Rose Ball at The Armouries

The Daughters of the Empire dance at the Conservatory of Music this evening at 9 o'clock promises to be the dance of the season. A very large number of acceptances have been received both for dancing and cards.

The ball room has been most artistically decorated with pink roses. Pink roses as boutonnières will also be on sale for the men. An attractive dance programme has been arranged, consisting principally of one steps, the hesitation waltz and the waltz. Cards will be played in the dining room and reception room. The unique idea will be put in force of each table playing an individual game for a prize. Any game of cards can be played by the four participants at the table and any number of rubbers can be arranged. Musgrave will supply the music for the dance. The ladies will wear powder and patches, the men ordinary dress. A dainty supper will be served at 12 o'clock.

Carving Up of Animals in an Endeavor to Find Disease Cure

(Canadian Press Dispatch)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Vivisection of animals as a method of research, was denounced as wrong and misleading by Dr. Richard Cowan of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, in an address before the International Anti-Vivisection and Animal Protection Congress.

"This mutilation and torture," Dr. Cowan said, "has led many earnest men along the wrong road of research. For more than a quarter of a century I have practiced surgery. During that time I have performed some thousands of operations, yet cannot recall a single instance in which I owed anything to public reports of vivisection experiments."

"It is my deliberate and considered opinion that vivisection as a method of research is wrong and misleading. It is a terrible mistake to think that disease in animals and in man is the same."

Dr. Cowan declared that in an effort to find the cause of cancer, 145,000 animals have been tortured by a cancer research society in the past two years, with no resulting discovery. If the same time which was used along the "blood stained paths of animal vivisection," he added, had been spent in studying the disease from a clinical point of view, and its natural history in man, it would not be necessary now to announce the disease as incurable, says by the knife.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Boards of trade have become so numerous and so active in the Canadian West that they have become a disease, declared F. H. Phippen, K.C., counsel for the Canadian Northern, during his argument in the western freight rates case this morning.

These boards are established in every hamlet, town, city, and village, and everywhere two or three men can gather together, he said. To be president of a board of trade is regarded by the president and his deputies as the highest honor. When evidence in the case was taken in some cities to the west, he held none but members of boards of trade from all parts of the prairie gave evidence.

Mr. Phippen maintained that a reduction in the freight rates in western Canada would seriously effect the credit of Canada and in view of this fact this case was the momentous the board had ever dealt with.

He said there was no general demerit and for a reduction of rates; the agitation of the western board of trade should not be taken so seriously as they did not reflect all of public opinion.

The board should consider that the Dominion Government built a good part of the Canadian Pacific Railway, while the Canadian Northern had paid its own bills. The bonds guaranteed by the government the Canadian Northern are primarily responsible for.

City News Items

Nuptial Note. On the 6th. Ven. Archdeacon Mackenzie united in marriage Mr. Ernest William Appleby to Miss Deborah Pentlow. The ceremony was performed at the rectory.

Two Subjects. At a meeting of the Civic Improvement committee called for Monday evening in the City Council Chamber, the subject for discussion will be, systematic planting of trees on streets, and a city hall site.

Foresters Evening. Last evening members of the four local courts, Canadian Order of Foresters, to the number of about 50, were the guests at a smoker held by the Foresters at Ancaster. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

A Relief Committee. At a meeting held in Wesley church last evening a relief committee was organized, with the pastor Rev. J. J. Liddy, as chairman; Robt. Brown, treasurer and George A. Ward, as secretary. Active work will be undertaken at once.

Monthly Meeting. The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Colborne St. Methodist Church was held yesterday afternoon in the school room. After the heralds had responded the Mission Band entertained very pleasantly, and later refreshments were served. There was a good attendance.

Gen. Theatre Features. The Gen theatre is now showing exclusively the productions of the leading film-makers photoplays from Vitagraph, Biograph, Kalem, and other famous studios being presented. John Bunny stars in many Vitagraph comedies. For the last half of the week, "The Lohardian Duo" offers a pleasing musical specialty.

Tutela Rink. Prospects for a very active season in connection with the Tutela Park Rink, are particularly good, so The Courier is informed by Ald. Secretary, Mrs. J. Kenny; Fin. Secretary, Mrs. W. South; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Brangy; D. of C. Mrs. W. Gibson; Com. Mrs. H. Davis; Physician, Dr. H. R. Frank; Chaplain, Mrs. Mathewson; Pianist, Miss Haezri Godfrey. After the election progressive ecuche and a dance was held. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. Johnson and Mr. R. Pulcher and the consolation prizes by Mr. F. Smale and Mr. White. The affair was a pound social in aid of the Loyal True Blue Orphanage at Picton.

Presented With Clock. The meeting of Court Telephone City, Canadian Order of Foresters, held on Tuesday, proved to be an interesting one. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a clock to Mr. Alex. Aikens in honor of his recent marriage. At the mock parliament Mr. W. Greig introduced this resolution: "Resolved, that if would be in the best interests of Canadian to abolish the bar and place the sale of liquor in the hands of the government." The government was supported by the party introducing the resolution and Messrs. Alex. Aikens, J. McKay and F. C. Brown, and the opposition by Messrs. A. P. Vail, someren, A. E. Danby, E. Gopp and M. M. Sillman. The resolution was adopted upon the speaker, Mr. W. A. Stiles voting for the government.

Laid at Rest

The Late Mrs. Muir

The funeral of the late Barbara Muir, widow of the late Allen Muir, took place yesterday. Services were held at the Congregational Church at Burford, where the deceased ceased attending when a girl, by Rev. C. W. Rose of this city, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, and the body was interred at Congregational cemetery. The pallbearers were six grandsons. The flowers received were many and beautiful, testifying to the great esteem in which the deceased was held.

Suspicious circumstances attend the death of Chas. Favello, of Ford City, whose body was found beside the G. T. R. tracks in Walkerville.

Trustees Elected

At a special meeting of the official board of Colborne St. Methodist church held last night, the following trustees were elected to look after the affairs of the church to be built in Eagle Place, and known as the Elm Avenue Methodist church: Messrs J. A. Grummett, H. Craddock, W. Moyer, J. L. Barnes, G. A. Smith, J. A. Gullen, Anthony Westbrook, Fred Mann, J. W. Shepperson, C. W. Cowherd and Geo. Wedlake.

Canadian Leghorn Club

The Canadian Leghorn Club have decided to give six silver sippers at the next winter fair. The election of officers for the coming year at Guelph yesterday, was as follows: Hon. President, Wm. Billings; St. Marys; President, A. H. Switzer, Woodham's; First Vice-President, E. Thompson, Woodstock; Second Vice-President, Peter Spitt, Guelph; Secretary, Treasurer, Wm. Cadman, Ostrander; Directors, R. Pond, Woodstock; Wm. Ferguson, E. Orr, G. Bissett, all of Brantford; J. E. Beltz, London, R. Billings, Woodstock, and G. Potts, London.

