MODERN SCHOOL FOR LAWRENCE TOWN

Question Up Once More — Action Deferred Till Another Meeting

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Meetings On Missions, Musical Entertainments, Good Programme At Women's Institute.

Lawrencetown.—Rev. Mr. Gillis, Presbyterian minister, preached a sermon in the Methodist Church. Mr. Gillis is a young gentleman of fine appearance, a graduate of Pine Hill Theological College, Halifax. His sermon was thoughtful, and eloquent. We hope to hear him again. Mr. Gillis called upon the Presbyterians in the town who were delighted to see him. Dr. J. B. and Mrs. Hall entertained him in their hospitable home.

Sunday evening a splendid service was held in the Baptist Church. The Brotherhood were out in force filled the choir seats, while a large congregation filled the church. Mrs. R. Shaffer was organist, Mr. Pearson violinist. The male choir sang well some of the well known hymns and can be congratulated upon the excellent fine selections. Lawrencetown local ability of the people. Rev. Mr. Curran from India, gave a vivid account of past and present India. Told of present unrest there, also of the firm will of Britain. Rev. A. D. Whitman presided over the devotional part of the service. Mr. Edgar Shaffer, President of the Brotherhood, in his usual pleasant manner, spoke a few words to the people. Mr. Thomas Bishop also took part. This meeting will not be soon forgotten by those who were fortunate to be present. Mrs. Charles Lowell, Miss C. Elliott were present and gave an interesting talk about Mission work in India.

Methodist S. S. met at home of Mrs. Homer Daniels. A good number present, though the night was cold and stormy.

Tuesday evening Baptist social met at Mrs. D. M. Balcom's. Music, readings and pleasant conversation made the hours pass quickly away. Principal Banks, Mr. Stoddart, Rev. A. D. Whitman, gave some readings. Mrs. J. Stoddart was the organist for the evening.

Monday evening school meeting. The usual question of a new building or repairs to the present one, came up. Another meeting will be held to give more consideration to this important matter.

Mr. W. McKewen, Mrs. D. B. Balcom, Mrs. Pidgeon, on returning from Bridgetown, were thrown out of the sleigh. The spirited horse did not stop to see what had happened, but ran away. We are glad to say none of the party were injured.

Miss Riley and Miss Parks are in town visiting friends.

Miss Hicks spent week-end at the home of Mrs. J. Stoddart.

Mr. H. Freeman was in town on his usual week-end visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliott and two nephews, came to town on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster have moved to Bridgetown.

Mr. Hector Whitman has moved to the home of Mr. W. W. Whitman, South Lawrencetown.

Passengers and mails came from Middleton by sleighs.

Mrs. Pearl Pidgeon has gone to the hospital, Middleton.

Mrs. Silver, of Williamson, has returned to her home in much better health and strength, from her visit to town.

Women's Institute met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. O. Bishop. A good many attended. The papers prepared were one on "Best Flowers to raise for decoration of house and grounds", by Mrs. R. D. Shaffer; "Best Flowers for house decoration", by Mrs. W. Dent; "Spring Fashions", a capital paper, by Mrs. I. C. Archibald.

EXPORTATION OF CANADIAN CATTLE TO SCOTLAND

The removal of the embargo on the shipment of Canadian live stock to this country, there is opened up a NEW and IMPORTANT MARKET for Scotland for a very considerable number of good cattle. Resumed after a lapse of about thirty years, the trade will be, to all intents and purposes, a NEW business, carried on under NEW conditions.

A hen is the only creature on earth that can sit still and produce a dividend.

FIRST MEETING OF REORGANIZED B. Y. P. U.

The first meeting of the B. Y. P. U. after being re-organized, was held on Friday evening in the vestry of the Baptist Church with a large attendance.

Rev. A. J. Prosser was appointed President and Muriel Miller Vice-President.

The prospects for the future are very bright, as all the members are enthusiastically taking their part in carrying on the work of the B. Y. P. U.

ORGANIZE TO BRING SETTLERS

"The city and town people want more men on the land. It is to their interest that there should be more agricultural producers. Their very existence fundamentally rests upon it. But do our agriculturists want settlement? If not, why not? Those engaged in agriculture have difficulty in making a living and it is thought that if more come in, and more is produced they will have still greater difficulty in making ends meet. On the face of it, and without looking at the matter in a broad way, one would think their argument to be sound. It is false, however, in every particular. The more products of a certain grade produced by a given locality, the better are the chances of profitable returns. This is abundantly evident, for example, in the fruit industry of the Annapolis Valley. If there is production in abundance, there will be organization to grow more cheaply and to sell to best advantage.

"A country section with a few farmers producing a few pounds of butter each, cannot progress like the more populated district producing, with well-organized creamery and selling department, a uniformly high-grade product.

"We are not over producing, the fault is not there. We are not producing a bulk of standard grade products sufficiently large to create a healthy active spirit for large production of high quality. Consequently we lack PROGRESS.

"You must have the support of the people of rural districts in order to make settlement possible on an extensive scale. This is not a matter of town or of city interest only. It is more vitally, a matter of country interest, and yet the country is apparently not greatly interested.

"It was the thought of Mr. Sealy expressed in his speech in the House that prompted the activity shown by this delegation. He decided wisely that the way to get at the root of this trouble was to get the immigration department in touch with the people. He developed in his mind the formation of a 'Settlement Bureau'. I want to say that in the opinion of this body of delegates, if this suggestion of Mr. Sealy is acted upon, we believe it will go further than any one thing that has been attempted by your government towards bringing about the settlement conditions so much desired by us all.

"This is not a matter of settlement for crop production only. Many may wish to settle on small places near towns. They will require aid and direction, and such aid cannot be given effectively from Halifax. The agency must be located nearer to the centre of activity.

"Whereas, agriculture is the basis of national prosperity; and whereas, such prosperity results through greater production from the land, made possible largely through greater land settlement; and whereas, it has been brought to our attention that certain British officers, retired from the Indian service, are likely to seek homes in Nova Scotia and in other parts of the Maritime Provinces, many of whom doubtless desire to take up agricultural pursuits; and whereas, Nova Scotia offers to settlers prospects as satisfying as those of any other country;

"Therefore be it resolved, that we the executives of the Kentville and Wolfville Boards of Trade, in joint session on behalf of the Boards of Trade of these respective towns, urge the government of Nova Scotia to take immediate steps to organize an immigration effort so that as many as possible of the said, and other settlers, may be located in Nova Scotia, and that every assistance necessary for their best direction after being located, be supplied so that contentment may result and further settlement be thereby stimulated.

"Further resolved, that in our opinion it is desirable, in order to make settlement effective, that an Immigration Bureau be established in the various counties of Nova Scotia offering the best facilities for such settlers, and that the officials of such bureau start at once to collect data that will enable the handling of such settlement problems to be carried out in an efficient and expeditious manner.

"Furthermore, in the development of this scheme the Boards of Trade represented, are desirous of co-operation to the extent of rendering any assistance possible."

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING

R. S. Leonard Retires After Nearly 11 Years on School Board.—Mr. David Freeman Celebrates 90th Birthday.

The Literary Society met Tuesday evening, March 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Starratt. The following programme was given: Chorus—"The Foaming Sea". Paper—"Before Sunrise". Mr. R. A. Longley. Duet—"The Enchanted Glade". Miss Bishop, Mr. E. G. Morse. Reading—"Thunder-storm Among the Alps", Byron.—Mr. H. A. Longley.

Paper—"The Marine Gardens of the Channel Isles". Rev. W. S. Smith. Reading—"The Old Swimming Hole". Whitcomb Riley, Mrs. H. D. Starratt. Solo, "The Wee Little Hut on the Hill". Mr. E. G. Morse.

The final meeting of the Winter will be held March 19th in Longley's Hall. The Women's Missionary Society held its March meeting Tuesday afternoon, the 6th, at the home of Mrs. Millega Daniels. An excellent programme was prepared by Mrs. Carey Durling and committee on the subject "Medical Missions". At the close of the meeting the Mite Society held its yearly business meeting, electing officers for the new year and reporting moneys earned and spent during the past twelve months. The report was a good one. At the close of this meeting Mrs. Daniels, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Balcom, served one of their sumptuous repasts.

