TURNER—TURNBULL
On Wednesday morning Oct. 15th, a wedding of much interest to many friends in the city and through Carleton County, N.B., was solemnized in Carleton Methodist Church, West 1st. John when Miss Lorna Doone Turnbull daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turnbull of Juniper N.B. became the bride of James Simonson Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Turner of Summerfield. The church, which had been prettily decorated for the occasion by the young friends of the bride, was filled with friends and relatives of the happy couple.

The Bride who was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of navy blue pique twill, with hat to match and grey fox fur, the gift of the groom, entered the church on the arm of her brother Mr. Clarence Turnbull to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pleasingly rendered by the organist Miss M. Beattie. She was attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Abbie Mason, who wore a navy blue tailored suit with hat to match and seal scarf and carried a bouquet of carnations and snapdragon. The bride's bouquet was Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern. The groom, who was supported by his cousin, Fred T. Perry of Florenceville, took a position near the chancel steps, where, beneath an arch of autumn leaves, ferns and flowers, the bridal party stood, during the ceremony which was performed by the pastor Rev. F. T. Bert. While the register was being signed, Miss Helen Henderson sweetly sang "Oh Promise Me".

Immediately after the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served and the happy pair left by motor for a brief honeymoon trip to St. Stephen and other provincial points, followed by the best wishes of their many friends, for a long and happy wedded life.

The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold bar pin set with pearls; to the best man, gold cuff links and to Miss Henderson a white gold bar pin. There were many beautiful wedding gifts in silver, cut glass and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner will reside in Florenceville where the groom is book keeper for A. D. McCain & Co. The bride has been stenographer for Turnbull Real Estate Co. for the last three years.

MASONS CELEBRATE AT HARTLAND

Constitution, Consecration and Dedication of Hartland Lodge No. 48 of Free and Accepted Masons.

Tuesday evening was a red letter night in Hartland for the Masonic Fraternity. The occasion was the visit of the Grand Lodge officers for the purpose of constituting the lodge with full powers to work and the presentation of the Charter.

For the past year the lodge has been working under the dispensation of Grand Lodge and their work has proved so acceptable that a Charter has been awarded. The following were the Grand Officers present: Grand Master G. D. Ellis, Past Grand LeBaron Wilson, Past Deputy Grand Donald Munroe, Grand High Priest, W. H. Smith, Senior Grand Warden S. M. Wetmore, Junior Grand Warden P. Burchill, Grand Secretary, J. Twining Hart, Deputy District Grand Master R. M. Gabel and Acting Grand Chaplain Rev. H. F. Rigby.

After the consecration of the lodge the officers were installed as follows: W. M., J. E. MacCollum; S. W., Anthony Baker; J. W., Frank A. Aiton; Chaplain, J. M. Mallory; S. D., R. Dewit; J. D., Herbert Aiton; Treasurer, Fred Allen; Secretary, W. P. Tedlie; Director of Ceremonies, Dr. B. R. Coysh; Stewards, W. A. White and R. Holyoke; Inner Guard, E. W. Laskey; Tyler, K. W. Keith.

The Grand Master spoke of the importance of these offices and hoped that all would strive to become thoroughly efficient in their respective offices.

Speeches of congratulations were also given by the various Grand Lodge Officers after which W. M. MacCollum replied in a few well chosen words and thanked the officers for the visit.

A well served banquet proved to be a stimulant to the spirits of all and much credit is due to the committee in charge of this part of the proceedings.

Music was supplied during the banquet by Bros. G. Dunham, W. P. Tedlie, Fred Allen, Dr. B. R. Coysh, W. A. White, Rev. W. P. Haig, The Rev. H. F. Rigby accompanied the singing with his usual good taste and skill. In addition to the Mason in the vicinity of Hartland many visitors were present from Woodstock, Fredericton, Debec, Lakeville, Grand Falls and Edmundston.

It is hoped that the Lodge will carry out the high ideals of this ancient order and thus prove a valuable asset to the town in uplifting the standard of manhood and cementing true friendship with all men.

ROGERS—DRAKE

A very pretty wedding occurred at the United Baptist Parsonage, Hartland on Friday, Oct. 3rd at 1.30 o'clock when Mr. Fraser D. Rogers of Bristol and Miss Mary E. Drake of Mount Pleasant were united in marriage by Rev. G. F. Bolster. The single ring service was used and the bride and groom were unattended. At the conclusion of the service Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left for their future home in Bristol. The many friends of this popular young couple unite in wishing them every happiness and success in life.

