MAY NEED TROOPS TO INTERFERE

Labor Troubles in Northern Colorado Becoming Critical—Federal Forces May Be Called Upon.

REVOLVERS USED.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 27.—Labor troubles in the coal camp of Northern Colorado, where a strike has been in progress for some time, have reached a stage where the advisability of calling for troops is being considered according to news received here today. At Louisville, Colo., the situation is regarded as particularly critical. The mines there are owned by a Wyoming corporation. President Brown of the company said unless conditions improved within the next two days he would ask Governor Shafroth for the protection of Federal troops to which he says: "The company as a non-union property holder is entitled."

SUBJECT BANK ACT TO FULL REVISION

Believed that Measure Will Be Postponed for Year to Allow Time for Mature Consideration.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—While no decision has yet been reached it is believed in government circles that the necessity for a revision of the bank act, shown by such occurrences as the Farmers Bank affair will delay work on that important measure for probably another year. Bank charters expire on July 1, and they will in all probability be renewed for another year as was the case last session when Mr. Mealing was unable to finish with the bank bill in his regular session. It is expected the Borden administration will not follow the Liberal proposal, but bring in a revision of its own after mature consideration.

The body was found by a woman's 12 year old daughter on her return from school. A blood-stained razor was lying near the body and the hands and dress of a 12 months old daughter who had been playing around the room in which the body was found, were smeared with blood. Two other children aged three and two years were in the house. The woman had been in ill health lately and had been acting strangely. She was seen alive this afternoon in a grocery store not far from her home. She leaves a husband, David Rosenberg, a tailor, and five children, the eldest of whom is but 13. An inquest will be held tomorrow.

Denies the Statement that He Favors Forcible Annexation—Says He Never Dreamed of it.

PERSONAL ATTACK.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Speaker Champ Clark, after nine weeks of speaking and lecturing in 19 states, returned to Washington today and began conferences with other leaders over the work of Congress which opens next Monday. Mr. Clark said that the coming session would be long, exceedingly busy and very important. He said tariff revision would be the great issue of the next campaign. Mr. Clark declared the assault on him regarding Canadian annexation was a misrepresentation for "political effect, general and personal," and he had never hinted at such a "wicked and quixotic scheme for forcible annexation." "Never dreamed of such a thing and would oppose it to the utmost."

PRACTICAL JOKE COST WOMAN'S LIFE

Carbolic Acid Bottle Was Labeled Vermouth in Jest Which Had Serious Results—Inquest Today.

New York, Nov. 27.—The misadventure of a practical joke, which caused the death of Alice Tristram, said to be the daughter of Canon Tristram of Trinity church, Dublin in the opinion of Coroner Shongut, was announced today that several men who were with her when she took poison would be summoned to explain what they knew of the case. The woman died Saturday night in a hospital ambulance from effects of carbolic acid drunk from the bottle of the Golf Club House in Van Cortlandt Park. It was thought then that she had deliberately taken her own life. The bottle containing this acid, the coroner now believes, was labeled "Vermouth" and placed beside the Tristram woman's plate in a spirit of fun. There were at least five persons, some of them prosperous business men, the coroner believes, in the party with her, and none suspected that she would drink the contents of the bottle. Subpoenas will be issued later today, the coroner declared, requiring her companions to testify at the inquest tomorrow.

MAXIMUM NUMBER OF TROOPS.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The State Department is advised that the council of ministers at Peking has authorized the increase of the Japanese and railway guards to the maximum allowed by the Boxer treaty. This explains the despatch of troops from Tokyo to China authorized by the Japanese cabinet.

COMINGS HEARD DETAILS OF AN Anglo-GERMAN TROUBLE

Sir Edward Grey Speaks at Length on Episodes of Time when Relations Between the Two Countries were Strained—Followed by Bonar Law—Britain is Not Looking for War but Delicacy is Required to Maintain Prestige and Avoid International Complications—No Secret Treaties.

THE HOUSE WAS CROWDED.

London, Nov. 27.—Sir Edward Grey, secretary for foreign affairs, cleared the political atmosphere and poured oil on the turbulent waters of Anglo-German relations in a speech lasting one hour and a half in the House of Commons this afternoon. The foreign secretary reviewed the whole Moroccan episode from the sudden appearance of the German gunboat Panther in the port of Agadir in southern Morocco to the signing of the Franco-German treaty. He was unflinchingly upheld the attitude taken by the British government, but at the same time declared that its action was not aggressive to Germany or to any settlement she was able to arrange with France and which did not threaten the rights of Great Britain. Sir Edward Grey made no secret of the fact that the situation had at one time been very tense, but thought his statements today would prove a relief to a world which had been indulging in a fit of political alcoholism and that the time had arrived for it to get and to keep cool and sober.

NO SECRET TREATIES.

Great Britain had no secret treaties and both France and Russia knew perfectly well that British public opinion would not support any provocative or aggressive action against Germany. German strength was itself a guarantee that no other country would seek a quarrel with her. But if a nation had the biggest army in the world and a very big navy then that nation must do all in its power to prevent the natural apprehensions of its neighbors and to make it plain to all eyes that its intentions toward them.

On July 27 came a break in the clouds. Count Wolff Mettenich presented a note full of goodwill, hoping that Sir Edward Grey would find an opportunity of reassuring the public in regard to Germany's intentions. Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Mr. Grey, also told Count Wolff Mettenich that he was glad to see the acknowledgment of the Franco-German agreement, reiterating that British interests would not be touched, and forward a settlement by calming the public opinion of France.

Weighed in Balance And Found Wanting

Statement Made of Late Administration in Today's Debate—German Again Seeks His Old Political Allies. MAKES SAVAGE ATTACK.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The afternoon session of the House of Commons today was a hot one. The speaker of the House, Mr. Borden, declared to a "grand old battle" ever unfurled.

More serious was Mr. Northrup's exposure of a most little piece of trickery in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's amendment. The leader of the opposition in that amendment gave what was the famous resolution of March 29, 1909 in the following terms:

"This House will cordially approve of any necessary expenditure designed to promote the speedy organization of a Canadian naval service in co-operation with and in close relation to the imperial navy, along the lines suggested by the Admiralty at the last Imperial Conference and in full sympathy with the view that the naval supremacy of Britain is essential to the security of commerce, the safety of the Empire and the peace of the world."

The opening speech of the sitting was by J. H. Rainville, who eliminated Victor Geffroy from Chambly. Vercheres, who spoke in French. B. Devlin spoke in an unimportant speech. V. B. Northrup then pointed out the discrepancy between Laurier's amendment and the facts, as already noted.

German Reconciled.

Then Mr. Grey was publicly reproached to be a quotation from what purported to be a quotation from the safety of the Empire and the peace of the world. The opening speech of the sitting was by J. H. Rainville, who eliminated Victor Geffroy from Chambly. Vercheres, who spoke in French. B. Devlin spoke in an unimportant speech. V. B. Northrup then pointed out the discrepancy between Laurier's amendment and the facts, as already noted.

SUFFRAGETTE'S RECEPTION NOT CORDIAL

Mrs. Pankhurst Greeted With Derision in New York—Auto Stripped of Decorations by Crowd.

FINALLY ESCAPES.

New York, Nov. 27.—Five thousand messenger boys and brokers' clerks outside the office of J. P. Morgan & Company at Broad and Wall streets, drowned the voice of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the British suffragette, in a tumult of jeers, cat calls and cheers. Mrs. Pankhurst was scheduled to make an address on suffrage there at noon. She matched her voice against her tormentors for fifteen minutes and then gave up the unequal struggle. When she sat down there was a rush for the automobile from which she spoke. The crowd wedged about the machine, stripped of its flags and hunting and with derisive cheers opened a lane in front through which the car drove the street. A lone policeman who attempted to rescue Mrs. Pankhurst and her women companions, was brushed aside. A dozen men, who made the crowd pause for a moment by cladding the leaders gave the chauffeur an opportunity to start his machine and escape.

Lisbon Mob Plays Havoc With Buildings

Bombs Used and Troops were Called Out to Protect Property—Chinese Quacks Origin of Trouble.

FIRED ON MOB.

Lisbon, Nov. 27.—The disorders which occurred here last night owing to the expulsion of the Chinese women for the illegal exercise of a "cure" for blindness at one time attained serious proportions. All the streets in the centre of the city were occupied by the cavalry, who charged continuously in all directions. The populace, which was armed, offered a firm resistance to the troops and shots were freely exchanged. Suddenly a great explosion was heard on the Plaza Dom Pedro. The cavalry galloped up unslinging their carbines and poured volley after volley through the windows of a cafe in

BOYS MADE ATTACK ON 'AGED MAN'

Are Held on Charge of Attempted Murder—Victim Blind as the Result of Youths' Assault.

THREE ARRESTS.

Cornwall, Ont., Nov. 27.—Arthur Tvo aged 15, James Tvo aged 15, and Fred White aged 18 were this afternoon remanded till Tuesday on a charge of attempting murder. They appeared before Police Court Magistrate Dahlis for a brutal assault on George Gallinger, aged 63, who resided about a mile north of Cornwall, on the St. Andrews road. The assault was committed on Sunday afternoon and two of the boys were captured by Carson Gallinger, a nephew of the victim. The other was taken into custody later in the evening. The old gentleman had gone to the well for some water and the boys approached and asked for a drink. One of the boys threw water in the old man's face, and as he did so, another struck Gallinger with a club. The boys then followed the old man to his house and demanded money. They were still in the house when the grandson of Mr. Gallinger who lived with his grandfather returned home from Sunday school. Hearing an unusual noise inside he ran for Carson Gallinger who returned with him. The young man captured two of the boys and the other was arrested later. The victim was badly bruised about the head and shoulders and is in a critical condition. One of his eyes was gouged out which leaves him blind as the other eye was sightless before the assault. Arthur Tvo and White have already appeared in the police court here. On Monday they stole a team of horses from the barn of Michael Gallinger, but were let off with a fine of two dollars each and costs.

