DIAZ SLIPS AWAY FROM MEXICO CITY

Dreary Departure of the Fallen Mexican Dictator.

WILL SAIL FOR SPAIN
Carefully Guarded by Few Friends and Troops For Fear of Bandits.

MEXICO CITY, May 26. Porfirio Diaz, for whom during 30 years all Mexico stood to one side, city today, but in hand, stole from the capital. Only a few devoted friends, whom he dared to trust, followed him to the station, and at 2 o'clock this morning, shortly after the celebration over his resignation had quieted down, Diaz was bound for Vera Cruz to take ship for Spain. In the distance he could hear the voices of a few of the more enthusiastic citizens who were still accompanying the new president, Francisco Leon de la Barra and shouting "Viva Madero!" So carefully were the arrangements made for the dictator's departure that the news did not transpire until late today. Secrecy was due less to apprehension of a popular outburst than to the desire to keep Diaz before marauders along the route could learn of the trip.

Travel between Mexico City and Vera Cruz usually is over the Mexican Railroad, a standard gauge line with modern equipment. But along this route, however, frequently have been removed of late by bandits, who were determined that Diaz, for reasons best known to themselves, should not leave the capital. They are reported to have harbored the idea that Diaz would follow the precedent of other Latin-American presidents and carry the national funds with him. There is also a narrow gauge railway, but this reason it was chosen by Diaz for his trip.

A Dreary Departure.
The general should have reached Vera Cruz this afternoon, but whether he arrived is not publicly known here. Newspaper correspondents at Vera Cruz long since gave up attempting to obtain information over the federal lines, particularly when their information had to do with the news which the government wished to remain in the dark. Presumably de la Barra has been informed of Diaz's movements, but their lips are sealed on every detail.

Gen. Diaz, still feeble from his illness and far from being a well man, left his home under dreary circumstances. Rain had fallen earlier in the night, and by the time the former president emerged from his house, the air was chilly. He was closely escorted by a small force of soldiers. The borrowed automobile was used. The trip to the San Lazaro station was made over unlighted streets. By a prearranged scheme, at the last moment, police were scattered along the way. At certain points close friends of the former chief executive, including those who are to

IGNORED COURT EDICT SNUBBED BY QUEEN

Another Account of That "Incident" at Royal Reception

PHILADELPHIA, May 26. — A special cable from London to the Times under the heading "Former Philadelphia Beauty Defies Queen's Edict" says: "Florence Queen Mary's ultra-prudish ideas on costume twice in one day. In the afternoon when she was escorted by royalty and in the evening when she was royally guest at a court ball, Mrs. Ava Willing Astor has set society amock by speculating on her probable social status during this court ball." The former Philadelphia beauty has two clear titles to the aversion of Queen Mary. She is an American and she is a divorced woman.

An Afternoon Snub.
She was a silver cloth, fitting her figure like a glove, and only just open in wide tabs at the feet to show showers of gold fringes over soft frills of buttercup yellow chiffon.

The royal snub was administered by the telephone, which Mrs. Astor was driving through Hyde Park. Her motor car was halted while Queen Mary passed near. She glared at Mrs. Astor as low as she could, being seated, of course. "Those who saw it say the Queen was none too far from her eyes in her acknowledgment of the salutation."

A JEWEL GIVEN PAST POTENTATE

Shriners Made a Presentation to Noble J. Milton Pike, of Chatham.

PARADE OF ARAB PATROL

Yesterday was Shriners' Day. The Nobles of the Red Fez, from the Oasis of London, assembled to add their semi-annual ceremonial session, and as is usually the case, there was a large attendance, and plenty of fun for all concerned. The afternoon meeting was devoted largely to business. There was a meeting of the candidates and the temple, together with much routine work, balloting on candidates and the like.

The business finished, the evening session was devoted altogether to putting on degrees, followed by an entertainment of the men, when they were made the recipients of a parade of the nobles. At 7:30 o'clock, Noble J. W. Metherall, the marshal, lined the Shriners up, and starting from the market square, they paraded the principal streets.

Among the visitors from out of town present at the session were: Nobles John S. Maine, Lud K. Cameron, John Dunlop, T. Webber Payne, Albert Macomb, C. C. Morrey, Jas. Pritchard, J. A. Gilpin, Thos. ANNUAL GATHERING OF LOBO S. SCHOOLS

Twenty-fourth Convention Held at Coldstream a Great Success.