The Women's Institute met Friday, the 9th, with Mrs. Minnie Rice and Mrs. Rupert Chesley. A social feature of the afternoon was a fancy bag contest, which was won by Mrs. Boehner. A letter was read by the President, Miss Bridge, from friends in Constantinople, graphically portraying the present situation of many in that city who live "packed up" so to speak, and in constant fear of the Turk's next move. The subject of Public Health was considered and a story entitled "Mopping up Denver" was read by Mrs. Smith. The regular tea was served to the goodly number present.

The annual school meeting occurred Monday evening, March 5th. Mr. R. S. Leonard, after ten years as trustee and seven years as Secretary, tendered his resignation. Mr. Leonard's long and faithful service has been greatly appreciated by the section. Mr. A. P. Boehner and Col. C. E. Bent were the new trustees elected.

One of our oldest residents, Mr. David Freeman, celebrated his 90th birthday, March 9th. As far as we know Mr. Freeman is the oldest living member of the Paradise Church. The past year he has been in feeble health, having had one very serious illness and at time of writing is suffering from a severe cold.

Word was received here Saturday morning, the 10th, of the sudden death of Mrs. George Pearson, former resident of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson have been living in Portland, Me., since they sold their home here two years ago. At time of writing word has not been received regarding the funeral services, as Mr. Pearson also is very ill.

Mr. Freeman Currie, ministerial student at Acadia, made a short visit here last week calling at the parsonage.

Mr. Kenneth Brooks has returned from several weeks business trip to Texas.

Mrs. Norman Longley spent several days in Digby last week visiting with Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Paradise, who are spending the Winter there.

Mrs. L. T. Porter, of Yarmouth, was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Philney.

Rev. E. S. Mason, Superintendent of Home Missions for the Maritime Provinces, preached in the church on Paradise and Clarence.

LOCAL HOCKEY GIRLS PLAY AT WOLFVILLE

Bridgetown girls hockey team played Wolfville girls' team on Monday night and were defeated 2 to 0, in a fast interesting game, witnessed by a large number of spectators. There was no score in the first period. Leta Gertrude scored for Wolfville in the second and Frances Patriquin for Wolfville in the third.

Our girls played a fine defence and were on the whole the better skaters, but Wolfville girls the better shooters. The local girls speak most highly of their visit. The fans were most impartial in applause and the Wolfville girls all the best of sports.

After the match skating was enjoyed to excellent band music and later the girls were royally entertained at the home of Miss Lillian Taylor.

NEW MARRIAGE LAW PLANNED IN TURKEY

Geneva.—A bill for the adoption of a series of new marriage laws of a drastic character will, according to a statement by a member of the Turkish delegation at Lausanne, shortly be introduced in the National Assembly at Angora.

It is proposed that a single man of twenty-five years of age shall be compelled to marry unless, after medical examination, he is found to be suffering from incurable illness.

A married man who is obliged to travel unaccompanied by his wife must notify the local authorities to that effect. If his absence exceeds a specified time limit he must marry another woman and bring his second wife home on his return.

A person who, having reached the age of twenty-five, shall refuse to marry, will be liable to have one-fourth part of his income confiscated, such money being applied towards marriage costs among his poor.

No employment, either in a public post or by a private firm, is to be given to a man who is unmarried at the age of twenty-five.

A rich man more than fifty years of age who has only one wife must either take a second wife or support one or more orphans.

Free grants of land are to be made to poor persons who have married before the age of twenty-five.

ALBANY

Mrs. Neander Whitman, who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks is slowly improving. Dr. Messenger is in attendance. Mrs. Howard Selig has proved herself an efficient nurse.

Mrs. H. Merry, of Lawrencetown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. C. Merry.

Mrs. George Fair spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Phinney, Farmington.

Deacon Phinney and Mrs. Whitman were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Whitman, all of last week.

Mrs. Louise Andrews is getting through the Winter better than we anticipated.

Our mail driver, Mr. Almon Oakes, has had a hard Winter with heavy roads almost blocked with snow.

Mrs. Frank Dunlap, of Sydney Mines, is expected to spend Easter vacation with her parents. Her son, Arthur, now at Wolfville University, will come here to enjoy the holidays with his mother.

Farmers have been shovelling roads to the woods to get their next Winter's fuel, and Saturday's terrific storm has filled them up again.

Messrs. Clayton and Kenneth Zwicker are laying telephone wires to put a telephone in Davidson's lumber camp. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oakes are Wintering well at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whyton.

Mrs. A. B. Fair is expected home any day.

BOY SCOUTS FOR BRIDGETOWN

Visit From Asst. Prov. Commissioner Eaman, Organization to be made Shortly.

Assistant Provincial Commissioner of Boy Scouts, Mr. H. O. Eaman, of Halifax, was a visitor in town this week and met with a number of the clergymen and other citizens and discussed the formation of troops of Scouts in Bridgetown. While no definite time has been set for organization it is expected to have all details arranged in the very near future.

For the past three weeks or so Mr. Eaman has been in different towns in this part of Nova Scotia visiting Scout Troops, organizing or taking preliminary steps in others. While here he met a number of the boys in St. James' Parish Hall and discussed with them matters connected with the Scouts and found them favorably disposed.

There are troops in Canning, Kentville, Digby, Yarmouth and Paradise. Troops have been recently organized in Lawrencetown and in Bear River and organization is to be made in Middleton and possibly in Annapolis.

There is also a proposal on foot to have a large number of Scout camps during the Summer as for instance Digby and Annapolis boys to have one camp, South Shore Counties another, Cape Breton another, and so on.

DIED

At Portland, Maine, March 10th, of pneumonia, Minnie C. Pearson, wife of Leigh Pearson, formerly of Paradise, N. S. The remains will be brought here for interment.

Lyall B. Denton passed away at an early hour yesterday morning at the home of Mr. Chas. Bacon, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He leaves a father and several brothers. A native of Little River. For the past few months he has made his home in Bridgetown where he conducted a small store in the old Grand Central Hotel building. Of a genial nature, he made quite a number of friends who regret his demise. Interment takes place at Little River.

LECTURE ON N. S. BIRDS

Mr. R. W. Tufts, Chief Federal Migratory Bird Officer, Gives Splendid Illustrated Address

Mr. R. W. Tufts, Chief Federal Migratory Bird Officer of the Maritime Provinces, gave a splendid lecture in Primrose Theatre on Thursday evening on Migratory Birds and Birds of Nova Scotia generally. The theatre was filled to capacity an interesting feature being the large number of boys and girls present. Just the ones at the receptive age when information of the class given is liable to do most good.

The lecture was illustrated by about sixty different slides and about fifty different varieties of birds were shown in their native habitats, among these a beautiful sea bird, the Gannet, which had had fair to become extinct through the activity of fishermen who slaughtered the young and the tame old birds. Sanctuaries so called have been established for these birds on Bird Rock, Perce Rock and the Island of Bonaventure so that these birds are now increasing in numbers. Proposals have been made to establish sanctuaries at Mud Rocks and other islands off the Nova Scotia coast for terns and other sea birds which breed in large numbers on these islands.

Besides the sea birds were shown game and non game insectivorous birds and their benefit to the farmer and incidentally to the whole country was clearly portrayed. The pictures were closed with a slide devoted to the house cat, an inveterate enemy of birds. The speaker forecasted a time when cats would be under license system just as dogs are at present and admonished the boys and girls to see that the cats were kept well fed and kept as much as possible from places where birds were nesting.

Rev. J. H. Freestone presided and the audience were greatly pleased both with the lecture and with the illustrations accompanying it. Mr. Tufts is receiving numerous invitations to present this lecture which is both interesting and instructive.

LAST CARNIVAL OF THE SEASON

LIST OF SKATERS

Great Showing in Prize Winners List By West Paradise, Good Music And Good Ice.

The last carnival of the season took place in Bridgetown rink on Tuesday night of last week and like its predecessors, was well attended. The ice was in excellent condition and the Bridgetown band rendered a stirring and interesting programme. The number of skaters in costume was not quite so large as in the preceding carnival, but the various representations were well gotten up, and the general effect produced was very nice indeed.

The judges were: Dr. Warey, town; Miss Bridge, West Paradise, and Mr. H. E. Findlay, of St. John.

Ladies first prize went to Mrs. W. D. Lockett as "Queen of Hearts". Special mention to Miss Hattie Anderson, "Sweet Sixteen", to Miss Bertha Fulmer, as "Angel", to Mrs. S. N. Wear, as "Rambler Rose", to Miss Marion Fowler, as "Indian Corn".

