European Intelligence.

ONE WEEK LATER.

The steamship 'NAGARA,' arrived at Halifax on the 15th inst., with dates to the 5th, and 99 passengers for Boston. The Chesler 567 tons, 100 horse power, the first ship of the London and Montreal line, will sail on the 31st. Mr. Moore's motion for a vote of censure on the Government for the American enlistment was debated two nights in the House of Commons, and was eventually thrown out. Mr. Crumpton has written a letter dated Foreign Office, London, complaining that the United States have treated him shabbily. It is believed that Parliament will be prorogued on the 31st inst., and that no further party motions will be made this Session. The following is the only reference made to America since the Fulton sailed: Mr. Dallas, as U. S. Representative to Her Majesty's Government, had full power to settle the Central American dispute, or whether he had any other powers than those of his predecessor, Mr. Buchanan. Lord Palmerston said it was understood Mr. Dallas had full power to discuss with Her Majesty's Government the Central American question. Mr. Buchanan had no instructions whatever to enter on this subject. A Bill is introduced by the Government into the Commons to permit distillation from Rice. The Sunday Music controversy continues to expand. Sir Colin Campbell has been entertained by the City of Glasgow. The King of the Belgians and family are visiting Her Majesty. The Queen and the people of London are to give the Guards from the Crimea a public reception. A prospectus is issued of the New Brunswick and Canada Railway and Land Company to purchase and complete the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad. It is reported that Perry Doyle, the British Minister to Mexico, will be removed to Hanover. The Directors of the Bank of England at their weekly meeting on Thursday the 2d, did not alter the rate of discount. The general impression had been that the rate would be lowered. It is now thought that it must be reduced either on Thursday next, or not later than the week after. The Directors, however, do not like to lower in dividend week. The Bank return shows considerable increase in bullion. The India Mail takes out an unusually large amount of silver for the East, and the shipment of gold to the Continent increases with augmented inquiry for silver to export. There is also further reason for shipment in the shape of investments in French securities on English account. The weather continues magnificent for the harvest, and another fortnight of the same will secure the farmers from all danger of a change of prospect; but in consequence of the supply on hand being so short, holders of wheat show great caution, and still demand firm rates. There is an increasing demand for American securities since the political aspect of affairs between England and the United States has improved. Tonnage is in better demand for Archangel, Australian, Indian, and Danube and Black Sea trade. The upward tendency of the English funds continues. The Earl of Shelburne is appointed Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and will be raised to the peerage by his present title. Sir W. Williams, of Kars, will succeed him as representative of Coler.

FRANCE. Reports have been some time current that unpleasantness existed between the Courts of France and Russia, and that Count Morny's departure for St. Petersburg was delayed in consequence. As Morny is now about ready to embark, the difference is probably arranged. The report of the Committee of the Corps Legislatif, refusing to accord to the Emperor the power of granting pensions, is published: It is respectful but firm, and is considered the severest check Napoleon has yet met from his Government. The Bill granting pensions to the Orleans Princesses was voted unanimously, although Count Montalembert wrote a strong letter against it, and the Duchess of Saxe Cobourg indignantly refuses the money. The Juvenile Court of Paris has written a letter to M. Roger, repudiating the fesson and saying that himself, his mother and brother do not recognize the interference of the other members of the Orleans family, but that he reserves himself for the future. These letters have made considerable sensations in Orleansist circles, and the Orleans Princesses have written angry letters respecting the Juvenile's interference.

At the close of the Legislative session on the 2d, it was announced that the bill for the repeal of the prohibitory Customs duties is deferred till next session. A measure for consolidating the decrees relating to Customs duties into laws, is also postponed. The Emperor had arrived at Plombieres. The projected meeting between the Emperors of France and Austria confirmed. A Frankfurt journal says positively that a meeting will take place at Muenheim about the end of July. Napoleon will reside at the palace, and the Emperor of Austria at the Hotel Europe. The kings of Wirtemberg and Saxony, and the Dukes of Hesse and Nassau, will also assist. Another account says they will meet at the Castle of Apenberg. New docks for the steam navy are to be built at Brest. The account of the weather and crops throughout the country, even in the lately inundated districts, are favourable. The harvest has commenced in the South.—The vineyards also look well.

