Death of Baron Rhondda the Efficient Food Controller

RUMOURS OF EX CZAR'S FATE
Can Neither Be Confirmed Nor Disproved

So Says Petrograd Correspondent of London Times

By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 3.—Rumors of the murder of Nicholas Romanoff, former Russian emperor, can be neither confirmed nor disproved, says the Petrograd correspondent of The Times, under date of June 23. He says the report of the escape of Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the former emperor, seems to have better foundation.

According to one version Michael is at Kiev, with General Skoropadskii, Ketchum of the Ukraine, who was a friend and adherent of Michael when he was out of favor with the emperor owing to his morganatic marriage. Countess Brazova, Michael's wife, is under arrest in Petrograd.

The Archbishop Andranica of Perm has been arrested for complicity in the escape of Michael. He has interrupted religious services in his churches because his flock did not protect him from the Bolsheviks.

The correspondent says he is unable to throw any light on the reported death of Maria, the former Empress, and adds: "Every time this kind of prominence is given the Romanoff family, the people think something serious is afoot. The Bolsheviks are getting impatient at these frequent surmises about the deposed dynasty and the question again is raised of absolutely setting the fate of the Romanoffs to rest."

LATEST SUMMARY OF SALIENT WAR FEATURES

Allied troops continue to harass the Germans and have made further important gains in anticipation of the renewal of the enemy offensive. French and American troops are meeting with success in carrying forward their lines in the important section of front between the Aisne and Marne River. Villages and more than 500 prisoners have been taken by the Franco-American soldiers. Strong German counter-attacks have been repulsed and the Allied troops hold firmly to the ground gained. After the capture of Vaux and adjacent strong points, the Americans withstood violent enemy reactions, but the German efforts were of no avail. Further attempts probably will regain Vaux, which is an important point in the battle front between Soissons and Chateau Thierry, the nearest the Germans have approached to Paris. Meanwhile the American artillery is bombarding heavily the German positions on Hill 204, east of Vaux. For a week now the French have been driving the Germans out of positions between the Aisne and Villers-Cotterets. The latest gains were the village of St. Pierre Aigle, immediately north of the forest of Villers-Cotterets. North of the Aisne the French have withstood attacks against Vingre. On the British front only the artillery has been active. British aviators, however, continue to be most busy. Forty-two German airplanes and balloons were accounted for in actions Monday, while much bombing reconnaissance and photography work was accomplished. Mannheim, Coblenz, Treves and Thionville, all in Germany, have been attacked by British squadrons. Continuing their local attacks on the mountain front, the Italians have gained ground in the northwestern part of Montegrappa, between the Brenta and the Piave, and taken nearly 600 prisoners. Monte Grappa is the key position between the rivers, and is east of and across the Brenta from the heights gained Saturday and Sunday. East of Asiago the Italians have repulsed Austrian attacks against their new positions, and captured 100 prisoners, bringing their total captures since Saturday to more than 2,700. Important changes have been made in the Austro-Hungarian army command, probably as a result of the grave repulse along the Piave. General von Below, a German, has been appointed to the supreme command, while Field Marshal Arns von Straussenburg, the chief of staff, has been replaced by General Krauss. German and Finnish troops are reported moving rapidly toward the Murmansk coast where British, French and American forces are guarding Allied supplies intended for Russia. The frontier has been crossed by the invaders and clashes have occurred with Russian troops guarding the Murmansk railway. The Germans are said to have 50,000 soldiers in this region.

His Valuable Work. Viscount Rhondda was the man who put England and most of the United Kingdom of Great Britain on rations and won the gratitude even of the people whose food supply he regulated. Before he achieved the task it was generally regarded as all but impossible.

Food was running short in the United Kingdom in June, 1917, when Baron Rhondda was appointed food controller of Great Britain. The German submarines were sending ships to the bottom of the ocean and Great Britain was supporting a tremendous army in France. The credit at home were beginning to feel the pinch. Long lines of men, women and children stood for hours at the food stores in the big cities and there was a loud grumble from the public.

Another Big Credit. Washington, July 3.—A credit of $100,000,000 was granted to France today by the Treasury, making the total advanced to France to date $1,765,000,000, and the total allotted to the Allies $6,081,559,000.

SENATOR TILLMAN PASSED AWAY
Was Noted for His Plain and Blunt Speaking

Washington, July 3.—Senator Ben J. Tillman of South Carolina, died this morning at 4:20 o'clock. Senator Tillman suffered a cerebral hemorrhage last Thursday and had been in an unconscious condition since that time. The stroke affected the entire left side. He had been a member of the United States Senate since 1894. His term would have expired March 3, 1919. Benjamin Ryan Tillman was one of the most extraordinary members of the United States Senate in which body he served continuously for 24 years. During the latter part of his service he was chairman of Naval Affairs Committee of the Senate and his work in that position after the United States entered the great war was considered by his colleagues to be of great value. As a senator Mr. Tillman quickly won a wide reputation through the country for plainness and bluntness of speech, which combined with his apparent rough exterior and somewhat careless manner of dress made him a unique figure in Congress. Within a month after he took his seat in the Senate, following his first election to that body in 1894, Senator Tillman won his picturesque nickname of "Pithfork Ben." He was born in South Carolina in 1847 and was governor of the state in 1890 and again in 1892.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 3.—Viscount Rhondda (David Alfred Thomas), the British food controller, died this morning. "I am going there," he added, "as guardian and trustee of the consumer and particularly the poor consumer." He declared that he was determined to stop profiteering and speculation in food.

FINNISH CAMPAIGN IS LAUNCHED
German Army There Has Been Greatly Increased

By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 3.—The German Finnish campaign against the Murmansk region of Russia has begun. Masses of troops have concentrated on the Finnish-Russian border and at several points have crossed the frontier and fired upon the Russians. This information is contained in a despatch from Helsinki to the Nya Dagligt Allehandan of Stockholm, and transmitted from Copenhagen by the Exchange Telegraph Company. The German army in Finland, it is added, has increased in the past few weeks to 50,000. The British consul at Helsinki told a correspondent of the Stockholm newspaper that he expected to be expelled from Finland. Stockholm, July 3.—Germany last week landed large military forces at Hangoe, on the Finnish coast, west of Helsinki, according to information received here from reliable sources. The troops in full winter equipment, and well supplied with artillery of all kinds.

OVER FIFTY WERE KILLED
In An Explosion at a Plant in the States
The List of Injured is Also A Lengthy One

By Courier Leased Wire. Syracuse, N. Y., July 3.—Forty-five men were killed in the explosion of the plant of Semet-Solvay Company at Split Rock, just west of this city last night. Forty-two bodies had been recovered at 8 o'clock this morning, and there are three in the ruins.

There are at least 80 injured. Some of them are in local hospitals but most of them were removed to their homes in the rush to remove them from the scene of the disaster. Many of the injured are expected to die. At least half of the great munitions plant was wiped out by the fire and series of the explosions which followed. At least ten buildings were destroyed and property damage will exceed $1,000,000. The explosion which occurred at 9:30 o'clock last night shook the entire city. The first blast broke windows in some sections near Split Rock, shattered windows at the county home and hospital, and sent inmates into a panic. Many of those killed or injured suffered while fighting the fire.

Besides the buildings of the plant, the small homes of workmen about the hillside, and in the valley, were wrecked. Many people in these houses had narrow escapes. According to the statement of E. L. Pierce, vice president of the Semet-Solvay Company, the fire started in one of the towers of the T.N.T. plants. The cause has not been ascertained. The fire gave warning so that workmen were able to escape, and most of those killed or injured were fighting the fire. Three T.N.T. plants, one nitric acid plant, the office and laboratory, and a boiler house were destroyed. According to Mr. Pierce, the men had the fire under control, and then lost the water, and this permitted the spread of the flames. While there were rumors of incendiarism, and also that the fire was started by German spies, this theory had nothing to confirm it, although an investigation will be made.

