

MAYOR REFUSES TO SAY WHETHER REPORTS ARE IN

Says He Will Not Say "Yes" or "No" To Any Question Asked By The Advertiser.

TWO EXPERTS SAID TO HAVE FINISHED

Mr. Warfield Hopes To Have Document Ready for Council on June 2nd.

Citizens who have been following the electrification question are becoming curious as to just when the reports which were authorized to be made will be received.

A rumor to the effect that the Eastman and Marshall reports were completed, and that Mayor Graham was aware of their completion, if indeed he was not already in receipt of them, was reported to The Advertiser. City Clerk Baker stated that he had not received these reports or heard anything definite concerning them, but he intimated that he believed the Eastman report was ready and the Marshall report nearly so.

Refuses to Answer. Mayor Graham was asked to state whether or not the rumor to the effect that the reports were being held over was true. This he flatly refused to do.

"A 'Yes' or 'No' will do," said the reporter.

"I will not give a 'yes' or 'no' to your paper on any question," replied his worship.

The Warfield Report. Engineer A. M. Warfield stated this morning that he hoped to have his report ready to be submitted to the finance committee a week from Friday. This would enable it to go before the council on Monday, June 2.

JAP EMPEROR SERIOUSLY ILL

Inflammation of the Lungs Developed After a Slight Cold.

HAS A HIGH FEVER

Tokio, Japan, May 22.—Emperor Yoshihito is in a state of high fever. Eight physicians are in constant attendance on him.

The Emperor caught a slight cold on May 18, but it was announced that it was unimportant, and that his majesty would soon resume his activities. Tonight the Japanese were shocked by the issue of an official bulletin from the Imperial Palace in the following terms:

"The Emperor, who has been suffering from a slight cold, developed today inflammation of the lungs. We do not consider his condition justifies great anxiety, but his temperature is high."

The bulletin was signed by eight court physicians.

Another Mad Dog Killed in Toronto

Muzzling Order Is Likely to Go Into Force Again.

Toronto, May 22.—Three times this week Toronto has had a rabies scare, and by the looks of things, the muzzling order is very likely to come into force again. This morning a mad dog gave the police a lively chase from the centre of the city to the far north end. Policemen on bicycles and autos chased the animal, and after firing several times at it with their revolvers, managed to shoot the beast. The animal attacked several people and bit three men. Last night the same dog, it is thought, attacked several people in the east end and bit them.

SIMPLER CATECHISM NEEDED FOR BENEFIT OF CHILDREN

London Pastors Comment on Proposal to Change Shorter Catechism.

The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is discussing the advisability of changing the shorter catechism in use at the present time for one which will be clearer and easier understood by children.

At the meeting at Atlanta, Ga., a committee was formed to produce a catechism that will meet the needs of the present generation. The Advertiser communicated with several local ministers to learn their opinion on the matter.

Simpler Catechism Needed. Rev. T. H. Mitchell, pastor of the New B. James Church, said: "I believe that

LONDON GETS ANNUAL CAMP

Military Training To Be Held Here From June 16th to the 27th.

ON CARLING'S HEIGHTS

Col. Hodgins received an official dispatch from the militia department at Ottawa on Wednesday evening announcing definitely that the camp this year will be held in London. The dates are June 16 to 27, the same as previously.

It is announced that the old camp grounds on Carling's Heights will be the site chosen for this year's camp. The reason for the change from Goderich to Carling's Heights is the uncertainty of the water supply at the former camping grounds in Colborne Township.

SECOND BIG DEAL IN REAL ESTATE IN WEST LONDON

Block of Land Comprising an Acre and a Half Has Changed Hands.

Large Number of Modern Houses Are To Be Erected on the Lots.

One of the largest real estate deals that has been put through in some time in West London, was consummated recently, when Mr. George Churchill purchased from Mr. R. A. Y. Stinchcombe a block of land between Barington avenue and the Wharncliffe road.

The tract consists of an acre and a half, and when subdivided makes fifteen large lots.

To Erect Many Houses. Mr. Churchill intends erecting modern brick houses on these lots, and has already started work on several of them.

The houses are to be story-and-a-half and two-story, of brick with cement foundations.

Only a week ago it was announced in The Advertiser that 22 lots belonging to Mrs. Bessie Macdonald, on Grosvenor avenue, West London, had been sold to Messrs. Geo. Fielding & Son, Toronto, and that work would start on the erection of 30 workingmen's houses as soon as the plans could be prepared.

Advertiser Has Helped. In conversation with a ratepayer of West London this morning, a reporter asked if it looked as if The Advertiser had been helping that section of the city by telling of the crying need of a permanent breakwater. "It certainly does not look like it," said he. "West London is booming as it never did before. Why, I'll venture to say that there have not been 37 lots sold in this section of the city in some time before. And the price paid for the property is, I have been given to understand, a very good one."

Erie Operators Are Preparing to Strike

Men Demand New Scale of Wages, But Company Will Fight.

New York, May 22.—The Erie Railroad is preparing for a strike of some of its telegraph operators, and has obtained between 200 and 300 men to fill the expected vacancies. A statement issued by the railroad today says: "Negotiations between the operators and the company have been on several months, but no agreement has been reached. On May 1, however, the company finding that a readjustment of the operators' wage scale should be made put in force a new schedule of wages, the increase running from 2 to 15 per cent. This move seems to have met the approval of most of the operators, but some of them have announced their dissatisfaction, and have sent word to the company that they would strike on short notice."

BARON ASHBOURNE STRICKEN SUDDENLY

Former Lord Chancellor of Ireland Expires in Hyde Park.

London, May 22.—Baron Ashbourne, who was lord chancellor of Ireland three times under Conservative Governments, died today suddenly after a seizure while he was walking in Hyde Park. He was 75 years of age, and was the originator of the land purchase legislation for facilitating the sale of Irish holdings to tenants.

ENGLAND TO TRY AND SETTLE JAP-AMERICAN ROW

Both Canada and Australia Would Be With the United States.

Japs Angered at Being Treated as Barbarians and Undesirables.

London, May 22.—Regarding the controversy between the United States and Japan, the Daily Mail in an editorial says: "It seems unlikely that Japan will force a rupture with so potent an adversary over a matter of this kind, but the Webb law treats the Japanese as if they were only semi-barbarians and as undesirables. The situation arouses them to fury, and in their anger they may drive the Government to perilous lengths. "The gravity of the situation has a close personal interest for ourselves. It would be distressing to find our American kinsfolk in a serious conflict with our Japanese allies upon an issue in which the Americans will command the sympathies of Western Canada and Australia. "It may be taken for granted that Sir W. Edward Grey, whose peace-making has been less amateurish than Secretary Bryan's, will use all legitimate British influence to bring the disputants to an understanding."

FATE PURSUES WHOLE FAMILY

Teeswater Girl Held for Killing Lost Relatives by Violent Deaths.

A TRAGIC HISTORY

Winnipeg, May 22.—The family of Mary Jane Casemore, under arrest charged with murdering her infant child, has a tragic history. Her father, James Casemore, was a farmer near Teeswater, Ont., and after coming to Winnipeg was killed by an unknown robber eight years ago. Her mother committed suicide with carbolic acid, and her grandparents were killed by a train at a crossing at Bluevale, Ont.

Expected That Close to Six Thousand Men Will Gather Here to Train.

Considerable extra work to the divisional staff of No. 1 military district was the result of the change. There were several hundred men to be re-routed over the various railroads, and numerous other details will have to be altered, entailing a certain amount of unavoidable confusion for the time being. The officers hope to have everything satisfactorily arranged in the course of a week or so, now that it is definitely known that the camp is to be held in London.

WANTS $500,000 COMMISSION FOR A STEEL SECRET

Sir William Mackenzie Principal Witness in Big Case at Toronto.

Head of the Canadian Northern Proved Himself a Clever Heckler.

Toronto, May 22.—In the action of M. I. Stewart, broker, to recover $500,000 commission from R. I. Henderson for the sale to Sir Wm. Mackenzie for five millions of a secret steel process which was continued in the non-jury assize court today, the railway magnate and financial knight followed his distinguished partner in the witness box.

He stepped before the court shortly after 9:30. The examination resolved itself into an encounter of wits between George H. Watson, K. C., counsel for Stewart, and Sir William, which called for interference from the bench from time to time.

"Would D. B. Hanna be properly described as an associate of yourself and Sir Donald Mann?" the witness was asked.