SPAIN. Papers begin to bring accounts of the recent riots at Badajoz, Valladolid, and other cities. They seem to have been serious, and of the magnitude of an insurrection. The high price of food was the ostensible cause, but they were really excited by political envy. Numerous arrests were made, and prisoners shot. The rioters set fire to the corn stores, and growing crops. Tranquility is now restored, and the government announces that the crops present a good prospect, besides there being sufficient in store for an ample supply until the harvest. It is announced that a second squadron of eight ships of war, with troops for disembarkation in Mexico, was ready to sail from Havana, should Mexico refuse to satisfy the Spanish demands.

GERMANY. The ministerial journal Zeiting, publishes the Customs proposition submitted by Prussia to the Zollverein. The following was proposed respecting breadstuffs:—Wheat, rye, peas, barley, and millet 2d per bushel; rice, 3d, mah, oats and buckwheat, 3s. 4d. with provision that the Zollverein shall renounce the demand for the free entry of rice, unless the price of rye shall attain the price of two and a half to four dollars the Prussian bushel.

RUSSIA. An Imperial ukase orders the issue of Government bonds to the value of twelve millions of silver roubles. Immense preparations are making at Moscow for the Czar's coronation. The Emperor continues his severity against defrauders and contrabandists. Letters say that the Government seems inclined to modify its Customs Tariff, particularly as regards its raw produce employed by foreign manufacturers.

THE EAST. Crimes letters to June 14th mention nothing but the continued embarkation of the troops. General Rudiger is dead. The Moldavia-Walachenian frontier commission advances but slowly. Topographical difficulties completely neutralized the intention of the treaty. Ali Pacha during his stay at Vienna succeeded in settling that the Danubian principalities shall remain separated.

THE DUTIES OF READERS.—Every reading man has his duties to the world of letters as well as every writing man. He owes it to himself to see that his reading is something more than a mere murder of time, an amusement; he owes it to himself to see that his reading will serve, by delight or by instruction, by beauty or by use to ripen his faculties, to ameliorate his temper, to elevate his character.

Aunt Lizzie's Courtship. Why you see, when my man came a courtin me, I hadn't the least thought of what he was after—not I. Jobie came to our house one night after dark, and rapped at the door. I opened it and sure enough there was Jobie. Come in, sez I, take a cheer. No Lizzie, sez he, I've come of an errand, and I always do my errands fast. But you had better come in and make a cheer, Mr. W. No I can't. The fact is Lizzie, I've come on this one courtin business. My wife's been dead these three weeks, and everything's goin to rack and ruin right fast. Now, Lizzie, if you're a mind to live with me, and take care of my house, and my children, and my things, I'll tell me, and I'll come in and take a cheer, if not, I'll get some one else to do it. Why I was skeered, and sez— If you come on this courtin business, come in. I must think on't a little. No, I can't tell I know. That's my errand. And I can't set down until my errand's done. I should like to think on it a day or two. No you needn't Lizzie.

Well Jobie if I must, I must—so here's to ye then. So Mr. W. came in. Then he went after the squire, and he married us right off, and I went home with Jobie that very night. I tell you what it is, those long courtin don't amount to nothing at all.

YANKEE DOODLE IN 1856. BY A NEW ENGLANDER. Yankee Doodle's a most wild, And drove to desperation; But 'twas with England he's so riled, But with his own free nation. He guesses Pierce must be a fool If to himself he siggers We're goin' to war with old John Bull That Kansas may keep niggers.

Oh, Pierce! you are a darn-bad lot, We didn't ought to have chose you; But the Whigs stuck up that crittur Scott In their Caucus to oppose you. We were't I guess, so pesky smart! To snub the Gin'ral neither; If fighting is the game you'd start, 'He'd ne'er show the white feather.

