London, Aug. 30.—On the Bainisizza plateau of the Austro-Italian theatre, General Cadorna is giving the Austrians no rest, keeping up his intensive attacks along the entire front. New gains of considerable importance in the general scheme of the Italian commander-in-chief's offensive have been made, and here and there where the Austrians have driven to hold back the Italians or to recapture lost positions, they have been repulsed. More than 500 new prisoners have been taken by the Italians.

AMERICAN CONVOYS REDUCE THE LOSSES FROM SUBMARINES

New Depth Bomb Destroys Many U-Boats—Allies Plan to Increase Patrols in Hundred and Fifty Mile Zone Off German Coast. Washington, Aug. 30.—American naval forces are conveying merchant craft across the Atlantic. It was disclosed officially today at the navy department, and examination of the records show that the loss of convoys ships by submarines has averaged less than one-half of one per cent. Details of the convoy system are withheld. It was stated, however, that American war vessels are regularly escorting fleets of British, French or other allied merchantmen across the protection being supplemented when the danger zone is reached by the destroyers and other patrol craft. American naval officials believe that an effective system for checking the submarine menace is being built up gradually, but certainly. Many devices and many methods enter into the task. Among other things depth bombs are proving effective. Official reports indicate that American destroyers have accounted for several U-boats with these weapons. No announcement of such incidents will be made, however, unless absolute proof of the fact is available. U-Boats Sunk. No U-boat has been captured by the Americans. It is the best judgment of high officials, however, that several have been sunk by Admiral Sims' destroyers, and they are confident today, more confident than ever before, that the submarine menace will be substantially abated as the number of destroyers and other craft available for the work is increased. The effect of the increasing patrol, or the employment of airplanes and of the addition of new devices to the anti-submarine weapons has been to force the U-boats under water to a greater and greater degree. Effectiveness is limited in proportion. They cannot run down a merchant ship of average speed if kept under water. They can operate only against ships that are on the surface. And all the time they are under water they are consuming the stored power of their storage batteries, decreasing their range of un-

CANADIANS NEED MEN TO CONTINUE FIGHTING

Drafts From England Replace Latest Casualties—Recruits Required—Perley Reviews Troops—Sixty-One German Battalions Beaten.

By Stewart Lyon. Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Aug. 30.—Sir George Perley, overseas minister of militia, has been spending a few days at the front. He paid a visit to the Canadian divisions now in the field up to the burden of the recent battle. They marched past, amid a pouring rain, like the veterans they are, with weapons and accoutrements in perfect order, and the light of victory in their eyes. Sir George stated to your correspondent that the losses in the battle of Lens were rapidly being made good from the Canadian depot in England, and that the men still available for reinforcements were of the same excellent material as those who had brought much honor to the Dominion by their victories in the battles of Vimy Ridge and Deques. There was no sign of deterioration either in keenness or fighting qualities of the young Canadians now taking their places in the fighting line. The great problem was to secure from Canada a sufficient number of men to keep the divisions now in the field up to strength. That could only be accomplished by the measure of national service recently adopted at Ottawa. By their splendid valor the men now at the front had earned the right to demand that the people back home should see that the needed support reaches them before the fighting power of the Canadian corps becomes impaired. Construction Men Sought. It is not only in the ranks of the fighting men that the wastage must be made good. Thousands of construction men are needed for the repair of the railways and the maintenance of the roads. (Continued on Page 8, Column 4).

ITALIANS AWAIT GUNS BEFORE MARCHING ON

Infantry of Allies Has Outpaced Lumbering Artillery—British Troops Do Full Share of Fighting in West.

