FAMOUS EDITOR OF "MERCURY" TO STUDY THE WESTERN NEGRO

Desires to Meet Intellectual Negroes of Pacific Coast in His Quest for Book Material.

Pacific Coast News Bureau.
Henry Louis Mencken, one of America's greatest literary geniuses, editor of the "American Mercury," and at one time candidate for the presidency, will visit California early in November with a desire as he expresses it "to meet the intellectual Negro" of the Pacific Coast.

Officially a Southerner.

Born in Baltimore below the Mason & Dixon line and thus officially a Southerner, Editor Mencken's greatness as one writer puts it, "is not only found in the most uncanny and superlative stunning inborn diplomacy and deepest reasoning brilliancy in his articles and his books, but fully as decisive and rare in his sterling honesty and genuine sincerity that he always maintained in his splendid crusades for mankind's rights and the square justice for the downtrodden ones."

A Champion of the Masses

"At every movement directed against the Negro, Mencken fought bravely and defiantly for the black brother's rights, and from this honorable literary pathway all the combined hellhounds of America's illy-white discrimination leagues and clubs could not dislodge or silence the doughty and peerless Mencken," says Louis Michel who has charge of the assembling of the 1,000 members of the colored reception committee who will welcome Editor Mencken to California.

Champions the Postal Worker.

Editor Mencken who is visiting California in his quest for available material for his forthcoming book on "The Truth and the Future of the Negro," and whose Mercury magazine of the issue of April, 1926, was barred from the United States mails because of publication of the famous "Hatrack" story, recently in a copyright article to the Chicago Tribune takes a rap at the United States postal administration, condemning the postal rates and championing the postal employees. He marvels "at the extraordinary efficiency of its ill-paid and anonymous underlings" and fails to see how they are "induced to work for the low less often than bank clerks and are "at least twice as competent as the employees of railroads."

California University Promotes Colored Star

Colored Substitute to Replace Star Tackle on Bear Varsity.

Pacific Coast News Bureau.
Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 2.—Robert Francis, former star player in his prep days as captain of the Polytechnic High School team of San Francisco, who was sidetracked to the substitute bench by the late Andy Smith, has finally after two years of waiting been promoted to his rightful position as a member of the varsity squad.

Replaces Famous Tackle

Francis, a sensational half-back in his prep days, was shifted to the line by Smith when he entered the University of California. Failing to function with merit in this position, he was sidetracked to the bench. This year, after defeats by St. Marys, the Oregon Aggies and the University of Southern California, Coach Clarence Price in seeking new material for his positions left unoccupied through injuries, decided to give Francis his chance with the varsity as tackle, replacing Fred Coltrim who with Poulson of Stanford U, and Brice Taylor (colored) of University of Southern California, are rated as the best tackles on the Coast. Coltrain was injured in the recent game with the University of Southern California.

Negro Baptists Greater In N.Y. and Chicago

Detroit Also Has Shown An Enormous Increase. Churches Are Multiplied About Ten Times in Number.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Board of Missionary Co-operation of the Northern Baptist Convention announced on Saturday that there are at present more Negro than White Baptists in both New York and Chicago. In Detroit the Colored American Baptists also almost outnumbered the whites at the present time.

Shows Religious Zeal

The religious status of the colored Americans in the two largest cities of the country is remarkable considering that they are outnumbered 25 to 1 in New York and 15 to 1 in Chicago. Some attribute the standing to the greater religious ardor of the colored American, while others believe it due to the recent migrations from the South in which these cities figures so prominently.

The increase has been so great in Detroit that where there were only 5 Colored Baptist churches there in 1917 there are now 60.

Have $6,000,000 Budget

The northern influx of Colored Americans and the great increase throughout the country of wide unchurched suburban belts were named as two outstanding problems to be met by a special $1,000,000 fund to be raised next year by Northern Baptists for church building. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., it was announced has pledged $250,000 outright and another $50,000 contingent upon other contributions, this money to be applied to the present year's budget. For the year beginning May 1, 1927, the budget has been fixed at over $6,000,000.

