An inquiry was received lately from a large concern in Ohio inquiring for hardwood supplies. The concern manufacturing agricultural implement handles and other wood specialties, consumes from 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 feet per annum, and if supply were assured, might consider establishing a factory in New Brunswick.

INSURANCE HANDICAP.
The Board has received a letter from the Dept. of Marine and Fisheries wherein the department signifies its regret to assist in any way possible in the board's effort to have the differential, consisting of the warranty, between Saint John and Halifax, removed. The board could not see any reason why Saint John should be thus discriminated against. O. LEFEBVRE IS
WITNESS TODAY

Member of Quebec Streams
Commission in Ingleswood
Case

Tells of Investigation at Musquash in Connection With Development
Olivier Lefebvre of Montreal, of the Quebec Streams Commission, was on the stand all morning here today at the hearing into the $840,000 claim of the Ingleswood Pulp and Paper Co., Ltd. against the N. B. Electric Power Commission for damages in connection with the Musquash development. Mr. Justice LeBlanc presiding.

The hearing will continue this afternoon when it is expected the technical evidence for the company will be practically completed. Gordon Kribs, chief electrical engineer of the Commission, and Roy Willett, secretary of the Electric Power Commission, have been called as witnesses for the company at this afternoon's session.

TODAY'S EVIDENCE.
When the case opened this morning, cross-examination of Mr. Lefebvre was continued by Mr. Hughes. On his investigation at Musquash, he said he noticed some fairly good timberland there but he could not say whether it was an Ingleswood or Crown property. He gave details in regard to the St. Maurice development in Quebec.

He estimated the continuous dependable horsepower at Musquash at about 3,500 horsepower, excluding Sherwood Lake dam. Before storage development at Musquash, the figure would be about $5 horsepower, based on a flow of 40 cubic feet per second. He checked up Mr. Brown's figures and agreed with his estimate of $62,000 for storage, including a dam for Sherwood Lake.

With Sherwood Lake, 4,200 h. p. would be the maximum development through storage at Musquash, the witness said. The capital cost per horsepower, he figured, would be about $95.60 per horsepower, not allowing for land damages. The witness said he thought the Shawinigan Falls site in Quebec brought about $60,000 in land damages in 1917. The natural capacity at Shawinigan, he placed at around 30,000 h. p.

Re-examined by Mr. Montague, he said in regard to Shawinigan, there was no market nearby and it was necessary to bring many factors in there to develop power. Conditions in 1917 in regard to hydro-electric power were not comparable to those existing now, witness said. He gave one instance of one power site being sold for $3,000 provided $300,000 was spent in a certain number of years. The penalty for development was $2,000 per acre, he said, was paid a few years later. This site had a capacity of 260,000 horsepower. This completed Mr. Lefebvre's testimony.

240 CASES ALCOHOL SEIZED AT MONCTON
Brought to City—Was Billed as Oysters, Bouteau to Montreal

A refrigerator car loaded with 240 cases of alcohol billed as oysters was seized yesterday afternoon in the Moncton railway yards by Collector of Customs and Excise Joseph Givard of Moncton and several of his officers. The contraband was shipped to Saint John for safekeeping and arrived here this morning.

The officers descended on the railway yards and discovered this refrigerator with the "wet goods" boldly placed on the floor of the car without any other goods to conceal the liquor packages. The goods were billed through from Buctouche to Montreal as oysters. The 240 cases contained in all approximately 2,000 gallons of alcohol. The duty alone on this shipment would be $20,000.

The car was placed in charge of two customs officers and was attached to the early train this morning from Moncton. It arrived here and the car was shunted to the bonded warehouse in the New Brunswick Cold Storage Building, where the entire seizure was transferred under customs supervision. No arrests were made in connection with the seizure, it was reported this afternoon.

GIVES TALK ON NATIVE CRAFTS

Miss G. Helen Mowat Speaks of Charlotte County Work

Says Destiny of Maritimes Lies With People of Farms—N. H. S. Feature

It was a "home-grown" afternoon of great delight that was heartily enjoyed by the large audience in the Natural History Society rooms yesterday afternoon when Miss G. Helen Mowat, of St. Andrews, spoke of the development of the native crafts of Charlotte county, exhibited some fine examples of those arts in weaving, embroidery, pottery and rug-making and showed pictures of the peasant of farm life which is held yearly in St. Andrews.

workers were taught to express themselves. Miss Mowat exhibited the new woven bags in which the coloring was that of sunset, of the woods in autumn, of a misty day or of a rainbow. Then she showed woven blankets, a revival of the old industry. In the matter of making original designs there were two of her workers who had outstanding talents. Mrs. Charles Smith, of Pomroy Ridge, had made landscape rugs which were indeed paintings in rags and sold for wall adornment rather than for something to put on the floor. A very fine example of Mrs. Smith's work was exhibited at the meeting. Mary Helen Gillman had rare skill as an embroiderer, depicting incidents of farm life with painstaking fidelity and great artistic taste.

Five silk being made of pulpwood and therefore a native product of Charlotte county is now being used in some of the new craft work, Miss Mowat said, and experiments were being made with feathers to see if they could be satisfactorily used. The pottery work, one of the latest ventures, was now being carried on by young people entirely. Miss Mowat passed from her description of the craft work to speak of the development of native dramatic, musical and literary talent which had been aimed at in the farmers' pageant. In this pageant old songs had been revived and the attractive side of farm life had been portrayed. Motion pictures of the last pageant had been taken and are being shown in Saint John this week. The lantern slides which were shown at the meeting gave a very fine idea of the pageant.

CELEBRATE THEIR 25TH ANNIVERSARY

About 50 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Steele met last evening at their home, 285 Rockland road and tendered them a surprise party in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

An enjoyable evening was spent with music, games and dancing. Miss Kathleen McAfee rendered a number of solos. At the close of the evening Thomas Roper, on behalf of the company, presented Mr. and Mrs. Steele a beautiful silver service and a suitable address. While Mr. and Mrs. Steele were taken by surprise they made a happy reply. Mr. Steele's mother, of Winnipeg, also made a few remarks. After the presentation the hostess was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by Miss Margaret Cripps, Mrs. William Steck and Mrs. Frank Steele.

PART OF WINTER COURSE

The afternoon was part of the winter course of lectures of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society and Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, president of the association, before introducing Miss Mowat, referred briefly to the death of Queen Alexandra. She specially dwelt on the Queen's never falling interest in the work of women and her constant patronage of cottage craft industries.

The very hearty thanks of the audience were extended to Miss Mowat on the motion of Mrs. C. F. Sanford, seconded by Mrs. John Sealy. Hearty applause greeted Miss Mowat, who prefaced her address with a tribute to the wisdom of William Brodie, of Saint John, her former school master. To Mr. Brodie's influence and teaching concerning Greek art she attributed her own sense of idealism and beauty. Miss Mowat believed that it was the people who lived on farms who would shape the destiny of the Maritimes and of Canada and that country could not afford to disregard the aims and needs of any one farmer.