TEST CASE THURSDAY
Preference for Light Sentence to Services in Army Was Shown

General Court-martial Will Deal Now With Conscientious Ones. Conscientious objectors are to be more strictly dealt with from now on, according to plans at District Headquarters. Previously these men were tried by District Court-martials, and the maximum penalty that could be imposed was two years' imprisonment. Now, however, authority has been received to fry these men before a General Court-martial, with the result that a sentence of life imprisonment or even the penalty of being shot for refusing to obey orders while on active service may be imposed. These stringent measures have become necessary by the increasing number of so-called conscientious objectors who prefer a comparatively light term of imprisonment to service in the army. The first to come under the new regulation is to be tried Thursday at the Toronto Armories. Special authority must be received from the Department of Military Orders for a trial by General Court-martial.

BLAME A BRITISH MINE
Latest Attempt of the Hun Murderers
To Escape Responsibility For the Sinking of the Hospital Ship

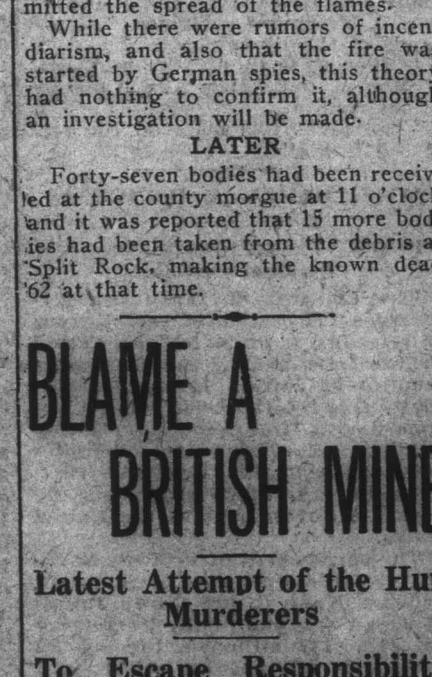

By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, July 3.—The sinking of the British hospital ship Llandovery Castle, announced by the British Admiralty, to have been sent to the bottom by an enemy submarine off the Irish coast on June 27, with the probable loss of more than 200 lives, was due to her striking a British mine in all probability, says a semi-official note from Berlin, received here to-day. "Like all similar assertions of the British Admiralty," the note reads, "the assertion in this case that a German submarine was responsible for the fate of the Llandovery Castle is also probably incorrect. It appears from the later news that no one on board the steamer observed a U-boat or a torpedo. In all probability, the cause of the loss will be found to be attributable to a British mine." Still Without List. Ottawa, July 3.—The Militia Department is still without a list of the victims of the German submarine, which torpedoed the Canadian hospital ship Llandovery Castle off the Irish coast. The delay in receiving the names from overseas is probably due to the fact that the department by cable asked for a complete list of everyone on board the ship and it is presumed that the overseas military authorities are experiencing some difficulties in ascertaining correct and complete information as to the names of those on board. The circumstances that the Llandovery Castle sailed from a Canadian port would make it more difficult to ascertain who were on the lost hospital ship.

UNION LABOR OFFICIALS
Ask the Influence of President Wilson
To Prevent Further Prohibition Legislation

By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, July 3.—President Wilson was asked yesterday by a committee of union labor officials to use his influence to prevent enactment of further prohibition legislation at this time. The committee was headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who recently appeared before the Senate Agricultural Committee in opposition to an amendment to the $11,000,000 agriculture appropriation measure providing for prohibition as a war measure. The President was told that no necessity now exists for additional prohibition on the ground that it is necessary for the conservation of food, great dissatisfaction among the workmen would result, and that the output of materials would be reduced.

Heavy Car Skidded into Their Machine. Two Brantfordites, Messrs. W. H. Webbing and G. Scarfe were injured in a motor car accident in Brantford last night. They were coming in from the Buffalo County Club after having a game of golf when a heavy touring car skidded into their machine driven by Mr. J. F. McHowie, the well known Scottish peasant, who recently addressed the Rotary Club in this city. Mr. McHowie had an artery in his arm severed and was unconscious for some time but is now out of danger. Mr. Webbing had his knee and hand hurt and is still in hospital, but will be able to come home in a day or so. Mr. Gordon Scarfe had to have cuts in his hand closed by stitches and is back in Brantford. They are all congratulating themselves that matters were no worse.

Song, Seven Years in Advance
The press notice in yesterday's dailies regarding a pact between the British Empire and the United States, for mutual protection, recalls a song by Prof. W. H. Jackson of Simcoe. The words and music were handed to the publisher in 1910 but, through delay, the edition did not come on the market till the spring of 1911.

The reciprocity effort of the Laurier government that year was responsible for the report of the song being misunderstood and the author becoming aware of the fact that his selection was being considered a political catch, promptly gathered in the remainder of the edition from the market. The title is "Uncle Sam and Johnny Bull." The words are well adapted to the situation today.

The music is in keeping with the theme and the movement quite brisk with splendid chorus melody of bars from popular national airs of both powers. We should not be surprised should the title again appear in the market.

Mr. Jackson has received autograph compliments from the governors of many states across the border and from prominent Canadians on his production. Both theme and setting are together different from the 1914 composition "The Flag is Raised."

The Song.
Are you lined for war for peace,
That is going up all round?
Can't you see how all would gain,
If the answer could be found?
Just listen to my song,
And I think you'll quickly find
That the problem can be solved
By the Brits and Yanks combined.

Chorus.
Let Uncle Sam and Johnny Bull
Sit down and make a pact
All other nations then will see
We're ready quick to act.

In case of peace and amity,
Not steadily cruel war;
And all the world will soon abide
By arbitration law.

Come ye Brits and Yanks take hold,
Are I not related still?
What if once we did fall out,
We no longer fear ill will,
Deed I'm sure we love far more
Now than in the days gone by
And if troubles e'er beset,
Each will find the other nigh.

English speaking people come,
Band together in every night,
For your loved ones near and far,
Hand to hand, stand firm for right.
None would dare our strength oppose
Better far their struggle cease,
Ruled by arbitration laws,
All shall dwell in glorious peace.

The song was intended for the Peace centennial which was not celebrated owing to the outbreak of war in 1914.

WILL MARRY A PRINCESS.
Japanese Crown Prince Changes Old National Custom.

The Emperor of Japan has disregarded the custom of recent years of selecting a bride for the Crown Prince from among the five noble families of Japan. Instead, he recently selected the bride for his son from among the Imperial princely families according to an announcement made by the East and West News Bureau, which represents the Japanese Government in the United States.

The engagement of Princess Nagako, eldest daughter of Prince and Princess Kuni, to the Crown Prince of Japan was formally announced on Jan. 17, although the official statement will not be issued until the 17th birthday of Prince Hirohito, heir to the throne.

Princess Nagako, the Imperial fiancée, celebrated her fifteenth birthday on March 6 this year. She is now a pupil in the third year class of the Peers' College, and is known as one of the prettiest young princesses of the Imperial Court. Her father, Prince Kunyoshi, Kuni-no-Miya, is a lieutenant-general in the Japanese army and commander of the fifteenth division, Toyohashi.

