SUDDEN DEATH OF TWO MEN IN WOODS

Ritchie's Camp on Little River
Loses Workers By Sudden
Illness

Ritchie's Camp on the Little River branch of the North West Miramichi was the scene of several sudden and mysterious illnesses a few days ago, as the result of which two men are dead, presumably from spinal meningitis, James Lynch of Nelson died on Saturday on his way home from the camp, having been seized with illness a short time before. Ernest Stewart of Allison Settlement took sick Saturday afternoon with numbness of the limb, and was taken to camp. During the night he complained of great pain in his head, and about 4 p. m., Sunday, they started to take him home. He died on the way about three hours later.

Both bodies were brought to Maltby's undertaking establishment here. Mr. Lynch on Sunday and Mr. Stewart on Monday.

Monday afternoon Dr. Desmond and Col. Maltby started for the Camp to investigate conditions and fumigate if necessary. Most of the men had deserted the camp.

THE INTERNATIONAL ENJOYING A RUSH

The International Railway is establishing new records for a railway in the first season of its operation. There are many lines of its size which find it necessary to run special trains almost daily in addition to their regular service, but this is the experience of the management of this road. Thomas Malcolm, the owner of the railway, who was in St. John on Dec. 12, said that owing to the great rush of business the road is being kept remarkably busy and the traffic is steadily increasing. The bulk of the business is supplied by the logging camps which, he says, have found the railway a great aid to their operations. The saving in time and expense in getting the men and supplies to the camps and getting the product out has given great stimulus to the lumber operations, and the cut in the district served by the railway will be greater than it has ever been.

One noticeable feature, he says, is the larger number of small operators engaged in the work, who were not able in the past to undertake the heavy expense of getting a crew to the woods and taking the logs out. The business promises to be profitable on account of the low expense rate and because of the way they are able to get all the possible revenue out of their cut. They are cutting not only the heavy timber but also telegraph and telephone poles, fence posts, railway ties and pulpwood. The operators will take out 250,000 ties this winter, which is more than the whole province produced last year, and as the price has quadrupled in the last ten years, this, he declares, is a good paying business.

Mr. Malcolm arrived in the city in his private car on the Fredericton train Monday morning and left for Campbellton by the Maritime express on Tuesday evening. He is accompanied by Mrs. Malcolm and Miss Ethel Malcolm and Miss Mackay of Bathurst.

A Carol of Christmas

By STEPHEN LEACOCK, Illustrated by F. GRADPON

We live in a time when our morals sublime,
Will never allow us to sin. Sedate and serene,
We abhor Lager Beer
And start at the mention of gin.—
When he who gets frisky on overproof whisky
Falls under a social indictment,
And learns to be gay in a protestant way
Without alcoholic excitement.
But oh! once a year take no thought of your soul
Here's Xmas, Old Xmas, come fill up the bowl.
Let's drink to the Folly, the Fun and the Holly, the bright Evergreen Mistero
See that artful old Jade, the ambitious old maid, as she stands with a
Came, come, be a rina
Or pretend if you can
Don't dodge in the background to miss her
You're not such a very select Huckleberry, it won't hurt your morals to kiss her!

Here's to Xmas, Merry Xmas, lets be wicked just for fun,
Let's be utterly abandoned, lets be morally undone,
Let us revel like the Devil, let's do anything that's tough
Hunt the slipper, fill the dipper, play the Wicked Blind Mans Bur
Let me hug the Beaming curate, let me kiss the maiden aunt,
Female cousins by the dozens that's the kind of thing I want.
Here's to Xmas, Rude old Xmas, with the frost upon the pane
Hear the tinkle of the sleigh bells, Santa Claus has come again—
Bring the presents, light the tapers, fetch the little children in
With their dancing eyes of wonder for the party to begin.
Don't keep them round in happy armfuls, fill them solid up with cake,
Don't let an inspiration just to hear the noise they make
Out with care! away with worry! eat and drink your fill, oh, pahaw

Once a year is all too seldom
Here's to Xmas
Hip hooray!!