Pierce best be mindin' what he's at, And where his Col'nel's rashing We ain't a goin' to war—that's flat— For him nor Caleb Cushing. One 'eom may write, and 'other talk, But Johnny, don't you funk 'em; Their staid brag, I guess, we'll talk, And they'll only sport to Buncombe. In seventy-six we didn't shirk To face the cannon's rattle; And I guess New England did her work On many a field of battle.

We fight for Right; but tis a sin Brethren to part sunder, To keep a part of Knowles in Poor Uncle Sam to plunder. Then let them prate to German tools And Irish agitators; We Yankee folk are neither fools, Nor to the Union traitors. We will maintain our free-born laws Against intimidation, And fight when we've a righteous cause, But not on speculation.

*General Scott is not a wise man, but he is a respectable citizen and a gallant soldier. Mr. Pierce is neither. He called himself General (he being a New Hampshire attorney), and went to the Mexican war; but only distinguished himself by fainting and falling off his war horse in his first action.

BUNYAN IN PRISON.—The respectability of Bunyan's character and the propriety of his conduct while in prison at Bedford, appear to have operated very powerfully on the mind of the jailer, who showed him much kindness in permitting him to go out and visit his friends occasionally, and once to take a journey to London. The following anecdote is told respecting the jailer and Mr. Bunyan: It being known to some of his persecutors in London, that he was often out of prison, they sent an officer to talk with the jailer on the subject; and in order to discover the fact he was to get there in the middle of the night. Bunyan was at home with his family, but so restless that he could not sleep; he therefore acquainted his wife that though the jailer had given him liberty to stay till the morning, yet, from his uneasiness, he must immediately return. He did so, and the jailer blamed him for coming at such an unreasonable hour. Early in the morning the messenger came, and interrogating the jailer, said: Are all the prisoners safe? Yes. Is John Bunyan safe? Yes. Let me see him. He was called, and appeared, and all was well. After the messenger was gone, the jailer, addressing Mr. Bunyan said: Well you may go in and out whenever you think proper, for you know when to return better than I can tell you.

A person out West is offering for sale grass seed gathered from the path of reptitude.—A religious contemporary fears that the path would be easily forgotten with grass, as it is so little travelled now a days. Nat, what are you leaning over that cart for? I am mourning over departed spirits. A young lady at school, engaged in the study of grammar, was asked if a kiss was a common or proper noun. After some hesitation she replied, It is both. Miss Teip, speaking of old bachelors, says they are frozen out old gardeners in the flower bed of love. As they are useless as weeds, they should be served in the same manner—choked.

THE PRATE. Scarcely had the Gascon given utterance to his discontent, when the man at the mast-head sang out "Deck a-hoy—a sail to windward!" Stamar went aloft with his glass, and in a few seconds returned and said—"Every one to his post, we're in luck at last!" Cardie's whistle responded to his order.—Every man took his arms, and we bore up towards the stranger under all the sail we could carry. It was truly a horrible thing to observe the sinister expression worn by the hideous countenances of our lawless crew. Dirty, bearded, and already scenting blood, their eyes flashing with the fires of cupidity and cruelty, the wretches all gazed in the direction of their prey, as though they wished to annihilate the distance which separated them from it. In a very brief space we neared our victim, a large merchantman, whose appearance promised at once an easy conquest and a rich booty. At a signal from Stamar, a shot was fired across her bows to bring her to.

She immediately hoisted a white flag, and began to take in her sail; but this obviously pacific inclination was quite thrown away upon the commander of the Shark. "Give that fellow a shot between wind and water," cried he; "it will perhaps teach him to be quicker in his manoeuvres, and not keep worthy fellows so long waiting." We were now within pistol shot of the stranger, and Peters, bringing his musket to bear upon one of the crew, fired, and knocked the man's straw hat from his head, frightening him a good deal, so doubt, but doing him no further injury. Pretty fair, that I said Stamar; but another time level lower. Hollo, you sugar hogg-head! send a boat aboard of us!"

