FORCES GATHER FOR GREAT LAKE BATTLE; LIEGE FORTS STILL HOLD OUT AGAINST GERMAN; NO BIG SEA FIGHT HAS BEEN REPORTED

FORCES MASSING ON THE FRONTIER FOR BATTLE OF THE GERMAN AND FRENCH

Both Sending Reinforcements; Germans Said to be Gathering Another Million Men—Austrians Invade Switzerland, a Neutral Country

Paris, Aug. 10.—War office advices today indicate a big engagement is pending between French and German troops in Lorraine, below Sarburg. Baccart reported hearing cannonading in the direction of Montigny. It is believed the French artillery is supporting an attacking column engaging Germans advancing from Sarburg.

An official war office statement today announced that French troops hold the cities of Fermy, Muthausen and Atkirch, and that the whole line in front of these cities was constantly in attack on the German frontier.

The German troops are receiving reinforcements and the French also are being strengthened. A battle began on Saturday evening, on the ridges of the Vosges mountains. Aeroplanes took part in the engagement.

The French troops after a desperate encounter obtained possession of the mountain passes of Bon Homme and Sainte Marie. Then on Sunday morning, when the fighting was resumed, they took a position dominating Sainte Marie Aux Mines. The losses sustained by the French in the taking of Sainte Marie are not specifically given in the official report, which confines itself to declaring that they were serious. The wounded French and German soldiers were taken to the French hospital of Epinal.

The German troops today were in force on the outskirts of the forest of Hards in front of Ves Brebach, which appears to be occupied in force.

The German troops invaded the valley of the Sella hoping by this means to stop the advance of the French, but the quantity of water was not sufficient and the French troops were able to continue their march.

ANOTHER MILLION. London, Aug. 10.—A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Brussels says that Germany is mobilizing another million of men, who includes those of Landstrum for the invasion of France.

AUSTRIANS VIOLATE SWISS NEUTRALITY. Paris, Aug. 10.—In violation of Switzerland's neutrality, the fourteenth Austrian army corps of 30,000 men, under command of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, arrived at Basle, Switzerland, today. They came from Tyrol to reinforce the Germans entrenched at Istria.

Governor and Bish Hostages. Amsterdam, via London, 12.35, Aug. 9.—Both the Governor of the province of Liege and the Bishop of Liege are held as hostages by the Germans who say they will be put to death if the Belgians continue their fighting. The Germans were firing at the inhabitants when they left Liege. The inhabitants were firing at the Germans from windows. All who were caught after doing this were instantly shot.

German Movements. Brussels, Aug. 10.—(Via London 1 a. m.)—It is confirmed that the Germans ceased their forward movement along the River Ourth, which joins the Meuse a mile above Liege, and a movement of Liege is expected.

The Gazette states that a secret German arms depot, plentifully supplied, has been discovered in Brussels.

Brussels, Aug. 10.—(Via London 10.25 a. m.)—The Germans are proceeding into the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, ten miles southwest of Luxembourg, where they have cut down trees and dug trenches. They have raised the village of Merl.

Wooden platforms, four hundred yards long, for the unloading of horses and guns, have been constructed.

Austrians Advance. Rome, Aug. 10.—(Via Paris 5.35 a. m.)—Eight Austrian regiments are reported to have crossed Lake Anostance en route for Alsace.

German Women Suicide. Paris, Aug. 10.—(5.30 a. m.)—In the capture of Muthausen, the French seized a great aeroplane factory operated by a noted German manufacturer. It is announced that the list of German suicides in France has been increased by the death of several women, who became despondent because they were under the necessity of leaving the country.

Fighting on the Frontier. Paris, Aug. 10.—A statement issued by the war department at a late hour last night, says that numerous skirmishes are taking place along the entire front of the French army. One clash with the Germans was violent and the losses on both sides were serious.

London, Aug. 10.—(4.10 a. m.)—The Brussels correspondent of the Daily Mail says that he has confirmed the reports of French success at Marheben in Belgium. Luxembourg, on the railway line between Ostend and Basle. He says it is reported that the French are pursuing the Germans who are retreating.

FIGHTING AT LIEGE

Town Itself Invested By Germans But Forts Still Hold Out—Stories of the Siege

Brussels, Aug. 10.—Liege still holds out. The town itself is invested by Germans, but the forts are still intact and the defenders masters of the situation. The Belgians dynamited the outer citadel, an ancient fort, to prevent its utilization by the Germans.

Brussels, Aug. 10.—The retirement of Belgians from the town of Liege was announced here as a "strategic move," which enabled the Belgian forces to concentrate their defence of the forts.

London, Aug. 10.—A despatch to the "Express" from Brussels, timed in that city at noon yesterday, says the Germans entered Liege on Friday night, and occupied the town, although the forts were not taken. The occupation was accomplished unopposedly. General Von Emmich having warned from Berlin against allowing his men to commit excesses. The troops, headed by cavalry, approached the town along the main eastern roads, through charred forests, passing between the forts of Pleron and Dovegnon. Belgian officers and idle gunners were assembled and watched the strange procession arriving. General Von Emmich summoned the principal citizens and imprisoned them in the city, to prevent the forts firing on the German gunners, who were entrenched in the public squares to overawe the inhabitants.

The German troops have been billeted in the schools and public but not in private houses. General Von Emmich's men also have been ordered to pay for all purchases at the stores which remain open.

Most of the inhabitants of Liege remained in their cellars during Friday night, but came out on Saturday evening, finding that General Von Emmich was not permitting excesses. The general issued a proclamation accusing civilians of firing on German troops, and threatened to destroy the town, if this were repeated.

