Give Up Completely or Germany Invaded

Washington Believes The Huns Must Accept

Only Absolute Surrender Will Prevent Allies Smashing Way Into Kaiser's Land

Believed That Wilson Has Placed It Beyond Germany's Power to Reap Any Benefit From Armistice Unless Fully Sincere

Washington, Oct. 15.—Unconditional surrender by Germany was the interpretation put on President Wilson's answer to the German plea for peace by both American and Allied military officials here today.

There is no doubt among officials that sooner or later the enemy will be compelled to accept these uncompromising terms.

Military opinion appeared to be in full agreement that in enunciating the policy that absolute safeguards and guarantees of the "present military supremacy" of American and Allied forces must control any armistice agreement, President Wilson had placed it beyond the power of Germany to reap any benefit from an insincere move toward peace.

The question of the agencies to be employed in framing armistice conditions naturally will come up only when Germany has complied with the president's other requirements. It seemed probable to officials, however, that the military board of the supreme war council at Versailles would be the natural agency.

London, Oct. 15.—The text of President Wilson's reply to the German peace offer, received through press channels, was placed in the hands of the British government early this morning.

The council met a little after eleven o'clock to consider the president's response.

Amsterdam, Oct. 15.—The German government has proposed to France that it should enter into an agreement with Germany to permit, at any rate a portion, of the population of Valenciennes to pass into the French lines, says an official statement from Berlin.

The Berlin government in making this proposal represented itself as unable to prevent the eastward flight of the population of Valenciennes owing to their fears that the Allies would bombard the town.

The proposal was made through the Swiss government.

London, Oct. 14.—America's failure to respond to the Austrian peace note has produced a painful impression in Austria, according to a Vienna despatch. It is not known what this silence means and the public is asking if President Wilson is not indicating sentiment little favorable toward the Austrian monarchy.

MAY BE SETTLED. There is a possibility of a compromise between the city and Kane & Ring on the claim which the contractors have against the city in connection with the work of reconstructing the wharf and warehouse at No. 5 berth, West St. John.

German Threat of U-Boat Warfare Crisis During Winter Amsterdam, Oct. 14.—There is good reason to believe that the German submarine warfare will reach a climax during the winter, according to the Rheinische Westphaelien Gazette, which says that it will produce an economic crisis of unanticipated dimensions in E-entente countries.

ROULERS FIRST OF IMPORTANT BELGIAN TOWNS TO BE RECOVERED

Allied Blow in Belgium On Anniversary of Jena

Belgian King in Command

Paris, Monday, Oct. 14.—Roulers has been taken by the Allies. This city before the war numbered 25,000 inhabitants, and is the first important Belgian town from which the Germans have been driven.

This morning, on the anniversary of the battle of Jena, which was fought on Oct. 14, 1806, the battle flamed up along the Flanders front, and the first day's progress gives reason for high hopes.

Under the command of King Albert of Belgium the British, Belgian, and French armies attacked at 6:30 o'clock.

There was no artillery preparation, but the troops advanced under cover of a creeping curtain of fire of extreme power.

Following the gales which have been blowing for several days, the weather turned fine, and the troops progressed methodically and in a most satisfactory manner. Machine gun nests were forced to surrender one after another, and at 6 o'clock tonight the advance amounted to four miles in the direction of Courtrai.

Nearly 10,000 prisoners have already been counted, and a large number of machine guns.

Two Miles From Courtrai. London, Oct. 15.—Belgian troops are on the outskirts of Menin and are withdrawing the British and French.

The Allies also are in effective artillery range of the railway from Lille to Courtrai, and two and a half miles in the direction of Thourout for the Belgians.

To the French, in the centre of the line, fell the honor of capturing the city of Roulers, and four miles toward Thiel for the French, and two and a half miles in the direction of Thourout for the Belgians.

Explosion in Ontario T. N. T. and Gunotton Plants Destroyed — Only One Man Known to Have Been Killed

Trenton, Ont., Oct. 15.—Mayor Ireland issued the following statement late last night: "Only one man is known to have been killed in an explosion which occurred at the British explosives works this evening.

Reports from the local hospital indicate that but very few people were injured. All windows in the town were smashed by concussion.

"The explosion completely destroyed the T. N. T. and gun cotton plants. About 2,500 people are employed by the company, and most of these will be thrown out of employment.

"The civic authorities at Kingston offered to dispatch to our assistance a special train of supplies, with doctors and nurses on board, but we found they were quite unnecessary, as the local hospital is able to care for all the injured.

"The first explosion occurred about 7:10, said to be the result of a fire. It did little damage, and the night shift of employees were able to make their escape. Twelve or thirteen other explosions followed in quick succession."

LATER. Trenton, Ont., Oct. 15.—With not a single fatality so far as is at present known, all the manufacturing portion of the British Explosives Ltd., plant of the British Explosives Ltd., was destroyed by fire and explosions between 7:30 last night and 6:30 this morning.

MIGHTY SMASH BY ALLIES BREAKS THE HUN RESISTANCE

French, British and Belgians in Attack in Flanders; Germans Reported Withdrawing Material From Remainder of Coast

With the British Army in Belgium, Oct. 14.—(Monday, by the Associated Press, 9 p. m.)—Enemy resistance in Flanders, which at first appeared to be exceedingly heavy, is reported to have been broken. After advance of the British, French and Belgians today there were indications that the enemy was withdrawing the remainder of his material from the coast of Belgium.

As is customary during the hours following the launching of an attack in this difficult country, reports were slow coming in, but most significant of all the features of the battle was the fact that the German coast batteries were not fired.

Only a thin enemy barrage was encountered by the British during their attack. South of Lichtervelde the British have driven well to the east. They have passed through Roulers and are still advancing. They are also operating quite a distance east of the Menin-Roulers road.