Arctic Hysteria.
In a paper dealing with the University of Oxford expedition to Siberia of which he was a member, Mr. H. U. Hall, of the University of Pennsylvania, refers to the striking psychological effects of long daylight and long darkness in high latitudes. As to the former, apart from the tendency to shorten sleeping hours in order to make the greatest possible use of the long day, there seems to be a kind of stimulation of the nervous system, leading people to a feverish and purposeless activity. This is especially noticed in newcomers, but the natives are not exempt from it. On the other hand, the coming of the long winter night is followed by a kind of reaction, though no general depression of vitality is apparent. With the cessation of work the period of sociability begins, and the circumstances favor a lapse of self-control. This is the time when "Arctic hysteria" is likely to show itself. "Such, for instance, is a form of hysterical seizure for which the Tungus have a special name, in which the patient sings imprecations of his own which are likely to contain absurd exaggerations or laughable glorifications of himself." The writer records a case in which one of these hysterical outbursts represented himself as a god and was killed by some of his fellow-tribesmen, who were also apparently affected by the disorder.

MAN POWER IS NEEDED ABOVE ALL

Reply Given to British M.P. Who Protested Conscripted of Farmers

London, July 2.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa agency.)—W. F. Roeb, member for Pembroke-shire, moved the adjournment of the House, drew attention to the serious effect of conscription on the agricultural laborers at the harvest.

He said it was inundated with letters from farmers bewailing the probable disastrous effects of the Government's action and threatening to turn their cattle into the harvest fields unless they got the needed labor. Mr. Roeb stated that the agricultural committees were not willing parties when 20,000 laborers were called up and for which Sir Auckland Geddes was solely responsible.

R. E. Prothero, M.V.O., sympathized with the complaint voiced by the member for Pembroke-shire, but emphasized the over-mastering need for men for the army. Men power was short all round, but essential industries must yield in proportion man power for the army. Men taken now would be fighting at the silly but the critical moment. The Government recognized the need as over-powering every consideration, even food. Continuing Mr. Prothero said:

"What they are asking the men to do on the land is nothing compared with what they are demanding of the men at the front. I cannot say that the harvest will be saved, for all of those 30,000 men were killed and in many cases were hit by bombs and in many cases were killed by machine guns. I do not believe that much of the harvest will be lost. Only the absolute need of men."

I hope that the agriculturists will meet the situation with the same cheerful courage and patriotism as they have met previous difficulties.

Several of the members criticized the Government for sending men to the front after three months' training. Mr. Bonar Law said that the Government recognized that the men and boys were handicapped by having to fight with such short training, but Great Britain throughout the war had been handicapped by necessity of having to create an army from its foundations. He recognized that the shortage of men were wanted, representing that the Government was acting in the national interest. Thirty thousand men were wanted, representing that vital force necessary to supply three or four fighting divisions. When wear out the reserves then it must be realized that the Government must be able to assure our not being defeated in this campaign and our not suffering in anything we may do next year.

The difficulties of securing man power was becoming greater every day and it was impossible to decide such difficulties by discussion in the Commons which must give the Government a blank cheque. Mr. Roeb's motion was defeated.

LEGISLATURE CAN EXTEND ITS TERM

Enactment Within Powers of Province, Dept. of Justice Decides

Ottawa, July 2.—The extension by the Ontario Legislature of its own term has been under consideration by the Department of Justice and the view expressed that the enactment was within the powers of the Legislature. The point was raised in a letter to the Minister of Justice, inquiring what steps could be taken to nullify the extension of the Legislature's term.

"I am in receipt of your letter in which you question the constitutionality of the legislative assembly which met in 1918 and enacts some procedure or petition would be accepted from you to have it dissolved."

In reply I beg to state that the question of the constitutionality of this legislation has had careful consideration by myself and by the law officers of the department and that we are certain no doubt that its enactment was within the powers of the Legislature of Ontario. Should you however desire to ask for its disallowance and submit reasons in support of your request, they will be considered in due course."

Mr. James was able to save his parents, his wife and one of the children, but was drowned while trying to save the remaining three children.

A coroner and undertaker are coming here from Port William. Arrangements are being made to take the bodies of Mr. James and his two children east for burial.

ITALY HAS SENT MANY MEN TO FRANCE
More Italian Troops On West Front Than Franco-British in Italy
By Courier Leased Wire
New York, July 2.—Italy has sent more troops to France than her allies have sent to the Italian front, declared Felice Ferrero, director of the Italian Bureau of Information, in an address here last night.

"It is highly important from the standpoint of a complete understanding of the real situation in Italy," he said, "that the Allied peoples know the French, British and American troops on the Italian front are not there because of any lack of men in Italy. There are to-day more Italian troops in France than there are troops of her allies in Italy."

He added that "now the Italian army have redeemed themselves," by the recent victory of the Piave, it should be emphasized that the Italian army alone halted the Austrians at the Piave in the disaster last fall and that this unexpected stand at that river made it unnecessary to call into action at that time French and British reinforcements lined up on the Adige.

Dr. Ferrero made these statements at a meeting of the Council of Foreign Relations held at the Metropolitan Club. James W. Gerard, former American ambassador to Germany, and Stephane Lausanne, editor of Le Matin, were among the other speakers.

Mr. Gerard asserted that the United States should re-establish the Russian battle front so that the Teutons would be forced to defend that border. Explaining that the French people have lent $2,000,000,000 to Russia, Mr. Lausanne declared that "you cannot find anyone in France who is willing to consider any kind of aid to Russia except that reported by an army to constitute the battle front and to wrest Russia from the hands of the Germans."

He added that he hoped, within a few days, he would learn that the Japanese army had taken the first step in that direction.

FELSCH OUTS WHITE SOX.
By Courier Leased Wire
Chicago, July 2.—Oscar "Happy" Felsch, centerfielder for the Chicago Americans, is the latest player to desert the world champions. After receiving his monthly pay check yesterday, Felsch notified Manager Rowland that he had accepted a position in Milwaukee, his home, and planned to play semi-professional ball.

Felsch led the league season in hitting and ranked as a 300 hitter. He is the fifth player to quit the club. Pitcher Faber enlisted in the navy and Jackson, Horn and Williams went to work in shipyards.

Felsch will be employed by the gas company at Milwaukee, playing ball Saturdays and Sundays.

ENEMY ATTACK FAILED
By Courier Leased Wire
With the British army in France, July 2.—(By The Associated Press.)—After an intense bombardment the Germans at 10 o'clock last night began an attack on the positions the British had gained Sunday night when they drove the enemy from important high ground southeast of Bouzincourt to the north of Albert.

On the northern end of the line the enemy succeeded in recovering a few of his old positions in which he was maintaining himself at latest reports. At all other points the Germans were repulsed and badly punished.

Three separate assaults were driven forward by the gray coats on the British right, but each time they were hurled back.

HUNGARIAN CROPS.
By Courier Leased Wire
Amsterdam, July 2.—Fair and medium crops can be expected in Hungary this year, says an official Hungarian report, embracing the prospects in all districts up to June 19. It says the cultivated area is larger than in 1917, but that frosts in March did great damage to summer cereals, fruit, and garden produce. It is pointed out that the effects of the frost only in June are included in the report.

Complaints come from all parts of Hungary, says the report, of the extortionate demands made by farm hands and the farmers everywhere are clamoring for soldiers to help with the work in the fields.

TO TAKE NO ACTION.
By Courier Leased Wire
Ottawa, July 2.—Chairman Flavell of the Ontario License when asked to-day whether the Board would prosecute under the Ontario Temperance Act, Lady Hearst and the builders of the vessel War Ontario, launched Sunday, said they would not. The offense mentioned was the possession of liquor in another place than their residence.

The liquor was the bottle of champagne used in christening the vessel. Another curious fact in the launching of the vessel is that before the actual christening two Catholic priests blessed the boat and sprinkled it.

ANNOUNCEMENT

FALL WHEAT SEED

IN VIEW of the partial failure of the Fall Wheat crop in this Province this year, it will be necessary for farmers to make early arrangements for the supply of seed which they will need for Fall Sowing. Under these circumstances farmers who have on hand quantities of wheat suitable for Fall Seeding are urged to conserve them for this purpose. If there is no demand locally, the information should be supplied to this Department, or to the Local Office of this Department in your County, so that every effort may be made to have an equitable and satisfactory distribution. The need for foodstuffs justifies a large acreage of Fall wheat in this Province again this year, and the co-operation of the farmers in the mobilization and distribution of the available seed supplies is invited.

STRIKES PROHIBITED.

By Courier Leased Wire Washington, July 2.—Strikes are prohibited for the period of the war, under an agreement reached between the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, the American Steamship Association and the Shipping Board, an announcement to-day said. Union members failing to submit grievances to the board for settlement will become subject to discipline by the beneficial association. Overtime payment for all work done off watch at sea except that necessary for the immediate safety of the vessels was granted the union. The ruling is one of the most important of numerous far-reaching concessions granted by the board, doing away with the recent privilege accorded mates of calling men during their rest hours to any task they might find or do without extra pay. Such work now will be compensated at the rate of time and a half.

EMPTY BOAT ONLY FOUND

Thorough Search of Waters Where Llandovery Castle Sunk Reveals Nothing

NO MORE SURVIVORS

Fears Expressed That 24 Are All That Were Saved of 258 Aboard

London, July 2.—A thorough search of the waters in the vicinity of the spot where the Canadian hospital ship Llandovery Castle was sunk by a German submarine has resulted in no further survivors being found. An official statement issued by the Admiralty says it may be assumed that only 24 out of the 258 persons on board were saved.

The Admiralty statement says: "The area between the spot where the Llandovery Castle was sunk and the southwest Irish coast has been thoroughly searched by two groups of His Majesty's ships in addition to the (destroyer) Lynx. Only a little wreckage and one empty boat were found. It may be assumed that there are no more survivors from the Llandovery Castle."

Account by Survivors. London, July 2.—(London Times Cable Service to The Globe. Copyright, 1918.)—An officer of the destroyer which picked up the only survivors of the Llandovery Castle gave an account of the rescue to a representative of The Times. He said: "On Saturday morning we were returning to our base after duty at sea, and about 9 o'clock—about 30 hours after the Llandovery Castle had been torpedoed—we sighted a boat under sail. We chased it, and when we got near we found it held five officers and nineteen men, the survivors of the hospital ship. We gave them food. From what they told us, the circumstances of the attack appear to be these:

While steaming just at dusk, with all lights on and everything showing, the Llandovery Castle was suddenly hit by a tremendous explosion. The shock, they said, was just as though a Zeppelin bomb had been dropped on board. The Captain could not for a moment realize that he had been torpedoed, but he stopped the engines and put the ship full speed astern to facilitate lowering the boats.

Wireless Destroyed. Attempts to send out S.O.S. wireless were in vain, as everything had been brought down by the force of the explosion. Seven boats were lowered. Some, it is thought, got away, though others were swamped or capsized when the hospital ship went down, as they could not get clear. One boat lost this way carried fourteen nurses, and all, it is feared, were drowned, as the boat was sighted later with the keel upwards, with only a Sergeant-Major, bruised, and in a dazed condition, astride her.

When everyone but a few hands left the Llandovery Castle, the Captain saw nothing more could be done he went to the cabin to get an electric torch and a pipe and then made for the small boat detailed for the last party to go. The boat had gone, but a second officer found one of the lifeboats hanging by the falls, and in this the Captain and twelve others got away. While pulling from the ship eleven more survivors were picked out of the water, among them was Sergeant-Major from the upturned boat in which the nurses had been lowered from the ship. It was while they were rescuing the last man that a voice was heard calling in the darkness calling "Come alongside."

The submarine was seen, but no immediate response was made to the order, and shots were then fired by the enemy, who threatened to use the big gun. Captain and Major Lyon then boarded the submarine and were questioned.

Scattered Wreckage. It is the opinion of the survivors of the ship that after they had left the submarine enemy tried to destroy all trace of the outrage he had committed. The submarine darted to and fro among the wreckage, scattering everything, and the captain's boat was the narrowest escape, being rammed and sunk, and in addition fire was opened from the submarine, although there apparently was no target except possibly a boat from the hospital ship. It is an extraordinary thing that, although a thorough search has been made in the area where the Llandovery Castle was attacked, there was no sign of wreckage anywhere.

Describing the picking up of the survivors by the destroyer, an officer said the men in the boat had biscuits and water, but no other food. There was great appreciation of the fact that the Captain had brought a pipe, as the pipe was passed around the men taking turns in having a taste of tobacco. The submarine was about 250 feet long, and her commander was a tall, thin man of severe manner.

Pass Resolution. London, July 3.—Major Lyon of the Canadian Medicals, who figures largely in the story of the torpedoed Llandovery Castle, was born at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1882. He enlisted at Halifax in April, 1915, and left Canada immediately afterwards for overseas service. He served for some time as medical officer in Monk's Horton Hospital. He was posted to the Llandovery Castle in March of this year.

Six hundred seamen and stewards of Liverpool have passed a resolution strongly protesting against the latest crime of sinking the hospital ship, Llandovery Castle, without warning, and urging Havelock Wilson, their president, to add another five years to the after-the-war boycott of the Germans "for this most diabolical and most cowardly murder of our brothers on the high seas."

Postponed Sailing. Washington, July 3.—Plans for the sailing of the American hospital ship Comfort, which it was proposed to send through the submarine zone without convoy, have been delayed by the ruthless destruction of the Canadian hospital ship Llandovery Castle. It is not yet decided whether the original plans will be changed.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Stop eating meat for a while if your bladder is troubling you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, as a well-known authority, Dr. J. M. Salts, acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish, and you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach soars, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to urinate two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces in a Jar of Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

SHELL SHOCK NO LONGER SERIOUS

Is Not Suffered By Physically Sound Men, Says Physicians

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, July 2.—Shell shock is not now regarded as serious by the experienced British and French army surgeons. Their experience shows that shell shock is not suffered by the physically sound soldiers and that those who are afflicted have either neurotic tendencies or are otherwise suffering. Soldiers affected by shell shock are sent back to service in a short time. A report on these conclusions was given at a research meeting of army doctors held here.

The meeting was addressed by Col. Thomas W. Salmon of the British army; Dr. Ernest P. Dupere and Dr. P. Marie and Dr. Joseph F. Babinsky, celebrated French neurologists.

Major General Sir John Rose Bradford, consulting physician with the British Expeditionary Forces in France, speaking on chest wounds, said that deaths from that cause had been considerably reduced by use of new surgical methods in opening the chest for the removal of foreign matter carried into the body by the bullet. He described several experiences in the British army, collecting cases for treatment, operation or medicine.

Professor Theodore, who invented several surgical instruments for the treatment of chest wounds, described the technique of operations used in the French service.

Col. A. B. Salteau, of the British army and Prof. Essor Pierre Duval, of the French hospital service, also spoke.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

London, June 2.—A misunderstanding between the Dutch and Allied Governments concerning the kind of goods transported by the Germans to Belgium over the Limbourg Railway, is reported by the correspondent of The Daily Mail at The Hague. The trouble is ascribed to conflicting interpretations of the recent agreement between the Allied Governments and Holland.

