INSURGENTS CONTINUE FIGHT AGAINST NEW SCHEDULE THAT MEANS LIFE TO THE A.O.U.W.

Members in Favor of Increased Assessment Stand Three to One—Attempt of Dissenters to Elect New Officers a Failure—Present Rates Will Be Doubled.

More than four hundred delegates to the thirty-fifth annual convention of the Ancient Order of United Workmen at the Temple Building yesterday spent the day in a discussion of the rate question, on which the future of order depends.

Insurgents Failed. The insurgents are of course greatly in the minority, and at yesterday morning's session of the convention their agitation to force an election of grand lodge officers at the afternoon session fell to the ground, but the insurgents have not weakened. They are employing their obstructive tactics as effectively as possible, and last night at a late hour the adoption of the grand lodge schedule had not been voted upon.

MANY ACCIDENTS IN TORONTO YESTERDAY TWO MEN KILLED BY HAMILTON TRAIN

Boy Run Down by Motor Car and Died Later—Farmer Struck by Street Car—Foreigner Injured When Sewer Caved in—Bicyclist Run Over by Delivery Truck.

Wm. Askins of Toronto and Thos. Sharpe of Peterboro Stepped Aside to Allow One Train to Pass and Were Struck and Killed Instantly by Another.

George McCormack, who was struck by a motor car, died shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. Motor cars were responsible for two accidents in Toronto yesterday, and in one case the result may prove fatal. George McCormack, aged eight, of 85 River street, who was run down by an auto yesterday afternoon, was removed to the hospital in an unconscious condition. At an early hour this morning he had not regained consciousness. His recovery is very doubtful.

Hamilton, Thursday, March 19.—Stepping from one track to avoid an eastbound freight train to another, Wm. Askins, aged 26, married, of Toronto and Thos. Sharpe, aged 22, single, of Peterboro, were struck by a westbound T.H. and M.B. freight engine, No. 52, on the main line of the T.H. and M.B., about 100 yards west of Garth street, about 9 o'clock last night and instantly killed. According to the story of eye witnesses, the two men, who were linemen, employed by the C.P.R. Telegraph Company, had been working in Welland, and were walking along the track on their way to the boarding car in Aberdeen yards. The victims were walking along the eastbound track some distance in advance of four or five of their fellow workers, and seeing the train approaching on the eastbound track, they stepped to the west side of the track to see whether it was safe to do so, and were struck almost instantly. They were prevented from hearing the approach of the light engine, by the noise of the oncoming freight train. One of the men who was walking some distance behind them, without looking to see whether it was safe to do so, and were struck before they had a chance to get out of the way.

RULES OF HOUSE TO BE AMENDED UNLESS OPPOSITION SURRENDERS BORDEN MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

CLOSURE MEANS WILD SCENES IN HOUSE

Previous Disturbances Will Appear Mild if Opposition Maintain Present Spirit and Grave Disorders Are Seemingly Inevitable—Manifesto Came as a Surprise.

OTTAWA, March 19.—(Special.)—The authorized announcement from the office of the prime minister, given tonight to the Canadian press, came as a surprise to those who have been closely following the contest over the naval bill. When the house adjourned at 6.30 tonight, a statement was made by Hon. Robert Rogers that the house would be moved into committee of supply to consider the main estimates for 1912-14, upon the reassembling of parliament. This was in accordance with the statement made to The World last week by a member of the government.

Official Statement Says if Obstructionists Persist, It Will Be Clear Course of Government to Change Antiquated Rules so as to Prevent Indefinite Delay, "While Securing All Reasonable and Necessary Freedom of Debate," and Notice Will Be Given Next Week—Liberals Oppose Clause for Which They Twice Voted.

OTTAWA, March 19.—(Can. Press.)—The following authoritative statement of the attitude of the government was given out this evening: "In the speech from the throne on Nov. 21 last, it was announced that a bill for aiding and strengthening the effective naval forces of the empire would be introduced. Accordingly the naval aid bill was introduced on the 5th of December last, immediately after the conclusion of the debate upon the speech from the throne. The necessary resolution to authorize the extension to a long debate of the committee's report came up on the 12th of December. On the last mentioned day the leader of the opposition (Liberals) moved in amendment that the resolution be referred back to committee with instructions to strike out all the clauses except the first clause and to substitute other clauses in lieu of the remaining clauses.

WHERE PARTIES AGREE. "The first clause of the resolution was, therefore, common to the policy proposed by the government and to that proposed by the opposition. That clause is as follows: "From and out of the consolidated revenue fund of Canada there may be paid and applied a sum not exceeding $35,000,000 for the purpose of immediately increasing the effective naval forces of the empire."

OPPOSITION'S INCONSISTENCIES. "Since Monday, the 3rd of March, the committee has been continuously engaged in the discussion of the second clause, which is in the same terms as the first clause of the resolution and which forms part of the avowed policy of the opposition as well as that of the government. This clause has not yet been passed, altho from March 3 to midnight on March 15, there had been 232 hours of actual discussion upon it, nine-tenths of which had been occupied by the opposition. The perverse attitude of the opposition is demonstrated by the fact that for two solid weeks they have been obstructing a clause for which they twice voted.

DISCUSSED SINCE DEC. 12. "It has been claimed that on Monday night, March 3, when the prime minister declared to adjourn unless some progress were made, clause two had been under discussion for only three hours. This is a complete misstatement. That particular clause embodied the principle of the bill and nothing more. It had been under discussion ever since Dec. 12 last, and its adoption had been sanctioned and decided by the vote upon the second reading of the bill.

AMEND RULES IF NECESSARY. "Under these conditions, if the opposition should persist in its determination to prevent the house from reaching a vote upon this bill, it will be the clear course of the government to press for amendment to the rules, which, while securing all reasonable and necessary freedom of debate, will prevent persistent obstruction and will permit parliament to provide for the public necessities and to proceed with the business of the country.

IS CANADIAN NAVY PLAN KILLED? GOVERNMENT'S STAND IS NOT CLEAR. OTTAWA, March 19.—(Special.)—The situation in regard to the naval bill becomes more interesting. The above statement from Mr. Borden declares the program of the government in case obstruction should be continued after Easter recess. Then it is to be some kind of closure. If the Liberals let the bill thru, there will be no attempt to change the rules—not this session anyway.

Looking Over Infields In the American League

Connie Mack is the only American League manager who can look at his infield and smile. Every other leader in the younger league has at least one spot that needs strengthening.

Michalis, Collins, Barry and Baker will go for Cornelius during the season, but Jennings has reason to envy the Philadelphia. Just now the Tiger infield consists of Donie Bush. There isn't a semblance of a regular third-baseman. First base is doubtful by reason of Del Gainer's wrist. Louden, a wonderful fielder, is a work-hitter.

Several of the other teams need but one man. The Red Sox can use a man to take Jake Stahl's place at first, while second base is the problem with the Nationals. Lajoie and Ray Morgan, who were scrapping for the job last year, were not idlers.

Will Johnston apparently filling first base acceptably, the White Sox need a third-baseman. The shift of Harry Lord to the outfield left that job open. Weaver and Rath are going well at short and second base.

Cleveland, played during the winter with his legs, is likely to need a third-baseman and possibly a first-sacker. Turner is getting pretty well along in years, and may bow this season. Johnston, on the other hand, will look like a wonder to anyone but the Nap fans.

The Junkee infield consists, at the last report, of Hot Chick. Hartzell probably will figure somewhere, but no one seems to know where.

The Browns with Stovall, Pratt and Austin, need a shortstop to replace Bobbie Wallace. The perennial Brownie is slowing up, but as yet Stovall has not found a man for his place.

