

The Union Advocate.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

Our Country with its United Interests.

W. C. ANSLAW,
Vol. XXXII—No. 4.

Newcastle, Tuesday, October, 18, 1898.

EDITOR and PROPRIETOR

Whole No. 1616

PROFESSIONAL.
O. J. McCully, M. A., M. D.
MEMBER ROY. COL. SUBG., LONDON, G. B.
SPECIALIST.
DISEASES OF EYE, EAR & THROAT
Office: Cor. Waterman and Main Streets
Moncton, Nov. 12, 1898.

A. A. DAVIDSON,
ATTORNEY, etc.
Newcastle, N. B.

Dr. R. NICHOLSON,
NEWCASTLE, N. B.
Jan. 1-1898.

Dr. F. L. PEDOLIN
NEWCASTLE, N. B.
Pleasant Street
Jan. 1-1898. Telephone 15.

FRANK W. HARRISON,
GRADUATE M. T. ALLISON CONSERVATORY,
Teacher of Piano, Organ, Voice, and Harp.
Teaching taught on the latest and most improved methods.
Terms on application.
Office at the residence of Mr. James Russell,
Office days in Newcastle, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

DR. CATES, DENTIST.
Newcastle Office
From the 29th to 30, or 31st of every month.
Latest methods used for painless dentistry.
Newest German Local Anesthetic for extracting teeth painlessly. No dangerous cocaine methods used. The Electric Cautery used for painless filling of teeth. No danger—no pain. Up to date methods.

HOTELS.
ELLIOTT HOUSE.
OPPOSITE MASONIC HALL.
Accommodations for permanent and transient boarders at reasonable rates.
Excellent table board.
Sample rooms provided. Stables on premises.
Walter J. Elliott, Newcastle, N. B.
Jan. 1-1898.

HOTEL BRUNSWICK,
MONCTON, N. B.
GEO. McEWEN, Proprietor.

QUEEN HOTEL.
J. A. EDWARDS, Prop.
FREDERICTON, N. B.

DAMS HOUSE,
CHATHAM, N. B.
Thomas Flanagan, Proprietor.
Simple Rooms and Livery Stable in connection.
Telephone No. 11.

RIVER VIEW HOTEL,
CHATHAM, N. B.
Peter Archer, Prop.
Telephone No. 15.

GENERAL BUSINESS.
Vacuum Oil Co.
THE OIL that lubricates most. Quality not quantity counts as a lubricant.
Geo. Watt,
Warehousman, Chatham, N. B.
Boston Office 45 Purchase St.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.
Our stock of school books is complete for the re-opening of the schools. Bring your list early to Ella Layton & Co.
Aug. 29th, 1898.

Wanted at
Clark's Harness Shop
No. 1 Public Wharf, Newcastle.

Customers to purchase Double and Single Harness, hand made, sold at reasonable prices.
Horse Blankets, Saddlebags, Whips, Churns, Fuel Buckets, Horse Boots, Shawl covers and the usual stock kept in Harness shop. Repairs promptly executed.
JAMES CLARK,
Newcastle, Aug. 29th, 1898.

Sash And Door Factory
The subscriber is prepared to supply from his own factory in Newcastle, Window sashes and frames, Glazed and Unglazed, DOORS AND SHUTTERS, BUILDINGS, Cladding and Matching, etc.
H. C. Niven,
Newcastle Jan. 2, 1895.

F. O. PETERSON,
MERCHANT TAILOR.
Water Street, Chatham, N. B.
Jan. 12, 1898.

DENNIS DOYLE.
BOARD AND LIVERY STABLE
In Connection with the Waverley Hotel.
New Harness, New Horses,
Everything to satisfy the public.

WE Want Reliable Men
in every locality, local or traveling to introduce a new and valuable product. Money paid in any bank at start if desired. Write at once. WORLD MEDICAL ELECTRIC CO., London, Ont.
Mar. 8-98a.

McLeod's
to get my Spring Suit.
Our stock is a new complete, Tux, Blau, Grey and Gray Serge, Blue and Black Coats, Black Vests, fancy suiting, fancy trousers, fancy vesting.
We make them up in the latest style so that you look well dressed in one of our suits and we sell them to you at a very low price with good work.
All this in the Carter Block.
No little ink for 3c.
Lead pencils 10 cts. a dozen.
Everything in the stationery line marked at prices that will please everybody.
All books sold for cash and cash only.
5c scribbles for 3 cents.

INDIGESTION CAN BE CURED.
An open letter from a Prominent Clergyman.
MIDDLETON, N. S.
C. GATES, SON & CO.
DEAR SIR:—Please pardon my delay in answering yours of week ago. Yes, I have hesitation in recommending your INVIGORATING SYRUP.

Notice of Sale.
To the Heirs of Hiram A. Fish, late of Newcastle in the County of Northumberland, deceased, and all others whom it may concern:
TAKE NOTICE That there will be sold at Public Auction in front of the Engine House in Newcastle aforesaid on Wednesday, the twenty eighth day of December next at twelve o'clock noon.
All that piece or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in Newcastle aforesaid and bounded on the north by lands owned by the late James Fish, south by Water Street, east by property owned by the late James and west by the late James Fish and Water Street, thence south 45 feet, east 22 feet, thence north 45 feet, west 36 feet thence north 45 feet, east 22 feet, thence south 45 feet, east 22 feet to the place of beginning.
The above sale will be made under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in an indenture of Mortgage bearing date the fifteenth day of November A. D. 1890, and made between the said Hiram A. Fish of the first part and William E. Fish of the second part and was assigned to James Robinson of Millerton in the county aforesaid on the twenty fourth day of September A. D. 1891. Default having been made in the payment of the monies secured by the said Indenture of Mortgage. Terms cash.
Dated this 29th day of September A. D. 1898.
R. P. WILKINSON,
Solicitor to the Assignee.
JAMES ROBINSON,
Assignee of the Mortgage.

