Stocks and Bonds Noon Stock Letter- Received by A. E. Carpenter, from Ennis & Stoppin.

New York, Sept. 27.-The market during the morning ruled dull after early selling pressure. London offered 15,000 shares and some liquidation appeared.

This, according to current gossip, having been for Canadian interests. A plunger who was credited with large winnings earlier in the year, on the bear-side, is said to be again active and there is a rumor of selling by Rock Island interests.

Some good selling appeared in Smelters, but in Union Pacific, Reading, St. Paul and Steel Common there were important buying orders. The indication of the Southern Pacific for relating, passing of the ice securities dividend, uncertainty regarding the crops and prospect for fresh utterances by President Roosevelt are leading factors.

The old rumor of a large mercantile concern being in difficulties is again heard. The governor of Alabama planning an extra session of the Legislature to deal with the R. R. is not added to bullish sentiment. Copper metal is lower abroad and tin and sheet copper are lower. The low rate for call money may have caused shifting of funds from Trust Co's. to the banks and the latter have lost cash in some volume this week, all of which suggests an unfavorable showing tomorrow.

The issue of new securities and reports of other issues are adverse factors. Foreign exchange is working toward the gold import point and treasury deposits with banks will also tend to offset current tendencies against local banks. THE HAMILTON TIMES

FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 1907.

A POLICY FOR CANADA.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at the Manufacturers' banquet in Toronto last night had the ring of true Canadianism in it, and the frankness with which he set forth his views won the applause of the gathering.

that as the years go by the need for care in the purification of our drinking supply will be greater.

Prof. Amyot's analyses of samples of the water from the filtering basins and the lake go to prove the correctness of the views we have here expressed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

And Mr. Borden has already begun to hedge on his Vancouver utterances!

Has Mayor Stewart heard that Ald. Baird is nursing a mayoralty boom?

Wonder if Mayor Judd, of London, thinks he could have done better than Commissioner Snow.

The right of every man to decide as to whether his taxes shall go to Public Schools or Separate Schools is protected by the law.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley has been prompt to act against the Toronto World for hinting that he "was on the inside of all the Blair-Russell deal."

A private letter from Wolseley, Sask., says that crops there escaped pretty well till Friday night, the 20th, when there was a severe frost nearly half an inch of ice being formed.

Hamilton papers are censured for giving publicity to the dangerous condition of their drinking water, but the Toronto press is fearless, and is to be commended for giving publicity, and a caution to the public which it observed will lessen danger and save lives.

CITY WATER SUPPLY.

It does not seem to be in accord with common sense, or with common sense, to say that we can pour the unpurified sewage of a population of 300,000 people into the Bay and Lake near Toronto, and drink the unpurified water of the lake without danger to health.

That is a reasonable conclusion. Moreover, to say that Toronto is, more than most places, subject to danger from sewage contamination of its water supply is merely to say that its condition is aggravated beyond that of most places drawing their supply of water from the lakes and rivers which connect them.

THE T. H. PRATT CO. LIMITED
16 and 18 James Street North

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

There is no class of entertainers so dear to vaudeville audiences as the juvenile class, and that is just the reason why Gus Edwards' act, "School Boys and Girls," is going to make the hit of the season at Bennett's next week.

written upon blackboards by various persons in the audience and hardly have they set down the figures of the example when Madame Konorah, without the slightest sign or signal, gives the correct answer. La Esmeralda, the "Spanish Danseuse," who has been one of the features of the season in New York, will be another big attraction.

JAMES T. POWERS.

Three poses in natural life of principal in "The Blue Moon."

and they are generally admitted to be an exceptionally handsome lot of juveniles. Another good act which will grace the boards next week will be the Musical Avolons which is put on by a pair of musicians who eclipse any one else in the business on the exalophone.

on this side of the water its Americanized version has won equal popularity. This is due in great part to the attractiveness of James T. Powers in the leading comedy role. Seats will be on sale on Wednesday.

Madame Konorah, the Modern Witch and Mistress of Mysteries, who comes to the Savoy as the chief attraction next week, is one of "advanced vaudeville's" most novel features.

There promises to be a big audience at the "Fighting the Flames" entertainment in Association Hall this evening. In addition to Hale's fire fighters, motion pictures of the sensational run made by the Hamilton Fire Department on Monday will be shown.

NOW, MR. MAYOR

Will You Apologize to Commissioner Van Allen?

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—I notice in last evening's Herald a report of the Fire and Water Committee, and that the Mayor had stated that a clause in the letter from the Beach Commissioners granting the request to close up the roadway between the two furthest basins was an impertinent thing. I cannot allow such a remark to be made unchallenged against the Commissioners, in the absence of two of them, in the city, who concurred in the conditions upon which the request was granted, without first stating the facts in connection with the application and allowing the public to judge as to who was impertinent.

About the 15th of August a deputation of the Waterworks Committee, together with the City Engineer and the Mayor, waited upon the Commissioners and asked them for permission to close the roadway referred to. In discussing the matter the question came up as to the injury Mr. Fitch would sustain, whose property faces the roadway which the city desires to close, and during the conversation the committee asked us if we would assume the responsibility of the lowest price he would take for his premises. After discussing the matter further we promised we would ascertain and let them know at as early a date as possible.

A few days afterwards the Mayor, thinking that we were not going to grant their request without certain considerations, called upon the Minister of Crown Lands in reference to the matter, and was pointed told in return that he would have to arrange with the Beach Commissioners. Shortly after seeing the Commissioner of Crown Lands the Mayor and committee again waited upon us to receive Mr. Fitch's reply and get his permission to close the road. At this meeting we told the committee the price and terms upon which Mr. Fitch would sell his property. They then asked us the amount that Mr. Fitch would consider adequate for the damages he would sustain if the road was closed.

After discussing the matter some time, we decided that it would be best for the city to make the application in writing, and on the 27th of August they wrote us making the application to close the road and asking for our consent. In granting them permission to do so it was upon their own terms with the exception that we added the clause objected to, and we thought Mr. Fitch should be compensated by the city for any damage which he might sustain if they did not wish to purchase his property.

This request was not granted without the knowledge and consent of all the Commissioners and with their approval. The committee must have recognized that Mr. Fitch had a claim for damages to his property, business, or they would not have asked us to procure a price from him for the damage he would sustain, and after acting for the city in trying to get a settlement with Mr. Fitch we all felt that it was just and proper to state in granting the request that Mr. Fitch's claim be considered. I might say that the application was made to the Minister of Crown Lands on Oct. 20, 1906. Upon the Mayor's return to Toronto, after viewing the situation at the Beach, he wrote to Mayor Biggar as follows: "I also think that in view of closing up the road Mr. Fitch is entitled to some consideration. This will certainly do him more damage than it does to all the balance of the residents in Saltfleet. If the city could see its way to buy him out at a fair valuation, I think it advisable to do so. If not, I feel that he is entitled to compensation."

"Signed" F. Cochrane." Ex-Mayor Biggar, who was Mayor at that time, did not consider the Minister of Crown Lands was impertinent in putting that clause to the Mayor, then made to close the road, and if it was not impertinent to do it then we failed to see why it was impertinent in the eyes of Mayor Stewart to include that clause at this time.

Under the circumstances, I feel that in the absence of other Commissioners they are entitled to an apology from the Mayor for the remarks he has made in connection with granting the committee's request. Yours, etc.

E. Van Allen, Chairman Beach Commission, Hamilton, Canada, Sept. 27, 1907.

The coroner's jury at Caledon has refused to be guided by the Toronto verdict in the accident there, and will continue the inquiry they had already started.

"WHAT WITCH?" A Husband's Question.

When a man, from drinking coffee, gets to such a condition that he cannot eat breakfast without throwing it up, it seems time to quit, but there are thousands of people who do not understand that when an article of food or drink produces such conditions as these, it should be absolutely left off. A little woman out in Montana writes that she and her husband knew enough to quit coffee when it had rapped them hard. She says: "My husband was so badly affected that he ate no breakfast for three or four years. He would often try to drink a few sips of coffee and invariably threw it up. When Postum Food Coffee was brought to my attention I tried it without having any faith in it, but when I found what a delicious beverage it was when prepared according to directions, and from trying it on myself found there were no bad effects. I induced husband to take a cup without telling him what it was. He objected at first, saying that he would be sure to throw it up, but when I insisted upon his trying it, it agreed with him. "Morning after morning I gave him Postum without telling him that it was any different from ordinary coffee. His stomach quickly recovered and he began to eat breakfast. He asked me one morning as he called for a second cup 'what witch' had taught me to make such delicious coffee,' and where I found some that would agree with him? Then I told him for the first time that he had not been drinking coffee, but Postum, which had so strengthened his stomach that he could now eat as much breakfast as any one. "My two sisters were badly troubled with stomach disorder, but after leaving off coffee and taking Postum they both recovered their appetites and took on considerable flesh. Everyone could be induced to use the health-giving, aromatic Postum." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in packages.

THE 2 T'S.

The 2 T's desire to impress you with the fact that their new store [which is Hamilton's finest sartorial art home] at 50 James St. North will be open to the public to-morrow. In this magnificently appointed store for MEN AND BOYS, you will find a variety of everything suitable for the most economical or the most lavish purse.

The purpose of this announcement is to make known to men of discriminating taste—men of ideas and ideals in dress, that the fall and winter 1907 and 1908 clothing, hats, furnishing and shoes that we have been months in selecting for our opening, is now ready for your most critical inspection. The quality, individuality, styles and fabrics we are showing, express a degree of quality not found elsewhere and will be appreciated by men who care.

The impossibility of purchasing an article that is not absolutely new is an obvious advantage to patrons selecting their wardrobe for the coming season. The advantage will be profoundly apparent to every visitor to the store as a guest, friend or customer, potential or actual.

You have never before been afforded an opportunity of purchasing from a stock chosen with such regard for style, quality, variety, worth and fashion, as well as ensemble of taste and durability which stamps the 2 T's garments, whether they are made to be seen by the public eye, or to submit to the judgment of the careful, tasteful and discriminating purchaser only. And this applies as much to garments that appeal to the mechanic, as to those that invite inspection and purchase on the part of the business man and the man of means.

This store of the 2 T's has more than size. It is not merely the bigness of the store, but it is the extent of our assortment and their values which should attract you. It is a big, simple, straightforward store—a store which merchants will come miles to visit and study its conveniences and economies. Its doors welcome all. It has no privacies. To the best in assortments and price, each one has the same entree. Our printed store news is the special message and open letter to all. It is the store that you need. "It is the store" that you have demanded, that it should be aggressive, but conservative; enthusiastic, but reserved and truthful in fact and figure to the last degree. To err is human. Mistakes will occur, but remember that there is a principle governing here—a principle which makes the world worth living in—a principle of mutual happiness.

On the first day, as on those to follow, the purchasing value of a dollar at the 2 T's handsome store will be one of their most convincing arguments for a continuance of your patronage.

THE 2 T'S LABEL

the symbol of all that is worth while in clothes, has never been attached to a garment that could be a discredit to the wearers themselves. They cordially invite all to attend as a very complete display will be made and they are sure it will interest you whether you contemplate purchasing or not.

MR. GOSLINGTON'S TOOTHACHE.

It Keeps Him Awake for Two Nights—His Happy Relief.

N. Y. Sun—"If I had my toothache," said Mr. Goslington, "between riches and pain and poverty without pain, I'd take pains poverty, every time. Money is a good thing, but health is better."

