GREAT GATHERING IN THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Reeve Purser Tendered a Magnificent Ovation With Three Wild Cheers for Dover—Herbert Clements Speaks Briefly and Pays Tribute to His Workers—Cheers Given for the Candidate and His Many Splendid Helpers.

Never before, in the history of the Maple City, has a political victory been received with such an enthusiastic, spontaneous and unanimous celebration as that accorded to Herbert S. Clements, M. P., in Chatham last evening. It can only be described by the expression, "The whole town went wild!"

When the result became known by the myriads of people on King street—The Planet was the first to announce it—the enthusiasm knew no bounds and from that time until a late hour the festivities were in order and carried out. King street was one confused mass of howling and cheering humanity. Not alone the sidewalks but the pavement from The Planet office to the C. P. R. station, was packed with the enthusiastic electors, and notwithstanding the fact that they made all the noise it was possible for them to make with their horns and cheering and yelling, they could not fully express their delight and satisfaction over the glorious victory of the people's candidate. It was indeed a magnificent reception and Mr. Clements had reason to be, and was, in fact, the proudest and happiest man in Chatham last night.

THE NEWS COMES.

Shortly after five o'clock the returns commenced to come in from the different polling sub-divisions in the city and the crowd around The Planet office rapidly grew larger and larger, and as each of the returns came in there was reason for cheering—and the cheering was not wanting.

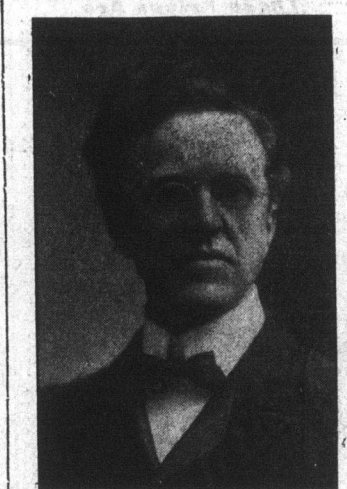

Great satisfaction was evidenced when The Planet extra was, as usual, the first to announce the fact that the city had given Mr. Clements 144 of a majority. Rapidly the news spread over the city and wherever it went it was greeted with cheers of satisfaction and delight. A crowd around The Planet office grew larger and larger as the returns from the country came in. In each case when it was learned that Mr. Clements was steadily and gradually rolling up a substantial majority the enthusiasm of the crowd also grew and grew, and with each forts, it was felt that the victory was a thand, and the supposition proved correct.

AT THE GRAND.

About eight o'clock the crowd adjourned to the Opera House to receive the balance of the country returns and also the returns from the other constituencies of the Dominion. Here it was found that a large crowd of the electorate and those interested in the result had already gathered. The audience was not composed of the city people only. As soon as the polls closed the people from the near-by towns and polling subdivisions commenced to come to come to the headquarters for the full returns, so that the most of the constituency was well represented in the crowd at the Opera House. People drove in from as far as Tilbury.

LADIES WAVE KERCHIEFS.
One noticeable feature of the Opera House gathering was the number of ladies who were present. The balcony was reserved for ladies and their escorts, and it was surprising to note how many took advantage of this opportunity to hear the results as they came in. It was also very noticeable how so many of the ladies took a real active part in the celebration of Mr. Clements' victory. It was probably the first time that the representative ladies of the city were thoroughly enthused and displayed their enthusiasm to such a great degree. They were all interested in the outcome and they were evidently well satisfied with the result.

President of the Liberal-Conservative Association.

W. H. Harper had a special wire installed in the Opera House and the returns were given out to the meeting just as soon as they were received. It was soon found that the body of the Opera House could not accommodate the vast crowds that sought admission and the stage was rapidly filled with anxious people awaiting the results. Many were turned away from the door, being utterly unable to secure even standing room.

MAJORITY GROWS.

There was lots of chance for cheering. Each country sub-division, as the results came in, showed that Mr. Clements was making a magnificent run. Geo. Heyward, S. B. Arnold, Dr. Thornton, Arthur Dunn, Ward Stanworth, J. M. Pike, G. W. Sulman, Mr. Clements, and other prominent Conservatives were seated around the table on the platform checking off the returns as they came in and each despatch was read to the audience by Mr. Heyward, not from the wires. These despatches are published elsewhere in this edition.

When Mr. Clements' election was assured from the reports received there was no more interest manifested in the returns from the outside places, and the audience called loudly for a speech.

THE NEW MEMBER SPEAKS.

Mr. Clements, with his usual obliging and polished manner, responded to the request and addressed the audience. As he was lifted to the table he was greeted with a thunder-burst of applause, which had to be checked by those on the platform before Mr. Clements could be heard. When order was finally restored, Mr. Clements addressed the meeting:—"I wish to thank the young men and the electors," said he, "for the hearty support they have given me in this fight. I am your representative now and I shall always have your interests at heart."

This was his message to the people and it was greeted with round upon round of applause.

THE POPULAR PRESIDENT.

The crowd called for Dr. Thornton. They wanted a few words from the man who had assisted Mr. Clements so materially.

"At the meeting at Pain Court," the doctor said, "Mr. M. K. Cow" was said to be too full for utterance. Well, that is the way I feel now. I am overjoyed over this victory. It was said that the light man would be snowed under, but we don't hear anything of that to-night—Applause. At North Buxton, last night, a prominent Liberal was heard to say that he would walk in the Stephens procession to-night if nothing happened—but it did happen—Laughter. We have a magnificent candidate, now our member, and he has worked a few straightforward, honest words, as is always his habit.