Prize for ladies funniest costume to Miss Vera Poole, West Paradise, "Choose Your Wife in the Morning". Men's prize for best costume to Eugene Poole, West Paradise, as "Argentinian".

Special mention to Jesse Saunders, West Paradise, as "Jazz Band", to James Fay as "Russian Peasant Girl". The prize for funniest costume to Mr. Harry Abbott, West Paradise, as "Mutt".

THE BERRIES

Berry acreages in British Columbia show increases in almost every district. There are 2,356 growers and 6,292 acres now devoted to raspberries, blackberries, huckleberries and strawberries. In addition there are 85½ acres planted to gooseberries, 42 to red currants, 128 to black currants, 111 to rhubarb. The total acreage increase was over 1,500 acres, as compared with 1921.—(C. P. R. BRITAIN AND FRANCE

Great Britain, by giving over to France a section of the Rhineland territory under British control, has made possible French operation of a dentile track railroad system which will greatly facilitate the transshipment of coal. This British action is to be read as a proof that whatever may be the official view of the wisdom of the French course, it is the British intention not to hinder, but to facilitate.

CANADA'S FUEL SUPPLY

Subject of Debate in House of Commons—Let Canada be Independent on This.

The problem of securing a fuel supply for Canada, to guard against any possibility of shortage in the central section of the Dominion through a stoppage in the supply of anthracite from the United States, occupied the time of the House of Commons Friday night. The debate arose on a vote, under Trade and Commerce Department, of $10,000 to the Engineering Society of Canada. Another vote in the estimates of $120,000 was for Scientific Research Council. H. H. Stevens, Conservative member for Vancouver Centre, and former Minister of Trade and Commerce, urged that the Scientific Research Council should be asked to devote its efforts toward seeking a solution of the fuel problem this year. The discussion of an embargo in the United States against anthracite exports was a warning which must not be disregarded. Canada had plenty of bituminous coal and he called the attention of the Government to suggestions by Sir Clifford Sifton and W. L. Wanklyn that coke ovens should be established at Montreal, Toronto and other centres where Nova Scotia coal might be coked in order that it might be used in central ports.

Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, replied that his department was investigating the possibilities of such a plan. The difficulties were largely transportation and output. Nova Scotia produced some 3,000,000 tons of bituminous coal annually. If coked at Montreal this would just about supply Quebec Province, and there was still Ontario to look after. For Ontario he favored the importation of United States bituminous coal which was plentiful and coking it at Toronto and other central points.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the Opposition, hoped that Canada would not again be forced to trust to luck for her coal supply. Many children had suffered intensely and some had died in the cities this winter from insufficient heat. Experiments with coke ovens and briquetting plants were all right, but the government should tackle the immediate problem, which was to see that Canada was not again in her present position of stumbling through the winter, trusting to luck. Mr. Meighen believed anthracite could be mined at more than one Alberta point for not more than $2.00 per ton. The country must be insured against future fuel famines and against the humiliation of having to send representatives on their knees to Washington to beg for coal.

Mr. Stewart declared his efforts were being directed towards finding a permanent solution of the country's fuel problems. It was not beyond the bounds of possibility that the United States would prohibit the export of anthracite within the fairly near future and it was certainly good to try. Within 350 miles of Toronto business to be prepared to use whatever fuel was available in this country was produced in the United States, bituminous coal the same as the Nova Scotia product. Provision for coking this coal at central points would mean that it could be satisfactorily and economically burned. As a resident of Alberta, Mr. Stewart said he would like to feel that the Province could look forward to supplying Ontario with coal, but transportation problems placed that out of the question.

Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, declared that the root of the trouble was not that there was a lack of it in the ground, but that it was not mined. I would not matter whether our coal came from Canada or the United States, if the operators and miners fell out, we could not get the coal.

SUPPORT MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE

The Halifax Herald says editorially:—We are glad to know that the Maritime Board of Trade is alive to the importance of obtaining the service of a thoroughly competent man who will devote himself to the work of studying in all of its phases the problem of Maritime railway transportation. It should be quite practicable to combine the general work of Secretary of the Board with the duties just referred to. There would probably be advantage in having one responsible man for the combined work.

There is no question of greater importance to the three Maritime Provinces than railway transportation. This is admitted. But what is every body's business is nobody's business. Concentration of effort is absolutely necessary. Leadership is just as necessary. Reliable data is essential. A fund of information should be provided so that the case for the Province can be presented with the force it deserves.

The Provincial Governments are, of course, sympathetic with the movement for Maritime railway rights. The Federal members of parliament are assumed to be equally interested. The Boards of Trade are doing their utmost. The people are waiting for developments. But there is a lack of co-ordination and co-operation. Recognized leadership is needed. The Maritime Board of Trade should be able to supply that leadership, but it must be supported; and it must have efficient machinery under its hand.

In addition to the usual funds available to such organizations there should be substantial contributions from the Provincial Governments. The work of establishing Maritime railway interests and rights is of an emergency character. It should be amply provided for. Assuming, as we do, that the Provincial Governments are in earnest in the matter, they should not hesitate a moment about providing substantial assistance for the Maritime Board of Trade to enable it to put a qualified man on the job of assembling the Maritime case.

FINANCE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

The Finance Committee submitted their report and estimates for the present year requirements $18,400 including $8,200 for schools. A rate of $2.50 on every $100 of assessable property and income in the town of Bridgetown. Further resolved that the Town Council authorize a rate of $1.50 per $100 for school purposes. Thus making the rate all told $4.00 per $100 assessed. Last year's rate was $3.75. The matter of settling the rate for the present year was very fully gone into and an increase was found essential. This has been made a small one and it is expected that the present rate continued for a short period will result in clearing up all accounts and the putting of the town finances in a splendid condition without any undue hardship upon the ratepayers.

The Clerk laid before the Council the special valuation for the year 1923 made by the Finance Committee of the Council of the properties and real estate in the district liable for the Granville East sewer extension as authorized and empowered by Chap. 51 of the Acts of the Legislature of Nova Scotia for the year 1915 entitled an Act to borrow money for the extension of a sewerage system of the town by Chap. 55 of the Acts of the year 1916.

Also special rate of 10c on the $100 to be known as the Highway Tax authorized and empowered by Chap. 3 of the Acts of the Province of Nova Scotia for the year 1917.

The Clerk laid before the Council the Assessment roll and valuation of the year 1923 as finally passed by the Assessment Appeal Court and certified to by him as required by Sec. 76 of the Assessment Act and amendments thereto.

It was moved, seconded and passed that the Finance Committee be appointed a committee to raise and correct the rate book of the town for the present year and to report at the next meeting of the Council to be held April 6th, 1923.

With reference to the overdraft at the Bank it was resolved to effect a temporary loan from the Royal Bank to the amount of $9,000.

LOBSTERS SCARE
Many of the lobster fishermen at Sandford, Short Beach and vicinity, also at Kelleys' Cove, who put out traps on Thursday, the opening of the season, pulled them on Friday but found the crustaceans very scarce. At the first named place we are informed that one fisherman hauled a string of sixteen traps and in the lot there was one lobster of marketable size and one tinker. Another man with a line of forty got one large lobster, while another with the same number of traps did not see one, while several others had similar experiences. Despite that, however, the lobster fishermen are very optimistic and all appear certain that there will be good fishing within a week or so, when the ice clears and the water consequently becomes warmer.—Yarmouth Herald.

Canada's Historic Loss

The Basilica at Quebec which for over 300 years has been an ornament of the ancient city and which was gutted by fire recently. It will be rebuilt at once. In the lower right hand corner is Cardinal Bevilacqua's palace seen from the steps of the monument to Bishop Laval. The palace adjoins the Basilica and narrowly escaped destruction. In the upper corner is the Chateau Frontenac which stands about a block away from the Basilica and which is here pictured for the first time with the new tower.