Pavement Slippery

When responding to an alarm from West Brantford last evening the firemen had great difficulty in keeping the horses on their feet on account of the slippery state of the pavement at the corner of Bzridge and Dalhousie streets the hook and ladder truck swerved completely around on the pavement and faced in the opposite direction and one of the horses fell down. Chief Lewis states that it is "absolutely dangerous" to take the horses and trucks on the pavement and that all the paved streets should be strewn with sand. Many horses received falls this morning.

Electing Officers

The Sunday School Orchestra of Wesley Church held its organization meeting on Tuesday last in the church parlors and elected officers for the ensuing term as follows: Honorary president, A. E. Day; president, J. T. Lee; vice-president, C. Girdlestone; secretary-treasurer, H. T. Kent; librarian, T. Foster; auditor, J. Murray; conductor, W. J. Sweetman. The orchestra is very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Sweetman, who is already recognized as a capable orchestra conductor.

Made Inspection

Niagara Falls, Ont., is planning to make extensions to its water system. Yesterday City Engineer Graham of that place and Mr. Baker, representing Drummond, McCall and Co., sales agents for a light steel water main, which is being used in this city, were here and made an inspection of the mains now being laid on St. Paul's Avenue and Ada Avenue. They were accompanied on the inspection by Secretary Frank of the local Waterworks Department. This class of pipes made in Glasgow and has only been laid in a few Ontario cities. The inspection went to Galt in the afternoon for the purpose of further inspection.

Officers Elected Loyal True Blues

The annual election of officers of Victoria Golden Star, L. T. B., No. 15, took place last evening. The officers were elected: Wm. M. Pulcher, D.M., Miss M. Johnson; Rec. Secretary, Mrs. J. Kenny; Fin. Secretary, Mrs. W. South; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Brangy; D. of C. Mrs. W. Gibson; Com. Mrs. H. Davis; Physician, Dr. H. R. Frank; Chaplain, Mrs. Mathewson; Pianist, Miss Haezri Godfrey. INTERVENTION IN MEXICO.

Under the above heading New York "Outlook" one of the leading publications in the United States has the following article.

"The Administration has made an honest, patient, and persistent attempt to secure peace, order, and good government in Mexico, by an appeal to the Mexicans themselves to secure such government by a peaceful and orderly election, and to that end it has endeavored by moral pressure to bring about the resignation of Mr. Huerta and the consent of Mr. Huerta and the opposing factions to abide by the result of such election.

"The experiment has failed. Yet it cannot be said that it was not worth while to make the experiment. It has at least demonstrated that the American people have no wish to intervene in the affairs of Mexico, and will not do so unless intervention is forced upon them.

"This failure, however, leaves the Administration facing a very simple alternative. We must either abandon all attempt to secure peace, order, and good government in Mexico, or we must forcibly intervene for that purpose.

"Abandoning the attempt would necessitate notifying the European Powers that we no longer hold ourselves responsible for the protection of the persons and property of our citizens in Mexico, and it would inevitably follow that we must consent that they should themselves furnish protection by such methods as they deem expedient.

"Intervention would necessarily mean notifying Mexico that we shall proceed to take such measures as we think necessary to preserve order, and property primarily of all foreign residents in Mexico, but secondarily and necessarily, as a matter of course, of all peaceable and law-abiding Mexicans as well.

Whether we thus intervene by blockading the ports of Mexico or by invasion of Mexican territory by land forces is purely a question of method. Blockading the ports is just as truly war as invasion of the territory. We cannot adopt either method without accepting the full consequences of such warlike measures.

"Such intervention would probably cost America much in money and in lives. But to abandon the peaceable and law-abiding residents of Mexico—Americans, Europeans and Mexicans—to the factional fight carried on under leaders no one of whom hesitates at wholesale robbery and murder would cost America more than money and more than lives. It would cost her honor.

"It is not too late for the Administration to secure, or attempt to secure, the cooperation of the South American republics in this endeavor for the welfare of the two American continents. It is not too late for the president to call into conference the official representatives of Chile, Brazil, and the Argentine Republic, and through them invite the co-operation of those countries in the endeavor to secure justice and liberty for a neighboring community given over to anarchy and brigandage.

"It is interesting to note that at the same time that we urge this policy upon the administration as a necessary extension and application of the Monroe Doctrine, which in its absence is the duty of the strong nations toward their weaker neighbor, the principle is advocated by a writer whose object it is to prove that the Monroe Doctrine is an obsolete shibboleth. In his volume devoted to this thesis, which is published by the Yale University Press, Mr. Hiram Bingham writes the following paragraphs which his preceding pages brought him:

"Furthermore, the very next time any awkward situations arise in one of the less firmly established republics let us at once call a family gathering (of the Pan-American republics) and see what, if anything, needs to be done."

"If it is necessary to maintain order in some of the weaker and more restless republics, why not let the decision be made, not by ourselves, but by a congress of leading American powers? If it is found necessary to send armed forces into Central America to quell rebellions that are proving too much for the recognized governments, why not let those forces consist not solely of American marines, but of the marines of Argentina, Brazil, and Chile as well?"

THE FOOD STORE.

AGE QUESTION. It is well known that eggs and other necessities are purchased by cold storage concerns at a period of the year when they cost the least and that in other months they are sold at a profit. No one would begrudge a fair margin over the money invested in such plants, including help, risk, distribution and so on, but the feeling is quite general that there has been far too great a tendency to "soak" the public.

Representative McKellar of Tennessee at any rate thinks so, and he has introduced a drastic measure at Washington. In doing so, he made it quite clear that he did not desire to injure the cold storage business as such, but to strike at some of the abuses arising therefrom. He said in part—

"The drastic features of the bill are aimed only at the corrupt and dishonest, at the gamblers and speculators, at the voracious vultures who stand around in the market places and reap where they have not sown, and fatten on other people's food. I do not believe any member of this great House will stand up for any such plunderband of food sharks."

The McKellar bill, which would prescribe both prison terms and heavy fines for violation of its terms, would make it illegal to ship adulterated and misbranded good products into interstate commerce and would limit the periods in which food products may be held in storage without being adulterated.

Reviewing the data produced by the Senate committee which investigated the high cost of living, Mr. McKellar submitted further statistics intended to show that packers and warehousemen corner markets on foodstuffs to deliberately increase profits. He asserted that those men would insist that the Federal Government should leave the regulation to the states.

"I cannot conceive," Mr. McKellar declared, "any greater crime against the public than the cornering of the markets on food stuffs. Almost every housewife in this country is complaining at the high cost of eggs and we find these gamblers not only cornering the price of eggs and reaping unfair and unjust profits from it, but actually laughing at the public. My bill would put these gamblers out of business and would give the consumer a chance."

Profits of from 100 per cent. to 200 per cent. had been made by the "egg kings" on storage eggs, Mr. McKellar asserted.

SOME CENSUS FIGURES.

The last volume of the fifth census of Canada just issued, classifies the origin of the people of Brantford as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Nationality and Population. Includes English, Scotch, Irish, Other British Countries, French, German, Austro-Hungarian, Bulgarian, Chinese, Greek, Italian, Jewish, Colored, Polish, Russian, Scandinavian, Swiss, and Unclassified.

Paris

Table with 2 columns: Nationality and Population. Includes Scandinavian, Unclassified, Onondaga, and Oakland.

