The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

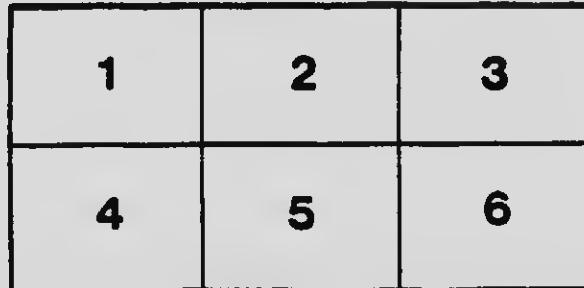

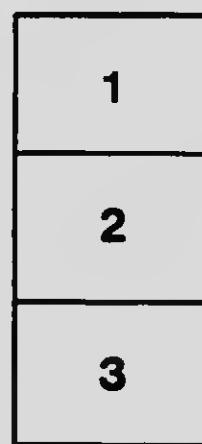

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

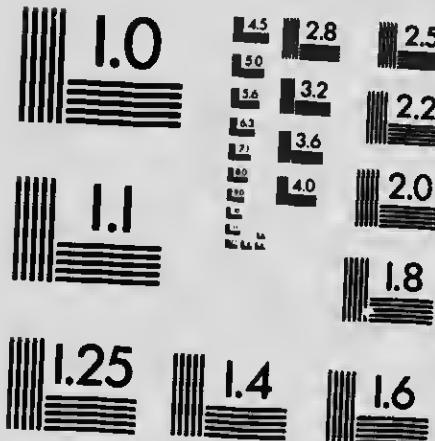

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plié et en terminant soit par le dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plié, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE ST. ANDREW'S LODGE

PRIMER

---

AUTHORIZED BY
THE MASTER OF THE LODGE FOR EDUCATIONAL NIGHT

Tuesday, May 14th

1912

TORONTO:
THE BRYANT PRESS, LIMITED

Entered according to the principles of the square and compasses, in the year A.L. 5912, in honor of the occasion, by the WORSHIPFUL MASTER OF THE LODGE.

PREFACE

THIS PRIMER is not "Simply a reading book."

Pictures, poetry and music appeal to every man. These arts train the taste and cultivate the aesthetic side of his nature—that is, if he is natural. Certain speeches are hearkened to with pleasure. So let all these be of the very best.

This book has been prepared as a souvenir of Educational Night in St. Andrew's Lodge, and in its construction the pages of the ordinary School Primer have been consulted, not in a literal sense, but in a somewhat unusual style, fashioned on the belief that "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men"—even teachers.

There is some variety, as you will note.

The main purpose of the Primer, however, is the promotion of good fellowship in keeping with the best Masonic traditions.

Meantime enjoy yourselves.

Teach us delight in simple things,
And mirth that has
no bitter springs,
Forgiveness free of evil
done,
And love to all men 'neath
the sun!

Kipling

Humpty, Dumpty, dickery dan,
Sing hey, sing ho !
For the "Master" man !
With his smile so sweet,
And his form so neat,
And his manly air,
On his mighty seat.

By the sullen river Don,
Stood the great and mighty chief ;
Dark behind him rose the bushes,
Right before him beat the water,
Beat the dull and muddy water,
Beat the leaden river Don.

Ding, dong bell !
Our "Chappy" intends to tell,
Lodgemen who on time are in,
The great results of "dis-cip-lin."
Brethren who the lodge stay out,
Miss things they should hear about.

Rain, rain, go away,
Come again some other day,
Little Joseph wants to play,
In the park across the bay.

George Ritchie Horner,
Sat in a corner,
Fixin' his maiden speech,
He put in some dashes,
And added his "slashes,"
And said :
"What a wise boy am I."

You frequently to me call,
But you very seldom see me,
I mingle with girls and boys.
I scan over the leaves,
I scatter the seeds of knowledge.
I have caught the bird in her nest.
I watch the clouds across the sky.
I read of ships tossed on the sea.

Who am I ?

Work while you work,
Play while you play :
That is the way
Bill gets his pay.

MY GARDEN

A garden is a lovesome thing
 God wot !
 Rose plot
 Fringed pool,
 Ferned grot—
 The veriest school
 Of peace ; and yet the fool
 Contends that God is not—
 Not God ! in gardens !
 When the eve is cool ?
 Nay, but I have a sign ;
 'Tis very sure
 God walks in mine.—T.E.B.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.—Our "I.P.M." at the present time is visiting the "Garden of the Gods," and many Californian points of interest, and we are sure the brethren's best wishes go out to him for a happy and healthful vacation and a safe return.

He is Bishop !

He is not a Bishop !

This at first seems paradoxical.

It is not paradoxical !

He is Bishop, but not a Bishop !

Do you see ?

“This is the House
That Bishop built.”

THE LODGE MUSICIANS

Brother Levi was old, and the "Master" was about to sell him.

"I shall not be sold," said Levi. "I will run away to town and join the band."

He met a great Dane upon the road. "Come with me to town and join the band," said he. "You can beat the drum."

"All right," said the Dane.

They met Smith (H.T.) by the way. "Come with us and help to make music," said they. "We have heard you sing."

"All right," said Smith.

Farther on, they met a Bell (Tom). "Come along and join our band," they said.

"All right," said the Bell.

At night they came to a large building in Hogtown called the Temple. Levi, looking in through the high windows, saw a great multitude eating supper.

"I am so hungry," said Smith.

"Let us drive them away," said the Bell.

"Let us frighten them," said the great Dane.

Levi put his feet in the doorway. The great Dane climbed upon his back. Smith climbed upon the great Dane's back. The Bell hung upon Smith's neck. All looked in through the door.

Then they "sang" together with all their might. Levi yelled basso, the great Dane "shillahied," Smith shed "light," and the Bell belched. It was some noise.

It had the desired effect. Not one of the multitude was left to tell the tale.

The four friends then sat down to supper, and ate of the good things that had been provided. Then they put out the lights.

The splendid repast (which they had not been used to) and the quiet rest in the soothing atmosphere, put them in a receptive condition which naturally created a desire to "see light."

About an hour later some of the multitude sufficiently recovered to be able to return to the Temple, and hearing the request of the four strangers, caused a thorough investigation to be made. The strangers proved themselves to be born of the free, old enough to vote and were reported good, whereupon the candles were lit and there "was light."

The four strangers soon made fast friends with their brethren, and have lived happily amongst them ever since.

Lesson: Brotherly love, relief and truth (to some extent).