"If the Conservative party ever felt proud," said he, "it should be to-night. You have had a hard fight but you have had a good candidate and he has received a well earned victory."

CLEMENTS CHAIRED.

The Opera House rang with applause as Mr. Purser uttered these words and then it was that the enthusiasm of the crowd could be held in check no longer. Those on the platform raised Mr. Clements on their shoulders and carried him out of the house and placed him in a carriage which was waiting at the bottom of the stairs.

A procession was immediately formed with torches, decorated rigs, etc., and Mr. Clements was paraded in a carriage in which were also seated his father, Wm. Clements; Dr. Thornton, President of the Liberal-Conservative Association; S. B. Arnold, Secretary of the Association; Arthur Dunn and others, followed by other carriages carrying prominent and enthusiastic Conservative workers, the Citizens Band, the 24th Regiment Band, the Bugle Band, and a wild mob of cheering people on foot. The torchlight procession proceeded along King, Fourth, Queen and Fifth streets and ended at the Garmer House, where addresses were given from the balcony.

CHEER THE PLANET.

The feature of the procession was the serenade given to The Planet. The procession stopped twice in front of The Planet Office, and several hearty and enthusiastic cheers were given to The Planet and its proprietor, S. Stephenson, who was called to the window to bow his acknowledgement. The cheers were deafening and the crowd called for a speech from Mr. Stephenson, who had been watching the demonstration from the window of the editorial hard. He could not win alone, but he did so with the help of his workers—Applause.

MR. PIKE'S TRIBUTE.

Dr. Thornton was wildly cheered as he resumed his seat, and J. M. Pike was the next speaker called for. "I want to offer my congratulations now to our candidate, who is now our member. — Applause and cheers. But in celebrating our grand victory we have no hard feelings against our opponents, in spite of all they have done to defeat us. Their frantic efforts have been the result of their bad feelings at losing and we excuse them. I believe West Kent has elected a member of whom you will be proud, and having won this victory I hope that the fall of the Ross Government will follow."

OVATION TO REEVE PURSER.

Reeve Purser, of Dover, who was on the platform, was then called on for a speech. Mr. Purser received the applause of the evening. It was clearly shown that the hold the esteem and the respect of all of the intelligent people of West Kent. For many minutes he stood bowing acknowledgments to the thunderous ovation. Mr. Purser is very modest over it all and he merely came before the audience and gave room.

THE ADDRESSES.

The speeches from the balcony of the Garmer House were short but pointed.

Dr. A. W. Thornton came first and in a few well chosen words referred to the splendid victory and the new member. He was loudly and warmly applauded by the immense crowd below.

Mr. Clements followed with a few remarks. He was cheered to the echo. He said:—"Ladies and Gentlemen,—I desire to thank you all. We have won the fight; it has been your fight as well as mine. I cannot express my feelings, but I trust you feel as elevated as I do. I can assure you I am deeply grateful to you all for the honor you have done me."

And again, thanking the people, the cheer was taken up and continued.

GETS A BOQUET.

Mr. Clements was presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers from his Cleveland and Louisville friends.

Mr. Pike followed Mr. Clements with an excellent address. "I am sure I am more than delighted with the success of Mr. Clements," said he. "It augurs well for the future. On behalf of Mr. Clements I wish to thank all of the independent electors who have helped us in this campaign. You all contributed towards swelling the majority before the audience and gave Kent's Stalwart Farmers Royally Rally to the Standard of Their Young Colleague and Give Him a Bumper Vote of Confidence—Efforts of the Corporations to Defeat Him Fail Ignominiously—People's Choice Will Devote Himself to Their Interests.

The people of Kent did nobly and many constituencies in the Dominion followed the example of this Good Old County.

By six o'clock it was pretty generally conceded that the election of H. S. Clements was assured. Then the city went wild. It had been a hard, up-hill fight, and the re-action after the struggle had to have vent. The city of Chatham did about what was expected. But anxious eyes were turned to the country. What will the townships do? The Liberals were confident that the rural sections of the County would wipe out the city majority. But when the returns began coming in and each polling sub-division was showing a Conservative gain, then even the Liberals began to realize that it was all off.

It was a great victory, a grand redemption, but the men who deserve the most credit must not be lost sight of in the moment of victory.

FRED STONE,
President of the Reform Association.

First, there is H. S. Clements, the new member for Kent. He set to work as soon as he was nominated and has been heartily at the good work ever since. No one knows except his immediate friends how hard he has worked.

Then there is Dr. Thornton, the popular and esteemed president of the Conservative Association. He has been Clements' right hand partner from the very beginning and he has worked night and day. It is incredible the work he has done, but he's happy now. There are others, hundreds of them. Every Conservative was interested and the combined result of their energies is a victory for Mr. Clements.

The crowd on the streets in Good Old Chatham went wild with delight and they gave every evidence of their happiness.

The Opera House, where the Conservatives were mostly congregated, was the rendezvous for all who desired to hear how the country was going. The returns were read out by G. S. Heyward and ex-Mayor Sulman and were received readily by the happy crowd. Some of the leading city Conservative spoke, but their speeches were short and to the point. Laurier's election was conceded from the first, but the Conservatives have made some notable gains.