THE WAR
IT CAUSES NO ADVANCE IN Morrison's Prices.

Having purchased all my stock before the advance in price caused by the war, I will sell as cheap, if not cheaper than ever.
JUST RECEIVED
3 Car Loads Furniture
from the leading manufacturers.
Ten per cent. less than it can be purchased for to-day.

Comprising
Parlor Suits from $25.00 to $87.50
Bedroom " full set, 7 pieces, 13.50 to 37.50
Side Boards from 8.75 to 20.00
Extension Tables, Centre Tables, Kitchen Tables
Upholstered chairs, Rattan and Cocker Chairs.
MATTRESSES, SPRING BEDS,
CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
CURTAIN POLES,
WINDOW SHADES,
largest assortment on the Miramichi. Head-quarters for House Furnishing goods.

All my other lines in
BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, GENT'S FURNISHINGS and GENERAL DRY GOODS
D. MORRISON.

A Surprise,
To take place in the neighborhood of Thomas Russell's store.
LOOK OUT FOR IT!

The country people will benefit by it. Newcastle will see that I am alive to business. I have now on hand a magnificent stock of Groceries and Provisions consisting of flour of all grades, meal, clear mess pork, pork in rounds, Armour's extra plate beef, ham, roll bacon, English breakfast bacon, FISH—Cod fish, mackerel and large, smoked and salt herring, smoked shad, JUST RECEIVED and on hand 300 lbs. choice butter 1 and 2 lb. rolls, pure lard in tubs, candles and tins, 3 and 5 lb.
CANNED GOODS—Everything in this line of superior quality.
SOAP—F. Y. Surprise, Reliance and Trinity. Large variety of fancy toilet and perfume.
CAKES AND CRACKERS—Large variety of cakes, crackers, sodas, pilotes, etc.
SPICES—Too numerous to mention can be had at rock bottom prices.
CROCKERYWARE—Unbounded variety and assortment.
TOBACCO—Macdonald's tobacco, full assortment of cigars, pipes, etc.
A large stock of stationery.

School Opening.
When you are in want of school supplies you will get anything you need at Geo. Stables'.
He keeps a full line of school requisites.

Primer	4c
Royal Readers No. 1	8c
" " " 2	12c
" " " 3	25c
" " " 4	40c
" " " 5	50c

Book keeping blanks 25 cents a set.
No little ink for 3c.
Lead pencils 10 cts. a dozen.
Everything in the stationery line marked at prices that will please everybody.
All books sold for cash and cash only.
5c scribbles for 3 cents.

Geo. Stables.

P. J. McEvoy's
is where you can purchase everything in the Grocery and Provision line at the most satisfactory prices. Canned goods of all kinds, fancy and plain crackers, a large assortment of candies, also an excellent stock of pipes, cigars, and tobacco. The finest, largest assortment and most complete line of Crockery in Newcastle.

Come in and See for Yourself.
P. J. McEvoy
May 24, 1898.

McMurdo & Co., MERCHANT TAILORS
We make you a nice suit for $12.75, $13.25, $14.00, $15.00 and upwards.
You should see our blue Beaver cloth for overcoats, it is a beauty, $16.50. It is our regular $18.00 coat. Call and have a look at what we have before you purchase elsewhere.

WE AIM TO PLEASE.
McMURDO & Co.
Notice to the Scholars.

I am selling out my stock of school books, stationery and goods. I want to get clear of them, as I am going into another line of goods, so now is your time to get your school supplies at McAllister's. Do not forget, everything in the stationery line at cost for cash.

In groceries, fruits and confectionery, you will find it to your advantage to buy from me.
John McAllister.

General Intelligence
REPORT OF CERVENA'S OFFICERS.

THEY SAY THEY WERE TREATED INHUMANLY AND BRUTALLY WHILE SOLDIERS OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—An official document has been received in Washington from Madrid which gives the full report of the Spanish officers of Cervera's fleet regarding their treatment after falling into the hands of the Americans as prisoners of war. The following extracts are taken from the report:

"When we were taken as honorable prisoners by the Americans, after the loss of our gallant fleet, we were driven aboard an American ship, the name of which we were unable to ascertain, and the American sailors treated us as if we were the hull of the ship, without sufficient air to breathe with no accommodations to sleep, with no water to drink, and all of us were treated with the same disrespect and inconsideration. No respect was shown to those of rank, but all suffered the same fate. Instead of treating us like honorable prisoners of war, we were treated more like dogs, and finally our men were shot to death for no other apparent reason than to afford amusement to the American sailors and marines, and to give them a target practice. The charge that there was mutiny among us is entirely without foundation and absolutely false, although we would have had ample reason for so doing. Instead, we obeyed every command given us by our captors.

"The trouble was begun by a Quarter-master-sergeant, who saw a prisoner going down the upper deck, where he endeavored to find a cool place to sleep, as he was ill and suffering from fever. The American sailors and marines, seeing him, and to give them a target practice, proceeded to awaken him by placing him with the point of his sharp-edged bayonet. He lay on the deck and begged for mercy, but the attention of the guardsmen on watch, and they ran to that portion of the deck and began among themselves by increasing the pain of the poor captive and thrusting him with their bayonets. When they had concluded their sport they gave him an order to go below where the remainder of the Spanish prisoners were quartered. He ran below closely followed by the Americans on guard and being pierced by their bayonets at every step. His cries aroused the attention of his comrades, who started up to learn the cause of the trouble. When the Americans on guard saw their helpless prisoners huddled together and protesting against the outrages, this was sufficient to cause them to make threats with their bayonets upon officers, who were committing no offence whatever other than to be in the line of attacks upon their unfortunate fellow prisoners.

