

LIMIT GARBAGE CAN WEIGHT TO 50 LBS., LATEST SUGGESTION

Council To Vote On Bylaw For This.

HEAVY BOXES NUISANCE

These Containers Partly To Blame for Slowness in Collection.

A bylaw limiting the weight of garbage containers to 50 pounds will be introduced in the city council as a solution to present collection troubles, according to Ald. G. B. Drake.

With City Engineer H. A. Brazier he made an inspection of several garbage routes in poor conditions to be "disgraceful." He thinks that a bylaw to make the citizens deposit garbage and refuse in proper receptacles is the only way to deal with the situation.

We found ashes piled in barrels and immense boxes which it was almost impossible for two men to lift, much less one," said Ald. Drake. "In some cases the boxes were thrown on the ground to be left there until spring, when the garbage man would be expected to clear them away. The conditions were disgraceful."

Gets Photographs.

City Engineer Brazier is preparing a report on the situation. He intends to show actual conditions by photographs, and has secured pictures of a number of back yards. Some of these in the very heart of the city reveal a surprising condition. Others are models of how garbage should be disposed of until they are away.

Mr. Brazier also attributes much of the trouble to lack of co-operation on the part of the citizens. The garbage men are instructed that where garbage and ashes are not ready for collection, in proper condition, they should be left in the householder. Generally this results in the garbage man being told to mind his own business and to return to his quarters. Many of the complaints regarding collection come from places where garbage is not in proper condition for collection, according to the city engineer.

"It is an opinion that the city engineer has sufficient work on his hands, without attending to the garbage collection," he said. "It does not necessarily follow that the city should have control of the department as of the incinerator. That, in my opinion, is quite within his province, but looking after the garbage collection through a superintendent is quite another matter."

"What is his province? Is it to employ men who can give his undivided attention to a proper collection? Another department is quite unnecessary."

"If Mr. Drake is unable to secure good results, he should not try to do it. Why? Then the council would be in a position to try to work out a system according to his own ideas. He should want to find out in a valid reason why a good service cannot be maintained."

"If the equipment is insufficient, we should know without any delay. We should be told if there is any other cause that prevents an up-to-date service."

POWER RE-DISTRIBUTED FOR BENEFIT OF FACTORIES

London Still Getting Only 50 Per Cent of Normal Supply.

While London's power allotment is still fifty per cent short today, factories and other business places are rearranging their circuits to have rearranged so that all the available power is being used for industrial purposes.

Many of the factories were affected early in the morning, however, while much of the power was being used for lighting purposes. Power on domestic circuits was shut off much earlier than usual today.

SPECIAL TRAIN BEING RUN FOR BIG INGERSOLL GAME

For the accommodation of London fans, who wish to go to Ingersoll Friday night, to see the local juniors battle with the Toronto team, a special train will be run on the G. T. R. The special will leave at 7:15 o'clock from the Ingersoll street depot, and will carry six coaches. One special car will be attached to the train for judges and their escorts. In the event of the train not getting back until after the street cars have ceased running, special cars will be run from the G. T. R. depot.

It is expected that a large crowd will go to Ingersoll to support the side in the most important battle of the season. Those behind the team have reserved an entire section at the Ingersoll Arena, and 160 of these seats are being sold in London.

Points to Territory Which the City Has Annexed.

CONDUCTORS ARE SCARCE

Expenditures for new schools are not unusual. A review of the new territory annexed to the city at various times, in the opinion of members of the board of education, they point out that the board was never consulted when the proposals to add various parts of the surrounding county were made.

But the board was asked to assume the debt of all schools which happened to be in the annexed territory. Now that the city population and school of children has increased as a result of new residents in these districts the board considers that modification of the board's duties should meet with no opposition.

The total amount which the board pays for the territory is $18,000. Of this total $11,844 mills of the fifteen. The total taxes are about $21,000. Of this the board of education gets $16,000, leaving only $5,000 for all other purposes.

OLD BOYS' REUNION IN AUGUST DEPENDS ON THE OLD BOYS

Will Be Consulted Before Arrangements Made by Home Guard.

At a meeting of the executive of the home guard of the old boys last night it was decided to let the matter of a reunion in August rest with the old boys themselves.

Night letters were sent to the secretaries of the presidents of the out of town guards in the larger cities. They were asked to get in touch with all the members they could in their city and to reply as soon as possible, stating the wishes of the ex-Londoners there. If the replies are in the affirmative the local branch will make the arrangements. If otherwise there will be nothing lost as they have not yet started to make the reunion, as it was some time since one was held here. They will do all in their power at this end to make the reunion a welcome and a real good time while they are in the city if they decide to come home this year.

Local Man Found Guilty of Selling Liquor.

A local man was given the option of spending four months in jail or paying a fine of $400, after having been convicted in police court this morning on a charge of selling liquor.

Roy Curtis and Cyril Henry, two government agents, swore that at 11:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, December 27, they had gone to a home on the door and asked "have you some for a crack?"

