SOME GEMS.

A Few Bright Remarks from Last Evening's Meeting,

Which Show That the Wisdom of St. John is Not Confined to Those in High Offices.

The following are a few brief extracts from some of the speeches made at the labor meeting in York Theatre last evening:

PETER SHARKEY. "I notice that there is at least one alderman who has been kind enough to accept the invitation sent him."

"These men, poor laborers though they be, are just as worthy of consideration as though they were the C. P. R. or any other corporation before whom the city fathers get down on their knees and give away the valuable properties of the city."

"We asked a direct answer and request a direct reply, as every direct answer deserves a direct reply."

"God has so ordered that every man shall get old when the time comes. His hair will get grey and blossom some day."

"The matter was referred to an employe, the very same as the men who were asking—the very same, mind you—and he is the director of public works. And that man wanted two weeks to decide in. Two weeks—think of it—and if he had been a competent man, as are those he was asked about, he would have answered off hand and not needed two weeks to think about it."

"We labor men are not hot—no—at least we are in the minds of those people who get a little weary."

"Poor old men on the street have been so hounded lately by a couple of aldermen that they are afraid to look up. And one of the poor men was nearly killed today."

"Mr. Murdoch has cost the city more money by his extravagant mistakes than any other man who ever held his position. It would pay the city of St. John to give him an old age pension for the rest of his life."

"The common council, as you all know, has so degenerated that a decent merchant or a respectable man will think twice before running for it."

ALD. MCGOLDRICK, took a drink of water. "Twenty years ago I used to work."

"I don't have to look for notoriety. I've got it—all over this country."

"Some day when it's raining and you have nothing to do come down to a meeting of the common council and waste an afternoon. You'll never want to go to the opera house again, if you ask me."

"We common council fellows are no better than anyone else, but when you're in we feel a little money. And I never saw a fellow in the council who wanted to be put out."

"I read in the paper that my friend Murdoch considers a dollar a day enough for and laborer, but that he is not losing sleep over it. He is not the one to lose sleep for he draws his money whether he works or plays. And, anyway, I don't think Mr. Murdoch should make any remarks like that."

"So long as you're in the council your taxes will be kept down."

ALD. MCGOLDRICK. "It affords me much pleasure to attend here tonight."

"I am very much surprised that more of the aldermen are not here."

"We have some young and enterprising lawyers on the council and the trouble is that they are too windy. I would much prefer if they would leave their long winded speeches here."

MR. DALEY. "If four or five sportin' gents that take a notion to have a horse show goes and asks the city fathers for four or five hundred dollars, it doesn't take them four weeks to decide it. But when the working men who do needful work for the city ask a simple rise that wouldn't take half so much money, it takes a long time to decide it. This is the way that Mr. Carnegie is so kind as to give to St. John will raise your taxes far more than the extra twenty-five cents on laborers' pay—and a lot of good it will be to the most of the people."

MR. JONES. "I noticed that it didn't take the common council half a dozen minutes to raise their own pay a hundred dollars a year, but it's taking them a month to give the poor laborers a few cents extra."

JIMMY BRENNAN. "Oh, I dunno."

COKE O'BRIEN. "Brennan, you're out of order."

"I want to see a general strike in the morning among all laborers—undertakers an' everybody."

TO RAISE THE ALEXANDRA. An effort is being made at Loch Lomond today to raise the sailing yacht Alexandra, which was sunk on August 11th, 1902, when Chester McClaskey and Walter Pyne were drowned. The Alexandra was located some time ago in sixty feet of water and it has been found that she has not moved since then.

Mr. Barker of the Ben Lomond house has his steam yacht fitted for lifting the Alexandra and it is expected that the work will be successfully completed this afternoon.

ANOTHER ALDBERMAN'S REGRET. C. H. Stevens, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council received the following letter from Ald. Bullock too late to be read at last night's meeting: June 17th, 1903.

C. H. Stevens, Secy Trades and Labor Council. Dear Sir—I will be unable to attend the meeting at York Theatre this evening as I have to go out of town. My sympathy is with the union. Yours, (Ald.) T. H. BULLOCK.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Milligan-Crockett Case is Further Postponed,

Because the Attorney for Mr. Crockett Absolutely Refused to go on With the Defense.

