GREAT LOSS IN ATLANTIC GALE

Was Feared Lives Lost With Steamer—Summer Resorts and Fishing Villages Swept by Hurricane

(Canadian Press) New York, Jan. 5.—The tank steamer Oklahoma was in trouble off Sandy Hook yesterday in a heavy gale, and twenty-two of her crew apparently perished. Eight were saved. The Hamburg-American line freighter Bavaria, bound from Philadelphia to Boston reported by wireless this morning that she had been able to take off Captain Alfred Guter and seven officers and men. No mention of the remainder of the crew was made. The Oklahoma was owned by the J. M. Guffey Petroleum Company, was 2,798 tons net and 419 feet long. She left here on Saturday for Port Arthur, Texas. The steamer Casco had reported this forenoon that the crew had been rescued, but did not give the name of the vessel. In announcing the saving of part of the Oklahoma's crew, the Bavaria added that the vessel had not sunk entirely, but was partly submerged and drifting helplessly. Great Destruction by Storm. The New Jersey and Long Island coasts famed for their summer resorts, vacation homes and fishing villages, suffered a property loss estimated at from one to two million dollars in the hurricane that swept in from the sea early on Saturday morning, and which did not begin to abate until early today. Seabright, N. J., swept by a violent storm on Christmas night, with an estimated loss of half a million dollars, was again the centre of the gigantic waves. More than 100 persons were made homeless and the summer cottages of New York and Philadelphia business men tumbled into the sea, as did the Ocean Hotel, one of the largest summer resorts along the New Jersey coast. While the greatest damage was done at Seabright, the New Jersey coast from Sandy Hook to Long Branch was lashed by waves. The bulkheads which for thirty years had protected the low beaches, were ripped to pieces and tossed aside. Heavy losses are reported from Atlantic City, where wires are down and part of the city in darkness last night. Shipping in New York harbor suffered. Six coal barges were sunk off Staten Island, and shipping was practically at a standstill. The Bermudian, of the Bermuda Line, arrived with more than 300 passengers, who told of being storm-tossed outside of Sandy Hook. The Carmanis reached her pier yesterday morning, twenty-four hours late, and smaller vessels were tossed on for hours before finding an anchorage.

Headless, Armless, Legless Body of Aviator is Found

Albert Jewel Probably Attacked by Sharks When Machine Fell Into Atlantic—Trunk Cast Up By Sea

New York, Jan. 5.—The waves yesterday washed ashore at Edgenere, Long Island, a man's trunk, armless, legless, headless. It was washed back and forth with the ebb and tide of the waves, when an Italian laborer saw it. Man-eating sharks probably pounced upon him in the Atlantic when his machine fell. The man's trunk that the Italian found floating on the beach was all that is left of Jewel. There was nothing on the trunk save one side of a woolen undershirt and a paper vest. The latter is the identification mark. On October 13, 1913, Albert J. Jewel, an aviator, started to fly from Honeoye Falls, N. Y., to Port Antonio, Jamaica.

ELECTION RUSE TO ROB ELECTORS OF THE RIGHT TO FRANCHISE

Dollar Bills Sent to Many in Hope of Being Able to Prevent Voting Under Bribery Clause

Toronto, Jan. 5.—A piece of election strategy which is believed to be without precedent became known yesterday when local officials of the Dominion Alliance received information that letters enclosing dollar bills had been sent to numerous voters at Brantford and Amherst, where polling on the local option by-law is taking place today. The effect of this money going into the possession of the voters is that any person who has a list of those to whom money was sent can challenge their right to take the oath at the polls. Alderman Frank Spence, of the Dominion Alliance, learned by telephone that a number of electors at Amherst have received a letter enclosing a dollar bill in the following words: "Dear Friend:—I am informed that you are helping along the good cause in your city, and I trust you will get all your friends to help. We must help the poor, mis-guided victims of this evil, and our reward will be great. It is often necessary to fight the devil with fire, and you will know best where to help. Wishing you all the grace of the New Year, in the good cause." "Rev. A. J. Munton. Toronto as Rev. A. J. Munton. Very cordially yours, Rev. A. J. Munton. Inquiries failed to produce any evidence that there is such a person in Toronto as Rev. A. J. Munton. Very cordially yours, Rev. A. J. Munton. DEATH STATEMENT FOR 1912 ANALYZED

Health Officer's Tables For Year, and Comment

TOTAL NUMBER 842 Fewer Died From Tuberculosis Than in 1912—The Infant Mortality—Getting at a Basis of Population

Dr. G. G. Melvin, medical health officer has prepared the following report on the deaths in St. John during 1912. In any consideration of the vital statistics of a community, after the actual figures for the vital happenings, themselves, are at hand, it is essential that some definite notion be obtained of the size of the population that produces these happenings. As regards this city this would seem quite so easy and straightforward a task as it might at first sight appear. While every one agrees that the city is advancing rapidly in population, the estimates of the rate of advance vary widely. The official federal census of 1911 gave the population as 42,511. The figures for 1901 from the same source were 40,711. This gave an actual increase, for the ten years, of only 1,800, or between four and five per cent for the decade. On this basis, the population at present would be about 43,000. It seems generally held, however, that our population considerably exceeds the latter figure. Popular estimates range from 45,000 to 60,000. Through the kindness of the officials at the assessor's office the following figures have been furnished me, respecting the number of polls, by actual count, in the city for years 1911, 1912 and 1913. 1911—10,986 polls. 1912—11,068 polls. 1913—11,868 polls. If four be taken as a very conservative factor, the population for these years respectively would be:— 1911—43,744. 1912—44,272. 1913—47,472. It will be noted that the actual increase during the last year was very considerably in excess of that of the whole decade of 1901-11, as exhibited by the census. Taking, therefore, these figures as apparently very moderate and reasonable estimates of the death rate for these years would be as follows:— 1911—17.60 per 1,000. 1912—18.11 per 1,000. 1913—17.99 per 1,000. The following table shows some particulars of the mortality for the year. It is observed that the rate is slightly greater than that of 1911, and measurably so than that of 1912. This is partly accounted for by the larger mortality among aged people in 1913, as compared with the preceding year. While only 116 over seventy-five died in 1912, 147 over that age died in the last year. It is also somewhat due to the tendency of all communities not having a very large population to fluctuate considerably in their rates from year to year. It is also quite possible that the rate high in 1913 is to some extent too high, in consequence of too low an estimate of the population. As it stands, while not an excessive rate, it is sufficiently high to stimulate ambition for its reduction in future. (Continued on page 7, fifth column)