The defendant in the affirmative and were admitted to the house. Defendant went into the rear of the house and returned with a bottle of whisky, for which Curtis and Henry paid $9.

Not at Home. The defendant, who was not in St. Thomas, although he was taking on the case of the defendant, had gone to the Horton street house early in the morning to have a good time and had also been there in the early morning hours of December 27. On this last occasion he had arrived at the house at 12:30 a.m., after coming from St. Thomas. The police entered the place and arrested him while he was in the act of receiving some whisky from a "crack."

James Grady declared that he and accused had gone to Fort Talbot to hunt rabbits in the afternoon. J. C. Evely, a veterinary surgeon, was present at the trial and testified that he had been on the way to the hunt, and that he and his son, Clarence, were brought to the house by the defendant. They had been at their place in Fort Talbot about two o'clock in the afternoon.

SHUTTING OFF WATER IS KEEPING UTILITIES MEN ON THE RUN THIS WINTER

Frozen water pipes are keeping public utilities employees on the run 24 hours a day. Three shifts of men, each working eight hours, are held in readiness for this work. They use an automobile and this in addition the greater part of day. Their work, however, has almost entirely confined to shutting off water so that pipes in buildings can be thawed. Cases of outside pipes freezing have been rare this winter.

This situation is accounted for largely by the fact that the frost penetrating deeply through the ground, has frozen the pipes. Hundreds of pipes in private dwellings and other buildings are being thawed out.

These are on private property, the work of thawing them must be done by the property owner. However, a number of having them must be done by the property owner. However, a number of having them must be done by the property owner.

EPIDEMICS HAMPER RAILWAYS; MEN HERE BOOKED SICK

Much Extra Work For Those At Posts.

CONDUCTORS ARE SCARCE

The railroads in the London district are being seriously affected by influenza and la grippe, about 100 employees of both C. P. R. and G. T. R. being out of work at the present time. The illness of so many employees is making the work of the railroads very difficult to maintain at their posts, as it is necessary for them to double up.

The C. P. R. is seriously affected not only in London, but at Chatham and Windsor, it being found difficult to keep the trains running owing to the shortage of engineers and firemen. It was stated by the local officials today that at Windsor railwaymen are suffering from what is believed to be either the influenza or a severe attack of la grippe. At Chatham ten men are out from the same ailments.

Many Booked Sick. In this city six engineers and eight firemen are booked sick, in addition to fourteen trainmen. Eight employees of the C. P. R. are also on the sick list, while six car workers are unable to report for duty. The district roadmaster and the assistant superintendent are also off work.

Fourteen engineers on the Grand Trunk were on the sick list this morning, according to the yard foreman, along with nine firemen. Great difficulty was experienced in filling the cars from more than seven conductors to man the trains, as seven of the local men are at their homes suffering from one or less serious attacks of la grippe or the flu. Five brakemen, four yardmen and four switch-tenders were away this morning on account of illness.

Superintendent Off. Superintendent C. F. Forrester, of the C. P. R., has been off for a few days suffering from a severe cold, and John Gilman, stationmaster, was unable to appear in his office this morning.

The railroads are more liable to be affected than any other class of workers, officials and men in the city, in contact with thousands of people in the carrying out of their duties. Many of these men have been in the Windsor run, and are believed to have contracted the flu from that city, where it is prevalent in the form of an epidemic at present.

Two dispatchers in the London offices of the C. P. R. and several clerks are suffering from a severe cold, and John Gilman, stationmaster, was unable to appear in his office this morning.

Frank Fouse, master mechanic at the Grand Trunk car shops, stated that the men employed in the shops are off duty, suffering from the grippe or severe cold. This was hampering the work in the shops, Mr. Fouse said, but as the attacks seem to be passing off in three or four days he expects most of the men will be back on the job next week.

Additional assistance in dental inspection and increased efforts to make the use of the toothbrush a general habit with school children have been recommended by the board of education. E. W. Fisher, school dental inspector, states that at present there are 419 children who need dental services.

During January 27 dental services were given to 393 children and gave 297 treatments. Most of the work at the central clinic performed 358 dental operations.

Novel Scheme. The doctor has under consideration a novel scheme to induce every school child to use his tooth brush regularly. Details of this cannot be announced until it is brought before a committee. It will probably be done within a few days.

Public School Inspector Edwards is circulating his dental inspection recommendations in the schools. "What is the nature of the public appreciation of the fact that several children are in the best of health, if the child is not in the best of health, he is in a condition to receive education."

Physical Education. "If we are to achieve the desired result in education we must create the children physically as well as mentally. In fact, during some years of the child's life the physical must necessarily precede the mental."

A book called "Suggestions for Science on Education," in which there are mentioned the factors of research and one in the University of Chicago is circulating his dental inspection recommendations in the schools. "What is the nature of the public appreciation of the fact that several children are in the best of health, if the child is not in the best of health, he is in a condition to receive education."

Another factor that these scientists and educationists to observe is the importance of the physical education to the development of the child.