Liege presents a strange picture today. Soldiers of opposing armies freely in the streets. Piles of bodies awaiting identification, lie under shrouds in the squares. The unidentified bodies of a twelve year old child, which lay beside that of an aged civilian. Some of the streets are filled with army cooks, preparing soup for the soldiers, many of whom are weak from hunger.

Als Fighting. London, Aug. 10.—The "Times" correspondent in Brussels reporting on the fighting at the present, connecting with both Belgians and Germans. The fighting in mid-air was desultory, but deadly.

A bus, riddled with bullets, was pursued by the Germans, who risked and lost his life in destroying it. After the destruction of this Zeppelin.

LOCAL LIST TO CLOSE TUESDAY

More Than Enough Volunteers Here Already

COLONEL WELL PLEASED

Five of Present Active Officers and Two Former Officers of Artillery Ask For Commissions—Major F. C. Magee One Who is to Go

The list of volunteers for European service will close at the local militia headquarters tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. More than sufficient names have been enrolled and will be forwarded to Ottawa after the medical examinations have been concluded. Many of those who have already volunteered have none so far home defence, but there are a large number more anxious to serve the motherland on the continent. Messages received from headquarters at Ottawa this morning said that 128 from each infantry and artillery unit would be all that would be taken from the city and rural corps of New Brunswick with officers enough to man each company.

The list of volunteers for European service will close at the local militia headquarters tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. More than sufficient names have been enrolled and will be forwarded to Ottawa after the medical examinations have been concluded. Many of those who have already volunteered have none so far home defence, but there are a large number more anxious to serve the motherland on the continent. Messages received from headquarters at Ottawa this morning said that 128 from each infantry and artillery unit would be all that would be taken from the city and rural corps of New Brunswick with officers enough to man each company.

Canada is to send a division, but as yet no announcement has been made as to how it will be composed. The regulations of the formation of army division recruited to war strength call for a total of nearly 25,000 men with more than 4,000 horses. It is composed of three infantry brigades totalling 11,968 men, units of field battery totalling 2,388 men with 60 officers, one field artillery (Howitzer) brigade, 22 officers and 8 field ambulances totalling 40 officers and 228 men, a divisional train of 800 men, a divisional ammunition train of 192 men, a signal company of 187 men, a mounted infantry unit of 18 officers and 807 men, and other factors, bringing up the establishment to the total of 25,000 men. The local corps are to have their full quota in this division, and even if a third contingent are needed, plenty of willing volunteers will be found here.

Army Service Corps. So far as the local Army Service Corps under command of Lieut. Colonel A. E. Macdonald, and his staff, are concerned, they have received from Ottawa that to mobilize, and be in readiness. The men have expressed a willingness to act as order demand. The local corps are regarded as the crack service unit of Canada, and while nothing definite is known as yet, as to what will be required, would be well fitted for whatever is desired of them. The contract let for the supply of the men now under arms in the city have been as follows: A. C. Smith & Co. forage; J. & W. Shaw, bread; Messrs. O'Neil, meat; and C. S. Philips, groceries.

Colonel Armstrong Pleaded. Lieut. Colonel B. R. Armstrong, when seen by the "Times" today, said that the number to go from the 8th Regiment would be limited to 128. The non-commissioned officers who are volunteering are practically all the best in the corps, headed by Regimental Sergeant Major Slade. Most of the men who are volunteering are at present on the service rolls of one or other of the three batteries, but some few are time expired men who have served from three to fifteen years in the corps. Among the men are many who have already seen active service in the regiment and the medical officer will be at the armory this evening and from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock p. m. tomorrow take the names and particulars and examine any others who have not yet signified their wish to go on the European (Continued on page 2, second column).

EXPECT JAPS SOON TO BE ACTIVELY IN THE FIGHTING

London, Aug. 10.—(4.10 a. m.)—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Tokio says:—An all night cabinet conference and activity in the navy department has strengthened the popular belief that Japan is about to take an active part in the war. A pronouncement by the government is hourly expected.

AUSTRIAN FLEET PUTS OUT TO AID TWO GERMAN CRUISERS IN TROUBLE

Rome, Aug. 10.—(Via Paris 5.30 a. m.)—An Austrian fleet of thirteen battleships and sixteen torpedo boats, is said to be going at full steam toward the Strait of Otranto, which connects the Adriatic with the Ionian Sea. The probable purpose of the fleet is to give succor to the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, which have been reported in that vicinity.

Tokio, Aug. 10.—(9.25 a. m.)—The German fleet at Tang Tau, has already seized the Russian steamer Riazan, carrying British subjects, has driven 100 merchantmen to the refuge of Japanese ports, and has embarrassed the entire Japanese shipping in the Orient.

Another Liner Sunk by Mine. Christiania, Aug. 10.—The liner Tiala, plying between Norwegian and Australian ports, struck a mine near the Dutch coast yesterday and sank. All but six members of the crew were saved.

Rome, Aug. 9.—(Via London, 2.35 p. m.)—The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, which recently were forced to leave Messina, Sicily, are reported to have succeeded in passing through the Straits of Otranto into the Adriatic Sea.

Dodged the Essex. Boston, Aug. 10.—Heavy fog banks on the North Atlantic saved the German steamer Wittekind, with 923 passengers and a million dollar cargo of lead and coal tar, products from capture as a prize of war by the British cruiser Essex, according to the story told by Captain Sembli, when the steamer anchored in the lower harbor last night.