Sorry to announce that little Bertha Choate is still ill.

Mae and Claude Estabrooks were visiting Miss Gertrude Ebbett of Landsdowne.

BAD AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Eurie Mills and Friends in Accident in Which all are Hurt

A Serious automobile accident occurred Friday night at Victoria Corner in which a party of five occupying a car went over a bank and all sustained injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Flemming of Elmwood and Mrs. J. R. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Harry Kirkpatrick of Debec had been visiting friends in Juniper and Bath and on their way home stopped at Hartland to attend Chautauqua. After the evening's entertainment they started for Debec accompanied by Mrs. Eurie Mills, who is a teacher in the school here, and a daughter of Mrs. Harry Kirkpatrick.

On reaching the bad turn in the road just below the school house at Victoria the driver was unable to make the curve and the car left the road turning over twice.

H. N. Dickinson was summoned and took the injured party by motor truck to the Fisher Memorial Hospital where their injuries received attention. Mr. Flemming and Mrs. Mills, although sustaining painful bruises were able to go home, but the remaining members of the party are suffering from broken ribs and wrists and are being treated at the hospital. It is thought Miss Mills may be able to return to her school here next week.

CHAUTAUQUA

Chautauqua which was held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday gave six good entertainments and was very well attended. The program was high class in every respect and as usual was of a varied nature so that all tastes were catered to. The lectures were splendid and it has been remarked how much better attention is paid to this part of the program by the audience as a whole than formerly had been the case. This goes to show that those that previously had not the advantage before Chautauqua came to our town of hearing lectures of this sort have been educated by them to appreciate what was placed before them.

While financially Chautauqua did not go over the top and the guarantors have to pay the deficit these public spirited men are not daunted, but have gone on again as guarantors to have Chautauqua come next year. An encouraging feature is that the deficit is the least it has been in the last two years, and with the 40 guarantors obtained and with the enthusiasm that the Town of Hartland can show it looks now that there will be no deficit next year. So the town and the surrounding county have something to look forward to next year.

Shopping Round the World

This kind of shopping is a thrilling sport—an opportunity to acquire extraordinary treasures and experiences. Egyptian hammered brass in Cairo. Intricate Indian jewelry in Bombay. Gorgeous tortoise shell combs in Ceylon. In Batavia, the genuine batik; in Peking, matchless mandarin coats and rare Siberian furs. Japan reveals lovely kimono, geisha costumes.

Dancing Round the World

On the Empress of France, the voyagers will have their own crack orchestra. In the Gateway Ports, they will have shore dances arranged for them at famous hotels and cafes.

Hotel-ing Round the World

Look up the famous hostilities of Naples, Cairo, Bombay, Colombo, Shanghai, Hongkong, etc., hostilities celebrated wherever globe-travelers get together. All these, too, will come within the voyagers' experiences. Some, for overnight stays. Others, for luncheons, dinners, and receptions. They are a part of the shore "explorations."

Private-Yachting Round the World

"Private-Yachting" is the entire scheme of the cruise. The atmosphere is that of a jolly cruising party. The accommodations are luxurious, lounging. The service has that personal touch, while the ship itself will poke in here, poke in there.

The Citizen of the World

One meets the romantic civilizations of the past—Roman, Hebrew, Egyptian, Hindu, Javanese, Chinese. One meets the romantic peoples of today. One sees the monuments, the arts, the customs of African, European, Asiatic lands. It is out of such contacts that emerges the citizen of the world.

The Cruise Extraordinary Round the World

Leaves New York January 14~Returns to New York May 23

INTO the planning of this cruise, the world's greatest travel system has put its greatest effort. The result is a voyage which visits the Gateway Ports of the world and explores the Romance Lands of the earth;

—a voyage which combines the jollity of a private yacht, with the luxury of an Empress liner;

—a voyage which includes practically all the great experiences which make world travel the prized human adventure.

a Ship Extraordinary

The ship which will carry the Round the World voyagers is the Empress of France. She is famous for her cruiser lines and cruiser speed.