BELIEVES THAT LOVE HAD WIFE AND INTENDED TO DESTROY HOUSE BY FIRE

Son Testified that the Prisoner Had Asked Him to Agree With His Story About Mrs. Love Being at a Neighbor's Home—Prisoner Found Body an Hour After Neighbors Had Told Him They Were Going to Search Premises.

By a Staff Reporter. DOWNSOUND, March 19.—Well-known link slowly and examining witnesses yesterday started to form a chain of circumstantial evidence in the murder of Mrs. Love, Hannah Love, in their home near Fleisherton last December. During the day only one witness stood the stand. Arnel Love testified against his father, and his statements were much the same as given at the inquest.

Such care was exercised by Mr. Gibson in securing information about the architecture of the house at Downsound. The world learned that the crown was intended to prove that the crown was placed on the body of the woman under the rear section of the building with an object so cunning that it was not to be discovered until the body had been placed on the floor.

Provincial Inspector Reburn discovered some time ago that the spot where Mrs. Love's body was found happened to be directly under her bedroom. Measurements showed that the bed in the room was completely destroyed after the place where the corpse lay. It was found that the crown was placed on the body of the woman under the rear section of the building with an object so cunning that it was not to be discovered until the body had been placed on the floor.

Mr. Love testified that he had seen the body of his wife in the room on the night of December 5, said Arnel Love, his father, was sitting in the room at the time. Home, Merchants Bank May Be in Some Deal For Banking Quarters

The latest deal in banking houses is said to be a move that contemplates the leasing of the ground floor of the Merchants Bank building to the Home Bank when the Royal moves into the 20-story building next year and the occupying of the Home Bank's present quarters at 8 and 10 West King street by the Merchants Bank. It is on West Wellington street.

So far as can be learned, the idea was progressed little further than the proposal in state. No one can name the underlying reasons that might bring about such a move.

adduced yesterday it was shown that the crown was endeavoring to prove that Love could not see the blood on the woman by standing on the steps as he said he did, therefore he had no apparent reason for trying to bleed to death unless he had other knowledge.

During the whole session Love evinced no surprise whatever at any of the statements made by witnesses, in the same stolid manner he conducted himself since the murder of his wife. He listened to the proceedings with a stolid indifference.

ARTHUR HAWKES ASKS PREMIER WHAT IS THE PERMANENT POLICY?

Last night The World received the following from Mr. Arthur Hawkes, editor of The Canadian British News, the champion of "The British-born." He took a prominent part in the fight and organization against reciprocity in 1911.

World: In the belief that it reflects a widespread feeling in the public mind and in the hope that it may contribute to the spirit of non-partisan agreement upon national defence, I venture to send you a copy of a letter recently addressed to the prime minister, appended herewith, in the crucial aspect of the historic issue on which it would seem both political parties must desire public opinion to crystallize.

Arthur Hawkes. Toronto, March 19. "Dear Mr. Borden: I am sure you will not be sorry to have an enquiry regarding Canadian defence from one who worked in the last general election without reference to what may have been said as to submitting any aspect of that question to popular vote."

MANY ACCIDENTS IN TORONTO YESTERDAY

Publishing Co., which was proceeding north on the main street, was struck by a car. The motor car, which was being driven by Edgar Roberts of 117 Keele street, ran right over the boy.

He was carried in a stunned condition into the office of the Reliable Messenger Co., Temperance street, where he is employed, and a doctor called, but after receiving medical attention he was able to be taken to his home, suffering only from shock.

James Brown of Mount Dennis farmer, while driving a rig across the corner of Bloor and Marguerite streets, yesterday afternoon, was struck by a Belt line street car and received painful injuries.

The car was proceeding rapidly at the time, and practically demolished the man, who was thrown some distance, and landed on his face. Dr. S. YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS KEY TO RAILWAY STATION THE HANDS OF THE CITY

Joint Committee of Northern Ratepayers' Association Advises Mayor and Controllers That They Control the Situation in Connection With the Metropolitan Tracks on Yonge Street.

The joint committee appointed by the northern ratepayers' associations to confer regarding the proposed agreement between the city and the Metropolitan Railway Company regarding the double-tracking of Yonge street have prepared the following statement of the results of their conference, which will be sent to the mayor and board of control.

Toronto, March 17, 1913. To the Mayor and Members of the Board of Control, City Hall, Toronto, Ont.: Gentlemen—Regarding the question of street and radial railway transportation on Yonge street north of the C.P.R. tracks, representatives from four ratepayers' associations directly interested, the local traffic would cause a growing speed handicap to the radial, as the speed of the radial car would be limited to the speed of the street car.

Equally Interested. In discussing the radial situation, all realized that both the city and the County of York were equally interested in making the Metropolitan Railway to properly handle their business. It was also recognized that in relation to a joint use of the tracks from York Mills south by the city and radial cars, the local traffic would cause a growing speed handicap to the radial, as the speed of the radial car would be limited to the speed of the street car.

Expire in 1915. The Metropolitan railway franchise expires on the 31st of March, 1915. The ratepayers' associations are of the opinion that the city should acquire the franchise before it expires.

YORK TOWNSHIP. On Saturday at 2 o'clock the York Township Council met in the hall and culverts through the Earlscourt district. Deputations from the local ratepayers' associations will also be present. The council are being petitioned at every meeting to put the roads in the township in better shape.

OAKWOOD RE-UNION. A very pleasant function took place in the Assembly Hall of Oakwood High School last evening, when a large number of ex-pupils of the school gathered to do honor to their alma mater. The old boys took charge of the meeting of the Literary Society and rendered a very pleasing program of speeches, songs and instrumental numbers.

WARD SEVEN. The building business in ward seven received another impetus during the past few days. Among the larger items on the permit list for West Toronto are a 6-story brick addition to the Campbell Milling Company's plant on Cavendish avenue, to cost $15,000; a block of 100 flats on Dundas street by M. Shinkman, costing $10,000; and detached brick houses on Fairview avenue, by Kerr & Martin, to cost $12,000.

SCARBORO. On Tuesday night, March 25, an inquest will be held at the morgue over the body of the late Alfred Burnham, who was found on the Kingston road, just west of St. Augustine's seminary, on Tuesday night. At present there is no word from Michael Daly, a local man on whom it is believed that the man was found, as to whether he is the man who was found.

THE LEASIDE ANNEXATION

The board of control has been trying for a month to deal with the annexation of Leaside. From what occurred at the meeting of the board yesterday, it is apparent that Controller Foster, if he is not opposed to annexation, is more than strenuous on demanding conditions, or to put it another way, he is afraid that the city will get the worst of the bargain. Broadly speaking, all our trouble in the way of getting the worst of the bargain has been the result of the delay on the part of the city to annex, and if we delay annexing Leaside now, the city will be forced to allow a separate municipality to be created and franchises in connection with it established and the financial problem, if annexation is proposed later on, will only be aggravated.

In this particular case Leaside is willing to come in without conditions, is willing to have city assessment put upon it at once, and that assessment will produce at least $100,000 a year revenue to begin with. And the owners are also willing to have the sewerage system and the waterworks system put on a local taxation basis. They are also willing to give sites for a firehall and police station, to give playgrounds, and to put a reasonable price on some of their property in the Don Valley for city park purposes. They are also building a diagonal road thru the property.

Furthermore, the Canadian Northern Railway is undertaking to build large yards and shops on the property, and, as a matter of fact, they are about to spend several millions in track, bridging, putting up a new station, new terminals, in the upper portion of Toronto, and all of which is in the way of business enterprise, in the way of employment of labor, and especially in the way of spending money for building purposes. Nor will it be long before two or three million dollars will be spent in Leaside on house erections alone if owners see that they can get water and sewerage in connection with the city system on paying the full price therefor. Leaside is offering to pay its way.

