I. S. SHIP RUN DOWN OFF MASS. COAST

STEAMER GOES ON WITHOUT OFFERING HELP

Nova Queen Forced to Anchor in Heavy Sea

HIT IN CHANNEL Coast Guards go to Aid of Craft But Tow Impossible

CANADIAN PRESS NORTH TRURO, Mass., Oct. 6.—The three-masted schooner Nova Queen, bound with a deckload of laths from Nova Scotia ports to New York City, was run down in the early morning darkness off Nantucket Shoals by an unidentified steamer, the coastguard station Monary Light reported today.

The bow and head gear of the schooner was smashed. All the damage occurred above the water line, but the schooner was forced to anchor near Stone Horse Lightship, in a heavy sea, to await the arrival of a coastguard cutter to take her in tow. Captain G. R. Merriam, of Parrsboro, N. S., is master of the schooner.

STEAMERS PROCEED Word has been sent to New York to watch for the arrival of two steamers, presumably enroute to Boston. One steamer was trying to pass the other in the narrow channel, at that point, according to Captain Merriam. He said that he was at the edge of the channel and that one of the steamers crowded over and struck his vessel, a wooden ship of 478 tons displacement. Both steamers continued without making known their identity or offering assistance, he said.

CONSIGNEES WENT TO THE aid of the schooner and hoisted her clear away from the wreckage, so that she could be towed. Late today they reported that it might be possible to take her in tow, with the heavy seas that were running. It was feared that unless the schooner could be towed to the coast, she would be wrecked on Handkerchief Shoal.

REPORTS Tabled ON MONTREAL SCHOOLS

Recommendations Published of Commission on Catholic School Situation

CANADIAN PRESS MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—Taxation of tenants for the support of schools on assessment basis; elimination of the ninth and tenth school years; and the acceptance of children at the age of seven only, were three of the main recommendations made to the special commission which, under the chairmanship of Sir Lomer Gouin, is investigating the Montreal Catholic School situation.

There was also the suggestion that the provincial government should be called upon to pay for the cost of the ninth and tenth school years, though such classes would continue to be conducted by the school commission, and there was a further suggestion that the cost of the seventh and eighth years should also be borne by the government. The argument advanced for such changes, as to the class years mentioned, was that a school commission exists to educate the masses only, and that such education should be limited to the six years.

GIRLS DROWNED IN WESTERN FLOODS

Death Toll in Oklahoma Now Totals Six With Damage Heavy

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 6.—The drowning of two little girls named Brown in the flood of the Caney River near Ramona yesterday brought the Oklahoma flood death toll to six. The girls were swept away when a wagon in which they were riding was engulfed as the driver attempted to cross a bridge. The driver escaped but was unable to save the girls. Sam Carter, a farmhand also was drowned near Ramona.

Ralph Rhoades, a cowboy on the Miller Brothers 101 ranch, near Ponca City, lost his life in overflow waters of the Arkansas River, when his horse became entangled in barbed wire, and threw him.

TWO DEATHS were reported yesterday.

TENDERS CALLED FREDERICTON, Oct. 6.—The Minister of Public Works, Hon. D. A. Stewart, is calling for tenders for lumber for Andover, Florenceville, and Woodstock highway bridges. The material is for flooring and other repairs.

Forke Promises Maritimes Consideration In Securing More Immigrants

For First Time In History Woman Presides At Sessions of British Conservative Union

BRITISH UNITED PRESS. SCARBOROUGH, Eng., Oct. 6.—Trade unionism, strikes, picketing and organization of union finances came under a cross-fire of resolutions here today when the National Union of the Conservative party began its 54th annual conference. For the first time in the party's history, a woman presided over the conference. Tonight, Premier Baldwin was to speak.

The scope of the conference's intentions toward trade unions was indicated in the resolutions introduced by Sir Arnold Gridley in behalf of the Rugby Conservative Association. In four blunt items the resolution proposed that any strike which had not been preceded by a secret ballot should be illegal; that greater protection should be given trade unionists against victimization and intimidation; that mass picketing and the picketing of workers' homes be forbidden by law; and that the national accounts of trade unions be subject to public inspection, with annual certification by chartered accountants.

The English Conservative Association asked the government to make a private investigation, all testimony to be secret, in an effort to discover from the workmen themselves "the difficulty from which they are suffering under trade unionism."

Dame Caroline Bridgeman, who has been actively engaged in Conservative party work for many years, presided today.

Belgium Prince Enlisted When 13 Years Old

BRUSSELS, Oct. 6.—Crown Prince Leopold, who is to be married to Princess Astrid of Sweden, next November, holds the distinction of having been the youngest soldier to join the colors of his country, for active service in the great war.

The Prince was exactly 13 years and 6 months old when on April 3, 1915, he enlisted. It was no "parade enlistment." King Albert himself accompanied his son and heir to the recruiting office, and insisted that Leopold should be enlisted as a private, and treated like an ordinary soldier. Leopold was a sergeant when the armistice was signed.

The wedding date of Princess Astrid and the Crown Prince has been set for November 20 in Brussels.

WOUNDED BANDIT IS IDENTIFIED IN N. J.

is "Bum" Rodgers, Notorious Criminal; Partner Believed Wanted Slayer

CANADIAN PRESS NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 6.—State police last night announced the bandit who was wounded by his own partner, after the latter shot and killed Frank Kearney and wounded Kearney's son, was identified by three witnesses as John J. (Bum) Rodgers, notorious criminal.

The partner was believed to be James Cunniffe, known to police of the metropolitan area as "Cunniffe the killer." The names of the witnesses were not revealed.

Cunniffe is wanted by authorities in Nassau County, N. Y., in connection with the slaying there of Ernest L. Whitman, a bond salesman, during a holdup at the Belmont National Bank, Belmont, in April 1925.

New Baby Is Named After Gov-General

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 6.—Freeman Thomas, Canada's new governor-general's family name, has been given to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Percival of this city. The boy was born at the moment the guns thundered Ottawa's salute to Lord and Lady Wellington. Mr. Percival was a member of the Guard of Honor for their Excellencies at the reception ceremony.

French Airman To Try Ocean Flight Before End of 1926

PARIS, Oct. 6.—Paul Tarascon, well known French aviator and war ace, will attempt a Paris to New York flight in a Bernard monoplane "Probably before the end of 1926," M. Tarascon yesterday informed The Associated Press.

The aviator, however, said that reports that he would start October 21, were not accurate. He declared that the accident which caused the death of two of the crew of the plane piloted by Rene Fonck, had made him and his companions doubly cautious not to

HERTZOG STAND TO GET REPLY AT IMPERIAL MEET

When King at War, Dominions at War, Fact Now

NO NEUTRALITY

London News Says Coming Conference Will Clarify Empire Situation

By HERBERT BAILEY British United Press. LONDON, Oct. 6.—When the Sovereign is at war, all his Dominions are at war, and it is impossible for the Dominions legally to contract out of such a war, although they may not contribute one soldier or one sailor to the defence of the Empire. This is the attitude taken by the British government here toward Premier Hertzog's intention to raise the question at the forthcoming Imperial Conference.

Every Dominion can, of course, decide for itself whether it wishes or not to participate in any war in which the Mother Country is involved. It has perfect freedom in this respect and enjoys the fullest sovereign rights, but so long as its people are subject to the King they are liable to be regarded as being in a state of war by the King's enemies.

IS LEGAL FACT It is not a question of policy but one of international legal fact from which there is no escape, unless the dominions withdraw from the Empire. Naturally, any enemy of the Mother Country will be well advised to liberally increase its enemies without good cause, and expectation of advantage, but on such matters as the coming conference in the way of clarifying Imperial relations and improving the machinery for co-operation in foreign affairs.

PAPER'S COMMENT Meanwhile newspapers are still reviewing Hertzog's policy. The Liberal Daily News says: "We hope a great deal will be done at the coming conference in the way of clarifying Imperial relations and improving the machinery for co-operation in foreign affairs."

"It is well to state plainly that if the British Empire is to function at all it must function as a whole and if one or more of the partners is determined to be half in and half out the concern must sooner or later cease to exist. Hertzog is an able and conscientious man but he will discover as ever put to trial South Africa will decide very emphatically in favor of the British Empire."