Representatives of four Allied Governments, it is added, visited Dr. London, the Dutch foreign minister, and pointed out that their Governments never intended to recognize the transit by the Germans of such things as timber, ores, barbed wire, hay, and straw, which are likely to be used for military purposes. Foreign Minister London's reply is not reported by The Daily Mail correspondent.

All matches held in stock by dealers become liable to the war tax on July 1, and are now illegal to sell any matches not bearing the tax stamp. The inland revenue department is busy at the present time issuing these stamps.

CASE DISMISSED

In the county court yesterday afternoon Porteous was charged with fraud in connection with the sale of a horse to John Blasell. The evidence submitted tended to prove, however, that the horse was worth the money paid for it, and the case was dismissed.

REBUILT SWIMMING POOL

Brantford's boyhood will rejoice to learn that the swimming pool on the west side of the river, near Agricultural Park, is to be rebuilt at once. It is likely that the timbers surrounding the pool will be put in place next week.

TOWNSHIP TAX RATE SET

Brantford township's tax rate was struck by the township council last night at 13 mills, which is an increase of one mill over last year. George Gee was paid the sum of $25 for the use of land on which to dump garbage. All the members of the council were present.

BREAD REPORT

During the quarter ending June 30, no cases of short weight bread were found by Inspector Glover among twenty-one tests made. In four cases the bread was 50 ounces overweight. The condition of all bakeries except one is good, and that one fair.

LOTS OF WATER USED

During the month of June a total of 103,372,634 gallons were pumped by the waterworks engines, as compared with 86,613,624 gallons in June last year. The daily average was 3,445,951 gallons, as compared with 2,953,787 last year. The maximum amount pumped in one day was 3,908,006 gallons, and the minimum 2,836,266.

PLENTY OF THRILLS FOR SPECTATORS AT THIS RACE
The spectators at the Exhibition track, Toronto, Saturday, witnessed the novelty of a motor car in a contest of speed with an airplane. This photograph shows Miss Ruth Lew, the aviatrice, in a special constructed air machine in her race against Chevrolet, the automobile driver. The officials awarded Chevrolet the race. He won by half a lap, but had been given a lap in the five lap race, owing to the conditions of the tracks.

MONEY WANTED

In addition to the amount the street railway commission has now on hand, the sum of $3,000 is required for the purchase of two new cars for the Brantford and Paris line. W. R. Turnbull, chairman of the commission, has accordingly written the city council, asking that the necessary sum be passed by that body as soon as possible.

BUILDING ON INCREASE

Forty-five building permits were issued in the city engineer's department during June, for a total value of $56,235, an increase of $23,740 over the figures for May, 1917. For the first half of 1918, 149 permits have been issued, for a total value of $287,060, an increase of $21,205 over the figures for the same period last year.

CITIZENS' PICNIC

A meeting of the city council committee appointed to arrange for a civic picnic for the soldiers' wives and children, was held yesterday at which it was decided to make the affair a public one, open to all who wish to take part. It is proposed to interest all the lodges and organizations of the city in the proposal, and to this end a public meeting has been called for Monday night, at which plans will be formulated.

PORT DOVER HARBOR

Mayor MacBride has received word from E. D. Hancock, secretary of the organized municipalities of the Grand river, that the Hon. F. B. Carroll has been authorized to set the date as yet for his proposed trip to Port Dover harbor, but that the minister will wire the date of his coming. As the notice was likely to be given, Mayor MacBride proposes to complete all necessary arrangements with the Board of Trade to make a quick trip from Brantford to the port when the time comes.

INSPECTED PARKS.

The Parks Board held their annual tour of inspection yesterday afternoon, visiting the various parks and playgrounds of the city, all being found in good condition for the summer. Besides the members of the board, Ald. English, chairman of the Board of Works, Ald. Bragg, chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, and Ald. Charlcraft, representing the Finance Committee, went on the trip.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE.

The Bluebirds beat the Dodgers in the Y.M.C.A. Softball League last night, while the Beavers were overcoming the Wasps and West Brant. The Bluebirds, who have broken even, won two and lost two, while the Wasps and Paterson's occupy cellar positions.

LOST—A BASEBALL TEAM!

Early last week The Courier challenged its contemporaries—no pun about contempt, please—to a game of baseball at Agricultural Park, which was accepted with great "business" of weeping over the dire fate in store for Brantford's Better Paper, Tuesday, July 2nd. The game was played at 4.30 in the afternoon, and the appointed time came, as it has a habit of doing, and found The Courier team upon the field, ready for the fray. Not so with the opposition, who were conspicuous by their absence, and the slaughter was perforce postponed. "One more is the ancient adage exemplified—'and the first (in every thing)' shall be last." Or was it lost, in this case?

DIFFERENT HOUSE NIGHT.

Dufferin Bowling Club held their weekly contest for prizes last night. The interest taken was keen, the attendance good and this popular feature of the club was, as usual, a decided success. It is the intention of the club to continue these games every Tuesday night throughout the season. The winners of the prizes last night were: A. E. Boddy, A. McIntyre, H. Taylor and J. D. Ansell. This is the fourth game of the series, other winners being R. Gowman, T. S. Wade, G. W. Wanklin, C. Taylor, C. Taylor, F. C. Munn, A. F. Wicks, I. E. Mason and R. C. Burns. Harry Taylor has been on the winning roll on the whole four occasions, being the lucky bowler so far.

UTMOST INDIGNATION IS EXPRESSED

By New York Papers Regarding the Latest Outrage

New York, July 3.—All New York morning papers this morning comment editorially with the utmost indignation over the torpedoing of the Canadian Hospital Ship Llandovery Castle. The Sun says: "The determination of the Kaiser's government to make the German name a hissing and reproach throughout the civilized world has never been made more manifest than by the sinking of the Canadian hospital ship Llandovery Castle." The Times calls for some action by allied and neutral nations to show Germany what the world thinks of her crimes. "The punishment," it says, "should take the form of excommunication, isolation, deprivation, until the guilty nation makes amends and qualifies for re-admission to civilization."

DEEPEST THANKS

Ottawa, Ont., July 3.—Lieut. Le-mot, O.C. the "blue devils" has sent the following telegram from Bridgeport, Ontario, to the Minister of Justice: "On leaving Canada soil, on behalf of the officers and 'blue devils' I beg to extend our deepest thanks for the splendid manner in which we were welcomed by the people of Canada. We hope many more of your splendid boys will come and fight with us for our common cause."

Earl Saunders, charged with trespassing on G.T.R. property, was also allowed to go. Faggie Ferguson, arrested as a vagrant, was remanded until Friday. Mrs. Louis Thorn, charged Annie McNeill with using insulting language, and the latter charged the former with assaulting animals. The magistrate dismissed both cases, after warning both parties. A charge of insulting language laid by Minnie Wark against Madeline Lake, was laid over until tomorrow. Charles Nazarian, charged with procuring a woman for prostitution, was remanded until Friday.

WAR YARDS AND BILLIARDS.