Her public rooms have interiors done by noted decorators; they contain many art and furniture treasures. Her cabins and suites are appointed for living in best hotel style. Her service and table are of Canadian Pacific standard, exceptional even among the best.

Her engines are oil-burning, which insures cool cleanliness. Lord Renfrew (the Prince of Wales) chose the Empress of France twice for voyages.

the Route

The route is eastward from New York. It follows springtime around the globe. The Mediterranean ports are visited at the height of the Riviera season. Palestine, before the heat and dust. Egypt, at its gayest. India, in its cool season. China, in its smiling mood. Japan, when the cherry blossoms burst. Back to America, in beautiful May. This is the route of perpetual loveliness.

the Gateway Ports

27 different Gateway Ports are visited. First Madeira. Then the Mediterranean, calling at Gibralt-tar, Algiers, Monaco, Naples, Haifa, for the Holy Land, Port Said for Egypt. Then, into the Indian Seas. Suez, Bombay, Colombo, Padang, Batavia, Singapore. Up the Orient's coast—Manila, Hongkong, Shanghai, Taku, Kobe, Yokohama. Homeward, by way of Honolulu, Hilo, Victoria, B. C., Vancouver, B. C., San Francisco, Balboa, Colon, Havana—to New York.

the Excursions Inland

Each of these Gateway Ports is truly a gateway—to some place, some people, some experience of romance. So, at every port, the voyagers will debark for sightseeing. Sometimes, for one day, as at Algiers; time enough to do the Arab quarter, and the French town, to lunch and dine at famous cafes, and to shop in the Street of the Jewelers. Again, for an entire week, as at Haifa; from here the voyagers strike inland to Jerusalem, then south to Cairo, for a trip up the Nile, to the Pyramids, etc. A port such as Hongkong is not only fascinating in itself; it also leads to Canton, city of swarming Chinese life.

For these inland excursions, the voyagers will be quartered at leading hotels—taken about in motor cars or rickshaws with best native guides.

the Days at Sea

The days on ship-board will be as pleasurable as the days on land.

Deck sports, athletic competitions in the afternoon. Then into the tank! Followed by a 100 per cent dinner for 100 per cent appetites. Dancing in the ball room to an irresistible orchestra. In between, lectures, entertainments, fancy-dress balls, bridge and mah-jong.

Following the ship over her entire 130 days will be the long arm of the Canadian Pacific—that vast organization which girdles the globe with steamships, railways, hotels, and offices. All its facilities exerted all the time to command the best for its guest and to free them from every care.

The teacher had been telling the way in which Alexander the Great conquered the world, going on from one country to another, until at last there was nothing more for him to look forward to. She related how, after he had conquered India, instead of giving a great feast to celebrate his great victories he sat down and wept bitterly.

"Now, children," she asked, "why do you think Alexander wept?" Bobby was in the back row and up went his hand.
"Yes, Bobby?" said the teacher beamingly.
"Please, Miss," came the eager, if incorrect reply, "because he didn't know the way back."
"Over in California we have a lilac bush fifty feet high."
"I wish I could lilac that."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Two most excellent shows were given at the local theatre last week. On Wednesday evening Earl Williams and Jane Novak were billed in "Jealous Husbands", a glaring example of how great a matter a little fire kindleth, and what trouble a bit of unwitting gossip can cause in a happy household. Ben Alexander was as good as always in a child role. Saturday evening the show "Lee's Whirlpool" possessed unusual merit. James Robert Agnew played the important roles in a play that was made up of equal parts of both sides of the social scale. The high and the low. The main scene was a Shipwreck most realistic. "The Busy Buddies" a two reel comedy was most amusing. Read page seven for this weeks amusements at the theatre.

WEDDING AT CENTREVILLE

McCallum — Page

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, October 7th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Granville H. Page, Centreville when their only daughter, Alice Lorraine, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. Cecil L. MacCallum of Boston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Bell, pastor of the Baptist Church, Centreville. The wedding took place in the presence of a number of relatives and friends, the double ring ceremony being used.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Ward Webb, aunt of the bride. Miss Hilda Wilson sang "Beloved It Is Morn" before the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father was lovely in an exquisite dress of Satin Canton Crepe, fastened on the side with a pearl ornament. She wore a veil of tulle and a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley with maidenhair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Hilda MacCallum, sister of the groom, was dressed in Alice blue broadened silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by Howard Page, cousin of the bride.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. The rooms were prettily decorated with evergreens and cut flowers. The bride was the recipient of a large number of wedding gifts, consisting of silver, cut glass, linens and checks. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum wrist watch, to the bridesmaid, pianist and soloist gold bar pins and to the groomsmen gold cuff links.

