MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 19.—At the Board of Trade meeting this morning the fast Atlantic question was brought up by Mr. Payne, of Halifax, who moved that: Whereas, the construction of a second transcontinental railway and the growing expansion of Canadian exports and imports indicate the imperative necessity of utilizing Canadian shipping to the fullest possible extent in order to keep pace with constantly increasing internal development and, whereas the maintenance

This was seconded by Capt. Read, of Sumerside, and supported by Capt. Allen, of Summerside and Mr. Stephen,

Mr. Starr of Wolfville submitted a resolution calling for the double tracking of the Intercolonial and the reduction of grades, where possible, in order to accommodate the increased. traffic that would result from the fast Atlantic service. Mr. Starr spoke at some length in support of the resolu-tion, which was adopted.

O. E. Smith of Halifax said the matone of a rather serious character.

Banks had opened agencies in all parts of the provinces, and business men in remitting were obliged to lose the exchange. He objected to the excessive charges, which in the aggregate amounted to a considerable sum.
Seconded by Mr. Stephen of Halifax and unanimously adopted.

C. P. R. FREIGHT RATES. ecent Readjustments is Felt By Some

Many city wholesale dealers contend that they are materially affected by a readjustment of the C. P. R. freight rates, which took effect about the first of July. This new arrangement brings in an increase in the freight rates of several classes of goods, while in others it is somewhat lower.

The C. P. R. say that it is simply a readjustment of their tariff to a mileage system, which applies to all lines of the C. P. R. east of Fort Arthur. It not only makes their freight system much less complicated and satisfac tory, but it does not, to any great extent, increase the rates on the whole. Importers of certain kinds of goods are benefitted by the change. For instance, the rates on goods which come under the first and second classes, such as very light groceries and hardware, and most lines of dry goods, are lower than they were before. On the other hand those goods which are of the fourth or fifth class, such as the heavy lines of hardware and groceries, are carried at a higher rate. Local dealers claim that the increase does not amount to so much west of Montreal. This is probably due to the fact that there is more competition there owing to the water routes, etc. They say that the increase is particued from players among the Franklins larly marked in St. John rates, on the He will be allowed water for his same class of goods, over the rates charged for the same distance west of Montreal, which they believe proves that the new arrangement does not affect all lines east of Port Arthur as claimed by the railway. SALVAGE CORPS MEETING.