CARS INTO DITCH NEAR NAPADOGAN

The Outfit From Moncton To Straighten Matters Out

BROUGHT HOME FOR BURIAL John A. McDonald, Engineer, Killed Near Moosejaw—Some Question Over I. C. R. Men Retired

(Special to Times.) Moncton, N. B., Jan. 5.—A west-bound train on the Transcontinental met with an accident near Napadogan on Saturday afternoon. Three freight cars overturned into a ditch. The auxiliary outfit and steam crane had to be sent from Moncton. The engine and van stayed on the rails, no one was injured. The body of John A. McDonald, a C. P. R. fireman, who was killed near Moose Jaw on December 26, was taken through Moncton on Saturday to Macdonald, N. S., where the funeral was held on Sunday. He was a former engineer on the Maritime Coal & Railway Company's road. About a year ago he married Miss Fraser of Chatham, N. B. They had been residing in Moose Jaw. Mrs. McDonald and child accompanied the body east and were joined here by her father. McDonald met death while he was sitting in the cab of the locomotive standing on a siding near Moose Jaw and was struck by some object which fell from the roof of a car in a train which they were crossing. Of twenty I. C. R. employees retired under the provision fund act, fifteen are employed in the shops here, while the others are engineers. With the shop men retirement is compulsory, but the engineers have an option of remaining in the service as long as they are competent. It is held that competent men have been compelled to quit work and that they should not be thrown out of the service, particularly at this time of year. At a special meeting of officers of Wesley Memorial Church and Sunday school on Sunday a resolution was adopted endorsing the action of the city council in providing an open air skating rink, but calling attention to the desecration of the Lord's Day on the rink and requesting suppression of skating and hockey practice on Sunday. A Pacific type passenger engine slipped here Sunday morning at 11:15 a. m. on the local round house and went head first into the turn-table pit. The round-house men got the locomotive jacked out.

HON. MR. FOSTER IN LONDON

(Special to Times.) London, Jan. 5.—Hon. George E. Foster arrived by the S. S. Empress on Saturday to attend the Imperial Trade Commission meeting. With regard to Canadian trade, he said that a high-water mark had been reached during the present fiscal year, but throughout the world a period of retrogression would probably be experienced after the prosperous cycle. Referring to his Japanese visit, he said he expected beneficial results, consequent on a better understanding through personal touch.

THE COLDBROOK FIRE

The insurance carried by Walter Pedersen on the house, barn and greenhouse, with their contents, badly damaged by fire on Saturday morning at Coldbrook, amounted to $5,500. Of this $1,500 was with the Sun; $2,000 with the National, and $2,000 with the Northern. So far no adjustment of the loss has been made. The matter is now in the hands of E. H. Fairweather. The heating apparatus was restored in time to turn the heat on in the greenhouse that was not touched by fire on Saturday, and in this way the mild air in that section of the place was saved. The stock in the other greenhouse, however, will be a total loss.

PURSE TO B. L. SHEPPARD FROM BROTHER PYTHIANS

At the last convention of New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, the lodge presented to Past Chancellor Benjamin L. Sheppard a substantial purse of money in appreciation of his untiring efforts in the financial department of the lodge for several years past. Mr. Sheppard, who was much surprised by the action of his fraters, expressed his warmest thanks for the handsome New Year's remembrance. The recipient of the purse is a very ardent Pythian and his enthusiasm in the finance chair of New Brunswick Lodge has helped to place that branch of the organization on a perfectly sound basis.

The answers to the list of questions regarding the water department, submitted by Commissioner McLellan, will not be completed for the meeting of the common council this afternoon. Owing to a pressure of other work, he has been unable to do so, and asks a further extension of time. Among the matters which will engage the attention of the commissioners this afternoon will be applications from various organizations and institutions for civic grants. Nearly all of those receiving grants in 1913 had applied again. The commissioners will also discuss the proposal to rescind the order-in-council forbidding the sale of some of the fishing lots at the entrance to the harbor.

SAY FEDERAL WILL BEAT REBELS OR FIGHT TILL EVERY SOLDIER IS DEAD

Ojinaga, Mexico, Jan. 5.—All doubt as to the intention of the northern division of the Mexican federal army, to defeat the rebels, or stay here until every soldier is dead, was dispelled by General Francisco Castro, leader of the general federal troops and General Inez Calazar, commander of the federal volunteers, in interviews at headquarters today. Retreat of federal soldiers across the border to the United States territory, would be induced only by some unexpected event, according to the two commanders, and even if all soldiers deserted, the generals say they would remain to die at their posts. Already some 300 federal soldiers have crossed into the United States. This village may be the battle ground of a possible final conflict for possession of the north.