"There was much excitement and our prisoners implored their captors to desist from their attacks upon helpless and defenceless men. The pleas of our men were answered with blows and kicks, and the Americans, who by this time had increased in numbers, other sailors having been ordered to join in the sport. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bayonets from piercing them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, but no order was given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright. With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased firing. Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men endured everything to the last without resistance, only seeking to prevent the bay

THE UNION ADVOCATE, TUESDAY, OCTOBER, 18, 1898.

The Union Advocate

Established 1867.

Telephone 60.

NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B.

TUESDAY, Oct. 18, 1898.

Newcastle Societies.

Meeting at Follows.

NORTHAMPTON LODGE NO. 17 A. F. & M. U. in the Lodge rooms on the evening of the second Tuesday of each month at 7.30 o'clock.

NEWCASTLE DIVISION NO. 45 S. T. in the Temperance Hall every Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

COURT MIRAMICHI, No. 165 L. O. F. in their rooms, Masonic Hall, on the evening of the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7.30 o'clock.

NEWCASTLE BOARD OF TRADE, first Monday of each month in the room over M. Bannan's store.

Debut.

COURT HARRY HERBERT NO. 169 L. O. F. in Foresters' Hall, Derby, on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7.30 o'clock.

Annual School Meeting.

The annual school meeting of district No. 7, Newcastle, was held on Saturday, 8th of October. There was a small attendance.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. P. Hennessey and on motion Rev. P. G. Snow was appointed chairman.

The trustees report was then read and Mr. Hennessey moved that the following be adopted:

"We, the trustees of School District No. 7, parish of Newcastle, in making this, our annual report, would first call attention to the financial standing of the district."

Last year we started out with a debt of one thousand dollars charged to current accounts, this we are happy to say, has been paid off with the exception of $200 which our treasury expects to pay off from next week's collections.

We also have received very encouraging reports from our teaching staff and one graduate the district on the efficiency of our schools.

Since last year we have appointed two new teachers namely J. Howard Crocker B. A. a graduate of our school and the U. N. B. and Miss Harrison of Newcastle to the schools at the upper end of the town, owing to the resignation of Miss Wheeler and Miss Carter.

We have granted leave of absence to Miss Murphy and appointed to fill the vacancy thus caused, Mr. Patrick F. Morrissey who came to us highly recommended.

Last term we granted leave of absence to Miss Gjerdt and appointed Miss Helen McLeod to her position whom we believe gave great satisfaction.

We have also opened an extra department for Grades VII and VIII.

The changes we think have increased very much the efficiency of the schools, as one result of which the attendance in the High School in Grades IX, X and XI has increased from twenty-two to thirty-five and continues to grow.

The schools of this district are almost entirely without Chemical Apparatus except what has been supplied or manufactured by the teachers themselves, and it is hardly fair that the pupils of our schools should have to compete with those of the province without having had proper facilities for studying those subjects. We would therefore ask you to allow us to expend about fifty dollars for chemical apparatus for the High School.

The enrollment at present on the registers is as follows:

Grading list of last year:

Presented. Passed. Conditionally.

Miss McLeod. 23 17

Grade II. 23 20

Miss Carter. 11 14

Grade I. 14 14

Miss Harrison. 23 20

Grade III. 20 16

Miss Wheeler. 29 18

Grade IV. 24 21

Miss Dunsmuir. 35 28

Grade V. 35 28

Miss McLeod. 23 18

Grade VI. 23 18

Grade VII. 16 10

Grade VIII. 19 6

Mr. Morrison. 14 10

Grade IX. 14 10

Grade X. 5 5

Grade XI. 5 5

The estimated receipts and expenditures for the current year are:

RECEIPTS.

Government grant from county

Collection from default list

Cash on hand

Expenses.

Teachers' salaries, $2400 00

Janitors " 255 00

Fuel, 300 00

Rent, 200 00

Repairs, 150 00

Interest, 150 00

Collecting, 500 00

Debt, 600 00

$2225 15

$1993 15

We would ask the same amount of you as we last year namely $2400 to enable us to pay off the debt.

(Signed) P. HENNESSEY.

ALAN DAVISON.

F. L. PEPPER, M. D.

The Secretary's report of receipts and expenditures with the necessary vouchers were then presented, the former amounting to $4817.20, the latter to $417.14, leaving a cash balance on hand of $400.15.

The Auditor reported as follows:—I have carefully examined the Treasurer's report and accounts and find all the accounts properly vouched for and money expended for school purposes. I also find in the Secretary's hands $400.15. Signed, W. A. HICKSON.

Report adopted.

On motion Mr. Hennessey, the retiring trustee, was reappointed and took the declaration of office before the chairman.

Mr. W. A. Hickson was reappointed auditor.

Votes of thanks were extended to Mr. Hickson for the able manner in which he audited the accounts, and to Rev. P. G. Snow for presiding over the meeting.

The Secretary stated that he could not do the work for 5 per cent. and the meeting granted him a remuneration of 25 per cent.

Meeting adjourned.

The Miramichi Ladies' Auxiliary Bible Society.

The Seventy-Eighth Annual meeting of the Miramichi L. A. B. Society was held in St. James' Hall, Newcastle, on Sept. 22nd at 3 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Parker, one of the Vice Presidents, occupied the chair. The Rev. W. Aiken presided over the meeting with prayer.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and sustained. The Secretary laid on the table the official receipt for the sum of $28 sigs, the free contribution of the Miramichi Ladies' Auxiliary to the parent society. Accompanying this receipt was a letter conveying the hearty thanks of the home committee for the continued interest which the Auxiliary takes in the success of the Society.

Mrs. McCurdy, Treasurer, stated that since the closing of the account in 1897 she had received the following sums:

Nelson, 9 00

Loggville, 9 75

Douglstown, additional, 30

$19 25

This additional amount will appear in the following report was expended in the interests of the society.

