AVANT-PROPOS

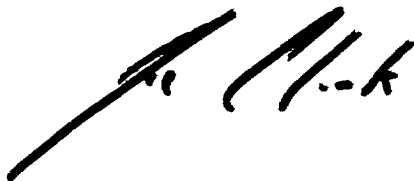

Mutual knowledge and understanding between individuals and nations is essential to harmonious relations in today's world. This third edition of Monographs and Periodicals Published Abroad in the Context of Canadian Studies catalogues a wealth of scholarship by individuals whose interest in and interpretation of Canada has been shaped by many hours of research and analysis, culminating in the published works listed in this impressive bibliography.

I commend all of you who have contributed to making Canada and Canadians better known to the international community.

L'établissement de relations harmonieuses dans le monde d'aujourd'hui dépend de la connaissance et de la compréhension qu'ont d'eux-mêmes les individus et les peuples. Cette troisième édition de Monographies et revues publiées à l'étranger dans le cadre des études canadiennes est un éloquent témoignage des efforts et du temps passé par de nombreux chercheurs à connaître et comprendre le Canada. Les centaines d'ouvrages répertoriés dans cette bibliographie marquent l'aboutissement de ces recherches.

Je tiens à féliciter tous ces chercheurs, dont les travaux contribuent à mieux faire connaître le Canada et les Canadiens sur la scène internationale.

INTRODUCTION

This document revises and updates the second edition of a bibliography produced in 1987 by the Dept. of External Affairs under the title, Monographs and Periodicals Published Abroad in the Context of Canadian Studies.

The bibliography contains references to books and serial titles which were published outside Canada but which deal in whole, or in part, with Canada or with Canadians. In the present edition its scope has been enlarged to include theses from non-Canadian universities.

In addition to expanded coverage, the bibliography has been reorganized into broad subject categories, subarranged alphabetically by author. This arrangement is intended to assist both researchers who wish to survey Canadian Studies activities in a specific field, and librarians wishing to use the document as a reference tool for collection development. A name index provides a second point of access.

The titles for the bibliography were collected over the course of a year-long pilot project sponsored jointly by the Dept. of External Affairs, and the National Library of Canada. Approximately 25 percent of the titles in the bibliography are in the documentation centre of the ICCS and were collected through the generous donations of Canadian Studies associations, programs and scholars, and the Cet ouvrage est une version révisée et mise à jour de la bibliographie publiée en 1987 par le Ministère des affaires extérieures sous le titre: Monographies et revues publiées à l'étranger dans le cadre des études canadiennes.

La bibliographie énumère des livres et périodiques publiés à l'étranger, et qui portent, en tout ou en partie, sur le Canada ou les Canadiens. Cette édition inclut également des thèses soutenues dans des universités hors du Canada.

La bibliographie est divisée en grandes catégories, par sujet, et les ouvrages à l'intérieur de chaque catégorie sont classés par ordre alphabétique d'auteurs. Nous avons décidé d'adopter cette façon de faire pour faciliter le travail des chercheurs qui voudraient obtenir rapidement une vue d'ensemble de la production dans un domaine spécifique des études canadiennes, et pour aider les bibliothécaires qui utiliseront cette bibliographie comme instrument pour leur travail d'acquisition. On peut également utiliser la bibliographie à partir de l'index des noms.

Le travail de collecte des données pour cet ouvrage a été réalisé dans le cadre d'un projet pilote, subventionné conjointement par le Ministère des affaires extérieures et la Bibliothèque nationale du Canada. Le Centre de documentation du academic affairs officers at Canadian missions abroad. The remaining titles were compiled through a search of various data bases and bibliographies. A complete list of sources is appended.

Items not owned by the National Library have been identified and are in the process of being catalogued, and turned over to the N.L. for its collection and for entry into the national bibliography, Canadiana.

While every attempt has been made to ensure as comprehensive a bibliography as possible for the years 1980 to present, the list is by no means complete. New titles which come to the attention of the ICCS will be added to the bibliographic database for inclusion in a subsequent edition. Authors, researchers, and publishers are invited to forward pertinent books or bibliographic information to the ICCS for this purpose.