QUEEN BANS THE SLASHED SKIRTS

Strict Dress Rules For The Royal Court

WHAT ONE WOMAN DID

Tango on the Wane and English Society Years For a New Diversion—News of Canadians in Empire Metropolis

(Times Special Correspondence.)

London, Dec. 18.—People are already talking of the arrangements for next year's court. Every season there are certain changes and a few are mentioned for the future. Although the public are not aware of it, there are no functions which the king dislikes as much as these. The queen, being a good deal of a diplomat, tolerates them with a far better grace, but it is no exaggeration to say that each year the court gets more and more on the nerves of the king.

I am told that a mandate will be issued forbidding women to appear in slashed skirts or without petticoats. The queen has been horrified with some of the dresses she has seen in the houses she has been visiting, and she has ordered that they should be observed nightly at the theatres.

At one of the later courts of last year an amusing scene took place in the dressing room at Buckingham Palace after a woman who wore a slightly slashed skirt had refused admittance to the royal presence. She went to one of the maids in attendance and begged to cry, "Why not borrow my muslin apron, madam," replied the girl. "Can you arrange it quite nicely to fill up the opening. One of the maids has already done it for another lady tonight and it was quite pretty." This, accordingly was done with success.

Many women never wear their best jewels going to court. They have splendid imitations made, over which people gush wildly next morning. This is because if the real ones were lost their owners would not dare to advertise as it is impossible to mention that they had lost anything in a royal palace.

Tango Popularity on the Wane. "I can't be bothered learning that wretched Tango any longer," all the girls are saying. Lady Diana Manners, who may be said to be the leader of the younger set in London society, and was the finest exponent of the new dance, has given it up and its popularity in other quarters is on the wane. Some of the American and continental teachers of it, have made and still are, making a pile, for the uninitiated are yet under the impression that society favors it. A teacher told me the other day that she had made about $15,000 in giving lessons. The joke is that she hardly knew anything about it herself until she came to Europe. She has been making a guinea every twenty minutes of the day for months.

Some of the worst outsiders have had extraordinary success as teachers. I know of one man who is called "the King of the Tango" and who is teaching a duchess and other titled women of the most exclusive circles. Yet four years ago he was an entertainer in a Chicago all-night cafe and more recently still was playing a banjo in one of the worst resorts in London.

There is a great opening for a hostess in London who can introduce something new. Society is jaded at present and is pinning for a novelty. The picture ball is done to death, as was evident to all who were present at the great one the other night at the Albert Hall. Talk of our having no frost this winter! That was frost enough and a fiasco to boot, though none of the papers had the courage to say so. Even the general presence of King Alfonso and his queen did not succeed in thawing the atmosphere. The royalties were yawning and apparently eager for their suppers and as soon as they had them they cleared off home, leaving particularly roller skating, is also played out.

One of the big art furnishing firms in the West End told me this morning that they had supplied to Her Majesty quantities of remnants of brocade and tapestries which she proposes making into cushions and workbags for Christmas presents to her friends.

Close Friend of the Queen. Though Lady Mount-Stephen is not closely associated with the court, it is doubtful if even those wives of peers occupying the privileged positions of mistress of the robes or ladies of the bedchamber have been favored by Queen Mary with such a degree of intimate friendship, as the wife of the Canadian peer. Lady Mount-Stephen is generally regarded as the closest friend of the queen, and the friendship began many years ago with the Duchess of Teck and her family. This accounts for the annual visit of King George and Queen Mary to Brock Hall, Lord Mount-Stephen's place in Hertfordshire. With the possible exception of the excellent shooting in the Brocket covert, nothing pleases the king so much as to listen to the interesting stories of the early history and development of Canada, which no one can recount more vividly than Lord Mount-Stephen.

As in the case of his friend Lord Strathcona—though in this case there is a special reminder to his daughter—Lord Mount-Stephen has no heir, but he and the first Lady Mount-Stephen adopted Lady Northcote as their daughter when she was quite a child, and made large monetary provision for her. Few English houses enshrine memories more interesting than Brock Hall, though many of them are sad ones. Two notable prime ministers died there; here Lady Caroline Lamb nursed her happy passion for Byron; there she all the loquacious which she turned a poet in effigy and in its exquisite gardens and woods she passed most of her last unhappy years. There William Lamb, destined to be prime minister, rode as a boy on Sir Joshua Reynolds's foot as a reward for patience while his portrait was being painted. There, in the evening of his days, he was visited by Queen Victoria. Thither at one time or another came all the statesmen and ministers of letters of the age.

Brocket in the nineteenth century was in the very focus of English politics, for Broadlands and Panshanger were both within reach, and after Melbourne's death Brocket passed to his sister Lady Palmerston. To Brocket in 1865 Palmerston retired to die and there is a very characteristic story of his last days there. He seemed at one time to have thrown off his illness, but relying as ever on himself, he determined to test his own strength. He was seen one day coming out of the house with no hat on. Opposite the door was a range of high railings, and Palmerston climbed deliberately over them and then back again. On October 18 Hayward reports to a friend that Clarendon had just seen Palmerston and found him "wonderfully recovered and quite rosy" five days later he was dead.

It would be difficult to find a more delightful host or a man more faithful to English hunting traditions than the Duke of Beaufort, under whose leadership as master of the Badminton Hunt several Canadians are with us this year. The Duke traces his ancestry back to John of Gaunt and his title of hereditary keeper of Raglan Castle was granted in the time of the fifth earl, a devoted Royalist who garrisoned the castle and held it at his own expense for nearly four years against the parliamentary forces.