His Honor, Mr. Justice McLeod, in the circuit court this morning, consented to allow the libel suit brought by C. J. Milligan against James H. Crockett, editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, to stand for the present. This step was reached when O. S. Crockett, a brother of James H. Crockett, appeared and stated that G. W. Allen, K. C., who all along has represented the defendant in the case, absolutely refused to conduct the defense. Mr. Crockett, who is practicing attorney of Fredericton, said that his brother had learned with surprise that his case was proceeding at the St. John circuit and was totally unprepared to take up his defence at the present moment.

Hon. H. A. McKewen agreed to a few days' postponement of the case, but insisted that an affidavit be filed stating the reasons. The affidavit was filed by O. S. Crockett somewhat later in the day. The case will, therefore, stand in its regular place on the docket and will in all probability be again before the court in the course of a few days.

His Honor in dismissing the jury instructed the jury to have no conversation with anyone in regard to the suit. He requested the press to make no more publications of pleadings, and asked them, in this suit particularly, to adhere to a plain statement of facts as they occur.

The next case to be taken up was McKay v. Fraser. W. W. Allen, K. C., and Attorney General Pugsley appeared for the plaintiff and James J. Gregory, K. C., of Fredericton, for the defendant. This action is brought for the recovery of damages alleged to have been sustained in consequence of the non-delivery by the defendant of 1,025,000 feet of lumber, as contracted for. The damages claimed amount to $4,324.00. A commission is used sometime ago to take the evidence of John C. Johnson, Richard Bryce Lloyd and Joseph Robinson, of the defendant.

The evidence taken under the commission was produced in court, opened and read, subject to objection by Mr. Gregory.

LOST FOR TWO DAYS.

Arthur Wright, an Aged Resident of Wright Street Found in the Park.

On Tuesday morning Arthur Wright of 46 Wright street, strayed away from his home and for forty-eight hours had not been heard of. Mr. Wright is an old man, quite feeble and at times is subject to slight mental weakness. He was formerly in the employ of the Street Railway Company as collector and is well known about the city. For some time he has been under the care of a physician but was able to take short walks in the vicinity of his home.

On Tuesday morning he went out as usual, evidently expecting to get home in a very short time. But the hours passed and his relatives became anxious. On Tuesday night as Mr. Wright had not returned his absence was reported to the police and the officers were requested to search for him. The search for the missing man, Tuesday night passed without any information of his whereabouts being received and yesterday the anxiety of his friends grew more intense. Different persons searched for Mr. Wright but no trace of him could be found. He was not heard of until this morning when two or three boys who accidentally happened to be wandering through the woodland behind the public gardens found him lying on the ground. Mr. Wright, thoroughly exhausted and was suffering from exposure. He had been wandering about in the woods and had lost his way. His face was scratched and bruised from contact with the boughs of trees.

After being conveyed to his home a physician was summoned and it is probable that Mr. Wright will be fully recovered in a few days although a longer period of exhaustion would most likely have proved fatal.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The attendance at yesterday's ball game on the Shamrock grounds was small, but the game was a good one. The play was quick on the whole, and though some errors were made, the game was none the less interesting. The Roses had it their own way until the seventh, when the Alerts jumped their score both of hits and runs and brought the game out with ten runs to the Roses, the hits standing in the score, 10-8.

McFarlane made the most brilliant play, two of his catches being exceptionally good.

KING PETER.

The New King of Servia and His Constitution,

Which Will be Very Liberal, Important Changes Having Been Made in It.

BELGRADE, June 18.—It is understood that the chief modifications in the constitution of 1888 deal with the curtailment of the king's prerogatives, but his majesty will still remain chief of the army. There will only be one chamber, having a popular representation of the various parties. The constitution altogether will be very liberal and the changes made are very important in this respect. They will completely alter the existing cumbersome machinery necessary to amend the constitution. The king will be deprived of the power of incurring supplementary expenditure and the ministers will be solely responsible to the Skupshchina. They will have absolute control of all budgets, the senate being abolished. It is reported that the treasury found in the Konak included the sum of $1,600,000, being part of the proceeds of the recent loan, and $40,000, which had been secretly reserved from the amount credited to the war ministry and given to Queen Draga.