S. STEPHENSON ..... Proprietor.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

A MAGNIFICENT VICTORY

The Planet cannot confess surprise at the magnificent redemption of West Kent. For some time past—and particularly during the last week—it has been conscientiously assured of a victory for the people's candidate, Herbert S. Clements. The swing of victory has been in the air—victory for a good man, a good cause and the people's interests.

The people of West Kent are to be congratulated on their splendid verdict. It was a unanimous one. From every municipality in the riding came substantial gains. The city, Tilbury village and Blenheim all did well, the townships every one did magnificently. Dover and Raleigh were perhaps watched with a special interest, and the results warranted the confidence placed in them.

To Herbert S. Clements, M. P., we extend hearty congratulatory greeting. He has fought a clean, manly campaign and won an honest and glorious victory. He will represent West Kent worthily and well. He is of the people and devoted to their interests. He will fulfil his promises to them and prove true to the trust imposed in him.

Of his unsuccessful opponent, Geo. Stephens, The Planet has no ill word to say. Let the Liberal-Conservatives all be generous in their victory. Whatever the shortcomings and errors of the late member, he is forgiven. He was, too, handicapped throughout by having no journalistic support, while the methods of a majority of the men who rallied to his cause were not wise or successful. Mr. Stephens has been greatly crippled in many ways and the victors admire a man who makes a plucky fight against odds.

It is, of course, a source of regret that the whole country did not follow the wise and enlightened lead of West Kent. But Ontario did nobly in spite of the gerrymander and we'll all get even when we get at Stratton and Ross.

To the many who so earnestly and ardently contributed to the magnificent victory in West Kent The Planet extends its hearty thanks.

Well, we told you so!

Now, boys, let's get after Ross.

It was the swing of victory, all right.

There are a few "foreigners" left down this way.

The "foreigners" of West Kent remembered Dundonald.

The people of Kent doomed the bonus-seeking business.

Notice the difference in Dover this time and draw conclusions.

A campaign of abuse and untruthful personalities doesn't pay, does it?

The people of Dover stood loyally for Corry Purser and William Boyer.

Dover responded right royally for her esteemed reeve and councillor.

We've just made a start. Next time we'll go after the whole country.

That pompous visit of Sid. Fisher was a great vote-getter for Clements.

The bonus-seeking business for big corporations is doomed in West Kent.

You'll remember that The Planet told everyone to watch the townships.

Too bad the rest of the country isn't as bright and brainy as West Kent.

The Liberals of West Kent should get a newspaper before they tackle us again.

But then—we blush to say it—they didn't have The Planet in every constituency.

But they weren't able to muzzle Reeve Purser and Councillor Boyer yesterday.

Between his Chatham organ and the man Kerr poor Stephens was badly handicapped.

Well, it's all over now. Let's all get together and work for the interests of our city.

We'll forgive Mr. Gundy his abusive language now. They say he made four votes for Clements with one speech.

Perhaps Mr. Stephens regrets to say his vituperative abuse of this week and industrious great home Journal.

For the many kind and complimentary things said of The Planet last night we heartily return our thanks.

J. W. White, J. G. Kerr, E. E. Parrott, et al., did wonders for Clements in the country. And we all appreciated it.

To the so-called Stephens organ, the railroad promoters, and a few of the stumpers we owe our thanks. They helped us wonderfully.

We have pitied George Stephens all the way through the campaign on the kind of "support" he was getting from his Chatham organ.

If those fat-salaried and high-living hog cholera officials had only worked still harder for Stephens, Clements would have had a still bigger majority.

PRAISES FOR THE PLANET

Secretary S. B. Arnold Pays This G. H. J. Some Kind Compliments on the Result.

A Eulogistic Voluntary Statement Handed to The Planet at the Close of the Campaign.

In every political campaign very much depends upon the support given by the press.

I am pleased to say, as secretary of the Conservative Association, that in this fight The Planet has conducted a fair, honest and intelligent publication, and has at all times kept the standard of journalism above the petty, heated state which too often finds place in a hard fought campaign.

I desire to thank The Great Home Journal for their kindly consideration and assistance. No one is in a better position than I am to know the care and trouble it has taken to conduct a paper worthy of our candidate and worthy of the great Conservative party, and I appreciate very much the able way in which it has been done.

For clean political journalism The Planet ranks high amongst the publications of the Province, and the workers in the party are thankful therefor.

S. B. ARNOLD,
Secretary Liberal-Conservative Association.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

AFTER TWELVE LONG YEARS,

I told you so!

It was The Planet.

Did you hear the good news.

I am going to get Hicks' job.

Me and H. S. Clements did it.

Why, of course The Planet did it!

You're never sure till you're certain.

Excuse us if we are a little exalted.

Dr. Thornton is the strength of the party.

I told you to keep your ear to the ground.

And he was carried on a chair. He deserved it.

We are feeling good. Gee, it's great to win.

George Stephens' "vile sheet" isn't so slow, is it?

If you kept your ear to the earth you heard something.

Herb Clements found the cure for hog cholera all right.

Herb can now rest up a little and regain his normal weight.

Perhaps it wasn't The Planet, but the Boy Blunder that did it.

That serenade of The Planet Office last night was inspiring.

If there had been no bar! what a majority there would have been!

Perhaps it wasn't The Planet, but the Hon. Sidney Fisher that did it.

The music of the bands and the cheers sounded very sweet to our ears.

I don't know whether J. G. Kerr or J. W. White made us the most votes.

John Poile was busy.

Chatham for Clements.

