Weyburn, Sask., Aug. 3.—(Special)—The scene at the great meeting in Regina last night was one never to be forgotten. For the first time since the Liberal Association was formed in 1867, the German Canadians of this province and those of the other provinces of the Dominion, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Russia, presenting their Canadian loyalty by manning the new navy with their boys.

Having presented the petition Schmitz turned to the great audience and speaking in German told them he had communicated their message to the premier. Some five hundred Germans in various parts of the big arena sang to their feet each waving a Union Jack with which he had equipped himself, and gave forth German cheers again and again.

Sir Wilfrid, who was unmistakably moved, in reply said: "God bless our German fellow countrymen in their declaration. Oh, that we older citizens of our country were inspired by the same grand spirit. Let us remember, however, in the older age, among my compatriots I am being denounced as a traitor to my origin because I stand by the Canadian navy-my German fellow Canadians are prepared to man the new navy with their boys."

"Then they go to the English-speaking provinces and declare I am speaking to separate Canada from the British empire and that I am aiming towards independence. They would create prejudice against me, the big arena sang to their feet each waving a Union Jack with which he had equipped himself, and gave forth German cheers again and again.

NO CONFESSION IN CRIPPEN CASE

Inspector Dew So Informs Scotland Yard

NEW EVIDENCE

Former Assistant of Dr. Crippen Has Given Police Some Additional Information—Arthur Newton Will Defend Crippen—Solicitor for Miss Le Neve

New York, Aug. 3.—Nothing has been heard of Walter F. Shopper, a contracting electrician, who disappeared from his home in Summit, N. J., July 7, although the police and members of his family have kept up a vigilant search for three weeks.

When he left home he had in his possession $6,000 to $8,000, which he had just collected from his accounts. His brother, Frank W. Shopper, of No. 2 Fulton street, Jersey City, said that he feared the missing man had been murdered and robbed.

On the evening of the day he disappeared Mrs. William Lawrence, a sister-in-law living in Summit, received a telegram from Shopper asking her to see his wife, and everything had gone wrong with him. The brother had the telegram traced and found that it was filed at the Grand Central Station in this city, by a man answering the description of his brother.

London, Aug. 3.—Several important facts bearing on the Belle Etoile murder case came to light today. In the first place Scotland Yard took occasion to dispose of the rumors that a confession had been received from either Dr. Crippen or Miss Le Neve, under arrest at Quebec as fugitives from justice and who will be brought here and tried on the charge of murder.

It was stated by the police that no confession had been made. His confession announcing that the accused had been remanded by the Quebec court for a later hearing, concluded with the word "unconclusion." The police also let it be known that progress was being made in the development of evidence. William

BASE BALL SCRAP Aired in Toronto Police Court

An Echo of the Toronto-Baltimore Game Saturday

Toronto, Aug. 3.—(Special)—There was some general talk at the Metropolitan Police Court on Saturday afternoon, when the Toronto police court was held, of the Toronto-Baltimore game of Saturday afternoon.

When called to the witness stand, John Stafford, umpire of the game, said that he had seen the Toronto player, who had just come to the ground and with assault, "I called me out on strikes," and I told him that was the same as he did at Rochester, N. Y., and I put me out of the game," said Dunn.

This was followed by an argument between the two, and proceeded to a pleasurable interest in the debate.

"We had two or three fights over the game," added the complaining manager, "I did not hit me," he went on.

"Why did you do that? Naturally he wanted to oblige you," said Colonel Devine.

"Dunn to use his own words, 'Put his feet out on me,'" added the witness.

"Just the one he asked for," added the witness.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

THE FALL OF THE ALAMO
By Thomas H. Benton

UNHAPPY day, that Palm Sunday, March 27, when the 512 prisoners at Goliad, issuing from the sally port at dawn of day, one by one, under the cruel delusion of a return to their families, found themselves enveloped in double files of cavalry and infantry, marched to a spot fit for the perpetration of a horrid deed—and there, without an instant to think of parents, country, friends and God—in the midst of the consternation of terror and surprise, were inhumanly set upon and pitilessly put to death in spite of those moving cries which reached to heaven, and regardless of those supplicating hands stretched forth for mercy, from which arms had been taken under the perfidious forms of a capitulation.