HINDENBURG HIMSELF BACK OF ACCEPTANCE OF WILSON'S TERMS

Washington, Oct. 15.—It was Hindenburg himself and not Prince Maximilian who caused the German government to accept President Wilson's peace terms, according to a dispatch which reached Washington today through official sources.

PLAN TO ENLARGE THE SHIPYARDS

Grant & Horne are preparing to enlarge their shipyards and embark upon a shipbuilding programme of great dimensions, provided they can make satisfactory arrangements with regard to the site.

The land upon which the shipyards are located is owned by C. H. Peters' Sons, Ltd., and the shipbuilding firm has arranged to purchase the site. The barrier in the way of the completion of their plans is a claim which the city has maintained regarding the ownership of a portion of this land and, as the firm seeks a clear title before completing the purchase, an appeal has been made to city hall.

It is expected that the matter will come before the common council this afternoon when representatives of the firm will be heard.

If their plans go through successfully, it is the intention of Grant & Horne to lay down another keel immediately and proceed with the construction of a new schooner while they are completing the second which now is well under way.

A LITTLE BETTER CONDITIONS TOO SERIOUS. Rev. H. E. Bennett, acting priest in charge of the Mission church, St. John Baptist, Paradise row, received word from Montreal this morning that J. V. Young's condition is very serious, but that there was a slight improvement this morning.

In today's Ottawa list appear the names of G. J. Arsenault, R. G. Allen, S. Carson, A. Moran, D. Deroche, Reg. Sgt.-Major G. A. Biddecombe, all St. John men, all wounded.

gun cotton and nitration plants were reached by the fire. In the meanwhile a general exodus of citizens who could find convenient exits here for Belleville commenced, but the worst was over: out of 11 o'clock last night.

The administration building, the acid plant and the Y. M. C. A., were badly shaken but are still standing, although the employees of the night shift to get away to safety before it blew up with a detonation which shook the town to its foundations. This explosion was followed by nine other explosions as was lowered by nine other explosions as was

MAKE ADVANCE TOWARD RETHEL

French Also Have Captured Monteuil-sur-Aisne — Gains Elsewhere

Paris, Oct. 15.—French troops have made an important advance toward the important town of Rethel and have captured the town of Monteuil-sur-Aisne, two and one-half miles west of Rethel.

In the Argonne the French have reached the Aisne west of Grand Pre and have captured the villages of Oilly and Ternas. Nearly 600 prisoners were taken in this region.

South of the Serre the French also have made a marked advance. The villages of Reuilly, Barenton, Col and Monceau-Le-Wast have been taken.

London, Oct. 15.—Raiding operations on several points of the British front, notably near Sainghin-En-Weppe, south-west of Lille, are reported by Field Marshal Haig in his official statement today. Prisoners were taken by the British.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 15.—(Noon, by the Associated Press)—Troops were brought into action by Americans today to break a way through the enemy wire entanglements west of Romagne.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The French statement of last night reads: "From east of the Meuse we have occupied Monceau-Les-Leups and are about one kilometre south of Auzan-Sur-Serre, in co-operation with the Italian we have captured and passed Sisonne."

In spite of lively resistance we have made progress on the north bank of the Aisne and have carried our line beyond the villages of La Malmaison, Les Leups and St. Germainmont. In the region of Asfeld we have crossed the Aisne at several points north of Blancy."

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 14, 10 a. m.—(By the Associated Press)—The American troops west of the Meuse are now beyond Courtrai. Their patrols are in the Bois De Bantheville. Further west the American line has reached St. Georges and Landres-Et-St. Georges.

More of the Line Taken. With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 14.—(Monday, 7 a. m. by the Associated Press)—From east of the Meuse to the vicinity of Grand Pre, American forces chopped a series of fresh notches in the German line today. They kept up their swinging blows at the enemy from early this morning until late afternoon. While the Germans resist with grim determination, their decision to hold till the last portion of the line before the Americans may open the way to swift disaster.

Although the action extended to the eastward bank of the Meuse, the most savage fighting took place about Romagne and to the westward, where the enemy is striving to maintain that section of the Kriemhild line running north-westward from Romagne. The battle has been in and over the wire entanglements before this defensive position. Hanging on the wire tonight are Germans whose equipment bears evidence that another fresh division has been brought up to meet the steady pressure of the Americans.

Heavy clouds and rain prevented air-men from giving material assistance during the attack. In spite of the drizzle, however, several flying craft did get over the line late in the day, and contributed somewhat to the success of the advance, notwithstanding the low visibility.

The German artillery made a liberal use of gas shells in their defensive, and both mustard and lethal shells were hurled, but the Americans were not hampered in their general operations.

MORE THAN 600 BODIES RECOVERED

Probably Death List in Minnesota Fires Will be Larger by 300 or 400 Names

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 15.—More than 600 bodies of people burned to death in the forest fires which swept over northeastern Minnesota on last Saturday had been recovered today and it was expected the number would be increased by 300 and possibly 400 when the entire devastated district has been searched.

Effort is being made to save live stock wandering through the burned district.

So far as the forest fire is concerned, there is little likelihood of further damage, but a soaking rain will be required before the menace is entirely removed.

Increase of 30 In City This Morning

CLIMAX NOT YET REACHED

Appeal to Public to Take All Precautions Emphasized, Though Officials do Not Regard Number of Cases as of Panic Size, in Proportion to Population

One hundred and eighty-five cases of influenza is the number reported at the local board of health offices up to this date. This is an increase of thirty cases since the last report was made public through the morning edition.

While the spread of the malady is quite rapid and the increase in twenty-four hours quite substantial, still health officials are sure there is no cause for panic or alarm as the proportion of cases in relation to the city's population is not such as to cause concern.