Dover can trust her own.

Chatham, I could hug you.

Arthur Dunn did great work.

You're welcome back, old Kent.

Let us at Ross and his machine.

H. S. Clements, the Young Man.

Now, boys, get ready to Remember Ross.

West Kent don't Kerr for Liberal tactics.

Once again old West Kent returns to the fold.

Come again, bands, we appreciate your serenade.

Perhaps it hurts, but we're not in position to say.

H. S. Clements made that 217 majority look sick.

The people of West Kent remembered Dundonald.

West Kent always did foreshadow the next contest.

You perhaps saw G. G. Taylor doing a little work.

Herb Clements was certainly "in the air" last night.

Did you notice the gain made at the Police Station?

George Heyward got busy and then something happened.

Mr. Clements was chaired up and down King St. last night.

Keep that ear to the ground; there is something more coming.

George Stephens was "at home" to his many friends last evening.

Did you remark the way this good old city responded to the call?

How much brainier and brighter West Kent is than its neighbors.

G. W. Sulman was in harness yesterday. Did you notice the result?

Geo. Stephens is ex-M. P. because there weren't enough X's after his name.

It might have been Ward Stanworth's speech at Pain Court that did it.

Saw George Fielder working over at the Police Station. He must have helped.

It's too bad Kerr couldn't have worked in every polling sub-division yesterday.

There were only three bands serenaded us last night. They sounded like forty.

The Conservatives were tickled. The Planet was tickled and H. S. Clements was tickled.

By the way, it's a pity they didn't take "Field Marshall" Syd Fisher all over the country.

I guess the people didn't appreciate the appointment of George Douglas to a judgeship.

There is some talk of making H. S. Clements premier, but I haven't prophesied that yet.

Herb Clements' success is an object lesson to all his young friends of what a young man can do.

S. B. Arnold was tired last night. Don't blame him. Most indefatigable worker in the country.

Blenheim, you're all right. Foster that 35 and it'll grow as large as Chatham's big majority.

O, yes; they laughed at that "ordinary clerk," but they did it all before the votes were counted.

The nickel novel organette was easy. They are successes at making molehills out of mountains.

As soon as "Handsome" E. E. Parrott heard the result he complained of a bad headache and went home.

I wonder if that 29 majority for H. S. Clements at Mitchell's Bay was a result of J. G. Kerr's good work?

An ex-reeve of Raleigh says that J. G. Kerr's tactics were of more aid to Mr. Clements than any of his supporters.

I don't know what the party would do without F. H. Brisco. He turned over that majority in Buxton. Hurrah for Fred.

The Banner-News said that Aid. Westman had made a speech which the people of Fletcher would not soon forget. Apparently they did not forget it.

The poor old Nick Carter paper stated that this G. H. J. was making votes for Stephens. Where would Mr. Stephens have been if it hadn't been for The Planet?

Oh what a sad jar J. G. Kerr gave Mr. Clements' pet hog cholera cure—Banner, October 25. Not in it with the jar that the Cholera Cure gave George Stephens.

The nickel novel organette remarked in a big scare head in their edition of Tuesday, October 25, "You're called again, Herbie." That's the time you were right, Mr. Clements has been called, called by the people of Kent.

Had you kept your ear to the ground you would have heard something.

The townships did it. You haven't forgotten perhaps that I said they would.

And they laughed at the boy candidate. Well, I'll just do a little laughing myself.

Too bad the people of Canada did not have as good judgment as the good people of Kent.

The music of those bands and the hearty cheers that serenaded us last night are ringing in my ears yet.

The Banner was so busy with hog cholera that they forgot there was such a man as Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Those Clements meetings which were being turned into great Stephens rallies were missing yesterday.

Grandpa Satellite can afford to be generous, Bannery, old Boy, and he will. He won't point out all your deficiencies.

Dr. Thornton made a kindly reference to the Satellite at the Opera House last night. O, yes, we have a few friends.

It's my candid opinion that had George Stephens had a newspaper to support him, he would have pretty nearly won.

I am looking forward in sweet anticipation of seeing my good friend R. G. Fleming floating around with his Krugers off.

The Stephens organette said that The Planet "would be responsible for the result of this election." We accept the responsibility.

The Planet had the correct returns for the city on the street about half an hour before the Banner thought of getting out an extra.

The Banner laughed at J. M. Pike when he said that he had turned 15 votes at McCully's school house. He turned the trick all right.

At the Opera House last night one of the specials read, "It is reported that J. G. Kerr is suffering from a severe attack of hog cholera."

There was a young man from Chatham who the Grits said was too young. Never mind, the young men are all right. The people of Kent like them.

Was it at McCully's school house that the meeting was held at which H. S. Clements was annihilated? I notice that polling sub-division shows a gain of 10 votes.

in every pair of our Drew Selby Co's make of Ladies Shoes.

This is the swellest and one of the best known line of fine shoes made in the United States. We have them in light and heavy weights, all sizes and widths, from A to E (We do not say this only, but actually have any size in A, B, C, D and E widths).

This is the reason you can be perfectly fitted if you come to us for your shoes. No other store in Ontario carries as many widths as we can show you.