The reports from the depository in Chatham were read as follows:

1898. To ALEX. MACKINSON, Dr.

Sept. 21. To cash paid for books

Discount on teacher's bible, 2 00

Discount on old bibles sold, 1 00

37, commission on sales for the year $23.05, 1 15

Cash due A. Mackinson, 6 44

Balance down to cr. of Depository, 13 42

$52 35

1899. Cr.

Sept. 21. By books in the Chatham Depository, 92 35

The following collections were received by the treasurer.

CHATHAM.

Upper District, Miss M. Cameron, $11 60

Middle " Walker, 28 70

Lower " Miss McDonald, 2 40

NEWCASTLE.

Station " Mrs. J. Russell, 7 50

Lower " Mrs. A. Ritchie, 10 00

Upper " Miss McAllister, 5 00

Middle " Miss Jean Clarke and Miss Fairman, 7 45

" Mrs. Watt, 11 10

BLACKVILLE.

Mrs. A. McDougall, 12 27

NELOON.

Mrs. Thos. Platt and Miss McLeod, 8 45

MILLERTON.

Miss Ora Barns, 9 00

Douglstown.

Both Districts, Miss Miller, 13 50

BLACK RIVER.

Middle District, Miss Robertson, 5 30

Miss Dick, 5 45

LITTLE BRANCH.

Chatham additional, 2 00

$144 02

The following resolutions were moved and adopted:

1. That a free donation of $20 sigs be sent to the parent society this year.

2. That the following office bearers be appointed:—President, Miss Stables, Mrs. Mitchell; Mrs. Mullins; Secretary, Mrs. J. Clark, Mrs. T. Crocker; Baptist Church, Newcastle—Mrs. Lounsbury, Mrs. Elliott; St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle—Mrs. A. Ritchie, St. Andrew's Church, Chatham—Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Benson; St. John's Church, Chatham—Miss Firth, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Smith.

St. Luke's Church, Chatham—Miss Tweedie, Mrs. Fisher.

4. That the above committee select and appoint Collectors for the various districts.

5. That the next annual meeting be held in Chatham in September, at the usual hour for business.

6. That a vote of thanks be given to the office bearers, collectors and the press for gratuitous advertising.

7. It was felt that the work of the Society should be known as widely as possible; and with this end in view—it was moved that the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of the report to each minister throughout the district, and ask him kindly to read it from his pulpit.

It is apparent from the above report that the work of our Auxiliary has, during the past year, been very successful. The collectors have everywhere been kindly received. It would seem that our friends are putting a more earnest and liberal hand to the work. On review of the past year we have great reason to feel encouraged. God has blessed us in the past and if our work continues to be faithfully done, we may feel assured that we will abundantly bless us in the future. We ask for increased interest in our great work. We ask for prayer on its behalf, and for that love which kindles zeal and leads to self-denial and sacrifice for others good.

The meeting closed by the members of the Auxiliary repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

JEAN AITKEN, Secretary.

The Mauns, Newcastle, Oct. 17th, 1898.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Broom Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. Price 25c.

A Hot Time at Loch Lomond—Mr. Tweedie in the Night.

There was a hot time at the Loch Lomond fair on Thursday afternoon—last brought about by politics. In the language of a neutral onlooker there was more fun than could be obtained at a circus.

Among the visitors was the Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Provincial Secretary, who has a reputation for a certain kind of oratory. Now, in the oratorical sense, Mr. Tweedie is a stranger to the people of St. John, and is but little known personally in the parish. It was not surprising, then, that he should be called upon to make a speech. The Provincial Secretary accordingly mounted the steps of the Agricultural Hall, and, facing quite a large gathering, made an address of some length. Of course, he spoke of the excellent show held by the society and of the pleasure he felt at being present, etc., etc. Then he launched into politics, stating with the Government's agricultural policy as a length and referring to the charges made about the steel bridges, which, he said, Hon. Mr. Emmerson would satisfactorily answer. The Provincial Secretary then spoke very well. Occupying a position on the steps alongside of him was Mr. Dennis Connolly, the veteran Golden Grove politician, who had met Mr. Tweedie on that day for the first time and who heartily endorsed his statements.

There was one gentleman present, however—a fellow-Conservative, too—who would not endorse Mr. Tweedie's speech. This was Dr. Gilchrist, of Portland. When the Provincial Secretary finished the Doctor got on the steps and issued into the Loch Government in his usual vigorous manner. Dr. Gilchrist is not famed for missing his words. Quite the contrary. He attacked Mr. Tweedie and his colleagues with as strong language as he could command. "Corruption" was one of the mildest terms he employed. He attacked the Government, he denounced the Northumberland deal, and he proclaimed the Lunatic Asylum affairs were corrupt. Mr. Connolly frequently corrected the doctor, but his words had no effect, for the speaker continued his scathing denunciation of the administration. He indicted the Government upon to respond, indignantly denying the whole charge of corruption, and declaring that no proof could be given in support of Dr. Gilchrist's statements. Mr. Tweedie told some funny stories for the amusement of the crowd. Then Mr. W. A. Quinton mounted the steps and made a speech, the main point of which was that Dr. Gilchrist was a liar. It is not necessary to repeat what kind of a liar Mr. Quinton was, but he did not doubt of Mr. Quinton's opinion of him. Mr. Quinton's strong language was brought on by Dr. Gilchrist's reference to the Lunatic Asylum.

Whilst this oratorical scrap was going on two of the spectators were differently engaged. As a result of a heated argument, one gave the other a "smash in the jaw," and fair had to hold back the man who was smashed. Altogether the day was a lively one.—St. John Globe.