James Bennett was acquitted in police court this morning on a charge of assaulting and wounding a man by the name of Hunter at the Salvation Army Hostel, but was fined $10 for being disorderly. Hunter made a charge of assault against him for according to witnesses he struck Bennett.

It was peaceful at the hostel until Bennett entered and seeing two men talking to Hunter, said to them: "don't talk to him; he's medicated."

"You're fish for my," replied Hunter. Then followed a hot altercation. This was followed by Hunter taking a number of slaps-hammer punches at Bennett, who unable to withstand the terrific force of them, went down for the count.

According to William Saunders, who was a witness of the affair, Bennett thought that a murderer was in the offing and put his hand before him in a defensive position. Whether he grabbed the razor or Bennett, dashed, himself, neither Saunders, John Porteus or Carl Bundell, who were present, could state. Anyway Hunter's hand was cut.

The bathroom was the next scene of action. Bennett came in there and pulled a razor from his pocket. Hunter thought that a murderer was in the offing and put his hand before him in a defensive position. Whether he grabbed the razor or Bennett, dashed, himself, neither Saunders, John Porteus or Carl Bundell, who were present, could state. Anyway Hunter's hand was cut.

WINDSOR, Feb. 4.—That the east side of Windsor is the logical location for a technical school to serve the five border municipalities was recommended today by Dr. W. V. Merchant, director of technical education in Ontario to the provincial commission composed of representatives from boards of education of interested municipalities.

Dr. Merchant's recommendation was based on a report prepared by Dr. J. C. Miller, who recently made a survey of the district with a view to determining the best location for a technical school. One big school built on lines similar to a modern factory was a better plan to follow than having separate

BRANTFORD, Feb. 4.—A campaign has been launched here by the chamber of commerce to secure better advertising privileges in trade magazines which are for the most part published in the United States and which demand rates based on the circulation. RAILWAY CLERKS TO GET INCREASED PAY, IS POPULAR RUMOR

Officials Say They Know Nothing of It.

HINTS HAVE BEEN GIVEN

Increase in salary of from $7 to $11 per month will probably be granted clerks employed on the railways in Canada, according to rumors current in railway circles today.

Many would benefit. Scores of clerks in the city on the C. P. R. and G. T. R. would benefit by the increase, which would mean that these two companies would pay several thousand dollars additional in London each year.

There is one thing certain, this official stated, and that is that the increase will be granted at an increase in salary before the end of this month. Just to what extent this will be he was unable to say, but when pressed for an estimate, he said it was highly improbable that the minimum would be placed at less than $10 per month.

The increase will not affect clerks under 18 years of age. In railway circles it is the general belief that the war board may raise the age limit for clerks of 18 years of age.

QUESTIONS OF POLICY TO BE DISCUSSED TO-NIGHT

Housing Commission Has Several Problems to Solve at Meeting.

Several questions of policy will be debated at the meeting of the housing commission tonight. Efforts probably will be made to place the whole system on a new businesslike basis.

To Discuss Policy. The future building policy also will be discussed. It is expected that the commission will be practically ready to start work on the houses already built, but cost more than expected, and the commission must find a way to complete them.

HEART SO BAD WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE.

Miss Eva P. Yatsman, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I declined with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, whenever I was that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day, noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them, and before I had taken more than two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me, and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

GERMAN GOVERNMENT ORDERS DISOBEYED BY BARON VON LERSNER

Was Told To Accept List, But Resigned Instead.

Berlin, Feb. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Baron von Lersner's refusal to accept the allied note regarding the extradition of accused Germans was not in accordance with instructions he had received from Berlin. The German Government had requested him to receive it, but he asked by telegram for permission to resign, and his resignation was immediately accepted.

RECEIVED EXPLICIT ORDERS.

Berlin, Feb. 4.—(Havas.)—Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German mission in Paris, has been relieved of that office. Baron von Lersner, it is stated, had received explicit orders to transmit the expected allied note on extradition demands to his government. Paris advices quote von Lersner as declaring he had resigned rather than transmit the list of Germans demanded by the Allies.

Admiral von Lersner, it is learned, was relieved at his own request. The note of the Entente concerning the surrender of accused Germans was handed Baron von Lersner on Tuesday, and the German representative, although he had received on Saturday last formal instructions simply to transmit it to the foreign affairs minister, returned it to Premier Millerand, declaring his conscience would not permit him to be a party to the surrender of Germans to the Allies.

Baron von Lersner demanded that he be relieved from his functions, and his request was immediately granted.

COUNCIL SENDS NAMES DIRECTLY TO BERLIN GOVT.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—The council of ambassadors, after its meeting tonight, issued a statement saying that the decision of the Allies with regard to German names for extradition is demanded for war crimes would be communicated directly to Berlin. The text of the statement follows:

"The list of war criminals having been presented to Baron von Lersner for transmission to his government, the president of the German delegation returned the list with an intimation to the president of the delegation that he had authorized the German government to accept the names of the persons named in the list, and was leaving Paris. The note of the Allies will be communicated directly to the Government at Berlin."