AWARDED $1000 "FELLOW" BY MUSICAL FOUNDATION

Washington, Oct. 27.—A $1000 fellowship for the pursuit of advanced studies in music has been awarded to Miss Anola Miller, Howard University School of Music graduate, by the Julliard Musical Foundation for her outstanding accomplishment in music. Miss Miller will continue her work in voice culture. She was one of the winners of a $250 scholarship offered by the Independent Benevolent Protective Order of Colored Elks.

Miss Cornelia Lampton, another graduate of Howard, has also won a Julliard Musical Foundation fellowship. She is well known as a concert pianist.

ORIENT BREAKING SHACKLES OF NORDIC DOMINATION

Industrial Development of the East Passing from White Man's Hands.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—(Special release).—Few people realize the extent to which the industrial development of the Far East is falling into the hands of its own people, says "Living Age." The Chinese are taking the tin business of the Straits Settlements away from the English; the rubber plantations of Sumatra are becoming the property of wealthy Malays; and India, China and Japan have already built up modern textile and engineering industries of some importance. The colored people of the orient, in a word, are trying to liberate themselves not only from the political tutelage, but also from the economic dominion of the white man.

Although Japan raises no cotton and India does, she can manufacture cheaper than her competitor, and is driving the products of the Hindoo and the Paris mill owners of Bombay, not only from the Persian gulf market but also from India itself. While her labor costs are lower, her spinners receiving only about 3 cents for an 11-hour day, other elements also account for this. Her mills are better organized, equipped and managed.

A German correspondent, writing in "Vossische Zeitung," makes this comparison of the industrial efficiency of the two countries: "I have visited cotton mills in Bombay, and I have just seen a number of those in Osaka. The mills in Japan are much cleaner and more sanitary than the sheds, filthy with betel nut spit, where the Hindus work. Every large Japanese factory has a restaurant where the employes can get three good meals for 4 or 5 cents each. Many factories have dormitories for the unmarried employes, and the little cottages of the married help are quite up to the average accommodations in that country. Intercourse between managers and workers is courteous. No Japanese would stand for a moment the rough treatment which is customary in India. On the other hand, Japanese wages are from a quarter to a third lower, and their working day is from one to two hours longer than in India." —St. Louis Argus.

PROMISING AND REFRESHING.

One of the most promising signs which Christianity has revealed in many years was manifested in an address last week by Ronald Fredenburg, premier of the Old Boys' Parliament. The address was made in the Metropolitan Church at the close of the Ontario Religious Educational Council. The sentiments which Mr. Fredenburg expressed is all the more significant and interesting because the speaker has expressed the beliefs of the thinking type of the real young Christian people. He divided the problems regarding which young Christian people must concern themselves into four parts: International relationships, inter-racial problems, social and industrial problems and the problem of reconciling the world to modern thought and modern modes of expression. From the many splendid things he said we quote the following: "Think of the tragedy of the followers of the Prince of Peace engaging in the slaughter of their fellow men." He also sketched the bitterness between Christian races, pointing out the amazing difference made by the color of the skin.

In conclusion, Mr. Fredenburg pointed out that in the past professing Christians have never allowed their Christianity to penetrate into any of these difficulties. "In the past men have never asked themselves what Christ would do if He were faced with the international problems, the industrial problems and the problem of intolerance. Christianity has been kept too much a thing apart. "It is all right to preach Christianity to the colored man so long as he is not to be the white man's equal; it was all right to have Christianity if it did not interfere with the ambition of nations; it was all right to have religion so long as it caused no discomfort to the comfortable classes.

Evidently this young man is a stalwart Christian gentleman as well as a profound thinker. He has sounded the warning. His advice is such that all Christian countries and Christian individuals should study most seriously. The farce which religious people have kept up for many years is becoming irksome. Mr. Fredenburg and many others are beginning to tear away its mask. Christianity is being made to stand upon its merits. Either it must be our most treasured possession, to be lived for and to live by, or it must be to us a sham, a subterfuge or a thing of convenience. In speaking of the difference made by Christian people because of the difference in skin color. Mr. Fredenburg might have gone a little further and pointed out the difference in attitudes some people would take towards Christ Himself if they knew he had Negro blood in His veins; if they knew that Ham was a Canaanite (Gen. 10:'), that Phares, the great-grandfather of David (Ruth 4:17-22) was the son of Juda and Tama, a Canaanitish woman (Gen. b8) and Christ was, according to the flesh, "of the line of David." Matt. 3rd ch.) (Romans 1:3) (Luke 3rd ch.).

Christendom is beginning to wander and to lose its way. Its prestige is beginning to wane, not because of the failure of Christianity, but because of the spirit in which it is followed. Follows of the lowly Christ must go with Him all the way or He will raise up a generation of new blood, such as Mr. Fredenburg, to bear His cross.

BLACK MADONNA

Not as the white nations know thee,
Oh Mother!

But swarthy of cheek and full lipped as the child races are.

Yet thou art she, the Immaculate Maid, and none other

Crowned in the stable at Bethlehem, hailed of the star.

See where they come, thy people, so humbly appealing,

From the ancient land where the olden faiths had birth.

Tired, dusky hands uplifted for thy healing

Pity them, O mother, the untaught of earth.

By Albert Rice, Negro poet.

New York Moderator Makes Modernist Statements in Sermon.

(By William Occomy)

Brooklyn, N.Y.—On Sunday evening at the regular services of the Nazarene Congregational church, Rev. H. H. Proctor voiced the sentiments of a large number of modernists when he declared in speaking of the material conception of hell, "So far as material fire is concerned there is no material fire. A mother would not want to burn her child. God is Love and He would not want to burn His children." He then stated that hell is out of date in the sense that "it is a place where people burn, that it is merely concerned with the future world, that it is a material fire and that it is the same as Sing-Sing."

"Hell is out of date in the sense that it is Sing-Sing. God will never drive one of His children to hell! On all sides God has put His cross that He might keep all out of hell," continued the speaker.—Boston Chronicle.

OPPORTUNITY.

Coincident with its plan of issuing occasional "special numbers," Opportunity, Journal of Negro Life, published by the National Urban League, 127 East 23rd Street, New York City, devotes its entire November issue to a discussion of the problems surrounding Negro life in the West Indies. As Mr. Charles S. Johnson, the editor, says, "There are at least 85,000 foreign born Negroes in the United States. They have come principally from the British West Indies, the Virgin Islands and countries of Latin America. This group, however small in numbers, has made itself felt."

Some of the articles in this issue of Opportunity are "In Our American Language," by Waldo Frank; three new poems by Claude McKay; "The West Indies," by W. A. Domingo; "The Virgin Islands, Past and Present," by Casper Holstein; "The Garvey Movement," by E. Franklin Frazier; "Negro Composers and Musicians of the West Indies," by A. M. W. Malliet. Messrs. Eugene Kinckle, Jones, J. A. Rogers, and Rev. Ethelred Brown contribute to a symposium on "West Indian-American Relations." There are also reviews and poems by Georgia Douglas Johnson, Jerome Peterson, Arthur E. King and Jean J. Adam.

GRACIOUSNESS A CHARACTERISTIC OF BERT WILLIAMS

Pacific Coast News Bureau.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 2.—"Graciousness must have been characteristic of Bert Williams, the Negro comedian whose funeral was attended by high and low members of the theatrical profession, by millionaires and beggars, by ministers and race-track touts," writes William Feather in the Los Angeles Times on a series of talks on business philosophy.

"We have all observed that some people can win the admiration and good will, not only of their equals and superiors, but also of their employees, bootblacks, their servants, tradesmen, their barbers, waiters, bootblacks, chauffeurs and relatives. They do not attain this distinction with tips, bonuses, handouts and easy-going discipline, but by fairness, justice and a sense of fitness.