The bride is well known having taught school in different parts of the province, and the last two years has been in the employ of the John Hancock Insurance Co. of Boston.

The happy couple left amid showers of rice and confetti for a motor trip through Maine, after which they will reside in Boston, where the groom is credit manager in the Boston Coal Co.

PROTECTING THE INVESTMENT

Abraham Lincoln humorously said of poor neighbor's assets, "He has a wife and two children which I think were worth thirty thousand dollars to any man."

A family is indeed a golden investment and needs the same protection and care that any investment requires.

For three generations the editors of The Youth's Companion have felt the same responsibility to the families of subscribers as if those families were their own. In taking a subscription they have accepted a trust; they have done their part to see that the family investment increased in value through the development of character and taste for the good things in life.

Laymen's Spiritual Conference at Debec

Probably the best of the series of Laymen's conferences carried on so successfully in this district for the last three or four years and no doubt the last one under the auspices of the Methodist Church, as it is expected that union with the Presbyterians and Congregationalists will be consummated next June, came to a close with a very largely attended evening session at Debec on Wednesday the 15th inst.

The large community building there consists of an upper and lower hall. In the upper room three sessions were held a rich feast of spiritual blessings and with what deft and experienced grace did Rev. S. Seller, Cavers & Goodwin unroll a glorious vision of the treasures of heaven, which by the influence of such fully consecrated lives and Spirit directed speech, became to us more real and desirable than ever before.

Nor did the laymen fail to measure up to the high standard, whether in the various addresses, prayers, testimonies, singing or musical part of the program or in the management of the meetings. The morning session was led by J. S. King who took the place of A. E. Plummer, unable to be present. After devotional exercises and scripture reading by Rev. Young an address of welcome was given by Rev. Geo. Seller pastor of the circuit whose sincerely kind and hearty manner made us feel so much at home not only among the friends of Debec but as members of the great family of God. His revelation of the Father's love and his expression, "The great warm loving heart of God" is still vivid in our minds.

Next Rev. Cavers of Woodstock, with the Epistle of Romans a panorama background of various stages of the Christian life, took as his subject "The Price of Full Consecration" and as his text Romans 12-1, showing clearly and certainly that this state is the natural and logical attainment of the highest and richest blessings of life, carrying the value of the great seal to a document thereby made valuable and precious.

Then in the lower hall was spread another feast at noon and in the evening, enlivened with social intercourse the renewing of old acquaintance. Each of the auto parties brought well filled baskets, hot tea and coffee being provided by the ladies of the village.

During the afternoon meeting, of which Fred Boyd was chairman, Amasa Plummer gave a brief but very interesting account of his recent visit to the World's Sunday School Convention at Glasgow and some of his experiences on a conducted tour through Europe as far as Rome. Charles Baker of Hartland and Mr. Saunders of Woodstock spoke very impressively along the line of sanctification and full surrender. Rev. A. H. Goodwin of St. John followed with an address from the words of David to Solomon regarding the building of the temple. "Be Strong and Do It", a very fitting conclusion to the discussions of two highly spiritual gatherings. Before this session closed a number came forward for prayer with a desire to take another higher and forward step.

At the evening meeting the hall was filled to overflowing, special music was rendered by the choir and a fine address given by Fred Squires, who as a Sunday School worker took for his theme, "The Sunday School and the Bible".

He was followed with intense interest along the heights of eloquence poured forth in favor of more devoted work to keep the young in Sunday School and all through life as well. His vivid sketches of Bible characters showing how they might be made more attractive to the boys and girls than so much of the trashy reading of today. Then came the passing of the usual list of resolutions. Rev. Mr. Chown of Florenceville presiding in his usual happy and graceful manner and after a beautiful song by Mr. and Mrs. Seller Mr. Goodwin gave us another of his forceful soul stirring talks on the awful strain and power of a sin which can only be overcome and removed by the beauty, cleansing and power of the grace of God.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said a blundering counsel, in a suit about a lot of hogs. "there were just 36 hogs in that drove; please to remember that fact—36 hogs—just exactly three times as many as there are in the jury-box, gentlemen." The counsel did not gain his case.