Five hundred and six perished that morning—young, vigorous, brave, sons of respectable families, and the pride of many a parent's heart—and their bleeding bodies torn with wounds, and many yet alive were thrown in heaps upon vast fires for the flames to consume while the steel had mangled. Six only escaped, and not by mercy, but by miracles. And this was the work of man upon his brother; of Christian upon Christian; of those upon those who adore the same God, invoke the same heavenly benediction, and draw precepts of charity and mercy from the same divine fountain.

Accused by his ground on which the dreadful deed was done! Sterile and set apart let it forever be! No fruitful cultivation should ever enrich it; no joyful edifice should ever adorn it; but shut up and closed by gloomy walls, the mournful yew, the weeping willow, and the inscriptive monument, should forever attest the foul deed of which it was the scene, and invoke from every passenger the throbs of pity for the slain and the start of horror for the slayer.

Inexorable history will sit in judgment upon all concerned, and will reject the plea of government orders, even if those orders emanated from the government, instead of being dictated to it. The French national convention in 1793 ordered all the English prisoners who should be taken in battle to be put to death. The French armies refused to execute the decree. They answered that French soldiers were the protectors, not the assassins, of prisoners; and all France, all Europe, the whole civilized world, applauded the noble reply.

This apartment was luxuriously furnished, and Inspector Walters explained that the Turkish Envoy and his suite passed the working hours of each day there after they had personally thrown open the other apartments to the diamond polishers and unlocked the safes in which the gems were stored, when work ceased on the previous day.

"His Excellency," said the inspector, "kept the other two rooms empty, except the confidential servant, named Hussein, who used to bring coffee, cigars, and newspapers or other things the gentlemen might require, together with their lunch in the middle of the day. The workmen brought their lunch with them, so that they came in and out once a day only."

"Where did this confidential servant sleep?" asked Brett.
"I believe he used to be curled up on the rug outside His Excellency's door."

"And the other servants?"
"They all slept in my basement."
"What were they, Turks or Christians?"
"Well, sir," said the inspector with a smile, "two of the three were Christians in appearance. That is the best I can say for the Christians, they were Frenchmen though certainly the cook was a first rate chef. Of course, we got all our meals here while in duty."

"Did His Excellency and other members of the mission eat food prepared in the ordinary way?"
"Oh, yes, they appreciated French dishes as keenly as anybody might do. It was in this room,"

A DOUBLE CURE FOR DOUBLE TROUBLE

Father Morrey's No. 26 Cures Catarrh by a Combined Treatment.

The sudden weather variations in our climate result in a great many cases of catarrh—a troublesome disease usually considered hard to cure, and one which often leads to serious pulmonary and intestinal troubles.

A neglected cold in the head weakens the nasal membrane, so that every future exposure to the cold returns. As length these conditions are fastened onto the system, and the sufferer feels the annoyance of a longer chronic catarrh.

Some doctors confine themselves to prescribing external applications, and thus do not reach the seat of the trouble. Others give internal remedies exclusively, and thus do not completely relieve the affected parts.

Father Morrey's, the killed priest-physician, rightly regards catarrh as a double trouble, consisting of a troublesome local effect and the fundamental cause, the latter having to do with impaired general vitality.

His famous remedy, No. 26, is a combined cure for catarrh. It consists of tablets to be taken three times a day, and an especially compounded salve.

A LESSON IN LOYALTY

Several hundreds of German-Canadian living union jacks and wildly cheering in proposal that their sons be strong to man the Canadian navy was the most significant incident thus far in the western part of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's tour.

MACKENZIE AND THE I. C. R.

The Montreal Gazette (Conservative), appears to favor the transfer of the I. C. R. to a private company. The Gazette is an opponent of public ownership in general, and the exponent of the views of the corporations. It says:—

"Mr. William Mackenzie, of the Canadian Northern Railway, has intimated that he would like the Intercolonial Railway for the extension of his system of lines to the Atlantic seaboard. Ownership and operation of the Intercolonial Railway has been a burden on the treasury of Canada varying from two and a half millions a year to four millions a year.

Perhaps before opening negotiations for the I. C. R. Mr. Mackenzie might fairly make some proposition regarding the outstanding indebtedness of the Halifax & South Western Railway. The Intercolonial would be much better financially if this were settled. It is becoming an old story in the auditor general's reports.

Whatever the views of the Montreal Gazette, the people of eastern Canada generally are unalterably opposed to the sale of the I. C. R. It is to the people of the lower provinces what the canals were to Ontario and Montreal, and the people here cheerfully agreed to the expenditure on the canals. The Ottawa Free Press significantly observes:—

"William Mackenzie wants to secure the Intercolonial as a portion of the Canadian Northern system; but the people of Canada will have something to say about that."

The main street paving will probably be laid before the city fathers wake up. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statements on the tariff and trade relations have caused a very lively discussion in the English press.

The accession declaration bill has passed the British parliament and has received the royal assent. There was no serious opposition. The Protestants in Spain may perhaps hope that their case will now be favorably considered at the Vatican.

Manufacturers should get together at this afternoon's meeting in the board of trade rooms and take steps to make the sessions of the royal commission on technical education in this city of some value to the industrial life of the community.

SIR WILFRID'S ELOQUENCE

With Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply to the spokesman of the German settlers in Saskatchewan met associated his remarks to the American settlers at another point. He said: "I understand that many of you have come from the great republic to the south of us, as a land which is akin to us by blood and tradition. I hope that in coming from there to another free country, being naturalized citizens of this country, no one desires you to forget the land of your ancestors. It would be a poor man who did not always have in his heart a fond affection for the land of his birth, but in coming to this country, while you should not, and we do not desire that you should forget that you were born Americans, still we desire that there should be a still greater bond of union between the land of your birth and the land of your adoption."

The two greatest countries today are the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Republic of the United States. Let them be united together and the people of the world will be forever united. Although our aspirations do not go as far as that, still they do go to the extent, the friendship which has existed for many years between the country of your birth and the land of your adoption should ever be promoted, and, if possible, be

WANT INVESTIGATION OF THE EXPRESS RATES Chicago, Aug. 2.—Filing of a petition with the Interstate Commerce commission at Washington, asking that body to investigate the tariffs and net revenue of express companies by commercial organizations throughout the country was made known today. The petition is signed by 124 associations of commerce and commercial clubs who want a considerable reduction in express rates. A portion of the complaint is based on the contracts between the railroads and the express companies doing business over their lines. The movement against the express companies was started by the Chicago Association of Commerce and the New York Merchants Association.

THE OLD FAITH

O vaguely did I know of Thee, For waves were sea and skies were fair, And little felt my need of Thee, I saw Thy beauty everywhere!

In leaf and tree, in vale and hill, In daisied meadow, rippling stream, In sweep of river, sparkling rill, And in the night time's starry gleam.

Impersonal I left Thee, then, I loved Thy universal laws, My homage paid to wood and glen— To Nature and the First Great Cause.

In untold paths my feet were led In perturbed mood of brilliant flowers The book of nature rapt I read In cool recess of leafy bowers.

In open boat beyond the bar I dared the sea infinity, And held my course toward a star That lay a narrow path to me.

But sudden blasts in cruel hour Beat down my flowers with tramping hooves, And left me in my solitude!

The winds arose upon the sea, And broke in fury o'er the bar They mocked my straining oars, and no And clouds obscured my pulsing star.

My heart was faint, my soul distressed, All beauty lay about me dead: Of storm and stress I had not guessed, But of eternal spring instead.

I did not know that waves ran high, And roared and beat upon the sand, I had but seen the ripples die, As they embraced and kissed the land.

With contrite heart, my steps retraced— O then I felt my need of Thee— I longed to see Thee face to face, And know Thou lovest—even me!

IMPORTANCE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Premier Whitney of Ontario Says Children Should be Taught for Use and Not for Mere Show Sir James Whitney, of Ontario, in the course of an interview on Saturday, said: "I see no reason to change the views I expressed several years ago regarding the importance of public school education to the great mass of the people. The percentage of children who go on to the high schools should be improved in every way possible. The government has taken several steps to attain this end. We have established enough normal schools to provide better trained teachers, and we have now better and cheaper text books. The course of study for the public schools is being revised, and I am satisfied that a marked improvement will soon be observable in the efficiency of the training."

"But the co-operation of school boards is necessary if we are to keep efficient teachers in the profession, and the tendency to exaggerate the value of examinations, as the chief object of education, should be minimized. The high schools, I am glad to know, are generally in a good condition, but our educational system will not produce the results it should if the public schools continue to put their best efforts into the preparation of pupils to pass the entrance, rather than to strive to raise the general standard in those subjects which are essential to the child in after life."