Stephen Leacock

BUYING THE XMAS TREE

Learn why PURITY FLOUR is unlike any other brand

PURITY FLOUR is unlike any other brand of flour. No two milling companies follow exactly the same process of milling. In fact, no two different brands of flour in the world are exactly alike in quality.

And here is another fact worth knowing: Every wheat berry contains both high-grade and low-grade portions. The process of milling PURITY flour costs more than to mill ordinary flour. The low-grade portions are separated and excluded. PURITY is an ALL HIGH-GRADE, hard wheat flour. It has greater strength, greater absorption and greater expansion. It is a thirstier, more elastic flour. It drinks more water and expands into more loaves.

Use PURITY FLOUR for your next batch of bread. Count the loaves. You'll find you have made "MORE BREAD AND BETTER BREAD" from PURITY than when you've used an equal weight of weaker and cheaper flour.

PURITY FLOUR
"More bread and better bread"

IMAGINE, if you can, how much whiter, and more toothsome, and more nutritious, the bread made from such a HIGH-GRADE flour must be.

And can you imagine yourself enjoying the flaky pie-crust and the light, delicate cake?—your reward for using PURITY flour

When making pastry, please remember to add more shortening than required with ordinary flour—for on account of its extra strength, PURITY FLOUR requires more shortening for best pastry-results

Yes, PURITY FLOUR costs slightly more than ordinary flour. But use it once and you'll say it's worth more—much more—than the difference.

Add PURITY FLOUR to your grocery list right now.

FIFTY YEARS AN EDITOR

Senator John V. Ellis celebrated on Wednesday last the fiftieth anniversary of his assumption of the editorship of the St. John's Globe which he founded in 1861. Such a golden jubilee, we believe, unique in the history of editors. A fifty page paper was issued.

Senator Ellis has always conducted his paper independently and fearlessly, refusing to trim his sails to avoid public or party opposition or to gain pecuniary or political advantages. No daily paper in Canada has been fairer or more moderate than the St. John's Globe, and although often temporarily banned by certain sections and interests, the wisdom of its course has in most instances been vindicated.

We congratulate Senator Ellis and his paper upon their successful career and hope that both he and it will long be spared to continue their work.

A Correspondent Wants a Plebiscite on Tax Increases.

Editor Union Advocate,
 Dear Sir, There are two matters that I would like to call the attention of your readers to viz., the proposed increase in dog taxes, and the proposed amendment to the sewerage by-law.

A pledge given by nearly everyone who ever sat at the Council Board was to the effect that they would do all in their power to reduce taxation; yet the very first move they ever made was to raise the tax on this or some other thing. Now, Mr. Editor, this matter of taxation has gone far enough. Before the taxes should be raised on dogs or sewerage, let us have a plebiscite and let the ratepayers decide these important matters that are of such a vital interest to their pocketbooks.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space I have used in your valuable journal, I remain,

MORE ANON.

WEDDING BELLS

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Stavert. The couple were attended by Wm. Dunn, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Wm. Dunn. A dainty wedding supper was served to the guests, and the old-fashioned charivari was slurred by a generous treat to the assembled crowd. On the 8th Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore left for a short wedding trip. They will reside in Midgie.

RESTIGOUCHE HAS ONE PROGRESSIVE FARMER

R. Hicks Carries Off Prizes at Amherst Winter Fair.

It is indeed gratifying to us to learn that one farmer in this county has had the enterprise and courage to go into scientific live stock raising, and that his effort even in so short a time have been so successful is fully borne out by the fact that in competition with farmers from all over the Maritime provinces he has succeeded in winning a number of first prizes for his dairy cattle and has also earned a name for his stock all over these provinces which will mean much in dollars and cents to him.

This farmer is R. Hicks of Dalhousie Junction and we are indeed happy to be able to congratulate him on his success, and trust that more of our farmers will follow his example.