In the primary rules of bodily health, the observance of the oft-repeated preventive measures and the general hold-up of all public gatherings, the disease should soon reach its climax and then gradually decline.

Statement by Hon. Dr. Roberts. Hon. W. F. Roberts, M. D., minister of health, feels that so far as St. John is concerned the crisis of the influenza epidemic has not been reached. In other sections of his jurisdiction the malady has reached its high-water mark and is receding, but the most populous centres are yet, it is felt, to experience the highest number of cases and perhaps the top rate of mortality.

This is not by any means a prediction or an inevitable sequence, however, merely a deduction born of the experiences of other communities in the United States and Canada.

"Still," Doctor Roberts says, "this higher percentage of cases can most aptly be avoided if the general public will but listen to the repeated warnings of their physicians and the experts and officials on both sides of the boundary line. The precautionary measures are the simplest most homely character, and include:—

Keep well. Eat three substantial meals daily, no fancy foods. Go to bed early and regularly so as not to debilitate the system by late resting. Keep the bowels open and regular, carrying off impurities which often disseminate fertile soil.

Make this precautionary regime an individual matter and you will save yourself, your family and your friends and in a large measure avert a general epidemic with inevitably fatal results.

Furthermore, don't worry and think you are ill. Mental "sickness" means a poor fighting morale.

If attacked by the ordinary symptoms of cold or influenza, treat them promptly and referably. Isolate yourself in a private room and hang a disinfected sheet in the doorway. One special member of the household should attend you until the cold is broken up and you are well enough to leave your room. This is how you can escape the worst phases of the epidemic with its pneumonia accompaniment. At the situation the worst cases are only slight colds; it is neglected that makes them Spanish influenza.

Hon. Dr. Roberts says that if the new Health Act officials had had sufficient time fully to organize every small section of the province before this sudden sweep of the worst malady in years many of the isolated "nests" of the disease would not have developed. Today he received word that in a lumber camp in York county forty men were sick with the new disease, one of whom died while being brought out to a clearing. The whole camp is prostrated. Dr. Desmond, one of the Health Act district supervisors, is now in charge there under the minister's explicit instructions to stick to the job until it is cleared up, or leave other professional assistance where he be needed more seriously elsewhere.

Under the Health Act, had time allowed the full introduction of its demands, the chief of this lumber camp would have to report the first case of influenza and then quarantine it and keep it quarantined until government doctors inspected the situation.

In the lumber camp mentioned the only way doctors and nurses can reach the stricken men is by horseback over a woodland logging road twenty-five miles long.

"We want trained nurses and just plain old-fashioned household nurses in the very worst way," the health minister said this afternoon. "In various parts of the province where mothers and fathers are lying seriously ill, the little ones are suffering for care and attention, as well as the patients. The great need is for women with big hearts and minds who will volunteer for this work. No better kind of wartime work can be done than combating the progress of this new disease right at home here."

It is understood that the V. A. D. workers under Mrs. G. A. Knudsen are deliberating upon their action in this epidemic. The health ministry is very willing to accept their services unconditionally, as this is the only practical manner in which to fight the epidemic.

Rockefeller Tells Catholics of Plans for Soldiers' Comfort

More than 300 members of the National Catholic War Council of the archdiocese of New York met last week in the Hotel McAlpin to arrange for the participation of the Knights of Columbus in the United War Work Drive for $170,000,000 which will start next month.

Auditory Bishop Hayes, William P. Leahy, director of the foreign department of the knights, read a report which disclosed that the organization had collected up to date $11,738,000, of which New York had contributed $4,400,000.

Mr. Rockefeller got an enthusiastic reception when Bishop Hayes introduced him to give the details of the non-sectarian drive.

It has been calculated by experts that twenty-five cents a day is needed to give comfort to each of the 4,000,000 men in our armies.

Others who spoke were Bishop Patrick J. Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., and Mgr. John J. Dunn of New York.

A head-on collision took place yesterday afternoon between two automobiles driven by J. Howard Ellis and Albert Kindred, near Tilton's Corner, Lancaster Heights. Both cars were quite badly damaged.

Orders now in the factory, the statement said, were for spring delivery, so it follows that there will be a certain portion of the product offered for sale to the spring trade at a price in excess of $12.

There is no restriction placed by the War Industries Board on the sale or purchase of the high priced shoes.

New York, Oct. 14.—Edwin W. De Leon, fifty years old, an insurance broker, with offices at 123 William street, shot and killed himself in the law office of Nash Rockwood, 327 Fifth avenue.

As the sun of life sinks toward the west

Life has been said to consist of a constant succession of breakdowns and repairs.

In old age, the former predominate. The body machine is more or less worn out.

Hence, constipation is particularly perilous. Constipation means more than mere failure of the bowels to move regularly and thoroughly.

But the Nujol Treatment for Constipation is not only safe, it is in every way efficient.

Nujol softens and keeps perfectly moist the intestinal waste.

Nujol makes it easy for the intestinal muscles to act, and prevents them from overwork.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark.

WINNING THE WAR.

By food preservation.
By wheat transportation.
By this is how we are winning the war.
By preserving in cans.
By transporting in vans.
We can save all the food in the store.
By sending to our boys over there.
Who are ready to do and dare.
We're proud of our boys at the front.
Who of war are bearing the brunt.
We always send them Christmas boxes
But to the Germans, who are sly foxes,
And are trying to keep them away;
But they'll surely reach them some day.

Some in the hospitals are lying,
Who have done their bit and are dying;
But the Germans, who are sly foxes,
And are giving them a black
All the electricians
Are hastening to their missions;
Those in the air are good old sports,
Making plans of the German forts.