"As vice-president of the Canadian Northern he might be referred to as our associate, but without reference to the Canadian Northern, I don't know."

"How long has he been connected with you?"

"Fifteen years."

"Being your bidding and Sir Donald's?"

"The witness nodded. "A reference to the Canadian Northern would include Sir William Mackenzie."

"That is the best answer you can give."

"Well, I don't know the object of the question."

"And you must know before you can answer."

"Not necessarily. I am not used to being in the witness box. I have not been in such a position more than five times in 18 years."

"You and Sir Donald work hand in hand?"

UNKNOWN PERSONS BLAMED FOR DEATH OF LORNE MOSS

Jury Urges Crown to Proceed With Thorough Investigation Into Mysterious Killing of Young Dunnville Man—Victim Feared Being Beaten Up.

Dunnville, May 22.—That we, the jury empaneled to inquire into the circumstances connected with the death of Lorne Moss, beg leave to report after carefully considering the evidence produced, that in our estimation the said Lorne Moss came to his death by violence at the hands of some persons unknown. And we further strongly recommend that the crown authorities further investigate the manner of the death of the late Lorne Moss.

This was the verdict arrived at by the jury under Coroner Masson, called to determine how Lorne Moss, whose body was found in the Welland Canal feeder here two weeks ago, came to his death. About a score of witnesses were examined by Crown Attorney Murphy, of Cayuga, who had the assistance of Detective Irving, of the Noble Detective Agency, in working up the evidence, but no important facts were brought out.

ALLEGED THAT PLAY IS IMMORAL

THEATRE COMPANY SUMMONED

Rev. John Coburn, in Effort to Uplift Morals of Toronto, Takes Action Against the Opera "Deborah"—Censor Did Not See the Show Put on First Night.

Toronto, May 22.—Today Rev. John Coburn, one of the committee of 40, which is trying to uplift the morals of Toronto, took specific action when he swore to informations against the following performers in the play "Deborah" at the Princess Theatre:

Maynard White, charged with taking part as manager in an immoral play.

Carlotta Nilsson, Marie Day, Maud Sinclair, Frank Gilmore, Myra Brooke, Elliott Dexter and Florence Windsor, all charged with taking part as performers in an immoral play.

Summons are returnable on Friday morning at 10 o'clock before Magistrate Denison.

Only One Excepted. Everyone in the company is summoned except a little girl.

Rev. Mr. Coburn went to Crown Attorney Corley's office and laid matters before him, which resulted in the laying of the informations.

"I claim that no manager has a right to come to Toronto and put on a show which is immoral, according to our criminal code," said Mr. Coburn. "The fact that it was produced the first night in an immoral way is enough for us to work on, no matter what changes were made for the second performance. They can't try out plays like that on us."

Mr. Wm. Banks, the censor, did not see the show last night, as he was ill, but he did see it the first night. "It certainly was immoral in spots, and I covered a lot of it to be cut out," said Mr. Banks. "I understand that it was all right last night and that the parts I ordered cut out were cut out by the manager."

ENTER THROUGH WINDOW

Ransack Cases and Carry Off Batteries and Other Electrical Goods.

By forcing one of the rear windows of the Benson-Wilcox Electric Company's store, 244 Dundas street, Wednesday, thieves gained an entrance, and after going through the storerooms on the upper floors and ransacking cases and drawers, they descended to the lower floor, and after going through the place left with a number of batteries and electrical appliances.

The theft of the articles was not discovered until this morning, when employees noticed that the window had been forced. This led to an investigation of the upper floors, where it was discovered that things were taken from boxes and thrown all over the rooms. A search of the ground floor brought to light the fact that a number of batteries and other electrical goods had been taken.

The police have been notified, and are working on the case.

Had Pains Around The Heart AND SMOTHERING FEELINGS.

The terrible smothering and choking up sensations and sinking turns, that come to those whose heart and nerves are deranged or disordered call for prompt relief.

There is nothing that brings with it such a fear of death as to wake up in the night with that awful feeling of smothering.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity.

Mrs. Wm. Lee, Uthoff, Ont., writes: "I have taken three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and am now well. I had such pains around my heart and such smothering feelings that I thought I would surely die. My head used to be propped up with pillows to keep me from smothering. One day I read in a paper about your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and three boxes cured me."

PLOWED UP SKULL

Remains of Unknown Man Found in Field Near Galt. [Canadian Press.] Galt, Ont., May 21.—This morning one of the men employed on grading for the Lake Erie and Northern Railway made a gruesome discovery when his plow turned over the skull of a man. Further investigation revealed other bones, and practically a complete skeleton was gathered and reburied. The find was made on the farm of W. Taylor, within 20 feet of the river. Oldest residents can remember no burial here, and owing to the bones being so near the surface the theory advanced is that the body must have been washed ashore years ago during a flood time.

Spring-Cleaning

The Human System Needs It. Mrs. M. Morgan, 411 4th Ave. E., Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I take from one to two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the spring to purify the blood just as regularly as I do my house-cleaning, and go around light-footed and light-hearted. I believe it is the best blood purifier known."

WHAT WOULD MR. BORDEN DO?

"The Government of this country are able to ascertain and know, if they take the proper action for that purpose, whether the conditions which face the Empire at this time in respect of naval defence are grave. If we were in power we would endeavor to find that out, and if the answer to that question, based upon the assurance of the Government of the mother country, and the report of the naval experts of the admiralty, were such—and I think it would be such—as to demand instant and effective action by this country, then I would appeal to Parliament for immediate and effective aid, and if Parliament did not give immediate aid, I would appeal from Parliament to the people of this country."

So spoke Mr. Borden in the House of Commons on Nov. 21, 1910. Like most of his other utterances on the naval question he has repudiated this in part already, and will do so utterly, according to his journalistic supporters, in case the Senate should throw out his bill. It must have been just this contingency that Mr. Borden had in mind when he used the above-quoted words, "if Parliament did not give immediate aid." For once in power he could not expect that the House of Commons majority would deny him, if he was contemplating also a delay by debate in the Lower House, he has already violated his pledge of going to the country in that case and substituted the gag, as "just as good."

But it is no surprise to be told by his press that he will not refer his policy to the people. Although it is rather cool of the Bordenites quietly to assume that their leader will go back on his word, yet his whole course on the naval issue, from beginning to end, has been one of swallowing himself. Perhaps, a contribution newspaper, which itself has diametrically reversed its views, is justified in making the following statement:

"What will happen if the Senate goes so far as to kill these two measures it is hard to say. Liberal papers are again talking of a general election, but it can be stated authoritatively that the Government has no intention of permitting a body, which is not representative of the people, to dictate to those elected by the popular will."

In other words, Mr. Borden will not be referred to the people by the Senate. He will not keep his word. But if he should not think fit to appeal to the electors, it would be an admission that there really is no crisis in the British Empire calling for immediate settlement. If the emergency cry is still echoing somewhere, it may soon be a thing conveniently forgotten if the Borden press make true prophecy.

MORAL SUASION.

A western contemporary publishes some figures which would indicate that while liquor licenses are decreasing in this province, and the local option area growing, yet liquor-drinking to excess is not decreasing in proportion. Last year, 168 tavern and shop licenses were cut off, yet there were 786 more commitments for drunkenness than in 1911. Other figures tell the same story.

But it by no means follows as a necessary conclusion that restrictive temperance legislation has been a failure. No one has ever claimed that legislation will make the drunkard quit drinking, even if it prohibits obstacles in his way. But prohibitory legislation does take temptation out of the way of many people who are not cured with the drink habit. It makes total abstainers of many who would otherwise be moderate drinkers, and who might progress from moderate to immoderate drinking. If it be true, as has been suggested, that when men are determined to drink, restrictions placed in their way only make them drink more when they get the opportunity, it is equally true that restrictions keep a great many other men from drinking at all.

Whatever the cause, the fact cannot be questioned that fewer people drink now than was formerly the case. Those whose memory can go back only fifty years require no statistics to prove this fact; it is a matter of simple observation. There is a far greater proportion of total abstainers than ever before in the history of Canada.

Drunkenness is no longer fashionable. It has become a social offense. It interferes with a man procuring employment, or doing business. It shuts a man out of public life. Instead of being whined at by his associates it lands him in the police court, or sends him to an inebriate asylum.

