THIS TELEGRAM REPEATED?

Flight of Mr. Miner from B. C. Penitentiary Again Discussed in House, With Some Bitterness.

OTTAWA, March 2.—(Special).—The escape of Bill Miner from the New Westminister penitentiary and the alleged falsification of the telegram to the inspectors at Ottawa informing them of the occurrence caused another flutter of excitement in the house today.

J. D. Taylor brought the matter up. He averred that the department appeared to treat the matter of the escape with indifference. One writer in the Vancouver Province had declared that the story of thefts of bonds belonging to the Australian government was a pure invention, and that negotiations were conducted for Miner's escape on the understanding that Miner was to reveal the location of cached money and divide the booty. Further, in the New Westminister Columbian, Mr. Taylor's own paper, there appeared a letter from Bourke, acting warden of the penitentiary at the time of Miner's escape, which said that when Inspector Dawson was called to the penitentiary he showed him the original of the telegram and it was addressed to "The Inspectors" and not to Dawson personally, as was claimed by Mr. Aylesworth. Bourke concluded that the telegram fell into the hands of "someone at Ottawa who saw the document and was misled by it to believe that it would mean a better chance for Miner to escape and to bring about his retirement."

Mr. Aylesworth exhibited some heat. It was unfortunate, he said, that this matter should be the subject of trial by newspapers, especially when one of those papers was the property of a member of the house.

A despatch from Ottawa had been altered and it had been made to appear that Chief Constable McIntosh stated in his evidence that Miner told him that Bullock said Miner would be pardoned if he would surrender the Australian bonds, and upon this falsified despatch an interview had been obtained for Taylor's paper.

"The despatch," said the minister, "was correct in every other British Columbia paper."

A lively time.

Amid a scene of disorder Mr. Taylor asked if it was right that the minister should charge a member with conniving at the forging of a telegram.

"I ask," Mr. Taylor said, "if the minister, who has promised that he is wrong, is to be permitted to insult me?"

"Take it back," yelled the opposition in unison, but the minister, unable to hear what the uproar was about, sat silent. Mr. Speaker intervened with the statement that the minister had in order in referring to a newspaper.

Mr. Aylesworth was finally able to proceed. By the enterprise of a newspaper he had been held up to the scorn of an outraged British Columbia. He was unable to say whether the telegram had been altered or not, but he could, could be done that had been done to bring about the recapture of Miner.

Mr. Borden followed. There could be no doubt that Mr. Aylesworth had attempted to cast discredit upon Mr. Taylor. Did the minister adhere to the statement?

Mr. Aylesworth answered that he had been told so by another. He did not make a personal investigation.

"Then," said Mr. Borden, "it would be more becoming of the minister of justice if before undertaking to cast discredit on a member of the house he made a personal investigation. I say that his statement is absolutely unfounded and that he is regretted that the minister should have made such a statement. Such eccentricities were not, however, uncommon with the minister of justice."

"Order!" demanded the prime minister.

Real Point Sidestepped.

What was the meaning of all these rumors, and what was the meaning of the minister's evasive tone in his references to Bourke? asked Mr. Borden. This man had been charging that there was a conspiracy in connection with the escape of a prisoner to cast the duty of the government not to allow the matter to stand where it is.

Hon. Jacques Borden continued the discussion.

W. B. Northrup reminded the house that in the case of the marine department the government had put up the same declaration of probity and innocence, yet the result of the enquiry had strewn the department with derelicts.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier complained that such extraneous matter had been brought into his debate. The real question was, had any officials of the justice department connived at the convict's escape? Ordinarily the mistake in two names so similar as those of McIntosh and McKenzie would be of no consequence. But in this case, not only was the mistake not corrected, but the Columbian newspaper seized upon it to get from McIntosh a tirade against the justice department. The newspaper declaration of an anonymous person that he could throw additional light on the escape was nothing for the government to proceed upon. Sir Wilfrid admitted that the administration of the penitentiary had been very loose.

Mr. Foster agreed it was deplorable that irrelevant matters should have been brought into the debate.

But the man who did it was Mr. Aylesworth, who should have said a little of his petty spite.

One Member's Theory.

In the evening Mr. Madin (Cape Breton) advanced the theory that the C.P.R. wished to ascertain the location of the bonds alleged to have been stolen. It might easily be a part of the plan to have the telegram sent to the department notifying it of the escape of Miner arrested in transit.

Judge Mackenzie (North Cape Breton) contended that there was new evidence before the investigation should be re-opened. Mr. Borden and Mr. Aylesworth should get together and quietly discuss whether there was anything to investigate.

KINRADES NOW IN THIS CITY

Family Allowed to Come to Toronto for a Rest—Will Not Attend Inquest To-night.

HAMILTON, March 2.—(Special).—Every member of the Kinrade family left this evening on the 8.55 train for Toronto. They went with the permission of the crown. They will be absent for a period of a week or two, and none of them will be called at the inquest Wednesday evening. The enquiry will have to be adjourned to hear their testimony later. It was not arranged until 7 o'clock that they were to go.