Behind the guns there are fifty men,
But after a battle perhaps not ten;
Oh yes! we are going to win this war
By men at the front and food at the store.
Those at home who sit down and knit
They are also doing their bit.
The boys who are working at the soil
Nearly all day long have hard to toil.
Of course we are going to win this war
And beat the Germans more and more.

Great Britain, Belgium, Canada and France
Will make the Kaiser do a pretty dance;
Serbia, United States and Italy too,
All waiting for a piece of the Kaiser's shoe.
It will be divided, Wil Germany,
And the Kaiser go down on bended knee
To all the nations mentioned before,
And we are winning, are winning the war.
—Helen Louise Smith,
Elm street, St. Stephen.

Some Views Respecting Conductors' Clothes, and Other Peoples. (Newark News.)

We have been asked to say something about the uniforms of the conductors on the street cars of this city. It is complained that some of them wear black suits, and some of them blue suits, and some of them khaki suits. It is pointed out that there are conductors who wear long skirts, conductors in short skirts, conductors in black shoes, brown shoes, high shoes, low shoes, high heels and low heels, and that all the conductors wear caps too big for them. We promptly refused, holding that what anybody, man or woman wear, so long as it is within decent limits, is directly his or her business. Anyhow, the conductors can wear whatever they please and still stand comparison with some of the conductors who wear

COCONUTS

(The Wall Street Journal)

What was formerly used chiefly by the "gorilla artillery" of the tropical wilds as a means of offense against introducing prospectors now turns out to be an essential in our high developed warfare of today. We are not, as might be supposed, asked to conserve the meat of the coconut, but eat it plentifully, so that the candy may have the shells, the substance of which is used in gas masks. Candy makers are allowed to urge coconut candy upon us. And the gorilla truthfully says: "General Pershing has nothing on us."

Administration Of Pensions

Clearing up Knotty Points—Subject of "Prospective Dependency" Discussed

As the casualty list grows and concurrently the necessity for a fuller knowledge and better understanding of the legislation in force to provide for returned incapacitated soldiers and sailors, and their dependents, becomes increasingly evident. The following notes relate to the work of the board of pension commissioners.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

When Constipated or Bilious Give California Syrup of Figs

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act listless, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomachache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a bottle of California Syrup of Figs, which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.

GIRLS' PAINS AND WEAKNESS Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of Girls Benefited

St. Louis, Mo.—"When I was only fifteen years old mother had to put me to bed every month for two weeks because I suffered such pain. I also suffered from a weak nervous system and mother took me to a doctor but he did not help me. Finally mother made me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has made me strong and healthy. So when mother or I hear any woman complaining we tell them about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for me."—Mrs. JOHN FRANK, 1121 N. 18th St., St. Louis, Mo.

Girls who suffer as Mrs. Frank did should not hesitate to give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, as the evidence that is constantly being published proves beyond question that this grand old remedy has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine.

of some pensioners to believe that their pensions, once awarded, will not be reduced or discontinued in the event of their obtaining good salaried positions, no matter how lucrative such positions may be. It should be clearly understood that the pension payable to a soldier or sailor is awarded because the soldier or sailor, by the fact of his disability, has earned the payment of a debt to himself. His pension will not be reduced or discontinued if he is, or has become, self-supporting. It is the extent of the disability which alone is considered. The pensions payable to the widows and children on account of the death of a soldier are also paid whether such persons are self-supporting or not. On the other hand pensions payable to the parents, or persons in the place of a parent of a soldier or sailor, are awarded to provide subsistence for such persons, and will be reduced or discontinued as soon as these persons are, or may become, self-supporting.

There are certain cases in which a pension will not be granted. It is a basic principle of law that compensation is not to be paid to a person who has been injured or dies as the result of his own fault or negligence. This principle applies in pension law, and the soldier who has suffered incapacity through his own fault or negligence will not be pensionable. It is also a principle that no responsibility attaches to a person with respect to any injury caused to some other person, by some event or agency quite unconnected with the former. So also no government can be held responsible for any injury caused to a soldier by some agency which cannot be imputed to his service in the military forces.

When the magnitude of the task with which the board of pension commissioners is dealing is considered, it will be readily understood that cases of dissatisfaction with which the board finds itself powerless to cope are bound to occur. Chief among these is the case of "prospective dependency."

Remedial legislation, in respect of this subject is, however, under consideration, and the board of pension commissioners before long expects to be in a position to dispose satisfactorily of cases of this nature. In explanation of what is meant by "prospective dependency," it may be stated that in the meaning of the pension act "dependent" is taken to mean any person who was wholly, or mainly supported by the soldier or sailor at the time of his death. A "prospective dependent," therefore, would be one who was not wholly or mainly supported by the soldier or sailor at the time of his death, but who subsequently is likely to lose his or her means of support, and her son for support had been lived. As an illustration a case has been brought to the attention of the board of pension commissioners of a widowed mother who has supported herself for some years by working in a factory, but by reason of failing health and the approach of old age she will, before long, find it impossible to retain her present position or obtain other employment. She had a son who did not contribute to her support, but to whom in the ordinary course of events she would have looked for support in her declining years. This son, however, was called to the colors, and has since been killed in action, so that the mother has been deprived of what in the future would undoubtedly have been her sole support. Under the existing regulations the board of pension commissioners is powerless to make an award in such cases, but under the proposed new legislation relief will probably be available.

With regard to remedial legislation many cases have come to the notice of the board of pension commissioners in which pensioners have apparently been in the ordinary course of events she would have looked for support in her declining years. This son, however, was called to the colors, and has since been killed in action, so that the mother has been deprived of what in the future would undoubtedly have been her sole support. "If I Could Only Be Strong and Healthy Like Other Girls."

