FORTY MEN PRISONERS

Machine Was Completely Wrecked When It Fell on the Beach.

NORTH OF FRANCE, via Lond BASLE, May 17.—Basic continues the centre of a German spy system. The German consul here runs a regular press agency which is merely a branch of the German legation at Berne, and German espionage is carried on here on exactly the same lines as the work of Bernstorff and Dernburg in the United States. It is significant that the German minister has undoubtedly owes much to the fore-thought of its governor, whose admirable preparations for an aerial raid saved the town from serious damage. The aerial invaders made a desperate attack and when driven off the first time they came back again. The ppelins were continually fired at with shrapnel and were obliged to fly at a great height to avoid being hit.

One Was Winged.

For the time being they escaped in-ized the instant Italv moves, and this is daily expected. All the garrison at Basle is made up of French-speaking troops from Geneva, Lausanne, etc., while German-speaking regiments have been sent to the Italian frontier. It sounds strange to hear "Sambre Et Meuse," "March de Lorraine" and other French martial airs played in the streets of Basle, which seems fully as German as those of Berlin.

All sorts of rumors are afloat conmains the possible violation of Swiss man lines and fell on the beach at Fort Mandick, about two miles from Dunkirk. Forty men on board the craft were taken prisoners, among them seven officers. The machine was completely wrecked. Calais people are positive that some of the gas compartments of the airship were pierced when it passed over the town, the not suftient gas was lost to compel it to descend. A woman and three children are reported killed in the quarter of the town known as Fort Naculay; but relatively little material damage was done considering the scale of the at-tack. Railway communications, which seem to have been the object of attack, were not affected.

Mr. Milligan's petition, which was Running Boards to Be Widened, But No Variation in Plan.

> The study of public feeling will likely decide for Chairman McIntyre of the Ontario Railway Board whether citizens will ride in closed or open cars thruout the summer. His formal decision in this matter is reserved, pending any special appeals, but no change will be made in the present system without some good reason. The city, at

In the meantime the running boards on open cars will have to be widened, according to the board's suggestion, and this will make necessary some minor changes in the system where the tracks are close together. In the Union Station tunnel the tracks will have to be removed from the pillars, and the company proposed that the shift be made two feet. The board will demand than an extra six inches be allowed to ensure safety for the traveling public.

Will Be Little Changed.

The new car plans which have been proposed by the company, and, accord-company, claimed that these were evidently the creation of a man not efficiently drilled in the practices of railway engineering, and endeavored to impress this criticism on the board. Some bickering occurred, Irving Fairty lefending the city plans and asking for action way Men's Union for abolition of the sidestep occasioned some technical discussion, and was laid over for consideration. Argument in this matter has been given several times, and the employes ask the change for safety reasons. The city produced plans of a car avoiding this trouble by employing cross seating and a centre aisle. The engineers of the board, city and company will confer together to see if a workable car could be evolved with this idea in mind.

"Grumpy" is certainly a winner The big audience at Shea's last night were kept in a ripple of laughter practically all the time Cyril Maude was on the stage, and the times when he was not on the stage were strictly limited. The play, which is a clever collaboration from the pens of Horace Hodges and T. Wigney Percival, has a touch of melodrama in it, and there are a couple of exciting scenes which are done with excellent repression, all the more effective on account of the

The diamond robbery, on which the action of the piece turns, is not the main idéa, but merely furnishes a background upon which some good character sketching is done, sur-rounding the full life drawing of the old criminal lawyer, who, delighted to find himself in harness once more and enlisted on behalf of his dearest ones, revives his old-time shrewdness and outwits the thieves. The mistake must not be made of thinking that it is the detective work of the old lawyer that is the attraction, ingenious as this may be. The charm of the comedy lies in the marvelously life-like picture of the selfwilled irritable old man, secure of the affection of his dependents, and good-hearted thru all his irascibility.

The characterization will take its place with many classic representations by the veterans of the British stage. Mr. Maude could not have been excelled by any of them in the work he does in this picture of Mr. Andrew Bullivant. Leafs Had What Looked Like Winning Lead Right Up to the Finish --- Home Team Weak in the Box---Good Crowd Present.