THE fire that destroyed the ancient Basilica at Quebec on the night of December 22nd, destroyed one of Canada's ancient landmarks that had long years ago assumed a place in the affections of the Canadian people quite irrespective of creeds. To Quebec city the loss is irreparable, and the Christmas season in that city has been to some extent marred by the disastrous event. English, French, Catholic and Protestant dwellers in Quebec Province alike feel the loss of this historic old building with its association with Canada's romantic past. The building itself spoke of other days. Its architecture was characteristic of Quebec city, and all who had visited it carried away a memory of a quaint old building, richer in historic interest than in architectural beauty, but none the less of great charm and an ornament to the city quite in keeping with the surroundings. The ancient edifice dated from 1647 and occupied ground in the vicinity of the first parish church in Quebec, Notre Dame de la Reconciliation erected by the founder of Quebec in 1633. The first Mass in the Basilica was said on Christmas Day, 1650, but it was not until 1666 that the church was consecrated by the first Bishop of Quebec, Mgr. De Laval, and opened for

YOUR NEWSPAPER

Aside from the number of single-track minds to be found in every community, the people generally appreciate the local newspaper—that intricate medium through which is mirrored each week the collective community activities. Your home newspaper bridges the gap; its chronicles of local news complete a circuit of information impossible to be obtained through any other medium of human locomotion or mechanical device. It brings the local community as vividly to the fireside as the morning sun reveals the surrounding landscape. It is a human institution, and therefore is imperfect but the courageous and sincere newspaper unflinchingly stands for what it believes to be the ultimate good of its town and district and province and country.

A QUESTION OF PUNCTUATION

A funny old man told this to me I fell in a snowdrift in June said he I went to a ball game out in the sea I saw a jelly fish float up in a tree I found some gum in a cup of tea I stirred my milk with a big brass key I opened my door on my bended knee I beg your pardon for this said he But 'tis true when told as it ought to be.

Tis a puzzle in punctuation you see. By the insertion of the necessary commas, periods, etc., it reads quite sanely. Try it.

TWO QUARTS OF FLOUR

Was What The Keeper At Mud Island Had When D. G. S. Aberdeen Reached There On Friday.

The D. G. steamer Aberdeen, Capt. Lorin A. Kenney, which left Yarmouth on Friday for Mud Islands and Blouie Rock, returned to port on Saturday afternoon. Capt. Kenney had previously had instructions from Ottawa to go to the Mud Islands, as there had been no communication with Lymon Nickerson, keeper of the islands, and those with him for over six weeks, consequently some concern was being felt regarding them and their supply of provisions. Capt. Kenney reported all well at the islands, but that their supply of flour was decidedly low, there being only two quarts on hand when the Aberdeen reached there on Friday. The scarcity of that commodity was due, Capt. Kenney learned, to the fact that early in the winter, Keeper Nickerson had his supply of potatoes so badly frozen that they were unfit to use, and in consequence a greater quantity of flour was used than earlier in the season, was planned for.—Yarmouth Herald.

LARGE INCREASE IN NOVA SCOTIA MOTOR VEHICLES

The incorporation of 153 companies during the past year, an increase of three over the previous year, is shown in the report of the department of the Provincial Secretary, tabled in the Local House. Annual registration fees for the year 1922 have, it states, been paid by 1,269 companies.

Dealing with incorporations, the report states that eight rural telephone companies established on a mutual basis under the act, were incorporated, bringing their total up to 192 companies. Also, that nine companies were organized under the special act for the incorporation of owners of vessels in the fishing industry. Twelve hundred and twenty-eight were registered, it says, an increase over the previous year of 466, and certificates of authority were issued to 1212 resident insurance agents and four non-resident agents.

Under the heading of motor vehicles, the report states that on Sept. 30th, 1922, permits had been issued from January 1st for 14,001 passenger cars and 1,682 commercial cars, an increase of 1,551 passenger and 262 commercial cars over the previous year.

"The financial statement," the report says, "shows $410,752.35 to have been received from motor vehicles in initial and annual fees, while $7,489.44 additional came from the registration of chauffeurs. This revenue is larger than the previous year by $45,024.12 and exceeded the estimated revenue from this source by $14,741.79."

An increase in the departmental revenue for the fiscal year 1922 over that of any other year is shown, the receipts being given as $1,198,945.55, an increase of $139,118.06 over the figures given for the previous year. A statement is shown of the revenue of the department for the past decade from the various sources which gives the total revenue in 1913 as $90,744.62 and shows a gradual increase up to the past year.—Hfx. Herald.

PLACE OF EXECUTIONS DEBATED AT COMMONS

Penitentiaries Favored—Sheriffs Refuse To Hang—condemned Men.

Unfortunate circumstances attending the execution of Bennie Swim in Woodstock last year, were brought to the attention of the House of Commons last week when estimates for penitentiaries amounting to $1,670,500 were taken up. T. W. Caldwell, Progressive, Victoria and Carleton, said he believed that the execution of capital punishment should be carried out in Federal penitentiaries, or certainly in some place where efficient execution might be assured.

R. B. Hanson, Conservative, York-Sunbury, characterized the Swim affair as a terrible bungle. Sheriffs, he said, were for the most part, quite excellent officials, but in the case of capital punishment they almost invariably refuse to perform their duty. The whole country had been shocked, he said, at the manner in which the punishment had been inflicted in this particular case.

Plus Michaud, Liberal, Restigouche and Madawaska, also declared himself convinced that hangings should be carried out in the courts of Federal penitentiaries.

Mr. Caldwell declared that the Sheriff at Woodstock had secured two men on the recommendation of the Sheriff of Montreal, but apparently Swim had been cut down before life was extinct.

Sir Lomer Gouin said nobody regretted more than himself such a painful incident as that which had occurred at Woodstock. Carrying out an execution was a matter within the jurisdiction of the Provinces. There were no Provincial penitentiaries, all such institutions were Federal. Sir Lomer said he was disposed to do everything possible to prevent a repetition of such incidents. It was his intention to communicate with the Provinces and try and find some way of satisfying the people of the Dominion in this matter.

"COMBINES, MONOPOLIES, TRUSTS AND MERGERS" BILL

Ottawa.—The text of the Premier's resolution, on which is to be based a bill to provide for the investigation of combines, monopolies, trusts and mergers, contains provisions of power to remit or reduce duties or revoke patent rights where combines are proved to exist, and also for the imposition of penalties for violation of the proposed legislation.

The resolution reads: "That it is expedient to bring in a measure to provide for the investigation of combines, monopolies, trusts and mergers, for the administration of the proposed act by a minister of the Crown to be named by the governor-in-council, for the appointment of a registrar to receive, register and issue applications for such investigations and for the appointment of commissioners from time to time by the Governor-in-Council to hold investigations, for the payment of the registrar, commissioners and witnesses and to establish such offices, with assistants, as may be required, for power to remit or reduce duties where combines are proved to exist, for the revocation of patent rights in certain cases for procedure by the Attorney-General of any Province, or upon his failure to act, by the Solicitor-General, and for the imposition of penalties for violation of the provisions of the proposed legislation."

SMALL THE MARITIME PROVINCES SECURE FROM CANADA?

Recent developments at Ottawa have emphasized the absolute necessity of the formation of a Maritime Province Party. The usefulness of Liberal-Conservative, Farmer and Progressive, so far as the Atlantic Provinces are concerned, has certainly passed. We have been steeped in politics so long in Eastern Canada that our condition is pitiable. Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island remind us of three boys quarrelling over an apple. The bigger Provinces, watching the scrap, have secured the apple, while the Atlantic Provinces remain separated by prejudices, still fighting for the apple which has already been eaten by Ontario and the west. Men go to Ottawa, not to represent their constituency, but to become voting machines for their party. This applies to Liberal, Conservative, Farmer and Progressive alike. If the Maritime Province members irrespective of politics, would unite at the present time and demand Maritime rights from the King government, something could be accomplished worth while. If the leaders of both parties would come out boldly and demand what is due the Atlantic Provinces then there would be some hope for the future. As it is, the Provinces by the sea are being hopelessly side-tracked. We have lost our bank, we are losing our industries; insurance companies like leeches, suck us dry and invest little or no money in our securities or our real estate—the whole situation points one way and one way only. Unless the tide turns; unless those in authority exhibit a few atoms of fairness and decency, then Eastern Canada will be forced to secede from the Dominion of Canada. Before Confederation the Maritime Provinces were prosperous, but the federation of Provinces of widely divergent interests, has proved a failure so far as the Atlantic Provinces are concerned. Our natural markets in the New England States, yet we are shut up from them. Ontario, Quebec and the West look upon the Maritime Provinces as a dandy place in which to sell but a very bad place in which to buy goods. We are a dumping ground for Upper Canadian products of all descriptions. If we have an industry, which is successful, some big concern from Ontario, comes and buys it up with the result that Maritime wheels cease to turn.