Captain Sembli said he was off Sable Island, bound from Hamburg for Montreal, when he was warned by wireless of war between England and Germany. Later his operator picked up a code message from the cruiser Essex, which he judged came from a point ten miles away.

The steamer's engines were immediately stopped and the liner drove through the protecting fog, which did not lift until she got into neutral waters. Commander Langford of the Canadian immigration office, boarded the Wittekind and said the passengers would be sent direct to Montreal by train today.

France and Austria. Paris, Aug. 10.—(3.35 a. m.)—The Austrian ambassador is awaiting the response of his government to the complaint made by France that Austrian troops were being sent to the French frontier.

Many Officers Fall. London, Aug. 10.—During the fierce fighting of the last few days, says a despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Brussels, a larger number of officers, as compared with privates, were disabled. The Belgian government has decided that the expulsion of the Germans, although the country is infested with spies and German agents, will be a great success. The plan of the military authorities.

ROUGH TIME FOR GERMANS IN BELGIUM. Berlin, Aug. 10.—(Via London, 7 a. m.)—The Brussels representative of the official news agency here, telegraphed from Goeth that martial law was declared in Belgium on Saturday, and that all Germans have been ordered to leave the country as soon as possible.

The correspondent says what happened in Belgium during the last few days surpasses the imagination. After war was declared, mobs demolished all business places which still belonged to Germans or handled German goods. Every scutcheon bearing allusion to Germany was removed and anyone looking like a German was attacked in the streets or made the object of suspicion of espionage.

The most improbable anti-German reports were spread, the correspondent says, one of which was that German soldiers had tried to murder General Lemah, the Governor of Liege. Thousands of Germans have left Belgium since Thursday, for Holland. They were chivalrously protected by Belgian officers and civic guards, who at last on Friday, together with the municipal authorities undertook to put a stop to the mania for espionage.

Finland. Liverpool, Aug. 10.—The directors of the cotton association decided today that as the financial position has improved cotton may be sold with the usual ten days allowed for payment, but if any further increase with an earlier payment be must provide a bank guarantee for the new business.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Plans are expected to be made at a conference here today by representatives of the New York Produce Exchange and western grain exchanges for facilitating grain shipments from this country to Europe.

Cecile Treasure Safe. New York, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Guarded by forty express messengers and detectives $10,600,000 in gold coin and 8,000,000 in silver bars, the treasure with which the steamer Kow Prinsessin Cecile put into Bar Harbor, Maine, to avoid capture, by English or French warships, arrived in New York today by train. The money now goes to the subtreasury to be held for New York bankers by whom it was to have been sent to Paris and London.

The Coal Trade. New York, N. Y., Aug. 10.—The war has caused unprecedented conditions in the American export trade, according to the Black Diamond, the official organ of the coal interests.

The result, the paper says, will be that the trend of coal trade affairs, outwardly, at least, will be determined by the buyers rather than by the producers. Inquiries are received from South America for enough coal to tide over the period of the war.

Today's War Summary

Official reports from France give no definite details of the strength of the French turning movement in Alsace near the Swiss frontier, where General Joffre is believed to be in command. Austrian troops have been hurriedly brought up there to the aid of the Germans, and an important battle is believed to be imminent.

Indications are given that another forward movement of the main French force is in preparation near Metz, as official reports from Paris say the German army had invaded the Sella Valley between Metz and Nancy to hinder the French advance, but the quantity of water is understood not to be sufficient to prevent the French forward movement.

Aside from the flanking movement through Belgium, by which the French assumed the German army was trying to get the rear of the strong German fortresses on the frontier, indications are today that a strong German advance is to be made on France by way of Luxembourg. A German reconnoitering patrol penetrated forty-six miles into French territory.

The London Daily Telegraph's Brussels correspondent says that Germany is mobilizing 1,000,000 of the Landstrum or final reserve. Numerous skirmishes are recorded along the Franco-German frontier, none very serious.

German troops are in occupation of the town of Liege, but not of the surrounding forts, which were still holding out today, according to Belgian reports. Roundings forts, which were still holding out today, according to Belgian reports.

Brussels reports the German cavalry retreating before the French advance. The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, have evaded their British and French pursuers, and have arrived in the Adriatic. An Austrian fleet was reported proceeding from Pola to succor them.

Paris reports the Austrian troops to have fallen back before the Serbians on the Bosnian frontier. Montenegrin artillery bombarded the Austrian fortifications at Cattaro yesterday.

Austrian cruisers bombarded Antivari, Montenegro. A small group of German soldiers who sought refuge on Dutch territory, are to be detained at Alkmaar, Holland, till the end of the war.

KRONPRINZ WILHELM REPORTED CAPTURED BY CRUISER ESSEX

New York, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Customs inspectors, who boarded the British tank steamer Narragansett in today from Rotterdam, were informed by a sailor that the North German Lloyd liner Kronprinz Wilhelm had been captured by the British cruiser Essex and that the Essex was taking her to Hamilton, Bermuda. The sailor said a wireless message last Saturday from the Essex to the station in Bermuda, intercepted by the Narragansett, told of her capture. The North German Lloyd line disbelieves this story. The Kronprinz

NO BIG FIGHT ON AT PRESENT

Await The French and Belgian Forces to Take Offensive

Brussels, Aug. 10.—No big engagement between the allied armies and the German troops is expected to occur on Belgian soil, until the French and Belgian combined forces take the offensive.