TO BOOM BLACK RIVER.

Commodore Wright Undertakes to Make It Attractive For Tourists.

An effort will be made this season to boom Black River as a tourist resort and Commodore Wright of Loch Lomond has succeeded in making all necessary arrangements to last summer the commodore purchased a full stock of fishing gear which he presented to all tourists and others who wished to enjoy good fishing at that place. This season he has secured several fine new boats which are intended for the same purpose.

John Harding who is just opposite the York Hotel at Black River has been given charge of the affair and will attend to all the requirements of visitors to the place. He will supply gear, arrange for accommodations and carriages and see that nothing is lacking. There are good hotels at Black River and the fishing catches are abundant. The salmon pool are now beginning to bite, and the season will be open until October. These fish run as large as fifteen pounds and make splendid sport. A number of citizens who were at Black River last year are very enthusiastic over the possibilities of the place.

CITY LABORERS.

Will Not Strike at Present.

The city laborers will not strike at present. They have decided to give the council an extension of time to consider the question of raising their wages, and will meet again next Thursday evening to again discuss the matter. If the city council have not by that time taken action in the matter the laborers probably will.

This was the decision which the city laborers arrived at last evening at the mass meeting of the different labor unions in the city, which was held in York Theatre, to protest against the action of the common council in deferring an answer to the city laborers' petition to a 25 per cent. increase in their wages.

Ald. John McGoldrick and William McGulkin were then present representing the city council present. The occupied seats on the platform together with the members of the Trades and Labor Council and officers of the different unions in the city.

Peter Sharkey, president for New Brunswick of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, presided, and addresses were made by Mr. Sharkey, Aldermen McGoldrick, McGulkin, Mr. Daly, vice president of the Ship Laborers' Union, M. J. Kelly, of the S. L. U., Charles Jones, of the Teamsters' Union, and others.

The following motion, made by Wm. Stanley, of the S. L. U., was unanimously carried. "That we the citizens and taxpayers of St. John assembled here this evening, are of the opinion that the petition of the street laborers be granted, the increase to date from June 1st."

A motion was then carried that the council be granted an extension of time to consider the petition. Another meeting will be held next Thursday evening.

MANY VISITORS COMING.

Car Accountants' Association to Visit St. John on Monday.

St. John will be invaded on Monday by over a hundred veteran railroaders, men, who with their wives, are coming to spend the day in this city.

The International Car Accountants' Association has been holding its annual convention in Quebec, and the members are now the guests of the I. C. A.

They will arrive in St. John on Monday morning, about eight o'clock on Monday morning. Breakfast will be served on the train, and at nine o'clock the party will be taken on four special street cars for a tour of the city.

At half past ten they go on board the tug Lord Kitchener at North wharf for a sail around the harbor and a short distance down the bay. When the tide suits, the Kitchener will go above the falls and proceed as far as Watter's Landing, where a big clam bake will be served. After this the party will return to St. John for dinner at the Royal and will leave for the west between nine and ten o'clock.

MCCARTNEY-CRAFT. At St. Clement's church, Millidgeville, at eight o'clock last evening, William E. McCartney and Miss Annie M. Craft were united in marriage by Rev. P. P. McKim. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and was crowded with friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Craft was given away by her father, George Craft, a church warden of St. Clement's church. She was handsomely attired in white satin, and was attended by Miss Rogers. The groom was supported by Hazen Taylor. Luncheon was served at the residence of the bride's parents. Many handsome presents were received by the bride.

CONFERENCE.

Rev. J. C. Berrle of Jacksonville Elected President.

The Conference is now Fully Organized for Business—Dr. Carman Expected Today.

The Methodist conference organized for business this forenoon by the election of the president and other officers. In the various forecasts the names of Rev. C. W. Hamilton, of Carmarthen street, and Rev. W. W. Lodge, of Hampton, were mentioned. The forecasts were wrong. Rev. J. C. Berrle of Jacksonville, occupies the chair. He was elected on the second ballot.