The order was obeyed on the instant, and the boat coming along side, a young and handsome man leaped upon our deck without the slightest appearance of fear or suspicion. Who the devil are you? demanded Stamar, lollo! boy of your craft, or cockswain's second mate?" I am neither one nor the other, sir, replied the young man firmly, I am her lieutenant. Oh well! Mr. Lieutenant, you see my flag? It's red, as perhaps you can perceive. Go back and send your captain hither; I am not in the habit of treating with swabs of lower rank. Pale with anger, and knitting his brows, the young man preserved, however, sufficient mastery over his temper to depart without reply; and in a few minutes the boat returned, bringing the Captain.

Where are you bound from? demanded Stamar. From Martinique. What's your lading? As usual from that port—sugar and coffee. But how about specie? Have you none of that? The French captain made no reply. The sound of his voice when he first spoke, had struck me as being very familiar to me; and the more I pondered, the more certain I became, this captain, who had so unhappily fallen into our power, was well known to me, Stamar, guessing the truth from the captain's silence, resumed—I see how it is—you large specie on board! Well, your boat will just do to bring so much of your freight as we may find it convenient to accept of.

There is no help for it, replied the unfortunate captain, and falsehood would be disgraceful, without being of any service. I frankly confess then, that I have specie on board. To it, and to everything else that we have, you are welcome, but I trust that, in return for my giving you no trouble, you will allow me and my crew to depart without experiencing any personal ill-treatment. For whom do you take me messmate? 'Tis upon your suspicions! You may go as soon as our visit is paid. My lieutenant will accompany you. The captain of the merchantman bowed, and returned to his boat, accompanied by Lorenzo.

Five or six times the merchantman's boat went and came, bringing off to us all that the pirates judged to be worth taking. All this time the captain of the luckless merchantman had been standing in silent expectation of the final orders of Stamar, who now said to him, You can go on your way now my friend; and of a surety you cannot say that we are so very wicked. The captain thus addressed bowed in silence, clasped up his boat, and commenced voyaging to proceed on his voyage. The Shark then gently laid herself broadside to Stamar gave a signal to the infamous Lorenzo, and exclaimed at the same time to the merchantman's captain, Adieu! a pleasant voyage to you. Scarcely were the hypocrite's words uttered, when a fearful explosion of our whole range of guns shook every plank of the Shark and for a few moments both vessels were completely hidden in the thick black clouds of smoke. Stamar now gave the word, the Shark darted forward under all sail; and when the smoke had somewhat dispersed, we could see the unfortunate merchantman dreadfully torn by our shot, her deck covered with wounded men, whose cries and groans were truly dreadful. On perceiving that our broadside had merrily crippled the merchantman, instead of sinking her, Stamar flew into one of his fiercest paroxysms of rage. Fools, brute beasts, he exclaimed, stamping on the deck; why did they not give it to her between wind and water? It's only a mere waste of powder and shot. Master, start me all these nothings, put the very best men on board at the guns; above all, see that they ram home well, and level low.

Scarcely two minutes had elapsed from the giving of the ferocious order, when the new broadside of the Shark vomited death and destruction upon the crippled and helpless merchantman. Again for a few minutes the horizon was obscured by dark and heavy clouds of smoke; and some minutes elapsed before they cleared away sufficiently to enable us to see the effect of our volley. Frightful but impotent imprecations reached us through the livid atmosphere; and at length could be distinguished the aged and unfortunate captain mounted on the bulwarks of his shattered vessel, now tearing his hair, and once extending his clenched fist towards us in vain menacing and detestation. Traversed as his ship had been in every direction by our balls, she was rapidly sinking; and just as she was finally settling down, some of her crew sought shelter in her tops, while others plunged into the sea, and swam towards us. Alas! the case of those who still clung to the masts of their sinking ship was not 300 more hopeless than that of the unhappy man, who looked for safety in the mercy of Stamar. Seeing that they were swimming vigorously towards us, he shouted, Shoot me off a few of those fellows, they seem martyr-ously inclined to aid in the consumption of our grog and biscuit. Take good aim, I say, here, some of you, and shoot me them off!