BOY SCOUTS FIGHTING CONSUMPTION

The Boy Scouts of the country, ever true to their creed, have enlisted in the battle against consumption. Under the direction of their superior officers, they are planning to do real substantial work in the selling of stamps, between now and the end of the year. Living up to their motto that each scout shall each day do some kindness to another, the boys have resolved that this slogan can be well made effective in the selling of Christmas Stamps to help on the great work being done for needy consumptives in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. In fact, the young people everywhere, in Public Schools, Sabbath Schools, and through their many different organizations, are proving themselves a wonderful help in this Christmas Stamp campaign. If no one in your town is active in this work—if you want to be active—write the Secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, and learn all about the possibilities of this little one-cent Messenger of Healing.

DON'T LET THAT COUGH ROB YOU OF SLEEP

You probably know all too well how it goes. Just as you doze off, the tickling starts in your throat. A gentle cough, still asleep. A harder cough, and then another. First thing you know, you're wide awake, coughing your head off.

A few nights of that and you're so worn out and weakened that the cough takes a tight grip on you.

But why endure it?

Na-Dra-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne will soothe that exasperating tickling, loosen the phlegm and cure the inflammation of the mucous membrane. It not only stops the cough quickly, allowing you to get sound, refreshing sleep, but it goes to the root of the trouble and drives out the cold completely. Children willingly take Na-Dra-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne, because it tastes so good. Your Druggist has it or can quickly get it for you in 25c. and 50c. bottles. The Longest Night

By GEO. A. FORDEN

We're grown up now; we're getting old; we dress ourselves alone; Our criss are put away and we've a bedroom all our own. It's next to Mother's room, of course, and she don't shut the door, But if she should we wouldn't care—a great deal—any more. We've left off curls for months and months; we just hate baby plays, And Mother says she's 'fraid that soon we'll lose our cunning ways; But though we are so old and big, and though we always get A lot of Christmas presents, still the thing that makes us fret Is that although We've listened so And watched and watched for Santa Claus, who brings 'em—do you know, We've never seen him yet!

On Christmas eve, when we're in bed, 'way off alone up-stairs, And Mother's come and tucked us in and heard us say our prayers And said "good night" and kissed us, and the lamp is just a spark That makes the bureau and the chairs look knobby lumps of dark, And great big shadows hide behind the open closet door, And through the window-panes the moon makes patchwork on the floor, And everything's so queer and dim and strange without the light— Then 'twould be fun to snuggle down and shut our eyes up tight So's not to see; But, no sir-ee!

Oh! Santa's coming, and we've crossed our hearts and vowed to be Wide, wide awake all night.

It's oh, so still! We try to talk, but always when we do It sounds so loud and plain we're glad when every whisper's through. In on the shelf of Mother's room the clock, that moves so quick When daylight's here, now takes a week for every single tick. The wind outside comes whimp'ring round and whining at the eaves, And mocking at the shivering trees, all cold without their leaves. We're certain sure we've laid awake, already, 'most a year. We're 'fraid that Santa's skipped our house and isn't coming here Then in the gloom Of Mother's room, That old clock whirs and starts to strike; we count, Boom! boom! boom! boom! What? Only ten? Oh, dear!

There never, never was a night before one half so long! It's stiller'n ever now; the wind has hushed its crying song And just hums soft and sleepy, and the bed feels warm and snug; The moon's put out its lamp and there's no patchwork on the rug. Our eyes feel sort of sticky, and we wink and wink and wink, And we don't care to whisper now, we'd rather lie and think About old Santa, how he comes around through snow and wet, And 'bout his reindeer team, and 'bout the things we're going to get. And why! well, say! It's Christmas Day! We fall asleep in spite of all; he's come and gone away, And we've not seen him yet!

60 SANTA in HEAVEN

BY FRANCES GILBREATH INGERSOLL

Could I but turn backward I would wish I might empty old time in his flight, And be as a child again, just for one night; With faith—as a child's in its christmasy lore— That the largesse I craved would be mine as of yore.

I would wish I might empty the stocking of life, Of all of its bitterness, envy, and strife; Heart-hunger and longing, and sorrow and ruth; And dreams unfulfilled of that faraway youth.

