act from a letter from Snowdon & Gibbs, Concordia, Kan., July 28th, 1873.—" We s f your Gargling Oil than of any liniment we keep."

Merchant's Gargling Oil as a Family Liniment. We are now, and have been for some years, preparing the foll free from stain, to be used as common limiment for human fisch, extracting the coloring ingredient which has heretofore rendered, it objectionable. This Oil possesses all the medicinal properties of that prepared with the dark tings for horses and cattle, and will be found one of the best remedies for all purposes where a liminent is required that has ever been manufactured. From J. K. Fisher, Uniontown, Pat, Jan. 31, 1837.—"Your Gargling Oil is doing much bester here than formerly, since its virtues have become known; and the bottles put up for family use, without stain, are much sought for."

The Gargling Oil called "Family Oil," although prepared intentionally for human flesh, answers as well for human flesh, only it will stain and discolor the skin, but not permanently. Yellow wrapper for animal and white for human flesh, only it will stain and discolor the skin, but not permanently. Yellow wrapper for animal and

CHATHAM, THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1877. The Jam at the Southwest Boom. The people living along the Southwest Miramichi River, and especially those who are interested in its free pond and rafting-ground for the South West Boom Company and its lessee, unless they invoke the aid of the law in the protection of their rights. The position is simply this, that the lessee, without asking anybody's leave, deliberately swung a boom across the channel of the river, about half a mile down from the head of the Southwest Boom, and entirely outside of it, and allowed all the channel above it to fill with logs, which have now accumulated far above the limits of the Boom, as constructed, blocking out the public from the use of the river. When the Company failed to induce him to make a reasonable effort to open the navigation and employed Mr. McLaughlin, as any citizen has a right to do, to raft out the logs—not from the boom, but from the channel of the Supreme Court Judges and actually swore that those logs were within the boom, in order to restrain those who were laboring to open navior of Bathurst, thence and south side of said harbor in a westerly direction to open the actually swore that those logs were within the boom, in order to restrain those who were laboring to open navior of Bathurst, thence along south side of said harbor in a westerly direction to sure the Parish Line between Bathurst and Beresford, thence westerly along said the parish Line to the County Line between Gloucester and Restigouche, thence southered and Restigouche, thence souther to the Golucester and Restigouche, thence southered and Restigouche, thence southe

The election pending in Gloucester is the first that has been held in this Province under the Dominion Elections Act of 1874, and it involves a good deal of extra work by the Returning Officer and his deputies, as well as care by the electors in the matter of voting. The County has been divided into new Polling districts which now number sixteen. They are severally bounded as follows No. 1, consisting of all that part of the parish of Beresford from the Church Road (so-called) to the upper boundary line of the parish of Beresford,—at or near Jere-between them; and so as we have seen, he accepted the offer of a cruise with Wilbur Hoyt, and continued for some time in his friend's society.

These few weeks were not without their somewhat sad and dreary lesson for Henry Willamette. When, through the combined efforts of himself and his friend, poor Kitty had been rescued from her impending danger and conveyed to a haven of safety, the colonel saw, in Wilbur Hoyt's extraordinary solicitude both at the time of the rescue kinds of temptation in various parts of and pre-occupied.

and without making any evident sign, did his best to fan the flame which to once more among them.

kitty's previous history being unknown to him, there seemed no reason why a union between her and Wilbur Hoyt should not finally take place, and Colonel Willamette half-pleased, half-annoyed himself, picturing these probabilities. His pleasure lay in imagining a future so different from that which he had hitherto thought that mo such happiness was in store for him, and that the rest of his life must be passed celibate and soli-

But Belle Barlow was somewhat tired of the eternal round of dauce, dinner, picnic, and flirtation, so far as, at least, her position of unmarried girl was con-