Unfortunately, some people are so vulgar that they mistake graciousness for softness. The gracious man and woman know how to handle these and if you have ever observed the act you will have noticed that they don't take off their gloves or strain their voices.

Graciousness is the outward manifestation of a fine soul. Like the sun, it sheds its light every day of the year."

MASQUERADE AND BOX SOCIAL, ST. GEORGE'S HALL, OCT. 29.

A very successful masquerade social was given Friday evening, Oct. 29, by the "Get Acquainted Club" in St. George's Hall, corner of Clarence and Dundas Sts. The hall was crowded, there being about 150 present. The evening was spent in games, community singing and dancing. The hall was very prettily decorated in the colors of the club which are orange and black, and also the same colors were in keeping for Hallowe'en. The many decorations were suggestive of the spirit of Hallowe'en, each light being shaded with orange and black, with cats and witches in silhouette.

A handsomely decorated booth trimmed in white fringe and orange and black medallions was placed at the front of the hall from which ice cream and soft drinks were dispensed.

The programme for the evening was opened by a grand march which was played by Mr. Robert Johnson of Clarence St., during which the judges awarded the following prizes:

Best dressed lady—1st, Mrs. Poindexter, fancy pincushion; 2nd, Miss Margaret Moxley, box of chocolates. Best dressed gentleman, 1st, Mr. Fred Ball, safety razor; 2nd, best man's costume was awarded to Mrs. Washington who was dressed as an Irishman. She also received a fancy pincushion.

Two features which were outstanding were the cat dance for which partners were selected by matching cats, witches, etc, and a balloon dance at which time a large bag of balloons were released over the dancers and the ensuing scramble for them was very amusing.

here were guests present from Stratford, Woodstock, Brantford, Chatham, Guelph, Ingersoll and other points.

The committee in charge for the above affair are to be highly complimented for the success of the evening as everyone present expressed their appreciation of the same.

The committee consisted of Mrs. Chantler, Mr. C. Poindexter, Mr. J. Brooks, Mr. W. Hunter. Mrs. B. Moxley, president, Miss M. Hooper, secretary.

A delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Berry Jr., on Front St. Thursday evening, October 21st, in honor of their twelfth wedding anniversary. Fifty guests were present to wish the bride and groom many more happy anniversaries. The evening was spent in playing games and music, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and Mrs. Fred Kelly. Out of town guests were from Stratford: Madame Harrison, Miss June Harrison, Miss Alice Harrison, Miss Carol Harrison, Miss Rebecca Brightwell, Miss Gertie Henderson, Miss Elsie Duncan, Mr. Robert Hesson, Mr. Will Harrison, Lucan. Mr. and Mrs. Will Butler and family. The bride and groom received many pieces of beautiful linen. Congratulations and a beautiful lunch set were received from Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Clayborne and Mr. and Mrs. King, of Marquette, Mich.

HAMILTON.

The pastor, Rev. Claude A. Stewart, occupied the pulpit at both services and preached two very helpful and inspiring sermons.

Rev. Claude A. Stewart preached Sunday afternoon at Oakville. A number of the choir accompanied Rev. Stewart, it being their Harvest Home service.

A Hallowe'en social was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hollands, under the auspices of the Stewardess Board. Three prizes were given—first, Mr. Hyatt Grant, for best costume; second, Miss Gladys Duncan, for remaining unidentified; third; Mr. R. A. Hammond, for funniest costume. A prize was also given for the person lighting the most candles with one match. This prize was won by our pastor's wife, Mrs. Claude A. Stewart. The social was a success in every way. The judges were Rev. Vance Shelto, of Oakville, and Mrs. Emma Lewis.

We are sorry to report the serious of Mrs. Mary Rhodes. Others on the sick list are Mrs. Lillian Holland, Mrs. Alligood and Mrs. Lewis, of Oak Ave.