She was proud of the farm people of Charlotte county and the work that they had done and she emphatically stated that it was their work and not hers which was seen in the craft industries. All she had done was to direct their native talent and put them in the way of finding a market.

COTTAGE CRAFTS

Speaking of the cottage crafts, she said they had been started not only to make money but to afford an opportunity for the expression of the life of the people, of what they saw, knew and felt. In the work nothing from the city or from books was ever copied. Native and characteristic scenes and colorings were used always and the

MOVE PLANNED TO POOL FUNDS FOR CHARITIES

Committee to Ask Mayor to Call Citizens to Mass Meeting

STEP IS TAKEN BY RED CROSS SOCIETY

Progress in Men's Drive for Funds—Various Matters of Business

The urgent need for some concerted work towards pooling of charitable funds and heading up of charitable work in Saint John under a central organization was considered at the meeting of the Saint John Red Cross Society yesterday. It was decided to approach the executive of the Associated Charities to confer with that body with a view to asking the Mayor to call a public meeting to discuss the whole matter.

The committee appointed for this purpose consisted of Mrs. Bert Gordon, Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, Mrs. L. F. Longley and Mrs. John Owens. Mrs. L. F. Longley, president, was in the chair yesterday and the meeting was well attended. Mrs. Gordon, relief worker, read a report of the cases dealt with and made an earnest plea for gifts of underclothing which might be made over for the children in the families which were seeking relief.

The gift of 78 garments for relief work, which had been received from the Provincial Red Cross, was very gratefully acknowledged. On the suggestion of Miss S. A. Barrington, organizer of home nursing classes, a class in home nursing and dietetics will be held in the relief worker's room on the upper floor of the depot building.

Miss Jessie Lawson, Junior Red Cross supervisor, offered to have junior members make garments if the society had material of wool on hand and the offer was accepted.

TREASURER'S REPORT. The treasurer's statement showed a balance of $798.17 with about $200 still to be paid to the provincial division. The sum of $25 was voted to be given to the Provincial Red Cross hospital committee for the soldier patients' Christmas stockings.

Word was received from Miss Helen C. Campbell, demonstrator and lecturer of the dairy branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture, saying that she would be pleased to come to Saint John in February as suggested by the society, which has promised her co-operation in her work at that time.

The officers of the society received and accepted an invitation to attend the memorial service for Queen Alexandra to be held in Trinity church at noon on Friday.

MEN'S CANVASS. Very gratifying reports were received of the progress made in launching the men's canvasses of the business section of the city in a drive for funds. The canvass will be begun on Dec. 2 and a banquet for the campaign workers will be held in the Pythian Castle on Dec. 4 when Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the Red Cross Central Council, will be the speaker. Mrs. W. E. Morris was appointed convener for the supper arrangements.

The Saint John branch agreed to pack the Christmas boxes which will be sent to soldier and seafarer families. A committee for this work was appointed with the following members, Mrs. J. H. Doody, Mrs. W. E. Morris, Mrs. W. R. Pearce, Mrs. Lovell, Mrs. Bert Gordon, Mrs. Walter Hall, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Miss LeRoy, Mrs. I. F. Longley and Mrs. W. H. Downie, with power to add.

The Victorian Order of Nurses appealed for assistance in securing broth for homes where there were new babies.

It was decided to have conveners in various sections of the city assume responsibility for providing broth as the nurses and seafarer families. The conveners were named as follows: West Saint John, Mrs. W. E. Morris; North End, Mrs. J. D. Maher; South End, Mrs. J. H. Doody; East Saint John, Mrs. W. J. Bevis; Fairville, Miss LeRoy and Miss M. O'Brien; central district, Mrs. Haney.

Miss Hopkins was elected a new member of the executive.

It was decided to change the hour of regular meeting from 4 o'clock to 3 o'clock.

Gilda Brings New Dance From Samoa

NEW YORK, Nov. 26—Miss Gilda Gray, dancer, and a group of actors and actresses returned from Porto Rico and the South Sea Islands on board the steamship San Lorenzo of the Porto Rico Line, which docked at Brooklyn. Gilda said she had learned the "Samoan shimmy," which, she said, would prove a sensation in New York. She said she was a princess in Samoa, with the title "Wolju," meaning "star of the morning."

Special Session Is Sought To Impeach "Ma" Ferguson

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 26—Impeachment proceedings against Governor Miriam A. ("Ma") Ferguson, of Texas, are now virtually certain.

It was learned that more than the required number of signatures have been attached to a petition asking a special impeachment session of the Texas Legislature.

Legislators gathered here presumably to discuss tax matters, but they willingly signed the document that is destined to play an important part in bringing to a climax the political uproar that has engulfed "Ma" Ferguson's "petticoat rule."

The attack on Governor Ferguson's administration is an outgrowth of charges that there has been grafting in the State's highway department.

At the close of the session the petition for a special legislative session was revealed. It is termed a "county petition" and will be presented to "Ma" Ferguson, probably Tuesday.

If she refuses to call the lawmakers together, as she has refused to do previously, then the legislators probably will attempt to meet without her sanction.

On top of this unexpected turn in political affairs came the resignations of the chairman of the State Highway Commission, Frank V. Lanham, and another highway commissioner, Joe Burkett, both of whom were under fire for alleged mismanagement of the highway department.

Compliments Delegates To Winnipeg Parley

AMHERST, Nov. 26—An extensive report dealing with the activities of the Winnipeg conference was tonight delivered to the Amherst Board of Trade by Robert K. Smith, M. P. elect for Cumberland county.

Mr. Smith attended the conference as a representative of the Board of Trade and Town Council.

During the course of his remarks he complimented J. D. McKenna, of Saint John, for the exhaustive manner in which he presented the case of the Maritimes to the conference. He also referred eulogistically to the remarks made during the course of the conference by A. M. Belding and various other Maritime delegates.

MANITOBA VERITABLE EASTERN STRONGHOLD

Recent Delegates to Winnipeg Conference on Visit to Law Courts Find Four Judges There From the Maritime Provinces

Manitoba presented itself in the light of a Maritime Province stronghold to the delegates from Saint John who attended the recent conference of the Boards of Trade in Winnipeg, when they visited the splendid law courts in Winnipeg and found that on that day the four presiding judges were all Maritime Province men. They were Judge Dymart, brother of Hon. A. Allison Dymart, of Buctouche, N. B.; Judge Fullerton, formerly of Halifax; Judge Walter H. Trueman, formerly of Saint John, and Judge MacDonald, who came from Prince Edward Island.

The local delegates learned that not only had Maritime Province men climbed to the highest positions in the west but that they were a very numerous band and closely united by their warm regard for their native provinces.

Does It Pay a Wife to Economize at the Expense of Happiness?—How to Prevent Quarrels After Marriage—The Spanish Lady Who is Wavering Between Love for Another and Duty to Children.