No business can grow without spending money or incurring liabilities or sacrifice of some kind in connection with its development; but in the end the business takes care of itself. Parkdale has never been a burden on Toronto, nor has Yorkville, nor has West Toronto, nor has East Toronto, and Leaside, in some respects, will be a better proposition than any of these. We agree with Controller Foster, that our liabilities are in a way increased, but that the property annexed, and that must carry the liability, also increases the assessable area, so that there is no load put on the other parts of the city.

If there was any other way of taking in a suburb than that of taking it in, we would have more sympathy with Controller Foster; but if a city needs to grow it must be let grow, or it must stand still. We have looked the whole situation over rather carefully and we have tried to size up to the best of our ability what the immediate prospects of Toronto are in the way of growth in population, growth in business, and growth in industries, and we are convinced that Toronto is on the rapid road to becoming a great city; and if that is the case her citizens and city fathers ought to recognize that fact and deal liberally with each proposition as it comes up, because if we stop our municipal improvements and our municipal growth new industries will go elsewhere.

The broad principle is that all these extensions, some from the very start, and all of them within a very short period after annexation, substantially take care of themselves, and become a source of strength to the city. Any annexations in the past have proven this to be so.

The council ought to deal with the question, therefore, right away, or else declare their policy to be one opposed to all annexation in general, and then confess before the legislature that inasmuch as the city does not care to see the legislature give independent autonomy to a Leaside municipality. In other words, the moment we have got rid of the last of the independent adjacent municipalities we start to force a new lot!

Toronto has been the most successful city in expansion in Canada, perhaps in America; strange to say, however, her own officials have continuously opposed such development. Toronto is not growing as a city half as fast as her business, her population or her wealth. When these stop growing, let us stop annexing. But no one should desire to see any of these things arrive. And we believe that the board of control, and the council will take that view and put the annexation thru.

U. S. PARCEL POST

February saw another great advance in the popularity of the parcel post in the United States. Approximately 50,000,000 packages were handled, or about 10,000,000 increase over those of January, and this all the more noteworthy because of three fewer working days. In the fifty largest offices the ratio of improvement was no less than 25.98 per cent. on the absolute figures. Taking the difference of period into account it reached approximately 39 per cent.

Chicago led all other cities with a total of 5,167,540 parcels, followed by New York with 4,102,010, while Boston, Cleveland, St. Louis and Philadelphia were all in the million class. The place Chicago has taken lends point to the argument that the zone system benefits central towns as against those on either coast. Reports state that public interest in the system is steadily increasing and merchants and producers are showing a keener appreciation of the advantage of the parcel post system.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT STREET CARS

Ald. Morley Wickert secured the support of The Evening News last night for his idea of applying the local improvement plan to the laying of street railway lines. Anybody who remembers the cedar block orgies of 25 years ago under local improvement methods can conceive the wild rush of property owners to criss-cross the metropolitan area of Toronto with street car lines. According to The News "the large real estate firms have received the suggestion enthusiastically."

The theory of street railway operation is that the road will pay for itself. If it does so there is no need to tax any property owner. If his property is improved a righteous and just assessor would assess the property accordingly, and the city would reap the advantage in increased taxation. Moreover, if the property owner pays for the line he might fairly claim a share in the profits.

The selection of street railway routes and the building of lines is a matter that should be kept strictly under the control of the executive officer of the city, whoever he be, or of a commission to be created to take charge of the civic railway lines.

The idea that Sir James Whitney or any of his ministers should look with favor on Ald. Wickert's proposal does not seem to have any special warrant.

BRITISH BY-ELECTIONS

Little satisfaction will be derived from the two by-elections in England by the tariff reform section of the Unionist party. In the Houghton-le-Spring division of Durham County, where the straight Liberal candidate had a plurality of over 2000, the combined Liberal and Labor vote totaled 700 above the number polled by the late Liberal member at the general election of 1910, while the Unionist vote increased by 425. Durham Co. has of course always been strongly in favor of reform, and this last election reveals no change of opinion.

If the Railway and Municipal Board isn't a good break for the people of Windsor, we don't know what it is. Chairman McIntyre appears to be well trained in the traditions established by Chairman Letich. The railway company were willing to pay a fair assessment, but the railway board lets them off altogether. How does Sir James pick 'em?

ELECT UNIONIST AS FREE TRADER

Weston's Independent Views Win Favor—Liberals Win Three-Cornered Fight.

LONDON, March 19.—(C.A.P.)—The Kendal bye-election, occasioned thru the death of Col. Bagot, former member, resulted: Weston 371; Somerville 269; an increase of 23 in the Unionist majority. Despite Weston being disowned by the party caucus, he was idolized by local Unionists, who were undismayed by the head-on assault of the Liberal majority. Weston's free trade views and his advocacy of military training proved quite acceptable to the voters.

Easy Liberal Win.

The Houghton-le-Spring election thru the death of Robert Cameron, resulted: Wing, Liberal, 6930; Richardson, Unionist, 4897; House, Labor, 416.

This was the first three-cornered contest in the division. The lowest majority for Liberals was just under two thousand at the "Kendal" election in 1900, Robert Cameron opposing the war. Neither party was over confident in the present election, when an attempt was made to say how the customary Liberal vote would split.

TO DISCUSS BANK ACT.

First Hearing Will Be on Wednesday Next.

OTTAWA, March 19.—The banking and commerce committee was called for this morning to proceed with the Bank Act, but owing to a Liberal caucus, there was no quorum.

Such of the members as were present, however, agreed to ask the commons for permission to meet during the session. The understanding is that such sittings shall take place only for the purpose of taking evidence and only when the house is meeting under normal conditions. The first hearing will be on Wednesday next.

LONDON, Ont., March 19.—(Can. Durham Co. has of course always been strongly in favor of reform, and this last election reveals no change of opinion.

BACK YARDS.

Behind our homes, 'neath the open sky, exposed to view, our back yards lie; behind our backs do they lie and yet—no!—to the neighbors round about, as they tell, we'd hear them shout past the high board fence, but our wits are dull and our minds are dense, so we pay no heed, yet angels weep and their eyes are bright—oh, the sidewalk side, the sidewalk side! Our doorknobs shine and our front steps glow; our walks are clean and green, and our lawns are bright; our roses bloom, and our porches perfume. In the summer's prime the delight of the ice and the snow, the front view is a lovely scene. But let folks once at our back yards peep and they'd there see sights to make angels weep and their eyes to stop; our side gate slats they might water the curs and the half-starved cats as they skinned round thru the ranges and the doghouse, and they'd see about Davy Jones. On life's long road we may take our stand and show a front that will beat the band; as long as we're in the front view, we may gaze; they may think we're it and may chant our praises. We may look O.K. to their glancing eyes—they may honor us as they pass, but they'll see the 'tis often so, yet the fact remains that we're also viewed from our own back lanes. The strangers behind us, the neighbors, the kind of crops that our back yards grow.

Motion by plaintiff for an order for further affidavit by the company on production so as to enable him to examine the books and see if his contention as to sales is borne out by the entries to be found there. Judgment: Without prejudice the discovery plaintiff cannot satisfy the demand for particulars of paragraphs 9 and 10. Apart from this is essential to plaintiff's case to show if he can that all the persons who he says were his sub-agents were really so, and to the full extent that he claims them to have been. The plaintiff is entitled to examine the books in manner limited by this judgment. If any more precise directions are required by either side they can be considered. McKay, K.C., for plaintiff. Judgment: The master in chambers has taken the correct view. The United Cobalt Exploration Co. were added as party plaintiffs by the divisional court and the only question before the master was as to the extension of time to a stated date of the judgment at the trial is pointedly and properly drawn to the question of interest. Plaintiff dismissed with costs to plaintiff in any event.