His son, an equally zealous partisan of Charles I, was created an earl—so grateful was the merry monarch for the services of his family—and was entrusted by the king with blank patents under the great seal for creating titles, a position of great influence. Unlike his predecessors the present Duke has not taken a very large part in the vital affairs of the nation. His interests are largely in his estates and in the hunting field.

Notes About Canadians. Of the Canadians who are hunting with him, A. E. Ogilvie and B. McLennan of Montreal, arrived some two weeks ago and are enjoying excellent sport. Mrs. Ogilvie and her family are also here and they are taking a place in the neighborhood of the hunt as they expect to stay for several months. H. B. MacDougall, also of Montreal, will arrive in time for the Boxing Day hunt, the biggest meet in the year.

I understand it is possible that they will acquire for the Montreal Hunt Club some English hounds.

A prominent member of the Lycium Club, a regular attendant at most of the lectures given by her sex, expressed the opinion that no more delightful addresses had been given than those of Mrs. C. Henshaw, a recently elected Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. Not only was the mastery given of the highest excellence, but she possessed that natural gift of magnetizing her audience which is particularly necessary to the success of the lady lecturer. At the Royal Colonial Institute the other evening Mrs. Henshaw's lecture was unanimously voted one of the most delightful of the season.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS BY REV. M. McCUTCHEON Rev. Miles McCutcheon gave a very able and practical address at the Gospel Temperance meeting held on Sunday afternoon in Clayton's Hall, under the auspices of Thome Lodge, I. O. G. T. The speaker said in part:—"We live in an age when much attention is given to the work of conservation, for instance manufacturers are making useful and valuable products out of what was once allowed to go to waste. So all the powers of science are engaged as they never were before in the work of conserving human life and human health and it is impossible to conceive how thinking men will long tolerate the colossal destruction to human health and happiness as the rum traffic."

Mr. McCutcheon went on to say that nearly two years ago the whole world was shocked at the sinking of the mighty ship Titanic, carrying to their death more than 1600 people, but in one state of the republic to the south of us, every nine days as many souls are ushered into eternity as the direct use of alcoholic liquors.

IMMIGRATION

Is Seed Bed in Britain Being Worked Out? CONDITIONS REVIEWED

Suggestion That High Class Sought For Canada is About Exhausted—Australia Proving a Counter Attraction

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Dec. 16.—Before the close of the year the machinery for securing sufficient men to satisfy the demands of Canada will be in full swing; and the time is opportune to recall the various opinions finding wide expression for several years past that the dominion would soon ask in vain for suitable settlers for the reason that the seed bed in the United Kingdom is being rapidly nearing exhaustion. The point may be made at once that this indicates no diminution in what John Burns happily called the "seed bed" but how far will this argument hold good? Is it not true that an appreciable percentage of your new citizens this year were of the aristocracy?

Several causes are now operating which seem to indicate that we have practically touched bottom. The curricula which Mr. Lloyd George espoused the cause of the country worker masked more than political expediency; it undoubtedly sprang from a knowledge—forced upon him by continual representation—that continued loss of blood in an already anemic agricultural body would result in inertia. On the other side of the political fence we find the Duke of Marlborough—who has resolutely carried out his promise to put historic Blenheim Park under the plough—giving some startling statistics. There are today, he says, a million fewer sheep in England than there were a year ago, as well as fewer cattle and pigs. While he attributes this to the appreciation of the agriculturists, that the government would turn the industry of the agriculturist, it would be idle to ignore the possibility of the decline in the number of workmen being responsible.

You do not have to look for signs of the serious decline in the number of workmen. What of the strike of Lancashire farm laborers, an event, I believe, unprecedented within the last half century? Take again the frequent and not inconsiderable increases in farm wages in various parts of the country. Add to these the fact that the last campaign in Scotland and Ireland against emigration. Consider that Scottish farmers have offered to pay the expenses of their former workmen now in Canada. In Kent the education committee is endeavoring to meet the need by the establishment of training farms for lads between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one, and the farmers are objecting to this as they believe it will result in the lads leaving the farms after receiving instruction at the expense of the Kent ratepayer.

Sir Rider Haggard, who, in conjunction with his work on the Dominion Royal Commission, has been studying conditions for the last year, was very serious when he said the other day that a farmer he knew the land had been swept pretty clear of young agricultural workers; and as to the superfluous woman of whom so much was talked, she did not exist, for there was no surplus of marriageable women between the ages of eighteen and forty-five.

As a farmer of 600 acres he had worked on his farm a man with one arm, another deaf, and another suffering with chronic asthma, because only the lame, the halt and the blind were left in English agricultural districts. As Dr. S. C. Johnson, an expert on emigration, points out in his History of Emigration, just published, the emigration laws of Canada are so severe that only the ablest and healthiest workers can secure an entrance into the dominion.

Another thing to be considered is the competition of Australia. The Dominion Royal Commission, has been studying conditions for the last year, was very serious when he said the other day that a farmer he knew the land had been swept pretty clear of young agricultural workers; and as to the superfluous woman of whom so much was talked, she did not exist, for there was no surplus of marriageable women between the ages of eighteen and forty-five.

It is not a pleasing or reassuring thought for Canadians that at a time when the money trusts and other trusts in the United States are losing ground they are tightening their grip on this country, under the government of a party which has always helped them to play their game.

If there is a class of performances in theatres and picture houses which has a tendency to lower the moral tone of a community, the churches could not of course lend their approval. Mere protest on the part of individuals in the church, however, will not remove the evil complained of.