London, Aug. 30.—The past week has been marked by a pause on all the western fronts—a pause which was inevitable after the great success of the previous week, a pause accentuated by the bad weather which affected the operations all the way from the North Sea to the Italian front. Major-General F. E. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war department, in his weekly talk to the Associated Press today, said: "At the moment it is the Italian front where the situation is the most interesting. Here, also, after a really important advance, there now comes a pause, pending the readjustment of the artillery positions. There is much work to be done during these pauses. The problem is whether General Cadorna will be able to get his guns posted for the renewal of the operations before the Austrians get up adequate reserves, some of which are being brought from the Russo-Rumanian front. That is the problem in the pauses in all these battles—the race between the preparations of offence and defence. Wearing-down Process. "In Flanders the process of wearing down the Germans by continuous bombardment, continuous air fighting and continuous infantry raids is being kept up, and is having a far greater effect than the man in the street realizes. "This effect is shown in the constant necessity imposed on the Germans of withdrawing and replacing units. The best way to illustrate this is to refer to the battles of former times in which, as the text books tell us, the first part of the day's battle was an attempt by each side to draw in and exhaust the enemy's reserves, thus preparing for the second phase of the day, namely, the decisive attack. "So we are now in the first phase of the Flanders battle. We are exhausting, with good success, the German reserves; and later will come the decisive attack. (Continued on Page 12, Column 4).

BRITISH GOVERNMENT WILL PURCHASE BACON

Royal Proclamation Prohibits Importation of Butter, Hams, Lard, Except Under License—Single Buying Agency to Act.

London, Aug. 30.—The King today signed a proclamation prohibiting the importation of bacon, butter, hams and lard except under license. The object of this action is to enable the government to take over the entire purchase of the import articles enumerated and concentrate the purchase in various countries into a single organization. The food ministry is establishing in the United States a single buying agency and will make all purchases thru this agency, beginning Sept. 2. All holders at the present time of c.l.f. and f.o.b. contracts in bacon with American firms are required to hand to the food ministry full information immediately. Consignments of Canadian bacon will be under the same restrictions as American goods. A statement issued by the food ministry says: "It should be borne in mind that importers' prices are being determined Kerensky Partially Re-establishes Death Penalty—Will Organize and Discipline Army—Efficiency Will Rule in All Forces.

London, Aug. 30.—At the conclusion of the Moscow conference, Premier Kerensky announced the partial re-establishment of the death penalty as a necessary measure of army discipline, according to the Central News Petrograd correspondent, who quotes the premier as saying: "As minister of justice, I abolished the death penalty, but as minister of war I decided it necessary partially to re-establish it. This re-establishment hurts to the very soul, but for the salvation of the country, we will kill with all our souls. The army must be organized and disciplined, each combatant occupying his proper place and each recognizing his duty as well as his right. "The disciplinary tribunals will be conserved and will receive the authority indispensable for the maintenance of the army as an efficient organization.

BENNETT ATTACKS C.N.R. PURCHASE

Clash Between Calgary Member and White Features Discussion. UNDER CLOSURE RULE Bill is Given Third Reading by a Majority of Seventeen.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—By a vote of 53 to 37 the house of commons, at an early hour this morning, passed the Canadian Northern Bill. The entire sitting was occupied by the debate upon the motion for third reading under the closure rule. This limited each speaker to 20 minutes, and it had the effect of producing a lively and crisp debate. There was some good-natured rally at the expense of those members who found their speeches cut in twain by the descent of the pulpit, but both sides suffered from the rigid application of the rule. For example, Sir Thomas White, who moved the closure, had to sit down before his speech was finished. The feature of the debate was a sharp encounter between R. B. Bennett of Calgary and the minister of finance, Mr. Bennett, who was for the purchase of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, resented bitterly the statements of Sir Robert Borden and Sir Thomas White that the Canadian Northern should not gobble up the Canadian Pacific. Mr. Bennett declared this to be a bogey, brought into the chamber for the purpose of stampeding the house, but the finance minister in reply said there were only two possible purchasers in all Canada for the Canadian Northern Railway. One, he said, was the government, and the other was the C. P. R. The issue before the house was, therefore, the issue of public ownership. This fact was frankly recognized by Mr. Frank B. Carvell, Liberal member for Carleton, N.B., who denounced public ownership as a farce and a fallacy, and therefore opposed the bill. The first division was upon Mr. Pugsley's amendment, which in effect provided that the agreement to be entered into between the government and the Canadian Northern should not come into effect until the award of the arbitrators had been submitted to and approved by parliament. This was voted down by a majority of 53 to 16, while the third reading was carried by a majority of 53 to 36. The feature of the day was a slashing attack by R. B. Bennett of Calgary upon the bill, which was presented to the government. He presented the intimation that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company was behind the opposition. In reply, Mr. Thomas White observed that the issue before the house was that of public ownership, and that the Canadian Northern must