Two well known gentlemen who live somewhere in Brantford and are close neighbors have recently become great rivals as to who is the best expert with a cue. We will call them George Slosson and the other Willie Hoppe. Slosson has a private table in his house and Hoppe often goes across the road in the evening and some very hot contests are pulled off with varying success on each party. One evening recently Hoppe, while hoing his yard and thinking over past contests, suddenly got it into his head that he could defeat Slosson. He dropped the hoe and proceeded to his neighbor's to prove to himself that his convictions were right. He evidently found Slosson in the pink of condition for four games were played and Hoppe only got one game out of the four. Slosson invariably feeling somewhat elated over giving Hoppe such a drubbing proceeded to the telephone and rang up the Central Fire Bell, and ordered the ambulance sent up near the Grand Trunk Station to take his neighbor home. He stated that he had received the blow that almost killed father. The chief who received the phone message informed Slosson that the ambulance had not arrived yet, but that he would send up the hose wagon and turn the hose on, and this could be perhaps all that would be necessary to bring him around. When Hoppe heard that such drastic means of resuscitation were about to take place he suddenly revived and hit the trail for home and as he was passing over Mr. Man's Land he was heard to murmur "Well if I cannot beat him playing pool, I can beat him growing potatoes anyway."

BOYS RUSSIAN SUIT.

Wash suits are undoubtedly the most sensible kind for small boys at school or play, not only because they wear well but also because they are easier to keep clean. A good looking little suit which is very easy to make is given in No. 6558. It has a Russian blouse with a collar which starts at the right shoulder. A large round collar is comfortable and boyish looking. The long sleeves are gathered into straight cuffs. Miniature knickerbockers with straight Jockey edges are included in the pattern. The boy's Russian suit pattern No. 6558 is cut in three sizes—2 to 6 years. The 4 year size requires 2 1/2 yards 36 inch, with 2 1/2 yards braid and 1/4 yard 36 inch lining.

To obtain this pattern send 15 cents to The Courier office, or two for 25 cents.

The illustrations show scenes amongst the Canadian Pacific Rockies.

There's no use saying it never rains in the Canadian Rockies. You couldn't have such wealth of great timber if there wasn't plenty of moisture. The tourist who comes to the mountains with no alternative but a parasol to keep off the sun and a pack of cards to keep off the blues, is unprepared for the best part of his holiday. I'd had good weather all through the Rockies—one glorious shooting sunshiny day after the other. Then, half way between Field and Glacier, somebody tipped over the rain barrel and when we reached Rogers Pass the combined tourist soul was a mighty sponge of woefulness. In the pouring rain we got off at Glacier, did a swift dash for the hotel and stood around in mentally dripping and mournful groups gazing at the big log fires. "Do you ever get raincoats?" asked the charming white-haired hostess. "I don't see why I should stay in and play patience, with all that waiting for me," and I waved a vague arm in the direction of Mount St. Donald, who was probably chuckling or dancing or doing sacrilegious behind the curtain of his seven cloud veil. "Certainly," I was told, "you can get a raincoat in the curio tent." In the curio tent they gave me a big black light rubber overcoat and a rain hat to match. I had thick shoes anyway—and that was all I needed to complete my costume. An umbrella would have spoiled the whole party. There's something fascinating in starting out to follow a trail that you've never seen before. It's like reading a serial story. But in the case of the path to the Great Glacier you see the last chapter first—chunks of blue sky with white clouds whipped in, frozen stiff and tumbling over the top of the world. That's the Illellewaet, 8000 feet at the skyline, obligingly pushing its huge head down into the valley so that the tourist has only two short miles to go to be able to climb up and pat this prehistoric monster of the Glacial Period that purrs so lamely in the very backyard of the hotel. Notice the strange white mud underfoot—ground rock brought down doubtless by old Illellewaet himself in the days of his youth, when he filled the whole valley. SWEDEN APOLOGIZES. By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, July 2.—The Swedish Government, the Koelnische Zeitung quotes the semi-official Wolff Bureau as saying, has expressed to the German minister at Stockholm regret for the recent statements made in London by Hjalmar Branting, the Swedish Socialist leader. While attending the British Labor Party conference in London, Branting on June 26 told the Associated Press that he could say with great pleasure that the Swedish people were becoming more pro-Ally. He said he was convinced, however, that Sweden would continue to be neutral.

WILSON'S STATEMENT

Regarded as Highly Satisfactory Record for Twelve Months' Effort. Washington, July 2.—American troops sent overseas numbered 1,019,115 on July 1. This was made known tonight by President Wilson, who gave to the public a letter from Secretary Baker, disclosing a record of achievement which, the President said, must cause universal satisfaction, and which "will give additional zest to our national celebration of the Fourth of July."

Washington, July 2.—American troops sent overseas numbered 1,019,115 on July 1.

"I have today received the following letter from the Secretary of War, which seems to me to contain information which will be so satisfactory to the country that its publication will be welcomed and will give additional zest to our national celebration of the Fourth of July. War Department, Washington, July 1, 1918. "My Dear Mr. Wilson. "More than one million American soldiers have sailed from the ports in this country to participate in the war in France. In reporting this fact to you I feel that you will be interested in a few data showing the progress of our overseas military effort."

"The first ship carrying military personnel sailed May 8, 1917, having on board Base Hospital No. 4 and members of the reserve nurses' corps. "Gen. Pershing and his staff sailed on May 29, 1917. The embarkations in the months from May, 1917, to and including June, 1918, are as follows: "1917—May, 1,718; June, 12,361; July, 12,988; August, 18,323; September, 32,523; October, 38,259; November, 23,016; December, 46,340. "1918—January, 48,776; February, 48,027; March, 83,811; April, 117,212; May, 244,946; June, 276,372. "Marines, 14,644. "Aggregating 1,019,115. "The total number of troops returned from abroad, lost at sea, and casualties is 8,165, and of those by reason of the superbly efficient protection which the navy has given our transport system only 291 have been lost at sea. "The supplies and equipment in France for all troops sent is by our latest reports adequate, and the output of our war industries in this country is showing marked improvement in practically all lines of necessary equipment and supply. "Respectfully yours, "Newton D. Baker."

Satisfactory Record. To which I replied: The White House, Washington, July 2, 1918. "My Dear Mr. Secretary. "Four letters of July 1 contains a very significant piece of news and an equally significant report of the forwarding of troops during the past year to the other side of the water. It is a record which, I think, must cause universal satisfaction, because the heart of the country is unquestionably in this war and the people of the United States rejoice to see their forces put faster and faster into the great struggle which is destined to redeem the world. "Cordially and sincerely yours, "WOODROW WILSON."

BLAZIN IN CHEMICAL WORKS. By Courier Leased Wire. Mount Union, Pa., July 3.—Fire which started from a motor in the duplex heater house of the Aetna Chemical Company here yesterday destroyed four buildings, comprising the recovery and purification departments and the main portion of the plant. About 450,000 pounds of gun cotton and much valuable machinery was consumed. The loss is estimated at $900,000. There was no loss of life, but several employees were severely burned.

HALF OF C. E. F. FROM ONTARIO

And Quarter of Air Force Are Canadians, Hearst Tells Spo Rotarians

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 3.—Ontario's part in the great war was the subject of Sir William Hearst's address to the Rotary club here last night. The Premier was introduced to the newly-formed club, which has more than fifty charter members, by the President, H. J. Hollinrake. Sir William reviewed the work accomplished by the establishment of hospitals and comforts for the soldiers overseas. Ontario had furnished half the fighting men of Canada, and 25 per cent. of the men in the Air Force were from Canada, among whom were Major Bishop, of Owen Sound, and the two Hobbs brothers of this city, whose names, he said, would go down to history. The Government's policy regarding the re-establishment of the returned soldiers in private life was outlined. "Those wishing to go on the land would be given one hundred or two acre plots at Kappaskegung, with a house already erected, and a loan up to $500 to cover the expense of stocking the farm and getting equipment would be advanced."