DEAR MISS DIX—I was a business girl, pretty, high-spirited, gay and good-natured. I earned a good salary, lived well and dressed well, and the man I married was crazy about me. For five years we lived in a dinky suburb, where there is nobody I would care to associate with. I toil like a slave doing my housework. I go nowhere, see no one. I have grown dowdy, peevish and cross. And my husband neglects me. We do this to save a little money, because we get this cheap house in a cheap suburb cheaply. Does it pay us?

ANSWER:

No. No matter how little you are paying for your house, you are paying too much for it if you are paying for it with your happiness, and that is evidently what you are doing. Living in sordid and ungenial surroundings has got on your nerves, and the quicker you get out of it the better for you.

There is nothing that does so much to bolster up your morale as to be right in the fighting heat of things; somewhere where you can have close contact with your fellow creatures; where you have companionship, and especially where you have not too much time and solitude in which to think of yourself and your troubles. The question of when economy is economy, and when it is rank extravagance is a very nice one, and it is a difficult one for women to solve. Generally a woman thinks that she is being economical when she saves every penny. So she does without the little labor-saving conveniences that would lighten her work, and she breaks down her health. She saves a world of dollars by living in some forlorn place, and because she is uncomfortable and unhappy and discontented, she gets peevish and disagreeable, and drives her husband and children from home. To put another few dollars in the bank she goes shabby and looks ugly and unattractive, and she is so hard on the eyes that her husband turns a roving glance in the direction of a more attractive lady.

Often in her desire to save and help her husband get on, a woman hinders instead of helps him. She won't spend the money necessary to make a good appearance. She won't go to places that cost money to go to. She won't dress well because she has let her opportunities that are to be found only among the prosperous. For people instinctively judge by appearances, and rate a man's ability by the way he looks and lives. Economy like everything else is best done in moderation. Save something, but don't be a nickel-nurse. Certainly you are saving to poor advantage if you are living so uncomfortably that it is making you old and ugly and unattractive before your time, so that you are losing your husband's love. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am going to be married soon, and when I say that there is going to be no quarreling in my home my friends all laugh at me, and tell me that no couple ever lived together without differing. My fiancé and I are both very reasonable, and believe that all differences of opinion can be settled without trouble. What do you say?

ANSWER:

Surely you are right. There is no reason on earth why husbands and wives quarrel without friction. It is just a matter of a little common sense and self-control. It is just carrying the tactics that we pursue in public into private life.

Of course, it is not possible for any two human beings to think exactly alike on every subject, or to have exactly the same tastes, or to want to do exactly the same thing at the same time. There are also times when every human being is worried, or sick, and irritable and cantankerous, but we do not give way to these moods in other places, and there is no reason why we cannot suppress them at home. We do not tell other people of their faults, nor deride their opinions, nor criticize their grammar and pronunciation and table manners, and there is no excuse for not being equally considerate of the feeling of our husbands and wives.

No woman who holds down a good job in an office files into a tantrum or gives way to her temper and nerves in dealing with her boss. Why should she not exhibit an equal amount of self-control with her husband? No man succeeds in business who is quarrelsome and overbearing and rude to customers or clients. Why can he not be equally courteous and amiable to his wife?

No reason whatever. And it is a sad and solemn truth that if men and women would put half of the effort into making a happy home, and getting along with their husbands and wives, that they do in getting on in their business, and pleasing the people who pass $10 over a counter, practically every marriage would be a success.

If you want a home in which there will be no quarrels, make a rock-bottom resolution, and keep it, that you will never argue about anything. If your husband says black is white, let it go at that. You can keep your own private opinion on the matter. Never tell each other of your faults. Never hold post-mortems. And settle the money question before you are married.

And you may be sure of this, that any couple who never quarrel never cease to love. Fighting couples may kiss and make up, but every battle leaves wounds that never heal, and in time these kill love. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am 27 years of age of Spanish parents. Ten years ago my parents married me to a man whom I did not love. He is a good man, and has been kind to me, and I respect him, but five years ago I met a man with whom I fell deeply in love. I have seen nothing of this man for three years, but recently I have received word that he has become blind, and is begging those about him to send for me to make life bearable for him. I feel that since he needs me I must go, yet I have two children who also need me, and I do not feel that I have the right to take them from their father. Pity me, and tell me which way I should go?

ANSWER:

Your pathway is plainly marked out, and lies straight before you. Your duty is to your husband and children, above everybody else on earth. You have given hostages to fortune, and are not free to go where you want.

You have no obligation whatever to the other man and the idea of abandoning your helpless little children for him is monstrous. DOROTHY DIX.

IT'S a pleasure to shop for coats these days. Never before were there such varied materials and patterns to pick from. The coat above, for instance, is only one example of the striking models that may be seen in the shops and at the smart gatherings. It features the material chosen and cloud gray in two different shades is the color. The effect of the irregular joining of the materials is rather dramatic. The collar is racoon.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON THE PICTURES BECOME REAL

When their mother left the Twins sitting on the big leather seat in the picture gallery, while she went away to telephone, a man in a blue cap and brass buttons came up and said kindly:

"Don't worry. I'll look after them, Madam. There are not many people here today and it won't hurt if we talk a bit, although any kind of noise is against the rules usually. I'll tell them about the pictures and everything. You go right along."

"Thank you," said Mrs. Walton gratefully. "They were very tired. It will do them good to rest." She went away then, and Mister Blue Cap sat down beside the children and started to tell them all about the paintings.

It was very warm, and comfortable, and quiet, and Mister Blue Cap had a pleasant voice.

But all at once a peculiar thing happened. Most peculiar. Mister Blue Cap started to shrink. He started to shrink, but his cap and buttons stayed quite as they were. Indeed, in a very short time, he seemed to be nothing but cap and buttons. The rest of him didn't matter at all.

And he had climbed down from the big leather seat (he had to climb now) and was standing before them making one low bow after another.

And his actions were just as queer as he was. He was winking as he bowed. Every time he bobbed up he winked. And every time he bobbed down he seemed to be searching for something on the floor under the seat.

"Whatever are you doing, Mister Blue Cap?" said Nancy, staring at him curiously.

"I was just about to tell you," said the tiny fellow whooping his bowing and winking as suddenly as he had begun. "I had your mother completely fooled. She thought I was a snail, but here I am after the pictures. But I'm not at all! I'm a fairy. I work for the Fairy Queen and she sent me here to see you today."

"Po, goodness sake!" said Nick. "Isn't that jolly!"

"I think it is," agreed Mister Blue Cap. "Particularly as we are to have an adventure—adventure, I should say. I have the magic green shoes hidden under this seat somewhere—oh, here they are! If you children put them on, I can tell you more easily exactly what we are going to do, and all about everything. We have the place quite to ourselves now, and your mother won't be back for ever so long."

Nancy and Nick slipped off their own street shoes, and slid their toes into the funny little scalloped ones that Mister Blue Cap held out, hiding their own shoes under their hats and wraps which they had taken off when they arrived. When they looked up again to see where Mister Blue Cap was, a still more remarkable thing occurred than anything that had happened yet.

The people in the pictures were moving. They had become real. And the animals were real, and the houses and roads and trees and rivers were real. You could see that the frames of the pictures were only doorways by which you could enter.