A pew wrally was held Sunday evening. A goodly sum was realized which was much appreciated by the pastor and trustees.

The silver cup which was won by Raymond Lewis, Fred Holland, Oliver Holland and Charlie Brown, was presented to the Sunday School, Sunday afternoon. Rev. Stewart and Mr. J. C. Holland, superintendent, were high in their praises of the boys for the honor they had brought to our Sunday School and Church. All Hamilton is proud of our boys.

Mrs. Albert Douglas, of Stratford, spent a few days in the city the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown.

Rev. Vance Shelto spent Thursday evening in the city and attended the Hallowe'en social.

Miss Evelyn Duncan spent a few days in Guelph visiting her mother.

Mrs. Barnes and family made a flying visit to Detroit.

BRANTFORD

Saturday, Oct. 16, was our tag day and although it was a disagreeable day we realized the sum of $100.20 with the assistance of six people from St. Catharines and Miss Leon Turner of Brantford, and we thank them very kindly for the able manner in which they assisted us.

Sunday, Oct. 17, was our Harvest Home, which was very well attended, with visitors from Oakville, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and so, also Mr. and Mrs. Ford of Toronto. Rev. Wright spoke both morning and evening on "The Harvest." The church looked very pretty, decorated with all kinds of fruits and vegetables of the season and Rev. and Mrs. Wright deserve a great deal of credit for gathering most of the vegetables. Monday evening there was quite a little sum realized through the sale of vegetables. There were quite a few left and they were turned over to the minister and

Mr. and Mrs. Delfish have returned home after a three months' visit at Fort Erie, Buffalo and Midland. We are glad to see Mrs. Delfish looking so well. Mr. Delfish and Mr. Win. McCurtis went on through to Midland where they will remain for an indefinite time.

Mr. Harry Johnson waws home from Buffalo visiting his parents for the week-end. He is looking well.

Mrs. Mabel Wilson, of Toronto, and Mr. Clarence Beckles, of Toronto, were in the city Sunday, guests of her mother, Mrs. Chas. Walker. It being Mrs. Walker's 73rd birthday, she was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Mrs. Agnes Brown, Mr. James Murray, Mr. John McCurtis, Mrs. George Johnston and Master Sherley Johnson are on the sick list, but at the time of writing were much improved.

Sunday, Oct. 24th, Rev. Wright spoke both morning and evening in his very able manner. his subject in the morning being "The Power of Prayer." Brantford seems to be asleep at the switch. They need to wake up or else the train will run over them.

Mrs. McClure of Woodstock was with us for a few days visiting old friends.

ATLANTA U. OCTPLAYS FISK IN 18-0 VICTORY

Associated Negro Press.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—The Crimson hurrican of Atlanta University struck here Saturday afternoon at Sulphur Dell field, and when it subsided the Fisk Bull Dogs had been swept off their feet to an 18-0 defeat.

The ull Dogs entered the game with the determination to add another victory to the record of the old Tennessee institution. Their hopes, however, received a severe jolt in the early part of the second quarter when the Atlantans, equally determined to emerge victorious, blocked a kick and converted it into a touchdown.

In the second half, the Hurricane backs, Collum, Shephard, McPherson and Stanley, driving through the stubborn Fisk defense, until the second touchdown was scored and just as the game closed Yates intercepted a Bull Dog pass and galloped for the third touchdown.

Christmas is just nine weeks away. Do you know it?

Have you visited "Lady Canada Restaurant?" If not, go there. Some name and some service. The young men are trying to please you and give you a cafe with clean service, clean food and a worthwhile place to eat. Help them by eating there when you don't eat at home.

Mr. Bryant, the father, Mr. Bryant, the Brother and Mr. Bryant, the nephew of Mrs. J. W. Montgomery, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Montgomery at Osgoode Hall.