AMBASSADOR DENIES TROUBLES IN SPAIN

Declares False Reports Spread by Financial Speculation Circles

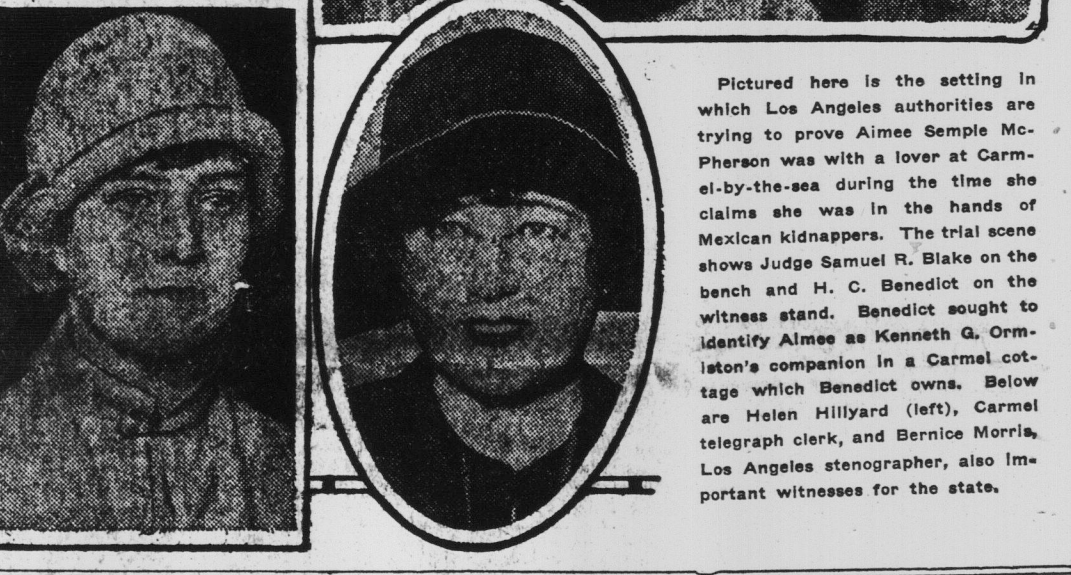

CANADIAN PRESS LONDON, Oct. 6.—Alarming false reports about conditions in Spain are being circulated by "certain financial circles" to further speculation in Spanish exchange, the Spanish ambassador, Marquis Alfonso Merry Del Val y Zulueta, charged in a statement yesterday. He declined to identify the "circles" mentioned.

The ambassador's statement followed the circulation in Europe yesterday of reports that trouble had broken out in Spain and that King Alfonso had been assassinated.

"A state of siege has not been proclaimed in Spain," he said, "and the troops have not been confined to their barracks, in spite of telegrams from Biarritz, published yesterday, and in there any movement in certain sections of the army, as reported."

Scene At Evangelist's Trial

Pictured here is the setting in which Los Angeles authorities are trying to prove Aimee Semple McPherson was with a lover at Carmel-by-the-sea during the time she claims she was in the hands of Mexican kidnapers. The trial scene shows Judge Samuel R. Blake on the bench and H. C. Benedict on the witness stand. Benedict sought to identify Aimee as Kenneth G. Cowley's companion in a Carmel cottage which Benedict owns. Below are Helen Hillyard (left), Carmel telegraph clerk, and Bernice Morris, Los Angeles stenographer, also important witnesses for the state.

Fair Weather Pitchers Are Named For Today's Contest

Hoyt and Reinhart Scheduled to do Honors in Fourth Game

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—A warm sun and a light cool breeze today gave promise of a dry diamond for the fourth world series game. The weather bureau forecasts "Fair today" and "Rain Thursday, with rising temperature."

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 6.—Fair weather is in sight for the fourth game of the world's series between the Yanks and Cardinals today, with clear skies and warmer temperatures, by Thursday.

In spite of the forecast of fair today, the man-killing tarpaulin is down and will remain so until the sun definitely chases it away. Fair weather pitchers were in readiness for the fourth test of the series. Miller Huggins, who makes no secret of his pitching thoughts, had definitely decided on Waite Hoyt to serve. Rogers Hornsby, after mentioning Arthur Reinhart as a possibility, every day, finally drew the left hander's number from the hat.

HIS FOURTH SERIES. Although only 28 years of age, Hoyt has been pitching professional baseball for nine years, and has tossed with varying success in three world series. Reinhart is just Hoyt's age but lacks the New Yorker's experience. He is a left hander, who is able to add to the offensive as well as defensive power of his team. Neither manager indicated today that he anticipated injecting any new faces into the line-up, with the exception of the ever-changing pitchers.

Rev. Dr. E. Crowell Dies in Yarmouth

YARMOUTH, N. S., Oct. 6.—Rev. Dr. Edwin Crowell, one of the most prominent clergymen in Western Nova Scotia, died last night in his 73rd year, leaving his wife, three sons, and four daughters. He was secretary of the Free Baptists Conference for many years.

Wallesey's Mayor Will Give Dance For Lonely Maidens

WALLESEY, England, Oct. 6.—The mayor of this town in Cheshire, which is filled with marriageable maidens, has struck upon a novel plan to get some of them married. Recently the mayor issued a statement in which he told of the surplus of beautiful girls in Wallesey. There followed an avalanche of letters to the mayor from young men asking for introductions.

After studying the situation for a few days, the mayor decided that he would become a marriage-broker on a wholesale basis. He announced that he would give a dance in the town hall where applications for introductions to the girls will have a free-for-all opportunity to seek out life partners.

NEW MINISTER HONOR GUEST AT BRANDON DINNER

Policy, He Declares, Will Mean More Settlers

IS OPTIMISTIC

Difficulty in Getting Farmers From Old Country, He Says

CANADIAN PRESS BRANDON, Man., Oct. 6.—Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration, and federal member-elect for Brandon, was a guest of honor last night at a banquet following his return from Ottawa.

Mr. Forke said that while he would do his utmost for Western Canada to secure immigrants, that at the same time he would have in mind the interests of the whole Dominion. He referred particularly to the Maritime Provinces, which he said could absorb many immigrants.

Hon. T. C. Norris, provincial Liberal leader, who preceded Mr. Forke, said that Manitoba and the rest of the Dominion, were to be congratulated on the selection of Mr. Forke for the ministerial post.

FORKE OPTIMISTIC. Mr. Forke in replying, stated that he was most optimistic in regard to immigration, and had no doubt that a great influx of immigrants could be expected as a result of "a more aggressive immigration policy." He stated, however, that he had no revolutionary immigration policy to announce.

"Remember this is a hard country to govern," stated Mr. Forke. "What will win applause in the States is greeted with silence in Ottawa. We cannot all get what we want and if we can get something, it is in the last few years. I cannot tell you what my program is because I do not know what it will be. There are some difficulties in obtaining agricultural immigrants from Great Britain because they are not to be had."

MARITIMES' POSITION. Mr. Forke continued by stating that there were plenty of unemployed in Great Britain but they did not come to the farms. He had no doubt, however, that a large number of people could be induced to come to Canada and he would endeavor to bring them in at least much larger numbers than had been the case in the last few years. He had been informed, he said, there were large numbers of younger sons of people of means who were desirous of coming to Canada. That opened a wide field which would have careful investigation.

He did not think it was wise to make a declaration of policy, but it was unquestioned that Canada was capable of accumulating and really required double the population of the present time. There was no doubt that the Maritime Provinces could absorb many immigrants and he could assure them that while he would do his utmost for Western Canada, he

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 6, 1926.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK.

Here are a few questions to ask yourself this week: What kind of matches do you use? Do you make sure a match is properly out before you throw it away? Are there any matches about the house within reach of little children? How do you strike matches on the box? The correct way is to strike away from you and, if striking on a box, first close the box and strike downwards.
Do you use any lights other than electric light about the house and, if so, is it absolutely necessary for you to do so? Are your stoves, furnaces and pipes far enough from woodwork to avoid overheating? Are wooden surfaces properly protected where pipes approach them? Are floors beneath stoves protected? Are pipes free from rust and all joints sound? Is anything stored in the attic which might come in contact with a hot pipe? Do you ever use kerosene oil to assist in lighting fires? Are ashes ever put in wooden boxes or barrels? Have you inspected chimneys and flues?