Table with 2 columns: Nationality and Population. Includes English, Irish, Scotch, Other British Countries, French, Polish, German, Dutch, Indian, and Unclassified.

It may be remarked that in neither case are the figures as large as those given by the Municipal Assessors but they afford a fair idea of the nationalities represented. It will be seen that people from the Old Land and descendants of such are in a predominating majority.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Courier's St. Nicholas Club is a hummer.

That man who lost his memory after landing in Hamilton was much for which to be thankful.

If you see anyone exhibiting extra chest pressure, the fact is self-evident that they are still able to afford a fresh egg for breakfast each morning.

Two weeks from this date will be Christmas Day. Don't put off that Christmas shopping any longer. The ads in this paper suggest many gifts and tell you where to go.

A movement is on foot to centralize cheese factories. And speaking of cheese brings to mind the passage when the people waxed mightier and mightier in the days of Montecal.

The manner in which Mr. Hawkes is disporting himself in Lanark leads to the belief that in reality he considers himself some chicken. No doubt he will feel still more that way after the plucking.

Acting Mayor Spence deserves to be heartily congratulated upon taking the initiative in having Mr. Mountain, chief engineer of the Dominion Railway Board, come to Brantford in order to report upon the condition of affairs adjacent to Lorne bridge. It is satisfactory to know that he considers Jubilee Terrace to be quite safe, but he is equally positive that the river must be properly cleared, if danger, with possibly great loss, is to be guarded against at the time of the spring freshets. If the railway does not do that, then the city should, for there are far too many interests at stake to have them lightly jeopardized. A rush of water into the factory district would give this city a black eye from which it would take a very long time to recover.

The Ill Wind

The cold wet rain kept sloshing down, and flooded yard and street. My uncle cried: "Don't sigh and frown! It's splendid for the wheat!" I slipped and fell upon the ice, and made my forehead bleed. "Gee whiz," cried uncle, "this is nice! Just what the icemen need!" A windstorm blew my whiskers off while I was writing odes. My uncle said: "Don't scowl and scuff—'twill dry the muddy roads!" If fire my dwelling should destroy, or waters wash it hence, my uncle would exclaim with joy: "You still have got your fence!" When I was lying sick to death, expecting every day that I must draw my final breath, I heard my uncle say, "Our undertaker is a jo, and if away you fade, it ought to cheer you up to know that you will help his trade." And if we study uncle's graft, we find it good and fair; how often when we might have laughed, we wept and tore our hair! Such logic from the blooming land should drive away all woe; the thing that's hard for you to stand, is good for Richard Roe.

PANAMA BOOKS

STILL GOING FAST

Everybody Delighted With These Volumes and Want More For Friends.

Now that The Courier distribution of "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is fairly under way it is gratifying to note the pleasure with which this beautiful big volume is received. "It's ten times better than I thought it would be," said a young man who came in to get a copy and took another one to send to a friend. "It's the biggest value for the money I ever saw," said a level headed man of business. "O, what gorgeous colorings!" exclaimed a lady whose comments later developed the fact that she was fully competent to judge. All day long callers continued to praise the beautiful book and commend The Courier for offering such a rare opportunity.

Readers are urged to tell their friends about it. Let them know that this is no ordinary offer; that the book is actually worth $4 under the present conditions, but that it is printed in enormous quantities and distributed only through newspapers at the mere expense of distribution; planned and printed wholly for the purpose of more firmly establishing the bonds of friendship that should obtain between the newspaper and its readers.

Clip and present six certificates as soon as possible and come into immediate possession of the complete story of Panama and the Canal.

BELLVIEW WANTS TO KNOW WHAT'S WHAT

It is Proposed to Have a Bellview Candidate for Township Council.

Bellview ratepayers propose to make a tie in the Brantford Township elections in January next. For this purpose a meeting has been called in the school house of that district for Monday night next. Ex-Ald. Fred Billo is the dynamic force behind the meeting. Bellview has been neglected, say the ratepayers of this prosperous ever-growing and thriving district, and Bellview, as a natural result wishes to have a representative in the Brantford Township Council. They propose to have one if every man in the neighborhood has to "plump" for the district man.

In the sheep department there are some splendid specimens of both long and short wooled breeds. In Oxford of the prizes, E. Brien and Son, Ridgetown, had most of the winners in Cotswolds. In Lincolns the honors were divided between H. Lee, Highgate; Jos. Linden, Denfield, and L. Parkinson, Eramosa. Robert McEwen, Byron, took almost everything in Southdowns. In Dorset Horns, W. E. Wright & Sons were on top.

BURFORD CLEANS UP AT GUELPH

Brethour and Nephew Won Many First Prizes and Trophies.

GUELPH, Dec. 11.—The Winter Fair is breaking records. Not only is the showing of live stock the largest and finest yet seen here, but the attendance is away beyond the record of last year for the first two days. So far twice as many people have passed through the turnstiles as in the same time last year. The judging in all departments goes on with a swing. The swine department never was bigger or better than this year. All the classes were well filled. The championship for best pair of bacon hogs at the show went to J. E. Brethour & Nephew of Burford, the noted breeders of Yorkshires. Brethour & Nephew annexed also the silver cup for best pen of three bacon hogs, and won many first prizes in the general classes. They took firsts for Yorkshire barrow, 6 months and under 9, and for Yorkshire sow under 6 months. Jos. Featherstone & Son, Streetsville, stepped to the top in the classes for Yorkshire barrow under 6 months and sow 9 months and under 15. Brethour had the champion Yorkshire barrow and Featherstone the champion Yorkshire sow. The best Berkshire barrow was shown by P. J. McEwen, Wyoming, and the best sow by Adam Thompson, Shakespear, and these breeders divided all first prizes.

In Tamworths both championships went to D. Douglas & Sons, Mitchell. In Chester Whites the champion barrow was shown by Daniel Decourcy, Bornholm, and the champion sow by W. E. Wright & Son, Glanworth.

In the sheep department there are some splendid specimens of both long and short wooled breeds. In Oxford of the prizes, E. Brien and Son, Ridgetown, had most of the winners in Cotswolds. In Lincolns the honors were divided between H. Lee, Highgate; Jos. Linden, Denfield, and L. Parkinson, Eramosa. Robert McEwen, Byron, took almost everything in Southdowns. In Dorset Horns, W. E. Wright & Sons were on top.

MANY WERE DISAPPOINTED

No More Third-Class Steamer Bookings Until January.

That the Atlantic steamship lines are unable to cope with the number of applicants for berths to the old country is evidenced by an order received yesterday by the local agents of the various lines. It is announced that a printed order has been issued to agents all over the country, telling them to refuse any more applications for third class berths until after the first of the new year. This means that such persons having contemplated a return trip to the old land before Christmas will have to remain satisfied to take it next month at the very earliest, if they haven't already procured transportation. It was stated that over 250 people were left standing on the docks at New York after the last trip of the Lusitania. The cause for such a mistake is said to be the result of country town agents, who send patrons on to the metropolis without first having procured their berths. The news of such orders being sent out from the head offices of the various lines will prove a great disappointment to many people in Brantford, among whom are a number of foreigners.

TOO MANY EXEMPTIONS

ST. BONIFACE, Man., Dec. 10.—Charles Curtis of Saskatoon, reporting to the ratepayers on his investigation of municipal affairs, makes the statement that the tax rate of 1913 is illegal, that the amount of exempted property is far too great, that certain aldermen are members of companies which have benefited by civic contracts and outside competition has been discouraged. Curtis recently received the appointment of general manager for the city.

CITY LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Will Work There
Was announced yesterday that the International Harvester Company Hamilton would keep its present staff at work all winter.

Acknowledged.
Secretary Gildersleeve of the Lakes Steamer Fund of Canada, has acknowledged the receipt of $300.50, Brantford's contribution to the fund. Heart- y thanks and appreciation are ex- pressed.

Action Over Theatre
M. J. O'Reilly, K.C., of Hamilton, acting on behalf of James O'Reilly, started an action against Charles von Dusen, J. P. Coulson, S. J. Kearns and H. S. Young for an or- der setting aside and declaring void an agreement whereby the plaintiff is alleged to have agreed to assign and dispose of all his interest in a lease of the Brant Theatre, in Brantford.

Receives a Call
Rev. Wm. Moore, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at White- by, Ontario, and at present engaged in the life insurance business in this city, has received a call to Bethel Presbyterian church, in the Chatham Presbytery. The call was formally re- ceived and extended at a meeting of the Chatham Presbytery held on Tuesday.

At Alexandra Presbyterian.
The Rev. Mr. Little was present at Alexandra Presbyterian church last evening and greatly impressed those privileged to be there with this splen- did message. The reverend gentleman said he had come to tell of the same old Gospel message that was told by the pastor week after week. "Christ and Him crucified." Mr. Little's sub- ject was "God's Pathway of Bless- ings" on conditions laid down in the text. "If My people which are called by My name, shall humble them- selves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land; now My eyes shall be open and Mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place." This promise is for those who are years of most useful service. The am- ble and pray. The solos by Professor Johnson were particularly pleasing. The Rev. Mr. Little will visit the pastor this evening and on Friday evening which will be the concluding night of these splendid special services.

GRAND JURY MAKES DUFFERIN SPORTS PRESENTMENT TO THE JUDGE

Satisfactory Conditions Re- ported But Changes Are Asked.

Ernest Pike "Not Guilty" of Perjury, Says the Jury.

It has again been recommended by a Grand Jury that the shed in the Jail Yard at the County Jail be taken down. This was embodied in the report of the Grand Jury for the general session of the peace which are now being held before His Honor Judge Hardy. The jury made their presentment during the session held yesterday afternoon.

The Presentment.
His Honor Alexander David Hardy, Judge of the County Court of the County of Brant,
May it Please Your Honor:
We, the Grand Jury, following the instructions received from Your Honor, visited and inspected the Gaol, House of Refuge, the Hospital, and Nurses' Home, and the new Sanatorium.

We first visited the gaol, which we found in its usual trim and well-kept order. We would recommend, how- ever, that the shed in the gaol yard be taken down as we believe it to be a source of danger in regard to fire as well as a possible means of escape for the prisoners.

We next visited the House of Re- fuge where there are at present 53 inmates, and found everything clean and properly kept. We would re- commend that a cement floor be laid in the laundry; also that the floors throughout the building be painted. We would also recommend that a new wing be built for hospital pur- poses. Mr. Muir, the superintendent, showed us every courtesy, and the inmates appeared cheerful and con- tented.

We visited the Hospital where we found 45 patients. Miss Carson, the Matron showed us through and every- thing was in first-class order with the exception of the light in the op- erating room, which should be at- tended to at once, and the elevator being defective, also requires immed- iate attention.

Lastly, we visited the Brant Sanatorium and were more than pleased with everything, both inside and out. All of which is respectfully sub- mitted.

Signed on behalf of the Grand Jury, R. T. WHITLOCK, Foreman.
Grand Jury Room, Brantford, Dec. 10th 1913.
The Judge Hardy after complimenting the jury upon their excellent report, dismissed the jurors.

Pike Not Guilty.
A verdict of "not guilty" was re- turned by the jury in the case in which Ernest George Pike was charged with perjury.

The case in which O. M. Mackie is charged with perjury has been laid over until June owing to Mr. John Buskard being in British Columbia.

Settlement Arrived At.
Elliott vs. Forest Lumber Co. has been settled out of court by the de- fendants agreeing to pay plaintiff $300.

Bygrave vs. Township of Brant- ford has been allowed to stand until the arrival of the evidence of W. H. Fairchild, which was taken by com- mission. Mr. Fairchild was formerly Township engineer.

No Christmas Stamps
"Christmas" or "charity" stamps must not be placed on the face of let- ters or other mail matter as post- masters are under strict instructions to send all letters having Christmas stamps, or any other stamps other than postage stamps on the face, to the Dead Letter Office for return to the senders. The post office has no option in this, as other countries re- fuse to receive the letters with stamps on the face other than postage office is to the man who sends the letters and pays postage thereon, and anything that is likely to lead to con- fusion or delay must be prohibited. As letters bearing Christmas stamps on the face are now coming in, the public are again warned against this in order that it may be quite clear that while Christmas stamps may be used as stickers on the back of correspond- ence they must not be affixed on the face, as all correspondence having such stamps on the face will be re- turned to the senders.

The medical officer of health re- ported flagrant conditions of over- crowding in Toronto lodging houses. Centralization of cheese factories was advocated by district dairy in- structors at a meeting in Morrisburg.

Wheat Crop 75 Per Cent. Greater Than Other Years

Movement of Grain to Lakes in Three Months 115,570,590, Against 67,367,592 in 1912.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—That the Western wheat crop for 1913 was al- most 75 per cent. greater than that for last year, and many a previous one, is indicated by official figures is- sued by the Department of Trade and Commerce yesterday for the first time, covering the receipts and ship- ments of grain from Fort William and Port Arthur during the present shipping season. Advance figures, which have been given out at Fort William have indicated that the total would be a large one, but the final figures show that it surpasses ex- pectations.

The total receipts of grain, includ- ing wheat, oats, barley, and rye, at Fort William and Port Arthur dur- ing the three months of the shipping season, were 115,570,590 bushels, as compared with 67,367,592 bushels in 1912. In other words over seventy per cent more grain was received than last year. The total shipments for this season were 94,434,130 bush- els, as compared with 60,501,012 bush- els during a similar period last year, an increase of sixty per cent.

Crop Moved Early.
The best showing was made during September and October. November receipts and shipments being about the same as for the same month in 1912. This was due, of course, to the fact that the crop was moved earlier this year. During November of this year the total receipts of grain were 45,128,351, while the shipments were 39,598,114 bushels. The total receipts of wheat alone during the three shipping months were 49,715,722 bushels as compared with 49,715,722 bushels last year. The total ship- ments of wheat were 70,190,910 bushels, as compared with 45,258,283 bushels last year.

CONVICTS HAD BIG TRADE

which the chairman, Mr. Downey and Mr. Whiting, and Mr. Stewart took part, the three former deprecating this evidence as irregular and Mr. Stewart maintaining that the best way to get the evidence was to allow the witness to tell his story in his own words. Mr. Downey stated the com- mittee might just as well decide to stay in session until next spring, and Mr. Whiting complained that it was not right that charges should be gone into against each guard. The evidence should have to do only with the charges which had been made.

An ex-convict told of having been tubbed. Since his release he had spent money for doctors for disease con- tracted while in the penitentiary. He had been in a dungeon for days, and once the deputy warden swore he would kill him. He could not get a letter to the Minister of Justice as the deputy would not send it. His mate in the dungeon was diseased as a result of diseased prisoners having pre- viously been confined there. For six- teen days he had no water to wash in and was compelled to use that purposed. His shirt was his towel. He had been tubbed in October. He also complained of Keeper Madden for assaulting a convict.

250 NATIVES DROWN.
FREETOWNS, Sierra Leon, West Africa, Dec. 11.—Over 250 natives are believed to have perished to-day when a terrific tornado blew twenty canoes, with some 400 natives on board, out to sea. The canoe ship Sentinel rescued 136 of them, but no trace of the remainder was found. The storm swept the town and port and did much damage.

The police raided the jewellery auc- tion rooms of S. H. Lee & Co. of Toronto, and made four arrests, charging fraud.

TICKETS FOR BREAD WERE GIVEN LAST NIGHT

To Foreign Speaking People Thrown Out of Railway Work

Bread tickets were issued last evening to 81 foreigners at the Devon Building, Dalhousie street.

The tickets were good for two days' bread and more, it is stated, will have to be issued when they are used up, and to possibly greater numbers.

The work is being done under the auspices of the Brantford evangelical union, which is raising a fund for the purpose of taking care of the destitute ones. The city will also give assistance.

Most of the 81 to whom relief was given last night have been engaged in work on the Lake Erie and Northern Railway. Having been thrown out of work they have been left stranded on public and private charity.

Mr. Frank Cockshutt, who with Acting Mayor Spencer, Relief Officer Eddy and other workers at the Devon Building last evening, started to-day that the situation seemed rather serious.

Mr. Cockshutt when asked by The Courier if these men had accumulated no savings from their summer's work in camp, stated that most of them were new-comers, who had left their families at home.

On arrival here many had had to pay for their transportation while others of necessity had to send money home to take care of their families.

The members of the Evangelical Union are doing a splendid work, otherwise the situation would be more acute. It might be stated that most of the foreign speaking people who have been residents of the city for some time have improved their condition and are well able to take care of themselves.

Local News

Official Visit. Dr. W. F. Harrison of Toronto, Head Council commander W. O. W. will pay an official visit to Grand Valley Camp to-night.

Sergeants Euchre. The sergeants mess of the Dufferin Rifles held their weekly euchre on Tuesday evening. Staff Sergeants C. Taylor won the 1st prize and Color Sergeant Prior the 2nd.

Will Attend. Canton Brantford No. 3, L.O.O.F. will attend the funeral of the late John McLeod on Friday afternoon. They will assemble at the Odd Fellows Hall at 2 p.m.

Eight Hours Per Day. City employees are now working only 8 hours each day instead of 9 hours as has been the rule. This is being done in order to give work to city employees for a greater length of time.

K. of P. Calanthe Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held a well attended meeting in their castle hall last night when Pages were given the rank of Esquire. Refreshments will be served next week when a number of candidates will be given the rank of Knight.

Inspected Stores. Major Homer Dickson of Toronto, in charge of the army and stores of "C" squadron of the 25th Brant Dragoons at Burford yesterday, and was delighted at the condition in which he found them. He said they were the best in the second division.

Cadet Notes. The B. C. I. Cadets will shoot the first gallery match in the Canadian Rifle League series on Friday at a school range. The sergeants of the Dufferin Rifles are presenting a handsome silver cup to the cadets for the highest individual score, and Lieut. A. C. Burt is presenting a silver medal for the second highest individual score during the match.

Apples For Position. An application has already been made for the position of superintendent of cemeteries, made vacant by the death of Mr. John Muirhead. The position carries with it a salary in the vicinity of $700. Mr. William H. Baker, 239 Darling St. is the first applicant for the position. In a communication to the city he stated that he is 49 years of age, married, and is a landscape gardener by profession and has had 25 years experience. He is an abstemious and could commence at any time.

A Perilous Trip. The 9 o'clock Grand Valley car for Galt yesterday morning got into difficulties about 6 miles east of Galt. The smoker was at the front end of the car, and this was completely filled with roofing, and the baggage weighing down that end of the car so much that the tender caught a plank at a crossing and tore it from its position. The car was moving slowly or there might have been damage done. The car proceeded on and the tender struck another crossing, wrecking the tender so that it had to be removed. The car arrived at Galt about an hour late.

FOUR CLUBS WANT SHORTSTOP TINKER

Brooklyn Staggered Rivals by Bidding $30,000 for Ex-Red Manager.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The scramble for the services of Shortstop Joe Tinker, of the Cincinnati Reds, was reduced to four clubs today when Secretary John B. Foster of the Giants announced that his club had decided to withdraw from the competition, probably for the reason that there is a good chance for the completion of a deal between the Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals, by which First Baseman Konetchy will become a member of John McGraw's team, in exchange for several players, and to include Fred Merkle, Herzog, Wilson and Snodgrass. Secretary Foster said that while nothing had been closed, he believed that the negotiations for this trade would be consummated to-morrow.

Meanwhile President Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, reiterated his statement of yesterday, that in behalf of his club he had offered $25,000 in cash to Garry Herrmann for the release of Tinker outright. Ebbets met Herrmann before the noon hour, and in order to convince the Cincinnati magnate that the Brooklyn club's proposition was not a bluff, he produced a certified cheque for $3,000 which he said he was ready to post as a guarantee of good faith.

"I do not want money," said Herrmann in reply, "but if you can give me enough players to make up for the loss of Tinker, I will talk business."

"We have turned that matter over to Manager Robinson," remarked Ebbets, "and he is preparing a list of players who will be offered to you but we prefer to buy Tinker, and if $25,000 is not enough, why just name your price."

"That is a lot of money," rejoined Herrmann, quickly, "but again I cannot see my way to accept it."

"Mr. Ebbets is prepared to offer you $30,000," exclaimed the McKee brothers, in a chorus. "We want this player and we think he is cheap at any price."

Herrmann again balked however, but asked for time to think it over. Later in the day, Herrmann and the Brooklyn magnates were together for two hours trying to reach some sort of an agreement. The Brooklyn Club's big offer fairly staggered the owners of the Phillies, Pirates and Cubs, who are still trying to secure Tinker in exchange for players.

Owner George O'Neill of the Guelph Canadian League franchise, is in receipt of a letter from President J. J. Stein, of the Buffalo International League Club, which was forwarded by former President Mahoney, of the Guelph club, in which the Bison City owner wants to buy Outfielder Wright of the Leafs.