After the opening services this morning Rev. Dr. Stewart, who is retiring from the active ministry after fifty-one years of strenuous, devoted and successful service, addressed the conference. His earnest and impressive words were heard with deep attention and were afterward referred to by the president and other members. The conference then proceeded to ballot for the president. The first ballot resulted in no choice, the vote standing:

Rev. J. C. Berrle, 88. Rev. W. W. Lodge, 84. Rev. C. W. Hamilton, 12. Rev. Thomas Deinstadt, 6. Rev. J. Rice, 5.

Revids. Allen, McCully, Jas. Crisp, J. S. Allen and J. Rogers received the votes each, and several others had one or two supporters.

The second ballot resulted in the election of Mr. Berrle as follows: Rev. J. C. Berrle, 74. Rev. W. W. Lodge, 32, with several votes for Mr. Hamilton.

The retiring president, Rev. Mr. Harrison, called the president-elect to the chair, and in handing over the control of the meeting expressed his best wishes to his successor.

Mr. Berrle was called upon for a speech, but did not devote much time to the response. He observed that when his name was first mentioned he had supposed it was a recognition of his enjoyment of a joke, and not a matter to be taken too seriously. But now would express his appreciation of the confidence which the brethren reposed in him. In all his life as a Methodist minister he had done his best, and he would do as well as he could in the position to which he had been called. It was pleasant to follow Brother Harrison, whom he had first met in Liverpool, England. Of the twelve who came out from the old country together three or four had been called the presidency. It was a pleasure also to fill the chair in the Centenary church, the first place where he had preached when he came to St. John, and the building in which he had been ordained. Some one near the chair corrected the president, who then stated that these associations were connected with the old Centenary and not the present building, but it was still the Centenary church. In closing Mr. Berrle said that he was never more conscious of divine assistance and never more consecrated to the service of God than today.

Rev. A. D. McCully was re-elected secretary by an almost unanimous vote on the first ballot.

Rev. G. M. Young was appointed journal secretary, Rev. H. E. Thomas and Rev. J. M. Rice assistant secretaries, and Rev. H. Harrison chairman of the statistical committee. Conference then proceeded to fill vacancies in the various committees and to deal with committee reports. Adjourned at 12 o'clock.

The stationing committee has completed the first sheet, which stands about as first printed.

Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent, is expected this afternoon.

Rev. J. M. Berrle, president of the conference, was born in England, and received his early training for a business life. Soon after he was received into the ministry he came to this country, where he has had some important charges, including his present circuit, to which he has been recalled after twenty years, Milltown, Ferrville, Sussex and Hillsboro. He was preacher for the Theological Union at the last Mt. Allison convocation. Mr. Berrle is a good theologian, an earnest and devoted pastor, and a successful evangelist, and a popular preacher and lecturer. He has a saving sense of humor and, as he said this morning, dearly loves a good story or a good joke.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 18, 1903.

ST. JOHN AND PORTLAND SCHOOLS.

The public school board of Portland, Me., holds a special annual meeting for the appointment of public school teachers. This meeting is held before the summer vacation and the list of teachers with their stations and their salaries is given to the press. The statement affords opportunity for an interesting comparison with St. John conditions, so far as St. John conditions are known to the public.

The Portland high school has a principal at $2,000, an assistant at $1,500, one other teacher at $1,500, one at $1,400, two at $1,200, one at $850, one at $800, one at $750, seven at $700, two at $600, one at $550 and two at $500. The Deering High School in connection with this institution, under the same principal has an assistant at $1,500, one teacher at $1,300 and eight others at from $500 to $700. There are two grammar schools and three which have both grammar and primary departments. The principal of one grammar school has $1,600, the next salary is $600 and the other twelve are lower. In the other grammar school the principal has $1,200. The head of what is called the West school, mixed grammar and primary, has $1,200, but $1,800 is the salary of the head of the North school in which there are twenty-six teachers. In the third mixed school the principal's salary is $1,200. The other teachers in all these mixed schools are ladies whose salaries are from $600 down to $475. Then there are a number of purely primary schools having from five to ten teachers each, with a lady principal of $600 and other teachers at $400 to $500.

