Twelve Thousand Extra is Granted for Playgrounds Thruout City.

Ald. Johnson Moves That Only Amateur Clubs Receive Aid.

A net cut of $19,005 was made in Commissioner Chambers' estimates for parks, by the committee yesterday. The estimates now stand at $613,742, an increase of $85,596 over last year's.

Commissioner Chambers asked to be allowed to make an explanation before the revision of the estimates was started. He said that on account of the large increase in wages more money would be required to perform the same amount of labor as last year.

The question of playgrounds for school children was a matter again discussed. A deputation from the vicinity of Rose Avenue and Winchester schools waited on the committee. Rev. E. S. Freeman of St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church, on behalf of the deputation, said that he had often counted as many as 30 children playing on the street there.

Ald. F. M. Johnston made a motion that no further baseball permits be given to baseball organizations other than amateurs as designated by the Amateur Athletic Association. Ald. Honeyford declared himself opposed to the motion because games were played on the Beaches, Don Flats and other places by men on Saturday afternoons for recreation and after large crowds gathered to watch the games.

Commissioner Chambers said he was willing to bring sports all under one administrative body. He acknowledged that collection were often taken without authority, but they would not be said to earn a livelihood for the players. He advised that the matter be left until the committee on sports, which he had referred to Ald. Johnston said that he was willing to allow the matter to stand.

No reductions were made on the estimates of $52,767 for Exhibition Park. Ald. Ryding said that this park gave thousands of people who come to Toronto from all over the country for two weeks an impression of the city and the thought of the condition of the park should be kept up. An amount of $1,500 for grading the southeast section of Willowvale Park was struck out.

The appropriation of $3,586 for the erection of a stone wall on the Humber boulevard was left. Twenty thousand dollars for park improvements on the south of Withrow Park was also omitted. An addition of $2,000 over the estimates for retiring allowances was asked and granted. The appropriation of $10,000 for a combined lavatory and shelter on the athletic field on the Island Park was moved by Ald. Johnston to be struck out, which was carried.

The appropriation of the sum of $12,000 for school playgrounds over the estimates for this purpose was passed, on the motion of Ald. Mordridge.

HAMILTON FLOODING APPEAL DISMISSED

In the appellate division, Osgoode Hall, yesterday a judgment was given against the city of Hamilton, dismissing the city's appeal from the decision of Judge Sailer, awarding Thomas and Mary Simm $200 damage for the flooding of their property.

Yesterday seemed to be the unlucky day for the city of Hamilton, for in the weekly court, H. S. White, acting for the executors of Susan Stipe, moved to commit the mayor and city engineer of the Ambitious City for breach of an injunction granted by the common pleas divisional court in January, 1912. This injunction restrained the city of Hamilton allowing sewage to flow from the Trolley street sewer to Stipe's inlet.

F. R. Waddell appearing for the city, informed Sir William Mulock, who is hearing the case, that storm sewers would soon be constructed to obviate the necessity of using the inlet.

His lordship commented severely on the city's non-compliance with the injunction, but the matter was finally adjourned till the city can proceed with expropriation proceedings, which were launched on Nov. 11.

LABOR NEWS
That the elevator men in Toronto are at last seriously considering the advisability of forming a union is evident in the recent information to the effect that John Noble, general organizer of the Electrical Workers' Union, was undertaken to take them in hand. The general opinion in labor circles is that few better men could be found for this purpose.

Machinists and carpenters are very interested in tonight's mass meeting at the Labor Temple, which will be addressed by the most prominent labor men in Toronto, of whom James Simpson will perhaps be the most noteworthy. The unemployment situation is said to have become more acute, and yesterday afternoon a large number of unemployed men were noted who rarely, if ever, grace the Labor Temple.

A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, in the stirring address to last night's session of the International Brotherhood of Freight Handlers and Clerks, dwelt upon the need both of thoro organization and co-operation, and was accorded an appreciative vote of thanks by the many present. Mr. Mosher belongs to a rival organization but dwelt entirely in his address upon the general themes of labor organization, trusting to a basis of co-operation later between the Canadian and the International brotherhoods.

James Miller, the business manager of the International Brotherhood in Toronto, will in future be one of the members of the committees on adjustment between the big railroads and the union men. His experience in railroad matters has been very wide, covering various phases of employment over a period of 20 years, both in Jamaica and Canada, 14 years in the West Indies and seven years in Canada.

WHITE GIRLS FOUND IN CHINESE OPIUM DEN

Kong Hong appeared before Magistrate Kingsford yesterday, charged with keeping an opium den. It was sworn to by plainclothesmen McMahon and Waterhouse, who raided the house at 175 West Richmond street, there when they broke in there were more than 10 devotees of the drug more or less under its influence, and that two white girls were also found in the drugged sleep. Hong was fined $200 and costs or four months, while the ten Chinese inmates were fined $10 and costs. The women were tried in the women's court.

Tony Semenov, charged with molesting a young girl, was fined $20 and costs or ten days. Charles Collin, according to the evidence of a Humane Society inspector, had kicked his horse in the stomach and head. Collin claimed that he had kicked the horse because it had bitten him. He was fined $5 and costs or 14 days.

For failing to report under the M.S.A., Albert Flatman paid $25. Mike Miklow and Frank Coraski were charged in connection with a disorderly house on Simcoe street, which was recently raided by plainclothesmen Marshall and Sullivan, according to the officers, when they got into the house a woman hurled a cup of alcohol into Sullivan's face, while Coraski pulled a knife and threatened to stab Marshall.

In the Series of Demonstrations Now Being Held in the Store Weaving Flannelette

A hand loom such as those on which were woven flannelettes, flannels and homespuns for winter clothes—in early days part of the equipment of the average Canadian household—may now be seen in operation in the Staples Department. It was constructed with broadaxe and drawknife more than sixty-five years ago at Pennau, New Brunswick. And now once more a woman of some seventy-five summers weaves on it the pretty rose and grey striped flannelette as she did in the days of her youth.

A reel on which the cotton is wound, and a spinning wheel that is over eighty years old, are interesting features of the exhibit.

WEBER IS REFUSED CHANGE OF VENUE

Owen Sound Jury Capable of Rendering an Impartial Verdict.

Chief Justice Sir William Mulock yesterday refused to grant a change of venue to Reeve Joseph Weber, charged at Owen Sound with the infraction of several clauses of the military service act, and already convicted by the magistrate of the town for making unlawful statements. In his reasons for refusing the change, his lordship pointed out that the jury drawn from Owen Sound district would not differ in their interpretation of their responsibilities more than any other jury drawn from any other district.

The application for the change was put in by D. O'Connell, counsel for the accused, who based his claim on the attitude of hostility which has repeatedly manifested itself towards the prisoner by the residents of the Owen Sound district, and that this hostility might tend to prejudice a fair and impartial hearing of the case. Mr. O'Connell was willing to have the hearing either at the Guelph or Toronto assizes.

Council recited the charges against the accused, including that of which he had been found guilty, which consisted partly of a remark to the effect that "the British were licked and they knew it, and before any of his boys would go to fight they would die first in the store, and if anybody wanted to fight they could come to Neustadt and get it."

LAYMEN SEND SYMPATHY.

The following resolution of sympathy has been forwarded to Lady Laurier on behalf of the Anglican laymen of this city by the Bishop of Toronto:

Moved by Evelyn Macrae, seconded by Rural Dean James: That this meeting desires to express to Lady Laurier its heartfelt sympathy with her in the death of her illustrious life partner and expresses the prayer that she may be supported and comforted by the blessed spirit of God. (Signed) James Toronto, W. D. Gwynne, chairman.

Cecil Irving was yesterday sentenced to three months at the jail farm by Judge Winchester for the theft of a motor car from W. H. Pautnay, which was standing on Bay street. Irving has already served other sentences for stealing motor cars.

CONSTABLE WAS GUILTY OF STEALING WATCH

Samuel Nicholls, one of the special constables taken on by the city last fall, was yesterday found guilty of having stolen a watch from C. H. Riggs when he took the latter into custody on Nov. 21, 1918. The case came before Judge Winchester in the criminal county court.

Riggs stated that a few days after he had missed his watch a man brought it into his office and he had given him a reward of $5. Nicholls claimed that after he had taken Riggs to the station he went to look for the latter's car and found his watch. However, a fellow special constable told of Nicholls telling him that he was going to get $5 or $10 from a gentleman, and then he went into the office, and a few minutes later came out with the $5 reward. Accused was remanded in custody for a week to await sentence.

WHY FIRE CHIEF RESIGNED.

Explaining his reason for resigning from the position of fire chief, Mr. Smith said yesterday that his resignation was not caused by any criticism of his work by members of the city council, as was hinted at, "I had definitely decided to retire last fall, but did not wish to leave until I had seen the inauguration of the double platoon system. It was I who conceived this system and advocated it. As soon as it was thru I decided to retire and leave the field open for a younger man."

Mayor Church said that he hoped that the chief would see fit to reconsider his resignation, but the chief said that he had made up his mind.

WILLS AND BEQUESTS.

Mrs. Bertha Patterson, who died in Toronto Dec. 6, 1918, left an estate valued at $11,020, which will be divided between six daughters and one granddaughter.

By a will made in Dec, 1917, Edith E. Loughheed, a Toronto school teacher, who died Nov. 13, 1918, left an estate valued at $2,294. The deceased left $600 to her sister, Mrs. Millie Fawcett, Vancouver; $400 to her sister, Mrs. Boyd; $50 each to her nieces, Edith Loughheed, of Toronto, and Edith E. Loughheed, of Grey county, and the residue in equal shares to her sister, Annie; her brother, George; her cousin, David; her brother-in-law, Joseph Nelly, her brother, James, and his wife, and her sister, Eliza J. Neilly, and her husband.

Hon. L. B. Lucas, attorney-general, has applied for administration of the estate of Kole Toteff, a Bulgarian laborer, who died intestate in the General Hospital on Nov. 18, 1918. The only relative of Toteff is his wife, Nora, who resides outside of the province.

Pte. Thos. G. Ashworth, who was killed in action on Sept. 2, 1918, left his estate, valued at $1,058, to his mother, Mrs. Maria Ashworth, who resides in England.

M. O. H. ACTS AGAINST GUTTA PERCHA PLANT

The department of health yesterday afternoon issued a summons against the Gutta Percha Rubber Company, West Lodge avenue, for maintaining a nuisance under the public health act, and the defendant will appear in the police court next Tuesday. A deputation from this district waited on the board of control on Wednesday and they were referred to the medical health officer, who has taken the matter up. The people living in that district say it is impossible for them to sleep at night, and the vibration has caused the disconnection of pipe sand fixtures.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

Dr. W. A. Riddell, of the Ontario department of labor, was in Hamilton yesterday holding an enquiry respecting widowed mothers' pensions. Tomorrow he will conduct an enquiry at London and next Tuesday at Ottawa.

Judge Boyd of the Toronto juvenile court is of the opinion that "mothers' pensions would be good."

GREATER DEATH RATE.

"Reconstruction, repatriation, rehabilitation are the watchwords of the day," said Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., submitting his report to the local board of health yesterday afternoon. He showed the important place health would play in the repelling and welfare of the nation.

He said that he had discussed with General Gunn the best possible way the board of health and the department of health could assist the men who they were discharged and returned to civil life. "It must be apparent that the nurses in the various districts throughout the city to which our boys are coming will be a material aid in nursing them back and weaning them once more into the social fabric."

CHARGES IRREGULARITIES.

Charging irregularities in connection with the conduct of the election at two of the polls, J. A. McInosh, acting for Marshall Rathwell, yesterday secured an order from Master-in-Chief J. A. C. Cameron, declaring the election of Frank Johnston as reeve of Cumberland township void. Rathwell was the opposing candidate and was defeated by the narrow margin of the casting vote of the D.R.O.

MENTAL DEFECTIVES CANNOT BE CURED

Fit Carried on War, Unfit Carried on Race, Says Dr. MacMurphy.

Dr. Helen MacMurphy gave trenchant evidence at the enquiry into the case of the feeble-minded, continued by Mr. Justice Hodgins at the parliament buildings yesterday. Dr. MacMurphy said: "It is appallingly true that it was the mentally and physically fit that were carrying on the war, and the unfit that were carrying on the race," as had been stated by Sir James Barr. "A mental defective," said Dr. MacMurphy, "cannot be cured," although institutional life brought improvement. The work might be compared to enabling a limbless man to walk with a crutch.

In a review of the work for the feeble-minded, the witness stated that the first school for feeble-minded was started in England in 1828. In 1847 an institute for their benefit was opened in Massachusetts. The Orilla asylum for mental defectives in Ontario was opened in 1847. Definite research work as to the condition of mental defectives in Canada was commenced in 1894. At a recent conclusion of Dr. Helen MacMurphy's evidence the enquiry was adjourned sine die, and a judgment may be rendered upon the testimony already received.

A good deal of discussion followed the paper on legislation read by Mr. Frank Denton, K. C., in the course of which the natural gas act came in for much adverse criticism.

Mr. Gash also spoke strongly in favor of an increase in the salaries of judges in order that they might be able to attract the best legal talent to the bench.

AVERAGE CONSTABLE

Two Inspectors Testify Favorably as to His General Character.

As the sessions of the royal commission to investigate police affairs drift along, one is paralyzed by the mass of insignificant detail involved in the commission's work.

They are in uniform for the same purpose that sent the Canadian expeditionary force overseas, viz., to protect life and property from thieves and cutthroats and to convince every born bruiser that, although he may have every home in his neighbor's body, he must still abide by the law that the majority approves.

They feel that if they have to arrest Joseph Finch for common theft today, it is ridiculous to suppose that because Joseph happened to be in uniform they would let him "beat it" at the first opportunity that offered.

TURKISH PROVINCES WELL CARED FOR

(Continued From Page 1.) conference. In Armenia great hardships were being endured by the inhabitants, which were intensified by the scarcity of provisions and lack of means of communication.

At present there were in Syria and Palestine more than forty thousand unhappy refugees. In Mesopotamia there were forty thousand Armenians and Nestorians, in Mosul seven thousand, and in Transcaucasia more than 45,000. Altogether there were 150,000 refugees being kept from starvation by this country.

Repatriate Refugees. The policy of the government, said Lord Curzon, was to repatriate the refugees, but that could not be done until communications were very much improved. An American mission had come from America with ships laden with food, clothing, medicines and agricultural implements, and was making its way into the east thru ports from which these regions could be reached.

There was not reason to be dissatisfied with the work of the British officers, soldiers, sailors and, in fact, all concerned were not merely carrying out necessary duties, but were engaged in a work of charity and mercy.

During the course of the debate on the East and Russia, Lord Curzon said that the Techaikovsky government would regard it as incredible treachery if the allies negotiated with the central government at Moscow. He described the Bolshevik soldiers as "ruffianly bands," murdering and massacring wherever they went.

There were plenty of food in Russia, said Lord Curzon, but the Bolsheviks utilized their control of arms and food to terrorize and despoil.

No Negotiations With Bolsheviks. Replying to the comment of the Marquis of Lansdowne on the position in North Russia, Lord Curzon strongly condemned the suggestion that the government negotiate with the Bolsheviks over the head of the Archangel government.

Whether it succeeded or not. The proposal, "passed with lightning rapidity," would have calamitous results. The Bolsheviks were trying to dispose of the provincial governments, one by one, and to release the forces in the north so that they could send them against Gen. Denikin, head of the government at Yekaterinburg.

Lord Peel, representing the war office, described the military situation in North Russia. He said that the recent retirement on the Archangel had been carried out with very little loss, or material damage, while the enemy had suffered heavily.

There was no immediate anxiety regarding the safety of the Archangel. The distribution of food and other supplies, and steps were being taken to furnish them, while, he contended, there was aggression it might be necessary to reinforce the allied troops.

Lord Peel declared that there had been comparatively little sickness and few cases of frostbite among the allied troops, who had had the advantage of Sir George Sackleton's experience of training men for Arctic life.

TWENTY RHODES SCHOLARS KILLED IN WAR IN 1918

London, Feb. 20.—The annual report in connection with the Rhodes scholarships states that only nine were in residence during 1918, of whom four had previously been on active service and two were medically rejected.

There were twenty Rhodes scholars killed in the war in 1918, including six South African, two Australian and one Canadian. Military honors were awarded to 28, including 15 British, a magnificent historic necklace, consisting of 148 pearls, given by the Emperor Charles V. to a princess of the blood royal.

Carmen, the young marchioness, was to have returned it immediately after a fashionable function, for which it had been lent to her. But, in spite of insistent demands, she declined to return it.

Summoned before a magistrate, she declared that she was going to Madrid to explain the matter to the King of Spain, adding that the necklace was in a safe in the Credit Lyonnais. Seals have been placed upon the safe.

LICHNOWSKY ON GERMAN "EASTERN QUESTION"

Prince Lichnowsky, who emerged from disgrace and oblivion after the revolution, has joined the staff of the Democratic Berliner Tagblatt, with which he has long been on friendly terms, and came out recently with "Twenty Fronts" on the subject of eastern Germany. They take the form of a francic tirade against the Poles for demanding the cession of Prussian Poland, and against the Czechs for demanding portions of Silesia, including the county of Glatz, near which Lichnowsky's own estates are situated.

"The German eastern question" is one of the most vital problems to be decided after the peace conference. If the Poles secure West Prussia, with Danzig and Thorn, robbing Germany of her rich Polish farming lands, and if upper Silesia, with its great coal fields, industry, and agriculture, is given to the Czechs, Lichnowsky says, "we shall be politically and economically finished, even if we annex German Austria."

GOOD OFFICER, BUT NOT A MAN OF ACTION

Admiral Fremantle, in London, Paper, Takes a Crack at Jellicoe.

London, Feb. 20.—"I hate publicity," remarked Vice-Admiral Lord Jellicoe on his departure from London, when asked for some message on his empire tour. The Daily Express remarks: "The tour will not be a flag showing or a demonstration. Our dominions are on the way to build up their own navy. It will be Jellicoe's task to advise how the separate units can be merged into a strategic and tactical whole, in the event of need."

Considerable discussion still wages concerning Lord Jellicoe's recently published book, especially as concerns his account of the battle of Jutland. Admiral Sir Edmund Fremantle writes The Daily Mail today: "Jellicoe loses his chance. His book is full of excuses and difficulties. The plain truth is Jellicoe, the a good officer, is not a man of action."

CLEMENCEAU TELLS OF THE SHOOTING

Comments That His Adversaries Are Very Poor Shots and Very Clumsy.

Paris, Feb. 20.—Premier Clemenceau's own story of the shooting which he told to callers, is given in a Latin today, as follows: "Yesterday, when I was passing that spot at the corner of the boulevard de Lesseps, I remarked a strange, silhouetted figure upon the pavement, showing someone examining me attentively. The silhouette was that of a rather evil-looking fellow in up to no good. This morning, as I was passing the same spot, I perceived the same silhouette, and immediately thought, 'Why, that is my friend yesterday.'"

"What followed," continued the premier, "passed with lightning rapidity. I am not sure if I was in the front of the automobile but at the first shot I fell. The chauffeur at the same time put on speed and got us out of range. The home, now I feel absolutely nothing. The premier passed, and then added, sarcastically: "My adversaries are really poor shots; in North Russia, the foreign minister, he said: 'Am I not a good prophet? I told you that I would be shot. I arranged to have no meeting of the conference today, so I could get a little rest. Well, I've got it.'"

WARG WORTHY OF KIDD AT BOTTOM OF OCEAN

One of the greatest problems that has brought near by the end of hostilities, is that of salvaging over 15,000,000 tons of shipping that lie on the ocean's floor.

This colossal tonnage, which is equivalent to something like 3000 vessels of various size, includes more than one argosy that would have driven Captain Kidd, and the confederates of the Spanish Main into insanities of greed.

In the depths of the Atlantic there lies a ship that went down in a large consignment of bullion; another sank with a large amount of paper money; while in the region of the Mediterranean lies that laden with pearls from the east, worth many thousands of pounds.

MARCHIONESS CLAIMED SPANISH ROYAL PEARLS

It is related by the Paris newspapers that Prince Antony, Duke of Galliera, an Infante of Spain, lent to a Spanish marchioness, formerly known as Carmen Fiores, a magnificent historic necklace, consisting of 148 pearls, given by the Emperor Charles V. to a princess of the blood royal.

Carmen, the young marchioness, was to have returned it immediately after a fashionable function, for which it had been lent to her. But, in spite of insistent demands, she declined to return it.

MARCHIST HOMES PARIS SEARCHED

Raid on "Liberty" Society Resulted in Bulky Basket of Literature.

Paris, Feb. 20.—Emil Cottin, who attempted to assassinate Premier Clemenceau, spent all last night at police headquarters, where M. Tanguy, under commissioner of police, went over with him documents, literature and correspondence which had been seized in Cottin's room yesterday. As a result of the material found and an examination of the papers, the police made several raids this morning, particularly at the "Liberty" Society. According to the police, the society has anarchical tendencies. Its headquarters at 33 Boulevard Belleville were searched thoroughly and a bulky basket of literature seized.

The Communist Federation of the Seine and the Seine-et-Oise also was searched. Papers there were seized but no arrests were made. The police arrested the homes of two of the correspondents of Cottin. One of them is Rosky, a Russian citizen, and he and the other man had been seized by the police on a charge of anarchism. The Belleville section long has been under police surveillance as a meeting place of anarchists.

Brain Overheated. When asked by the Associated Press if he had abandoned his theory of yesterday that Cottin shot the premier because he was a Communist, Tanguy said: "There may be other arrests made, but I am not at liberty to say now nor to say whether if arrests are made the prisoners will be confined with the Communist reading of anarchistic literature. Other wise there was no actual pressure upon him."

Judge Desi attempted this morning to conduct the preliminary examination of Cottin but the prisoner was suffering from an intense pain about the eyes and face as a result of the pummeling he received yesterday and from loss of sleep. Cottin was unable to reply intelligently to the questions of the judge. Dr. Paul, a police surgeon, had to be called to attend the prisoner. One of the other arrests was completely closed and had to be cut open.

Cottin's demeanor has lost some of its former boldness. He apparently is now feeling his position keenly. In addition to the search of the homes of Cottin and the Russian Rosky, searches also were made of the apartments of other persons known as Rutkowski, alias Mateski, and another man named Cottin. Likewise a search was made of a certain address in the Rue de la Commune, where members of the Communist Federation.

DEATH OF LAURIER CHANGES SITUATION

(Continued From Page 1.) program. Sir Robert may have to come back to try and find a way out. He has no stomach for such a task. He would sooner take a walk than to go to the house of the Liberal support he had from here has weakened.

Affect on Liberals. But horrifies the death of Sir Wilfrid affect the Liberals? The resultant change may make confusion worse confounded. But not likely. The Liberals in the house, straight supporters of Sir Wilfrid, are likely rather to sit down and await events. They will not for some time select a new leader, hardly even a session leader. They will select in all probability, a committee from among themselves to handle the duties of the leader and watch the government, but the Liberal party will neither surrender anything nor impose anything on the party at large. They would sooner watch and see what Sir Thomas White will do and be in the saddle, not Sir Robert Borden, and it is not that Sir Thomas is weaker than his nominal chief; but the atmosphere has changed a lot.

Purpose of the Opposition. They say that the Hon. Mr. Fielding will be made temporary leader, and that Sir Thomas is weaker than his nominal chief; but the atmosphere has changed a lot. They say that the Hon. Mr. Fielding will be made temporary leader, and that Sir Thomas is weaker than his nominal chief; but the atmosphere has changed a lot.

White and his colleagues carry on as best they can. Liberals to Sit Tight. They will not object to Mr. Martin coming down from his premiership in Saskatchewan, and he is on his way here, but they prefer to keep a safe position of watchful waiting. Nor will the Liberal press greatly influence them. The Globe may try and find out what they think and try to intimidate it; but they can't lead. And they can't do much, nor can The Toronto Star do much for Mr. Rowell.

The great bulk of the worry of the situation caused by Sir Wilfrid's death is on the shoulders of Sir Thomas White and his colleagues and supporters. Bad day for the opposition might help them a lot but the opposition are inclined at this moment to sit rather tight, determined on one thing, not to make it any more pleasant for those of their number who went to help Sir Robert Borden out of his troubles. The death of Sir Wilfrid has made, or rather may make, Union government more difficult.

WOMAN ADDRESSES GERMAN ASSEMBLY

Welfar, Feb. 20.—The German National Assembly yesterday heard a speech by the first German woman "Assembleman" in the person of Frau Marie Juchacz, a Social Democrat delegate from Berlin.

She made a logical speech on a constructive political program and surprised the house by a violent attack on Count von Posadowsky-Weyner and other Conservative delegates.

The court, theatre was crowded when Frau Juchacz began her speech. She gained sympathy at the start by asserting the customary salutation to "Gentlemen and ladies."

Several times during her speech she was applauded, but she refused to be interrupted.

She praised the efforts of the government in the war and declared that the women were grateful for what had been done for them.

Frau Juchacz aroused the Conservatives when she asked the question which Count von Posadowsky-Weyner asked several days ago.

"What is the reason of the highest consequence to the empire in the present war?" she asked.

"All the world knows," she answered.