Plaintiff claims title by possession and defendant by deed from registered owner. At trial judgment was awarded plaintiff for possession without costs. Judgment: Appeal dismissed with costs.

Graham Co. v. Canadian Brokerage

Co.—S. Denison, K.C., for defendants, M. Wright and W. D. M. Shorey (Belleville) for plaintiffs. Appeal by defendants from judgment of Denison, C.J., of County of Hastings, of Jan. 18, 1912. Action by plaintiffs; a Belleville company, for $310.39 damages for defendant's refusal to carry out their contract for sale to them of evaporated apples. At trial judgment was awarded plaintiff for $300 and interest from Oct. 15, 1911, and costs. Judgment: In this case there was no intention within the time of the contract for the plaintiffs to tender a sample which the defendant's approved. We do not think the question of election arises in this case. The plaintiffs were ready to tender a sample with the terms of the contract and the defendant refused inspection. The plaintiffs were, therefore, entitled to recover damages for such refusal and the appeal should be dismissed with costs.

Essential To The Family Health

The need of a constant supply of clean hot water for domestic purposes cannot be strongly insisted upon by those responsible for Public Health. Every home from the mansion to the tenement should have a supply of hot water quickly and on account of its construction the water is thoroughly saturated with heat. A GAS WATER HEATER costs but a little to install and maintain—causes no dirt or drizzle—and, whilst quite indispensable in Summer is invaluable at all seasons. Our RUUD Water Heater No. 25, or our No. 422 Water Heater, can be thoroughly depended upon to do the work claimed for them, and it is well worth your while to see them. Now that Spring is about here, and house cleaning time about to begin, you will find it to your advantage to have a heater installed right away. Price reasonable. Easy terms. Inspection free.

NO MORE FREE LUNCHES FOR POLICE SUPPLIES
House Adjourns Until Tuesday Without Voting Interim Supply, But Supplementary Estimates Slid Thru Committee—Military Site Option Dropped.

Ottawa, March 19.—(Special.)—The house adjourned at 6 o'clock to- night until next Tuesday, the 25th inst. There was a slim house, many members having already left for the Easter vacation. No interim supply vote was suggested, and none can be put thru, in any event, until the re-assembly of the senate on Thurs- day, March 27. So far as can be learned, no agreement has yet been reached with respect to the interim supply vote.

Liberals are evidently on the defensive, and are taking no chances on what may happen after Easter holidays. H. B. Amer of Montreal, chairman of the committee on com- merce committee, moved this after- noon for an order of the house per- mitting that committee to sit and hear testimony during the sittings of the house, but the notice stood over upon the objection of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who said if the house as- sembled and rose at normal hours the committee would have plenty of time for its work.

Almost immediately after the house assembled this afternoon, the supple- mentary estimates for the current fiscal year were taken up in committee, and all of them passed. They will be further discussed when the house is asked to concur in the supply bill to be founded upon them. The govern- ment forces were in a most conglu- ment mood today, being anxious to get thru the estimates, and the criti- cism of the opposition was on the whole good-natured and unobtrusive.

Mr. Lemieux poked fun at the fine private car recently purchased and combined for the convenience of the minister of justice, and the minister of a good-natured colloquy across the floor between himself and Col. Hughes. Mr. Lemieux asked if the minister favored the military service, and the minister replied, "I do not," but I would like to educate the people up to the ideal of universal enlistment."

When an item was reached appropriating $35,000 for the purchase of the site at Toronto for a divisional office, Col. Hughes moved that it be struck out.

"Our option," he explained, "has ex- pired and the owners of the property have raised the price with which we intend to offer the site."

An item appropriating $5000 for contingencies in all the departments was seized upon by Mr. Lemieux as governing an appropriation for the sale of military service, and the minister of justice, Mr. Hughes, who was the reversible witness in the matter of the Coderre charges. It turned out, however, that the minister was sensational than an honest man, and that the charges of the character of the department.

"Possibly," the member for Rouville (Mr. Lemieux) thought that Mr. Bou- passa was to be rewarded for his ex- traordinary services by an appointment to the ministry of justice, and the minister announced the prime minister amid great applause.

County Judges' Salaries.
The legal gentlemen from Ontario pressed the minister of justice to in- crease the salaries of county judges. Mr. Gorman (Welland), Mr. Guthrie (South Wellington), Mr. Pardee (West Lambton), and others, urged the in- crease.

Judge Doherty said the pay, no doubt, should be increased, but in this connection suggested that the gov- ernment reduce the number of judges. Finance Minister White, in putting thru some estimates, announced that the Hon. of Montreal had been again appointed fiscal agent of large govern- ment. Asked whether the government intended to increase the interest paid on the bonds of the government sav- ings bank, Mr. White said the matter was under consideration. Personally he thought three per cent. interest was what the government only had to pay three and one-half per cent. for loans in England running for thirty or forty years.

Grain Inspection.
An item appropriating $100,000 ad- ditional for the inspection of grain in Canada Grain Act was justified by the great increase in the amount of grain graded and inspected during the past year. Forty-five thousand more car- loads of grain, it appears, were inspected in 1912 than in 1911.

MOTION TO ABOLISH BARS DEFEATED BY GOVERNMENT LOCAL OPTION ENDORSED
Wise Enforcement of the Present Legislation Considered to Be Far Better Than to Abolish Bars and to Allow Shops and Manufacturers to Do Business—"We Are Living Up to Our Pledge," Said Sir James.

Ottawa, March 19.—The Liberal motion to abolish the liquor traffic in Ontario was defeated in the legislature yesterday. The above is the government's policy, which is considered to be the best in the interests of the people. The long debate on the temperance issue was wound up by Sir James Whitney and T. H. Rowell, members of the opposition on the liquor traffic to minimize its evils.

A RUSSIAN SUIT.

Bright "Neil" rose eponge, with bands of the same material, printed in dainty Japanese flower design, composes this dress.

The frogs at the closing are made of cords, covered with the plain material, and a black enameled belt is worn. With the dress is an under-dress of plain crepe net which slipped on over the head and gathered with a black velvet ribbon.

A HANDSOME GIFT FOR MISS PRITTE

Twenty-Five Thousand Dollar House and Lot on High Park Boulevard.

On the north side of High Park Boulevard, now distinguished for its many pretty and costly homes, there is being built an acceptable present as any June bride in this city will receive. It is a twelve-roomed, $12,000 house, finished in finest hardwood completely, with every appointment considered "the thing" in houses, with a stone-trimmed interior, and a garage for the motorcar that will fit with the gift. With the 100 feet of land the house will have a value, when finished in June, of $25,000. It is quite close to the park.

The lucky young woman who will get this present is the daughter of R. W. Pritte, of 1 High Park Boulevard. Her fiancé is an office manager of one of the Toronto shoe manufacturers.

ANNIE F. R. RIFF

Just how soon a baby shows recognition is a point difficult to decide. It is my own private opinion that when he cuddles down with mother after his rough usage at the hands of doctor and nurse, he sniffs just as any little animal, and recognizes his own. And mother, looking down at the wee, wrinkled face feels every bit of love in her answer, the mute appeal of his very helplessness. From day to day she watches until his first smile shows recognition and dawning love. After that the love instinct grows steadily and manifests itself in a hundred ways. What mother feeling the warm, soft grasp of the baby hands, the caressing touch of the baby feet, can believe that the loving child may grow into the cold-hearted, selfish man or woman? It is not possible that some of the people we meet could ever have been like our babies. If they were, something happened to change their love into selfishness.

A little one's caresses and endearing words are outward signs of a love which means self-forgetfulness in serving others. But the virtue is lost, unless constantly exercised by changing the surface love into service love.