His orders were obeyed to the very letter. Shot followed shot in quick succession, and man after man fell beneath the murderous aim of the ferocious pirates. Now and then a cap or straw hat rose to the surface, and floated around the shattered vessel which the foaming waves were now fast engulfing.

THE GASCON'S MARRIAGE.—A gentleman from one of the Provinces, went to a fashionable establishment in Paris, to purchase a bonnet for his wife, which he requested the mistress of the establishment to select. The lady selected a very elegant hat; and when the gentleman inquired the price, she answered that it had been paid for. The gentleman was much surprised, and desired an explanation. "Sir," said the lady, "ten years ago, you bought some apples of a little girl in the streets of Paris. The poor child had not enough to change a gold piece which you gave her, and she mentioned that her mother was sick at home, and you told her to keep the money till she had enough to change it. The little apple merchant now stands before you. I have married a rich man, and I must beg of you to accept that hat as a testimony of my gratitude for the gift which saved my poor mother from much suffering."

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH.

FREDERICTON, July 17. The Session was opened with the usual formalities. At 2 1/2 o'clock the House proceeded to elect a Speaker.

The Hon. Charles Simonds was proposed by Mr. Macpherson, and seconded by Messrs. Barbé and End, and elected without opposition.

The Speaker having been approved of in the usual form, His Excellency opened the Session in the following Speech:

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council: Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have gladly availed myself of the opportunity of meeting you after having recurred to the sense of the people.

The Law which prohibits the importation, manufacture of, and traffic in, intoxicating Liquors, forms a subject for earnest deliberation, and I trust that a measure on this subject, which will be submitted to you without delay by the Government, will receive at your hands the consideration which its importance essentially demands.

I do not doubt that your decision on this question, which so deeply affects the social and financial interests of the community, will be satisfactory to the people, and it will afford me the most sincere pleasure to find that the exercise of a power entrusted to me by the Constitution has been productive of consequences so beneficial to the Province.

You may be well assured that I have no wish but to consult the general welfare, and by a uniform adherence to the principles of the Constitution, to uphold in their first balance the rights of each branch of the Legislature, and thus to secure the maintenance of liberty and order.

I leave you to your deliberations with the heartfelt prayer that Providence may bless them for the peace and prosperity of the Province.

Mr. End introduced a bill to continue the act to provide for the expenses of the Legislature. There was a long discussion about reporting the proceedings of the House which ended in the appointment of a committee to make arrangements for publishing the debates of the present session. The committee will report to-morrow.

The address in reply to the Governor's speech was moved by Mr. Boyd and seconded by Mr. Desbriens, and its consideration stands as the order of the day for Saturday.

PROPOSED ADDRESS IN ANSWER TO SPEECH.

To His Excellency the Honorable JOHN HENRY THOMAS MANNERS-SUTTON, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c., &c., &c. THE HONBLE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

1. We, the faithful Commons of New Brunswick, offer our thanks to Your Excellency for your Speech at the present Session.

2. We acknowledge with satisfaction the propriety of Your Excellency's having believed that so judicious an exercise of the power entrusted to Your Excellency by the Constitution, will not fail to be attended with the most beneficial effects.

3. The Law which prohibits the importation, manufacture of, and traffic in, intoxicating Liquors, affecting as it does the social and financial interests of this Province, is a subject for earnest deliberation, and any measure bearing thereupon, which may be submitted to us, will receive that grave consideration which its importance demands.

4. We cordially agree with Your Excellency that the maintenance of liberty and order can only be secured by a uniform adherence to the principles of the Constitution, and by preserving in their just balance the rights of each branch of the Legislature.

5. We feel assured that Your Excellency has no wish but to consult the general welfare and preserve unimpaired the Constitution, and we regard the promptitude with which Your Excellency has called the Legislature together, as affording an additional proof of your watchful care for the public interests.