The twentieth annual convention of the Lobo and East Williams Sunday School Association, was held at the Lobo Meeting House, Coldstream, on Tuesday, May 23rd. It was a remarkable occasion in many respects. The plain old meeting house took on a new aspect of beauty from the profusion of flowers tastefully grouped. Even the plain friend to beginning to suspect that beauty is a part of the divine gift. Although vocal music had on rare occasions been heard there, never before had the organ's tones resounded within its ancient walls. And the choir, created in a few weeks for the occasion, performed their part so accurately and admirably that they received much praise. The opening exercises, beginning at 2 p.m., were presided over by the Rev. Mr. Booth. He gave an insight into the lesson in the international series for May 23, Micah IV, first eight verses.

The Rev. E. W. Halpenny, general secretary of the Provincial Association, gave an admirable address on the subject, "From Twelve to Sixteen in the Sunday School."

Between the sessions a bountiful lunch was served and a general social time seemed to be freely indulged in by everyone. And the sociability is a by-product of the association, producing a better knowledge and closer acquaintance, which has effected the harmony between the two schools. The association work together in the association. P. Zavitz conducted the opening exercises of the evening session.

The report which the nominating committee brought in was adopted in toto.

John Alder is the president for the coming year. Doug Campbell and S. Brown, school visitors. The Baptist Church on townline between Lobo and East Williams, place of meeting.

Ella Zavitz, who was retained in the chairmanship, then gave her very full and admirable report of the provincial convention held last year at Ottawa, to which she was appointed delegate from this association.

Loren Zavitz recited "A Confession of Faith," which summed up all creeds and all religion in love to God and love to man.

Rev. Mr. Halpenny then gave his address on "The Kingdom Vision," as applied to the Sabbath school. He emphasized the importance of employing every means provided by the provincial organization to effect the greatest usefulness in the Sabbath school.

After singing "The Ever-Present Saviour," and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and passing a hearty vote of thanks to the friends and their pains in making everything as enjoyable as possible, one of the most successful conventions ever held by the association was closed by Rev. Mr. Halpenny in earnest prayer for greater zeal and even greater success in the glorious work of the future.

AYLMER.—Mr. 26.—At a meeting held last evening it was decided to circulate a petition to be presented to the council asking them to make an application for a Carnegie Library. The amount to be asked for will be $5,000. Another meeting will be held on Tuesday night with this matter will be held tonight.

Charles Sinclair has completed his course in medicine at Toronto University. He is now in the army and is with his father, Dr. C. Sinclair.

Dr. McEwen has returned home after spending a couple of days in Toronto.

David Rand, who received a blow on the right arm from a pickaxe in the hands of a fellow workman, while laying the high pressure pipe for the power plant last Tuesday afternoon, is getting along nicely.

LAMBETH.—Mr. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Dale, of Lambeth, celebrated their golden wedding, May 22. A large number of guests from the surrounding district, as well as many from out of town enjoyed the uncommon event.

Mr. Fred Best, of Spokane, Washington, is in the building of the new hotel, the Carlisle and Rutledge. The hotel is a fine one, and the collection of all kinds of labor are Country trade is getting better.

FINCH.—May 26.—An auto party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Union, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Brownsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glover on Sunday.

Mr. Ed Letch, of London, spent the week-end with friends in the village. Miss Clara Holden has returned from Syracuse to spend a few weeks at her home.

Mr. James Turner is improving. Mrs. John Steele visited Mr. and Mrs. Barber the past few days.

spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. H. Horton, Lethbridge, Alberta. Mr. Kenneth Black, of the Traders Bank, Springfield, visited here on the 24th.

The funeral of Mrs. Joanna Allen, of St. Thomas, took place to Fingal Cemetery on Thursday.

Miss Rumball, of London, was the guest of Miss Ethel Brush over Sunday.

A number of Miss Brush's friends of London gave her a surprise picnic at Port Talbot on the 24th.

Miss Jean McDermid, of London, spent the holiday with friends here.

Misses Crowe, of Al. College, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. Dewar. Mr. and Mrs. J. Krupp, of Port Talbot, visited Mr. and Mrs. Libert on Sunday.

Miss Florence Bugar, who has been librarian of the Methodist Sunday School, created in a few weeks with a signet ring by her classmates.

Mr. A. D. McPherson, of London, was a business caller this week.

At the W. H. S. S. last Thursday, a very interesting paper was read by Miss Barber, of Lawrence. The society requested Mrs. McLarty, the opening exercises, beginning at 2 p.m.

Misses M. and L. McLennan spent the Sunday with their parents here.