"The complaint is often made—and the evidence shows that it is justly made—that pupils who leave school at 13 or 14 do not read, write or spell properly, cannot add up columns of figures correctly, and are imperfectly trained for ordinary business careers. Surely these are evils which will not be cured by a system of examining for examinations, but by making public school instruction more effective. Some people advocate leaving children out of the high school until they are over 14, but I doubt if public opinion would justify so drastic a measure, and besides, I believe we can accomplish the reform needed by concentrating attention on the public school course of study as an end in itself. The minister of education hopes to make such changes in the regulations as will in time secure this result."

"When the schools open again teachers and pupils will have upon their minds the intention of the department to exact a real working knowledge of the elementary subjects, and not to keep the entrance standard low for the mere purpose of exhibiting a false show of efficiency by allowing large numbers to pass."

THE BREAKING POINT.

On the street car, sitting side by side, were two men of about the same age. Their countenances were gentle and benign. Truth and integrity shone from their eyes. You felt that you could trust them on sight. They looked at each other and felt drawn together. Presently one of them remarked: "If I should tell you that down by the river this morning I saw a steamer jump out of water and right over a large white out going the least danger, would you believe me?" "Absolutely," was the prompt reply. "Thanks. If you should tell me that you saw the city hall walk off a block and turn around I should believe you."

"That, sir, I am soon to go on my vacation."

"Same here."

"I shall catch fish weighing at least five pounds."

"Same here."

BRITISH COLUMBIA WANTS TO BUILD THE CANADIAN NAVY

B. C. Marine Railway Company to Submit Tender for Construction of Cruiser

The British Columbia Marine Railway Company is notifying the Ottawa government that it proposes to put in a suitable shipbuilding plant and will submit a tender for the construction of a Canadian cruiser of the Bristol type at Esquimalt. Tenders are now being invited for the construction of a warship, and G. J. Desbarres, deputy minister of the naval service, is advertising inviting firms to notify him of their desire to tender. The plans and specifications of the new vessel, which have been approved by the British Admiralty, are of a confidential nature and will be submitted only to approved firms, which will have to show that they have, or propose to establish, suitable plants considered sufficient for building vessels of the Bristol class. The intention is to build the vessels for the Pacific on this coast, and the British Columbia Marine Railway Company is the only concern capable of carrying out the work. The Atlantic vessels will probably be built on the eastern coast. No warships may be built on the Great Lakes, the Rush-Bagot treaty providing against the construction of vessels in those waters.

The British Columbia Marine Railway Company is prepared to undertake the work of construction, and the awarding of a contract to them would necessitate the improvement of the Esquimalt wharves to a considerable extent, and would furnish employment to at least 60 men, who would make their homes in Victoria, for about two years. The steel gun mountings, armor, guns and equipment for the Canadian warships will in the event of its being constructed at Esquimalt, be brought from England. The cruiser to be constructed on this coast, the first of the vessels for this coast of Canada, will be similar in type to the British scout cruisers laid down in 1908 for the home navy, the Bristol, Glasgow, Liverpool, Gloucester and Newcastle. The displacement of these vessels is about 3200 tons. They are equipped with turbine machinery, four being equipped with Parsons and one with Curtis turbines. The armament is two six-inch guns and four 4.7 guns.

The British Columbia Marine Railway Company is to move its Vancouver shipyards in the near future from their present location to a site selected near the Second Narrows where a large slipway will be put in and the plant is to be increased, new machinery and equipment ordered. The construction of a protected cruiser of the type of the Bristol at Esquimalt would result in the yard being considerably improved, and doubtless other naval construction work would follow the construction of a first class shipbuilding plant. The work would result in a dinner-canon brigade, which would add materially to the business of the naval village.

The largest steel vessel constructed at Esquimalt up to the present is the government hydrographic steamer Lilloseit now engaged in northern British Columbia waters. A number of other vessels have been constructed there, the best known being the C. P. R. liners Princess Royal and Princess Beatrice. The C. P. R. steamer Nanooos was also built at the Esquimalt yards.