A neat pair of steps led up to each picture—or each place, I should say. And all the people were beckoning to the Twins to come.

PLAY REPEATED.

The Mission Church Dramatic Club comedy "All Tangled Up," was repeated last night in the Sunday school and again had a capacity audience. The performers achieved even greater success than on the previous night. Rev. J. V. Young, priest in charge, made the presentation of a lovely bouquet of narcissi and jonquils to Mrs. Harold Taylor, the director, in appreciation of her splendid leadership. He also thanked all who had taken part, making a special mention of the orchestra from the Church of the Good Shepherd in Fairville. The comedy is to be presented in Fairville, probably some time in December.

Gloria's Latest Picture Is Beautiful—But Dumb

By JACK JUNGMEYER.

GLORIA Swanson's new picture, "Stage Struck," is a segment of burlesque comedy sandwiched between two of the most ravishing natural color sequences ever filmed. The sheer beauty of the color reels, in which Gloria is paraded in sumptuous bedchambers, representing the ambitious dream of a stage-struck, small-town waitress, creates two opposing effects. It makes the film from mediocrity. And at the same time it emphasizes the rather drab, cheap and clumsy comedy of the middle portion. "Jennie," the loutish waitress, is so over-clowned by Miss Swanson, is made to indulge such bizarre antics, that she has little human appeal or dramatic force. Here and there the dullness is enlivened with flashing bits of good characterization and genuine humor, but on the whole it is pretty lame. "Jennie" is a benighted servant in a West Virginia river town. She adores the display-window hot-cake artist in the same restaurant. She also yearns to be an actress. What time she has between shelling peas and mending her swain's clothes she devotes to a correspondence course in acting. The picture does little more than mark time for Gloria.

Timely Views On World Topics

CERTAINTY of arrest and conviction with some form of punishment, will deter a person from committing a crime, but "severe sentences have never prevented crime and never will," the District Attorney of New York City, Joab H. Banton, declared in a recent speech. "Crime can be prevented only by moral training. The reason that the individual has received instruction, but has not been compelled to practice what he has been taught." The District Attorney illustrated the advantage to the state of speedy arrests and convictions as a deterrent to crime by citing conditions in Manhattan five years ago as compared with today. "Then the calendar in New York County numbered over 2,000 indictments," he said. "A person in prison could not be tried within two months after indictment, and one who was fortunate enough to be on bail would not be tried within 15 months."

The District Attorney explained, and this usually aids the police in making ar-

Bad Luck to Whistle Before Play Is Presented

WHISTLING is forbidden in Iceland, where it is regarded as a breach of the divine law. But whistling is regarded with disfavor in other places as well. In the dressing-room of a theatre, for example, it dooms a play if anyone whistles while hearing of the players who are "making up" for the first performance, according to a very old theatrical superstition. On shipboard you must not whistle unless you want to bring on a gale of wind. You may whistle just a little in a calm, if you wish for a bit of wind, but sailors believe you are likely to get much more than you want. Whistling after dark is regarded as unlucky in some parts, while miners hold that at no time of day should you whistle in a mine; doing so is sure to bring on a cave-in, an explosion, or other form of disaster. Among the races which resent all whistling are the Arabs. They say that it is inspired by the Evil One, and that it takes 40 days to purify the mouth of the whistler. Five years ago the Governor of Guam, the American island possession in the Pacific, issued an edict against whistling on that island—presumably in deference to a prejudice of the natives against the practice.

A Thought

For I was an hungred and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in; naked and ye clothed me; I was sick and ye visited me; I was in prison and ye came unto me.—Matt. 25:34-36.

The members of the Ladies' Society were in charge of the arrangements and everybody had a good time. The prize winners were as follows: Ladies', first, Miss Jessie Gillis; second, Miss M. O'Neill; consolation, Miss M. Abbott; gentlemen's, first, James Lennihan; second, Joseph O'Brien, and consolation, D. J. Owens.

SEE-SAWING UP AND DOWN BROADWAY

HARD-BOILED New Yorkers get a certain cruel satisfaction out of regaling newcomers with tales of the great city's loneliness. They point to people who live side by side in apartment houses without knowing each other's names. They tell of hall bedrooms where dwell tens of thousands of lonely boys and girls, all from small towns and all trying to crash the city's gates. Recently a young woman died and four days passed before the body was discovered. "Hub," grants my friend from Wyoming. "I remember when the best knapper in the Jackson Hole died in the fall and they didn't know it till the next spring."

member it will be torn down. Meanwhile theatrical folk saw the possibilities of turning it to good use. For generations only the "me plus ultra" of the Blue Book world could cross its heart. Now anyone who can scrape up four-bits is welcome to pry and prattle as he pleases. What is more, cabaret and jazz entertainments prance in the socially sacred halls while gum-chewing young flappers from the East Side and Bronx, to say nothing of the tourists from a dozen states, get the thrill of their lives. SAD songs are threatening to return to vogue. For several years New York publishers have banned the word "death" from lyrics and yet, hardly a generation ago, the tears couldn't fall to fast to suit the public. Down in the southwest and parts of the west, two songs now having great vogue are reported to be "The Death of Floyd Collins" and "The Prisoner's Song," both of which are modeled after the sentimental ballads of yesteryear. And Stella Karm, who handles publicity for Leo Felt, tells me that songs with a moral are coming on. JAMES W. DEAN.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—While walking in High road, in Chiswick, a man named Restall, was knocked down by the mudguard of a motor car. Two people went to his assistance, but before they reached him one of the would-be helpers caught hold of his companion, and, with a cry of "Look out!" dragged him back. At that moment a motor car came along, ran over the prostrate man, and went on without stopping. Restall was helped to the movement; then, to the astonishment of his helpers, got up, said, "I'm not hurt," declined medical aid, and went home with his wife.

Returns of Figures From $50,000 up Show an Advance of 4,620

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24—Seventy-four persons paid the United States government taxes on net incomes of $1,000,000 and more during the calendar year 1924, according to figures published by the Internal Revenue Bureau. This is the same number as in the previous year.

MORE SMALLER ONES That the taxpayers with smaller incomes shared in the nation's prosperity also is demonstrated by the report, which shows that incomes from $5,000 to $50,000 increased by 59,811 in 1924. The number of personal income tax returns of all classes filed up to September 30, 1925, was 7,298,481. The aggregate net income was $25,029,210,895, and the tax $680,134,185. Compared with the previous year, the figures show a decrease of 899,840, or 5.48 per cent, in the number of returns, but an increase of $188,078,529, or 0.78 per cent, in total net income, and an increase of $25,452,960, or 3.70 per cent, in the total tax. The average net income was $3,428.55, the average amount of tax $94.42, and the average tax rate 2.75 per cent.

THE MILLION CLASS.

Persons paying taxes on incomes of $1,000,000 and more have decreased sharply since 1916, when the peak number was 206. That was before the heavy war taxes became effective. The number dropped to 21 in 1921, at the time of the great business depression. By years the "millionaire" taxpayers were: 1915, 206; 1917, 141; 1918, 67; 1919, 65; 1920, 38; 1921, 21; 1922, 67; 1923, 74; 1924, 74.