FEDERAL PROHIBITION LAW INTENDED TO PROTECT PROVINCES

Hon. C. J. Doherty Defends Dominion Dry Legislation.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—Federal government members are not perturbed over the strictures passed by the Dominion prohibitionists over the legal opinion of John S. Ewart, K.C., to the effect that they are unworkable in Ontario. The opinion here is that it is for the province itself to make the act workable, and that the legislation never pretended to cover matters which Mr. Ewart says they do not cover.

Protects Legislation.

"I do not know which act is meant," said Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice this morning, "The Doherty act, so called, absolutely protects any legislation the province may enact in the matter of importing and manufacturing. If a province declares any particular use of liquor to be illegal the act makes it illegal to import or manufacture liquor into and in that province for those illegal purposes. It is for the province to take the initiative. Not Prevent Delivery.

"So far as the amended Scott act is concerned, which provides for a plebiscite on importing, Judge Doherty pointed out that this act could not certainly prevent the delivery from breweries within a province to householders within that province. If the province took place in Montreal, it is not the concern of the federal authorities who cannot be expected to further the province's wishes themselves are willing to go.

"Our purpose," said he, "was to give protection from outside to provincial legislation."

SUSPENDS ENGLISH PENSIONS COMMITTEE

LONDON, Feb. 4.—(Canadian Press.)—The ministry of pensions has suspended for twelve months the English War Pensions Committee, which administers the war pensions to a large part of the British Empire, in accordance with its own views, and without regard to the trust.

The pensions committee reported with allegations of Government delays in granting pensions, and declared that soldiers' families were getting out of hand because of these delays, and can only be restrained from violence with difficulty.

POLAND STUDIES IT

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Poland has sent a tentative reply to the peace offer of the Bolsheviks, stating that she is studying the proposed treaty; it was learned today. Meanwhile the Soviet Government has ordered that the Bolshevik troops stand on their present lines.

No information is forthcoming here regarding the nature of the terms offered by the Bolsheviks or Poland's attitude, but in diplomatic circles the belief is expressed that Poland will ultimately accept, if the terms are reasonable, since she is hardly in a position to continue the warfare single-handed.

REVIVING THE TORY PARTY.
Hon. C. Howard Ferguson's declaration that Unionist Government has served its purpose and should cease is significant in that it constitutes a rallying cry to the old line Conservatives of the Dominion to get together if they are hoping to save anything at all of their party. It is a question if the call has not really been inspired from Ottawa, where the absolute hopelessness of the Unionist party has been made manifest by the impossibility of agreeing upon a leader to succeed Sir Robert Borden. The inside facts of what happened at Ottawa are beginning to come out and it is now known pretty definitely that the friends of Hon. Arthur Meighen thought they had made the premiership absolutely sure for him. They forgot something, apparently, for when the test came that developed a good deal of opposition to Meighen and he has since then been at odds with a number of his colleagues, and, according to rumor, ignored by them in council.

The Meighen following, which probably constitutes the most important of the several elements entering into the contest, has realized at last that Unionist Government is about ended and the next step that may be looked for will be the booming of Meighen for leader of the old Conservative party, made over to suit conditions of 1920. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson's blast is probably one of the signals to rally the faithful and it will be interesting to watch the manoeuvring that will take place during the next few months in the effort to unite the shattered remains of Conservatism under one of the high lights of Unionism. Meighen is probably as good a "hope" as the party can muster at the present time; at any rate he will have a chance to see if he can reconstitute the party.

Now that its own friends and backers are predicting its early demise Unionism may be regarded as more of a lost cause than ever. The hopes that were raised in some of the ministerial minds at Ottawa that in Unionism would be found a sort of fountain of perpetual youth for their party fortunes have been dashed to the ground, and as far as the cabinet is concerned it is simply a matter of how much longer they will inflict themselves on the country. Their helpless condition is shown by the way they are avoiding anything in the shape of a by-election. Ministers who six months ago were slated for dismissal from the cabinet are now being trotted out and given important portfolios, while similar evidence of ministerial trepidation is shown by the linking up of departments so as to reduce the number of ministers required.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson and his friends have another reason, too, for dislike of Unionism. They realize quite well that it was Unionist connections that were largely responsible for the disaster that overtook them in the last provincial election. They are, therefore, losing no time in endeavoring to clear their skirts for the future and to have no Ottawa affiliations that will prove adverse in the day of testing. Ontario will likely be the first province to attempt the reconstruction of the Conservative party and will find the Ottawa crowd that is behind Hon. Arthur Meighen thinking along similar lines now that the prospect of their here leading a Unionist party has fallen through.

IGNOBLE EIGHT HUNDRED.
The list of 800 Germans to be delivered to the Allies is the blackest list of criminals ever put together since the life and times of Cain. Was any crime omitted by these men whom their fellow-citizens hate to render up? But leave that to the courts that will try them.