A Public Danger.

Skin disease threatens us every day. Invisible germs of blood-poison, eczema, etc., are waiting to infect the least cut or sore place. The money you use carries germs—you get them on the handles, rails and straps of the trains and street cars, and in a score of other ways. So let through Zamb-luk, Mr. Henry C. Davis, of South 17th Street, Kansas City, U.S.A., has just escaped a virulent type of eczema, contracted, he suspects, through use of public towels. "I had medical advice," he says, "tried in addition all sorts of so-called eczema remedies, with all finding the hoped-for relief. Zamb-luk treatment soon gave positive results. It took away the painful irritation and quickly purified and healed the deep troublesome sores."

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS CASH

How would you like to wake up some morning and find you were the winner of $5000? Some person is going to get it. Why not you? The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal are offering Ten Thousand Dollars in cash prizes to those who make the best estimates of the total number of votes to be polled in the next Federal Election. There were 3,119,306 polled out of a total of 4,435,310 in 1921. The next election is not far away. How many will vote? It costs nothing to make an estimate if you are a subscriber to that great weekly for 1925. The Family Herald has a wonderful program this season. It is admitted to be the best farm and family paper on this Continent. A very handsome art calendar is also given to each subscriber. It is the biggest Two Dollars worth ever offered in Canada. Write for a sample copy or leave your subscription at this office. You will never regret it.

"Yes," the new woman remarked, "I am greatly troubled."

"By what?"

"Well, I want to get married just to prove that I can, and I don't want to get married just to prove that I don't have to. If I don't they'll say I can't, if I do they'll say I have no more independence than any other woman."

"You and I," she said, "never seem to agree about anything. Now I wonder what would happen if we did once happen to agree."

"I should be wrong," he said gloomily.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 PER CENT AIR

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month. 11-13.

Southern Housewife—Tobe, I'm sorry to hear your wife has got a divorce.

"Yes, sum; she's gone back to Alabama."

"Who will do my washing now?"

"Well, mum, I see courtin' again, and I courts rapid."

The Contractor: "Yes, I can save you a few thousand dollars in work and materials without spoiling the looks of the house, but it won't be fit to live in."

The owner: "Hop to it, I'm not building it to live in. I'm building it to sell."

Passenger (after the first night on board ship): "I say! Where have my clothes gone?"

Steward: "Where did you put them?"

Passenger: "In that little cupboard with the glass door to it."

Steward: "Bless me, sir! That's no cupboard. That's a porthole!"

Two Scotsmen were shipwrecked. As they clung to an upturned boat one of them, who had many failings, started reciting a list of his offences, declaring that he would never be wicked again.

INSURED FOR $60,000.

Mlle. Lenglen Protects Her Limbs With Large Policy.

Mlle. Lenglen takes the greatest precautions to guard from possible damage the hand with which she makes her wonderful drives and volleys. She even shakes hands with her left hand in order that her right may escape the slightest harm.

As she is an amateur she would suffer no financial loss if, by some injury, she were prevented from playing tennis again, otherwise she might follow the example of other notable people and take out a heavy insurance on the limb which has brought her to the topmost pinnacle of lawn-tennis fame.

Famous dancers and instrumentalists are almost invariably protected by some such policy, since the slightest injury to ankle or finger might cause the cancellation of a contract and the consequent loss of thousands of pounds.

For many years Paderewski paid $4,000 a year in premiums against injury to his hands, which were insured for $60,000. He had separate policies for his fingers, thumbs, eyes, and toes, and on one occasion, when a damaged finger-nail prevented him from appearing at a concert, he was paid $5,000 compensation.

Kubelik, the great violinist, had his "bow" hand insured for $10,000 against injury, and for $50,000 against permanent disablement.

Pavlova is said to have protected her beautiful limbs by a most comprehensive insurance policy. The disablement of single toe of her dainty foot might cost the underwriters no less than $30,000, while her countrywoman, Mlle. Napier-skowska, insured her feet against accident to the extent of $62,500.

It might appear to be impossible to insure such an intangible thing as a voice, but Mme. Patti, who was one of the pioneers of this form of protection, was invariably insured for $5,000 a performance. Since then her example has been followed by many famous singers.