Ask the little child when in a loving mood to do you some slight service. The slight effort necessary emphasizes the fact that loving is doing, and eliminates all idea of self.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN BESIEGED FRIEDMANN

Four Hundred Surround His Automobile Outside New York Hospital.

NEW YORK, March 19.—(Can. Press.)—Four hundred women and children hemmed in the automobile of Dr. Friedrich F. Friedmann this afternoon, begging him to treat them for tuberculosis. The crowd surrounded the German physician outside the Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases, and a squad of police reserves had to be called to make the path for him to the hospital door.

A batch of $60,000 at four and one-half per cent, sold to a Montreal company nearly fifteen months ago at premium remains undelivered, entailing a loss of over $200,000 and necessitating acceptance in the present market of a figure lower than par. Opinion is expressed that Galt might have followed the example of other municipalities and secured special legislation to validate its bonds.

The corporation bank declines to extend civic credit, and a stoppage of civic work has resulted from this condition of affairs.

ONE ITALIAN IS DEAD AND ANOTHER MAY DIE

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 19.—(Special.)—Jim Pericello, the Italian shot during the pistol fight at Lewis avenue and Fifth street Monday night, died at the general hospital this morning without making a statement. Tony Pocola, charged with the shooting, occupies a cell in Welland jail. Coroner Birdall held an inquest at the Morse undertaking rooms tonight.

Tony Strango, who also was shot, is in a critical condition at the general hospital. He may not recover. He has a bullet in his back just above the hips.

It was learned by the police this morning that the shooting was a culmination of an argument over a case of beer. An argument took place at Pocola's boarding house, 31 Seventh street. It is said Pericello and Strango took Pocola's share of the beer.

THE GOLD DUST TWINS' PHILOSOPHY

DOES it occur to you, my friends, that woman's labor never ends—that is, if she's inclined to be a trifle stubborn constantly. Some housewives glory in the thought that battles won must be re-fought.

This jingle is for those who try to smile at toil and reason "Why?" who will not let the household cares crush down life's other glad affairs. You'll find, where there is in a certain town, that Gold Dust helps to minimize the number of back-aches and sighs.

The Gold Dust Twins forever toil, with dirt and trouble as a foil. They start each morning, at the top, and only after night-fall stop. Theirs is to DO if NOT to DIE—Theirs is never question "why?" At kitchen tasks their talents shine; the floors they polish up are fine; in fact, no matter where they go they leave a spotless trail; and so, like sunshine, when the sky is grey they help to drive the clouds away.

Each grain of Gold Dust also shares in cleaning up the household wares; each mop it touches seals a bond, to make a mop a fairy wand; each brush or cloth holds regal sway in driving dirt's dull care away.

He Could Sympathize.

The conversation turned to the faded and fancies of the sweetest sex, and Justice McKenna told of the sentimental city girl who was spending some time in the country.

So full of sentiment and so imaginative was she, said the justice, that she could hear the trees whisper, the bushes sigh and the plants sing.

One day in June she was sitting beneath a cherry tree with several children, one of whom was a ten-year-old boy. Overhead a gentle breeze softly purred thru the quivering leaves.

"Listen!" suddenly exclaimed the young lady. "Can't you hear this poor tree groaning, Johnny?"

"No, I don't hear it groan," replied Johnny, assuming a listening attitude; "but I know how it feels to be full of green cherries."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Some nervous diseases, for example, there are many symptoms to warn one of the approach of nervous exhaustion long before there is danger of locomotor ataxia or some dreadful form of paralysis.

But they seem such little things that their danger signal is not taken notice of. Sleeplessness, headache, indigestion, irritability, loss of vigor and energy, discouragement and despondency all point to low vitality and exhausted nerves.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has been wonderfully successful in the cure of nervous diseases of a serious nature, such as prostration, locomotor ataxia and partial paralysis, but persistent treatment and considerable patience are necessary.

On this account we prefer to think of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a preventive treatment, which overcomes these symptoms by rebuilding the feeble, wasted nerve cells and restoring vigor to mind and body.

Is Health Only a Game of Chance?

If you are accustomed to look on health as a gamble you will probably prove a loser early in the game. Some may hold on to health and life for considerable time and defy the laws of nature, but there are many rules of the game which are conducive to health and long life.

Take nervous diseases, for example. There are many symptoms to warn one of the approach of nervous exhaustion long before there is danger of locomotor ataxia or some dreadful form of paralysis.

FASHIONS AND THE HOUSEHOLD

THREE OPERATIC STARS NEXT WEEK

Richard Carle and Hattie Williams Appear at the Princess Theatre.

MISS LOWELL AT ROYAL

First View of Talking Pictures at Shea's - Good Burlesque.

The coming to the Princess Theatre next week of "The Girl from Montmartre" has aroused considerable curiosity regarding the correct pronunciation of Montmartre.

"The Red Petticoat," the musical play by Rick Johnson and Young and Paul West, comes to the Alexandra Theatre next week with the original cast headed by Miss Helen Lowell.

"The Red Petticoat" is a musical comedy version of a western farce written by Mrs. Young a season ago.

"The Red Petticoat" is a decided departure from the usual musical piece. The characters, with but few exceptions, are westerners.

The music is by Joseph D. Kern, who has supplied a most tuneful score. In addition to Miss Lowell the cast will include Grace Field, Louise Mink, Frances Kennedy, Katherine Bellan, James B. Carson, Joseph E. Phillips, Henry Norman, William Pruetto, D. L. Fernandez, Donald McDonald, Wallace Ross, Al Wilson, and others.

In "Old Kentucky," the first of the new plays, the first act is set in the blue-grass country, in "Old Kentucky" which will be presented here on an elaborate scale at the Grand Opera House next week.

The second act is set in the mountains, and a novel and amusing scene, introducing a score of clever little colored lads in songs, dances and band music. Nothing better in a dramatic way, nothing more stirring and more entertaining can be desired than "Old Kentucky." It is a strong dramatic and an unusually thrilling story of real people, ably presented and splendidly played.

Edison's Talking Pictures. Next week, at Shea's Theatre, Manager Shea will give the "patent" of the Edison's talking moving pictures.

The first picture is a descriptive lecture on the kinetograph. The lecturer appears in the picture, and as he lectures, and his lips move his words are distinctly heard. He explains the invention and examples are given. A man is seated at the piano and plays a vocalist approaches and sings "The Last Rose of Summer," and a violinist plays a solo.

MISS HATTIE WILLIAMS, co-star with Richard Carle, in the musical play, "The Girl from Montmartre," coming to the Princess next week.

The Colonial Belles. The New York critics have classed "The Colonial Belles" as a most superior musical comedy entertainment.

The characters, with but few exceptions, are westerners, and the three scenes are laid in a mining camp.

The music is by Joseph D. Kern, who has supplied a most tuneful score. In addition to Miss Lowell the cast will include Grace Field, Louise Mink, Frances Kennedy, Katherine Bellan, James B. Carson, Joseph E. Phillips, Henry Norman, William Pruetto, D. L. Fernandez, Donald McDonald, Wallace Ross, Al Wilson, and others.

HELEN LOWELL, who will be seen in the principal role in "The Red Petticoat" at the Alexandra Theatre, next week.

THE WINTER ACONITE.

One of the very first flowers to greet us in the new year is the vivid, glowing winter aconite, or hibernica erantus. Like bulbocodium vernalis, described above, it also is a dwarf of scarcely more than four inches in height. Do not confuse this bulb with acetonium, or monkshood, a perennial grown from seed, as some have done to their disappointment.

They may be bought from any good firm for about thirty cents per hundred, and nothing less than a hundred will make any show worth while. Aconite is a peculiar bulb, the foliage is not very strongly in evidence, being almost entirely overshadowed by the large pale yellow flowers, which are delicately ornamented with a narrow green frill running around the outside of the flower cup.