DEAF MUTES WEDDED

Both Give Vows by Gestures—Witnesses Also Unable to Hear or Speak

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 26—With the pastor, the Rev. A. L. Dequoy, speaking the only words of the entire ceremony, Miss Florida Pruneau and Manuel J. Sylvia, Jr., were married at a nuptial mass in Sacred Heart Church. The newlyweds are deaf mutes, as are the witnesses, Jules Oulette and Samuel King. Despite the physical handicap of the couple, the ceremony was carried through in the usual order, the couple filling their part of the ceremony with nods and gestures at a signal by Fr. Dequoy. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia will reside at 284 Chestnut street with the families of Mr. Oulette and Mr. King, the wives of whom are also mutes. Mr. and Mrs. Oulette, who have been married some time, have two chubby youngsters who are normal and furnish all the conversation of the household.

Columbus' Birthplace To Be Big Airport

GENOA, Nov. 25—Genoa is to become the pivot of an important air service for passengers and freight between Rome and Barcelona. The service which will be initiated in December or January, will be carried out with machines of the Dornier Wal type, which, it will be remembered, were those that were used in Amundsen's attempt to reach the North Pole, and are Italy's type of commercial aeroplanes. The convention between the Italian government and the company provides for a bi-weekly service between Rome and Barcelona, which is to become a daily service both ways after three months from the inauguration.

Refused Hat, Shoots Lover

PARIS, Nov. 25—Although French courts are notoriously lenient in judging "crimes of passion," especially where young women are concerned, no mercy was shown for Mlle. Germaine Lefevre, 18 years old, who shot and killed her soldier lover, Auguste Godet, in a quarrel. Evidence showed that Germaine wanted a new hat to suit her bobbed hair. Auguste refused to buy it and she shot him. The jury sentenced her to death on the guillotine.

Unusual Autographs Discovered in Mantua

MANTUA, Nov. 23—A collection of precious autographs, calculated to delight an autograph collector, has just been discovered at Mantua in the archives of the Gonzaga library. Among the famous autographs come to light are the signatures of Rubens, Lucrezia Borgia, Titian, Tasso, Ariosto, Palestrina and Galilei. Besides these, holograph letters by Bellini, the composer of "Norma," Giulio Romano, Pietro Perugino, Andrea Mantegna and Claude Monteverde have been discovered.

FIREMAN KILLED

NEW YORK, Nov. 25—Two fire engines collided last night in Brooklyn, killing one fireman, and injuring two others.

A Pimpley Face Is Unsightly

Miss C. O. M. Smart, South Battleford, Sask., writes—"A while ago I was troubled with facial blemishes, especially pimples, and was really ashamed to go out with such a bad looking face.

I tried 2 or 3 different remedies, but they didn't help me any, so one day a friend, who had been troubled the same as I was, advised me to use

After I had taken two bottles there wasn't a pimple of any kind left on my face, and I now have a clear, smooth and velvety complexion." Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

She Could Never Do The Things Other Girls Did

Miss I. J. Ross, Scollard, Alta., writes—"I am only twenty years old, but have suffered from heart palpitation and nerve trouble for several years. I could never do the things other girls did, that is, in the line of sports, skating, etc., and could never depend on myself at work. About six months ago I began taking and am just twice the girl I was, and can enjoy everything in general life so much more. I am very grateful for what your Pills have done for me." Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

There's BROWNATONE, the vegetable preparation as harmless as water to hair and scalp that will quickly tint gray, faded or bleached hair any shade. It's so easy to use that you can apply it yourself, at home. The color is lasting and will not rub off or wash out. WOMAN WOODED WITH THOUSAND LETTERS

Starts Suit For $50,000 Damages Against Writer of Epistles

NEW YORK, Nov. 26—Mrs. Rhea Weingarten, who owns several women's wear shops in Milwaukee, Wis., and Minneapolis, Minn., is suing William N. McGovern of Milwaukee, 53, salesmanager of a large hosiery concern, for $50,000 damages, alleging breach of promise to marry. He sent her, she said, 1000 letters and telegrams during the period of their friendship, which began in August, 1919, when she met him at the Waldorf-Astoria. They became engaged in December, 1920, she added. A year later she found he was already married, but on his promise that he would obtain a divorce and marry her their friendship was resumed. But when he returned from Europe last year his attitude towards her was cold, she said. The suit has been filed in the Supreme Court here.

PREPARE WELCOME TO CHIEF OF SCOUTS

Leaders Have Conference—Dr. James W. Robertson to be Here Saturday

There were 28 present at a Scout leaders' conference held last night in Trinity Sunday school. Scoutmaster Charles E. Upham was in charge of the serving of an excellent supper. Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence paid a tribute to the Scout leaders and their work in the community. He gave a special praise to Mr. Upham and to E. A. Schofield as Scout leaders.

A regular Scout meeting was held and there was a general discussion of local problems in scouting. L. L. Johnson, district secretary, gave a talk on what a troop committee man could do. Plans were made for the coming of the chief commissioner, Dr. James W. Robertson, who will arrive in the city on Saturday and will be met by a Scout delegation. He is to address a gathering of Scouts and Wolf Cubs with their parents and the general public, and a program of Scout activities will be given on that occasion.

Bank Discusses Question of Automobile and Economy

The November letter of the American Exchange-Pacifi National Bank, New York, prints the following on "The Automobile and Economy":

"To those who consider the automobile a luxury which through its appeal to the millions threatens to nip national thrift in the bud and turn us back toward extravagant ways, the addition during the year of 4,000,000 new cars brings fresh doubts as to our sanity and fears for our well-being. All of the criticism leveled at the automobile by those who look upon it as economically destructive is not disinterested, but some of it is; a good part of it is plain unreasoned and uninformed opinion which is without substantial basis in logic or fact. In the first place, while it might have been so considered when it was younger, the automobile can no longer be regarded, strictly speaking, as a luxury. The luxury use of the automobile of today is largely secondary; it is primarily an instrument of utility, whether in the service of the delicatessen keeper who uses his sedan as a truck or of the housewife who uses it as a vehicle for her bundles gathered on shopping tours, or in the service of the farmer who uses it to cut distances, save time and generally to support a condition of life which before the coming of the automobile was generally reputed to be well-nigh insupportable.

"The automobiles which you see clustered about industrial plants, around rising building structures, and along the roadside where new construction is under way, do not belong to the plant executives, the boss contractors or the road superintendents; they belong to the men in the blue denim shirts, the mechanics and day laborers. They are there because they are the means of transportation which the workers have elected to utilize; rightly or wrongly, extravagantly or wisely, they are being utilized.

ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE.