The following is Dr. Gilchrist's reply to the speech of Hon. Mr. Tweedie at Loch Lomond Fair:

At the Loch Lomond fair on Thursday Dr. Gilchrist delivered quite a lengthy speech in reply to Provincial Secretary Tweedie. He said the government had utterly neglected the roads and bridges of the province, and what bridges they had built had been erected at double and triple their proper cost. He instanced in this connection the Hamlet bridge, the repairs on the Suspension bridge, and the Frederickton and Woodstock bridges. The importation of live stock had turned out a failure. The best and most valuable horses had been handed over to our friends and adherents of the government, some of whom had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for them. He spoke of such transfers he cited the names of Harry Wilkes and Grandee. Some one here inquired who the parties were, and Dr. Gilchrist replied that he would give the names if necessary, whereas he had been told that the government had no credit was given for them in the blue book, and it was quite evident that no equivalent had been received for

The Union Advocate.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL

W. C. ANSLOW,

Our Country with its United Interests.

EDITOR and PROPRIETOR

Vol. XXXII—No. 4.

Newcastle, Tuesday, October, 18, 1898.

Whole No. 1616

PROFESSIONAL.

O. J. McCully, M. A., M. D.
MEMBER, ROY. COL. SURG., LONDON, G. B.
SPECIALIST.
DISEASES OF EYE, EAR & THROAT
Office: Cor. Waterford and Main Streets
Newcastle, Nov. 12, 1898

A. A. DAVIDSON,
ATTORNEY, etc.
Newcastle, N. B.

Dr. R. NICHOLSON,
NEWCASTLE, N. B.
Jan. 1-98.

Dr. F. L. PEDOLIN
NEWCASTLE, N. B.
Pleasant Street
Jan. 1-98.

FRANK W. HARRISON,
GRAND PIANO ALBION CONCERTS
Teacher of Piano, Organ and Harmony Teaches on the latest and most improved method. Also on application.
Office at the residence of Mr. James Russell
Office days in Newcastle, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

DECATES, DEVERIST. will occupy
Newcastle Office
From the 20th to 30, or 31st of every month.

Latest methods used for painting Dentistry.
Newest German Local Anesthetic for extracting teeth painlessly. No dangerous cocaine methods used. The Electric Discharge outfit for painting filling teeth. No danger—no pain. Up to date methods.

HOTELS.
ELLIOTT HOUSE.
OPPOSITE MASONIC HALL
Accommodations for permanent and transient boarders at reasonable rates.
Excellent table board.
Sample rooms provided. Stables on premises.
Walter J. Elliott, Newcastle, N. B.
Jan. 1-98.

HOTEL BRUNSWICK,
MONMOUTH, N. B.
GEO. McSWINEY, Proprietor

QUEEN HOTEL.
J. A. EDWARDS, Prop.
FREDERICTON, N. B.

A DAMS HOUSE,
CHATHAM, N. B.
Thomas Flanagan, Proprietor.
Simple Rooms and Livery Stable in connection.
Telephone No. 11.

RIVER VIEW HOTEL,
CHATHAM, N. B.
Peter Archer, Prop.
Telephone No. 15.

GENERAL BUSINESS.
Vacuum Oil Co.
THE Oil that lubricates most. Quality not guaranteed counts as a lubricant.
Geo. Watt,
Warehousman, Chatham, N. B.
Boston Office 45 Purchase St.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.
Our stock of school books is complete for the re-opening of the schools. Bring your list early to Ella Layton & Co.
Aug. 29th, 1898.

Wanted at
Clark's Harness Shop
No. 1 Public Wharf, Newcastle.

Customers to purchase Double and Single Harness, head made, sold at reasonable prices.
Always in stock—Harnessed, Collars and Cuffs, Harness, Horse Blankets, Saddlebags, Carriage Seat Cushions, Horse Boots, Saddle
Staples and the usual stock kept in harness shop. Dealers promptly attended.

JOHN CLARK,
Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 18, 1898.

Sash And Door Factory

The subscriber is prepared to supply from his steam factory in Newcastle, Window sashes and frames, Glazed and Unglazed.
DOORS AND DOOR FRAMES, MOLDINGS,
Flaring and Matching, etc.
H. C. NIVEN.
Newcastle Jan. 2, 1898.

F. O. PETTERSON, MERCHAND TAILOR.
Water Street. Chatham, N. B.
Jan. 1, 1898.

DENNIS DOYLE.
BOARD AND LIVERY STABLE
In Connection with the Waverley Hotel.
New Harness, New Horses,
Everything to satisfy the public

KARA
We Want Reliable Men
in every locality, local or foreign. We pay $300 a week. No experience needed. Steady employment. Salary or commission, $25 a month and $2.50 a day expenses. Money deposited by bank at start if desired. Write at once. WORLD MEDICAL ELECTRIC CO., London, Ont. Mar. 8-98.

I am
off for McLeod's

to get my Spring Suit.
Our stock is now complete. We have Crown and Gory's Suits, Blue and fancy trousers, fancy vesting.
We make them up in the latest styles so that you look well dressed in one of our suits and we sell them to you as low as consistent with good work.
All this in the Carter Block.
Next door to Bank of Nova Scotia.
S. MCLEOD.
Newcastle, May 26, 1898.

INDIGESTION
CAN BE CURED.
An open letter from a Prominent Clergyman.
MIDDETON, N. B.

G. GATES, SON & CO.
DEAR Sirs—Please pardon my delay in answering yours of weeks ago. Yes, I have been unable to communicate with you.
During the fall and winter of 1897 and 98
I was greatly distressed with indigestion.
I tried several remedies, each of which gave me no relief. I was advised to try your Invigorating Syrup, which I readily did and have felt great relief. I have been able to eat and sleep. The very first dose helped me, and before half of the first bottle was used I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the disease since. I have taken occasional doses of your medicine and feel upon several occasions, and heartily do so now.
You are at liberty to use this in any way you please.
Yours truly,
Rev. F. M. TOLSON,
Pastor Baptist Church, Bridgetown, N. S.
Sold every where at 50 cents a bottle.