PAST WEEK NOTABLE IN AIR FIGHTING

Operations Carried Out On Two Fronts Despite the Unfavorable Weather. By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, July 2.—The official review of British aerial operations for the past week says that it has been a notable one for the air work carried out in France and Italy under weather conditions which a year ago would have made flying impossible. Excellent work was done by Canadian pilots and apart from coastal enterprises and special work of the Royal Air Force, independent forces of 30 ton bombers were dropped on military objectives behind the German lines. Nearly 2,000 photographs were taken and many thousands of small arms ammunition were fired from a low height at ground targets. In the air fighting thirty-one German machines were brought down and eight destroyed. Nineteen of our machines are missing, against the enemy's 59. Eighty successful raids have been made on German harbors, shipping and naval works on the Belgian coast. Five separate attacks were made upon the docks at Bruges and at Ostend within 24 hours. During the operations upwards of nine tons of bombs were dropped upon the docks at La Brugesais, works at Thorout, the railway junction at Maria. Apliter, the airframe at Zebrugge and sheds and railway sidings at St. Pierre Canolo. Enemy trawlers and destroyers off Ostend and Zebrugge were also attacked. British aircraft took an important share in defeating the Austrian offensive on the Italian front. Our bombing machines rendered signal service, attacking and destroying bridges and pontoons across the Piave. Red Cross Men Did Good Work. London, July 2.—(via Reuters's Limited).—British Red Cross Ambulance men did splendid work during the recent Austrian offensive and they earned high praise from the Italian military authorities, according to reports received here from Rome. Their actual help was increased by the moral support given the Italians.

On the plain west of the Piave British ambulances often were in hotly contested sectors. One regimental medical post they served was within several hundred yards of the firing line. The Britishers won the admiration of the Italians for their work among the vines and fruit trees which were in full leaf, and through which it was impossible to see over the very short distance. Nine tenths of the wounded in certain districts were carried to the rear by the British.

When the Austrians retreated across the river at Cora di Piave British ambulances worked up to the river bank and took care of Austrian and Italian wounded.

Nuptial Notes

RISINGER-RYERSON. A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ryerson, 31 William street, when their eldest daughter, Annabel, became the wife of Dr. H. R. Risinger, of Winnipeg, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Risinger of Cedar Springs, Michigan. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room under a floral horse shoe and in front of a bank of palms and ferns, while there was also a profusion of peonies, sweet peas and other flowers. The young bride, who was given away by her father, looked very attractive in a dress of Irish satin, with an over dress of silk tulle, embroidered with pearl and old lace. She wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and forget-me-nots. Her sister, Lella, made a charming little flower girl, attired in pink crepe de chene and carrying a basket of sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots. Mrs. Ryerson was handsomely gowned in black and white foulard georgette with a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses. Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick of Brant Avenue Methodist Church tied the nuptial knot, assisted by Rev. Dr. Henderson of Wellington Street Church and the wedding march was played by Miss Warden of Fort Huron. At the conclusion of the ceremony an adjournment took place to the dining room, where a tasty luncheon was served and felicitations expressed. The floral decorations of this apartment were Ophelia roses and ferns. The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. St. Cl. Pickett of Queenston, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dowling of Brandon, Man., Mrs. A. G. Hepin-stall and son of Winnipeg, Mrs. W. Crawford of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. R. Thorne of Princeton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smy of Paris, Judge and Mrs. F. A. Hess of Grand Rapids, Dr. and Mrs. Ira H. Risinger of Battle Creek, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bellaire of Grand Rapids, Miss Marie Warden of Fort Huron, Miss Phyllis Murchison of Barrie, Miss Nelson of Toronto, Miss Jean Jarvis of London, Mr. and Mrs. George Dowling of London, Lt. W. Ryerson, Toronto, and Pte. Edgerlin Ryerson, Toronto.

The many handsome presents testified to the popularity of the bride. U. S. RAILROADS. By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, June 2.—Reduction of $108,196,856 in the operating income of 123 of the largest railroads during the first five months under Government control, compared with the same period a year ago, was announced today by the Interstate Commerce Commission. In the last five months the roads were beginning to recover from the paralyzing effects of blizzard and embargoes and the operating income rose to a point nearer last year's figures. For the five months, the total was $186,927,144 as compared with $295,183,970 during the same period last year and for May it was $64,276,805 against $70,200,630 last May.

In spite of the reduced operating income revenue of the roads actually was larger for the five months this year than last. They were $1,390,262,620 compared with $1,274,970,498, giving margin which was more than eaten up by expenditures.

All were more than satisfied with the test and deserved congratulations were extended to the chief and the department and also to Mr. Minshall, through whose agency the truck was furnished. Mr. Scott of Eagle Piece had much to do with the preparation of the efficient outfit.

HOLLAND EXPORTS POTATOES. By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, July 2.—Official announcement from the Hague that the Netherlands Government has agreed to export potatoes from the new crop in equal quantities to the belligerent nations, brought the disclosure to-day of the fact that the United States Government has announced its intention to export 50,000 tons of potatoes to Germany. Officials here believe that in expressing a willingness to export potatoes to each of the belligerents, Holland is undertaking to discontinue her intention of supplying large quantities of much needed food to Germany alone. Shipments to Germany already are under way, according to cable advice, the movement following closely the announcement in Germany of the reduction of the potato ration from seven to three pounds weekly.

STRIKE STILL ON. By Courier Leased Wire. Vancouver, B.C., July 3.—There was no prospect of an early settlement of the street railway strike, according to T. G. A SIGNIFICANT MURDER. By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 3.—The murder of M. Volodarsky, Bolshevik commissioner for press affairs in Petrograd, on June 21, is very significant as a symptom of the growing discontent among the workers and the opposition political parties, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Times under June 3. The Bolsheviks threaten vengeance, and party passions are running high among them. The Bolsheviks regard the assassination of Volodarsky as the first terrorist act against their supremacy by the Menshevik and Social Revolutionists. The correspondent says they even endeavor to implicate Englishmen in the counter-revolutionary movement, with which they think the murder is connected.

LOCAL CRICKETERS BEATEN AT LONDON

Played at Springbank Park Monday, Despite Unfavorable Weather

The Brantford Cricket Club played the A.M.C. team of London at Springbank Park, London, on Monday. The trip would have been much more appreciated if the weather had been warm. Captain Elliott of Brantford having won the toss, decided to send his men into bat first and at the close of the innings 73 runs were made, of these 21 were made by Chas. Smith, the next highest being T. Davis with 15 runs to his credit. The A.M.C. team next went to bat. Stabler, making 31 runs for his side and at the close of their innings was not out, without him they would certainly have been badly off. After three of their wickets fell, the party adjourned for lunch, of which ample justice was done, especially by the Brantford players.