"But aside from its value, the automobile has come to be a factor of the first importance in support of the general economic structure. Instead of being the competitor for purchasing power which producers of other goods believe it to be, the automobile is actually a creator of purchasing power, a maker of business for all producers. Common observation teaches us the trade-building value of new enterprise, of new building, of new railroad or highway construction. Similarly, we speak of buying of new equipment by the railroads and increased exports as the "back-logs" of trade. When there is a lull in any of these fields, we feel it in general trade; when there is no activity in any of them, there is no trade anywhere.

"The difference between good times and hard times is the difference between full employment of labor and minimum employment of labor. Times are good when there is a job for every man and a man for every job. They are bad when there are more men than jobs. Any industry which gives employment to hundreds of thousands of workers by that fact alone takes a front position in the order of economic importance.

"The direct ramifications of the automobile trade touch nearly every important basic industry, they reach to the steel maker, the cotton grower, the lumberman, the rubber planter, the oil producer, the cattleman, the paint manufacturer, the glass blower, the coal miner, and the transportation services. The automobile adds to real estate values, increasing the demand for floor space for show rooms, garages, hotels, restaurants, filling stations and roadside lunch stands. It builds bank balances, adds to insurance funds and has raised up an entirely new system of financing. Think of the thousands of people whose employment is directly dependent upon the automobile. The purchasing power of these people, which but for the automobile would not exist at all, more than makes up for any loss of business to other caterers to the public as a result of the personal economies of individual owners of automobiles.

"If the automobile really upset or tended to discourage habits of thrift, with the effect of pauperizing any considerable number of persons in their old age, it would be open to condemnation regardless of its value as a prop to the general economic structure. But it is doubtful if the automobile is open to that charge—in the final analysis the charge against the automobile under this head is that extravagantly

Ten-Pound Potato On Mississippi Farm

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 25—B. M. Whittington, a farmer living near Gloster, Amite county, brought the production of one sweet potato vine grown on his small farm into Gloster to convince his skeptical friends that he was in earnest when he boasted about his record crop of yams.

The four potatoes were placed on the scales separately and the largest one weighed ten pounds which is believed to be a record for the county and probably for the whole country.

RIOTS QUELLED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 26—Disturbances in Erzerum Armenia, by fanatical reactionaries against the Turkish revolution, are reported from Angora. A state of siege has been proclaimed, and the local authorities have put down the riots.

Inclined people are spending their money for automobiles instead of for other things."

MARKET STRONG
AT OPENING

Activity, However, Is Confined to Fewer of Leading Issues

Canadian Press.
MONTREAL, Nov. 26.—The local stock market was quite strong at its opening this morning, but activity was mainly confined to a few of the leaders. National Breweries was the most active issue, with a turnover of a thousand shares and touched a new high for the current movement, at 53, up 8-4, later easing fractionally. Next to Breweries came Consolidated Steel, which rose 1/4 to 103 1/2, in fairly heavy trading. It receded 1/2, however, in the first 12 minutes. The other leader was Brazilian, which gained 1/2 to 75 1/4. Atlantic Sugar was firm at 32 1-8, up 3-4, as was also Abitibi at 69, up 3-4, and St. Maurice Paper at 109 1/2, up the fraction. The only other stocks to put in an appearance, were Dominion Textile, which sold unchanged at 86, and Empire Steel common, also the same at 23-4.

Rev. A. F. Robb Gives Address on Korea at St. David's Service

The annual thanksgiving service of St. David's W. M. S. was held last evening in the schoolroom of the church, with Mrs. George Younger, president, in the chair. The meeting was largely attended and the members heard a very interesting talk on Korea, given by Rev. A. F. Robb, missionary on furlough from the Korean field. Solos were sung by Mrs. Blake Ferris and Mrs. J. M. Baries. A social hour was also enjoyed as Rev. Mr. Robb, who is a Saint John man, was renewing old acquaintances among the members. Refreshments were served by the social committee. A substantial amount was realized from a special offering.

PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE OPENS TONIGHT AT BOSTON

"RED" STUART IS EXPECTED TO SHOW UP WELL

Pittsburgh Lineup Composed Mostly of Former Amateurs

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The National Hockey League's winter schedule for 1925-26 will be set in motion at the Arena here tonight with the Pittsburgh Pirates, new entry into the league, make their debut to the professional hockey world in the inaugural tilt with the Boston Bruins.

When the referee's whistle calls the opposing sextettes to center ice for the face-off of the opening match it will also pry the lid from a brotherly battle of captaincy wits. The Pirates will be led into the fray by Manager Odie Cleghorn and to meet the rush, Sprague Cleghorn, captain of the Boston team says he will pit the best his rugged Bruins have to offer.

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—The Montreal Canadiens, a team which has been insured for $150,000, was learned today.

Another angle to the controversy raging throughout Canada with regard to what rules shall obtain universally in girls' basketball is given in a letter here to W. E. Sterling, vice-president of the M. P. B., from J. H. Crocker, prominent athletic leader, and read at the letter's organization meeting.

The women who are promoting basketball actively are thinking in very much against them, and I would strongly urge that any organization you have in the East that you would begin at the right end of it and recognize the physiological needs and be prepared to co-operate in a way so that you will feel your association is in the development of a national organization as well as the development of a game which will be in the best interests of the girls and women of the future.

"Mr. Race and the other western people may not see this viewpoint for some time, but I am confident that people most interested and those who are qualified to know will only authorize the use of women's rules."

"I sincerely trust that your organization will help us put this scheme across nationally."

"Excuse my haste in this reply, but you will hear from us later."

"Faithfully yours,"
"J. H. CROCKER,
"Secretary Department Physical Education."

Ottawa Team Is In Great Fettle For Game Against Queens Outfit

Along The Sport Trail
By JOHN J. DUNLOP

BACK in the neolithic days when men were men and women's chief occupation was being dragged around by their flowing locks (if we believe the movies), it was a young lady by the name of Eve who caused a lot of trouble by giving away to some apple-eating proclivities. The only trouble was that the lady forgot about the future. It's a far cry from Eve's day when they played basketball with bounding rocks to the present day when they play it with a globe of leather but unlike Eve, our girls think of the future and for a piece of long-headed thinking the decision of the Girls' Basketball League here to play in two sections, one playing modified boys' rules and the other playing strictly girls' rules, this decision, we maintain, is an excellent piece of business. Briefly stated, the situation that faced them was this—there is considerable confusion yet throughout Canada under what rules girls shall play and under what rules the championship will be decided. One favors modified boys' rules, others favor the sinopure girls' regulations. Instead of putting all their apples in a basket and taking the chance of being left out in the cold when the mythical crown is decided, our local girls will play both ends to the middle as it were and no matter what rules are in force, Saint John will have a team well-qualified to act. Could anything be more simple? This is a decision that will delight the heart of the politicians, who are adept at providing for the future—sometimes. The only danger is that we shall have two city championship teams but so long as the girls are satisfied, why shouldn't we? It's a case for Saint John of "heads we win, tails you lose." Trust a girl to think of an idea like this.

"BILL" KENYON, who played baseball here in the Two-I League a few years ago, now is signed on with the New York Giants professional football team. He will play against "Red" Grange's team a week from Sunday.

