BRAZIL PLANNING TO FIGHT CONSUMPTION ON THE GOUIN MEETING

and Then Treated the Affair as a Joke

MONTREAL, Q., June 5.—Bourassa, surprised even his followers last night by taking part with a crowd of young men in breaking up a meeting of Premier Gourin. The Nationalists were on their way to their meeting, and headed by Mr. Bourassa went out of their way a mile to pass the Gouin meeting. There they hooted and yelled till there was a fight and the police had to be called. Bourassa was there all the time and later held a meeting at which the affair was treated as a great joke.

The growth of crime in Montreal is giving the judges a good deal of anxiety. Since January 1 there have been 400 more cases in the sessions court than last year, and 90 per cent, of them are foreigners.

PLEASANT AFFAIR AT EVERY DAY CLUB

There was a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen at the Every Day Club hall last evening when the medals and prizes for the Victoria day sports were presented.

Lennerton of Dartmouth, Giggey of Hampton and Orr were not present, but graceful reference was made to all the Hampton men, Giggey, Bovaird and Snodgrass, as fine athletes and gentlemanly fellows, while special reference was made to L. C. Lennerton, whose capture of the two-mile run while he was suffering severely from a sprained ankle, was one of the features of the day on May 25th. A. W. a sprained ankle, was one of the features of the day on May 25th. A. W. Covey, who won the 100 yards special from Bovaird, and who has joined the Every Day Club, was given a most hearty reception when his medal was presented. The most hearty applause greeted Garnett, Kiley, Stirling, Dobson, Brown, Grearson, Merritt, Dummer, Willis, Marsden, McEachren and Cunningham as they advanced to receive their trophies. All but two of these got two prizes each, and Garnett and Kiley each got three. The medals were handsome ones, and all the prizes valuable.

A. M. Belding occupied the chair and spoke of the Every Day Club's efforts to encourage baseball, football, cricket, aquatic contests and athletic sports ingeneral, and to the fact that another series of sports will be held on June

J.N. Harvey, who is president of the St. John Baseball League as well as a member of the club, was asked to present the prizes. He did so in a very pleasing manner, and made fitting reference to the fine, gentlemanly manner in which the sports were conducted and the competitors bore themselves throughout the day. He congratulated the club on what it has done and is doing in the interest of clean sport. Reference was made to the kindness of those who contributed prizes. The club's fife and drum band was present in uniform and played a series of selections in fine style. It was heartly applauded by the audience.

KILLED HIMSELF WHILE BRIDE WAITED FOR HIM AT THE ALTAR

WINNIPEG, June 4.—Leaving a note saying he was "going to shuffle of this mortal coil" and that he was "unworthy of Jennie," Alexander Scott, a young foreman in the Winnipeg Paint and Glass Company cut his throat about 8 o'clock last evening, while his bride, Jennie Sullivan, was waiting for him at the altar. The discovery was made by the bride's brother and groomsman, who went to the bride-groom's house and found him dead.

SAYS HE WASN'T RESPONSIBLE FOR LOSS

OTTAWA, June 4.—A peculiar situation has arisen in connection with the transfer of the command of the Second iffeld Battery, Ottawa, from Major Bertschinger to Major MacLaren. The former has declined to hand over the books of the corps to the new commanding officer, although ordered to do so by the militia department. Major Bertschinger is charged with certain shortages in equipment to the amount of between $300 and $400, for which he claims he is not responsible. The missing articles, he says, were lost at the time of the big Street of Paris bazzar, held in the armories here last fall, and the major says that he is in no way responsible for their disappearance. In view of the fact that a caretaker was placed in charge, over caretaker was placed in charge, over whom he had no control, the militia department has handed the matter over STAR WANT ADS. to the justice department, and it is understood a test case will be argued.

First March-Out Last Evening

Lieut. Col. Baxter Congratulates Men on Their Appearance

The march out of the 3rd New Brunswick Artillery last evening in every way reflected great credit on the officers and men of the regiment. Although the first of the season last night's turn-out showed a very high percentage of the gunners on parade. The appearance of the corps was excellent and was favorably commented upon by the spectators, many hundreds of whom lined the streets along the line of march.

Although the greater part of the drill of the artillery is upon the four-point sevens, the 3rd Regiment as infantry showed up well. The artillerymen showed up well. The artillerymen and the leaders with the greater part of the drill of the artillerymen showed up well. The artillerymen are provided to the artillerymen and the leaders with home in Ottawa.

Ketchell Gets the Decision-Many

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 4—Stanley Ketchell, of Grand Rapids, Mich., tonight got the decision over Billy Papke, of Kewanee, Ill., at the end of a fast ten round bout before 6,000 spectators at the Milwaukee Boxing Club at the Hippodrome Building. The contest was furious from the tap of the gong to the finish, with the exception of clinches. Time and time again Ketchell forced Papke to the ropes with onslaughts of right and left to the head and body. Ketchell appealed to the referee to break the clinches repeatedly. Ketchell, in the first round, took considerable steam cut of Papke by landing a terrific right to the jaw, sending the Kewanee boy to his knees. The Grand Rapids man worked the right and left shift to good advantage.

At the end of the last round, Papke was plainly in distress. Both men were in the pink of condition. Hugo Kelly, Sam Langford, Jack (Twin) Sullivan, Jack (Philadelphia) O'Brien, Unk Russel and Peter Jackson challenged the winner.

"Sincere congratulations on your opening number and success by your plucky endeavor to meet a widely felt want in all parts of the Empire."

The King and the Prince of Wales have permitted their names to be placed at the head of the subscription list of the Standard of Empire, which has just been issued by the London Standard as a weekly newspaper with the dual purpose of informing the English public by cable and mail upon matters relating to the overseas Dominions, especially in regard to Canada, and of keeping the overseas Dominions in touch with those of the Old Country and with news of one another.

The snakes must be captured alive The snakes must be captured alive. To do so, many hunters eatch the reptiles with their hands, holding their slippery prey firmly till the poison is deposited in a bag or box.

Sometimes the entire poison-sac is cut out. The operator lays open the snake's head, and, having detached the sac, scale it up until required.

Other operators irritate the reptile, causing it to bite through indismubber bands, and deposit the poison on a glass below. A venomous snake has two poison-fangs in the upper jaw, and when goaded it pierces the indiarubber, and pours its two streams of rubber, and pours its two streams of poison upon the glass plate. THE WOUNDED ON BOARD BATTLESHIPS

Considering the enormous naval armaments piled up with zeal by every nation, it must come as a shock to be told there is no provision for the wounded on warships of today. Men must lie where they fall, with injuries infinitely worse than any inflicted by rifie, sword or bayoret of land warfare and largely involving what the surgeons call "major operations;" and this merely because every inch of space is taken up in the floating fortress of today. A warship the authorities will say cynically, "is a fighting machine, and has neither time nor place for useless members of its strength."

True, the warship carries surgeons; but these must be put out of harm's way during the wild inforno of an action, just when they are most needed; and released when all is over—that is if the ship is afloat. It is also true she has a sick bay; but modern science has brought this up and out of the reeking cockpit of other days into light and air where though there may be hygiene there is absolutely no pretense of protection: in fact, the situation selected for the sick bay in all modern ships is perfectly recognized as one absolutely untenable in actual warfare.

Lastly, possible damage to her engines in addition to all this will add to the dire confusion, and her lighting and ventilating appliances are surely destroyed. In such a case—common sense tells it is no exaggerated picture—where can fifty-two sorety wounded men receive the best care and attention, especially the fitting after treatment so necessary to save their lives? Little wonder the percentage of deaths among the wounded on the Japanese Matsushima, even in these days of wondrous surgery, was twenty-nine per cent., with seventy-six severely injured men huddle together on a ship of her size!

From this terrible condition of things there is only one escape, and that is perfectly rec

The foregoing is meant to be a description of what happens when a man passes through the incendiary experience known as "losing his temper."

(There the cat of my article is out of the bag!) A man who has lost his temper is simply "burnt out." He constitutes one of the most curious and (for everybody) humiliating spectacles that life offers. It is an insurrection, a holling over, a sweaping storm. Dignity common sense, "ustice are shrivelled up and destriyed. Anarhcy reigns. The devil has broken his chain. Instinct is stamping on the face of reason. And in that man civilization has temporarily recorded millions of years. Of course these things amount to a nervous disease, and I think it is almost uriversal.

You at once protest that you never vous disease, and I think it is almost uriversal.

You at once protest that you never lose your temper—haven't lost your temper for ages! But do you not mean that you haven't smashed furniture for ages? These fires are of varying intersities. Some of them burn very dully. Yet they burn. One man loses his temper, another is merely "ruffed."