"I am prompted to these few remarks by a case of toothache recently endured, and which I had an enemy I could wish him nothing worse. "Miss Beer at 6 p. m. of a Sunday, and from the seat it made me shudder and shudder and I had no thought but for it. The thought of other people and of the world in general interested me no longer, my toothache engrossed me completely, and all I could do was to sit and grind my teeth and wait for it to go away. "I did think I could forget it when I went to bed, for I am a good sleeper, and I had no doubt I could get a good night's sleep, but to my regret it for a time but that only shows how little I know about hard toothache, and how much I suffered myself out than the ache got busier than ever."

"While I was up and around among folks in the morning I was so slightly annoyed, but when I laid me down in the silence and solitude of my chamber, the toothache simply claimed me wholly or its own, and now it lox out another link of pain and all I could do was to sit there and suffer. "At 1 o'clock on that first night I did get a little sleep; slept from 11 to 12, one hour, awakening then to find the pain still there, while I could do nothing to stop it. Occasionally, in my little futile effort to obtain relief somehow, I would sit up on the edge of the bed and at 1 o'clock I got up and sat up until 2 and read and then I lay down again, the tooth still aching just the same. "During this suffering the hours went slowly by, and in the prevailing stillness of the night I heard hour after hour the town clocks our neighborhood strike, while over the ocean of silence there came faintly the steady wailing of an infant in some distant house. All the rest of the world was asleep, but my portion was to lie there awake and suffer. "At 4 o'clock got up and partly dressed went out in the sitting room and the tooth still aching just the same, and from that time I fell asleep again at 5.30, to sleep until 7. So on the first night I got two and a half hours' sleep, but the rest of the world was asleep, but my portion was to lie there awake and suffer. "The tooth still aching and with the ache quite unbearable. "It so happened that I had an appointment with my dentist for 8.30 that day, an appointment which I had so strengthened my stomach that he could now eat as much breakfast as any one. "My two sisters were badly troubled with stomach disorder, but after leaving off coffee and taking Postum they both recovered their appetites and took on considerable flesh. Everyone could be induced to use the health-giving, aromatic Postum." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in packages.

HINTS FOR NEXT MONDAY'S WASH.

STALE BEER FOR IRONS.

Put stale beer in a pan and let your irons steam in it for a short time. Take out and wash with a little scouring, being asked, they will come out bright and clean. "WASH WITH SOAP IN BAG. "Cut soap into several pieces or have it whole. Put into a salt bag or other clean bag; then add hot water and let it steep for a few minutes. It can be used in and out of the wash tub. "BE CAREFUL WITH LIME OR ACID. "I wish to warn all housekeepers against using chloride of lime or oxalic acid to bleach their wash. Excess of lime and borax in the water, and in a short time even the best of wash will be full of holes. "TO WASH FEATHERS. "Make a pillow from chamois cloth or any light-colored material, and put your feathers in it; put feathers in and then sew up. Wash in a good suds of borax and soap; rinse well with clean water. When the feathers are dry, slip them over. In this way the tickling which the feathers cause when they are washed any time without washing the feathers, is entirely avoided. "DO NOT WRING QUILTS. "When washing collectors, quilts, or pads for beds, to obtain best results do not wring them through the hot water by wringer, but take to the line in a tub of water and throw over the line to drain and dry. When dry, give a thorough shaking and they are as bright and soft as new. By using this method the cotton also receives a good cleaning. "When ribbons or thin hosiery but are frayed and no iron is handy, use the large curling tongs for the purpose. Heat until it will press, but do not burn the fabric. Put in one end of the ribbon; hold the ribbon tightly around the curler; leave until the iron has cooled, and the ribbon will be smooth. Another way is to heat the curler as hot as a laundry iron. Lay the ribbon on a folded towel on the dresser and pass the curler over it the same as you would an ordinary iron. "FOR CHILDREN'S DRESSES. "Mothers often are perplexed to know what to do with the little one's dirty frocks, which so often are covered with grease, paint or grime from bicycles or wagons. A simple and sure method of removing the same is to wash the stains with cold water and soap, then dip the garment in a tub of laundry soda, which, as hot water sets the stain and then it cannot be removed. Soft water is preferable for this purpose. "TO IRON BABY DRESSES. "In ironing baby dresses or small skirts one often finds it hard to iron on a large board. By turning the skirt wrong side out you can still iron on the right side and not wrinkle up the parts just finished, and this also keeps the waist and sleeves damp even in a dress that is often dried out. The garment before your work is finished. "TO WASH SMALL ARTICLES. "Place lace, cuffs, or turnover cuffs in a glass jar half filled with strong soap suds. Shake suds and change water as required. When well rinsed, put dry as possible between folds of Turkish towel, smooth into shape with fingers, and finish drying by laying on a newspaper in sun.

FOLDING THE BABY'S CLOTHES.

(By Wayne Cameron.)

Folding the little socks and mittens is a task that many mothers find tiresome. Before she ceased to fuss and fuss, just here by the good old-fashioned way, she made the socks and mittens. "Wash by her little feet, which, tramped so happily down the walk with frocked light and dark. "She would stop sometimes to look a flower. "Fair like her own sweet face. "To bring to me, with smile and blush. "And then in her merry race. "To meet her father's welcome step. "Would laugh in wildest glee. "Because of the ride on his shoulders strong. "As he brought her in to me. "But oh! my baby's precious hands! "Which soothed my aching brow. "Are folded—fold? Do you weep? "I have no tears left now. "For I wept my very heart away. "On the day my darling went. "Out of the door in her pink white. "All sweet with the roses scent. "She loved the roses. Oh, my heart! "My heart that broke that day. "That died in my breast for the loss of her— "I can only weep and pray. "Some day, perhaps, in God's own time, "I shall hear her voice again. "I shall hear my will to fly, will divine. "And learn to live again."

CONUNDRUMS.

What did Lot's wife turn to? Rubbed. "Why did the fire-fly? Because it saw the match-axe. "Why did the lobster blush? Because it saw the salad dressing. "What happened to the hired girl who put kerosene on the fire? She hasn't been in since. "Why is it economical to keep fowls on a farm? Because for every grain of corn they take they give a peck. "Why would some snakes make good story-tellers? Because they get off a rattling good thing in the shape of a tail.

NOTICE OF LIBEL.

HON. DR. PUGSEY TAKES UP TORONTO WORLD CHALLENGE.

Serves Notice in Regard to Insinuation That He "Was on the Inside of All the Blair-Russell Deal"—World Wants Aylesworth's Aid.

(Toronto World).

Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Cabinet, has given The World notice that he feels he has been libeled by an article that appeared in this paper on Sept. 21.

His feelings are tersely shown in the following note received by The World yesterday:

"Take notice that I complain of a certain statement published of and concerning me on page 6 of the issue of The Toronto World newspaper, published on the 21st day of September, 1907, as being libelous, which said statement is as follows: 'There are some who now think that Mr. Pugsley was on the inside of all the Blair-Russell deal.'"

And take further notice that this notice is given to you pursuant to the act respecting actions of libel and of slander, R.S.O., 1897, chap. 68, sec. 6. Dated at Toronto this 24th day of September, 1907.

William Pugsley, By his solicitors, Denton, Dunn & Boutbee, 20 King street east, Toronto.

To The Toronto World and to The World Newspaper Co., of Toronto, Limited, publishers of the Toronto World.

The sentence complained of is taken from a paragraph that was run in the Political Intelligence column of the World. That paragraph in full reads as follows:

"The matter cannot now end in newspaper talk. If the prediction that we are to have a campaign of scandal against scandal is verified, the whole question of campaign funds may be opened up, and the side that has secured the most 'information' in the Blair-Russell deal, tell Pugsley its plans and reveal the sources of its fund? It will not be effective to merely say a political party had a campaign fund of so many thousand dollars. There are some who now think that Mr. Pugsley was on the inside of all the Blair-Russell deal. He has gone so far and Mr. Aylesworth has gone so far that the whole truth must now come out. Who supplied these immense funds, for the Conservatives were not the only party with a fund? Isn't it time the people found out? You must all recall Mr. Bourassa said in parliament that nearly every candidate assisted out of party funds. There must have been literally millions in it, to judge by what these men are saying these days."

If Mr. Pugsley's object is to drag forth the horrid details of the Blair-Russell deal, The World is only too pleased to do what it can to help him. If to attain his object, he wishes to sue The World for libel, The World will stand the suit, for of its own motion and by dint of spending much money. The World, up to the present, has been unable to get at the real facts of that famous political deal. Now, peradventure, with the co-operation of Mr. Pugsley those facts will be revealed to the public of Canada.

The World has not had an opportunity of consulting its solicitor regarding Mr. Pugsley's notice, but gives him credit for thinking that there is something in the Blair-Russell deal and that an action against The World will assist him in getting it out. The World will co-operate with Mr. Pugsley and will try to obtain the services of Hon. A. P. Aylesworth in this public duty.

From Saturday, Aug. 29, to Monday, Sept. 14, it was decided at a meeting of the Toronto Exhibition Board yesterday, should be the period of the exhibition of 1908, and that the opening should take place on Monday, Aug. 31.

Mr. Rindyard Kipling has given a definite promise that he will address the Canadian Club of Toronto, but the date has not yet been decided.

ARE LOSING A GOOD OFFICER.

MRS. URQUHART RESIGNS FROM CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

The Organization Shows Its Appreciation—Miss Forbes Elected Recording Secretary.

The usual monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the Public Library building yesterday afternoon. Mr. Adam Brown, President, was in the chair. A number of changes in homes of wards of the society were reported by Mr. Hunter. Quite a number of letters in connection with the children placed in foster homes were read by Mrs. Urquhart, as also a number of reports of the visitor, Mr. O'Connor. Attention was drawn to some cases of neglected children, which were given immediate attention. Mrs. Urquhart, the recording secretary, very reluctantly resigned her position, as she is leaving the city for a considerable time. Miss Forbes was elected in her place. The president made reference to the services of Mrs. Urquhart in connection with the work of the society, and said no words of his could give the least idea of all the good she had done, and it was a source of deep regret to all that she was severing her connection with the society, and hoped, on her return to the city, she would resume her interest in the work to dear to her.

The following resolution was then put before the meeting and carried:

Moved by Mrs. J. M. Gibson, seconded by Mrs. Robert Evans: That the executive of the Children's Aid Society place on record its deep sense of gratitude for the valuable services rendered to the society by Mrs. Urquhart, not only as a member of the board, but more particularly as recording secretary. Words cannot adequately convey all she has done for the welfare of the children that have passed through the society's hands. The continued interest she has taken in their foster homes and the good results her name has been associated with, the society regrets the necessity for Mrs. Urquhart's resignation from the office she has filled so well. Her labors of love will never be forgotten by those who have had the privilege of being associated with her in caring for neglected children.

Mrs. Urquhart replied in feeling terms and said she would only be too glad to be of service to the society on her return, as she delighted in the work.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company, through President Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, has contributed $5,000 to the anti-tuberculosis fund now being raised in Vancouver. The ladder of fame comes high

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at the office of the local Agent for the Sub-agent, or by proxy may, however, be made on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister of an intending homesteader. An application for entry or inspection made personally at the local Agent by the Sub-agent, at the expense of the applicant, and if the land applied for is vacant on receipt of the telegram such application is to have priority and the land will be held until the necessary papers to complete the transaction are received by mail. In case of "personation" the entry will be summarily cancelled and the applicant will forfeit all priority of claim. An application for inspection must be made in person by the applicant, and must be eligible for homestead entry, and only one application for inspection will be received from an individual unless that application has been disposed of. A homesteader whose entry is in good standing and not liable for cancellation, may, subject to approval of Department, relinquish it to his brother, father, mother, son, daughter, or sister, if eligible, but to no one else, on filing declaration of abandonment. Where an entry is summarily cancelled, or voluntarily abandoned, subsequent to institution of cancellation proceedings, the applicant for inspection will be entitled to the right of entry. Application for inspection must state in what particulars the homesteader is in default, and if subsequently the statement is found to be correct, the homesteader's entry will be cancelled, and the land will become vacant, or if it has been granted it may be summarily cancelled. DUTIES—A settler is required to perform the conditions under one of the following plans: (1) At least six months' residence upon cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. (2) If the father or mother, if the father is deceased, or if the mother is a widow, a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such homesteader the requirement as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother. (3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirement may be satisfied by residence upon such land. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so. Royal Family of Workers.

King Oscar, of Sweden, and His Sons Lead a Busy Life.

In respect of personality, the Swedish royal family, one of whose younger members, Prince Wilhelm, grandson of the King, recently visited New York, is among the most interesting in Europe. King Oscar is a man of many accomplishments. All his sons are also able men. No reigning monarch is more approachable than Oscar II, and none knows better how to set a visitor at his ease.

"How do you do, my good friend?" is his salutation to a visitor admitted to an audience in the palace at Stockholm. He puts out his hand and gives the visitor a hearty clasp.

The King is the tallest ruler and one of the tallest men in the world. But he is 78, and he has been in poor health of late, so he stoops a little. He dresses plainly. The coat is the only peculiar feature of his attire. In shape it is like a single breasted round cornered sack, but is as long as a cutaway.

The King is an accomplished player on the organ. He has composed many pieces. Music is only one of his accomplishments. He has been called the most polished Scandinavian orator of his day. He is a poet and has translated Tasso's "Jerusalem Delivered," Goethe's "Faust" and many other works into Swedish.

Once when he criticised some work of Bjornstjerne Bjornson's the poet accused him of jealousy and actually sent him a challenge. The King took no notice of it, but some time afterward, when he was surrounded by a singing society he asked them to sing one of Bjornson's poems, and he stood with his head bowed while they did so. On the following day he sent the poet the Order of St. Olaf, with an autograph letter.

In private life his father is collecting pottery, especially Sevres. He is fond of taking his callers into the private dining room of the palace and exhibiting his treasures. Then he will tell how he restored the room to its ancient beauty, having layered after layer of paint and enamel scraped off to get at the fine old woodwork.

The King gets up at 8 a. m., works an hour and breakfasts at 9.30. The morning is given up to walking for health and pleasure and to business of state. He has luncheon at 2.30 and spends most of the afternoon in social engagements, including visits to the homes of his children. He sleeps for an hour before dinner, plays billiards or whist from 9.30 to 1, and does his literary work in the last hour before going to bed at 2.50. He drinks several glasses of Bordeaux wine or a little beer every day and smokes very little, using very mild, denicotinized tobacco.

The King has travelled over all Europe and has had many queer adventures. In the palace of Monaco he was assigned to a state room, "The Duke of York's Room," they call it. In the middle of the room was one of those canopied beds that look like catafalques.

a runaway in the streets of Paris. The coachman had been flung off and three women in the carriage were in danger of death. The horses dragged him a block before they were stopped.

Then the police came. "What's your name?" asked the sergeant. "Oscar Bernadotte," was the reply. "Your occupation?" "Crown Prince."

"Residence?" "Royal Palace, Stockholm." They sent him the regular French medal for life saving, with its tri-color ribbon, and he wears it still.

His marriage to the Princess Sophie of Nassau, of which they celebrated the fiftieth anniversary on June 6th, of this year, was a love match. There is an oak in the park at Moringen in which the inscription "1847-1896" cut deep with a jackknife, is still shown. It is a memorial of the romance of Sophie and Oscar.

All four of the Kings have taken life seriously. The Crown Prince, Gustavus Adolphus, has devoted himself to preparation for rulership.

Oscar, the second son, gave up royal honors and contingent right of succession to marry a girl of the people. He is known as Prince Bernadotte, and he and his wife devote themselves to religious work and are at present carrying on a revival movement all through the country upon Salvation Army lines.

The soldier Prince, Charles, wedded to the Danish Princess Ingeborg, has three little daughters. The family live simply in a handsome house in Stockholm, where not so much as a sentinel at the door indicates the quality of the inhabitants. A newspaper photographer tells how easily the couple submitted to having their pictures taken.

The Prince helped to wheel a table out of the way. The Princess held up a lamp shade while the Prince limbed on a chair and unfurled it because it spoiled the picture. One of the little princesses looked on wistfully until she saw that she would be taken, too, when she danced in glee.

Eugene, the artist Prince, lives in a house he built in 1905 at Valdemar-Udde, near Stockholm. His life and surroundings are those of a private gentleman.

Besides being a painter he is a photographer of great skill. He has a fine studio in the upper part of the house, commanding views of the fjord on which it stands. He also has a kiosk in the grounds where he paints in summer.

When his father visits him they sit there together for hours, watching the sea in the changing light. Lately he has devoted himself to painting decorative panels for the village schools all over Sweden, his purpose being to help in developing the artistic sense of the Swedish people.

ST. ANDREW'S CHOIR

Made Presentations to Two Departing Members Last Night.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. Campbell Leckie, Pleasant Point, last evening, when the members of St. Andrew's Church choir gathered for the purpose of making a presentation to Mr. Leckie and Mr. Thos. Anderson, who have recently severed their connections with the choir, much to the regret of the members. The visit was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Leckie, but the host and hostess in the usual happy manner made everybody feel at home and proved themselves equal to the occasion.

Mr. Leckie was called on by Mr. Anderson, who on behalf of the choir presented him with a beautiful signet ring. Then Mr. Anderson was called on by Mr. Armstrong and presented with a valuable watch chain. Both replied feelingly in well-chosen words. The remainder of the evening was spent in song, games and pleasant reminiscences, after which refreshments were served, and the pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

A HEARTY WELCOME

Tendered to New Minister of Herkimer Baptist Church.

The congregation of Herkimer Baptist Church tendered a reception to Rev. Hugh McDearmid last evening. There was a very large attendance of the congregation, and many of the Baptist clergymen were present to bid him welcome to his new field of labor.

Mr. P. L. Scriven occupied the chair, and presented the pastor with an address of welcome. Mr. McDearmid made a suitable reply, and hoped the relations between the congregation and the pastor would be of the closest.

Refreshments were served in the basement of the church by the ladies of the congregation. During the evening the choir and the Y. M. C. A. quartette rendered several selections.

Graft of a Medical Pirate

(By a Reformed Correspondent.) Our program, medical houses followed up every inquiry and persuaded every sick person to send in his or her "symptom chart" for a free diagnosis by our "staff of eminent specialists." The following was done by form letters which are printed on multi-colored paper and they have been sent a detailed letter by the person whose signature is attached. On the contrary, that person never saw the letter, because he found it hastily made up in imitation of typewritten letters which have been signed with a pen that even I who know all the tricks of the trade have been puzzled to distinguish them. Ninety-nine people out of a hundred who answer a mailing advertisement for free diagnosis or catalogue will receive a printed form letter which deceives them entirely. They think they have been sent a detailed letter by the person whose signature is attached. On the contrary, that person never saw the letter, because he found it hastily made up in imitation of typewritten letters which have been signed with a pen that even I who know all the tricks of the trade have been puzzled to distinguish them.

PERSONAL LETTER A BARK DECEPTION. In medical work I claim that it is too rare that a patient is cured. This is because the sufferer believe that he is being personally advised by medical practitioners who are not. The printed announcement was sent out in regular routine, without regard to the nature of the disease, by a clerk who knows nothing of medicine.

Our house made it a business to prescribe and send out a letter to the sick person. After our form letters had induced a person to send in his or her symptom chart for free diagnosis by our "staff of eminent specialists," ran over it hastily, made up a list of formidable diseases, which he sent to the patient, and handed to him a printed report and handed to him his symptom chart. One physician was "three" because he found two "symptom charts" with nothing serious the matter. When the physician's report came to me it was a "three" because he found two "symptom charts" with nothing serious the matter. I assumed to be a physician and sent out a letter to the sick person, and it didn't make any difference whether we got it by undertaking to cure corns, or cancer, or gonorrhea. We guaranteed them all.

"STAFF" ONE 120 A WEEK DOCTOR. When we got the sick person to send his first payment for regular treatment, we sent him several letters of praise for his "symptom chart" and furnished him report blanks, which he was to send in every second week. The staff of eminent specialists still in close touch with the case. The symptom chart and our report blanks called for disclosures about one's body that no person ever would wish revealed to anyone except a physician who would hold it sacred confidential. And these foolish men and women sent us these terrible confessions under the idea that nobody but the physician ever saw them. What nonsense! It is a matter of office routine, and publicity cannot be avoided. First, the letter goes to the mail cover, usually a girl; then to the filing clerk, usually a couple of girls.

When we put him on a health regime that STRENUOUS COURSE OF TREATMENT. The patient insisted, I would sometimes fit it about so many months, and then decided to treatment it was quite impossible to say how long it would take. Therefore, when the patient demanded his fee, I announced that, as there was no time limit, we had to go on treating him free of charge until he was cured; but that he could not claim his fee until we had done all that we could to do and he had accepted our directions.

Then we put him on a health regime that no human being could patiently follow, and demanded a daily report. For instance, we might put him on a strictly vegetable diet, cold plums morning and evening, a tea with morphia, etc. At the first sign of rebellion from him, we would then send him the daily report: "Look here, sir, you have violated the contract just at the time when we had to have the closest obedience. We can no longer be held responsible." You may be sure that there are plenty of doctors, even back to the correspondent, then to the stenographer; then to the mail inspector, who must read carefully to see that all instructions are carried out, finally back to the filing clerk. It is filed away in cases that are open and accessible to anyone who has the building. So much for your confidential letter.

TAG DAY AT BRANTFORD.

How Money Was Raised for the Nurses' Home. Brantford, Sept. 26.—This was tag day at Brantford. Sixty societies, ladies, representatives of the Women's Hospital Auxiliary, were quartered in various public places. Each held a Red Cross table, and every contributor who put a coin in the receptacle gave a Red Cross tag. The contributions, which are not yet summed up, will be applied to the building fund of the proposed new nurses' home. A movement has been launched here for the formation of a Canadian Club.

THE PATIENT STOMACH. A Few Paragraphs Mothers Shouldn't Miss Reading.

Let Nature assert its will, for Nature is wiser mother than any human one ever was or over will be. More children are sent into permanent ill-health or to the grave through parental over-care and defiance of natural laws than through any other one cause.

The cake habit, the candy habit, gorging the stomach, the childish craving for food that excites but does not uphold, are all under your control, runs a valuable article by Dr. Ingalls in the Mother's Magazine. They need never begin if from the moment of conception until the child finally passes from your control you will let it and its stomach shall be educated into regard for only life-sustaining foods.

Of all the parts of the body the stomach is the most patient and will endure before revolt the longest amount of abuse. But what does give way the train of agony and misery following is appalling to even the hardened medical eye.

Nerves, heart, spine, kidneys and liver collapse. If recovery is possible, it is only through years of suffering and denial.

On the other hand, a little care, a little thoughtfulness, and a great degree of firmness will enable you to bestow upon your child that priceless legacy—ignorance as to the possession of a stomach.

German mothers seem to understand this, for they are famous for producing and rearing children with strong stomachs. In a two years' life in Germany, where I had occasion to examine many young German girls and boys, I almost invariably found their stomachs clothed warmer than any other part of their body, with the exception of the feet. If the girl was very young or at puberty her stomach was generally lightly bandaged with flannel; but, whatever her age, she was always dressed so that the stomach could not be chilled.