Notice of Sale.
To the Heirs of Hiram A. Fish, late of Newcastle in the County of Northumberland, deceased, and all others whom it may concern:
TAKE NOTICE That there will be sold at Public Auction in front of the Engine House in Newcastle aforesaid on Wednesday, the twenty eighth day of December next at twelve o'clock noon.
All that piece or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in Newcastle aforesaid and bounded on the north by lands owned by the late James Fish, south by Water Street, east by property owned by the late James, and west by Maine Hall property and commencing on the south east corner which corner is formed by the intersection of land owned by the late James Fish and Water street, thence north 45 feet, east 32 feet, thence north 45 feet, west 36 feet thence north 45 feet, east 22 feet, thence north 45 feet, east 36 feet to the place of beginning.
The above sale will be made under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in an indenture of Mortgage bearing date the fifteenth day of November A. D. 1889, and made between the said Hiram A. Fish of the first part and William E. Fish of the second part and was assigned to James Robinson of Millerton in the county aforesaid on the twenty fourth day of September A. D. 1891. Default having been made in the payment of the money secured by the said Indenture of Mortgage.
Terms cash.
Dated this 28th day of September A. D.
1898.
E. P. WILLISTON, Solicitor to the Assignee.
JAMES ROBINSON,
Assignee of the Mortgage.

THE WAR

IT CAUSES NO ADVANCE IN Morrison's Prices.

Having purchased all my stock before the advance in price caused by the war, I will sell as cheap, if not cheaper than ever.
JUST RECEIVED
3 Car Loads Furniture
from the leading manufacturers.

Ten per cent. less than it can be purchased for to-day.
Comprising
Parlor Suits from $25.00 to $87.50
Bedroom " full set, 7 pieces, 13.50 to 37.50
Side Boards from 8.75 to 20.00
Extension Tables, Centre Tables, Kitchen Tables
Upholstered chairs, Rattan and Cocker Chairs.

MATTRESSES, SPRING BEDS,
CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,
CURTAIN POLES,
WINDOW SHADES,
largest assortment on the Miramichi. Head-quarters for House Furnishing goods.

All my other lines in
BOOT & SHOES, CLOTHING,
GENT'S FURNISHINGS and GENERAL DRY GOODS
D. MORRISON.

A Surprise,

LOOK OUT FOR IT!

To take place in the neighborhood of Thomas Russell's place.
The country people will benefit by it. Newcastle will see that I am alive to business. I have now on hand a magnificent stock of Groceries and Provisions consisting of flour of all grades, meal, clear meat pork, pork in rounds, Almond's extra plate beef, bacon, roll hams, English breakfast bacon, SOP—Y. Supreme, Kidney and Turkey. Large variety of fancy toilet and perfumes. Cakes and Crackers—Large variety of cakes, crackers, sodas, pilots, etc.
English cheese in pound circles.
Two numerous mentions can be had at rock bottom prices.
CROCKERYWARE—Unbounded variety and assortment.
TOBACCO—Macdonell's tobacco, full assortment of cigars, pipes etc.
A large stock of stationery.

THOMAS RUSSELL
Battery D of Galesburg, under Captain Orin, numbering 160 men, arrived here last night.

School Opening.

When you are in want of school supplies you will get anything you need at

Geo. Stables'.
He keeps a full line of school requisites.
Primer 4c
Royal Readers No. 1 8c
" " " 12c
" " " 25c
" " " 40c
" " " 50c
Book keeping blanks 25 cents a set.
50 blank of ink for 3c.
Everything in the stationery line marked at prices that will please everybody.
All books sold for cash and cash only.
5c scribbles for 3 cents.

Geo. Stables.
P. J. McEvoy's
is where you can purchase everything in the Grocery and Provision line at the most satisfactory prices. Canned goods of all kinds, fancy and plain crackers, a large assortment of candies, also an excellent stock of pipes, cigars, and tobacco. The finest, largest assortment and most complete line of Grocery in Newcastle.

Come in and See for Yourself.
P. J. McEvoy
May 24, 1898.

McMurdo & Co.,
We make you a nice suit for $12.75, $13.25, $14.00, $15.00 and upwards.
You should see our blue Beaver cloth for overcoats, it is a beauty, $16.50. It is our regular $18.00 coat. Call and have a look at what we have before you purchase elsewhere.

WE AIM TO PLEASE.
McMURDO & Co.
Notice to the Scholars.

I am selling out my stock of school books, stationery Fancy and goods. I want to get clear of them, as I am going into another line of goods, so now is your time to get your school supplies at McAllister's. Do not forget, everything in the stationery line at cost for cash.

In groceries, fruits and confectionery, you will find it to your advantage to buy from me.
John McAllister.

General Intelligence

REPORT OF THE MINISTER OF THE ARMY.

THEY SAY THEY WERE TREATED INHUMAN-LY AND BRUTALLY WHILE SOLDIERS OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—An official document has been received in Washington from Madrid which gives the full report of the Spanish officers of Ocurva's falling into the hands of the Americans as prisoners of war. The following extracts are taken from the report:

"When we were taken as honorable prisoners by the Americans, after the loss of our gallant fleet, we were driven below an American ship, the name of which we were unable to ascertain, and huddled together like sheep in a pen in the ship, without sufficient food, and air to breathe with no accommodations to sleep, with no water to drink, and no food to eat. Officers and men were all treated with the same neglect and contempt and inconsideration. No steps were taken to those of rank, but all suffered the same fate. Instead of treating us like honorable prisoners of war, who had been captured after one of the most heroic struggles which ever witnessed in naval warfare, we were treated more like dogs, and finally our men were shot to death for no other purpose than to afford amusement to the American sailors and marines, and to give them a target practice. The charge that there was murder among us is entirely without foundation and absolutely false, although we would have had ample reason for doing. Instead, we obeyed every command given us by our captors.

