

The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 25th, 1886.

The following taken from the London G. B. Gardner's Chronicle, under date of the 24th ult., gives a detailed account of the fruit crop in the mother country...

What freak of the mind or temperament it is, that induces men to submit their bodies to an experiment so dangerous, that the ratio of chances for life and death is about one for the former and ten for the latter...

Mr. George C. Wiggins, who died at Windsor recently, left a legacy of $1,000 to Christ's Church of that place. The thirtieth annual session of the Annapolis Convention will meet at the school of Bridgetown, on the evening of Friday in October...

Mr. Thos. Hutchings, grand lecturer of the Sons of Temperance, this Province, was in town on Monday last. The horticultural exhibition at the Devonian in this country, this year, are almost an entire failure...

Mr. W. H. Spence, of Mahoe Bay, Annapolis, has been elected to the card of Miss A. Clark, commissary of St. John's. Mr. Clark has had a large experience in the fruit and produce trade...

Miscellaneous.

How to Clean a Farm Horse.

One of the most important things to be observed in the management of a horse is his cleanliness...

The cleaning or grooming, which should be done at night, consists first in currying down the horse...

The oldest person in the animal kingdom is that there has never been an instance where young tigers have been born in this climate...

How many farmers can say that their horses are cleaned as thoroughly as they have advised in the above?

Vines or rose hedges.—No one will deny that a vine-clad cottage is a charming sight...

A wide spread objection has been made in late years to vines growing upon houses...

The first objection is entirely unfounded, for instead of building the vines and down next the wall...

Those who understand the philosophy of life being restored by means of the changing of liquid water to vapor...

Practical experience tells one that it is always cooler under the shade of foliage than under a dead shelter...

Among the perennials may be mentioned the iris, honeysuckle, Clematis, wistarina, and rose.

Not only should vines be planted to be trained upon the house, but they can be used to cover any unsightly but necessary object...

The Comforts of a Hospital.

From a poor man's point of view a hospital is a place to be avoided...

Joker's Corner.

For Saturday.—First Duke: 'Oh folks, what do you think of Miss Comensense'?

For Sunday.—'Hold on to the young man in front, said a young lady's aunt, as they seated themselves on the toboggan.'

—A few days ago a fond mother gave a juvenile daughter a chocolate sweetie, which, however, from maternal fears of the bambino's appetite, was not to be eaten at once.

—A young man who had just been introduced, 'Delighted to meet you, I'm sure, my friend Jones offered you, it was only the other day that he said: 'Mrs. Lousburg is such a fine motherly lady.'