It is asserted here that after 200 German soldiers, occupying a farm at Solron, near Pepinster, in the province of Liege, had been fired on by three workmen, the village was given over to pillage by the German troops, and the three workmen were taken out and shot by a firing squad.

Brussels, Aug. 10.—(6.15 a. m.)—Reports reached here from many directions today telling of the retreat of German cavalry before large French forces, who are said already to have cleared considerable territory. The locality of the fighting is not revealed.

Fall Of Liege Was Early Morning Report British, French and Belgian Troops Form Junction—German Submarines Fail in Attack on English Fleet—French Beat Germans on Land

The occupation of Liege by the Germans is confirmed in a despatch received from Brussels early this (Monday) morning. A junction of Belgian, British and French troops in Belgium is reported to have been effected and a dash between German and French cavalry south of Namur is said to have taken place. Athens despatches say large Turkish forces are being concentrated on Bulgarian territory by agreement with Bulgaria. Emperor William is reported to have left for the Alsatian frontier to join the German general staff. The British admiralty announces that German submarines attacked a British cruiser squadron but that the British ships escaped undamaged, while one German submarine was sunk. France has requested the Austrian ambassador to explain Austria's intentions in an alleged movement of Austrians across Germany to the French frontier. Cholera is said to have broken out among the Austrian and Serbian troops. The submarine sunk by the British fleet was the U 15, which was built in 1912 and displaced 300 tons. She carried a crew of twelve men. A cablegram from Peking says serious "conversations" are proceeding between the Tokio and London governments concerning whether Japan will participate in an attack on the German colony of Tsing-Tau. The French and Belgian governments have ordered that the resources of the two countries are the common property of France and Belgium. It is reported from Paris that the Germans in Belgium are short of provisions. Rome, Aug. 9.—Germany and Austria threaten Italy with the declaration that if the latter persists in its stand of neutrality they will consider themselves free to declare war, and Austria will invade Lombardy. London, Aug. 9, 10.55 p.m.—A Brussels despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that Prince George of Prussia, a nephew of Emperor William, is among the German prisoners who have arrived at Bruges. Paris, Aug. 9.—(via London)—An official report of the capture by the French of the village of Altkirk, in Alsace, says that the French advance guard arrived before the place before nightfall Friday. The town was defended by strong earthworks, and occupied by a German brigade. The French, in about equal number, carried the breastworks in a fierce bayonet charge. The Germans, broke abandoning the trenches, and the town. A regiment of French dragons pursued the retreating Germans in the direction of Wallheim and Tugolschen, inflicting further great losses. At dawn the advance guard resumed its march. The cavalry failed to find German patrols, and the march of the entire brigade on Muelhausen was begun. Saturday afternoon the scouts found that numerous and important defences protecting the city had been abandoned, and in less than half an hour the French occupied Muelhausen. Later it was learned that the Germans had retired in the direction of Neubrueck. Detailed orders were issued today by both the French and Belgian governments, making the industrial resources of the two combined countries common property while the arms factories in France and Belgium are working in co-operation in supplying military material. Coal and grain are to be utilized in common by the two countries, and there is to be a complete co-ordination of military resources. The governor-general of West Africa telegraphed to the colonial office today, stating that the French forces there, in co-operation with an English warship, have occupied the German colony of Togoland. At the same time the British warship appeared off Fort Lome, the French garrison in Dahomey, crossed the frontier and occupied the eastern part of the German colony.

The five British ships that will make up the fleet are the Essex, Berwick, Lancaster, Bristol, and Suffolk. The German cruisers are the Karlsruhe, Dresden and Strassburg.

BENCHES IN SQUARE

Commissioner Potts has placed two benches in King Square facing the head of King street. He said today that they were not supposed to be used for any purpose but for the convenience of women and children who were required to wait for street cars, often for several minutes, owing to the repair work going on.

GERMAN CRUISER OFF 'FRISCO

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The German cruiser Leipzig is reported, by unofficial sources, to be lying some distance off the Golden Gate for the purpose of conveying within safe distance of this port a number of German oil tankers, and of intercepting British coal carriers, presumably to replenish her supply of coal, which is said to be depleted. Residents of San Mateo, a suburb of this city, reported at 11.15 a.m., detonations resembling cannonading off the coast. San Mateo is seven miles inland.

WHERE COURTESY PAID

Madrid, Aug. 8.—On one of his recent visits to Biarritz King Alfonso had to use one of the ordinary railroad station cabs. Arriving at his destination, the king asked the amount due. "Oh, I recognize you well," said the driver. "For the King of Spain it will be ten francs (20)." His Majesty smiled, glanced at the meter on the vehicle, and handed the driver the sum indicated thereby, plus an ordinary tip. Some days after Alfonso returned to Biarritz he consulted his physician. This time he also made use of a cab, but with a different result. When the driver saw that the bill was the driver replied: "Your Majesty owes me nothing for this small service which I have had the honor to render him," whereupon the king handed him a new 100 franc (200) bill.

THE MONOCLE IN WAR

London, Aug. 10.—Jack Heaton Armstrong, an aristocratic young Englishman has just returned from Albania with a story of the awe in which his monocle was held by the unsophisticated soldiers, while he was in command of a field gun used against the rebels. Armstrong, who is a brother of the Jersey Marine Biologist, writes that out from Alessio with Chief Frank for the relief of the prince, then besieged in his capital. Prins had 2000 men and a field gun. Armstrong commanded the gun. No matter how hot the fire, the soldiers never desisted the aim, and was aimed and fired by the monocled Englishman. As they had never seen a monocle before, the thought of essential to aiming, or a wind of range finder Armstrong did not dispel their illusion.