FIRST GUN FIRED IN CAMPAIGN TO MAKE NEW BRUNSWICK DRY

At Meeting Held in Carmarthen Street Church—Centenary Pastor Says Church Should Oppose Theatre

The first gun in the campaign for the abolition of the liquor traffic from St. John and New Brunswick was fired at a meeting held last evening in Carmarthen street Methodist church. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Excelsior Lodge, Sons of Temperance, and F. G. Moore of Hopewell, grand worthy patriarch of the order, was one of the speakers. He said that St. John had made little progress in the campaign during recent years but that the present meeting was a start in the campaign against alcohol. Rev. W. R. Robinson said he believed if the bars were abolished from St. John, the province would eventually adopt prohibition. He pointed out that the forty-seven churches in the city had done very little towards abolishing the curse of alcohol here, and strongly urged united action towards provincial prohibition. Sympathy for Steel, who remarked that there was more drunkenness evident now than fifteen years ago. Rev. T. J. Delmsted also spoke on the movement. E. S. Hemming, who presided, said that the church should oppose the theatre since it seemed powerless to reform it. Rev. Gordon Dickie addressed the brotherhood of Centenary church yesterday afternoon. He took for his subject, "The Discontent of the Masses." Active work, he said, was the only cure for the unrest in the church. In the Congregational church last evening Rev. Ralph J. Haughton preached an interesting and instructive sermon on the wonderful revelation of the snow storm.

TO SPEAK TOMORROW.

Rev. J. W. MacMillan, of Halifax, will be in St. John on Tuesday next to speak on the question of a Maritime Home for Girls. Dr. MacMillan has taken the lead in this matter in the province of Nova Scotia and has visited several cities in the interest of the movement. A light supper will be served at Bond's restaurant on Tuesday at 6 and those interested in the matter are invited to attend. Price of tickets are 4c cents.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe To Darken and Beautify Faded Hair

[That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea. It makes or mends the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 20 cent bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Everybody uses "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally, and even the noblest can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, forming one smudge at a time; or, holding the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Agent, Watson's Stores.

HAD INDIGESTION.

Almost Despaired of Ever Getting Well.

When your food has not been properly digested, your body has not received the benefit it should. The exertions of the gastric juice have been confined entirely to removing the unassimilated, undigested portions of food, which they cannot properly digest as speedily as possible from the body, therefore only giving the blood a small percentage of nourishment with which to feed the tissues. No wonder then that indigestion and dyspepsia attack the stomach. No medicine can surpass Burdock Blood Bitters as a cure for this particular disease. It regulates the bowels, promotes perfect digestion, makes pure blood, tones the stomach, and thus restores perfect health to the debilitated system.

Mrs. Mary MacKay, Hunter's Mountain, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with indigestion for more than ten years. I tried several Doctor's medicines claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. My two bottles were completely cured. My appetite which was very poor, is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings. I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone suffering from indigestion."

DICKENS LOVERS HAD DINNER AT XMAS AT THE GEORGE AND VULTURE

Scene of Mr. Winkle's Remorse and Place Where Mr. Pickwick Lived

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Dec. 28.—Lovers of Dickens, among them many Canadians, including Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bull of Toronto, Mrs. Fitzsimmons of Winnipeg, Cresswell Roschamp of Montreal and the Rhodes scholars were present at a dinner given by the Atlantic Union on Thursday night. No more appropriate meeting-place could have been chosen than the George and Vulture, an old city hostelry in Lombard street, very familiar to readers of Dickens' works. It was here that Mr. Winkle hastened in confusion after making the fatal admission in the trial of Bardell versus Pickwick; and here also Mr. Pickwick lived after leaving Ipswich. The bill of fare was illustrated with Dickens' characters and the fare was of the kind associated with Christmas time in his day. It included punch served by hand, and snuff and churchwarden pipes were handed round when smoking time came.

Tells Mothers What To Do For Delicate Children

"My little boy has been rather delicate for a long time. He was always very pale and his appetite was poor. Several people recommended 'Vinol' I gave it to him and he took it willingly, as the taste is delicious. In a short time I noticed a great improvement in his appetite. He soon had more color in his cheeks. He is now well like other children and runs about every afternoon after school. I am so happy with what 'Vinol' did for my little boy, that I want every mother to know about it."—Mrs. C. R. Applgate, Dayton, Ohio. This delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil is a wonderful body-builder and strength creator for both young and old. I promise to give back your money in every such case where 'Vinol' does not benefit. Try it. Shows my faith in 'Vinol.' Chas. H. Wasson, druggist, St. John.

LAW QUESTIONED IN A CALAIS CASE

Right to Seize Liquors in Transit to Foreign Country Will Be Disputed There.

Calais, Jan. 3.—Deputy Sheriff Silas B. Kelsey made a haul of stimulants at the Calais freight shed of the Eastern Steamship corporation on Tuesday afternoon and the goods have been labelled according to law. The liquor will afterwards be addressed to people in Milltown, N. B., and proved on examination to be whiskey, nine ten gallon kegs hidden in four barrels, which displayed on the heads in addition to the address of the alleged owner the words "for personal use."

Sheriff Kelsey took the liquor to the city building where it will remain until January 14, on which date the writ is returnable. The liquor will afterwards be condemned unless some person shows good cause why it should be delivered to him.

The question as to the right of the sheriff to seize goods in transit to a foreign country will be raised in connection with this seizure, but the parties claiming the goods will be required to prove the satisfaction of the authorities that the liquor was intended for consumption across the line and not for local traffic.

Some time ago a seizure of this kind was made by Deputy Sheriff Kelsey and on the date set for a hearing on the libel of the resident of the other side of the river appeared and claimed the goods. But unfortunately he knew comparatively little about the various brands of liquor and was written tongue-tied when required to describe his alleged property.

