The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

CARRYING out the promise made last year, the Publishers have added the names of those residing in Coteau St Pierre, Delorimier Municipality and Petite Cote (formerly Cote Visitation), Longue Point, Montreal West, Mount Royal Vale, Notre Dame de Grâce, Notre Dame des Neiges, Notre Dame des Neiges Ouest, Outremont, Petit Village Turcot and Verdun in the Montreal Directory proper. Subscribers will not now have to refer to separate portions of the Directory in search of a name, as all names (except those residing in Lachine, Laprairie, Longueuil, Montreal South, Sault au Récollet and St. Lambert, will be found in the Alphabetical portion of the Directory. The total number of names in the Directory this year, not including those found in the Outskirts, is by actual count 68,223.

It need hardly be said that the same labor and effort to secure accuracy which the Publishers have always put forth have not been withheld in the preparation of the present edition. The wish of the Publishers is to give the latest and most correct information, and with that end in view no expense or labor is spared on the book; but it has to be taken into account that the whole of the work—compilation, printing and binding—is done between the 4th of May and the 27th of June, a period of eight weeks, so that some allowance should be made for errors or omissions.

As usual, the book is divided into four parts, viz.: (1) The Advertisers' Classified Directory; (2) The Street Directory; (3) The Alphabetical Directory; (4) The Miscellaneous Information.

This book is respectfully dedicated to its generous patrons—THE PUBLIC.

REVIEW OF THE PAST YEAR

The past twelve months have displayed a quiet and generally uneventful progress of Montreal, but have not been quite so uneventful for Canada in general. The sudden death in Windsor Castle, just after having been sworn in as one of Her Majesty's Privy Councillors, of the Right Hon. Sir John Thompson plunged the country in a grief which it had not experienced since the death of the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald. The body of the dead statesman was brought to Canada by H. M. S. Blenheim, and buried in Halifax, his native town, with all the pomp of a state funeral. His family being left not well provided for, a testimonial was gotten up for them, which has reached respectable proportions. Hon. Mackenzie Bowell was called to the head of the government, and was knighted last May. Another political occurrence of the year was the negotiations carried on between the Dominion and Newfoundland with the view to rounding off Confederation by the inclusion of the ancient colony. A series of financial disasters in St. John's resulting in the suspension of the banks, and apparently in the serious embarrassment of the entire colony, the government included, was the cause of the negotiations, and it is to be regretted that these have, for the time being at least, been discontinued without a satisfactory conclusion being reached.

The Manitoba School question has also been the cause of some anxiety throughout the country, and the outcome of it is not yet determined. Acting according to the spirit of the highest court of the Empire, the Dominion Government has called upon Manitoba to modify the School Act of that province in a direction more favorable to the Roman Catholic minority. This Manitoba has declined to do, suggesting a commission of enquiry; and as the present government of the Dominion has supporters on both sides of the question who feel intensely, it is apparently placed in a very embarrassing position. The Colonial Conference, which met in Ottawa during the year, was one of the most significant and important congresses of the world, indicating the unity of the British Empire.

With regard to the record for Montreal proper the year has been one of slightly renewed activity in general business, although the effects of the crises in the United States have not yet entirely passed away. There was, notwithstanding this dullness, a steady progress in building, and while there were some severe fires, the city has not experienced that frequent and heavy loss which fell upon Toronto, and was ultimately traced to incendiarism.

The absorption of the Coates Gas Company by the old Montreal Gas Company created a good deal of discussion and hard feeling. While competition existed, a lower rate prevailed for gas; but immediately after the completion of the transfer, prices were again advanced, and the public seemed powerless to secure rates comparable with those of other large cities. Constant agitation, however, has induced the City Council to move in the direction of insisting upon better terms for the citizens, and demand dollar gas. It is probable that a compromise will be effected before the contract of the company with the city will be renewed.

The past winter has been noteworthy in social life, through the fact that the Governor General, departing from the usual custom of holding court only at the Capital, visited the city, and remained here for some time. During his stay there was one continual round of gaiety, and he departed for Ottawa greatly regretted both for his social kindness and his extensive charities. None were more pleased than the citizens of Montreal at the recent signal honor conferred upon the Earl of Aberdeen by his Sovereign. The knighthood conferred on Sir Wm. Hingston, M.D., of this city, was also received with approbation.

