coal is known to exist in many places in the district the fuel supply has to be shipped in by rail, or hauled 25 miles from the mines north of the town and the development of the gas supply existing right in the town limits would greatly cheapen the cost of both fuel and light. "If Carlstadt is ever to be the town we expect it to be," said one citizen "we must develop this great natural resource, and that at an early date."

Water Supply
A start is being made to solve the

Everyone Thought She Was Going Into Consumption.

Gained Ten Pounds in Two Weeks by the Use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

Ms. Fred. Biggs, Kingston, Ont., writes:—"I was completely run down, my blood was out of order, and I used to get so weak I would be compelled to stay in bed for weeks at a time. I could not eat, was pale and thin; every one thought I was going into consumption. I tried everything and different doctors until a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have one bottle used when my appetite began to improve. I used six bottles. I gained ten pounds in two weeks. When I began to take it I only weighed ninety-three pounds. It just seemed to pull me from the grave as I never expected to be strong again. I will tell every sufferer of your wonderful medicine."

The blood reaches every portion of the body to distribute nutriment and remove effete matter and waste products. Clearly then, any influence, good or bad, affecting the blood, must necessarily affect the entire system for good or evil as the case may be.
Get pure blood and keep it pure by removing every trace of impure morbid matter from the system by using Burdock Blood Bitters. It exerts a curative influence, unapproached by any other remedy.

water problem and a well borer will start operations this week. Good water can be got throughout the district at a depth varying from 25 ft. to 30 ft. It is proposed to raise money by public subscription to defray the cost of sinking a town well to a depth of 120 feet. A number of private individuals will sink wells this summer for their own use. There is plenty of good water to be had by digging for it.

Centre of Homestead Lands
The town of Carlstadt is located 40 miles south of the Red Deer river and 20 miles north of the Bow river. The Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation block comes to within a mile and a half of the town on the west and the Southern Alberta Land Co.'s tract to 4-1/2 miles on the east. The country for six miles south and north to the Red Deer river was thrown open for homesteading on December 7, 1898, and has been all located for 25 miles north. There is however plenty of homestead land still remaining to be entered for from 35 to 49 miles north of Carlstadt and settlers are coming in very rapidly. The opening of the land office in Medicine Hat is a great convenience as formerly intending homesteaders were forced to go to Lethbridge to make entry for their land.

Superior Class of Settlers
It is estimated that fully four-fifths of the settlers in the Carlstadt district are from the United States, principally from the Dakotas and Minnesota. Of these fully one half are of Scandinavian origin, Danes, Norwegians and Swedes. They are a very fine class of settlers and are just the kind of people required to develop a new country. They are sober, thrifty and industrious and understand the conditions of pioneer life on the prairie. Nearly all of them brought sufficient money with them to purchase the necessary equipment for commencing farming operations and they pay cash for everything they purchase. "It is a pleasure to do business with them," said a business man to me, "they ask for what they want and pay the cash without quibbling about the price."

That they were prosperous farmers in the country which they left, is evidenced in the manner in which they are starting out to farm in their new homes. They are well supplied with stock and implements and many of the houses that are being built on their homesteads would be a credit to any old settled community.

In addition to those who were fortunate enough to secure homesteads and pre-emptions within reasonable distance of the town, a considerable number preferred to purchase C. P. R. lands rather than go further away to secure homesteads. A considerable number of new settlers have also gone into the country north of the Red Deer river over the ferry 60 miles north-east of Carlstadt.

The Carlstadt District

Very little land in the Carlstadt district was broken last year as most of the settlers only filled on their land last summer but a large amount will be broken this summer and the land prepared for next season's crop. There are at the present time ten steam plow outfits at work in the district in addition to scores of horse power outfits, and it is estimated that from 15,000 to 18,000 acres will be broken in the country tributary to Carlstadt this season and likely more if rain comes soon to soften the ground. Every settler is having as much land broken as possible, so that he may be able to commence growing crops. They are not at all discouraged by the lack of moisture this spring, and say that they often experienced drier seasons than this in Dakota and Minnesota and have the fullest confidence that the required moisture will come in due time. "A country that will grow such crops of wild grass," said one of the new farmers to me, "will grow good crops of grain if properly cultivated and as far as I am concerned I have not the slightest doubt but that farming will be a success here." Without exception, every one of the newcomers with whom I talked during my visit to this section of Alberta expressed himself as being well pleased with the treatment received from the Dominion government officials in making their entries for land.

Wheat, oats, barley and flax will be the staple products of the district, for which the soil appears to be specially adapted. There is besides a large area of land in the two irrigation tracts tributary to the town of Carlstadt, that will be brought under cultivation as soon as the irrigation ditches are constructed to bring the water from the Bow river on which alfalfa, sugar beets and other branches of intensive farming will be carried on and add greatly to the future prosperity of the town.

After studying the resources of the surrounding district and seeing the class of settlers with which it is being settled and the energy and enterprise of its citizens, one cannot fail to come to the conclusion that at Carlstadt are being laid the foundations of a progressive business center for a rich and prosperous district.