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding Piles. No surgery required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once. It is a certain cure for the disease. All dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co. Limited, Montreal. Sample box free if you mention this paper and enclose 2c stamp to pay postage.

FATHER HOGAN LECTURES BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE ON HISTORY AND PAPACY

Rev. William Hogan, C. S. S. R., who was leader in the mission recently held in St. John, was the lecturer in the C. M. B. A. Branch 122 course last evening. The association hall was crowded, and some had to content with standing room in the hall way, so great was the desire to hear on the lecture platform one whom they had known as a strong pulpit orator.

Father Hogan spoke on History and the Papacy. He traced from the foundation of the Church by our Lord the date of the pontifical reign to the present Pope Pius. Taking an early days in the history of the ravaging hordes of Huns under Attila in Italy and of their advance being checked by Pope Leo the Great; so with the Vandals. The defeat of the Saracens by the Christian forces sent against them by Pope Gregory III, was recounted, and the speaker said these Popes had thus preserved civilization as we have it today.

The Church held sway over monarchs and Father Hogan referred to a stunt taken against Philip Augustus of France and King Henry VIII of England. The Church stood always for the sanctity of marriage and the Catholic Church woman offered the high position she held today.

Rome had sent her missionaries throughout the world and the speaker's eloquent reference to the mission of St. Patrick in Ireland brought a burst of applause. It was the Church, he said, that had preserved the arts and sciences that had preserved the painting—what architecture, music, painting—what we had all were due to the Catholic Church. The speaker showed deep knowledge of the great works of the musicians, artists and architects. Westminster Abbey, he said, was designed by a monk. Since Protestantism, he said, these arts had deteriorated.

Father Hogan spoke of the Church's stand always for freedom and he closed with a prediction that, as in the days of Attila, the people turned to the Papacy to save them from their enemies bearing down upon them, so the time was near when the world would again appeal to Papacy to save it from the ruin it was fast bringing upon itself. The speaker's peroration was a masterly use of the chair was occupied by R. J. Walsh and he announced Father Savage as the next lecturer.

VICAR UNFROCKED

Rev. Harold Greenwood, Expelled from Ministry and May Be in Canada

A North Country clerical sensation has been recalled and intensified by the decision of the Bishop of Durham that a vicar must pay the penalty of excommunication in the Gothic Chapel of Durham Cathedral in the presence of the bishop of Jarrow, the Dean of the cathedral and the Dean of Wearmouth (Canon Goldsmith) the chaplain and the registrar of the diocese, pronounced sentence of deposition from holy orders in a divorce case. He has since left England and is believed to be in Canada. He was at one time, secretary of the Diocesan Temperance Society.

1888. It was during his incumbency that the Methodist parsonage of that day, which stood on the site now occupied by the Fred Ryan house, was sold as a parsonage to the Baptists, to be in after years disposed of as a residence to Thomas Estabrooks, and moved by him to the head of Charlotte street. In place of it the Methodists required the house on Squire street now owned and occupied by Mr. Hiram Copp. In 1888, Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Copp celebrated their golden wedding, at which were present not only many of their friends from Sackville but others also from different settlements in this part of the county.

The gladness of the evening culminated in the presentation of a purse of gold to Mr. Copp and a handsome brooch to his wife. Before retiring from active life Mr. Copp was an honest and capable contractor and put up many buildings in Sackville, Point de Bute, etc. When a young man he helped in the erection of the house on Weldon street occupied by Mrs. S. Atkinson, and Mrs. James Wray's cottage on Charlotte street, and in those times thought himself not ill paid if he got eighty cents a day.

RECORD CANADIAN TIMBER

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Dec. 28.—A discussion in the press on high flag-masts has elicited the statement from Robert Ward, formerly president of the British Columbia Board of Trade, that the flag staff in Kew Gardens came from British Columbia. It was brought to this country, he says, by sailing-ship, round Cape Horn, in the early sixties and came from Alberni, Vancouver Island.

Though it is a fine specimen it by no means represents the extraordinary length of British Columbia timber. The 180 foot flag staff which stands in front of the parliament buildings, Victoria, is much higher. Even this, however, is a plumb the tree of which W. E. Scott, British Columbia's deputy minister of agriculture, spoke of before the Royal Colonial Institute this week. It was fifteen feet in diameter and seven feet higher than the cross on St. Paul's Cathedral.

PROFITS FROM THREE PIGS IN YEAR GIVE HIM TRIP THROUGH STATES

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 5.—Out of the profits realized from three pigs, purchased a year ago for $80 each, J. K. Smawley, a farmer living eighty miles south of Spokane, has started on a trip around the United States.

There was a lively demand for Smawley's young porkers, and he sold fifteen for $35 each, a total of $525. With this amount, which he characterizes as "real-estate" because hog raising with him is a side issue to wheat farming, Smawley has started his journey, which will include stops at New York, Washington, Baltimore, points in the Carolinas, where he formerly lived, and in other southern states. He will return through Texas, California and Oregon.

WHAT WILL 1914 BRING TO YOU?

Here's a New Year Resolution that put in effect NOW will insure your having a tidy surplus safely and profitably invested before the close of 1914:

THE RESOLUTION

"I resolve to start a Partial Payment Plan investment with J. C. Mackintosh & Co."

TO the man or woman, dependent on salary for a living, the necessity for such a New Year's resolution being made and kept should appeal with irresistible force.

The sense of security and financial independence given by a reserve fund, safely invested, is well worth all the economy and personal sacrifice that it ordinarily entails.

With the institution of our Partial Payment Plan last August, we enabled many men and women to make a start towards the accumulation of a reserve fund with whom such a course would otherwise have been impossible.