Mr. James Black, Jun., was on a business trip to Chatham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Casey, of St. Thomas, spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferguson.

Mrs. John Fortin is lying very low, having suffered a paralytic stroke on Wednesday. The family have been sent for, and Miss Mary Martin, a nurse from Indiana, arrived home Friday morning.

Mrs. M. McPhail has returned from spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Partridge, who has a young son.

NILESTOWN.—A number of school boys and girls of this place had rather an exciting adventure on the 24th. They had gone down to the Thames to fish, and had gone east as far as Mr. Topham's place, when a young man who had a boat offered to take them across. One boatful had gone out, and returned, and then the rest, six in all, took their turn, and when coming back the boat gave a lurch and some of them, being frightened, caused it to rock more, so that the water began to pour in, and the boat sank. Fortunately they were near shore and a good ducking ensued. They were very near the place where it will be remembered, a young man, named Smith was drowned about ten years ago.

Fishing was slow on the 24th, there being few good catches. The town was quite brilliantly illuminated with fireworks, rockets, etc., in the evening.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles Walker, of Howe, Ind., are home for vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Scott, of London, were guests here last Sunday.

The weekly day service on the 21st was well attended and a very enthusiastic programme was given. The speakers were Messrs. Gibson and Jeffery, both superintendents of London Methodist Sunday schools. These, with the beautiful songs, happy faces, and inspired singing of the school, made a very memorable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wallace, of London, were guests at Mr. A. O. Hart's last Sunday.

A meeting for electing officers for the Sunday school was held on Wednesday evening, May 18, and rather a unique feature of the result of the same is in the fact that the whole staff of officers were ladies.

ALVINGTON.—Among those in town over the holidays were: Miss Alma Gray, of Toronto; Miss Edith E. Graham, Stratford; W. E. Burke, London; A. McKellar, of the Merchants' Bank staff, London; and Mrs. E. H. McLean, and daughter, Miss Mary Acton, W. McKellar, Miss Tena Rice, Misses Jennie and Sadie McPhail, all of London; C. Hillman, of Detroit; R. J. McCormick, member for East Lambton.

CLANBOYNE.—Mr. 26.—Mr. A. C. Casey, of C. T. R. agent, has returned after his two weeks' holiday at Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of London, were guests here last Sunday.

The weekly day service on the 21st was well attended and a very enthusiastic programme was given. The speakers were Messrs. Gibson and Jeffery, both superintendents of London Methodist Sunday schools. These, with the beautiful songs, happy faces, and inspired singing of the school, made a very memorable day.

LORD LANSDOWNE EXPLAINS HIS SCHEME

Bishops and Law Lords.

Lord Lansdowne went on to say that the princes of the blood would retain their seats as at present. The thought it right and proper that the lords spiritual should be represented in the re-constituted House of Lords, and that the archbishops and bishops sit at all of right, and that there should be five bishops elected by the full body of the archbishops and bishops under order in council on a system of triennial rotation. The House remained generally described as the law lords. Their proposal was that a peer who holds, or has held, any office described as a high judicial office under the appellate jurisdiction of the House of Lords, since 1881, should be a lord of Parliament during his life. Under this scheme the Lord Chancellor, the ex-lord chancellor, the lord chief justice, the ex-law officers, who

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, through this unnatural action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. John Thompson, Mill Cove, N.B., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I have been troubled with weakness and palpitation of the heart; would have severe choking attacks which could scarcely be got over at all. I tried many remedies but got none to answer my case like your pills did. I can recommend their high use to all sufferers from heart trouble."

LACE-TRIMMED HAT IS THE LATEST VOGUE

The keynote of fashionable head wear is lace, as shown in photograph. The hat should be of dark straw to form an effective background for the delicate tracery of the lace. In the hat above, dark blue straw is trimmed and rimmed with white Irish lace. A pouf of fluffy white feathers completes the coiffure.

CHAPTER XXV.

The Words on the Stone.

When Val R. Montague came to the point in his story at which he was present at the death of Richmond Carrington, he paused, and looked around him with a strange expression on his face. He was alone, and the only sound was the rustle of the wind in the trees. He had been thinking of the death of Carrington, and of the strange things that had happened since that time. He had been thinking of the strange things that had happened since that time. He had been thinking of the strange things that had happened since that time.