PRENTICE BOYS REMEMBER DEAD

More than 200 members of 'Prentice Boys Lodges Nos. 30 and 40 yesterday afternoon took part in the annual decoration day proceedings, placing flowers upon the graves of departed members in Cedar Hill, Fernhill and Lorneville cemeteries. Headed by the Carleton Cornet Band, they marched in procession from the hall of No. 29 lodge in Gulfport street, to Cedar Hill where the chaplains of the lodges, R. McKel and R. McLeod conducted service according to the ritual. The graves of former members, buried there were decorated with flowers, and members also went to Lorneville and Fernhill, where they placed flowers upon the last resting places of members buried there.

THE END OF THE LOBSTER

London, Aug. 10.—Boiling over a slow fire is the happiest death a lobster can meet, so it has been determined at the Jersey Marine Biologist's Station. The experiments were carried out by Joseph Sinec, a well-known biologist, for the purpose of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, whose members associated the prevalent method of killing lobsters with medieval torture. Lobsters, says Mr. Sinec, are extremely difficult to kill. Piercing the brain does not seem to be the best method, but temporary annoyance, since his brain is a mere nerve ganglion the size of a lens. He has to be killed all over. To throw him into boiling water fails to do the work, either mercifully or quickly, since he struggles violently to escape for about two minutes. The pleasant way to end a lobster's life, Mr. Sinec finds, is the old-fashioned way of placing him in cold water and bringing him to a boil. As the water warms, he becomes merely lazy and rolls over for a sleep. By the time the water reaches the comparatively mild temperature of 70 degrees, Fahrenheit, he becomes comatose. At 80 degrees he is dead. To use a human illustration, the biologist says it is like a person succumbing to a heat wave, with a loss of consciousness and a painless end.

RECENT DEATHS

The sincere sympathy of many friends will go out to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cross in the loss of their little six year old daughter, Ruth Carter Cross. She was taken a few days ago with diphtheria. The little girl had been a bright, healthy and her loss is a severe blow to her parents and one brother, who are three sisters in the family. The circumstances of the death are particularly saddened by the fact that Mr. Cross is in England and will likely be delayed in his home-coming by the cancellation of sailings. The child was buried yesterday with services conducted by Rev. F. S. Porter.

The delegates will come from all over New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland.

The principal matter to be taken up at the grand lodge meeting is the establishment of a tuberculosis home and the adoption of measures in the fight against the white plague.

Dismantle Private Wireless. Lieut-Col. Armstrong this morning received instructions to take necessary measures to see that all private wireless stations were dismantled immediately. He said it would save a great deal of trouble on the part of owners of wireless outfits, if they would attend to this matter and report their action to his office as soon as the dismantling had been completed.

WAR NOTES

Germany, by a blanket refusal to carry mails in transit to other countries, has temporarily shut off postal facilities to its war ally, Austria Hungary. Ex-Queen Eugenie of France today sent to Queen Mother Alexandra a subscription of $1,000 for Red Cross work. An I. C. The French army are proving themselves invaluable for scouting purposes, locating the German forces. LOCAL PASTORS ON THE WAR SITUATION
In a powerful sermon in the first Presbyterian church, West Side, Rev. W. C. Kierstead, P.D., of Fredericton, told of the cause of the war and summing up declared that war was wrong, the present conflict proving that the whole of our present day civilization was not Christian but that at times war appeared necessary when one nation seemed determined to appeal to brute force. He spoke in commendation of the deliberation and the calm judgment shown by Great Britain's public men before entering upon the war.
Rev. R. J. Haughton.
"A just cause and God" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Rev. R. J. Haughton to a large congregation at the Congregational church last evening. His words on the present crisis in the history of civilization and of the British race especially were of hope and of encouragement. There was in the sermon a feeling that the loss of honor and uprightness in nations and individuals is more to be feared than the greatest war.
Rev. H. E. Thomas.
In the Carleton Methodist church last evening, Rev. H. E. Thomas referred to the war in a sermon based on Revelation xix-6: "Hallelujah, the Lord God Omnipotent Reigneth." It was possible for the Christian man of faith to sing this song of faith in the sovereignty of God in the face of all the strife and carnage of the present hour, he said. The grounds for this faith in God's reign were found first in the law and order in the world and in illustrations from human life.
Rev. F. P. Dennison.