GOLD FILLING Few persons are aware of how "gold filling" is made. It consists of taking two sheets of gold-leaf which are placed a section of solder-coated base metal. To this sandwich heat and pressure are applied in such a way that the three sheets of metal are welded together, the gold being on the outside. Even a wise man is willing to admit his ignorance after passing an afternoon with an inquisitive 5-year-old.

HIS LUCKY DAY

Bill Jones had a lucky day last week. His morning mail contained payments on two bad debts.

He found a four leaf clover on his front lawn, and came across a stray horsehoe on his way to work.

That evening he tasted his first slice of BUTTERNUT BREAD and just before retiring he saw a new moon over his right shoulder.

That is the time when you are feeling that this surely is the absolutely unendurable day imported straight from "Hottest" day we had yet, isn't it?

But even if you cannot command sleep to come, you can at least give it a chance. You can at least help yourself by refusing to yield to the lure of moonlit piazzas and balmy summer evenings and retiring promptly at 10 o'clock.

It is the time when you are feeling that this surely is the absolutely unendurable day imported straight from "Hottest" day we had yet, isn't it?

CLEANLINESS IN DENTISTRY

If people knew the frightful risk they run of infection from unclean dentistry they would better realize the awful chances they take and what a mighty important factor cleanliness is. No one has ever disputed the fact that there are no cleaner offices in Canada than ours. This is worthy of consideration.

LOCAL NEWS

At a meeting last night the Artillery band decided to accompany the local delegation of firemen to Truro this month, leaving on the 23rd and returning on the 29th.

A crowbar found in Water street, and a horse whip and some pictures in E. L. Litchford's possession, were found at central station. A key found in Main street may be had at the north end station.

The body of the late Mrs. M. S. Hall, of Fredericton, arrived this morning on the Montreal train. The funeral took place from the station to Fernhill cemetery. Rev. W. Malville officiating.

The following additions have been received to the subscription list at the mayor's office for the Campbellton fire sufferers: T. H. Estabrooks, 290, Henrietta Dutton, Boston, 222, Alexander Watson, 820.

Charles P. Baker, of Randolph & Baker, received a telegram last evening from his son, Rev. George R. Baker, Leominster, Mass., announcing the arrival of a baby boy. Both Mrs. Baker and the child are well.

The body of John A. Sherwood, who was drowned at Swift Point, on Sunday, has not as yet been recovered, and it was said this morning that the services of a diver will be secured in a final effort to locate it.

In the intermediate league this evening on St. Peter's church grounds, what may be the deciding game will be played when the Father Matthew Association will range against the Knights of Columbus. If the F. M. A. boys win tonight's contest they will have captured the cup being fought for.

In the police court this morning Judge Ritchie drew attention to the apparent carelessness of some people in entering the court room, or perhaps it was an utter disregard for the place, but at any rate, he said that late there was too much disorder and it would have to be stopped, as it was impossible to proceed with any case while people in the room were acting so. Considerable complaint is being heard about the city regarding the disgraceful condition of some of the sidewalks. One citizen in speaking with a Times-Star reporter said he wondered the attention of the authorities had not been called to the matter. Some of the streets, he went on to say, are looked after in first class style, but others receive no recognition whatever. He called the reporter's attention to the condition of St. David street and said the sidewalks of that particular district were a disgrace.

K. OF P. DECORATION DAY

In giving the names of the departed members of the Knights of Pythias, the Times-Star neglected to record that of Alexander W. MacRae, who was a member of St. John lodge No. 30. This makes four in all who have passed away during the year, the others being, R. A. Belyea, M. E. Kimball and W. G. Kee.

The knights will hold their annual Decoration Day on the 25th, when the graves of departed brethren will be decorated with flowers. The members of the city lodges will start from Castle Hall, Germain street, and on their march to the various cemeteries, will be headed by St. Mary's Band. From the starting point they will go to Queen's Bink, the receiving place for the flowers. Any contributions of flowers will be thankfully received.