MACROBBIE DEATH STILL A MYSTERY

Rumor Says Provincial Police Have Taken Hand in Hamilton Case.

INQUEST TONIGHT

Fingermarks on Molding Do Not Compare With Those of Witnesses.

Hamilton, Friday, Aug. 31.—That the provincial police had stepped in to help throw some light on the mystery connected with the death of Dr. Douglas MacRobbie, was the information given to the World last night.

All hope of clearing up the mystery by the use of finger prints was shattered yesterday when it was said that a report had been received from the bureau of identification at Ottawa, giving the information that the finger impressions on the piece of molding did not compare with any of those taken by the police and forwarded to Ottawa for comparison.

Exactly what the medical testimony of Dr. Lange and Dr. Parry will be, is much a mystery as how Dr. MacRobbie met his death. His report, however, was presented, as expected, to one of the most complete of its kind ever presented at an inquest in this city.

The often-expressed theory that Dr. MacRobbie suffered from one of the ailments which resulted in his death, during the night, was disproved yesterday by a statement of Dr. Lange and Dr. Parry. They both stated that the body of the doctor was not battered or bruised very much.

A rumor in circulation yesterday was to the effect that one of the crown's star witnesses had been making every effort to appropriate to himself the credit of the case. It was said that the witness was making every effort to appropriate to himself the credit of the case.

Great interest is being taken in the inquest tonight. It is a possibility that the medical testimony will be submitted. While it is not the present intention of the coroner to call Dr. Lange and Dr. Parry, they will likely be put in the box if the evidence of the other witnesses can be taken quickly.

MONTREAL POLICE DISPERSE RIOTERS

Twenty-Five Persons Injured. Shot or Bruised in Demonstration.

WINDOWS SMASHED

Anti-Conscriptionists Fire Revolvers at Charging Bluecoats.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—Four policemen were injured, one man shot thru the left arm, a score or more received cuts and bruises, and windows in half a dozen establishments were smashed tonight when the police and anti-conscriptionist paraders clashed. The trouble started at Phillips square, where a command to disperse the paraders, a police charge and the "ants" broke and fled in various directions. Some of them, however, made a stand, and stones were thrown and some revolver shots were heard, but the police used their batons and won out. Part of the crowd went down Beaver Hill, followed by a score of policemen who were under the impression an attack would be made on the Gazette or Star offices, but the rioters dispersed when they realized the situation.

With cries in French of "down with conscription," the rioters smashed shop windows, street car windows, etc., on Atwater avenue and St. Catharines street prior to their appearance at Phillips square, and they were exceedingly noisy when the police took a hand in the affair.

A party vote, except that Messrs. Turritt, Clark (Red Deer) and Thompson of Qu'Appelle, voted with the government, and Mr. Barrette (Berthier) with the opposition.

BENNETT ATTACKS C.N.R. PURCHASE

declared himself opposed to public ownership. Mr. Nesbitt (North Oxford) thought the high court of parliament should pass upon the value of the C. N. R. stock instead of constituting a court of arbitration. He did not know why the judges were being appointed to all these commissions and arbitrations. The average judge, he said, was usually the ordinary lawyer who had not made much headway practicing law. Mr. Carroll (St. Cape Breton) had nothing to say against Chief Justice Meredith, but failed to see what qualifications he had as an arbitrator on the value of a railway.