The music and pleasure, the sunshine and glee; The beauty of living, the clear sight to see The chances of life, to few only given;

To walk "bravely shodden" the path-way to heaven. I'll pray — "Of thy 'children' tho poorest I be, Dear Santa in heaven, forget not thou me."

SEASONABLE THOUGHTS

We will cut down expenses but not invite Hard Times to teach us the lessons of Economy. Besides, Hard Times doesn't tarry when folks are too busy to entertain him.

No more chasing of rainbows, mad enough to sell her to the best There isn't gold enough, at the end to trust. furnish a fellow with the credentials for getting into a slim poker game. We shall decide that while we're living in this old world we don't get any where by winking at the stars and over in the New Year, we shan't get telling them they'd suit us better.

BETHLEHEM TOWN

Eugene Field

As I was going to Bethlehem-town, Upon the earth I cast me down All underneath a little tree That whispered in this wise to me: "Oh, I shall stand on Calvary And bear what burthen saveth thee!"

As up I fared to Bethlehem-town, I met a shepherd coming down. And thus he quoth: "A wondrous sight Hath spread before mine eyes this night— An angel host most fair to see, That swag full sweetly of a tree That shall uplift on Calvary 'What burthen saveth you and me!"

And as I got to Bethlehem-town, Let who men came that bore a crown "Is there," cried I, "in Bethlehem a King shall wear this diadem?" "Good sooth," they quoth, "and 'tis He That shall be lifted on the tree And freely shed on Calvary 'What blood redeemeth us and thee!"

Into a Child in Bethlehem-town The wise men came and bro't the crown. And while the infant smiling slept, Upon their knees they fell and wept; But, with her babe upon her knee, Naught recked that Mother of the tree, That should uplift on Calvary 'What burthen saveth all and me.

Arise I wail in Bethlehem-town And think on Him that wears the crown I may not kiss His feet again, Nor worship Him as I did then; My King hath died upon the tree, And bath poured out on Calvary 'What blood redeemeth you and me!

FIVE MISCHIEVOUS FAIRIES AT THE ICE PALACE

No king's palace ever was so gorgeous as the Ice Palace which is built some winters on Dominion square in Montreal.

No better place can be imagined for five mischievous fairies to gather than the great Ice Palace — to play tricks on Lady Montague, Lord Mont Royal and other folks who have no titles at all.

No five fairies ever had a finer time than Gnomie, Koboldie, Pixie, Puck and Salamander on the night of which we write — and we don't know even half of the naughty things they did.

Here's one: Gnomie pulled off Lord Mont Royal's wig. A page at the Mont Royal mansion on Sherbrooke-st was blamed for this and lost his job; but the fairies took care of him.

Koboldie made Lady Montague's false hair fall off her head right before the great crowd in front of the Windsor hotel—and the maid who was discharged was also taken care of by the mischievous but kindly fairies.

Pixie, Puck and Salamander actually stole the furs from the sleigh of some very rich Canadians, as the sleighs waited around the Ice Palace. Drivers who couldn't explain how it happened suffered for this, but were provided with work by the fairy jokers.

And the five mischievous fairies seemed to have an inspiration for they began to take from the rich and give to the poor.

But if they took an ermine cape from a great lady and left it on the doorstep of a washerwoman marked "From Santa Claus," the ermine had become wolf skin by the time the washerwoman opened the package.

If braided horses' tails became unbraided, and if unbraided manes and tails became tightly woven into pretty figures, no coachman or hostler lost his job. For the fairies whispered the word "Fairy" into the ears of the owners of such outfits until the owners were deeply impressed.

Of course it made big policemen blush rosy red to tell Chief La Fontaine after the great fete was over, that the police could find only one way to explain all these strange things—FAIRIES—but Monsieur La Fontaine being a wise man, readily understood that fairies were beyond his ken, and the big policeman suffered no hardship, either. They couldn't be expected to catch fairy mischief.