A city training school has 12 teachers with a lady principal at $1,200 and other teachers at $500. Three teachers of writing and drawing are employed who work in all the city schools. They are paid $1,400, $1,000 and $550. The lowest salary is paid to a lady. Two ladies teach music in all the city schools and are paid $800 and $650. There are three teachers of manual training at $1,500, $1,000 and $800, and one of domestic science at $750. Nine kindergarten schools are mentioned each having a principal at $400 and another teacher at $350.

The total number of teachers reported is 255. St. John has 156. Portland had, in 1900, a population of 50,145; St. John in 1901 had 40,711 inhabitants. With Portland as a standard St. John should have about fifty more teachers. But the St. John school system is not encumbered with special teachers of writing, drawing, manual training and domestic science. We have no local training school, and something less than eighteen kindergarten teachers seems to serve our purpose.

REV. DR. DEWART.

Rev. Dr. Dewart, whose death is announced this morning, was one of the ablest writers and speakers in the Methodist Church of Canada. For a quarter of a century Dr. Dewart was editor of the Guardian at Toronto. His removal from that position by a majority vote of the general conference some nine years ago was partly due to the manner in which the church organ under his control dealt with the question of college federation. Partly it was political. Dr. Dewart gave offence to anti-federalists, and to many conservatives, both classes of complainants believing that the paper treated them unfairly. After his retirement from denominational journalism Dr. Dewart threw himself more vigorously into politics and unsuccessfully contested North Toronto for the Ontario legislature. His last recorded public utterance was a protest in the Methodist conference against some resolutions on the Ontario government. In 1889 Dr. Dewart was president of the Canadian Press Association. He was with the Ontario newspaper men who visited St. John two years ago, and had the clam bake on the Bay Shore.

THE LABOR MEETING.

Some of the talk at last evening's meeting in the York Theatre was a little wild, but it was not more so than the speeches of many prominent politicians in an election campaign. The conclusion reached was wise from the standpoint of the laboring men themselves. Their leaders saw that if they wished to prevail they must not allow the organization to be put in the wrong. The city council is not exactly in the same position as a single employer of labor. It is a representative body, responsible to the tax-payers and cannot be expected to decide off-hand a question of this character and importance. A few days is not long to give to the adjustment of a grievance which has existed for years, when the settlement is likely to stand for many years to come.

KINGS GOES ON ALONE.

So far as the governors and alumni of King's College control the situation that venerable school will continue its career as an independent institution. For the second time in twenty years a scheme of federation with Dalhousie has been defeated by the action of the friends of the college.

assembled at Windsor during convocation week. The King's men have shown great determination and power of resistance. If they are equally successful in gaining financial support for the college and drawing students to its classes they will have cause to congratulate themselves. But that is a more serious task. Meantime King's is meeting a loss by the departure of Professor de Mille, who is leaving for Harvard. Professor de Mille is acquiring a firm position as a critic and as a man of letters. The retiring professor may, like his father, become better known as an author than a teacher, but if his popularity with his classes equals that of the late Professor James de Mille, any college would gain by his connection with it.

According to the cable stories yesterday's debate in the British house of commons "is recognized as a great personal triumph for Mr. Chamberlain." This is quite a change from last week when the colonial secretary had hardly a friend in the house, and was not supposed to be on speaking terms with his colleagues. It seems that "the effect of yesterday's debate was to throw Mr. Balfour into Mr. Chamberlain's arms," whereas last week Mr. Chamberlain was stalking from the chamber without even a word to his leader.

NOW FOR THE FORGERS.

Rothsday List Libel Suit May Show a Clue to the Criminals.

The libel suit of C. J. Milligan, manager of the Telegraph, against Jas. H. Crockett, editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, was commenced in the circuit court yesterday afternoon, his honor, Mr. Justice McLeod, presiding.