THIS is the longing of the girl who is pale, weak and anemic. She is lacking in energy and strength, and is so easily tired out that she does not feel like taking outdoor exercise or joining others in social gatherings. The healthy, happy outdoor girls get in the way of leaving her to herself, and she gets lonely, discouraged and despondent. The source of trouble is in the condition of the blood, which has become thin and watery, and utterly lacking in nutritive qualities. The anemic condition is shown in the pallor of the lips, the gums and the eyelids, as well as in the pale face and angular form. Nature has provided for the purifying of the blood by having it sent to the lungs periodically to come in contact with the fresh air and take up new oxygen. Unfortunately this plan of nature has been defeated by human beings living too much indoors and breathing over and over again the vitiated air of ill-ventilated rooms. This is the usual cause of anemia, as well as a reason for its continuation. The blood gets ever thinner and more watery, until the human system is literally starved.

The digestive system has failed, and your health must go naturally downhill until you can find some means of restoration. Fortunately, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food furnishes the vital substances needed for regenerating the entire organism when in a run-down condition. Gradually and certainly the building-up process is established, and the pure, rich blood created in the system carries health and strength to every part of the body. Weakness and disease, the cause of discouragement, failure and unhappiness, give place to new hopes, new confidence and stronger determination to succeed. The appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, and you find yourself enjoying your meals and taking a new interest in life. As you gain in strength and energy you feel encouraged to keep up the use of this restorative treatment until thoroughly restored to health. The rosy cheeks and healthful appearance of people who have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is its strongest recommendation, and accounts for its ever-increasing popularity. It is for sale by all dealers, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, or by mail from Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy.

Various instances were given of low salaries in various branches, and one of the spokesmen told how an accountant in one of the departments left the service, joined the staff of a bank, and secured $600 increase in a few weeks. "That shows he was a fool to have been in the service," asserted Mr. Maclean. Part-Timers Excluded. To another question by the minister, E. F. Drake, vice-president of the Ottawa branch, said that those who, in the outside service, only gave part of their time to the government, would not be included.

THE CIVIL SERVICE AND THE GOVERNMENT

The Interview of Delegation in Ottawa—Remarks by Ministers

(Montreal Gazette.) Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Urging relief from the high cost of living by means of a war bonus of $500, and incidentally asking that, for a limited period at least, a minister be assigned to deal with civil service matters and to be accessible to representations from the service, a large delegation of government employees waited upon the cabinet this afternoon. They represented all branches of the civil service, inside and out, and they put forward a strong case. Sir George Foster replied on behalf of his colleagues. To the proposal of having a minister delegated to deal with civil service matters, he seemed sympathetic, and intimated that that would likely be done. As to the bonus consideration was promised, and the service meanwhile is urged to exercise patience. Sir George intimated that parliament should be consulted on the matter of the bonus.

There was considerable discussion, but the ministers in town attending the conference, Frank Grierson of Ottawa, president of the Civil Service Federation of Canada, introduced the delegation. The lengthy memorial was read by L. D. Burling, secretary of the federation, in a pleasing and sensible manner. "You have asked for an immediate answer. There is no such thing. The government is not autocratic. We are founded on a constitutional basis. Parliament representing the people, has to be reckoned with. You may say this is wartime, but you cannot get away from the principle that parliament places the money in the hands of the government. It is not the part of the government to make votes without parliament's authorization, and I want you to exercise a little patience. I think I can promise you this—that the country does not want people to give up for less than a living wage."

"Can't you give us an answer by the 20th?" asked Mr. Grierson. "Trust us," said Sir George, "to give you a reply as soon as possible."

Catarrh Of The Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind, and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician. Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisaurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the Bisaurated Magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisaurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisaurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisaurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc. but get it in the pure Bisaurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

Nuxated Iron helps put astringent strength and energy into the veins of men and bring roses to the cheeks of pale, nervous, run-down women," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician at Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.) N. Y. and Westchester County Hospital. "I prescribe it regularly in cases of depleted energy, anemia and lack of strength and endurance. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to quickly enrich the blood, make beautiful, healthy women and strong vigorous iron men." Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

"The introduction of Peps, the famous, new breathable remedy for coughs, colds and chest troubles, has revolutionized the treatment of these ailments." "Previously, when suffering from any of these, it was customary to dose oneself with drugs which were not only harmful, but practically useless, because, being generally in liquid form, they did not reach the lungs and chest, but the stomach." "Thinking people, long ago, realized that any remedy that was to reach the lungs direct must be in a breathable form, but of a better treatment the old-fashioned method of swallowing liquids into the stomach continued until science overcame the difficulty by producing Peps. Peps is a breathable medicine in tablet form and the new Peps treatment is so simple and inexpensive that it is within the reach of all." "You simply dissolve a Peps in your mouth, and the medicinal fumes which are given off, mingle with the breath and are carried down to the remotest parts of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. These medicinal fumes are antiseptic, healing and strengthening. They stop a cough by destroying the germs which cause the inflammation and consequent irritation. They clear the breathing passages of phlegm, which makes them so splendid for bronchitis—and they soothe and strengthen all the delicate membranes of chest and breathing passages, fortifying them both against infection and sudden changes of temperature. Peps are free from all trace of opium, laudanum, paregoric, or any other harmful drug, and are therefore best for children's coughs and colds. Write for FREE trial package." "Peps embody all the virtues of the open-air treatment, and cure coughs, colds, croup, and related throat, bronchitis, weak chest, catarrh, hoarseness, children's coughs and colds, croup, influenza, colds and other throat and chest ailments." BIG ALLIED GAINS OVER WEEK-END AND HOLIDAY

New York, Oct. 14.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: Peace talk pervades the air, but it is falling on deaf ears so far as the armies in the field are concerned. Instead of a relaxation in the intensity of the fighting, new hostilities on what seemingly is a major scale are being carried out by the British, French and Belgians in Belgium.