Since we have just out the initial deposit in half, it is now twice as easy to make a start as before, and we anticipate recognition of the plan to widen correspondingly.

Here are the new terms of our Partial Payment Plan—$10 down and $10 monthly buys any one bond or share of stock on our list; $20 down and $20 monthly buys two; $30 down and $30 monthly buys three; $50 down and $50 monthly buys five;—and so on, according to your circumstances.

Under the plan your account is credited with all bond interest and stock dividends, as declared. In most cases these credits will more than offset the carrying charges. In fact there are many good securities on our list, yielding 6 per cent. and upwards with safety, which would give you a net return during the period of payment of over 4 per cent.—or more than if you deposited the amounts month by month in the savings bank. And, of course, on completion of your payments you would receive the full income from your security.

As a preliminary to putting the New Year's resolution into effect, we suggest that you send for the explanatory booklet—which we will send you January "Investment Offerings." Address our St. John office, please.

SOMEONE IS PLACING RIFLE CARTRIDGES ON CAR TRACKS

Bullet From One Crashes Through Mill Street Saloon Door; Another Found In King Street

A bullet crashed through the glass in the door of John O'Brien's liquor store in Mill street on Saturday afternoon. Many were in the bar-room at the time, and not a little excitement was caused. The police found that the bullet had come from a cartridge that had been left on the car track and was discharged by a passing street car. The shell was found on the track. It is thought that it was placed there by some mischievous boy. The cartridge is a very large one, the kind used in the Snyder rifle. It is one of the largest rifle bullets made. Another bullet of the same type was found in King street yesterday afternoon, and was handed to the police. The police are trying to find out who is placing these loaded cartridges on the car tracks, as it is a very dangerous practice.

HOUSING REFORM:

Matter of Survey in St. John Placed Before the Common Council

The following letter is to be dealt with by the common council this afternoon:

8th January, 1914.
To His Worship the Mayor and Members of the Common Council of the City of Saint John.

Gentlemen:—After careful consideration of the housing problem in its various aspects, the housing committee of the Board of Trade has come to the conclusion that the control and improvement of existing conditions in congested districts—commonly referred to as slum conditions—is even of greater importance than the provision of new dwellings for working people. The means to control and improve such conditions must be sought in suitable building regulations and legislation which will place in the hands of the public health officer the power to compel the improvement or condemn and close buildings which are not fit for human habitation. Laurence Veiller, a recognized authority on the subject says:—"It is eminently the right of the state and of the community to see to it that people are not permitted to live under conditions which make for poverty, sickness, disease and death; which produce pauperism and crime, and which are a burden on the state is subsequently called upon to support and reform. The state has not only the right but it is its duty to say only the right individuals. Thus far you may go, but no farther. You shall not be permitted to build a house in which people ought not to live; you shall not be permitted to so mismanage your house that it is unhealthful or dangerous for people to live in it. It is along the lines of such regulation that the solution of the housing problem is to be found in every community."

The first question which will occur to many people is—Do such conditions as you describe exist in St. John? Those who have looked at the conditions believe that such undesirable conditions do already exist in St. John, and that, as the population increases, accompanied probably by an influx of foreign element, bad housing conditions are liable to rapidly increase unless adequately controlled.

Legislation, however, cannot be based upon impressions. Reforms to be of a permanent value must be based on carefully ascertained facts backed up by public opinion. For the purpose of ascertaining the exact facts, and incidentally arousing public opinion to the importance of the matter, the thorough investigation or survey, such as has been made in Toronto and other cities, be made in St. John, such an investigation should be made under the authority of the Board of Health and by its officials, with the advice and co-operation of the Board of Trade, the city to provide the necessary expense of making such survey, the Board of Trade undertaking to tabulate the returns of inspectors and publish a report if such may be deemed desirable.

The Board of Health having been referred with, has signified its approval and willingness to undertake the investigation, if provided with the necessary funds, and it is hoped that the city council will see its way clear to provide the means for carrying out this recommendation.

Your very respectfully,
W. F. BURDITT,
Chairman Housing Committee, St. John Board of Trade.

PIPE BURSTS; FLOOD IN FOSTER BUILDING

The bursting of a water pipe was the cause of several tenants in the Foster building at the corner of King and Germain streets finding their establishments flooded this morning.

The leak occurred in the upper flat, which lately has been closed. D. & J. Paterson, tailors in Germain street, will be the heaviest losers. The water destroyed cloth and trimmings and the loss is placed at about $1,000. Considerable damage was also done in the other places of business in the building. The store of J. M. Roche & Company was not affected.

THE POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning two prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail. They were Hugh McLean and Patrick Ryan, both of whom had been discharged on the morning after New Year's.

In the case of Ryan, Sergeant Baxter said that Ryan told him he had been treated to the liquor by a man from Coldbrook who had a bottle with him and that the prisoner had said he would like to spend a couple of months in jail any way.

The magistrate on hearing that, called Ryan up again and told him that the jail was not a charitable institution for those who were too lazy to work. He was told to go and the magistrate said that if he ever came before the court again he would be treated as a common vagrant and if he wanted to go jail he would be would be given a long term.

GROWTH OF THE WORK IN ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Father McCormick, Rector, Reads Annual Report—Need of New School Building

An encouraging condition, spiritual and temporal, was reported upon yesterday in St. Peter's, North End, by the rector, Rev. Charles McCormick, C. S. R., in his annual statement to the congregation. After the report had been read, the rector spoke of parochial affairs and dwelt particularly upon the need of a new school building, upon which he said he fully expected to have a start made in the spring. The increasing number of pupils, the smaller and cold rooms, and general lack of modern accommodation made the erection of new buildings necessary.