There should be a round-up of the whole collection at the French frontier or some other assembling point. A special train should convey the party en masse to Paris. Strictly, the cars should be not pullmans but cattle-cars. Like those in which the kindly Teutonic humanists sent to Berlin the British prisoners with such placards as "To the Zoo," "Hell Women" (for the Highlanders). All that need be pasted on the train for the 800 would be labels of their own devising, their own epitaphs for themselves, "Nach Paris," "Huns." But the courtesy of the Allies will not stop to treat these rogues in their own way. They are sure of politeness and a fair trial, a trial intended not only to clear or convict them, but to write history with colors of truth. Ludendorff and the rest will suffer no such treatment as was meted to Nurse Cavell and Captain Fryatt. But tried they should be, if any criminal deserves trial.

IMMIGRATION FIGURES.
Immigration figures just issued show that during last year there were 117,650 newcomers to this country. Of these the greater number were British or American, fresh arrivals from the United Kingdom slightly exceeding those from across the border. The figures show an increase over 1918 of more than 100 per cent. According to the statistics 25,000 would be new citizens from the United States were turned back by the immigration authorities through being unable to provide the necessary qualifications as to money, literacy or physique. That the immigration department is carefully sifting the applicants from other lands for Canadian citizenship is commendable. We have immense spaces to be filled up, vast natural resources that will require millions of workers of one kind or another to produce in a degree that measures up to the possibilities, but it is imperative that we let in only such as are stable if we are to get a right start for the stupendous expansion that is our destiny. There must be no room in Canada for the criminal or those who are agents, official or otherwise, of disorder and discontent. We bar the gates to the destitute and the law breaker and those who may be diseased, but it is equally as important that the professional agitator and his kind be kept out.

The whole machinery of the immigration department of the Government should be used to encourage the coming of such as approve our social and political system, those who are willing to conform to our laws and regulations. Any other kind will handicap and hamper. Twenty thousand newcomers of the type that will fall in heartily with the development of this country as we wish it to progress is preferable to three times twenty thousand not intensively selected. Never in the history of Canada has it been so vital that quality rather than quantity be the guiding light for those who pass on the immigrant.

MENTAL MALADIES IN CANADA.
At the annual convention of the Canadian National Committee of Mental Hygiene held in Toronto a few days ago, the startling statement was made that in Canada today there are 150,000 persons suffering from mental diseases of the mind. In this number are those who are insane, those afflicted less acutely and the feeble-minded. This is an alarming condition and one that should enlist immediately the services of the best alienists the authorities can secure. Perhaps it would be well if a thorough investigation of the country's insane asylums be made. The unfortunate who are inmates of these institutions must be given the very best attention and care their happier fellow-citizens can provide. The Quebec Telegraph points out the necessity for reform as follows:

These most unfortunate of God's creatures as they have more than once been called, deserve everything that can be done for the possible amelioration of their condition, and there is no doubt that up to the present time they have not received these deserts. Our asylums have simply been detention institutions for the herding of the insane, but also a study of their condition or careful treatment for the cure of mental maladies. There is now a strong agitation for reforms in this direction, which are not likely to go unheeded, and on the other hand there is also an insistent demand for stricter vigilance in the mental examination of all immigrants, not only at the borders of the Dominion, but also at the point of embarkation. There must be no relaxation of any precaution that it is possible to take in order to prevent the entrance into the country of any more of these weak-minded immigrants.

On grounds of both decency and national efficiency nothing should be left undone that would bring relief to the victims of mental diseases or help cure where such is possible.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
Cleanliness, exercise, cheerfulness, fresh air, nourishment, good sanitation will make the difference.

No, the street cars were not standing still yesterday. They were merely running at half speed.

Ivens and his friends should reflect that people who have a good strong case never have to pose as martyrs.

Senator Borah is the latest to twist the Lion's tail. We hadn't heard that he had presidential aspirations.

Clemenceau announces that he will write a book, which is a striking proof that he is as brave as they say he is.

The Russian Soviet's "ambassador" to the United States says his government is prepared to spend half a billion with American businessmen. He calls it a "nice juicy apple." But when America bites into it it may turn out a lemon.

The Japanese Government refuses Solz as ambassador from Germany. Solz was one of the pronounced Kaiserites whom the present "republican" Kaiser of Berlin seeks to honor and be honored by. A government that sends Solz to Tokyo does not surprise anyone when it declares itself unable to send Ludendorff, etc., for trial.

THE SCOTTISH CAMPAIGN.
Prohibitionists in Scotland are planning to leave no stone unturned in their efforts to secure a successful campaign in the fall. The temperance (Scotland) act, which comes into force this year, provides that in September a resolution signed by not less than one-tenth of the electors in any area may demand a poll, such poll to be taken in November or December. There will be three questions submitted:

1. A no-license resolution, which will be carried if 65 per cent of those voting, and 35 per cent of the voters on the roll, are in favor of no-license.
2. A limiting resolution—which means a reduction of one-quarter of the licenses—will not be carried unless a majority of those voting, equal to 25 per cent of the voters on the roll, are in favor of it. If no-license is not carried, those in favor of it will have their votes added to the resolution in favor of reduction.
3. No change—if a majority of the voters are in favor of no change that resolution will be carried. The temperance organizations are co-operating and co-ordinating their efforts to achieve a victory for the first proposition. Pamphlets, newspapers, clip-sheets and posters are being extensively used in a well-organized publicity campaign. In addition to this, there has been arranged a program of public meetings, which have begun now and will run on until the opening of the polls. This educational campaign in the cities, towns and villages of Scotland is being aided by some of the most brilliant speakers and able exponents of prohibition of the old land and of America.