It is to be regretted that as the city has grown, it has not escaped from those crimes which characterize all large centres. The city is, on the whole, law abiding, and is remarkably free from riots and strikes; but crimes of considerable atrocity have taken place, and many citizens have disappeared without a trace of them being seen. In many cases—in fact, in nearly every case—the detective service seems to have been unable to unravel the mystery of these crimes or disappearances, and during the year, at the urgent request and insistence of a large body of the community, an investigation was held into the management of the police and detective forces of the city. This investigation, unfortunately, met with such opposition from those who might have been expected to have assisted it, that it proved virtually abortive; but as there is a growing interest on the part of the community in municipal affairs, it is likely that, through the selection of capable councilmen and constant watchfulness over their votes, the city will soon be placed in a better condition in all its departments.

The Treasurer's report for the past year has not yet appeared; but from the report of 1893, it will be seen that Montreal is no longer small, and that its management is a matter for wise and disinterested men. The total receipts of the city in 1893 were $9,670,000, and the expenditure $9,293,000; the revenue was $2,650,000. The city has been contracting large bonded debts in the past, and prudent financiers have had to interest themselves to check this course. The borrowing power of the city amounts to $26,200,000, and up to the close of 1893 it had borrowed $21,600,000.

Although, as already stated, there seems to be every reason to think that trade has improved in Canada, the year 1894 was not altogether bright. The coal and railway strikes in the United States affected our railway traffic unfavorably, and possibly indirectly led to the change in the directorate and presidency of the Grand Trunk and the long continued depression of Canadian Pacific Railway stock, both lines showing a decline in traffic in that year. The failure list for 1894 was also large, larger in fact than in 1893, as will be seen from the following table :

N. B. -The figures of Assets are reported as approximates only, the amount realized differing widely from their estimated value.

A serious drawback to the trade of Canada was the continued low price of wheat, which in 1894 declined even below the quotations for 1893 or any previous year. This particularly affected Ontario and Manitoba, which are large producers. But for the sympathy existing between the trade of the various provinces, the decline of wheat would have been advantageous to Quebec province, which is now a consumer and not a producer of this cereal. The harvest was good. The export of hay did not equal that of 1893, although double that of 1892. This trade, in which a large number of traders in this province are interested, has not been remunerative for some time, owing partly to the way in which it is conducted. The lumber trade suffered from the continued lack of South American demand, while the cattle trade has not yet recovered from the unjust exclusion of Canadian beasts from the privileges of fattening in Great Britain which they once enjoyed. The cheese trade was good and prices were satisfactorily maintained throughout the season. The season was characterized by a marked falling off in the exports of grain, the figures being 8,869,743 bushels against 22,565,748 bushels in 1893. Over half of this decrease was in corn.

The year was one of considerable interest on the local stock exchange, not that any events of importance took place, but that, partly on account of cheap money, the exchange and outside investors and speculators were enabled to indulge freely in experiments. Up to the hour of writing, stock prices have been well maintained, Canadian Pacific excepted. The following table gives the lowest and highest prices during 1894 :

The reports of the banks having their head offices in Montreal show that the year has been one of comparative financial quietude. They nevertheless show also that the banks have been able to maintain their dividends and to make a fair showing of earnings. It is a feature of the reports that none of the banks speak of unusual losses, and their reduced earnings may be attributed solely to the dulness of trade. From all indications it would appear that mercantile houses have been, on the whole, well managed, and are strong; and that just as soon as the revival of trade begins to be felt more strongly, Canada, and especially Montreal, will progress most satisfactorily. It would also appear that the branches of industry which have most suffered have been in the line of imports.

On 7th June last (1895) was unveiled Montreal's statue to the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, the Governor General performing the ceremony of unveiling. On the 1st July the statue to Maisonneuve will be unveiled by Lieutenant Governor Champleau ; while a statue to the rebel chief Dr. Chenier, is also being set up. Montreal is surely, if slowly, adorning her public squares with memorials of her country, and although there are many who have objected to the Chenier monument as putting a premium upon rebellion, that British freedom of opinion and love of liberty of individuals which is permitting the erection of a statue to Cromwell in England has not permitted any interference with the Chenier monument. Great Britain relies more upon the good sense of her citizens for support than upon her bayonets.

DIRECTORY BORROWERS.

Many are the complaints of those who regularly patronize the Directory that they are bored so much by borrowers ; not the stranger or private citizen who steps into the office, looks at the Directory, and goes out, but business men who continually need it for reference, yet are too close-fisted to buy one. These are the individuals who carry off your Directory "just for a few minutes," which generally means A FEW DAYS unless you send for it before ; then you have scarcely housed it before some one else presents the request "Please lend me your Directory for a few minutes?" Perhaps you won't see it again for a week ; yet this same borrower will tell our solicitor that he has no use for a Directory, he "knows everybody" and "everybody knows him."