When Mr. Tom Burke, the celebrated tenor, was booked for a tour of 100 concerts throughout Canada and America, his impresario safeguarded himself by insuring the life of the singer for $500,000.

It is not only those who amuse and entertain the public who insure themselves against the loss of their powers. The late Prof. Huxley was the first man on record to insure his eyesight, and would have received $25,000 if he had gone blind; while it is stated that the hands of Sir Herbert Barker, the famous manipulative surgeon, are insured for a large sum against disablement.

When, however, a certain famous boxer tried to insure his hands against injury, the underwriters refused to quote him terms for the risk.

Did It on Purpose.

A new lodger had arrived at Mrs. Jenkins' establishment, where she "took in and did for" a few single and select gentlemen.

Binks was employed at a town some distance away, and therefore he had to be astir early in the morning. On his second morning in the house he stumbled over a tin bath which had been left at the top of the stairs, and, with a crash and a great shock to his constitution, he went head over heels to the bottom.

As the lodger picked himself up he heard a sleepy "Right-ho!" from one of the bedrooms above, and was surprised when he complained to Mrs. Jenkins to see that good lady chuckle.

"That was Mr. Brown," she explained genially. "He's such a heavy sleeper that only the clatter of someone falling down the stairs with a bath can wake him! He calls it his alarm clock!"

Home Basket-making.

The ancient trade of basket-making is booming in many villages where marshy land is available for growing osiers—willows whose pliable twigs are used in furniture and basket-making.

This work, which is helping thousands of families to meet the hard times in agricultural industry, was learnt by many women and children during the war, when observation balloon and shell baskets, gun limber fittings, and other basket articles were required.

To-day these women, with children's help, are turning this war knowledge to profit. Their husbands are renting cheap land, often waste, low-lying land beside railway lines, and every process of the basket-making is being done at home.

The Shark Sucker.

The shark sucker, a defenceless and retiring fish, fastens itself to the surface of the voracious shark, but it is not harmed by the shark and the shark sucker does no harm to the shark, except to retard its motion. Shark suckers are carried about by sharks often to great distances. They attach themselves by a large sucking disk on the top of the head, which is a modified spinous dorsal fin. If the shark is caught and drawn out of the water, these fishes often let go and plunge into the sea, swimming away with great celerity.

This fish is found in Europe, on the coast of New York, in the West Indies, in California, and in Japan, but is nowhere abundant.

Longstanding.

Daniel Guestier, ex-president of the Bordeaux, France, Chamber of Commerce, is the head of a firm established in 1725. At that date another Daniel Guestier was head bailiff to the Comte de Segur, whose estates comprised the celebrated vineyards of Chateau Lafite and Chateau Latour. A Mr. Barton, whom the Dublin clubs sent frequently to France to secure supplies of claret, did business with Daniel Guestier, and they formed a partnership to trade in wine on their own account. The partnership has ever since been continued by the two families, who are now represented by the fourteenth of each name.

SUCCESSFUL SALE

The big sale of general merchandise put on by A. W. Phillips & Co. of Bristol, which started last Thursday and continues until Saturday, Nov. 1st when it closes, has been an unparalleled success. They state that it has been, so far the biggest sale they ever had in the history of their business. On Thursday, when the sale opened, there were more than 1500 customers during the day, and the eight clerks in attendance were kept busy all through the day and evening. People came from all the surrounding places and the village of Bristol looked as if there was a big celebration of some kind going on, with its jam of automobiles and other vehicles. Wonderful bargains were given and customers left loaded down with their purchases and were highly pleased with the courteous treatment and good bargains. This sale closes Saturday night, Nov. 1.

Bones, the butcher, had been very busy with a well-worn dictionary. Suddenly he closed it with a snap and growled at his wife in the cash desk. "That Mrs. Smart is getting too clever."

"What's the matter?" she queried. "When she came in just now she told me I ought to rename my scales the Ambuscade brand."

"Well, why?" began his wife.

"I've looked up the word and it means 'to lie in wait.'"

"Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled"

Mr. E. P. Kimball, Entwistle, Alta., writes:

"Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids and in spite of several remedies, grew worse until at the age of sixteen months her eyes could not be opened after sleep without bleeding, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."