The flower blooms on and on and on, for quite six weeks, so that I need not dwell at length on its extreme desirability. Once seen in all its modest beauty peeping from beds and borders set in a sea of lovely fresh green grass, or blooming bravely above the winter's snow, the sight will not soon be forgotten. In sunshine or in shade, in city or in country, no garden should be without it, for it can be tucked away in all sorts of unexpected places, and left to itself. Just think of a dependable little flower that you can absolutely count upon blooming from January until March, in any situation of course, being suitable.

In Europe, it wanders all over the southern parts, and is as wild and free as the wind. Have you ever seen it? Plant the bulbs in a soil partly sand and partly loam, in a fairly well-drained spot where the sun will reach it. Bury them about six inches between each bulb, which you will cover to the depth of an inch; then, do not disturb your stock for some seasons. The bulbs will multiply rapidly, and in great numbers, but, like all the other plants in this list, as I said before, to move them about from one position to another, you must be prepared to turn until it is absolutely necessary.

McCloud, Liddy Berg, Hazel McCann and others, and a big beauty chorus. "Hunting With the Lasso" "Lassoing Wild Animals in Africa," the lecture which Col. "Buffalo" Jones is to give at Massey Hall the latter half of next week, was the most interesting feature of the annual Canadian Camp-dinner in New York last January.

"Bon Ton Girls." The Gayety Theatre, beginning Monday matinee, offer the "Bon Ton Girls" and Bert Baker, assisted by a merry set of 50 high-grade entertainers, in a two-act comedy, entitled "A Peculiar Predicament," written and staged by Bert Baker, and said to be the best effort of this clever author-comedian's career. A MAN IN THE OPEN By Roger Pocock.

(Copyrighted 1912, The Bobbs-Merrill Company) I'd got to know about them iron things on his heels—spurs. We threw punches, my knife again his spurs, and he won easy. Queer how all the time he's wanting to show himself off. He'd never seen salt water before. The shipping, making the port, or clearing, foreign or coastwise, the Hellafloat Yank, the Skowington Coffin, the family pocket liner, tramp, fisher, lumberman, geordie and greaser was all the same to him. "Sounds like injun languages," says he, "can't you talk white?" So we went in swimming, and afterward there's a lunch he'd got with him—quart of pickled onions, and cigars. Seems it's the vacuum in under which makes hearts feel so heavy.

This stranger begins to throw me horse talk and cow stories. It seems cow-punchers is sort of sailors of the plains, only it's different. Seafaring men gets wet and cold, and wrecked, and they die. These fellows, they're excited, red streaks of life. Following the sea, I been missing life. Why, this guy ain't more'n two years older—say seventeen, but he's had five years ridin' for one man, four years for another, six years in Arizona, then three in Oregon, and he's added up about half a century. He's more worldly, too, than me—been in a train on the railroad. I'm surely humbled by four men, and if he keeps going, by four bells I'll be young enough to set in mother's lap.

Says his name's Bull Durham. Surely I seen that name on lil' sacks of tobacco. Bull owns up to this baccy's named after his father. And surely his old man must be pretty well fixed in four bells, and if he keeps going, by four bells I'll be young enough to set in mother's lap.

Says his name's Bull Durham. Surely I seen that name on lil' sacks of tobacco. Bull owns up to this baccy's named after his father. And surely his old man must be pretty well fixed in four bells, and if he keeps going, by four bells I'll be young enough to set in mother's lap.

"And you is the young of a real lord." "Sure. I'll have to be a bishop, too, when I comes into the property. I'm a sort of vice-bishop, sonny. D'ye see these yere gloves? They got a string to tie 'em at the back, 'cause I been indicted. I got an entail 'I show you in camp, and a pair of hereditaments." "Vice-bishop," says I, "is that like his mate's? I never hear tell of a bishop's mate."

"He mates in two moves," says Bull, "baptism and confirmation." "But," says I, "he just shuts me up, saying I may be ignorant, but that ain't no excuse for being untruthful." Well, his talk made me small and mean as a starved cat, but that was nothing to the emotions at the other end of me when he got me on one of them horses. I wanted to walk. Walk! The most shameful things he knew was walking and tell lies. If I walked he'd have nothing more to do with me. I rode till we got to the ferry.

You know 'a books how there's a line of stars across the page to show the author's grief. I got 'em bad by the time we rode into Invidia City. Draw the line right there.

We're having supper at the Palladium, and I'm pretty high scared. The goblets is full of pink and white serviettes, folded up into fancy designs, which come undone if you touched. There's a menu to say what's what, and you don't know what you're eating, and darned if I can find out whether to tackle a la mode with fingers or a spoon. Bull says it's only French for pucker-up, a sort of four-legged burrowing bird which inhabits silver mines, but if I don't like that, the lady will fetch me a foe par. Well, I orders one, and by the lady's face I see I done wrong, even before she complains to the manager. I'm surely miserable to think I've insulted a lady. The manager's suspicious of me, but Bull talks French so rapidly that even froggy can't keep up, altho he smiles and shrugs, and gives us sang-frows to drink. This sort of cocktail I had, was the first liquor I'd tasted. It's powerful as a harbor tug, dropping me out of the conversation, while the restaurant turns slowly round with a list to starboard, and Bull deals for a basket in the front window full of decorated eggs. Says they're vintage eggs, all verd-antique and booky. For years the millionaires of Invidia has shrunk from the eggs. My job when we leaves is to carry the basket, 'cause Bull's totin' a second-hand saddle. Bull lets me have cocktails to keep me from getting confused on the night of my first. I know I behaves with 'stordinary dignity, and wants more cocktails.

I dunno why Bull has to introduce me to the gentleman who keeps the peanut store down street—seeing I'd dealt there before. Anyway, I'm introduced to Affable Jones, and I'm the Mark of Worms, the same being a nom de plume. We proceeds to the opory house, climbs in thru a little hind window, and finds a dressing room. The gentleman, rigged up as a monk, Bull Durham claims he's rigged out already in a vice-soap, and I'm to be a chicken, 'cause I'm dealing in vintage eggs like the cotives. At the same, I'm left there alone for hours, and it's only when they comes back with a cocktail that I'll consent to dressing up as a chicken, and in passing out thru that lil' window is some crowded. We proceeds up street, me totin' eggs, and practising that old-time collier, as it seems the general public is surprised.

So we comes to the Masonic Hall, which is all lights, and band, and tubular persons, rigged up in fancy dress, dancing the horse doover. I got the name from Bull, who says that the next turn is my day boy in the omet cotton. Seems it's all arranged, too. Affable Jones lines up the ladies on the left, the dudes on the right, all the length of the hall. Bull marches up the middle, spurs trallin' behind him, and there's a crowd dressed as a chicken, with a basket of eggs, wondering whether this here cow-boy is the two persons I see, or only the one I can hear. Band's playing soft. Affable serves out tin spoons to the dudes, and I deals each a decorated egg, having it carefully in the bowl of the spoon, till there's only a few left over, and I'm safe along with Bull.

So far everybody seems pleased. Bull whispers in my ear, "Make for the back door, you son of a sea cook," which offends me, being true; waves an egg at the band for silence, and calls out, "Ladies and gents, if you come to the ranch after leading mummies' boy astray from the paths of virtue."

No, I can't set a saddle without giving the horse hysterics, and as for turning cow-boy, what's the matter with my taking a job as a colone? I'd best climb off that mare, and hunt a job afoot. So long, Jesse. There's the dust of Bull's horses whirring off along the road, and me settin' down by the wayside. A dog sets down in his skin, tall handy for wagging. All his possessions around him. I ain't even got no tail.