During 1913 there had been 123 baptisms in the church as compared with 122 in the previous year and twenty-nine marriages, as compared with twenty-two. There had occurred thirty-four deaths. Converts to the number of eighteen had been received, all adults, besides some children. The reception of Holy Communion had seen a marked increase, there having been 53,427 during the year.

The receipts had been most satisfactory. About $50 had been received from the ordinary church sittings during each week. The Sunday school picnic had given $1,404.50 clear of expenses; the high tea $1,423.27; the St. Patrick's Day entertainment $266.20; coal collection $340.17; Christmas $346; and a special collection for Rev. Father Lynch for the Porto Rico mission, $635.50. The expenses had been heavy amongst the items being $444.40 for city and county taxes; $254.50 for water taxes, $318.40 for light, $214.70 for the altar, fixtures, $344 for coal, and other items. The amounts including a greater distribution for the poor than in recent years. He was pleased to be able to announce that there was a fair surplus after the year's work.

MRS. JAMES P. CLEVELAND WAS KILLED BY CAR IN SEATTLE

Was a Native of Barnesville—Mrs. Wm. Weatherhead of St. John's a Sister

Mrs. Wm. Weatherhead has received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. James P. Cleveland in Seattle on Dec. 30. Mrs. Cleveland was the eldest daughter of the late Wm. Duncan of Barnesville, Kings county, N. B. She leaves three brothers, George and William Duncan of Barnesville and John P., of Pennsylvania, and one sister, Lizzie, wife of Wm. Weatherhead of St. John. Mrs. Cleveland was married thirty-four years ago. She resided in Moncton for ten years and moved to the west where she has since resided. She has many friends in St. John who will regret to hear of her death.

A Seattle paper says—Funeral services over the body of Mrs. J. P. Cleveland, who was killed by an interurban car Saturday evening, were held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of the Seattle Undertaking Company, Rev. C. H. Davis, of the Green Lake Baptist church, officiated, and the church choir rendered appropriate music. Interment was had at Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Mrs. Cleveland who was fifty-six years old, was born near St. John, N. B., where three brothers and one sister still reside. Twenty-four years ago she married Mr. Cleveland and removed to Vancouver, B. C., where they resided for twelve years. In 1901 the family came to Seattle. The widower and five sons, Archie, Thomas, John and Blair Cleveland, and two daughters Mrs. N. A. Prescott and Frances Cleveland, survive.

Mrs. Cleveland was a prominent church worker in the Green Lake Baptist Church, and at the time of her death was returning after gathering ferns and evergreens for the Christmas celebration at home and at the church.

IN BUSINESS FOR HIMSELF

W. E. Anderson, formerly secretary of the Board of Trade and for the last year associated with Allison & Thomas in the real estate business, has started in business as a real estate broker and agent on his own account. Mr. Anderson's thorough familiarity with local conditions gained while with the Board of Trade and the practical experience he has secured during the last year give him special qualifications for this business. Mr. Anderson, as much as any one man, is responsible for the forward movement in St. John and in his new venture it may be expected that he will reap some of the benefits resulting from the progress of the city. He has opened offices in the new Merchants' Bank building on the corner of Prince William and Church streets.

THE LUMBER MARKET.

Lumber shippers will have the advantage of lower ocean freights for spring shipment of deals to the old country. Fixtures are now being made for spring sailings to the west coast of England at 40 shillings, compared with 55 shillings last spring. The British lumber market is still reported dull and uncertain. So far as the American lumber market is concerned, the situation is declared so uncertain that predictions at this time would be regarded as very unsafe. Prices low and trade at a low ebb at present.

OAK HALL WILL CELEBRATE ITS 25TH ANNIVERSARY BEGINNING SATURDAY NEXT

From a small store of a store planted twenty-five years ago has grown this great store-oh. We began keeping store in January 1889 in very small quarters in a building down on Market Square, which stood on the site where the Bank of British North America has recently erected a fine new building. From the start, the business was built up on the foundation—principle of reliability and integrity—of keeping faith; in modern parlance, the square deal.

The principle has worked well. The business stands today as proof of the solidity of the foundation laid twenty-five years ago—RIGHT QUALITY, RIGHT PRICE, RIGHT SERVICE—one fair price to all alike for merchandise for which Oak Hall was always ready at any time to be held responsible. It was a thing unheard of in those days for a merchant to be glad to have a customer complain about the poor service a fabric gave—and yet that willingness to see every wrong made right has made this store.

IN CELEBRATION OF THE COMPLETION OF THESE TWENTY-FIVE YEARS WE WILL HOLD ONE OF THE GREATEST SALES OF MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS EVER HELD IN ST. JOHN—GREATEST IN VOLUME OF STOCKS, GREATEST IN VARIETY OF MERCHANDISE, GREATEST IN AVERAGE SAVINGS. SALE WILL COMMENCE SATURDAY NEXT AND CONTINUE UNTIL SATURDAY THE 24th. FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENT TOMORROW AND DAYS FOLLOWING.

Did You Save Your Camel?

Many people have been asking and wondering who the camels, so common around town the last few days, belong to.

C. B. Pidgeon in this issue acknowledges ownership, and says he will gladly buy all camels at 25c. per head. One camel will be redeemed with each $5.00 worth of trade during the Business Humping Sale. Wednesday, January 7th, is Opening Day, so be sure and bring your camel in on that date and get $5.00 worth of merchandise for $4.75.

We have been assured by Mr. Pidgeon that the values offered are without doubt the biggest bargains in wanted merchandise ever shown in St. John, and we are glad to pass this item of news along to our readers.