15 YEARS A DYSPEPTIC

Forced to Live on Stale Bread and Porridge.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" CURED HIM

AVONDALE, N. B., October, 15th.
"I have been a great sufferer from indigestion for fifteen years. I was forced to deny myself all such hearty foods as beans, meats, potatoes and could not drink tea or coffee. For the past two years, I lived on porridge, stale bread, etc. I had treatment from two doctors, and tried nearly every kind of medicine, but got worse.

"Finally I saw a testimonial of 'Fruit-a-tives' and concluded to give them a trial. I took nearly four boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and they have made me feel like a new man. I can eat all kinds of hearty foods without suffering, and am no longer constipated."

LEMUEL A. W. BROWN.

Many people look on "Fruit-a-tives" as a miraculous medicine. It has indeed performed what have seemed like miraculous cures in hundreds of cases of chronic indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fresh fruit juices and valuable tonics. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

STETSON CUTLER & CO. BUY RICHARDS' MILL AT CAMPBELLTON

William H. Gunter, son of the late H. H. Gunter, last week closed a deal for the purchase of the Babbitt estate mill at St. Marys at Fredericton. ### XMAS EVE

There'll be many a black, black eye
Mother
But none so black as mine.
You'll find me trawling the harbor
You—wake and call me early.
Call me early, mother dear,
For tomorrow will be the busiest day
Of all this strenuous year;
Of all this strenuous year, mother,
The maddest, cruelest day,
For I am going shopping, mother,
The foremost in the fray.
So call me early, pray.

By George A. Forden.

Babe, so long ago enshrined
In a stable bare and gray,
Something of Thy sweeter mind,
Of Thy love for all Thy kind,
Rules us on Thy natal day,
And because a shepherd hand—
Sages, too, with gifts in train—
Kneel and kissed a baby hand,
Yearning for some wee command,
To-day a child shall reign.

Taking Down The Stockings

By GEO. A. FORDEN

"What did you get in yours,
Jim and Eddie?"
"Look what I've got in mine,
Tom and Freddie!"
"A box of candied dates."
"Gee whiz! A pair of scales!"
"An engine, cars, and truck—"
"Oh, the poor jumping jack,
Broken already!"

"What did you get in yours,
Jessie—Molly?"
"Look, what I found in mine!"
"A talking doll!"
"I'll show you how she cries!"
"Oh, look! She shuts her eyes!"
"Mittens—and slumber socks—"
"Tea-set—and building blocks—"
"Gooey, low jolly!"

"What did you find in yours,
Grown-up brother?"
"Why not look in your own,
Little Mother?"
(Mother and Father say
They'd rather watch than play;
Presents enough, they trust,
They've got in having just
Us, and each other!)

Too Late to Cheer.
No—leave my heart to rest, if rest it may,
When youth, and love, and hope have passed away.
Could'st thou, when summer hours are fled,
To some poor leaf that's fall'n and dead
Bring back the hue it wore, the scent it shed?
—leave this heart to rest, if rest it may,
When youth, and love, and hope have passed away.

Both A Bread Flour And A Pastry Flour

"A woman always wants a reason, but never gives one".
So we are going to tell you just why "Beaver" Flour is a bread flour and a pastry flour—as good for one as for the other—and best for both.

Ontario Fall Wheat is the most nutritious wheat in the world—rich in flesh and strength building qualities and with a full rich flavor and splendid pastry making qualities. Manitoba Spring Wheat has more strength than Ontario Fall Wheat—but is not so good for pastry.

Naturally, the perfect flour is the one that combines the good qualities of both Ontario and Manitoba wheat. This is exactly what "Beaver" Flour does. It is a blend of Ontario Fall Wheat and Western Spring Wheat. It contains exact quantities of each. "Beaver" Flour has the real home made flavor that a Western Wheat flour lacks—it makes deliciously light, tasty Cakes, Pies and Fancy Pastry.

Order "Beaver" Flour

For your next baking day. Put it to the test. Try it for both Bread and Pastry—and see for yourself the convenience and economy of using a true blended Flour. Write us for prices on Feed, Coarse Grains and Meals.