What kind of stove polish do you use and is it safe? Do you clean your stove with oil or wax and, if so, do you always burn the polishing rags after use? Is there any accumulation of rubbish in or near the house? Do you burn leaves or burn them? What do you do with old pieces of metal? Do you keep oily cloths in a metal bucket and cookers have you inspected them for leaks and are they kept scrupulously clean? Where is the oil kept? Do you always fill by the Government's electric writing of your house? Was the electrician called? Do you ever leave an electric device, even for a moment, without turning off the current? Do you keep any gasoline about the house, and, if so, why? If you use gas, are lamps, stoves, heaters and their connections well made, tight and free from leaks? If you use flexible tubing is it rubber or metal and are the joints at both ends tight? Are your children well instructed in all matters pertaining to fire?

This necessarily does not cover the whole field of structural fire protection, but investigation along these lines may disclose possibilities of fire which by little attention may be rectified and considerable loss thereby saved.

CONDITIONS IN IRELAND.

Some very interesting facts are revealed in the census of the Irish Free State, taken in April of this year, and recently made public. Now that Ireland is tranquil, and north and south are on more friendly terms, there is time to take stock and project measures for national development. The stock-taking, so far as the population is concerned, shows that since 1911 the population of the Free State declined 166,886, while that of Northern Ireland was increased by 5,791. The present population of the former is 2,972,802, and of the latter 1,256,222. In 1841 the population of the area now embraced in the Free State, and exclusive of Ulster, was 6,548,000. For eighty-five years there has been a tendency toward reduced population, but it is now hoped this tendency will be checked. A very significant fact revealed by the census is that in 1920-21 there were 1,817,457 Irish-born persons living abroad. Of these, apart from those living in England, Scotland and Wales, there were 1,037,234 in the United States, 195,033 in Australia, 93,801 in Canada, 34,419 in New Zealand, 12,289 in South Africa, and 8,414 in India. That Irish-born people equal 43 per cent of the total population at home should be living abroad is a very clear indication of the crushing effect of years of turmoil and strife. But a better day has dawned. In Ireland as elsewhere, there is a marked movement from rural to urban centres. Since 1841 the population of the country districts comprised in the Free State has declined from 5,281,000 to 1,875,000, while that of the towns showed a falling off only to the extent of 172,000; and Dublin showed an increase from 285,000 to 419,000. To put it another way, the rural population has fallen from 80.7 per cent. in 1841 to 63.2 per cent. in 1926. A review of the census says:

"It is interesting to note that the towns suffered in inverse proportion to their size, the country districts suffering worst of all, as will be seen from the following. Since 1841, the country districts lost 64.4 per cent. of their population, towns 200 to 500 population lost 49.1 per cent., towns 500 to 2,000 lost 43.0 per cent., towns 2,000 to 5,000 lost 33.3 per cent., towns 5,000 to 10,000 lost 25 per cent., towns over 10,000 lost 13 per cent., while the city of Dublin and its four adjoining urban districts gained 47.0 per cent."

But Ireland's worst days are over. The present situation is very well summed up by the Irish Times, as follows:

"The report is encouraging—if only negatively encouraging—in a variety of ways. The decline of 5.3 per cent. in the Free State's population is serious, but when we recall the years of anarchy and bloodshed, we may be thankful that it is not greater. We may hope too that the improving conditions in the Free State will bring many good Irishmen back from exile in the next few years. There is a potential population for the twenty-six counties among the 1,817,457 Irish-born men and women who today inhabit other lands. The two conditions needed for prosperity are the reign of law and the full development of the national industry of agriculture. Already, we enjoy the fruits of achievement of the other depends wholly upon our own efforts. These efforts—and here is the census report's most urgent warning—must be concentrated on a re-establishment of the balance between town and country."

SEEKING A PREMIER.

Alberta is looking for another provincial Premier. When Hon. Herbert Greenfield retired last fall he was succeeded by Hon. J. E. Brownlee. A Winnipeg despatch says that the latter has been offered for the second time and has accepted the office of general manager of Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited, made up of the wheat pools of the three prairie provinces, at a salary of $21,000 per year. It is intimated that he may lead the Government during the next session of the Legislature, but the new office awaits him. Alberta has a Farmer Government. Greenfield was the first Premier, holding office from 1921 until last fall, when differences in the party led him to resign. Mr. Brownlee accepted the post and led the party with success that it swept the province in the recent elections. He is a lawyer by profession, but has had special training for the position now offered him. We are told that "in 1917 he was requested to take up special work for the United Farmers of Alberta and the United Grain Growers Limited, a position which he retained till he became Premier. He also acted as general manager of the United Grain Growers Securities Co. Limited, one of the subsidiary companies of the U. G. G. doing business in the three provinces. There is as yet no indication as to who would succeed him as Premier of Alberta."

A police captain was called into police headquarters in New York last Saturday night with orders to take over the Deputy Inspector's work for the night. He was warned to "get ready for the busiest trick of the week." For the first time in the memory of the New York police a "no action" report for all Manhattan and the Bronx was handed in for the shift Saturday midnight to Sunday 9 a. m.

Odd and Ends

What's Your Boy Like?
(D. B. Hanna in Canadian Magazine.)
In order to reap one must first have sown the right seed. The average boy today wants to become vice-president in a year or two. Patience is indispensable; in fact patience is not a virtue; it is a necessity. The young man who wants to grow wings and fly, does not belong on our earth. Loyalty to one's employer's interest must be considered among the cardinal requisites. Then, too, a young man will never advance far without the courage to dare beyond his present duties. I would not give a snap of my fingers for the young man without. Give me the young man who can start a job without first being told what to do, even though he fail five out of ten starts; rather than the young man who never starts without first having things blueprinted for him.

WHAT IS THAT LARGE GREY BULK?
It is the Net Deficit!

That large grey bulk is the amount of material your furnace turns back from every ton of ordinary coal—it is ash, and nothing else. It represents heat loss—and dollars lost.

The large grey mass, besides representing the net deficit, means a hard long winter toting four times as much ash as is necessary. Something to think about!

Consolidation CLEAN Coal saves you the expense of paying coal prices for that grey mass because it is coal which is mined CLEAN and kept free of visible non-combustible impurities. It gives you an unvarying supply of live, active heat. It is, in fact, the best household coal we have ever handled. Why not try a load today!

As there are eggs and eggs, so are there different kinds of Miller's Creek Coal. Demand and take good care you get the supreme quality of Miller's Creek Coal known as CONSOLIDATION MILLER'S CREEK.

None near so pure, none near so hot, none near so long lasting and correct burning when you use it right as told. Try a ton for your furnace before you commit yourself too far with wasteful coals. Not a bushel of ash in an entire ton—ashes a weekly affair instead of daily. Furious heat in stove and grate as well.

POEMS—I

LOVE
"Into the Twilight," by W. B. Yeats.
YEATS, I think, has sometimes been too meticulous, and rewritten too many of his exquisite lyrics. His work is always spontaneously lovely, and it is hard to believe, as he himself has confessed, that the fact of composition is difficult for him. A poem like this seems to have gushed from his heart.

Outworn heart in a time outworn,
Come clear of the nets of wrong and right;
Laugh, heart, again in the grey twilight,
Sigh, heart, again in the dew of the morn.

Your mother Erie is always young,
Dew ever shining and twilight grey;
Though hope fall from you and love
decay,
Burning in fires of a slanderous tongue.

Come, heart, where hill is heaped upon hill;
And time and the world are ever in flight;
For there the mystical brotherhood
Of sun and moon and hollow and wood
And river and stream work out their will.

And God stands winding his lonely
upon hills;
And time and the world are ever in
flight;
And love is less kind than the grey twilight,
And hope is less clear than the dew of the morn.

THE insurance adjuster who had been investigating the fire turned to go.
"I came down here to find out the cause of this fire, and I have done so," he remarked.
"That's what I want to know. What caused it?" demanded the house-owner.

"It's a plain case of friction."
"What—ya—mean—friction?"
"The fire was undoubtedly caused by rubbing a three-thousand-dollar insurance policy on a two-thousand-dollar house."

GOOD REPORTS PRESENTED TO DIOCESAN W. A.

Hear of New Branches Formed Since Meeting in April

MONEY VOTED FOR COVERDALE HOME

Letters of Thanks for Donations During the Year Are Read

The organization of four senior branches and one girls' branch since the last meeting in April was reported at the meeting of the Fredericton Diocesan W. A. yesterday afternoon in Trinity church, when $100.50 was voted from the E. C. D. fund, $122 being given for furnishings at the Inter-Provincial Home for Women at Coverdale and the necessary sums to purchase articles of furniture at McAdam and Stanley rectories.

Mrs. Dewdney, wife of the Bishop of Keewatin, was welcomed and spoke of the work in that diocese. With much regret the resignations of Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, as E. C. D. treasurer, and Mrs. Rowland Frith, as recording secretary, were accepted. Mrs. J. Lee Day was welcomed in the office of E. C. D. treasurer.

WELCOMED ANNOUNCEMENT The announcement of the success of New Brunswick W. A. Juniors in the Dominion doll dressing competition was received with applause. Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, rector of Trinity, gave the opening devotional address and, using the story of David, spoke of God's tender care of His people as like the tender care of a shepherd for his sheep.

Cortland Robinson, vice-president, was in the chair and spoke appreciatively of the presence on the platform of Mrs. Thomas Walker, honorary vice-president.

Letters read included the appreciation of the diocesan synod of the work of the W. A.

Miss Clara Schofield, corresponding secretary, told of the sending out of the annual printed report, in which there is a letter received from the Dominion president, Mrs. Ferrabee, after her visit to the diocesan annual meeting. She had sent a door knocker in the shape of a Winchester cross made from material taken from Winchester Cathedral pinnacles, which knocker has been placed on the door of the W. A. room in the Church of England Institute.

Mrs. Whelpley, of Greenwich, and Mrs. Lockwood (formerly Mrs. Sargent) sent their appreciation of the annual report.

A LIFE MEMBER Mrs. Barnett, of Gagetown, was reported enrolled as a new life member by her branch. Thanks for sympathy were received from Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, who had regretfully tendered her resignation from the treasuryship of the E. C. D. fund and who expressed her hope that there would be an E. C. D. treasurer appointed for every branch. It was reported the executive had conferred a life membership on Mrs. Campbell, expressing regret that her removal from the diocese prevented her continuing in office. Mrs. J. Lee Day had been appointed E. C. D. treasurer in Mrs. Campbell's place. The resignation of Mrs. Rowland Frith as recording secretary was read and with great regret was accepted. Miss Schofield told of the visit of Miss A. E. DeBliss from Kansas to seven centres in the diocese. Mrs. G. C. P. McIntyre, treasurer, reported receipts from April 8 to Oct. 4 totalled $1,242.92 and disbursements amounted to $5,073.49, leaving a balance of $885.22. Included in disbursements were $529.13 sent to diocesan missions, $308 to Canadian missions and $139 to overseas missions, $285.91 to the Inter-Provincial Home for Women near Moncton and $368.50 for the Pickett memorial fund, of which last item was included $290 given as a memorial to Mrs. George F. Smith.

LETTERS OF THANKS Letters of thanks were received from those to whom donations were sent from the annual meeting. Mrs. McIntyre read the letter of the matron of the Inter-Provincial Home, who suggested the W. A. gift should be paid to furnish the hospital at the Home and that a suitable name plate be placed on the hospital in the name of the good work the Home is accomplishing. Mrs. McIntyre reminded the members that $200 had been pledged at the annual meeting and the Anglican women were the only ones of the denominational groups which had not yet paid in full the amount pledged by them.

The collection taken at the meeting was to be devoted to the Waterford and the reorganization of which only 32 branches had as yet sent in contributions, it was said. Mrs. John Hay, Dorcas secretary, read a letter from Rev. M. Edsforth thanking the W. A. for the gift of a stove for the rectory at Minto. She also read a letter from one of the nurses at All Saints' mission hospital, the new hospital in the far north, who expressed thanks for the two boxes of supplies from Fredericton W. A. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Merritt, of Saint John, are to be stationed at this hospital next year. Mrs. Hay also told of the sending out of all other Dorcas bales, the work for which had been and said the two appeals sent by the Bishop were for a stove at McAdam rectory and a lamp for Stanley rectory.

Mrs. E. R. Taylor suggested that a donation of $100 be made towards the pledge for the Inter-Provincial Home. The matter was discussed and it was pointed out that many branches had not been meeting and had not been able to send in their contributions to the pledge yet.

It was decided to meet the two appeals sent by the Bishop and to give the remainder of the fund, $132, to the Inter-Provincial Home.

MRS. DEWDNEY HEARD

Mrs. Dewdney, wife of the Bishop of Keewatin, who was formerly Miss Hamilton of Saint John, was welcomed and spoke of the problems in that diocese. She recalled that Mrs. James F. Robertson, Fredericton, diocesan W. A. president, had been her own teacher in Kingston.

The Keewatin diocese, Mrs. Dewdney said, has only four self-supporting parishes and its work is carried on in 11 white parishes and seven brown parishes. The nomadic habits of the Indians made it impossible to place a clergyman in charge and the Walker and her sisters in their revering the heathen Indians was found in establishing schools for the children.

300 MILES WIDE

She spoke of the diocese as only 300 miles wide but extending from the U. S. A. border to the Arctic circle and including the west shore of Hudson Bay, where there are four mission stations. The freight rates to Hudson Bay, she said, were so great that fuel in one locality had cost $110 a ton when it was landed and freight charges for supplies of foodstuffs in one year totalled $5,000.

Mrs. Dewdney was heartily thanked for her interesting address. The resolutions passed included sympathy to Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell and Mrs. Thomas Walker, and to the Dominion Juniors recent benevolence.

Miss Portia Mackenzie and Mrs. Scott, delegates to the Dominion Board meeting, were to have presented reports yesterday but because of their late hours were unable to defer them until the next meeting.

DO THIS AFTER SERIOUS ILLNESS

How to Speedily Gain Strength and Put on Needed Weight

Nothing like the wonderful vitalizing vitamins extracted from the liver of the common codfish to help convalescing people to quickly get their weight—everything knows that. So many of our modern men and women keep up with times are ordering a tablet containing the vitamins that give to the body the strength and energy that are so necessary to the body's recovery after a severe illness.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good healthy solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take ten five pound boxes in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist is authorized to return your money if you don't take 5 pounds in 30 days.

Great for weak, skinny, backward, run-down children too, and gives them a hearty appetite. Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Extract Tablet. Watsons Two Stores, The Great Drug Co., Hawker, Sons, and druggists everywhere have a big demand all over North and South America. They are sugar coated and as easy to take as candy. 60 Tablets—60 cents.

Queen Square Y. P. S. Plans Winter Work

The executive of the Young People's Association of the Queen square United church met last evening to arrange for the season's activities. The president, Charles F. Todd, was in the chair. It was decided to open the season with a banquet on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 12. Besides the president, there were present at the meeting the pastor, Rev. H. C. Rice, and the following members: Miss Margaret Irving, Miss Gertrude Rice, Miss Roberta Smith, Blair MacLean, Alfred Stephenson and Clayton Todd. The association is looking forward to the best year in its history.

PLANS ARE MADE BY 4 MORE I. O. D. E. CHAPTERS

Further Entertainments for Soldiers in Hospital—
Teas and Sales

Four primary chapters of the I. O. D. E. held their October meeting last night and all four agreed to give entertainments for the Lancaster Hospital soldier patients, to assist a boy desiring education and to give a $10 library to a country school.

Fundy Chapter met at the home of Miss Winnifred Upham, Pitt street, with Miss Alward, regent, presiding, and made plans for a bridge to be held in the Venetian Gardens on Oct. 19. Miss Harriet Smith, who was one of the teachers on the Lord Beaverbrook overseas tour, gave a very interesting account of that trip. For the social hour the hostesses were Miss Upham, Miss Edith Cummings, Miss C. Dodge and Miss Dorothy Hickson.

VALCARTIER CHAPTER
Valcartier Chapter met at the home of Mrs. K. I. Campbell with the regent, Mrs. F. R. Taylor, presiding and planned for the annual bridge which will be held in the Pythian Castle in the first week in November. The hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Campbell, Miss Doris Barbour and Miss Zela Lamoureux.