6. We shall proceed to our labours with the hope, that under the guidance of Providence, they may conduce to the peace and prosperity of the Province.

The body of a man supposed to be that of James Doherty, was picked up by the steam Ferry landing by Robert Benley, Christopher Hickin, Ferry watchmen, John Daly, and John Budge, policemen, at 6 a.m., on Sunday last. The body appeared to have been in the water a considerable time. There were found on the deceased, a $5. note, a three shilling piece of silver, sixpence in copper, and a knife.

Bears!—We have been informed that a number of Bears have lately been seen at Musquash, and that several farmers in that neighborhood are obliged to "keep watch at night to save their stock from these destructive animals. Could not some of our sporting young men get up a Bear Hunt, and destroy the Varmin?

Telegraphic Communication with Newfoundland—The cable was successfully laid last week from the mainland at Cape Bay to Ashby Bay, Cape Breton. Messages were sent, and already been transmitted to and from this City. It is expected the line will be opened to St. John's, in about two months.—Ed.

FROM OUR FREDERICTON CORRESPONDENT.

FREDERICTON, July 18 To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,—No doubt the good people of Charlotte are anxious to know the sayings and doings of the Assembly; as yet, nothing more has been done than meeting, choosing a Speaker, moving the Address in answer to his Excellency's Speech, and appointing a committee to make arrangements for reporting and publishing the debates.

Your townsmen, Mr. Boyd, had the distinguished honor of being selected to move the Address, in answer to the Speech. Saturday is the day fixed for going into consideration of the same. The Opposition are moving all the powers of darkness to gain strength enough to make a grand attack;—Boyd has been offered by that party, openly, the office of Surveyor General!

The Corporation of London have presented the freedom of the City to General Sir W. F. Williams, of Katz, Bart., K.C.B., with a sword of the value of 100 guineas.

laid. Woe to a country where treason to society of this description finds a resting place amongst the people.

The Revenue Returns for the year and a quarter just ended have been published. In the twelve months ending June 30, the increase has been four millions and of this increase three millions and a half are due to the income tax. In the excise there has been a decrease of £300,000; in the Customs an increase of £650,000. The general result may be briefly dismissed with this remark, that the war has had little or no disturbing power on the national finances.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1856.

The Opposition is evidently bewildered and thrown on its back, by the simple, straightforward language of the Governor's Speech, on the opening of the Session, and the Address (which was moved by Mr. Boyd and seconded by Mr. Desbriens) in reply thereto.

Up to the moment at which we write, the result of the debate, has not been received, but as no attempt has been made, to move an amendment, there cannot be the slightest doubt as to what that result will be. What the Radicals will now say, we shall be curious to see, but at the same time are utterly unable to imagine. The very fact of no amendment having been moved to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, is in itself an actual admission of the constitutionality of the act of his Excellency the Lieut. Governor, in having dissolved the late House of Assembly and called other men to his Council, when the late Executive manifested such a disregard for the welfare of the country; and we are inclined to think that our contemporaries, the "Courier," the "Morning News," the "Reporter," and others of the same class, must feel rather humiliated and ashamed of themselves.

to think there is no fear of a like catastrophe, and are pleased to find that they have commenced their career with straightforwardness and good judgment.

The Legislature.—In another column we have given His Excellency's Speech on the opening of the Session, and also the proposed Address in reply. From the latest legislative intelligence at hand, it is apparent that the address will be carried by a large majority. A summary of the proceedings in the House will be found in our Frederiction correspondent's letter.

Levy.—Our Frederiction friend "Hayes," has kindly promised us the "sayings and doings" of the popular branch of the Legislature during the present Session. From the ability and tact of our correspondent, together with his means for obtaining information, our readers may rely upon his letters, the first of which appears in our columns this morning. Thanks, L.