CANADIAN CANDIDATES AT NEXT GENERAL BRITISH ELECTIONS
(Times Special Correspondence.)
London, July 28—It is generally expected that the next general election will bring more Canadian candidates for parliamentary honors at Westminster into the field. Nowadays there are so many wealthy men from the dominions who are living here permanently that it would be surprising if they did not invade the political field.
Discussing this question the other night a member expressed the opinion that there would naturally be an increasing tendency in that direction. The recent session had illustrated how many questions had a "Canadian" side. Interdependent already to a certain extent, the policies of Great Britain and the dominions might be expected to become more so in the future; and recent events had shown how necessary it was that representative Canadian opinion should be adequately expressed at Westminster. Canadian and Australian members would add greatly to the legislative strength of the house, quicken imperial interest on this side and was particularly advisable in view of the fact that the development of those dominions would materially increase their power in the administration of the empire.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY
The Plight of the Dowager Empress of Russia on the Outbreak of the War—Two Ambassadors
(Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood Company.)
While the present war has long been regarded as inevitable, the startlingly sudden nature of its outbreak has been demonstrated among other things by the fact that it caught the Dowager Empress of Russia away from home, staying with her sister, Queen Alexandra in England. With as little delay as possible she left for St. Petersburg, traveling by special boat from Dover to Calais, and thence by special train.
Before the train had traversed more than half of Germany, the crisis had progressed so far that railroad communication between Russia and Germany had been broken off. The Kaiser accordingly caused the widowed Czarina's special train to be stopped and gave orders that she should be informed that it could not be permitted to proceed to the Russian frontier, but that she was at liberty to return to England by the way she had come, or else to withdraw to her native land of Denmark.
"But she should have found herself in the power of the Kaiser on the outbreak of a war between Russia and Germany, in the very striking uniform of a captain of Prussian dragoons. Making his way across the Place de Invalides, he was quickly surrounded by a hostile crowd of hoodlums, yelling, "Down with the Prussian! Death to the Prussian! Let us throw him into the river!" At the same time hooding and hissing him.
Von Schöen was quite alone, having become separated from his friends. He never turned a hair, sauntered along without hastening his steps in the slightest degree, but carried himself in a manner that prevented anyone from actually jostling him. In fact, it was his cool and courageous bearing that saved him from an actual injury, until he reached the portals of the German embassy, where fortunately a large body of police were assembled.
Had Baron von Schöen been subjected on that occasion to any harm, it would undoubtedly have precipitated France into the war that has now been inaugurated. But the mob was deterred from subjecting him to any physical injury by his gallant bearing, and by his cool indifference to danger.
MARQUESE DE FONTENOY.

GERMANY'S MADNESS
(Montreal Gazette).
It really would appear that the Emperor William and his advisers have lost their heads in contemplating the majesty of their war machine. They have chosen to turn it at once against the two strongest armies (aside from their own) in Europe and the strongest navy in the world. Their ocean commerce will be at once paralyzed. Indeed, some of their best merchant vessels are already tied up in neutral ports. Their armies will have to fight on both the eastern and western borders. Their means of land communication with the rest of the world will be practically cut off. The surprises of war have been many; none of them warrant men whose reason is untouched in thinking that there can be any but one result of a contest under such circumstances. It is only to be hoped that the result will not be long delayed. The war while it lasts is likely to be terrible beyond anything yet known. The armies will be the largest ever engaged, and the fleets the strongest and most destructive in their powers. If the slaughter is proportionate to the armaments the world will stand aghast when the summing up comes to be made.
HON. W. J. HANNA RESTING.
(Times Special Correspondence.)
London, July 28—Among the interesting Canadian visitors here this week is Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary in the Ontario cabinet, who with Mrs. Hanna came over on the Imperator. Mr. Hanna is here to rest after the activities incident to the general election in Ontario and he is staying with friends in Surrey.
Wm. Tukey was taken to the hospital on Saturday night, after having been injured in a fall from the steps of Haley Bros' factory in Broad street.

GERMANY'S MADNESS
(Montreal Gazette).
It really would appear that the Emperor William and his advisers have lost their heads in contemplating the majesty of their war machine. They have chosen to turn it at once against the two strongest armies (aside from their own) in Europe and the strongest navy in the world. Their ocean commerce will be at once paralyzed. Indeed, some of their best merchant vessels are already tied up in neutral ports. Their armies will have to fight on both the eastern and western borders. Their means of land communication with the rest of the world will be practically cut off. The surprises of war have been many; none of them warrant men whose reason is untouched in thinking that there can be any but one result of a contest under such circumstances. It is only to be hoped that the result will not be long delayed. The war while it lasts is likely to be terrible beyond anything yet known. The armies will be the largest ever engaged, and the fleets the strongest and most destructive in their powers. If the slaughter is proportionate to the armaments the world will stand aghast when the summing up comes to be made.

THE WAR NEWS

Keen disappointment was felt when news came that the German army had occupied Liege, which had been so gallantly defended by the Belgians. It does not appear, however, that the forts at Liege have been captured, and if it be true that there has been a junction of Belgian, British and French troops in Belgium the occupation of the city will not prove of very great importance to the Germans. They have at least been held in check during previous days in which they had hoped to press on through Belgium to the French front.

would be able to give the Austrians a deal of hard fighting. The news that comes from Tokio indicates that the Japanese are growing restive, and it would not be surprising if the Japanese fleet were ordered to take a hand in the struggle in eastern waters. The German war lord finds himself practically without a friend. It is certain that in a large section of Austria itself the people have no heart in a war which lines them up against the Serbians, who sprang from the same racial stock as themselves.

The world still waits for news from the North Sea. Apparently the German fleet is not eager to try conclusions with the English. We hear of an attack by German submarines on a British cruiser squadron, and of the sinking of one of the attacking vessels, while the British cruisers escaped without damage. British cruisers continue to capture German merchant vessels, but we are still without news of the whereabouts of the great fleets which it had been thought would have engaged in battle during the last week. If the Kaiser decides to play a waiting game so far as his fleet is concerned, the British Admiralty will at all events see to it that his ships do not interfere with the navigation of the channel, and will be able at the same time to keep up an effective blockade of German ports, so far as the commerce of that country is concerned.

In the meantime the combined armies of France, Belgium, Britain and Russia will draw the cordon around Germany, and it is only a question of time when the Kaiser will be compelled to sue for peace. Before that time comes, however, there must inevitably be an awful sacrifice of life on both sides, and such a sacrifice and destruction as Europe has not seen since the Napoleonic wars.