Rev. McEwin Williams preached at the A. M. E. Church Sunday and members of the choir helped in the singing, showing a get-together spirit of the various denominations. Rev. Henderson is pastor of the A. M. Church now and has always advocated the getting together of all the churches for the general good of all. Monday evening, the choir and members, ably led by Mrs. Mallette, gave a very creditable concert for the church.

The first quarterly communion service was held last Sunday, Oct. 24th, in the B. M. E. church. The pastor, Rev. Stewart, conducted the services, morning and evening. Sunday, Oct. 31st, the services were as usual quite interesting and well attended. The pastor conducted both services, speaking at 11 a.m. from the text: Phil. 3:20 subject "The Heavenly Citizenship." In the evening the subject was "The Creed of Creeds." (Job 19: 25-27, Revised Version).

The annual Thanksgiving service under the auspices of the three churches, will be held in the Grant A. M. E. church on Monday, Nov. 8th, at 11 a.m. Rev. F. O. Stewart of the B. M. E. church is to be the speaker for the occasion.

Our many friends are asked to keep in mind the annual Thanksgiving dinner. The Stewardess' Board have made extensive preparations to serve you. Your patronage is solicited on Nov. 8th, 1 to 2:30 and 6 to 8 p.m. Musical program 8:15 p.m.

Word was received by Mr. Andrew Smith of 429 Dundas St., of the death of his only brother who resided in South Bend, Ind. We extend to Brother Smith our sympathy.

The First Baptist Church of our city is making extensive preparations to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the church in the City of Toronto. The entire month of November will be given over to this great event, held each Tuesday and Thursday of the month. See program.

LONDON.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jenkins last Monday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, twin boys. Mother and babies are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Gray street have returned after spending a delightful vacation with relatives in the Southland.

Miss Rosettie Wilson is in the city in the interest of the B. M. E. Conference. Miss Wilson's friends of both races are always glad to have her with us.

OWEN SOUND

There has been a great change in our church affairs in Owen Sound. On Oct. 31st Rev. E. A. Richardson preached in the Church of Christ Disciples, while the minister of that church preached in the B. M. E. church. The preacher from the Disciples church was Rev. Mr. McCloud, president of the Ministerial Association of the United Churches of our city. He preached at 7 p.m. while Rev. E. A. Richardson preached in the church of Rev. McCloud at 7 p.m. There is a great spiritual revival going on in our city and all the ministers have been revived. Rev. McCloud delivered a very stirring sermon. His text was taken from St. John 6: 35 and 48: "Jesus said, I am the Bread of Life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger." The speaker said that a healthy body always hungers for the natural bread and that healthy Christians hunger for the spiritual bread which Jesus Christ can give to all who ask for it in spirit and truth.

A very happy event took place on Oct. 1st last at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sauehrls, when her daughter, Miss Rachel Earls, became the bride of Mr. Andrew Hartley, of Toronto, Ont, son of Rev. Andrew and Mrs. Hartley, of Toronto. They were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. E. A. Richardson, pastor of the B. M. E. church, in the presence of the immediate relatives. Moses Earls, brother of the bride, was best man, while Mrs. Richardson, wife of Pastor Richardson, was bride's matron. The happy couple will reside in Toronto.

We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Wm. Miller of Holland Centre, Ont. Mrs. Wm. Harrison (nee Mandy Miller) is a daughter and Sam and William Miller are sons of the deceased. Mr. Miller, who died Oct. 15, was well known and highly respected in the community.

Mrs. Clifford Johnston is on the sick list at this writing.

Mrs. Francis Taylor is somewhat indisposed with nerve trouble and high blood pressure. Pray for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. C. Johnston gave a Halloween party to her Sunday school class. There were 19 present and all had a pleasant time.

Master Garfield Green, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Green, is very jubilant over having received first prize at the art exhibition at the fall fair of the children of his school. He obtained the highest mark in his class.

The Stewardesses of the B. M. E. church are giving an Armistice supper on November 10th, to raise funds in aid of the pastor's salary.