THE ORPHANS WILL BE GIVEN A FREE AUTOMOBILE RIDE

Motor Car Owners Arranging to Give the Children an Outing and Visit to Big Fair

With thirty or more automobiles in line, the children of the three orphanages, Protestant, Roman Catholic and Wiggins institutions, are to be given a "free automobile ride" during the week of the Dominion Fair, and after being whirled about the city and out to the suburbs, the little cars are to be taken to the big exhibition. The scheme originated with Paul B. Hanson, manager of the Dunlop Rubber Company, of this city, and he is now working out the plan. Already owners of a score of cars have gladly consented to give their cars, and Mr. Hanson is assured that out of the eighty cars in St. John will be thirty or more who will form the imposing array that will make the hearts of the orphans glad. Among those who have promised to take part up to the present are: Percy W. Thomson, J. Royden Thompson, Fred E. Crosby, J. H. Doolley, James Patterson, Dr. Frank Hogan, John Sayre, Horace King, George E. Calkin, C. J. L. McAvity, Paul E. Hanson, W. B. Tennant, H. A. Fleming, John Sayre (two cars).

Percy W. Thomson's car, it is figured, will carry a dooan and the others about seven each. In Toronto and other Canadian cities, the automobile give the orphans of the various institutions an annual outing and the children look forward eagerly to the ride. If it is found practicable, and any offers are received by citizens who have suburban homes, the children will be taken to the various places for a brief stop. The fair is something altogether new in this part of Canada, and it is hoped to make it annual. Manager H. J. Ford of the Dominion Exhibition has agreed to let the orphan children into the fair, free of charge.

ST. JOHN BRIDE WILL GO WEST

Daughter of Ex-Alderman Wilson Weds Geo. H. Andrews of Calgary this Afternoon

A wedding of considerable interest will take place this afternoon at the home of Ex-Alderman A. G. H. Wilson, 258 Chesley street, when he will give his daughter, Miss Beattie Mortimer Wilson in marriage to Geo. H. Andrews, formerly of this city but now a citizen of Calgary, Alta. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. E. C. Ford in the presence of a number of invited guests.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Wilson, and her niece, Miss Beattie Macdonald, of New York, will act as flower girl, wearing a pretty white tulle dress. Arthur Dearness will support the groom. The bride will wear a white and a white picture hat with willow glasses. Her escort will be attired in white moiré with hat to correspond.

After the wedding a luncheon will be served, following which Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will take a short trip to St. Stephen and Colais before going to Calgary to make their future home.

They will take with them many pleasing remembrances from their numerous friends in this city who honored them with presents of silverware, china, furniture and other useful and costly articles. They will leave for their future dwelling place accompanied by the best wishes of a host of friends in the east.

THE REPORT WAS EXAGGERATED

Further Information in Regard to the Rev. Warren H. McLeod

The Times-Star recently printed a despatch from Woodstock, Ont., to the effect that Rev. Warren H. McLeod had been dismissed from the Baptist church there because of misconduct. A letter from the clerk of the First Baptist church in Woodstock shows that the Rev. Mr. McLeod did not have to leave the place. No charge was preferred against him. He suggested himself that he had better leave on account of trouble in the church. He returned to Chicago with his wife and family, where he is at the present time.

POLICE COURT

Coachmen Get Off on Technicality - Pitcher Throwing Case Postponed Until Friday

The assault case against Maude Moore, colored, in which she is charged with having struck Mrs. Mary Hayes of 67th street with a milk pail, was further postponed this morning until Friday at 9:30 a. m. A man named Frederick gave evidence this morning in connection with the affair, but his testimony threw little light on the assault.

The case against Joseph Connell, and Chas. Harrington, two boys charged with assault on Meyer Gordon, a Jew, was adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Three men charged with drunkenness, Daniel McCarron, John Donovan, and Ernest Gooden, were fined $8 or two months jail.

Four coachmen, Jacob and Melvin Colwell, James McCarthy, and Arthur Murray, were charged with violating the law as regards the stand for coachmen at the Eastern Steamship pier by going beyond the stand allotted to hackmen. Daniel Mullin, K. C. appeared for them and argued technical points in connection with the report, as a result of which the men were allowed to go, until summons can be issued for their appearance.

SEVENTY BOYS OFF FOR CAMP

This morning about seventy members of the Maritime boys camp left for Robert's Point. They were a happy crew and the manner in which they cheered and shouted, as the boat drew away from the pier, plainly showed that expectations were high for a grand outing.

The following leaders of the camp accompanied the boys: Rev. G. A. Lewson, pastor of West end Baptist church, Halifax; W. H. Moore, St. John; D. G. Hibbard, Halifax; C. C. King, Amalgamated; Dr. Bruce Malcolm, H. A. Lordy and Francis Smith, St. John.