Santa Claus' Message to the Poor Children

DEAR YOUNG FOLKS:

As I fear I will not be able to visit all the kiddies in Brantford this year, I have arranged for an assistant, who you will know as the Courier's St. Nicholas Girl. I expect there will be at least 100 St. Nicholas Girls to help me, and that there will not be one disappointed boy or girl in Brantford. If you want to write to me, do so care of the St. Nicholas Girl, Courier office. I will get your letter.

Your old friend,

SANTA CLAUS.

CHARPENTIER HAS A FREAK RECORD

European Champion Boxer Has Won Honors in Every Class.

George Charpentier, who whipped Bombadier Wells for the heavyweight championship of Europe before the National Sporting Club of London, Eng., in the first round on Monday night, has a claim to distinction of a freak nature.

He is the only boxer on record who has competed in every class of pugilism. Charpentier started his ring career as a bantam, but grew so rapidly that he was obliged to abandon the various divisions almost as soon as he entered them.

As a bantamweight, featherweight, lightweight and welterweight he acquired those titles in France, where practically all of his work was done. As a welterweight his campaign was the shortest of all and nature forced him to enter the middleweight.

In the class higher he won the championship of Europe when he soundly whipped Jim Sullivan, then the titleholder of England at Monte Carlo in two rounds. Previous to his meeting on Monday with Wells, Charpentier had knocked the Englishman out in four rounds, but the Frenchman's victory was said to be in the nature of a fluke.

Charpentier's latest feat proves it wasn't, however, and establishes him as the undisputed heavyweight champion of Europe and crowns a career as strange to the average ring follower as it is satisfying to Georges.

There have been many boxers who were forced to abandon one or two classes because of increasing weight, but records do not show when anybody save Charpentier competed legitimately in every division from bantam to heavy.

ONTARIOS WILL MAKE A TOUR

Manager Murphy Arranging Exhibition Games in Four Cities.

TORONTO, Dec. 11.—Manager James Murphy is trying to arrange exhibition games next week in Hamilton, Syracuse, Detroit and Cleveland, believing that by this means the players could get into condition better than by working out daily at the local Arena or in Hamilton.

Johnson, Oake, Cross and Vair are the Ontario players now in the city. Oake was with Tecumseh's last season and is to be given a trial by the Ontarios. Scott will report to-morrow and Rankin and the McNamars on Saturday.

HAVE GIVEN GERARD UP.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—Officers of the Ottawa Hockey Club admitted last night that they had given Eddie Gerard up as a hopeless case, though they have been trying for weeks on the quiet to have him make the jump.

Gerard had an interview with L. N. Bate, P. M. Butler, Frank Shaughnessy and others last night, after which the Ottawas were prepared to concede him to the Football Club, which has been waging a merry battle against the hockeyists for the services of the brilliant half back.

Gerard according to the officers of the Ottawas, is willing and anxious to make the plunge, but he is, allegedly, been threatened with the loss of the position which he holds in the civil service and which was secured for him by the football club, Gerard explained this to the Ottawas, and asked that he be excused. It is said that they had raised their offer to $3,200 for two seasons.

Officers of the Ottawa Football club, on the other hand, say that they have made no overtures to Gerard, and that he has turned down the princely offer of his own free will.

The Ottawas thought that if they landed Gerard, George Dion would also turn but now they have little hope of getting either man. Had they signed both Ronan and Darragh, who are holding out, would have been discarded altogether.

Lesueur will make a final offer today to these players. There is still a chance that Dion will be with the Ottawas, playing as an amateur, as he is independent of the cash considerations. Pete Ferguson, of football fame, has been named trainer.

PENNSY MAY DROP GAME WITH INDIANS

Varsity Journal Says it Isn't Sport to Play the Redmen.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 11.—Truxton Hare, chairman of the football committee, and other men closely identified with the gridiron game at the University of Pennsylvania, deplore a movement on the part of certain alumni to have Pennsylvania sever football relations with the Carlisle Indian School and drop the Redskins team from next season's schedule.

The movement against the Pennsylvania-Indian contest is reflected in the following article in the Alumni Register just issued:

"The coach of the Indian team directed the play of his men from the side lines. Wearing white shoes, he stood upon one foot, and then the other, moving his free extremity up and down the number of times necessary to indicate the play he wanted. The other large universities do not play the Indians. It is a remunerative game, but not sport. We should like to see a college substituted, and we think Pennsylvania would enjoy more a game with their fellows."

The attention of Mr. Hare, who was one of the greatest players Pennsylvania ever produced, who played several hard games which played a part in the game, was called to the charge that Glen Warner, the Indian coach, had signalled his men from the side lines.

"I saw the game," said he, "and I watched the side lines closely. Warner did nothing to indicate to me that he was coaching his team in any illegal or unethical fashion. I did not see him do anything out of the way, nor do I believe that he did anything he should not have done."

Following the Indian game this season there were charges made that Warner had worn white shoes and used his feet to signal plays to his team. Warner issued a formal statement denying this. He explained that his shoes had become soaked on the wet, muddy field and that he borrowed a pair of overshoes. The overshoes proving too large, he declares, he stuffed them with newspapers. This he explains, led to the report that he had worn white shoes.

It was decided that the league help to build the tuberculosis home in connection with the local sanitarium, which is to cost $700. It had been erroneously published that the league had decided to build the home. This was not true. They would not commit themselves that far, but the aim of the league would be to push the charity cup and give as much as possible to defray the cost. This amount had been paid. The entire condition was attached to this generous intention, and it was that the home be named after the Brantford and Paris Football League. The officers of the executive were chosen to look into the matter and asked to report, and here the subject rests.

FOOTBALLERS HELD MEETING

Brantford and Paris Representatives at Y.M.C.A. Last Evening.

The Brantford and Paris Football League held a meeting in the Y.M.C.A. last night when a good number of clubs were represented. The President was in the chair. This was the first meeting held in the Y.M.C.A. as it had been decided to quit using the premises of the Borden Club for their meetings and gatherings.

Mr. Seago, speaking for the Borden Club, said the league representatives were free to use the club rooms at all times for their meetings. The Borden Club had no objection to make. It was suggested that soccer clubs should be asked to send two delegates to the executive, and those to be the same at all meetings. This was strongly objected to, it being pointed out that it was not always convenient for the same two to be in commission. It was eventually decided that these clubs must have two representatives present at meetings, but they need not necessarily be the same as were previously present.

Entrance forms were ready for distribution, but it was decided to hold them over until the 31st of January on the motion of Mr. Seago, representing the Dragons. He urged that there would be plenty of time after that date to fix up players. Some teams had not yet reorganized. The Congregational Church P.S.A. team applied for admission to the league, and were admitted with their bond of ten dollars.

It was decided that the league help to build the tuberculosis home in connection with the local sanitarium, which is to cost $700. It had been erroneously published that the league had decided to build the home. This was not true. They would not commit themselves that far, but the aim of the league would be to push the charity cup and give as much as possible to defray the cost. This amount had been paid. The entire condition was attached to this generous intention, and it was that the home be named after the Brantford and Paris Football League. The officers of the executive were chosen to look into the matter and asked to report, and here the subject rests.