The Tribune is all "fed up" on conditions and it is time for a change. The Maritime Provinces want to know just where they fit, otherwise drastic measures will need to be resorted to. The time demands men of courage at Ottawa who will throw party affiliations to the winds and who will stand shoulder to shoulder in an effort to save what remains of our beloved Provinces by the sea. Who will be the Moses who will lead the Maritime Provinces out of the wilderness?—Sackville Tribune.

SOME ECONOMIES BEING EFFECTED

The estimated expenditure of Canada for the current year as placed at $427,511,235.73. Huge as this sum is, especially when viewed by pre-war standards, it is still $51,660,156.17 less than last year's expenditure. This looks like a decided attempt in some lines to cut down expenses. There are, however, yet the supplementary estimates to come and as the country generally knows these items have a fashion of running up into a very respectable number of millions and many an expense shifted off the main list finds in the last hours of Parliament a place in this final end of the country's budget.

Among the decreases this year are $3,600,000 for soldiers Land Settlement, $2,711,500 for Soldier Civil Re-establishment. The amount set aside for railway expenditure the next fiscal year is $75,631,469, as against $91,674,555, for the present fiscal year. These are among the evidences that the financial situation of the country has begun to show some signs of amelioration.

The estimates for Immigration and Colonization have been increased from $1,316,490 to $3,386,190. There is abundant evidence of the need for a greater population and the greater need in these Maritime Provinces of retaining what population we have. Economy is decidedly apparent in the estimates on Public Buildings account, and if all accounts should be pared as closely as these are the country would undoubtedly have a big surplus to show at the end of the fiscal year.

CHANGING TIMES

A writer in the "Christian Century" is struck with the changed attitude in many parts of England towards the Sabbath. "Since the war," says this writer, "many thousands of men who were in France have carried back to their native land the Continental conception of the Lord's day. Nowhere is this more manifest than in England. The London County Council recently voted 74 to 47 to allow games in the public parks on Sunday, something unheard of in England. The Dean of Exeter recently gave permission to the choir boys to play cricket after church services, an action which aroused much discussion, it being argued by the Christian forces generally that the complete secularization of Sunday would result in large transportation demands, and the enforced labor of many working people"—(Presbyterian Witness).

THE WRONG KIND

Efficiency was the god of German autocracy, and in the end its undoing. Speaking to the Rotary Club the other day, Rev. W. A. Cameron declared that it is the idealist and the visionary who climbs the pinnacles of great achievement, and that he usually has to carry the practical man like a weight upon his back. It is sometimes charged against the schools of Ontario—and probably charged without foundation—that they are turning out boys and girls who cannot figure as accurately or write as legibly as those of the olden days. But are they turning out more idealists; more visionaries, more seekers after the glenn? Curiously enough, they are seldom judged by that standard. And yet what Mr. Cameron says is true.—Toronto Star.

NO GERMANIZING

A cleat the French have not destroyed the machinery in the Ruhr mines nor pumped the shafts full of water.—(Boston Transcript.)

EUROPE'S PROBLEMS AFFECT US

American farmers who complain because of the unsatisfactory state of their industry and, at the same time, insist that their country have nothing to do with attempts to solve Europe's problems are likely to get on complaining if Washington keeps on heeding their insistence. As an Ontario paper says, "the depression in agriculture on this continent is largely due to the fact that Europe has not money to buy our surplus products". Prosperity will not return to the world in abundant measure until European affairs are brought back to normal, and to restore normal conditions in Europe is the task of all the nations.—Sydney Record.

CHURCH WORKERS' FOLLY

That mild form of flirtation with the devil, the holding of raffles and lotteries, by good Christian church people, has been banned in Vancouver. The church benefit by means of raffle or lottery has developed into a nuisance and a menace. There are too many churches and preachers struggling to make material ends meet, and theatrical competition among them has led to loss of Christian power and influence. If, in their efforts to keep their different churches afloat, the fund raisers cannot succeed without the bunco games they so frequently resort to they should report failure and let the heathen rejoice.—(Port Albion News.)

A FARMER VIEW

Any one who heard or has since read Mr. Forke's address must have been impressed by its revelation of his understanding of the vital weakness of the policy underlying most of the governmental measures designed to build up this Dominion. Mr. Forke is a believer in prevention rather than cure. He cannot see logic in a policy that raises tariff ministers thousands of miles, to negotiate trade agreements. He cannot accept without question an immigration policy that takes no account of the utility of bringing in new immigrants when those already tilling the soil are leaving it in discouragement, and he has scant patience with those who defend a tariff policy that allows combines to flourish, and then creates machinery to curb them.—(The Farmer's Sun.)

INGRAM B. WHEELLOCK

Many Attend Funeral Services at Chestnut Street Church. Impressive funeral services for Ingram B. Wheellock were held from Chestnut Street M. E. Church on Friday afternoon, when many relatives and friends were in attendance to pay their last respects.

Rev. Charles H. Draper, pastor of Congress Street M. E. Church, officiated. There was special organ music by Walter Richards, organist of Chestnut Street M. E. Church, the numbers including Chopin's funeral march. Mrs. Franklin Wilkins, the contralto, beautifully rendered Tennyson's Crossing the Bar, and other appropriate selections. There was a profusion of floral tributes and cut flowers. The pall bearers were Benj. L. Donnell, Fred Small, John Saunders and Boardman Skillings. The burial was at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Wheellock died at his late residence on Sunday afternoon as the result of two shocks, the end coming quite suddenly. He was born in Nietaux Falls, N. S., Nov. 4th, 1852. He came to Portland 47 years ago and was prominent in the real estate business here. He is survived by three sons: Fred and Horace of Gilman, Vt.; Walter, of Boston, and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Swanton, of Portland, also by one sister, Mrs. Samuel Hooper, of Lawrence, Mass.

In the death of Mr. Wheellock the city loses one of its well known residents, a man whose memory will always be respected. His private life was singularly free from reproach and his long career furnished a fine example of sturdy uprightiness, of integrity and earnestness of purpose. "Outlook" please copy.

We are sorry to note Mrs. G. L. Benson and daughter Elsie have been quite ill. Dr. Campbell in attendance.

Mrs. Norman Sullis has recently returned from Boston where she has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Walker. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Dorothy and Laura. They will spend the Summer here.

At a circuit meeting of the Baptist Churches of Smith's Cove, Deep Brook and Clementsport, held at Deep Brook March 6th, it was unanimously voted to locate the new parsonage at Deep Brook. It was voted to purchase the property of James R. Dimars. This property is centrally located and consists of an attractive cottage of seven rooms with small stable. With a few slight changes and the addition of furnace and bathroom, it will make an attractive parsonage. A committee of two from each church were appointed to attend to the necessary work. Mr. W. M. Cossabomb and Mrs. Smith, of Smith's Cove; J. M. Nichols and Mrs. E. V. Hutchinson, of Deep Brook, and Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Harlow, of Clementsport.

ORGANIZE TO BRING SETTLERS
Payzant, Canning; W. D. Withrow, Wolfville; Mayor D. W. Murray, Hantsport; Leslie Wiltshire, Windsor; H. M. Chase and W. E. Porter, Kentville.

The local representative, Mr. Vinton Lloyd, in endorsing the resolution, mentioned in particular the necessity of more advertising of Nova Scotia and especially of the Annapolis Valley, the problem of keeping the Nova Scotia boys home, the necessity of a higher state of cultivation, the growing of more vegetables and the growing of Alfalfa in the Valley.

It was asked by Premier Armstrong what is going to be the result when a number of immigrants come to a small community and settle, will those who sell have a place to settle, thereby increasing the population? In the Bridgetown district it was pointed out that a number of farmers would retire when they sold their large farms and in this way would make a demand for town properties, and that there are a lot of large farms that can be sub-divided and in this way increase the population. The people of Bridgetown are optimistic and public spirited they are willing and anxious to co-operate with the government in every way to help bring about the spirit and desire for good citizens to come and settle in the Annapolis Valley. The question of over-production came up, it was decided that there was not an over-production, but that if the farmers of the Valley would produce in quantities that would permit shipments of car lots they would find a ready market and could compete with carload lots of vegetable that were coming into Halifax every week from Ontario.

Action was at once taken by Premier Armstrong who wired to Chas. Stewart, Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, urging Nova Scotia's interest in regard to the settlement of the men referred to above and in reply the minister stated that the fullest opportunity would be given Nova Scotia to absorb Anglo-Indian settlers. He also asked details about number the Province could take and the kind of farms available for these. The Federal Government recently sent to India, Col. Innes, a native of Kentville, who will capably represent the interests of Nova Scotia.