Charles J. Milligan and Harrison A. McKee, his attorney, sued James H. Crockett for that he, the said defendant, at Fredericton, in the county of York, to wit, at the city of Saint John, in the city and county of Saint John, hereafter, to wit, on the fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, falsely and maliciously published of the plaintiff in a newspaper called the Daily Gleaner, as and purporting to be a letter written to the editor of the Daily Gleaner by some person to plaintiff unknown, and signed "Sunlight in the Fog," the words following, that is to say:

"Dear Sir—Don't you think you are a little hard on my friend, the self-assured Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan, meaning thereby the plaintiff, of the Inimitable Daily Telegraph? When you call to mind the part he (meaning the plaintiff) played in the forgery of the Rothsay electoral lists (meaning the list of persons entitled to vote in the parish of Rothsay, in the county of Kings, for the election of members to represent the said county of Kings in the general assembly of the province of New Brunswick), 'one of the most detestable crimes ever perpetrated in the province of New Brunswick, you should see the debt of obligation which he is under and which he ever will be under to the deaf and dumb' unless the matter is taken to the courts. Is it any wonder, then, that he should feel himself constrained to come to the defence of those people, whom he, in the kindness and frankness of his heart, believes to have been outraged, and more particularly when he has at his side that great patriot and gifted scholar of the English language, the Right Hon. Sir McIntyre, not to speak of the venerable and high minded Mr. J. Harvey Brown, ever present in a manner that carries conviction, 'but you should not forget that the 'Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan (meaning the plaintiff) and his co-adjutors, 'have ample reason to be friends of the deaf and dumb. You say that 'somebody has said that the state 'will pay the expenses connected with 'the prosecution. This means that the 'people of the province will be taxed 'for Sir Jimmie's (meaning the plaintiff's) time, the time of others, and 'the expenses that he and J. Harvey Brown have incurred. Why shouldn't 'the people pay all these bills? The 'people have lots of money, and as 'long as Sir Jimmie (meaning the plaintiff) holds their interests in his 'hands and directs their affairs, as he 'does with phenomena, energy, why 'should they not pay just what he 'directs?'

"You don't seem to appreciate the 'value of the services of our great 'friend down here by the sea. Your 'paper talks about the King and Salisbury, and Roosevelt, and a number 'of the other sovereigns and dignitaries in the highest terms, and in 'terms which they will not overlook, but 'why should you be so unkindful of 'the great services which Sir Jimmie 'Milligan (meaning the plaintiff) has 'rendered to this country through the 'aid of the deaf and dumb? 'I hope you will not overlook what 'I say Mr. Editor. If Sir Jimmie Milligan (meaning the plaintiff) should 'fall in his defence he might threaten 'the state, and then we are brought 'face to face with an exceedingly serious crisis.

Very truly yours, SUNLIGHT IN THE FOG. St. John, N. B., July 4th, 1902. Meaning by the statement in said letter 'when you call to mind the part he played in the forgery of the Rothsay electoral list' that the plaintiff had been party to a forgery in the preparation of the list of persons entitled to vote in the parish of Rothsay in the county of Kings for the election of members to represent the said county of Kings in the general assembly of the province of New Brunswick.

And also for that the said defendant at Fredericton, etc., etc., on the fifth day of July, 1902, falsely and maliciously published in the Daily Gleaner the said letter, meaning by the statement in it, 'but you should not forget that the Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan and his co-adjutors have ample reason to be friends of the 'deaf and dumb.' 'that the plaintiff was guilty of wrong doing and that by reason of being so guilty of wrongdoing had ample reason to reveal the wrongdoings of plaintiff. And the plaintiff claims one thousand dollars.

The defendant says that he is not guilty, and that the defamatory matter referred to in the declaration is true in substance and fact. He further states that the plaintiff (Mr. Milligan) knew of and was a party to certain names being unlawfully, falsely and fraudulently placed upon and added to the Rothsay voters' list, and that the words referred to in the first part of the declaration were published solely in reference to the plaintiff having such knowledge and being a party to the placing of such names upon the said list and their addition thereto.

Mrs. C. M. Curry of Woodstock, was the first witness called by the plaintiff. Her evidence was as to who was editor and manager of the Gleaner and also as to the date on which the alleged libel was published.

Court adjourned until ten o'clock this morning when it is to be continued.

JUST LIKE A STORY BOOK. Is Iowa Professor Austrian Crown Prince, Thought to be Dead?

MARINETTE, Wis., June 16.—The Marinette Star, in authority for a story to the effect that Prof. Hoffman, who recently resigned from the faculty of the University of Iowa, is Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria, who was supposed to have killed himself 15 years ago. Hoffman's resignation from the university was requested because he refused to reveal his identity, after admitting that he was going under an assumed name. At the time that it was reported the Crown Prince had killed himself in Austria, it is asserted that a corpse resembling him was made use of at the funeral, while the Prince disappeared from the empire, and that he was none other than Hoffman, professor of medicine. The Crown Prince was considered one of the leading physicians of Austria. The story in part is confirmed by circumstances in connection with Hoffman's stay here.

A POWERFUL VOICE. (From the New York Times.) Colonel Prentiss Ingraham, author of a thousand novels, soldier in several wars, and a gentleman of the old Southern school, is lifted from the earth several times a day by a colored elevator conductor, who, like most of his race, is very fond of elaborate language. Recently an artist in the apartment gave a song recital, and the darky heard her sing. "Well, James," said the colonel to the conductor the next morning, "what did you think of the singing last night?" "I was assassinated wid it, suh."

"He replied; 'puffeekly assassinated suh; she do sing with great fluently."

ANOTHER RAID.

The Police Visit James Miller's Place on Britain Street and Arrest the Inmates.

Last night Officers Scott, Lee, Baxter and Marshall raided the house on Britain street kept by James Miller, commonly known as Spud, and arrested Miller and four other persons who were in the house. This place has been under suspicion for some time, and in last night's raid the officers secured evidence sufficient to show that their suspicions were well founded.

Miller has been charged with keeping a bawdy house, and Ruby Hudson, aged 23, Mabel Naum, aged 18, Ethel Delong, aged 17, and Donald Stevenson are charged with being inmates.

Of these prisoners Miller has been before the magistrate on previous occasions on liquor cases. Ruby Hudson has also been in court in affairs similar to the present one. Mabel Naum was one of the girls arrested in the raid on Mrs. Scott's house on Queen street some time ago, and Ethel Delong is one of the two girls who were wanted as witnesses in the case against John Martin for selling liquor, and who went to the States until the matter was dropped.

Besides the bawdy house charge, Miller has been accused of keeping liquor for sale, and in the raid the officers secured a bottle of whiskey and several of ale.

The examination was begun in the police court this morning, when evidence was given by Officers Scott and Baxter. Miller went on the stand and told his side of the story. The case was postponed until Saturday.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine McGowan took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of Thomas W. Robinson, 55 Union street.

Service was held in the cathedral and the remains were interred in the old Catholic cemetery.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Kate Breen was held from her late residence, 29 St. David street. The Rev. Mr. Deland conducted service at the house and grave. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Ann Mills was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from her late residence, 96 Coburg street. The remains were conveyed to St. Paul's church, where the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dicker. Interment took place in Fernhill cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Bettinson took place this afternoon at four o'clock from her late home, Emouth street. The Rev. Mr. deSouza officiated at the house and grave, and interment was made in the Church of England burying ground.

THE WATER SUPPLY.

Ald. Millidge Feels Pleased With the Conditions at Silver Falls.

Ald. Millidge feels that the city should be well satisfied with the present condition of the water supply. Quite a lot of money has been expended at Silver Falls but the results have fully justified the expenditure. During the months of April, May and June the source of supply was subjected to an unusual test and in spite of fifty days without rain the water level remained at what is considered a very gratifying height.

The new dam at Silver Falls raised the water three feet, the overflow in the dam being much higher than in the old reservoir. When the long drought began the water was quite near the overflow but gradually fell until it was a foot below. This took place in a few days, but during almost the whole of the long dry spell the level of the water never varied. It remained one foot below the overflow, or two feet above the old level, and Ald. Millidge thinks that this is very satisfactory.

ACCIDENT ON MAIN STREET.

About half past six o'clock this morning, while Louis Carvill was riding a bicycle down Main street, he accidentally ran into John Foley, who was crossing the street. Mr. Foley was thrown to the pavement and quite severely hurt on the head and side. He was taken to Dr. William Christie's office for treatment and was afterwards removed to Robert Bryson's house on Main street, where he boards.

THE SILVER STARS and the Independents of the St. Joseph's league will play this evening on the Barracks.

The Boltermakers' Union challenge the Cigar-makers' Union to a game of base ball on the Barracks Saturday afternoon.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY.

There may be established in this city an institution for the education of young men desiring a knowledge of pharmacy. There is a balance of about $745 to the credit of the N. B. Pharmaceutical Society, and at the annual meeting yesterday at the Willows, on the Kennebecasis river, the advisability of devoting this money toward a pharmaceutical college was considered, but no definite steps were taken.

The idea was merely advanced, but yet there is the possibility of the suggestion taking practical form.

KEROSENE.

It has been stated that refined oil, or kerosene, could not easily or economically be made from the product of the Texan oil wells. The following article from the Paint, Oil and Drug Review, settles this question:

The Security Oil Co., which took over the big Burt refinery at Beaumont, Tex., has so far completed the refinery that fires have been put under the stills. This refinery is perhaps the most complete in the world. Everything has been done looking to permanency and durability. The buildings are all tiled roofed and the floors are of concrete. A complete waterworks and electric light system has been completed and the refinery has a fire department of its own. It has been a year in building and 800 men have been employed in its construction. Two pipe lines have already been completed to a point below the quarantine station, so that vessels may load without waiting for the quarantine. One of the pipe lines is for the refined product and the other for fuel oil. It is impossible to learn the cost of this refinery, but a gentleman who is familiar with such matters says that it will amount to $5,000,000. For the present 60,000 barrels will be refined a week.

JUNE WEDDINGS

FARLEY-VANWART.

Miss Rose Farley, of Missoula, Montana, arrived in the city on the delayed Montreal express yesterday to become the bride of Roy A. Vanwart, son of D. N. Vanwart, this evening. Mr. Vanwart, accompanied by his mother, was to go west several weeks ago and the wedding was to have taken place at Missoula, but an accident to Mrs. Vanwart, and her serious illness in consequence, made that plan other than feasible. The bride pluckily offered to undertake the four and a half day journey east alone, so Mr. Vanwart met her at Montreal and accompanied her here. The wedding will be a family circle affair only, owing to the indisposition of the prospective groom's mother. Miss Farley is a charming young Miss, and was a leader in young people's circles in her western home. It was while working in Missoula two years ago Mr. Vanwart met her.

MACFARLANE-MACPHERSON.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Wm. MacPherson, Fairville, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, when his daughter, Ella M., was united in marriage to Alpheus B. C. MacFarlane, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. T. Dykeman in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in biscuit grenadine over blue silk, with trimmings of lace and chiffon, and was attended by her little niece, Miss Edith MacFarlane, who wore white muslin and carried a bouquet. The bride was the recipient of numerous and beautiful presents. She will reside at 55 Clarence street.

MCCARTHY-BLAIR.

At Ottawa yesterday at noon a very pretty nuptial event took place at the residence of Hon. A. G. Blair and Mrs. Blair, O'Connor street, when their daughter, Kathleen Audrey, was married in the presence of only the relatives and intimate friends to Dr. Geo. McCarthy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. E. Mitchell, of Esking church.

The bride wore a gown of crepe de chine, trimmed with real lace collar and insertion, bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Blair, who wore white crepe voile and white chiffon picture hat. Dr. Fred McCarthy supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy will reside in Ottawa.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents.

LONDON-GARNETT.

A very pleasant event took place last evening at the residence of William Garnett, 47 Main street, when his sister, Miss Bessie Garnett, was united in marriage to Walter Hayslet London of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. P. McKim in the presence of the immediate family and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride received many useful and handsome presents showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

THE YORK THEATRE.

The first entertainment to be held in the theatre will be the Chapman festival in September.

THE SCORPION LOST.

A British Monitor Sunk On Her Way to St. John.

The old British monitor Scorpion, which for years has been used as a target for the guns of the British war vessels on the West Indian station at an anchorage off Hamilton, Bermuda, sunk eighty miles off Georges Shoals on Tuesday while in tow of the British tug Powerful on the way to St. John.

The fifteen men who were on the monitor were rescued by the crew of the Powerful after a struggle, as the weather was very heavy at the time. They were taken to Boston.

The Scorpion had been bought by Thomas Burler & Co. of Boston to be delivered at St. John. She carried many tons of metal and was valued at $40,000. The crew lost all their effects.