But while the conditions, do not point to any failure in the efficacy of restrictive legislation, it may give rise to the question whether we have not been neglecting the educational work of former years. A generation ago, the friends of temperance devoted themselves to moral suasion as well as legislation. Temperance societies brought young and old people under the influence of moral reform. Sons of Temperance, Daughters of Temperance, Good Templars, and other kindred organizations, were numerous and powerful. Orators like John B. Gough, took the public platform and preached temperance to crowded houses. These agencies all exercised a great influence; they changed public sentiment; they made restrictive legislation possible. Today they have fallen into disuse; the names of many of these old societies are forgotten.

Education is too important a factor in moral improvement to be neglected. Laws are of value in a free country only in so far as they crystallize the sentiment of the majority of the people. When the people are individually educated to the idea that it is an offense to drink liquor, there will be no difficulty about passing laws to prevent the sale of it, and no difficulty about enforcing them. In fact, when education has done its full work, there will be little need for laws. When the people do not want liquor, no one will manufacture it. The traffic will be abolished. If there ceases to be a demand, there will no longer be a supply.

THE UNDERWOOD BILL IN DANGER.

There are bad omens for the Underwood bill in the United States Senate. The bill could be wrecked by the secession of three Democratic Senators. It is reported that an even larger group will insist on modifying the schedules, at least to the extent of wiping out the free list, which particularly interests Canadian farmers.

The bill in its present form admits the following products free of duty: Wool, swine, potatoes, meats, flour, cream, cornmeal, buckwheat flour, oatmeal and rye flour. The opponents of the measure contend that it is unfair that flour and oatmeal should be duty-free, while imported wheat and oats must pay 19 cents a bushel; that meats should be non-dutiable while cattle pay 10 per cent; that wool should be free and sheep dutiable, and so on. Some Democratic Senators are disposed to accept the view that the duties on all these products should be equalized. One way to equalize them would be to place wheat, oats, cattle, and sheep on the free list, with flour, oatmeal, beef and mutton, but that is not the way the Democratic recreants will do it. If they can, they will put a duty on flour, meats, etc., to correspond with the duties on grain and cattle. The Democratic party will be fortunate if they do not go much further, by overhauling the Underwood schedules from top to bottom, and stiffening the tariff on all of them. There is no likelihood that the President or the House will agree to any radical changes, but they may consent to the abandonment of the agricultural free list to the extent of equalizing the duty with the more finished food products.

The bill in its present shape is a long way short of the reciprocity agreement in its advantages to this country, but if the free list is sacrificed to the Democratic bolters, the Canadian farmers will have additional reason to regret the defeat of the Laurier Government. The Underwood bill is coupled with a reciprocity provision, but it is open to all food-producing countries. The Knox-Fielding pact would have reserved these benefits for Canada alone.

The "social conscience" has come to stay, and has transcended all party distinctions.

DIRECT ACTION.

Strikes, of course, are not certain to be successful, but, on the other hand, in the passing of a law twelve years on an average elapse between the first agitation and the royal signature.

SPRING CLEANING.

The first Mrs. Brown cleaned house in the good old-fashioned way. No peace there was for man or mouse in the merry month of May.

She toiled like three strong men. She led the strenuous life. Each day one long blue Monday then—Folks said "a model wife!"

But when she left this world for 'nother Brown promptly went and got another.

The second Mrs. Brown Put on her springtime best, And 'phoned to Mr. B. in town, "Let's have a little fest."

No scrub or rub to spoil The loveliness of May— She let the vacuum-cleaner toil While she was at the play.

And Brown declares he wed a treasure And even votes the bill with pleasure.

SECRET OF IT.

He—Their marriage seems to have turned out well after all. She—Yes. You see, they both belong to several clubs and don't meet often enough to get tired of each other.

DESERVE CONGRATULATIONS.

Sillius—When is the proper time to congratulate a bride and groom? Cynicus—After they have lived together for at least a year, and are still happy.

MUSIC IN THE AIR.

An aeroplane has travelled 1,000 miles between sunrise and sunset, which in the language of the street, is certainly going some, and then some more. Six months ago the record for the same time was 550 miles. Of the engine, which makes possible the terrific speed first mentioned, it is said: "Fourteen whirling cylinders of a Gnome engine, making a thousand revolutions per minute, give 28,000 piston strokes per minute, and result in 7,000 explosions of gasoline per minute. This is a rate of explosion so fast to lose the identity of separate blasts in a continuous musical note of about the pitch of the beginning of the second octave on the organ."

AN ADEPT.

[Judge.] Farmer Bentover—What's your nephew, that's home from college, doin' now? Farmer Hornbeak—Nothin'; and he's got more original ways of accomplishin' it than any feller you ever seen.

GUILIELMUS REX.

[Thomas Bailey Aldrich.] The folk who lived in Shakespeare's day And saw that gentle figure pass By London bridge, his frequent way— They little knew the man he was.

The pointed beard, the courteous mien, The equal part to high and low, All this they saw, or might have seen— But not the light behind the brow!

The doaklet's modest gray or brown, The slender sword-hilt's plain device, What sign had these for prince or clown? Few turned, or none, to scan him twice.

Yet 'twas the king of England's kings! The rest with all their pomp and trains Are moulded, half-remembered things— 'Tis he alone that lives and reigns!

IT IS INFLAMMABLE ENOUGH.

[Chicago Tribune.] It appears from the "large quantity of woman suffrage literature" found scattered around Liverpool one of those incendiary fires happens in England that the suffragists have literature to burn.

HIS REVENGE.

[Philadelphia Bulletin.] Father—You have no sense; I'm going to cut you off with a million. The Son—If you do I'll disgrace the family by riding around in a second-hand auto.

A DISGRACED GOVERNMENT.

[St. John, N. B. Telegraph.] The people do not at present need time to come to themselves, but they need opportunity to come at a government that has deliberately disregarded every promise it has made the people and every conviction it was supposed to hold.

COOKING AND DYSPEPSIA.

[Chicago Tribune.] Mme. Bernhardt bewailed American cooking. Her point was that when food was so well prepared that men die of it in its taste they were less liable to overeat. Mme. Bernhardt was right.

ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

[Portland Oregonian.] Divorces—$50; $1 down, $1 a week. 439 Chamber of Commerce.

A PICTURE WITH A MESSAGE.

[Punch.] I painted a picture yesterday Of a child of angel mien. Resignedly quitting this earthly sphere Ere he reached his earliest teen; At the sight of this poignant work of mine.

I read a heart of stone, Would add to the parents' painted brine A silent tear of its own.

But critical dealers waved it back, Nor hesitated to live up to it. Since life itself could be grim and black, All art should be glad and gay; Till a blight spread over my wonted joys.

To think I was to be Saddled for years with a "Dying Boy's" Dispiriting company.

So I added a maid with a laughing eye, Who bade their grief begone. By waving a box of pills on high (The label was blank thereon). A pill proprietor called; the string Of his purse he quickly loosed; I put in his name, and he's had the thing Extensively reproduced.

DISTRICT MEETING HELD AT EXETER

Ministers From All Over the District Were Present.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Exeter, May 22.—The ministerial session of Exeter district convened yesterday in Main Street Church, The Epworth League executive met at night. The annual meeting, when both laymen and ministers were present was held this morning.

Rev. C. Baker, of Woodham, was elected secretary of the meeting. Ministerial examination was conducted satisfactorily. Rev. T. W. Blatchford was the only absentee, he having been sick in bed during the past four weeks.

Rev. A. J. Heywood, of Exeter, and Rev. Johnston were recommended to be continued at college.

Rev. A. E. Johns, of China, who belongs to the Exeter district, was recommended to continue.

Rev. F. Burgess, who has been at college, and is asking for ordination, was not present, but was expected to be examined in St. Thomas. The meeting ruled that he should be wired to come at once to Exeter for examination.

The Rev. Wm. Godwin and Rev. Richard Redmond, recommended for one year, a year ago, will this year be stationed if suitable places can be found.

Rev. J. G. Yelland and Rev. J. D. Kettle were continued on the superannuation list.

Some profitable discussion took place in regard to the state of the work, and the expansion throughout the district.

UP-TO-DATE.

"Our baby should be christened soon. What shall we name it, dear?" "I've picked 'Eugenic,' John," she said. "It's fashionable, I hear."

Somehow it held enough to make the suggestion that the plan now being considered for the camp might be called tentative plans. Eh, what?

The following might be suggested for the canny in reporting fires: "Stubborn blaze," "Completely wrecked," "Damaged to an extent," "The fire was discovered," "Total damage," "Made considerable headway," "The fire broke out," "Finally under control," "Great volumes of smoke," "One of the worst fires in the history of the department," "The splendid work of the firemen."

FOR BEAUTY AND COMFORT.

Ah! she loved roses—yes, she did. Loved every kind of them— And when they died she always made Back-scratchers of the stem.

A north end man who believes in pursuing some domestic side-lines says that every man should have a hobby and every woman a hobble. Whereupon his better half rises to remark that her husband is her hobby.

If the barbers hold a picnic, as has been rumored, we cannot for a moment believe that the first prizes in the races will be safety razors.

NOTHING DOING.

Said she, "The birds mate in the spring." Said he, "Why, certainly. But notice that, instead of flat, THEY live up in a tree. Clothes, food and rent cost not a cent. Believe me—take my word—I'd seek a mate at rapid rate. Could I live like a bird."

If the newspaper continues to boost "Wild Bill" Baker so much, one of these days we will pick up the box score to read: Summary—Two-base hits—Berhaner, Deneau, Stewart, Lüneborn. Three-base hits—Bowers (pitch hitter and janitor), Chaput, Home runs—Deneau, Myers.

GOTTERTHEMON.

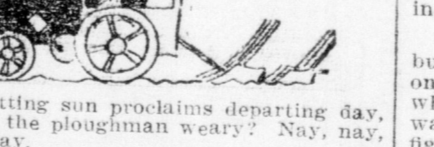

The opera stars have all gone home. As everybody knows, The high notes that they took along They carried in their clothes.

And didn't you see the picture of Third Baseman Myers on Jim's page Wednesday night? Looked just like Linx Hoff, didn't it? This Jim fellow persists in ignoring our advice of late.

Walter Johnson is one great white-wash, but there are others of the name who can do some tall kalsomini.

They say it's good form to call those London female firebrands the arsonettes.

IT'S DIFFERENT NOW.

The setting sun proclaims departing day, And is the ploughman weary? Nay, nay, he plows by steam and plays to other luck. For he rides home now in an auto truck.

The Duchess of Westminster has been awarded $100,000 annual alimony. Some divorces beat C. P. R. as dividend payers.

Eye trouble is said to have increased 90 per cent in the United States. That slashed skirt may have a good deal to do with it.

Despite the fact that we do not live in an arid region there are plenty of irrigation enthusiasts hereabouts.

We have decided not to trot out our pennant prediction just yet. It might get musty this moist weather.

And especially after that fish story told by Mr. Munchausen (Deneau, 'We'll bet the other members of the team think Munchausen is a new kind of cheese.)

New Ideas for Summer Shirtwaists.

Although the one-piece dress is a feature of our summer outfits and hangs in our wardrobes in various colors, and materials, and styles, ready to don as soon as the hot weather comes upon us with its usual rush, our thoughts are much occupied by the shirt waist which undoubtedly will continue, world without end, to be an essential feminine garment. Impossible to imagine a summer outfit without several shirt waists of varying styles and materials, sheer linen, crepe, lawn or dotted muslin for the dog days, and some in thicker materials for the cooler days. Fortunately the manufacturers are always eager to cater to our needs, imaginatively real, and supply us with unlimited materials from which to choose. This season they seem to have made special efforts to tempt us to extravagances, for who cares for ordinary materials when these lovely embroidered muslins, marquisettes and voiles lie ravishingly before one's eyes? And how resist the ever fascinating Swiss muslins, and delicate sheer linens? The ideas in styles are quite as captivating as the materials. Take the sleeve, for example. A new idea is to have it begin just below the neck line where it is slightly gathered into a shallow yoke which dips deeply down into the back. The blouse which shows this sleeve is made in red and white dotted muslin and trimmed with collar and cuffs of white bastiste, edged with fine white lace. Twenty-five dollars was the price asked for this waist, but it could easily be made at home for less than five dollars. By the way, it is refreshing, if not comforting to learn that in buying a blouse like this having a special new feature, one does not pay really for the blouse but for the idea in it. This is not a point of view that usually occurs to us. Once fixed in our minds however, it will doubtless sustain us in many extravagances. Especially when we feel comfortable when we see the idea we have paid $25 for multiplied indefinitely all about us? One of the best of the new shirt waists is of heavy undressed linen, fastened with thick enameled buttons, the size of a silver half dollar. There is a wide rolling collar—high at the back—which has points that run to the shoulders, and fasten there with the large buttons. The sleeve has a pointed turnover cuff which fastens in two places with link buttons, and the neck is finished with a loose black cravat tied in a sailor knot.

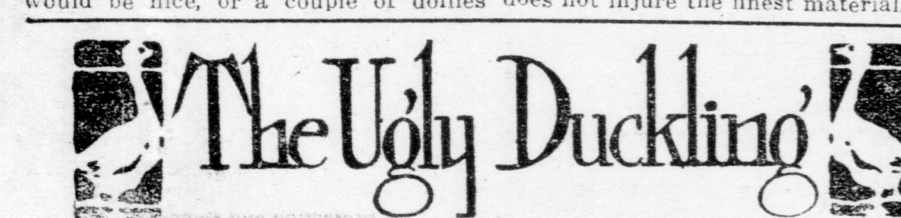

PROBLEMS OF THE FAIR SEX SOLVED BY CYNTHIA GREY

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn as they are received. No letters can be answered privately.]

Rhubarb Cobbler. Dear Miss Grey: Please publish in your column a recipe for rhubarb cobbler if you happen to have one. Thanking you, AN AMATEUR HOUSEKEEPER. A.—Butter a deep earthenware pie dish and fill with tender rhubarb cut into half-inch unpeeled pieces. Add a cupful of sugar and then cover with rich biscuit dough rolled half an inch thick. Bake until the dough is done and rhubarb tender. About twenty or twenty-five minutes will be sufficient.

Takes It Too Seriously. Dear Miss Grey: I am eighteen, and have been in love with a man five years my senior for three years. It seems impossible for us to get acquainted. I know he really likes me, for he has not only said I fit, but shows it. A.—Love, they say, always finds a way, but Love has been incredibly slow in your case. However, it is hardly possible that you really love such a man, for you see him occasionally for three years but have never spoken to him. Your love has no more foundation in reality than if you worshipped a picture in a locket. Don't take it so seriously. Perhaps acquaintance would spoil the illusion. Unless you can make his acquaintance in a regulation way, don't seek to make it at all. Forget him.

Dress For a Wedding. Dear Miss Grey: Would you please answer my questions? What do you think would be a nice inexpensive dress for a church wedding in June, for a girl of 17? Would it be necessary to take a waist, but Love has been incredibly slow in your case. However, it is hardly possible that you really love such a man, for you see him occasionally for three years but have never spoken to him. Your love has no more foundation in reality than if you worshipped a picture in a locket. Don't take it so seriously. Perhaps acquaintance would spoil the illusion. Unless you can make his acquaintance in a regulation way, don't seek to make it at all. Forget him.

The Ugly Duckling

"Can you lay eggs?" asked the hen in her bustling little way. "Do you know how to purr?" said the pussy, with a knowing look. "No, no," faltered "Ugly"; "I can do neither." "Well, what are you good for?" chirped up the old woman, looking at him with a very stern expression. "Now the cat, in this queer, little household, was the 'son of the house.' That is, the old woman called him 'son.' And the hen she called her daughter. What they said was almost law with the old woman. 'So when poor 'Ugly' could neither lay eggs nor purr the 'son' and 'daughter' of the house turned up their noses and walked away. The duckling went into a corner and sat alone and felt very sad. Suddenly, as he sat, he thought of the big outdoors and the beautiful pond near by. 'Why don't you come out and swim?' asked the duckling. 'What's that?' asked the hen. 'Queer sort of fun,' added the cat. 'It's great,' declared the duckling, and off he started. . . . (To be continued.)

Tea-Table Talk

Business Women's Clothes. What do business girls actually spend each year for their clothes, and how do they spend it? Such a question, if propounded, would probably receive a thousand different answers from the wage-earning women of London. It would be interesting to know how many keep an account of their annual outlay for dress, and a tabulated statement of the varying ways in which girls apportion their clothing expenditures would doubtless give an insight into the character and personality of each.

Some girls, one feels sure, would devote more than they should to cheap jewelry, thin-soled slippers, and flimsy chiffon frilling. Others would despise these feminine weaknesses and their list would show instead, purchase of mannish collars and ties, "bull-dog" boots, and English walking gloves. And a third class, quite possibly, would avoid both extremes and make their purchases along more proportionate lines. In glancing over articles on this subject it makes somewhat amusing reading to note the wide contrasts in the amounts considered necessary by different girls for the adornment of their persons each year. All are supposedly practical business women, yet their expenditures (some of them at least) sound decidedly impracticable, when listed in print. There lies before me one girl's itemized budget for a year, which calls for an outlay of almost $400 for dress—more than some of our London girls earn altogether. I reproduce her list word for word:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Winter tailored suit ($72.00), Spring tailored suit ($75.00), White ratine ($48.00), Gray eponge ($25.00), Evening gown, bought at sale ($48.00), Winter hat ($38.00), Spring hat ($10.00), Shoes, sale, two pairs ($5.90), Underwear, at special sale ($17.63), Lisle thread hose for home consumption (must save my silk ones) ($3.00), Gloves (I am extravagant about gloves), 13 pairs ($22.00), Coat collars (collar and jabot) ($8.75), Silk petticoat ($8.75), Hairpins (you may not count them as clothes, but I do) ($1.25), Corset ($11.00), Handkerchiefs, 2 dozen, at sale ($7.50), Repairing and cleaning suits, and pressing ($8.50).

Large Outlay.

Winter tailored suit $72.00, Spring tailored suit $75.00, White ratine $48.00, Gray eponge $25.00, Evening gown, bought at sale $48.00, Winter hat $38.00, Spring hat $10.00, Shoes, sale, two pairs $5.90, Underwear, at special sale $17.63, Lisle thread hose for home consumption (must save my silk ones) $3.00, Gloves (I am extravagant about gloves), 13 pairs $22.00, Coat collars (collar and jabot) $8.75, Silk petticoat $8.75, Hairpins (you may not count them as clothes, but I do) $1.25, Corset $11.00, Handkerchiefs, 2 dozen, at sale $7.50, Repairing and cleaning suits, and pressing $8.50. Total $395.42. You will readily see that this business girl's expenditures are decidedly beyond the reach of the average working woman's purse. Neither is her list proportionate, for she makes no allowance for summer dresses or blouses to wear with her tailored suits, and there are other discrepancies as well.

Dresses For $50.00 Yearly.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Winter dress $6.00, Summer dress $6.00, Shirtwaists (3) $1.50, Cotton skirt $1.00, Hats (2) $5.00, Shoes, 2 pairs $5.00, Gloves $2.00, Underwear $7.00, Kimono or umbrella $1.00, Little things $1.50, Toilet articles $1.50, Repairs $2.00. Total $50.00.

Contrasted with her rather extravagant budget is that of a girl who 'claims to "dress well" on exactly $50.00 a year. Here's how she does it: Tailored suit $13.00, Winter waist $2.00, Winter dress $6.00, Summer dress $6.00, Shirtwaists (3) $1.50, Cotton skirt $1.00, Hats (2) $5.00, Shoes, 2 pairs $5.00, Gloves $2.00, Underwear $7.00, Kimono or umbrella $1.00, Little things $1.50, Toilet articles $1.50, Repairs $2.00. Total $50.00. In an explanatory footnote she states that she buys a $25.00 suit every two years, thus making her annual expenditure for a suit $13.00. She adds that she makes all her clothing except tailored suits, and trims her own hats.

And now to add a word to the original question—"What do business girls in London actually spend for their clothes?" The editor of this column would be glad to receive letters from wage-earning girls in the city as to how they manage their finances—the communications being, of course, for publication and for the general benefit of other girl readers. It is by the exchange of ideas along this and other lines that we can help

STYLE NOTES

Never has there been such clever skirts, the ugly, threatened panier resolving into long, carefully studied draperies, sometimes, it is true, hinting the panier, but, the fates be praised, never actually expressing it. A tome could be written on the fascination of the fine supple cloths, soft satins, the broches alike of wool and silk, together with the lovely velours, delaines and that great triumph, velours de soie.

There is a slight feeling in some quarters for checks, more particularly shepherds' plaids. But it is doubtful if these stay. Stripes, on the other hand, may have a longer existence, though these would need to be of more or less striking character to attract universal attention. The lead—and it is an easy one—will be taken up by a melange of materials, and the extremes in which the fancy may attain only time can show.

Coats are long, short, straight and banded. There are bolero fronts and swallow-tail backs and bolero backs and coat fronts, and the dearest little semi-fitting affairs that are just drawn in to define the figure at the waist in front by a fancy ornament. The Modici collar is well established, and is proving a helpful ally to women just a little past the pride of their first youth. The Robespierre is still with us, though sharing favors with an up and down collar that just misses being a Napoleon. The most infinite care and consideration is being accorded the finish of necks and also the cut and style of sleeves.

Daily Menu

Table with 2 columns: Meal and Items. Includes FRIDAY: BREAKFAST: Scrambled Eggs, Coffee, Wheat Cakes, Syrup. DINNER: Cream of Potato Soup, Baked Shad, Saratoga Potatoes, Rice Pudding. SUPPER: Strawberry Shortcake, Wafers, Tea. Potato Soup—Slice six large potatoes and boil until tender; mash fine and rub through a colander into the soup-kettle; add one quart sweet milk. When it boils, add noodles or cracker crumbs. Season the soup to taste and serve. Saratoga Potatoes—Shave them thin, soak in cold or ice water 20 or 30 minutes, drain, dry in a towel, and fry in boiling fat until light brown; when done, drop them on unglazed paper to absorb the extra fat, sprinkle with salt and serve hot. An extra touch may be given the plain boiled rice pudding by placing each portion in a saucer, dotting with apple jelly, and a spoonful of whipped cream.

Manager Deneau Expects to Clean Up the Whole Series, However—Reilly, a New Pitcher, Arrived With the Team Last Night, While Schmitt Is Expected Today.

BY JINX. Manager Deneau and the other members of the London baseball club, accompanied by a pitcher named Reilly, who was signed up following his release by Amey Kane, arrived in the city last evening and will remain here until Monday morning.

String Falkenberg, Champion Come-Back

FRED FALKENBERG.

Baseball's champion come-back is the human string, Fred Falkenberg, leading pitcher of the American League with eight straight victories. Finally, in the "shake-up" following Charlie Somers' purchase of the Toledo team as a Cleveland farm, Falkenberg was sent to the American Association in Toledo, where he had a great season in Toledo, perfecting the fade-away ball, which has had much to do with Christ Mathewson's success.

Falkenberg was called back to Cleveland when Manager Birmingham saw how good he was and this spring has proved to be the star not only of the Cleveland team, but of the American League.

HORSE TALK

SAINTS EASY FOR SENATORS

Ottawa Ran Away With the Last Game of the Series by Score of 15 to 5—Howick Was Hammered Hard.

Ottawa, May 21.—The last game of the St. Thomas series was a runaway for Ottawa. Reifer held the visitors to four hits, and the slugging Senators banged Harry Howick's offerings to all parts of the place.

BERLIN COULD NOT HIT GARLOW

Hamilton's Indian Pitcher Was Puzzle to the Keenan Krew While Ward Was Hammered Hard—Score Was 10 to 5.

Hamilton, May 21.—Big Chief Garlow had the Berlin team eating out of his hand this afternoon, and the Kolts won the last game of the series by the score of 10 to 5. Hamilton held a one-run lead in the seventh inning, and just to seal up the game tight, Marty Killie, Hamilton's speedy second-sacker, smeared a drive to the right-field fence for three bases, driving in two runs.

PIRATES WIN TWO STRAIGHT GAMES

Defeated Brooklyn Again Yesterday in Second of Series.

Brooklyn, May 21.—Pittsburg made it two straight in the series with Brooklyn today by breaking up the inner defence of the locals in the eighth. The score was tied at 2 to 2 when Viox opened that inning with a Texas League. Four sacrifice bunts in a row followed, Bagon and Smith making wild throws of the first two. Byrne and Miller worked a squeeze play on the fourth hit. Miller scoring. Score: PITTSBURG, 4; BROOKLYN, 2.

MONTREAL ROYALS BEAT BALTIMORE

Bunched Hits on Shawkey in First Innings—Buffalo Won a Game From Newark.

Montreal, May 21.—Montreal bunched hits on Shawkey in two innings and defeated Baltimore 4 to 1. Baltimore's only run was due to errors by Lennox and Cunningham. Lennox was spiked by Capron in the first inning and compelled to retire. Score: MONTREAL, 4; BALTIMORE, 1.

BUFFALO BEAT NEWARK

Buffalo, May 21.—Buffalo won back the game lost to Newark in their first meeting, today's score being 6 to 2. Both teams hit about the same in numbers, but the Buffs slammed the sphere at most opportune times with men on bases.

STOVAL WILL BE REINSTATED ON CERTAIN TERMS

[Canadian Press.] Chicago, May 22.—The termination of the suspension of George Stovall, manager of the St. Louis Americans, will be a matter of his own decision probably today. President B. B. Johnson, of the American League, announced last night that he had sent letter to President Hedges of the St. Louis Americans, saying that he was prepared to reinstate Stovall on compliance with certain conditions. The nature of these conditions Mr. Johnson declined to make known in advance of their receipt by the St. Louis club manager. He said Mr. Hedges would undoubtedly make public the contents of the letter today. Stovall has been out of the game three weeks, following his dispute with Umpire Ferguson.

ST. LOUIS OUTHIT, BUT WON

New York, May 21.—St. Louis won its second successive game from New York today by 4 to 3. Umpire head St. Louis, Jersey City at Rochester; rain. Games Today: Providence at Toronto, Newark at Buffalo, Jersey City at Rochester, Baltimore at Montreal.

GUELPH CLUB AFTER SOME GOOD PITCHERS

Manager Cook Has Signed Up Couple Who Are Well Recommended. Guelph, May 21.—President Mahoney and Manager Cook are sparing no effort to strengthen the weak pitching staff of the Maple Leafs. They have had the wires busy for the past two or three days, and have succeeded in landing two more pitchers, who will report at Ottawa tomorrow. One is Edmond Stark of New London, Conn., who is highly recommended by President Navin, of Detroit, and the other is Bailey, of New York City, recommended by Joe Kelley, of Toronto. They are still looking for more good pitchers.

TWO BATTING RALLIES

Boston, May 21.—Chicago won again from Boston today by 6 to 5. Reubach held the locals safe up to the eighth inning, when he was driven from the box and Boston succeeded five runs off him and Chicago in the ninth inning missed a double, two singles and a home run, the latter by Zimmerman, for four tallies, and bunched hits off Hess in two other sessions for single runs. Score: CHICAGO, 6; BOSTON, 5.

POOR COACHING BLAMED FOR DEFEAT OF JESS WILLARD

San Francisco Fistic Followers Blame Tom Jones for the Defeat.

San Francisco, May 21.—Followers of the fistic game in San Francisco are inclined to hold Tom Jones responsible in a measure for the defeat of Jess Willard in his 20-round bout with Gunboat Smith last night.

Smith, on the other hand, was carefully coached throughout the bout and the clever handling he received from his corner helped him materially.

Seconds Quarrel.

During the latter part of the bout Willard's seconds started a wrangle.

ODDS ON AMERICAN POLO TEAM SHORTENING

English Team Makes Such a Good Impression That Betting on Match Is Getting Down to Even Money.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, May 22.—Odds on the American polo team for the coming international matches against the English four at Meadow Brook are rapidly shortening.

This marked decrease in the odds as offered by the supporters of the cup defenders is due to the impression made by the English players and their ponies since their arrival at Piping Rock Club for practice.

The Long Island Country Club colonies contain a large number of expert polo critics, and they have been impressed with the ability of the invading players.

In the practice to date the teams consisting of Captains Cheape, Edwards, Ritson and Lockett with A. M. Freaks as reserve, has shown wonderful team play and riding.

Top—Catcher Ira Thomas, Connie Mack, Pitcher Brown. Second row—"Home Run" Baker and Eddie Collins, sliding back to first. Bottom row—Eddie Murphy, sensational Young outfielder, and "Stuffy" McInnes.

Determined to win the American League pennant this year or know why, Connie Mack took his Athletics to Cuba last winter and made them play ball when good ball players were resting on their laurels and letting the home folks admire them.

This drastic treatment had its effect. Bender, suspended last season for going on benders, and Rube Oldring, who also broke training, are again starting and the team is playing ball that wins and fans.

A deep study of the Canadian League standing impresses us with the fact that Anby Kane and Rube Deneau have joined a conspiracy to keep Peterboro out of last place.

We have not withdrawn that offer to buy the Kellys. But if that Hamilton team keeps up there on top very long, the needs of those Hamilton sporting editors will become so enlarged there won't be a Kelly big enough to fit 'em.

The St. Thomas Journal copies our little items about the two men who are at work on the new grandstand, and appends the following little "come-back" on the bottom of our paragraph about the ladder:

Commodore Perry, of the 'Tiser, is said to have been lurking around the diamond on this very afternoon in search of 20 cents he lost during the London-St. Thomas series. We have our suspicions as to where that ladder went.

We really didn't steal the ladder, but if it is the same one by which the St. Thomas club climbed to the top of the Canadian League we will go after it tonight and present it to Manager Deneau.

NOTHING SENSATIONAL AT WOODBINE TODAY

None of the Horses Were Put to Any Severe Tests.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, May 22.—There was nothing very sensational in the workouts at the Woodbine this morning. Maudslow worked a mile and a quarter in 2:17. This is a creditable work, considering the condition of the track. Rockspring went the distance in 2:21, and Goldard, from the Gorman stable, 2:22. The other charges were not put to any severe tests, but will get their final preparations tomorrow.

ONE WONDERFUL NIGHT

BY LOUIS TRACY.

Be that as it may, at twenty minutes to eight, he put what he owed, lighted a cigar, donned his hat, and, still carrying the overcoat, was walking to the office to leave word about the key, when his attention was attracted by the peculiar behavior of the man who had pushed against him at the cigar counter.

This person, apparently obeying a signal from another man of the same type who had just emerged from the elevator, hastened from the cafe, and the two ran toward the door, the weather had been to the door. Now, the weather had been to the door. Now, the weather had been to the door.

At that instant the two foreigners sprang into the air, swinging the porter off his feet, seized the newcomer's right arm, and, helped by the porter, endeavored to force him back into the vehicle. The effort failed, however, as the second detective drew a knife and plunged it into the unfortunate man's neck. It was a fearsome stroke, intended both to silence and to punish the man who had committed the crime. The man, who had been in the grip of his assailants, collapsed in the grip of his assailants, and his head struck the pavement.

[Canadian Press.]

Boston, May 21.—The fight over the leases of the United Shoe Machinery Company, which promises to become the feature of the Government's suit to dissolve the company, started with a probe of the leases used before the organization of the combination at the resumption of the trial in the United States district court today.

A socialist was explaining to a friend the principles of the movement, and made the remark that all positions should be shared equally. His friend applied the principle by asking the socialist if he had two horses, would he give him one?

"Of course," was the reply.

"And if you had two cows, would you give me one of them?"

"Most certainly I would."

"Well, now," said the friend slowly, "supposing you had two pigs, would you give me one?"

"Eh, that's gettin' over near home, for they know I've got two pigs," was the reply.

VEGETABLES FEATURE OF THE HOLIDAY MARKET

Potatoes Scarce, and Prices Went Up—Dairy Market One of Largest for Some Time.

The expectations of the buyers and the majority of the farmers were reached on the local market today, as the weather was such that a large number of the farmers living at a distance from the city were prevented from attending the market.

The dairy market was larger than usual, and the dairy hall was crowded with farmers' wives, who had a large supply of butter and eggs for sale.

Apples, as usual, were offered in fairly large quantities, but the prices were not firm, as the demand is decreasing and the farmers are afraid of having a surplus left on their hands.

Hay and Oats. The supply of hay and oats was small today, and it is expected that a large supply will be offered on Friday to satisfy the demand which is becoming acute.

Pressed hogs were in great demand, but as the supply was small there was an increase in the prices. The extreme quotations were $12 and $12.50 per cwt., and the average selling price was about $13.40.

It is quite likely that West London will not get a breakwater this summer. At a meeting of the West London Progressive Association held in Collins' Hall Wednesday night, on motion of Mr. E. A. Pocock, seconded by Mr. Edward Pudney, Jun., it was decided to appoint a committee to inquire into and discuss the advisability of holding a picnic in Platt's grove, some time during July, and also to be enthusiastic about the proposition and the following committee was appointed: Messrs. Irish Leader Says Conditions Are the Worst He Has Ever Seen.

Relief Fund Used to Try and Give Temporary Aid to Sufferers.

London, May 21.—"An Irish Putumayo" is the description applied by Sir Roger Casement to conditions in South Connemara. The islanders are suffering from a famine fever, the Irish Independent has opened a subscription to which Sir Roger contributes this letter, written from London. "I have heard of the appalling state of things in Connemara owing to the absence of anything like civilized government in that part of the world.

Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, yesterday visited the islanders with some other Irish officials. They called at the house of John Lee, whose 11-year-old boy died of fever on April 28, and another of whose sons was removed to Oughterard Hospital, thirty miles away. As Mr. Birrell's car drew up, the "keen" of the afflicted mother was heard as she sat outside the door of the hotel rocking herself to and fro.

Many Hopeless.
"How shall you get on when this is gone?" he was asked. "Musha, I don't know," he replied in Irish. "We must try to live on somehow," and cast his eyes around his two acres of rock. He has a half-dozen potatoes in the house.

Extensive Plans for Theological Development Under Way at Montreal.

Montreal, May 21.—The four Protestant colleges now in Montreal have completed plans for a new half-million dollar building. Last fall a scheme of the kind was adopted by the trustees and the result was so satisfactory that a central building erected by the Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists will be rushed to completion.

baccalaureate address. His subject was "Education and Religion." The university is the intellectual ecclesia, and the church is the spiritual ecclesia," he said. "The university must not be merely secular, nor the religious education merely spiritual. Secular education without religion resulted only in devilish ingenuity, and the search for truth became only a devil's dance through space. Religion has not only made the world divine, but it has also made it blessed, the world, but it has also cursed it." The church cannot get along without the functions of the university, neither can the university get along without the functions of the church; he stated. "And I am glad that the Western University had its origin in a theological college."

Blackfoot, Idaho, May 22.—Peter Bradovitch, an insane Austrian, confined in the Southern Idaho Insane Asylum here, killed his five room-mates today by beating them on the head with a table when asleep. Bradovitch was committed to the insane asylum two years ago from the state penitentiary, where he was serving a life sentence for murder.

Parts of Wealthy Clubman's Body Found in Sewer. [Canadian Press.]
Madrid, May 22.—A gruesome crime has been unearthed here. The victim was a well-known clubman, Garcia Jalon, who disappeared two weeks ago after winning a thousand dollars at cards. Portions of Jalon's body have just been found in a sewer near the military college near the quarters occupied by Captain Sanchez and his daughter. The police allege that Sanchez's daughter lured Jalon to their quarters and killed the aid of her father, robbed and murdered him. Both have been arrested. The police further allege that Sanchez has a bad record, and that they fail to understand how he obtained a position in the military college.

THE SOLAR PLEXUS A GREAT NERVE CENTRE

With the single exception of the brain itself, the solar plexus is the most important nerve centre in the human body.

Situated just back of the stomach and close to the spinal cord, the solar plexus supplies the motor nerves to the vital organs. Injury to or weakness of the solar plexus consequently means incapacity of the vital organs of the body. This explains why a blow which reaches the solar plexus means helplessness to the person receiving it.

These nerve centres all demand an enormous quantity of good, rich blood, and failing to get this, the nerve cells are starved and depleted, and fail to supply vital energy to the digestive and eliminating organs.

The wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in revitalizing and reconstructing the broken-down nervous system is due to the fact that it supplies the material to nerve cells through the medium of the blood stream.

Weakness of the stomach, failure of the liver and kidneys to filter the blood, inactivity of the bowels and feelings of fatigue and discouragement usually arise from an exhausted condition of the nervous system. The nerve centres, such as the solar plexus, have not the nerve force to work the machinery of the body.

The most natural treatment imaginable is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and its benefits are lasting, because it actually rebuilds the wasted and broken-down nerve cells.

THE KING AND HIS MOTHER

An interesting Snapshot From Our Correspondent in England—Notice That Queen Alexandra, Though 69, Does Not Look Older Than the King, Who Is 48.

Younger Queen Alexandra still retains her youth and beauty. This photograph of the Queen Mother and King George of England was taken within the last week, just as they were leaving the home of the Duchess of Connaught who is critically ill. Note the fact that King George is not much taller than his mother who, while she does not subscribe to current fashions, has an air of graciousness which would make her observed anywhere.

STORIES OF KING EDWARD BY HIS MOTOR EXPERT: HIS LIKES AND DISLIKES

King Was Fond of Speed—An Inveterate Smoker—A Hatred of Onions.

Mr. C. W. Stamper, whose "What I Know: Reminiscences of Five Years' Personal Adventure Upon His Late Majesty King Edward VII., as Just Published (Doubleday & Co., 10s. 6d. net), has written a book of small talk about King Edward. When royalty first took up motoring, it was deemed that the cars should be driven by constables of the Metropolitan Police, and Mr. Stamper was called in to train the new chauffeurs. He was then appointed motor expert to the King and invariably accompanied him on his motor trips.

He has nothing new to tell us of the broad outlines of King Edward's character. His gossip about the King as a motorist, however, has novelty. Of the King's cars in general he tells us: "All the King's cars were painted the same color. This was a rich claret. It was a distinctive shade and very difficult to match. I have seldom seen any other car of exactly the same hue. They were all trimmed with plain blue morocco, and there was no decoration of any kind. For the sake of convenience, they were fitted with electric light inside, but this the King seldom used, and if I had turned it on as he always switched it off as soon as he had entered the car.

of onions is another little fact revealed in this book. One day he had caught several of his attendants with the smell of onions on their breath. He had reprimanded one after another on account of this. Then: "The courier entered the room. He approached very warily, but his majesty's sense of smell was keen, and all Mr. Feh's efforts to suppress the facts of the case were unavailing. The King looked up sharply and sat back in his chair. "I'm damned if you haven't been eating onions, too!" "I'm afraid, perhaps, the chef must have put some into the soup, your majesty." "Tell the chef he's not to put onions into the soup." "Yes, your majesty." "I won't have my servants eating onions. It's disgusting."

Not a Model. King Edward, we are told, loved speed though he was always angry at reckless driving through towns and villages. He was, however, by no means a model to his subjects on the open road. The court equester told Mr. Stamper that he must not exceed 30 miles an hour and if the King complained, he must put on speed for the moment and then gradually slow down again. That the injunction came from London to Newcastle the ash-tray attached to the car by his side was nearly always full.

South America as Seen by James Bryce; Great Nations in Making. From the Nation, London, England. "South America: Observations and Impressions." [By James Bryce. (Macmillan, 8s. 6d. net.) Mr. Bryce tells us that this book is the record of a four months' holiday that he spent in South America during a couple of years ago. Never was a holiday so well spent, for no book has ever been written about South America to be compared with it—in scope and interest. Essentially, it is now and as of the "continent" as it is in the future. Unlike his "American Commonwealth," it is not a minute study of purely political conditions. For one thing, South American political life is as yet too fluid and unformed to lend itself to close analysis; outside the larger Republics, it has been too closely controlled by faction, intrigue, and violence. For another thing, he was in contact with the political life of the continent, and he was in contact with the political life of the continent, and he was in contact with the political life of the continent.

is necessary for his purpose; the fuller treatment of trade subjects he leaves to the experts, who write professedly for the business man. It is South America as "a new fact in the world" in which he is principally interested. The new fact is the gradual emergence of a new civilization, derived from Southern Europe, but still distinctive from that of Spain and Italy. Just as the distinctive civilization of English-speaking North America differs from that of England. Still more, it is the emergence of a new race as a result of the fusion between the White Man, the Indian, and to a less extent, the Negro. South America is the only part of the world in which the fusion of races is going on unchecked by law or custom. The book is partly one of travel; partly an essay upon the social and political conditions of South America. But with Mr. Bryce, the traveler, we never part company with Mr. Bryce, the historian and philosopher. He describes, as few men could, the tropical forest, the mighty Andes, the desert, the pampas, the many-colored cities, with a certainty of phrase and image that kindles a sense of immedi-

466 Chances to Make Money

There is money in every lot in Patricia Heights. This piece of property on Portage avenue west is beautifully wooded, and will make ideal home sites as Winnipeg's growth forces the residential section into the outlying districts. Portage avenue is the main outlet by which Winnipeg's population goes to the suburbs.

PATRICIA HEIGHTS

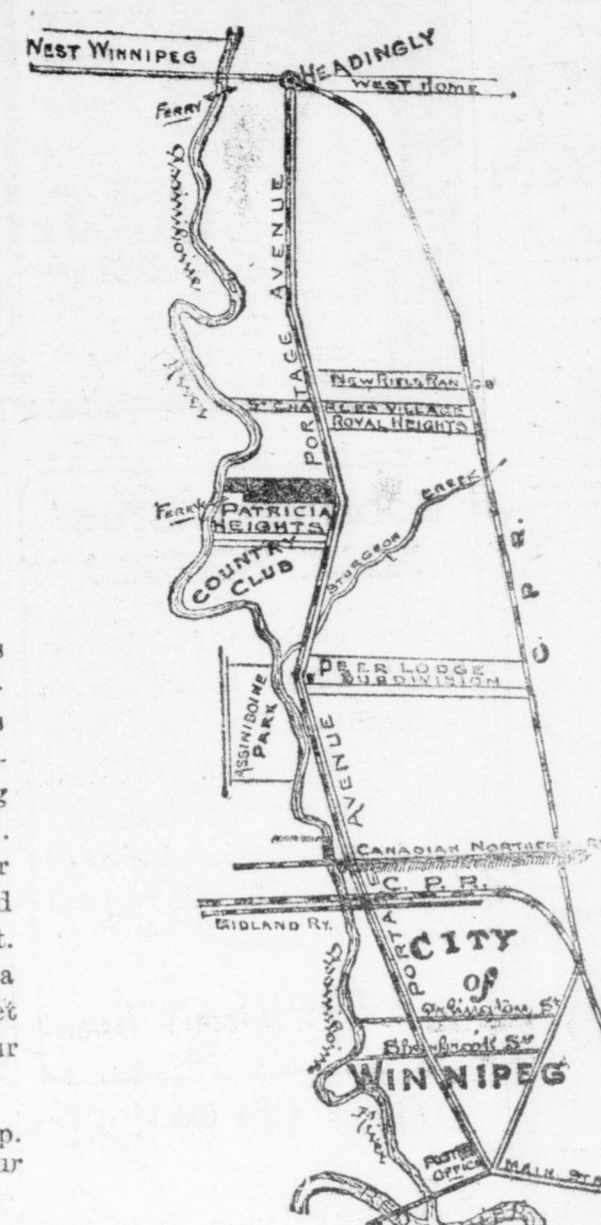

Is a good investment because it lies between Portage avenue and the Assiniboine River, in the path of Winnipeg's growth. Portage avenue is the main retail street in Winnipeg. It is now being paved to St. Charles (past our property). Portage avenue has the best street car service. Portage avenue runs east and west. All towns in the West grow west. Now is the time to invest. Patricia Heights has just been put on the market for the first time, and you have your choice of lots.

Prices range from $10 per foot up. Our sales plan is simplicity itself, and our terms are all that you could ask.

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTY. Esther: I was glad to read that you are recommending my almond wrinkle-removing jelly recipe to your friends. The shampoo recipe you ask for consists only of 1 teaspoonful of castor oil dissolved in a cup of hot water. It lathers freely and will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and make the head feel good. By shampooing the hair with castor oil every two or three weeks it will remain soft and fluffy. Castor oil also relieves itching and irritation of the scalp. (If troubled with dandruff read answer to Elsie.)

Worried: Waste no time on liquid preparations. Use a delay wash made by mixing together powdered borax and water. Apply to hair not wanted, and in two or three minutes rub thoroughly dissolved. This is a quick, harmless method, but be sure you get the borax into an original package.

Mrs. G.: Try proxin on your eyebrows, and you will be delighted on how thickly they will grow. By the same treatment you can make short, straggly eyelashes come in long and curly. Apply the proxin at lash-roots with thumb and forefinger. You can make proxin in a small, original package, but be careful and don't get any where no hair is wanted.

Birdie: I agree with you. A bright, clear, youthful face is always attractive and admired. Most girls neglect to give the eyes proper care. Very few use an eye-cream, which I think essential in car-tiling for the eyes. I have found the following tonic to be the best for weak, tired and inflamed eyes: Go to your druggist and get one ounce of erythrol and dissolve it in a pint of water. Use two or three drops a pint of water. Use two or three drops a pint of water. Use two or three drops a pint of water. Use two or three drops a pint of water.

Beulah: You are not the only girl with a sallowness and oily skin who cannot find a face powder that pleases her. But you need not despair. There are other aids to beauty more satisfactory than face powder and the use of washes is becoming more popular everywhere. Here is a recipe for a wash that when used seems part of the skin that you can make at home and will cost much less than any manufactured brand. Dissolve 4 ounces of spermax in a half-pint of witch hazel or hot water and add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This will make a complexion-beautifier that whitens and softens the skin without the use of powders, and it also tends to remove pimples, tan and freckles.

types, may there be thence expected any new contribution to the world's stock of thought, of literature, or art? From this mixture of Spaniard, Italian, Indian, and Negro will there arise some great thinker, or poet, or artist? There is no reason why this should not happen. There is great vitality and virility in the Spanish-American peoples. The fusion of the colonial Spaniard with the aboriginal Indian has not resulted in a race inferior to the stronger parent stock. Mr. Bryce points to Europe "in the welter of the tenth century"; art and letters, freedom and order seemed to have vanished from the earth. "Yet out of that welter what glories of art and letters were to arise!"

SCOTTISH CANDOR. A story of Scottish candor comes from Dundee. A small boy had taken the prize for an exceptionally well drawn map. After the examination the teacher, a little doubtful, asked the lad: "Who helped you with this map, James?" "Nobody, sir." "Come, now, tell me the truth. Didn't your brother help you?" "No, sir; he did it all."

A MAD BUSINESS. A severe criticism of the new policy of arming our merchantmen is made by a shipowner in the Daily News. "So far as arming British liners to protect our food supplies from overseas is concerned, I need only point out that in the vast bulk of our food is brought in by 'tramps.' Arming them is a big waste of money, with guns and a grievance, might precipitate a big war, while Sir Edward Grey was having. It's a mad business. Great warships of pirates and privateers," the Baron merchantman to be armed is the Arsenal of the Royal Mail Line.

Acute Sickness Caused Death of Catherine Mingo
 Physicians Believe That Something Poisonous May Have Ruptured Stomach.
 Rupture of the stomach, the result of an acute dilation, was given as the cause of death by the physicians who performed an autopsy on the body of Catherine Mingo, the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. Annie Mingo, 848 Dundas street.
 The girl was found in an unconscious condition in the rear yard of the home of Mrs. M. Timbrell, corner of Dufferin avenue and Adelaide streets, Tuesday afternoon, and died six hours later at her home without gaining consciousness.
 The cause of the dilation is unknown at present, but according to the physicians who performed the autopsy it may have been caused by something eaten by the girl.
 The physicians who performed the autopsy were Drs. Mugan, Lindsay, Hodgins and Spicer.

FOUR CUBANS SENT BACK TO STATES
 Cigarmakers Were Found Guilty of Violating Dominion Immigration Act.
CAME IN BY SARNIA
 Entered Canada on an Excursion, Without Baggage, in Order to Deceive Officers.
 Felix Tosan, Rafael Mendes Garcia, Damaso Ramon, and Modesto Lopez, Cuban cigarmakers employed at the Kelly cigar factory, were arrested on Wednesday by Travelling Immigration Inspector Reynolds, of Ottawa, and Wm. Clydesdale, of Windsor, and charged before Police Magistrate Judd with a violation of the immigration act. The case was heard in camera on Wednesday afternoon, and the men, after pleading guilty, were ordered deported at 8:20 p.m.
 On May 8 the men left Detroit on an excursion without baggage, and evaded the immigration officers at Sarnia.
 In some manner the officers at the border learned that the men were coming to Canada and traced their movements from the time they left Detroit.
 It was learned that they had kept under cover until they passed the officers at Port Huron. They then came on to London, where they received employment in Kelly's factory.
 The men were arrested by Detective Egelton, and after their trial were handed over to the immigration officers, who took them to Detroit on the 8:20 train.