From Here and There

CROWN HAS MANY VICISSITUDES.
The Hungarian crown, which is reported to have been stolen lately by revolutionists, has suffered many vicissitudes. A King of Bohemia once stole it, but Otto of Bavaria subsequently recovered it. He, sending back to Hungary, was afterwards captured, but it was nearly lost on the journey, because the jolting of the wagon threw the crown into a ditch. At a later period Elizabeth, widow of King Albert, appears to have thought it rather a good thing to have with her when she fled to Germany in case she should ever be financially embarrassed—a piece of foresight which stood her in good stead, since she eventually pawned it to the Emperor Frederick. During the revolution it was again in danger of being unlawfully appropriated, and so it was buried in a forest. After remaining in this dim security for many years it was subsequently removed to Budapest.

MARCH OF THE MONTHS.
[Listener in the Boston Transcript.]
Now that the sun has really turned its corner and the days begin to lengthen, though the cold begins to strengthen, too, the human fancy turns to thoughts of the good old summer time. It is a long road yet to be traveled in snow and sleet and mud—all earlier, but however, than the paralyzing cold waves of winter, and yet it is easy to delude one's self, in any bright morning under the mounting sun, that the new spring time is at hand, when the scent of budding leaves and starting grass will be in the air, and the robin, chirping in the tall elms. Housekeeping dwellers in city flats turn their thoughts and their talk upon their bungalows. In a few moons hence they will be searching for a new house, or a new place to live in the damp, mossy woods—the little pink and white and dainty blue ones with their faint, haunting fragrance. It will be upon after that the low, swampy back lot on the edge of the city will have its water cress will be swaying in the rippling current of the ditch, and our summer-long companion, the chirping, croaking, yodeling frogs, are there to welcome us, though so suddenly quiet upon our stealthy approach. After the spring planting of garden and flower beds, and the dead leaves are raked from the peony shoots and rose bushes, will begin the busy season of the garden. Splendors in the way of poppies, asters and sweet peas, and so on, up to the gusty fall days when the summer's leaves will be hurled in clouds of wind-rows along the fences, and so back to snow again.

LEAP YEAR.
[Halifax Chronicle.]
To the wisdom of one Roman ruler and the whim of another we owe our leap year. Julius Caesar found the Roman calendar in such a muddle, for ignoring the seasons, it often produced summer in the middle of winter, that, finding the astronomical year was 365 1/4 days, he made that the civil year, dividing the days between the months in 30's and 31's, except February, which had only 29, an extra one in leap year. But later came Augustus, who, annoyed that his name month had only 30 days, took one day from February and added it to August. Thus he made 31 days in August and February, except in every fourth year, only 28.

THE LILIES.
Two thousand years ago it was supposed that water lilies closed their petals at night and re-treated far under water, to emerge again at sunrise. This was Pliny's view, and it was not impeached until the English botanist John Ray, in 1688, first pointed out the mistake. The great lily of Zanibar, one of the grandest of the lily family, opens its flowers, ten inches wide, within 11 of the morning and 6 in the afternoon. They are of the richest yellow, with from 150 to 200 golden stamens in the centre, and they remain open four or five days. It is not generally known that there are lilies that have nocturnal habits—night-bloomers as they are called. They are very punctual timekeepers, too, opening and closing with commendable regularity.

CREATING A CANADIAN ATMOSPHERE.
[Kitchener Telegraph.]
A pamphlet has been sent out by R. S. Thornton, minister of education, dealing with the problem of education among the non-English speaking in which he makes the following interesting statement:
"During the past three years the department of education has been carrying on a steady campaign for providing Canadian schools with a Canadian atmosphere in the non-English speaking settlements in the Province of Manitoba. The difficulty of securing teachers for these schools is being met by the erection of the teacher's residences. Canada now only provides a home for the teacher, but, in many cases, becomes a centre for community life. In this way the influence of the school extends far beyond the actual teaching of the children. Already some 140 new schools and 75 teachers' residences have been established, and the work is steadily going on."

HANDWRITING.
Thackeray's handwriting was a marvel of neatness. He is said to have stated that if all other means of earning his own living failed, he would be able to write the Lord's Prayer on his thumb-nail. His usual writing was so small that only eyes of microscopic power could with ease decipher it. Charles Dickens wrote a much less beautiful hand, but equally minute. He had a habit, too, of writing with blue ink on blue paper, a propensity which caused many a compositor to hurl invectives at his head.

"Eccentric and spiteful little flourishes dart about his manuscript in various odd ways, sometimes evidently intended as a cross to a 't', but constantly receding in an absurd fashion, as if attempting a calligraphical somersault, and destroying the entire word from which they sprang. Some letters slope one way, and some another, some are halt, maimed and crippled, and all are blind."