'Unto the least of these'

RIVET your eyes on this picture of a Belgian mother and child, until you feel the full horror of the situation! Thousands of these orphans, dying of starvation, might now be living in comfort and plenty, had their soldier fathers not flung themselves into the breach when the Hun invaded Belgium.

The fathers died to save us. Are we going to let the orphans starve? Conditions are simply ghastly. The United States loans to the Belgian Government finance the general relief work, but this only provides a bowl of soup and two pieces of bread to each person per day.

The Ottawa of The Present

Some Suggestions to Union Government About Getting The Views of More Than a Few Classes

(Toronto Star) Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Ottawa was always a city that impressed the visitor as being, owing to its political atmosphere, different from other places in Canada. One always had the feeling that the people he saw round about him were strangers like himself, present for some purpose, and that neither this man, nor that, nor the other, had any stake in the community except a suitcase. No doubt, there is a permanent and substantial Ottawa, always here, but what the stranger sees is a shifting city of comers and goers, from far and near, with their minds turned in, estimating their chances of success with the projects or problems that brought them here.

But if Ottawa has always had a political atmosphere that made it noticeably different from other cities where politics are of very secondary importance, the Ottawa of today is a changed place also and different from what it was before. The atmosphere of the capital today may be described as less partisan, but quite as political, as ever. One of the great causes in the change that has come over Ottawa is the presence here in posts of every kind, on all sorts of boards and commissions, of prominent business men from all the chief centres of Canada. One sees them everywhere, meets with them everywhere. They are in the hotel rotundas, the dining-rooms, the clubs, in and out of all the departments of government. They are not seekers of favors; they are believers in their own merits; they are called to the service of the country, and with a patriotism of which one can but speak in the highest terms they are giving their services. They are serving on the War Trade Board, the Food Board, the Pensions Board, the C. N. R. Board, the Fuel Control system and in connection with victory loans, patriotic funds, military hospitals, conscription, army demobilization, reconstruction after the war, and in other capacities. They have official posts and they are all engaged in a semi-governing capacity.

Men Who Surround the Government. There is a new Ottawa now. These men have created its atmosphere. They are serving the country in a patriotic way, most of them without salary or reward, but they are here, everywhere, and they belong, nearly all of them, to the ranks of big business and view all questions from the one angle. They surround the government with a local public opinion not representative of the country as a whole, but of a special class and special interests only.

One does not underestimate the services these men are giving the country, but one may fairly call the attention of the government to the fact that the administration now lives in an artificial atmosphere created by the boards, commissions, and advisers that surround it on every side, composed entirely of men of one class and interest. The government should take cognizance of this and not mistake for the general public opinion of the country the exclusive opinions of those assembled about it.

The Union government began well and brought in such progressive war measures at the outset as furnished justification to those who had supported it. The Union government has so far adhered well to the policies and measures taken in the first bold and busy hours of its life. But it has added little since that time to the list of its courageous performances. One wonders whether, in the present atmosphere in which it exists, the Union government can rise again, at any time, to the fervor of public spirit which animated it at the outset. At that time the Union government was composed of a group of men brought together by a nationwide movement. Many of them were new to Ottawa and to each other. They met and put into effect policies in which all, each in deference to others, could agree. Now they have scattered to their departments, meet all at one time as a ministry less often and each separate one of them is encircled by one and the same class of special advisers, few, if any, of whom would advise a single one

What last year's Victory Loan achieved

LAST year the people of Canada lent the nation $425,000,000, by buying Victory Bonds.

And because Canada now needs more money and will presently ask the people to lend it, the people have a right to know what was accomplished by last year's loan.

Every dollar of it was spent in Canada.

Not only was it spent in Canada—it was circulated—it became the working capital of the nation.

IT financed millions of dollars worth of munitions for Great Britain through which great sums of money were passed along to the workers in a hundred cities and towns and to the coal and iron miners of Nova Scotia and New Ontario.

It financed the purchase of thousands of aeroplanes for Great Britain through which again, millions of dollars were passed along to scores of lumber camps in British Columbia and to thousands of workers in the cities.

It financed the export of millions of dollars worth of copper, lead and zinc and that again gave employment to an army of miners and metal workers all over Canada.

It financed the building of 112 steel and wooden ships in the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia through which many more millions were passed along to the artisans, miners, steel workers and lumbermen of Canada.

It financed the purchase of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of foodstuffs as a result of which the money passed along to the farmers all over Canada.

And the farmers and the workers of Canada deposited their savings in the banks and the banks in turn loaned it to more producers who circulated it again and yet again, until every individual in Canada felt the benefit.

THE money from the Victory Loan, like any other working capital, was "turned over" several times. It kept working, over and over again, until it built up a tremendous commerce—it developed the greatest export trade Canada ever had, greater by several times, than the amount of the loan itself.

And this trade furnished the market for Canada's products of the field, the mine, the forest and the shop.

Thus was Canada's prosperity, upon which her war efficiency depends, kept at a high level.

And by reason of this prosperity, Canada has maintained and equipped an army of over 400,000 men—an army which has brought glory to Canada by its courage and prowess in the field, and by its heroic spirit of sacrifice.

So when Canada asks us to lend our money to carry on we have an opportunity to contribute again to the nation's prosperity and to the fighting efficiency of her noble sons on the battle line.

How Canada's Exports have Grown

What Canada's war activities and financing have actually achieved for the nation's export business may be seen at a glance by comparing certain items for the year ending March 31st, 1918, with the average volume of trade in the same items for three years previous to the war.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Average for 1915-17, Per Cent over 1915. Rows include Dairy, Grain, Flour, Meat, Vegetables.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Average for 1915-17, Per Cent over 1915. Rows include Iron and Steel, Copper, Nickel, Zinc, and Aluminum.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Average for 1915-17, Per Cent over 1915. Row includes Pulp and Paper.