Our Bridgetown delegate attended a meeting held after dinner in Mr. Geo. Graham's private car. The meeting dealt with the subject of tourists, Mr. G. F. Pearson, proprietor of "The Chronicle", was the chief speaker, and gave the delegation a good many strong points of advice to think over.

There will be a large gathering at Kentville on March 19th, where all the towns of Nova Scotia will be represented, to go into the tourist subject thoroughly.

Happy Mother Praises Tanlac

Mrs. Cooper Declares It Restored Health of Delicate Daughter—Gains 11 Pounds.

"Six months ago Tanlac brought robust health to my daughter Stella, who is seventeen, and I wish I could tell every mother what a wonderful treatment it is," declared Mrs. Lillian Cooper, 24 Sauter St., Toronto, Ont.

"Two years ago Stella began losing ground. Her cheeks faded, she was dreadfully run-down, and so thin she was just a frame. Her nerves were so excited I feared I would have to take her out of school, for while doing her lessons she could hardly keep still, and at times couldn't write at all. Her appetite was so poor she scarcely ate enough to sustain life, and her sleep was so restless she was always tired and worn out.

"I bless the day I bought the first bottle of Tanlac. My daughter has gained eleven pounds, eats heartily, sleeps soundly, and her studies are like play. The Tanlac treatment is grand, and I believe it should be in every home."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.

United Fruit Companies Dust Prices 1923

It has always been the policy of the United Fruit Companies to supply the highest quality of dust at the lowest price possible. When we first went into the dust business, dust was selling at $12.50 per 100 lbs. in the Amagaple Valley. We gradually lowered this price until last year we sold Bordeaux dust at $6.99, and 20-1 sulphur-lead arsenate dust at $7.64, delivered to the farmer. Consistent with this policy we are again pleased to announce a further price reduction, a reduction which is only made possible because of the large scale upon which we are now operating.

Prices (retail to the farmer, from every local company):

Bordeaux Dust $4.75 per 100 lbs.

20-1 Sulphur-lead Arsenate Dust, $5.50 per 100 lbs.

Straight Superfine Dusting Sulphur, $3.70 per 100 lbs.

Prices on other mixed dusts may be had on application, and are proportionately low.

The Bordeaux dust is of the same strength as last year, being composed of 12 lbs. dehydrated copper sulphate, 3 lbs. arsenic of lime, and 80 lbs. hydrated lime, or in other words a little over 2% metallic copper and a little over 2% metallic arsenic. This dust is little more than half the retail price of the same dust of the same strength sold by any other concern in America according to all the price lists now available.

The sulphur-lead arsenate dust is about two-thirds the price at which the same material may be bought in any other district.

The above dust mixtures are all standard dusts thoroughly tried and tested and well known in all American fruit growing areas, and it is consequently with much pride that we announce ourselves as pioneers in setting new low price standards on high quality materials.

We were early approached with regard to handling the new dusts known as "green dust" and "brown dust", which are dusts containing copper and arsenic in different forms from the regular Bordeaux, and in consequence we obtained from the Dominion Entomological Laboratory at Ottawa all the information and experimental figures relating to these new dusts. From an examination of this data we found:

1. That the "green dust" gave a very poor control of apple scab.
2. That the "brown dust" gave a control of apple scab on an average a little poorer than our regular Bordeaux dust.
3. That both these dusts were heavy materials and that it took nearly half as much again of these dusts, as compared with our regular Bordeaux dust, to cover the same area of orchard.

From the above we could come to the conclusion that these dusts were not only of lower quality than we desired, but also that they would be very expensive for an orchardist to use, and consequently that the handling of these dusts would not be consistent with the United Fruit Companies policy of low cost and high quality.

We were further warned by the Provincial Entomologist in his speech before the Fruit Growers Association against the danger of changing from proven materials to materials about which little was known. On the same occasion the officer in charge of the Dominion Entomological Laboratory stated that these new dusts were in some respects defective, were only in an experimental stage, and had not stood the test of time. These statements served to confirm us in our opinion, and in view of the low prices at which it was possible for us to supply standard dusts, the handling of these new dusts appeared to us to be the height of business folly.

We are informed from our Entomological advisers that it is possible that future experiments may find methods for improving and overcoming the defects of these new green and brown dusts. We are keeping ourselves informed on any development of this nature, and are ourselves participating in factory experiments with this end in view. In the event of such new methods being found we will be in a position to manufacture and supply green or brown dust at a retail price of about $4.00 per 100 lbs.

The above is written to explain the policy of the United Fruit Companies which is to only supply the best quality dusts at the lowest price possible, to handle no materials which have not proven their value in the hands of impartial experimenters, but at the same time to keep in touch with all new developments so that when sufficient is known about them they may be utilized for the benefit of all the farmers and not for the benefit of any private exploiters.

WINDSOR CURLERS WIN AT BRIDGETOWN

Although two Windsor rinks lost at Bridgetown by small margins on Friday evening last, the heavy lead of the third rink gave Windsor the best end of a 40 to 31 score.

Dr. Keddy lost to Skip Little, 12-10. Another lost to Skip Arnold, 11-9, but Skip Smith defeated Skip Magee 21-3.

Following the match the visitors were fettered a banquet at Riverside Inn, where a most enjoyable time was spent.

The home club made the visitors stay a most enjoyable one, and those who took in the trip west, speak in the highest terms of the "Bridgetown boys as hosts."

This was Bridgetown's first season of curling, and enthusiasm there is running high, and we understand that the curlers of that place intend erecting a three sheet rink to be in readiness for next season.

In mentioning the Bridgetown-Windsor match, the feature shot should not be missed. It was made by His Worship Mayor Hicks, through a trio of narrow ports and would have done credit to the best in the game.—Hants Journal.

REV. A. J. PROSSER'S FAREWELL AT CANARD, N. S.

Rev. A. J. Prosser has completed his term as pastor of the First Baptist Cornwallis Baptist Church, at Canard.

Mr. Prosser came to the Canard Church seven and a half years ago from church activities at Vancouver, while in the West he evidently in part labored and in part led in Christian activities with the true Western lustle and energy. He has maintained all his energy while at Canard and great has been the results of his fairly long, but nevertheless too brief pastorate. The church has wonderfully increased its sphere of influence and one branch has been lopped off because of its strength and made a separate church. We refer to Fort Williams, which is now one of our most vigorous and best country churches. This of itself will ever be a monument to Mr. Prosser's energy, foresight and executive ability. Two other places on the outlying districts of the church have been organized into excellent church work. Cantreville, formerly an occasional preaching station has now a fine church all paid for, regular services, and in one year contributed the sum of $1,600 to church work. In every activity of the church and denomination he has been a leader and inspired all others by his enthusiasm. His removal from Kings County will be greatly regretted, but it is a pleasure to know that his work will be continued in a prosperous town in an adjacent county. Mr. Prosser accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Bridgetown.—Kentville Advertiser.

DEATH RATE HIGH IN NOVA SCOTIA

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics report on death from all forms of tuberculosis, covering the first six months of the years 1921 and 1922 shows that the death rate from tuberculosis in Nova Scotia, as estimated on the per 100,000 population basis, is higher than in any other Province of the Dominion.

In the first six months of 1921, the report shows that 415 deaths, due to tuberculosis in all forms, occurred in this province, making the death rate per hundred thousand population, 79. On the population basis, Prince Edward Island is next, with 62 deaths, and a rate of 70 for the same period. New Brunswick is in third place with 229 deaths and a rate of 59, and all the other Provinces with the exception of British Columbia, the rate for which is 48, are under the rate of 40. The total number of deaths in the Dominion during this period, is given as 2,644.

In the period from January to June, 1922, the Nova Scotia statistics as reported show improvement. In this period, the report shows 369 deaths to have occurred, and places the rate per hundred thousand, at 70. Prince Edward Island is again in second position with 59 deaths and a rate of 67, and New Brunswick occupies third place with 241 deaths and a rate of 61. All other Provinces are rated below forty. The total number of deaths in all Provinces for this period is given as 2,523, and the rate, thirty-nine.