JUST BAD TASTE

A fitting climax to the journalistic course of The News in the contest just ended was the appearance of a picture of R. L. Borden in this morning's issue of the paper surrounded by a black border. With very few exceptions throughout the country, the leader of the Opposition has been referred to in terms of the highest praise as a man whom the Canadian people, irrespective of class or creed, and the Liberal Conservative party, in particular, had every reason to be proud of, and in no Reform paper has this been made more clear than in the Globe, yet we find the local Reform organ so lost to all decency that it would be guilty of such a petty act. To the credit of many of our local Reformers The Planet is able to assure its readers that they have not only condemned the action of The News, but have made it plain to the office that there was nothing to justify such a course that only brings discredit on the party.

You May Pay When You are Cured.
A Detroit specialist who has 14 diplomas and certificates from medical colleges and state boards
of medical examiners, and who has a vast experience in doctoring diseases of men, is positive he can cure a great many so called incurable cases;

DR. S. GOLDBERG.
The possessor of 14 diplomas and certificates,
who wants no money that he does not earn.

In order to convince patients that he has the ability to do as he says, Dr. Goldberg will accept your case for treatment, and you need not pay one penny until a complete cure has been made; he wants to hear from patients who have been unable to get cured, as he guarantees a positive cure for all chronic, nervous, blood and skin diseases,
which he accepts for treatment. He not only cures
the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney troubles, blood poison, physical and nervous
debility, lack of vitality, stomach trouble, etc.

The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up; so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured, he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It seems, therefore, that it is to the best interests of everyone who suffers to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him, which will receive careful attention, and a correct diagnosis of your case will be made free of charge; if you have lost faith write him, as you have everything to gain and nothing to lose; you must remember that one penny need be paid until you are cured.
All medicines for patients are prepared in his

RALEIGH COUNCIL.

The above council met at court
of revision on the Lewis drain on the 12th day of October.
Present—Jas. Clayton, chairman,
Wm. H. Irwin, E. A. Dillon, S. F.
White and Jno. A. Stringer.

The necessary statutory oaths
were subscribed to and filed with the clerk.
Appeals were received from S. S.
White, Accus Wright and Frank Lane as being assessed too high and the following property too low, viz.:
n 1-2 24, 1-2 s 1-2 24 and lot 25
in the 10th concession and the M.
C. Ry. Co.

The clerk reported that the parties
appealed against had been notified.
The interested parties were heard in evidence after which it was moved by Mr. Dillon and seconded by Mr.
Irwin that the following changes in
the assessment be made:

Lowered—S. S. White $55.56, Accus
Wright $28.00, and Frank Lane $15-00.
Raised—A. Maloche $40.00, Jno.
Stringer $40.00 and M. C. Ry. Co.
$17.60 for benefit and 96 cents for outlet.

The council met at court of revision
on Gov. drain No. 2 Bridge at 1.30 p.m.

Several appeals were received as being assessed for too much property and also that lands were omitted
and should be assessed.

An appeal was received from Matthew Dillon and 58 others that the township should pay a larger proportion of the cost of the bridge
than was levied on it by the engineer.

Moved by Mr. White and seconded
by Mr. Stringer that the following changes be made, viz.:

C. Dunbrooke, $1.43, G. Graham $2-75, G. Wellwood $1.43, Wellwood
$2.75, Wm. King $7.92, H. Marlett
$2.64, Jas. Robbins $4.00, A. McFadden $1.65 and Peter Milne $8c.

That the following lands be added and assessed for 11 cents per acre,
Jas. Blythe 20 acres, all of lots 7, 8
and 9 in con. A., and D. Hall 50 acres, that the appeal of M. Dillon and others be laid over for further consideration, and the court of revision
adjourn to the 31st day of October
at 3 p.m.

Council met.
A deputation from Tilbury East
composed of the reeve and Messrs.
Doyle and Shepley were heard in reference to the assessment placed on the township of Tilbury East by the engineer for the construction of the bridge over Gov. drain No. 2 in Raleigh. They considered the assessment of $334.00 excessive and would favor an amicable settlement to save
the costs of an appeal to the referee.

No action.
Henry Parson complained that the Shadd drain was partly filled up on the railway property and obstructed
the flow of water.—Referred to Mr. White with power.

A petition was received from H.
King and S. J. Pritchard and others to place a dam in the 14th con. road ditch at the line between lots 4 and 5 and another one between lots 1
and 2.—Referred to Mr. Dillon with power or report.

A notice was received from Houston & Stone that C. J. Moore and Isaac Green had suffered damage to their lands and crops by reason of the non-repair of the Stewart drain
and unless the drain was completed
at once according to the engineer's report a writ would be issued.

The M. C. Ry. Co. submitted notice of appeal to the judge against their assessment for the Waddick drain.
The report of W. G. McGeorge, O.
L.S., for the extension of the 4th con.
road was received and the clerk instructed to prepare the necessary
notices and by-laws for the opening up of the said road.

The report of J. W. Shackleton, C.
E., for the construction of the Lane
drain was received and laid over until next meeting, also his report for a steel bridge with concrete abutments and covering over the Waddick drain at the 8th con. road at an estimated cost of $900.00.

The following reports were received
and on motion adopted and commissioners were mentioned ordered paid.
Wm. H. Irwin's final report on the Harwich-Doyle drain. Balance commissioners fees $5.00.

Also that his part of the Waddick
drain was nearly completed. Part
com. fees $10.00.
S. F. White, that he had a bridge over Gov. drain No. 2 repaired at a cost of $9.00 and charged the same to the drain. Com. fees $1.00.

E. A. Dillon, that the Doane and Gibbula drain was nearly completed.
Part com. fees $7.00.

That the Centre road and Brady
drain was nearly completed. Part
com. fees $30.00.