"The trouble was begun by a Quartermaster-Sergeant, who saw a prisoner going upon the upper deck, where he was ordered to find a cool place to sleep.
He was ill and suffering from fever.
The American sailors occupied all of the comfortable quarters and showed no mercy. Finally a quartermaster passed on watch, and observing the sleeping prisoner, proceeded to awaken him by piercing him with the point of his sharp bayonet. His cries for mercy aroused the attention of the guardmen on watch, and they ran to that portion of the deck and began amusing themselves by increasing the pain of the poor man and thrusting him with their bayonets. When they had concluded their sport they gave him an order to go down where the sailors and Preston Spanish prisoners were quartered. He ran below slowly followed by the Americans, and then he was thrown into the bayonet at every step. His cries also aroused the attention of his comrades, who stood up to the aid of the man trouble. When the Americans on guard had reached the hold of the vessel they saw our helpless prisoners huddled together and protesting against their rages. This was sufficient to cause them to make threats with their bayonets upon others, who were complaining no other whatever other than seeking to stay the attacks upon their unfortunate fellow prisoners.

"There was much excitement and our prisoners implored their captors to desist from their attacks upon helpless and defenseless men. The pleas of our men were answered with jeers and curses by the Americans, who by this time had increased in numbers, other sailors having come to enjoy what to them was sport.
Several of our officers observed that there were among the Americans a number of men of rank who joined with their subordinates and made no effort to prevent their attacks, our men continued to pierce them, and for this the Americans placed their guns to their shoulders and fired, with no order given them to do so and without authority from their superiors. The culmination of this outrage was the death of a number of our men, murdered outright.
With the first discharge a number of our men leaped overboard into the sea, and were only rescued after quiet had been restored and the Americans had ceased their attacks. It is the opinion of several of our officers that at least one man was drowned.

"After the affair in which our brave men were murdered, the remainder of our prisoners were treated worse than before. We could expect no more treatment from barbarians than was extended to us by these Yankees, who claim to be civilized men, and for this our men suffered torture, from want of food and nearly died of starvation.

"The report then goes on to tell of the treatment accorded the prisoners at Portsmouth, which, it says, was not all that could be desired, and ends by saying that if Admiral Cervera had been held as a prisoner at Santiago, he would have been treated with more kindness than he was.

A BANK CLOSED.
THE DEPOSITARY CASHIER CONFESSES CRIME AND DIES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Charles
E. Vanbreckin, cashier of the First National bank of Oswego, N. Y., which Senator T. C. Platt is president to close the doors of the institution, a few more deposits, stating that he places
C. E. Vanbreckin, National bank cashier, in charge of the bank. This action was taken by the comptroller as a result of the recent examination by Examiner Vanbreckin, which disclosed a large defalcation on the part of C. E. Vanbreckin.
The cashier died at his home on Wednesday night, shortly after he had been confronted by the examiner
with the defalcation. He confessed guilt to the examiner. The examiner reports that from as careful an examination of the books as he was able to make there is no evidence whatever of any complicity on the part of the bank.
The defalcation occurred through the manipulation of
the individual deposit ledger by the cashier,
who also acted as receiving teller.
It is understood that the speculations of
the cashier had covered about twenty years, small amounts being withdrawn
This was made possible by the cashier acting as both receiving teller and
individual book-keeper.

Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 13.—It is said that the late cashier, C. E. Vanbreckin, was a man of great energy and business ability.

DR. FOWLER'S
EXT-OFF
WILD
STRAWBERRY
CURES
DIARRHEA,
DYSENTERY
AND SUMMER COMPLAINT.
Price 25c, at all druggists.
Beware of cheap imitations.

PLEBISCITE VOTE FRAUDS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Charles
E. Vanbreckin, cashier of the First National bank of Oswego, N. Y.,
which Senator T. C. Platt is president to close the doors of the institution, a
few more deposits, stating that he places
C. E. Vanbreckin, National bank cashier,
in charge of the bank. This action was taken by the comptroller as a result of
the recent examination by Examiner
Vanbreckin, which disclosed a large
defalcation on the part of C. E. Vanbreckin.
The cashier died at his home on Wednesday night, shortly after
he had been confronted by the examiner
with the defalcation. He confessed
guilt to the examiner. The examiner
reports that from as careful an examination of the books as he was able to make
there is no evidence whatever of any
complicity on the part of the bank.
The defalcation occurred through the manipulation of
the individual deposit ledger by the cashier,
who also acted as receiving teller.
It is understood that the speculations of
the cashier had covered about twenty years, small amounts being withdrawn
This was made possible by the cashier
acting as both receiving teller and
individual book-keeper.

THE MINER'S RIOT.
KILLED AND TWENTY WOUNDED THE RESULT.

PRIDEN, ILL., Oct. 12.—After a careful investigation the list of dead and wounded remains at ten killed and twenty wounded.

GOVERNOR JOHN HART, today, went to the stockade and summoned a number of the company's miners as witnesses. It is understood that the company's miners were taken from their barracks to attend the inquest.

WANTED—SEVERAL TRUSTWORTHY
Persons in this state to manage our business in one or more counties. It is a matter of confidence and honor. Salary straight out and expenses—definite, honest, no room for error. Monthly $75. References, Boston and Montreal. Send no money. Herbert E. Ross, Box 1, Dept. N. Chicago.

ROCKLAND, N. B., Oct. 13.—On Wed- nesday afternoon H. E. Doughty, aged 35, who was at work on the large Dun-
ken, was knocked overboard and drowned
by the breaking of a guy rope, which caused the boat to sweep the deck. He leaves a widow.

FROM RHUMATISM—Suffered by Doctors
Till He Didn't Know Himself—South American Rheumatic Cure Performs a Miraculous Cure.
D. Desmarche, Petersburg, writes:
'For months I was unable to work, had rheumatism in every part of my body.
I was blistered by doctors at ten different times. My hands were drawn out in shape, my fingers were distorted, and my wrists and forearms were double their natural size. My leg was encased in a plaster case for four months. I tried South American Rheumatic Cure; I took two bottles. Twenty-four hours after first dose I felt like a new man.
One week after I was able to go to work.
Now I am as hearty and strong as ever.'
Sold by E. Lee Street.