ROYAL STANDARD CHAPTER
Royal Standard Chapter meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Peters with Mrs. F. J. Harding, regent, presiding. Reports were received of the presentation of four prizes to grade eight pupils in Victoria school and two flag charts, one for DeLoraine school and one for Westfield school. Members handed in talent money earned during the summer. One new member was elected and plans were made for holding a rummage sale on Oct. 19 and a fancy work and home cooking sale on Nov. 19.

ALEXANDRA CHAPTER
Alexandra Chapter met at the residence of Mrs. Frank Whelpley, 118 Main street, with the regent, Mrs. Walter Gregg, presiding, and completed plans for a tea and sale to be held on Oct. 22. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lester W. Mowry, and a social hour was enjoyed after the business meeting.

Water

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—William Ames of Lynn, walked into the Lynn police station to report his son, Harvey, 11, as missing from home, only to learn that his son had been drowned while fishing.

Without his father's consent the boy went to fish off Ted Rock, near the Lynn Shore boulevard. He slipped, and in falling struck on a projecting piece of the rock, badly mashing his forehead and losing consciousness. His body rolled into the sea. Boys who witnessed the fatality called Patrolman John Glennon who recovered the body. An hour's effort to restore life was taken by the police to the Lynn General Hospital to identify the remains.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.
The W. C. T. LOYD'S TONNAGE FIGURES RECORD

Merchant Vessels at End of June,
Under This Register
29,172,698 Tons

Merchant vessels afloat at the end of June, 1926, holding the classification of Lloyd's Register, represented 29,172,698 tons, the highest tonnage ever recorded. With the completion and launching of 297 ships, of 1,391,038 tons, the aggregate of shipping which holds, or is intended to hold, the classification of Lloyd's Register amounts to 9,854 vessels, of over 30½ million tons gross.

This and other shipping intelligence is contained in a report of the Society of Lloyd's Register of Shipping for 1926-1926.

Attention is drawn to the blow dealt to shipbuilding and engineering, at a time when there were indications of improvement in trade, by the closing down of blast furnaces, steel works and forging establishments in the United Kingdom through the coal strike.

During the year, the committee passed plans for 951 new vessels of 1,089,940 tons gross. No less than 68.3 per cent. of the total is to be built in Great Britain and Ireland, and although there is a falling off in the total as compared with last year, the percentage to be built in those countries shows an increase of 18.3 per cent.

During the year the committee assigned classes to 419 new vessels of 1,391,038 tons gross, a slight increase over last year. Of these, 269 were built in Great Britain and Ireland, 27 in Germany, 22 in Holland, 20 in Italy, and less than 20 in other countries. Great Britain took 222 of the construction vessels, the British Dominions 87, and other nations under 20 each.

MORE OIL CARRIERS
There has been a considerable increase in vessels intended for carrying oil in bulk, 48 ships of 291,887 tons gross being planned for construction during the period. Oil carrying tonnage represents 21.9 per cent. of tonnage constructed during the twelve months against 8 per cent. during the same period last year.

The tendency to fit installations for burning oil fuel has been maintained, 57 new vessels of 363,838 tons gross having been constructed with such apparatus.

Internal combustion engines provide propulsion for 113 vessels, aggregating 601,427 tons gross, this being easily the largest figure reported for any year.

Increasing importance is being attached by shipowners to the inspection of refrigeration machinery and insulation, the committee notes. There are 178 ships, with over 70 million cubic feet of insulated space, holding the society's refrigerating machinery certificate.

Deaths
Miss Rita C. Kane

At the Saint John Infirmary yesterday afternoon occurred the death of Miss Rita Carnela Kane, third daughter of Mrs. Margaret and the late Michael T. Kane, of Sea street, Beauséjour. She was 21 years old and last year graduated, with excellent record, from St. Vincent's High school. She had been ill for the last few weeks. Miss Kane was of a lovable disposition and numbered many friends and the family will have deep sympathy in her death. She is survived by her mother and by three brothers and five sisters. The brothers are Thomas, Frederick and Charles and the sisters are Sister Joan, of the Sisters of Charity, of St. Vincent's Convent here, and Misses Annie, Katherine, Edna and Lucy, at home.

Albert O. White
Albert O. White, of St. Stephen, expired suddenly while at his work lumbering at St. George, N.B., early yesterday afternoon, and word of his passing received by relatives in the city was a great shock as he had been in apparent good health. His death was attributed to a sudden seizure.

Mr. White who was 64 years and 8 months of age, formerly resided in St. Martins, but for the last few years had made his home in St. Stephen. He had gone to St. George a few months ago to engage in lumbering.

The body will be brought to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Burditt, 156 Queen street, Saint John, to await burial at St. Martins on Friday. Mrs. White arrived in the city last evening and is at her daughter's residence.

Besides his wife, Mr. White leaves five children, Mrs. Arthur Burditt, of this city; Arthur, of Baltimore, Md.; Gordon, of Houlton, Me.; Charles, of the Forestry Branch of Coalpur, Alberta; and Muriel, at home. Three sisters and one brother also survive.

Orange Lodge

SACKVILLE, Oct. 5.—About 75 delegates are present here tonight for the annual meeting of Westmorland County Loyal Orange Lodge, with County Master W. N. Price, of Moncton, in the chair. Reports from the various officers show the lodge in a flourishing condition.

Past Master B. C. Waring, of Saint John, addressed the lodge and also had charge of the election of officers for the coming year.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.
Officers chosen were as follows: C. M. W. N. Price, Moncton; deputy C. M. George Colburne, Sunny Beach; C. chaplain, E. V. Cosman, Sackville; C. secretary, S. B. Perry, Moncton; financial secretary, Harvey Murray, Murray Corner; treasurer, D. H. Charters, Moncton; lecturer, Ernest Crawford, Murray Corner; marshal, A. D. Ferguson, Moncton; auditors, Harry Tingley, Sackville, and Burton Goodall, of Moncton; deputy lecturers, Ralph Kerr, Moncton, and Eldridge Sears, of Miramichi.

Installation of officers was in charge of Thomas Dolge, D.J.G.M., of Moncton.

Supper was served by the ladies of the local True Blue Lodge.

DR. BOYANER SHOTS MOOSE.
Dr. Frank Boyaner, who left here on Sept. 30 to capture a moose, succeeded on the next morning in shooting one back of Greer Settlement. It was reported here last night. While of good size, about 700 pounds, the antlers were only considered fair. The doctor returned to the city last evening.

O'CONNOR LAYS DISMISSAL TO POLITICAL MOVE

Former Counsel in Customs Probe Denies He Was Partizan

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—In a statement handed out this evening, W. F. O'Connor, K. C., formerly joint counsel with R. L. Calder, K. C., for the Royal Commission investigating the customs department, charges that his dismissal is based on political grounds.

Mr. O'Connor's statement follows: "During the customs enquiry at Halifax I took the stand that in all decisions of the department of customs releasing Canadian rum-runners because they had been seized outside the three-mile limit were wrong, and I contended that any such vessel, with her cargo, was seizable and condemnable, although taken anywhere on the high seas. I so argued to the chief justice and subsequently to the department that Canadian ships were floating islands of Canada, and that any infraction of Canadian law occurring on the deck of a Canadian ship, at sea, occurred in law upon the soil of Canada.

CONNECTED WITH ACT
"I connected up this argument with certain sections of the customs act which would enable arrests, condemnations and convictions.
"The situation to which I referred had been wholly overlooked by all concerned with the parliamentary committee of last session. Chief Justice Lemieux was interested and impressed. He asked me to prepare fully to argue my contention along with other matters of law arising from the hearings before him at a later date to be fixed.

For All the Family

From Early Childhood to Old Age, Father John's Medicine Builds Health and Strength

Almost the greatest value possessed by Father John's Medicine is its power to re-build the strength of the delicate child, the vitality of the growing boy and girl, the vigor of those of 45 and 50, and to keep up the failing strength of the aged. Children are never in repose. From the time their eager voices are heard in the morning until they slip into slumber at night, minds and muscles are ever active. They tear down faster than they can build up. Then comes the time when they grow pale and weak—when they lose their appetites and take cold easily. Usually it is lack of proper nourishment. Father John's Medicine is needed. This prescription has always contained cod liver oil, which science proves to be the richest of all known substances in certain life-giving food elements. Then, there is the adolescent age—when boys and girls advance to manhood and womanhood. It is a critical period, for there is an added strain on their strength and vitality. If there are any signs of paleness and thinness and excessive tiredness, there is a very vital need for Father John's Medicine.