Notwithstanding the chilly atmosphere the 1915 baseball season in Toronto was satisfactorily opened yesterday afternoon Kelly, c. . . . at Hanlan's Point. The attendance was surprising. Owing to war conditions, the hard times and the unfavorable weather, President McCaffery was prepared to welcome a bare handful. Thus his gloomy locks at the outset soon turned to a broad smile that did not wear off the entire afternoon. The opening ceremonies were short but ample. The clouds threatened as His Worship Mayor. Churgh, Sir Allan Aylesworth and Controller Thompson were escorted out upon the green sward.

Red Cross girls were busy disposing of roses. They piled a busy trade and the results of their sales lent more than the usual color to the occasion. Some one blew and every uniformed player or both sides sported a bouquet.

Two Speeches.

Sir Allan and his worship addressed the men after the march past, led by Bandmaster Slatter and his merry 48th. Mayor Tommy lobbed out a couple of slow ones to Controller Joey at the plate, the knight called two strikes and the game was on. The Leafs led right up to the ninth innings and then tossed it away. Richmond netted three the first half of the tenth and Toronto could do nothing, so the enemy carried off the opener 11 to 8. Tim Jordan and two other visitors hit for homers, while Bob Messenger of Toronto did likewise. Jordan and Pick as they came to the plate were accorded the glad hand.

The Leafs landed four at the start by oléan hitting after two hands were down. Russell started operations and was yanked out by Johnny. Dunn after Shechan doubled to the right field fence. Then Andrews went in and Kelly kept up the good work with a stinging single over Arragon for the fourth run.

Nice Start.

Toronto's first man up, our Dutch, not German, Third Baseman Hollander, walked. Brown grounded to Arragon, forcing Graham. Brown stole second. Trout, with two strikes against him, singled to right, seoring Hollander and Brown, and going to second on the return. Sheehan doubled to right centre and Trout trotted home. This was enough for the southpaw, who was replaced by Andrews, a young right hander. Roach was hit by a wild pitch. Kelly singled over second. Sending in Sheehan. On an attempted double steal Roach was caught at the Washington and the part of the most appropriately dressed person outside of his worship the mayor and the peerless president was a lady in a box comfortably snugged up in a long for the Mann. Here the enemy took kindly to Mc-Tigue's southpaw slants and Clymer had to call on Luque to get them out. Pick bunted cleverly towards third, and took second on McTigue's wild throw to first. Bates doubled to left past Trout, scoring Pick. Jordan broke his bat with a grounder to pitcher, who threw him out at first. Hoffman hit into the bleachers in right field, scoring Bates. Arragon walked. This was enough for McTigue. He was replaced by Luque. Krichell fanned. Andrews forced Arragon at second, Sheehan to Roach.

Still in the Lead.

Still the Leafs were in the lead, 5 to 3.

We added two runs in the sixth on a base on balls, Roach's single and Hollander's three-base hit, but Richmond came back with Thm Jordan's home run, and luckily it did not follow Kritchell's single. They added just one more in the seventh, when Crane pushed one into the stand after Andrews struck out. Luque was going great, nevertheless, also striking out Pick in the round, and we looked like winners, leading going into the ninth 7 to 5. But it was not to be.

Rritchell started with a hard rap that Roxy Roach might have handled, but he didn't, and it went for a single. Dunn ran for the slow catcher. Thompson pinch hit for the pitcher and slammed a ball that bounded to the left of Trout for two bases. Crane popped to short and Breckenridge walked, filling the bases. Bates sent a long fly to right centre and one run was in, with Breckenridge held on second. With two out the case still looked hopeful, but Luque walked Jordan and the bases were again crowded. Unlucky Tenth.

Hollander started Toronto's half with a hot one that Morrisette, the new pitcher, deflected to Crane, and the runner was out at first. Messenger pulled one into the stand and the score was tied.

Riddy, the Old Country and Toronto in side left, gave a brilliant exhibition of footwork against Eatons on Saturday. His passing to his partner was an object lesson to players of other teams holding a similar position.

Six good half-backs were on view in the same game, with Baldwin and Taylor perhaps the most aggressive. Billy Givens must know that one of the functions of a half-back is to place the ball to forwards in front of him. His defence is excellent, but his forwards derive little or no benefit from Rugby punting. Givens can do it; he only wants to try.

To Bobbie Muir and the T. & D. Council: Art McNeilly of Eatons is an inside left, not an outside left.

The conduct of the spectators at Eaton's field on Saturday was exemplary.