Another practice which I observed and which I heartily approve was the bathing and rubbing of the stomach daily with almost cold water. While the chill of the water was still upon the skin the mother or the child itself vigorously rubbed the stomach with the hand until the skin glowed.

This hardens the muscles and the skin, draws the stomach up and increases activity in the intestines.

Comment and Chat

The secret is not out yet. Conkle's "Unknown" is still unknown.

As an evidence of what it is possible to win in stakes, etc., on the U. S. running turf, it is only necessary to say that already this season Mr. Jas. R. Keene has won over $300,000, and it is now almost certain that he will reach the $400,000 mark.

GOLD LADY FIRST. Gravesend, N.Y., Sept. 27.—Gold Lady, backed down from 5 to 1 to 12 to 5, easily won the Occidental Handicap, 1 mile and a furlong, at Gravesend yesterday, and made a new track record for the distance of 1:51.3-5.

Columbus, Sept. 27.—Pronounced favorites swept the Grand Circuit racing card yesterday. From a speculative standpoint the day was the quietest of the meeting. Major Delmar made an assault on the track trotting record of 2:02, made last year by Sweet Marie, and failed. He tired perceptibly in the stretch. His time, 2:03 1/4, is the best made by a trotter anywhere this year.

At Ottawa Golf Tournament.

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—A large crowd gathered on the local golf links yesterday to witness the semi-final contest for the championship, and two of the finest matches ever witnessed in Canada, resulting in a victory for the Lambert crack, Miss Muriel Dick, over Miss Harvey, the Hamilton champion, and the defeat by a narrow margin of Miss Nora Lewis, the young Ottawa golfer, by the present holder of the title, Miss Helen Thompson, of St. John, N. B. The scores read:

Miss M. Dick (Lambton) out 44, home 45. Total 89. Miss Harvey (Hamilton) out 44, home 46. Total 90. Miss N. Lewis (Ottawa) out 47, home 46. Total 93.

Miss H. Thompson (St. John, N. B.) out 47, home 40. Total 87. The putting resulted in a tie between Mrs. Fitzgerald of Lambton Golf Club, and Miss Phipps, of Hamilton, with 9 each. Other good scores were: Miss Turner 10, Mrs. Read (Ottawa) 10, Mrs. Kidd (Ottawa) 11, Miss Hanbury-Wilkins (Ottawa) 10, Lady Sybil Grey (Ottawa) 11.

TORONTOS AGAIN.

Columbus Defeated by Maple Leafs 17 to 2.

Toronto, Sept. 27.—That the Torontos have more than a shade on the American Association champions was clearly demonstrated yesterday afternoon for the second time. The Eastern League outfit romped away with Bill Cuyler's pennant winners, this time inflicting a 7-to-2 defeat on their Columbus opponents. It was a fast brand of ball that the visitors to keep pace with. Their exhibition of the inner points of baseball appeared to catch Columbus entirely asleep at the switch, and the marvelous work of Senary around second, and the hard, clean hitting of the team as a whole left nothing to be desired. Not that Cuyler's champions played poor ball, far from it. But Rudolph's assortment of spitballs proved the largest kind of an enigma almost throughout, and only on rare occasions did Columbus loom up dangerous. In addition to his liberal supply of fofoers, the Toronto youth had control to burn, and in consequence but six of the vis-

Montreal, Sept. 27.—It was stated yesterday that the Montreal Herald had given up the idea broached by the Montreal A. A. That was the death-blow to its assumption of authority here. The Herald was advised that to hold the annual road race with any recognition of the Federation would be to ruin its chances of success, and the Federation, which exists only in name, will not be considered or (Continued on page 13.)

HAS CRACKLESS VAMP

Improvement Number One

A Cracked Vamp

A Foot-rite Vamp

Why? We'll tell you what the vamp is, then why. The vamp is the leather between the box toe seam and the instep seam.

This is why Foot-rites have crackless vamps. They're made of "Normal Calf," a leather almost as soft and supple as the live calf's skin. Never heard of a live calf's skin cracking, did you?

Foot-rite linen canvas linings are cut on patterns which fit the insides with watch-like accuracy. Fittless linings cause permanent diagonal vamp wrinkles, which split the leather.

Foot-rites are almost waterproof, hence soak up little water. The repeated drying of water-soaked boots eventually brings cracked vamps.

The Foot-rite toe-freedom box toe, being uncollapsible, holds the vamp leather arched and smooth, which prevents spitting at the vamp toe seam.

The Foot-rite wrinkleless vamp improvement keeps out vamp wrinkles which undermine and crack the vamp leather.

And being shaped over foot-sculptured lasts, Foot-rite insides are precisely the same shape and size as the feet that inhabit them, which compels the leather to crease straight instead of diagonally across the vamp.

Diagonal creases wear in cracks. Straight creases don't. Our door swings inward but never outward to find a more welcome place.

Anywhere in America, Canada or Great Britain, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00. Every pair Goodyear Welted—gives flexibility.

SIMCOE FAIR A GOOD ONE.

Thursday Was the Big Day and the Crowd Large.

Fruits of Good Quality, But the Quantity Limited.

Horses and Live Stock Made a Grand Display.