If the government wanted its interests looked after why did it not appoint the member for Calgary (Mr. R. B. Bennett) to serve on the board of arbitration? Lev. Thomson (Qu'Appelle) said he favored the bill because he favored public ownership, and he voted for closure because he thought no votes would be cast against Mackenzie & Mann. He said, however, he would support the Pugsley amendment because he did not think Mackenzie & Mann were entitled to any more money.

The debate was continued by Pacaud (Mégantic). Pardee (West Lambton) Copp (Westmorland) who traveled over more or less familiar ground of argument in opposition to the bill. Claimed Undue Haste.

Carvell (Cape Breton, N.E.) said the government was showing undue haste in forcing the bill thru parliament. The government, he said, was bound to do so because the people operating the Canadian Northern because we could not afford to allow its bonds to default. The Dominion Government held a mortgage on the Canadian Northern, but it was a fourth mortgage and therefore Canada had to look out for the previous mortgages. His counsel was to make advances to the Canadian Northern at least until the war was over and then see what could be done. The people operating the Canadian Northern could run it, he said, twice as cheaply as the government. They could get over the next year with $22,000,000 but the government would spend $50,000,000 in the same time if it had possession of the road. Poy-ber upon the government to amend after year we would have deficits on the C. N. R. beside which the annual deficits on the intercolonial would appear insignificant. It was in Mr. Carvell's opinion, a farce and a fallacy to argue that public ownership would give better service or lower rates. It would simply mean in the case of the C. N. R. "debt, debt and more debt."

R. B. Bennett (Calgary) went after the government in slashing style, but in the midst of his speech the hammer fell. The Liberals cheered him through out the expectation that he would declare in favor of the Pugsley amendment, and they were miserably disappointed when the hammer fell. Mr. Bennett showed a disposition to continue, and Mr. Pugsley savagely suggested that he should go on as the gag was only intended for Carvell, but Mr. Speaker retained firm, and some amendments that Mr. Bennett wanted to read were sent across the chamber in the hope that some matter of fact, however, no amendment is allowed at this stage of the closure rule.

Mr. Bennett was exceedingly indignant over the action of the prime minister and the minister of finance in making a "honey out of the Canadian Pacific." He said in the old days cheap politicians in the west worked that honey, but no intelligent politician tried it on an audience any more. The Canadian Pacific, he insisted, did not want the Canadian Northern and would not take it as a gift, although some portions of it they would be glad to acquire at a fair price. Mr. Bennett thought there was no danger of default or receiverships, because Pugsley was a moratorium all over Canada.

Mr. Lemieux: "There is no moratorium in Quebec." Mr. Bennett: "Quebec is not in the war, so she has no need of a moratorium."

Mr. Bennett, however, made the favorite argument for Quebec against the Canadian Northern bill. He said the primary object of that bill was to reorganize the Canadian Northern by spreading the burden of the debts of the Canadian Northern Railway Co. by merely buying certain shares of the capital stock.

Mr. Bennett criticized the way in which the act was drawn, suggesting a number of amendments to make it workable. He said the Canadian Pacific had been dragged into the debate to stampede the house and to give an artificial value to the common stock of the Canadian Northern.

White Answers Bennett. Sir Thomas White made a good speech, but was cut off in the middle of his argument by the closure rule. To the great delight of the opposition, Sir Thomas White made a good speech, but was cut off in the middle of his argument by the closure rule.

A battery of Canadian field artillery was under a concentration of fire from enemy guns. Gunner William MacLean was in an old German gun pit during the bombardment, when a direct hit caused twelve casualties. Wounded in the chest and hand MacLean turned at once to the duty of rescuing those who were in a worse case than himself. One of the victims was pinned down beneath heavy debris, and there was a danger that if left in the position in which he was he could not survive long. A medical officer, who could not reach the spot because of the needs of other wounded, was consulted, and he advised that the victim might be released with great nerve in the smoke-filled gun pit MacLean performed the amputation. He received the military medal for his conduct.

GERMANY PLANNED WAR TWICE BEFORE PRESENT

Enemy Aimed at Hostilities Eight and Four Years Ago.