That the Hooper drain was nearly completed. $12.00.

The tender of Jenks & Dresser of Port Huron of $1223.00 for the construction of the bridge over Gov.
drain No. 2 was accepted and a by-law passed authorizing the reeve and clerk to execute an agreement re the same.

Moved by Mr. Stringer and Mr.
Irwin that the reeve be instructed to take all the necessary proceedings
to defend the township in the appeal of the M. C. Ry. Co. to the judge.

Moved by Mr. White and Mr. Irwin that the clerk notify the commissioner of the Stewart drain of the notice received from Houston and Stone and request that the drain be completed at once.

Moved by Mr. Irwin and Mr. White that the following parties be paid for sheep killed by dogs as per certificates of the inspectors.

A. McKay 4 sheep and 3 lambs killed $22.50, Wm. McFadden 12 sheep killed and 2 damaged $12.00, M. Hickey 1 sheep and 1 lamb killed $6.66,

HARWICH COUNCIL.

The municipal council of the township of Harwich met in township hall

of revision on the Morgan, McCargon, Mull and Rushton drains. Members all present, and took oath of qualification to act on such court of revisions.

The court of revision was held on the above mentioned drains, the evidence of the appellants heard, and the council decided as follows in the several cases:

The assessments as made by the engineer and the drainage viewers
were sustained and the court of revision closed on the Morgan and Mull drains; the court of revision on the McCaragon drain was adjourned until Monday, Nov. 14th at 4.30 p.m.;

the following changes made in the assessment of the Rushton drain and
the court adjourned until Monday,
Nov. 14th at 4.00 p.m.;

S. w h f n o h f 7, T. L. R., raised from $3.75 to $8.75; n w h f o h f
7, T. L. R. raised from $3.00 to $8.00;
w q r 10 T. L. R. assessed for $10.00;
lot 9, T. L. R. reduced from $108.00
to $88.

General business taken up on resolution.

Oct. 17th, 1904.

To the Municipal Council of Har-
wich:

We hereby beg leave to report as follows in regard to, 1st, The grievance of Dr. J. McCully re Howard drain and secondly in regard to the fence along the Gore Line road
southeast of the Ridge road.

1st. We consulted with all the parties interested in the part of the Howard drain above the tile and each one expressed a willingness to do their portion without incurring any extra expense, and in our opinion the work will be satisfactorily done.

2nd. After taking measurements in four different places we found that part of the present fence is on the road allowance, and in our opinion
if Dr. McCully would place his fence
on the line he would suffer no loss
from the present condition of the road in that place.

C. Buchanan,

for the w h f lot 129 T. R. R., Raleigh, which is assessed for said
drain.

Clark—Bentley, that the clerk be instructed to write the M. C. Ry. Co.
that the ditch along their roadway

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER

HE CURED HIMSELF OF SERIOUS STOMACH TROUBLE, BY GET-TING DOWN TO FIRST PRIN-CIPLES.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent eastern cities, by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach
trouble; the failure of his digestion
brought about a nervous irritability,
making it impossible to apply himself to his daily business, and finally deranging the kidneys and heart.

In his own words he says "I consulted one physician after another and each one seemed to understand
my case, but all the same they each failed to bring about the return of my former vigor, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium
to another, I gave up smoking, I quit coffee and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer, but without any marked improvement.

"Friends had often advised me to try a well-known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case."

"To make a long story short I finally bought a couple of packages
at the nearest drug store and took
two or three tablets after each meal,
and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health, and before the two packages
were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure
me completely, and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and no longer suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote
to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained, and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepton, government (test),
malt diastase and other natural disgestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach."

The root of the matter is this, the digestive elements contained in Stu-
art's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest
the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food; stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength, they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve, every tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action
and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy, as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and stimulants.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and considers them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach trouble.

There are lots of ways to make love
but not nearly enough to satisfy the average girl.

NOTHING LOOSENS UP COLDS

On the chest and relieves that tight
feeling and hard cough like Nerviline, writes E. P. Benshall, of Sutton. "I never used any other remedy but Nerviline and find it serves as a general household liniment best of all.
Children's colds and inflammatory
pains are quickly cured by Nerviline,
and its action on colds, coughs and
sore throat is unequalled by anything
I ever used. Nerviline is both powerful, pleasant and reliable." Every mother should use Nerviline. Price

WHY CATARRH POISONS THE SYSTEM.

The Catarrhal germ excites inflammation, offensive secretions are thrown off and pass into the circulation, contaminating the river of life and thus wreck the whole body.
Every catarrh victim should use fragrant, healing Catarrhazone, the surest cure for every type of catarrh yet discovered. Catarrhazone can't fail to cure, because its vapor kills
the germs and removes the cause of the trouble. Then it soothes and heals, stops the cough and relieves
the stuffed up condition of the nose and throat. Tens of thousands have been cured by Catarrhazone, which is guaranteed. Use only Catarrhazone.
Complete outfit $1.00; trial size 25c.