TOWN PRACTICALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Sherbrooke, Que., Nov. 27.—Nova has reached here of a disastrous fire which broke out in the little town of Dismal on Lake St. Francis yesterday and destroyed practically the entire business centre of the town. Rousseau's Hotel, seven stores and a number of residences were destroyed. The total damage amounting to between $75,000 and $100,000, very little of it covered by insurance. A high wind and the lack of fighting apparatus allowed the fire to gain great headway. The fire broke out in the basement of a store kept by a Syrian merchant. There were no casualties.

GOVERNOR GENERAL VISITS TORONTO

Third Time He Has Honored That City with Visit, But First in Official Capacity.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—The third visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught to Toronto, and his first as governor general, was inaugurated when the royal train bearing the new governor general and his family, drew into the North Toronto station this afternoon. Their arrival set for 2 o'clock was so well timed that their Royal Highnesses had alighted and were shaking hands with the civic dignitaries before the clocks had ceased chiming the hour.

The Royal party drove three miles to the City Hall, the entire route being lined by cheering school children, backed by solid crowd of interested and unemotional citizens. An immense crowd surrounded the City Hall, where the civic address was presented to His Royal Highness, after which the Duke and Duchess drove to Government House, their official residence while they remain in Toronto. The day was a perfect one, the air being mild and the sun shined brightly. Mayor Geary presented an address to His Royal Highness; Sir James Whitney duplicating the feat for the province.

FACE WAS LITERALLY COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

Four Different Doctors Did Her No Good.

Two Bottles of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Cured Her.

Bad blood is directly the cause of the face breaking out in pimples, and it is impossible to eradicate them unless you put your blood into good shape.

Burdock Blood Bitters is compounded from roots, herbs, barks and berries, and is without a doubt the best remedy procurable for the purpose of driving all the blood impurities out of the system.

Mr. Geo. E. Miller, Clavering, Ont., writes: "Last fall I was very much troubled with pimples. My face was literally covered with them. I went to four different doctors, but they could do me no good. One day a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got two bottles, and before I had taken all the first one, the pimples had nearly all disappeared, and by the time I had taken all the second one the pimples had disappeared completely, thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I would advise anybody who is troubled with any blood trouble to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Manufactured only by The T. M. L. Mill, Toronto, Ont."

COMMONS HEARS DETAILS OF ANGLO-GERMAN TROUBLE YESTERDAY.

It was proposed as the basis of a settlement between Germany and France and said he thought the matter might be arranged on such a basis without affecting British interests.

Anxiety for Settlement.
"We shall be very glad if this happens, and in the hope that it would happen, we have hitherto stood on one side," Sir Edward Grey said to the Ambassador, and continued: "But I had been made anxious by the news regarding the demands which the German government had made from the French government, which in effect meant a cession of the French Congo, and which it was obviously impossible for the French government to concede. I pointed out that the Germans were in the closed port of Agadir and they were landing and negotiating with the tribes, and for all we knew might be acquiring concessions. It might also be that the German flag had been hoisted at Agadir, which is the most suitable port on that coast for a naval base."

Sir Edward Grey pointed out to Count Wolff-Metternich that in the event of the negotiations with France failing Great Britain would be obliged to take some steps in order to protect British interests.
The German Ambassador was not in a position to impart any information to the British foreign office, but he deprecated the assumption of possible damage to British interests and said he was sure that his government had no intention of acquiring commercial monopolies.
The communication made to the British foreign office by the German Ambassador, Count Paul Wolff-Metternich on July 1, in regard to the despatch of the German gunboat Panther to Agadir in southern Morocco, and the Ambassador's explanation in regard to that matter, continued Sir Edward Grey, made it clear that Germany regarded a return to the status quo in Morocco as impossible, and that Germany's real objective was a definite solution of the whole Moroccan question.

On July 2, Sir Edward Grey informed the German ambassador that the situation created by the despatch of the Panther to Agadir was so serious and important that it must be discussed at a cabinet council, and on July 4, he told Count Wolff-Metternich that Great Britain was not able to take up a disinterested attitude concerning Morocco nor to recognize any new arrangement come to without her consent.

A long silent interval followed and the next conversation between Sir Edward Grey and Count Wolff-Metternich took place on July 21 when the British foreign secretary told the German ambassador that the British government adhered to his statement made on July 4.

Thenceforward there were no further difficulties. "A good deal of misunderstanding could have been avoided," remarked Sir Edward, "if Germany had made it clear about July fourth that she had no intention of taking part of Morocco."

Disastrous Policy.
Alluding to the policy of isolation, Sir Edward Grey thought it would be a disastrous policy for Great Britain to allow it to be understood that she would under no circumstances give her friends assistance if attacked. That would deprive her of all of her friends in Europe and she would soon be building warships against the rest of the world. If, on the other hand, England continually interfered in the international affairs of other nations as had been proposed by some members of the House of Commons, the consequence would be an expenditure on armaments even greater than at present, and the peace which the people desired to preserve would soon topple over. "Let us make new friendships by all means, but not at the expense of those we have."

"I desire to improve our relations with Germany and intend to maintain our friendships unimpaired. The German imperial chancellor recently made two speeches which were inspired with the hope of seeing his country strong by his aggressive. If that is the spirit of German policy, then within two or three years the talk of a great European war will have gone. The effect of the Moroccan settlement must be to relax tension and to remove a great obstacle from the path of European progress. For years the question of Morocco has been a discomfort to diplomats. It has been settled without breaking the peace of Europe and the part His Majesty's government has taken, has contributed materially to that result."

McCaskill, pastor of St. Matthew's church, will deliver a formal oration on St. Andrew's Day.

The Great C.P.R. Shops Awarded to Calgary

The largest single development ever recorded in any Canadian city came when the Directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway decided on October 3rd to locate the general Western car and locomotive shops at Calgary.

These shops, involving the immediate expenditure of millions for erection and equipment, will employ several thousand skilled mechanics, which means a new city adjacent to the shops of from 10,000 to 12,000 people, with all the city equipment required for such a population.

Being five miles from the centre of Calgary, with its 50,000 people, the new city will receive city light, water and sewerage, and inter-urban railway connections; all of which are assured and will be completed early next spring.

Banks, Hotels, Business Blocks, Schools, Churches and all public utilities will come with this new separate and distinct city, and the superb trackage facilities offered here will bring numerous manufacturing plants, to augment the industrial activity of the new city.

The building development to be witnessed here during the coming year will surpass anything of the kind ever seen in Canada

SUMMERLAND

SUMMERLAND is a subdivision of some of the finest property located near the shop site. It is just far enough away from the noise and smoke and dust of the shops and factories, and in the right direction to insure its becoming the high class residential district of the new city.

Summerland lots are beautifully located, every lot being high, dry and level. Summerland lots will be in demand for residential purposes in a short time by a prosperous and progressive population. Summerland will be in the midst of a city of 10,000 or more people inside the next three years.

Lots 25 x 120 feet. Inside Lots $130. Corners $140. No Interest.

This is Your Opportunity. Do not pass it by. Think of what others have done. Get in early and take advantage of the large profits to be made. Do you realize that in 3 or 4 years Calgary will have a population of 100,000 and be one of the great cities of the country?

OPPOSITION ARGUMENTS ARE ABOUT PLAYED OUT

With No Real Platform Behind Them Liberal Orators are Merely Threshing Old Straw in Debate—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux Voices His Party's Sentiment -- Hon. Mr. Monk's Effective Speech -- Mr. Hartt Making Good.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—"But, Mr. Speaker, what's the use?" It was from Rodolphe Lemieux who was speaking. He had just concluded a general arraignment of the government, having paid particular attention to Mr. Monk along the stereotyped lines—disloyalty and lack of patriotism—when looking across at the smiling enemy in no way disconcerted the thought seemed to strike him "What's the use?" and out it came.

When Mr. Monk resumed the debate on Thursday, there were few vacant seats in the House. The minister of public works is evidently the hero of the opposition, if his attacks have been mainly directed in his direction and there was a good deal of interest to see how he would deal with the enemy. Mr. Monk is a deliberate speaker with a deep voice—Mr. Lemieux referred to it in debate as "excruciating," which is of course an exaggeration—he is not what one would call aggressive, but he makes his points felt.

Beginning with a reference to Sir Wilfrid's contention that the liberal defeat was due to "emotionalism, sentiment and prejudice," Mr. Monk pointed out that there were many other causes and proceeded to enumerate a few of the scandals which marked the latter years of the Laurier regime and could not fail to have their effect on public opinion.

Then Mr. Monk passed on to discuss a subject which he remarked was particularly disquieting to the opposition, the existence of a cabinet in the cabinet. Sir Wilfrid thought he had made a point when he qualified the cabinet as a cabinet of coalition.

Development of St. John. Towards the close of his speech Mr. Monk made an interesting reference to the question of transportation and replied to Mr. Pugsley's enquiry regarding development at the port of St. John.

After Mr. Monk's speech comparatively little interest was taken in the debate. Mr. Lemieux spoke at length, but as far as he was concerned he was not afraid to sit in the House and deliberate on the affairs of the nation with the English conferees.

The sudden plunging of the parliament undings into inky darkness, was a weird incident which has only happened before, Candles, lamps and even gas matches were at a premium, strangers got lost in the long corridors and the whole routine of the big building was upset.

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1911.

THE PROVINCIAL BY-ELECTIONS.

Writes have been issued for the provincial by-elections in the counties of St. John and Sunbury. Nomination day is fixed for December 7th, with polling on the 14th of December. At the present time it is not thought that the Liberal party will put up candidates in either constituency. Although the present House of Assembly does not expire until some time in June, 1913, it is considered probable that the general elections will be delayed until that year, and that the forthcoming session of the present House will be its last. The near approach of the general elections is the principal reason given by the Liberals for declining to contest the by-elections at the present time.

But whether elections take place or the Government candidates are chosen by acclamation would make no difference in the result. The Government will have no difficulty in electing their candidates in either constituency. The present Administration, under the leadership of Mr. Hazen, came into power in 1908 and has earned an enviable reputation for good government while in power. The best friends of the Government which Mr. Hazen upset, cannot claim that the affairs of the Province were well administered during the last ten years they were in power. Instead they are compelled to admit that for this period, at least, the affairs of the Province were mismanaged, its permanent indebtedness greatly increased, and its current expenditures so manipulated as to create a serious scandal.

Instead of paying for the repairs of roads and bridges out of current account, large sums were held back year after year, in suspense accounts, until the Public Works Department was practically bankrupt and without the necessary funds to carry on the work of the year. Under one pretext or another this over-expenditure was charged to capital account and in this way fully a quarter of a million was added to the permanent debt upon which the people will be called upon to pay interest for all time.

Since the Government changed, the management of the Crown Lands Department under the previous Administration has come in for a large share of very severe but just criticism. It has been demonstrated beyond any doubt that while the Government was charging up the over-expenditures of the Public Works Department to capital account, they were permitting favored lumbermen to escape payment of a large percentage of the stumpage dues for lumber cut on the Crown lands. Had the Crown Land Department been honestly administered the old Government could have paid every dollar expended for public works out of current revenue. When the charge was originally made by the Opposition that the Province was being defrauded out of a very large sum of money annually, through the failure of the Government to properly administer the Crown lands under their control, few people had any idea of the real condition of affairs.

In 1907 the territorial revenue collected by the Crown Land Department amounted to $221,000, which was the banner year of the old Administration. In 1911 the total revenue of this department amounted to $728,823.82, and there is still due for stumpage $7,709.25, all of which is considered good. Through wise, just and honest administration, the present Government has increased the territorial revenue by $181,000 in four years. There has been no increase in the amount of lumber cut during this period, and no hardship has been imposed upon any of the lumbermen. They have simply been called upon to pay stumpage on the lumber actually cut, and which was justly due the country. The stumpage rates have not been increased but remain at the same figure imposed by the old Government. In this connection it is only fair to point out that the rates imposed by the Government of New Brunswick for stumpage are lower, in every instance, than those obtained by owners of private lands.

In some quarters great stress is laid on the fact that the expenditures of the present Government are larger than those of any previous Administration of the Province. Under a rearrangement with the Dominion Government the annual subsidy paid to the Province has been considerably increased. This increase was effected by the old Government, and the present Opposition in the House has continually set forth that the improved public service of the present Administration would not have been possible had the subsidy remained as it was while they were in power. The gentlemen making this assertion forget that more than one-half of the increased subsidy is required to pay interest on the permanent debt accumulated during the last ten years by the old Government, a considerable portion of which would not have been necessary had there been an honest collection of the territorial revenue. Had the present Government not made a complete change in this respect they would still be floundering about in the same old way making an unsuccessful attempt to make both ends meet.

The present Administration cannot be charged with extravagance because their expenditures are larger than those of the old Government. They had the money in the public treasury and they spent it in the public interest. The educational grant has been increased and provision made for pensioning school teachers who have made the instruction of youth their life work.

A vastly larger sum has been paid out for public works, such as the repair of roads, bridges and wharves. The old Government were so neglectful of the highways that some of them were almost impassable, while many bridges were unsafe for use. The expenditures for these purposes last year were the largest in the history of the Province and they have also been very great this year. So much work has been done in the last three years on bridges and wharves, particularly that it is quite safe to claim that they are in better condition now than ever before. This does not apply to any particular section, but in general throughout the whole Province.

The agricultural grant has also been greatly increased, that of last year being the largest in the history of the Province. Much valuable work has already been done, and an interest has been awakened in the development of agriculture greater than ever before, which is bound to produce results. In the matter of fruit culture alone, the two exhibitions held in St. John in 1910 and 1911, have given the people of the Province ocular demonstration of the magnificent possibilities awaiting New Brunswick in this important branch of agriculture.

While the Government has been able to do so much for the public services, because of its increased revenue, it is noteworthy that there has been a large decrease in the contingent expenses of the departments and of those of the members of the Executive. The item of coach hire, that unexplained mystery, has entirely disappeared, and the travelling expenses of the members of the Government have been greatly reduced. Each member of the Executive does the work he is paid for doing instead of employing someone else and paying him out of the public treasury. For what it has done in bringing order out of chaos and getting a dollar of value for every dollar spent, in systematizing the accounts and publishing them in full detail, the present Administration is worthy of the confidence of the people.

It will not be forgotten by the electors that during the debate on supply, at the session of 1911, the Opposition failed to record objection to any item brought down by the Provincial Secretary. They voted the budget to its entirety. Any suggestion made by any member of the Opposition was for an increase rather than a decrease in the amount submitted, a truly remarkable condition of affairs. The present Administration has a record for giving the Province good government and the people generally have confidence that there will be a continuance of the policy and will strengthen their hands by adding to their supporters.

King's College, which is located at Windsor, Nova Scotia, and is the oldest of the colonial colleges of the British Empire, desires to increase its endowment by $100,000, and also wants $25,000 for other necessities. Although not a large institution, King's has turned out some wonderful men. Among the best known of these are Judge Halliburton (Sam Slick), who may be regarded as the real founder of the American school of humor. Judge Halliburton was in every way a remarkable man, and even to this day, the sayings of "Sam Slick" are frequently quoted and his work is better remembered than any other writer of humor of his time. Two other names well known to history are Sir Fenwick Williams, the heroic defender of Kars during the Crimean War, and Sir John Inglis, the associate of Havelock in his wonderful march to the relief of Lucknow during the Indian Mutiny. Both were students at King's. The reputations of these men are world-wide. King's has also turned out a host of others who have played an important part, not only in the history of the Maritime Provinces and Canada, but also in all the colonial possessions of Great Britain. King's deserves well of the people of Nova Scotia, particularly, while New Brunswick is also indebted in a manner to the old college.

Mr. H. A. Powell, whose appointment to the International Waterways Commission, is announced, is eminently qualified for the important office for which he has been selected. The commission as named includes Mr. J. Chase Casgrain of Montreal, and Mr. C. A. McGrath of Leithbridge, as well as Mr. Powell. The commission is generally regarded as one possessing the ability to care for the important interests of Canada where the waterways are concerned.

One of the census commissioners of Toronto has made the statement publicly that ten per cent, may be safely added to the population of that city, as given out by the Department of Agriculture. This is a most remarkable statement for anyone officially connected with the taking of the census to make, but it quite in accordance with the general belief of the people throughout Canada that the census figures for 1911 are wholly unreliable.

The upper province newspapers refer in the highest terms to Mr. Hazen's speech on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. Hazen is not altogether new to Ottawa, having represented St. John in the Parliament of 1891 to 1896. His later experience as leader of the Opposition and afterwards as Premier of his native Province has stood him in good stead, however, and to those of the older generation in the House of Commons who had remembered him as a comparatively young man and inexperienced politician, his coming back was a revelation. They found in him the mature and polished orator, and one likely to take and hold a prominent place as a member of Mr. Borden's Cabinet. A Westmorland gentleman who heard Mr. Hazen's speech says it was a source of pride to him as a New Brunswicker, and he predicts that Mr. Pugsley, to whom the Minister replied most effectively, is not likely to risk crossing swords with him again at an early date. In fact, the impression in Ottawa, as in this Province, is that Mr. Pugsley will soon find that he has more congenial business elsewhere, and that he will not be heard from very often in this Parliament, either as a defender of his past record, or as an exponent of the Opposition policy, whatever that may be. It is doubtful, also, if Mr. Pugsley will ever contest another election in St. John.

NERVOUSNESS AND DYSPEPSIA

CURED BY "FRUIT-A-TIVES" THE GREAT FRUIT MEDICINE

In Nervous Dyspepsia, the Dyspepsia does not come from the Nervousness—but the latter trouble does come from the Dyspepsia. The stomach is a network of nerves. Now, if all these nerves are irritated by improper food, fatty eating, or poisoned by gases from the constipated bowels, then they will make one nervous. "Fruit-a-tives" cures both the Nervousness and the Dyspepsia because "Fruit-a-tives" cures all stomach troubles, keeps the stomach sweet and clean and enables you to eat and sleep as you did when a child. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, $1.50. A remedy he suggested by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Nov. 27.—The handsome lodge room in the new Masonic Hall was dedicated according to the rites of the fraternity to the use of Masonry, Thursday evening. There were present a number of the grand officers and a very pleasant evening was spent. Campbellton lodge is growing rapidly and it is expected that the membership will shortly reach the hundred mark.

On Thursday evening Dow Vanborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Vanborne, was united in marriage to Miss Greig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Greig, of St. John. The Rev. E. P. Wallace officiated.

Dr. Ferguson of Dalhousie spent Thursday in town. A. D. Leger and B. Freedmen of Montreal are in town. Harry F. Brown, Alan Forbes and Guy St. John, are at the St. Louis. Detective D. A. Noble of Sydney, C.E., is in town.

The shipping season is now about over. No fewer than thirty ocean going vessels have cleared from this port, carrying 22,000 tons of lumber, while one hundred and ten vessels cleared for coast traffic with a tonnage of 31,500 tons. Work on the new post office is progressing rapidly. Contractor Reid is pushing the work forward with as much speed as is consistent with good work.

An Arkus candidate whose platform was "a flat and a piano for every workman" was badly beaten. After all, there's a real of humor in being left in the mass of the electorate.

It is generally anticipated that Tuesday will see the end of the debate and that the House will then get down to business. There are, so far, ninety questions to be answered by ministers, including a number of interest to the Maritime Provinces. The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne takes precedence and until that is out of the way, nothing else can be dealt with.

A notice in the Royal Gazette contains the report already published in the Standard that lobster fishing in Charlotte and St. John counties (and the rest of the province) was allowed to commence on November 1st. This concession is mainly due to the interest taken in the fisheries by Mr. Hartt, M. P., for Charlottetown, the islands during the recent campaign the matter was brought to his attention by the fishermen. Mr. Hartt took the point up for the Hon. J. D. Hays, minister of marine and fisheries, and at a recent meeting of the council the order was passed.

A good word for the facilities for loading cattle on the ship at St. John is contained in the annual report of Dr. J. G. Rutherford, veterinary director-general and live stock commissioner. He says the facilities at St. John are excellent, but the report contains a criticism of the manner in which the western livestock export trade is conducted. He expresses the view that no wild grass finished cattle should be shipped for export, as they cannot reach the British market without "woeful depreciation."

DINNER FOR BAND.

Fredericton, N.S., Nov. 27.—A pleasant evening was spent at the Canadian Hotel Saturday night when Councilman D. W. Mercereau, president of the band, and the members of the band and a few of his many friends a dinner. The gathering congregated in the spacious office of the hotel at 8 o'clock and a few choice selections were rendered creditably by the band after which the guests repaired to the dining-room where covers were spread for twenty-four. The tables were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers and presented a beautiful appearance.

At 11:30 the gathering dispersed, after giving three cheers and a tiger for the president, the band and the house and voicing their sentiments for Mr. Mercereau by singing "He's a jolly good fellow." Everybody fully enjoyed the evening. It is to be hoped this may be an annual event with the band and that the people may take an interest in their welfare and exert every effort to make it a permanent institution.

"I'm sorry, my dear, but the potatoes are cold and the steak is burned to a crisp. The butter has been on the table so long that it has gone to oil, and the hot weather has soured the milk."

"That's all right my dear, we won out in the 8th inning," he replied.

Peeling the Face

(From Modern Housekeeping.) Women are beginning to realize how dangerous and how unnecessary is the painful and expensive surgical operation known as "face-peeling." Many clever society women noted for their exquisite beauty, accomplish the desired result themselves at home, with perfect safety and no pain, expense or detention indoors. They simply use ordinary mercerized wax, which can be obtained almost anywhere. It is applied at night like cold-cream and washed off in the morning. The mercerized wax slowly absorbs all dead outer skin, causing it to flake off day by day in fine, almost imperceptible particles like flour. The fresh vigorous young skin underneath soon shows forth, blooming radiantly with health and beauty. The face begins to look years younger, though the use of the process absolutely defies detection by the closest observer.

Naturally this process also removes all such minor facial blemishes as freckles, tan, moth patches, liver spots, fine wrinkles, pimples, etc.

You Want Your Home Well Lighted

Few things are more necessary for your health and comfort than good light. If you want to improve your home lighting, use Tungsten Lamps. True, these incandescent lamps cost more than carbon filament lamps, but saving, as they do, 75 per cent. of current, they certainly are the most economical lamps to buy. The Tungsten Lamps we sell are made with Drawn Wire Filament, are much stronger than the ordinary Tungsten, can be used with Eddys Socket and will burn in any position with an average life of 1,000 hours.

COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR

Was So Terribly Afflicted With Lame Back.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back, and no woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well.

The weak, lame and aching back comes from sick kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble.

Mrs. Harvey W. Brownell, Northport, N.S., writes: "I now take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I received by using Doan's Kidney Pills.

About a year ago I was so bad at times I could not sweep my own floor. While looking through your B.B. Almanac I saw Doan's Kidney Pills were a great remedy, so I bought a box of 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. EDMONTON

Article No. 2.

A LITTLE OUTPOST TOWN, on the northwestern frontier, had grown to a thriving prosperous city of thirty thousand, and the city is EDMONTON.

It was from here that two young men journeyed west to find their fortunes, and it is in Edmonton that was organized, only a few months ago, the first of Western Canada's Great Industrials.

And when the business men of Edmonton saw themselves face to face with the first great industrial institution of the northwest, their first step was to create an institution, the like of which is not to be found on the American continent.

This institution was created for the specific and deliberate purpose of organizing industrial concerns, so that they will pay dividends to their shareholders.

Experts for these departments were recruited from the great industrial and commercial centres of the United States and Canada. And what this institution has meant already to Edmonton may be illustrated by its history.

Starting on the 20th day of last March with a little table and typewriting machine in one corner of its organizer's room in an Edmonton Hotel, this Organization Institution has grown in less than eight months to a great business, occupying five rooms in a large office building, and employing more than fifty men and women, most of whom are experts in their lines.

This is the only institution in the United States or Canada equipped for every department of Factory Organization and Management. And it is this institution that is Organizing, Financing, Building and will put into successful operation this, the great Industrial of Western Canada, the story of which will be told in the four remaining days of this week.

In the Engineering Department the most competent mechanical and construction engineers obtainable are employed. These are men of the most complete and scientific training and of many years successful experience.

The Factory Organization Department is made up of men trained in the thorough and scientific factory methods that have made the great American factories such marvels of perfect organization and efficiency.

The Accounting and Office System Departments are made up of a large force of trained accountants and system men who are commissioned with the responsibility of installing complete and accurate systems of accounting and costs, and interlocking counter-checking office methods.

The effect of all this is that when a factory is organized by this institution, it means that the right machinery has been purchased at the lowest possible cost and assembled for the highest speed and efficiency.

These are the methods, briefly told, of the only institution either in Canada or the United States, organized for the purpose of building successful businesses.

Water Works Make Trouble.
The Water and Sewerage departments had a busy session yesterday afternoon and last evening. The excitement in the afternoon was caused by the stoppage in the sewer main on Mill street. At an early hour this morning City Engineer Murdoch sent word to the Standard to the effect that if there was any weakness of water pressure noticed this morning, it will be caused by a break on Westmorland Road near Ira B. RESULTS OF WORK IN INDIA DISCUSSED

There was a good attendance at the Brussels street Baptist church last night when Miss Cora Clark, a returned missionary, who for the past nine years for the Maritime Baptist Foreign Mission Board, has been a missionary in Bimlipatan, in the Presidency, India, and is now in Canada on a year's furlough, gave a most interesting lecture.

Her address was a clear comprehensive exposition of the results of the work of the missionaries, showing how in many different ways the influence of Christianity is at work breaking down the superstition of the people, and preparing the way for more general acceptance of Christianity.

Miss Clark illustrated her address with references to particular cases which had come under her notice. Her remarks were listened to with deep attention by a large audience.

AMERICANS INTERESTED IN CANADA'S POSSIBILITIES

H. A. Powell, K. C., who Addressed Philadelphia Canadian Club Last Week, Says Defeat of Reciprocity Taught the Americans How Highly we Value Our Natural Resources.

"Now that the question of reciprocity has been settled, Americans are showing a greater interest than ever in the industrial possibilities of Canada, and their financial men are more keenly on the alert for opportunities to invest money in our manufacturing industries, and in our western land," said H. A. Powell, K. C., who returned yesterday from a trip to Philadelphia where he went last week to deliver an address before the Canadian Club.

"Our rejection of the reciprocity pact, instead of engendering a feeling of resentment towards us, has caused thoughtful men in the States to devote more study to conditions in Canada, and try to realize the Canadian point of view. All whom I came in contact with in the Quaker City, even the Canadian-born, supposed that Canada would accept the reciprocity pact as a matter of course, and they have been looking for light as to the causes of their rejection by our people. As a result, they have come to learn something about the great industrial development of Canada in recent years, due to the operation of the National policy, and many can readily see how that development has brought about a change in the outlook of our people, and why we determined to keep the course in which we found progress and prosperity.

Imperial Relations.
"They can also understand how we have determined to do nothing which would interfere with our relations with the Mother Country, and why we look forward to the possibility of Imperial preference."
"All the Americans I talked with about the matter regarded the reciprocity pact as a stepping stone to reciprocity in manufactured articles, and when the extent and causes of our own industrial development was pointed out to them they readily recognized that from the view-point of national interest we acted wisely in rejecting a pact which was designed to establish free trade in manufactured products. And so far from having any ill-will towards us, they entertain more respect for us than before."
"Americans are now beginning to realize as never before, that Canada is a nation with a future. They recognize that we have a country of vast resources, and that the immigration from Europe must turn this way in an increasing stream, and that as a field for investment, Canada offers greater opportunities now than any country under the sun."