Petrograd, Aug. 30.—Germany's military preparation was known to the Russian war ministry, and it was also a declaration of war in 1914 and again in 1918, according to testimony given yesterday by General Michelson at the trial of General Soukominoff, former minister of war, for high treason. The witness was the military attaché of the Russian embassy in Berlin from 1906 to 1911. He swore that he had reported Germany's military activity to the Russian war office.

The president of the court asked General Michelson with what power Germany proposed to ally herself in 1913 against Russia. The witness asked permission to reply to the president only and the request was granted.

MASS OF QUEBEC LOYAL TO EMPIRE

New York Newspaper Manager Finds Only Few Malcontents.

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—Louis Wiley, business manager of The New York Times, was the guest at the Winnipeg Canadian Club luncheon in the Royal Alexandra Hotel this afternoon, and spoke of the participation of the United States in the war. He was for some time in Quebec before he came west, and speaking of the opinions he had formed while there, said: "I cannot think that there is any great body of hostile opposition to the president's note to the newspapers. The people must realize that since it is law they must submit to it. Doubtless there is a lot heard of a comparatively few malcontents, but so far as I could gather there are hundreds of truly patriotic and loyal citizens for every one malcontent."

In regard to the position of the United States in the war, Mr. Wiley states that there is now great unanimity among the people towards carrying on the war to a victorious finish. The president's note to the Pope, he said, was the verbal expression of the vast majority of the American people, who have come to admire President Wilson to a much greater extent than in the days prior to America's entry into the war.

Naturally Mr. Wiley has been devoting special interest to the newspaper situation in Canada. It was surprising to him, he said, how the newspapers in the smaller cities and towns were giving such a service of general news, and it was evidence that the people were anxious to be kept informed of what was going on. He doubted if the people in the United

All local dealers seem to be getting their share, and the expectation is that transportation this fall will be much improved. The soft coal situation is said to be about the same as the hard coal situation.

EARLSCOURT WANTS PRICES REGULATED

Citizens' Committee Asks Government to Fight Combines.

EXCESS PROFITS TAX

Well-Known Citizens and Members of City Council Speak.

"That the Dominion Government be requested to impose a 75 per cent. tax on profits during war and to regulate the prices of the necessary commodities of life, thus removing them from the power of speculators and combines, particularly coal."

This resolution was adopted at a capacity meeting of the residents of the Earlscourt district held last night under the auspices of the newly-formed citizens' committee in Earlscourt school.

President George H. Ellis occupied the chair and among those present were Controller R. H. Cameron, Ald. H. H. Bell, Ald. Joseph Gibbons and Rev. Peter Brown.

T. S. Smithbone, who introduced the resolution, which was seconded by W. Fisher, said:

"In submitting this motion for your approval, I would like to point out that in times of war there are always two classes diametrically opposite to each other. This has been the case in all wars since the world began.

"One class gives themselves up to acquisition. They lay claim to every good, their homes, their friends, but their very lives upon the altar. The other class is composed of a small section of soulless capitalists who give themselves up to making huge and unjust profits. Their greed seems to be insatiable. War to them simply means a short cut to enormous wealth. Down all the centuries and in every clime these two classes have always existed. The one to be sacrificed, the other to be enriched.

"Do not misunderstand me. I do not wish to convey to your mind that all capitalists are eager to take advantage of the world's hour of stress for their own gain. It is not so.

"Shining Exceptions.

"In our own country we have had not a few brilliant examples of men, both in business and professional life, who had the opportunity and have sought to enrich themselves in this way. But unfortunately, while this is so, we have also in our midst many examples of both individuals and companies who have not hesitated to reap altogether exorbitant profits during the war in the coal com-

"How the question tonight is: 'How long is this state of affairs to continue?' As we have progress everywhere except in the commercial world? Is it allowed to be left to the prey and sport of speculators and money-grabbers? Do we have the speculators and combines altogether? In a sense we do not, for they can be controlled and held in leash. Why, then, is it to linger? There is no twain upon its head.