In an extraordinary proclamation Emperor William describes Germany as the victim of international jealousies and the subject of "latent hostility on the east and on the west and beyond the sea." The phrase "beyond the sea," is interpreted by some as a reference to the United States. In the same proclamation he says the enemies of Germany will not suffer her to maintain fidelity to Austria, "with whose humiliation our power and honor would be equally lost." This remark does not come with a very good grace from the representative of a nation which in 1896 defeated Austria, supplanted it in its leadership of the Germanic states, and finally kicked it out of the German confederation. The truth is that Germany now supports Austria because Austria appears to be willing to play Germany's game.

Today's news says that French forces have gained some advantage in Luxembourg, near the Belgian border. It will be remembered that the Germans violated the neutrality of Luxembourg in the hope of gaining an entry into France by that route before the French were in a position to defend their borders. In Luxembourg, as well as in Belgium, therefore, the Germans have been checked.

Today's cables also tell of the advance of a French army toward Sarburg, which is across the German border in Alsace, and several towns in Alsace are now occupied by French forces, while the Germans are hurrying up reinforcements. Emperor William himself has set out for the Alsatian frontier. So far as the invasion of France is concerned the German plans thus far have completely miscarried.

An interesting development is the reported advance of an Austrian army into Switzerland to aid the Germans against France. Apparently Austria has a little regard for the laws of neutrality as Germany. The Austrians, however, are still unable to gain any successes against the Serbians, who will evidently play an important part in the war so far as Austria is concerned, and who are now reported to have invaded Bosnia.

The action to be taken by Italy is the subject of universal interest. Italy was offered Algeria and the Belgian Congo as the price of an alliance with Germany and Austria, but she has refused. If it be true that they have sent Italy an ultimatum, the next few days may see that country also lined up against the German-Austrian alliance. If this should happen the Italian fleet would patrol the Adriatic, while her army is announced that Germany will mobilize another million soldiers. If she is as willing to sacrifice them in every battle as she seems to have been in the attack on Liege more than another million will be needed.

Even if it be true that Germany has been laying in enormous supplies of food in preparation for this war it cannot be long until the problem of feeding her armies becomes a very serious one. She has no colonies from which she can receive fresh supplies.

French and English in Canada were never drawn into such close and hearty sympathy as at the present time. The province of Quebec stands ready to send a large contingent to the European battlefield, and there is no dissenting voice.

Where Shall I Invest My Money? This is a question that often bothers us when we have any surplus money. Some people are born rich and do not have to provide for independence, others are looking for investments that will bring them in good dividends. The Silver Black Fox Industry in P. E. Island has made thousands of investors wealthy. In 1913 alone, 30 companies paid to their shareholders an average cash dividend of 105 p. c. Is there any other industry that would do this? 1914 dividends will be even greater than before. Now is the time to invest. Send in your application today to the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd. Head Office—Charlottetown, P. E. Island

Foxes Capitalized at $17,000 PER ANNUM This capitalization included all expenses for the first year up to September 1, 1914. In other words, the breeding stock will be ranches, cared for, fed and all expenses paid for the first year without any cost whatever to the shareholders. Instead of paying the 10 per cent to $1.5 per cent, increase charge paid to most ranches this money will go directly into the pocket of the investor.

The History of The Industry If you inquire, you will find that the majority of rich men in P. E. Island have made their money in the Fox industry, which, while yet in its infancy, shows the probability of making a great many more rich men. This being the case, you should not let this opportunity of increasing the earning powers of your money pass without giving it your careful consideration.

Directors ARE Reliable Men This is a most important feature when you consider that these are the men that you must look to for a square deal. Read the list over carefully and you will certainly conclude that an investment here is as safe with better prospects than money in the bank. This Company has only a limited amount of stock for sale. Secure yours today. This is a gilt-edge proposition.

Wm. Moran, Secretary-Treasurer St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Company, Ltd. I hereby make application for shares of the capital stock of the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co., Ltd. (Char. being 20 per cent of total amount and agree to pay the balance on or before the first of August, 1914.)

Mauretania to Prey On Enemy's Commerce

(Halifax Chronicle) When next the Mauretania sails from Liverpool she will be a greatly changed ship. Her lofty black sides and white superstructure and towering scarlet funnels will be painted a slate gray. Along her lower deck she will mount a battery of ten six inch quick-firers, forward and aft she will carry a pair of four point searchlights and with the white ensign flying from her main gaff she will face forth into the Atlantic as H. M. S. Mauretania, to destroy hostile commerce. She will be the most formidable kind of a foe to German and Austrian shipping. There is not another merchant ship afloat that she cannot overhaul and only four German battle cruisers, necessarily engaged in the North Sea, are the sole war ships that she cannot show a clean pair of heels to. Commerce destruction was the ultimate purpose for which the Mauretania was constructed. She was practically built for the admiralty, the money for her construction having been loaned to the Cunards by the British government at the rate of two and one-half per cent, and many features of warship construction up to then not introduced in merchant ships were embodied in her hull. She and her sister ship, the Lusitania, were the first merchant vessels built with longitudinal bulkheads in which her coal is carried, instead of in the usual athwartship bunkers. Provision for magazines was made. Armored gun positions were built into her hull with ammunition hoists to be electrically operated running to the magazines. Her guns are in store in Liverpool. All that will be necessary to fit her out will be to rip up sections of the deck, where even the holding down bolts for the gun mountings are now equipped, and in a few days she will be ready for action. The only change in her personnel will be to send a portion of her stewards and the purser's force ashore. Every officer and the greater part of her crew are naval reserve men, shipped with the special special view of rapidly turning her into a warship, in an emergency such as the present.