Five more bodies have been washed ashore by Lake Huron, three from the Isaac M. Scott and two from the Hydrex.

O. H. A. Groups

Brantford Intermediates in Good Company

The Intermediate O. H. A. grouping as announced to-day is considered quite satisfactory by President Bruce Gordon of the Loy Intermediates. It was not expected that St. Thomas would be in the group, but with London, Woodstock, Ingersoll and Paris the series looks good. St. Thomas and Paris are always fierce rivals, while Paris and Brantford occupy a similar position.

The group arranged is as follows: St. Thomas, London, Woodstock, Ingersoll, Paris and Brantford. Convener, W. R. Vining, London. Meet at Woodstock.

LOUISVILLE BUYS ZIMM. NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Outfielder Gus Zimm who was sent back to Rochester by the Boston Nationals this year, was yesterday sold by Rochester to Louisville in the American Association. Pitcher Ben Tinceup, the wealthy Cherokee Indian was optionally sold by the Philadelphia Nationals to Lowell, Mass.

St. Jerome's College, Berlin, and the Brantford Y. M. C. A. basketball teams have written to Physical Instructor A. T. Taylor, of the London "Y" to arrange games, but up to now nothing has been done to close the arrangements.

LABOR LEADERS AND LARKIN

Dublin Strike Champion De-nounced by Mr. Havelock Wilson.

Says the "Lloyd's News," of London, England: James Larkin, the Dublin strike leader, has aroused active opposition from some English trade union leaders by his "fiery cross" tour in this country. Notable protests have been made by Mr. J. Havelock Wilson, president of the Sailors' and Firemen's Union, and Mr. J. H. Thomas, M.P., of the National Union of Railwaymen.

Mr. Thomas in a speech at Newton Abbot on Sunday said Larkin's manifesto was as ill-timed as it was unfair, as unfortunate as it was mischievous. If railway companies broke agreements the men would be justified in doing everything they could to deal with the situation so created, but while they insisted on the companies observing agreements, the men must adhere to the same code of honor. So far as the synthetic strike was concerned, which the National Union of Railwaymen gave countenance to, that they assuredly had no part in it, they had been.

Mr. Havelock Wilson, in his reply to Larkin, gave an example of an unauthorized strike against the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company, engineered by Larkin last March. "Mr. Larkin was demanding from the City of Dublin Company conditions in excess of those paid by other companies in the same trade. I was assured by Mr. Larkin that the strike would not last two weeks. It lasted for thirteen weeks.

"A settlement was reached and an agreement was made that there was to be no dispute with this company unless two weeks notice was given. The company refused to take any part in the present dispute in the boycott of Larkin's union, and have continued to work with union labor on the docks and in the slips up till one week ago, when, without any notice or warning, the Transport Workers were called out and the work of the company was brought to a standstill.

"The Dublin employers have said over and over again that Mr. Larkin had declared that he has no regard for agreements and that he will continue the policy of holding up the ships of employers who are not directly concerned in the fight, and that is the policy he has carried on so recklessly for the past 18 months.

Larkin's Tour
Larkin, addressing a meeting of 8,000 people at Sheffield on Tuesday, said he had never asked the trade union leaders to declare a general strike. But he said emphatically that no contract ever written, even if it was signed in blood, was too sacred to be broken if it meant that union men had to become hired "scabs" and "blacklegs."

Developing his argument at the Assembly Hall, Nile End Road, on Wednesday, he said that the railwaymen handled the goods which were taken out of the docks during the Port of London strike, though they did not want to do it.

"I have a mandate from them right along the line everywhere I go. They jump on the tender and say 'That you, Jim. Don't forget that we are ready.'"

He said he had letters about the London dock strike, and when the time arrived he was going to show them what went on behind the scenes. Addressing a crowd of dockers at Tibbury on Thursday Larkin said he could produce a document which would contradict a document which Havelock Wilson had signed supporting the strike. On the following morning he signed another repudiating it. He also condemned Mr. Philip Snowden, M.P., for his attitude on the strike. Mr. Snowden had never had a trade union card, had never carried a union on his back, and did not know what a strike meant. What was happening in Dublin would happen in London, Glasgow, and Leith.

IS ADVERTISING FOR RECRUITS

War Office to Adopt Modern Business Methods - 7,000 Men Short.

It was definitely stated on Monday that the new departure of advertising the advantages of service in his Majesty's Army was to be made by the War Office.

The question of adopting modern advertising methods in order to strengthen the obsolete system now in force for securing recruits was very fully considered by the Army Council and Col. Seely, and a decision has been come to start the new publicity campaign in January next.

During recent years industrial expansion it has been difficult to obtain a sufficient number of recruits for the regular army. The ranks were 7,000 short last year. The work of recruiting is left to the recruiting sergeants, who generally remain at fixed points, and the publicity given inviting recruits is of a very limited kind.

It consists partly of rather obsolete posters, which do not contain much detail, and are exhibited chiefly at post offices, with innumerable other notices, and at police stations. In the great cities young men are not likely to hang about post offices reading Army announcements, and still less likely to stand at the doors of police stations.

Perhaps Territorials Too
At a time when there is a shortage of recruits, like the present, it is very desirable to adopt a progressive policy and to introduce new methods. The War Office intends to advertise in the popular newspapers after the Christmas holidays, inviting men to join the army, and setting forth very clearly the conditions of the service.

A form will be included in the advertisements, which the applicant should fill up, and not only would further particulars be sent to him but a recruiting canvasser would call upon him. At the same time the literature issued by the War Office will be entirely revised. Should this new method of advertising for the regular army prove successful, it will probably be adopted for the Territorials.

The scheme was submitted to the War Office some time ago by a public spirited man of business who is now generously giving his services in directing the execution of the new publicity campaign.

The proposed electric railway scheme from Hespler to Georgian Bay was endorsed at a meeting of representatives of 25 municipalities,

GLEN CURTISS, NOTED AMERICAN AVIATOR, HIS WIFE AND CHILD.

MR. AND MRS. GLENN H. CURTISS AND CHILD.

The above photograph was taken, just as Glen Curtiss and family were about to leave the United States for France, where the well known air pilot will attend the annual flying show in Paris.

Speaking of the proposed transatlantic flight, Mr. Curtiss said:—"I would build machines for the flight, which I believe is more feasible now than at any time before. I would not myself make the flight, but I would build a machine that would do it, and there are hundreds of good mechanics who would like the opportunity of making the flight."

THRILLING FLIGHT BY BOY AVIATOR

First Englishman to Emulate Pegoud in England - Narrow Escape.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—One of the most thrilling flights seen at Hendon for some time was that accomplished on Monday by Mr. Temple, one of our young aviators, in the course of it being the distinctive first Englishman to do this in this country.

Mr. Temple, who is only twenty-one, is the son of a retired naval officer. He took a preliminary flight in the morning, and it was with the greatest good fortune that he was spared to score his triumph later. He was only two or three hundred feet above the ground when he suddenly dived in a steep volplane and had almost hit the earth before he was able to pull up. After this thrill he went off and ate an excellent lunch, and then again brought out his machine, a 50-h.p. Bleriot monoplane, which he and his mechanic had been a week adapting for topsy-turvy flight.