"We chiefly blame the government. It moves a small number of things to assist the commercial world, which breeds unscrupulous millionaires on the one hand and poverty-stricken citizens on the other.

"In striking contrast to our government is the action of the British at the outset of the war. Here is what took place in Britain. Every business concern received a visit from a government official, who examined the books and fixed an average profit during the previous three years, then told the heads of each business that they would be allowed to make a similar profit during the war, but out of every 100 pounds sterling they made over and above this 10 pounds sterling would be claimed by the government as a war tax. This is now raised to 50 pounds.

"This is the true spirit of these terrible times. Had the Canadian Government acted in this way we should not now be the victims of what is nothing more than wholesale robbery. In the march of progress democracy demands that all alike should shoulder the awful burden, entailed by war, and that no class should be sacrificed for another. We, therefore, call upon the government to impose immediately a tax on profits, and introduce regulation of commodity prices.

Ald. Bell's Plan.

Alderman H. H. Bell, who was well received, offered as a solution to the coal problem the establishment of one or more municipal coal yards as a corrective against inflated prices and to help out the coal dealers. "We have accomplished nothing up to the present to prevent a coal famine, and the people should be up and doing to check the combines who are making millions out of the people."

Ald. Cameron pointed out that the city of Toronto should have a charter of its own to enable it to deal with such matters as the coal supply of the people. "At present we can only secure sufficient to heat our municipal buildings and schools. The situation is intolerable," declared the controller.

"Do say that there is no combine in utter folly. The coal supply is controlled by the railroads, and it is not reasonable to place the responsibility for the present condition of the coal situation on the city council.

"The demands of the people will be the only method to change the existing state of affairs. And it is up to the Dominion railway board to fix the price of coal transportation, as the price of coal has now been fixed at the mines by the United States Government and we have an assurance that there will be no famine in coal this winter."

Ald. Joe Gibbons claimed that the only way to get coal was to demand a wage high enough to buy coal at the commonly advanced price or elect to go from the working class rank. "You must meet combine with combine," said the alderman in conclusion.

Disaffection was expressed at the view of Fuel Commissioner O. A. Maxwell in acknowledgment of the invitation sent by Secretary R. Dymont.

Another meeting will be held in the near future to take action in the matter of price and delivery of coal.

THE DOUBLE GUARANTEE

TWO reputations guard your investment when you purchase a Gray-Dort.

Two liabilities are your assurance of doubly-satisfactory use and service. Two institutions striving in united effort to maintain the foundation on which they have been built—full value to you, the purchaser.

In Chatham, Ontario, the Wm. Gray & Sons Company and Gray-Dort Motors Limited—the one hale and solid at sixty-two, the other strong and lusty in two years.

In Flint, Michigan since 1885, the Dort Carriage Company, since 1915, the Dort Motor Car Company,

Gray—the Industry and its Builder

Our fathers and grandfathers rode in Gray carriages—and found them built on honor and character.

In 1855, William Gray built the first of them—built them so well that Gray quality became proverbial.

Growing up in this atmosphere of big business, of successful enterprise, of worthy endeavour, was Robert Gray.

Under his guiding hand the Gray institution has been built solidly on its original foundation—value and service to the purchaser.

When others rushed into the motor car industry, Robert Gray bided his time.

Others experimented—on the motorist. Others gained the reputation of a day—and lost it. Robert Gray knew that the car bearing his name must have the same underlying qualifications as the Gray Carriage—so he waited.

Dort—at the Same Time, in Flint

Paralleling the growth of Gray in Canada, was a similar institution in the United States.

Blue Ribbon Buggies were to Americans what Gray Buggies were to Canadians.

J. D. Dort, too, was building in Flint, as Robert Gray was building in Chatham.

J. D. Dort, too, was analyzing the motor car industry.

In 1915, Robert Gray decided that a good motor car could be built and sold at a reasonable price. In 1915, J. D. Dort, studying the situation from the same angle, came to the same conclusion.

The two men met. Their identical views and aspirations inevitably attracted them to one another.