NEW YORK, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, four of the largest cities on this continent, are holding the skating classic which this winter put the biggest and best of all comes to a Canadian city, Saint John, N. B. While cities with populations running over the million mark vie with one another for these great winter meets, a little Canadian city of 60,000, tucked away up in the Maritime Provinces, walks away with the cream of the lot. It smacks somewhat of friend David and Goliath, does it not? And when it comes to putting on such a 'meat and getting the crowd out, it is dollars to doughnuts little old Saint John will lead the rest of the pack by several heats. Why is this? Mainly because there are so many diversified interests in such large cities but chiefly because this game came here long before you and I looked the nurse in the face. Nature has given us plenty of ice surface and the first present a boy gets around here on his first Christmas is a pair of skates. Is it any wonder we can develop such giants in the skating world? We have with us today right in our midst the fastest human being in the world on a pair of skates, indoor or outdoor, over the quarter-mile range, one of the most grueling tests of the entire program. Charlie Gorman's mark of 38 and 4-1/2, indoor, has been officially accepted and ranks alongside his mark of 36 and 1-1/2 for the outdoor surface. It is boys like Gorman who keep the spark alive and make our name great in the sporting world and they should be our first care. We must look to the future while recalling a glorious past.

COMMENTING on a recent fight in New York, a writer said that New York longshoremen furnished better bouts for nothing. What the longshore ladies need is a good press agent and a clever manager.

WITH several thousand people in attendance, Messrs. Sprague and Odie Cleghorn will stage a brotherly hockey act at the Boston Arena tonight in the opening game of the National Hockey League. There is enough inter-city rivalry between Pittsburgh and Boston to ensure a bumper house and even way up here we are interested in the game through the presence in the Bruins' lineup of William "Red" Stuart, stalwart defense man. Mr. Stuart had a tough job last winter by reason of illness but reports from Montreal where the team has been in training are to the effect that the same Mr. Stuart is going to have a great year in hockey circles. With Lionel Hitchman and Sprague Cleghorn to pair up with Stuart, Boston has an exceptionally strong defence and from this distance, it looks like a win for the Bruins tonight. But you never can tell. The New York club, which much much has been written, swings into action tonight at Windsor, Ont., against the much-mauled Victoria Cougars. After doing well at Montreal against the Maroons and Canadiens, the Cougars skidded a bit and have dropped four straight to Ottawa Senators and St. Pats. Maybe, New York will find them easy pickings and maybe they won't. The first game in New York is carded for December 11.

"Murderers' Row" Due For Comeback Next Season

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor
During their recent happy days in the American League big money, the New York Yankees were propelled principally by a powerful attack, featuring "Murderers' Row." When their chief murderer, Babe Ruth, started to get less brutal and savage with the bat, the whole row succumbed to the Babe, Bob Meusel, Lou Gehrig and function. Next season the Yankees are threatening with another array of long distance sluggers headed by the Babe, Bob Meusel, Lou Gehrig and the newcomer, Tony Lazzeri from the Pacific Coast. "There's enough power there to blow up plenty of ball games and crack the fences all around the circuit," Ed Barrow, business manager of the Yankees, said recently. Barrow thinks that the club is sure to be on top the next year. Lazzeri hit sixty homers in the Pacific Coast League last season and surpassed Ruth's record although he played in 220 games while the Babe's season is limited to 154 games or as many less as his physical condition requires. Several major league scouts, talking during the world's series, said that Lazzeri was a good natured slugger, but they pointed out that Salt Lake City was a fine place to hit in. "That Salt Lake City stuff is largely the last," Barrow said. "I never hit just about as many on the road as he did in Salt Lake City, and if we didn't think he'd hit in the American League we would not have bought him." There is no doubt that Babe Ruth can hit when he is in shape and there are reasons to believe that he will be in playing condition at the start of the next season. In company with Eddie Collins, Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush and several other American League stars, the Babe chased the elusive moose in the Canadian wilds and as there was nothing else to do at night but go to bed in the woods, the Babe ought to get himself into good condition. The row

Two Knockouts In Same Night

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 26.—Two knockouts in two cities within two hours were scored last night by George Gibbons, Cleveland middleweight.

Gibbons won a technical knockout at Barberton, over Frankie Klaus, Akron, when the referee stopped the bout in the first round. He then raced about 25 miles to Canton, where he knocked out Billy Hirsch, of that city, in four rounds.

ST. PATS LOOK WELL PLAYING COUGARS

Toronto Hockey Team Takes Second Game and Play is Swift

TORONTO, Nov. 26.—St. Pats of Toronto proved that their first victory in the two game exhibition series with the Victoria Cougars was no fluke, when they repeated last night, 10 to 5 in a fast clean game in which both teams started and maintained a fast pace. The speed was remarkable for early season.

Outstanding performer, The speedy wing player scored four of the 10 goals, while "Happy" Day was responsible for two. Pierre Bellefleur, former London amateur, showed up very well.

Frederick Johnson again proved a tower on Black's alleys last night, Team No. 2 won all four points from Team No. 1. The scores follow:

WALKER TROUNCES FRIEDMAN SOUNDLY

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 26.—Mickey Walker, of Elizabeth, N. J., retains his title as world's welterweight champion after a successful defense last night against Sallor Friedman, in a 12 round bout. Although New Jersey prohibits decisions, Walker won the verdict of newspaper men, outlasting the challenger in nearly every round.

In a preliminary scheduled ten round bout, Jack Rappaport, welterweight, won from Sergeant Sammy Baker, of Mitchell Field, on a foul in the second round. Joe De Filippo and Joe Horbelt, featherweights, went six rounds to a draw.

Walker weighed in at 146½ and Friedman at 143 pounds. The first round was pointed to little more than a warning up, but action was rapid in the second, with Walker pressing the challenger hard after a furious onslaught by Friedman.

IS SENT TO ROPES
Friedman attack again in the third, but was promptly knocked to the ropes. The fourth round was Walker's and in the fifth the challenger had dropped into a purely defensive role. The champion was chasing Friedman around the ring in the sixth and Friedman, spurred by the booring crowd, rallied feebly to the seventh and eighth. Walker missed a couple of blows in the ninth, nearly throwing himself out of the ring, and in the tenth Friedman hardly held his own, the round ending in a clinch. The challenger slipped to the floor twice in the two final rounds, but recovered quickly and fought desperately. Walker had driven Friedman to a corner when the twelfth round ended.

A newspaper vote gave Walker the first ten rounds, and the last two draws.

Crooked Jockey Is Ruled Out For Life

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 23.—Jockey Donald Mergler has confessed to Churchill Downs stewards that he received $1,000 from Jockey J. A. Mooney for pulling Bumpkin, a race horse owned by Frederick Johnson, of New York, from winning a race at Latonia this fall, the Kentucky State Racing Commission revealed last night.

Mooney has been ruled off the Kentucky turf for life and Mergler indefinitely suspended. Both jockeys are nationally known.