Sporting Editor World: Regarding the report of the game on Saturday between S.O.S. and British Imperial, which appeared in the soccer page of The Sunday World, I would like to venture a few remarks. The person who gave the report does not seem to know anything about the game, or he exaggerated very much. He states that the S.O.S. missed at least a dozen penalty kicks, whereas there was not one given during the whole game. The Sons of Scotland may be pretty far down, but I don't think there is any use in kicking a man when he is down, as it does not help the game any. Surely no followers of the grand old game would ever deem it possible for a team to miss twelve penalty kicks.

Hackney made his reappearance on Caledonians' team against Overseas Saturday and was easily the best half-back on the field. He is the neatest and most effective half-back in Toronto circles and cannot be overlooked when honors are going.

Those critics that said Rutherford was a spent force had to change their opinions after seeing him play on Saturday. Besides scoring the only goal for his team he did the work of two men and was in no way to blame for Overseas downfall.

Overseas' executive congratulated the Caleys on their victory and wished them success in their endeavors to bring the cup to Toronto. There is keen rivalry between these two clubs. The executives and players are on very friendly terms, tho. The Overseas hope to turn the tables next Saturday in the league game.

Sunderland kept up their reputation of being good cup fighters. That was no mean performance of theirs in beating Queen's Park on Saturday.

Griffiths was in sparkling form on Sat-urday. He taught Jimmy Lowe several new tricks and had a large say in Sunderland's victory.

Sunderland will find some difficulty in filling Teddy May's place at inside left when he leaves for the front. He is a crack shot and if he keeps up his form the Germans are in for a hot time.

Cedarvale F.C. played Robertson F.C. in a Third Division League match at Cedar-vale on Saturday. The game was evenly contested, Cedarvale having a slight margin of the play in their favor. The game ended in a draw of one goal each. Brown in goal, Russell at back and Prior at centre half played well for Cedarvale.

All Hearts players are requested to turn out for a practice game with Cale-donians on Wednesday hight at 6.15 at Caroline avenue and East Queen street.

Overseas, Thistles, Lancashires and Toronto Street Rallway, the four teams playing at the Stadium, have arranged a game with a picked team from Guelph, to be played on the holiday at Varsity Stadium, kick-off at 2.30. The following strong team has been chosen to represent the Stadium select: Goal, Bennett (T.S. The Overseas hope to turn the tables next Saturday in the league game.

The Scottish selectors cannot overlook young McCrone of Overseas for the righ half position on the Scottish team this year. Keen it we make the scottish team the standard or the filters and members to the filters and the officers and members to the day, and the officers and members to the filters when the filters are the filters wounded, are left on the field to die, when with a properly constituted field ambulance, these could be looked after and in many cases saved or from the humane standpoint put out of further have very kindly consented to give the track over to the horsen wounded, are left on the field to die, when with a properly constituted field ambulance, these could be looked after and in many cases saved or from the humane standpoint put out of further have very kindly consented to give the occasionally finds time to have a pot shot at goal. Keep it up Mac.

Clark, Caleys' inside right, is a player of undoubted ability. He has fine command of the ball and dribbles and shoots with precision. His two goals against Overseas on Saturday were very cleverly taken.

Can the T. & D. Council do nothing to stop clubs approaching players of other clubs? It is a disgrace to organized football to have club executives continually on tenterhooks as to what players are likely to leave them at the eleventh hour every Saturday. It is time the T. & D. did something to stop this pilfering.

Bare very kindly, consented to give the track over to the horsemen for the day, and the officers and members of the horsemen, who have horses in training, will put on a patriotic matine, on Friday next, 21st inst., with the three well filled classes.

The horsemen will race their horses for the cause, the lessees will give the track and the officers and members of the club will look after the details. It is hoped that there will be a liberal patronage to this worthy object. The admission to every one will be the small sum of 25c, and it is hoped that a large sum may be realized for such a good cause.

Edward E. Epps & Co., in their weekly market letter, point out that the New York mining division has been influenced by a great deal of unsatisfactory news from Goldfield regarding-a new litigation in progress, which promises to tie up the camp for some time to come. From Tompah word has been received that further litigation will soon be in progress, so that it seems to follow that those who have been giving their attention to the Goldfield and Tonopah stocks must, for their own self-protection, become very cautious, and look to other channels of invesyment that will not be surrounded by such great speculative risk. Quite fortunately, the Canadian mining stocks afford greater protection to the holders of mining securities, and, in view of the satisfactory progress that has lately been made, both in Cobalt and in Porcupine, it is expected that the present situation in the Nevydae stocks will bring about our content of the cobalts of the market will have a quick raily.