They chose as the engineering groundwork for their organization, Etienne Planche, designer of the world-famed Peugeot motor. They surrounded him with men of equal calibre, who round out an institution unique in its man-power.

After Such Preparation— With two institutions so solidly founded the first Gray-Dort was built. Is it any wonder that in three days the entire 1916 output was sold?

It was to be expected that a doubled output for 1917 was heavily oversold. The output for 1918 is double again—and may be inadequate.

START EXCAVATION FOR WATER MAIN

Contractors for Township Water System Strike Old Corduroy Road.

Work of pioneer days is being carried on at Eglington avenue, where ten men are engaged in tearing up the road-way for the laying of a 24-inch water main along Eglington avenue west to Weston road, where it will connect up with Duplex valve machine. Along the road on which the men are working settlers constructed a corduroy road thirty or forty years ago, which is still in a good state of preservation. The logs are of cedar ten or twelve inches thru, and much labor is involved in their removal. At the present time about 1800 feet have been torn up, and there still remains a mile of corduroy to remove.

Labor-saving machinery will be installed shortly and this will compensate for the lack of men. A 37-ton excavator will be employed, which can dig a trench approximately 20 feet deep and 500 feet long in a single day. Similar machines have been used by the French army for some time. Other machines to be used are a filling-in machine and caulking machine, which when in operation will expedite the work. Nearly three miles of road are to be excavated in all, and the men in charge are A. Bennett, superintendent; J. Cody, local foreman, and G. Williams, the city inspector.

RADIAL TERMINAL IS TO BE MOVED

Toronto and York Railway Plans Improvements at Port Credit.

At a joint conference of the Toronto and York Radial Company, the Toronto Hamilton Highway Commission and the Port Credit council, held yesterday in Port Credit, definite proposals were submitted by Manager Wilson, of the radial company, for the removal of the Port Credit radial terminal to the west side of the Lakeview Inn and the erection on that property of a modern waiting-room and a freight shed.

This scheme was satisfactorily received by the council and Engineer Van Sooyce, of the commission, who has for the past three weeks been negotiating with the radial company to that end. They desire the change, on account of the obstruction of traffic on the highway caused by the standing cars in front of Wm. Garham's store and the danger to the public by stopping so close to the sidewalk.

When these plans are carried out the cars will turn up towards the west side of the inn, which is vacant property owned by the Dominion Government, and lead to the town, thus removing the entire radial traffic off the highway. It will also improve that part of the town by the river, and by the construction of a waiting room the company is filling a long-felt want.

To rush the work. In outlining the scheme Manager Wilson, who was accompanied by Engineer Johnston, said that the company would rush the plans so that the improvements would be made before the fall. The plans will have to be sanctioned by the council and the Ontario Railway Board, but no delay is expected since all parties are already advised of the radial company's plans.

Another matter taken up by the conference was the improvement of the Port Credit section of the highway, and the council asked Engineer Van Sooyce to prepare plans for their approval, the work to be done by the highway commission and paid for by the town. It is proposed to lay a permanent highway on the twelve-foot strip of road between the tracks and the sidewalk, and to place a cement curb along the south side of the road. Nothing definite, however, was deferred yesterday, so the council will now wait until the engineer has the plans completed before taking action. This work will also be speeded up, as the council is anxious to have the highway in perfect shape this year, if possible.

UNION JACK I.O.D.E.

Sixty-seven parcels of comforts were yesterday forwarded to the Mimico boys now overseas by the Union Jack Chapter of the I.O.D.E., who yesterday held their regular weekly meeting in the public library. There were over thirty women present, and much progress was made in the making of pyjamas to be forwarded to the Red Cross headquarters.

In preparing linen for drawn thread work rub a little soap over the threads to be drawn and they will pull out much more easily.

The War Needs of Canada THE NEED FOR CONSCRIPTION OF RESOURCES

By Benjamin Apthorp Gould

The use of the word conscription, when not applied to the taking of men for the army, is perhaps inaccurate and indefinite, but it has been used so often and is so widely understood...