FAIR WORDS.
[Cleveland Plaindealer.]
Japan needs the world's consideration. There are dangerous days ahead for the great power of the Far East. Haughty isolation or arrogant disregard for the world's opinion cannot advantage the Japanese.
There have been times during the war when Japan has seemed too self-sufficient, too disregardful of her rating in international opinion. "Those days are past," Japan today is heart and soul with the Allies that are striving to reconstruct the world on better lines.
Premier Hara's address at the opening of the Japanese Diet is straightforward recognition of Japan's position. He does not disguise Japan's anxiety over the Russian situation. The Russian problem has become a Japanese problem. As yet Japan sees no solution. The problem is made immeasurably more difficult by Europe's decision to deal with the Bolsheviks. The western nations are remote from the Red frontier. The Reds are at Japan's back door, almost ready to try to break in. Japan feels that whatever she does must have the approval of enlightened international opinion. For this reason she is going slowly, but thinking rapidly.

Meanwhile she is determined to clean her record. Premier Hara announces that steps are already being taken for the fulfillment of the Japanese promise to return Shantung to China. Really this return must be made before all the doubters will be convinced of Japan's sincerity. Cunning and craftiness rather than straightforwardness are held by Japanophobes to be the dominant traits of Japanese diplomacy. It is alleged, in other words, that Japanese statesmen are just as much European diplomats as before the war. Premier Hara intimates that Japan will dispel this false conception, and will prove herself animated by the purest international morality.
Surely honesty is the best policy for Japan today. Japan is contemplating the possibility of a great war against Bolshevist Russia. If she has the confidence and sympathy of Europe and America she is strongly armed. If she continues to labor under the suspicion of imperialistic scheming she will find her task doubly hard. Premier Hara speaks fair words, and there is no reason to doubt his sincerity. Japan and her allies are in a position to demand just such fairness as the premier promises.

LOVE OF THE WILD

BY ARCHIE P. MCKISHNIE

"We don't want any trouble with Colonel Hallibut," he said. "We heard that he has his eyes on our timber. When he comes after it he'll find us here." The one on the left next," motioned the girl, and the rifle spoke once more.
"Then why will you have your been letting me waste my breath on you for the last hour?" snarled Watson, his face purple.
"McTavish stood up."
"That'll do now," he warned. "There's Gloss coming up the path, and swears she is something she has never heard in this house, and before I'll have her hear you use such words I'll cram this down your throat, and don't you forget it."
He lifted a hairy fist then set down and resumed his smoking.
"The Gosses entered the room singing blithely. Her shapely arms were bare to the elbows. Her big grey eyes, dancing with life and joy, swept the room and rested wonderingly on Watson. He in turn gazed at the girl, and an aghast thinness wiped out the mottled color of his cheeks. He drew back whispering something under his breath."

STOMACH DISORDER ONLY 6 MONTHS TO LIVE

Read What B. B. Did For Him.

Mr. Hans Kehki, Magnolia, Alta., writes: "Some years ago I became very sick from stomach disorder, which the doctor told me had started from drinking bad water. I tried local doctors, but finding I got worse from day to day I went to a doctor in Edmonton. He told me that I must have an operation, and that if I didn't I couldn't live any longer than six months. I told him I had better die after six months than be cut to pieces. I did not have the operation, but returned home. No one was there to meet me at the station, because they did not know I was coming. I felt so bad I couldn't walk farther than 10 yards without resting. It took me 6 hours to walk 5 miles; the distance from the station to my home.

"Some weeks later I read an advertisement about Burdock Blood Bitters. After I had used one bottle I felt much better, and after I had used three bottles I was completely cured; therefore you see your B. B. has saved my life, and I cannot praise it too highly."

STARTED ON LOCAL LOTS

Played One Season Professionally Before Jumping to Major Organization.

Detroit, Feb. 5.—Frank Okrie, whose jump from the sandlots of Detroit to a major league berth in the short span of a single season in professional baseball astounded his friends, will endeavor to reward the confidence President Navin expressed when he purchased the young pitcher's contract from the London club of the Michigan Ontario circuit last fall.

Okrie stopped around to the baseball office Wednesday and decorated with his autograph the document that makes him a Tiger for better or for worse. The young finger is qualified to do so professional at this time, but it is the intention for several years, who saw him perform against Pittsburgh at Navin field last summer, to give Okrie a thorough trial before passing judgment on him.

As most everybody who follows the fortunes of Detroit baseball club knows, Okrie is a left-hander, or of the same species that the "cannon" pitcher is. In experience, however, he is a right-hander, who is capable of doing under the best test must still be determined, however, whether the fire is concentrated and brains support mechanical skill, as is the case in the slits circles of baseball. Okrie is an untried youngster, but his prospects of developing are sufficiently bright to create a feeling that he is worth creating for the voyage through Dixie when the call to assemble is issued.