Suggs Expects To Meet Champion

Chick Suggs, New Bedford's great featherweight contender, expects to be selected to meet the winner of the Louis Kid Kaplan-Babe Herman fight for the world's championship at Madison Square Gardens this winter. Promoter Rickard has been after the negro for some time. In Tuesday night's fight at the Halifax Arena Suggs went through the ten rounds without receiving a scratch. After the bout Johnny Brown exhibited a badly swollen left hand, which he claimed he injured in the third round.

ST. PATS WON AGAIN

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 26.—St. Pats defeated the world's champions Victoria Cougars, 10-5, in a clean hockey match before a small crowd here last night.

EASTERN TITLE IS AT STAKE ON SATURDAY

Winner Will Meet Winnipeg Team on December 5

OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—In addition to grooming their team to the finest possible fighting pitch for Saturday's big game here with Queens on Saturday, Ottawa Rugby Club officials are leaving no stone unturned to have all attending arrangements letter perfect. The playing field at Lansdowne Park is being given special attention and a steam roller was at work practically all day today leveling the big surface. Automobile parking areas are being roped off and everything is being done to accommodate a record-breaking crowd.

Requests for reservations continue to arrive and if the weather holds anywhere near fair, the throng that enters the grounds on Saturday afternoon should be far in excess of any that has yet seen a game in Ottawa.

Meanwhile Senators are grinding along at top speed, two practices a day having been the rule since Monday. The double workout today found the entire squad on hand and the information picked up in Toronto by the scouts was worked on as far as possible. Interference and tackling are the two main items on which the coaches are concentrating and the men are working their heads off to perfect their styles.

The advent of the Queen's machine is being looked forward to with rare interest. The two-tractor team has been in operation since the season ago when Dave Harding was on the Ottawa backfield, and since then, except for occasional glimpses in Kingston and Montreal games, Hughes' club have not been seen in action by Ottawa fans. Their prowess is acknowledged, but at that there is a local feeling in evidence that they will have to show their very best rigy to defeat Ottawas at home.

Queen's ability to rise to their great heights of achievement is one of their greatest fortes and they are never beaten until the final whistle has blown. The Senators have shown, particularly in their two games with Tigers, that they can finish as fast and as hard as any other team, and they will be in there until the curtain goes down.

TROJANS ANNEX SECOND WIN, 64-21

I. team, showed a new brand of basketball by the Trojans under the direction of their new coach, and the team won by a score of 64 to 21. H. C. Hutton handled the whistle most satisfactorily.

Intermediate League
Two Intermediate League games were played previous to the senior game. The first game was won by the "Y Notes" over the St. Vincent High school by a score of 27 to 2. The second game the Y. M. H. A. defeated the St. Peter's by a score of 16 to 14.

Paints Portrait From Stage Box Sketch PARIS, Nov. 26.—A persistent American artist has outwitted Itaque Meller, the elusive scrota of the French stage. As Senorita Meller's own press agent will tell you, she hates publicity. She will not pose for photographers and smiles pityingly at an artist who suggests a few sittings of five hours each. But J. W. de R. Quistgaard, a young American artist, had set his heart upon painting the singer so, nothing daunted, he packed his brushes and tubes, engaged a box at the music hall where she appears nightly and calmly finished his sketch. Then finding a model who closely resembled the Spanish singer, he quickly expanded his sketch into a large portrait.

Removal of Hummock Will Give Docking Place for Larger Vessels

Commissioner Bullock reported this morning at a committee meeting of the City Council that the berth at the new pier was ready for potato shipments and that as soon as a hillock which had been found near the end of the Pettingill wharf was removed the city would have another deep water berth for grain vessels of deep draft.

REPORT ON BERTH

Commissioner Bullock presented a report from the city engineer on the depth of water at the new pier berth and Pettingill. The diver had not yet completed his examination of the face of the wharf, but from soundings taken he found that the depth of water ran from 18 feet 9 inches to 26 feet 7 inches in the area where the blasting operations had been carried on.

The report was ordered placed on file. In addition to the service to be held tomorrow in Trinity Church as a memorial to the late Queen Mother Alexandra, a second public memorial is to be held in Centenary United Church on Saturday morning from 11 until 12 o'clock.

Action Against William McGuire Ends in Circuit Court This Morning

In the Circuit Court this morning, the jury in the case of Margaret Durick vs. William McGuire, returned a verdict in which they found that there had been no breach of promise to marry on the part of the defendant. As to the question of assault they found that the defendant did not kick the plaintiff as alleged but was guilty of technical assault on his own admission.

QUESTIONS SUBMITTED. The questions left to the jury to decide and their findings were: 1. Q.—Did the plaintiff and defendant agree to marry? A.—No.

2. Q.—Did the defendant kick the plaintiff as alleged? A.—No.

3. Q.—What sum do you assess as damages in respect of the alleged promise to marry? A.—No damages.

4. Q.—What sum do you assess as damages in respect of the assault? A.—$10.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. At Wednesday afternoon's session Miss May Ralph corroborated the evidence given by her mother regarding the alleged assault, and this closed the case for the defendant.

The defendant on the stand emphatically denied having become engaged to marry Miss Durick. Regarding the matter of the assault in the house in Main street, he said that he had not kicked her as alleged but had merely grasped her by the arms and pushed her aside.

Evidence in corroboration of the latter part of his testimony was given by Miss Edna Walsh and F. Cullinan.

At the close of this case court adjourned until Wednesday next at 10.30.

MANY ASSEMBLE AT SERVICE IN CENTRAL

Spiritual Devotional Series Being Held—Pastor Speaks of Idea in Mind

The third of a series of devotional services held Sunday in Central Baptist Church last night under the leadership of Kenneth A. Wilson, assisted by Charles Downey. On Tuesday evening the meeting was conducted by the Philanthropic young ladies led by Mrs. W. Herbert Downey and Miss Rae Wilson. On Monday evening the newly organized Baptist Young People's Union was in charge under the chairmanship of Clarence McCully.

At the men's meeting last night the auditorium was filled to capacity. The musical features included a solo by Cecil E. Mersereau and a trio by Allan D. Barbour, Walter Chase and Charles Downey.

PASTOR IS PLEASED. Rev. James Dunlop gave an absorbing devotional study during which he observed that as the work of the church developed and divisional labor increased, general activity became decentralized, making it increasingly necessary for organized workers to meet at a common devotional centre.

In referring to the conduct of the meetings the pastor expressed his joy that the enlivened spirit of the church as a whole made such a gathering so successful. The Central Church body is showing remarkable loyalty and service and its generosity in giving, not only to the usual funds for maintenance and denominational work but for philanthropic causes was the largest in its history.

"In our social work," said Rev. Mr. Dunlop, "we are all so busy trying to do something that we often forget the first thing is to be something." The pastor's chief idea behind the devotional service, "We have numerous special meetings to win men to the church but in thinking of the sinner we oftentimes seem to forget the saint. It is essential to preserve the spiritual life of the worker for Christ as it is to win men to Christ."

Tonight the final meeting of the four-day series at Central will be conducted by the women.