Those around 45 and 50 begin to realize that it is becoming harder to throw off a cold—that they are more susceptible to severe weather. Their vitality is lower—their power of resistance is weakening. The pure food elements in Father John's Medicine enrich the blood and help to form new tissue.

As old age creeps on, Father John's Medicine lends its aid to build up the body energy. As a rule, those of three-score years and more are not getting the proper amount of nourishment from their food. This weakened condition allows them to be attacked by distressing colds and racking bronchial attacks. Father John's Medicine supplies the vital food elements and the nourishment they need to strengthen the body, enrich the blood and resist the ravages of old age.

"The Child is Father of the Man"

THIS is literally true of the body. As it grows from infancy, through childhood and youth, so it remains during life. Virol builds up the body during these critical years. It is not a medicine, and not so much a tonic as a food, scientifically prepared, and working in harmony with Nature. Infants thrive on Virol mixed with their milk. Children of all ages, well, delicate or ill, relish it—a spoonful after meals, or with their porridge or bread and butter. It "agrees" perfectly with the most delicate digestion. Ask your Doctor.

Forty Million prescribed portions of Virol were given last year in 3000 Hospitals and Infant Clinics after the elections. On Sept. 28 the chief justice wired me suggesting a written argument. On the same day I wired him agreeing, but suggesting that an oral argument, to be taken down, would be more valuable. On Sept. 29, he wired me asking what would be a fitting date and place. On the same day I wired him suggesting Ottawa on any day of the ensuing week to be named by him.

"On Sept. 30, before receipt of an answer from the chief justice, I was notified by the Department of Justice that my services as counsel had been dispensed with. On the same day I wired the chief justice as follows: "I have now received notice from the department of justice that my services as counsel for commission dispensed with as from this date. No reason assigned but action necessarily omitted upon theory that proceedings of commission are of partisan nature. I, like you, had considered them to be non-partisan and acted throughout both before the commission and outside of it, in conformity with that theory. I hope that the courtesy of consulting you before disposing of your counsel has not been overlooked. Under the circumstances no answer necessary to my last telegram. Best wishes and deepest respect and regards."

"Now somebody else will have to make the necessary argument. I have talked over my views with Hon. Mr. Rowell and I think that he, too, has been impressed by them. However, I have been dismissed on political grounds from service in a non-partisan capacity, of a non-partisan, non-political judicial tribunal. I was counsel of the tribunal and not of the former government. The circumstances are unique. In a professional matter I have no politics. I have on several occasions, for instance, acted for Liberals petitioned against under the Dominion Elections Act. The government must have considered that there was some real necessity for what has been done, and if now the tribunal standing by consents, that counsel serv-

RICH MEN PLAN TO HELP OTHERS TO OWN HOMES

Thirty Million Dollar Foundation Plan Announced in New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Financing of a $30,000,000 interstate enterprise to enable the handicapped man of large family to own his own home, anywhere, on little or no down payment, has been practically completed, according to Allen E. Beals in the Dow Service Daily Building Reports.

There will be available for New York City home construction $5,000,000; Chicago to have $5,000,000 for the same purpose. Boston $2,000,000, Philadelphia $1,000,000 and the same amount for Baltimore. In addition, $16,000,000 is to be spread over Cleveland, Dallas, Detroit, Indianapolis, Los Angeles, New Haven, Portland, Ore.; Portland, Me., San Francisco, St. Louis, Seattle and four other cities. New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore will comprise the first group to get under way. Organization of this second group of fifteen cities will take place as soon as possible.

Under the corporate title of The American Home Foundation, Inc., is a management group of recognized financiers and philanthropists, many of whom are nationally known, all operating for the time being through W. R. Chapin, formerly of the Guaranty Trust Company of this city.

The plan enables a man of good moral and health rating, but financially handicapped because of a large family, to establish himself and dependents in a dwelling costing from $8,000 to $12,000, on terms even easier than those on which he can purchase an automobile on time, because under this arrangement there is not the usual prerequisite of making a substantial first payment down. The first month's rent or nothing gives the prospective owner occupancy, and in from four to fifteen years the house belongs to him.

OWNER PROTECTED
The owner-occupant is protected by the trusteeship of the title to the property with a bank or trust company in such a manner that in absolutely no way can the contractor or owner of the property or any part of the rights of the owner-occupant, be jeopardized.

It is furthermore arranged for each candidate for accommodation under this plan to submit to a life insurance examination, the premiums, however, to be paid by the foundation in such a way that the owner's family is relieved of all further payments in the event of the owner's death.

Italy's electric power associations have started a movement toward use of only Italian material for construction. It may properly be removed because of his political opinions, privately held, there will be an end to the matter so far as I am concerned, but perhaps it would be just as well for all others concerned to cease contending that the customs enquiry is in its scope and intent non-partisan and non-political."

Chevrolet Smoothness is Built into this Power Plant!

for Economical Transportation

It is by strictest attention to quality of material and workmanship—that Chevrolet has achieved, not only the most powerful but also the smoothest, engine in its price class.

Notice how the working parts are fully enclosed—protected from road dust, grit and water. The valve-lifter assembly is completely encased in pressed steel covering to prevent entry of harmful foreign matter and to silence the engine. The Chevrolet Dry Disc Clutch is mounted in the flywheel housing, while the transmission is immediately behind the clutch and, with the propeller-shaft, is completely enclosed.

A newly-designed camshaft and well-balanced crankshaft with extra large main bearings insure the smoothness which has won for this Chevrolet such unanimous praise.

N. B. POWER COMMISSION WILL INVESTIGATE MEDUCTIC SITE

GOVERNMENT GRANTS BOARD AUTHORITY TO SPEND $35,000 ON JOB

Distribution of Electric Current Will Be Extended Between Lakeside and Hammond River if Fifty Contracts Can Be Obtained.

HON. W. A. Reilly, K. C., chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission on his return to Saint John from Fredericton last night, announced that the Meductic site on the Saint John River will be investigated as a source of energy.

The provincial government, he said, has authorized the commission to proceed immediately with an investigation of the Meductic site at a cost of $35,000. The report is to be presented within four months.

The commission has decided to extend the distribution of electric energy between Lakeside and Hammond River by way of Nauwigewauk, provided fifty contracts are obtained. The expenditure is to be $9,750.

These projects were sanctioned at a meeting of the commission in Fredericton yesterday with the following commissioners in attendance: Hon. E. Allan Schofield, Saint John; Arthur D. Ganong, St. Stephen; Hon. E. A. Reilly, Moncton; John D. Palmer, Fredericton; and F. E. Robidoux, Shediac.

Mr. Reilly gave the following statement:

"During the morning session the report of the Musquash conditions was laid before the commission by the chief engineer. From Sept. 18 of this year until the present time Musquash electric production is down to its minimum. One-third of the entire current used by the Musquash customers at the present time is produced at Musquash and the remaining two-thirds is purchased from the N. B. Power Co. From Sept. 18 of the present year until the present time the commission purchased from the New Brunswick Power Company 598,250 kilowatts while only 291,400 kilowatts were produced from the Musquash system. If the New Brunswick Power Company had not come to the aid of the commission the Musquash power system would have exhausted during the present week. At the present time the commission is purchasing and receiving from the New Brunswick Power Company 2,400 horsepower while under the contract entered into between the Power Company and the commission in July, 1925, only 2,000 horsepower was provided. The current purchased from the Power Company is costing the commission $700 daily.

NEWCASTLE'S ACTION.

"This very unsatisfactory condition of the system brought about much anxiety on the part of the commission. During the morning session of the town council of Newcastle waited upon the commission, asking for a renewal of the lighting contract. At the inception of Musquash supplying power the commission entered into an agreement with the Bathurst company to supply current for one year at $35 per horsepower without the option of a renewal of the contract. The New Brunswick Hydro Commission then entered into a five-year contract with the town of Newcastle to supply current on the basis of the Bathurst contract. To transmit this current from Bathurst to Newcastle the commission erected a transmission line at a cost of $125,000. At the end of the first year upon the expiration of the Bathurst contract the commission could not renew the contract at the old price but was obliged to enter a new contract at $75 per horsepower while it was selling the current to Newcastle under a five-year contract at the original price. This meant an annual loss during the year 1925 to the commission of $11,000 and during the present year up to date of about $8,000. The five-year contract with Newcastle expires on Dec. 19, next.