The step was taken on the advice of Dr. White, the family physician. He said that it was necessary for the health of the mother and daughter that they should have a change of scene, and the crown hopes they will soon be able to give a clear story. The nurse accompanied the mother and daughter. The mother had to be almost carried to the cars.

The police here say they have information that Miss Florence Kinrade did sing in a Richmond, Va., church, in spite of rumors to the contrary. It is denied, however, that a Pinkerton man is to make enquiries there.

Mr. Kinrade is very much annoyed by the many sensational stories that have been floating around and has announced that he would sue several newspapers for libel and gossip for slander. The police officers on the case all agreed that he has done everything in his power to help them in their work. He has requested them to leave no stone unturned to ferret out the murderer.

The police interviewed Miss Abbott today and learned that the man who had been floating around and had announced that he would sue several newspapers for libel and gossip for slander. ## DEPORTED TO BUFFALO TO SECURE HIS ARREST

Wm. Riley Will Have to Face Trial on Manslaughter Charge Resulting from Chinese Smuggling.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 2.—(Special).—Charged with manslaughter, and remaining untried for three months, William Riley was brought to justice by the easy operation of the deportation law. Riley is a notorious Chinese smuggler, and his last operation caused the death of seven Chinamen at Buffalo.

He was deported from Fort Erie to Buffalo on a ferry boat, when the officers dived in pursuit and he was recaptured. Riley also stole several letters and threw them away. The pieces were picked up and used as evidence against him, as they referred to smuggling.

The charge of manslaughter, for which Riley will be punished, occurred in December last. In company with George Wainey and Edward Baltz he was smuggling boat loads of Chinamen to Buffalo from Fort Erie, when the boat capsized, seven Chinamen being drowned. The smugglers returned to Fort Erie. The evidence was not sufficient to extradite the men.

They were erecting a large Chinese laundry at Fort Erie, which is supposed to have been used for smuggling.

The reports of the standing committees on campaign plans publication and finance were all adopted by the total abolition of bar-room and club licenses, legislation to repress the treating system, and to call upon the Ontario government for the immediate repeal of the three-fifths local option clause.

MORE TALK OF SHAKE-UP IN CIVIC WORKS DEPT.

Controller Hocken Checked at One Time Promises to Renew Fight.

In voting to appoint T. S. Scott as assistant to City Engineer Rust, at a salary of $250, the city council yesterday poured rather a brisk fire of criticism into the administration of the works department.

Controller Hocken wanted to have all the branches of the department reorganized, but the mayor ruled that council had no power to dictate to the head of the department how it should be managed. The controller intimated that he would seek to accomplish recognition in some other way.

He contended that while the city engineer and Waterworks Engineer Fellows were well equipped, technically, that neither had executive ability, and that there had been considerable bungling. He cited the case of the contract for six-foot steel pipe at the island, to connect with the tunnel. The contractor, Fred Simpson, had offered to do the work for $9000 less than the contract called for, if he were given year instead of six months to complete the work. The city engineer declined, but the work took a year and the city was unable to collect a $10,000 penalty because of an error by a subordinate in the works department, in striking the levels. He also charged that there had been inexcusable delays in testing the high pressure system.

Frequent Bungle.

Ald. Foster claimed that the department frequently bungled roadways and sidewalks, and that serious mistakes had been made in installing the Woodbine sewage tanks.

Ald. McHugh, as chairman of the works committee, upheld the department. Engineers for private companies, he said, had no knowledge of waterworks matters, and it would be inadvisable to place him over Mr. Fellows.

Controller Henry said there were rightly or wrongly, many complaints about the works department. He wasn't sure whether or not Mr. Rust was responsible, but didn't think the engineer should be blamed for the error of a subordinate in the island matter. If one specific charge could be made he would support an investigation.

Ald. Bredin said that as mover last year for an investigation, he wasn't convinced that the appointment of an assistant was going far enough. There was much looseness, and it would pay the city to give $10,000 salary to the right man.

The mayor thought Mr. Rust's only fault was lack of aggressiveness.

Controller Hocken demanded whether the city had to wait for reorganization until there was something wrong which had to go to the county judge.

Council, only Ald. Foster dissenting, approved Mr. Scott's appointment.

KEEP CANADIAN CAPITAL FROM FOREIGN LANDS?

Senator Lougheed Has Objections to the Granting of Charters for Company Operations in S. A.

OTTAWA, March 2.—(Special).—On the second reading of a bill respecting the Canadian Electric Steel and Smelting Co., Ltd., and one respecting the Mexican Land and Irrigation Co., in the Senate, Mr. Lougheed questioned the advisability of endorsing the principle of such bills. There was some doubt whether Canada had constitutional right to give companies authority to carry out works in foreign countries. Canadians who desired to invest abroad should be compelled to shape their letters incorporating under the laws of the countries in which they proposed to invest. Capital was needed in Canada.