He had been thinking of the strange things that had happened since that time. He had been thinking of the strange things that had happened since that time. Of Interest To Women

What One Girl Wants to Know

Dear Miss Grey: (1) How should a young girl wear her hair? (2) How long should her dresses be? (3) How can I make a light hair switch darker to match my hair? (4) Please send me a letter to a boy. (5) I have been going with a young man for seven months. He comes to see me. Do you think he comes too often? (6) How should a 14-year-old girl wear her hair? (7) Will colored hose be worn this summer? (8) How should a girl start a letter to a boy? (9) Dear So-and-So, or My Dear So-and-So? (10) Is it proper for a married woman who was a very popular girl before she was married, to stop on the street and talk for a few minutes to a gentleman who was one of the many beaux she had when single? (11) What will get rid of bedbugs? (12) If she is well developed, should she wear her hair in the prevailing style for young women. (13) From 4 to 6 inches from the floor. (14) By using a reliable dye. I do not advise it, however, for amateur efforts at failure. Better take it to a professional. (15) Thursday. (16) He probably admires you, else he would not come so often. (17) If he proposes and you accept, you will be quite likely married. (18) Parted, rolled at the sides, braided in one or two braids and tied with white ribbon. (19) Yes. (20) Entirely proper. (21) Locate places where the rats go into the house and fill deeply with absorbent cotton, moistened with formaldehyde. (22) Use plaster of paris. (23) Take furniture out of doors and scour with hot suds. Then cover with a gasolene-soaked cloth. (24) Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide. Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide. Use gasolene and kerosene oil in crevices where the pests hide.

RECIPES

In Buying Potatoes.

In buying potatoes for cooking those that have been grown in light, loamy soil are best. Measurability is the desideratum for potatoes. The best are those which, when baked, are soft and fluffy. The rather small, hard and waxy yellow potatoes. In general the yellow potato has a richer taste than the white, but it is not so digestible.

In Addition to the commonplace methods of preparing potatoes, such as baking, boiling and frying, with their variations, there are any number of little culinary tricks and turnings which may be introduced to give the dish the appearance at least of a decided change in its presentation.

Banana Recipes.

A simple pudding is made from a custard of yolks of 3 eggs to a quart of milk, slightly sweetened. When the custard is thick, cream is poured over thin slices of banana in a pudding dish or on top and brown slightly in oven. Serve cold with cream.

Sliced bananas mixed with cornstarch just before it stiffens and served with fresh strawberry sauce are delicious.

Baked bananas are sometimes used as a vegetable. Peel and cut in half lengthwise. Divide in half. To each banana, allow a tablespoonful of sugar, 2 tablespoonfuls each of lemon juice and melted butter and a pinch of salt.

WOMAN RIDES THE BUMPERS.

There was a negro woman in Dover who wouldn't think of paying railroad fare between that place and this city, says the Mayville (Ky.) Bulletin. She came along and boards it with the same ease as does a brakeman or a professional hobo, and rides the bumper. She makes the round trip from Dover and return and does it quite frequently.

BEAUTY QUERIES ANSWERED

Scales in Eyebrows.

W. H. - Keep the cream I am giving you, on the eyebrows night and day, possible until the condition you mention is entirely cured. Use a wash cloth when bathing your face to avoid setting water on the brows until the cure. Calomel, 5 grains; sulphur, 1 dram; Oil of Cade, 1/2 dram; rose ointment sufficient to make one ounce.

Lines at Mouth and Eyes.

W. F. Smith - The directions for the treatment you require are rather lengthy to print today, as we have so many to answer. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question, I will at once mail you printed directions for facial massage and treatment.

Pine Needle Baths.

R. B. M. - Buy a quart of pine needles from any drugstore, tie them in a muslin bag; place this in your bath tub and cover with boiling water. Let stand for five minutes, then add the water sufficiently to be comfortable and it is ready for your use.

FINE ORIENTAL EMBROIDERY

Devotees of the embroidery needle will be pleased to learn and put to good use the new wrinkle of the two-sided embroidery.

Embroideries, scarfs and tunics, or even fans, can be enhanced by having both sides of the embroidery show up equally well.

It requires a deal of patience and a little trouble to acquire accuracy in the stitches, but then one is rewarded in being able to do the National Review, a publication issued from Shanghai, China. The periodical is manifestly a "China for the Chinese" organ, and its forces warmly attack Japan, Russia and the other powers that are encroaching on Chinese sovereign rights. All the chief embassies of the world seem to be summoned up in this cover design - official greed and incompetent foremen, exploiting newspapers, despised foreigners, amateur jumpers and others of the ilk. The device is described as follows in the Review:
