Editorial Notes.

The announcement of Sir Charles H. Tupper's resignation on Wednesday last was a quite unexpected move on the political chessboard and much wonder was expressed. The reason given for said resignation being that Sir Charles Tupper's opinion was that immediately upon the deciding of the remedial order in the Manitoba School Question Parliament should have been dissolved and the country called to a general election. Sir Charles Tupper made himself so obnoxious to the fishermen and others while he was Minister of Marine & Fisheries, that they expressed their determination to vote against the government candidate because of his acts, and the general expression when the resignation was heard of was that the news was too good to be true. But the news was true, the resignation was made, and has been withdrawn, so that matters have again quieted down and preparations are being made for the meeting of Parliament.

The annual eight o'clock race on the Thames from Putney to Mortlake, four and a half miles, between crews of the colleges of Cambridge and Oxford, came off on Saturday last. It was the 22nd annual tussle and Oxford was victorious, making her winner of 29 as against Cambridge's 22 one race being a dead heat. The time was 20 minutes 30 seconds. Although the weather was unfavorable immense crowds witnessed the contest.

Write have been issued for four by-elections in Hindhead, Antigonish, Vercheres and Quebec West. These elections take place simultaneously, nominations April 10th, polling April 17th, the day preceding the opening of the house.

The Manitoba Legislature, shortly after the reception of the remedial order, adjourned for six weeks, which will enable the local government to thoroughly consider what action is best for it to take in the matter. In the meantime the Dominion Parliament will be in session and it is not thought improbable that the question may be introduced therein and opinions expressed which may lead to a certain extent about what public opinion on this question and influence the Manitoba government in their course of procedure.

Northumberland County Court.

The County Court opened today. His Honor Wm. Wilkinson, Esq., Judge, presiding.

There were no criminal or civil cases before the Court. Mr. R. B. Bennett made application for naturalization of the following persons, The Brown, Abraham Farrah, Emil Remlin.

The Court ordered the certificates to be filed of record and that certificates of naturalization under the seal of the Court be granted to the applicants.

Mr. Robert Murray on behalf of Samuel Johnson read naturalization papers. The Judge ordered the certificate to be filed of record, and that certificate under the seal of the Court be granted to the applicant. Court adjourned six die.

A Liquor Selling Scheme.

The Campbell Enterprise describes the scheme of Lawrence J. Lapointe, of Nash's Creek, to evade the liquor license law. It was evidently modelled on one that was once in operation in Chatham. His plan consisted of the issue of tickets, marked ten, twenty-five and seventy-five cents each. He offered these tickets for sale on the understanding that he who purchased a ten cent ticket, would on presentation receive a drink without paying for it, as the money had been previously given for the ticket. The holder of a twenty-five cent ticket would be entitled to a small flask, and the holder of a seventy-five cent ticket would be entitled to a "square face." The inspector brought Mr. Lapointe before a magistrate and he was fined $50 and costs for selling liquor without license. It came out in evidence that it was at Lapointe's that Jerry Murphy purchased the four bottles of liquor that were found with him when the trial ran over on the 31st ult., and mutilated him so badly that he died the next day.—World.

The modest operandi of the present social club is something different so far as preliminaries are concerned, but resulting the same in obtaining liquor illegally. A member of the club introduces a visitor, both being equally thirsty for the illegal stimulant which is neither sold or given away. Oh! no! The visitor's name is proposed for membership, declared carried, and he is elected to full membership. He pays one dollar entrance fee and is given a ticket which is good for twelve drinks, and the three for a quarter rate you know. And yet members claim it as a club where liquor is not sold, but merely dispensed to those who own such liquor.

Boston Letter.

—Boston, March, 1895.

DEAR ADVOCATE—Well, what shall I write about? Nothing this great city does not supply material for a two column article every day, but for least convenience your readers may demand some relaxation from the irregular stream of articles on social problems which have been a prominent feature with you for some time past. I would like to fill a whole page describing our grand new Library which was opened to the public this week, and I am pleased to note that the opening was done without the least barbarous ceremony of dedication. Another page might be filled setting forth the grandeur of the paintings and decorations which in street vermin are "immense," but fear of your blue pencil (if I should talk shop) deters me. Then there is the new Court House which cost five and a half millions—think of it! Boston, so long regarded as the home of culture, refinement and art, inflicting an additional burden like that upon the wage-earning, debt-paying workmen, and that too for a public building!

As yet the new Court House is a mere skeleton. The style of architecture is Corinthian, and in the color of the outer walls of the building is a pale yellow and yellow has been used with the exception of the basement story which is of hammer granite, the first story of white marble, and the walls of the rest of the building are of yellow brick of the best quality, imported from England, the color of which is a pleasing relief to the eye, which has become weary from seeing miles of the dingy hatched red. Already 15,000,000 of these bricks have been used.

The unfinished extension to the State House which when complete will cost eight millions, will be a marvel of beauty and utility. The style of architecture is Corinthian, and in the color of the outer walls of the building is a pale yellow and yellow has been used with the exception of the basement story which is of hammer granite, the first story of white marble, and the walls of the rest of the building are of yellow brick of the best quality, imported from England, the color of which is a pleasing relief to the eye, which has become weary from seeing miles of the dingy hatched red. Already 15,000,000 of these bricks have been used.

While looking over some old papers today I found some notes I had made some time ago when your esteemed citizen Mr. P. Keating paid this city a visit. It was always my bone to fawn upon the great and powerful, and so I humbly proffered my services as guide to Mr. K., who after a tour of inspection of the city, returned to me to allow me to accompany him to a few of the many places of interest of which this great city boasts.

We visited the Library, the Historical Society rooms, fire engine rooms, the State House, City Hall, water works, Bunker Hill, Navy yard and the penal institutions, and, as you may have seen, the great slaughterhouse of Cambridge was done by us. My acquaintance with the Foreman of the latter place secured us not only admission but also a very interesting and instructive tour. Mr. Keating was accompanied by a gentleman to conduct us through this mammoth establishment which is seven stories high and covers twice as much ground as your public square. It is done in a trifling description of this place, and it will only state a few facts. The slaughterhouse of Cambridge was done by us. Counterfeits at Work.

HEALTH AND LIFE ENDANGERED BY UNSCRIPTURAL DEALERS WHO PERSUADE UNDISPENSING PEOPLE TO TAKE IMITATIONS—SOME PUNGENT REMINDERS.

No medicine that is not of more than ordinary merit suffers from imitations or substitutes. The fact that an imitation is offered is one of the strongest proofs of the excellent qualities of the genuine article. The Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are no exception to this rule.

The fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are only sold in securely sealed boxes, the wrapper around which is printed in red ink and bears the registered trade mark "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Notwithstanding this constant warning there are unscrupulous dealers here and there who defraud the public by selling imitation pills (also colored pink) either by the dozen, hundred or by the ounce, alleging that they are "just as good" or "just the same" as the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This is a falsehood and the unscrupulous dealer who so does is trying to cheat you and should be avoided.

The formula of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is a secret and is known to no one but the company. Therefore if some dealer tells you a substitute is "just the same" or "just as good" as the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because there is a larger profit for him in selling the imitation.

When you ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills see that the trade mark is on the wrapper of every package, and do not be deceived by cheap imitations. The only reliable source of supply is the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which is sold in the United States and in all the principal cities of the world.