Hon. Scott said that he believed that he was responsible in the first place for these companies which had been incorporated to do business in Mexico and South America. The first application made for such a charter was when he was administering the Companies Act as secretary of the Canadian Companies Act and for Canadian business methods, and that they would allow a company with a Canadian charter to operate in that country. Handsome returns were now coming back to Canada and he believed that the profits were greater than could be obtained if the money had been invested in Canada.

On motion for the second reading of a bill respecting the Collingwood Southern Railway Co., Senator Wilson asked if the company did not infringe provincial rights thru falling to traverse more than one province. Senator Gibson thought that the time had come when all railways in Canada should be brought under federal jurisdiction. Provincially incorporated lines could not be controlled by the Dominion Railway Commission. They could not be compelled to exchange traffic with Dominion roads. The lack of compulsory connection between the Dominion and provincial roads was a weak link in the Canadian transportation system.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that the first step would have to be in the formal amendment of the constitution.

Senator Wilson said Ontario had a railway connection between Grand Haven and Milwaukee. To handle this traffic the car ferries have been put on fast routes and also been installed in the western traffic across the lake by the ferry has at last been realized by the system. It is believed that more ferries will be needed before the winter is over. Three hundred cars of ice are en route to the Grand Trunk's immense new ice house at Grand Haven.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE IN CELL

Toronto Man With Bad Record in Trouble at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, March 2.—(Special).—Fred C. Howard, attorney, 45 years old, of Toronto, attempted to commit suicide in a cell at police headquarters here to-night. A desk sergeant cut him down in time to prevent death. He had made a noise of his suspenders.

Thornton was despondent because the police arrested him as a suspicious person. Just before he was thrust into his cell he made a pathetic plea for his liberty.

Thornton's political record began in Toronto in 1877, and it is said he has spent the greater part of his life in Canadian prisons. He is known from coast to coast as an all round thief.

N.W. FREIGHT VIA MICHIGAN

Grand Trunk Will Utilize Car Ferries to Shorten Route.

DETROIT, Mich., March 2.—A Grand Haven, Mich., despatch says the Grand Trunk Railway has made arrangements whereby thousands of cars of high-class freight from the Winnipeg and Alberta districts will be brought thru Grand Haven; being transferred across Lake Michigan on the G.T.R. ferry steamers Grand Haven and Milwaukee. To handle this traffic the car ferries have been put on fast schedule for balance of winter. Extra local railroad yards.

The dream of swinging the unlimited western traffic across the lake by the ferry has at last been realized by the system. It is believed that more ferries will be needed before the winter is over. Three hundred cars of ice are en route to the Grand Trunk's immense new ice house at Grand Haven.

Two Torontonians Who Were Exceptionally Favored on the Caronia.

NEW YORK, March 2.—(Special).—Mrs. Wm. Hyslop and her sister, Miss F. A. McLeod, of South-road, Toronto, returned from a Mediterranean trip to-day with an unusual account of privileges which they enjoyed on board the Caronia from Alexandria to Naples.

The young women boarded the Caronia at Naples. Both are young, cultured and very pretty and traveled alone.

"We were the only two cabin passengers aboard the Caronia—think of it, the only two women in the cabins," exclaimed Miss McLeod. "Captain Daw is a darling. Why, we owned the ship all the way from Alexandria to Naples, five days. One hundred stewards vied with one another in waiting on us; the orchestra played extra numbers for us and special entertainments were given evenings. We were led up into the 'Crow's Nest,' stood for hours on the bridge with the captain, went into the engine room, and even toyed with the steering apparatus.

"Why, I could almost build a ship on the pattern of the Caronia."

The young women departed to-night for Toronto.

PREMIER REPLIES IN VIGOROUS FASHION

Aylesworth's Criticism Due to Hostility Towards Ontario, Which Hasn't Paid Much Attention to Him.

In moving the adjournment of the legislature yesterday afternoon Premier Whitney drew the attention of the house to "the violent spirit of animosity towards the Province of Ontario exhibited by the minister of justice for the Dominion of Canada, in the house of commons at Ottawa on Monday." In connection with Florence Mining Co. petition for disallowance.

In tones that conveyed no uncertain meaning, Sir James referred to two statutes passed by the legislature, the first of which was on the statute books of the province for 12 months, without producing any strictures from Hon. Mr. Aylesworth. There was a fundamental principle of British law all over the world that no action could be brought by any claimant against a British government, nor be allowed to take his case into a court of law without leave from that government. The prime minister quoted precedents within the province to show that this principle had been accepted, but would only draw attention to the point where the hon. gentleman (Mr. Aylesworth) had attempted to draw conclusions contrary to this fundamental principle.

The prime minister felt that this course was quite in line with other evidences that had come lately from Ottawa of hostility towards the people and Province of Ontario. "Because, forsooth, the people of the Province of Ontario have said to everybody to whom it was necessary to say it, that they proposed to be governed by a government of their own choice."