Of all the resources of Canada, other than human resources, the chief one of course is the fertility of the soil. It is clearly out of the question to have the government take over and operate on its own account the hundreds of thousands of farms which constitute the greatest material resource of the country...

In addition to such natural resources as have been mentioned, there are the resources of the past, such as the factories and industries of the nation. These may be roughly divided into two classes, those which are adapted to the requirements of war, most of which have come into being since 1914...

STOLE HOME WITH ONLY RUN OF GAME

Birds Get Verdict by Narrow Margin in First of Series.

Every once and a while a ball player makes himself famous by stealing home with the only run of the game. Shannon, of the Baltimore Orioles, pulled the trick in the ninth yesterday with two down, and our Leafs were the opposing team, and Thompson were the opposing team, and both were pitching air-tight ball. Tommy's pitch to Farnham was a couple of feet inside. Laing reached it with his glove, let it roll off, and while he was picking it up, Shannon got to the base on the runner. He failed to get the ball on the runner.

It was a costly defeat. The lead slipped further away from us, and it will take some desperate battling and a few of the breaks to get us perched up high again.

It was a tough old game to lose, but that old adage, "the breaks were again us," surely applied to yesterday's argument. Shannon got on by the free ticket route when there were two down. With two and two on McGarry Tommy slipped over what looked to be the third strike, but McGarry batted it a ball. The next pitched ball Mac whaled to right field for a single. Baltimore had only one golden opportunity to slip the run over, and they made good.

On the other hand our Leafs passed up two chances to score. In the second Schults and Blackburn opened the innings with clean hits, but Schults was forced at third on Murray's attempted sacrifice. Laing hit into a force and Washop whiffed. In the ninth again, Jacobson opened with a walk. Thompson sacrificed him nicely, then Larry struck out and Schults grounded out.

Whiteman watched part of the game from the press box, while Washop replaced him in left. Whiteman's hand badly split where he was hit with a pitched ball Wednesday, and he will be out of the game for a few days. Schults, in right, had a game leg, which proved costly when he was pegged out at third in the second innings on Murray's attempted sacrifice.

CRAVEN "A" VIRGINIA CIGARETTES

It is difficult to describe the difference in taste between a pure crystal spring of running water, and the kind of water we usually drink. It is just as difficult to tell you the difference in taste between CRAVEN "A" and other cigarettes. You'll have to try CRAVEN "A" to appreciate the difference.

What we can tell you is that CRAVEN "A" cigarettes are pure. Nothing but the finest and purest of Virginia tobaccos properly matured and blended.

Like pure spring water, they are cool—clean—satisfying.

Give CRAVEN "A" a trial. You'll soon discover how much they will add to your smoke-enjoyment.

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

By Charles (Chick) Evans Jr.

The Beginner's Clubs

We have all heard it said that the successful shot is made, not by the club, but by the man behind it. This statement has a large measure of truth, for the really good player with a poor club usually can achieve better shots than a poor player with a good club, but when the players are equally matched good fortune will be found on the side of the good player with the good club.

The great artist must have a proper medium to express his art, and he is helpless before poor paints, poor brushes and poor violins. So it is in golf that the proper selection of clubs is very necessary to one's game. What we really need is a good club. However, as the belief that we can purchase a set of golfing goods home instead of earning it for ourselves is the link, the selection of clubs must be cautioned against too many clubs. I recall it was the ambition of my early golf days to possess a complete set, all that I owned at the time was a club. I believed then that the most reasonable act of any man would be the purchase of a large set of clubs suited for every kind of golf shot that might confront one. By the time I could have afforded such a set I knew better.

I spent four years acquiring my set of iron clubs and two have been faithful to each other. No matter how good a new club may be, it can never give its best service until you are acquainted with its proper use. Learn the proper use of your driver, your masher, your iron, and if possible, your spoon, stoppan, niblick, molly, own set at the present time consists of driver, masher, spoon, desk, niblick, finger, masher, niblick, spoon, and masher.