Canada's fisheries will yield, in addition to the above, during the present year about $9,000,000 worth of export.

In addition to the forest items 248 million feet of aeroplane spruce timber averaging over $20 per thousand is contracted for in British Columbia as the result of Canada's financial assistance to Great Britain.

Not ranking as exports, but nevertheless directly financed by the Victory Loan 1917, is 446,000 tonnage of ships valued at $70,000,000 which will be completed by the end of this year. These ships use millions of dollars worth of lumber and steel which again circulates vast sums among the workers of Canada.

FAMOUS BOSTON BEGGAR
Who Got Rich at His Stand in Winter Street

Beggars, and "characters" generally, disappeared from the streets of Boston as the result of careful enforcement of the regulations against mendicants and other unproductive persons. Now the Nomad misses them. All kinds of beggars are a public nuisance, and when they are with us we shun them away, a thousand times, but the streets sometimes seem a little lonelier and commonplace without them. It is particularly a loss to women, who are fond of beggars, for a sound historical and biological reason—the reason, in short, that the human race craves the sight and hearing of something sad, and is unhappy without it.

The Nomad can remember a beggar who once sat on the sidewalk in Winter Street, playing a small hurdy-gurdy. He had no legs, and he sat hunched over, his body up in his lap. All winter long, his bald head, which was unadorned by a cap, was exposed to wind and weather. He wore a full card, and looked very noble and sad and pathetic. The sadness of his aspect was a matter of poignant interest to the whole feminine population, who simply rained nickels, dimes and even quarters into his derby hat. The Nomad used to visit a friend in a room over the Provident Bank, which commanded a view of this beggar's usual points of operations. It was the man's habit to transfer the coins swiftly and unobtrusively from his hat to his side coat pocket as fast as they fell in, with one hand or the other, while the other hand ground the hurdy-gurdy; and the Nomad has seen him thus shift ten coins in one minute's time. And the flow never ceased.

It came out in the papers by-and-by, that this beggar owned an apartment house in New York City and the Nomad was not in the least surprised when he heard it.

We have banished the beggars from the streets, but the Nomad wonders whether they will not all be back again, and others with them, when women have the vote everywhere. Besides being more compassionate than men, women have a decided need for something of an afflicted nature to look at. Women are the elemental sex—the primitive, original human type—and the miserable ages of the past—millions and millions of sorrowful years—have left them with a craving for "old, unhappy far-off things." They share this hankering with the Latin race, which is much tenderer to all sorts of mendicants and afflictive persons in public than the Teutonic races are. Such lovely beggars as you see in Spain and Mexico.

The Nomad can remember Mexican beggars whom one would rather meet and talk with than an American Congressman or college professor. Down there the beggars sit in the hotel patios and converse familiarly with statesmen and generals, and by the way of epigram and repartee give these worthies as good as they send, and often, with the crowd, have the laugh on the great ones of the earth. And after the laugh the statesman gives the beggar a silver five-cent piece, worth two and a half cents, and the old beggar rubs his finger over the edge of it and murmurs "¡Bueno," and everybody smiles and is happy.—"Nomad" in Boston Transcript.

Montreal, Oct. 14—Struck by a runaway automobile as he was crossing the street at the corner of Pine Avenue and Hutchison Street yesterday afternoon, Rev. Pirates Clinch Series.
The Pirates clinched the championship of the South East Baseball League in a hotly-contested game with the Franklins yesterday afternoon by a score of four to two in a nine-inning game.

It was a warm and sunny afternoon, and the largest crowd of the season was in attendance. Excitement grew as the game progressed. But for an unfortunate mix-up between a catcher and a runner at the home plate, which led to some dispute and delay, it would have been the fastest and most interesting game from the onlooker's standpoint that has taken place on the grounds this year. There were fine plays on both sides and a small percentage of errors.

It has been decided at their suggestion to give individual prizes to members of the winning team, instead of a single trophy. The presentation will be made at a public meeting after the ban on meetings has been lifted.

F. L. Potts, M. P. P., donor of the prizes, witnessed the game, and at the close there were cheers for him; for the umpire, Robert Atchison, and for the South End Improvement League.

The Y. M. C. A. will use this ground for group games, and later an outdoor skating rink will be provided. The Improvement League has every reason to be gratified with the result of its work in making this playground available.

Men's Underwear Week At Oak Hall

All This Week Will be Devoted to a Special Showing of Fall and Winter Underwear for Men, All Weights, All Sizes, All Prices.

The Wool Scarcity is actual—not imaginary—so far as civilian requirements are concerned. Many of our Canadian factories are working day and night on war orders with a very small amount of time set aside for civilian orders—this naturally makes wool underwear hard to procure in quantities.

Notwithstanding this scarcity, our buyers have been successful in getting together a range of underwear that is really worth while, and they have done this simply by paying personal visits to the various manufacturing centres and "staying with it" till they got what they went after.

Here are catalogued only a few of the many lines which we have to offer, and as it will not be possible for us to duplicate our stock this season, it is to your advantage to look after your requirements this week while the range is complete.

PTE. T. MCKAY DICKSON HOME FROM THE WAR

One of the Gallant Men of Passchendaele, Where He Was Wounded

Pte. T. McKay Dickson, of Chatham, late of the 26th battalion and one of the heroes of Passchendaele, where he was wounded, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McKay, 114 St. James street. Private McKay sailed for the 12th battalion in February, 1916, left in October for overseas, and on August 26, 1917 was drafted to the 26th battalion. He was wounded in the right leg and foot in the battle of Passchendaele, in November of that year. The intervening time has been spent in French and English hospitals. After a few days' furlough at home he will go to Fredericton for further treatment.