CHAPTER IV. The Ordeal By Torture. The Labrador was good to me, the dog was better, the stock range—well, I'd four years pushing cows, and I'm most awfully grateful. That's plenty trades outside my scope of life, and that's ages and ages past, which must have been plenty enjoy.

A PINT OF BREAD-SPONGE

SOME persons make excellent bread, but rely upon the bakeshop for rolls, coffee-cake, rusks and other side lines of bread stuffs. This is not necessary, for all the good bread mentioned and many others may be made from the same sponge that is used for

If you would have risen biscuit for tea, set aside a pint of sponge from the next baking. Add to this one tablespoon of melted butter and one of sugar. One egg may be mixed in also, the yeast biscuit are frequently made without it. Mix in enough flour to make a soft dough. When this is light, shape into loaves. Place close together in the baking tin and let rise again until very light.

When they are ready to go in the oven, brush over the tops with milk and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in a hot oven about twenty minutes. Rusks, rolls and biscuits should be well kneaded and be very light before baking. Bread sticks are made with the bread dough, only shortening being added.

Pieces of the risen dough, as large as a walnut, are rolled into strips about as large as a pencil and a foot long. These are cut in finger-lengths, allowed to rise a very little, and baked in a moderate oven so they will dry without much browning. They are served with bouillon, soups and tea. Coffee-cake may be as rich as you are pleased to make it. The proportions of a pint of sponge, two beaten eggs, a cup of sugar, a tablespoon of shortening, and a cup of tepid milk, with enough flour to mix into a soft dough, gives a fine one.

This should rise until double in size, turn on a board and roll out an inch thick. Cut it to fit the baking tin. Over the top spread beaten egg and sift on powdered sugar, grated nutmeg and cinnamon. Do not meats may be added, too. If you like, you may twist the dough into rings, or bowknots, instead of baking it in sheets.

This cake is rich enough to use at luncheon with chocolate in the place of the usual cake. Cinnamon rolls are made in about the same way as coffee-cake, except the dough is rolled up like a jelly cake and cut in slices, then put in the pans to rise. Raisins are added to the rolls. The first requisite for good rolls, doughnuts and such things, is the same as for good bread; fresh yeast.

Potato yeast is excellent, but the compressed yeast is less trouble to use and almost as fine when it is absolutely fresh; it requires only to be dissolved in warm water.

PRICES GRADUALLY SLIPPING LOWER

Toronto Stock Market Develops Further Weakness--Sentiment Is Cheerless.

CITY DAIRY ADVANCES Sharp Spurt in the Shares--Many Declines in Leaders.

The cheerless character of financial sentiment in Toronto was plainly exemplified yesterday in the action of the local market, another decline in the speculative favorites evidencing the unfavorable conditions. Stocks seemed simply to be slipping off, a habit they have demonstrated of late on pretty regularly of late. The outcome of the transactions was that all of the prominent issues wound up at declines of greater or less volume, and that confidence was still further undermined by reason of the downward trend.

The slump in the New York Exchange was the leading inspiration for the setback here, but our market had been put in a position where it was susceptible to the least influence, and, consequently, the relapse was in reality due to technical conditions more than anything else. The continued severity of the money stringency, which is just as intense as ever despite some statements to the contrary, was commented on unfavorably by brokers, and, tho it was not expected that relief would not long be withheld, traders were inclined to regard the present rather than look to the future, and based their opinions wholly on existent factors.

Unsatisfactory Action. The unsatisfactory action of Brazilian, which depressed the whole list, was the feature of the day. The shares dropped another half point to 93, and failed to develop any rallying power, the close being at 92 1/2. At its low the stock was just a quarter point above the low record of the year, struck a little over a week ago. Meanwhile speculative interest in the security has dwindled, the natural result of the easier trend.

APRIL DIVIDENDS WILL HELP MATTERS

Money Tension Should Be Somewhat Relieved, Says Bond House.

At the moment the money situation outlook appears more favorable, says the Dominion Bond Co. in its monthly report. The April dividend distributions should relieve local conditions provided the European situation is clearer at that time. London advice is divided as to whether the German bank rate will advance to 7 per cent. In that case the Bank of England rate would undoubtedly go to 6 per cent. The alternative is stationary German rate, with the possibility of the English rate being reduced to 4 per cent.

MORGAN IS GETTING VIVACIOUS AGAIN

ROME, March 19.—J. Pierpont Morgan will take back to New York with him a number of rare art works which have been picked up for him in Europe and Egypt.

VIRGINIA IS HARD AFTER THE TRUSTS

RICHMOND, Va., March 19.—Formal action has begun here by the state against Armour & Co. and the Standard Oil Co. for tax dodging and making false returns. These facts were added before the grand jury which investigated the matter for several months. The cases are to be heard here next month.

MONTREAL POWER LEADS IN DECLINE

Unsettlement in Market in Evidence Thruout--C.P.R. Has Quiet Day.

MONTREAL, March 19.—Local stocks continued to slip off to lower levels today, and new records for the year were touched by a number of recognized leaders. Chief among these were Montreal Power, which declined 1 3/8 to 215 7/8 in the afternoon and only 1-8 higher, and Iron, which declined to 44 and closed at the low point of 193 3/4. Richelleu down one point to 109 3/4, Spanish River down 1-8 were other stocks to break into new low grounds for the year. The downward embrace a larger number of issues than on Monday and Tuesday, and net losses on the whole were more severe than hereabouts. At the lowest of the day, and the list failed to show any resiliency at any point.

The break in New York around noon probably exerted some unsettling effect here. C.P.R. went off with the rest of the New York market and sold as low as 221 3/4, but came back later.

C. P. R. LED RALLY IN LONDON MARKET

Unfavorable News Acted as Depressor on Sentiment--Consols Higher.

LONDON, March 19.—The stock market was quiet and somewhat depressed today. The assassination of King George of Greece had no effect on prices, but the fall of the French Cabinet brought offerings of mining shares and Rio Tinto from Paris. The general list showed weakness, with a sharp upturn in City Dairy the only ray of comfort. Those shares rose to a new high for the year at 15 1/2, a gain of over six points on the announcement in the morning. The market moved irregularly under the lead of Canadian Pacific, later the market moved irregularly under narrow limits and closed quiet. Money was in good demand and discount rates were firmer.

CITY DAIRY ROSE TO NEW HIGH FOR YEAR

City Dairy common jumped 1 1/2 points in the Toronto market yesterday on the announcement that the directors had formulated a new plan for financing the company. The shares reached 55 1/2, which was the highest price since last May. The detailed price record follows:

Year	High	Low
1909	35	15
1910	40 1/4	23
1911	45	25
1912	61 1/8	48

YOU CAN'T BLAME IT ON LAWSON, ANYWAY

BOSTON, March 19.—The present unsettlement in the financial situation in no way can be attributed to Thomas W. Lawson, his magazine articles, or his stock market operations, for thus far during all of 1913 he has been nursing the "grippe" at Poland Springs. He is expected back in Boston, however, before April 1.

EASTER HOLIDAYS

The Easter holidays in the Stock Exchange will be larger this year than usual. The Toronto Exchange and the mining markets will be closed Good Friday, Saturday and Easter Monday, and it is expected that the Montreal Exchange will follow suit. Money will close Friday and Saturday, and the Chicago Board of Trade Friday only.

MACDONALD DOWN AGAIN ON THE CURB

Macdonald common sold down to a new low record on the curb yesterday at 33 3/4, with the close just a shade better than that figure. This acute nature of the money stringency was solely responsible for the decline. The stock opened the month at 53, and sold at 42 3/4 during February, that being the high record to date.

COPPER MARKET FIRM AT FIFTEEN CENTS

NEW YORK, March 19.—Copper metal available for this month's and next month's delivery is closely held at about 15 cents a pound, but copper for delivery beyond April is to be had for less than 14 7/8. Demand for casting copper is good, price is close to that of electrolytic.