The prime minister read a statement, dated Dec. 20, 1907, sent to the governor-general in reply to the petition for disallowance of the act confirming the title of Cobalt Lake and Kerr Lake properties. In the despatch the Ontario Government refrained from expressing any opinion as to the facts alleged in the petition, but stated that exercising the right given under the Ontario Government to obtain leave from exploitation by order-in-council, which was subsequently confirmed by statute, and any claims arising therefrom would be dealt with by the lieutenant-governor-in-council. Any claims which were presented, it is stated, were found to be without merit. The bed of Cobalt Lake and other lands were then exposed for sale and the statement continued:

Ontario's Position.

"Owing to attacks which were directed against the title of the purchasers, and the consequent unrest respecting titles to mining properties in large sums were invested, and in order to protect and confirm beyond all question the title of the purchasers, and further with a view to affording the very greatest protection to the revenues of the crown in the province, the act complained of was passed.

"Care was taken, however, to provide that if any claims were still outstanding, they should be dealt with by me under the provisions of the first mentioned act, so that complete justice might be done.

"I have therefore to inform you that my government are of opinion that the said act should not be interfered with for the reasons aforesaid, which may be concisely summarized as follows:

"1. The matter is one concerning the crown lands of the province, the development of which the policy of my government has been carried out, and for which they are responsible to the legislative assembly.

Affects the Revenue.

"2. The matter is continuously affecting the revenues of the crown in the province, and the credit of my government in dealing with the purchasers of portions of the public domain, for which matters they are also responsible. And a sale having been made after full notice to all concerned, it would seriously affect the credit of my government if the title of the purchasers were interfered with.

"3. The act complained of is a guarantee of title to the purchasers from the crown, to which my government thought the purchasers were entitled, as well as a measure of protection to the revenues of the crown.

"4. The act covers other lands as well as Cobalt Lake, and could not be disallowed without affecting the title of others than those concerned in Cobalt Lake.

"5. No injustice is done, because the rights of all parties having claims such as those set up in the petition are amply protected by the enactment which permits them to be submitted to me for adjudication, and full and ample justice will be administered, if any such are submitted."

Aylesworth's Curiosity.

Continuing, the prime minister said that Hon. Mr. Aylesworth's statement was made with a knowledge of the facts of but one side—an ex parte judgment—which it was hardly possible to believe. The duty of the minister of justice was to pronounce upon the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of the act.

"Happily," said Sir James, "the people of this province are not in the habit of paying much attention to Mr. Aylesworth in his capacity as statesman. We do not think they are likely to do so in the future, except as they regard him as a curiosity."

Sir James thanked Mr. Gordon M. P. for Nipissing for the manner in which he met the occasion in the house which he met the occasion in the house.

The Lenten Sermon

Rev. Canon Welch dealt with moral difficulties, in his mid-day discussion at St. James' Cathedral yesterday.

He said there were reasons why human actions should accord with the will of God, the power to place them in this harmonious relation to set the human will in opposition to the divine.

The only way in which God could have prevented the presence of evil in the world would have been to deprive man of his will power, the most characteristic endowment of human nature.

The question arose, if God made man in His own image, why did He not make him a free will, why did He not make him a free will, why did He not make him a free will, why did He not make him a free will.

Human experience takes humanity back to the personal responsibility of each to help on the progress of God's purposes.

THE WHITTLERS OF THE DOCTRINES.

In these days of doubt, dissension, and plutocratic disorder, the World desires to put in a word for the old gospel, the old religion and the old standards now assailed in this city by the gentlemen who resent the criticism of the venerable Dr. Carman. When we take this position we recall the old great riders of our boyhood, the powerful ministrations, the fervent preachings of men like Egerton Ryerson, Samuel S. Nelles, Enoch Wood, Samuel D. Rice, John Carroll, John Wilkinson, Anson Green, Lachlan Taylor, and the other Wesleyan fathers of the Methodist church. We remember their fervor in the old wooden churches, in the old township meeting-houses, in the camp-meeting exercises, the revivals, the protracted meetings, times and places when men were a power unto righteousness. They founded the Methodist church here in the wilds of Canada because they believed in it and its doctrines, because in it there was for them and their followers salvation, because in its bosom were morality for the community and regeneration for all men who were not afraid to confess their sins and who sought a change of heart.

Dr. Carman belongs to this noble past, and as long as he stands where he is with these old fathers he is on sacred ground.

It is so easy to assail the old religion and the old standards, the old doctrines and the old rules of life! Much as we respect J. W. Flavell, Chester Massey, A. E. Kemp and the others who have rushed upon the old patriarch, still we must say that these men seem to us to be striving for something new, seem to be trying to destroy the old standards, and the old theology, trying to substitute the uncertain for the certain, something of a more modern day and something more mollifying to their conscience. They would put an extinguisher on the Bad Place if they could. Why?

The Methodist church was not made for rich men, but for simple men and for men who believe in a personal Saviour and, who, contrariwise, fear a personal devil and an actual hell; and when men cannot accept these standards and those doctrines, instead of trying to disrupt the church and to disquiet the minds of thousands and thousands of plain men and women, rather is it their duty to withdraw from the communion and to seek other tabernacles where there is more room for diversity. We see an Anglican bishop in his sleeves of lawn beckoning to them.

There are men who think, and apparently these men think that you can destroy the old edifice pulling it down brick by brick, and out of the old bricks build a new edifice on a new plan. We do not believe this, nor do, nor did the fathers of the church. They knew that if you pulled out one brick the whole structure must fall, and that chaos and destruction would come in its place if such were to be allowed.

The ordinary every day man wants some kind of standard that is perpetual, certain, inflexible, pontifical, to which he can line up himself and can line up the conduct of every man or woman like himself. The efficacy of religion, according to this view and according to ours, is altogether dependent on its certainty and on the power exercised by it over ordinary men, which in consequence compels them to adjust themselves to the standards that have been erected and have been consecrated by time-honored tradition.

Those who would break down what are called heathen beliefs are just as far astray as are men who have gone back on the doctrines of John Wesley. There must be religion; there must be a moral standard by which men may judge themselves, and whether it be the doctrines of Confucius or the philosophy of the Greeks, or the sacred writings of the Hindus, they must be respected because the men who live under these doctrines have no other rule of life than that with which they are surrounded; and there can be no religious life in this or any country unless men respect the standards that they have inherited and try to live up to them.

Some of the men who are breaking away from the old Methodist standards may be able themselves to hold their feet because they were once upon the rock, but those who grow up after them, whose feet have never touched the rock, will in all probability fall into a quagmire from which there is no escape.

The Methodist church is the Methodist church of John Wesley in England and of Egerton Ryerson and S. S. Nelles in Canada, or it is nothing. It can't be redefined and carpeted and turned into a modernized system of platitudes. It must have all its old fervor and standards, its old beliefs, its old rewards, its old punishments and perpetual torments for those who fall to attain salvation.

Dr. Carman is on the rock where he stands; his language may be strong, but his convictions and his footing are sure and he still speaks for the ordinary, everyday Methodist people who live in this country of Canada; people of the little churches and the little meeting-houses that are scattered all over the side lines and in the villages and in the ordinary townships of our country. These people know where they are and they are satisfied with the ancient standards. Why should those men, who are so high in worldly matters and have achieved such eminence in business leadership, why should they seek to undermine, to break down and to discourage the poor and the ordinary? The wrong they do is the doubt which they cause to arise in many a man and many a woman who heretofore has had a peaceful mind and a peaceful outlook as to the future.

We trust that The Christian Guardian is still with the old standards and the old foundations; restless mortals like the editor of The Globe and Joseph Atkinson of The Star, may side with the Flavells and the Kemps, and the Massesys, and those who would remake John Wesley and recast Egerton Ryerson; but The Guardian can only be true to itself and its past when it is true to the circuit riders and the old fathers of the old connection.

The old religion had its terrors, but it had its comforts and its consolations; the new one has neither the one nor the other.

Wherefore tho the Old Doctor may have been somewhat peremptory in tone, somewhat lacking in graciousness of approach, even narrow some ways; yet his feet were on the rock and on the Book of Discipline. And when the Chief Pastor is so founded he must be pontifical to be effective. But his three critics are neither Shadrach, Meshach nor Abednego.

Master's Chambers.
Before Cartwright, Master.
Poussette v. Boersma—C. A. Moss, for plaintiff, moved for an order to have defendant arrested for further explanation for discovery. G. Grant, for defendant, contra. The plaintiff's case is that, by agreement with the defendant, he (the plaintiff) was to be given sixty shares out of eighty, which the defendant alleged to have been given to Lewis in trust for him (the defendant), and the defendant does not deny that there was an agreement between himself and Lewis prior to some day in June, 1908. But he says that this had expired and he refuses to give any confirmation of the terms of the agreement. His motion was refused as it is on this that the plaintiff relies. The defendant will, therefore, attend again in a few days, and the costs of this motion will be to the plaintiff in any event.

Medal Furniture Co. v. Taylor—Anderson (Beatty, B. & Co.), for plaintiff, moved on consent for an order dismissing action without costs and vacating his pendens and mechanic's lien. Order made.

Magge, J., in his original verdict, ordered a release of a release from the judgment for $120. MacMahon, J., held that the release was invalid, and under religious advice, without competent legal advice. J. M. Godfrey and N. Y. Thiel, for plaintiff, opposed appeal. The court dismissed the appeal, and the motion for a new trial, and reserved judgment as to the appeal from the finding upon the issue, and as to the costs of both appeals.

Great Interest Shown in the Pure Food Show

This is the fourth day of the Pure Food Show, and the attendance is increasing each day. Many branches of food demonstrations may be witnessed and a complete round of the food show is an education on the nutritive qualities of ingredients, the methods of cooking and the proper handling of numerous everyday food stuffs, various talks embracing the essential elements of a course in domestic science. One of the most popular exhibits is the Fummerman demonstration of cooked meats. This is a most reliable high-grade brand, though new to Toronto, and is being introduced under most auspicious circumstances. Judging from interest taken in it and the orders received, it promises to gain a much merited popularity.

costs, but before he did so, plaintiff had placed an execution in the hands of the sheriff. According to plaintiff's affidavit, he has also taken proceedings to set aside a voluntary conveyance of property in this city, made by the defendant to his sons, after service of the writ, and has registered a lis pendens against the property. The plaintiff now applies for a removal of the stay of execution, under Rule 82 (2), consequent upon the defendants having given security for costs. No precedent was cited to me of such an order having been made in any similar case, nor am I aware of any. I do not think the circumstances are such as would warrant such an order under the practice. Under the rule adopted in such cases as Confederation Life v. Lobatt, 25 C.L.O. 345, and Wintermute v. Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, 19 P.R. 6, I think the application must be dismissed, and with costs.

Palpitation of the Heart. One of the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or again, there may be a most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries.

Mr. Sylvester Smith, Hampton, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart and tried doctor's medicines, but they only gave me temporary relief. I heard of your Heart and Nerve Pills and bought two boxes and before I had used them I was completely cured and would recommend them to all similarly affected."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BANK OFFICIAL SUSPENDED. Trouble in Berlin Over the Liquidation of Brewery. BERLIN, March 2.—(Special.)—According to persistent reports on the street, despite the refusal of those in authority to give confirmation, three members of the local banks—Merchants, Dominion and Nova Scotia—have been suspended owing to trouble which arose over the affairs of the Berlin Lion Brewery.

To-day the brewery passed into the hands of a joint stock company, and the directors will act as trustees for the creditors. The business goes ahead with C. N. Huether, late proprietor, as manager of the plant, while Geo. Davidson assumes the office of J. Zuber vice-president, and H. J. Sims secretary.

AC. A. Bogert, general manager of the Dominion Bank, said last night that he had heard a report that two other banks were interested in the affairs of the Berlin Lion Brewery, but that the Dominion Bank was not involved in any manner. Mr. Petterson, manager of the Merchants' Bank, said he was entirely unaware of any such occurrences in Berlin as reported, and that he did not believe the reports were well-founded.

CEMENT HAS GREAT FUTURE.

Dean Galbraith's Address Before the Manufacturers' Convention. "Such an exhibition as this could not have been seen 15 years ago," said Dean Galbraith of the faculty of applied sciences, at yesterday afternoon's session of the Canadian Cement and Concrete Association, which is meeting all this week at the King Edward.

Expansion in the way of the cement trade, he declared, had been marvelous in the past 20 years. There had been a slight falling off in 1928. The coming year was a matter of some uncertainty. We might not look for great increase in the building of cement factories, as those already in operation had capacities one-fourth to one-third greater than the amount turned out. We might look, however, for investigation into better methods of manufacture.

Dr. Galbraith referred to his experience of 30 years ago as a contractor's engineer on the intercolonial. Cement had not advanced much in those days, and his experiments in making concrete for piers and abutments were not very successful. Owing to the immense advance in modern practice, cement was not only used for masonry mortar and foundation work, but also for bridges, culverts, and perhaps railway ties, and He had even used it for telegraph and telephone poles of reinforced cement. We were only at the beginning.

Cement was a very peculiar substance in that its manipulation gave it a manifest advantage over cast iron. Extensive investigations were now being made into the strength and water-proof qualities. Cement had been shown to hold its own better than stone, and possibly better than brick, under fire. If the public became convinced of its superiority in this regard, there would be great increase in the use of it.

A great field, which had hardly been touched in Canada, was the building of cement houses. The two structural materials he regarded as the greatest, steel and cement. One feature of the increase in the use of cement that should be noted was that it enabled us to economize in fuel, in delivering the president's annual address, said that the home production had doubled every year since 1910. He advocated the establishment of government tests for cement.

The Dominion Government have already granted a bonus to that amount and it is expected that the provincial government will be equally liberal.

The road, when built, will obviate a long round about route and will, it is said, open up the way for a large thru traffic east and west. A preliminary meeting of the members of the deputation present in the city, held at the Walker House last night, a unanimous vote of thanks was rendered the World for its advocacy of the building of the line proposed.

PROVINCIAL ESTIMATES TOTAL SEVEN MILLIONS

Budget Speech Expected To-Morrow—Some Economies Are Noticeable in the Statement.

A comparison of previous years' estimates with those brought down in the legislature yesterday will be difficult, as only ten months are provided for in the present budget. Later on under the new fiscal arrangements the estimates for standing items for a further twelve months will be presented. Hon. Mr. Matheson in the budget speech, which he expects to deliver to-morrow, will doubtless throw light on the relative increase of otherwise unimportant items. The present estimate call for $6,942,851.50 or almost $7,000,000. The total expenditure for last year was $8,557,064. It would not be fair to add one-sixth to the total for the other two months, as the main items for the year are included in the estimates as furnished. It will probably be found that the present budget is framed on somewhat more economical lines than usually, altho the result is practically identical with that of last year.

Additional votes are chiefly for extra help. The lieutenant-governor gets an extra encephalographer "as required" at $350. The attorney-general, $433.34; the audit of criminal justice department, $666.67; the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, $458.34; the land sales and free grants offices, two at $708.34 each; colonization roads, $458.34; treasury department, two clerks at $750 each, and a messenger, $333.34; the auditors' office two clerks at $750 and $833.34; provincial secretary's office, two stenographers, $458 each; two clerks, one at $500 and one at $417; automobile constables at $1200; chief accountant, $1667; five clerks, $1000; first class clerk, $1000; second class clerks, $534, and $750; five clerks at $459 each; registrar-general's branch, special, $452; board of health, two stenographers, $458 each; two clerks, temporary, $400; King's printer, two clerks, $625 each; clerk for legislative branch, $625; land office, $708.34; live stock branch, $477.

A fourth assistant physician is provided at Hamilton Hospital for Inebriates at $750, and a dentist at Kingston at $250. Stationary engineers are to cost $1250 for chairman of board, $2004 for other members, $458 each, and $1500 for printing, postage, etc. Miscellaneous increases in the department of justice include salary of bailiff, $1000; traveling expenses for bailiff and prisoners, $5000; railway fares and clothing of discharged prisoners, $5000.

Sudbury court gets an engineer and caretaker at $800 for the ten months. Rainy River, $500 for jailers, etc., and $500 for fuel, light and clothing. Under agricultural the new items include a $1750 grant to Eastern Ontario live stock and poultry show; $1000 for meetings and investigations, and $500 for sheep; expenses for factory meetings, dairy branch, $500; gardeners and florists' association, $125; Niagara fruit growers, $150; fruit stations, $1575; entertaining American National Society, $1000. For forest reserves investment in purchase of lands, etc., $10,000 is estimated, but this is not a new vote, being transferred in the accounts.

Agricultural training in high schools will cost $2000 and $7000 is provided for teachers in training at Guelph. Repairs at the Normal School Library cost $1000.

The normal schools at Hamilton, Peterboro, Stratford and North Bay are put down for $17,000 or $18,000 each. Pictures for seven normal schools are to cost $230,000, and time systems for the same $100,000.

The Luckiest Day of My Life.

Mr. Thomas Wylie (Box 384), Galt, says: "It was the luckiest day of my life when I struck PSYCHINE, for I truly believe I shouldn't be alive now but for that."

"A neglected cold was the beginning of my trouble, and what seemed to be a simple ailment, soon developed into a serious and dangerous condition. I got so low that it was scarcely possible for me to walk around, and I lost so much flesh that I looked like a skeleton. I was just about ready to 'hand in my checks,' although I was only 20 years of age. The medicine the doctor gave me made me worse and I got disgusted and hopeless. Then I struck PSYCHINE. PSYCHINE did miracles for me. The first bottle gave me new life and courage, and in less than no time I began to put on flesh rapidly, and felt I was on the high road to recovery. My appetite returned and I 'eat like a hunter,' as the saying goes. My friends were surprised, and hardly knew me. In three months I was as strong and well as ever, and returned to work in the mill. I have not had a day's illness since. Nobody could wish for better health than I enjoy, and it is all owing to PSYCHINE. It should be in everybody's hands."

USE PSYCHINE EARLY. Tooclose PSYCHINE is used as a last resort, when doctors have failed to relieve or cure, and frequently when they have abandoned all hope. Under these unfavorable conditions, it is not abandoned, for PSYCHINE will prove an unfailing friend. It is most better and most reliable in the early stages of the illness! CHINE are used in the early stages of the illness!

USE PSYCHINE FOR COLIC, COUGHS, WEARINESS AND LOSS OF STRENGTH. PSYCHINE is the greatest of tonics for health and energy. It is the greatest of tonics for health and energy. It is the greatest of tonics for health and energy. It is the greatest of tonics for health and energy.

PSYCHINE'S FREE. Send this coupon to Dr. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, TORONTO. We will mail you a liberal sample of PSYCHINE absolutely FREE. Don't let it go to waste. Don't wait till it's too late.

STUDENT ENDS HIS LIFE. Kenneth Cameron, Aged 18, of St. Thomas Shoots Himself. Kenneth McLean Cameron, 18-year-old son of W. K. Cameron, a lawyer of St. Thomas, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head at a university fraternity house at 55 Madison-avenue, at 12.45 yesterday morning.

He has been despondent for a month or more and was suffering from mental derangement, due to worry over his studies at the School of Science. SKELETON WAS RECONSTRUCTED. Chief Coroner Johnson yesterday examined the bones of the skeleton found by the excavators for the new Stevens building in West Wellington-street. It was reconstructed by Detective W. J. Smith, and was found to be that of a small woman, probably over 50 years of age and apparently in good health at the time of her death.

There were no signs of violence. Don't Buy Things Too Cheap. Howard Leadley alias "Hub" Kennedy, 176 Marion-street, West Toronto, was arrested yesterday by Detective Cronin charged with selling 32 premium orders on John A. Lord, 358 1-2 Yonge-street, for $1. He sold one in a row in Dundas-street and went back to sell another, but she had been down to the studio.

Mary Smith, 15 Dundas-street, is in St. Michael's Hospital, severely beaten, and William Scott, 35 years, English, is in no home, is arrested, charged with robbery with violence as a result of a row in the Dundas-street house early this morning. Should the Kingston City Council repeal the compulsory vaccination act, the members of the board of health will like resign.

THE DAWN OF NEW LIFE FOR THE WEAK MAN

THE NEW TREATMENT THAT HAS TAKEN THE PLACE OF DRUGS. It is for men who open their eyes in the morning upon a world that looks bleak and discouraging, for men who feel tired, despondent and out of sorts, for men who have lost courage and ambition—those fellows who have always been in the back and don't get any more out of life than they wish that they were as strong as they ought to be.

It's all a matter of nervous energy. The reason that men or women feel that way is because the motive power of the body, electricity—has been in some way drained from them. My system is to give it back, and it would surprise you to see how a few applications will make the plication discouraged, slow going man wake up and take a new interest in life.

Any man can understand that if every organ of the body has all the strength it requires, there will be no sickness. It is the loss of this energy that causes all the chronic complaints we have, such as Rheumatism, Lumbago, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Therefore, if you are sick you must get back this strength and energy by using the Dr. Sanden Electric Herulex.

Don't make the mistake of trying to restore nerve energy with drugs and in the proper quantity. Electricity is the life of the body—this has been scientifically proven—so give it electricity. My system of curing by invigorating the body with electricity is so safe, so natural and so sure that there is no excuse for any man being less than his natural intended. It will restore your snap and energy, the old-time joyous, light-hearted spirit and the physical strength you used to have.

YOU CAN PAY WHEN CURED. If you're sceptical I'll prove it first—I'll take all the risk by letting you have the Electric Free Trial—don't be paid for until cured. TRADERS MAKE QUOTATIONS AT NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Business Light on Wall Street With Small Price Changes—Toronto Market Irregular and Dull.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, March 2. Speculative transactions at the Canadian Exchanges continue to be restricted by the narrowness of the fluctuations.

At the Toronto Exchange to-day there were no significant feature except perhaps the bidding up of Toronto Ralls, which, however, was not followed there either by speculators or investors.

The traction were the only active issues on the exchange, and even these could scarcely be inventoried in that class.

Loss of net earnings by the Rio Co. for the month of January may or may not have been a factor in the dealings in this stock, the price, however, for the shares weakened from yesterday's high.

Steel and Coal stocks were among the weakest issues. Nova Scotia Steel is still influenced by the proposed capital increase, and actual holders of the shares are liquidating on that account.

There was nothing done in Dominion Coal to-day, and bid prices were low. Dominion Steel was almost equally dull, but the pool are still giving support to their specialities.

A small amount of business was transacted in the investment stocks, but as a whole these had an inclination to sag under offerings.

Wall Street Posters. Treasury deficit during February increased $6,667,000, now standing at $86,061,000.

Some change for the better in the copper situation with more consumers' demand.

American portion of Argentine Government 5 per cent. loan largely oversubscribed.

Pennsylvania annual report published this morning, and President McCrea says passenger fares are too low.

Pennsylvania earned 8.96 per cent. net on stock last year as against 10.67 per cent. in year ended Dec. 31, 1907.

Burlington earnings this year so far slightly ahead of a year ago.

It is reported in the board that the Lackawanna Steel Company has cut wages ten per cent.

Sub-treasury lost $152,000 of the stocks yesterday, making net loss since Friday $157,000.

Mackay common and preferred declared regular quarterly dividend of 10 per cent. each on its common and preferred. Payable April 1 to holders of record March 13.

STOCKS HARDER TO SELL THAN TO BUY. Securities at the Toronto Exchange merely held their own to-day.

There was some irregularity such as is not conducive to general improvement in prices. Inside bidding up on Toronto Ralls was offset by heaviness in Nova Scotia Steel and the other eastern industries.

The traction were the only active issues to-day, but the activity did not mean much in regard to price movements. The undertone to the market, except in cases where special support was rendered, was not strong and speculative issues in many instances can be more easily bought than sold.

88 CARS AT CITY YARDS GOOD CATTLE HOLD FIRM

Medium Grades Easier - Some Left Unsold - Sheep and Lambs Firm - Hogs Higher, $6.90.

Receipts at the City Market of live stock, as reported by the railways, were 88 cars, composed of 1700 cattle, 800 hogs, 200 sheep and lambs, with 107 calves. The quality of fat cattle, generally, was far from being as good as on Monday's market; while there were a few fair, and some lots of good cattle, the bulk were of the common and medium classes.

There was one fairly good export lot of steers that had been sold at $5.30. These same cattle would have sold for $5.10 to three weeks ago. Besides this load, there were several lots, enough to make up to 1000 in all, that were bought by Montreal at $5 to $5.25, with the exception of the lot quoted above, at $5.30. Receipts for export sold $5.10 to $5.15 per cwt.

FEEDERS AND STOCKERS.

J. P. Bickell & Co., say at the close of the week, the market opened easier, but persistent buying by leading lots through entire section closed market at top figures for the crop.