Should the young southpaw win a regular on the Bengal front as the result of the spring training exercises "cannon" pitcher, Okrie is a right-hander, who is capable of doing under the best test must still be determined, however, whether the fire is concentrated and brains support mechanical skill, as is the case in the slits circles of baseball. Okrie is an untried youngster, but his prospects of developing are sufficiently bright to create a feeling that he is worth creating for the voyage through Dixie when the call to assemble is issued.

Like a number of others who were lifted out of the ranks of the infant league scouts who roamed the region unfettered, and President Navin signed the check that bought his release.

Precedent is against Okrie's chances of making good in Detroit, as homespun manipulators of the home-side seems to be singled when in the fold of the Bengal. But this might be a time when the hoodoo "cannon" exercise his baneful influences.

Obstacles are apt to be harder for Frank to surmount than would have been the situation two years ago. Then a left-hander of almost any description would have entered the Tiger's midst, due to the shortage of southpaw material. Now, though, the Jungles host of left-handers, and it will be doubly hard for the start to break down the barrier.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Just Try This When Hairy Growths Appear

(Modes of Today.) A smooth, hairless skin always follows the use of a paste made by mixing some water with plain powdered deLorone. This paste is applied to the hairy surface 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain or discomfort attends the use of the deLorone paste, but caution should be exercised to be sure that you get real deLorone.—Adv.

SINCE 1870

Since I Discovered the Great Sweetener

"In the making of cakes, muffins and delicate tea biscuits, I find that the use of CROWN BRAND Syrup not only supplies the requisite sweetening, but it brings out the flavor of the blended ingredients, and, more than everything else, brings a lasting freshness of flavor. Since I discovered 'The Great Sweetener' my cakes are more palatable and digestible. They don't dry out so rapidly, don't crack nor get stale. And then, CROWN BRAND Syrup is so reasonably priced."

"'The Great Sweetener,' as I have learned to call CROWN BRAND Syrup, is a great help in the preparation of pie fillings, icings, etc. Mince meat, for instance, gains in mellowness, body and flavor, besides gaining in keeping qualities. Puddings are more palatable, lighter and more digestible—because Corn Syrup is already partially digested by its wonderful process of manufacture. Then, when you are icing a cake, think of the smoothness and the softness your icing receives by using CROWN BRAND, without the cloying sweetness and hardness from using sugar alone."

"The food value of candy is very high, but so is the price of sugar! CROWN BRAND Syrup is invaluable in making candy, and it is so reasonably priced! CROWN BRAND candies are softer, they can be better pulled, and because of this are more healthful. A candy that melts in the mouth is much more delightful than a hard, brittle piece of cloying sweetness. Think of soft, pliable, mouth-watering caramels, butter scotch or toffee, and you will need no further urging for using 'The Great Sweetener.'"

THOUGH at the time it seemed nothing short of disaster, it really was a fortunate thing that I ran out of sugar—because it led to my great discovery. I used to think of Corn Syrup only as a spread for bread or griddle cakes. That I could ever use it for baking and cake-making never entered my head—until Mary came "over the New Year."

Mary is one of those resourceful women who are never flustered or taken unawares. When I broke the tragic news that I had barely enough sugar for the tea and coffee, and that the family would shortly be clamoring for their cake and the children rioting for their candy, and all the stores shut up and so on—Mary calmly led the way into the pantry. "Why what about my old friend CROWN BRAND?" pointing to the familiar blue and yellow tins on the shelf.

So began a new era in my baking experience. I will always be grateful to Mary for coming to the rescue. She proved the general utility of CROWN BRAND Corn Syrup in kitchen economy as "The Great Sweetener" in cake baking, in the making of hot breads, muffins, cookies, etc. She showed me how to prepare sauces that are mellow, smoother, more digestible, more appetizing. She explained the wonderful process of making CROWN BRAND Syrup from golden corn, how it was partially digested in the can, adding to its nutritional value enormously, and how its use as an ingredient enhances the value of all foods.

When I marvelled at her knowledge, she laughed and said: "What's a poor body to do without ingenuity in these days of the higher cost of everything? What a blessing it is that people of moderate means can obtain all kinds of appetizing desserts, the cost of which without 'The Great Sweetener' might be prohibitive, and then," she added insinuatingly, "it is so reasonably priced."

If you have not yet discovered "The Great Sweetener," if you have used CROWN BRAND Syrup only as a spread for daily bread or to sweeten griddle cakes and hot breads, try it now for baking. It will help you to save sugar money and to improve the nutritional value and digestive qualities of the foods you serve. You will be amazed—you will be delighted. The economy of CROWN BRAND is not the real reason of its popularity. It's good, that's the BIG reason.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU
Council Urges Amendment To Empower Authorities To Force Fairness.

London Trades and Labor Council passed a resolution on Wednesday evening asking the amendment of the act governing labor employment bureaus...

Some delegates did not believe that the act really needed amending. A man without a job, they said, could not be particular, and if he were not satisfied with the position provided for him by the bureau it would at least do him no harm to accept it.

Delegate England moved that the committee appointed some time ago to prepare a new fair wage clause be presented to the board of education...