ANSLOOKER--THE PORCUPINE RESERVE

Mines, Limited, is making arrangements to re-open the list of shares in spring, and the movement in the stock is based on that fact. The company holds two claims in Tisdale and 11 in Delour.

WALL STREET IS RULED BY BEARS

Market Slow and Dragging, With Tendency Toward Lower Level.

A BREAK IN SMELTING

Report of Prosecution by Government Cause of Heavy Selling.

NEW YORK, March 19.—There was no improvement today in the stock market, which continued to be slow and dragging, with a tendency toward further depression. Sentiment was bearish and buyers were scarce. Some scattering gains were made in the forenoon, but later the whole list went off, a number of stocks marking new low records for the protracted decline. Subsequently there was a rally, and final prices showed comparatively small changes except among minor issues.

The course of prices centered largely around an unofficial report that the government was to proceed against American Smelting under the Sherman law. Smelting was sold heavily and broke four points to 63 7/8, a new low figure. The weakness spread to the other metal stocks, and subsequently the whole list sold off. Union Pacific touched a new low point at 145 7/8. When, later in the day the attorney-general was reported to have denied the Smelting rumors, the list rebounded sharply. The fact that such an unconfirmed report was a determining factor in the day's movement served to illustrate the narrowness of the market at present.

SUGAR DEPRESSED

Liquidation among the specialties continued. Sugar stocks were depressed further by selling on the part of holders who feared the effect of retention of the sugar tariff. American Sugar, at 109 3/4, and Beet Sugar at 25, reached new low points. Sears Roebuck, Underwood, Can and others of the specialties sustained substantial losses. New Haven rallied 1 1/2 after its recent severe break.

CHINESE LOAN IS IN A BAD Muddle

Announcement That United States Bankers Will Drop Out Causes Alarm.

BERLIN, March 19.—The indicated retirement of the American bankers from participation in the Chinese loan has caused consternation among the leaders of the interested group of German bankers, and it is feared today that they fear the date of the whole operation will be affected.

It is asserted that the Germans will continue the negotiations in spite of the retirement of the American bankers, of whom they were to a certain extent the natural allies in the project since territorial questions, it is pointed out, will be the same for them with them as they do with the other powers.

The German bankers had received no intimation of the withdrawal of the American group contemplated withdrawal from the negotiations, and it is said in financial circles here that they fear what was feared by the American bankers, particularly in power industrialists in the negotiations.

WALL ST. ALARMED OVER TRUST PROBLEM

Erickson Perkins and Company (J. G. Beatty) wired Wall street is not entirely reassured as to the policy of the new attorney-general regarding trusts. One thing should be tolerated, however, until he has been sufficient time in office to get his bearings, it is useless to expect an outline of his policies on great questions. The bank has been presumably reduced to gold exports, and as an offset to gold exports, and may make a particularly poor showing. But firmness of money reflects calling of loans, particularly in power industrialists.

ST LAWRENCE MARKET.

Receipts of farm produce were 200 bushels of grain and 35 bushels of hay. Barley--Two hundred bushels sold at 1 1/2. Hay--Thirty-five loads sold at $15 for No. 1, and $12 at $14 for No. 2. Eggs--Prices are again low, and which are selling wholesale at 23c to 24c per dozen.

NEW LOW RECORDS ON INDUSTRIALS

New low records for the year were established on several of the prominent industrials in the New York stock market yesterday. The following compilation gives the comparative figures on some of the principal issues:

Year	Low	High
1912	1913	1913
1913	1913	1913

FIRST CLEAN-UP AT THE M'ENANEY

Crown Reserve's Porcupine Property Is Now More Than Paying Its Way.

PORCUPINE, March 19.—The first clean-up has been made at the McEnaney mill in Porcupine and the little five-stamp is now earning $500 per day, which is making current expenses and leaving a nice profit. The management only meant to use the first five stamps as sampling plant, but the ore is running so well that it will rank as a regular producer.

WILL DIAMOND DRILL THE CURRIE CLAIM

COBALT, March 19.—It is understood that the Currie Mining Co. is going to put a diamond drill on the bottom level of the property adjoining the Wetlaufer, to attempt to discover what the formation is and with a possible view of locating ore bodies. This may result in discoveries that will justify the cutting of the Wetlaufer dividend and the very disappointing annual report of the only producer of the Lorrain camp.

CONTROL OF COBALT MINE CHANGES HANDS

Announcement is made that the controlling interest in the Eastbourne Cobalt Mines, Limited, has been acquired by the Currie Mining Co. The new owners have a plan for the development of the property, which consists of one day's work, and the distance north-west of the Timiskaming.

DUST DAMAGES KANSAS WHEAT

Fear For Safety of Growing Plant Gives Upturn to Prices.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Dust storms in Kansas caused a sharp upturn to wheat. The market closed firm today, higher than last night. The day ended with wheat at 2 1/2c higher than last night and oats at 1 1/2c. Provisions showed a net loss of 2 1/2c to 2 3/4c. Reports of the dust storms in the southwest were accompanied by a series of heavy rains in the north, which has helped the growing crop. Lower reports from the sections that had traveled thru the sections affected said moisture was plentiful. That the soil was too wet to be carried by high winds and that the cables helped in no danger. Higher prices were being asked by exporters against sales in Liverpool from the bulge, but the market at no time was lower than the close of yesterday.

Expectations of further curtailment of corn receipts owing to the opening of the busy season and prediction of a leading house bought on a scale that sent shorts to cover. Oats for active cash demand made friends for the bull side.

A sharp break in hogs weakened the provision list.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

Local grain dealers' quotations are as follows: Ontario oats--No. 2, 33c to 34c per bushel, outside; 33c, track, Toronto. Manitoba flour--Quotations at Toronto are: First patents, $3.50 in cotton, 10c more; second patents, $4.50 in cotton, 10c more; strong bakers, $4.50, in jut.

COBALTS PROVIDE THE ONLY FEATURE

Sustained Demand For Silver Issues Holds Market on Even Keel.

PORCUPINES ARE WEAK

The mining market failed to develop any vivacity yesterday, and a weaker feeling, which came into being late in the session, carried prices for many of the favorite issues to lower levels. Scattered liquidation was under way all day long, and with the buying of 600 shares of the mill, the market was only a negligible nature. It was only natural to find the underdone heavy and stocks on the down grade again.

The brunt of the selling occurred in the Porcupine issues, and the major portion of the ensuing decline was borne by the gold mining shares. Jupiter lost nearly two points at 44 3/4, and closed on offer at 44; Pearl Lake came in for another reaction, with the quotation back to 64, a setback of 2 1/2 points, and closed still lower, with offerings at 63 1/2; Swastika eased a fraction to 14 1/2; Apex was off to 2, and Red down to 2 1/2. McIntyre changed hands as low as $3.50, making a decline of a full 20 points for the session, and $120 from last week's high record. Hollinger sold at $17.

Cobalts the Feature. The Cobalts showed comparative firmness, and the steadiness with which prices held was really the feature of the day. It would appear, in retrospect to this section of the market, and as the exchange has been swept fairly clear of stock, it would not be surprising to see a smart rally in the favorite securities before long.

Many of the Cobalt issues evidenced the fact that they were straining at the leash yesterday. Peter Lake rose a fraction to 23, and wound up bid there; Kerr Lake moved up to 25; Timiskaming at $2.75. On the other hand, City of Cobalt, Chambers-Ferland, Bailey and Timiskaming all slightly reduced in value for the day. Wetlaufer changed hands at 13, and Foster at $16. Elsewhere prices were comparatively on a par with the previous session.