LAKEBAY PROJECT.

A report was also submitted to the commission for the installing of current in Lakeside through Nauwigewauk to Hammond river. This was ordered provided 50 customers entered into contract at a service charge of $1.65 per month. The length of the line will be seven miles with an approximate expenditure of $87,700. This expenditure was approved by the government after the following resolution had been passed by the commission.

Resolution follows, viz: "Moved by A. D. Ganong, "Seconded by E. A. Schofield.

"Whereas, the Commission has investigated the cost of distributing electrical energy between Lakeside and Hammond River by way of Nauwigewauk as an extension to the present Hampton system;

"And whereas, the estimated capital cost is $87,700 to serve fifty (50) customers at the following rates:

"Service charge $1.65 per month, plus nine cents (9c) per k.w.h. for the first twenty k.w.h. per month and

"Four cents (4c) per k.w.h. for all over twenty k.w.h. per month, and the annual cost is estimated at $1,464 and the annual revenue at $1,530.

"Therefore resolved, that the Commission recommend that the Commission authorized to make the said extension upon securing fifty (50) bona fide contracts.

"The capital expenditure to be $87,700 for fifty (50) customers, the work to be carried out during a reasonably suitable season for construction.

"Unanimously carried.

MEDUCTIC SITE DECISION.

"Whereas, there appears to be a necessity for further development of power to supply the requirements essential to the industrial development of Central and the so-called North shore portion of New Brunswick, and to supplement its supply in those dis-

LYNN MAN FAILS TO MAKE SHORE WHEN FRAIL CRAFT TIPS

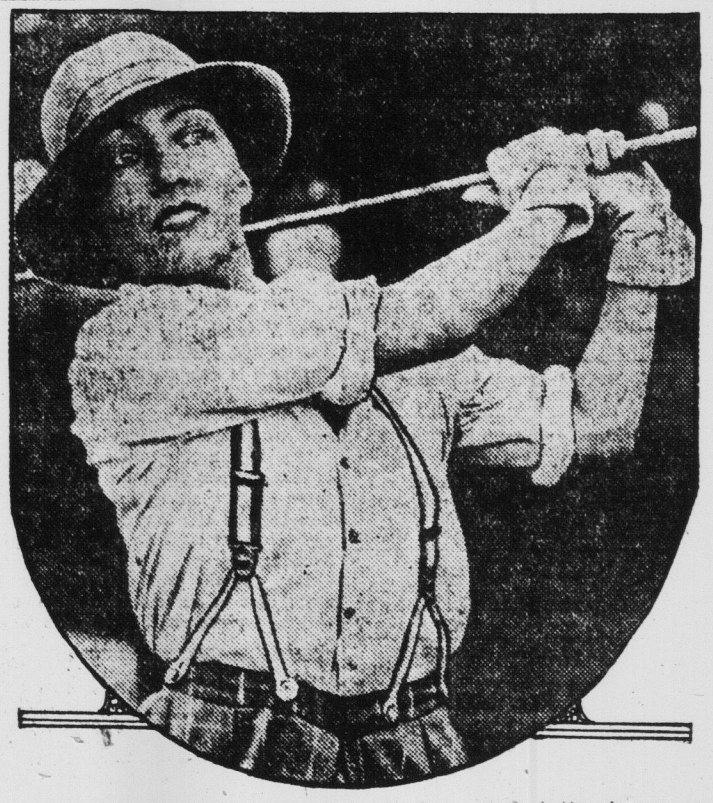

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—While attempting to swim ashore after tipping over a frail craft, George F. Carey, owner of the YD Taxi Co., Lynn, was drowned. In a borrowed canoe, he and Joseph Cahill of Lynn, started out on Lily Pond, Saugus, using a broomstick as a paddle. When in mid-stream Carey stood up to light a cigarette and with the high wind blowing at that time, the canoe overturned, throwing both men into the water.

According to the Saugus police, both men had been drinking and although Cahill was able to swim ashore, rescuers who put out from camps along the shore were unable to reach Carey before he went down.

George Carey was born in Lynn 29 years ago he lived on So. Common street, and is survived by his wife and one child.

Through tickets good on all European air lines are to be issued.

Workmen employed in the Murphy Bros. tool works, 63 Somerset street, were surprised yesterday afternoon when a pigeon flew in through the front door followed by a large hawk. The pigeon was rescued and was able to escape. The men managed to capture the hawk and put it in a cage.

LIQUOR LAW FINES $7,336,995 IN YEAR

Record in U. S. Also Shows Jail Sentences Totalling 5,666 Years

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Of the total of $7,336,995 collected in fines by federal courts throughout the United States for violations of the national prohibition law in the fiscal year 1926 under June 30 last, the sum of $1,512,856 was assessed by the tribunals in the four judicial districts of New York.

There were 6,161 convictions in the New York districts during the year, as compared with a total of 44,022 for the country as a whole. Federal courts in New York issued 71 permanent injunctions against offenders and sentences imposed aggregated seventy-four years.

In New Jersey during the fiscal year 1926 there were 843 convictions for wet offences, with sentences totalling eighteen years, fines collected amounting to $140,424, and 429 permanent injunctions issued by federal judges.

In Maryland, which is classified by the prohibition enforcement officers as a wet state, convictions totalled 1,184, sentences 124 years; fines $112,390, and injunctions 225.

IN MASSACHUSETTS

Federal courts in Massachusetts convicted 493 wet offenders and imposed sentences aggregating twenty-eight years. They collected $67,721 in fines and issued two injunctions.

In the fiscal year there were nearly 4,000 convictions in Kentucky, more than 1,900 in Tennessee, 2,700 in West Virginia, 203 in Maine, 282 in New Hampshire, 1,200 in North Carolina, 700 in South Carolina, 1,400 in Louisiana, 456 in Florida, 1,000 in Georgia, more than 1,200 in California, about 200 in the four districts of Alaska, 182 in Hawaii and 77 in Porto Rico.

There were only ten convictions in Kansas, which is classified as bone dry by prohibition enforcement officers.

The 44,022 convictions in the year represents an increase of 4,195 over the convictions in the previous twelve month period. The number of pending cases decreased 1,925. There were 2,869 fewer cases instituted in 1926 than in 1925.

A total of 3,669 permanent injunctions issued during the year is an increase of 1,100 over the previous year. The aggregate of fines collected, $7,336,995, is about $400,000 less than in 1925, but the jail sentences, totalling 5,666 years, are about 1,100 years in excess of those imposed in the preceding year.

COURT CIRCLES CONCERNED OVER ROYAL MATCHES

Number of European Princesses Coming of Age at One Time

PARIS, Oct. 6.—European royalty is facing a crisis in family life which is giving no end of worry to the most important members of the households of various sovereigns. The whole trouble is due to too many princesses coming of age simultaneously without enough royal princes to go around.

There is also the growing popularity of marriage between royalty and the nobility, an example of which is found in England, where Princess Mary was wed to Viscount Lascelles and the Duke of York to Lady Bowes Lyon. Then Princess Mafalda of Italy married the Count of Bergamo and turned the heads of several princesses in the Latin countries.

Queen Maria of Rumania has thus far managed the successful discipline of her girls, although the Queen of Greece has lost her throne. King Boris, however, is arousing the fears of the conservative monarchists of Europe by threatening to seek a mere collar prince to share the Bulgarian throne.

Perhaps the two most pathetic little princesses are Giovanna of Italy and Beatrice of Spain, who are said to have been fond of Prince Leopold of Belgium and the Prince of Wales respectively.

Giovanna may be consoled over the Belgian Court's turning northward to seek the hand of Princess Astrid for its heir, by her own engagement to the Prince of Hesse, who, it is reported, will adopt the Italian nationality. But the little Spanish Princess seems to consider the situation with a forlorn look in her 17-year-old eyes.

Then again, the match between Umberto, Italian Crown Prince, and Princess Marie Jose of Belgium does not appear to be certain. Rumor has it that complications may come from the outspoken admiration of Umberto for the daughters of Duke of Guise, the French Pretender.

SOWED MUSTARD IN NEIGHBOR'S FIELD

Belgian Court Gives Man 15 Days in Jail and Assesses Damages

BRUSSELS, Oct. 6.—Sowing mustard seed in a neighbor's field is a crime, the Belgian courts have ruled. A farmer named Stayaert had a quarrel with another whose fields adjoined his. One dark night, after the neighbor had finished his ploughing, Stayaert climbed over the fence and filled the furrows with mustard seed.

"Intentional damage" was the verdict of the court at Lovendegem, experts having sworn that the fields were useless for farming until the mustard could be eliminated, a process requiring from two to three years, and that the fields could not even be used as pasture for cattle, as the animals would be poisoned.

The offending farmer was sentenced to fifteen days in jail, 500 francs fine and 1,000 francs damages.

THOUSAND JONESES SEEKING ESTATE

MANCHESTER, England, Oct. 6.—More than a thousand Joneses from all parts of the world are trying to establish their rights to a share in the estate of Miss Clara Alice Jones, who died here in seeming poverty, but left an estate estimated to be worth £40,000 (about $200,000).

Second cousins are entitled, under the new law of intestacy, to share in an estate, and the Deputy Chancellor is having difficulty in running down the real second cousins among the numerous claimants.

FALL SIX STORIES DOWN DUMB WAITER

Three Children Survive After Fearful Ride, But Have Numerous Injuries

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Three children live to tell the story of their six-story plunge on a dumb waiter in their home at 334 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. The three are Emmet Brown, 12 years old; Florence McKean, 8, and her brother, James, 12. All are at home in bed under the care of a physician and with numerous injuries.

The youngsters went up to the roof to play and were there a long time. While they scampered about someone shut the door leading to the floor below. They pounded on the door but no one heard them. They called down from the roof of the four-story tenement, but above the sound of traffic no one heard.

Finally the boys walked to the dumb waiter shaft opening, hauled up the dumb waiter and told Florence to grasp the centre cable and get on top. Then they swung on. The elevator started down at full speed.

"Then," said Florence, later, "there was an awful loud sound like a bullet. It was the rope breaking. We went so fast we could not see the walls. Then we hit the bottom and the dumb waiter was all smashed up and we did not know any more until Mrs. Kent came down and found us."

Mrs. Kent, a widow, has an apartment on the first floor. She was entertaining a visitor when the crash came.

Entering the cellar, she found the children, a mass of legs and arms, unconscious and bleeding.

Parts of the North Railway near Madrid, Spain, are to be electrified.

POSTS FORFEIT

Willie Hoppe posted a forfeit of $1,000 with Charles S. Kline of the Strand Academy to bind a match with Otto Teisel, champion, for the world's three-cushion title. The announcement was made by Kline, who said that Reisel had informed him over the phone that he was ready to meet Hoppe. The former ballroom star, who is engaged in theatrical work here, said that he accepted Reisel's challenge on the condition that the title be at stake, that the one match will decide and that the title be at stake. He said Reisel agreed to those terms.

OBSERVE 52ND ANNIVERSARY OF 'PEERLESS'

Odd Fellows Meet in Happy Gathering in Simonds Street Hall

Peerless Lodge, No. 19 of Oddfellows last night celebrated its 52nd anniversary in the hall, Simonds street and a large number of lodge members and visitors from sister lodges were present to make the event a success. After a short business session a social hour was enjoyed and a fine program carried out, following which refreshments were served.

At the close of the business session Noble Grand H. E. Sibson called M. D. Brown, one of the veterans of the order, to the chair. The first item on the program was community singing, led by an orchestra, composed of W. W. Stanton, H. E. Sibson, G. B. McDonald, W. R. Green and K. Fairweather.

JAMES A. CORAM IS DEAD IN MONTANA

Former New Brunswick Prominent in Business Life—78 Years Old

Copies of the Daily Inter Lake, of Kalspell, Montana, received by the Times-Star, report the death of James Albert Coram, a former New Brunswick, and who was thought to be a member of the Coram family of West Saint John. He died on Sept. 22. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Long Coram, and the following children by a former marriage: Lucy A. Rudolph of Whitefish, Montana; Charles M. Coram of Minnesota; Mrs. Florence M. Farrow of Bearmouth, Montana; Fenton E. Coram and James Everett Coram of Seattle, Mrs. Uta M. Smithson, of Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Iola E. Welch of Libby, Montana, and Mrs. Edith L. Buckingham, Mrs. Rachel C. Patterson and Earl R. Coram, of Kalspell, besides numerous grandchildren.

Mr. Coram was born on April 29, 1848. In 1890 he arrived in Montana and located in Helena as representative of the lumber department of the Butte and Montana Commercial Company, one of the big industrial concerns of the state at that time. In 1894 he removed to Kalspell and was the general superintendent of the same company until it was merged into the Coram Lumber Company, of which he became president. He was the first superintendent of the Kalspell Water and Electric Light Company and had other big business connections there. He was a Mason, Knight Templar, Shriner and a member of the Eastern Star. The newspaper speaks in eulogy of his good qualities and fine citizenship and states that at the funeral service the Masonic temple was filled to overflowing.

Building Looks Up At East Saint John

Residents of the Kane's Corner, East Saint John district, look for that section to develop into quite a thriving community, according to one in conversation with a Times-Star reporter. A new building with shop and flat is being erected by Mr. Armstrong across from the post office and Alec Taylor, postmaster and proprietor of the present store, is considering the erection of a modern three storey brick building next spring. It is expected that the British Canadian Packing Plant will commence operations about the end of this month.

REV. L. R. SHERMAN CHOSEN BISHOP FOR CALGARY

Word of the election of Very Rev. Dean L. R. Sherman, of Quebec, formerly curate of Trinity Church, Saint John, to the bishopric of the Anglican diocese of Calgary, was received here this morning. It is not known whether Dean Sherman will accept the position. Dean Sherman was born and educated at Fredericton, N. B., being a Rhodes Scholar from the University of New Brunswick. He was practically in charge of Trinity Church there during the absence of Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong owing to injuries. On leaving here he went to Toronto where he was elected Dean of Quebec, which office he now holds. Very Rev. Dean Sherman married Miss Gilmore, St. George, N. B. A sister, Mrs. W. B. Howard, resides in Saint John.

As Hiram Sees It The English till Char-nissay was drowned at Port Royal—an' married Char-nissay's widgeon an' lived agin at Char-nissay fort at the mouth of the Saint John. 'Jist then we seen a craft, crossin' the patch o' moonlight on the river, with a man an' woman settin' aft'—gazin' at the pine woods on the shores o' Long Reach. 'Them,' says the town feller, 'is the ghosts o' Char-nissay an' his second wife—sailin' up the Reach. They was married in 1653 at Port Royal an' come to the Saint John to live in the old fort at its mouth. It's their ghosts we jist seen in the moonlight on the river. When he said that I wondered to myself if a Tour—as he sailed the Reach with Char-nissay's widgeon—ever give a thought to past sailin's there—or to that lonely grave at the mouth of the river that covered a broken heart. The English till Char-nissay was drowned at Port Royal—an' married Char-nissay's widgeon an' lived agin at Char-nissay fort at the mouth of the Saint John.

TWO CHURCHES IN SUSSEX MAKE PLANS TO UNITE

Chalmers and Wesley Complete Arrangements—Effective Next Month

The union of Chalmers and Wesley churches of Sussex, the first a former Presbyterian and the latter a former Methodist and now both in the United Church of Canada, was decided upon last night by the congregations. The congregations met in their respective churches and a proposed basis of union was submitted by the two ministers. This basis had previously been submitted to the official board of Wesley church and the sessions of Chalmers church and approved by them. The matter was then brought before the Saint John Presbytery at its meeting in Saint John last week when the basis was adopted. It provides for the consummation of the union on the first Sunday in November under the joint ministry of the present pastors, Revs. A. V. Morash and C. N. Brown, until July 1, 1917, when a new minister, to be previously chosen by the united congregation is to take charge. A good spirit prevailed at the two meetings and the people are looking forward with bright anticipation to the future.

ADOPTED BY MEMBERS

After a few minor suggestions had been made at the congregational meetings the basis was adopted. It provides for the consummation of the union on the first Sunday in November under the joint ministry of the present pastors, Revs. A. V. Morash and C. N. Brown, until July 1, 1917, when a new minister, to be previously chosen by the united congregation is to take charge. A good spirit prevailed at the two meetings and the people are looking forward with bright anticipation to the future.