But the event is the same in kind. When you are conscious of a resentful vibration that surprises all your being, when your voice changes, when you notice a change in the demeanor of your companion, sees that he has "touched a point," you may not go to the length of smashing furniture, but you have had a fire and your dignity is damaged. You admit it to yourself afterwards. I am sure you know what I mean. And I am nearly sure that you, with your courage candor, will admit that from time to time you suffer from these mysterious "fires."

Will am nearly sure that you, with your courage candor, will admit that from time to time you suffer from these mysterious "fires."

Splendid Opening Night

Last evening Kirk Brown opened his return engagement at the St. John Opera House, giving the fourth presentation of "The Sign of the Cross."

The play was in everyway the success it proved itself to be on its first presentation here. Notable amongst the large and enthusiastic audience was the unusual large amount of people It this business of daily living, of or6h ary usage of the machine in hourly intercourse, there occurs sometimes a phenomenon which is the cause of a great deal of trouble, and the result of a very ill-tended machine. It is a phenomenon impossible to ignore, and yet, so shameful it is, so degrading, so shocking, so miserable, that I hesitate to mention it. Fro one class of reader is certain to ridicule me loftily, saying,
"One really doesn't expect to find this

And another class of reader is certain a free hand. But you have not got a free hand. It is his house, not yours. He may or may not know that his house is burning. But you are aware by experience that if you direct his attention to the flame, the effect of your warning would be exceedingly sit gular, almost incredible. For the effect would be that he would instantively begin to strike matches, pour on petroleum, and fan the flame, violently resenting interference. Therefore you can stand and watch, knowing that he will notice the flames before they are beyond control and extinguish them. The probability is, however, that he will notice the flames too late. And, powerless to avert disaster, you are condemmed therefore, to watch the damage of valuable property. The flames leap higher and 1:] sher and they doe not die down till they have burned themselves out. You avert your gaze from the spectacle, and until you are gene the owner of the house pretends that nothing has occurred. When alone he curses himself for his carelessness.

UNSCIENTIFIC ATTITUDE.

"Temper," one of the plagues of human society, is generally held to be incurable, save by the vague process of exercising self-control — a process which seldom has any beneficial results. It is regarded—as a visitation of Providence, which must be borne. But I do not hold it to be incurable, I am convinced that it is permanently curable. And its eminent importance as a nuisance to mankind at large deserves, I think, that it should recive particular attention.

Anyhow, I am strongly against the visitation of Providence theory as being unscientific, primitive, and conducise to unashamed laissez-aller. A man can be master in his own house. "Why did you do it, Esther?" he asked, pleadingly.

"Why didn't you even thank me the tiniest little bit for the Christmas present I sent you?" she faltered.
Chesterton stopped, and balanoing on one foot faced her in unfeigned astonishment.

He was filled with compunction for having cherished such malicious feelings toward Johnson—Johnson wasn't half a bad fellow, he remembered that MADRID, June 4—A large and savage bull tried to wreck the Andalusian express today by butting the engine with its head. The result was most unfortunate for the bull.

While the express was travelling at the rate of twenty miles an hour, the bill suddenly appeared on the line near the village of Rabonales.

Before the driver could pull up, the bull rushed at the express with lowered head, and the impact was so terrific that the engine was derailed. The driver applied the brakes just in time to prevent the entire train falling over an embankment.

Mrs. J. Fleming Johnson was severely injured on Wednesday evening, while driving with her husband on the Red Head road.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were going from the city to their home in Mispec and the horse shied at a load of furniture which was being hauled along by an expressman. The carriage went off the side of the road, and the occupants were thrown into the ditch. Mrs. Johnson fell on her head. Her back comb was broken and the stones on the top of the comb were so driven into her scalp that the aid of a surgeon had to be secured to pick them out. Mr. Johnson escaped injury, and Mrs. Johnson's injuries, although painful, are not of a serious nature. The carriage was only slightly damaged.

MANY MORE REPORTS

OF HARBOR PIRACY

Yesterday the Star contained a paragraph about harbor piracy. Further information received last evening and this morning indicates that this practice is much more serious than at first thought. Thefts are becoming quite frequent and persons who have property around the wharves are never sure when they will find it. Deals are one of the principal lines favored by the thieves and thefts of these are very frequent. Coal is also popular and the marine department has of late suffered very seriously in this respect. A large quantity of coal in bags piled on one of the wharves has been growing beautifully less during the past month or two.