After this he climbed up until he had reached a height of about 5,000 ft. Suddenly the nose of the machine dipped, and the monoplane dropped like a stone for a thousand feet. Slowly it went over, and still further over, till its wheels were uppermost. For about fifteen seconds Mr. Temple flew in this manner upside-down.

Then began the most nerve-racking part of the descent. He attempted a nose-dive, sideslip recovery. The machine sideslipped surely enough, but then showed a disposition to continue doing nothing else but sideslip. It should have righted within 500 ft. but instead dropped three times that distance at a tremendous speed. For what seemed to those below an intolerable time it was simply falling, growing larger and larger with a terrible rapidity. Then at last it began to come round again slowly righted itself, and completed the descent with a fine spiral glide.

Topping!
Mr. Temple appeared to regard his feat as a great joke. "What a toppling sensation!" were his first words to those who ran up to congratulate him.

He was not quite clear as to what precisely he had done. "Did I really fly upside-down?" he asked. "Yes, yes," everybody assured him. "No, but are you quite sure I did?" You're not pulling my leg, are you?" "You did it splendidly," said his brother aviator, Salmet, smacking him enthusiastically on the back. "Well, you know, I couldn't see a yard," he said frankly. "The petrol was all flying into my eyes. I didn't know quite what I had done."

He went on to say: "It was the easiest thing in the world to get over and upside down, but coming back was not easy. I thought the old 'bus' was never going to get up again. I was pulling and pulling, and pulling, and the petrol was falling into my eyes. However, if I had had an accident I shouldn't have hurt anybody because I had carefully chosen my spot for descent far away from all the sheds."

"I calculated that it would take me half an hour to get high enough, which meant that I must begin to dive at five past three. I was keeping an eye all the time on my watch, and as soon as the hand touched five past, pushed her nose straight down and dived. I wasn't thinking of anything particular coming down, either 'I didn't have time.'"

While Mr. Temple was talking, he saw the aviator, "Hurry, father, I've done it," he shouted. "But I am jolly glad he wasn't here when I was doing it, he muttered, sotto voce.

Mr. Temple taught himself to fly just a year ago, and was the youngest man to fly from Paris to London. The flight he accomplished on the aviator down on Monday. Previously he was a professional motorcycle racer.

Three Airmen Killed.
Two army aviators, Lieut. Ellington and Lieut. Kelly, were killed while flying at San Diego (California) on Monday. Their aeroplane turned turtle in passing over the bay.

Mr. Carbean, whilst flying between Corral and Senlis on Monday, fell into a road and was killed, a splinter from his aeroplane piercing his body.

In the afternoon he was in the air again, this time on a biplane. Something went wrong with the engine, however, and he fell from a height of 150 ft. on to a house, his machine crashing partly through a roof.

The accident was witnessed by some workmen, who hastened to the scene with a ladder, and assisted the aviator down. The machine was damaged to the extent of £200.

Twenty Loops.
A French aviator named Rost was caught in a whirlwind on Monday at a height of over 14,000 ft. and looped the loop not once but twenty times. An official of the French Aero Club, who was watching the flight, says that Rost was attempting to beat the world's height record. After tumbling down and turning this extraordinary series of somersaults Rost's machine regained a normal position and the pilot was able to bring it safely to earth.

CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully yehrough your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt of any excess oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff, invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

A CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

Tortured Four Years Until He Took "Fruit-a-lives"

RIDGECROFT, ONT., May 21st, 1913. "Your 'Fruit-a-lives' cured me of Rheumatism. It was the only medicine that made any impression on me. I was a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism. I was laid up for four winters with Sciatica and Muscular Rheumatism, and was a cripple completely, not being able to do anything. I doctored with four different physicians, but they did not help me. Other advertised remedies were equally unsatisfactory, and I have taken several.

"Some neighbor of mine told me that 'Fruit-a-lives' helped him, and I took them faithfully every day and the result was marvellous. For over two years now, I have been free from any Rheumatic pains whatever, and give 'Fruit-a-lives' the full credit for making a remarkable cure."

W. T. RACHER
If you are subject to Rheumatic Attacks, Sciatica, Lumbago or Neuralgia, take 'Fruit-a-lives' right now and start the permanent cure which 'Fruit-a-lives' will complete if taken faithfully. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. THE VIRTUES OF OLIVE OIL

Nearly every one knows what an important part olive oil plays in the making of palatable stews, but many are unaware of the value of olive oil from a health and beauty point of view.

The oil can be taken internally for many ailments. Some of the most distressing cases of indigestion have been cured by a tablespoonful of olive oil taken after each meal.

One should never delay the search for a remedy for indigestion. When the trouble becomes chronic it is a serious matter. Attend to the trouble as soon as you feel the first symptoms.

I am afraid that a great many persons treat colds and sore throats too lightly. No one cares to be associated with the person who exaggerates his condition, but yet it is a risk for one to consider a cold a light ailment and allow it to go on in its own way.

One should avoid exposure to wet and cold. A wet head, which is often the result of a cold, is the starting point of many ailments.

PROFESSOR SAID TO IN F

Strange Action of M
 —Relatives Fr
 the States to Search Still Go
 Man May Soon

[Canadian Press Despatch]
 SOUTH PARIS, Me., Dec. 10.—Cecil P. Lavell, the Columbia professor who disappeared from home three weeks ago and was seen in Hamilton, Ont., on Nov. 24th, is thought to be in the neighborhood, and the authorities are awaiting the arrival of relatives from Canada to help in locating him. The man was thought to be the missing person who was first seen here Wednesday noon, although he may have been in the city before. It was his actions that attracted the attention of a woman clerk in a grocery store where the man purchased securities and cheese. She looked over carefully, and became once curious and interested in some friends about it, and when it reached the ears of the authorities. The police had a circular full description and the photograph of Professor Lavell, and as the clerk who had sold him securities saw it she said she was sure it was the man who had visited her store. A number of other

[Canadian Press Despatch]
 NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The mother of Charles Becker, former lieutenant who is in the House for the murder of Rosenthal, the gambler, is this city ignorant of the real prevents her son coming to see was learned this morning. Becker self only knows that his mother and has not been told that he is momentarily expected. The exception to the rule that convicted men shall never leave the House, was that of Albert T. who as his own lawyer, was ordered to appear in the courts of New York and Brooklyn. Mr. Becker's family were told, when made inquiries that it would be possible to have the condemnation taken to see his mother.

Much Excitement Woman School Superintendent Chicago Forced Give Up Job.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
 CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—No student of the politics of this city has caused so much excitement as the forced retirement of Flag Young, as superintendent of schools, according to political circles, and the subject is bound to assume importance in the aldermanic elections next spring. Barrett O'Hara, lieutenant-nor of Illinois, has suggested that the action of the school board club women say the mass called for to-morrow night a large attendance. Mrs. Young, was engaged the night and again to-day callers who came singly or in groups to voice their indignation has accepted a position as editor of The Chicago Tribune. John D. Shoop, had been elected and she saw how she would be reinstated.