VICTORY FOR CECIL RHODES.
CAPE COLONY GOVERNMENT COMPELLED TO RESIGN.
CAPE TOWN, Oct. 12.—The ministry has resigned. The Assembly of Cape Colony adopted yesterday by a vote of 50 to 27
the motion offered by W. H. Schreiner, formerly attorney general of Cape Colony, expressing want of confidence in the government.
The ministry was composed as follows:
Prime Minister and Treasurer—Right
Hon. Sir J. Gordon Spragg.
Colonial Secretary—Hon. Dr. T. N. G.
Trewar.
Attorney General—Hon. Sir Thomas Spurgeon.
Commissioner of Public Works—Hon.
Sir James Sivewright.
Secretary of Agriculture—Hon. Sir
H. H. Fane.

A CEASELESS TORMENT.
ECZEMA GNAWING AND IRRITATION HAVE A Short Stay After One Application of Dr. Agnew's Ointment—It Helps Immediately and Cures Quickly.
C. W. Howard, Peak's Island, Me., writes: 'Enclosed find 35 cents for a box of Dr. Agnew's Ointment. I have been afflicted for a long time with eczema, and it has done me so much good I want to try another box. The first application gave me more relief than anything I ever Sold by E. Lee Street.

A BRUTAL DEED.
PARIS, Oct. 11.—A terrible tragedy has taken place near St. Patrice, near Chamon. While the parish priest, the venerable Abbé Fienail, was conducting service, burglars entered the presbytery and murdered his aged housekeeper.
They then availed themselves of the murdered man's keys, and entered the house. The house, Abbé Fienail was killed by a bullet to the head.

KIDNEY POISONS.
Stop the Life Spring and Make Putrid the Heads Fountain—South American Kidney Cure Cleanses and Purifies.
If the kidneys fail to do their work other organs become involved; poison circulates through the system, and the whole system. Disease and disaster as sure as sunrise if neglected.
South American Kidney Cure cleanses the kidneys like magic. It's a liquid and attacks the ailing parts, quickly stops the spreading of disease, drives out the foreign substance, and brings this important organ back to a healthy normal state. It's a kidney specific.
Sold by E. Lee Street.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.
TACOMA, WASH., Oct. 12.—The tourist hotel under construction by the Northern Pacific Land Co. was burned last night. There had been expended on the structure up to date $60,000, upon which there is no insurance. It was the purpose of the land company to make this one of the finest hotels in the country and it would have cost completed over $1,000,000.

THE DREAD OF FEVER.
JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 12.—The people are taking Health Officer Prunell's advice and leaving for the north. It seems impossible to check the spread of yellow fever. Three new cases have so far been reported today. Governor Johnston of Alabama today proclaimed quarantine against the states of Louisiana and Mississippi.

A PROMINENT LECTURER DROPS DEAD.
ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Oct. 12.—Rev.
Dr. Sexton of New York, preacher author and lecturer dropped dead here last night.
He had just finished the composition of a new lecture and was reading it over when he was stricken with heart disease.

MUST EVACUATE CRETE.
ROME, Oct. 13.—Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy have decided to reject the Porte's suggested modification to the ultimatum to the Turkish government on the evacuation of the island of Crete, particularly the Sultan's proposal to hold three fortified places, with garrisons sufficient to protect the Mohammedans and to defend the Ottoman flag. They are sending an identical note to this effect to Constantinople, reminding the Sultan that Turkish soldiers must leave Crete the time specified in the ultimatum.

DROWNED AT ROCKLAND.
ROCKLAND, N. B., Oct. 13.—On Wednesday afternoon H. E. Doughty, aged 35, who was at work on the large Dun-
ken, was knocked overboard and drowned
by the breaking of a guy rope, which caused the boat to sweep the deck. He leaves a widow.

Miramichi Foundry

STEAM ENGINE & BOILER WORKS

CHATHAM, N. B.

JOSEPH M. RUDDOCK, - - PROPRIETOR

Steam Engines and Boilers, Mill Machinery of all kinds; Steamers of any size constructed and furnished, complete. GANG SADDLES, SHINGLE and LATH MACHINES, ETC. - - - - -

IRON PIPE, Valves and Fitting of all kinds.

Designs, Plans and Estimates on Application.

PROVISIONS

CONSISTING OF

Flour, Beef, Pork, Hams, Bacon, Toss, Sugars, Molasses, Barley, Peas, Soap, Lard, Bran and Feed, Rolled Oats and Standard Oatmeal and Cornmeal in bbls. and c. bbls. Ontario and 'Moncton Cracked Feed, etc.

Store on Public Wharf.

J. A. RUNDLE.

Newcastle, Jan. 8, 1898.

A Fine Line of ENVELOPES

at the Advocate Office.

SEEDS. SEEDS. SEEDS.

I have received my Spring stock of Garden, Field and Flower seeds in puffing, it gives better satisfaction to the housekeeper than any other brand.

Small advance over cost.

LOUR, FLOUR, FLOUR,

with less than five.

JERRY LILLY.

Now is the time to purchase your flour, it gives better satisfaction to the housekeeper than any other brand.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Small advance over cost.

Miscellaneous.

Charley Quill - 'Ay, Miss Bontou, resting'.

Miss Bontou - 'Yes, came here to get out of the jam.'

Charley Q. - 'And yet the jam's the place for you.'

Miss B. - 'How so?'

Charley Q. - 'Why, jam is the place for sweet things.'

Miss B. (recovering) - 'Is that case you should be in pickle.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

Charley Q. - 'Prove it.'

Miss B. - 'Well, pickle is the place for fresh things.'

I suppose your wife keeps things in order at home? Yes, she keeps me and my hat on the rack most of the time.

MADE ME A MAN

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE

AXAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE