SIR JOHN'S FUNERAL.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 8.—Col. Sherwood and Lieut.-Col. Smith have been in conference with Hon. Mr. Dewdney this morning in the Department of the Interior as to the order of the funeral. It has been decided out of respect of the wishes of the deceased not to drape the Senate Chamber as heavily as was at first intended. Maynard Rogers has been assigned the task with instructions to use more bunting than crape. No catafalque will be erected, but the very simplest arrangements possible made. Mr. Beulloc, of Montreal, will manage the drapings of the Commons Chamber. A plan to festoon the front of the buildings with crape was rejected as altogether repugnant to the feelings of Sir John. The line of march on Wednesday will be from the main tower west around the Parliament grounds and back again to the large central gates; then down Metcalfe to Maria street, along Maria and Theodore to King; thence down Daly street to the church door. After the service the procession will proceed along Daly street to Cumberland, then down Rideau, Wellington and Queen street west to the C. P. R. station. The procession to the church will be on foot and to the station in carriages. The order of procession will be:

Eight Dominion police abreast.

Eight of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards mounted.

Officiating clergymen.

S. Rogers & Son, undertakers.

Fourteen Privy Councilors as pallbearers.

Six Dominion police in cabs to carry the casket.

The hearse heavily draped and drawn by four horses.

Two mourning carriages with family.

His Excellency the Governor-General and suite.

Lieutenant-Governor, clergy and House of Parliament, according to precedence.

OTTAWA, June 8.—The casket containing the remains of the late Premier stands on a pedestal in the center of the great dining-hall at Earnscliffe. The hangings are of violet and white. The remains will lie at Earnscliffe until morning, to be viewed by the members of the sorrowing household and a few personal friends, including members of the late Cabinet. So far Lady Macdonald has borne up bravely, but the strain upon her endurance has been severe. The members of the late Ministry came to Earnscliffe to view the remains and convey their condolences to Lady Macdonald. The members of the Cabinet will act as pallbearers at the funeral on Wednesday. This afternoon after the House adjourned a meeting of Conservative members was held, when it was decided to present to Lady Macdonald a memorial signed by all members of the party, and that the members should wear mourning for a month. Arrangements have been made by Conservative members to form guards of four each to watch over the remains while lying in state in Ottawa. Among the floral tributes sent to Earnscliffe is one from Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne—a St. Andrew's Cross in write roses and pink, with a violet scroll bearing the words, "Lorne and Louise." Numerous handsome floral offerings go from Montreal and the Province of Quebec from friends and admirers of Sir John Macdonald.

The Ottawa Council passed an appropriate resolution in view of Sir John's death, and the mayor was authorized to issue a proclamation asking citizens to close their stores at noon on Wednesday. It was resolved that the Council meet at noon on Wednesday and attend the funeral to Kingston. Resolutions of regret were also passed by various municipal bodies throughout the country.

[The action of the House of Commons, which adjourned for a week, is described in another column.]

THE CASKET.

Following is the inscription on the casket and outer case: "John Alexander Macdonald. Born 11th January, 1815. Died 6th June, 1891."

In the Senate Chamber the tables, desks and chairs were all removed from the floor, which was covered with a white cloth. The brass rails behind the throne and at the bar of the House were heavily draped in black. The throne was covered with Canadian ensigns. In lieu of a catafalque a rest for the casket was placed in the center of the floor. This is covered with black cloth fluted and festooned with cords and fringe. On the east side of this to the left of the throne, and protected at each end by a barrier in black, stands a twelve-foot shield in black cloth, bearing on its center a portrait of her Majesty and draped with ensigns. The casket will be placed on the bier and the public allowed to look on the features of the dead. Many hundreds of mourning badges, bearing a small photograph of Sir John Macdonald, were sold on the streets to-day. The Russell House and several of the stores have draped the front of their buildings in black.

THE LATE PREMIER'S ESTATE.

Sir John's will may not be probated until after the funeral. It was drawn up some years ago by Hon. Mr. Abbott, and is understood to contain a wish that Kingston should be his last resting place. The estate, though not large, will probably realize $100,000, the great bulk consisting of the testimonial of $80,000 presented to Sir John in 1870 by the Conservative party. It is reported that Hon. Mr. Dewdney, who has been for some years one of the trustees of the $80,000 testimonial fund invested in Lady Macdonald's name, is named an executor of Sir John's will and is also the guardian of the Premier's daughter Mary.

The Supreme Court met at Ottawa on Monday morning, but out of respect to the late Premier immediately adjourned till Monday next.

MARKS OF RESPECT.

TORONTO, June 8.—The Chancery Divisional Court—the only court sitting at Osgoode Hall to-day—adjourned till to-morrow out of respect to the memory of the deceased First Minister. Chambers and the Call Board adjourned till after Thursday.

MONTREAL, June 8.—Messrs. Seargeant, Wainwright and Stephenson, representing the Grand Taunk Railway of Canada, will attend the State funeral of the late Sir John A. Macdonald at Ottawa Wednesday.

The Sir John Macdonald Club, Montreal, of which Sir John was honorary president, decided to inaugurate a movement for the erection of a monument in Montreal of the deceased Premier.

IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 8.—The news of Sir John Macdonald's death excited universal expressions of regret and sympathy. The leading dailies throughout the country publish full memorial notices. The Times devotes nearly three columns to a sketch of his career. The Standard, Chronicle, News, Advertiser, Manchester Guardian, Leeds Mercury and St. James' Gazette among others have excellent memoirs, besides lengthy editorials. All the articles refer in friendly terms to the chief features of the Premier's life work. The Times predicts a new period of doubt and danger, during which Sir John Macdonald's successors must depend upon the intrinsic worth of the ideas he bequeathed without the magic aid of his personality. The Daily News, after remarking that the late desperate appeal to the country was a sign that his policy had broken down, declares Sir John Macdonald's system ..... hardly survive his founder. His death must produce changes most far reaching. The Chronicle, though thinking the Conservative party tolerably safe for the next five years, points out that they cannot hope to bask indefinitely in the sunshine of popular favor now that they have lost the great personality of the leader. Free traders look not very far off for a revolution in Canada's fiscal policy, at any rate for a demolition of the tariff walls between Canada and the United States. The question of the succession to the leadership is also much debated. The general opinion clearly is that the choice lies between Sir John Thompson and Sir Charles Tupper. The idea of Mr. Abbott's succeeding to the Premiership, though mentioned in the cables, is generally scouted. In private circles the belief still is that Sir Charles Tupper is almost certain to assume control either now or before next session. Sir Charles Tupper meanwhile is still at the Vienna Congress, which has not yet finished its labors. He has been officially informed of Sir John Macdonald's death, but till now we have no news that he has made any change of plans.

THE FUNERAL AT KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, June 8.—It is proposed to have a general turn-out of all societies on the occasion of the late Premier's funeral. Here Sir John was made a Mason, an Orangeman and an Oddfellow. Members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will be in line also. Sir John asked for plainness at his funeral. He did not wish display. On this account a funeral car has been dispensed with, and the remains will be conveyed from the City Hall to Cataraqui Cemetery in a hearse drawn with six black horses covered with palls. Preparations for the reception of the body were begun in the City Hall this afternoon. A large and beautiful catafalque will be erected squarely in the middle of the floor, and on it the body of the late Premier will be surrounded by a guard, which will probably be chosen from the battery or police. The Premier's large life-size portrait will hang to the right of the main door and will be heavily draped in black.

WORK AND WAGES.

London 'Bus Drivers Want Better Terms —A Leading Knight of Labor in Trouble.

The London (Eng.) omnibus drivers are on strike. It is said the men have abandoned the demand for an increase of wages and the Road Car Company is willing to concede twelve hours for a day's work. The strikers allow pirates to ply their trade on condition that they pay 5 shillings per 'bus daily to the strike fund. There have been exciting scenes when the strikers chased the blacklegs. In some cases the windows of the 'bus were smashed with stones and the passengers compelled to alight, after which the vehicles returned to the yards. The London Times urges a reduction of the hours of labor of 'bus drivers.

Jas. Hughes, of Chicago, master workman of Trades Assembly 231, United Clothing Cutters, Trimmers and Tailors of North America, Order K. of L., was convicted in the Circuit Court at Rochester Saturday morning, before Judge Rumsey, of extortion. This is the first of a series of cases against leading members of the Order of Knights of Labor.

A Paris dispatch says: The Workmen's Pension Bill has been received with acclamation throughout the country. Under its provisions the workmen pay 1 cent or 2 cents daily, according to whether their insurance is for $60 or $120 yearly. After 30 years a special fund will reimburse him in case of accident or illness.

Archbishop Walsh says it is desirable to promote, besides the ordinary trades unions, bodies for the advancement of common interests of employes and employed, as well as of the general interests of commerce.

Hardly a single omnibus of the 875 vehicles belonging to the London General Omnibus Company is running to-day, and it is estimated 5,000 men and 1,000 horses are idle. The strikers are sanguine of a speedy surrender by the company.

The Baccarat Scandal Absorbs All Attention.

Nothing Has So Badly Damaged the Prince's Reputation

As the Developments of This Notorious Trial.

Further Unwelcome Facts Likely to Come Out—Welch Methodists Express Their Regret—A Note from he Baptist Organ.

AN ABSORBING TOPIC.

LONDON, June 8.—There is no use in trying to tell how absolutely this baccarat trial monopolized attention during the past week. Since Monday evening the papers of London have probably never had such another week since the perfecting press was invented. The Parnell Commission was not a circumstance to it. Whole pages have been given to it, to the almost entire exclusion of other news, and the big morning dailies have been swamped by massive accounts of the proceedings. England has read about nothing else and has talked of nothing else. Most prominent in everybody's mind, so far as the conversation everywhere indicates, is the

that the Prince of Wales brought his own baccarat counters with him to Tranby Croft and that the rule made by the master of the house against playing that game under his roof was suspended to gratify his Royal Highness. It is doubtful if anything in the Prince's whole career has hurt him so much in the public estimation as this. That the heir to the English throne, a man who has a grandchild, should ask to have a thousand-dollar-limit game made up for him, in which the majority of the male players were youngsters, when he knew his host had forbidden the game on account of these young men, seems really too bad for even the sporting classes to tolerate.

A COMING WAVE OF CONDEMNATION.

Beyond a resolution condemning him, passed by the South Wales Wesleyan Conference, no public comment has yet been offered on the unpleasant part the Prince has played. The English papers carry conservatism to the extreme limit in abstaining from expressions of opinion while the case is being tried, but very soon enough will have been said to make up for the present silence. The hostile criticism will be by no means confined to religious or strict people who object on principle to card-playing for money. They have had their opinion of the Prince for many years back. It will come in from the great bulk of the professional and mercantile classes of a well-to-do, easy-going sort, who heretofore had cherished a considerable liking for the Prince on the theory that he was a good fellow. They would tell you by tens of thousands to-day that the Tranby Court business has knocked that theory endways. This large class it was which served as a foundation for the general outside notion that the Prince was very popular in England. Without its friendship he will be in a totally different position.

A SERIOUS PROSPECT.

It is possible that it Cumming loses his suit, as nobody doubts he will, he in revenge will expose unwelcome facts which twenty years of intimacy with the Prince have made him familiar with, but this chance may for the moment take care of itself. The facts already revealed and not disputed are themselves enough to powerfully affect the public sentiment of England toward the Prince.

UNWORTHY OF HIS HONORED FATHER.

The leading Baptist organ compares the Prince's taste for the race course and gambling with the nobler example of his father, who, if living, would share the intense grief of thousands of Englishmen.

LESSENS RESPECT FOR THE THRONE.

The Methodists of South Wales at their quarterly meeting in Cardiff adopted a resolution declaring that they learn with regret from the proceedings at the trial before the High Court of Justice that the Prince of Wales took part in a game of baccarat at Tranby Croft on Sept. 8, 1890, and thus gave encouragement to gambling in one of its most ruinous and insidious forms, and they respectfully submit to his Royal Highness that such conduct lessens the respect that the Methodists have always inculcated for the throne.

A NEW SENSATION.

LONDON, June 8.—Sir Edward Clarke, counsel for plaintiff in the baccarat case, made a sensation to-day by saying it would be impossible for the authorities to strike the name of Sir William Gordon Cumming from the army list and leave the name of the Prince of Wales on.

The trial was resumed to-day, Sir Charles Russell continuing his address for the defense.

When Sir Charles Russell sat down the solicitor, General Sir Edward Clarke, leading counsel for the plaintiff, took the floor, and in a few sentences tersely invited the attention of the jury, his whole manner indicating that a sensation was coming. Sir Edward Clarke began by saying it had been "common talk" that the Prince of Wales' continual presence in court during the trial of this suit had been for the purpose of restraining the tongues of the lawyers engaged in the case from commenting upon the Prince's connection with it. This remark caused a sensation, but it was nothing to what followed the further utterances of the counsel for the plaintiff.

Demonstrated.

Sometimes it costs hundreds of dollars to convince a man; very often less is required, but in the case of Polson's Nerviline, that sovereign remedy for pain, 10 cents foots the bill, and supplies enough Nerviline to convince every purchaser that it is the best, most prompt and certain pain remedy in the world. Nerviline is good for all kinds of pain, pleasant to take, and sure to cure cramps and all internal pains. It is also nice to rub outside, for it has an agreeable smell, quite unlike so many other preparations, which are positively disagreeable to use. Try it now. Go to a drug store and buy a 10 cent or 25 cent bottle. Polson's Nerviline. Take no other.

Hair Magic

Is a good name of Dr. Dorenwend's German preparation for the hair. It really works like magic. All who have used it pronounce it to be unequaled for remedying the lost vitality of the hair roots, restoring gray hair, removing dandruff, etc. Just try it. It is first-class. All druggists sell it.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The Memory of the Dead Premier is Honored,

And a Public Funeral Unanimously Agreed Upon.

OTTAWA, June 8.—The sessions of the Houses of Parliament this afternoon will remain long in the memories of those who were in the Chambers. The first of the public demonstrations by which his country will pay honor to the dead statesman were made in the utterance of both Houses and the resolutions of regret that were adopted. The scene in the Commons was impressive with a solemn mourning suited to the dignity of that body. The splendid Chamber was sorrowful with black draperies under whose sombre folds the rows of black-coated members sat in unusual quietness. The black covering over the clerk's table fell upon the green carpeted floor on either side, and around the galleries and over the Speaker's chair death's decoration hung. The bars of glorious colors shot by the sun through the stained glass windows crossed the gloomy draperies with strange effect. The chair in which the dead Premier sat and his desk were covered with black cashmere. The desk from behind which he had led the House for almost a quarter of a century bore to-day a shield of white lilies and veil roses, on which blue immortelles spelled the words "Our Chief." There were few vacant chairs on the floor, and a silence of deep respect rested over the members while they waited for the commencement of the day's proceedings. The galleries overflowed with crowding men and women who had waited an hour on the close gallery stairs for the opening of the doors, eager to be present on an occasion of historic interest. They filled every seat and stood in the aisles and waited uncomfortably for the Speaker to rise.

The Speaker desired to inform the House that in view of the fact that the right honorable leader of this House died so late on Saturday night it was impossible to communicate with honorable members earlier than the present. He thought it was only a fitting tribute to a gentleman who had occupied so prominent a position both in Parliament and in the councils of the country for so long a time that they should exhibit some sign of mourning in this House to-day, and he took the responsibility of ordering that the symbols of mourning which were shown here to-day should be put up this morning, and he ventured to express the hope that honorable members on both sides, irrespective altogether of politics, would sustain him in the action he had taken. Honorable members—Hear, hear.

When Sir Hector Langevin rose in his place the hush of straining interest settled the shifting, summer-hued crowds into impassive quiet. When with the words "As the oldest Privy Councilor" Sir Hector began his reference to the leader whom he had followed during half his lifetime, his voice was husky. So low were his words spoken that scarcely all the members caught them, and in the galleries nothing could be heard. "To tell you, Mr. Speaker, my feelings, is more than I can do," he said, but could not finish the sentence without clearing his choking throat with water. It was with great difficulty he spoke, and the sympathy of the House was given him when he sat down with the paper he held in his hand only partly read. He moved that in the opinion of this House the mortal remains of the Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald, G.C.B., should be publicly interred, and that this House will concur in giving to the ceremony a fitting degree of solemnity and importance.

The speech of the Liberal leader was perfect in the nicety with which it expressed the honor in which the memory of a great political opponent may be regarded. It was full of a generous estimation of the qualities that made the late Premier's greatness in his country. But one understood that under the chivalrous tribute, and delicately, respectfully withdrawn from the present occasion, were the convictions which made the orator the political opponent of him whom he now honored. The speech was delivered with a calmness, a dignity and a sympathy of tone that accorded with the occasion. There were not the intrepid flashes of strong feeling, the bursts of brilliance by which at other times Mr. Laurier's oratory is illuminated, but the strength of the leader was in his manner, the nobility of the statesman and patriot in the appreciation, the honor it paid one who, whatever may be said of means and methods, was a substantial factor in Canada's growth.

Mr. Davin, than whom the Government benches have no one abler to do justice to such an occasion, made a eulogy of his late leader. It spoke the admiration and attachment of the Conservative party, and was a crystallization of the deep regard in which by his followers the chieftain was held. The motion was agreed to.

There followed a short discussion with regard to the formation of a new Cabinet, and after the order of the House for calling Michael Connolly to the bar at 4 o'clock was made for next Tuesday the House adjourned after a session of only three-quarters of an hour.

Attempted Burglary and Murder.

KINCARDINE, June 8.—Last night at 11 o'clock Chief Constable Huffman noticed two suspicious-looking characters and followed them. He saw one make his way to the rear of Rapley & Co.'s private bank building, while the other was stationed further down the street as a watch. Mr. Huffman followed the first and found him prying open a rear window. To the constable's salutation, "What are you doing there?" the burglar responded, "Follow me, would you?" and fired two shots, one of which passed through Mr. Huffman's coat. ELGIN.

J. A. Robinson (St. Thomas), for the defendant, Elizabeth Stacey, in the suit, Green vs. Stacey, appealed from an order in Chambers refusing an application for payment out of court of a claim of the applicant under the following circumstances: Elizabeth Stacey was a daughter of Christiana Stacey, and brought an action against her for services rendered to her mother as a domestic servant, and for this claim she had recovered judgment in an action of Stacey vs. Green. The present action was an action for the administration of the estate of Christiana Stacey's husband, under whose will she was entitled to be paid such sum as she by writing should state to be necessary for the maintenance of herself and son, George F. Stacey. Christiana had died without payment of Elizabeth's claim, and the latter now claimed to be entitled to be paid out of the funds in court in the administration action the amount of the judgment in her favor against her mother under and by virtue of the above mentioned provision for maintenance. The court allowed the appeal and directed that the amount claimed should be paid out to the applicant. Costs of all parties to be paid out of the fund.

GREY.

Ten thousand dollars were paid out for fat cattle last fair day in Owen Sound.

Some Proten young men have been fined for disturbing the Salvation Army.

The Dundalk Methodist Church is being repaired, and will be reopened on June 21.

Geo. Leparde, Proten, crossed the fields of Isaac Harrison, and was forbidden to do so again. He repeated the offense and was chased, but ran to a neighbor's field. When over the fence he dared Harrison to get over, but Harrison crossed the barrier and pummeled Leparde, who then entered suit against him. The magistrate fined both parties for fighting, but said that as plaintiff had suffered most in the battle the judgment of the court was that he should pay costs only, and the defendant was fined $1 and costs.

Robert Smith, who was the first settler to take up land in Sullivan, after an absence of 36 years, during which time he has resided near Grand Rapids, Mich., is in Owen Sound visiting friends. When Mr. Smith settled in Sullivan his nearest neighbor was five miles off, and the only roads were blazed lines through the forest. There is not now a landmark of former days by which the country could be identified.

The Flesherton Advance narrates the story of a fight deliberately engaged in by two prominent farmers of that locality for $10, each putting up $5 and arranging preliminaries on the previous evening. At 10 o'clock the pugilists found themselves surrounded by an interested crowd, and whacked each other until both were severely punished. "During the affair," says the Advance, "there was a crowd of select members of society present critically examining the art exhibition, and members of the religious denominations participated and gave to it an air of respectability."

James Cavanagh, clerk of Proton township, three years ago endorsed a three-months' note for $40 for an acquaintance, there being two other names on the note. When due he made inquiries and was told it was paid. This, however, was untrue, for recently a suit was entered against him for the face of the note and costs, amounting to over $600. A small mortgage lay against his land, and this it seems had been purchased by the holder of the note, and the land was sold. Mr. Cavanagh claims that he could have raised the money if sufficient time had been given him, but as it is the two farms are his no longer.

Last Friday morning, in a drunken spree, Albert Kelly, an employe of the Polson Company, while flourishing a revolver at some companions in Owen Sound, accidentally shot himself in the face. The ball entered the right cheek, knocked two teeth out, and passed out of the left cheek, taking a piece of jaw bone with it. The occurrence was kept quiet for fear of police court ventilation.

During his whole life he was a staunch Reformer and took an active interest in questions affecting his country. More than 100 carriages followed him to his last resting place to pay him a loving tribute. He leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss.

WELLAND.

Welland Orangemen will celebrate on July 13.

John Cross, Port Colborne, died on June 1 aged 77, an old resident.

A couple of "whaleback" boats passed through the canal last week and were the objects of great interest. One of the vessels carried the largest cargo that has ever passed through the canal, some 77,000 bushels of wheat, and the toll, $488 20, was the largest ever collected at this port for any one boat. The cargo exceeded the capacity of one of the largest lake carriers, the Algonquin, by 3,000 bushels. The boats were on their way to salt water. They intend to round Cape Horn and trade in the vicinity of Pudget Sound.

Barnch Tucker, Allanburgh, died on May 31 after a few days' illness of paralysis of the bowels, aged 79, having been a resident of the county 58 years.

Early on Tuesday morning the saw mill of Robert Gillholm, of Galt, was destroyed by fire. No insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown. A watchman is kept to look after the premises till midnight. The damage will be about $2,000.

Before Dyeing Beware of Flattery.

An eminent writer says: "Women swallow at one mouthful the lie that flatters, and drink drop by drop the truth that is bitter." A well-known authoress speaks as follows on the above assertion: "Too many women absorb flattery as a sponge absorbs water; they take in so much of it from admirers and friends that they are often unable to discern plain truths when spoken." Misleading and glowing stories are often told regarding good intended for use in the home. Ladies are often induced to use worthless and deceptive articles after reading false and flattering notices which have a tendency to convince and convict. To some extent this applies to all who have been led to use crude and poorly prepared domestic dyes. Such dyes are simply made to sell; certainly they are used but once, as one trial is sufficient to show their poor qualities and sad results. It is then the ladies are convinced that they have been flattered deceitfully. They turn with disgust and anger from scenes of ruin and disaster, and seek for honor, truth and candor, which qualities are always found in Diamond Dyes.

Diamond Dyes use no flattery to extend their sale or reputation; they rely only on their good works and long record of successes. Like faithful ministers, they are ever ready for the duties of their calling, and do all things well.

The church in Toronto, the principal mission point of the church in the Province, and its growth, which has been favorable, may be taken as an indication of the progress of the Disciples in Ontario. In connection therewith there are 168 members, besides adherents. The present is the largest and most representative meeting of the body ever held in this Province. They hold that they are distinguished from the other churches in that they (the Disciples) advocate Christian Union on the bases of a return to the faith and practices of the apostles, and they urge that every person who complies with the conditions laid down by the apostles is entitled to church membership. They also maintain that heartfelt faith in Christ, a genuine repentance to God, a public confession of Jesus as Lord, and baptism by immersion into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is all that any body claiming to be a church of Christ has a right to require of those seeking its fellowship. A continuance in faith with them gives the right to continuance in such fellowship.

"Give Me a Cigar."

"Give Me an El Padre"

QUERY: Who do you think obtains the best value for his money, the man who asks for a cigar, or the one who asks for an "El Padre" or any other of our brands?

It is Difficult to Obtain a Good Cigar,

This expression, heard so frequently, is used only by those consumers who at cigar stores, hotels and restaurants, simply say: "Give me a Cigar."

Those smokers who ask for an "El Padre" "Madre e Hijo," "La Cadena," "La Flora," "Cable or "Mungo," and insist upon having the brand they ask for, do not have occasion to use the expression: "It is difficult to obtain a good Cigar."

The consumer who permits dealers and others to hand him any brand they choose has himself to blame if he is dissatisfied with his purchase.

It is Human Nature for business men to push the sale of goods that pay the large est profit.

It is Policy for the consumer to insist upon having Reliable Brands.

There are some dealers who decry our brands, more especially the "La Cadena" and "La Flora" (the cream of the Havana crop), solely on account of their desire to push the sale of Inferior Goods and Private Brands that pay a larger profit.

If the same attention is given to the purchase of cigars as to wearing apparel, the complaints that are frequently heard would soon cease to exist.

We manufacture only the Highest Grade of Cigars. We are not cheap cigar manufacturers. We aim to give the best of quality consistent with prics charged, and do not pretend to offer the public Gold Dollars for Ninety Cents.

Three Years Free

The Coming School of Medicine.

The Histogenetic System.

THIS SYSTEM IS COMPLETE, having different medicines for all the different diseases. The theory is entirely different from that of the old schools. The medicines are perfectly pure, containing nothing of a poisonous nature whatever, and are quite tasteless. For three years these medicines have been given away free and thoroughly tested in the most hopeless cases before being placed on the market. The result has exceeded the most sanguine expectations. Hundreds of cases supposed to be incurable have been cured, and abundance of proof can be produced to convince the most skeptical that Histogenetic Medicines have cured and are curing to-day DISEASES at a later stage than any other system of medicine in the world. In ACUTE cases the medicines act like magic. Chronic troubles require a longer time, generally from one to three months, according to the nature of the complaint. In FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, WOMB TROUBLES, etc., the medicines have been especially successful. Private EXAMINATIONS in these troubles are almost, if not quite, absolutely unnecessary. Call or send for one of our free books explaining the system. They should be in every house in the land.

RHEUMATISM and SCIATICA

LONDON, April 26, 1891.

I am happy to acknowledge, and now testify, to the efficacy of your medicines in curing Rheumatism. I have suffered with this painful disease in my shoulders, knees and hips for twenty-five years, also with sciatica for some time. I decided to try Histogenetic Medicines as a last resort, as nothing ever seemed to give me any permanent relief. The first week's medicine gave me relief, and in two weeks the sciatica disappeared and has not returned. I took the medicines for six weeks, and am cured of the rheumatism. I feel better in every way. I am sixty years of age, and feel quite smart and active. I can cheerfully recommend these medicines to the public, and will be glad to tell any sufferer about my case. It is now nearly two months since I ceased taking the medicines, and the effect is permanent.

THE DEAD STATESMAN.

As announced by the ADVERTISER bulletin a few minutes after the melancholy event, Sir John A. Macdonald died at Ottawa on Saturday evening at 10:15, aged 76 years and 4 months. The stirring events in the long public career of the dead leader have already been detailed in these columns. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that with many points in the policy of Sir John Macdonald and with many of the methods which he and his associates choose to carry their ends, we have had no sympathy; but we have had no hesitation in acknowledging his great powers in managing men and moulding them to his way of thinking. No other man in Canadian public life has had so distinct a personality, and no other man has ever controlled and welded into a compact following elements so diverse. In these respects Sir John Macdonald was a truly wonderful man. Of the effects of his rule, and how far it conserved the best interests of the people, this is not the proper time to speak. We do not doubt that the historian will do the dead statesman full justice, and that is all that either political friend or political antagonist can desire. At present, the one marked fact that is forced on the country is that a master hand in statecraft—the all-controlling mind in the Conservative party—is gone, and with his departure a new era is about to dawn.

PERSECUTIONS OF THE JEWS.

The persecutions to which 5,000,000 resident Jews are now being subjected in Russia is the astoundingly brutal climax of the long series of sufferings which they have endured at the hands of various powers from the Christian era down to the present time. A few years after the crucifixion of the Saviour they were persecuted by Caligula and banished from Rome by Claudius. In the year 70, when Jerusalem was taken by Titus, the temple was burned and 1,100,000 Jews perished. At various times they were persecuted and massacred by the Romans, until 655, when Jerusalem was captured by Omar, and a number of European powers joined the army of persecutors. In 1020 Canute banished them from his realm. In 1204, under King John, Jews of both sexes were imprisoned, and their eyes and teeth plucked out. In 1278 they were accused of clipping coin, and 267 were hanged and quartered. Twelve years later all Jews were banished from England, and were not allowed to return till the days of Cromwell. In 1603 Pope Sixtus launched edicts against them. In 1840 they were persecuted at Damascus; in 1852 there was a violent outbreak against them in Stockholm; in 1864 the scene of their persecution was in Rome, and in 1866 it was changed to Bucharest. In 1881 they suffered violent persecution in Southern Russia, and now, despite of Europe's horrified protest, throughout the Russian empire cities and provinces are being forcibly cleared of them.

It is difficult to give even an imperfect idea of the impression these wholesale atrocities is producing through all Europe. Russia is not a remote country from England. It can be reached by 30 hours' travel from London, and the occurance of these mediæval barbarities so near the heart of civilization is bringing English blood to boiling point. Berlin is already overwhelmed by wretched destitute Jews driven on a day's notice from their homes and swarming westward without any idea of what is to become of them. Most harrowing stories are told of these unfortunates. For weeks past in Moscow strong police and gendarme patrols have scoured the city night after night; here and there a house where Jews live is surrounded, young and old are startled out of sleep and dragged from their beds, and every corner is searched lest someone be in hiding. If the birth certificate of father and grandfather be wanting, and a person has only papers granting right of domicile, he must sign a document pledging himself to leave Moscow in three days. In many instances families have been driven with clubbed muskets from their peaceful homes. What is already known exceeds in its terrors the worst that could be imagined, and if Russia's savage threat is fulfilled that this persecution shall be stretched to cover 500,000 people, the outcome will make as black and awful a mark upon the history of this century as the French revolution did in the last.

Europe stands aghast at what is being brutally wrought before its eyes. That it may be forced to interfere seems probable, but how, when, and under what form of pretext it is impossible to foretell.

NOT ENDED YET.

The Briggs case in the United States Presbyterian Church has entered on a new and important phase. At the meeting of the General Assembly it was claimed by the fathers and brethren that the Assembly had a right to veto the transfer of Prof. A. Briggs from the chair of Hebrew to the chair of Biblical theology in the Union Theological Seminary in New York. The ground of objection was that Dr. Briggs was a little too much of a free lance in his criticism of the standards of the Church. The directors of Union Theological Seminary have now met and passed a resolution adhering to Dr. Briggs' transfer, and declaring the interference of the Assembly usurpation. This is a declaration that the appointment will stand. The theological battle will thus be resumed at the next meeting of the Assembly.

TRAVEL ABOVE AND BELOW.

A movement is on foot to establish underground railways in New York city, and a discussion has been precipitated as to the relative merits and popularity of the underground and elevated railway systems. There can be no doubt that the underground railway system of London affords a popular and expeditious means of travel throughout the city, but it is by no means as pleasant for the traveler as a ride on an elevated line is. Elevated railways are, however, out of the question in the British metropolis. For one reason the streets are not sufficiently wide, and for another the authorities would never allow the thoroughfares to be occupied by the unsightly tracks, or the peace of the inhabitants to be disturbed by the rush of the traffic. So careful are the metropolitan authorities of the public interests that they do not even allow street car tracks to cut up the smooth pavement of the streets in the city of London proper. This is a necessary precaution, the vehicular traffic is so great. In New York city, however, the speculative capitalists who look after the convenience of the traveling public have things more their own way. They run street cars even on crowded Broadway, they have elevated railways throughout the length and breadth of the city, and now they are about to provide a system of underground railways. There will be traffic for all. These big cities grow so fast that new agencies for getting around easily are consequently required. In London, the establishment of underground railways does not appear to have at all reduced the 'bus and hackney carriage traffic.

A HINT TO CHEESEMAKERS.

The ADVERTISER has not failed from time to time to impress upon patrons of cheese factories the necessity for absolute cleanliness at every step in the production and care of the milk till it is placed on the factory wagon. But all the blame does not lie with the "rascally patrons." Prof. Robertson told the Eastern Association last winter that one great trouble with the industry was that factories were not kept clean enough. Every article in and about the factory should be kept clean. Referring to this subject in Eastern Ontario one of the inspectors says: "The filthy condition of a few factories is really surprising. * * * Some weighing cans and floors are scrubbed only once or twice a week." Another remarks: "Some factories are still in a deplorable state. * * * I have notified a number to be put in better condition for operations next season." All this may not apply in Western Ontario, but a good deal of it will. Factorymen and makers who find that the cap fits them should take the hint and clean up at once. By all means set the patrons a good example.

WHAT THE "ADVERTISER" THINKS ABOUT IT.

THE ALBANY (N.Y.) ARGUS asserts that there is not left in the Canadian Conservative party a person capable of replacing Sir John Macdonald. It is wonderful how strong this idea is held at home as well as abroad.

"What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue!" exclaimed the late Sir John Macdonald, in the words of the famous statesman Burke, a few years ago, in announcing the death of a colleague. He, too, is gone now, and in the present Parliament leaves but one member who sat with him in 1854. Mr. Bourassa, M.P. for St. Johns, is the man.

Mr. Marshall, of East Middlesex, and Mr. Ingram, of East Elgin, dodged the vote in condemnation of Sir Charles Tupper's disgraceful conduct in the recent election. They were afraid to take a manly stand on the subject. But when they come before the electors they will not be allowed to shirk responsibility in that way. The Government they support has made Tupper's case their own.

A GOOD picture of Sir John Macdonald will now be demanded. Probably the best now in the market, or likely to be offered, is an original autographed etching done on copper by Harold Blackburn Harte, one of the best six artists in copper in New York, and a brother of the journalist of the same name. This is an excellent likeness of Sir John as he looked last winter before his illness, and the delicate shading and expression which is reproduced in a copper medium, and is entirely lost in photography, makes the portrait of Canada's greatest personality very much more valuable than an ordinary photograph.

THE NEW YORK school commissioners have decided that female teachers must in future use their proper names, and not sign themselves "Mollie," when they mean Mary, "Teenie," when they really are named Christina, and so on. This is right. The abbreviated, pet name absurdity countenanced by grown persons in public and other positions has gone much too far. The New York school authorities set a good example i calling a halt.

THE Cabinet which Sir John Macdonald formed in 1878, when he returned to power, was thus made up: Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John O'Connor, Hon. C. Tupper, Hon. James McDonald, Hon. J. C. Pope, Hon. S. H. Tilley, Hon. J. H. Pope, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. Alex. Campbell, Hon. J. C. Aikins, Hon. L. H. Langevin, Hon. L. F. G. Baby, Hon. L. F. R. Masson, Hon. R. D. Wilmot. Some of these statesmen are dead, some are on the bench, others have retired to private life. Only two members of this Cabinet are now in Parliament, viz., Sir Hector Langevin and Mr. Mackenzie Bowell. The Cabinet representation from this Province is admitted to be the weakest since Confederation. Messrs. Carling, Bowell, Frank Smith and Haggart are a quartet that could easily be improved upon. Besides, two of the four have taken refuge in the Senate, and are therefore out of touch with the popular element in the constituencies.

AT THE Methodist conference held at Brantford the other day Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Zion Church, in the course of a lively and interesting speech, said that if even an organic union should take place it will be between the Canadian Methodist and Canadian Presbyterian churches. He hoped sincerely that the day would come when that union would be consummated. He had preached in all the Methodist churches in the city, and no one could ever accuse him of preaching a more Calvinistic or less Armenian sermon than their own pastor. The speech, which was loudly applauded, was warmly seconded by Rev. Dr. Stafford, who sincerely hoped that the feuds of the past would be forgotten, and that union would become a serious consideration with them. The Churches are getting together.

The Great Blood Purifier.

A Word to the People. | "Truth is Mighty, and will prevail."

THE remarkable effects and most satisfactory results, in every variety of disease arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, which are experienced and made manifest from day to day, by those who have taken NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, for complaints which were pronounced incurable, are surprising to all. In many of these cases, the persons say their pain and sufferings cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scrofula, where apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption.

This celebrated medicine will relieve pain, cleanse and purify the blood, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying many remedies, and having suffered for years. Is it not conclusive proof that if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the BLOOD, the Circulating Fluid. It can truly be called the

The great source of disease originates in the BLOOD, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY will renew the Blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

The conviction is, in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the VEGETABLE KINGDOM are more safe and more effectual in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. The Vegetable Discovery is composed of the juice of most remarkable roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Allow us to ask you a candid question:—Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it. All druggists have it for sale.

MR. JOHN C. FOX, Olinda, writes:—"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is giving good satisfaction. Those who have used it say it has done them more good than anything they have ever taken."

IN ITS WORST FORM.—MISS JULIA A. PILSWORTH, Toronto, writes:—"I had Dyspepsia in its worst form for over a year, but after taking three bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, a perfect cure followed. I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

MR. W. THAYER, Wright, P.Q., had DYSPEPSIA FOR TWENTY YEARS. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of and immediately commenced taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left, and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health; in fact he is quite a new man.

THE CHAMPIONS IN TRAINING.

An interesting personage at Springbank just now is Dennis Gallagher, the Buffalo wrestler. He has taken up his quarters at Ward's Hotel, and is fast running, rowing and wrestling himself into condition for his contest with Richardson, the Canadian champion, this evening at the Grand Opera House. Like a sensible man, Gallagher is strictly temperate in his habits, and to this fact he attributes his sustained strength and skill throughout his career as a prominent athlete. He is very careful in dieting. A limited quantity of beefsteak, boiled potatoes, some toast and tea make his usual bill of fare. Gallagher says that in his previous match with Richardson he was not in good condition, and promises this time to give the latter a much harder battle. No better spot on the continent, he says, could be desired than the one he has chosen; he is loud in praise of the surroundings and the uniform kindness shown him by London friends. Saturday he ran a mile on Ward's course in five minutes and eighteen seconds; if the circuit had been larger he claims he could have made the distance in less time. The noted American wrestler is always accompanied abroad by his brother, B. F. Gallagher, who acts as his trainer. Both are thorough gentlemen and have made themselves popular with many in the city. In the meantime Richardson is also getting into shape, and with the recollection of his past victory is fully confident of retaining his laurels. An immense crowd is expected to witness the international contest, which will doubtless, owing to the change of style in one fall, prove even more exciting than the last. An amateur wrestling match and amateur sparring match will be among the additional attractions.

CRICKET.

On Saturday the young cricketers of South London and of the Asylum disported themselves on the beautiful Asylum green. The playing of both teams speaks well for the juveniles and London's future cricketers. A large crowd witnessed the game, including a goodly representation of the fair sex, and encouraged the boys by liberal applause. Following was the score, the figures after the names in the first innings being the ages of the participants:

The Thamesville cricketers play the Asylum team here next Wednesday.

The following matches have been arranged for the Asylum Cricket Club: Strathroy and Aylmer, on the grounds of the latter, on Friday, June 19; London team, in London, on July 9, and the Asylum team, in London, on July 10.

The Watford cricketers went to Delaware Thursday morning in high glee to play the Delawares. Their crestfallen faces in the evening were hard to witness. The score against them was 187 runs in one inning, the total of 55 in two innings being a very discouraging record to take back.

ATHLETICS VS. ALERTS.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Athletic baseball team are tickled because they defeated the mighty Alerts Saturday. The contest was a fine one, as the score shows—10 to 6. Brilliant fielding, good battery work and some neat batting roused the enthusiasm of a large crowd. For the Athletics "Jimmie" Bell pitched a great game, and was well supported by W. Lind. Sheere and W. Hiscott took turns in twirling for the others, with Quinn as backstop. The Athletics have reason to be proud of their victory over a first-class aggregation like the Alerts. Following were the players: Alerts—Quinn, Sheere, Johnson, W. Hynd, Wm. Tierney, W. Hiscott, Lewis, J. Hynd and F. Arscott; Athletics—W. Lind, J. Bell, McIlwain, G. Pearce, H. Spence, R. Lind, Screaton, Muir and McNeil.

The Dauntless and London Tool Company's nine played a friendly game of baseball on Saturday afternoon, resulting in the following score:

The Browns, of St. Thomas, a young and enterprising team from the Railway City, played the Delawares on the latter's grounds Friday afternoon. Both teams were in fighting trim and handled the ball to win from the word "play." The absence of First Baseman Horde weakened the Dells, but Hatton from second filled his position to perfection. The game was a very pretty one from beginning to end, and required eleven innings to finish it. Bert Robinson tossed the sphere for the Dells for the first three innings and did effective work until the arrival of Lucas. The pitching of both Lucas and Handley were the great features of the game, the former striking out 14 and the latter 22. Fair and good decisions were given by Umpire W. Shaw, of Shedden, and met with general satisfaction. The winning run was scored by the Browns in the eleventh, and the first game of the season recorded in their favor, 2 to 1, with unbounded enthusiasm. Runs were scored by Hynd, Housinger and Hutton. Both teams play good ball, and the game was worthy of the large number of spectators present. The Browns are willing to accept challenges from any amateur club in Ontario. They play Tilsonburg on Friday, June 12. The Delawares are also open for matches, and shortly play the Alerts, of London.

METHODISTS DELIBERATING.

Examination of Candidates at the London Conference.

The Next Meeting to be Held in St. Thomas—Proceedings of Other Methodist Bodies.

WINDSOR, June 5.—At the morning session of Conference to-day Rev. James Gray, treasurer of the superannuation fund, presented his report. Amount passed during the year, $49,461 92; increase, $1,254 48; additional amount required to pay claimants was $2,398 69, which has left a small deficiency. The report of the general conference fund showed a debt of $15,178 65, leaving $1,000 for the London Conference to raise the next four years. Rev. Joseph Philp, D. D., was appointed treasurer of the superannuation fund.

A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald was unanimously passed.

Rev. A. M. Phillips, B.D., secretary of the Theological Union, addressed the Conference in reference to the work of the union, especially the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The following visiting ministers were introduced into the Conference: Rev. Dr. Hodson, Rev. Mr. Squires, Rev. Mr. Davis, Rev. Mr. Lounsbry, Rev. Dr. Gifford.

Rev. Dr. Dewart, editor of the Christian Guardian, was introduced and addressed the Conference in reference to the work of the church paper, in which he urged a wider circulation of the Guardian.

Rev. James Gray presented the report of the Union Church relief fund for the treasurer, J. N. Lake.

At the afternoon session Rev. J. Learoyd presented the book room report in the absence of Dr. Briggs. The figures for the year showed an increase in every department. Six thousand five hundred dollars was allotted by the Book Committee to the superannuation fund of the church, the largest amount ever given by the book room to this fund. Some changes were made in the Sunday school paper, two being changed from fortnightly to weekly issues, changes which were indorsed by the schools in the shape of orders. The Guardian held its place in the front rank during the past year. Strong in every respect, the magazine marked a gratifying increase in circulation for the year.

Rev. W. W. Shepherd presented the report of Mount Elgin Institute, of which he is principal. It showed signs of wonderful development and success. A resolution was unanimously carried expressing in the highest terms entire satisfaction in the able management of the institution.

The following young men were examined previous to their ordination on Sabbath morning: C. W. Brown, B.A., B.D.; W. J. Smith, B.A.; W. Murray, B.A. The ex-president, Rev. J. R. Gundy, and Rev. Dr. Sanderson conducted the examination, which was thorough and satisfactory.

A telegram was received from the private secretary of Sir John Macdonald expressing the thanks of Sir John and Lady Macdonald for the kind sympathy of the Conference in this trying hour.

The annual Conference missionary meeting was held in the Windsor Avenue Methodist Church at night, the president, Rev. B. Clement, in the chair. The large audience room was well filled, and considerable missionary zeal was manifested. The chairman wheeled the meeting into line by a few well-timed remarks.

Rev. T. Cocking, missionary to Japan, the first speaker, appeared in Japanese costume and spoke of his missionary life. He made reference to the first Parliament recently elected with fourteen Christians, which augurs well for the future. The 340,000 Buddhist priests in Japan are doing all they can to revive their old religion. The position of woman is being elevated by the efforts of the Woman's Missionary Society. The great remedy for Japan is the old Gospel of Christianity.

Rev. Dr. Hart, who has labored 25 years in China, and who is the missionary-elect of the Methodist Missionary Society to China, gave a graphic description of this mission field, populated by 400,000,000 people. Speaking from the victories of Christianity in the past, he was full of hope for the future.

Rev. G. Boyd, pastor of Queen's Avenue Church, London, was the last speaker. Although the hour was late, he held the audience in rapt attention by his enthusiastic and thrilling utterances. He made a brief reference to the mission work in Newfoundland, after which he entered into quite an extended account of the home mission work in connection with Queen's Avenue Church in London. He explained how the mission work in Kensington and Richmond street north had been inaugurated and carried on in a most vigorous and striking manner, which called forth frequent applause. The object of this reference was clearly seen when he referred to the fact that the Stationing Committee had not acceded to the requests of Queen's Avenue Quarterly Board by sending them an assistant so that this mission work could be carried on. It was very evident that the speaker was feeling keenly the refusal and was not afraid to let it be known, and the applause which greeted his forceful words showed that he had the sympathy of his audience. The doxology brought to a close one of the most enthusiastic Conference missionary meetings ever held.

The reception service, when the young men who have completed their term of probation are publicly received into full connection with the church, was deeply interesting. It was held in the spacious Windsor Avenue Church, which was completely filled. The secretary introduced the young men, namely, Wm. McMullen, B.A.; C. W. Brown, B.A., B.D., and W. J. Smith, B.A., who related the account of their conversion and call to the ministry. Each acknowledged his indebtedness to godly teaching and example in the home, and all agreed in bearing testimony to the beneficial influences thrown around them while attending Victoria University, and to the inspiration for good that there came to them.

Rev. A. C. Courtice was called upon to move the reception of these young men into full connection with the church, which he did in a brilliant address full of rich thought and practical suggestions.

The resolutions were seconded by Rev. Wm. McDonagh in one of his characteristic addresses and were carried by a standing vote.

WINDSOR, June 6.—Conference assembled at 9 o'clock. A resolution was passed expressing regret that the Missionary Board on a misunderstanding of the facts had reduced the salary of the principal of Mount Elgin Institute, and requesting the Board to raise it to its former amount. The letter writers were instructed to communicate the sympathy of the Conference with Rev. Dr. Evans and Mr. A. Heyworth in their affliction. The pastoral address was presented by Rev. A. C. Courtice, B.D., and adopted by the Conference.

Rev. Dr. Aylsworth delivered the annual lecture before the Theological Union this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He choose as his subject, "Eternal Life."

Rev. J. R. Gundy was elected ministerial representative of the London Conference on the Central Board of Missions. C. Sanders was reported as lay representative.

Rev. Dr. Aylesworth read the report from Albert College, Belleville, which has enjoyed a year of great prosperity.

The Nominating Committee was instructed to appoint a committee to arrange the Conference programme for next year, and nominate a committee on the establishment of an order of deaconesses. Rev. G. W. Andrews, B.A., was appointed associate member of Alma College. Rev. R. J. Treleaven presented an invitation for the Conference to hold its next session in the First Methodist Church, St. Thomas, which was accepted.

Rev. A. C. Courtice introduced a motion in the interests of the laymen appointed on Conference anniversary meeting on very short notice. The motion was to the effect that the proposed committee for the arrangement of anniversary meetings be instructed to name the laymen who are to take part in such meetings along with the names of the ministers. Conference adjourned to meet again on Monday morning.

GUELPH.

BERLIN, June 6.—The meeting last evening was for the reception of the young men to be ordained on Sunday morning. The candidates—W. H. Patton, M.A., W. E. Kerr and G. McKibbin—related their conversion and call to the ministry. The resolution for acceptance was adopted. Rev. James Gray gave the report of the superannuation fund, also of the General Conference fund. Mr. Kerr, of the Brussels Post, read the report of the Church Property Committee. The Rev. A. M. Phillips, A.M., of the Toronto Conference, was introducted and advocated the interests of the Theological Union. The Rev. Mr. Davey, of Ontario Ladies' College, presented a very gratifying report. At the meeting of the Theological Union this afternoon a masterly lecture was delivered by the Rev. F. E. Nugent, of Mitchell, subject, "The Nature of Repentance and Faith," which was followed by a discussion, led by Rev. Messrs. Edmunds, Gallaway and Scott.

NIAGARA.

BRANTFORD, June 6.—At to-day's session of the Niagara Conference James Lund, of Woodstock provoked a little warmth in debate by moving the following resolution: "That the Conference instruct the Nominating Committee to name a special committee on the privilege of laymen to meet in special session at Conference." This resolution Mr. Lund supported in an earnest speech, suggesting that the laymen had interests that could best be considered in the absence of ministers.

The president decided the motion out of order. Thomas Mitchell, the seconder of the resolution, was not disposed to yield to the ruling, but the Conference sustaining the chair he surrendered.

Rev. Dr. Withrow, of Toronto, editor of the Magazine and the Sunday School papers, reported marked progress in the Sunday school work. The increase of schools during the last quadrennium was 498, with an increase of 34,000 scholars. The Sunday school papers had increased in circulation in eight years from 130,000 to 252,000. The Methodist Magazine reported steady increase in circulation. The Epworth League had taken root and was bearing much fruit. Three hundred leagues had been established in a little over a year, and others were everywhere springing into active existence.

Memorial services were held when in answer to the question, "Who have died during the year?" the secretaries announced the names of Wm. Morton, W. H. Laird, Chas. Lavell, M.A., and C. W. M. Gilbert. A delegation from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society was introduced. Mrs. (Rev.) T. W. Jackson told of the phenomenal success of the W. F. M. S. In less than ten years the income has risen from $2,000 to $25,000. The auxiliaries have grown from 20 to 340 in number, with 153 mission bands, having a membership of 12,878. They now support three schools in Japan, and have sent out nine lady missionaries to that field. A series of rules passed in regard to degrees and titles providing for their recognition if duly authorized. Titles from societies or organizations not incorporated and with no Parliamentary authority to confer degrees shall not be recognized.

A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald passed unanimously. The Stationing Committee, it is rumored, are likely to experience considerable difficulty in adjusting rival claims and providing appointments for all the brethren. Several deputations from circuits and stations have arrived to protest against certain appointments announced in the first draft.

At the reception service the experience and conversion of three candidates, W. H. Barraclough, John E. S. Baillie and Walter E. Prescott, were related, and the young men received into full connection.

BAY OF QUINTE.

NAPANEE, June 5.—The eighth session of the Bay of Quinte Conference opened here yesterday. The roll call showed 151 ministers and 85 laymen in attendance. Three ministers were transferred into the Conference and five had been taken out. On the third ballot Rev. O. R. Lambly was elected president, and C. W. Walch secretary on the second ballot. The secretary named as his assistants Rev. E. N. Baker and Mr. R. W. Clark, and as journal secretary Rev. R. Duke. Dr. Crowle and Rev. George H. Raley were appointed letter-writers and Rev. W. J. Sanders railway secretary. The traveling expenses of young men attending the annual examinations were ordered to be paid in the future. A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald was passed. Rev. Prof. Wallace introduced Dr. Dobayashi, of Japan, who delivered a very interesting address. The reception service in the evening was attended by one of the largest crowds that could be assembled in the Eastern Church.

MONTREAL.

BROCKVILLE, June 6.—At the session of Montreal Conference, Isaac Hall, a Congregational minister from England, and John Pogson, a Congregational minister from Massena Springs, U. S., were received into the ministry. The report of the secretary of Stanstead Wesley College was adopted. A larger number of pupils were reported than before for years. A plan to liquidate the balance of the debt on the college was adopted.

THE DEAD STATESMAN.

As announced by the ADVERTISER bulletin a few minutes after the melancholy event, Sir John A. Macdonald died at Ottawa on Saturday evening at 10:15, aged 76 years and 4 months. The stirring events in the long public career of the dead leader have already been detailed in these columns. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that with many points in the policy of Sir John Macdonald and with many of the methods which he and his associates choose to carry their ends, we have had no sympathy; but we have had no hesitation in acknowledging his great powers in managing men and moulding them to his way of thinking. No other man in Canadian public life has had so distinct a personality, and no other man has ever controlled and welded into a compact following elements so diverse. In these respects Sir John Macdonald was a truly wonderful man. Of the effects of his rule, and how far it conserved the best interests of the people, this is not the proper time to speak. We do not doubt that the historian will do the dead statesman full justice, and that is all that either political friend or political antagonist can desire. At present, the one marked fact that is forced on the country is that a master hand in statecraft—the all-controlling mind in the Conservative party—is gone, and with his departure a new era is about to dawn.

PERSECUTIONS OF THE JEWS.

The persecutions to which 5,000,000 resident Jews are now being subjected in Russia is the astoundingly brutal climax of the long series of sufferings which they have endured at the hands of various powers from the Christian era down to the present time. A few years after the crucifixion of the Saviour they were persecuted by Caligula and banished from Rome by Claudius. In the year 70, when Jerusalem was taken by Titus, the temple was burned and 1,100,000 Jews perished. At various times they were persecuted and massacred by the Romans, until 655, when Jerusalem was captured by Omar, and a number of European powers joined the army of persecutors. In 1020 Canute banished them from his realm. In 1204, under King John, Jews of both sexes were imprisoned, and their eyes and teeth plucked out. In 1278 they were accused of clipping coin, and 267 were hanged and quartered. Twelve years later all Jews were banished from England, and were not allowed to return till the days of Cromwell. In 1603 Pope Sixtus launched edicts against them. In 1840 they were persecuted at Damascus; in 1852 there was a violent outbreak against them in Stockholm; in 1864 the scene of their persecution was in Rome, and in 1866 it was changed to Bucharest. In 1881 they suffered violent persecution in Southern Russia, and now, despite of Europe's horrified protest, throughout the Russian empire cities and provinces are being forcibly cleared of them.

It is difficult to give even an imperfect idea of the impression these wholesale atrocities is producing through all Europe. Russia is not a remote country from England. It can be reached by 30 hours' travel from London, and the occurance of these mediæval barbarities so near the heart of civilization is bringing English blood to boiling point. Berlin is already overwhelmed by wretched destitute Jews driven on a day's notice from their homes and swarming westward without any idea of what is to become of them. Most harrowing stories are told of these unfortunates. For weeks past in Moscow strong police and gendarme patrols have scoured the city night after night; here and there a house where Jews live is surrounded, young and old are startled out of sleep and dragged from their beds, and every corner is searched lest someone be in hiding. If the birth certificate of father and grandfather be wanting, and a person has only papers granting right of domicile, he must sign a document pledging himself to leave Moscow in three days. In many instances families have been driven with clubbed muskets from their peaceful homes. What is already known exceeds in its terrors the worst that could be imagined, and if Russia's savage threat is fulfilled that this persecution shall be stretched to cover 500,000 people, the outcome will make as black and awful a mark upon the history of this century as the French revolution did in the last.

Europe stands aghast at what is being brutally wrought before its eyes. That it may be forced to interfere seems probable, but how, when, and under what form of pretext it is impossible to foretell.

NOT ENDED YET.

The Briggs case in the United States Presbyterian Church has entered on a new and important phase. At the meeting of the General Assembly it was claimed by the fathers and brethren that the Assembly had a right to veto the transfer of Prof. A. Briggs from the chair of Hebrew to the chair of Biblical theology in the Union Theological Seminary in New York. The ground of objection was that Dr. Briggs was a little too much of a free lance in his criticism of the standards of the Church. The directors of Union Theological Seminary have now met and passed a resolution adhering to Dr. Briggs' transfer, and declaring the interference of the Assembly usurpation. This is a declaration that the appointment will stand. The theological battle will thus be resumed at the next meeting of the Assembly.

TRAVEL ABOVE AND BELOW.

A movement is on foot to establish underground railways in New York city, and a discussion has been precipitated as to the relative merits and popularity of the underground and elevated railway systems. There can be no doubt that the underground railway system of London affords a popular and expeditious means of travel throughout the city, but it is by no means as pleasant for the traveler as a ride on an elevated line is. Elevated railways are, however, out of the question in the British metropolis. For one reason the streets are not sufficiently wide, and for another the authorities would never allow the thoroughfares to be occupied by the unsightly tracks, or the peace of the inhabitants to be disturbed by the rush of the traffic. So careful are the metropolitan authorities of the public interests that they do not even allow street car tracks to cut up the smooth pavement of the streets in the city of London proper. This is a necessary precaution, the vehicular traffic is so great. In New York city, however, the speculative capitalists who look after the convenience of the traveling public have things more their own way. They run street cars even on crowded Broadway, they have elevated railways throughout the length and breadth of the city, and now they are about to provide a system of underground railways. There will be traffic for all. These big cities grow so fast that new agencies for getting around easily are consequently required. In London, the establishment of underground railways does not appear to have at all reduced the 'bus and hackney carriage traffic.

A HINT TO CHEESEMAKERS.

The ADVERTISER has not failed from time to time to impress upon patrons of cheese factories the necessity for absolute cleanliness at every step in the production and care of the milk till it is placed on the factory wagon. But all the blame does not lie with the "rascally patrons." Prof. Robertson told the Eastern Association last winter that one great trouble with the industry was that factories were not kept clean enough. Every article in and about the factory should be kept clean. Referring to this subject in Eastern Ontario one of the inspectors says: "The filthy condition of a few factories is really surprising. * * * Some weighing cans and floors are scrubbed only once or twice a week." Another remarks: "Some factories are still in a deplorable state. * * * I have notified a number to be put in better condition for operations next season." All this may not apply in Western Ontario, but a good deal of it will. Factorymen and makers who find that the cap fits them should take the hint and clean up at once. By all means set the patrons a good example.

WHAT THE "ADVERTISER" THINKS ABOUT IT.

THE ALBANY (N.Y.) ARGUS asserts that there is not left in the Canadian Conservative party a person capable of replacing Sir John Macdonald. It is wonderful how strong this idea is held at home as well as abroad.

"What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue!" exclaimed the late Sir John Macdonald, in the words of the famous statesman Burke, a few years ago, in announcing the death of a colleague. He, too, is gone now, and in the present Parliament leaves but one member who sat with him in 1854. Mr. Bourassa, M.P. for St. Johns, is the man.

Mr. Marshall, of East Middlesex, and Mr. Ingram, of East Elgin, dodged the vote in condemnation of Sir Charles Tupper's disgraceful conduct in the recent election. They were afraid to take a manly stand on the subject. But when they come before the electors they will not be allowed to shirk responsibility in that way. The Government they support has made Tupper's case their own.

A good picture of Sir John Macdonald will now be demanded. Probably the best now in the market, or likely to be offered, is an original autographed etching done on copper by Harold Blackburn Harte, one of the best six artists in copper in New York, and a brother of the journalist of the same name. This is an excellent likeness of Sir John as he looked last winter before his illness, and the delicate shading and expression which is reproduced in a copper medium, and is entirely lost in photography, makes the portrait of Canada's greatest personality very much more valuable than an ordinary photograph.

THE NEW YORK school commissioners have decided that female teachers must in future use their proper names, and not sign themselves "Mollie," when they mean Mary, "Teenie," when they really are named Christina, and so on. This is right. The abbreviated, pet name absurdity countenanced by grown persons in public and other positions has gone much too far. The New York school authorities set a good example i calling a halt.

THE Cabinet which Sir John Macdonald formed in 1878, when he returned to power, was thus made up: Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John O'Connor, Hon. C. Tupper, Hon. James McDonald, Hon. J. C. Pope, Hon. S. H. Tilley, Hon. J. H. Pope, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. Alex. Campbell, Hon. J. C. Aikins, Hon. L. H. Langevin, Hon. L. F. G. Baby, Hon. L. F. R. Masson, Hon. R. D. Wilmot. Some of these statesmen are dead, some are on the bench, others have retired to private life. Only two members of this Cabinet are now in Parliament, viz., Sir Hector Langevin and Mr. Mackenzie Bowell. The Cabinet representation from this Province is admitted to be the weakest since Confederation. Messrs. Carling, Bowell, Frank Smith and Haggart are a quartet that could easily be improved upon. Besides, two of the four have taken refuge in the Senate, and are therefore out of touch with the popular element in the constituencies.

AT THE Methodist conference held at Brantford the other day Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Zion Church, in the course of a lively and interesting speech, said that if even an organic union should take place it will be between the Canadian Methodist and Canadian Presbyterian churches. He hoped sincerely that the day would come when that union would be consummated. He had preached in all the Methodist churches in the city, and no one could ever accuse him of preaching a more Calvinistic or less Armenian sermon than their own pastor. The speech, which was loudly applauded, was warmly seconded by Rev. Dr. Stafford, who sincerely hoped that the feuds of the past would be forgotten, and that union would become a serious consideration with them. The Churches are getting together.

The Great Blood Purifier.

A Word to the People. | "Truth is Mighty, and will prevail."

THE remarkable effects and most satisfactory results, in every variety of disease arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, which are experienced and made manifest from day to day, by those who have taken NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, for complaints which were pronounced incurable, are surprising to all. In many of these cases, the persons say their pain and sufferings cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scrofula, where apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption.

This celebrated medicine will relieve pain, cleanse and purify the blood, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying many remedies, and having suffered for years. Is it not conclusive proof that if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the BLOOD, the Circulating Fluid. It can truly be called the

The great source of disease originates in the BLOOD, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY will renew the Blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

The conviction is, in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the VEGETABLE KINGDOM are more safe and more effectual in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. The Vegetable Discovery is composed of the juice of most remarkable roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Allow us to ask you a candid question:—Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it. All druggists have it for sale.

MR. JOHN C. FOX, Olinda, writes:—"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is giving good satisfaction. Those who have used it say it has done them more good than anything they have ever taken."

IN ITS WORST FORM.—MISS JULIA A. PILSWORTH, Toronto, writes:—"I had Dyspepsia in its worst form for over a year, but after taking three bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, a perfect cure followed. I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

MR. W. THAYER, Wright, P.Q., had DYSPEPSIA FOR TWENTY YEARS. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of and immediately commenced taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left, and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health; in fact he is quite a new man.

Sold by all Medicine Dealers at $1.00 per Bottle.

How Men of Muscle Increase Their Power.

THE CHAMPIONS IN TRAINING.

An interesting personage at Springbank just now is Dennis Gallagher, the Buffalo wrestler. He has taken up his quarters at Ward's Hotel, and is fast running, rowing and wrestling himself into condition for his contest with Richardson, the Canadian champion, this evening at the Grand Opera House. Like a sensible man, Gallagher is strictly temperate in his habits, and to this fact he attributes his sustained strength and skill throughout his career as a prominent athlete. He is very careful in dieting. A limited quantity of beefsteak, boiled potatoes, some toast and tea make his usual bill of fare. Gallagher says that in his previous match with Richardson he was not in good condition, and promises this time to give the latter a much harder battle. No better spot on the continent, he says, could be desired than the one he has chosen; he is loud in praise of the surroundings and the uniform kindness shown him by London friends. Saturday he ran a mile on Ward's course in five minutes and eighteen seconds; if the circuit had been larger he claims he could have made the distance in less time. The noted American wrestler is always accompanied abroad by his brother, B. F. Gallagher, who acts as his trainer. Both are thorough gentlemen and have made themselves popular with many in the city. In the meantime Richardson is also getting into shape, and with the recollection of his past victory is fully confident of retaining his laurels. An immense crowd is expected to witness the international contest, which will doubtless, owing to the change of style in one fall, prove even more exciting than the last. An amateur wrestling match and amateur sparring match will be among the additional attractions.

CRICKET.

On Saturday the young cricketers of South London and of the Asylum disported themselves on the beautiful Asylum green. The playing of both teams speaks well for the juveniles and London's future cricketers. A large crowd witnessed the game, including a goodly representation of the fair sex, and encouraged the boys by liberal applause. Following was the score, the figures after the names in the first innings being the ages of the participants:

The following matches have been arranged for the Asylum Cricket Club: Strathroy and Aylmer, on the grounds of the latter, on Friday, June 19; London team, in London, on July 9, and the Asylum team, in London, on July 10.

The Watford cricketers went to Delaware Thursday morning in high glee to play the Delawares. Their crestfallen faces in the evening were hard to witness. The score against them was 187 runs in one inning, the total of 55 in two innings being a very discouraging record to take back.

ATHLETICS VS. ALERTS.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Athletic baseball team are tickled because they defeated the mighty Alerts Saturday. The contest was a fine one, as the score shows—10 to 6. Brilliant fielding, good battery work and some neat batting roused the enthusiasm of a large crowd. For the Athletics "Jimmie" Bell pitched a great game, and was well supported by W. Lind. Sheere and W. Hiscott took turns in twirling for the others, with Quinn as backstop. The Athletics have reason to be proud of their victory over a first-class aggregation like the Alerts. Following were the players: Alerts—Quinn, Sheere, Johnson, W. Hynd, Wm. Tierney, W. Hiscott, Lewis, J. Hynd and F. Arscott; Athletics—W. Lind, J. Bell, McIlwain, G. Pearce, H. Spence, R. Lind, Screaton, Muir and McNeil.

The Dauntless and London Tool Company's nine played a friendly game of baseball on Saturday afternoon, resulting in the following score:

The Browns, of St. Thomas, a young and enterprising team from the Railway City, played the Delawares on the latter's grounds Friday afternoon. Both teams were in fighting trim and handled the ball to win from the word "play." The absence of First Baseman Horde weakened the Dells, but Hatton from second filled his position to perfection. The game was a very pretty one from beginning to end, and required eleven innings to finish it. Bert Robinson tossed the sphere for the Dells for the first three innings and did effective work until the arrival of Lucas. The pitching of both Lucas and Handley were the great features of the game, the former striking out 14 and the latter 22. Fair and good decisions were given by Umpire W. Shaw, of Shedden, and met with general satisfaction. The winning run was scored by the Browns in the eleventh, and the first game of the season recorded in their favor, 2 to 1, with unbounded enthusiasm. Runs were scored by Hynd, Housinger and Hutton. Both teams play good ball, and the game was worthy of the large number of spectators present. The Browns are willing to accept challenges from any amateur club in Ontario. They play Tilsonburg on Friday, June 12. The Delawares are also open for matches, and shortly play the Alerts, of London.

METHODISTS DELIBERATING.

Examination of Candidates at the London Conference.

The Next Meeting to be Held in St. Thomas—Proceedings of Other Methodist Bodies.

WINDSOR, June 5.—At the morning session of Conference to-day Rev. James Gray, treasurer of the superannuation fund, presented his report. Amount passed during the year, $49,461 92; increase, $1,254 48; additional amount required to pay claimants was $2,398 69, which has left a small deficiency. The report of the general conference fund showed a debt of $15,178 65, leaving $1,000 for the London Conference to raise the next four years. Rev. Joseph Philp, D. D., was appointed treasurer of the superannuation fund.

A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald was unanimously passed.

Rev. A. M. Phillips, B.D., secretary of the Theological Union, addressed the Conference in reference to the work of the union, especially the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The following visiting ministers were introduced into the Conference: Rev. Dr. Hodson, Rev. Mr. Squires, Rev. Mr. Davis, Rev. Mr. Lounsbry, Rev. Dr. Gifford.

Rev. Dr. Dewart, editor of the Christian Guardian, was introduced and addressed the Conference in reference to the work of the church paper, in which he urged a wider circulation of the Guardian.

Rev. James Gray presented the report of the Union Church relief fund for the treasurer, J. N. Lake.

At the afternoon session Rev. J. Learoyd presented the book room report in the absence of Dr. Briggs. The figures for the year showed an increase in every department. Six thousand five hundred dollars was allotted by the Book Committee to the superannuation fund of the church, the largest amount ever given by the book room to this fund. Some changes were made in the Sunday school paper, two being changed from fortnightly to weekly issues, changes which were indorsed by the schools in the shape of orders. The Guardian held its place in the front rank during the past year. Strong in every respect, the magazine marked a gratifying increase in circulation for the year.

Rev. W. W. Shepherd presented the report of Mount Elgin Institute, of which he is principal. It showed signs of wonderful development and success. A resolution was unanimously carried expressing in the highest terms entire satisfaction in the able management of the institution.

The following young men were examined previous to their ordination on Sabbath morning: C. W. Brown, B.A., B.D.; W. J. Smith, B.A.; W. Murray, B.A. The ex-president, Rev. J. R. Gundy, and Rev. Dr. Sanderson conducted the examination, which was thorough and satisfactory.

A telegram was received from the private secretary of Sir John Macdonald expressing the thanks of Sir John and Lady Macdonald for the kind sympathy of the Conference in this trying hour.

The annual Conference missionary meeting was held in the Windsor Avenue Methodist Church at night, the president, Rev. B. Clement, in the chair. The large audience room was well filled, and considerable missionary zeal was manifested. The chairman wheeled the meeting into line by a few well-timed remarks.

Rev. T. Cocking, missionary to Japan, the first speaker, appeared in Japanese costume and spoke of his missionary life. He made reference to the first Parliament recently elected with fourteen Christians, which augurs well for the future. The 340,000 Buddhist priests in Japan are doing all they can to revive their old religion. The position of woman is being elevated by the efforts of the Woman's Missionary Society. The great remedy for Japan is the old Gospel of Christianity.

Rev. Dr. Hart, who has labored 25 years in China, and who is the missionary-elect of the Methodist Missionary Society to China, gave a graphic description of this mission field, populated by 400,000,000 people. Speaking from the victories of Christianity in the past, he was full of hope for the future.

Rev. G. Boyd, pastor of Queen's Avenue Church, London, was the last speaker. Although the hour was late, he held the audience in rapt attention by his enthusiastic and thrilling utterances. He made a brief reference to the mission work in Newfoundland, after which he entered into quite an extended account of the home mission work in connection with Queen's Avenue Church in London. He explained how the mission work in Kensington and Richmond street north had been inaugurated and carried on in a most vigorous and striking manner, which called forth frequent applause. The object of this reference was clearly seen when he referred to the fact that the Stationing Committee had not acceded to the requests of Queen's Avenue Quarterly Board by sending them an assistant so that this mission work could be carried on. It was very evident that the speaker was feeling keenly the refusal and was not afraid to let it be known, and the applause which greeted his forceful words showed that he had the sympathy of his audience. The doxology brought to a close one of the most enthusiastic Conference missionary meetings ever held.

The reception service, when the young men who have completed their term of probation are publicly received into full connection with the church, was deeply interesting. It was held in the spacious Windsor Avenue Church, which was completely filled. The secretary introduced the young men, namely, Wm. McMullen, B.A.; C. W. Brown, B.A., B.D., and W. J. Smith, B.A., who related the account of their conversion and call to the ministry. Each acknowledged his indebtedness to godly teaching and example in the home, and all agreed in bearing testimony to the beneficial influences thrown around them while attending Victoria University, and to the inspiration for good that there came to them.

Rev. A. C. Courtice was called upon to move the reception of these young men into full connection with the church, which he did in a brilliant address full of rich thought and practical suggestions.

The resolutions were seconded by Rev. Wm. McDonagh in one of his characteristic addresses and were carried by a standing vote.

WINDSOR, June 6.—Conference assembled at 9 o'clock. A resolution was passed expressing regret that the Missionary Board on a misunderstanding of the facts had reduced the salary of the principal of Mount Elgin Institute, and requesting the Board to raise it to its former amount. The letter writers were instructed to communicate the sympathy of the Conference with Rev. Dr. Evans and Mr. A. Heyworth in their affliction. The pastoral address was presented by Rev. A. C. Courtice, B.D., and adopted by the Conference.

Rev. Dr. Aylsworth delivered the annual lecture before the Theological Union this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He choose as his subject, "Eternal Life."

Rev. J. R. Gundy was elected ministerial representative of the London Conference on the Central Board of Missions. C. Sanders was reported as lay representative.

Rev. Dr. Aylesworth read the report from Albert College, Belleville, which has enjoyed a year of great prosperity.

The Nominating Committee was instructed to appoint a committee to arrange the Conference programme for next year, and nominate a committee on the establishment of an order of deaconesses. Rev. G. W. Andrews, B.A., was appointed associate member of Alma College. Rev. R. J. Treleaven presented an invitation for the Conference to hold its next session in the First Methodist Church, St. Thomas, which was accepted.

Rev. A. C. Courtice introduced a motion in the interests of the laymen appointed on Conference anniversary meeting on very short notice. The motion was to the effect that the proposed committee for the arrangement of anniversary meetings be instructed to name the laymen who are to take part in such meetings along with the names of the ministers. Conference adjourned to meet again on Monday morning.

GUELPH.

BERLIN, June 6.—The meeting last evening was for the reception of the young men to be ordained on Sunday morning. The candidates—W. H. Patton, M.A., W. E. Kerr and G. McKibbin—related their conversion and call to the ministry. The resolution for acceptance was adopted. Rev. James Gray gave the report of the superannuation fund, also of the General Conference fund. Mr. Kerr, of the Brussels Post, read the report of the Church Property Committee. The Rev. A. M. Phillips, A.M., of the Toronto Conference, was introducted and advocated the interests of the Theological Union. The Rev. Mr. Davey, of Ontario Ladies' College, presented a very gratifying report. At the meeting of the Theological Union this afternoon a masterly lecture was delivered by the Rev. F. E. Nugent, of Mitchell, subject, "The Nature of Repentance and Faith," which was followed by a discussion, led by Rev. Messrs. Edmunds, Gallaway and Scott.

NIAGARA.

BRANTFORD, June 6.—At to-day's session of the Niagara Conference James Lund, of Woodstock provoked a little warmth in debate by moving the following resolution: "That the Conference instruct the Nominating Committee to name a special committee on the privilege of laymen to meet in special session at Conference." This resolution Mr. Lund supported in an earnest speech, suggesting that the laymen had interests that could best be considered in the absence of ministers.

The president decided the motion out of order. Thomas Mitchell, the seconder of the resolution, was not disposed to yield to the ruling, but the Conference sustaining the chair he surrendered.

Rev. Dr. Withrow, of Toronto, editor of the Magazine and the Sunday School papers, reported marked progress in the Sunday school work. The increase of schools during the last quadrennium was 498, with an increase of 34,000 scholars. The Sunday school papers had increased in circulation in eight years from 130,000 to 252,000. The Methodist Magazine reported steady increase in circulation. The Epworth League had taken root and was bearing much fruit. Three hundred leagues had been established in a little over a year, and others were everywhere springing into active existence.

Memorial services were held when in answer to the question, "Who have died during the year?" the secretaries announced the names of Wm. Morton, W. H. Laird, Chas. Lavell, M.A., and C. W. M. Gilbert. A delegation from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society was introduced. Mrs. (Rev.) T. W. Jackson told of the phenomenal success of the W. F. M. S. In less than ten years the income has risen from $2,000 to $25,000. The auxiliaries have grown from 20 to 340 in number, with 153 mission bands, having a membership of 12,878. They now support three schools in Japan, and have sent out nine lady missionaries to that field. A series of rules passed in regard to degrees and titles providing for their recognition if duly authorized. Titles from societies or organizations not incorporated and with no Parliamentary authority to confer degrees shall not be recognized.

A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald passed unanimously. The Stationing Committee, it is rumored, are likely to experience considerable difficulty in adjusting rival claims and providing appointments for all the brethren. Several deputations from circuits and stations have arrived to protest against certain appointments announced in the first draft.

At the reception service the experience and conversion of three candidates, W. H. Barraclough, John E. S. Baillie and Walter E. Prescott, were related, and the young men received into full connection.

BAY OF QUINTE.

NAPANEE, June 5.—The eighth session of the Bay of Quinte Conference opened here yesterday. The roll call showed 151 ministers and 85 laymen in attendance. Three ministers were transferred into the Conference and five had been taken out. On the third ballot Rev. O. R. Lambly was elected president, and C. W. Walch secretary on the second ballot. The secretary named as his assistants Rev. E. N. Baker and Mr. R. W. Clark, and as journal secretary Rev. R. Duke. Dr. Crowle and Rev. George H. Raley were appointed letter-writers and Rev. W. J. Sanders railway secretary. The traveling expenses of young men attending the annual examinations were ordered to be paid in the future. A resolution of sympathy with Sir John and Lady Macdonald was passed. Rev. Prof. Wallace introduced Dr. Dobayashi, of Japan, who delivered a very interesting address. The reception service in the evening was attended by one of the largest crowds that could be assembled in the Eastern Church.

MONTREAL.

BROCKVILLE, June 6.—At the session of Montreal Conference, Isaac Hall, a Congregational minister from England, and John Pogson, a Congregational minister from Massena Springs, U. S., were received into the ministry. The report of the secretary of Stanstead Wesley College was adopted. A larger number of pupils were reported than before for years. A plan to liquidate the balance of the debt on the college was adopted.

The cow trade, with the exception of a little inquiry for a few fancy milkers and springers, was very slow, and $3 to $5 per head lower for anything except the selected few head. About 25 cars were in the yards, and 8 to 10 carloads are unsold. Fair to good cows sold at $25 to $28 per head; common quality, $15 to $18; choice to fancy, $35 to $38. Calves—About 600 head offered; demand fair; poor lots barely steady, with the close of last week; bulk of offerings changed hands. Common to fair veals sold at $4 to $5; good were $5 50 to $5 75.

Sheep and Lambs—Offerings, 40 cars; market opened fairly steady, but became weaker, and late in the day the decline was 15c to 25c from Saturday; 8 or 10 cars were unsold at close. The best sheep, $5 to $5 25; best yearlings, $5 25 to $5 50; good spring lambs, $7 to $7 25, market closing slow at quotations. Quite a number of green, grassy yearling lambs of 50 to 60 pounds were among the offerings to-day that none of the buyers would look at.

Yorkers, $4 60 to $4 65 for light to good weight hogs; a few closely selected sold at $4 70; packers paid $4 65 to $4 70; pigs very slow at $2 25 to $4 50, mostly $4 35.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Que., June 8.—About 250 cattle, 200 calves and 250 sheep and lambs offered at the East End abattoir to-day. The prices of cattle were nearly ⅛c per lb higher all round to-day, the best beeves selling at from 5¼c to 5⅜c per lb; pretty good stock, including large fat cows, from 5c to 5¼c; do. rough oxen and large bulls, from 4c to 4½c, and milkmen's strippers, from 3½c to 4½c per lb. Calves were dearer and sold at from $2 to $7 each. Six good calves sold at $1 50 each, and eight lambs $3 50. Good sheep are in demand for shipment to Great Britain, and bring from $5 to $6 each, or about 4c per lb; lambs are declining in price and sell at from $2 to $4 each. Fat hogs are plentiful, and sell at about 5¼c per lb.

BRITISH TRADE.

EDINBURGH, May 29.—John Swan & Son's weekly report says: There has been a large supply of fat cattle on offer this week. With a large attendance of buyers from the south and a more than usually large contingent of local butchers, trade throughout has been steady and prices rather better than last week, with a hardening tendency towards the close. For fat cows of good quality a slight improvement in prices was also got. In Glasgow there was in addition to a large supply of home-fed cattle of good cattle about 1,000 Canadians and at Yorkhill a considerable number of States cattle. At this market there were many new customers from the South, and although there was no great activity in the trade a clearance was readily made. The Canadians on offer were generally of a fairly good lot. Best class of bullocks would make about 7s 9d; rough work steers, 7s; bulls, 6s 6d to 6s 9d; heifers of a primer class, 8s per stone.

Fat sheep have been shown in considerably larger numbers. For the best descriptions prices were as nearly as possible similar to the preceding weeks, but for those of secondary quality is to 1s 6d a head less money had to be taken. Fat lambs were numerous and they made barely late rates, with the exception of a few of the very best. Calves have been the largest show of the season, and they met a good trade at previous prices. Pigs more plentiful, and they met a moderate inquiry at prices the turn in favor of buyers.

There were a large supply of store sheep in Edinburgh market, and the quality much under an average. For good sheep previous prices were obtained, but a considerable number of secondary sheep were left unsold, and to effect sales in this class a reduction of from 1s to 2s a head had to be taken. There were more store cattle on offer, but owing to the restrictions it is almost impossible to effect sales. There was a considerably large show of milk cows, and they met the worst trade of the season, at a reduction of from 30s to 40s a head. Best beef, 8s to 8s 3d; secondary, 7s 3d to 7s 6d per stone; best mutton in wool, 6½d to 9½d; clipped, 8d to 8½d; ewes, 6½d to 7½d per lb; lambs, 34s to 40s each, in one or two cases exceeded.

The funeral of the late Robert Laidlaw, of Detroit, took place from the residence of his brother, J. B. Laidlaw, 780 Queen's avenue, yesterday at 10 o'clock to the Union Cemetery, Dorchester. Mr. Laidlaw was born in 1846 near this city in Westminster township. After graduating at Toronto University he turned his attention to school teaching for several years. Subsequently he studied law at the Ann Arbor (Michigan) University, graduating in 1869. Since then to the time of his death he had been practising his profession, in conjunction with the real estate business in Detroit, where he was recognized as a leading member of the bar. Mrs. Laidlaw died in 1880. His parents live at the old homestead in Westminster, and his sister resides in Detroit.

Some of Canada's Merchant Princes.

There are in Canada many merchant princes who would willingly give a handsome percentage of their wealth if they were guaranteed a lease of health and a few years more of life on earth. In their present condition they are aware that they have not much hope held out to them of long years. In their desire for riches, fame and position, they have become almost physically wrecked. We pity some of them, as we gaze on their sallow, thin faces, their sunken eyes, their nervous twitchings, their trembling hands and unsteady, faltering steps. They are also suffering mentally. The brain has become weak and clouded, the memory is failing, and they are tortured by headaches; and fear that something dreadful is about to happen. This state of suffering has been brought on by overtaxing the mental and physical powers; and mark well, sufferers, unless you find relief from the true remedy, look out for paresis, paralysis, and dread insanity! No necessity to give away a large slice of your wealth for relief. Paine's Celery Compound is able to accomplish what you so greatly desire. It has restored to new life more desperate cases than yours, and many of these former sufferers still live as witnesses for this great remedy, and their testimony is on record. It is for you to determine whether you will live in suffering, and die later on from, it may be insanity, or by using Paine's Celery Compound, that perfect food for brain and nerve, live in perfect health and extend your life to a good old age.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation; its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 25 doses, 35 cents.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

SEISMIC SHOCKS.

A Series of Earthquakes in Italy—Several Persons Killed.

ROME, June 8.—The cities of Verona and Mantua, Italy, were shaken by an earthquake yesterday. Many houses were damaged. An invalid lady was so badly frightened by the shock that she died. Lombardy, Venetia and part of Tuscany were also visited. The worst shocks occurred about 2 in the morning. Shocks were also felt in Venice and Milan. The center of the disturbance was at Verona. A subterranean noise was heard like the roar of artillery which was followed by three strong shocks. The inhabitants rushed into the streets in terror. At Mardenigo three persons were killed, and at Badia Calavera seventeen persons were badly injured by falling houses and chimneys. At the latter place another shock was felt at 8 o'clock in the morning, and much additional damage was done. The movements were undulating in character, and were more or less over the whole of North Italy.

ROME, June 8.—Advices from Badia, Calavena and Treguamro, two of the towns in northern Italy visited by earthquake yesterday, show that the inhabitants are terror stricken and that they have taken to the fields for safety. The subterranean rumblings continue, and occasionally slighter shocks than those of yesterday are felt. The damage done at these two places is much greater than was indicated in the first reports. The towns were practically destroyed by the severity of the shocks. Three-quarters of the houses will have to be pulled down.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

A Quebec Village Wiped Out.

QUEBEC, Que, June 8.—The village of Black Lake was destroyed by fire yesterday. Forty-five houses and four stores were burned down. The only buildings that escaped are the Quebec Central Railroad station, Bennett Hotel, the saw mill, and Mr. Landry's house. One hundred and fifty persons are homeless. Black Lake had a population of about 300 souls. A bush fire was the cause of the conflagration.

TERRESTRIAL HEALING

A branch office of the Magnetic Meridian Vitapoise Company is now permanently located at 294 Dundas street, for the purpose of giving practical demonstrations of the healing virtues of the "Vitapoise," (or miniature earth.) It is the most wonderful healing instrument ever discovered. It only fails to cure the afflicted when their case is hopeless, and it makes no difference what ails you.

If you would like to investigate "TERRESTRIAL HEALING," call at the office, and Prof Reid, will cheerfully explain to you the mysteries of the subtle healing force contained in a Magnetic Meridian Vitapoise.

Separate rooms are fitted up for the treatment of ladies and gentlemen. We want every family and physician in Canada to buy a "Vitapoise," and we will accomplish our object if an afflicted member of every tenth family will give the instrument a trial, by taking a "course of treatment." Its application is absolutely painless and is also harmless; but disease will flee from before it as if driven away by magic.

Physicians! try a "Vitapoise" on one of your patients, having either la grippe, inflammation, fever, insomnia, neuralgia or rheumatism, and thereafter your "medical case" will be a secondary consideration so long as you have a "Vitapoise" with you

Affections once firmly set are generally tenacious, no matter what the object may be. To this fact the success of H. McKay & Co., of this city, is largely due. Those who have tried their Norma cigars never forsake them, and thus the firm retains all their old customers, and by the reputation only of the goods add new ones to the roll. For excellence the Norma at 10 cents is superlative.

"Well, only as far as we are concerned," answered Barbara; "that's to say, Lady Frayne was with them. But wait, I'll read you his letter."

"'My dearest of aunts,'—hasn't he a sweet way with him?—'you will think we have treated you with dreadful shabbiness, but we really did it for your own good'—you see he can think of me through it all—'we both wanted to tell you about it as soon as we had made up our minds'—I declare I'd no notion what he was coming to all—'but I knew better than my wife'—the hurry he's in to say my wife; the breath was out of me when I read it—'that it would be unfair on you, and I was selfish enough, besides, to think you would be better able to help us afterwards with father if you had done nothing to help us beforehand. But Dora was laughing at the letter, and failed in consolation on this point.

"And now," said Miss Nugent, as she folded up the letter, "you must be as secret as an owl till I've told my brother myself."

The dinner bell rang, and Miss Nugent had to retreat, leaving Dora to count up the number of secrets which she must on no account divulge to anybody.

Dora herself retired early that evening, though she punished her curiosity in doing so, for she would greatly have liked to see what reception Anthony gave to the news which his sister had to impart. But as Barbara had begun to signal her from the moment when they entered the drawing-room, and as there was no mistaking the signals—Barbara's need of unbosoming herself increasing with the lapse of seconds—Dora said good-night after her first cup of tea.

Anthony had been quite taken up during dinner with the unpleasant adventure on the road, which indeed, gave room for some disquieting reflections. He had now relapsed into the state of taciturnity which had become almost habitual with him in the evenings.

"Anthony," began his sister, "are ye listening to me?"

"I am," responded Anthony somewhat remotely.

"I've something important, indeed, quite important, that I'd like to tell you at once. You're sure you're listening to me, Anthony?"

"Ah, don't ye see that I am?"

"'Tis about Arthur, Anthony."

"He's no worse, is he?" said Anthony, forgetting for the moment that his son had gone to lunch Doyne."

"No, thank goodness, I think he's better than ever he was in his life. Isn't it a great thing to have him well again so quickly, Anthony?"

"'Tis, indeed."

"And it's about Kitty as well as himself I want to tell you."

"Ho! ho!"

Anthony did not utter that exclamation aloud, but it expressed itself in his changed countenance. He also shifted attitude in his chair and braced himself to try and finish up some fresh argument for withholding a little longer the consent that had never yet been wrung from him.

"The truth is," said Barbara mildly, "that Arthur and Kitty have thought it better to get married."

"They've time enough," said Anthony imperturbably, not having yet fashioned a new argument.

"I've something important, indeed, quite important, that I'd like to tell you at once. You're sure you're listening to me, Anthony?"

"And it's about Kitty as well as himself I want to tell you."

Anthony did not utter that exclamation aloud, but it expressed itself in his change of countenance. He also shifted attitude in his chair and braced himself to try and finish up some fresh argument for withholding a little longer the consent that had not yet been wrung from him.

"The truth is," said Barbara mildly, "that Arthur and Kitty have thought it better to get married."

"They've time enough," said Anthony unturbably, not having yet fashioned a new argument.

"They're married this minute," said his sister. "They were married this morning in Dublin."

A terrific and horrific guttural explosion on the part of Anthony began, and as suddenly subsided. It was a manifestation in the nature of a single clap of thunder, which crashes and is silent in the same instant of time.

Anthony had said nothing articulate, and he continued mute.

Miss Nugent, not without tremors, awaited a development of some sort.

None following, she continued:

"'Twas a little hasty of them, to be sure; but—well, 'tis done now, and you'll not take it unkindly, Anthony, I hope."

"Faith! I'm thinking it's no great matter which way I take it," said Anthony with a dramatic humility.

"Of course it matters everything in the world," returned his sister warmly. "Isn't it you that will be providing for them?"

"Oh, as for providing, if that's what you'd have me be at, there's room enough and food enough for them here."

"Now, Anthony, I declare, 'tis absurd for you to be talking that way. Sure, how would they live here?"

Isn't it good enough for them? Is that what ye mean? Well, then, there's Sarah's place—what this 'tis called?" said the exasperating old man. "Doyne, I mean. Isn't that what she call it? Wouldn't Doyne be a sweet place for them? Or they might be coming and going, maybe, between the two—a month here and a month over there beyant. But will ye tell me, what's Sarah herself going to say to this little frolic of theirs?"

"She was with them when they were married."

"Was she, now? 'Tis a great Sarah, and no mistake! Well, she'll not be hard on them anyway. She'll be building a new wing for them over there before we know what she's at."

"Deed, and she won't, for ye know very well, Anthony, that she couldn't afford it. Now, there's Gravelmount, Anthony, which is everything in the world they want——"

"Gad! 'tis modest they are, the pair of them."

"Now, Anthony, come, come! Be a good reasonable man, and don't be shilly-shallying any more. Sure, you know you were meaning to get the place for them, and why don't you do it at once in a nice kind way? Isn't Arthur the only child you have? And you always so fond of Kitty, and always promising you'd be settling them both one of these days. What's hindering you that you can't do it now?"

"I never said a word about getting Gravelmount, upon me honor."

"But you meant to do it, now, didn't you?"

"Deed, I don't know that I'd say that either. I say what I said just now, that there's a power of room for them here. Let them come here if they like, and welcome. Kitty's a nice bright thing to have about a house. I wouldn't object to her at all; no, not a bit in the world."

This attitude, which Anthony had assumed on the impulse of the moment, chiefly because he did not know what other to take up, he resolutely maintained, both with Barbara and Lady Frayne.

He was very seldom at the trouble of excusing himself in his own eyes, but in this instance he satisfied himself that his own conduct was justified by the conduct of the newly-married pair; and he was secretly delighted that they had married each other without his consent or knowledge, since it gave him an additional and more plausible pretext for adhering to his old policy.

Lady Frayne was less disturbed than Barbara, feeling sure that Anthony would be obliged soon to face the situation as it now stood. Meanwhile, she said they should both live at Doyne and for as long as they liked.

Arthur was kept somewhat in the dark for awhile as to the condition of affairs at home. Barbara, of course, had lost no time in covering two sheets of paper with her congratulations, but she was reticent in regard to Anthony.

Anthony's felicitations, however, followed his sister's in a day or two, and in a postcript he once more repeated the obnoxious formula that there was plenty of room, oven for the pair of them, at home.

This postscript took Arthur rather aback.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—The High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters will commence its annual meeting in Toronto to-morrow. Bro. Edward Towe, H.C.R., and other officials living in this city left yesterday afternoon to attend.

—Steggal's anthem, "Remember Now Thy Creator," was given with much feeling and power Sunday night in St. Paul's by the fine choir of the church, under Mr. G. B. Sippi's direction. The low and solemn cadences in some parts—the mocking echos in the words, "vanity of vanities, all is vanity"—with the recurrence at intervals of the stately principal theme, all tend to make this anthem, when well sung, as it was last night, peculiarly impressive.

—At the last regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Association Mesdames Carfrae, Perrin, Roger, Reid, Kent, Ward, Hopkins, Murray, Fraser, Mitchell, Hunt, Evans, and Misses Skinner, Moore and Kennedy were present. Reports from the different homes were read and received. The treasurer's report showed receipts $867 71; disbursements, $496 90; balance, $370 81. [Donations are acknowledged in the advertising columns on another page.]

—Deputations from the London West and Colborne Street Methodist Churches will wait upon the Stationing Committee of the London Conference at Windsor to-day to protest against the appointment of Rev. W. Hayhurst to the former and Rev. James Graham to the latter church, as decided by that committee. London West had extended a call to Rev. T. E. Harrison, of Elizabeth Street Methodist Church, and Colborne Street to Rev. J. R. Gundy, of Essex Center.

—Quite a novel scene was noticed the other day on the river—seven small boys on a raft about fourteen feet in length plying between Hunt's dam and Victoria bridge. The lads had the raft loaded with an outfit after the style of a party of millionaires on a fishing expedition. Four seats were nailed on firmly for those desiring to fish. Some paddled and one read a newspaper. They all had their pants rolled up and seemed to be enjoying themselves hugely. They even had a pail of drinking water with a glass to drink with. Quite a number of passers-by could not help stopping to smile and take in the sight.

—A Mr. Fortner, of Strathroy, was in town yesterday looking up the whereabouts of Joseph M. Foster, formerly of London, and who has lately been working in Walkerville. Foster was a kind of agent for the Strathroy man to sell a patent clothes line, and, so Mr. Fortner tells, has failed to account for a dozen of the lines sent him last fall. The location of a number of the lines has been found, but the balance have not, neither has Mr. Foster. Mr. Fortner says he will place the case in the hands of the police to hunt up for him, and if Foster is met with he will have to straighten up accounts. Foster wrote several times to Mr. Fortner, stating that he would settle this spring. —[Windsor Record.

—The Huron and Erie Loan and Savings Company announces a dividend of 4½ per cent.

—The Dean of Huron in St. Paul's Church Sunday morning, announced that he regarded the death of Sir John Macdonald as a great calamity. The pulpit was draped in black.

—The Catholic Record appears this week in a fine new dress of type. It was always a neatly printed paper, but has improved upon its former good looks. Its constituents throughout the West have no reason to be dissatisfied with the way in which the paper is either edited or printed.

—A meeting of the masters, past masters and wardens of the various city Masonic lodges was held Saturday evening at Masonic Temple to take steps towards having a suitable service on St. John the Baptist day and the decoration of the graves of deceased brethren. It was decided to make arrangements with regard to attending church on St. John's day, June 28, while the matter of decorating the graves of departed Masons was left with the individual lodges.

South London Temperance Workers.

The regular monthly Gospel temperance meeting, held under the auspices of the Royal Templars of South London, took place in St. James' Church school room Sunday afternoon, Rev. Canon Davis presiding. The building was comfortably filled. Rev. Mr. Ballantyne and Rev. Canon Smith were the speakers, the former dealing mainly with the grounds upon which the Christian Church and Christian individuals should support the movement for the abolition of the traffic, the latter emphasizing the importance of instilling the young with temperance principles. Rev. Canon Davis added a few earnest words to the remarks of the other speakers. An appropriate selection of Gospel temperance hymns added to the interest of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Walker led in prayer. The Royal Templars are to be congratulated upon the manner in which all the churches of South London are co-operating with them in their work.

The Importance of Sunday Schools.

At the Epworth League meeting of the London Conference in Windsor Mr. Hunt, lay delegate from this city, delivered an address on the influence and importance of Sunday schools. Rev. S. Bond, of this city, also spoke on this subject, and said that for the last ten years the International lessons had never got beyond the gospels in the New Testaments. He objected to this, and advocated extending the lessons to the whole New Testament. It produces an impression that the epistles are not as important as the gospels. The impression has been produced that the epistles are inferior to the gospels. The plan of salvation cannot be developed by the gospels alone as well as it can be by the whole Testament. A confinement to the gospels will cramp the conception of redemption. The objections to the epistles are that they are hard to teach. He combatted this idea. It is contended that the gospels contain Christ's own utterances. He contended that the epistles were an exemplification of Christ's teaching.

"Theodore Thomas," Wednesday.

The following extract speaks for itself: "Signor Italo Campanini, who accompanies Mr. Thomas upon his tour, is now in the zenith of his powers. The magic operation performed upon his vocal chords by a distinguished New York physician has placed him again in complete mastery of his voice, and never in the brightest period of his history has he given more perfect satisfaction to the public than he is doing at the present time. His every appearance in New York, Boston and Chicago has been greeted with enthusiastic plaudits, and his efforts have placed him again upon his former level as easily the foremost tenor of his time. His pure and perfect method, his wonderful interpretations of the music he renders, and above all, his thoroughly-soulful and feeling expression, are greeted with rapturous acclaim by all who have the pleasure of listening to him. The singing of Campanini is, in truth, a matchless lesson in vocal art, and every student who aspires to sing never fails to avail himself of the opportunity afforded by the appearance of this peerless tenor. The press of the country vies with the people in his praises." Don't forget Wednesday evening at the Princess Rink—Campanini, the greatest tenor in the world; Katherine Fleming, America's rising contralto, and Rafael Joseffy, the prince of pianists, and Theodore Thomas with his wonderful orchestra of nearly 60 of the world's best musicians. Plan now open at Nordheimer's music store. Moderate prices.

Very Seriously Injured.

About 10 o'clock yesterday an accident happened which may prove fatal. Wm. Hay, a Shedden Company teamster, and J. Teale, drayman, were unloading beer in the yard of the Royal Hotel, close by the Richmond street crossing of the G. T. R. The shrill whistle of a locomotive startled the men's horses and the animals made a dash for the gate. Hay became wedged in between a woodshed and his wagon, and was frightfully crushed about the ribs, the lorrie also passing over him and breaking his left leg between the knee and the ankle. Sergeant Crawford and P. C. Nickle carried him into the hotel, where he was cared for by a physician until the ambulance arrived and conveyed him to his home at 205 Horton street. Much sympathy is felt for the injured man. Two months ago he buried his wife, and only one little daughter survives her. He is well-known throughout the city. He is a member of Court Forest City, A. O. F. The doctor pronounces the injuries as very serious, being principally of an internal nature. Mr. Teale also had a narrow escape and is thankful at having emerged alive. The horse and vehicle just grazed his person as he hugged a wood pile in the yard. Complaints were made by spectators that the ambulance took 25 minutes to reach the spot after being telephoned for, and it is furthermore alleged that the sheets inside were in anything but a clean condition. The wheel of Hay's wagon was broken off at the axle.

Carry the news to Mary.
And, pray, be not too long,
For she is fast declining,
And, surely, 'twould be wrong—

not to tell her of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. We do want Mary to know, in some way or other, that this world-famed remedy will cure her beyond any doubt! It's just the medicine for young womanhood, and thousands has it bridged over that perilous sea.

From every State, from every city, from nearly every neighborhood in this broad land comes the grateful acknowledgement of what it has done and is doing for our daughters. The only medicine for the distressing and painful irregularities and weaknesses of woman sold with a positive guarantee to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. In other words, sold on trial!

The native Christians of Kalimpong, India, are themselves undertaking a "foreign" mission to Bhutan, within their own country. It is to be supported by the prayers and money of the Christians within the guild mission district.

To nearly all men a good cigar is an invaluable companion, but a bad one is intolerable. The latter may be easily avoided by procuring a brand that is recognized by the smoking public as above reproach. The leading favorite in the race is the Highland Lassie, a 5 cent cigar, and one of the choicest makes on the market. H. McKay & Co., this city, are the manufacturers, and their shipments extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific.