Simcoe, Sept. 27.—(Special).—The fair, of which Norfolk County has long held the reputation of having one of the best in the Dominion, was opened here on Tuesday. The early morning gave promise of fair weather, but by noon the sky was thickening and at 1 o'clock the storm broke. It was of short duration but severe, there being a heavy fall of hail with it. The lightning was very sharp for a few minutes, and the horse stable on the grounds was struck during one of the squalls. The fair was a success, but very cold, with short showers sandwiched in between the little dashes of sunshine. Wednesday is always Citizens' Day, and as a general rule, a good crowd attends. But showers of rain never make good receipts grow at a country fair. Even if the day had been fair, the attractions were in the school children's day was cut out and this has been an important feature for several years past. In place of this some special attraction would have been arranged for, as speeches are not, as a rule, a very great drawing-card. However, the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture for Canada, received the chief attraction of the large crowd present. The horseback sports in the ring were excellent, but lacked competition to be genuinely interesting. Miss Della Yessier took first prize as best middle rider, Malcolm Kydd being a close second. Thursday, Farmers' Day—all that could be expected. The early morning fair for a bright day and by noon the stabling room in town was at its limit. The crowds came from every direction and old Simcoe boys were seen in scores—some who have not been here in years. The crowd on Thursday was said to exceed four thousand. But the society have had a sore disappointment this year, in that the season is so late. The cool weather of May and July greatly delayed fruits and vegetables from properly maturing. The exhibits lack quantity in fruits and vegetables—in some instances just enough entries to take the prizes. The quality was up to the standard and in many cases beyond expectations. Live stock and poultry were entered in large numbers. In the poultry exhibits the male and female birds were all shown separately this year. The showing of flowers and fine arts was really an attractive feature. In these departments the competition is always keen. Mr. W. E. Cart-leton has many admirers for his paintings, of which he had an excellent array. The showing of horses from Norfolk County cannot be beaten in any part of the Province. Mr. Ansley Yeager, who took no fewer than twelve prizes at Toronto and about the same at London, won a goodly number here, also Messrs. Hamilton & Hawthorne, Reid & Porter, and Charlton Woolley, all horse fanciers of the highest standing, who secured prizes in nearly every entry in the horse ring. There were scores of fine horses from the country, and several from outside. Of late years competitors from outside points have shown up the sponge as Norfolk County horsemen are hard to compete against. It is stated that the deficiency owing to the unfavorable weather will run close to $300. The gate receipts were $1,200, which may be called satisfactory, all things considered. The different grades of cattle were really a credit to the exhibitors. The Simcoe Cattle Co., under the management of Mr. W. L. Innes, has been making rapid strides toward perfection in quality on an outfit. It has been running from 400,000 to 500,000 cans weekly, and last week Mr. Innes said that the first line turning out 50,000 cans in ten hours would receive $50. The competition between the two lines kept increasing, and last Friday both lines over-ran the mark, making 102,000 cans. Mr. Innes was so well pleased that he put up one hundred dollars.

Deep Saturday Price Cuts. Finch Bros. are making some deep price cuts in all departments of their new store for the benefit of Saturday shoppers in everything that is new and seasonable. Many lines are for the early morning buyers, among some being women's all white and all pink flannellette night gowns in all lengths and sizes, and neatly trimmed with embroidery and lace, selling at only the cost of the material, at each 50c and 70c; men's flannellette night shirts in good large sizes and with pocket and collar, at 40c; the morning dress serge at 20c; extra fine quality black taffeta silk at 60c; and many other good things will be on sale Saturday at wonderful price savings. Read well Finch Bros.' large advertisement to-night for particulars and prices of their many Saturday sales. Shop in the morning if you can. Many of the best lines may be sold off before noon. The charm of the new store is spreading. More people are shopping here than ever before, and the business is going ahead at a rapid rate. Open at 8.30 a. m. and close at 10 p. m. Saturday at Finch Bros.

AT TAPLEXTOWN.

Pretty Wedding at Home of Mr. Charles Hildreth.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of Charles and Mrs. Hildreth, Taplextown, on Wednesday, Sept. 25, when their elder daughter, Hattie May, became the bride of Whitmore Marshall, of Abingdon. Promptly at 4 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" played by Rev. C. M. Marshall, of Toronto, brother of the groom, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. Kestie, of Taplextown. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly costumed in cream Henrietta with pearl trimmings, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Clara Henderson, who looked charming in a dainty dress of white organdy, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was ably supported by Harvey Hildreth, brother of the bride. After receiving congratulations the guests adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and chain; to the bridesmaid a pearl crescent; to the groomsmen a gold stick pin. Many beautiful presents were received, showing the high esteem in which the happy couple are held. Guests were present from Toronto, Hamilton, Abingdon, An-easter and Stoney Creek. The bride's

TRAVELLING COSTUME WAS OF BROWN BROAD-CLOTH, AND SHE WORE A WHITE HAT TRIMMED WITH WHITE CHIFFON AND OSTRICH FEATHERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left amid showers of rice and confetti on the evening train, for a short trip to Toronto. On their return they will reside in Abingdon.

M'CLUSKIE—HARDWICK.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at 201 Locke street south at 5 p. m. on Wednesday, Sept. 25, when Mr. Albert M'Cluskie, of Toronto, was united in marriage to Miss Alice Hardwick, of Bolton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. MacLachlan, B. A., of St. James' Presbyterian Church, this city. Mr. and Mrs. M'Cluskie purpose making their home in Toronto.

CALDWELL—M'LAREN.

The home of Rev. Alexander MacLaren, 129 Bold street, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, when his youngest daughter, Emily, was married to Mr. Martin Roger Caldwell, of Leaver, Colorado. The house decorations were of ferns and gladioli. The bride's father performed the ceremony, assisted by her uncle, Principal MacLaren, D. D., of Knox College, and Rev. Samuel Lyle, D. D. Both bride and bridegroom were dressed in white silk costumes, trimmed with ivory satin lace and seed pearls, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses and lily of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will spend two weeks in the Middle States, before taking up their residence in Denver. The bride's travelling suit was of blue tailored broadcloth, with hat of Alice blue.

SEMI-READY TAILORING

It takes courage and pluck to stand alone with all the world against you. That is what a man does when he launches a new idea or invention which interferes with ingrained customs. The "Semi-ready" system of tailoring men's clothes revolutionized the clothing industry. Never was an innovation so bitterly opposed and so generally traduced by its opposition—by the custom tailor and the ready-made clothier. Yet it triumphed! "Semi-ready" has fought the good fight and has won. No man can gain say its many improvements and advantages over the tailoring which Grandfather was satisfied with.