Excursions appear to be the order of the day here, as well as elsewhere. During last week, the Steamers Queen and Nequaquet, made pleasure trips to St. George, on Wednesday, and the Nequaquet on Friday. The visitors expressed themselves much pleased with the excursions.

The gallant 76th Regt. are again ordered to do duty in this Province—four Companies arrived at St. John on Saturday last. We understand Lieut. Clark, with the usual number of men is expected to occupy Fort Tipperary, in the course of a few days. Mr. Clark's numerous friends here will be happy to see him again. The sight of a "Red Coat" will cheer the hearts of our loyal people after so long an absence.

The weather for the last week has been excessively warm; with occasional showers of rain;—the crops are looking remarkably well, and "haying" in some districts has been commenced.

former self. In this case the blood was in a very impure state. He tried a variety of remedies, and literally became a martyr to medicine, but nothing abated the afflictions, until he had recourse to Holloway's Pills, which in seven weeks completely restored him to health, to the astonishment of all who knew him.

No medicine ever offered to the public, has met with the success that has attended the sale of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. This remarkable remedy has attracted the attention of counterfeiters, who have in many places managed to palm off their worthless imitation. This fact has caused the proprietors of the genuine to put up the Pain Killer in entire new dress, each bottle having two fine steel engraved labels—one the proprietors name or obligation. This will prevent its imitation hereafter.

At St. John, on the 4th instant, Catherine, widow of the late Hugh Flaherty, Esq., of St. George, aged 76 years.

LET US REASON TOGETHER.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
WHY ARE WE SICK?
It has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the WEAK, the NERVOUS, the DELICATE, and the INFLAMMED of all climes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of his medicines, and offers them to a free and enlightened people, as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

THESE PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD.
These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.
Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to those organs, however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

GENERAL DEBILITY. ILL HEALTH.
Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired; as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
No Female, young or old, should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint; consequently no family should be without it. Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:—

E. D. SPEAR, INDIAN DOCTOR.

The great success which has ever attended the Indian Practice of Medicine, as perfected by E. D. SPEAR, M. D., excites envy in the hearts of the many advocates of Mercury. Many of his remedies, as the public have already learned from newspapers of the day, are prepared from recipes which are believed to have originally been received from the Indians one hundred and seventy five years ago. No other remedies deserve the name of Indian.

DR. SPEAR'S GREAT INDIAN MEDICINES.
(For names and description see his "Family Physician"—to be had, free, at his office, or sent to order, prepaid on receipt of a paper postage stamp.)
Are certain cures for

Dr. Spear's Female Medicines have become very celebrated, and it is now admitted that his treatment of Female Weaknesses, Prolapsus Uteri, Irregularities and Suppressions is far superior to every other treatment for these complaints.

DR. SPEAR,
Is also celebrated in the treatment of children. His medicines being vegetable, do not poison the system.
Dr. Spear is now being visited by one thousand patients every month, some of whom travel hundreds of miles to consult him and to obtain his medicines.
Dr. S. will warrant a cure in every curable case after giving his remedies a fair trial, if a cure is not effected, he will pay any other physician, who will effect a cure, his bill, not exceeding $100.

A MARVELLOUS REMEDY FOR A MARVELLOUS AGE!

Holloway's Ointment.

THE GRAND EXTERNAL REMEDY.
By the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, disorders of the Liver, affections of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthma, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes freely through bone or meat of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bony or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous internal complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

ERYSIPELAS, RHEUMATISM AND SCORBUTIC HUMOURS.
No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, as this Ointment. Scoury, Sore Heads, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, cannot long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

SORE LEGS, SORE BREASTS, WOUNDS & ULCERS.
Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumours. Professor Holloway has dispatched to the East large shipments of this Ointment, to be used in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

PILES AND FISTULAS.
These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Chilblains
Bad Breasts	Chilblains
Burns	Chopped hands
Coras of Moschetoes	Coras (soft)
Bite of Spiders	Contracted and Stiff Joints
and Sand Flies	Contracted and Stiff Joints
Coco-bay	Fistulae
Elephantiasis	Glandular Swelling