The game was then resumed and the balance of the A.M.C. wickets fell in short order, they only making a total of 60 runs. Brantford thus beating them on the first innings by 13 runs. The second innings was then proceeded with, Rieseboro of the Brantford team making 14 runs, the highest number for his side. Brantford being unlucky, was dispatched for a total of 36 runs. The medical men then went to bat, Wright making 21 runs for them. During the time he was getting them a rather unfortunate incident happened for Brantford. A ball after being bowled caught Wright on the hand and went into his eye, being caught by G. Elliott of Brantford, Wright of the Medicals admitting this to be the case and he should have retired right away, but the umpire was wrong in his decision and allowed him to remain, saying not out. Brantford was certainly robbed of the game, several of the London men admitting the umpire was wrong in his decision. The Medicals, making a total of 33 runs, thereby winning on the day's game of 19 runs. The bowlers, Rieseboro and Wyse of the Brantford team, bowled in great shape. Evans of the Medicals being their best bowler, taking 4 wickets for 3 overs. The ground was not fit to play decent cricket on, but that could hardly be blamed on the Medicals, as the ground they usually play on was being occupied with picnics, etc. After the termination of the game a supper was served and the Brantford men to get revenge, went up to the fullest extent. The best good turn the Medicals did was to see to it that everybody had plenty to eat and smoke and it was certainly appreciated. The return trip was soon afterwards made, leaving London about 6 p.m., arriving Brantford at 9:30 p.m. The scores are as follows: Brantford—First Innings: W. Perkins, c. Lillyman, b. Dykes, 5; F. Wyse, b. Dykes, 18; E. Rieseboro, b. Dykes, 10; Chas. Smith, b. Evans, 21; F. Davis, c. Arundell, b. Evans, 15; F. Stabler, not out, 31; G. Whitwill, hit wicket, 4; G. Elliott, b. Dykes, 4; L. Elliott, b. Evans, 0; C. Farnsworth, not out, 1; Cyril Smith, c. Lillyman, b. Dykes, 1; Extras, 10. Total, 73.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.

TRANSFER JURISDICTION

NEWARK TEAM TO HAMILTON

Negotiations Now Under Way for Shift After the 15th Inst.

Hamilton, July 2.—There is every prospect that the Newark franchise in the New League will be moved to Hamilton after the 15th day of the present month. A representative of the Newark club owners came to Hamilton today with Secretary Elliott of the Toronto club to interview the Hamilton Amateur Athletic Association and to see the latter's playing field with a view to making transfers on the above-mentioned date. It is intended to keep the franchise in Newark until the 15th in order to protect the territory in New Jersey, so that the club may be moved there in the event of Hamilton failing to support the Bears for the remainder of the season.

EXPLOSION IN SHELL FACTORY

Between Sixty and Seventy Killed in Disaster in Old Land

By Courier Leased Wire. London, July 2.—An explosion occurred in the National shell filling factory in the Midlands on Monday night, it was officially announced today. Between 60 and 70 persons lost their lives. The official statement reads: "The munitions ministry announced that a serious explosion occurred Monday night in a national shell filling factory in the Midlands. The extent of the casualties is not yet known. It is feared that 60 or 70 lives have been lost. The number of injured is unknown. It is estimated that a considerable part of the factory and its productive capacity will have been lost. The reports state that women workers behaved splendidly, requesting to be allowed to remain in the factory. The capacity held available in this class of supply is sufficient to prevent appreciable diminution in the output."

HAD SUFFERED FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

Has Never Found Anything in Canada or England to Equal Tanlac

"I have taken all kinds of medicines, both in this country and England, and I just want to say right here and now that I have never found anything to equal Tanlac," said William Thwaites, Toronto, who resides at 9 Cameron Place. "I have had stomach trouble of the worst sort for eighteen years," he continued, "and during that time I was a constant sufferer. Before I came to Canada, eleven years ago, I was treated in some of the best hospitals in England, and have tried everything I ever heard of. And ever since I have been over here, I have been trying to get rid of my trouble, but it seemed like the more I tried the worse I got. My stomach was in such a bad condition that in the month of February alone I was off from work more than two weeks, and I can't remember what my appetite was at that time. I had almost forgotten what it was to sit down and enjoy a good heavy meal and suffer; no one except those who have gone through the same ordeal knows. I couldn't eat a bite of breakfast and you can imagine how I felt. One morning I reported for work, but found I was just so weak and 'all in' that I was unable to do anything and it was two weeks before I was able to get back to work. At such times I would eat a few mouthfuls, but everything would turn against me and I suffered agony from gas-bloating and pain. I couldn't sleep on account of my misery and would wake up in the mornings feeling half dead."

HUN SOLUTION OF POLISH PROBLEM

Frontiers To Be Fixed By German High Command—Economic Concessions

London, July 2.—The principal features of the German solution of the Polish question, which are approved by all the Central Powers, are published in the Abend Zeitung of Augsburg, Germany, says an exchange Telegram dispatch from Zurich. "The conditions are: 'The frontiers will be fixed by the German high command according to military necessities. The Polish army will be restricted to 30,000. For fifty years Poland must make most favorable economic concessions to the Central Powers on the principle of the most favored nation. Publication of German, Austrian, Hungarian, Bulgarian and Turkish papers must be allowed. In any locality where there are ten German children, a German school will be opened. Provision, the newspaper adds, also is made for an elective monarchy. The German conditions will be incorporated in the constitution which cannot be modified without the approval of the Central Powers.' DISCOURAGE OCEAN TRAVEL. By Courier Leased Wire. New York, July 2.—Ocean travel during the war was further discouraged today when revised rules for passengers from the United States for foreign ports became effective. Hereafter prospective passengers must give three days notice to the customs intelligence bureau of their intention to leave the country. Male applicants for passports who are liable to draft under the compulsory military service act must exhibit permits from local draft boards. The new rules also are more stringent as regards baggage and persons wishing to send non-royalty telegrams or messages to passengers are warned that such messages must reach the pier before sailing time.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason. WAR GARDEN SASS.

To-day I ate some freedom peas, in my war garden grown; I often gather greens like these, and boil them with a bone; and though the peas were small in size, in taste like castor oil. I showed them with admiring eyes, the product of my toil. With pride the loyal voter eats his home grown garden sass, his luscious Patrick Henry beans, and Sweet Boon sparrowgrass; his lettuce may be small as beads, his lettuce coarse and tough, but joyously he on them feeds and cannot get enough. I plant my beans of Bunker Hill, and till them with my sword, and say, "Oh! help can Kaiser Bill, if frugal you I board; I've plowed up the begonia bed, the lily and the rose, and that I may be cheaply fed; I ply my forks and knives." How 'good it makes a fellow seem to do his little trick, when he's too old to take his steel, and carve a Teuton hick! He feels his jaded spirits rise, he knows his safe and sane; he views his garden plot and cries, "I have not lived in vain! There are so many ways to add, that no one need depend; the coin saved with hoe and spade, will buy another bond. I help to balk the submarines, some Teuton scheme I smash, by raising Nation's Bulwark beans and Eagle's castorash."

Among the Pueblos

A wheatless meal does not bother the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico in the least. Wheatless days are to them no serious deprivation. Though wheatless weeks were to be pronounced they would be entirely content. Fact is, they don't care much about wheat. They do not grow much of it, and could get along very well without it. Corn is good enough for them, as it was for their ancestors.

PRINCE MAY VISIT U. S.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, June 21.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—A visit to the United States by the Prince of Wales has been suggested recently in the British press. "The suggestion is admirably well timed," says The Daily Express. "The Prince would cross the Atlantic, not as a representative of the British Government, but as a simple young Englishman, the type of tens of thousands of similar young men gallantly fighting at the front. He would carry to the American people a direct personal message of brotherly appreciation."

BELGIAN VESSEL SUNK

By Courier Leased Wire. Washington, July 2.—The Belgian steamer "Ghillebeek," 2,366 tons, was sunk by a submarine 1,400 miles off the Atlantic coast on June 21. The Navy Department today announced that twenty survivors were picked up by a sailing vessel on June 27.

THE HUN HAND IN FRANCE.

"Defeatist" Handbills Call on French Workers to Demand Peace.

Details of the "defeatist" campaign carried on by German spies at France are found in recent copies of "Humanite," the leading French Socialist newspaper. In publishing two of the handbills sent out by the "pacifist" organization at St. Etienne, an important munition centre near Lyons, "Humanite" points out that the typographical errors and the mistakes in construction indicate they were printed in a German establishment.