A COLD POST OFFICE

Canada can now boast of the farthest north Post Office in the world, as a result of the work of the expedition which explored the northern archipelago last Summer under the direction of J. D. Craig and on the good ship Arctic, in command of the venerable Capt. J. E. DeGler. Notable exploratory and charting work were also accomplished, as recited briefly in the following paragraph taken from the official report of the expedition just made public by Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior:

"A day was spent exploring and charting the hitherto uncharted portion of the coast westward from Cape Tennyson, on the southeastern extremity of Ellesmere Island. A hitherto unknown island off the Cape was named Stewart Island after the Honorable the Minister of the Interior; a large glacier was named Cary Glacier, after the Deputy Minister of the Interior, and another glacier named after Inspector Wilcox."

Two new Post Offices, in addition to some police and customs posts, were established. One of the first mentioned is on Craig Harbor, in latitude 76 degrees, 10 minutes, on Ellesmere Island and on Ponds Inlet, 72 degrees, 45 minutes, on Baffin Island. The former is only 850 miles from the North Pole.

The report submitted by J. D. Craig to the Department is made public in part as follows:

"The northern archipelago, comprising all the islands west of Greenland and N. of the mainland of Canada, has been the object of this year's operations in the north, and the Department of the Interior, through its Northwest Territories branch, has taken the first steps in an extensive program calculated to efficiently maintain Canada's sovereignty in that vast region with its important mineral potentialities, available information suggesting particularly coal, petroleum, copper, graphite, gypsum, iron, mica, and possibly gold.

"In 1920 attention was drawn to Canada's position with reference to the islands by certain acts of other governments which, in spite of previous patrols and acts of administration by Canada emphasized the fact that since the Bernier expedition in 1910 practically no attention, officially, had been paid by Canada to her north.

"It was found impossible to send an expedition north in 1921, but this year, 1922, saw the accomplishment of the work planned in 1920. The famous old Arctic, with many northern trips to her credit, was transferred to the Department of Marine and Fisheries, and J. D. Clark, D. L. S., was appointed officer in charge of the expedition.

"A party of nine members of the Canadian Mounted Police, under the command of Inspector C. E. Wilcox, was detailed for northern duty."

IN THY PLACE

"Be instant, in season, out of season."—Bible.

In thy place for every duty
In this world of strife,
Strive to grow in saintly beauty
Every day of life!

In thy place, thy willing shoulder
Under every load,
Let thy heart glow bold and boldier
In the heavenward road.

In thy place, what'er opposes,
Stand up like a man,
Never ask a path of roses,
Working, lead the van!

In thy place, not wait for others;
They may shrink and fall;
Thy good fight is not thy brother's,
Don't thy coat of mail!

In thy place, be up and doing,
Fight the right sublime;
Still the fight with calm pursuing
Till the Master's time!

In thy place, to weave life's story
Full of golden lines,
Till a crown of heavenly glory
On thy forehead shines.

"IRREDUCIBLE MINIMUM" IN LOCAL HOUSE

Member For Pictou Gives Notice of Resolution Respecting Maritime Seats at Ottawa.

The question of the loss of two members by Nova Scotia in the redistribution of federal parliamentary seats was formally brought to the notice of the Local House, when R. H. Graham, member for Pictou, gave notice of the following resolution:

"That in the opinion of this Legislature the representation of this Province, and of the Maritime Provinces of Canada in the House of Commons, should not be reduced.

"And, that immediate action be taken to procure the co-operation of the legislatures or governments of the other Maritime Provinces and of the federal Parliament to obtain such amendment to the British North America Act, as is necessary to carry on effect this resolution."

STRONG APPEAL FOR NOVA SCOTIA

Hon. G. H. Murray in Brilliant Address in Montreal, Urges That Province's Representation Be Sustained.

Addressing the Reform Club in Montreal on Saturday, Hon. George H. Murray, ex-Premier of Nova Scotia, made a strong appeal to the citizens of that city not to be selfish in their ambitions and to let the St. Lawrence River be an asset for Canada as a whole, and not only one for Montreal and the Province of Quebec.

"The St. Lawrence River does not belong to you," he said. "It belongs to Canada. The time is coming when this great asset will be called upon to develop the largest of Canadian trades. You will be called upon then to be generous, broad-minded as you have the reputation to be. It will be for the betterment of all the other Provinces of Canada."

Mr. Murray also made a plea for larger Parliamentary representation at Ottawa and he urged that some amendment should be made to the constitution which would guarantee an adequate representation of the Maritime Provinces in the Federal House.

Mr. Murray said the Provincial Legislatures were nearer the people than the Federal Government, and that was why Nova Scotia had remained faithful to the Liberal Party, because the Provincial Legislature of his Province had always striven to give the people its utmost limit of rights and privileges. He declared his faith in Party Government, since, he claimed, all great national problems were and will be settled by Party Government. After eulogizing his Province and paying tribute to his predecessor in office, the Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Mr. Murray said he did not believe that general women's suffrage as granted by the Federal Government had amounted to anything. He said Nova Scotia had never been and would not likely become a large Province—its population is now about 500,000, but he claimed that with proper treatment from her sister Provinces, Nova Scotia would hold its own and would remain a great and useful asset to the Dominion of Canada.

Mr. Murray said that the Maritime Provinces were discontented with the results of Confederation, which had unfortunately justified the claims of Nova Scotia politicians who had fought against going into the Confederation. He said he did not believe Confederation was finally settled as far as his Province was concerned. He pictured the Maritime Provinces deprived of their natural market in the richest and most extravagant of the American seaboard cities and declared that the greatest two moments of his political career were, first, his disappointment when reciprocity was defeated in 1911, and second, his pleasure when Nova Scotia had punished her public men who had betrayed her, by sending a solid delegation of 15 members to Ottawa in 1921.

Influenza Leaves The Blood Thin

To Restore Full Health Tonic Treatment is Recommended.

Probably the most treacherous trouble that afflicts the people of Canada during the Winter months is influenza—or in gripe as it is often called. The disease is treacherous, because often after the characteristic symptoms of the trouble have disappeared it leaves behind it a weakened and debilitated constitution which makes the victim an easy prey to other troubles. All this is due to the fact that the attack of influenza has left the blood abnormally weak and thin. Weak blood means impaired digestion, a feeling of tiredness after slight exertion, and often a nervous breakdown. This condition will continue until the blood is restored to a rich, red, disease resisting condition. For the purpose of enriching and stimulating the blood no other medicine equals Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills act directly upon the blood, and thru the blood upon the nerves and in this way act as a restorative to the whole system. Thousands throughout Canada have proved the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind, among them is Miss Ida M. Fraser, R. R. No. 2, Thebes, Ont., who says: "I passed through a severe attack of influenza which left me pale, thin and weak. Indeed I was so weak I could scarcely stand upon my feet. The medicine I was taking in the hope of bringing back my health did not help me, and I was greatly discouraged. Finally I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and from the time I had taken the first box my health began to improve. I used six boxes altogether, and found as a result that I was again strong and healthy, and I think that in cases of this kind they are worth their weight in gold."

If you have passed through an attack of influenza, your swiftest way to regain full strength is through the fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE CLOTHES OF A WORKING GIRL

What Does Her Employer Think About Them?

By Dorothy Cook in "The Business Woman"

Does your boss like the way you dress for your job? Is your appearance an asset to his business? Do your clothes match the tone of the office or do they offend the eye of every client who opens the door? Of course hundreds of bosses never really see a girl's clothes. But other hundreds see them in minutest detail. And all men, even cold, impersonal business men, are subtly influenced in their judgment by a girl's appearance. Unconsciously they measure her ability by her talent for looking well.

And so the girl who works every day with her eye on the job ahead will begin by dressing up to the part. Good business clothes, like good business training, are an investment that brings promotion and real financial return. But first let me declare myself. I am not going to advocate a uniform for business women. The whole keynote of being well dressed in an office lies in being dressed to fit an atmosphere of that office. What would be most appropriate for the girl who receives the wealthy women shopping in a luxurious modiste's would never do for the girl who private secretaries for a stock broker. The latter may well look business-like, "snappy". The former, never! And so a uniform of business girls is out of the question. I do not think that business women should affect to imitate business men in severe collar and fur-lined, etc. Manish collars are usually a proof, and seldom a becoming pose. And a girl has every right to dress becoming wherever she goes—may, in business, the right become a duty.

But I think girls in business should devote more thought to dressing for business. In clothes that are attractive, but not ostentatious. In clothes that are above all appropriate. We have sport clothes for mountaineers and seashore. We have dance frocks for balls and parties. And we would not wear the party dress for a game of golf.

Clothes, like everything else, are specialized. There are clothes for the woman who works at home, starched fresh gingham and percales. There are clothes for the woman who works afield, stout denim overalls and short khaki skirts.