A Curious Superstition.
The ancients believed that the marrow of the human backbone often transformed itself into a serpent. Pliny ("Natural History," volume 10, page 66) says that the marrow of a man's backbone will breed to a snake. The Chinese (Ward's "Eastern Travels")
burned the backbone to "destroy serpents that might hatch therefrom."

may be imitated, but beauty is more than skin deep—it is hidden in the blood. Eliminate the poisonous products of indigestion by Ferrozone and complexion rapidly improves. Increase the red coloring matter in the blood, give it more nutrition and more red cells, do this and cosmetics
won't be needed. Give up cosmetics, they wither too quickly. Use Fer-rozone and have your complexion firmly established. There isn't a case of blotched skin, poor complexion
or lack of color that can't be quickly
remedied by Ferrozone. Try it. Price 50c.

Cold Baths Versus Drunkenness.
In the course of a discussion at the sanitary congress Mr. Weaver declared that it was almost impossible for any one taking a cold bath every morning to become a habitual drunkard.—

The next attraction on at the Grand will be Wm. A. Brady's production of Lottie Blair Parker's
beautiful pastoral play, "Way Down East." Theatre-goers who have seen the play will undoubtedly gladly renew acquaintance with Squire Bartlett, who believes in living according to the "Scriptures," motherly Mrs.
Bartlett, the Squire's wife; Anna
Moore, who was sinned against more than sinning; David Bartlett, the Squire's son; Kate Brewster, the Squire's pretty niece; Hi Holler, the chore boy, with the infectious laugh;
Rube Whipple, the quaint town constable and his "All Round Round
with a Woolen String;" Seth Holcomb, he with the penchant for "Life Long biters," the village choir; and the village doctor. Such a gracious welcome may not await Martha Perkins, the village gossip and mischief-maker, nor Lenox Sanderson, the vil-laneous city chap.

These are the characters round
Mrs. Parker has written her play.
They are the residents of a New England country-side, they are plain people. And the story written about them becomes their plainness. Incidents of their everyday life give the author her theme. The play portrays the simplicity, comedy, and tragedy of the community, the purity

and sweetness of which might run
on interrupted of the shadows of the wicked city. This comes in the form of the cultivated city man with more money than morals, who has betrayed
a confiding rural lass under the guise
of a mock marriage.

Homeless, she seeks the shelter of a household, where the ruling spirit
is a well-meaning country squire, whose religion prompts him to send forth the hapless Magdalene, lest she contaminate his own precious son to whom the sins of the world are somewhat unknown.

The son, loving the girl, for her sweetness of character, follows her out, rescues her from death in the winter storm, and the father overcome by repentant remorse forgives
and blesses.

Plays that present not only one
good part but several are seldom written, and plays that offer a good part to every member of the cast
are indeed rare; yet "The Mummy
and the Humming Bird" has not a single weak character in it. Every part is what the actor calls a "fat"
part; and the company which Manager Jules Murry brings to this city
in the near future in its personation
of the play itself is in its construction. A most delightful evening's entertainment is assured local theatregoers at the Grand Opera House on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 17th.

THE COMING OF LOVE.

He came in the sea-drift and rain,
His eyes had a passionate pain,
The night-dew lay damp on his hair;
I knew not the face nor the form,
The voice of undying despair.
That craved for a rest from the storm.

I opened the door straight and wide,
And beckoned him safe to my side.

He lingered a near me; each day
Brought a gladder new sense of dismay
As closer he crept to my heart,
This outcast who came from the wind;

I never knew there would nestle
behind
Grave sorrow, unending regret,
For something too fond to forget.

One morning I rose unaware,
And stole up my heart's secret stair,
And gazed through the half-open door;
My guest sat awake on a throne,
His dread quiver lay on the floor,
And I knew it was Love, who alone
Had thrived all the tempest's mad strife
To teach me the glory of Life.

How a Plant Has Traveled.
Something like 125 years ago the little plant known to the botanists as Lepachys columnaris was only known to inhabit a small section of country
in the very southern portion of Louisiana. Some time later it was reported as occurring sparingly along the Canadian river and later still on the Arkansas. Since that time it has slowly spread north, west and east, even to the very source of the Missouri, over into the British possessions and is now
said to be creeping along the Saskatchewan toward Hudson bay. How a plant which originated in a warm climate could accustom itself to such changes is another of nature's mysteries.

WM. FOREMAN & CO.*THE PRESIDENT GIVES THANKS

Dr. A. W. Thornton Expresses the Thanks of the Conservatives for the Grand Victory.

Has Many Kind Words to Say of The Planet—Keep up the Good Work His Message.

The campaign is over, and so far at least as West Kent is concerned, victory rests with the Conservatives.

This is due primarily to the splendid candidate chosen last December. His unparalleled ability as a canvasser, his free, frank and fearless discussion of the many issues affecting the constituency, his untiring zeal and genial kindly manner constituted a force difficult if not impossible to overcome.

But while much is due the candidate great praise must be given also to those who worked so harmoniously with him to bring about the splendid results achieved in this campaign.

To the rank and file of the electors our best and heartiest thanks are due, for on them rested to a great extent the burden and heat of the day.

Perhaps, after all, the greatest factor in the campaign was the magnificent work done by The Planet.

et. From Liberals, as well as Conservatives, the very kindest rhings are being said regarding the splendid work done by the Great Home Journal for the Conservative candidate in particular and the Conservative party in general.

But only those who were in close touch with the campaign can form any estimate of the herculean task necessary to impart force, to avoid mistakes, to be perfectly just to all, to hold your friends and convert your enemies, in a word to be "wise as a serpent, harmless as a dove."

And this is what The Planet has accomplished. To one and all we extend our heartiest thanksgiving, and the one word of advice we have to offer is, "Be prepared to repeat this great victory when the opportunity offers by sending a Conservative to Toronto to represent West Kent in the local legislature." When this becomes an accomplished fact, then and only then will the people of West Kent have done their full duty.