CIEC conserve environ 25 pour cent des ouvrages mentionnés dans la bibliographie. Ce sont des exemplaires qui nous ont été généreusement donnés par des Associations d'études canadiennes, ou encore par des chercheurs, des centres ou des programmes d'études canadiennes, ou encore par les chargés d'affaires culturelles des ambassades canadiennes. Les autres titres énumérés dans la bibliographie ont été compilés à partir de banques de données et de bibliographies diverses. On trouvera en annexe la liste complète des sources utilisées.

Parmi les titres répertoriés, nous avons sélectionné ceux que ne possédait pas encore la Bibliothèque nationale du Canada. Ces ouvrages seront catalogués, puis remis à la Bibliothèque, qui les incorporera dans sa collection et dans Canadiana, la bibliographie nationale du Canada.

Nous avons tenté, dans toute la mesure du possible, d'inventorier tous les titres parus pendant les années 1980. Toutefois, la bibliographie n'est certainement pas complète, et nous continuerons d'entrer tous les nouveaux titres que nous découvrirons dans notre base de données, afin de les inclure dans une prochaine édition. Nous invitons donc les chercheurs et les éditeurs à nous faire parvenir tout ouvrage ou toute référence qui pourraient être incorporés dans cette future édition.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS /

REMERCIEMENTS

Many individuals and groups have contributed to the success of this project.

I would like first to thank the Department of External Affairs for funding the project and the publication of the book. In particular, I wish to thank Donna Thurston of the Academic Relations Division, for her assistance and support.

The staff of the various Canadian missions abroad have also been very helpful in forwarding new publications. Special thanks are due to Kensei Yoshida, academic relations officer, and Hiroshi Komatsu, library clerk, at the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo for supplying transliterated listings of Japanese-language academic books published over the past few years.

The National Library of Canada has also provided tremendous assistance and support. I would like to thank André Paul, Margot Clarke, Monique Dupré and Celeste Blanco of the Acquisitions and Bibliographic Services Branch, and Rosalie Fox and Ursula Schultz in the Reference and Information Services Division.

The member associations of the ICCS, Canadian Studies programs, and individual scholars have played the most vital part in the success of the project, sending in many of the titles in the bibliography and thus enriching Ce projet a bénéficié de l'aide de nombreux groupes et individus.

Je tiens à remercier tout d'abord le Ministère des affaires extérieures, qui a publié les premières éditions de cet ouvrage, et qui a subventionné le projet. L'aide de Donna Thurston, de la Direction des relations internationales en matière d'éducation, a été particulièrement précieuse.

Les membres du personnel des diverses ambassades du Canada, qui nous ont fait parvenir les publications les plus récentes, nous ont également été d'un grand secours. Kensei Yoshida, agent des relations culturelles, et Hiroshi Komatsu, commis bibliothécaire, nous ont obligeamment fourni les transpositions en alphabet romain des titres d'ouvrages japonais parus récemment.

Je voudrais aussi remercier très sincèrement plusieurs membres du personnel de la Bibliothèque Nationale du Canada, qui n'ont pas ménagé leur aide et leur soutien: André Paul, Margot Clarke, Monique Dupré et Céleste Blanco, de la Direction des acquisitions et des services bibliographiques, et Rosalie Fox et Ursula Schultze de la Division des services de référence et d'information.

Il me reste à remercier les principaux acteurs, et ceux et celles qui ont contribué de façon

EDITORIAL NOTES /

GUIDE D'UTILISATION

ORGANIZATION

The Bibliography is organized into eleven categories, broadly based on Dewey Decimal classification.

Part I. Bibliography, Collections contains bibliographies in all fields, library catalogues, library science and journalism.

Part II. Sociology, Anthropology also includes multiculturalism, and Ethnic and Native Studies.

Part III. Politics, Law, Public Administration has, in addition, titles in the field of organization and management.

Part IV. Economics, Commerce encompasses all aspects of economics, business and trade.

Part V. Social Services, Education brings together social problems and programs, and educational topics.

Part VI. Science, Technology contains the pure and applied sciences such as geology, ecology, zoology, botany, medicine, agriculture, forestry and engineering.

Part VII. Arts, Recreation deals with the fine and performing arts, leisure and recreational pursuits.

Part VIII. Language, Literature includes French, English and Native languages and Canadian literature in all languages. The emphasis is on literary criticism. Foreign language translations of Canadian literature have not been included in the bibliography.

STRUCTURE

La bibliographie comporte onze catégories, qui suivent en générale le système de classement Dewey.