PTE. WILLIAM BISHOP HIT IN HAND AND HEAD

Young St. John Soldier Had Been Very Short Time in France

Private William Bishop has been officially reported admitted to No. 54 general hospital, Aubergue, on October 2, suffering from gunshot wounds in the right hand and head. The young soldier, who has attained only his twentieth year, went over with a draft from the first depot battalion and was transferred to an infantry battalion at the front. His experience in the firing line has been brief as he had been in France for a short time only and the nature of his wounds probably will result in his being sent to England to recuperate.

FOR FIRST CONTINGENT MEN

St. John, N. B., Oct. 15, 1918. To the Editor of The Times: Sir—A little while ago I received a letter and verses from one of my old men in France in which he plainly set forth their views as to parcels sent to them (the boys of the first contingent) in whom no one seems to take any interest. Mrs. Young of the West Side Soldiers' Comforts is sending Christmas comforts and will send a parcel to any first contingent, officer or man, if she can secure his address. I therefore send any relatives of these men, who have put in near four years in the trenches in France to forward their addresses direct to Mrs. Young, Gullford street, West St. John.

Each Christmas we see subscriptions for this regiment and that regiment but never one for the first contingent men. Now here is the chance, and if any other society wishes to assist the boys now is the time to think of it. The boys of the infantry will be hard to locate as they are so split up, but their relatives can assist in this; the artillery can be reached by a direct gift to the 1st Mountain Heavy Battery in which are many of the artillerymen, and also by sending to Lieut.-Col. J. J. Penhale, O. C. 1st Division Ammunition Column, through whose hands pass most of the first artillery, and I am sure Colonel Penhale will see that they get the parcels sent as he is in touch with the batteries and also has a lot of the originals with him at the present time.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
Yours,
E. J. PUDDY,
Late Sergt. 1st C. F. A.

ST. JOHN MEN IN CASUALTY LIST

Several Are Reported Wounded and Are Very Ill

Families of A. J. Newlands, W. R. Melanson, Richard Joyce, E. G. McEachern and George Ralph Receive Word

James Newlands, inspector for the department of public works under the civic administration and presently engaged supervising the reconstruction of the Eastern S. S. Company pier, Reed's Point, has received word that his son, Archibald J. Newlands, has been wounded in the back in the latest fighting in France.

The injured young man is twenty-three years of age and enlisted in the 4th Siege Battery under Major Louis W. Barker. He has been fighting for nearly three years and has seen a lot of strenuous artillery service.

The Newlands family is Scotch in nativity and came to St. John some years ago. Their home had been at Back Bay until five years ago when they moved to a splendid dwelling. The mother died but neither of these calamities prevented the remaining members of the household from answering the heroic call of Mother England. The father, a man of proven worth in construction matters, joined the 2nd Pioneer Battalion, the boy joined the 4th Siege Battery and the mother, Jennie W., enlisted as a nursing sister and is now doing service in No. 2 Depot, Boulogne.

While a Times reporter was talking with Inspector Newlands—whose service in khaki ended more than eighteen months ago—on the Reed's Point job this morning, the parent learned for the first time of his son's casualty. At the same juncture a batch of mail from the front was handed him by an office messenger. Opening the field envelopes, Mr. Newlands said: "These messages are all cheerful, so I guess my boy and girl are all right in spite of the telegram about the wounding."

The patriotic spirit of resignation and firm yet tender manner in which the soldier-veterans received this morning's news second-handed, as it were, and the unobtrusive way in which he referred to his whole family in the service, gave still another reflex view of the great and glorious struggle that is preserving to us our happy homes and long-time liberties, and what that ungrudging service is meaning to so many heroic households right here in St. John.

PTE. W. R. MELANSON

Mrs. Ellen Melanson, who resides at 187 Chesley street, received a telegram this morning from Ottawa informing her that her son, Pte. William Raymond Melanson, had been admitted to Lord Derby War Hospital in Warrington, England, on Sept. 30, 1918. No particulars were given regarding his condition. Private Melanson went overseas with the 55th battalion and has been in active service for nearly three years. He was twice wounded, first in the Battle of Vimy Ridge, and again about a year ago. The first time he sustained a wound in the abdomen and the last time a gunshot wound in the thigh.

PTE. RICHARD JOYCE

Richard Joyce of 235 Rodney street received a telegram on Sunday stating that his cousin, Private Richard Joyce, was officially reported admitted to No. 54 general hospital, Aubergue, suffering from gunshot wounds in the breast. Private Joyce enlisted in St. John.

PTE. E. G. MCEACHERN

John McEachern, 546 Main street, was advised yesterday from Ottawa that his youngest son, Pte. Edgar G. McEachern, had been admitted to No. 6 General Hospital, London, on Oct. 2, suffering from gunshot wounds in the left arm. Private McEachern went overseas as a member of a Scottish battalion recruited in Nova Scotia and with that unit he saw two years of service. Last year he was severely wounded and returned to England. When recuperated he returned to France a member of another unit and was with this unit at the time of being wounded. Prior to going overseas he was on the office staff of the George McKean Lumber Co., Ltd., in their Amherst branch.

Mrs. George Ralph, 111 Britain street, was notified this morning from Ottawa that her husband, Private George Ralph, a member of a local infantry battalion, was seriously ill in the Lord Derby War Hospital, England. Private Ralph has been ill since August. Prior to going overseas he was employed in the C. P. R. freight sheds here.

Mrs. James B. Nichols,
The death of Beatrice L., wife of Gunner B. Nichols, 151 Rodney street, West St. John, occurred early this morning. She was only three years of age, and had been ill but a short time. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peckham, of West St. John, and besides her husband and parents, is survived by two daughters and one son, and by four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Nichols, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Albert Jennings and Mrs. Roy Seely, all of West St. John. Her early death is a great shock to the family and friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.