MR. STONE ON THE RESULT

Liberal President Says Mr. Clement's Personal Canvass Give Him Victory.

A Statement to The Planet After the Election Had Been Concluded Last Night.

The Planet interviewed President Fred Stone, of the Liberal Assn., after it was conceded that Clements was elected.

Mr. Stone said, "There's no doubt that the personal charges against our candidate affected the result to a great extent, but, to my mind, the main item in the result was the complete personal canvass of Mr. Clements."

"There is no particular landslide anywhere in the riding but it seems a general all-round slump. The local association cannot in any way be blamed. We did all we could. We worked hard and it's no fault of the association."

NEW MEMBER

Brief Sketch of West Kent's Popular Parliamentary Representative—A Splendid Record

Herbert S. Clements, M. P. for West Kent, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clements, and was born in Dover Township in 1865. His mother died some five years ago. He married Miss Jessie McGavin, daughter of John McGavin, of Harwich. Previous to the last few years Mr. Clements was always interested in farming in the Township of Dover and was always considered by the residents of the Township as one of the first class farmers of the section and, knowing the way they have been neglected regarding the tariff, he attributes his election to the stand he took advocating the proper protection for the farmer, laborer and mechanic. Mr. Clements is a young man, full of energy, one who will work for the entire constituency regardless of party. West Kent should feel proud of her member.

He was elected Public School Trustee in Chatham by the largest majority ever tendered a candidate in this city and still holds this position.

IN MEMORIAM

A few ante-mortem statements, with post mortem reflections—

Of course there was enthusiasm at Pain Court. No Liberals were allowed in and therefore there's no one to contradict it—On the Ku-Te per Bannery ante-mortem statement.

That's a standing rule now in West Kent. "No Liberals allowed in."

All that guff at Pain Court can be taken with a pinch of salt.—Bannery Ku-Te.

Yes, with just a little red pepper, thrown in, eh, young un?

I would suggest that H. S. Clements publish a book on "How I came to be Forced into the nomination."—Bannery Ku-Te, continued.

It will be unnecessary to publish the sequel. "Good Results From Force," written especially for this G. H. J. by Jim Duups.

Herb Clements at Pain Court in sarcasm by the Banner T. Q. man, "All these wonders will I work and many more, but give me your vote, give me your vote."

What do you think of the Parser-Boyer-Clements Alliance?—Bannery Ku Te man.

Aye, mon, what think ye?

You can knock as hard as you like, Mr. Clements, but you won't get in. From der Banner of September 25, Yes, just so.

The hog cholera cure evaporated with the appearance of J. G. Kerr's money.—Bannernoose, Oct. 25.

Mr. Hoss Car got a receipt for his money.

Get a microscope and we'll all go on a still hunt for that con majority on Nov. 3rd.—Banner.

It's really unnecessary—but you may use the microscope.

FLETCHER CHEERS FOR STEPHENS.—The Banner.

And incidentally votes for Clements.

There is no truth in the rumor that no matter how much fire he puts on, the janitor is unable to keep the frost off the windows of Northwood's hall these nights.—Banner Ku Te item.

It kind'er came around alright, alright, alright, last night, with the little process.

"What I don't know about Farming" in three volumes, by H. S. Clements.—The Banner.

How about the sequel to it "What I would like to know about Farmers," by Geo. Stephens, Ex-M. P.

Political candidates all over the country are extending the glad hand just now. In return a great many of them will get cold feet election night.—The Banner.

Herb didn't.

Korlof!

That duldest of all dull, sickening thuds last night, was merely the sudden and utter downfall of all Conservative hopes, so far as Harwich is concerned, at least.—The Nickel Novel Organette.

The whole thing would be good enough for the Banner to use again, only they would of course, have to substitute the word Liberal for Conservative.

And still the great Con. party slumbered on. Great things for the future rolled forth from their organs throughout the country, and a huge wave of victory has lately been sighted away oof in November.

But we will draw the curtain. This picture of Con. innocence and bliss is too sacred for the pen of an idle scribbler, so we will make our exit on tip toe, lest we disturb the passing vision of the doomed.—Banner.

Doesn't it sound silly now, that the returns are in, Bannery Old Boy, and Herb. Clements is the winner?

Take notice all ye rooting, snorting, mud-wallowing, corn-eating, cholera-eaten, grunting, unsophisticated, piglike hogs, that your cure is at hand. Mr. Clements has it, so take your medicine.—Banner.

Mr. Clements delivered his cure yesterday and we hope our contemporary will be the better of it.

If it was not for those little sensational splurges they put on periodically, we would really be liable to forget that there was such a thing as the Con. party.—Banner.

A few more splurges.

ROYAL RECEPTION

Jorj, I only hope now that you will continue your good work by sending a Conservative member to Toronto.—Cheers. You all know the candidate and you all feel proud of him.—Cheers. Mr. Clements is a man who will look after your interests in Parliament. And he will, I am sure, be prepared to support any measure that will be of interest to the farmers, merchants or manufacturers of his constituency.

As Mr. Pike closed his speech three more hearty cheers were given for Mr. Clements.

Mr. Clements was then escorted by his many friends to his rooms in the Victoria Block, where he was serenaded by the Regiment Band and called upon by his co-workers and many of his supporters. The festivities extended far into the night.