La 1ère partie, Bibliographie, Collections énumère les bibliographies dans toutes les disciplines, les catalogues de bibliothèques, les ouvrages de bibliothéconomie et de journalisme.

La 2e partie, Sociologie, Anthropologie, inclut également les études sur le multiculturalisme, les autochtones et l'ethnologie.

La 3e partie, Politique, Droit, Administration, comprend aussi les études sur le management et les organisations.

La 4e partie, Economie, Commerce, inclut tous les aspects de l'économie, du commerce et des affaires.

La 5e partie, Services sociaux, Education, regroupe tout ce qui trait aux problèmes et programmes sociaux et tout ce qui concerne l'éducation.

La 6e partie, Science, Technologie, comprend toutes les science pures et appliquées.

La 7e partie, Arts, Loisirs, inclut les beaux-arts, les arts de la scène, et tout le domaine des loisirs.

La 8e partie, Langues, Littératures, comprend les études sur le français, l'anglais, les langues autochtones et les ouvrages sur la littérature canadienne dans toutes les langues. L'accent est mis sur la critique littéraire. Les traductions

Part IX. Geography, Travel embraces geography and description and travel in Canada.

Part X. History, Civilization encompasses past and present conditions in Canada.

Part XI. Generalities contains titles dealing with Canadian Studies associations, programs and conferences such as association newsletters, membership lists, and general conference proceedings.

Within each main section titles are arranged alphabetically by author. Works entered under title precede the author entries. Thus, serials are generally found at the beginning of each section. The exceptions are those serials which deal with the internal policies and operations of an organization (i.e. newsletters). These are listed by name of the organization. Single issues of serial titles have been treated as monographs and are entered under the editor for that issue.

STYLE

Bibliographical entries follow the Chicago Manual of Style. Pagination and the International Standard Book Number have also been included as an aid to identification. A typical entry includes the following information:

Author, or Editor (s). Title of the book. Series. Place: Publisher
Date. pagination. ISBN

Editorial comments are enclosed within square brackets.

Non-English and -French titles are transcribed according to the source consulted.

en langues étrangères d'oeuvres littéraires canadiennes ne sont pas incluses.

La 9e partie, Géographie, Voyages, comprend la géographie et les descriptions de voyages au Canada.

La 10e partie, Histoire, Civilization, regroupe toutes les oeuvres sur les conditions de vie passées et présentes au Canada.

La 11e partie, Généralités, inclut les ouvrages concernant les Associations d'études canadiennes, les programmes d'études, les conférences, les bulletins de nouvelles et les listes de membres.

Dans chaque catégorie, les ouvrages sont classés par ordre alphabétique d'auteurs. Ainsi, les périodiques sont généralement placés au début de chaque section. Les exceptions à cette règle concernent les ouvrages concernant les politiques et le fonctionnement interne d'un organisme (par exemple, les bulletins de nouvelles). Ces titres sont classés sous le nom de l'organisme en question. Les numéros spéciaux de périodiques ont été assimilés à des monographies, et sont classés sous le nom de l'éditeur de ce numéro.

CONVENTIONS

On a suivi les règles de présentation du Chicago Manual of Style. On a également fourni la pagination et le numéro ISBN, afin de faciliter le repérage. Une référence typique inclut les éléments suivants:

Auteur, ou Editeur(s). Titre de l'ouvrage. Numéro. Lieu d'édition: Editeur, Date. Pagination. ISBN Transliterations of Chinese characters follow the Wade-Giles system of romanization as set out by the Library of Congress.

PRODUCTION

The bibliography was produced in-house from a series of reports generated from an INMAGIC bibliographic database. The reports were loaded into WordPerfect 5 and camera-ready copy produced with a Hewlett Packard LaserJet Series II printer.

Les commentaires de nature éditoriale apparaissent entre parenthèses carrées.

Les titres d'ouvrages en langue autre que le français ou l'anglais ont été reproduits tels que répertoriés dans la source consultée.

La transcription des caractères chinois est conforme au système Wade-Giles de la Library of Congress.

PRODUCTION

Cette bibliographie a été compilée par le Secrétariat du CIEC, à partir du logiciel de base de données bibliographiques INMAGIC. Les données ont ensuite été traitées en utilisant le logiciel de traitement de texte WordPerfect 5.0, et les prêts-à-photographier ont été tirés sur une imprimante au laser Hewlett-Packard LaserJet II.