And for the thousands of women who work in offices? Why, O, why will they borrow parts of the costumes designed for other women and other occupations? Gaudy sweaters from the dancing girl. Elaborate silk creations meant to grace an afternoon tea? And vanishing camisoles that belong in the boudoir?

"Old stuff," I can hear you sniffing. Yes, wise folks have been preaching these truths for a long time. But there is need of preachment still. For this age offers opportunities for women to go a long way. In the past ten years thousands of business girls have risen from $15-a-week class to the $40-a-week class.

"The future holds out bigger chances still. There will be jobs for hundreds of girls up in the classes that are quoted by the year: $5,000 jobs, $10,000 jobs, $15,000 jobs. And part of the equipment for jobs like these is a good appearance. I've heard business men, employers, say

THE PAPER FROM HOME

There lay on a stand in the marble hall. Of a city mansion with towers tall. A country paper in its wrapper plain. Almost unnoticed, or scorned with disdain. By the heedless servants there. Amid the splendor of wealth it lay in its humble garb, thru the long, long day.

Will the master e'er cast a glance To lay for awhile his cares aside, After from the city's din. When he saw the paper a kindly smile Wreathed his face and for a while In calm content he settled down With the paper that came from his old home town.

That he loved in days of yore. As he scanned its homely pages thru On memory's mirror appeared in view Familiar scenes and the faces of friends.

With the glad delight that memory sends To a heart that is ever young. He was back once more in the summer days With the chums he knew in boyish plays. Diving into the swimming pool Below the mill, with its depths so cool.

DON'T FORGET THE LATHER

B. C. Forbes, in Forbes Magazine, tells an apt story from his personal experiences regarding the need for constant lathering. The writer says:

"I hastened into a barber's shop the other day and asked if I could be shaved in five minutes. 'Yep!' was the reply. The barber quickly applied the soap. He began lathering and lathering and kept on lathering until I felt sure I would miss my train. Still he kept on plying his soap brush. I was saying to myself, 'Why doesn't he quit this process and get busy with his razor?' That would have been my way of shaving myself in a hurry. When he did finally take up his razor, the job was over in a jiffy. And I caught my train.

The incident for some reason or other, bogged this thought in my mind: Lathering is to shaving very much the same thing as advertising is to selling. If you do enough preliminary work and do it properly so that groundwork has been thoroughly prepared, then the resistance is very greatly reduced, and it is possible either to shave with less trouble or to sell goods with less trouble. A good many business men are so foolish as I would have been in trying to shave myself in a hurry: 'They don't use enough advertising before starting to try to get results. They don't apply enough advertising lather. Is it not so?'

Don't forget the "lather", business men. Let every man of us in the Maritime Provinces—Boost His Home Town, Home Products, and His Own Wares. Remember the lather, gentlemen—advertise!

Just what does the Red Cross plan to do by its Peace Programme? There must be no misunderstanding in this matter. It is clearly recognized that the responsibility for the enactment and administration of measures for the protection of the health of the people rests with governments and with their official authorities. The Red Cross is never to formulate or administer public health measures, but the world's foremost authorities have set it forth as part of the duty of the Red Cross to stimulate and maintain the interest of the public in health reform; to educate the public, and create public opinion in favor of supporting an ever better health service. As a voluntary organization, with a nation-wide membership, it can do much to assist the official health authorities to influence multitudes of individuals to understand and advocate the continuous improvement of personal hygiene, wholesome sanitary conditions, adequate public health medical and nursing service, and all those measures and services which under modern conditions are so necessary and desirable.

This is not going to be spectacular work. It is not going to appeal to the senses. It is a cold, calculating campaign of education. Public meetings, membership drives, and all other activities for enlisted the support of the public will miss the impetus that obtained so many voluntary workers during the war. This is an appeal to the sober, thoughtful, intelligent people of our country. This is the work that those interested in public health have been endeavoring to carry on for the last fifteen or twenty years.

Winter Hard on Baby
The Winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels and break up colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In eager youthful play. He roamed again 'mid woods and fields Through orchards with their fruitful yields. Through meadows green, and down the lanes Where flowers wild still bloomed again. As in bygone days The Sabbath evenings calm and still—The country church upon the hill. Where he humbly knelt by his mother's side. Before his footsteps roamed awide To seek ambition's goal. Those treasured memories, kin to tears, So often lost through passing years, Crept softly back with pleasure rare To smooth the lines that time and care Had written on his brow. So the simple sheet with its homely face Goes forth by time to find a place In the heart of a man whose eyes grow dim With tender memories brought to him When the paper comes from home.

ICE CONDITIONS ARE REPORTED EXTREMELY BAD
Ice conditions are greatly interfering with sailing craft between here and Newfoundland. Yesterday the Newfoundland schooner Maude Thornhill, Captain P. B. Beechley, with a general cargo from Boston for the port of Grand Bank, arrived in Halifax after being out fourteen days and driven back on account of the ice. The nearest to the Newfoundland port that the Thornhill could get was 175 miles southeast of St. Pierre. The ice extended out into the Atlantic that distance. She was six days going there from Boston and the rest of the time was occupied in getting clear of the ice floes in order to reach Halifax. The Maude Thornhill was well loaded up on coming into port, but is in good condition, being tight as a corked bottle and all sails intact. She is lying at Neville's wharf. Captain A. Gauvreau, of the schooner Bohemia, Captain Freeman Lawrence, which left Boston for Halifax to load coal for the west coast of Newfoundland. The Bohemia had reached a point off Halifax, but ice conditions drove the vessel to the Grand Banks where she was spoken by Captain Gauvreau. She is expected to reach port any day, as it was the intention of Captain Lawrence to come to Halifax just as soon as he could get clear of the ice floes.—Halifax Herald.

Realistic! Amazing! Pulsating!

The Sensational European Production:

"THE SHEIK'S WIFE"

A massive and spectacular romance of desert sands; of the passionate, overwhelming love of an English girl for an Arab prince; of the lure and fascination of the mysterious East.

A pulsating drama for all of those who would know the power of an all-consuming love.

In the list of floral tributes to the late Lyall G. Salter, there were two omissions: Wreath from Ada and aunt Flo; Spray from cousin Josie and Clarence Salter, Parrsboro.

In our issue of Feb. 21st, in the letter from Rev. A. W. L. Smith, reference to special permit to operate a car, should have read from April 20th, in stead of from March 20th. This was a gain of ten days to those who made special application.

Lawrencetown Public School building had a narrow escape from destruction Monday morning, but the prompt action of the Fire Dept. there confined the blaze to a portion of the roof next the chimney where it evidently originated. A few minutes more the blaze would have sealed the fate of the building and brought to a focus the question of the construction of a new and up-to-date public school building to replace the present condemned and antiquated structure.

A night contest took place at the rink on Thursday night between the Merchants and "Snowshovelers" hockey teams and was won by a score of 9 to 4 by the latter. The struggle proved highly interesting to the spectators but the ladies and gentlemen's tandem races were not pulled off. This was rather disappointing to a number of the spectators but this event will be expected, come off at an early date. "Cappy" Roberts refereed the hockey match and the teams lined up as follows: Merchants—H. Troop, goal; H. Beattie, R. D.; G. Charlton, L. D.; Ernie Grimshaw, centre; Harry Donaghy, R. W.; James Todd, L. W. Snowshovelers—C. Forsythe, goal; Eugene Poole, R. D.; Vern Hill, L. D.; Mel Jackson, centre; J. Goldsmith, R. W.; Benny Poole, L. W.

G. H. Purdy, Accountant at the Royal Bank, has been transferred to Glace Bay, and is succeeded here by Mr. Duncan, of Pictou. Mr. Furdy has been a member of the United Church choir and active in social circles. His friends wish him continued success and promotion.

To people who live in the country

MANY of you have money and wish to invest it as promptly, as profitably, as privately and as conveniently as city people.

FOR these reasons we have extended our facilities for the sale of safe, reliable Bonds by mail.

UNDER our plan, we send you a list of high-grade Bonds to select from and make your definite recommendations. Then, when you have made your choice, you order the Bonds from us just the same as you would order goods by mail from a big department store. We deliver them to your bank with draft attached, so that you may inspect them before purchase. You take no risk.

BY investing in this way, you get prompt service. You have the same choice of investments as city clients and you can buy by mail on exactly the same terms as big institutions and large private investors.