Niobe Could be Effective Were H. M. C. S. Niobe equipped and at sea now she would be of inestimable value to British commerce in the opinion of Lieut. W. H. Hatcher, chief officer of the Mauretania. Standing on the lofty bridge of the Cunarder yesterday afternoon, Lieutenant Hatcher looked longingly to the dockyard where the side Niobe lay tied up and quietly said: "That fellow ought to be at sea." "But she is too slow to overhaul any of the German cruisers reported on this coast," objected a Morning Chronicle reporter. "The Karlsruhe is credited with a speed of 26 knots and the Dresden with twenty-five. They could steam rings around the sixteen year old Niobe." "Given so," replied Lieut. Hatcher, "she would be exceedingly valuable. She could act as a rendezvous ship. Occupying a certain known position, she would be a refuge to which shipping could run from a foe, for none of the German raiders could stand up to the Niobe's battery of sixteen six-inchers."

CANADIAN PREACHER IN LONDON PULPIT

(Times Special Correspondence) London, July 28.—For the fifth year in succession, Rev. John MacNeill of Walker Road Baptist Church, Toronto, and formerly of the First Baptist Church, Winnipeg is occupying the pulpit at the City Temple while Rev. R. J. Campbell is holidaying. Mr. MacNeill's reputation as a speaker of wonderful power and eloquence was established here at the Baptist World Congress in the Albert Hall, in 1905, when, in an address of remarkable vigor, he sounded a rallying cry which is remembered and quoted by enthusiasts even today. It is no small tribute to his power that he should be repeatedly selected to take the place of Mr. Campbell in the pulpit once occupied by the famous Dr. Parker. In his exuberant, energetic oratory it is to be found a marked contrast to the quiet academic style of Mr. Campbell, and he dominates his congregation as do few preachers in London.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE WAR RISK ON GOODS IN TRANSIT

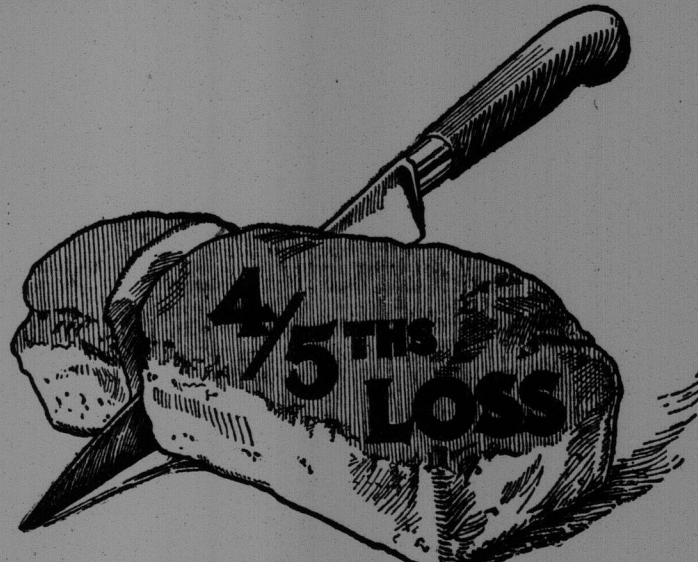

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—The government had under consideration a plan for war insurance to meet the demands of shippers who have now goods on the ocean or who are expecting shipments during the progress of the war. It is possible that some plan will be evolved whereby the government will assume the risk of loss or capture by the enemy, but no definite policy has yet been decided upon. The question was before the cabinet council on Friday, and will be again taken up this week after the matter has been considered by Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce. Present insurance rates on gold or other goods in transit across the Atlantic are tenfold greater than they were two weeks ago.

BRITISH DEMOCRACY MAY BE GIVEN CHANGE IN THE FIELD OF DIPLOMACY

London, Aug. 10.—It is asserted that unless the war casts the project aside, there is a strong possibility, of measures being taken to make British diplomacy and army officers more representative of the democracy by abolishing social tests and paying higher salaries to those in the lower grades.

The tradition which now limits appointments in the diplomatic service to young men from the nobility and aristocracy, and which requires a private income of $2,000 has lately been severely attacked by liberal newspapers and reviews, on the ground that this rule produces a corps of gilded social butterflies without ability in practical affairs.

Arthur Ponsonby, M. P., who spent more than eight years in the diplomatic service, testified before a royal commission which has been investigating the service, that at some posts, as at Copenhagen, he often had not more than half an hour of work a day, and he thought this was a common experience of men in the smaller embassies and legations.

He declared that most of the members of the diplomatic service of other countries have a better education than the English from Eton and Oxford.

"There is no profession in which a woman figures so prominently as in diplomacy," he added. "The wife of a diplomatist is an extremely important person, and under the present system with its enforced exile our young diplomatists very often marry foreigners. In a certain embassy the wives of the staff consist of two Italians, one Spaniard, one Swede and one German."

A Simple Way to Reduce Wrinkles

Remember that wrinkles and bagginess of cheek or chin are due to the muscular tissue losing its strength and shrinking. The skin is first too firm in area to fit such tissue smoothly. It wrinkles or sags, such tissue smooths out. This is done by using so effective, so quick-acting, as a stimulant and laxative, as a half pint of water, mixed with a half pint of water, which hazel, mix the two and bathe your face in the liquid. This once done tightens the skin and softens the underlying tissues—wrinkles, of course, smooth out and the lines and draws in the sagging skin. It also stimulates circulation, bringing a feeling of freshness and snugness to a tired face.
